CUT IN HYDRO RATES THIS YEAR PROMISED BY ONTARIO PREMIER

Promise that Hydro rates would be cut this year, was made by Premier Hepburn and Attorney-General Arthur Roebuck at a meeting at Oakville on Saturday night last.

"Hydro," said the premier, "is operating at an average profit of $500,000 a month. That's $6,000,000 a year. Hydro is a public utility. I am glad to announce this year we are going to pass on the $6,000,000 in reduced rates.

Mr. Roebuck said the government had "got down to work" and "handled" the Hydro problem, and "you people will get the results before the end of the year."

South Mountain Wins League Softball Title

HALLVILLE DEFEATED IN CLOSE PLAY-OFF GAME. SOUTH MOUNTAIN CROWNED 1936 CHAMPIONS.

South Mountain were acclaimed 1936 champions of the Dundas County Softball League following their game with Hallville Friday night, which they won by the close score of 5-4. The first game of the final series was protested by South Mountain on the grounds that Hallville used a player who was not eligible to play under the league rules. The protest was sustained and, while Hallville won the game 13-11, the contest was awarded to South Mountain.

Friday night's game was played on the North Mountain Consolidated school diamond and was witnessed by a large crowd of fans from all over the country. It was the closest game of the year and was only Hallville's third defeat in fifteen league games, and these were all administered by the South Mountain team.

A feature of the contest was the pitching duel staged by Hastings of Hallville and Render of South Mountain. Both turned in excellent performances. They were given good support in the field and there was little to choose between the two teams.

At the conclusion of the game, Chas. Cross of Winchester, secretary of the league, presented the Geo. H. Challies trophy to Gordon Boyd, coach of the South Mountain team, amid the cheers of the crowd. Hallville had held the league title since its formation two years ago.

The teams:

South Mountain—Barton, cf; Hyndman, lf; Marcell, 3b; Williams, c; Durant 2b; Render, p; Marriner, ss; Berry, rf; Johnston, 1b.

Hallville—Wylie, c; Hastings, p; C. Christie, 1b; Hyndman, 2b; M. Christie, 3b; Hoy, ss; Ellis, rf; Brown, cf; Evans, lf.

Score by innings:
Hallville .....022 000 0—4
South Mountain .....110 030 0—5

Umpires: S. Maude and G. Quinn, of Kemptville.

NAME OMITTED

In the list of survivors of the late George F. Mowat, which appeared in the last issue of the Press, the name of Mrs. Eva L. Beales, of Dundas, Ont., was inadvertently omitted. Mrs. Beales is a daughter, by the late Mr. Mowat's first wife who died in 1891.

WEDDING

POTTER—BAILEY

A quiet wedding of much local interest was solemnized on Saturday afternoon last at the Elma United church parsonage, when Mary Edna, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bailey, of Winchester Springs, was united in marriage to Mr. J. Harry Potter, son of Mrs. I. Potter and the late Mr. Potter of Winchester. Rev. Robert S. Smith officiated.

The young couple were attended by Miss Irene Marcellus of Iroquois, as bridesmaid, and Mr. Jay Bailey, brother of the bride, as groomsman.

The bride was attired in a smart swagger suit of white silk crepe, with hat and shoes to match. She wore a pretty corsage of sweet peas.

Miss Marcellus wore pink silk crepe, with hat and shoes in matching tones.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Potter left on a motor trip to Toronto and other points in Western Ontario. Upon their return they will take up residence at Winchester Springs where Mr. Potter is principal of the public school.

GRACE—MORRIS

St. Catherine's church, Metcalfe, was the scene of an attractive wedding ceremony Saturday morning, when Miss Julia Mary Morris, daughter of Mrs. Josephine Morris Duquette, and the late Mr. James Morris, was united in Ottawa. For the occasion the sanctuary of the church was attractively marriage to Frances Joseph Grace, of adorned with standards of gladioli, asters and other flowers.

