The Golden Calf

Sunnylodge Star Girl, a January 1977 calf sired by Roybrook Starlite from dam Green Top Stylemaster, was sold for the highest amount a calf has ever been sold for in Eastern Ontario. The calf brought $19,000 for Carl Smith of Sunnylodge Farms, RR3 Chesterville, in the Eastern Ontario Holstein Calf Sale at the Fawcett Sale Barn, Inkerman, Saturday afternoon. With the calf are front, from left, Allison Fawcett, Don Albright, J.J. Bompas of Richmond, buyer of Sunnylodge Star Girl, Carl SMith, Ontario Dairy Princess Betty Jenkins, Wayne Presley, Basil Dawley, Murray Howes; rear, Hugh Fawcett, Ralph Fawcett and Mahlon Zeron. The calf was artificially bred and the fertilized embryo was surgically removed from its natural mother and placed in a recipient grade cow after 90 days. The recipient went through normal gestation and calved January 8. An Excellent offspring of Green Top Stylemaster was sold to Cuba for $15,000 several years ago. -staff photo-

Tax rate increases average of 19.3 mills

(Staff) - Village taxes will take an average 19.3-mill jump this year and for a change education requisitions are not solely to blame.

Residential taxes for public school supporters will climb 16.2 mills to 150.7; separate school supporters, after a year of being at par with their public school supporters, face a higher increase, of 18.8 mills to 153.3.

On the business and commercial side, those who pledge their education taxes to the public school system will have a bill 19 mills higher than last year's while businesses which support separate schools will have a 21.9-mill hike.

The village increase was 12.9 mills across the board and for public school supporters the only other increase was in the secondary panel requisition of the SD&G County Board of Education, which again went up 4.8 mills across the board.

Public elementary requisitions are down, from 33 mills last year to 31.9 for residential and from 36.7 from 35.5 for public business and commercial. The county rate is down .4 mills for all school supporters.

Separate school residential ratepayers face a slight, 5 mill increase for elementary schools and the rate for separate commercial and business tax payers is .2 mills higher.

The total tax bill is 173.1 for business and commercial tax payers supporting public schools, and 176 for those businesses and commercial establishments supporting separate schools.

The tax rate bylaw was passed at a special meeting of Village Council last Tuesday night after the municipality's legislators failed to strike the final figures at their April 6 budget night. There is still a chance the bills will get into the mail by the end of this month, which would give early tax payers a 2½ per cent discount if paid by the end of April. The discount decreases by a ½ per cent each month to September, when they can be paid at par.

Translated into dollars and cents, the increases mean an average of $56.92 per $3,000 of assessed value. Residential public school supporters are at the low end of the scale, with an average increase of $48.60 per $3,000 of assessment and separate school commercial and business ratepayers at the high end, with $65.70 per $3,000.

The village's total budget this year is $707,895, the largest part of which, $189,000, is taken up by transportation services. Only slightly smaller is the requisition of the two county school boards which this year accounts for $188,887. Recreation and cultural services have a budget of $134,300 and environmental services, $74,000. General government has been pegged at $38,000 and protection to persons and property at $25,000. The county levy this year is $52,708.

Taxation will raise $201,582 this year and Ontario government grants will provide $144,400 if all applications are approved. Listed under "other" on the municipality's balance sheet is revenue amounting to $65,300. This includes water and sewer charges and debenture payments of the sewage system.

The village carried $6,130 forward this year and this sum has been placed in the accumulated net revenue fund.

This year marks the last in which property taxes will be charged on the present assessment system, which has traditionally assessed homes, businesses and industry at 25.4 per cent of market value based on a 1970 reference.

Next year all municipalities in Ontario will levy taxes on the market value of properties.

The new system will raise the assessment value of properties approximately four times but will balance itself out through a mill rate which will be inversely proportional to assessment increases. In other words, as the assessment goes up four times, the mill rate will come to ¼ of what it is now in order for the same amount of taxes to be raised.

In Chesterville, the total tax base is $2,593,826, of which $1,174,445 is residential and $1,419,381 is business and commercial.

The following is a breakdown of 1977 property taxes with 1976 taxes in brackets:

Calf brings record of $19,000

INKERMAN (Staff) - Carl Smith's experiment with embryo transplants to maximize calf production in his champion Holstein herd paid off handsomely Saturday at Fawcett's Sale Barn when his junior calf, Sunny lodge Star Girl, was sold for an Eastern Ontario record $19,000.

The calf, purchased by J.J. Bompas, Richmond, well known Ottawa area Ayshire breeder, was one of 61 calves old at the Eastern Ontario Holstein Calf Sale. Total price was $59,520 for an average of $775.73. The sale was sponsored by Holstein Clubs from across Eastern Ontario.

Sunnylodge Star Girl was born January 8, 1977, and was sired by Roybrook Starlite, Excellent and Superior Production Sire. Her dam is Green Top Stylemaster classified Very Good, Three Star Brood Cow, who has produced at five years of age in 353 days, 23,988 lbs. milk and 875 lbs. butterfat for a 3.65 per cent average test and a Breed Class Average of 193 for milk and 191 for butterfat.

The calf has four brothers in Canadian Units. An Excellent sister was sold to Cuba for $15,000 in 1972.

Contending bidder for the top priced calf at Saturday's sale was Stormont Dundas Transplants, a syndicate of three Holstein breeders, Basil Dawley, Winchester, Wayne Presley, Newington and Mr. Smith.

Sunnylodge Star Girl was the first dairy calf in Eastern Ontario bred through the embryo transplant technique in which the dam, in this case Green Top Stylemaster, is artificially inseminated and then the fertilized egg surgically harvested from her and implanted in a recipient, or surrogate, mother.

This extends the calf-bearing ability of a valuable dam of proven championship ability.

Green Top Stylemaster has reached the age at which she experience difficulty calving naturally and her breeding usefulness has been extended. The recipient cow acts as an incubator for the embryo after first being synchronized with the natural mother's heat cycle.

Mr. Smith chose the firm of Modern Ova Trends of Norval, Ont., for the transplantation and March 1, 1976. Green Top Stylemaster was bred with semen from Roybrook Starbrite after first being treated with hormones so that she would superovulate (produce multiple ovulations).

Ten days after six fertilized eggs were surgically removed from her and placed in recipient heifers. After 90 days the grade heifers were checked for pregnancy and two were found to be safely with calf.

They were kept at Norval until November, 1976, when Mr. Smith brought one back to Chesterville and his Sunnylodge Farm. She calved in January and the other grade heifer gave birth to a bull calf at Norval.

The second highest price paid at Saturday's sale was $1,750 and went to Madawaska Holsteins, Arnprior, from Oran Montgomery of Stormont County. He purchased Madawaska Loma, a July, 1976 daughter of Glenafton Man-of-War, Excellent and Class Extra Sire. Her dam is Madawaska Libby, Good Plus, who at four years in 305 days produced 14,043 lbs. milk, 574 butterfat for a BCA of 129 milk and 143 butterfat.

Third highest price went to Terrdale Holsteins, Brinston, for a July 1976 daughter of Wholesome Perseus Leader from a Good Plus dam with 156:155 BCA. It was purchased by L. Dohmer, Bedford, PQ.

Norallea Farms, Pembroke, paid $1,000 to Dalton Ouderkirk, Lunenburg, for a February 1977 daughter of Seiling Rockman from a Good Plus dam with 183:179 BCA.

Inadequate survey response

(Staff) - Finch Township Council Monday night learned by letter from MLA for SD&G Osie Villeneuve that representatives of the Ministry of Housing will be meeting with council in the near future to discuss the possible construction of a senior citizens housing complex. A need and demand study recently determined only 14 persons, six from Finch village and eight from Finch Township, would move to the complex. The ministry requires at least 25 persons to begin plans.

Isn't that dandy?

(Staff) - Spring is here and summer is not far behind with Deb Hummell, Albert St., Chesterville, reporting the first dandelion of the year to The Record office late last Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Hummell said he was raking his yard when he spotted a small clump of the little yellow weeds which will shortly be in full bloom.

Scouts raising funds

(Staff) - The First Chesterville Troop of Boy Scouts and Wolf Cub Pack will hold a bottle and wire coat hanger drive in the village this Saturday beginning at 9:30am to raise funds to help send representatives to the national Jamboree on Prince Edward Island this summer. They will also be sponsoring a dance next Friday night at the Community Hall with music supplied by the Dwayne Acres Band. There will be door prizes and a light lunch will be served. Tickets, at $5 a couple, are available from all Cubs, Scouts, members of the Group Committee or by phoning 984-2527. Proceeds from the dance will again go to the Can-Jam fund.

Education Week

(Staff) - Education Week is being observed at elementary schools throughout SD&G this week and in Chesterville open houses will be held at both elementary schools tonight and tomorrow (Thursday). Tonight St. Mary's hosts its Education Evening with student displays and explanations of Ministry of Education guidelines and curriculum procedures. Thursday Chesterville Public will be open to the public during class hours and an open house will be held that evening. Friday night will see the official opening and blessing of the new addition at St. Bernard's in Finch. There will be an open house all day and in the evening, at 8pm, the addition will be opened and students will have gymnastics and science displays and will hold the finals in their public speaking contest.

Offers, counters fly, but strike still unresolved

(Staff) - The two sides in SD&G's secondary school teacher strike don't appear to be any closer to reaching a settlement as teachers at the area's 10 high schools remain off the job for the third week.

Teacher demands that working conditions be contained in the 1976-77 contract remain the central issue as negotiators for both sides vie for public support for their positions.

The board has rejected the teachers' latest call for mediation, saying it is no more than a ploy to get the two sides to go to voluntary arbitration. It has been the board's position throughout the dispute that it will not go to voluntary binding arbitration because "the issues at stake are too important to be settled by an outside party".

Monday teachers met at Cornwall's Capitol Theatre and voted by a landslide margin to accept their negotiators' offer to the board that provincial mediator Harvey Ladd be called back to SD&G to work out a settlement to allow the tri-counties 9,000 secondary school students to go back to normal class schedules.

They made three proposals to the board, all but one of which were rejected.

The Ontario Secondary School Teachers Federation and Association des Ensignants Franco-Ontariens provincial takeover team proposed that Mr. Ladd be invited back to attempt again to achieve a mediated settlement.

Chief teacher negotiator Peter Norman said the mediation should go continuously for 12 hours and should any items remain unresolved at the end of the session, they would be dealt with in a written report of the mediator. The solutions proposed by the mediator would be binding on both sides.

This is the tack the teachers asked to be taken if the board again turned down a call for voluntary arbitration.

On the straight arbitration proposal, teachers voted 461 to 3 in favor and 463 to 1 in favor of the mediation-arbitration proposal.

The proposals were delivered to director of education T.R. Leger Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning the board issued a press release saying it would consider calling Mr. Ladd back but refused to entertain the other two proposals.

The board said the two proposals are "regressive steps" and amount to no more than yet "another call for arbitration counched in the jargon and terminology of mediation". Voluntary arbitration has been rejected by the board and remains totally unacceptable, its press release states.

