Fred Smith Died Suddenly Yesterday

It was with deep regret that the citizens of this town learned of the sudden passing of Mr. J. Fred Smith, proprietor of the local Drug Store, at his home early yesterday morning. Mr. Smith had not been in the best of health for a number of years, and although it was known that he was afflicted with a heart ailment, death came as a distinct shock to members of his family and close associates.

The late Mr. Smith had visited friends in Toronto last week and while there suffered heart attacks, from which he recovered favourably. About 5 o'clock Wednesday morning, he was stricken with another seizure of a more severe nature. He called to Mrs. Smith and informed her of the attack, but before a physician could be summoned, he passed away.

Born at Iroquois 43 years ago, deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Benson Smith. He received his primary education there and later attended the local high school. After graduating from school, he took up banking and for many years was a member of the staff of the Royal Bank of Canada at Winchester and other points throughout the district. He was also a member of the staff of the Provincial Savings Bank, Toronto, for a number of years.

When his father's health became impaired, he returned to Winchester and became associated with him in the local Drug Store. Following the death of his father, he took over the business, which he has operated since under the name of The J. F. Smith Drug Company, Limited. Not being a graduate in Pharmacy, the late Mr. Smith had as his associate, Mr. J. E. Davis, B. Ph.

The late Mr. Smith was a member of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. Always keenly interested in sport, he was a past secretary of the Winchester Lawn Bowling Association. He was held in high esteem by all who knew him and wil be missed in the business and private life of the community.

Besides his wife, who was the former Miss Florence Leduc, of Cornwall, he leaves one son, Frederick Leduc Smith; one sister, Mrs. Gordon Glascott, of Toronto, and one brother, Mr. Wm. Smith, of Toronto.

The funeral service will be held in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church at 10.30 o'clock on Friday morning, with the pastor, Mr. MacKay, officiating. Interment will be at Maple Ridge Cemetery.

Mlle. Cecile Bouchard Says Gen. Chas. DeGaulle Man of Unifying Force

The highlight of the annual "Magazine Night," given on Saturday evening, May 10th, in the Vice Regal Suite of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, Montreal, by the Canadian Authors, was undoubtedly, the address by Mlle. Cecile Bouchard, who was chosen by the Essay Group, of which Mrs. Dorothy Sproule is Chairman, to represent them on this occasion. Mlle. Bouchard, who acts as hostess for her widowed father, the Hon. T. D. Bouchard, spoke on the subject "Important People I Have Met." From her personal acquaintance with Commandant Argenlieu, (Secretary to General de Gaulle), she gave a graphic pen picture of conditions in France, and of her admiration of the part these men have played in their loyalty and patriotism.

Mlle. Bouchard has a charming personality and she speaks English in a fluent manner with an excellent vocabulary. It is inferred she will be at liberty to speak for War and Patriotic Societies throughout Canada.

The Montreal Gazette (Monday, May 12th) gave the following synopsis of her address:

"Commandant Georges d'Argenlieu, who is in Canada as a representative of General Charles De Gaulle, "has done more to bring French-Canadians nearer to the English than anybody did before," Miss Cecile Bouchard said in an essay which she read Saturday night to the annual meeting of the Montreal branch of the Canadian Authors' Association.

"The speaker added: "God knows how thankful we should be for this, as we are passing through a critical moment of our history and need be united more than ever."

"Commandant d'Argenlieu has come to us, especially to the French-Canadians, as an apostle of right-thinking and righteousness," Miss Bouchard said. She reviewed his career as a naval officer in the Great War, his post-war religious life as a member of the "Antique Order of the Carmel," his mobilization again in 1939, his escape from German hands after the fall of France to join the Free French movement of General De Gaulle, and his almost fatal wounds at Dakar when the Free French tried to bring that African colony to their side.

"He, like his companions, has this extraordinary feeling of finding France

LOCAL WOMEN NAMED ON W. M. S. COMMITTEES

At the biennial meeting of the Montreal-Ottawa Conference Branch of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church in Canada, held at Prescott last week, Mrs. A. B. Allison was appointed Community Friendship Secretary, and Mrs. Geo. Earle, Christian Citizenship Secretary. Mrs. D. R. Carson, of Ottawa, was elected president of the Society.