Rev. Father J. R. Smith, parish priest, officiated. The choir was present with the organist and director, Miss Ethyl Palmer, in charge. Durng the signing of the register, Miss Marguerite Lahey rendered a solo.

Given in marriage by her brother, Eldred Duquette, the bride was charming in a handsome gown of hyacinth blue, with lace bodice and triple sheer crepe skirt fashioned on tailored lines. She a white picture hat of braided straw, with white gloves and sandals, and carried a corsage of Sweetheart roses and maiden hair fern.

Immediately following the ceremony at the church, a reception was held and breakfast served to about 35 guests at the home of the bride's mother. Assisting at the reception were: Miss Anna Morris, Mrs. E. Morris, the Misses Lillian, Helen, Leone, and Tmyla Morris, Mrs. Walter Palmer, Mrs. Wm. Fader and Miss Grace Hay.

Mr. and Mrs. Grace left later by motor to spend a honeymoon in the New England States. For travelling the bride wore a blue silk suit with white coat and matching accessories.

On their return they will reside at Woodroffe.

The out-of-town guests included the Misses Mary Grace, Mary Charbonneau, Dot George, Grace Hay, and Ethel Grant, and Messrs. Jack Grace and Bud Hay, all of Ottawa; Mrs. Phil Gagnon, Detroit; Mrs. Peter Gagnon and Miss Norma Gagnon, of Durham, Ont.; Miss Helen Elliott and Mr. S. Dukelow, of Winchester.

Local Cattle Being Shipped To England

HOLSTEINS FROM THE HERDS OF INKERMAN AND WINCHESTER FARMERS BOUGHT FOR EXPORT.

Shipments of Dairy Cattle from Canada to the United Kingdom have not been very heavy so far this year as values of this class of livestock here have been rising, partly in sympathy with increased prices for dairy produce and, to some extent, on account of rather heavy United States buyings. To add to this, too, as slowing up overseas shipments of this sort are the very close inspections for health, form and condition enforced by the Dominion Department of Agriculture at the shipping port, and, the allegedly severe and uncertain inspection, and frequent rejection, of animals in this class by Departmental inspection at ports of entry in Great Britain. The result of all this is that would-be shippers have hesitated to send shipments on consignment.

That there is, however, a demand for good Canadian Dairy Stock on the other side is evidenced by a lot of 73 head of purebred and grade high class Holstein heifers going forward on the S. S. Kastalia, sailing August 22nd from Montreal. This lot is being consigned to Messrs. Stephenson and Large, Cardiff, for Baron von Trutzschler of Chester, England, and some of his neighbors.

The Baron is familiar with Canadian Dairy Stock as he already has some 125 purebred and grade Holsteins on his farm in Cheshire. That he and his neighbors have found our cattle to their liking, is amply proven by this further purchase.

The cattle have been bought by Mr. Hoogenboom who was sent over here for that purpose by the little group of Cheshire farmers. Mr. Earl Nephew, of Finch, who at different times has bought many cattle in Eastern Ontario and who is familiar with practically all our Eastern Holstein herds, has been assisting in the location and selection of these cattle.

Dr. Grisdale of Iroquois, who visited Cheshire last year was largely instrumental in getting this business for Eastern Ontario and has been associated to some extent with Messrs. Hoogenboom and Nephew in their buying activities.

The whole shipment may be characterized as really superior and includes many animals that would rank high in first class fairs in this country. The cattle were bought in the counties of Dundas, Stormont and Glengarry, and range in age from just about 2 years to just around 4 years old. They are all carrying either their first or second calf and are due to freshen late October to January next. All are from the Eastern Ontario T. B Restricted Area, as will be noted, and some of them are from Bang Accredited herds. All, save those from the Bang herds, have just passed the Bang test as required by Canadian and British regulations. Those from the Bang Accredited herds are recognized as Abortion Free Cattle.