Chief board negotiator Eugene Legault says the teacher proposals indicate their position hasn't changed since the beginn-

Local accepts Nestle's offer

(Staff) - The membership of Local 488, Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Union, voted overwhelmingly last week to accept the offer of Nestle (Canada) Ltd. for a new two-year contract calling for across the board pay increases in both years, increased fringe benefits and upgrading of holiday requirements.

The company's hourly employees voted Thursday to accept the offer by a 75 per cent margin. Two hundred and eighteen of those casting ballots voted to accept the offer and 72 turned it down. Two hundred and ninety of the 304 members of Local 488 voted on the contract, which is retroactive to January 31 of this year.

The union had been without a contract since that time and the new pact spans the period to January 31, 1979. Negotiations had been going on since mid-December.

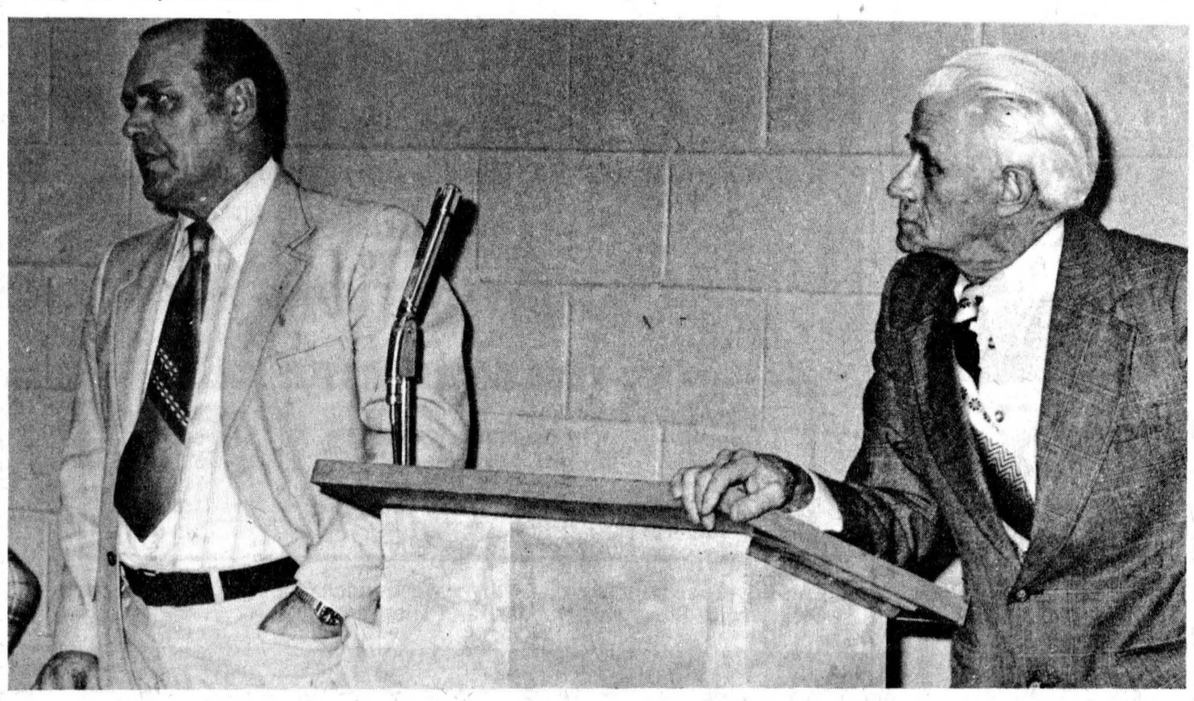
The new contract calls for an across the board increase of eight per cent this year and six per cent in 1978. Both increases are subject to Anti-Inflation Board rulings.

Also included is a provision calling for an employee dental plan, which goes into effect in October of this year and a clause changing the number of years of employment required for five weeks' holidays.

Under the old agreement, 25 years of employment at Nestle had been required for five weeks' holdiays. The new agreement has shortened this to 20 years.

Employee sick pay benefits will also be improved under the new collective agreement.

Terms of the contract will go into effect when it is signed next week.



Trustees in hotseat

SD&G County Board of Education trustees Eugene Legault and Lorne Thompson were two members of a five-man panel placed in the hot seat by almost 75 parents and students at North Dundas District High School Thursday night. The main cry from the parents and students was to go to arbitration and get the schools back to normal with teacher-instructed classes. -staff photo-

Rotation increases corn yield

(Special) - The success of corn in Ontario made the concept of continuous cropping popular. Today, many cash-crop farmers on heavy clay soils are running into corn production problems. These farmers should take a second look at the benefits of growing corn in rotation.

Since the early 50s, agricultural research has demonstrated the value of rotation on heavy clay soils. Twelve years of reserach by the University of Guelph on Haldimand clay soils at Cayuga resulted in a 30 per cent increase in grain corn yields where corn was grown in a rotation with oats, wheat and red clover. A 20 per cent increase in yield was obtained when a shorter two-year rotation of corn and oats seeded down to red clover was followed.

More recently, similar results were seen by Agriculture Canada researchers on corn grown on Brookston clay soils at Woodslee. Over a 13-year period, growing corn in a four-year rotation with oats and alfalfa increased grain corn yields 30 per cent, or 1.6 tonnes per hectare (25 bushels per acre). A shorter two-year rotation of corn and oats increased grain corn yields by 18 per cent, or one tonne per hectare (15 bushels per acre).

University of Illinois reports corn grown in rotation at the Morrow plots produced the highest corn yields. Even with high fertility, continuous corn plots produced only 87 per cent of those plots following soybeans.

The effect of rotating crops on corn yields can be seen for many years. Corn grown for 10 years at the Ridgetown College of Agricultural Technology on soils with a history of one year of hay in previous rotations produced an additional 3.14 tonnes of grain corn per hectare (50 bushels per acre).

The Reasons for higher corn yields when legumes and a cereal crop are included in rotation with corn are not fully understood. But the key may be found in the effect of these crops on soil organic matter levels and improved soil structure.

Forages-untapped feed resource

(Special) - Forages, viewed with little enthusiasm by most producers, are an untapped feed resource.

William E. Hurst, soils and crops specialist for the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food, says producers should take a closer look at forages in light of the increased costs of protein and grain. Forages can provide low-cost, high-protein feed and can be beneficial as a soil-building rotational crop.

When selecting a forage field, farmers should avoid choosing an area with perennial weeds or drainage problems.

"The establishment of a good stand is basic to the forage crop," says Mr. Hurst. "Mistakes made in the seeding year will haunt producers until the crop is finally plowed under."

In choosing a companion crop, producers should consider whether the companion crop will be too competitive with the forage crop. Mr. Hurst suggests oats, drilled in 14-inch rows at about one bushel per acre. Other points to be considered when choosing a companion crop are the pH levels, the seedbed, planting depth, fertilizer and good management.

Once the forage crop is established, producers should watch for insects, make sure the companion crop is completely harvested, apply the recommended rate of potash in August to ensure winter hardiness, and avoid pasturing the forage crop in the fall period.

"The establishment of a good stand is the foundation for future profitable forage yields," he says.

He reaffirmed the board's offer, made last week, to have teachers vote in an Education Relations commission-supervised balloting on the board's latest offer to guarantee the negotiability and grievability of working by having them contained in letters of commitment which would be attached to the contract but not included in it.

Teachers say the offer sounds like a fair one but they have yet to receive it in writing.

At their last bargaining session, Sat., April 9, the proposal was handed across the table but was headed "without prejudice", which in labor relations terminology, means it is only a bargaining position and not a written offer. Teachers say they haven't received a written offer from the board since they voted to go on strike, March 17.

1000 Islands' story

The 1000 Islands has long been one of North America's premiere tourist attractions and one of the main reasons has been the promotion it has received from developers and operators in the region. Vincent Dee, centre, chairman of the area's tourist council and head of the 1000 Islands Bridge Authority, shows Seaway Valley Tourist Council president Art Casselman, second from right, a color brochure prepared to tell the 1000 Islands' story. Others interested in Mr. Dee's explanation are, from left, John Sloan, general manager, St. Lawrence Parks, Russell Wilcox, administrative director, 1000 Islands Bridge Authority, and W.A. Elliott, managing director, Eastern Ontario Travel Authority.

Tourism facing new challenge

MORRISBURG (Staff) - The compatibility of tourist development with the natural environment is the new challenge facing the industry, Vincent J. Dee, chairman of the 1000 Islands Tourist Council and 1000 Islands Bridge Authority told members of the Seaway Valley Regional Tourist Council at its annual meeting here last Wednesday night.

In the past, tourism faced the difficulty of not being taken seriously by other business and industry but this has changed as more of the "smokestack industries" realized the benefits created by tourism could work to their advantage.

He gave Florida as an example of a region which has existed primarily on the benefit of its tourist industry but which has been able to attract more industry because of the recreational facilities created through tourist development. This contributes to employee well-being and companies realize this, Mr. Dee said.

The two industries, the "smokestack" and the "smokeless", now live in harmony and realize each complements the other.

Now the challenge has shifted as tourist development is increasingly criticized for despoiling the natural environment and for creating tensions between local residents and a transient population of seasonal visitors.

Manufacturing industries had been the target of environmentalists' for many years but as they cleaned up their plants and became aware of the dangers created by dumping untreated waste in rivers, lakes and streams, the aim shifted to tourism, he said.

The indsutry wasn't entirely blameless, he commented. Tourism had created some "classic boners, particularly architecturally" but with the coming of zoning laws and master planning, it is cleaning up its act.

But there is still a fundamental difference between the outlook of tourist developers and that of environmentalists, a chasm which must be bridged if tourism is to live as harmoniously with naturalists as the manufacturing industries have managed.

The basic difference between the two is that environmentalists and "to build fences around natural settings to keep people out", Mr. Dee said. Tourism, on the other hand, believes in "opening gates".

He said the difference can be resolved if tourism tells its side of the story forcefully enough. The environmental lobby has levelled six charges against the development of unspoiled settings and if tourism is to be seen in a favorable light, Mr. Dee says it must counter these claims with evidence of its own.

Tourism has been accused of allowing the natural environment to deteriorate; taking advantage of local tax dollars to serve a transient population; imposing plans from an outside source on a local area; being insensitive to local customs and traditions; creating seasonal disruptions in tourist areas and being solely interested in profits.

Mr. Dee answered these charges by saying tourist developers realize first that they must keep their areas beautiful if they are to attract visitors for taking advantage of local taxes, he said the reverse is true: tourists pump in tax dollars during their short stays and don't get a chance to take advantage of their benefits.

The industry used local products and sevices in its operation and imports management personnel "only where the art of hospitality" is not developed. When there is local expertise, tourism takes advantage of it.

Local customs and traditions are encouraged to flourish since they add to an area's attractiveness and in 90 per cent of the cases it brings seasonal stability in its wake.

Tourist operators are not interested in profits above all else and this can be proven, he said, through the interest taken by them in supporting the development of local attractions, establishment of museums and the preservation of historically significant architecture.

Third term for SVTC chairman

(Staff) - A.C. Casselman, Reeve of Cardinal, was again chosen to head the Seaway Valley Regional Tourist Council at the association's annual meeting in Morrisburg last Wednesday night.

Mr. Casselman has been chairman of the local tourist promotion council since 1975 and earlier this month was named chairman of the Eastern Ontario Travel Association at its meeting in Brockville.

