Highlights School Year

Scholastica '72 Memorable Tribute Seaway's Graduates

This year's Commencement Exercises at Seaway District High School can be classed at the top of the best held in recent years at the school.

In terms of organized efficiency and in terms of lasting memories for the graduating class of '72 it was one of distinction.

Even though there was a large graduating class, the ceremony proceeded with a minimum of interruption and the gown worn by the graduates and their entrance into the auditorium preceded by their teachers and platform guests, added greatly to the dignity of the program to follow.

Accolades go to Head Boy Kevin Keyes and Head Girl Judy Gurnhill who guided the evening's program with agility and finesse.

The program was initiated with the processional of the graduates to music supplied by Cornwall Collegiate and Vocational School Concert Band under the direction of Stanley Howard, followed by O Canada and a welcome by Head Boy Kevin Keyes.

Rev. Brian Gee presented the invocation.

Later in the program the guest band played a medley greatly enjoyed by the audience whose appreciation was expressed by Kevin Keyes.

Mrs. Violet Cutler Hosts Hainsville UCW

The September U. C. W. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Violet Cutler. Our vice-president, Mrs. Janet Van der Weide opened with a poem called "Autumn Woods" The Scripture was taken from Luke 3: 4-6. Prayer followed.

The minutes were read. The roll call was taken with 9 members present. The offering was received and dedicated. The business followed.

The meeting was turned over to Mrs. Cutler for her programme. Her theme was "Responsibility". The Scripture was taken from Proberbs 3: 1-18 read by Mrs. Winnifred Safford. "Stop - do not Gamble" was read by Mrs. Violet Cutler. "Is Your Life Style Christian" was read by Mrs. Lily Hanes. "I'll go with Him" was sung by all. Mrs. Violet Cutler read "He waits Patiently". "If we were busy" was read by Mrs. Dorothy Fossitt. "Get your hopes up" was read by Mrs. Gertie Murphy. "Prayer repeated" was read by Mrs. Janet Van der Weide. Mrs. Gwen Hanes read "Take Time". "Take Time to be Holy" was sung by all. Mrs. Winnifred Safford told of her experience in Pittsburg. Prayer followed by Mrs. Violet Cutler. A social hour followed.

The Hainsville Bazaar will be held the 21st of October. All are welcomed to come.

Lawn Bowlers District 16 Meeting

The general meeting for District 16 Lawn Bowling was held at the Daffodil Coffee Shop on Wed. night, Oct. 4th with thirty members being present from Ottawa, Cornwall, Brockville, Prescott, Smiths Falls, Kemptville, Almonte and Iroquois.

Two important factors that was given by Ottawa members which proved very interesting and helpful was the teaching of blind people to bowl. This was done by the sound of a bell ringing. So Ottawa members are asking for sleigh bells or bells of any kind to carry on this interesting work for next year as the twelve members asked if thy might come out again in the spring.

The other interesting subject was that one hundred students from Nepean High School were given talks, instructions and films on the points of lawn bowling, then they tried their skill at the game and they are ready for their own competition for the spring.

Lunch of cheese, homemade tea biscuits, muffins with homemade raspberry, strawberry and black currant jam and coffee was enjoyed by all for a social hour.

When you hear of people like these with the determination and will-power to enjoy themselves, don't think that you are too old or too young for this game when spring rolls around after the long winter months.

TOUCHDOWN . . . we all know the thrill that lifts us to our feet when OUR team scores. We cheer, we sing and shout.

It takes teamwork to put a man over that goal line. The whole team must work together to move that ball down the field . . . "the right way." The guards and tackles must hold the line. The ends must be "on target" to receive passes. The quarterback must know his plays and execute them with speed and skill.

Likewise, in the game of life we need wisdom and strength beyond our individual endeavor. It is essential to receive inspiration and help in order to achieve successfully our goals in life. Your church can provide that faith which leads to everlasting victory.

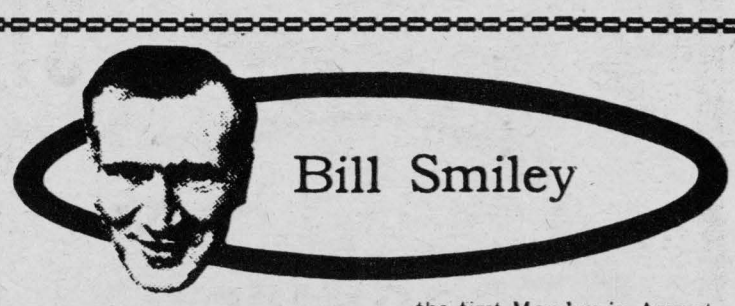
ONE HOLIDAY THAT'S ALL OURS

By Bill Smiley



There is one holiday during the year that is truly Canadian. Period. Any red-blooded native of this fantastic country can name it without a second thought.