Not a few of these are from Eastern Ontario's best Holstein herds and about 80 per cent. are purebred. Among breeders from whose herds selections were made might be mentioned as from:

Winchester—Cliff Wylie; D. M. Smith, Sherwood Coons, A. E. Holmes, Roy Baker.

Inkerman—W J. Fawcett, Ken Guy, John Jackson, W. R. McMenomy.

Finch—S. M. McLean, G. A. McNaughton, D. McIntosh, Mrs. C. Kendrick, T. Foley and George Smith.

Dalkeith—D J. McMillan, R. W. McLeod, J. W. McLeod, Lorne MacDonald.

Greenfield—E. L. D. McMillan

Mountain—D Cameron, W. A. Cameron, Tom Dougall

Chesterville—Tom Allen, Harold Durant, Graham Durant.

Avonmore—J. Blair, and E. L. Blair.

If there is anything in breeding and type to give satisfacton to the buyer the Cheshire group should be well pleased and should come again.

STRIKE AT CORNWALL CONTINUES

Police reinforcements, drawn from various points throughout the province, were rushed to Cornwall on Tuesday, where 1700 employees of the Courtauld's Canada Ltd., Cornwall's largest industry, have been on strike since Tuesday of last week.

The first outbreak of violence occurred when it was rumoured that a shipment of silk was to leave the huge plant at the noon hour on Tuesday when pickets were few in number. Sixteen strikers were placed under arrest and lodged in the county jail charged with illegal picketting. Bail of $50 cash or $200 property bond was asked and in each case provided by a fellow striker.

Little hope of an early settlement was seen as conferences between plant executives and strikers were held on Wednesday morning. It is rumoured, however, that the president of the company is enroute to Cornwall from England and will arrive at an early date.

The closing of the Cornwall plant is said to be having serious reprecussions on many factories throughout the province, that are encountering a scarcity of raw materials.

DOUBLES COMPETITION OPENS

The championship "doubles" competition among local bowlers got under way at the Club's greens on Friday evening last. Four teams met in the preliminary round, which resulted as follows:

Rink No. 1—Ernest Kellogg, John Fader, skip—16.

Rink No. 1—Clark Curtis, Dr. W. A. Sherwood, skip—11.

Rink No. 2—O. L. Worthen, F. A. Coons, skip—9.

Rink No. 2—A. A. Casselman, A. E. Goodfellow, skip—17.

The winners advance to the first round, while the losing teams qualify for the consolation doubles.

Ottawa Exhibition Opens Next Monday

GOLDMAN AND HIS BAND, SONG AND DANCE REVUE AND MANY OTHER STELLAR ATTRACTIONS.

On Monday, August 24, the gates of Lansdowne Park will open for the 49th annual Ottawa Exhibition and every indication is that the splendid successes of previous years will be eclipsed and that there will be a memorable week in the Capital which will set new records.

Every foot of space in the buildings has been taken and the grounds will be filled as never before. So large is the entry in livestock, especially in horses, that emergency accommodation had to be provided. Educational and entertainment features will appeal to all.

Outstanding will be the first appearance in Ottawa of Goldman and his band. Internationally famed, the notable organization under Dr. Edwin Franko Goldman, acclaimed as the King of Bandmasters, will be heard in two free concerts daily. Those who have heard Goldman and his band over the radio will embrace the opportunity to enjoy them at close range.

Ranking with the band in attractive power will be The Fascinations of 1936, a sparkling song and dance revue, presented on a scale not before attempted in an outdoor production. There will be a cast of forty-two, mostly girls, and all with the real talent to win a place in the organization. A special revolving stage, elaborate lighting effects, georgeous costumes, lavish stage settings, bright songs, novel dances, spectacular ensembles and high-class specialties will make the revue in a class by itself for entertainment.

Then there will be horse races, fireworks displays, a thrilling automobile act ending with a head-on collision, government displays, dog show, pure food show, automobile show, flowers and fruit, poultry and pets, exhibits by merchants and manufacturers, a new midway with the latest in rides and shows, selected vaudeville turns and scores of other factors for old and young.

