CARRUTHERS—MARCELLUS

A quiet wedding was solemnized by Rev. P. J. Thompson of Ottawa, on Thursday August 11th, when Miss Iva Kathleen Marcellus of Russell, became the bride of Mr. Andrew Carruthers of Nation Valley. The only attendants were Miss Edna Marcellus, sister of the bride and Mrs. T. Ross of Ottawa. Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers left immediately after the ceremony for an extended tour of the western provinces.

IROQUOIS GIRL INJURED IN AUTO MISHAP

Miss Dorothy Marcellus, aged 20, Iroquois, sustained a broken collarbone and a severe shaking up Tuesday afternoon, when the Sedan motor car in which she was a passenger, got beyond control on the provincial highway half a mile east of that village and turned turtle in the ditch. Her companion, Miss Marie Fleck, Georgetown, who was driving the car, escaped with slight injuries. The car was badly damaged.

PRESBYTERIAN GATHERING AT PRESCOTT

All roads led to Prescott on Monday, at least so it seemed to those Presbyterians within the Brockville Presbytery who are determined to remain loyal to the "Faith of Their Fathers."

The large gathering almost filled the Town Hall to capacity, and was composed of representatives from every congregation in the Presbytery with one or two exceptions.

The ensuing session was presided over by Rev. R. J. M. Glassford, president of the Presbyterian Association of Brockville Presbytery.

Addresses were delivered by that Stalwart of Presbyterianism, Rev. E Scott, D. D., of Montreal, Senator Reid, and Mr. Pelton of Montreal.

The impression made upon the minds of all present, not excepting the champions of union, must be, to quote imperfectly the words of Dr. Scott, "That though the passing of the Church Union Bill may give the United Church the power to confiscate the stone and lime they cannot confiscate our presbyterianism."

CARRUTHERS—BECKSTED

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday forenoon at ten o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon E. Becksted; when their eldest daughter Laura Evelyn became the bride of Wilfred A. Carruthers of Elma.

To the strains of Masons Wedding March, played by F. A. Becksted, the bridal couple entered the parlor, which was decorated with bridal roses and pinks.

The couple stood under an arch made of maiden-hair fern, vines, intertwined with white and pink flowers.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Howe of Metcalfe, their former pastor, after which a dainty breakfast was served.

The bride's gown was sandal-wood silk canton crepe trimmed with silk point-lace panel. She carried a spray bouquet of maiden-hair fern, gladoli, bridal and killarney roses.

Her travelling suit was of navy blue tricotine, with monica silk blouse.

The bride and groom left immediately after amid showers of confetti, for a motor trip to Batavia and Buffalo, returning by way of Niagara and Toronto.

On their return they will reside at their new home at Elma.

WITH THE BOWLERS

A rink of Chesterville bowlers was in Ottawa Saturday evening taking part in a tournament on the Central greens, when the experience was the most valuable prize lifted on the jaunt. The rink was skipped by Dr. Hutt and was made up of Alf. Morris, Geo. Shay and Henry Clarmont. The Central greens were not in very good shape for the occasion.

Friday night in the local competitions only one game was played when H. J. McMahon advanced a stage in the Second Competition when he won out from Dr. Hutt's rink.

The schedule is not being very well adhered to, there now being several games which should have been played some time ago and are holding up the conclusion of the Second and Third events.

While it is almost ancient history by this late date, Chesterville bowlers made a good showing at the Winchester tournament on Aug. 11th when three rinks from this town took part. A rink of this year's crop of bowlers, skipped by Geo. Lacey with Alf. Morris lead, George Shay second and Art. Robertson third ran into the finals in the main competition where they were beaten by only three shots by a Winchester rink, having the advantage of much practice on their own greens, after coming through successfully in games with Shannon of Brockville, "Jimie" Stewart of Winchester and Stone of Brockville in the order named.

Whitteker, the Optometrist, will be at Chesterville, Sept. 9th, at Finch Sept. 11th.

NEW BELL AT ST. MARY'S CHURCH

On Sunday the 10th, inst. was the scene of a unique ceremony in St. Mary's Church Chesterville, when His Grace, The Most Rev. Michael Joseph Spratt D. D., Archbishop of Kingston, performed the solemn blessing of a bell. Immediately after the 10 o'clock Mass, His Grace robed in full pontificals, assisted by his chancellor, the Rev. E. M. Leacy and Fr. Staley, respectively, proceeded to the entrance of the church and administered the blessing and annointment. Seldom or ever does such an event take place more than once in the history of a parish, but owing to a fire two years ago which destroyed the spire and its contents, the church being saved by the prompt action of our good citizens, the renewal of a bell became a necessity and was anxiously looked for by both priest and people. The large congregation which crowded the edifice to witness the sacred function was a distinct mark of the welcome and appreciation which the new bell received. The ceremony, similar to a baptism, consists of prayers imploring the blessing of God upon the part which the bell exercises in calling the flock to worship. It is washed within and without with water and salt mingled together, after receiving the exorcism. It is then christened with a male Saint's name and annointed with the Holy Oils. The sponsors, as is customary, make an offering. The whole congregation responded generously, placing as a votive contribution, over four hundred dollars upon the newly annointed. A record of the above is placed in the archives to remain in the history of the parish an edification and good example, set forth by the devoted people of St. Mary's to their offspring in generations to come.

