Up, up and away

MORRISBURG — Students at St. Mary's School in Morrisburg decided to celebrate Remembrance Day this year by promoting peace around the world.

The peace celebration was organized by teacher Joann Larin and Morrisburg Royal Canadian Legion Branch 48 President, Cam Martel, was invited to participate.

The children sang songs and wrote special messages for peace.

The highlight of the celebration was the release of 125 helium-filled balloons, each containing a special message prepared by the students.

The children were invited to write a message of peace along with their name, age, school address and phone number and to ask the finder of the balloon to reply to the school.

Larin said a large map will be put up in the school and any returns will be marked on it.

Iroquois may join Brockville

Recycling plan on hold

by Judith O'Brien
Leader Staff

IROQUOIS — The plan by the City of Brockville to initiate a recycling program may force the Village of Iroquois to alter or cancel its own recycling plans.

At their meeting Tuesday councillors decided not to sign an agreement with Guy Leclair of Dundas Recycling Ltd. until they find out more about the Brockville plan. Last month councillors informally agreed to join a recycling program with Leclair, allowing him to pick up recyclable materials in the village for five years. Leclair would pick up materials for free with no charge to the village.

But Brockville mayor Stephen Clark said his city should take the recycling initiative for all municipalities in the Grenville-Dundas Waste Mnagement Study, of which Iroquois is a part.

"I think their idea is to start recycling in the city and extend it to other areas by having trucks come down to municipalities or selling materials to the Brockville recycling programs," said Leclair. "Either way it will probably have an effect on Iroquois recycling."

Capable

Leclair said he is capable of starting a recycling program in the village in the spring whereas Brockville will not be able to start until next fall. He added that timetable is "ambitious."

He said Iroquois has the option to start recycling ahead of Brockville or wait to see the type of program implemented in the city.

"The proposal I gave last time, more or less stands," said Leclair. "I will come in and pick up at no cost to the municipality. The Brockville program won't be in place for at least a year. I don't see why Iroquois should wait."

Leclair said he is capable of handling a village recycling program the size of Iroquois and has made contingency plans in case he should fall ill or have mechanical breakdowns. He said he has part-time people who could work longer hours in the event he could not work and has two back-up vehicles.

"For the present time I can offer you recycling. Brockville can't," he said.

Leclair sends his recyclable glass and tin to plants in Hamilton and Toronto but said he has had an informal offer from the Ottawa recycling program to send materials there. He also said he would sell to the Brockville program if they decide to accept glass and tin.

Commercial recycling

Village foreman Ray Delegarde said he couldn't understand how a small operation like Leclair's could handle recyclable material.

"We make three trips from the plaza alone to the dump per week," said Delegarde. "We take 60 tonnes of cardboard out of there a week."

Leclair said his operation, which currently picks up materials in Winchester and Chesterville, does not handle commercial recycling.

"We do only households," he said. "We haven't expanded to commercial yet. We have municipal recycling as opposed to commercial recycling."

He also said he could afford to pick up materials in the village for free because of the size of his operation, but if Brockville sends trucks to Iroquois to pick up materials they will charge tipping fees which can become very expensive.

"It may cost Brockville $35 a tonne to recycle. I can offer to do this for free because of the size of the operation," he said. "They will need $60,000 trucks and if you send these trucks to Iroquois you might be sending a man to do a boy's job. You may not need to go that big."

Leclair advised councillors that blue recycling boxes take five months for delivery and if the village is interested in starting his program in the spring the boxes will have to be ordered very soon.

Iroquois Reeve Frank Rooney advised Leclair he would attend an information meeting in Brockville this week and discuss it with council. He said a decision would be made by the end of the month.

Tanker accident causes injury - property damage

MORRISBURG — It appears the roads were a dangerous place to be last week as Morrisburg and Long Sault O.P.P. reported several serious accidents.

The most serious of the accidents occurred Nov. 10 on the 401 just west of Morrisburg when a tractor trailer carrying a petroleum hydrocarbon, guessed to be some sort of fuel oil by environmental officials, failed to negotiate a curve and rolled into a south side ditch.

The cargo was released and the driver, Lawrence Quinlan of Cornwall, was seriously injured.

The accident, at 10:25 p.m. caused $100,000 in damage to the vehicle.

Mark Robert, Environmental Officer with the Ontario Ministry of the Environment said the clean-up of the cargo is continuing, and estimates the work will cost between $50,000 and $100,000.

"The product contaminated two small ponds and the ground in the area, and we're working to recuperate as much as we can," said Robert.

The ponds and the surrounding land is used by a farmer for grazing livestock and Robert has advised him not to use the area for the rest of this year, and to have the area tested in the spring.

Robert added they are using absorbing material to remove as into the ditch.
but said because the land is marshy efforts in the clean-up have been hindered.

Injuries also occurred in an accident Nov. 13 at 2:50 a.m., when a 1982 Chevrolet driven westbound on Highway 2 by Robert Hart, 20, of RR1 Morrisburg, struck the rear of a westbound Ford driven by Dale Young of Morrisburg and went into the dtich.

Hart was taken to the hospital with serious injuries, and damage to his vehicle was estimated at $6,000. There was $50 damage to the Ford.

Hart has been charged by Long Sault O.P.P. with improper passing.

The injury count continued in Iroquois when a passenger broke an arm in a vehicle driven by Stephen Prunner that went off the road and struck a culvert. Prunner received minor facial injuries in the accident.

In provincial court on Tuesday Prunner pleaded guilty to driving while impaired and received a six month license suspension and $500 fine.

Damage to the Prunner car was $2,400.

On Nov. 14, at 7:05 p.m. a car driven by Christopher Crowder, 16, of RR2 Williamsburg, was travelling northbound on Ottawa St. when it struck the shoulder then crossed the road and the lawn at 18 Ottawa St., striking a tree.

There was $12,000 damage to the 1985 Chrysler, with minor injuries in the accident.

Fire averted

MORRISBURG — Quick action by members of the Royal Canadian Legion and the Morrisburg Fire Department averted what could have become a major problem Sunday afternoon.

A fire was started in the garbage container located behind the Legion Hall by an unknown person or persons. People at the Legion contacted the fire department who managed to extinguish the flame within a matter of seconds.

"As far as we can tell probably some kids lit a fire in the garbage container," said Morrisburg Fire Chief Les Bilmer. "It wasn't serious although it could have been because it was located right beside a propane tank."

Damage to the Legion was minor.

Village hires lady clerk

MORRISBURG — Village councillors have hired a new clerk to replace retiring clerk Lloyd Barkley.

Cheryl Vera Tynski of Guysborough, Nova Scotia will begin her new job in Morrisburg Jan. 15, 1988.