Every possible step has been taken to ensure the exhibition being ready for the opening at nine o'clock on Monday, and there will be six full days and six full nights of an exhibition such as has not been seen in Ottawa before. The admission fee is twenty-five cents, but coupon tickets giving six admissions for one dollar may be obtained from various merchants or from branches of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

PRESENTATION AND FAREWELL

With Mrs. J. W. Ault, Mrs. F. F. Davidson, and Mrs. H. L. Hughes as hostesses, more than thirty of the most intimate friends of Mrs Bertha Parker met at her home Tuesday evening to say "Good-bye," prior to the departure of herself and daughter, Agnes, to Ottawa, where they expect to make their future home. After a short time spent in social intercourse, a few appropriate words were spoken by Mrs. Geo. Earle on behalf of those present, expressing regret at Mrs. Parker's removal from Winchester, and assuring her of the good wshes of her friends for her welfare in her new home.

The presentation of a beautiful table lamp, a rose bowl, and a decorated book in which the names were signed, was made by Mesdames Davidson, Ault and Hughes.

Mrs. Miller contributed to the evening's enjoyment by giving two selections from James Whitcomb Riley, after which ice-cream was served.

COMMUNITY SALE TO BE HELD ON SEPTEMBER 15th

John R. Fader wishes to announce that his first Community Auction Sale will be held on September 15th. Any person having livestock, farm machinery or any other articles which they would like to turn into cash, are requested to get in touch with Mr. Fader and get full details of the sale. The auction will be held at Mr. Fader's farm, one mile west of Winchester.

WINS $7,500 PRIZE

Mrs. Amelia Lambkin, of Elma, was the winner of first prize in the picture title contest sponsored in the name of the New York Chapter of the Knights of Columbus recently. The prize, amounting to $7,500, was originally set at $30,000.

The organization paid the prize out of what was to have been the chapter's share of the proceeds of a deal made with the American Contest Company. When the contest closed Feb. 25 last, only $71,000 worth of tickets were disposed of and the "prize account" was some $50,000 short with only $17,000. A week later the two leading officers of the contest company were arrested and within another fortnight one of these officers, J. H. Kearns, took his life.

The other officer, released on bail after being charged with using the mails to defraud, aided in arranging the cut-rate amount, which the chapter said met with approval of all concerned. The chapter used the "22 1-2 per cent. of the daily receipts" it received in the contest deal and also, according to its officers, "incurred considerable expense."

In the original deal the chapter was relieved of all responsibility except use of its name. The contest consisted of of selecting titles for three pictures on the one dollar tickets.

Mrs. Lambkin is well-known throughout this district as a musician and writer. Her book "Buckskin and Ermine," is widely read, while "Lights of the North," by Mrs. Lambkin, is entered in the All-Canadian Authors' Contest.

When asked what she intended to do with her prize money, she replied, "Buy a Canadian government annuity."

OBITUARY

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS. CHESTER ROSE.

Largely attended by residents of the district, the funeral of the late Mrs. Chester Rose, who passed away in an Ottawa hospital on Thursday last, was held at the family residence, Vancamps, on Saturday afternoon. Rev. R. C. McConnell, pastor of the Vancamps United Church, conducted the impressive service.

Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Robinson ,of Winchester Springs rendered a beautiful duet during the service. They were accompanied at the piano by Miss Katie Wylie.

Following the service interment was made at Vancamps cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Barton Derby, Samuel Rose, Hubert Riddell, Russell Bellinger, Cecil Levere and Amos Swerdfeger.

The late Mrs. Rose, whose maiden name was Kathleen Seymour, was born in the township of Mountain 35 years ago, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Seymour. She was married to Chester Rose five years ago and since then had resided at Vancamps.

The late Mrs. Rose was a member of Vancamps United Church. She was an active worker in the various women's organizations and was a life member of the Women's Missionary Society, having held the office of supply secretary at the time of her passing. Although a young woman, she was one of Vancamps most enterprising citizens and has left a gap in the social life of the community that will be hard to fill.