Christmas and Easter are religious holy-days that we share with all of Christendom.

The Twenty-fourth of May, the Queen's Birthday, used to be big stuff when I was a kid, but now it is the third Monday after the second Saturday immediately before the first full moon, or something of the sort.

It has gone straight downhill from firecrackers and skyrockets and burned fingers to a sort of Opening-up-the-Cottage day. No deviltry, no more fun than cleaning up the cellar.

The First of July, latterly Dominion Day, and even more latterly and slatternly, Canada Day, has degenerated into a hot day which is shoved toward the nearest Friday or Monday on the slightest provocation.

Once an occasion for the planting of trees, the flying of flags, and the baying of speeches proclaiming our allegiance to the Empire, it is now most notable as the weekend nearest the opening of the bass season.

Then there once was the Twelfth of July, when Protestants and Catholics alike turned out to watch The Walk, make snide comments about King Billy and his horse and inspect with a critical eye the red-faced, straw-hatted Orangemen, and smell the hot-dogs and beer, and thrill to the squealing of fifes and the rattle and thump of drums.

I'll never forget one Twelfth, in which an Irish Catholic, who had joined a Scottish regiment, led the Orange parade, in kilts, and my kid brother, about 15, made five dollars playing the bass drum for (I think) Dalhousie Corners, which had found itself with two fifers and a drum, but no drummer. That was real Canadiana.

And the speeches. Boys, didn't they lace it to the Pope. Almost as hard as modern R.C. theologists and Women's Libbers do.

All gone. All that good, harmless hatred and intolerance sunk beneath our growing sophistication and tolerance. Who would dare, today, to stand up on a platform in a broiling July 12th sun and attach the Papacy, the French and anything else he could get his tongue to, while the locals rolled their eyes with delight, and sweated by the bucket?

Next (at least in some provinces), is Civic Holiday, the first Monday in August. This, too, has become a dog of the first water. Originally a day set aside for civic pride and the beginning of Old Home Weeks and such, it has become a day when the local service club runs its annual skin game, whether it's a tombola, or a massive bingo or some other form of harmless bloodletting. Blood equalling money. Pity.

And, of course, Labour Day. In the larger cities, there is still a small contingent which will march with banners announcing that Branch 49 of the Union of CWAF or HIC or WHAP or BUNK is still carrying the flag and fighting the good fight against the toils of that anaconda, Big Business.

But this is a little hard to take. Originally, there was immense pride in this day, which was wrested from the vested. But today, Canadians who know that the unions are just as big as, or bigger than, Big Business, sensibly pursue some other entertainment, like grabbing one more weekend in the fun and sun.

Well, as you can see, I've been leading you relentlessly and inexorably toward prevent tragedy... prevent fire

Don't Play With Fire

TOTAL TASK OF FIRE — PREVENTION AND AID

WHILE deaths by fire are commonly related to carefree holiday periods, such as Christmas, opportunities for tragedy abound throughout the year.

A survey by the Fire Marshal's office of Ontario reports these findings of the 225 fire deaths in 1971 in the most populous of the provinces:

By months: December, January, March, June and April top the list. Lowest: August.

By day of week: Saturday, Wednesday and Thursday, and Sunday were the most frequent days of tragedy. Tuesday was last on the list of days.

By time of day: 1-2 and 7-8 a.m. In the evening hours, 7-8 and 11-12 p.m. recorded the greatest deaths.

These findings may be doubtless true of many other provinces, applying themselves to the total task of the fire fighters: namely that their primary function is the prevention of fire by education of the public, followed by their efforts to reduce the loss of life and property if fire breaks out.

Bereaved parents' anguished words

"WE LEFT THEM ALONE ONLY A FEW MINUTES"

What is life like at Glen-Stor-Dun Lodge?

John Smith is 94 years old. He is in good health physically and mentally. He is a resident in a home for the aged. Ask John how he likes living in the home. His answer probably will be, "It's a good place to live. They treat me well. I get good meals; a clean place to sleep and entertainment is provided but it does get lonely at times."

How could it be lonely living with 200 other people? Well, after a time, even 200 people form a reasonably small family, that is if you are together 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

It's a little too far for John to walk downtown, even a couple of times a week. What's the answer? What can be done to relieve John of his loneliness? Ask John that question too. He'll probably answer this way:

"There must be a lot of younger folk who still have an hour or two to spare each week or even each month. I know we have a good staff here who chat with us while they work but that's hardly enough. They are too busy to spend much time idly but if some of those young folk outside would drop in for a game of checkers, or cards, or even a little chat, it would be different.