MOREWOOD METHODIST CHURCH JUBILEE ANNIVERSARY

On Sunday Aug. 10th the fiftieth anniversary of the Methodist church was celebrated. Both morning and evening the church was filled to overflowing. Many visitors from distant places were present, and the sister church, the Presbyterian, was well represented as usual, Rev. Roy M. Pounder, M. A., S. T. L., of Chesterville, had charge of the morning and evening services. Both sermons were interesting, instructive and profound. During the morning Mr. Pounder asked those to stand, who were present at the dedication, when upwards of twenty responded. In addition to the congregational singing the choir rendered two anthems. Miss Ethel Danby sang a solo, and the male quartette gave two selections.

On the following Monday evening a very large crowd enjoyed a bountiful supper prepared by the members of the congregation under the direction of the Ladies' Aid. Congratulations for the ladies. While supper was being enjoyed bagpipers, Messrs. Jno. Carruthers and Norman Kenny pleased all with their music. After supper a well-filled church enjoyed a good programme. "How Firm a Foundation" was the opening number after which Rev. T. P. Shaver offered prayer. Interesting and entertaining addresses were delivered by Rev. Jno. A. Waddell, Winchester; Rev. T. P. Shaver, Brinston; Rev. Jas. Earle, B.A. Missionary to China; and Rev. Roy M. Pounder, M.A., S.T.L., Chesterville. The Winchester quartette greatly assisted with several splendid selections very much enjoyed by all. Rev. H. Selwyn Cooke, pastor and chairman, gave a very interesting and concise history of Methodism in this locality from 1836 to the present time. Mr. Cooke informed the audience that a committee were preparing a suitable souvenir giving the history of the church.

The proceeds of the evening were $222.

"Shell shock?"

"No, right after he got out of the Army he went into a restaurant to get a big feed, and found that they were all out of everything except beans, prunes, cornmeal mush, canned salmon and canned corned beef. It was too much for him."

BIG EAGLE ATTEMPTS TO CARRY OFF CHILD

To be attacked by a big bald-headed eagle, picked up and carried into the air five feet, then dropped when his clothing gave way, was the experience of Fred Cunningham, Chatham, weighing 97 pounds, in a golf course near there, just after sundown. The bird was later killed by a citizen. It measures eight feet from tip to tip of wings. Young Cunningham was severely scratched and clawed while fighting the bird, which finally became enmeshed in a wire fence.

SESSION IN CORNWALL

Mayor Harry Snetsinger has been advised that the agricultural enquiry committee of the Ontario Legislature will hold an open session in the Town Hall, Cornwall, on Tuesday, September 16, at 2 p.m., when the committee will enquire into all matters concerning the social, agricultural, educational and economic conditions surrounding agricultural, live stock and dairying interests of this section of the province.

NO LARGE SURPLUS OF HONEY THIS YEAR

Characterizing as "utterly ridiculous" the statement of C. B. Gooderham, Dominion apiarist, that the Canadian honey crop this year would show an exportable surplus of 6,000,000 pounds, A. G.. Halstead, general manager of the Ontario Honey Producers of the country, stated today that as a result of careful investigation of the honey situation throughout the country he was convinced that the surplus available for export would not amount to more than 500,000 pounds.

There is a 50 per cent.. crop only in Ontario, according to Mr. Halstead, 60 per cent. in Quebec, and a very uncertain crop in Manitoba.

ONLY THREE WEEKS TO OTTAWA EXHIBITION

Three weeks from Monday the Ottawa Exhibition will open its gates to the public. This will be the thirty-seventh annual fair, and the directors are determined that it shall be the climax to a number of most successful years.

The prize list for the various departments have been made exceptionally attractive, and though the entries do not close till September 2, they are now coming in very rapidly. There is every assurance that in number and quality the exhibits will be of the best and that the fair will be educative and interesting to all.

Special attention has been given to the entertainment features. An innovation this year will be a historic pageant which will be presented on an elaborate scale. This will depict the history of Canada in general and of this part of the Dominion in particular. There will be over four hundred taking part in the various scenes, and each number will be properly costumed and staged. The pageant in the evenings will be concluded with a big fireworks spectacle.

In order to provide high class music for exhibition visitors, the directors have this year secured two excellent bands. The Princess Patricia band of Winnipeg, under Lieut. James, will play on Monday and Tuesday on their way to fill an engagement at the British Empire Exhibition. For the remaining days, the band of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery will render programs. These concerts will be free to all exhibition visitors and should prove a very popular feature of the big fair.

In front of the grandstand there will be an exceptional program, including horse races, whippet races, balloon ascensions, thrilling aerial event, big-time comedy turns, and other high-class vaudeville secured from the leading booking firms on the continent. The midway will be entirely new and will have a hundred and one things to surprise and delight. Clean, wholesome comedy has its place in all exhibitions, and the Ottawa Fair directors this year promises the best which could be secured.

The Pure Food Show, Automobile Show, Horticultural display. including the Experimental Farm demonstration; Baby Show and Child's Welfare, Art Exhibit, Poultry and Pets, Live Stock, Fine Arts and Women's Work, Dairy demonstrations, Dog and Cat Shows, Machinery and Process, Manufacturers and Merchants, and many other factors combine to make the Ottawa Exhibition wonderfully attractive for all visitors.

