Capt. A. J. McDonald Dead at Cornwall

An old resident of Cornwall passed away at Cornwall on Sunday, in the person of Capt. A.J. McDonald. Deceased was born in Glengarry 89 years ago. At the age of 18 he joined the American army at Fort Ontario, near Oswego. After being stationed for some time in New York he was transferred to Fort Humbolt, Cal., at the time of the gold rush in 1848, and served out the period of his enlistment, after which he prospected for gold. Returning to New York by way of Panama, his party was attacked by natives while crossing the Isthmus, losing all their gold. Arriving in New York he again enlisted. He served with distinction at the battle of Gettysburg. In 1867 he returned to Canada, settling near Cornwall. During the Fenian trouble he was appointed major under the late Darby Bergin, and had charge of the Canadian troops guarding the frontier from Cornwall to Prescott. He was for many years a member of the High School Board. He is survived by three sons and three daughters.

Dillabough-Hutt.

A very pleasing event took place at the Methodist parsonage, Morrisburg, on Wednesday, March 12. 1913, when Marshall Dillabough was united in marriage to Miss Dossie Hutt, daughter of Elmer Hutt, Morrisburg. Rev. Mr. Strike performing the ceremony. The bride was attired in a pretty suit of navy blue and looked charming indeed. About fifty guests were present. After congratulations and partaking of the bridal dinner, the young couple took leave of their guests and left for their new home at Morrisburg. The bride was the recipient of many useful and beautiful gifts, including a handsome tea service, the gift of her uncle, B. Hess, of Morrisburg.

Tragedy Enacted Near Westport.

Residents of Westport and the surrounding district were thrown into excitement Friday afternoon when it became known that two little girls were missing.

Gradually the tragedy unfolded itself when search parties set out to scour the country. Two little daughters of John McAndrews, who resides about one mile south of the village, were returning from school to their home. The freshet had caused a small stream to overflow, and the girls were cut off from reaching home. They decided to wade through the creek, but the rush of water was so great that the girls were carried along with it. When the searching party arrived they found the eldest, aged nine, caught by a wire fence and living, though suffering much from exhaustion. She could tell nothing of her sister Reta, aged seven, except that she had been washed further down the stream. Continuing the party set out and half a mlie further away they found the drowned body of the youngest child washed up on the bank.

Medical attendance was secured and the rescued girl conveyed to her home, while the body of the other was also taken home.

Mr. and Mrs. McAndrews are highly esteemed residents of the community and the accident has caused deep gloom in that vicinity.

The Young Friends Remember Them.

On Thursday evening last, March 15th, 1913, the young people of this and Grantley district, to the number of about sixty, gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Merkley, to bid them farewell before taking their departure for Saskatoon, Sask.

During the evening an address was read by Mr. Geo. Ouderkirk and Mr. W. Henderson presented Mr. and Mrs. Merkley with a fine morocco bound hymn book and bible.

In a few well chosen words Mr. Merkley thanked them for their thoughtfulness, and after spending the evening with songs and games, the party dispersed.

Presentation to Rev. W. H. and Mrs. Stevens.

The members of the Trinity Methodist Church congregation assembled in large numbers Monday evening last. At the close of the Epworth League service Miss McGee asked Mr. G. W. Bogart to take the chair. He called upon Mr. and Mrs. Stevens to come forward and stated that he would ask Mr. W. G. Bolster to make a presentation for the church. After reading the address published below, he then presented Mrs. Stevens with a purse containing $110.00. Mrs. Stevens replied briefly referring to the pleasure she always felt in doing any service in the interest of the church. Mr. Stevens most cordially and earnestly thanked the members for this renewed evidence of their good will and esteem. He declared his desire to complete his term of four years in Chesterville, and indulged the hope that the members and congregation generally, would co-operate to make the various organized activities serve the great end for which the church existed.

The ladies served supper in the dining hall, and a pleasant hour was spent in social exercise.

Rev. W. H. and Mrs. Stevens.

Dear Friends;—

As the end of your third year of the pastorate of our circuit approaches, we, the members and adherents, recognizing your indefatigable and untiring labors in the interests of The Cause and people entrusted to you, and realizing that Mrs. Stevens especially has far exceeded any duty she may owe to us by virtue of her position as our Minister's wife,—in the unselfish and self-sacrificing way in which she has labored with, and for every department of the church work, and more especially in the department of the musical services to which she has contributed so largely of her time and talents,—desire to express our appreciation in a tangible manner, and in a measure show our gratitude for all the kindness and help we have received at your hands.

We cannot hope to pay for services of this nature, and we know that no mere money consideration has been expected or wished for, and in asking you to accept this purse of gold we do not wish you to think that it is our estimate of services rendered, but rather a token of appreciation.

We are most gratified to know that you have consented to remain with us for another year, and trust that the membership will work with you for the advancement of the best interests of The Cause in this community. We pray that the blessing of God may rest on every effort put forth.

May we venture to hope that we will continue to experience the pleasure of listening to Mrs. Stevens in song during your stay among us, assuring her that her efforts are highly appreciated.

Signed on behalf of the congregation,

G. W. BOGART.

Mr. S.G. Carlyle and Family.

A farewell party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. S.G. Carlyle at their home, south of Chesterville, Ont., on Tuesday evening, March 11, by the members of the Nation Valley Farmer's Club and other friends, the occasion being prior to their departure for Edmonton, Alta. Following an address read by Mr. Norman Moodie, Mr. Preston Elliott presented them with a handsome silver tea service. Mr. Carlyle replied very appropriately, expressing their appreciation of the kindness and good-will given them. In his remarks Mr. Carlyle strongly advised the farmers to invest their money in good stock rather than in western real estate. He also gave a very cordial invitation to any who might chance to be making a trip through the west to visit them in their new home in Edmonton.

In Mr. Carlyle, Chesterville and vicinity loses one of its most prominent breeders and dairymen. Not only in his own vicinity, but throughout the province will his loss be felt, but Ontario's loss will be Alberta's gain, and the best wishes of a host of friends go with Mr. Carlyle and his family to their new home, for which they left on Tuesday.