I'll tell you one thing, that Home Auxiliary does a terrific job. Not enough of them though. If they had more members, we would see more of them. We would have more variety in our visitors, more books to read and heaven knows what else."

Yes, that probably would be John Smith's answer to that question and who knows better than him. John Smith is just a name I have picked for one person but it applies to 199 others. Maybe one of the others is a friend or relative of yours. Why not give a little more freely of some time even one hour each month?

The Home Auxiliary at Glen Stor Dun Lodge is in need of more members. Give them your support even for that one hour per month. If interested just dróp a line to me at the address below.

Remember - some day I may be able to call you John Smith!

the only holiday that grabs Canadians right where they live, whether it's in the head or the bowels. Thanksgiving!

Talk about flags and speeches and drum-rolls. We don't even have to lay them on. Nature does it all for us.

The flags are not the Union Jack or the Fleur de Lis or the Hammer and Sickle. They are a blaze of scarlet and gold that don't speak, but quell the human heart in their magnificence.

And, paradoxically, they speak. They say, "You'll never see anything like this, anywhere else in your life, buster."

And the drums roll, over golden valleys and blue water and purple haze, until you want to weep with the thought that all this cannot last.

And the ducks duck, and the fish fly away, and the golf shot goofs, but you have had the unparalleled privilege of being a Canadian at Thanksgiving.

Did you give thanks to whatever your god is? Did you say a little litany because the Canadians weren't disgraced in Russia, and fought their good fight. And foght. And foght.

Happy to be alive? Healthy? Old but not licked? Young but not confused? Give thanks, chaps. We're mighty, mighty lucky.

A Challenge in the Seventies

Rene Benoit, A Democrat, has never been defeated by default for what he believes in a democracy. He is again a candidate in the next federal election for the third time. At 67, he is now contesting the constituency of Stormont-Dundas for the old democrats and the farmers who are really fed-up with the old political machine in the flooded area; with even a better chance of winning than before.

Mr. Benoit, a farmer and bilingual, an active member of the National Farmers Union. He was born in Hawkesbury and grew up on a farm in a French and Scottish community near Cornwall. Educated in the separate school and studied political science and public relations at St. Francis Xavier University in Nova Scotia.

He was raised in a politically oriented family; his mother, the daughter of die-hard conservative stock, and his father the type of liberal who would rather fight than switch. So it goes without saying there were times for some unpleasant friction in the family during elections. I'M sure, as a child, it was difficult to understand the dilemma. Even today, with better education systems, who is right and who is wrong, and even who is faithful to what, is every bit as confusing. In his teens, he was already part of the generation gap, and perhaps, his worthwile experience was the study of democracy which changed his political views in his life.

Mr. Benoit supported the United Farmers Party in Ontario when it existed, the CCF and the NDP. As a democrat, he believes in social equality and not as the socialists would have it. He is now, as before, challenging the rules of the establishment and its political machine, seeking the support of the electors in the hope of establishing the principle of PARTICIPATING DEMOCRACY in Canada.

As he said, it is the only means for the public to understand their social responsibility. A place where citizens can exchange their views and ideas, have a voice and a vote in all public matters. A place where the elected member of parliament is from time to time responsible to all the people between elections, and not merely to the corporates interested, who usually buy the MP a seat in a party government for business purposes. A place - a democracy - everyone can participate and everyone can share in the benefits of social equality.

Mr. Benoit also studied electronics in the United States and during the war, was a responsible member of the staff who installed electronic equipment on the Tribal Destroyers being built at Halifax. After the war, he returned to operate his market-garden farm. There are seven children now at home. Twice married, he has two children from his first marriage and seven from the second. Mrs. Benoit has three children from her first marriage. So as he said, with a family of twelve we are concerned about social equality in Canada and the best reason to be a candidate.

ADELAIDE DANIELS SAYS

FLAVOUR MAKES THE DIFFERENCE

A flavouring guide is a prime requisite for anyone who plans to lose weight as flavour rates in importance only second to calories and nutrition.

As you know, a meal virtually robbed of flavoursome fats, oils butters, sugars, creams, sauces and gravies might be indeed boring and could arouse one into eating foods not on their meal plan.

But when the sense of smell is met with aromatic enchantment, when the eye lights on a colourfully garnished platter, when taste buds are satisfied to their fullest — a weight watcher's way of eating can become a joy to the soul as well as to the stomach.

To improve the lot of the dieter, there is a tantalizing array of herbs, spices and other flavour-makers — most of them without calories but filled with wonderful taste sensations.

Often your dinner requires only a pinch or a dash of that extra "something" to transform a bland dish into a veritable experience. Stock your shelf with flavour-makers to have on hand at a moment's notice to experiment with. Most of them can be found at your local supermarket — but also it's worth a trip to your favourite gourmet shop to seek out some of the more exotic spices and herbs.