Tragic Death Of Nation Valley Man

After enquiring into the circumstances surrounding the death of George Froats, who was found dead in his home at Nation Valley last Thursday afternoon, Dr. Thomas Hamilton, coroner, Brinston, decided an inquest would be unnecessary.

Mr. Froats, who passed his 40th birthday last October, was found dead on the floor of his bedroom, by the oldest of his four children, James Froats, aged five years, who had been sent by his mother to see how his father was feeling. The little fellow found his father lying on the floor, dead, and a 12-gauge shotgun lying beside him.

Provincial Constable R. H. Wannel, and Chief Clare Biccum, both of Morrisburg, were summoned. Their investigation revealed a wound through the man's heart, which evidently caused instant death.

The sad affair occurred at the Froats homestead, in the Nation Valley area, shortly after the noon hour last Thursday. Mr. Froats had been in Chesterville the day before, and appeared to be in his usual health to those with whom he had conversed. He had been in poor health for some time, although able to do his own work.

According to information secured by the police, Mr. Froats arose as usual Thursday morning and looked after the chores, later complaining to Mrs. Froats that he did not feel well and retired to his room. He arose and had dinner and suggested to his wife that if she would do the noon chores he would be able to do the work in the evening.

Mrs. Froats went to the barn and while there sent James to the house to see how his father was feeling. The alarm was given when the boy notified his mother of what he had found, and the doctor and police were summoned. Dr. Hamilton decided to dispose of the case without an inquest.

George Froats was born on the homestead where he died, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Froats. Besides his wife, the former Beatrice Cross, of Winchester township, he leaves four children, James, Hubert, Marguerite and Wayne, the latter six months old. He had spent his entire life on the homestead, was a well-to-do farmer, and was a member of the United Church at Chesterville.

The funeral was held at Chesterville on Saturday afternoon, with interment in Maple Ridge Cemetery.

Local Recruiting Parade Attracted Large Crowd

The Second Battalion, Stormont, Dunda and Glengarry Highlanders (Reserve) has been instructed to reduce its strength to 390 men of all ranks in an order received from district headquarters.

Lt. Col. W. J. Franklin, M.C., officer commanding, said this would mean a considerable cut in the battalion's personnel. Including the outlying companies, the battalion has a total strength of 500, all ranks.

The new order means that only 390 men can be trained and taken to camp when the battalion goes into summer training at Connaught Ranges on June 29th.

This information was given out at a recruiting meeting, here, last Thursday evening, but, as stated by Col. Franklin, it does not mean that men are not required for Active Service Units. Young, unmarried men are needed in all branches of the Canadian Army, he said. The present recruiting drive across Canada is for 32,000 men.

29.

While no recruits were signed up at last Thursday's meeting, there were some prospects, and these will be interviewed at an early date.

Prior to the meeting in the town hall, there was a parade of No. 1 Company of the S. D. & G. Highlanders (Reserve) and a number of Great War Veterans, headed by the S. D. & G. Pipe Band. town, but only a small percentage of them were present at the meeting in the This feature attracted a large crowd to hall, where Col. Franklin spoke, and where a brief, but enjoyable program was presented.

The chairman for the evening was Mr. Arnold Casselman, a veteran of the Great War. In his remarks, he urged the younger men of the present generation to rally to the colours in the same loyal manner as he and thousands of other Canadians had done during the last war.

Col. Franklin, during his address, explained why the appeal for recruits was being directed to young, unmarried men between the ages of 19 and 25 at the present time. One reason offered was because they were in better physical condition than the older men and could stand up to the strenuous training a soldier has to undergo. Another reason was that they have less responsibility and could leave their present jobs and vocations much easier than a married man with a family.

During the evening, community singing was led by Mr. Chester Timmins, with Mrs. Wm. Hitsman as pianist; while a solo, "I Am A Canadian," was rendered by Miss Lillian Bruce, with Miss Clara Irving accompanying her on the piano. Selections were also given by the Pipe Band.

Arrangements for the meeting were made by Reeve T. O. Keyes and other members of the Municipal Council, and while the crowd at the hall was somewhat discouraging, Col. Franklin said it was the best meeting he had attended up to that time. He thanked Reeve Keyes and his associates for the assistance they had given in the local recruiting campaign.