Merchants are co-operating with the directors and in addition to the fair, there will be rare bargains offered to make shopping in Ottawa profitable. Reduced rates are provided by the railways, and for those who motor special parking provisions will be made at the Exhibition grounds.

The Very One

A certain automobile manufacturer claimed to have put a car together in seven minutes.

A few minutes after this event was heralded in the newspaper a voice on the telephone asked:

"Is it true that your factory put a car together in seven minutes?"

"Yes. Why?"

"Oh, nothing. But I believe I have the car."

DEPUTY COLLECTOR IS MADE COLLECTOR

John H. Cline, Deputy Collector of Customs has just received official notification from the department at Ottawa, of his promotion to the position of Collector of Customs at the Port of Cornwall in succession to the late F. J. MacClennan. Mr. Cline has filled the position of Deputy Collector for many years and his association with the business men of the district has been eminently satisfactory. His well deserved promotion is very popular among all classes.

ROBERT STEVEN OF CANNAMORE MEETS FORMER DUNDAS PEOPLE

Editor. .Record:—When . leaving Chesterville on the 28th of July you requested me to drop you a line for The Record, and being of a nature willing to please and grant reasonable requests, I here attempt, a few remarks.

We arrived in Toronto in due time and there got on board the Vancouver Express which left the Union Station at 10.30 p. m. Through the kindness and efficiency of your agent Mr. Casselman, our sleeping car reservations were waiting for us and those that did not have reservations had to do without such accomodations.

The crop condition in Western Ontario appeared to be only fair as we could see from the car windows and stations. Fall wheat being the best part of the crop in view, the harvesting of which had commenced. After leaving Kenora we came into the crop producing country, the flat low lying lands east of Winnipeg showing good prospects if future conditions proved favorable, but at present seemed backward with too much wet for the drainage provided. Arriving in Winnipeg our train stopped 50 minutes for dinner leaving at about 2 p. m. for the west. The crops along the way seemed good in places only and many fields being late and almost completely covered with sow thistle and Ontario mustard, as the farmers her call it. Further on grain looked better and after reaching the Virden and Hargrave districts we met what appeared to us the best crops yet seen.

At 8.30 p. m. our train pulled into Virden where we were met by Mr. J. O'Neill, a former resident of Cannamore whose mother lives close to Chesterville. Mr. O'Neill has resided in this district for over twenty years and is now ranked as one of the best and most successful men of the district, and without exception his three quarter sections have the best crops on them of any in the district. "Jack" as they all call him here, has been a Councillor for ten years. Being a Councillor here means much more than in the East, the responsibilities being so much greater. A municipality here comprises twelve townships. Each member represents a ward of two townships. A township is six miles square. The Councillor in a ward is responsible for the expenditure of all money allotted for improvements in his ward, he having the appointing of all officers in said ward, such as road commissioners, parties to drag road regularly, others to cut grass and brush, others to look after noxious weeds, etc. A prize is given by the province for the best kept ward in the municipality, and I have been told (not by O'Neill) that Jack has carried off this trophy more often than his fellow councillors. One lady told me that there was no use trying to compete with O'Neill in the crop line for Jack always had a crop and the best in hisdistrict, and that while the others were growing weeds he was growing a clean crop. I believe this lady knew what she was saying, as she was "Scotch."

After resting here a few days we left by motor for Grand View and the Lake Dauphin country about 160 miles north, going one route and returning by another, in this way seeing new or different country all the while, covering in all approximately 400 miles. Going we touched the following points Mineota, Bertle, Bird Tail Creek, Fox Warren, Binscarth, Russell, Assissippi Hill, Crossed Shell River, Robin, Strivil, Beal and Grand View and Shordale stations on the C. N. Ry. This trail was over the gap between the Duck and Riding Mountains. The elevation said to be 2000 ft chiefly through an Indian reserve and Galacian settlement, the most hilly and rough country that I ever crossed except crossing the Rockies by train. It reminded me of the Muskoka Country and not much to my taste for motoring on, but got through safely and found a fine level country around Grand View and the Gilbert Plains. There I met several Eastern people among them being Archie and Hugh Steven and sister McRae, who left Finch sixty years ago and are now well advanced in years, yet hale and hearty. I also met Mr. Steven Carruthers, a brother of the late Archie Carruthers of Crysler. Steve, as he is known, left Winchester township 33 years ago and is looked on as an old timer. He has a wife and two children a half section of land, lots of horses and cattle and plenty of wood for another generation to come and consequently is happy and prosperous. Crops are on the whole good in that part but late and rather too much rain.

On Monday the 11th we started on our return journey through the hills and plains coming by way of Gilbert Plains, Lake Ota a camping ground and summer resort where we had dinner Indian Fashion by the shore and after putting out our camp fire we again left at 2.50 coming over a game reserve, later passing through Elphinstone, Strathclare, Shoal Lake, Hamiota, Lenore, Virden and back to Hargrave, covering in all approximately 400 miles and very glad to see the main line again and to get some mail and eagerly devour all the news The Record had for me.

Farming here I might say, as a paying proposition, is much the same as in the east, and lots of land is being let go to the company that advanced money for the purchase of it or other purpose and lots of farms can be had to rent for the taxes and to purchase at less than half of the selling price a few years ago. We have also visited the families of Messrs Lorne and Geo. Carruthers, sons of Archie Carruthers late of Crysler. Both are comfortably situated, George especially having an ideal location two miles from Virden with lots of trees, well kept hedges, brick barns and stabling, and well started in the dairying industry.