Tynski presently works as municipal clerk-treasurer for the Municipality of the District of Guysborough. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Dalhousie University in 1974, and a Master of Public Administration from the same university in 1979. She is married with two children.

Council began searching for a new clerk after Barkley announced his retirement in July due to health reasons. Eleven applications were received for the position and six were interviewed.

"A lot of excellent people applied and it was a tough decision," said councillor Al Belanger who heads the personnel committee. "She has considerable experience and is very well qualified."

Tynski, 34, was born in Sydney, Nova Scotia. She served as University Ombudsman at Dalhousie from 1976 to 1978 and as a teaching assistant/researcher at Dalhousie's School of Public Administration from 1978 to 1979. From 1981 to 1985 she was a guest lecturer for a graduate level course in Municipal Management offered by the School of Public Administration.

She has published two articles, in "The Boardroom Files" in December 1982 and "Municipal Open Line" in February 1986. In April 1981 Tynski was appointed Commissioner of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia by Order in Council pursuant to the Notaries and Commissioners Act.

She is a member of the Nova Scotia Association of Municipal Administrators, the International Institute of Municipal Clerks, Government Finance Officers' Association and the Institute of Public Administration of Canada.

She lists among her interests curling, arts and craft, theatre and volunteer work.

As with all municipal positions, Tynski will serve a six month probationary period.

Man arrested for cutting tower

MORRISBURG — James Henry Wise, 44, of Chesterville was charged Friday with willfully damaging a Bell Canada microwave tower in Williamsburg Township.

The 100-metre communications tower was vandalized around 11 p.m. on Aug. 15th when several of the 32 heavy steel cables supporting it were cut. Damage was estimated at $4 million.

The tower destruction disrupted Bell's long distance network in Eastern Ontario, Western Quebec and the Maritimes until a temporary tower was erected on the same site three days later.

The tower was part of a communications system consisting of a series of similar installations located about 50 kilometres apart along the St. Lawrence River. CBC radio transmission was also disrupted.

Wise was charged under section 387:3 of the Criminal Code, mischief causing more than $1,000 damage. The maximum penalty is 10 years imprisonment.

Spokesman Cpl. Al Crocker of the Long Sault OPP said Wise was arrested Friday afternoon by Morrisburg OPP Constable Lee McCaslin.

OPP searched a house in Chesterville on August 26 and seized acetylene torches, goggles, two newspapers, two pairs of gloves and three vacuum bags. Crocker said he did not know the reason for the delay between the time of the search warrant and the arrest.

OPP also seized a videotape of an interview between a reporter and James Wise last week from CJOH-TV studios. In the interview Wise claimed he was a suspect in the alleged Ottawa Valley serial killings. Cpl. Crocker said he didn't believe the seizure of the videotape was related to Wise's arrest on mischief charges.

Wise was released on a promise to appear in provincial court in Morrisburg, Nov. 24.

Gauthier murder trial postponed

CORNWALL — The jury trial of Robert Gauthier, charged with the first degree murder of his estranged wife and three-year-old son has been postponed to Feb. 8.

The 36-year-old Gauthier was ordered to stand trial earlier this year for the Dec. 14, 1986 shooting death of his wife Janice, 30 and the death of their son Robbie.

Janice died outside her parents' farmhouse north of Ingleside while Gauthier was arrested in Cornwall with his wounded son in his arms. The child died later in hospital.

The Supreme Court of Ontario trial was slated to begin in Cornwall on Monday but defence lawyer Robert Wakefield was granted a postponement in order to give him more time to prepare his case.

Fuel spilled

This tractor trailer failed to negotiate a curve on the 401 last week and flipped over in the ditch, spilling its load of fuel and seriously injuring the driver, Lawrence Quilan of Cornwall. Total damage in the accident could run as high as $200,000.

Ready to Roll

This new $150,000 pumper truck in Williamsburg will take the place of old No. 1, the 25 year old pumper they were using. The new truck is state of the art, with a capacity to pump 840 gallons of water per minute. The new pumper, pictured here with Fire Chief Lyal Kehoe, will compliment the $35,000 rescue vehicle Williamsburg recently acquired. -Carson photo

Calgary games olympic torch arrives in Canada

MORRISBURG — The Olympic Torch has arrived in Canada and with its arrival local committees, working on events in conjunction with its passing through the area on December 17th, are beginning to step up their preparations.

A Greek runner began the torch relay in a traditional ceremony Sunday at the site of the ancient games. The torch, inscribed XV Olympic Winter Games Calgary, Alberta, 1988 was flown to St. John's Newfoundland where the relay across Canada began Tuesday.

Almost 7,000 runners will have hoisted the torch in an 88-day, 18,000 kilometre relay to the opening ceremonies at Calgary, February 13.

The torch will be carried from Cornwall to Brockville along the Number 2 highway on November 17 and committees in Ingleside, Morrisburg and Iroquois are busy preparing for its passage.

One aspect of the Torch Relay is the recent Celebration 88 Awards program recently announced by the Government of Canada.

The Celebration 88 Awards recognize those Canadians who have made outstanding contributions to their community in keeping with the admirable ideals of the Olympic spirit: hard work, determination, moral character and dedication to the community.

Local Celebration committees are now seeking out deserving recipients and in Morrisburg nominations are being accepted by committee chairman Wilf McAuley and in Ingleside by Carson Elliott or in the Osnabruck township office.

The Celebration 88 Awards program has two parts, the medals to honor individuals who have made outstanding contributions to amateur sports and the certificates to recognize those who have contributed to the quality of life in the community.

The local Celebration committees are soliciting nominations and will then select the recipients from those nominated.

Award categories for the Medals include a male and female athlete, a volunteer, a coach, an official and a sponsor, the latter being a business that has contributed monetarily or with services in kind, towards the development of amateur sport in the community.

For the certificates, local committees are asked to identify others who deserve recognition for their unselfish contribution to their community. Recipients of these awards, which can number more than one in any community, are selected by consensus.

Neither category is limited to a certain nubmer of recipients.

Confusion reigns at SD&G board meeting as trustees vote down question period

CORNWALL — Confusion was in, and public question period was out at the SD&G County Board of Education meeting Nov. 10.

At the meeting two trustees, Roy Hastings and Sandy Enns, challenged chairman Joe Gunn's addition of a public question period to the board's agenda. Gunn rulled the appeal out of order because the question period has been on the agenda for all the fall meetings, and therefore the objection had taken too long to be brought foreward.

Hastings and Enns then challenged Gunn's right to rule their objection to the question period out of order and confusion ensued, with trustees uncertain which ruling they would be voting on.

Gunn argued that to reject the chairman's right to add a question period to the agenda was precedent-setting and would negate the right of the chairman to add any item to the agenda. Gunn also said that if his addition of the question period was voted down it would only be for that meeting, prompting some trustees to question whether appeals would have to be made at every meeting.