The provincial directors of the Stormont and Glengarry Railway Co., C. L. Perry, C.E., of Montreal and Lancaster, Thomas Burgess of Ottawa, and A. A. Mellor of Montreal, have just engaged Murdoch J. McLennan, C.E., of Williamston to make arrangements for the purchase of land for the right-of-way for their proposed railroad from Cornwall to St. Polycarpe, Quebec, at which point the road would connect with the C.P.R. and give Cornwall and the surrounding country a new and as short a route to Montreal as that now enjoyed.

It is said that the new road will be constructed this summer if the land can be bought at a reasonable figure. This road would pass the villages of Martintown and Williamston.

Crude Oil Fuel May Be Adopted.

Ottawa, March 13.—Canadian railways generally may adopt the system of using crude oil for gemeration of their locomotive power in place of the coal now used.

Clyde Leavitt, chief fire inspector for the Railway Commission and Forester for the commission for Conservation, is now preparing a statement showing how the installation of this system may prove more advantageous to railways from a financial standpoint.

The Canadian Pacific Railway is now using oil burning engines on its main line between Kamloops and Field, B.C. The Grand Trunk Pacific and some of the Canadian coast steamships also burn oil, while the new system is now used on many of the railroads in the United States. The greatly decreased smoke, the decrease in the number of firemen required, the economy, particularly in intermitten service, and the fact that three boilers heated by oil will give the same amount of steam as the same number heated by coal all tend to make this new system popular.

The oil is obtained from the oil fields of California, and if future discoveries in Alberta aud British Columbia make this more plentiful its use will be largely extended on Canadian railroads.

The use of this new fuel would greatly lessen the necessity forest protection from flying sparks and cinders, and it would also greatly decrease the loss experienced annually by the country from this cause.

Dominion Alliance Endorses Mr. McLean

Smiths Falls, March 4.—At a meeting of the members of the Dominion Alliance resident in the South riding of Lanark, held in Smiths Falls, the attitude of the several candidates towards temperance legislation was discussed. Satisfaction was unanimously expressed that the various candidates had given evidence of strong sympathy with some form or other of temperance reform.

The platform of the Alliance was submitted to each candidate, with platform is summarized as follows: The abolition of the public bar, the treating sy. tem and drinking in clubs, and the imposing upon the liquor traffic of such other restrictions as shall most effectually curtail its operations and remedy its evils: and that the advocacy of anything short of the foregoing platform cannot be looked upon as sufficient to entitle any candidate to the support of temperance electors. The evecutive having considered the views and answers of the several candidates adopted the following resolution.—

That but one candidate complies with the requirements of the Alliance Polick: that, therefore Mr. David McLean who is that candidate is hereby heartily endorsed and cordially commended to the temperance voters of South Lanark; and that they are hereby earnestly councilled to use their influence and record their votes in his favor in this present election.

County Councils Must Now Decide.

According to the terms of the new Municipal Act, when a village lying between two counties is being incorporated the right to decide in which county the village will in future work out its civic life rests with the county councils of the two counties, and in the event of their inability to arrive at a decision, the provincial government has the final say. This clause caused a great deal of discussion last night while it was being adopted by the house and finally led to a division.

The Liberal, headed by William Proudfoot contested the clause. They spoke of the "rule of the people" and of "democracy" and finally offered an amendment stating that when a village decided to become incorporated, a vote of the ratepayers living in the area to be taken within the corporation should be taken.

"Where's your machinery?" asked Mr. Hanna. "How can a vote be taken before the place is incorporated?"

"Oh, if the amendment carries, we can then go on and decide on the means to be taken for the taking of the vote," said J. C. Elliott.

Mr. Hanna and Mr. Lucas both contended that the proposal instead of working for peace would work for ill-feeling and the village would begin its life divided into two fractions.

Mr. Proudfoot, "I regret to say that I can't see eye to eye with the provincial secretary. The people who live in a territory to be annexed should have the right to say where they are going to go to transact their county business. It's all nonsense to talk of county councils having the right to decide. They will not do so and the resnlt will be the arbitary decision of the government.

Mr. Hanna then pointed out that it would have no effect at all in political contest.

T. R. Mayberry (South Oxford) cited the case of the Village of Tavistock, lying partly in Perth and partly in Oxford. The residents, he claimed would have preferred to join with Perth, as Stratford the county town of Perth, was closer to the village than Woodstock, the county town of Oxford. In spite of all these conditions, the village was placed in Oxford County.

Mr. Proudfoot persited in putting his amendment, but it was snowed under.

Should Children Have Home Work?

Should boys and girls be required to study in the evening? At present almost all schools, both public and private, arrange schedules so that it is, or seems to be, necessary for the pupils to do some hard work of preparation at night. This, in the cases of children at day school, not only entails hard work in the evening on boys and girls, but also, to some degree, imposes work on the part of parents. Against this practise The Ladies' Home Journal has directed its extensive influence. In its issue for January it gives two pages to the discussion of this matter by public school principals and superintendents and by a physician. The opinions there expressed are in general agreement with the views of The Ladies' Home Journal. The physician, Dr. Winthrop Talbot says:

"When the growing tissues are wearied they must be given a chance to regain tone and vigor, or they will suffer strain. The plastic body more easily suffers lasting injury than the adult body. Sleep is necessary for it. What are the conditions which induce sleep? A brain relieved of high tension, it is true, but also a body freed from active heat production. Every young mammal normally toward evening will suckle or eat, but not gorge, then play awhile—a natural diversion of blood pressure from the brain—and then settle itself to quiet sleep. With the young human mammal that should be the usual procedure. So by evening study we systematically proceed to allow our boys and girls to follow methods of working which definitely defeat the purpose we have in mind—namely that they shall be kept in the highest degree of efficiency."

The normal principal reports that as a consequence of forbidding the children in his school to take home their text books, "except in the highest two grades," it was found that the children progressed more rapidly and satisfactorily. Parents were advised that they could have their children devote the evening hour to reading on subjects correlated to their school work. Such reading helps the pupils to advance, but it does involve the strain on nerve and mind that hard study in preparation for recitation and examination involves. This partly answers the question, How shall the children be occupied in the evening? A still better answer is that they may take their time for practice that requires not mental strain but manual dexterity, such as piano practice, indoor games in winter, or outdoor games when weather permits.

Sheriff May Seize Hull City Hall

Ottawa, March 14—Hull City Hall may be on sale shortly unless the municipality pays a Superior Court judgment recently rendered for $513 in favor of Arthur McConnell, a Hull lawyer.