Grow fresh herbs in your "Kitchen Garden" which can be a window box. Many good cooks also prefer to grind or grate their own spices — such as nutmeg — and would never think of using pepper from anything but their own pepper mill. These are the extra little touches that make everyday cooking a bit more fun.

A few tips to remember when buying spices and dried herbs: Look for quality and buy in small quantities. Then make sure that they are in tightly covered jars or containers and stored in a cool place. When you notice the scent becoming weak this means it's time to replace the herb or spice. And fresh herbs should be used as soon as picked from your garden or bought in the supermarket.

Your questions are invited.

OFF THE CUFF

By Charles Edwards

Rainy days are reputed to be best suited to doing little indoor projects, so we put the theory into practice a couple of weeks ago. The project we had in mind was sorting through a lot of what would have to be classed as junk in the attic. Having run out of excuses to postpone the chore any longer, we climbed the ladder and tackled the first cardboard box. As it turned out, that was also the last box we were to tackle. The bottom of the box revealed a perfectly intact copy of the "Post" from September 1946.

For us, old newspapers hold the same fascination that other people reserve for antique stores or stamp collections. The rest of the afternoon was spent poring over the yellowed pages to see just how Iroquois residents spent their time and money a quarter century ago.

The front page carried a news story telling how the Stampville Tigers had defeated the Brinston softball team to win the championship of the South Matilda Softball League and the Charles Shaver trophy. The front page in those days also carried ads for several local merchants. Both big grocery stores had their specials set out for the weekend and some of the prices are worth noting. Stone and Fisher were featuring coffee at forty-five cents a pound and soup at two tins for nineteen cents. Coffee was also one of the specials at Gilmer's Grocery. It was selling there for forty-four cents a pound and blade roasts of beef were discounted to thirty cents per pound. In anticipation of the cool autumn weather, Seely Brothers Hardware was featuring the latest innovation in home heating, the monoflame oil burner and Gilder's Jewellery had a special on alarm clocks at $1.95 each.

Theatre patrons could check what was playing at five area theatres by glancing through the Post. Best bet for the weekend was probably George Raft and Ava Gardner in "Whistle Stop" at the Cameo in Morrisburg. Other theatres listed were in Prescott, Ogdensburg, Cardinal and Williamsburg.

Page three carried a notice telling residents how they could get their latest ration book, and had a list of the various stores in the area where the books could be picked up. In Iroquois the location was Stone and Fisher's annex, while in Brinston the place to go was B.J. Saver's store.

All of page seven was devoted to a program and advertisements for the Spencerville fair that was coming up the following weekend. Horse races seemed to be the fair's biggest attractions. As well, there was a contest for the cutest child under one year of age, and a band concert in the town hall.

And who could resist when the price was only 35¢ for adults and 15¢ for children.

Those are just a few impressions from looking through the paper. Needless to say, the attic is still in its original state. The only box that has even had the dust disturbed is the one that held the Post. Oh well, the way fall is shaping up there'll be a few more rainy days yet to finish off the attic.

Valedictory Address

by Anne MacDonald

"Through wisdom is a house built, and by understanding is it established."

This statement is found in the Bible in the Book of Proverbs, Chapter 24, verse 3.

We young people who have the good fortune and honour to graduate this evening have already begun the building of our house of life through wisdom, and we are acquiring the understanding by which it shall be established. We do not wish to make this house merely stable and strong; we wish it to be beautiful - an example of fine architecture that will be a joy to the occupant and to the beholder. But any example of fine architecture must have a solid foundation and we graduates of Seaway District High School have already received this firm foundation, thanks to the efforts of our parents and teachers.

Our commencement exercises provide us with an opportunity to thank our parents for their understanding, guidance, and encouragement throughout our school career.

We are also very much aware of our debt to our teachers and we express our gratitude for the assistance and inspiration you have afforded us. We are inevitably "a part of all we have met". Never can we get away from the influence, the example, the interest and the guidance that our instructors have given us.

This commencement formally marks the end of our high school careers. More important than that it marks our emergence from the relatively sheltered lives we have spent as part of the public and then secondary school systems. Here the rules were made for us and our conduct regulated by our parents and educators. From here on in we will have to make our own rules and decisions and we and we alone will be responsible for the success or failure of our endeavours.

Our approaches to life's demands must be geared to the swift pace of the era in which we are living and the first step in this adjustment is to make certain that our thinking is crisp and clear. In an age when man travels through space faster than the speed of sound there is no place for slow motion mental reactions or fuzzy reasoning.

It will be fatal to this vital clarity of thought if we are foolish enough to consider ourselves as "educated" simply because we have completed one small phase of the endless process of learnng.