Gunn then called a five minute recess to try to straighten out the situation.

After the break the trustees voted against question period eight to six.

Hastings said he objected to the question period on prinicipl̈e because the board already has a method which people with concerns can use.

If the public wants to go before the board they contact their local representative, Hastings said.

After the meeting Gunn said that the SD&G Roman Catholic School Board has had public question periods at their meetings for four years, but noted that in the several months his board has had question period not a single question has been asked by the public.

Plenty of space still available for people in retirement centre

by Judith O'Brien
Leader Staff

MORRISBURG — Despite rumors to the contrary, there is still plenty of space available for seniors in the retirement centre presently under construction in the village.

Rick Wachter, President of Provincial Nursing and Retirement Centres Ltd. says he is faced with the same rumor everytime his company builds a retirement centre.

"There is lots of space available," he said. "Not one unit is spoken for yet. We don't rent any units until the building opens. We take the names of people who are interested and call them when it opens."

Wachter says his company uses a different marketing approach to sell the retirement centres. Anyone interested in living at the centre is invited to tour the Rosedale Retirement Centre in Brockville which is similar to the building in Morrisburg.

"We like to have people see what they are getting first," said Wachter.

He added the centre in Morrisburg is looking very good. Plenty of people are interested in the living arrangements and construction is proceeding without any major problems.

Wachter said he welcomes any inquiries about the centre but said a price schedule hasn't been worked out yet.

When completed the centre will house approximately 100 people and provide 30 part-time and full time jobs.

Christmas spirit

Poor response for carolling

MORRISBURG — Response to the BIA's Christmas carolling contest has been poor and organizers are wondering what to do about it.

The BIA, as part of its Christmas promotion, is sponsoring a carolling contest in the shopping centre for local choirs. First prize is $300, with second place receiving $200 and $100 for third place.

But contest organizer Tom Morrow said no applications for the contest have been received. Applications appeared in last week's edition of The Leader.

"Nobody sent anything in," he said. "There have been a couple of inquiries. We expected local churches and schools would be interested."

The deadline for applications for the carolling contest is Dec. 1. Morrow hopes some groups will sign up for the contest prior to that date.

Decorating complete

Other Christmas promotions planned by the BIA are proceeding smoothly. The shopping plaza decorations were completed Nov. 15, and the Chamber of Commerce Tourist office is ready to receive Santa on Dec. 4.

Some merchants have begun preparations for the store decorating contest. The winner will be chosen by members of the public.

Ballots for the best decorated store will be printed in The Leader.

Road repairs for Matilda

BRINSTON — Fall is a time of year when the leaves are falling, the nip in the air hints at winter, and gravel roads take a serious beating.

In the past few weeks residents in Matilda Township have been contacting members of township council with questions and concerns about the conditions of the roads.

Reeve Lorne Mellan said that the problem is a perpetual one that township councils all over have to deal with.

"When gravel roads get wet they get badly pitted, and the water on them doesn't dry off as fast as in the summer," he said.

With around 100 miles of gravel roads under the township's care, keeping on top of the problem can sometimes be difficult, but Mellan said the township has two graders out on the roads working on the problem and in the next week or so all the roads will have been worked on by the graders.

Mellan said that once this round of grading is done, and if there is not too much more rain, the roads should be okay through the winter.

People who call up about the roads are very understanding and are glad to hear that the graders are out working and on their way, Mellan said.

Council also decided at their Nov. 12 meeting to meet with the hall board on Nov. 23 to iron out any possible problems the hall board may be having.

Councillor Mike Ault attended the last hall board meeting and brought to council problems and questions from the hall board.

Ault said that attendance at the six member hall board meetings is down to two or three members per meeting, and said some hall board members questioned their duties and questioned whether the hall board in its current state is still needed.

The hall board is responsible for taking care of the Matilda Township Community Hall, and Mellan feels that part of the problem may be the fact that the board is doing their job efficiently. When the hall is functioning well and there are no major problems it leaves little for the board members to do.

Mellan added that after the meeting with council he feels any problems can be ironed out and the hall board will continue its important duties.

It's all in the spin of the wheel

You should know

The proposed free trade agreement with the United States, which has been the subject of so many months of discussion and argument in the making, charges and counter-charges in the Canadian House of Commons and both U.S. government houses, is probably the one document which could most affect the lives and livelihood of every Canadian, even more than the Magna Charta, and our own Constitution. And although the precise wording of the document has not even been completed, the rush is on to have it universally accepted in Canada.

The government of Prime Minister Brian Mulroney has allocated many millions of dollars for a publicity campaign to bring to fruition what could be his crowning achievement — or the greatest give-away in Canadian history.

It is very important for every Canadian to study and to know the advantages and also the disadvantages inherent in any such agreement. Their welfare, and that of every one of their descendants will depend on it. We could wind up enjoying one of the most prosperous countries in the world — or become just a poor relation and a 51st state.

Protect your child's eyes

In countries as widely separated by distance, culture, available health care and facilities as India and Canada, there is a common concern — the eyes of their young citizens.

In India, the cause of worry is a nutrition-related disease called Xerophthalmia. It completely blinds more than 200,000 children each year, while another half-million become visually impaired.

This disease is caused by a lack of Vitamin A in the diet, and although many fruits and vegetables containing the vitamin are available, they are not basic to the regular diet there; so the main weapon in the attack on "Xero" has to be education. The second prong of the movement to wipe out this plague is crisis intervention, making medical help immediately available, with massive doses of the needed vitamin given in fluids or in capsules. The treatment can often bring back a child from the brink of blindness.

Happily, most parents in Canada need not worry about their children's diets, but they have another major worry about their children's eyes, and their possible injury or loss. Prominent ophthalmologists across the country report regularly on the serious incidence of eye injuries sustained in sports, and particularly in hockey.

Hundreds of eyes have been lost, hundreds of potentially successful hockey careers ended by young Canadians playing the popular winter game without competent eye protection. Hockey has a higher eye injury frequency and severity than any other sport anywhere in the world, and accounts for eighty per cent of reported cases of blinded eyes. During just one year, 63 eye injuries to hockey players were reported, and not a single one of those players had been wearing a face protector.

Don't let your budding young superstar risk the loss of this very precious possession by neglecting to use the very best protection available. Remember — eyes can never be replaced!

Use headlights properly

The death rate for motor vehicle accidents occurring at night is almost three times greater than for daytime crashes, according to the Ontario Safety League. The severity of crashes at night is almost always much greater as well. Many such crashes are single vehicle happenings, and involve a car running off the road, down a gully or ravine, or into a tree, a pole, or other fixed object. While there are many causes for these night crashes, the improper care and use of the vehicle's headlights often plays an important part.