Mr. McConnell this afternoon issued a writ of seizure against the Hull City Hall and declares that the document will be handed to Sheriff Wright at once for execution. He explains that the extreme measure has been made necessary by the refusal of the civic officials to satisfy the judgment. "I am determined to show them that they cannot ignore the judgment of a Superior Court," Mr. McConnell told the Canadian Press: "Failing payment the City Hall will be seized by the Sheriff and sold at auction to the highest bidder."

The trouble arises out of an action in which the city was mulcted for illegal collection of taxes on some of the lawyer's property.

Mr. McKenzie Dead

Edmonton, March 15.—Shortly after one o'clock this morning Hon. Malcolm McKenzie, provincial treasurer, passed away of peritonitis after a brief illness lasting less than a week. He was conscious almost to the last and his wife and her sister, Miss Henry, of Winnipeg, were at the bedside when the end came.

Mr. McKenzie was in the House last Friday and attended a convention at Claresholme, where he was again renominated on Saturday, contracting a severe cold and being compelled to seek medical treatment on his return to the city. For a few days nothing serious was feared, but yesterday he rapidly grew worse.

Mr. McKenzie was admitted to be one of the most useful members of the Legis lature. He came west 25 years ago and entered upon the study of law, first at Calgary and afterwards at Macleod where for a time he was in partnership with F. W. G. Haultain, now Chief Justice of Saskatchewan. He was about 50 years old and was born in Kincardine, Bruce County, Ont.

Express Messenger Arrested.

Kingston, Ont., March 14.—Earl Redmond, aged 25, employed as a messenger for the Dominion Express Company, was placed under arrest today in connection with the theft of $1,600 from the company. He was brought here today. The money was lost while being transferred from Kingston to a point north of Sharbot Lake.

Pastor Prefers Toronto Church To Our St. James.

Toronto, March 14— Still another Ontario pastor has declined a larger salary for a smaller one. Rev. T. W. Neal, formerly of Newmarket and King Street East Church, Toronto, now of Kingston, received an offer of the pastorate of the Bathurst Methodist Church, Toronto, at a salary of less than two thousand dollars a year and partially accepted it. Then there came an offer from St. James Church, Montreal, of five thousand a year with two assistants, a deaconess and various other organized helpers.

A deputation from St. James waited on the quarterly board of Bathurst Street some time ago and asked them to release Mr. Neal. The Bathurst Street Board left it to Mr. Neal himself to decide. Mr. Neal has now definitely decided to come to Bathurst Street Church in June, following Rev. Mr. Prescott, who goes to Windsor.

Ontario farmers have been conducting experiments of various kinds under the direction of the Experimental Union for quite a number of years, and for the last three years some of them have conducted experiments in beekeeping with special reference to the "Prevention of Natural Swarming." During 1912, three different methods of swarm prevention were tested by members of the Experimental Union and one or two experiments on race of bees.

Experiment No. 1.—Of the 220 persons who undertook the first experiment in swarm prevention, 31 sent reports from 18 different counties. These reported a total of 830 colonies of bees in the spring and 1,10? in the fall, being a spring average of 27 colonies per experimenter and a fall average of 36. Their total honey crop was 63,230 lbs., an average of 76.1 lbs. per colony, spring count. Fifteen of these experimenters were for one reason or another unable to complete the experiment, but all of them sent good reasons for this and most of them stated that they had received benefit by applying at least part of the instructions to their bee management. Those who were able to complete the experiment reported that they had been able to reduce natural swarming from 48% to 21%.

Experiment No. 2. was for "Swarm Prevention in Comb Honey Production" Six complete reports of this experiment were sent from five counties. The total number of colonies represented was 161, spring count, and 228, fall count. The total honey crop was 8,449 lbs., an average of 52.47 lbs. per colony, spring count The per cent. of natural swarms from hives managed according to instructions was 57% and from those managed according to the old method 100%. Swarming is always more difficult to control in comb honey production. The average crop of honey was also higher than from those managed according to directions.

Experiment No. 3.—Twelve expeirmenters sent complete reports from five different counties on Experiment No. 3, "The prevention of Natnral Swarming by the Manipuiation of Hives initead of Combs." The total number of colonies owned by experimenters in the spring was 515, and in the fall 743. The total honey crop reported was 25,363 lbs., an average of 49.24 lbs. per colony. The per cent of natural swarms from bees managed according to directions was 14½% and from those allowed to swarm naturally was 39%. The average number of pounds per colony was a little higher from the former than the latter. This shows a distinct gain in the prevention of swarming and in the honey crop all along the line by experimenters following directions.

While experimenters are learning to prevent the loss and worry of natural swarming, they are also learning to increase their number of colonies when desired, by artificial means quite as successfully as by the natural way and much more cheaply.

Profits in Beekeeping.—Now to sum up we have 49 experimenters scattered all over Ontario, with 1,506 colonies, spring count, and 2,080 colonies, fall count. This represents an investment of $20,000.-00. Their income for 1912 is first, an increase of 574 colonies, which, without hives, would be worth in the at least $3.00 each, totaling $1,722,00, also 97,042 lbs. of honey, worth at least $10,000,00. This gives each of our 49 experimenters the neat dividend of 58 per cent. on his capital invested. These figures represent beekeeping on the farm and do not take into account rent for location, teaming of honey and supplies, labor and other costs for which the farmer-beekeeper usually does not pay cash. The specialist has all these expenses to face and still makes a good living.

These reports come from experimenters and show that they are getting much better returns from their bees than the average Ontario beekeeper. Even the latter do not do so well as those from whose reports the following summaries are taken. The indifferent beekeeper is holding down the production of honey all over Ontario, until tons of it have to be imported from the United States, in spite of the tariff wall, to supply the demand. It may surprise many of our bee keepers to know that United States extracted honey, which costs the Canadian dealers 12c. and more per pound, is being sold in Canadian cities this winter. The average returns from honey sales by co-operative experiments were given above.

In 1910—633 beekeepers- from 31,145 colonies, produced 1,643,900 lbs. of honey—an average of 52 lbs. per colony.

In 1911—749 beekeepers, from 32,009 hives, produced 1,489,000 lbs. of honey—an average of 46 lbs. per colony.

