Iroquois Summer Festival

Christmas In July

Full Schedule Inside

10 Days Of Family Fun

JULY 9TH TO 18TH, 1999

Elvis and Festival Royalty 1998 edition.

Catch the fun - Christmas in July!

As Iroquois and area gear up to celebrate Summer again in 1999, the theme should prove quite interesting. Christmas in July may well help everyone keep a little cooler as the temperature rises, the humidex climbs and the sun beams down unrelentlously upon us.

This year the celebration is shaping up to be even better than last year. Many of those things that have been a hit in previous years will return and some new events have been added to help make 1999 be the best yet!

Support the committee and your community, come out to events and participate if possible, or join the fun from the sidelines,it makes no matter, you will have a great time whatever way you choose.

From this Friday, July 9, yes, time certainly does fly... when the fishermen, women and children can try their luck in the water as they drop hooks and lures into the cool depths there will be ten fun filled, jam packed days of celebration in Iroquois.

Check out the flyer produced by the Committee or take the centre section of this Chieftain production and place it in a strategic location for reference...that way you should not miss those events you can be a part of.

The midway returns on Thursday, July 8th and will run through to and including Sunday the 11th for the pleasure of all ages and thanks to the Knights of Columbus.

Local organizations (Matilda Women's Institute) and groups will host bake sales throughout the week, so although it is too hot to cook, you will be able to feed that sweet tooth!

As usual a highlight will be the Opening ceremonies: this year that jolly old elf himself, Mister Santa Claus will be the featured Master of Ceremonies. The Mini Miss and Little Gent will be crowned. Vying for the honours this year are: Mackenzie Arsenault, Brittany Barkley, Taylor Beahen, Kelsey Hall, Emma Hansen, Macey Markell, Maisie Menges, Jayme Thurler and Melissa Tschoumy. The guys going for the title Little Gent are Travis Fawcett, Matthew Hansen, Jordon Keeler, Jordon McCaslin and Jody Shearer...good luck to all, the experience is well worth entering. Then to the 1999 Citizen of the Year as well as the Senior Volunteer Awards will be presented along with the Colouring Contest winners and House Decorating champs' awards. Dig out those decorations and get into the mood...a couple around town have been smitten with Summer Festival spirit already, lawns are delightfully decorated in a festive mood.

Get your Summer Festival Button today and if spotted wearing it you could be a winner!!

Get those decorations up at your house, judging takes place on July 7, this Wednesday evening!!!TONIGHT!!!

T-Shirts designed by Iroquois' Kent McDermid are available for only $12 by calling Betty Fawcett at 652-2398.

This stacks up to be the best Summer Festival yet. Be there and enjoy the fun of summer in our own little town. This is the biggest event held in town all year. Support the team that put it all together, support those who take part and support the sponsors. The Festival will be as good as we make it...see you there!!

Heatin' up in Wings Contest

Get ready to choke down some fiery action at Jigger's Restaurant on the 13th of July!

An inferno of excitement, the second annual Jigger's Summer Festival Wing Eating Contest will pit the toughest tummies against last year's winner - the man with the Titanium Tonsils - David Lapier.

Contestants must work their way through regular, hot and finally suicide wings, with the fastest time.

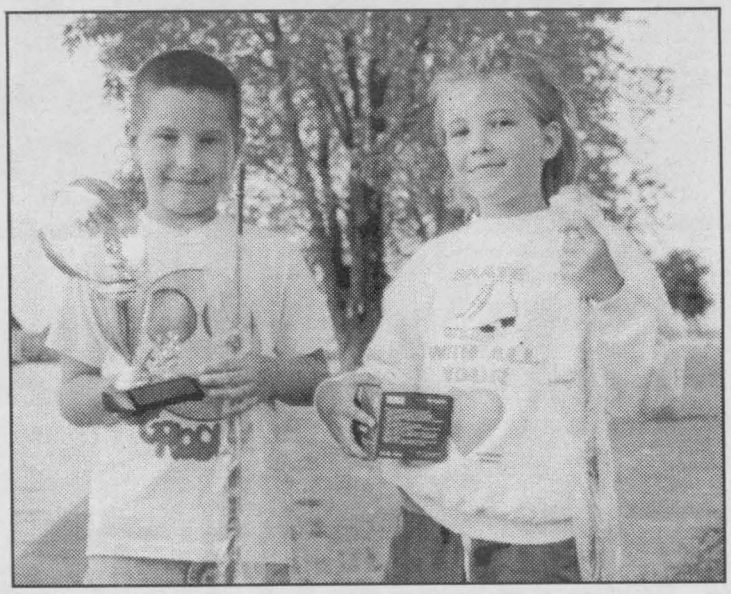
Local celebrities take part in the action and your mouth will water watching all the fun.

The festivities begin at 8 pm and contestants are given a 10 minute break between rounds to wash down the wings.

Fine food and beverages are always available for the spectators.

Can Titanium Tonsils Lapier repeat? Or will someone else lay claim to the fastest draw in town.

The only way to find out is to be a part of the action!



Youngster Derby winners savour victory.