First Vice-president for 1977 is Norm Grace of Iroquois; Archie Lavigne of Cornwall is second vice; Paul Cleary, Lancaster, is treasurer; Art Key of Johnstown, secretary and Jane Hebert, Cornwall, are executive committee members; finance committee is made up of Keith Acres, Ingleside, and Gerry Arthurs, St. Lawrence Parks Commission; Bob Eadie, Cornwall, is secretary and in charge of marketing, and Fred Shaddock, Cornwall, and Win Kinnaird, Kemptville, are in charge of promotion.

Directors are Robert Scott, Prescott, R.M. Roy, Lancaster, Keith Fawcett, Inkerman, Hugh Shaver, Finch, Roy Brister, Morrisburg, Edward Miller, Merrickville, and Joe E. Gunn and Laura Sabourin, both of Cornwall.

The SVTC is made up of tourist operators and municipal officials and appointees from the Quebec border west to the Leeds County line. It is supported largely through per capita grants from member municipalities, which last year accounted for $15,300 of its $22,800 budget.

The association had a $4,000 deficit which it hopes to make up this year through increased grants.

About a half of the budget in 1976 was directly devoted to promoting tourism in the St. Lawrence region.

Negotiators defend board's position to ND parents

MAPLE RIDGE (Staff) - It is unfortunate students are being deprived of their education but the SD&G County Board of Education has to stay within its financial limits, five board representatives explained to almost 75 parents and students at North Dundas District High School Thursday night.

Superintendent of education Ken MacLennan and trustees Lorne Thompson, William Robson, Mahlon Zeron and Eugene Legault formed the panel to present the board's position regarding the current impasse in negotiations with the tri-counties' 553 secondary school teachers.

The teachers walked off the job over two weeks ago, leaving over 9,000 students in 10 secondary schools without instructors.

The five-member panel explained the board's position in negotiating with the teachers and then fielded questions for three hours.

Mahlon Zeron, trustee for Iroquois and the township of Matilda and Mountain and member of the board's negotiating team, said the major reason for the stalemate is simply "we failed to agree".

Cornwall trustee and chairman of the board's negotiating team, Eugene Legault, went into further detail saying the dispute is about working conditions and includes the Parent Teacher Ratio (PTR), contact hours and class sizes - number of students faced in a day.

He said the board is unanimous in its stand and will not yield to the teachers, in order to keep control of management costs.

Mr. Legault, a member of the board since its inception in 1967, said some provincial boards have one or possibly two of these clauses included in contracts but not all three.

The board has not included the clauses in the gareement, commented Mr. Legault, because they would create ironclad job security provisions and "we couldn't control the amount of money spent and number of teachers in the system.

"Job security is good, but we can't have that. We have to live within our limits", he said.

He noted the board must have control of the system because its members are accountable to the public.

He said later in the meeting it costs the boad $80,000 for a change of .1 in the PTS and $1.2-million for every free period given to the teachers.

If teacher job security is maintained, he explained, and the student population declines as expected over the next eight years, the eultimate result could come down to a teacher for every student.

Mr. MacLennan said the board is doing the best it can in continuting education for the students by keeping schools open and buses running.

One woman asked "What are we going to do? We've got to get our children in school, their rights are being denied." She called for arbitration now because the situation will lead to that in the end anyway.

Mr. Legault replied, sayng parents should call for a meeting to hear the teachers' side and weigh the evidence and then make their feelings known as to what should be done.

Both sides are set in thier beliefs, he noted, and arbitration always hurst both sides a little bit.

Another woman suggested the Ontario Secondary School Teachers Federation was using the SD&G students as "scapegoats" to get more power and maybe there were some lcoal teachers who don't want that.

Mr. MacLennan said grade 12 and 13 students have been given credit for their year and students in grades nine to 11 will also receive credit.

One parent said that was fine but what about the knowledge the student has missed while the teachers are on strike?

Mr. MacLennan said it was difficult to speculate if the school year would be lengthened into the summer months and one senior student took exception, saying graduates have to find work to pay for next year's education at univeristy or college and just can't afford going to classes in the summer months.

A mother of two senior students suggested the parents apply more pressure to the OSSTF instead of on the board.

In closing Mr. Legault said the teachers' salaries are not being paid. The portion that comes from the province will return there and the remainder will be returned to the ratepayers through a rebate in taxes.

Executive makes plans for WI District Annual NEWINGTON (Special) - The executive of the Stormont District Women's Institute met with all Branch Directors of the WI at Newington Public Library last Wednesday.

Mrs. Megan Ouderkirk, district president, directed the planning for the Stormont District Annual meeting to be held Thurs., May 19 at 9am at Osnabruck Centre.

Mrs. C. Dingemans, Mrs. R. Gallinger, Mrs. E. Williamson and Mrs. M. Smith, volunteered to form a nominating committee to invite applicants for the positions open as first vice-president, second vice-president, family and consumer affairs convener, education and cultural affairs convener and resolutions convener. One new auditor is to be appointed at the district annual.

Mrs. Ouderkirk stressed that all branch secretary-treasurers are expected to send in their financial reports immediately following their annual meetings to district secretary Mrs. Lola Lambert of Lunenburg.

Programs for all branches in the district will be printed for 1977-78. Deadline for any branch wishing to be included in this program will be May 2. Mrs. Lambert will have these books ready for distribution at the district annual.

The Eastern Ontario Women's Institute Rally in Pembroke was discussed and all members were encouraged to attend. Members are to wear old fashioned dresses and bring a box lunch. A mini-conference will be offered covering 11 topics of interest to the WI. Entertainment will include a fashion show and a prize winning play. Speaker for the day will be television announcer Max Keeping. Transportation to the rally will be arranged at the district annual and each branch should submit the number of members who will attend.

Any branch interested in hosting the exchange visit being planned for Grenville District Women's Institutes is asked to volunteer at the annual meeting and a decision will be made at that time. All branches will be asked to help with the catering and entertainment.

Stormont beef club elects officers

(Special) - The first meeting of the Stormont 4-H Beef Club was held April 11 at the home of the club leader, Michael Wert.

The business for this meeting included the election of officers and the distribution of record books and senior projects, as well as making plans concerning activities which are to take place during the 4-H year. The members discussed the possibility of a tour of a feed lot or trip to Ottawa Beef in the months to come.

The members decided on having a floating chairman. Carol Aitken was elected chairman for the next meeting. Melinda Wert will be the club secretary, Nora Clancy the news reporter and Michael Wert will act as treasurer.

Chalk-talk for 4-H beef club members

(Special) - The second meeting of the Dundas Beef Club was held April 6 at the home of Stan Vanden Bosch, Chesterville.

Although 60 per cent of the club's members are high school students this chalkboard lesson might just have been intended to keep school fresh in their minds but it was there for a different purpose, to show beef club members the parts of the beef animal.

The lesson consisted of having Mr. Palmer, the club leader, list and show all the parts of a beef animal and then the club members were asked to come up to the board and name three parts of the animal.

Following, the members filled out a sheet, on which they had to name all 27 parts of the animal.

Howard Giles told the club about the Ottawa Winter Fair and the requirements needed to show there. The next meeting will be held Wed., May 4 at the Earl Cross farm.

Personal

Rev. E. Earle Eaton motored to the Watertown area on Tuesday and visited former parishioners and friends. Wednesday he was in Ottawa for British Israel studies. Friday and Saturday he was in Kingston for Gospel Fellowship Conference. Sunday afternoon he furnished the piano accompaniment for a church service. Friday he was supper guest of the Rev. and Mrs. Merle Shantz of Gananoque.

COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION

Notice To Our Students And Our Community On The Present Secondary School Teachers Strike

The Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry County Board of Education deeply regrets the inconvenience that is being caused throughout our community as a result of the secondary school teachers strike.

The Board has been doing and will continue to do everything in its power to make available to students, any form of assistance possible. Schools are open for study purposes, and volunteers are beginning to assist students. Students may pick up course outlines for any course they are following.

All students should follow their local media for individual school arrangements.

In spite of the efforts being made by this Board we must still appeal to every member of our community to work with us and to assist us in any way possible.

The most important aspect in the student's present predicament is individual study. We encourage students to work together and to work on their own in this regard. We are willing and ready to help, but in this very difficult and trying time everyone must do his fair share.

To Our Secondary School Teachers

We are now entering the third week of a very difficult, very trying situation for all concerned.

The Board understands the teacher's right to strike. We will continue to do everything possible for the student. We also assure you that we will continue to negotiate. We have made, what we consider to be a very fair offer, on what seems to be the major issue in dispute.

There seems to be doubt among those concerned as to exactly what this offer is. Therefore, for your information we are providing here our offer exactly, as it was submitted in writing to the Teacher's Negotiating Team, on April 9, 1977.

We believe this offer goes a long way toward meeting your request. Let there be no doubt that this offer is in writing and is open to our teachers to accept.

Printed Below Is The Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry County Board Of Education's Lastest Proposal

The following is a proposal by the Board's Negotiating Team in efforts to resolve the current labour dispute between the Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry County Board of Education and its Secondary School Teachers.

1. The following proposal on Working Conditions is being submitted on the basis that both parties are agreeable to a two-year Collective Agreement covering the period September 1, 1976 through August 31, 1978.

2. The monetary package for the first year of the two-year Agreement would be in accordance with the Board's final offer presented to the Teachers on March 14, 1977.

3. For the second year of the two-year Agreement, the Teachers' Salary Grid and the Principals' and Vice-Principals' Salary Scale will be increased by six percent (6). All other matters would remain unchanged.

   a) The Letters of Commitment will be appended to the Collective Agreement for information purposes only. However, they do not form part of the negotiated settlement.

   b) The Letters of Commitment will be applicable to the school years 1977-78 and 1978-79. The commitment will terminate as of June 30, 1979.

Article 23:02

b) will review any situation in any school related to the application of the Letters of Commitment that is brought before the Committee.

c) reviews conducted in accordance with Article 23:03(b) will be performed by the Staffing Allocation Review Committee and will include the Chairman of the School Committee of the school from which the grievance emanated.

Article 23:04

a) Recommendations resulting from reviews conducted in accordance with Article 23:03(b) and (c) will be presented to the Board no later than October 31st in any school year.

b) The Board will make known its decision to the Staffing Allocation Review Committee no later than November 15 in any school year.

c) Decisions of the Board, in accordance with Article 23:04(b) concerning grievances related to the application of the Letters of Commitment, may be appealed to a tribunal.

d) 1) The tribunal will consist of —
   1) one Federation appointee
   2) one Board appointee
   3) a Chairman selected from the community at large, who is mutually acceptable to both parties.

   11) In the event the parties cannot agree upon a Chairman, the Education Relations Commission will make the appointment of the Chairman who shall be selected from the community at large.

Article 23:05

The appeal tribunal shall render a binding decision by December 15 in any school year concerning grievances related to the application of the Letters of Commitment.

Article 23:06

a) No modification will be made to the Letters of Commitment for the term specified in the Letters of Commitment unless mutually agreed upon by both parties.

the farmer's wife

by wyn thompson

Well now, Rene, I'm not quite sure what to make of it. But Good Friday morning on the way to Toronto via the MacDonald-Cartier Freeway, there were six Quebec cars to every one Ontario car. Mass exodus? Escape? Invasion? Search for a new country? School holidays? Now, how're you going to stop that interchange - not by a white paper surely, nor blue nor red!