The Safety League provides some safety suggestions on the care and use of your headlights in order to reduce the chances of an accident due to poor visibility. Especially at this time of year, when weather conditions can change so suddenly and unpredictably, these are very important for every driver:

1. Clean your headlights when you clean your windshield. When driving on a muddy road, or in winter slush, pull off the road occasionally, and clean them again. Dirt, snow, salt or mud can reduce the output of your headlights by as much as 75 per cent.

2. When driving at night, be careful not to overload the rear of your car. Too much weight in the rear will tilt the headlights upward and reduce the lighting on the roadway.

3. When the visibility is poor (night, fog, rain or sleet), don't stare at the centre line of the road as you are driving. Move your eyes slightly to scan the highway. Such staring can have a hypnotic effect, and result in an accident.

4. In fog, heavy rain or snow, when headlights must be used, reduce your speed and use the low-beam lights.

5. Always be sure your headlights are aimed properly; have them checked periodically and adjusted when necessary.

6. High beams serve a useful purpose. They can help you to see more, and to detect potential problems and dangers at much greater distances. But be sure to switch to low beams for oncoming traffic, when following another vehicle, or when a car passes yours. In Ontario, the law requires you to switch to low beams when within 150 m of an oncoming vehicle, and within 60 m when following another vehicle.

7. When one of your headlights goes out, or becomes defective, have it replaced immediately. The loss of a light means the loss of visibility, and puts you, your passengers and your vehicle at very great risk.

8. Keep your battery always fully charged, and your alternator/generator and your voltage regulator in proper working order. If your headlights periodically go dim while you are driving, you probably have a defect in your electrical system.

9. If your car is equipped with fuses for its electrical system, keep spares in the glove box for emergencies (and be sure you know how to use them).

10. Remember that operating a vehicle with parking lights only, at any time of the day or night, is very, very dangerous, illegal and strictly prohibited!

This Week In Morrisburg's History

Compiled from The Leader's fyles
by Bonnie McNairn

1977

The November 16th, 1977 issue of The Leader reported the first snowfall of the season had resulted in a few minor accidents in the village.

The Senior Citizens' Apartment Complex on Highway 2 East in the Village of Morrisburg was officially opened. The two storey walk-up apartment building housed 30 one-bedroom apartments.

Construction on the Matilda Township Hall at Dixon's Corners was underway and the hall fund raising drive had reached $17,300 of the needed $52,550. The latter figure represented the amount needed for the project to qualify for the maximum Wintario funding of $107,000.

Susan Dewar was installed as Noble Grand of the St. Lawrence Rebekah Lodge No. 373. Karen Gorrell became vice-grand and Marion Thompson recording secretary.

At Heinz Food market Squirrel peanut butter was $1.49 a 32-ounce jar and Florida white grapefruit were 10 for 98 cents.

The St. Lawrence Branch of the United Empire Loyalists Association of Canada was preparing to hold its second meeting. The group had been granted its charter May 14th joining 20 other branches across Canada.

Seventy-two curlers competed in the opening bonspiel of the Morrisburg Curling Club with a rink, skipped by Graham Houze and Gord Fairbairn and consisting of Liz Brunt, Jim McCullough and Debbie Wells, the winner.

The November 17th, 1967 issue of The Leader reported the Morrisburg Combines opened their season in the St. Lawrence Senior Hockey League in Renfrew and tallied their first win, defeating the North Stars 4-1. Pat Brophy scored twice for the Combines and Bill Craig and Cal Wagoner had singles.

At Allison Import's gigantic pre-Christmas sale, bone china cups and saucers were 97 cents and men's, all-wool ties were 47 cents.

Harry Tindal had Christmas trees for sale ranging from $1.00 to $3.50.

At the Dominion, Florida grapefruit were 10 for 69 cents and spinach was two 10-ounce bags for 39 cents.

Headlines in the November 22nd, 1957 issue of The Leader read Morrisburg wins EOSSA B championship. The MHS Blue Tornado football team went through the entire season without losing a game and much of the success was credited to the coaching of Constable Arni Olsen, a former member of the winnipeg Blue Bombers. Members of the team included Russell Casselman, Ralph Glassford, Tex Weegar, Doug Casselman, Don Wells, Brent Casselman, Roger Bouchard, Lawrence Wells, Bob Jones, Brian Foss, Bill Magee, Ronnie Hess, Graham Serviss, Leland VanAllen, Arlie Locke and Martin Blackwell.

In a notice to the electors of Morrisburg members of the town council expressed their intent as a body to stand for re-election. Council included George E. Beavers, Reeve, and councillors Harry B. Duvall, J. Arthur Edgerton, A. Wallace Guay and Malcolm D. Wilson.

A meeting was to be held at the Morrisburg Police Office for all boys and their parents, interested in forming a junior rifle club. Chief Constable Earl McIntyre had initiated the matter.

Nominations for municipal offices in Williamsburg township had been held with Don Kyle and Bernice Froats both nominated for Reeve. Nominated for Deputy Reeve were Mason Robinson and Johnny Whitteker and for councillors Johnny Whitteker, G.R. McIntosh, Harold Marcellus and Graham Hess.

Charlie and David Carr, while exploring at Casselman's Creek, came across an old powder flask which had been used in the War of 1812. It was turned over to the Parks Commission.

The new overpass, to carry traffic over the Canadian National Railway, was almost completed.

Pictured in the November 14th, 1947 issue of The Leader were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Mattice and family while horseback riding on the beautiful Palomino horses at the White House Ranch, two miles east of Morrisburg. Mr. J.W. Chillson, proprietor of the Ranch, kept an instructor at all times and well-kept bridle paths offered excellent relaxation.

At the Quality Meat Market lean side pork was 39 cents a pound and ground beef was 28 cents a pound.

The November 19th, 1937 issue of The Leader reported the Senate of the University of Toronto had announced that it had awarded the Ontario Hockey Association War Memorial Scholarship, the gift of the O.H.A., to Edward A. Weir, a former Morrisburg Collegiate Institute student. The scholarship was awarded annually to a man student who had served overseas with the Canadian forces in the Great War of 1914-1918.

Abolition of all departmental examinations in lower forms of Ontario secondary schools was announced by George Rogers, Chief Inspector of Secondary Education. The aim was to eventually abolish all written examinations in the Province.

The Williamsburg Sports club met in the clinic building electing W.J. Johnston president and Lyle Schell secretary-treasurer. Stanley Thorpe was to manage the junior hockey team and it was decided there would be two teams included in the club, a senior and a junior.

Deno Buralli, well-known Italian sculptor of Chicago was a visitor in Williamsburg. He was planning to immortalize Dr. Locke's hands in bronze, a project made possible by "Friends of Dr. Locke" a group of men and women in the United States and Canada who had benefitted from the doctor's great foot knowledge. When completed, the bronze was to be presented to the Canadian Government at a dinner to be held in Ottawa.