I think I shall bring my remarks to a close for the present. We purpose leaving for Edmonton to-morrow, when I may again drop you a few lines. I might say that wheat cutting won't start here until about Sept. 1st. The weather has been very wet here since our coming.

R. Steven.

AUTUMN CO-OPERATIVE EXPERIMENTS

More autumn crops are sown in Ontario than in all the rest of Canada combined. Last year winter wheat was grown in every county and district in Ontario with the exception of Grenville, Haliburton, Nipissing, Parry Sound and Russell. Each of twenty-one counties had over ten thousand acres, and Kent, Simcoe, Middlesex, Lambton, Essex, Huron, York and Bruce had over thirty thousand. Not only is it important to sow pure seed of high quality, but it is also essential to use the best varieties if the greatest success is to be obtained. In recent years, the O. A. C. No. 104 of the white wheats and the Imperial Amber of the red wheats have given the highest average yields per acre at the Ontario Agriculture College.

Valuable material will be sent out from the College this month to Ontario farmers wishing to conduct experiments on their own farms. The material will be supplied, free of cost, to those who wish to conduct the experiments and report the results after harvest next year.

Any other farmer may apply for the material for any one of the following experiments: (1) Three choice varieties of Winter Wheat; (2) One variety of Winter Rye and one of Winter Wheat; (4) Autumn and Spring applications of Nitrate of Soda and Common Salt with Winter Wheat; (5) Winter Emmer and Winter Barley; (6) Hairy Vetches and Winter Rye as fodder crops; (7) Mixtures of Winter Rye and Hairy Vetches for seed production.

The size of each plot is to be one rod wide by two rods long. Fertilizers will be sent by express for Experiment Number 4 this Autumn, and for Experiment Number 3 next Spring. All seed will be sent by mail except that for Number 1 which will accompany the fertilizers. The material will be sent out in the order in which the applications are received and as long as the supply lasts.

Those wishing for experimental material should apply to Dr C. A. Zavitz, Agricultural College, Guelph, Ontario.

ALL AFTER THE JOB

Last summer a farmer living East of town had much difficulty in getting a hired man to stay on the job. Man after man would start, but after working just a few days would quit. Finally he got out a notice and had it published in the paper, with the result that he had one hundred and ten applications for the job and out of the applicants he picked a man who stayed with him till freeze-up. The notice read as follows:—Hired man wanted—Hired girl is good looker, piano and radio music every evening; pie three times a day, three spoons of sugar with every cup of tea or coffee, hammock, feather bed or leather couches at your option for sleeping; free use of the automobile, rising hour at 9 a. m., three hours rest at noon, quit work at 5. The boss tends to the horses, milks the cows and feeds the hogs."

Unsophisticated Scots.

Two Highlanders, in Glasgow for the first time, were taking a walk through the city. They encountered much to their astonishment, a water-cart sprinkling the street. Never having seen anything of the kind before, James, under a mistaken idea, ran after the cart, and cried out to the driver:

"Hey, man—hey, man, yer losin' a' the water!"

His companion, much annoyed at James' want of knowledge, ran after him, caught him by the arm, and said, rather testily:

"James, man, dinna be showin' yer ignorance. D'yer no see it's to keep the laddies off the back o' the cairt!"

SHAVER FAMILY HOLD REUNION

An interesting link with the old pioneer days in Eastern Ontario was forged on Tuesday, August 5, when a family reunion and picnic was held on Sheik's Island, in the St. Lawrence, by Mrs. Herman Shaver and her descendants.

Mrs. Shaver's maiden name was Catharine McMillan, granddaughter of the late John McMillan, who was the first white settler in the township of Finch. It is worthy of note that the old homestead, established in 1803, is still in possession of the same family. All of Mrs. Shaver's children, as well as two greatgrandchildren were present, namely, her daughter, Mrs. Walter A. Carr, husband and children of Chesterville; her four sons with their wives and families; John H., of the Shaver homestead in Osnabruck, which was established over 60 years ago; Alex. J., of the adjoining farm; Peter A., of Ottawa; Rev. James M., superintendent of All People's Mission, Winnipeg, and Alex Hesson, of Grantley, son-in-law with three of his children, one having come from Cranbrook, B. C.

Mrs. Shaver who is in her 87th year, motored with her family over 25 miles to the picnic ground, and no one enjoyed the outing more than she. Numerous snapshots of family groups were taken, including one of the four generations. A most enjoyable time was spent by those present, and all joined in wishing Mrs. Shaver continued good health, and that she might enjoy many more picnics.—Ottawa Journal.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT CORNWALL

Mr. Peter Gannon met with a very serious accident Wednesday morning, being kicked in the face by one of his horses.. He was in the barn shortly before 7 o'clock and was about to put the harness on the team when one of the horses evidently became fractious and kicked. Fortunately his mother, Mrs. W. Gannon, happened to be looking towards the barn and seeing him fall, ran to his assistance. She was greatly shocked to find him lying unconscious with the lower part of his face covered with blood. He was lying almost under the horses' feet and in danger of being trampled to death. There being no one within calling distance Mrs. Gannon with remarkable presence of mind succeeded in removing him to a safe distance from the team and then called Dr. Hamilton, who had him taken to the Hotel Dieu Hospital. It was found that his jaw was fractured. His face was badly cut and several stitches were necessary. It will be some time before he is able to be out again, but his many friends will be glad to know that he is progressing favorably under skillful surgical treatment.