Races of Bees.—As to the special experiments on "Races of Bees," the results are not very conclusive as yet, except that it seems to be well demonstrated that Italian bees are very good resisters of European Foul Brood, and we would strongly recommend any beekeepers in the neighborhood of this disease to get their bees italianized as rapidly as possible, because there is no way of curing the disease in black bees, and when one has good Italian bees and the colonies strong there is very little loss from trouble of this kind.

For particulars in reference to conducting similar experiments during 1913 write to Morley Pettit, Provincial Apiarist, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph Ontario.

Massey-Harris Buys Another U. S. Plant

Another United States manufacturing concern has been bought out by the Massey-Harris Company, Toronto, which has decided to engage in the manufacture of gasoline engines, and will establish in Canada during the present year a factory specially equipped for that purpose.

The Deyo-Macey Engine Company of Binghamton, N. Y., is the concern in which the Toronto company has just secured absolute control. The officers and managers of the Binghamton company will continue in their positions, and the plant will be enlarged in order that both the United States and Canadian trades may be taken care of.

The Deyo-Macey Engine Company has a complete line of gasoline agricultural power engines, both stationary and portable, ranging from 1½ to 20 horsepower, and, in addition manufactures a well known orchard-spraying outfit.

These products in future will be manufactured and sold under the name of the Massey-Harris Company, which is planning to introduce them into every grain-growing country in the world.

The Massey-Harris Company a few years purchased a controlling interest in the Johnston Harvester Company of Batavia, N. Y. The company at the time to the purchase was employing about 1,000 men. The plant has been increased by between six and seven acres of floor space all the buildings being constructed of reinforced concrete and made absolutely fireproof, and the force increased to 2,000 men. In addition to the large factories in Toronto and Brantford, the Massey-Harris Company has also large interests in the Verity Plow Works of Brantford and the Bain Waggon Company of Woodstock.

The building of a new engine works in Canada will mean that the company will be operating five factories in Canada and two in the United States.

Concrete is the best building material

ABROAD statement—Yet literally true. The aim of man from the beginning has been to make his building materials as nearly like natural stone as possible. The great labor required to quarry stone led him to seek various manufactured substitutes. The only reason he ever used wood was that it was easiest to get and most convenient to use.

Wood is no longer easy to get. Like most building material, its cost is increasing at an alarming rate.

The cost of concrete is decreasing. So, from the standpoint of either service or economy, Concrete is the best building material.

Canada's farmers are using more concrete, in proportion to their numbers, than the farmers of any other country. Why?

Because they are being supplied with

The secret of concrete's popularity in Canada lies in the fact that while we have been advertising the use of concrete, we have also been producing, by scientific methods, a cement so uniformly high in quality that the concrete made with it gives the complete satisfaction our advertisements promised.

Concrete would not have been in such universal use today, had an inferior grade of cement been supplied. Insist upon getting Canada Cement. It is your best assurance of thoroughly satisfactory results from your concrete work. There is a Canada Cement dealer in your neighborhood.

Without this label it is not "Canada" Cement.

Repeatedly we have exhorted the public at large to send in any news, personal or otherwise, to the RECORD. We do not run a society column, or at least we have not in the past, but if some of our good friends would take as much trouble to send in a few items to the RECORD as they do to send items of news to outside papers, it would certainly be of advantage in Chesterville and from the public point of view look better. Again we say, if you have an item of news send it in or call up phone 15h.

Mr. A. E. Fetterly of Aultsville, License Inspector for Stormont, had charges laid against four residents of the Township of Roxborough for being intoxicated in a local option district, and when the cases were called before Police Magistrate Danis at Cornwall, only three of the parties put in an appearance. In one instance the charge was dismissed; two of the parties were fined $20 and costs each, or $29.98 in all, while the fourth party did not present himself, and a warrant was issued for his arrest.

The feature of the evening was the address and presentation.

The address, which follows, was read by President Clement, and on behalf of the members of the C.M.B.A., Mr. Kirby and Mr. Thomas Flynn presented Mrs. Gannon with a beautiful travelling bag and Mr. Gannon with a solid leather suit case.

The Fourth Estate

(Recorder, Brockville.)

Yesterday a pleasing function took place at Morrisburg when the St. Lawrence Counties Press Association held their first meeting for this year. The attendance was large and the discussions which took place on matters of internal economy were such as reflected credit on the members of the "Art Preservative" and of supreme importance to all concerned in journalism in its different phases. It was a happy moment when the association accepted the invitation of the members of the press at Morrisburg to assemble in that town for mutual advancement. It is one of the prettiest places on the St. Lawrence, and its wide streets, always a valuable adjunct, combined with handsome dwellings, spacions lawns, made a decided impression on those in attendance, who included:—

C. W. Young, Cornwall Freeholder.
B. O. Britton, Gananoque Reporter.
J. Thompson, Gananoque Journal.
Geo. Mason, Prescott Journal
R. S. Pelton, Iroquois News.
L. E. Murphy, Morrisburg Leader.
C. A. Styles, Morrisburg Herald
W. J. Styles, Morrisburg Herald
Frank L. Newman, Jackson Press, Kingston.
A. T. Wilgress, Brockville Times President.
W. J. Moore, Brockville Recorder, Secretary-Treasurer.
Mr. Martin, Standard, Kingston
J. G. Elliot, Kingston Whig.
M. C. Franklin, Recorder.

The meeting was held in the Agricultural Hall and was presided over by President Wilgress. W. J. Moore, discharged the duties of secretary.

The matter of standard prices were considered and certain lines of policy adopted after a full and intelligent discussion. An address delivered by Geo. Mason, of Prescott Journal, on conditions in that town was ably given and heartily approved, being replete of sound counsel, careful attention to the matter appertaining to the success of the work af the Newspaper and Printer.

At its conclusion the matter of prices was again taken up, and a very profiitable discussion ensued.

At the conclusion of the meeting an adjournment was made to the St. Lawrence Hall where a banquet was tendered the representatives by J. W. Allison. The proprietor Mr. Lev. Southworth, for years one of the brightest members of the press in Eastern Ontario and of the staff of the Recorder.

The menu provided contained all the delicacies of the season, and was such as would tempt the veriest epicure, and drew forth the strongest commendations of all for its excellence, and the splendid appointment of its hostelry.