Under the headline Former Local Girl gets Divorce at Watertown, the November 18th, 1927 issue of The Leader reported Mrs. Lulu T. Tapp was granted the decree with $15 a month alimony and costs. She was also granted her maiden name.

the Kitchen Garden

V.A. Hughes

The nurseries are gearing up for the Christmas season, but at the same time are having some marvelous sales of shrubs and trees. If you can still dig, prepare some good sized holes while the ground is still soft. A friend who is doing some last minute landscaping, can use this technique to keep the ground open until she finishes her planting.

By digging a hole now, filling it with leaves and adding a cover to keep it from flooding with water, she'll be able to take advantage of discounts in the plant market as nurseries unload their shrubs and trees at reduced prices.

Working from a plan she had, done by a landscape designer, we were checking on some of the plant material that was new to us. What we found was that one tree recommended as having decorative fall berries would only produce fruit if cross-fertilized. Since the designer had only planned for one tree, there would be no fruit. In the case of gardeners as well as other consumers, let the buyer beware!

Another friend, who was doing some last minute transplanting, came down with a nasty rash, the Poison Ivy had lost its characteristic leaves. This was a case where even being familiar with the material didn't help. Often completely innocent looking plants can provoke discomfort. We can't bear to be in the same room as that houseplant Swedish Ivy because we find its leaves give off a scent that makes us gasp.

Wearing gloves and other protective clothing is one answer to keeping clear of irritating materials. We have to clip the old raspberry canes and need heavy gloves, but find it very difficult to get gloves in a small size. Working with a pair of extended fingers means we often miss on a cut, taking out the wrong branch or even the end of a finger.

There are people who specialize in clothes for odd sizes; we don't consider ourselves an odd size, except when it comes to important things like gloves, pants and hats. The less said about pants the better. After spending most of an afternoon shopping for something as simple as Jeans we are completely at a loss as to sizes and prices; how something as honest as denim workpants can range in price from $20 to $60 is more than we can fathom.

With the approach of cold weather we start rounding up all the protective gear, but always have a problem when it comes to hats. We want a hat to keep the heat in, cover our vulnerable ears but not be so snug as to cut off circulation. The most common models found today are those favoured by the skiing set, which fit so tightly they leave a ring around your head when you remove them.

Not for us, these brightly coloured sleeves, the toques that we long for are knitted with earflaps, in bands of contrasting colours, and a tassel that swings from the top. The design was reminiscent of the hats worn by men herding llamas in the mountains of Peru, in fact we once had one with little llamas running round the edge. We dream about it now as the days grow crisp, earmuffs are not the answer.

New device tests strength of concrete

By Hugh Westrup

A new device for testing the strength of concrete has been developed by a professor at the University of Saskatchewan in Saskatoon.

Called the James PPR-Meter, the device can be employed to test concrete in a variety of situations — everywhere from buildings under construction to buildings damaged by fire.

The device was designed by Civil Engineering professor Dr. Karim Nasser. It contains a spring-loaded hammer that drives a small pin into the concrete. Research has established that the strength of the concrete is related to the penetration of the pin: the stronger the concrete, the less the penetration.

The meter is portable and the test does not destroy the concrete. It is also simpler, less expensive and faster than most other methods.

Dr. Nasser has earned an international reputation as an inventor of instruments for measuring the quality of concrete. The James PPR-Meter is being manufactured by Micro-Machine and Welding Ltd., of Saskatoon, and distributed by NDT-James Instruments Inc., of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Cummings

Wedding held at Mattawa

A pretty fall wedding was held at Eau Claire Missionary Church, Mattawa, Ontario Oct. 24, 1987, when Rebecca Stiver became the bride of Montgomery Cummings. The ceremony was performed by Reverend Brian Waugh. The wedding music was played by Althea Wunsch.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a modern long sleeved, drop waist gown of nylon lace over satin, trimmed with lace covered with seed pearls, and matching train. Her cameo brooch was an heirloom of her great-great-grandmother. She carried a bouquet of red carnations, white mums and baby's breath.

Attending the bride were Trudy Wilson as maid of honour, sister of the bride and Janice Bagno and Patti Wuncsh, friends of the bride all wearing identical dresses of Royal blue.

The groom wore a charcoal grey pinstriped suit. He was attended by Dennis Roberts as best man, a friend. Ushers were Danny and Stuart Cummings, brothers of the groom, all wearing charcoal grey suits with Royal blue ties.

The bride's mother chose a long sleeved tourquoise dress and the groom's mother wore a long sleeved dress of mint green.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Calvin Hall, Eau Claire, Ontario. The couple now reside in Temagami, Ontario.

Guests attending the wedding were from Morrisburg, Riverside Heights, Ingleside, Winchester, Iroquois, Kitchener,, Ottawa, Guelph, Toronto, Gananoque, Buckhorn, North Bay, Temagami, Sault Ste. Marie, Mattawa and surrounding area.

Iroquois council to investigate new mall garbage disposal system

IROQUOIS — Village council has agreed to try out a new system to dispose of garbage at the Shopping Plaza.

At a council meeting Tuesday night foreman Ray Delegarde suggested the village hire Clarkey Environmental Services Ltd. of Cornwall to collect garbage from the mall.

The company will install two 30 cubic metre containers for waste disposal from plaza businesses. Once the containers are full the company will remove the waste to a proper disposal site. It will cost $165 to empty each container but Delegarde thinks it will be cheaper for the village in the long run.

"The containers are free so I think for two months it's worth a try," he said. "Our garbage disposal costs are high."

Council agreed to try the system for December and January.

The Iroquois Golf Club submitted a request to council to build a storage shed near the sewage disposal plant. The shed would be 30 feet wide by 40 feet long and 8 feet high and the color of the siding would conform with the sewage plant.

Councillors had some reservations about granting permission. Rick Leroy said the golf club must have a design plan to cover the next several years and cannot put up buildings without an overall plan. Councillors Joan Saver and Joyce Fader agreed to meet with Iroquois Golf Club Grounds Chairman Jeff Beaupre to discuss the club's future growth. Council did agree, however, to allow trees to be planted at the Golf Club according to the design submitted previously to council.

Council accepted a tender from J.L. Fetterly for 240 tonnes of crushed stone at five-eighths of an inch thick at $6.35 per tonne. Fetterly's tender was the only one submitted.

A resolution supporting the City of Nepean and requesting Chris Ward, Ontario's Minister of Education to revise current apportionment policies to determine each municipality's share of public school board costs was passed by council, with one dissenting vote from Leroy.

Last month the City of Nepean sent Iroquois a report which showed the village had overpaid public school board taxes by almost 25 per cent in 1986. Nepean challenged its apportionment for 1984 and won a credit from the Ontario Municipal Board. The province has challenged the ruling.