It was a Christmas Eve drive to Kingston. The ground was pure white. Puffs of snow hung tenaciously to the branches. Winter's last fling. One hopeful snow plough, clearing mostly gravel made for bumper to bumper driving for about ten miles.

The roads from Kingston on were good. No ice, no snow, lots of sunshine. The precambrian shield country was a relief to eyes tired of fairly flat terrain. I liked it.

Not so two friends of number two son who skiddled east the previous night. Their adjectives were of a different variety. He belonged to Metro's finest force and is much used to city driving but the long stretch of Hwy 401 at twenty miles per hour was a bit much. And he and his wife had come to fish in the Rideau. Mercury and all!

They had been fishing on the Rideau last Easter...well now, that was a bit of a different story for last Easter saw temperatures in the thirty degree Celsius range. What a difference a year makes!

Along about Belleville, the last remnants of the previous night's storm completely disappeared. The sun was delightfully warm beaming squarely through the windshield. The Farmer yawned. I yawned. "Guess we'd better pull over for awhile", he said. In the parking lot of a Gulf service centre we dozed awhile. Like thirty minutes.

Refreshed, we drove on reminiscing about the last time when we had been near Belleville for any length of time. Our farm truck had been stolen, about twenty years ago now, and we had come to retrieve it. The one and only thing we had ever had stolen from us in our lives. It was rather costly first and only experience though!

Shortly we arrived in the Caledon Hills area at number one nephews where he and his wife entertained us royally to a home-raised and-or homegrown meal. The other guests were devotees of natural food so a spirited interchange of ideas resulted. Organic farming versus chemical farming? However, the small farms to which these people returned each evening from the highly competitive business section of downtown Toronto provided them with a great release, it seemed.

Saturday morning the two ladies and I browsed the Georgetown Natural Food store, the pottery and craft shoppes of Terra Cotta after which the Farmer and I continued on after lunch to spend Easter Sunday with old and dear friends in Hamilton. We attended the Easter church service in Pioneer Memorial where our friend is the Minister.

Monday saw us en route to Toronto where I was to attend a conference on Tuesday. Late afternoon, we checked into Sutton Place, then made like tourists on a first trip to the big city. On foot. The new Eaton Centre was our first stop, then off to the CN tower. Up, up, we went to the viewing deck in 60 seconds at 14 miles per second. What a view! I had been to the top of the TD bank a few years ago so the experience was similar but from a much higher altitude.

As we were about to descend, we spotted the Old Spaghetti Factory. We had originally heard of it from number two son and his Metro police friend. "Let's," we said. Off on foot again, we were pleased to rest our feet in this enormous old blacksmith shop not far from the O'Keefe Centre at 54 The Esplanade, which, at the turn of the Century was the blacksmith shop of Samuel Stockwell. It was located on the former Boardwalk and Lake Ontario was at the front door.

Artifacts, junque, and pieces of antiquity collected from Canada and parts of Europe filled the restaurant. There sat to our left a dining car - a replica of Toronto Railway Company Car 838, which was built several blocks east of the "Factory" in 1902. The car remained in service until scrapped by the TTC in 1923.

We had a spaghetti meal with tomato sauce which included a salad, San Francisco Sourdough bread, a pot of plain and garlic butter, coffee and spumoni ice cream. Deeelightful! What's so unusual about that, you say! The cost - only $2.25.

The meetings began the next morning at 9.00 o'clock sharp in the Huron Room of the MacDonald Block. It was my first opportunity to see and hear the Hon. Frank Miller, Minister, Minstry of Natural Resources. I was impressed by his, seemingly, great concern that common sense should still be the overriding factor in all the mind-boggling rules and regulations imposed by modern day society on its own kind.

"Common sense is better than more and more specific regulations," he said. Will he be able to live up to that statement?

He queried society's great plans for safety of land, water, and air, asking, "How safe is safe?" He noted that the general tendency of government is to be oversafe, but, realistically pointed out that "we can only afford the luxury of high standards so long as men have work."

Not so impressed was I in the presentation of a student-oriented program when over and over again it was stressed that the "work must be meaningful." Need I say that that is a most commendable approach but...with 1,000,000 unemployed. Remember when the two most important things in your life was a roof over your head and food in your belly. Meaningful employment...it sure was if it met that criteria.

My meetings over, I met the Farmer, who because we had not indulged ourselves in a holiday in 1976, decided we should stay one more day in Toronto, the Great. Whoopppeee!

He had been to the Legislative Building in the morning. Off we went again and at 4.30 p.m. slid into the spectator's gallery of the Chamber.

HEAD 'EM OFF AT THE IMPASSE: The secondary school teacher dispute in SD&G has taken on a strange appearance in this, its third week. Each side has attempted to discredit the other's leaders in hopes the general membership will be swayed into altering their positions. First the teachers attacked director of education Rosaire Leger, accusing him of exerting an undue influence on trustees and hinting that if he were removed from the scene, labor relations would return to normal in SD&G's high schools. Then came the board's attempt to bypass teacher negotiators and have federation membership vote directly on the board's latest contract offer. Both ploys failed. Neither side wavered - the board gave Mr. Leger a vote of confidence and teachers have so far refused to vote on the latest proposal. All they've managed to achieve is a hardening of attitudes that continues to make students pay the price for their inability to reach a negotiated settlement. Now the sides have begun to do their bargaining through the media as their alternatives to finding a means of settling their dispute are all but exhausted. A breakthrough will never be achieved as long as the sides hold diametrically opposing views. Now the time has come for the Ministry of Education to step in and legislate an end to the strike. Legislation now appears to be the only way of ending the dispute and is the only way the ministry can act as the arm of a senior level of government. Local avenues have been closed and meanwhile the right to high school education in the United counties has been abrogated. There have been strong rumors of a spring election in Ontario. If there is no settlement in the strike by the time the election is called, it will look as if there is one party that deserves a shaking up in SD&G. -robin morris-

CHESTERVILLE'S PAST

FROM THE RECORD
THURS., APRIL 22, 1937

Chesterville was honored yesterday with a visit from Her Excellency, the Lady Tweedsmuir, who graced a luncheon of the Women's Institute in the Community Hall and spoke on "Books and Reading". Turning to her address, Her Excellency announced that, although she had promised to speak on books, she was really going to talk on poetry. While she admired the older poets, Lady Tweedsmuir said the newer writers have an appeal and a stern bracing quality that the old class lacked, and quoted extracts to explain her choice. Literature of today she found pleasing. Her Excellency was welcomed on behalf of the village by Councillor Geo. H. Barkley and Mrs. Melvin Durant, president of the Chesterville Branch of the Women's Institute.

With the burning of the second cross on Highway 31 at Winchester within the past week, a practical joker is evidently set on giving Winchester folks a case of the jitters. The latest one to burn was said to have been made out of considerably heavier lumber than the first, which was a rather small affair.

The wily crow is considered one of the hardest birds to shoot but he is easy meat for John C. Fulton of Chesterville who boasts of 31 crows in three shots with his 18-guage shotgun. John has been playing the part of the Pied Piper here for years in his fight against rats, crows, starlings and other pests and so valuable is his work considered, the municipal council sees to it that he has a special licence for carrying firearms. This particular feat was accomplished at Fisher and Smith's slaughterhouse north of town and was corroborated by Wm. Nash Jr., of town. Noticing a large flock of crows east of town, Mr. Fulton decided they were heading for the slaughterhouse and hastened there to prepare his trap. the muzzle of the gun was poked through a convenient crack in a wall and a trench seven inches wide and several feet long was scooped in the snow. Here scraps were placed and the two men hid behind the wall. Shortly the black thieves flocked in and spied the trench. As they were lined on either side and beginning to feast, John fired and took a toll of 11 birds. A second shot took a like toll and a third a further nine for a total of 31.

More than 100 friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Fleming Lapierre, recently married in Chesterville, attended a presentation held on Friday night at the home of Mrs. Eli Lamoureux at Cloverdale, the home of the bride. Members of the Maple Leaf hockey team of Chesterville and former players attended and a short address was given by Mr. Matt Flynn, of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Senn were honoured by their friends of town on the eve of their departure to take up residence at Ste. Anne de la Perade, Que., by a presentation and dance in the Community Hall, when a couple of hundred enjoyed a fine time. Mr. Matt Flynn expressed the regret of their friends at the departure of the family after spending so many years in Chesterville. A well-filled purse was presented by Mrs. Oscar Olsen to which Mrs. Senn replied.

Maple syrup is now included in the commodities tempting thieves. Recently the theft is reported of fifty gallons from the bush of Stanley Sullivan near Ormond and ten gallons from the bush of Henry Cinnamon of the same district.

With the adoption of Daylight Saving Time by the village it becomes necessary that all clocks be advanced one hour at midnight Saturday. Before you retire Saturday evening put the hands of your clock one hour ahead and go about your business Sunday forgetting all about it. You will be in time for church and all other occasions.

Mrs. Ernest Beckstead of Orchardside entertained the Grantley Woman's Association at her home on Wednesday afternoon. The president. Mrs. M.O. The WMS of Morewood United Church held its Easter Thankoffering service in the Church on Sunday evening. Miss Ellice Smith conducted the service, assisted by Mrs. A.E. Martineau. The guest speaker was Mrs. W.E. Wright of Chesterville, who brought a splendid Easter and Missionary message. The Mission Band, under the direction of Mrs. Milan Smirle, and Miss Addie Swerdfeger, contributed a number and Joan Allison gave a recitation. Rev. A.E. Martineau, accompanied by Mrs. C. Gardiner, sang "It Is Well With My Soul". The CGIT group with Mrs. Martineau as leader, re-affiliated with the WMS in a candlelight service. The offering was received by James Martineau and Max Barnett, members of the Trail Rangers.

Trains 29 and 30 finished their last runs through here Saturday. There was mixed feeling at their passing. This week the new system of express delivery is in operation and as was expected it will take some getting used to as well as getting rid of the bugs. Express comes in from Montreal now after going past on the early train. The noon train west takes on and delivers mail bags as does the afternoon eastbound train from Toronto.

At the Easter service in Grantley Church, a pair of brass offering plates were presented to the church in memory of the late Willis F. Darling by his wife, Isobel, and children, Keith and Carol, and by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Darling. The gift was received and dedicated by the Rev. C.A. Dukelow in the presence of the elders, Jas. O. McMillan, Claude Carr, James Hesson and Wilburn Robinson.

Monday of this week the Chesterville Rotary Club was addressed by B. Moughton of London, England. Mr. Moughton is a Rotary International exchange student studying international law at McGill University this year.

The New Look in Conservation was the subject of an address by Ken Parks, fish and game editor of the Ottawa Journal, to the Crysler Fish and Game club at its annual meeting and award night last Thursday night. The Editor:

Fellow citizens and taxpayers of Finch Township:

Your mail recently contained a copy of the proposed planning act for Finch Township. You should read this act most carefully because it contains certain provisions which can effect the lives of us and of our families.

One provision, for example, restricts the building of a home on your own land unless this said home is for a family member employed full time on the farm.