For some, this night, of necessity, marks the end of formal schooling. But it does not follow that growth and learning should cease also. It is a common misconception of our society that the only way to be well educated is to have a university degree. As in all graduating classes, some members of our class will not begoing on to institutions of higher learning. To them, I say, only your formal education should come to an end. Do not allow yourself to stagnate - read, meet people, learn by doing, keep an inquiring mind, an alert attitude and receptive heart for all new experiences.

Others will know the benefits of higher education. May you grasp and hold fast to that which is fine and enlightening in each course you pursue, profiting from the stimulus of contact with the keen intellects of those who instruct, finding zest in competition and the exchange of ideas with fellow students, making the most of those mighty minds of the past who have left such a rich store of knowledge between the covers of books.

It is important that we make a success of our lives. By doing so we will make a definite contribution to Canada.

Each of us must realize that we have no licence to stand back and criticize the efforts of the older generation. We have reached the age of majority and must now take our share of responsibility for government, social reforms, the educational system; in short, for the quality of life in this country.

There is a phrase, which, although time worn, loses none of its significance for us. "We must have the courage to change the things that need changing, the grace to accept the inevitable, and the wisdom to know the difference between the two."

Upper Canada Village And Parks Setting Feature Film

For the past few weeks, Universal Films, Hal Roach Productions, have been shooting a feature film "Tom Sawyer" at Upper Canada Village and in the Parks.

The 90 minute special, supported by 80 technicians and cast, is scheduled for showing on CBS television on Friday, March 23rd, 1973.

The producer is Trevor Wallace, Executive Producer Earl Glick and the Director is Jim Neilson.

Featured in the cast are Jane Wyatt as Aunt Polly, Buddy Ebsen as Muff Potter, Neville Brand as Injun' Joe, Josh Albee as Tom Sawyer, Jeff Tyler as Huck Finn and John McIver as Judge Thatcher.

Included in the supporting cast of 27 Canadian actors and actresses from Toronto are Dawn Greenhauglh as Mrs. Thatcher, Karen Pearson as Becl Thatcher and Colin Fox. A number of local people will perform as extras and limited use will be made of Village staff, animals and vehicles.

Jane Wyatt's film credits include "Lost Horizons", but she is probably known best as the mother in the Father Knows Best TV series. Buddy Ebsen was Jedd Clampett in the TV series Beverly Hillbillies and Neville Brand starred in "Laredo and "Al Capone".

The normal operation of Upper Canada Village will be unchanged, although some exhibit buildings may be temporarily restricted to visitors from time to time.

This is the largest project of this kind undertaken at Commission sites and with favourable weather should be completed around the middle of October.

Doing no more than average is what keeps the average down.

What gums up our budgets is yearnings outstripping earnings.

If you have troubles to burn, be original—make light of them.

Rust of caution destroys more men than the attrition of action.

Life is after all, just one dodge after another—cars, taxes and life's responsibilities.

BAKER

"Trust" — "Just Society" — "Integrity"

The catch words of Trudeau mediocrity . . . Remember 1968? Then it was the Trudeau Team. National stability and progress were assured . . . A Trudeau government meant JOBS they said . . . What do you think now? This is no ordinary election!

Inflation

Your buying power deteriorates day by day under the Trudeau mandate. Every Liberal Member of Parliament supported the policy of using unemployment as a 'weapon' against inflation. Every Liberal Member of Parliament sits today in the shambles of this callous and detached process of manipulation. A Conservative government is prepared to control price and introduce new monetary and fiscal policies — shorten the time span between need for change and effective action — and present you with policies responsive to the need for regional economic growth.

Employment

Liberal Members of Parliament through their performance since 1968 have given hundreds of thousands of Canadians a new way of life — unemployment — a major tragedy of Trudeauism! To-day there is only one job for every 12 unemployed Canadians. A Conservative government will cut personal income taxes to stimulate production and reorganize federal legislation to provide easier access to venture capital for Canadian business. Unemployment is damaging to those who are paid to be idle and a burden to those who bear the cost of idleness.

Bilingualism

The guarantees of a former Prime Minister that careers would not suffer by the implementation of bilingualism have not been honoured. The Public Servant needs assurances that merit and ability will be the keystones of career advancement. A Conservative government will honour the guarantees — they will become the law. Suspicion, hidden manoeuvres, pressure and compulsion shall cease.