Council requested Ward review and change apportionment policies by Jan. 1988.

Iroquois resident Joyce Millard wrote a letter of complaint to council about the state of the piano in the Civic Centre.

She said some keys on the piano don't work and others are out of tune, and requested council do something about the situation.

Money for a new piano was not included in the municipal budget for this year so councillors are hoping someone will donate a used piano.

News from Williamsburg

On Tuesday evening, nine members attended the W.I. meeting in Williamsburg, chaired by Mrs. Clair Algire, assisted by acting secretary Mrs. Parker Locke. Members answered the Roll Call with showing a keepsake, and telling about it. Many interesting articles were shown, and the stories told were most interesting.

The motto was, "Do not resent growing old, many of us are denied the privilege." This related to a tribute that was paid to those who lost their lives in World War I and II.

A report on the Area Convention, recently held in Ottawa, was given by Mrs. Ralph Casselman.

Program convener for "Heritage and Tradition" Mrs. Ralph Casselman gave a reading entitled "The Quilting Bee", followed by a film presentation, "Patterns of Love", assisted by Mrs. Roger Gilmour. Following the film, Mrs. Parker Locke read a poem entitled, "The Old things". Lunch was served by Mrs. Wilbur Garlough and her committee.

Women's Institute meet in Riverside Heights

RIVERSIDE HEIGHTS — The November meeting of Riverside Heights W.I. was held at the home of Cecile Langlotz. Cecile Langlotz, convener of Public Relations was in charge of the program.

She introduced Judith Running of Naomi's Family Resource Centre in Winchester. As administrator, Judith is supervisor of the shelter. Judith commutes from Richmond.

Wife assault has been known for thousands of years. It is the silent crime no one talks about. In the 18th and 19th century it was the man's right to beat his wife. A man owned his wife and no one questioned what he did.

Besides physical assaults there are emotional and mental assaults. There are often many assaults before the woman is brave enough to ask for help.

Fear forces many women to drop charges against their husbands or partners. One in ten women will be a victim of assault.

In 1985 a research and study was done in the United Counties and a steering committee was formed. It was funded by Community Services. The Crisis Centre was opened on Feb. 2, 1987. They had their first family there on April 10, 1987. In 10 months they have housed 46 mothers and 77 children. The house is locked and staffed 24 hours. The crisis number is 1-800-267-0395.

Evelyn Wells, president, conducted the business. She gave a reading on Remembrance Day.

Motto was "You cannot do a kindness too soon because you never know how soon it will be too late." Roll Call "What is the most valued contribution you have made to your community?" was answered by ten members.

The shut-in list was reviewed and members were to call Doris Erratt if they had names to add. Members were told that needs at the Naomi's Family Resource Centre were dishes, pots and pans, cutlery, towels, bed linen and personal products. For information anyone may call 774-2838.

THE RENT REVIEW GUIDELINE FOR 1988 IS 4.7 PER CENT

The rent review guideline for next year has been calculated at 4.7 per cent. This is the amount by which a landlord can increase the maximum rent for a unit during 1988 without approval from the Ministry of Housing. The rent for a unit can be increased only once in a 12-month period.

The 4.7 per cent guideline applies to all private rental units in the province for rent increases that take effect from January 1, 1988 to December 31, 1988.

The 1987 guideline of 5.2 per cent continues to apply to rent increases which take effect on or before December 31, 1987.

It is illegal for a landlord to increase the maximum rent above the guideline without applying to the Ministry of Housing for rent review to justify the increase. In cases where a landlord does apply for an increase above the guideline, tenants can examine the application and make their own submissions before a decision is reached.

For more information about the 1988 guideline, please contact your local rent review office listed in the Government of Ontario blue pages of your phone book under the Ministry of Housing. If long distance, ask the operator for Zenith 96000.

IN MEMORIAM

HALL — In loving memory of a dear father, who passed away Nov. 22, 1947 and a dear mother who passed away Oct. 13, 1955, Mr. & Mrs. Alfred Hall.
Don't make how many years go by,
I don't forget your kindly smiles and gentle ways,
Only those that have lost can tell,
A greater gift I could not receive,
To have you near and no longer grieve.
I loved you Mother and Father,
You are in my thoughts from day to day,
Which I can never forget.
— Sadly missed by your daughter
Ruby Castleman
46p

RICHMIRE — In loving memory of a dear sister & aunt, Joan, who passed away Nov. 8, 1980.
Always a thought and many a tear,
For the one we miss and loved so dear,
The sudden way you had to die.
We will always remember and wonder why,
To know we never said goodbye,
Will always bring regret,
But the hearts that loved you dearly,
Is the one that won't forget.
— Ever remembered by sister Judy, brother-in-law Carl & nephews.

Provincial Town Crier stands out in any crowd

by Doug Carson
Leader Staff

IROQUOIS — Dressed in his eighteenth century garb, Daniel Richer dit Lafleche is easy to pick out of a crowd.

Lefleche is the Ontario Town Crier, and he was at Seaway District High School on Monday to educate and humour all he came in contact with.

Lafleche, an actor by profession, took the job for the summer, in 1981, and has been with it ever since. He was originally hired by the National Capital Commission to work just for the summer, but fell in love with the job and stayed on.

Lafleche says he is part of a select group of about 800 town criers, throughout the world, and has won the North American championship for town criers and placed high in the world competition.

Working between 250 and 300 days a year, logging over 38,000 kilometres in his car and two plane trips a week may seem like a grueling schedule, but Lafleche says he gets energy from the people he meets.

With seven years of experience, Lafleche is the grandfather of town criers in Ontario. His speech to the students was a combination history lesson, comedy show.

Lafleche is the first to admit he may be known as somewhat of an eccentric; he travels in uniform wherever he goes, and says he feels he was born a couple of hundred years too late.

Lafleche writes all his own speeches and all his own cries, and says he has done cries in 20 different languages. "When you do a cry in someone's native language they really appreciate it," he said.

He has met the Queen while at a competition in England, and policiticians while working throughout Canada and at times in the U.S. He was made an honorary colonel in Louisiana, has opened concerts for bands like Supertramp, Trooper, and Offenbach.

While he admits things like these are a nice part of his job, it is the contact with average people every day that keeps him on the job.

It takes almost two hours to get dressed in his outfit in the mornigns, and 45 minutes to polish the brass and leather on his uniform at night, and Lafleche said that when he loses his enthusiasm for this work he knows it will be time to move on.

But for now, Lafleche will continue to don his costume, get in his car with license plates that read OY YA OY YA, and hit the road again to entertain thousands of people every year.

Dundas County unit enjoys sound year

IROQUOIS — The Dundas County Unit of The Canadian Cancer Society released its figures for the year ending Sept. 30, 1987.