Besides her husband, an infant son and her parents, she is survived by one sister, Mrs. James Franklin, of Ettyville, Ont.; a brother, Luther Seymour, and a grandmother, Mrs. Henry Seymour, Vancamps.

Amon the many floral tributes, which bore testimony to the high esteem in which the deceased was held, was a wreath from Vancamps W. M. S.

LAST RESPECTS PAID MRS. JOHN McGREGOR

The funeral of Mrs. John McGregor was held on Friday afternoon last from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jesse Lewis, Mountain township, where service was conducted by Rev. Thos. McNaught, of Russell United church. Following the service, burial took place in the family plot at Ormond cemetery.

The pallbearers, who were all cousins of the deceased, were James C. McGregor and J. H. Cummings, Ormond; Daniel McGregor, Russell, and Peter A. McGregor, Winchester.

The late Mrs. McGregor, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Moffatt, was born near Morewood 85 years ago, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Moffatt. She was the last of a family of nine. She was married to John McGregor in 1876, her husband having predeceased her 10 years ago. Following her marrage, she resided at Felton, and for the past ten years had lived at Russell. Early in August of this year she came to Mountain township to reside with her daughter. She passed away on Wednesday last following a brief illness.

The late Mrs. McGregor was a member of Russell United church and had taken a keen interest in the work of the different women's organizations. She was one of the community's most highly respected citizens and her passing will be regretted by a wide circle of friends.

Chief mourners and survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Jesse Lewis of Mountain, and Mrs. J. H. Daley, Toronto, also three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Among the many floral tributes which bore testimony to the high esteem in which the late Mrs. McGregor was held, was a wreath from the Women's Association of the United church, Russell.

FRED B. GAGNON

The following item from the Durham Chronicle will prove of interest to local readers and concerns the death of a former well-known and esteemed resident of this place.

After an illness of only a few days, Mr. Fred B. Gagnon, a former well-known resident of this town, and brother of Mr. Peter Gagnon, managing director of the Durham Furniture Co., died in hospital at Atlanta, Georgia, Thursday of last week following an operation for appendicitis only a few days previously. From the first it was known that Mr. Gagnon's condition was critical, but no thought was entertained that he would pass away so quickly.

On receipt of the news of his brother's death, Mr. Peter Gagnon motored to Toronto, caught the Chicago flyer, arrived in Chicago Friday morning, and then went by aeroplane to Atlanta. Leaving Chicago at 11 o'clock in the morning, Mr. Gagnon was in Atlanta at 4 o'clock that same afternoon.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning from Immaculate Conception church, Atlanta, the Rev. Charles Rethard conducting the ceremony. The remains were later taken by train to Detrot where the funeral was held from the Hamilton Undertaking Parlors on Monday morning, interment being in Woodlawn cemetery, beside those of his brother, Mr. Philip Gagnon, who died two years ago. In attendance from here were Mrs. P. Gagnon, Mr. Jack Gagnon, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell.

The late Mr. Gagnon was born at Winchester 42 years ago He was a son of the late Mr and Mrs. A. Gagnon. He commenced his business life as a clerk in a bank, but later engaged in the restaurant business holding many important positions in different centres. For a time he was in business with his brother in Detroit. For nearly two years, he was a resident of Durham, and was for a time on the office staff of the De-