After the good things had been properly sampled, President Wilgress in a brief address thanked the host Mr. J. W. Allison, and spoke in eloquent terms of Mr. Murphy of the Leader, and Messrs. Styles of the Herald. He regretted that Mr. Murphy was about to take up his residence in the Canadian West as the association would lose a valuable member.

Mr. Allison on being called on was heartily received. He spoke of the pleasure it gave him to meet the journalists and receive the benefits of their views on subjects of public moment to the people of Canada.

Short addresses were also delivered by Mr. J. G. Elliot and L. E. Murphy.

Smith's Falls News.—On Wednesday evening the Woman's Auxiliary of St. John's church held a special meeting after the regular services and presented Mrs. Chas. Mr Alva Couthart of Dunbar, who has been away from this part for a couple of months, called around again a few days ago—what for we will not attempt to say. We have callers from Russel here too, but as the sun was down and the Electric Lights out, we failed to get particulars.

Spring is here. Some have tapped their trees and in a few days we hope to be sweet. Hope the Editor may not be forgotten.

Messenger Pleaded Guilty.

Kingston, March 16—Detective Pinchon of the C. P. R. laid hold on the right man when he arrested W. Redmond, messenger for the Dominion Express Company, at Sharbot Lake, for the theft of a package containing $1,678.08 a week ago. When arraigned in the Police Court here on Saturday Redmond pleaded guilty to the charge, and Magistrate Farrell remanded him for a week for sentence. The Magistrate asked the prisoner if he intended restoring the money, and the latter said he did, but could not do so at present. It seems he told the detective he had burned it, but it is thought he may not have done this. He will be given a chance to get it back. It seems Redmond also confessed that he was the man who stole $100 from the company on the same route three months ago. He is only twenty-five years of age and has a wife and child.

HERE IS GOOD ADVICE TO TAKE

It will help those who have Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

There are other "old enemies" similar to the one mentioned in this testimonial. Kidney and Bladder Troubles are always enemies to good health. As soon as you start to take GIN PILLS these ailments begin to disappear. It is the same in cases of Lumbago, Sciatica and like complaints. This letter illustrates the benefit of GIN PILLS.

Winnipeg, Jan. 6th.

"I have been a sufferer from Lumbago for some years past and during Christmas week had a very acute attack which confined me to the house. About the latter part of April, I met your Mr. Hill and mentioned my complaint to him. He advised me to take GIN PILLS. I have been taking them at intervals during the early part of the present winter, and up to date have had no return of my old trouble—in fact, I feel better than I have for years and think that my old enemy has vanished for good and all." HARRINGTON—KINKAID

A very pretty wedding took piace on Wednesday evening, March 5th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Harrington when their youngest daughter Anna, was united in marriage to Mr. Lorn Kinkaid of Winchester. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D.L .Gordon of Russell, the wedding march being played by the bride's sister, Mrs. Milford Whiteside of Metcalfe. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a beautiful gown of ivory satin with pearl and crystal trimming and wore the bridal veil caught with a wreath of lillies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Lizzie Kinkaid, sister of the groom, who wore a beautiful dress of pale blue satin with pearl trimming and pearl bandeau in her hair. The groom was supported by Mr. Hedley Boyd, cousiu of the bride, and Master Eldon Craig, nephew of the bride acted as ring bearer. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and fob, to the bridesmaid a gold watch fob and the groomsman gold cuff links with monogram engraved. After congratulations Miss Florence Millan of Montreal, cousin of the bride, rendered a beautiful solo during the signing of the register. The bridal party then led the way to the dining room which was tastefully decorated with evergreens and silver tinsel caught with bells. After a sumptuous repast was partaken of, the evening was spent in amusement.

The bride was the recipient of many useful and beautiful presents, including checks and a number of pieces of cut glass. The young couple will reside at Winchester.

The best wishes of the entire community go with the happy couple for a long and prosperous future.

Co-operative Experiments In Weed Eradication, 1913.

During the season of 1912, the Ontario Agriculture Experimental Union carried on co-operative experiments in the eradication of Perennial Sow Thistle, Twitch Grass, Bladder Campion and Wild Mustard. A number of practical men took part in these experiments, and some very interesting and valuable results were obtained. A properly cultivated crop of rape was found to be an excellent means of destroying Perennial Sow Thistle and Twitch Grass. Rape proved more effective in destroying Twitch Grass than did Buckwheat. Thorough and deep cultivation followed by potatoes or corn gave good results in the control of Bladder Campion. Spraying with Iron or Copper Sulphate proved to be a cheap and effective means of destroying Mustard in growing grain without injury to the crop. Those who took part in these experiments profited by experience. They cleaned the field experimented upon, demonstrated to their own satisfaction the effectiveness of the method tried, and at the same time their results furnished practical information to others.

These co-operative experiments in weed eradication will be continued this year (1913) and it is hoped that a large number of men will take part in them, in order that sufficient data may be gathered to warrant definite statements being made regarding the best methods of controlling these pernicious weeds. The experiments are as follows:—(1) The use of rape in the destruction of Perennial Sow Thistle. (2) A system of intensive cropping and cultivation, using Winter Rye followed by Turnips, Rape or Buckwheat for eradicating Perennial Sow Thistle. (3) The use of Rape in the destruction of Twitch Grass. (4) A method of cultivation and cropping for the destruction of Twitch Grass. (5) A method for the eradication of Bladder Campion or Cow Bell. (6) Spraying with Iron Sulphate to destroy Mustard in cereal crops.

Those who are troubled with any of these bad weeds are invited to write to the Director of co-operative experiments in weed eradication, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, Ont., who will be glad to furnish full information concerning these experiments, and to supply application blanks for the same. All experimenters will be supplied with full and detailed instructions for carrying on the experiment selected and with blank forms on which to report the results of the same.

All interested in clean farming are asked to co-operate in this work. Address all communications to J. E. Howitt, Botanical Department, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, Ontario.

Rev. Dr. D. S. Dix of Chalmers Church, Guelph, has been invited to the pastorate of Westminster Presbyterian Church, Nutana, Saskatoon.