Residential campaign raised $36,736.08; daffodil sales $3,131.83; special events such as craft shows and golf tournaments $4,209.30; sale of cook books $674.35 for a campaign total of $44,751.56.

The $16,100.50 raised through the In Memoriam fund brought the total income for the year to $60,852.06.

The Dundas County Unit includes Morrisburg, Winchester, Iroquois, Chesterville and surrounding areas.

An article on the Morrisburg branch of The Canadian Cancer Society which appeared in the Oct. 14 issue of The Leader incorrectly identified the In Memoriam Fund at $514. The total should have read $5,114.

In for six

Morrisburg quarterback, Sean Hummel, hands off to Steven Sypes during flag football tournament action at Morrisburg Thursday. Morrisburg returned to the County winner's circle for the first time in four years with a three win-one tie record. In the above action the Morrisburg team is working its way to a 14-0 victory over Maple Ridge. Nationview had won the championship for the last two years. —McNairn photo

Morrisburg wins County football championship

MORRISBURG — For coach Gary O'Neill and his senior flag football team, stepping into the winners circle here Thursday afternoon was like returning home after a very long vacation.

The Mo ublic School boys put together a three win-one tie record in the annual Dundas County tournament to finish in first place in the five team-round robin event, breaking a two year championship stronghold by Nationview.

Morrisburg last won the event in 1983 when it dominated play with five wins in seven years.

O'Neill pointed out it is tough for M.P.S. to field senior teams because the school no longer has the population to pick from. This is a result of senior students attending school at Iroquois to take advantage of the late French Immersion program offered there.

"It was a real team effort that won it for us," said O'Neill. "We had a good defence and everyone played their hearts out."

"We didn't beat ourselves out with interception or incompletions."

Throughout the day M.P.S. was led by quarter-back Sean Hummel. They kicked it off with a 27-0 win over Iroquois and continued the pace with a 14-0 victory over Maple Ridge.

St. Cecilia's gave them their biggest challenge, holding them to a 12-12 tie before their final victory, a close one, over Nationview 7-6.

Jason Glennan led the attack against Iroquois with two touchdowns and Hummel and J.J. Smith had one each.

Against Maple Ridge, Smith and Steven Sypes had one TD each and it was Jon Saunders and Sypes counting against St. Cecilia's.

In their final contest against Nationview, Sypes crossed the line for the TD and Chris Haines got the convert for the win.

Morrisburg and Nationview went into the final game of the day, both seeking the win for the championship. Morrisburg, to this point, had a 2W-1T record and Nationview had a 2W-1L record. Also interested in the results of the final game was Maple Ridge with a 3W-1L record.

Nationview had wins over Iroquois 8-6 and St. Cecilia's 7-6 while Maple Ridge downed St. Cecilia's 13-12, Iroquois 13-12 and Nationview 14-7.

High School basketball

Juniors provide thriller

IROQUOIS — Thursday's junior girls' basketball game at Seaway District High School can be described by one word only ... exciting, as the Spartans stole a CharLan pass in the last seconds of play to post a 50-49 victory.

Height played a big factor in most of the game as the much taller CharLan squad monopolized the rebounding but the Spartans held fast and wouldn't give up.

The Spartans took a quick 7-0 lead but then stalled late in the first quarter while CharLan went ahead 11-9. CharLan continued to hold the Edge, leading 22-20 at the half but Seaway came driving back. Early in the second Pam Martin dropped two beautiful long shots to put Seaway ahead 24-22 but it didn't last long.

Seaway comes back

CharLan had grabbed a 10 point lead by the end of the third quarter, setting the stage for the Seaway comeback. The Spartans came on strong in the final tying the game 38-38 and from then on it was a see-saw battle.

With 1:43 to be played, CharLan moved ahead 47-46 and baskets from both teams put the score at 49-48 with one minute to go.

The turning point came with 15 seconds left in the game when Krista Casselman stole a CharLan pass and gave the Spartans a one-point lead at 50-49. But it wasn't over yet.

CharLan quickly brought the ball back into play but again Seaway stole the pass. A mistake here, gave the ball right back to CharLan's Karen Arnott who to that point had provided 30 CharLan points.

Everyone in suspense

Arnott's shot held everyone in suspense as it came off the backboard and then precariously hung on the basket rim. For Spartan fans it fell the right way and Stephanie Dodge came up with the rebound to preserve the 50-49 Spartan win.

Jennifer McNairn led the Spartans with 17 points, Krista Casselman had 14 including the winning basket, Pam Martin had 10 and Stephanie Dodge six.

Strong second half

Earlier in the week the Spartans travelled to St. Joseph's where they posted a 54-48 win. They trailed 26-23 but came back for a strong second to take the victory.

Pam Martin led with 19 points and Stephanie Dodge contributed 12. Allison Scott dropped eight points and Kelly Tryon seven.

Seniors surprised

For the Senior Spartans, Thursday's game against CharLan was not one of their better efforts. CharLan led 10-8 at the quarter but by the end of the half Seaway was in front 21-19.

The Spartans came to life in the third to jump ahead 37-32 but it was back in the CharLan court in the final as they pulled ahead 43-42 with one minute to go.

The last minute saw CharLan take advantage of foul shots as they headed for the 47-42 win.

Nancy MacLachlin led CharLan with 16 points and Carolyn Rose added 13. For Seaway it was Kim Bucking with 17, Lisa VanHoof with 12 and Krista Duncan with six.

A different story

Tuesday at St. Joseph's it was a different story as the Spartans built a 30-20 halftime lead and came home with a 63-46 win.

Kim Bucking and Lisa VanHoof again led the effort and Heather Crawley was good for eight points.

Both Spartan teams played their final game of the season Tuesday, against Rothwell-Osnabruck, but details were not available at press time.

Junior B hockey

Lions move into third ahead of Hawks

MORRISBURG — The Morrisburg Junior B Lions entertained their fans here Friday night with a 9-5 victory over the Athens Aeros but on the road Sundy they were forced to settle for a 5-5 tie against the Prescott Falcons.

The three-point weekend allowed the Lions to move a full two points ahead of the Winchester Hawks and with 11 points they now trail the CharLan Rebels by two. Alexandria is out front in St. Lawrence division standings on eight wins and three losses for 16 points.

Friday night the Lions and Aeros played to a 2-2 first period tie and in the second the Lions pulled ahead 4-3.

A strong third resulted with five Lions' goals for the 9-5 win.

Lemieux leads

Rod Lemieux led the Lions' charge with three goals, Randy Jodoin and Andy Lee had two and singles came from Randy Mullin and Charlie Carbino.

Answering for the Aeros were Ron Greenham with two, and Todd Mallette, Jeff Wood and Chris Tyo.