This means that if you have a son or daughter who wishes to work in Ottawa and live near their parents in a home built on the parents' farm; your son or daughter will no longer be able to do so. Why is this restriction contained in the planning act?

Section two contains definitions of the various aspects of the act. Under 2.57, 2.58, 2.58 you will find definitions of mobile homes, mobile home parcels, and mobile home parks.

Why are these definitions in this act? The Lower St. Lawrence Planning Act is supposed to restrict any mobile home erection in this area. Finch Township is controlled under this planning act. Why are mobile homes even covered in this proposed act? Has someone decided for you that a mobile home park would look good in your area?

Very few things are built well when they are built in a hurry. I urge you to protest this act as it is presently written.

Objections must be in writing and mailed by registered mail or delivered by hand to the Township Clerk no later than May 6, 1977.

Yours truly;
Jim Mahoney,
Crysler, Ont.

A request was made, on behalf of the Archives Committee, for any pictures of the four churches that existed before the building of the Seaway and whose congregations now make up the congregation of Ingleside Trinity United Church.

Before the meeting closed, members were reminded of the next meeting, to be held Wed., May 4 at 8pm with Mrs. Margaret Boorman as guest speaker and to which all other organizations are cordially invited. Miss McLaren announced that a meeting of the Executive would be held on April 27 at 8pm and after a closing prayer the meeting adjourned to enjoy a lunch served by the ladies of Unit Three.

United Counties' history comes alive on tour tapes

Like the mist that hangs over the glens of the Highlands, history's aura fits like a mantle around the United Counties. It has such a pervasiveness that most of us in SD&G take it for granted, if we notice it at all, and it has taken a relative newcomer to the area to realize the vast store of history and folklore contained in the tri-counties.

John Hill, operator of Long Sault's Lion Motel for the past six years, has the fresh perspective of the newcomer, the love of history and the chutzpah of the entrepreneur to tap this mother-lode of Canadiana and after a year and a half of research, has produced two narrated tours of the backroads of this, the cradle of Upper Canada.

The tours, on cassette tapes, take the visitor off 401 and into the hinterlans of Stormont and Glengarry, onto the roads that still follow the early pioneer highways and along which are clustered the homes of the area's settlers - homes that span the architectural gamut from primitive log cabin to baronial mansion.

Ever since coming to the are from Ottawa, Mr. Hill has been interested in finding a means of keeping the large number of tourists who pass through SD&G to stop a little longer and, not coincidentally, leave with a little less money than they came with.

He had pleaded with government agencies to come up with alternatives to attractions like Upper Canada Village and finally realized last year that if anything was to be done, he would have to do it himself.

So he put his tape recorder where his mouth was and after assimilating the reserach he had been gathering since mid-1975, produced the cassette tape tours.

He acted as researcher, writer and narrator for the 60-minute tapes - one of which covers a 60-mile route through southern Glengarry and Stormont and the other the northern section of Glengarry and both of which take a minimum of three hours to complete - and the first were produced in March and put on sale this month.

He hopes to be able to market 1,000 of them through his own motel and through other motels, hotels, restaurants and tourist informatin booths throughout the Seaway region. In fact, he has to sell 1,000 at $5 apiece just to reach the break-even point.

If the initial venture is successful, "Dundas is the logical next step" and he has already begun researching and mapping a tour of this county.

As well as having an interest in the area's history, Mr. Hill is eminently suited to tell its story. The former executive director of Theatre Canada, he has the feeling for dramatics which, combined with his soft southern Yorkshire accent, makes just listening to the tapes an enjoyable experience.

History for him isn't the dry stuff of text books. Under his careful tutelage, it comes alive through the stories of the larger than life men and women who hacked a way of life out of the wilderness that blanketed SD&G and when that wasn't enough, became "wintering partners" in the North West Company and opened up the continent to European civilization.

Their homes are silent testimonials now, but through Mr. Hill's narrative they come alive and the Counties are once again peopled by men forged in the fires of a more passionate time. Men like Sir John Johnson, mainly responsible for the settling of Ontario from the Quebec border to Kingston and who, although an Englishman, left an indelible Scottish stamp on Glengarry; Lieutenant Colonel John Macdonell of Aberchalder, the ruins of whose home, the first stone building in Ontario, still dominate Glengarry Point east of Cornwall; John McDonald of Garth, whose home, Inverary, is a sorry-remnant of its once-splendid Regency architectural style; Sandfield MacDonald and Simon Fraser, buried within yards of each other at St. Andrew's West; David Thompson; Alexander MacKenzie; "Cariboo" Cameron, whose love for his wife was so great he carried her embalmed body overland from the gold fields of British Columbia to her eventual resting place at Summerstown, and Sir Alexander Fraser, whose manorial home, Fraserfield, is still the most magnificent residence in SD&G.

All aspects of the counties are woven into tale: the glacial till that litters the fields of Southern Stormont and Glengarry becomes the stone for the first fine homes in Upper Canada; the forests and swamps represent the overwhelming odds against which the first Scottish and United Empire Loyalists had to contend in their chosen home; the St. Lawrence becomes the lifeblood of the new country, and the homes, some almost 200 years old and barely recognizable now under new coverings of aluminum siding and loud colors, become the thread of history.

The tapes are punctuated by Mr. Hill's own comments - many full of wonderment at the architectural richness of the area, many more equally acidic at the way in which this heritage has been allowed to deteriorate through neglect and misguided concern.

The most caustic of his observations, aside from those aimed at people who have covered their century homes with siding, and in effect, hidden their light under a bushel basket, are reserved for the senior levels of government, who have allowed so much of the decay to take place, particularly at John Macdonell's Glengarry Hall and John McDonald's Inverary. The two are like spendthrift remittance men, still clothed in the dignity of their past but shabby reminders of what they had once been.

He wants to see them made into museums or parks or at least into something that will prevent them being reclaimed by nature.

Sir John Johnson's home in Williamstown, the first home in Upper Canada, built in 1784 and now the village's library, causes him sleepless nights since the magnificent frame structure, although owned by the federal government, is not even marked by a plaque.

As for Fraserfield, he pledges in a taped tour that he will buy lottery tickets in the faint hope of becoming a millionaire to be able to purchase the mansion, restore it to its original splendor and turn it over to the people of Canada.

Listening to his version of the history of SD&G, one can't help but believe this will remain his commitment.

Inside Ingleside

by Jean Jeacle

It has been said that hockey isn't sport anymore . . . it's entertainment. If this is the case, then the game of the year took place last week not in the Spectrum in Philadelphia but in the arena in Morrisburg when the Pee Wees played against the Parents. The game did not really look like hockey but it certainly looked like fun.

All things considered, the teams were evenly matched. The kids had their determination to keep them going and the fathers had their pride. The fathers had the advantage of reach, stride and know-how but the kids had a heck of a lot more wind. A few of the dads made a few dazzling dashes down the ice but none of them ever rushed back until after they had had time on the bench to gulp down large quatities of oxygen.

The kids had one more thing going for them . . . the mothers played on the other team. That is not to say that Sandra Nickerson will never be a good hockey player. It is just that she cannot stop, turn around or bend down yet. When she learns these few fine points, she will be a winner. As for Pat Zeran . . . she is fine until the teams change ends. It was really not fair to ask her to change directions just after she had figured out where she was going.

All in all, it was a good, clean game. The school principal did get two tripping penalties but he says he didn't do it and anyway how else was he going to stop them? There were no battered bodies or bruised egos and the final score was 7-7. It was a fun ending to a fine hockey season.

BITS & PIECES

No money but lots of thanks go to Minor Hockey coaches Leonard O'Neil, Gerry Donnelly, Cecil Prieur, Willy Blair, Bill Kielec, Mike Dunne, Tom Moore, Jr. Thompson, Harvey Armstrong, Ray Heagle, Cliff Middleton and Colin Keicks.

- Saturday is theatre night. "The Seaway Story" goes on at 8pm in Rothwell Auditorium. Come on out and see drama with a local flavor, performed by the Dialogue Theatre Company.

- If you want to hear bellls, don't go looking for a punch in the head. Go, instead, to St. Matthew's Church on Sunday evening at 8pm to hear the Handbell Choir from St. Andrew's Church, Ottawa.

- I thought Garry Crites was auditioning his daredevil act for Wide World of Sports but it turns out he was only repairing Ernie Vickers' roof.

- Marcella Anderson's plans to spend her vacation as new-aunt-in-residence were foiled by the late arrival of Jaimie Lynn Sharkey. If you think that Cella seemed impatient with the delay you should have seen Wanda!

There are a lot of fishing poles in evidence these days, so I know that it is mudpout time again, here "Inside Ingleside".

Dear Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Once you wrote, "If you don't use it - you'll lose it." I don't think my husband ever had it, or if he had it, he lost it before he met me.

"L" is a terrific person. I love him dearly. We have a wonderful marriage - everywhere but in bed. The man can think of 20 things to do before turning in. By then, of course, he is too exhausted for anything more than a peck on the cheek.

I find myself thinking of ways to seduce him and I hate myself for it. We are still in our 20s and have been married only five years. I should tell you our honeymoon was very unexciting. "L" was always finding something to do that required time and energy. What's my problem, Ann?

-Hungry

Dear H.: Your problem is learning how to deal with his problem which is either a very low sex drive or impotency.

Almost all impotency in men under 50 has a psychological base (early hang-ups, guilt about sex, etc.). I hope "L" will agree to get some counseling. Husbands who can live without sex -- especially young husbands -- should be mindful that even if THEY can, some wives can't.

Dear Ann Landers: Recently, my husban, who is a Methodist minister, performed a wedding ceremony uniting two young people. How his conscience is bothering him because he realizes the marriage should never have taken place.

A few days before the ceremony, the groom told my husband and his intended that he didn't want to go through with the wedding because he was still in live with the girl to whom he had been previously engaged. The bride made a terrible fuss and refused to call of the wedding.

Now my husband believes the ceremony was not only the devil's work but a fraud. He feels guilty about having performed the ceremony and can't sleep at night. Please print this letter and ask other ministers if they feel my husband did wrong.

Miserable In Charleston, S.C.

Dear Miserable: Here's the letter. Now, let's hear from the clergymen. Since you didn't ask for my opinion I'm not giving one.

Dear Ann: When I was of high school and college age, my father frequently used my honesty and outspokenness as an excuse to provoke a heated argument at the supper table. It often ended with him chewing me out, leaving his meal unfinished and stomping into the den to read the paper.

Twenty years later I realized Dad used me, his son, as an outlet for the tension he was unable to release in a socially acceptable manner.

Outside the home, particularly among his business associates, Dad was regarded as a "great guy" and "a very amiable person." His son got the worst of him in order that others might get the best. This enabled "Mr. Corporate Big Wheel" to climb the ladder of success and support his family whom he loved. I didn't understand it then, but I do now. I'll sign this letter - My Turn Now

Dear Turn: Your explanation sounds like an oversimplication, but if this rationalization has given you peace of mind, who am I to raise questions?

Your signature bothers me. I hope you aren't planning to do the same to your son.

Are your parents too strict? Hard to reach? Ann Landers's booklet, "Bugged By Parents? How to Get More Freedom," could help you bridge the generation gap. Send self-addressed envelope to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 1400, Elgin, Ill. 60120.