Low-priced CHEVROLET-Maple Leaf Truck
SETS NEW PERFORMANCE-ECONOMY RECORD

1246 Miles
at a record low cost of $27.68

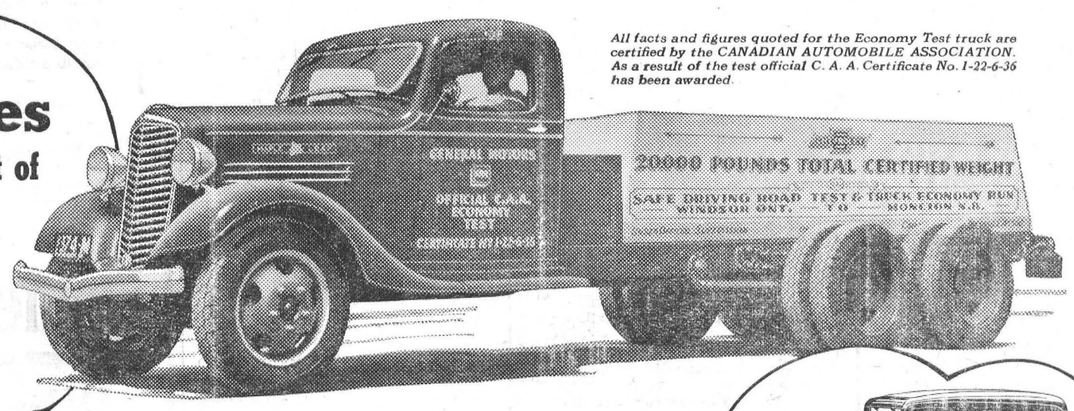
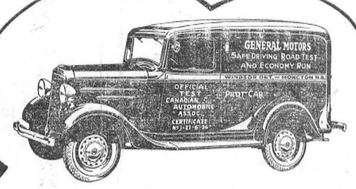
GASOLINE—12 miles per gallon average.
OIL—1 pint in 1246 miles.
FUEL COST—only one-third of a cent per ton mile.
WATER—1½ pints used during entire trip.
REPAIRS—No money expended on repairs or adjustments.

All facts and figures quoted for the Economy Test truck are certified by the CANADIAN AUTOMOBILE ASSOCIATION. As a result of the test official C. A. A. Certificate No. 1-22-6-36 has been awarded.



● Hauling 20,000 pounds certified gross weight 1246 miles from Windsor, Ont., to Moncton, N.B., this big Chevrolet-Maple Leaf 2½-ton truck recently established a Canadian record for Economy, Safety and Stamina. The long, hard test was made under typical road and weather conditions. The total operating cost amounted to $27.68, or one-third of a cent per ton mile!

For operators handling 5- to 7-ton payloads, this Chevrolet-Maple Leaf model equipped with Truxmore third axle provides a combination which, by slashing expenses, materially adds to your profits. As a result of the trail-blazing experiment made under practical, workaday conditions, we have been provided with a fund of useful information. Individual and fleet owners are invited to share this with us. Can you spare a few moments to visit our showrooms today?



Chevrolet ½-ton Panel Truck

Here is the Chevrolet ½-ton truck which accompanied the Chevrolet-Maple Leaf Economy Test Truck as "Pilot Car." Carefully kept performance records of this truck indicate gasoline mileage, 19.05 miles per gallon; oil consumption, nil; water added, nil; repairs and adjustments, nil.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

On Saturday, August 15th, 1936, by Rev. Stewart Ivison, at First Baptist church, Ottawa, Margaret E. Ritchie, to Dr. G. O. Barclay.

SCHOOL OPENS SEPT. 1.

For the first time in years the schools of the province will open on September 1st. Only ten days remain until the opening day. All of which reminds us that summer is nearly over.

THE UNITED CHURCH

Rev. Heman E. Warren of Ottawa, touched the hearts of the Sunday morning congregation when he spoke from Luke 4:18 on one mission of Jesus to the world—to heal the broken-hearted. These he classed as those who have remorse, the bereaved, the disappointed and defeated ones those who have had to bear in humanity and those who fret and worry.

Jesus is the only healer for all of these. He comes into the heart and gives joy, and makes it possible to keep on praying. He wants us to forget ourselves in making others happy, and to be of good cheer for He has overcome come the world. The choir sang: "I will lift up mine eyes." Next Sunday's services, morning and evening, will be taken by Rev. H. E. Warren.