STARTING HOLLYHOCKS FROM SEEDS

Hollyhocks are among the few occupants of the perennial garden that are best for being planted late in the season. You can get better plants from seeds sown now than from seeds put into the ground last month. The seedlings may be started in a specially prepared bed in a corner of the garden, or better still, in a cold frame. When they are large enough to be moved, they should be planted in another bed, in rows, with six inches between them, going into their permanent locations in the spring. Hollyhocks are really biennials but can be made practically perennials by cutting the stalks to the ground when only three or four flowers remain at the top. It is well to cut off all the foliage at the same time so that a good crop of offsets will be produced.

HOW ACCIDENTS HAPPEN

Accidents are being reported to the Workmen's Compensation Board of this Province at the rate of two hundred for each working day. Many people have the impression that accidents in industry involve contact with machinery but the statistics along this line do not bear out this fact.

One of the organizations of the Province interested in the question of accident prevention has made a survey of compensated accidents covering a twelve month period and their information shows the following causes of accidents: 1. Handling objects, 2. Falls of persons, 3. Falling objects, 4. Stepping on or striking against objects, 8. Flying objects, 9. Physicial failures, 10. Moving vehicles and 11. All others. These causes are listed in their order of precedence. It will be seen, therefore, that the mechanical accidents are greately outnumbered by the various other types, handling material being the outstanding cause of most accidents.

These facts naturally suggest the thought that a little more care on the part of those engaged in industry would mean that each year we should have a smaller crop of accidents. This would surely be a good thing for the people of Ontario.

Excusable

Katie—Say, Auntie, you're an old maid, aren't you?

Aunt (hesitatingly)—Yes; but it isn't nice to ask such questions.

Katie—Now don't be mad, auntie, I know it isn't your fault.

W. M. S. MEETING
AT MOREWOOD

A pleasant and profitable afternoon was spent on Thursday Aug. 7 on the lawn, at the home of Mrs. Robert Rainey, it being the annual anniversary of the Presbyterian W. M. S.

There was a record attendance over sixty being present, including members, home-helpers and visitors. The Young Women's Auxiliary and the Mission Band were also invited to take part in the programme.

Mrs. T. E. Coulthart, vice-president of the society presided.

The devotional exercises included a Bible reading entitled "Obedience, its Blessings and Rewards" which was taken part in by a number of members.

After one or two items of business were disposed of and the offering received. Mrs. W. S. Feeley led in prayer, especially remembering the home-helpers and the faithful members of the W. M. S. who from year to year carry on this work. We were then favored by an exercise by the Mission Band "The beatitudes of the Bible" followed by singing by the Band.

Miss Maida Shaver gave a splendidly prepared paper on the work of the W. M. S. at home and abroad.

The Y. W. A. then gave a selection "The field is the world" followed by an interesting reading by Miss Margaret Coulthart.

After a short home mission story and a few remarks by the W. M. S. President, all joined in a closing hymn and the Lord's Prayer.

An invitation was then given for all present to remain for a social half hour when refreshments were served by the committee which were thoroughly enjoyed.

The bale which had been prepared for shipment to one of our home mission schools, consisting of girl's out-fit, quilts and gifts for the staff. was on exhibition for the benefit of the visitors.

Before dispersing the gathering expressed their appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Rainey for their kindness by a hearty vote of thanks.

PRINCE'S HOLIDAY INCOGNITO.

When the Prince of Wales embarks on 23rd of August in the Berengaria for his western trip, he will travel as Baron Renfrew, and elaborate precautions are already being taken to make his journey as private as possible.. H. R. H. will not proceed to New York with the liner, but will be taken direct to Long Island in a tender. At Long Island the Prince will witness the struggle for the Polo Cup between the British and American teams, and will thence make for his Canadian farm by train from New London. Considerable changes have been carried out at the farm by Professor Carlyle since H.R. H. was last there, and in all these the Prince is sure to be keenly interested. Golfing and bathing in the hot springs at Banff, the magnificant Rocky Mountain health resort, are part of the Prince's holiday programme.

The Prince of Wales is still boy enough to have immensely enjoyed his night out at the Wembley Jamboree. Especially was H.R.H. delighted with the camp fire singing. Wrapped in a stripped blanket of the wildest "trade" variety and smoking his favorite pipe, the Prince joined in the rousing choruses and danced a Highland fling in great style. The double tent in which he spent the night was charmingly accoutred, and next morning H. R. H. declared that he had never slept sounder. The tallest Boy Scouts in the whole jamboree in their own proud estimation were the picked centurious told off to guard the Prince's wigwam through the watches of the night. But the Cub who brought him his shaving water holds his head pretty high, too.

THE COST OF CARELESSNESS.

St. Catharine's Standard— There are people who condemn such organizations as the Ontario Safety League as fads and foolishness.

It is difficult for the Safety League, for example, to secure public support or to obtain enough financial assistance to carry on its work of endeavoring to arouse the people to a realization of the necessity of doing sometning to eliminate the daily round of accidents, many of which could be prevented with ordinary care.

No need of such a campaign, did somebody say?

The St. Catharine's Standard of Monday gave the following list of headings taken at random from one Canadian newspaper.

These week-end mishaps are nearly all of a nature that suggests that they could have been averted and would have been except for carelessness on the part of somebody.