The McLaughlin Carriage Company have been engaged in the development of vehicles for 43 years —over 38 years of that time have been devoted to making carriages. They were made well, as might be expected when every effort, every new and tried idea was applied to the betterment of their construction and to the extension of their service. McLaughlin buggies bore a good name, but they earned it. It was won on sheer merit. A farmer or townsman bought a McLaughlin buggy when he had the price simply because it represented the best he could get. He could buy cheaper buggies, but he couldn't get McLaughlin service. Service can't be had for nothing; it costs money, and it's worth it.

But here's the point. The same standards that made the McLaughlin buggy famous are still applied to the making of McLaughlin cars. Each McLaughlin car is the product of the accumulated experience, skill and knowledge of over forty-three years directed solely along one line. Methods haven't altered. It is odly the principle of locomotion that has changed.

In relation to service, consider weil that which goes with every McLaughlin car. Through its depots located all over the country, the resources of the McLaughlin plant are placed convenient to the needs of the McLaughlin motorist. Over one hundred thousand dollars' worth of parts are carried for the single purpose of giving quick, economical service. You may never need this service, but all the same, it's mighty comforting to know that it is at your disposal when and where you want tt. This is partly what is meant by McLaughlin service. It covers the country.

No other Company in Canada has so much invested in service for its customers.

The McLauglin Carriage Co., - - Oshawa, Ont.

THOS. FAULKNER OF MOREWOOD,

District Agent for Dundas and Stormont.

The Sudden Death of Mr. George H. Pedlar.

Oshawa, March 16—This town has not in years been called upon to bear so severe a shock and loss as that occasioned to-day by the sudden death of Mr. George H. Pedlar, President of The Pedlar People, Limited, sheet-metal manufactures. Deceased had spent a busy day in his office Saturday, and he retired after packing his grip and making final arrangements for leaving on an early train this morning for a business trip to Chicago. Shortly after midnight he called Mrs. Pedlar, and complained of pain, and while she was away obtaining hot-water applications, he succumbed from heart failure.

Mr. Pedlar was one Oshawa's oldest and most respected citizens, having spent his entire life here. Over half a century ago he commenced operations in a small way in the tin and sheet metal business in Oshawa, and in 1892 established this business under the name of The Pedlar Metal Roofing Company.

Owing to the unlimited possibilities which this line of business has had, and by close personal attention and ability, Mr. Pedlar was successful in building up an immense business, and the plant in Oshawa to-day is the largest concern of its kind under the British flag.

During the earlier life of the business he had associated with him his son George, but after his death, in 1909, and owing to the increased responsibilities and greatly developing business, the concern was reorganized and formed into a joint stock company in 1911. Recognizing the faithful services of several of his older employees, Mr. Pedlar took them into the business as stockholders.

The company have offices and large warehouses in Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa London, Chatham, Winnipeg and Vancouver, and their goods are handled by agents in many foreign countries

The late Mr. Pedlar was born in Oshawa on August 4, 1843. He was throughout his busy life actively interested in public and social affairs, a generous giver to all charities and a faithful contributor to the Y. M. C. A., the Salvation Army and kindred interests, his latest act of benevolence being a joint gift, with Mrs Pedlar, of $10,000 to the Oshawa Hospital for the erection of a surgical wing to that institution as a memorial to his late son.

Mr. Pedlar was in religion a Methodist and in politics a Conservative. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Edward Northwood of Chatham and Mrs. W. R. Geikie of Toronto.

FRIEDMANN IN THE QUEEN CITY

Works Like A Trojan For Three Hours Disposing Of Forty Cases

Toronto, March 14—Whatever may be the opinion of medical men and whatever the fuiure may bring forth in the case of the Friedmann serum for the cure of tuberculosis, the sights which were witnessed today at the Pathological Building, the General Hospital and the Hospital for Sick Children were such as to fill all with pity for suffering humanity.

To see the face of one of these people crumble up when informed that Dr. Friedmann could do nothing for him was a sight that moved the most stolid. From all over the province there were men and women and little children, brought in the hope that something might be done to alleviate their suffering. A poor woman stood outside the Pathological Building for an hour awaiting the arrival of the physician. She spoke German and the doctor smiled with pleasure at her when she addressed him. She inquired if she could bring her little boy to him and he smiled again and told her to bring him at three o'clock. From the time that he landed in Toronto at 7.30 this morning he worked like a giant. There were men alongside him who looked haggard and wan with their work and who would take a respite, however brief. Not so the doctor. He was remorseless. His smile for a poor suffering creature was such that it was always reflected. He never faltered, and the only breakfast that he got was before going over to the Hospital for Sick Children, when he stole a few minutes to eat a sandwich and drink a cup of coffee.

The doctor arrived at the Pathological Building at a little after nine o'clock and immediately set to work. He had cases brought to him in the patient's consulting room and conferred with the doctors about them. Those who were accepted went downstairs to wait. At about half-past ten the doctor went into the laboratory with Dr. Benjamin to prepare the serum. He carefully surveyed the room and had the doors covered, although they had frosted glass and no one could see into the room.

Downstairs in the operating theatre the space was quickly filled by doctors, students and some outsiders interestd in the "cure." They waited patiently for more than an hour while the doctor was getting ready.

Dr. Friedmann worked without a break from 11.30 till 2.15 and disposed of forty cases. Every case was taken on its merits.

Hon. Adam Beck tried once to induce him to leave and get a little refreshment. "No, no," said the doctor, with a smile, and turned to his work. Just then a little boy was brought in and he was clearly frightened and commenced to cry. Mr. Beck stood by his side and comforted him

At the Hospital for Sick Children there were scores of anxious mothers with little children in their arms, waiting for the appearance af the famous doctor. Upstairs in Ward B. some tables were laid out, and on these the little ones were brought The doctor examined each child and asked questions. Five children at a time were brought in, and when all was ready the "cure" was used. Anxious mothers walked about with prayers on their lips, and many a father looked as if he would like to lay down his life for the little one that was to be treated. So it went on until five o'clock.

Dr. Friedmann expressed himself as greatly pleased with the arrangements made for his visit in Toronto. He had intended leaving forNew York in the afternoon, but Hon. Adam Beck prevailed upon him to go to London. Accordingly with Mr. Beck, Dr. Benjamin and Dr. Huiht, of New York, he left for London at 7.35 and will treat cases their tomorrow

At least one Toronto man is already feeling the benefit of the Friedmann cure. He is Dr. John Drover, a dentist, 405 Dupont street. He was treated by Dr. Friedmann before the latter sailed for America and is now in Switzerland. A letter received by his friends today contained the welcome tidings that he has so far recovered as to be able to walk without the crutches which his tubercular knee required him to use up to the time Dr. Friedmann's treatment began to have its effects.