Moose Creek Institute plans pot luck supper

MOOSE CREEK (Special) - The monthly meeting of the WI was held in the Sunshine Club Room with 12 members present.

President Mrs. E. Brunet presided and opened the meeting with the W.I. Ode, Mary Stewart Collect and Lord's Prayer.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The roll call was answered by favorite Irish songs.

A pot luck supper will be held at 6:30pm on April 21 for the Annual Meetiing in the Sunshine Room.

Several contests were held-Kissing the Blarney Stone, Mrs. E. Brunet, Wearing of the Green, Mrs. E. L. Blair. Lucky numbers were won by Mrs. A. Emmell and Mrs. E. L. Blair.

A buffet lunch was served by the hostesses, Rose Lapierre and Florence Gentles. A social hour was enjoyed by all.

Disappointing response for teenager program

WINCHESTER (Special) - The Winchester District Memorial Hospital Auxiliary members were informed by Mrs. Gordon Lancaster that the annual spring Blood Donor Clinic would be held on April 27 in the conference room of the hospital.

Posters were passed out advertising the clinic and volunteers were requested to display them in prominent places in their unit area.

Mrs. Rossella Beeman reported that a seminar had been held on death and dying under the leadership of Rev. Myron Maxted. The seminar dealt with the role of the volunteer with a patient whose future was uncertain. A followup seminar will be held May 26 when the role of the volunteer with relatives of a patient who has died will be discussed. This will be held in the Conference Room at 1:30pm May 26.

Due to the high school teacher strike, Mrs. Corinne Holtby, is having difficulty in getting application forms to interested students for the teenage volunteer program. Interested teenagers may get in touch with Mrs. Holtby, RR3 Winchester, or telephone her at 989-5499.

The success of the program depends on the number of teenagers who volunteer to work during the summmer months to replace the adult volunteers who help bring the little extras to the patients in the hospital.

Mrs. Louise Sloan reported on the Antique and Craft Market being held in the Winchester Arena June 10 and 11. The ladies in Winchester have agreed to serve tea again this year.

A bridge and euchre will be held by the Chesterville unit, stated Mrs. Olive Cass, on April 28 in the new Drop-In Centre. Mrs. Irene Wallace, president, opened the meeting with the reading of a message from the provincial president O.H.A. She also announced the date of the Fall Fashion Show, November 7.

Slight mill rate increase

Township limits spending

BERWICK (Staff) - In a time of rising prices, Finch Township Council has managed to hold its own tax line although education levies will mark a slight increase in the 1977 tax bill.

Clerk-treasurer Arnott Empey told council at its regular meeting Monday night only the county levy had to be calculated and included into the total mill rate before the bills are sent out.

The county rate is expected to decrease slightly while the secondary school levy will erase that and comprise a majority of the tax increase in the township and Crysler police village.

The township legislators Monday approved the township rate which shows an increase of less than one mill on the commercial and on farm and residential rates. Farm and Residential rate will be increased by .68 mills from 33.15 to 33.83 while the commercial rate will increase by .8 mills to 39.80 from 39.00.

Other rates set are those for secondary, public and separate schools.

The following are those rates with the previous year's rate in brackets: secondary school commercial at 29.43 (24.33); public school commercial at 28.66 (28.23); separate school commercial at 30.00 (28.77); secondary school residential at 26.49 (21.90); public school residential at 25.79 (25.41), and separate school residential at 27.00 (25.89).

The township mill rate has been held fairly constant for five reasons:

The township has budgeted for $155,000 for Ontario grants which marks an increase of almost $10,000; the county levy dropped slightly from last year and expenditures for protection to persons and property dropped from almost $41,000 to $26,000 because Council doesn't plan any major projects for the fire department.

On the rise were expenditures for transportation sevices and the school board levy.

With an accumulated net revenue of $112,337 at the beginning of 1977, council approved its levy.

The following is a list of the township's budget expenditures revenue for 1977 and in brackets it actual expenditures and revenue.

Expenditures: general government $63,000 ($60,099); protection to persons and property $26,000 ($40,869); transportation services $199,000 ($175,464); environmental services $5,000 ($5,689); health services $3,000 ($2,789); social and family services zero ($202); recreation and cultural services $30,000 ($26,648); planning and development $55,000 ($52,131); county $49,500 ($52,084); school board $171,000 ($151,551); total $601,500 ($567,526).

Revenues: municipal taxation purposes $132,900 ($126,575); payments in lieu $1,600 ($1,571); Ontario grants for municipal purposes $155,000 ($144,960); other grants $14,000 ($13873); other $70,000 ($69,348); prior years surplus to reduce levy $10,000 (zero); county taxation purposes $37,000 ($38,962); Ontario grants for county purposes $14,000 ($13,342); school board taxation purposes $167,000 ($151,192); total $601,500 ($559,823).

COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION

THERE ARE NOW 55 TEACHING DAYS LEFT IN THE SCHOOL YEAR. THE BOARD WANTS TO SAVE THESE DAYS FOR OUR STUDENTS. DOES THE FEDERATION WANT THE SAME? WE HAVE MODIFIED OUR POSITION. WHY WON'T THE FEDERATION DO THE SAME?

The teachers told the Board that they were willing to "consider any proposal that includes some method of guaranteeing the negotiability and grievability of working conditions". The Board made an offer that included these demands and the teachers refused to accept it.

OUR TEACHERS REQUESTED "GRIEVABILITY"
THE BOARD OFFERED THE FOLLOWING — effective to 1979:

a) Decisions of the Board — concerning grievances related to the application of the Letters of Commitment, may be appealed to a Tribunal.

b) The Tribunal will consist of:
1) One Federation appointee
11) One Board appointee
111) A Chairman, selected from the community at large, who is mutually acceptable to both parties.

c) The Appeal Tribunal shall render a BINDING decision by December 15, in any school year, concerning grievances related to the application of the Letters of Commitment.

THE ABOVE ASSURES NOT ONLY GRIEVABILITY, BUT ALSO ALLOWS FOR THE TEACHERS TO HAVE A BINDING DECISION RENDERED BY A THIRD PARTY.
WHAT MORE DOES THE FEDERATION WANT?

OUR TEACHERS REQUESTED "NEGOTIABILITY"
THE BOARD OFFERED THE FOLLOWING — effective to 1979:
"Any renewal of the Letters of Commitment beyond the term specified in the Letters of Commitment WILL BE NEGOTIATED by both parties"
THIS CLAUSE ASSURES NEGOTIABILITY.

WHAT MORE DOES THE FEDERATION WANT?

THE TEACHERS WANTED GRIEVABILITY AND NEGOTIABILITY.
THE BOARD HAS OFFERED THE TEACHERS GRIEVABILITY AND NEGOTIABILITY.

Roll call was taken and two members, Colette Lacroix and Francine Villeneuve and a new assistant leader, Mrs. Fern Nicholls, were welcomed to the club.

Members then went on with the evening program and discussed the methods of feeding horses properly. A chart was posted on the wall and each member put on what was fed to their 4-H horse last month. This will have to be converted into metric measurements and brought to the next meeting.

The meeting was adjourned and lunch was served by the Whetters. Due to a power failure at this point, everyone enjoyed eating by candlelight. Myrle McMillan thanked the hosts for the use of their home.

The next meeting will be held May 9 at Jackson's.

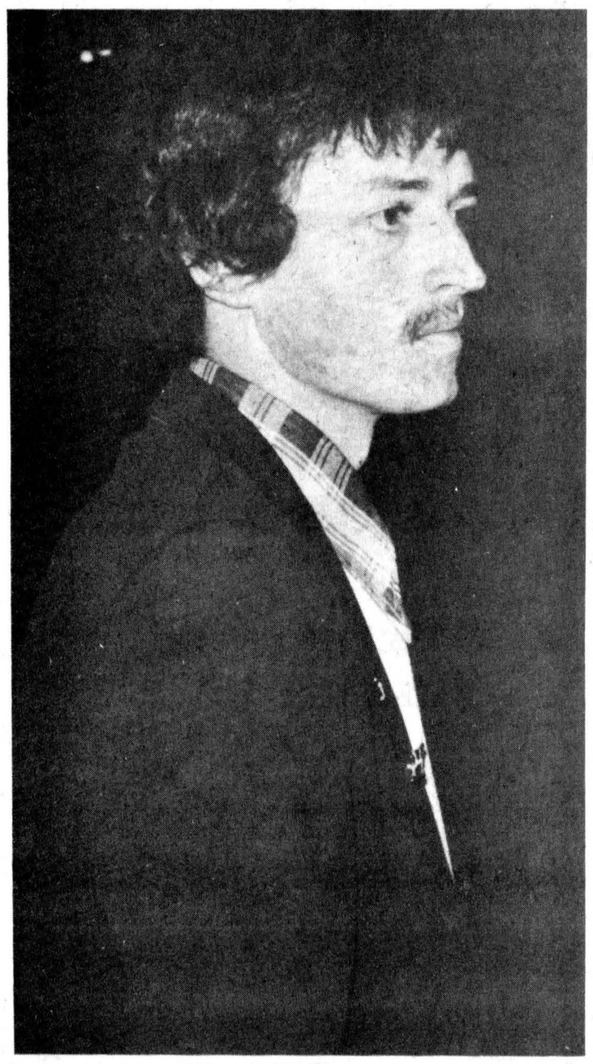
Countryman Memorial to Avonmore



Avonmore coach Marvin Waldroff watches intently

FINCH (Staff) - The Avonmore Aces got out of the starting gate too quickly for Berwick Sunday night as the Aces claimed a 4-3 win and the North Stormont Men's Hockey League playoff championship for the fourth time in the last six years.

The Aces bolted into a 3-0 first period lead and increased the margin to 4-0 early in the middle frame before settling back into the stretch to claim the victory and the best-of-seven final series in six games.

The Aces carried a 3-1 lead in games into the weekend's action but Berwick staved off elimination Friday night by doubling the Aces 6-3 after erasing an early 2-0 margin.

In the final game, Avonmore captain Junior Lalonde teamed up with Wayne Sproule to spot the Aces a lead at the 2:44 mark.

Murray MacMillan beat Jim Hume at 10:43 and winger Bob Grant scored just over four minutes later. Don Blaney drew assists on both goals.

Early in the middle stanza, Lalonde gathered in a lead pass from Sproule and working on a breakaway deposited the puck in the top left corner over Hume's shoulder.

The hotelers, underdogs all season having won only five games in the regular schedule, stormed back with Leonard O'Donohue and Jacques Landry narrowing the margin to 4-2 before the frame was five minutes old.

Berwick poured on the pressure for the remainder of the game as Avonmore ran into penalty problems but Aces' netminder Greg Amour stood his ground until Dave Rumer scored with one second left in the game.

Berwick got off to a slow start Friday but once they found their legs it was no contest.

Jim Wert and Sproule spotted Avonmore to a lead, both batting in rebounds off Hume.

Serge Brisson turned the game around at 16:36 when the teams were playing four aside. He stole the puck inside the blueline and fired a wrist shot high over Amour's catching glove.

At 19:28, Winston Dingwall knotted the score with a spin-around drive from the slot area.