How anyone reading such a list can say that there is no place for an organization formed to teach safety first principles is something that requires an explanation.

Readers can judge for themselves after reading the following:

"Seven in Canoe Upset; Two Boys are Drowned."

"Couple are Swept to Death Posing for a Picture."

"Mother Killed in Crash; Five Children Injured."

"Young man Drowned at Government Park."

"Three men are killed as Motor Cars Crash."

"Three Children Die in Fire When Coal-Oil Stove Explodes."

"Bride Seriously hurt on her Wedding Trip."

"One Dead, Two Hurt From Motor Upset."

"Farmer breaks neck While Unloading Hay."

"Two Men Die of Injuries Received When Hit By Street Cars."

Those who read the despatches Monday morning will find the usual quota of tragedies set forth as the week-end toll of traffic. A big price in human life is being laid chiefly on the altar of pleasure and amusement.

SIMPLE WHEN YOU KNOW IT

They were sitting on the piazza of a summer hotel swapping stories. "Ever hear this one?" asked the dark young man. "A dog was tied to a rope fourteen feet long. Twenty feet away was a fat, juicy bone. How did the dog get to the bone?"

"Oh, that's an old gag," said his companion. "You want me to say, 'I give it up' and then you'll say, 'That's what the other cur did'."

"No, you're wrong, for the dog got the bone."

"Well, how did he get it?"

"Why the other end of the rope not tied."

BURKE WILL USE AN IMPORTED RIFLE

For the remainder of the D. R .A. meet Sergt. Desmond Burke, of the G. G. F. G., and King's prize winner at Bisley, will likely be using a new rifle. It arrived from England yesterday, and was forwarded to him at Connaught ranges by his family. Yesterday he did all his shooting with his old rifle, the bore of which has become somewhat damaged by too frequent use..

The new rifle is the regulation Lee-Enfield. It is customary for old rifle shots to purchase their own rifles, as the issue rifle must be turned in frequently. By buying their own they are assured of the same arm every time they shoot. It is the custom among marksmen to have the rifles they purchase re-bedded by a famous armorer in England, who has for man years made a practice and become an expert in this work. This has been done to Sergt. Burke's new rifle.

At the last Bisley meet all the Canadian team used rifles that had been re-bedded by this armorer, but they were left in the Canadian hut at Bisley for the use of future Canadian marksmen. For many years the Australian and South African teams have had their rifles refitted in this way.

LABOR GETS RICHEST REWARD IN PROVINCE OF MANITOBA

To the Editor:—I am writing this letter for the purpose of telling my many old friends and neighbors in Dundas County something of the present agricultural conditions in Southern Manitoba.

I came to Manitoba in 1906, rented for three years, and in 1909 purchased for $30 an acre the section 9-2-26 in the S. W. corner of the province, five miles west of the prosperous town of Waskada, close to Dalny Siding with two elevators and seven miles from the international boundary.

There is no other country in the world where a man's labor can accomplish more than here. The first year I farmed this section I rented an adjacent quarter and did all the work with the help of only one man until after we had 200 acres of grain cut. We had 9000 bushels of wheat and 2000 bushels of oats.

With wide up-to-date machinery and plenty of horses you can accomplish very much more than in Ontario. Six horses with a 14 ft. gang plough can plow six acres a day. As I write I can see a picture on the wall of the man I had that first year driving ten horses before a forty foot harrow. I am afraid to tell how much he could harrow in a day.

We had some bad seasons during the war and after, owing to drought, so that land values are not as high as they were ten or twelve years ago. Farmers in this district are realizing that they would improve their circumstances by selling half their land and going more into mixed farming. Most of my neighbors have a section, some two and some three sections. Land values are, at present, the lowest they have been for many years, and we need more settlers. If everyone who has a section could sell half of it to a good Ontario farmer, and they both went in for stock-raising and mixed farming this would soon be a very prosperous country. Now is the time to come to this country when land is cheap, as a few crops like the present one would send the price soaring. I know a splendid half section with fairly good buildings that could be bought on easy terms for $25 an acre.

This is a good year for S. W. Manitoba. We have, according to all official reports, the best crop outlook in the three provinces. Many of the wheat fields look good enough for 30 bushels per acre, barley 50 bus., oats 80 bus.

Should any of your readers desire further information I shall be glad to answer letters.

Am enclosing sample of immature Amber Duram wheat which will not be ready to cut until the last of this month.

With kind regards to all my old friends.

Yours truly
J. E. Colquhoun.

Waskada, Man., Aug. 11th.

WILL ERECT NEW SIGNS.

Commencement will be made by the Ontario Department of Highways this month on the work of carrying into effect Hon. George S. Henry's scheme of numbering the provincial highways, also the erection on these highways of municipal, township and county boundary signs, as well as direction and danger signs.. These signs will be painted white with black lettering. The highway number signs are expected to be a big aid to motorists on tour, as it will enable them to know at all times if on theright route.