RECEPTION HELD

A largely attended reception was held on Friday evening last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Gainer, Melvin Settlement, in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Gainer, whose marriage was solemnized recently. About 150 guests spent the evening in dancing to the music provided by Ralph Summers and family of Aultsville.

Before the luncheon hour, Mr. and Mrs. Gainer heard an address read by Helen Shaver, after which a parlor lamp, a purse of money and many other gifts were presented by Orval Christie and Clinton Presley. Mr. Gainer expressed his thanks for the gifts.

Luncheon was served by the ladies of the community, assisted by Clinton and Clarence Presley and Orval Christie, who sponsored the affair.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. John Wyatt and family wish to thank their many kind friends and neighbors for the sympathy and acts of kindness extended to them during their recent sad bereavement, in the loss of a loving husband and father, and also those who sent flowers. 16p

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Donald Johnston, who passed away August 27th, 1931.

God called him home, it was His will,
But in our hearts we love him still;
His memory is as dear to-day
As in the hour he passed away.
We often sit and think of him
When we are all alone,
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.

MEET AT CASS BRIDGE

More than 60 members of the Jamieson family, descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Jamieson, of Nation Valley, were present at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnston, of Cass ridge, last week, when a social evening was held for Misses Ruby and Pearl Jamieson, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jamieson, of Drinkwater, Sask. The hostesses were, Mrs. Leonard Bell, Inkerman; Mrs. James Crawford, Winchester, with Mrs. Johnston, who made arrangements for the event. The twin sisters entertained during the evening, with both instrumental and vocal duets, and music was played by an orchestra from Ottawa.

An address to the guests of honor was read by Mrs. Johnston, after which Mrs. Preston McIntosh, of Winchester Springs, presented two beautiful embossed compacts. Both expressed their thanks for the gifts. Ernest Jamieson, of Nation Valley, expressed the thanks of the gathering to Mr. and Mrs. Johnston for their hospitality, and to the orchestra. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Willie Clark presided at the piano while all joined in singing "'Till We Meet Again."

partment of Highways here. With his wife, who was formerly Miss Ammie Thompson, of Kentucky, and young daughter, Alice Jean, they made many friends during their residence here who will regret to learn of his sudden passing.

For the past two years Mr. Gagnon had been manager of the Chevrolet Motor Co. restaurant at Atlanta, where he was held in high esteem by all with whom he came in contact, as was evidenced by the assistance and sympathy extended by both the management and employees during his illness and subsequent death.

In comparatively good health since going to Georgia, Mr. Gagnon had previously undergone a couple of serious operations, one of them in Tononto while a resident there, and it is thought possibly the effects of these previous operations had something to do with his inability to recover from the operation for appendicitis.

Surviving besides Mrs. Gagnon, and one daughter, Alice Jean, seven years of age, are two brothers, Peter Gagnon, Durham; Charles Gagnon, Croghan, N. Y., and three sisters, Mrs. Pelletier, of Fort William; Mrs. Root, Philadelphia, and Mrs. Gariepy, Beauharnois, Que.

This is the third death in the family in slightly over two years, Philip passing away in Detroit in April, 1934, and George A., suddenly in Durham last November.

WONDERFUL RECORD

Our record of the 1935-1936 term shows that 50 students passed examinations and graduated as stenographers; 30 students made typewriting speed and accuracy records; 12 students won trophies and prizes; one student, Arthur Ball, won a typewriting machine; 50 graduates (a few of former terms) were placed in industrial, legal and financial offices; the May 2 issue of Canada Gazette announced the names of 42 students and graduates who passed the Civil Service examinations as stenographers, 20 were listed among the first 500 of the successful Census Clerks and Grade 1 Clerks; 43 students and graduates were appointed to Civic Service positions in Toronto and Ottawa.

Send for pamphlet giving information about our courses, also the list of the names of these successful young people. The FALL TERM from September 1 will open our 54th year. BROCKVILLE BUSINESS COLLEGE. Owned by Rogers Partnership ,(Registered), also owning and operating Kingston Business College.