Both teams offered a close checking attack early in the second period before Avonmore went on the attack. Ron Alguire grazed the outside of the post and Bob Grant was halted on a close-in play by Hume.

Shortly after Blaney dinged the post and Berwick rallied with Bill Moran finding the target from the blueline.

Jacques Landry got credit for the eventual winning goal at the 18:37 mark when Moran's blast went wide of the net and bounced back in front, striking a player and going in.

Murray MacMillan beat Hume early in the final stanza on a play which the netminder had no chance before the hotelers started to free-wheel again.

Dingwall, Landry and Rumer were all stopped before Rumer outmanouevred two defencemen and beat Amour with a low drive. Landry completed the scoring in the hard hitting contest at the 11:29 mark.

Ingleside won the league playoff trophy last year and Avonmore captured it the three previous years after Newington won the title in 1972.

League president Bryan Meldrum presented the Gordon Countryman Memorial Trophy to Avonmore captain Junior Lalonde and coach Marvin Waldroff.

Berwick captain Dave Rumer and coach Lyall Ouderkirk received the Royal Canadian Legion, 497 Heather Branch, Trophy as playoff finalists.

Berwick's Lyall Ouderkirk cheers his team on

Senior hockey league needs changes- Brunet

OTTAWA (Staff) - Almost a year ago the Ottawa District Hockey Association was boasting of and saluting two national championship teams - the Intermediate A Hardy Cup-winning Embrun Panthers and the tier two Junior A Centennial Cup champion Rockland Nationals.

ODHA hopes of a Canadian championship this year to rest solely on the Pembroke Lumber Kings, who have cleared the first hurdle in their quest of the Centennial Cup.

The Embrun Panthers last weekend faced early elimination in their effort to become the first team ever to repeat as Hardy Cup winners.

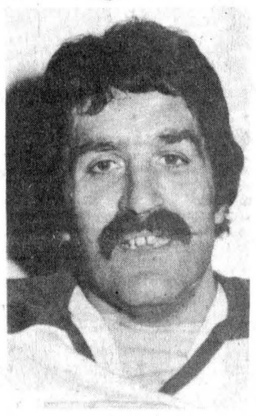
The Panthers bowed 3-2 in games to the Val D'Or Voodoos in the first round of playdowns and Embrun rookie Marc Brunet was disappointed in the series' outcome but still very much pleased with his team's performance on the season.

Commenting in a telephone interview Thursday morning, Brunet said "it turned out pretty good. You need a helluva team to win on the road".

The series was a best-of-five, he noted, and it is too long since players are amateurs and have to take time off from their jobs.

The team left for Val d'Or Friday morning and did not return home until Wednesday, with players missing two, and some, three days of work.

However, he was dissapointed in some of his "big guns" over the regular season but was more than happy with the effort shown by such junior players as Louie Lortie and Larry Parks, who were picked up for the playdowns.



Marc Brunet

Brunet admitted there was added pressure on the team to repeat as national champions but in his position, disciplining amateur players, some of whom he played with last year, is made more difficult.

When asked to summarize the Val d'Or team, Brunet did not hesitate in saying they play the Montreal Canadiens' system and "I have yet to see a French team that couldn't skate".

The Voodoos were swift on their skates and controlled the puck with short, crisp passes to nullify virtually any type of defence they confronted.

The Panthers set out to achieve two team goals at the beginning of the Ottawa District Senior Hockey League season and they delivered with flying colors.

They finished in first place with a 21-4-1 mark and swept league playoff series against Ottawa and Gatineau.

Brunet, the league's coach of the year, also had suggestions on how the league could improve itself and possibly attract more fan support which was lacking at a number of games this year.

His first recommendation was for each team to appoint and pay a nominal fee to a public relations officer who would in turn forward game results and information to the media or to a central person who would contact the media.

Second on the list was the appointment of a league scout to look at graduating tier two and tier one junior players talented enough to play in the league but not good enough to play semi-professional.

By doing this and stipulating that each team must have at least five players under 25 years of age on their roster, play would be much faster and would generate fan interest.

Too many good players are leaving this area, Brunet said, and this would be a way of keeping players who want to play in a competitive league.

At mid-season, rumors were going around that the Panthers would move to Smiths Falls and Gatineau would disband its operation but Brunet is optimistic the league will carry on.

Embrun has a scheduled renovation plan to seat more people in its arena and the interest has to be upgraded to draw fans.

Morrisburg ousts Gananoque, reaches ODHA Jr. B finals again

MORRISBURG (Staff) - Area Junior B hockey followers came within one chapter of viewing a re-run similar to the New York Islanders' 1975 saga against the Pittsburgh Penguins.

The Gananoque G-Men were doing a perfect imitation of the Islanders until Friday night when the Morrisburg Lions spoiled the act with a 5-3 victory to claim the deciding game of their ODHA Junior B Hockey League best-of-seven semi-final series.

Morrisburg surprised the speedy G-Men in the first three games of the series but lost their "stuff" as Gananoque came back to tie the series and force a deciding game.

The G-Men took Morrisburg 11-9 in overtime last Wednesday to knot the series at three games apiece.

Almost 1,400 persons jammed the Morrisburg arena Friday to watch the Lions grab 2-0 and 5-2 period leads en route to qualifying for the ODHA finals for the second straight year.

The Lions open defence of the area title at 8pm Wednesday in Renfrew. The second game of the championship set is scheduled for 8:30pm Friday in Morrisburg with game three at 2:30pm Sunday at Renfrew and the fourth game back in Morrisburg at 8pm next Wednesday.

Kevin Duvall gave Morrisburg the lead at 14:13 and Billy Morrow ran the margin to two just over a minute later.

In the middle frame, defenceman Robbie Reynolds sent the Lions up 3-0 on a powerplay before Dick Kirkby finally got the G-Men on the scoreboard.

Kevin Mackler scored midway through the frame and Harold Higgs replied for Gananoque before Bob McNairn completed the Morrisburg scoring.

Higgs, the league's regular season scoring champ, rounded out the scoring on a powerplay at 7:23 of the final period.

Gananoque was handed seven minor penalties while the Lions received 10 minors and a 10-minute misconduct.

The Lions fell behind far and quickly in Wednesday's sixth game in Gananoque but stormed back as the G-Men had to come from behind and force overtime.

Gananoque jumped into a 5-0 first period lead but Morrisburg outscored them 6-3 in the middle frame.

Morrisburg scored three times early in the third period before Steve Emmons sent the game into overtime by tying the score at 9-9 at the 19:03 mark.

Tim Higgins got his second goal of the game at 3:31 of the extra period and Mike Gilpin got his second of the game at 6:05 to complete the scoring.

Emmons led the G-Men with a hat trick and Higgins, Higgs and Gilpin got a pair each. Singles went to Dave Freeland and Steve Greene.

Doug McNairn, Pete McIntosh and Kevin Mackler each scored twice for Morrisburg. Billy Morrow, Bob McNairn and Brian Moran contributed singles.

Gananoque outshot the Lions 48-38 and took six of the game's 14 minor penalties.

First shot stopped but not rebound

Gananoque goaltender Jim Niles got in front of the first drive during this first period action Friday night but the second shot by Billy Morrow (in front of the goalie) made it into the cage to give Morrisburg a 2-0 lead. Morrisburg went on to win the game 5-3 and claim the deciding game of the best-of-seven ODHA Junior B Hockey League semi-final series. The Lions open the championship series against the Renfrew Lions in Renfrew Wednesday night.

SD&G teacher strike may cancel t & f season

(Staff) - Efforts by Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry secondary school students in preparing for the upcoming track and field season may be futile.

With SD&G's 553 secondary school teachers still on strike, superintendent of education Ken MacLennan said Thursday "As far as I'm aware, all athletic events have been cancelled".

Many athletes in the board's 10 schools are training daily but their efforts may be in vain if the strike if not settled in the near future.

Each school normally hosts an intramural meet to decide which athletes will represent them at the SD&G track and field meet scheduled for May 12 at General Vanier Secondary School, cornwall.

From there, winners carry the tri-county colors to the Eastern Ontario Secondary School Athletic Association qualifying meet at Kingston May 20 with winners there to go on to the All-Ontario championships at Toronto.

Stan Fraser of Glengarry District High School, Alexandria, chairman of the SD&G physical education department, said in a telephone interview the tri-county meet was still on as of last Thursday.

He said it would be cancelled in the near future, however, if the strike continues.

NDDHS's Julie Holmes, one of the province's top sprinters, has been preparing daily for the school track and field season.

She said Thursday she will not ease up on her training program because she is still going to prepare for the summer meets.

A competitor in the 100-metre and 200-metre dashes, Julie said she was going to use the school season as a training ground to compete in the 400-metre event.

There is less competition in that event, she said, and it would give her an indication of whether to work on it more or stay with running in the 100m and 200m events.

Glenna's Angels

Bantam Flyers close season

(Special) - Chesterville Bantam flyers closed out a season, which saw them play a total of 77 games, at the Russel Bantam Tournament last Sunday.

The first game saw the Flyers draw Prescott Ramparts, ODMHA and Golden Triangle champions. Flyers played a strong physical game, but were no match for the powerful Ramparts, who worked hard in the third, scoring four times on the way to a 6-1 triumph.

Garry Beckstead, chosen as Chesterville's MVP for the game, got Chesterville on the scoresheet on a neat play from Curtis McMillan.

Flyers came up flat in their second game against Walt Smail's Cardinal entry.

Steve Jones scored from Marque Laflamme to give Flyers a 1-0 lead, which lasted until the final frame. Cardinal notched two goals to post a close 2-1 win in an otherwise dull contest.

The Flyers, as seen below, had a winning season which saw them end second to a great Winchester team in CDMHL action. Chesterville also copped the "A" championship in the Chesterville tourney, went to "A" finals at Char-Lan, and posted Consolation Championships in the CDMHL and Alexandria tournaments.

Altogether, it was a fine year for the Bantam Flyers, who are heavily hit be graduating players. Holdover centres Marque Laflamme and Mike Beckstead, along with Steve Jones and Garry Beckstead, are expected to form the nucleus of a very competitive Flyer team in 1977-78.

Coaches Bernie Harper and Bert Beckstead, along with managers Peter Van Kessel and Dale McMillan, wish to express their thanks to the Chesterville Record for their support in print; Stan Vanden Bosch, Martin Derks and Van Kessel Homes for their support in new uniforms; the Chesterville Fire Depratment for their support in the Bantam Tournament; and, most important, the parents for their support, both morally and transportation-wise.

During the season, the Flyers played 75 games and posted a 37-30-8 record for a .547 winning percentage. They scored 232 goals and allowed 175 goals.

Three-day blitz for Maxville rink

MAXVILLE (Special) - Plans were completed at a largely attended meeting of enthusiastic workers Monday evening in the Maxville Community Hall to conduct a three-day canvass blitz seeking funds to build the proposed new Maxville and district arena complex. Residents of Maxville village, Roxborough and Kenyon Townships will be called on this Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The sum target to be raised in this canvas is $198,000 and the over-all cost of the complex is $781,000. This amount includes architect and building construction supervision, bank interest on short term loans. Also the arena and community hall furnishings.