Save Fuel in Cooking

The illustration shows an interesting test you should try in your own kitchen. It proves the superiority of good enameled ware for cooking purposes. Take an SMP Enameled Ware Sauce Pan, and a sauce pan of equal size made of aluminum, tin or other metal. Into each pour a quart of cold water. Set both sauce pans over the fire. The water in the SMP Enameled Ware Sauce Pan will be boiling merrily in about five minutes, while the water in the all-metal sauce pan will come to the boil in about eight minutes—three minutes longer. Save fuel in cooking. Use

A PADDED EXPENSE ACCOUNT

It was Saturday night, and the two "drummers" were alone in the office of the only hotel in town. One, a grizzled man fifty years old, sat quietly watching the other, a boy of twenty-three, who was making out his weekly expense account. For the past six days they had been visiting the same towns and so had become friendly.

"I put one over on the house this week," remarked the young fellow, dropping his pen. "This is my first trip, you know, and I've done pretty well. Before I started out another salesman told me about a scheme by which I can increase my income a little."

An understanding look appeared in the older man's eyes. "You've padded your expense account?"

The young fellow grinned and nodded.

The next morning the two salesmen were sitting on the broad veranda enjoying the bright sunshine. They had been talking inconsequentially, but now a silence had fallen. Suddenly the elder turned to his companion. "Son,—I'm old enough to call you that,—your remarks last night about your expense account set me to thinking of an experience of mine when I was about your age. I'd like to tell you about it if I may."

"I'm listening," replied the other smiling.

"My house," began the older man, "was the firm of Crumpton & Stanley, now the famous Crumpton Company. I started out and did well for a year. My father who had spent his business life with the same concern, had always taken pride in paring his expense account to the limit, and I began to follow his example.

"At the beginning of my second year I married. Then I felt the need of more money and asked for a raise, but old man Stanley told me that conditions did not justify an increase of salaries just then. He promised me however, that my request would be the first one granted.

"Another year passed, and our baby was born, leaving my wife's health seriously impaired for several months. I was needing more money, and about that time an older salesman suggested that I pad my expense account. I refused at first, for I remembered my father's example, but my urgent desire for more money finally overcame my scruples, and I yielded.

"At first I padded sparingly, but when I saw how easy it was I grew bolder. There came a week when I plunged. The following week I met a drummer who was making the same towns, but I didn't pay much attention to him, and after Saturday he disappeared. The ensuing Tuesday I received a wire summoning me to the office. When I entered the next morning I saw the drummer who had been with me the previous week.

"Mr. Stanley bade me be seated and then handed me a slip, my expense account for the past week. His face was grave as he asked whether it was correct. I said it was, and then he passed me another slip; on it was the imprint of a private detective agency. I realized that I was caught. I broke down, cried like a baby and confessed, begging him for my sick wife's sake not to disgrace me. He dismissed the detective, and then he said: 'Jack, I'm going to let you off, partly for your wife's sake, but more because you are the son of your father. How long has this been going on, and how much have you stolen?"

"I told him and he continued: 'I think you'll go straight henceforth, but some punishment is due you. If you will give me your word to give up padding your expenses, I'll recommend you as a good salesman, which you are. But I cannot keep you here any longer.'"

The old salesman paused and looked up at the blue sky.

"Well, what followed?" inquired the young man, with an odd look in his eyes.

"I took Mr Stanley's letter," replied the other, "got a job on the strength of it and for nearly thirty years have enjoyed the same sort of reputation my father enjoyed."

As the older man's voice died a church bell began to ring. He rose slowly to his feet. "I usually go to church on Sunday, son. Want to come along?"

"Not just now," replied the young man. "I'll join you later—after I've finished making out another expense account."

Crimean Veteran
Praises "Fruit-a-tives"

MAJOR GEO. WALKER

Major George Walker, now a familiar figure in Chatham, Ontario, is one of the men who went through the terrible Indian Mutiny. As he says: "I am a veteran of the Crimean War and the Indian Mutiny, serving under Lord Roberts. Fierce hand-to-hand fighting and continual exposure left me a great sufferer from Rheumatism, so much so that my legs swelled up, making it impossible for me to walk. My bowels were so constipated that I was in terrible shape until I began to use 'Fruit-a-tives.' They relieved me both of the Rheumatism and the Constipation. Today, I enjoy perfect health—no more Rheumatism or Constipation."

And in another letter, written December 1st, 1923 (eleven years after), Major Walker says: "'Fruit-a-tives' are keeping me in the best of health and I shall never be without them."

"Fruit-a-tives" are the famous Fruit Treatment — intensified fruit juices combined with tonics—that make you well and keep you well. 25c and 50c—at all dealers or from Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

RABBIT-RAISING RANCH

Charles Moore, black fox rancher, near Dundalk, Ont., has gone into an apparently thriving business. Last spring he purchased in Nova Scotia a pair of beaverton rabbits, a breed having blue fur of fine quality and of which Queen Mary has a handsome coat. Six weeks ago a litter of half-a-dozen arrived, but a new record was established when the second litter mounted into the two-figure column—fourteen. At this rate Moore's farm will soon be known as the "modern rabbit burrow."

NOT ANYTIME

An old Southern planter was discussing the hereafter with his servant.

"The first one that goes, Sam must come back and tell the other what it is like over there.'

"Yes, massa. Dat suits me exactly but if you go fust, would you please come back in the daytime?"

RHUBARB JAM MADE WITH CERTO

4 level cups rhubarb cut very fine, 7½ cups sugar, ¾ cups water, 1 bottle certo. Add sugar to rhubarb and water. Boil for 3 minutes using hottest fire and stir constantly. Remove from fire and add certo, and put at once into sealers.