The Valley Sportsman

Well, I hate to say "I told you so, but Newboro Lake and the Tay River are producing bass like mad". Last Sunday, Jim Cavannaugh and myself took the boat onto the Tay River and landed and released total of fourteen black bass. Most were in the pound and half range but we had fun and enjoyed ourselves very much. Bait for the day was worms and frogs. A quick check with Pat Tallon at the Poplars Resort on Newboro lake revealed quite a number of fine bass being landed. Tip of the old fishin' hat to : LenYocom, Newtown, Pa., 6 pound largemouth, Joe Kapp, Totowabord, N.J., 5 pound 8 ounce largemouth, David Jeffrey, Clark's Summitt, Pa., 6 pound 4 ounce largemouth, F. Heptmen, Bethleham Pa., 5 pound 6 ounce large mouth and Alma Wright of Rochester and Ed Schwarzer of New York who both landed 4 and half pound bass.

I could of course go on but I'd rather wait to next week. The column next week will be about the pros and cons of using a guide on a fishing trip and I have arranged to go fishing on Newbora Lake with one of the best guides at the Poplars Resort. Be sure to read the next column and just maybe you'll be able to pick up some new points as I tell you about my first experience with a top notch guide.

In the Pembroke District, pickerel, pike and bass have provided only poor to fair catches and muskie catches have been fair but are reported to be improving. Moving into the Tweed District, fishing throughout this area has been mediocre although good catches have been reported on Mark's Lake. In the east, Kemptville District report pike, pickerel and bass as fair and pan fish excellent. Speckled Trout have been fair in Peterwhite Lake and in the Rideau Lakes system. Again, I call for bass to be excellent in Newboro Lake, but this coming week should only be fair to good in the Tay River.

Well many of us will be hanging up the rods for another season as hunting starts to take over. Myself, I have my hunting equipment ready, and I mean ready. My shotgun has been thoroughly cleaned and my shells checked for swollen and cut areas. Many people believe that plastic shells will not expand with moisture, but shells long forgotten in the basement or corner can and will collect moisture. Be sure your equipment is in top condition on opening morning.

THE washday ADVICE BUREAU

Sorting laundry is more important than ever before. Separate clothes by colour and fabric, and always pre-treat stains before washing.

FROM START TO FINISH

Cotton, wool, nylon, polyester . . . all these and more are appearing in today's laundry basket in a wide variety of textures and colours. More manufacturers are providing hang tags and stitched-in labels with washing instructions, but it's still difficult to know what will mix in a laundry load.

Try to select laundry products which will effectively clean everything in your laundry load. Borax-based laundry additives such as Borateem are very versatile and safe for pretreating all types of fabric. If you have a load of white cotton, permanent press and nylon sheets and plan to use chlorine bleach — don't. Instead, pre-wash choosing a more suitable product such as a borax compound.

Coloured items should be tested for colour-fastness before laundering for the first time. Try rubbing a pencil eraser on an inside seam. If the colour erases off, the garment will have to be handled with particular care.

Many dyes are not colourfast — especially reds, blues, greens and black — and need special treatment. You can either handwash these separately in a warm solution of Borateem, detergent and water, or machine wash on the "warm" cycle.

Today, sorting laundry is more important than ever before. Sorting white and coloured items is no longer sufficient. You need to sort for colour, degree of soil and fabric type. When sorting, check washing instructions for water temperature, length of wash cycle and special care instructions.

Different finishes also need different handling. The weight of heavy items in the washer pressing on light-weight synthetics and permanent press garments can cause wrinkles to set in. This wrinkling can be avoided by removing items from the washer and dryer promptly as soon as the cycles are completed. But it is preferable to launder permanent press fabrics separately, or with light weight synthetics.

Many fabrics lose their body after laundering, because fillers used in manufacture can wash out during the laundering process. Starches and fabric finishes can replace a great deal of the body, if you use them in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions.

You will probably have noticed that nylon hosiery also becomes quite limp after the first washing. There is an easy way to correct this. Simply dissolve ¼ cup of Borateem in warm water and wash the nylons in it. Do not rinse. When properly re-sized in this manner, the nylons will regain all their original elasticity and cling better to the leg. This makes them harder to snag and gives them a longer life.

Here's a sportswear trio loaded with fashion impact for 1973. All are made out of TEX-MADE 100% cotton fabrics, manufactured by Dominion Textile Limited. The snappy smock ensemble on the left contrasts subtle beige against brilliant red in 100% sueded cotton called Satin Suede, the most important fabric for 1973. Large patch pockets on the jacket are enhanced with floral appliqués in red and gold suede. The middle sportswear look features the important battle jacket theme in contrasting navy and white. The jacket uses a very soft sueded Fortrel/cotton called Touchdown. The balance of the jacket and pants are in heavy weight cotton called Bolero. Our final dynamic pant look for '73 is in a novel patchwork design called Happy Day in soft shades of pink and blue. Accessorized underneath is a pink shirt in a lightweight sueded cotton called Fuzz. Total concept for '73 is comfort and natural look.