Rural Mail Carrier Didn't Deliver It All

Renfrew, March 14—Lawrence E. Saddler, rural mail carrier between Renfrew and Burnston, was arrested on Tuesday for robbing the mail, and was sentenced to three years in Kingston penitentiary. Post Office Inspector T. P. Coolican caused a decoy letter to be sent, containing four dollars and twenty-five cents in marked money, and since there were previous complaints and Saddler was suspected, the letter was sent on his route.

Having ascertained that it had not reached its destination, Saddler, immediately on his return to the Renfrew postoffice, was arrested and searched. The marked money was found on him, and he was taken before Police Magistrate Devins, where he pleaded guilty and was given the above sentence.

Joe Lally to Handle Western Lacrosse Team.

Vancouver, B. C., March 17—Is Cornwall to lose Joe Lally? If the National Lacrosse Union impressario has decided to come to the coast—and the New Westminster officials authorize the statement that the famous Joe will pilot a second team in Vancouver—the god-father of so many famous lacrosse players will be lost to his native heath. Lally, according to report, will open a sporting good business here. Vancouver officials know nothing about a second team for this city, but the New Westminster moguls appear to be pretty well posted on Lally's movements and say a second Vancouver team will be organized. The annual meeting of the B. C. L. A. will be held March 22. Victoria will have a pro. tem and will send representatives to the meeting.

Hon. John G. Haggart Dies in Ottawa.

Ottawa, March 13—Hon. John Haggart member of Parliament, for South Lanark former Postmaster-General and former Minister of Railways and Canals, died at his rooms here to-day, after an illness of several months duration, which, however did not become acute until a few hours before the end. Death was due to Bright's disease.

The deceased stateman had been confined to his bed about two months. The funeral will take place at Perth on Sunday at 1.30 o'clock, from the family residence, where he had resided with his only sister, Mrs. I. N. Miller. Owing to failing health, Mr. Haggart had been seen but rarely in the Commons during the last two sessions.

Hon. John Graham Haggart was described by the late Hon. J. I. Tarte as "a man of courage, energy and audacity and one who knows the ropes." He certainly was one of the men in Parliament noted for firmness of character, determination and indifference to the usual sauve ways of the politician. He was a son of the late John H. Haggart, who married Isabella Graham of the Isle of Skye, and came from Breadalbane, Scotland, to Canada, where he became a miller and contractor at Perth, Ont.

Hon. Mr. Haggart was born at Perth, November 14, 1836, and received his education in his native town. He entered the milling business there and at the age of 31 had achieved such a standing in the community that, in the year of Confederation he was elected Mayor of Peth, and was re-elected for the two succeeding terms. He was nominated in the Conservative interest in the first Dominiom Parliamentary election, for South Lanark, Ont., but was unsuccessful. He was renominated with the same result in 1869, and 1871, but was elected in 1872 and he represented South Lanark ever since.

He was made a member of Sir John A. Macdonald's cabinet in 1888, and was successively Postmaster-General and Minister of Railways and Canals in the Macdonald, Abbott and Thompson administrations. He was selected Ontario leader of the Conservative party when Sir Mackenzie Bowell became Premier, and was himself spoken of in connection with the Premiership. The Toronto Mail declared that "as between Mr. Bowell and Mr. Haggart the latter would be the safer man for the party." He went out with the majority of his colleagues in 1896 having deserted Sir Mackenzie Bowell to join the Tupper ministry.

Mr. Haggart was a man of keen insight and stern business integrity. As Minister of Railways and Canals, he was feared rather than worshipped, but he started in to have the Intercolonial Railway operated on someth ing nearer to business principles than had been the case at any previous period in its history, and the result was that, during the fiscal year 1892-93, he succeeding in running the line with a surplus over all expenses. Under his administration of the department, too there was completed the Sault Ste. Marie canal the last link in the chain of canals connecting the Great Lakes with the St. Lawrence and making the Canadian system the greatest the world had ever known.

Mr. Haggart was captain of the Perth Infantry Company at the time of the Trent affair. At the coronation of H.M. King George and Queen Mary, Mr. Haggart was a representative of the House of Commons, present by invitation in Westminster Abbey. In religion he was a Presbyterian, and early in life he was married to Caroline, daughter of the late Robert Douglas. Mrs. Haggart died in 1900.

In politics he was an unsevering Conservative and protectionist, a fierce fighter, a ready, though not especially eloquent speaker, and, as the Toronto Globe said: "One who plays the game of politics like a gentleman."

Given Military Funeral

Perth. Ont, March 16—An impressive military funeral was accorded this afternoon to the remains of the late Hon. John Graham Haggart, ex-minister of railways and canals, and for forty-two years representative of the riding of South Lanark in the Federal Parliament, whose death occured at Ottawa on Thursday last. The 42nd Regiment, with which the deceased saw active service as captain at the time of the Trent affair, in command of Col. Balderson, conducted the cortege, with Major de Hertel, a nephew of deceased, in charge of the firing party, the remains being borne to the cemetery on a gun carriage.

Several ministers of the Crown and members of both sides of the House were among the mourners, including Colonel the Hon. Sam Hughes, minister of militia; Hon. W. B. Nantel, minister of inland revenue; Hon. J. D. Reid, minister of customs; John Stanfield, M. P., chief Conservative whip; Mr. Speaker Sproule Senator Edwards and others.

Rush of Immigration Already Commencing

Montreal, Narch 14.—That the vanguard of this year's immagration is already beginning to sweep through Canada's gates is shown by the numbers who have passed through Montreal the last twenty-four hours. The Canadian Pacific Railway has handled three special trains, with nearly four hundred English immagrants from the Royal Edward, about two hundred Scots from the Letitia and a smaller party of Italians and Swedes from New York. In addition there arrived this morning a French party of seventeen from the steamer Cymric at Portland.

During the first eleven days of this month 5,000 immagrants were received by the C. P. R. from boats arriving at Halifax, as compared with 3,800 for the same period last year. This seems to bear out the prediction that the immagration rush will be heavier than ever before.