CORN SALAD

2 qts. vinegar, 18 large ears of corn, 4 onions, 3 green and red peppers, 1 head of cabbage, 4 cups sugar, 2 tablespoons salt, nearly ¼ pound mustard. Remove seeds from the peppers and chop all fine. Boil for 1 hour. Mix mustard with some water and add shortly before taking off stove.

Cut this out and paste it in a suitable book with those to follow and eventually you will have a valuable cook-book.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT AT BISHOP'S MILLS

Three lives were lost and three additional persons injured on Tuesday morning August 12th when the cheese factory at Bishop's Mills, in the township of Oxford-on-Rideau, conducted by Stanley H. Watts, was reduced to a mass of wreckage by the explosion of the boiler. The dead are:

Stanley Herbert Watts, 23, proprietor of the factory, married Bishops Mills.

Frederick Matthew Murray, 39, dairy instructor, married, Kemptville.

George Morrison, 12, Kenora, Ont.

Those injured are: Stewart Thompson, 25, helper in the factory, Joseph Thompson, his father, and Levi Robinson, all of Bishops Mills.

The disaster occured at a time when patrons of the factory were delivering their morning milk, and all who were either in the establishment or in its vicinity sustained fatal or other injuries. Those who were inside the factory were Watts, the cheesemaker, Thompson, his assistant, and Murray, who was visiting the work in his capacity as instructor.

The force of the explosion wrecked the frame structure completely. The boiler itself was hurled for a distance of 200 feet into a neighboring field where it lies, a flattened mass, and in its path was strewn debris from the building—rafters, lumber, piping, bricks and stone. The building itself collapsed and only the front portion remains standing uncertainly and is propped up to enable it to continue to occupy an upright position. Where the three men, Watts, Murray and Thompson, were is almost inconceivable, a mass of broken timbers and lumber in which is mingled the bent and broken machinery. The roof extending over the weighing stand collapsed with the rest of the building, glass from the windows is strewn about the place and the force of the explosion was such that it broke the windows in the neighboring houses.

At the time of the explosion the proprietor and cheesemaker, Watts, appears to have been in the act of entering the building from the weighing stand, where he had attended one of the patrons, Levi Robinson, when he was found, his body was devoid of clothing from the waist up and it was evident that he had suffered terrible injuries. He was able to ask to be removed, but died 15 minutes after he had been taken from the wrecked factory.

Murray was found lying dead in a vat, and was no doubt instantly killed. Nearby was found an agitator with which he had been stirring the milk.

The position of Stewart Thompson was the most difficult. It was necessary to remove considerable wreckage before he could be removed from the separator-room, and his injuries were found to be confined largely to his head.

George Morrison, the third victim was upon a wagon driven by Joseph Thompson which was standing at the whey tank ten yards at one side of the factory. The little boy was evidently instantly killed when struck by one of the iron flues of the boiler and that its condition was one of great heat is indicated by the fact that he was burned in two places where it struck him. Joseph Thompson was thrown from the wagon and suffered slight injuries, as well as shock.

Levi Robinson, the last man on the casuality list, had just completed the delivery of his milk when the blast came. With his horse and wagon he was pinned under the roof of the weighing-stand, from which he was able to extricate himself. The horse received such injuries that its death is expected momentarily.

A small fire broke out in the building following the explosion, but this was put out without any additional loss resulting.

The boiler was a comparatively new one, put in service about five years ago, and no flaw in its construction is now observable.

MEMORIAL CLOCK FOR LANARK VILLAGE

Lanark Era—After many months of working and planning, the Lanark Village Memorial Association have definitely decided on a memorial for her fallen soldiers of the war of 1914—18. The memorial will be in the form of a town clock placed in the bell tower. The clock will be a four dial, with hour and half hour strike, using the big bell for the strike. As the clock comes from Boston, Mass., and heavy duty would be charged, the Memorial Association took the matter up with the customs department and were successful in having the clock come duty free by order-in-council for Memorial purposes. We believe this is the first time Lanark Village has received anything by order-in-council. It is expected the clock will be shipped by October 15th and at the present time arrangements are being planned for a big memorial service in Lanark Village on Armistice Day. The names of the deceased soldiers will be placed on a tablet which will be erected in some suitable public place where it will be readily viewed by the travelling public.

A Hint to the Hens

Abbie, the little girl of the family, was seated at the breakfast table one morning. As usual, eggs were served.

Either she was not hungry or she had grown tired of the bill of fare, for very earnestly and soberly she remarked:

"I do wish hens would lay something besides eggs."

THE CHARGE OF THE BOBBED HAIR BRIGADE

Bobbed hair to right of us,
Bobbed hair to left of us,
Bobbed hair each side of us,
Tresses are sundered,
Some with a heavy crop,
Some with a lighter mop,
Into the barber shop
March the six hundred.
Women of high degree,
Women past eighty three,
All sure that they must be
One of the numbered.
Girls who to school have been,
Girls only just sixteen,
Girls who that age have seen,
Join the six hundred.
Women of every class,
Business girl country lass,
All come to join the mass,
The noble six hundred.
Clerk, typist, hello girl,
All caught in the mad whirl,
No longer wave or curl,
While the world wondered.
Some of them look real well,
Some of them look like—well
Better not try to tell
The bobbed haired six hundred.

Slight Difference

"Did I hear you say that he's worth a cold million?"

"No; I said he's worth a million cold—he carries that much life insurance."