On the last Friday in September, this association elected the members which you see in the picture. Under the presidency of Max Barr, we have Bob McNairn, Mike Felker, Paul Doney, John Johnson and Gary Dickenson. The emphasis will be on intramural programmes.

The track is coming along well and special thanks go to Messrs Lorne Mellan, Peter De Jong, Ford McCaslin, Don Hare and all the students for extra help. Without the tractor-power donated by the people mentioned we might have been far behind schedule. Many thanks!

'Cross Country began on Sat., Sept. 30 with a cold rainy day. However, this was not enough to stop Seaway's cross-country team from attending a meet at Prescott. In the midget division, one team placed second.

This team consisted of Don Adams, Lee Beaupre, Kevin McIntosh, Paul Martell and Mark Stevens. Outstanding midget individual runner was Don Adams who placed fifth with a time of 8:39. Lee Beaupre placed tenth 8:58 over the 1.5 mile course.

In the open division, Seaway's team placed fifth and the outstanding runners were Max Barr, fourth, in 14:45 and Andy Scheckenburger who placed sixteenth in 15:58. The open race was 2.5 miles in length. The team's success can be largely attributed to the excellent coaching and training of Tony Verhoeven.

Canada Geese arriving at wildfowl sanctuary

The vanguard of the Fall migration of Canada Geese have arrived at the Commission's Wildfowl Sanctuary. Located off #2 Highway, 11 miles east of Morrisburg, the Sanctuary is possibly the only place in Eastern Ontario where people can enjoy, at leisure, the full spectacle of Canada's national wildfowl during migration.

During the migration period of about eight weeks, an estimated 90,000 Canada Geese stop over at the Sanctuary for rest and food. In addition, 5,000 or 6,000 ducks including Blacks, Mallards, Teal and Wood ducks take advantage of the safety and hospitality offered in the Wildfowl haven. The wild ducks seem to be more wary than the Canada Geese and usually come into the feeding area leter in the evening when the numbers of Canada Geese, as well as, visitors are much less than in the earlier part of the afternoon.

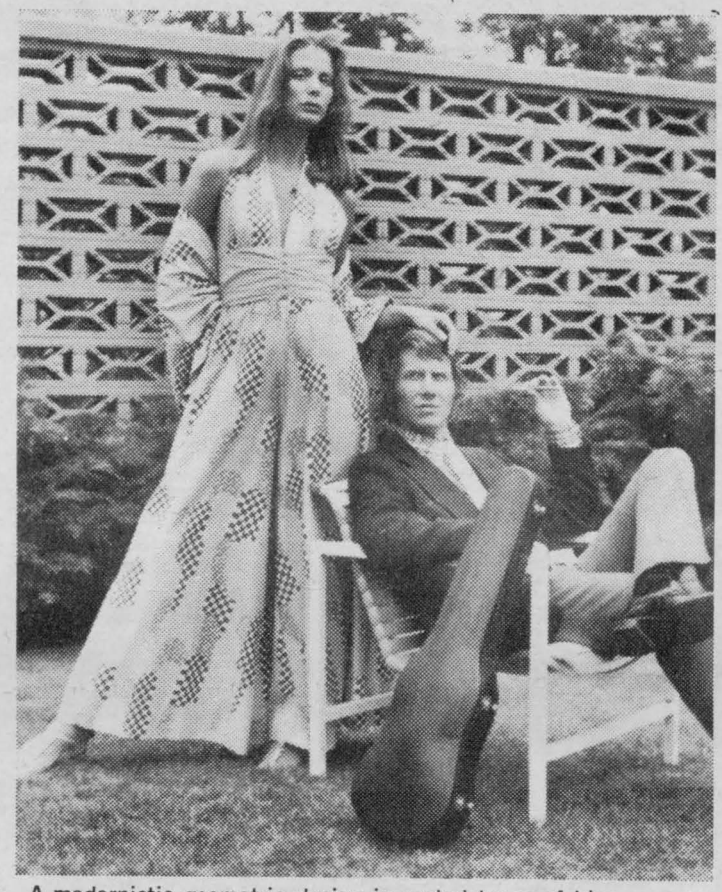
Each day, a ton of corn-on-the-cob is distributed at 2:30 p.m. in the feeding area and during the peak migration flow about 2,000 Canada Geese are fed daily. On some days the number will exceed 3,000. Here and there among the Canada Geese, visitors will often see two or three Snow Geese and a few Blues.

While peak migration periods are directly influenced by the far northern weather, they usually occur in the second and third week of October.

The summer resident flock of Canada Geese numbers about 1,000 and is maintained by around 400 goslings raised each year in the Sanctuary area. All of these Geese usually go south for the winter however, last year there were three Canada Geese that wintered in the feeding area.