It is expected that 3,000 more will arrive, in addition to the above list before the end of next week.

Mrs. Mary Daly, a resident fo Sarnia for forty-five years, died at the age of one hundred and eleven.

New Regulations Governing The Free Entry Of Pure Bred Animals.

On the first of April this year there will come into force new regulations governing the free entry to Canada of animals for the improvement of stock. To this end the following amended regulations have been adopted by Order in Council for the guidance of Importers and Custom House Officers.—

1. No animal imported for the improvement of stock shall be admitted free of duty unless the owner is a British subject, resident in the British Empire, or if more than one owner, each is a British subject, resident in the British Empire and there is furnished an Import Certificate stating that the animal is recorded in a Canadian National Record or in a Foreign Record recognized as reliable by the National Record Committee.

A statutory declaration by the owner or one of the owners, that he is a British subject, or that each is a British subject resident in the British Empire and that such animal is the identical animal described in such certificate must be provided, and that such animal is being imported into Canada for the improvement of stock.

2. In case such certificate is not at hand at the time of the arrival of the animals, entry for duty may be accepted subject to refund of the duty upon the production of the requisite certificates and proofs in due form satisfactory to the collector within one year from the time of entry.

3. The form of certificate to be accepted for the free importation of animals for the improvement of stock, and the customs procedure in connection therewith shall be subject to the direction of the Minister of Customs.

4. The above declarations shall be attached to the Free Import Entry and may be made before the Collector, Sub-Collector, Surveyor or Chief Clerk at the port where the goods are entered or before any functuary authorize by-law to administer oaths.

Under the old regulations a British subject residing in a foreign country, living in Canada could secure the free entry of properly registered animals, whereas under the new order foreign persons or firms are excluded from this privilege.

Customs officers are required to examine carefully the animals presented for entry to see that they correspond with the description contained in the Import Certificate and if they do not duty is collected.

The statutory declarations required regarding citizenship and identity will it is hoped effectively prevent abuses that led up to the passing of the new regulations.

As in the past animals are subjected to veterinary inspection at the port of entry. Officials of the Health of Animals Branch who do this work are required to make a report as to color and markings. If it is found by the Canadian National Records that foreign certificates of registration do not correspond with these reports Canadian regristration and Import Certificates for the animals in question are refused.

Shredded Wheat Banquet at Morewood

On St. Patrick's night the Shredded Wheat Co. of Niagara Falls gave one of their now famous banquets under the auspices of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid. The banquet was served in Faulkner's Hall and the menu was as follows:—

MENU

Creamed chicken on Shredded Wheat.
Sweet Pickles
Pork and Beans
Triscuit and Butter
Jell-o-Fruit Sandwich with Whipped Cream
Triscuits and Ingersoll Cream Cheese
Shredded Wheat Ice Cream
Salada Tea
"Seal Brand" Coffee.

Mr. Carriere of Montreal was in charge and is an expert in guiding and directing the banquet after six years experience in the work.

The tables were beautifully decorated with flowers, and being set for several courses, looked very pretty and inviting. The refreshments were exceedingly dainty and toothsome and every one present enjoyed to the full this novel, and at the same time the tasty and satisfying banquet.

The people resorted to the hall, and there enjoyed two hours of an intellectual treat, both instructive and amusing. The local talent was assisted by a clever and gifted elocutionist, Miss McGiffin of Ottawa, and by Miss Robertson, soloist of Maxville, who delighted the audience with her Irish songs.

TAKE NOTICE.

I hereby notify those having rubbish to dispose of, that the north bank of the river, which is part of our farm, down to the grove, will no longer be available as a dumping ground for village refuse. We are reluctant to take this step because we know how convenient it is, but because the refuse dumped along the bank of the river constitutes a menace to health, a hot-bed for the production of bad weeds, and disfigures our property, we can no longer permit it. We hope it will be unnecessary to take stronger action than the serving of this notice, but if necessary, such measures as are required will be used to effectively stop this nuisance.

King Of Greece Assassinated At Saloniki.

Saloniki, March 18.—King George of Greece was assasinated while walking in the streets of Saloniniki this afternoon. The assassin was a Greek of low mental type who gave his name as Aleko Schinas. He shot the king through the heart,

The King was accompanied by an aide-de-camp, Lieut.-Colonel Francoudis. The assassin came suddenly at him and fired one shot from a seven chamber revolver. The tragedy caused intense excitement, Schinas was seized immediately and overpowered.

The wounded king was lifted into a carriage and taken to a Papaffon Hospital. Prince Nicholas, the king's third son, and other officers hurried to the hospital. Arriving first, Prince Nicholas summoned the officers and, speaking in a voice choked with sobs, said: "It is my deep grief to have to announce to you the death of our beloved king, and invite you to swear fidelity to your new sovereign, king Constantine.

Crown Prince Constantine, who succeeds King George, is at present at Janina. He is expected to come here with all possible speed.

The assassin of the king is an evil-looking fellow, about forty years of age. On being arrested he refused to explain his motive for the crime. He declared that his name was Aleko Schinas, and in a reply to an officer who asked him whether he had no pity for his country announced that he was against governments.

Schinas maintained a perfectly impassive demeanour, which was suggestive of his being irresponsible for his actions.

Notwithstanding the rapidity with which the king received attention he was found to be dead on arrival at the hospital. Precautions were at once taken throughout the city and perfect order is being maintained.

The king fell into the arms of his aide when shot. Two soldiers ran up, on hearing the firing, and helped to support him. He was placed in a carriage and efforts were made to stop the bleeding, but he breathed his last on the way to the hospital nearby.

When Prince Nicholas bade the officers swear fealty to Constantine, they shouted, "Long Live The King!"

The Greek Governor has issued a proclamation announcing that the oath of fealty to King Constantine has been taken.

Adams—Munro.

A very quiet but pretty event took place at the Methodist parsonage, Iroquois, on March 12th, 1913, at 7 p.m., when Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Munro, became the bride of A. Hilliard Adams, of Brouseville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Philip, after which the bridal couple left on the 8 o'clock train for Ottawa where they will spend their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a navy blue serge suit with hat to match. On their return they will reside at Brouseville.

Judge Macbeth declared the London township local option by-law nvalid, lacking two-fifths of a vote to carry.