The campaign has already begun with the Maxville Lions Club confirming their pledge of $30,000. Canvassers in the crowd acclaimed this announcement and added further applause when Roxborough Township Reeve George Crites said his township will pledge $15,000 and he, personally, will add $1,000.

The anticipated tax base donations from the municipalities involved is $50,000.

Mac Thompson of Thompson and Associates Consulting Engineers, Cornwall, was the first speaker called on by chairman Bill Campbell. Assisted by a large sized colored sketch of the proposed building, Mr. Thompson outlined the construction plans in detail. A lengthy question period followed. Several workers sought a breakdown of different aspects of the arena, community hall and facilities. Mr. Thompson's explanation were thorough and easily understood especially in reference to advantages that have been realized from construction experience gained during the past few years.

Chairman Campbell, who is also Board chairman, gave a chalk talk breakdown of grants and expected donations showing how the total money is expected to be achieved.

Frank Morgan, community complex superintendent, Winchester, gave an informative and interesting talk especially relative to what he considered the possibilities of the Maxville and District project. The basis of his discourse was revealing the services rendered to the Winchester area people and yearly revenue earned.

He congratulated those who first outlined the type of building desired and Mr. Thompson's completed plan from the data provided. Mr. Morgan predicted the completed complex would be a practical community center in every sense of the word. He told the workers this would be a building to be proud of and this was sufficient reason to ring door bells with enthusiasm and confidence of success.

Fund raising chairman, Garry Smith described to workers the procedure of completing canvas cards. He stressed the need of accuracy to meet the demands of the Wintario Audit.

Canvas captain of Roxborough, Reeve George Crites, assured the meeting that his township would be thoroughly covered. He pointed out that the youth cannot be in two places at the one time. If they are provided with recreation facilities and capably supervised, they will not be a problem in the community or their home. He concluded his well received remarks that he was so sincere in what he had said that he was handing over his personal contribution of $1,000.

Walter Blaney, Kenyon Agriculture Society representative and Kenyon Township canvas captain, advised that he had already explored the donation possibilities of Kenyon and he was very pleased with the results. So much so that he challenged Roxborough and Maxville, individually, to top Kenyon's contribution.

Maxville's captain, Arnold Munro, is asking all citizens to show the same enthusiasm both in spirit and donations as they did in the Maxville Manor campaign of some 10 years ago. By doing so, and there is no reason to prevent a repetition, then we are on our way to complete success, he concluded.

The three captains all have several vice captains. Prior to closing the meeting, chairman Campbell thanked both Mr. Thompson and Mr. Morgan for their informative remarks that would be so helpful to all concerned. He also expressed to the Board's publicity director, Angus H. McDonell, appreciation and gratitude by area sport fans for his recent Glengarry News articles recalling the accomplishments of the Maxville Millionaires. This was of great help in the success of closing the old rink and opening the new one.

MINOR HOCKEY ANNUAL

The ice has been taken out of the Chesterville and District Community Centre and the Chesterville and District Minor Hockey Association is already looking toward next season.

The association is holding its annual general meeting at 7pm tomorrow night (Thursday) at the Chesterville Community Hall to elect a new slate of officers for next season and hear reports from the past season's activities.

Looking back at the past season, visiting teams, which numbered quite a few for nine tournaments, can definitely not say each of the single-day events were fixed.

Only the Bantam A Flyers were able to win their tournament championship. The Midget A Flyers and Atom B teams were A division finalists.

Local teams played a total of 23 games in the tournaments, winning 11, losing 10 and tying two. They outscored the opposition by a 67-62 margin.

THE LAST HOORAH!

Plans are currently underway for what might be the last hoorah for a minor sports awards banquet in Chesterville.

A committee has met a couple of times now and the date for the annual awards night is 7:30pm, Sun., May 29 at the Chesterville and District Community Centre.

Ron Piche of the Montreal Expos and Janet Morrisey of the Nepean Figure Skating Club are to be included as special guests along with other persons to be named at a later time.

It will cost only a greenback to get you into the gathering for a soft drink, donut or coffee and a free chance on a draw for two racing bicycles.

Village recreation director Rick St. Dennis has said it will be the last special awards night for amateur athletes here if the public does not respond with some type of support.

Last year, only 100 persons attended the sports banquet and that being my first official assignment here left me wondering what kind of people live here," Mr. St. Dennis said.

The summer months brought minor softball and the winter, minor hockey, minor broomball and figure skating to change my mind.

Last year's endeavor lost $541 and we hope this year's special night to honor our younger athletes does not bring the same misfortune."

Countymen winners of plus 40 years tournament

FINCH (Staff) - Stormont Countymen had little opposition in winning the E.W. Munro Memorial Trophy at the plus 40 years oldtimers hockey tournament here Sunday.

The Countymen stung Oshawa 10-2 in the opening game and then blasted Dollard St. Laurnet 9-2 in the final match of the day.

Dollard reached the championship game of the four-team tournament by nipping the Ottawa Old Stars 5-4 in overtime.

In the first game, Stormont rolled up a 10-0 margin before Don Grant lost his shutout bid with just under two minutes left in the game.

Ron Quenneville, named the tournament's most valuable player, paced the Countymen with three goals and an assist as they grabbed 3-0 and 7-0 leads at the intervals.

Bill Kippen scored a pair of goals and collected three assists. Pete Champagne had a pair and singles went to Nick Haramis, Bryan McEwan and Allie Cameron.

Eight players figured in the scoring of the championship game as the Countymen claimed an early lead and never looked back.

Bryan McEwan scored twice for the winners and singles came from Allie Cameron, C. Adams, E. Currier, Tom Moore, K. Wheeler, Bill Kippen and Ron Quenneville.

Oshawa's duo of Bob Cherry and Sid Arnold won the team championship in the showdown against Jim Hume of the Finch Township Junior 76's.

Stormont is in action at the annual Pte. Claire tournament this week. They played Westlake Tuesday and will go against West Island at 10pm Thursday. They meet Dollard at 11am Saturday.

Oldtimer winners

The Stormont Countymen hockey team claimed the top team award and the only individual player award at the 40-years-plus tournament held at Finch Sunday. The Countymen beat Oshawa 10-2 and Dollard St. Laurent 9-2 to win the E.W. Munro Memorial Trophy in the four-team event. -staff photo-

PLASTMO EAVESTROUGH
THREE SIMPLE STEPS FOR INSTALLATION
1. Install Brackets where rafters meet fascia board. One Bracket every rafter (use level and chalk line). Position height of Brackets so that the imagined extension of the slope of the roof meets the front tip of the Brackets. Slope trough slightly towards the position of the Centre Drop.
2. Prepare Trough Components for assembly (read the drawings and be sure to recognize the front of each component). Include End Caps or Corner Sections as required. Cut Trough sections to required length (cut easily with a hack saw). Mitre ends at Corner Sections (use mitre guide and instructions attached to Corner Sections). Position Centre Drop and trace and cut drain hole at bottom of Trough (angle cut 45 degrees from the left and right sides of the hole position towards the centre). Wipe all areas to be cemented thoroughly with Plastmo Cleaning Fluid (use white cloth). Apply Plastmo Cement to End Cap and Centre Drop and then the Corner Sections. Install (snap into brackets) the Trough sections. Start installation at one corner and continue in one direction. Be sure to position all components correctly. Cement and add Joint Connectors where regular Trough Section ends meet.
3. Prepare Downpipe Components for assembly. Cut Downpipe Sections to required length. Fit Downpipe Joint Connector or Elbows (45 degrees or 75 degrees) to the Centre Drop. And Shoe or Well Outlet with Well Cap at bottom. Wipe all areas to be cemented thoroughly with Plastmo Cleaning Fluid (use white cloth). Note, only parts of the Downpipe assembly must be bonded together. (Do not cement Centre Drop/Elbow connections or Elbow/Downpipe connections.) Apply Plastmo Cement evenly to all areas to be bonded. Assemble complete Downpipe Section (watch for correct positioning/angle of Shoe or Well Outlet and Well Cap at bottom). Install Downpipe and mount to wall with Pipe Holders (two Pipe Holders per 10 foot or 3 m section). Be sure to add a pipe ring above top Pipe Holder (simply cut ½" or 1.5 cm ring of pipe, cut open and cement it and bond to Downpipe above Pipe Holder for support). There it is. You've done it. Your Plastmo eavestroughing. It's beautiful. It's dependable. It's economical.

Ball registration Saturday

Roxborough residents ready for summer fun

MOOSE CREEK (Staff) - With summer vacation for many youngsters just a few months away, Roxborough Township Recreation Association has announced its plans for summer programs.

Again this year, the township will sponsor two major projects - swimming and softball - but with a minor addition.

The swimming program is currently in the planning stage and will again allow boys and girls to participate in swimming for three or four weeks this summer. More information will be made public at a later date.

The summer softball program takes on a different twist this year with registration for the program to be held this Saturday, April 23.

Persons wishing to participate in the program can register from 10am to 2pm at the Avonmore Community Centre, Moose Creek Community Centre, or Monkland Public School, this Saturday.

A small fee will be charged to cover costs and the rates are: for persons 18 years and under, $2 per member to maximum of $5 per family; for persons 19 years and over, $10 per member to maximum of $25 per family or $30 per family for all divisions.

Last summer, the township recreation association organized softball for boys and girls up to the age of 14 years. All games were played on the facilities in Avonmore, Monkland and Moose Creek. Each community this year will have lighted ball diamonds with Monkland being the last to acquire lights.

However, this year's softball program will be open for both male and female participants from the ages of six to 60.

Avonmore, Monkland and Moose Creek will each have a boys' and girls' team entered in the 10-years and under division, 11 -14-years division and 15 -18-years division.

In the 19- and over division, all members will be organized into teams depending on the number of registrants. A travelling all-star team is also expected to be formed.

The township recreation association has 11 members, three representatives each from Avonmore, Monkland and Moose Creek, plus Reeve George Crites and Councillor Bill MacMillan.

Alex MacKenize, Avonmore, is the chairman and Charles Reilly, also of Avonmore, is the secretary. Carol Prodonick is the other Avonmore representative.

Sonny Vibert, Harry Tessier and Paulette Valley represent Moose Creek and Sandra Sproule, Peter Papps and Ronnie Poapst represent Monkland.

The association meets regularly, on a rotating basis, on the last Tuesday of each month in one of the three municipalities.

WI's world-wide work described at Lunenburg

LUNENBURG (Special) - The Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Eddy Beaudette for their April 5th meeting which took the form of a pot luck dinner.

Mrs. Sterling Eamer acted as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Charles Huggins, secretary. Everyone was sorry to hear Mrs. Huggins has moved to Ingleside and members wish her happiness in her new home and welcomed Mrs. Shorey of St. Andrews, who will replace her as secretary of the branch for the coming year. coming year.

Plans were made to carry on again as the branch has in the past few years with a floating president. Mrs. Ted Smith filled that office for the April meeting with other members taking their turns throughout the year.

Mrs. John Schultz addressed the meeting and spoke at great length about the work that has been done over the years and is continuing to be done by the Women's Institute all over the world. She answered questions and members joined in the discussion.

A kitchen shower of gifts were presented to Mrs. Helen Rupert who lost her home recently by fire.

The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mitschke Tues., May 3, when everyone is asked to bring suggestions for the program for the coming year.
