District Women's Institutes Visit N. Y. State

The members of Elma and Colquhoun Women's Institutes spent a very enjoyable day on September 25th when they chartered a Colonial Coach bus to drive them to Plattsburg, N. Y.

Leaving at 9 o'clock in the morning, they journeyed to Cornwall and crossed over to New York State, then, with a stop-over at Malone for half an hour they went on to Plattsburg and TV Station WPTZ, arriving at 12.30. At one o'clock they were guests on "Hospitality House" with Jean Schifler and Burd Burdan. They were interviewed by Burd Burdan. Spokesman for the group were Mrs. Hugh McMillan, president of Elma W. I., and Mrs. Donald Kyle, president of Colquhoun W. I. Following the broadcast a tour was taken of Station WPTZ, guides being members of the staff.

A window-shopping spree of 1½ hours proved very interesting to the ladies who enjoyed comparing U. S. prices with Canadian prices. Then a drive arriving home at ten p.m. with happy thoughts of a day long to be remembered.

The members of Elma and Colquhoun W. I. are grateful to the committee in charge of the tour, Mrs. Bernice Froats, Mrs. Harold McIntosh, Mrs. Burrill Becksted and Miss Gertrude Barkley.

The regular bowling season opened on Thursday evening when the United Church Couples' Club turned out thirty-two strong to get it away to a good start. Good singles included Margaret Anderson 202, Lorne Isaac 210, Hugh Coons 196, Raymond Earl 185.

The Crysler Mixed Bowling League started their schedule on Friday with all four teams being filled. Evelyn Armstrong rolled the ladies' high cross and single, having 526-200; Lillian Johnston had 521-184, and Betty Burd 499-188. Doug. Shaver took the men's honours with 604-220; Jack Armstrong had