The Lions handled five minor penalties and gave up one powerplay goal to Greenham in the first. The Lions were unsuccessful in five powerplay attempts.

Come back in second

Sunday night in Prescott the Lions trailed 2-0 after the first period but in the second they turned it on for four goals to Prescott's one to carry a 5-3 advantage into the third.

The Falcons shut them down in the third and recovered with two tallies to end the game in a 5-5 tie.

Scoring for the Lions were Rod Lemieux and Johnny Morrow with two each and Randy Jodoin had one. Morrow has now worked his way to fourth place in Rideau-St. Lawrence Division scoring behind Kevin Poapst, Mike Jodoin and Rod McKenzie all of CharLan. Morrow has 23 points on 14 goals and nine assists to Poapst's 32 points.

Scoring for the Falcons Sunday were Mark Tobin and Adam Joubert with two goals each and Peter Armstrong with a single.

Although the Lions had only six minor penalties they proved costly, as the Falcons struck for six powerplay goals. The Falcons handled five minors but did not give up a goal on any.

Andy Cummins was between the pipes for both weekend games and the Lions were missing the services of team captain Bobby Jack Hart who was injured in a car crash Thursday night.

Bobby, who is at home recovering, is not expected back in the lineup for several weeks.

This weekend the Lions have only one game in Cardinal, Saturday night at 7:30 p.m.

Greens after Meanies, upset Reds

MORRISBURG — It has come down to a best two-out-of-three showdown in Morrisburg town league football action and it's a showdown the Greens never expected to be a part of.

After finishing the regular season in last place, with one win the Greens came up with one of the biggest upsets in league history Sunday defeating the first place Reds 26-13.

"We had a lot of players out Sunday and we went with different defensive positions," said quarterback Dave Tait. "And it worked."

The Reds now advance to the best two-of-three championship series against the Blue Meanies beginning this Sunday. The Meanies advanced to the MFL Bowl with a 13-7 win against the White Ferrets.

Scoring for the Greens in Sunday's win were Doug Wilson, Doug Thorpe, Cam Dillabough and Tait.

A couple of interceptions by Tait played a big part in the win especially one late in the game which shut down the final Reds drive.

Meanies strike first

The Meanies were first to strike in their game when Tom Pepers started it off with an interception. The Meanies drove down field with short passes and once in position, a hook pattern to the corner to Phillip Dillabough, gave them six points.

They were unable to get the extra point and the remainder of the half was scoreless.

The Ferrets took the second half kick off and after working down field on short passes they set up on down and out to Kent Dawley for six points. The single point went to Jeff VanMoorsel on a crossing pattern giving the Ferrets a 7-6 lead.

Big catch

With time running out and the Meanies at midfield, quarterback Tom Dawley threw to Kevin Keyes, who, running a deep pattern straight down the middle, caught the pass at the 20 yard line and went in for six.

Willy Pepers, on a short roll out, connected for the single to give the Meanies the 13-6 win and the right to advance to the final.

Town league hockey

Top teams roadblocked

MORRISBURG — Standings in the town hockey league were tightened dramatically, here Thursday night when the Blues and Twisters, tied for first place going into the evening, were both defeated.

The Blues were downed by the Flyers 4-1 and the Twisters by Veinottes 8-5. The results leave the Blues and Twisters in first at eight points and Hills and the Black and Brown Flyers in second with seven.

The Greens failed to capture a share of first when they were held to a 2-2 tie by the Twisters.

First win

For Veinottes it was their first win of the season. Trailing the Twisters 3-2 after the first period they produced six goals in the second for the 8-5 victory.

Brian Froats and Earl Nesbitt had two goals each and singles came from Gary Hess, Mark Stevens, Bruce Wells and Terry Veinotte.

Answering for the Twisters were David Myers, Mike Hogan, Fred Osler, Larry Smith and Steve Casselman.

Strong second

The Black and Brown Flyers put together a strong second to pick up their third win of the season and move into position for a first place takeover.

Trailing 1-0 after the first period, they struck for four unanswered goals in the second (and final) for the 4-1 win.

Lindsay Weegar scored the lone Blues tally, on the powerplay, late in the first and Blake Berry tied it midway into the final. He struck for the winner with 3:24 left in the game. Insurance goals came from David Tait and Doug Brunt.

Greens fall short

The Greens headed into their game against Castles looking for a win for a share of first place but were forced to settle for a 2-2 tie.

They led 1-0 in the first period on a goal by Larry Gallinger but Castles Tim Cassell evened it early in the final. The Greens again moved ahead, midway into the final, on a powerplay goal by Randy Casselman but the advantage lasted less than three minutes when Castles Alan Black struck to tie it 2-2.

Seaway News

by Cindy Laurin

Hello, it's me again, back for another week of thrills, chills, and spills from our own little Seaway High.

This week if local merchants are wondering about young couples coming in to pick out wedding invitations or their wedding cake they shouldn't worry. They are only getting married for family studies class. Some students are even talking about horse drawn carriages. Wonder who'll give them a price for that?

The senior drama classes will be putting on a production of Shakespeare's "A Comedy of Errors", modernized. It is Shakespeare as you've never heard before so be sure you go and see it. The junior classes will also be putting on a production. Unfortunately the public will r .. as it will be performed at two private Christmas parties. The play is centered around a big, friendly, dancing dragon named Snortimer.

This week in Spartan sporting news, a basketball double header with Char-Lan was hosted at Seaway in which the juniors won their game 50-49 with outstanding efforts made by Jennifer McNairn, Stephanie Dodge, Pam Martin and Krista Casselman. The seniors tried hard but were defeated by Char-Lan 47-44. Excellent efforts were made by Kim Bucking, Kathy Byvelds, Krista Duncan and Lisa VanHoof. The boys volleyball teams won their last games and will advance to the championships. Congratulations to all the guys on the teams for a job well done.

I will say goodbye on this last parting note: Dance on Dec. 4 at Seaway! So get out there and Dance, Dance, Dance. See ya!

OPP start checks

MORRISBURG — The Ontario Provincial Police, in an effort to prevent needless tragedy and make highways safe from impaired drivers, will implement a spot check program in connection with its R.I.D.E. (reduce impaired drivers everywhere) program. The spot check will be conducted during the week of November 22 to November 28 in the municipalities of Williamsburg, Iroquois and Morrisburg.

Impaired driving is still one of the most significant factors in approximately half of all fatal motor vehicle accidents investigated by the force.

"The O.P.P. R.I.D.E. program is an essential means of reducing the risk of accidents and fatalities on our highways at any time of the year," said O.P.P. Commissioner Archie Ferguson.

"While these checks may inconvenience the motoring public, we will keep the delays down to a minimum," he added. "Our main purpose is to save lives and prevent accidents, and it is in everyone's best interests that we stop impaired driving."