These beautiful wild birds, which in their second vear average about nine pounds, mate for life and it is interesting to watch through binoculars a flock land and "pair up"

A visit to the Sanctuary is a unique and enjoyable experience for all the family. Don't forget your camera.



A modernistic geometric design in muted tones of blue, mauve and peach transformed into an elegant halter-pantgown creation. The fabric by Dominion Textile Limited is Nostalgia, 100% cotton sateen, so light in weight, ideal for the full gathered pant look. A matching ruffled shawl completes a stunning look for that special garden party next summer.

Ladies Golf News

This year the Iroquois and Kemptville ladies started what we hope will be a yearly exchange.

First match was played in Kemptville where winners for Iroquois were J. Davis, Low gross and M.J. Craig, low net. The return match was at Iroquois and our club winners were J. Davis, low gross and Ruth (J) Fetterly, low net. Over all total was taken and Kemptville came out winners of the new Kem-Quois trophy. We look forward to next year's match.

In August, the Upper Canada Golf Club held their 1st Ladies Invitational. There was a large field from all areas of Ontario and Quebec and from many ocal U. S. clubs. A great day was enjoyed and special congratulations to M.J. Craig for Low Gross win over the field.

On September 24th, the Ladies played a mixed with the Juniors. The weather wasn't very good but fun was had by all with a Bar-B-Q closing off the day. Winners were Betty Styles & Robin McIntosh, Mary McAdam & Lance Valcour; Jean Mattice & David McAdam; Kay Peacock & Stan Davis; Mary Jean Craig & Wayne Styles; Rita Bray & Stephen Brennan and Louise Shaw and Diane McAdam.

The same day, the Juniors were presented with prizes for their own championship. Robin McIntosh, gross Champion; Steven Montpetit, 2nd gross; Michael Styles, net champion; Kevin Fader 2nd net. Sherri Fader won the Junior Girl's Championship.

Ladies, don't forget the closing pot luck on the 12th of October.

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

Anglo-Saxon in descent, Tommy, 14 years old, is a good-looking lad with blonde hair, blue eyes and fair skin. With that coloring you would expect a few freckles and he has them. He is careful about clothes and grooming.

Tommy is a most likeable boy, normally cheerful and good-natured. He is popular in his age group and gets on well with younger children. He especially enjoys adult company because he is a good conversationalist. Logical in his thinking, he likes to have reasons for expected behavior explained to him.

Tommy is enthusiastic about camping. A special interest is art and he has above average ability in it and handicrafts. He likes to play the recorder. In most areas, Tommy does average work in school but he has a poor memory and his reading is below par, so he is repeating Grade VII this year. However, his reading is showing improvement.

Tommy needs parents who will appreciate his special gifts and qualities and will not pressure him for academic achievement. It will be ideal if he can be the only child in his adoption home but that is not vital. The important thing is that he have warmth, security and permanence, with or without brothers and sisters.

To inquire about adopting Tommy, please write to Today's Child, Box 888, Station K, Toronto. For general adoption information, please contact your Children's Aid Society.

'Church Week' At Iroquois United Church

'Church Week", from October 15 to 22, is a United Church of Canada happening, which will be celebrated by many United Churches in our land. While this is a nation-wide event, local congregations are left to fashion their own program as they see fit.

The Iroquois Pastoral Charge, through its Board, has been at work designing a series of events to mark this special week. It promises to get off to a healthy start this coming Sunday evening, October 15, when the Snider Family Gospel Singers of Westport, will bring the Gospel to us in their special musical way. This will be at 8 o'clock in the Iroquois United Church. The general public is most welcomed.

On Tuesday evening, October 17, Rev. Leslie Dean, a former minister, and Mrs. Dean, much beloved by all who knew them, will be special guests at a Congregational Pot Luck Supper. Mr. Dean will be the evening's guest speaker, during the program following the supper.

On Thursday evening, interested teenagers and adults will gather to make plans for a Bible Study Program. Often such matters as this are overlooked in the regular business of running a church. We are endeavouring to deepen our faith and reason for being, with such study.

"Church Week" will end on Sunday, October 22, with a special morning Family Worship Service.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, Harry. A. Warren, who passed away Oct. 14th, 1969.
Partings come and hearts are broken.
Loved ones go with words unspoken.
Life goes on, we know thats true,
But not the same since we lost you.
Wishing today and we wished before,
That God could have spared you for many years more.
In our hearts your memory is kept,
To love and to cherish and never forget.
Sadly missed and always remembered by wife Marion and family and grandchildren. 17-1-c

In fond and loving memory of a dear mother, Mrs. Olive Casselman, who passed away Oct. 9, 1968.
Mother, you are not forgotten,
Though on earth you are no more,
Still in memory you are near us
As you always were before.
Sadly missed by Agnes and Orval Brinston. 17-1-p