United Counties Prepare For 1941 War Loan Campaign---Starts June 2

MR. GEO. CHALLIES, M.L.A. HEADS COMMITTEE FOR DUNDAS COUNTY

Names of regional chairmen and personnel of two committees for the United Counties' 1941 Victory Loan campaign have been announced by S. W. Harris, campaign organizer.

The drive will be under the general chairmanship of F. B. Brownridge, of Cornwal, M. L. A. for Stormont.

The regional chairmen are: for Dundas County, George H. Challies, M. L. A. for Grenville-Dundas; Stormont, W. A. Parisien; Glengarry, E. A. McGillivary, M. L. A. for Glengarry.

The 1941 Victory Loan campaign will be launched June 2nd. The amount and terms of the loan have been announced by Finance Minister Ilsley, who calls for Canadians to loan the government the sum of $600,000,000. The bonds will be issued in $50 denominations and up. The new issue will be the third largest in Canada since the war started. Bonds of this victory loan will be available in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and $1,000 and may be purchased outright or upon easy terms of payment, the minister said.

On Instalment Plan

The instalment plan will enable any purchaser to pay for bonds over a period of six months and, the minister added, "these arrangements will enable every Canadian to give the greatest possible support to this loan."

Mr. Ilsley's statement did not give the interest rate of the loan nor its term and a source closely concerned with the minister's statement said it could be expected that this information would be known before the bonds go on sale.

CHAIRMAN EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

The Editor, Winchester Press:

Dear Sir:—With practically all returns now complete, I am pleased to submit the above report on the results of the recent campaign for the Canadian War Services Fund in Dundas County. When residents of the county study the above report and recollect that the quota set by the Provincial Headquarters was $4,000., I am sure they will have every reason to be proud of the splendid response that has been made to this appeal. Not only was the quota reached, but exceeded by more than 115%—a record which, so far as percentages are concerned, must surely place the county well up among the leaders in the Province.

It will be noted that, of the total amount subscribed, about 78% has been paid in cash or by cheque, leaving but 22% of the pledges to be honoured at later dates in the current year. Billing for these unpaid portions will be made direct from Provincial Headquarters to the subscriber. It might also be advisable to say that, should any of the above figures fail exactly to correspond with those records kept by any of the Vice Chairmen, the slight differences may be attributed to the difficulty experienced in properly allocating the subscriptions to the exact centres in which the canvass was made. As far as is possible, however, the amounts are correctly credited.

The Vice Chairmen in charge of the various county divisions were as follows:

Chesterville and Morewood District—Mr. H. Keith Graham.

Winchester and District—Messrs. E. Helmer and E Summers

Iroquois and Matilda Township—Mr. John W. Marcellus.

Morrisburg—Mr. Fred H. Broder.

Williamsburg Township—Mr. Alfred J. Casselman.

Mountain Township—Mr. D. Leroy Berry.

To each of these Vice Chairmen, to each Team Captain who worked under them, to the many canvassers and helpers in villages and rural districts, to Mr. H. Brown, Chesterville, County Treasurer, I wish to express my personal thanks for the splendid co-operation given during the campaign. All have given freely of time and effort in an attempt successfully to complete the duties outlined for them.

To those who so generously responded in cash and pledges, the deepest expression of gratitude comes not from any canvasser, team captain, vice chairman or chairman, but rather from those on whose behalf and for whose sake the appeal was made. For us to know that we have in some small way contributed to the supplying of comforts and conveniences to those who have gone forth to defend with life itself the cause of freedom and justice and decency, is undoubtedly our greatest source of satisfaction. No sacrifice on our part is too great, no effort too worthy. By way of an illustration, I quote from a letter just received from our Campaign Secretary at Provincial Headquarters, Toronto:

"News from the Auxiliary Services suggests that severe emergency demands will be made upon their services this year. On my desk I have a picture of a friend who was on his way to work with one of the Auxiliary Services, but now is reported missing. We have all worked hard in this campaign—perhaps mentally fatigued and physically tired, but STILL ALIVE."

And therefore, in again thanking Dundas County, may I conclude this report by saying that, so long as we have the privilege of serving by giving, may we continue to do our bit. If we feel we might easily have given more, then let us give it. If we have refused to subscribe anything (and we regret that there are a few cards on which refusals are recorded), may we reconsider and give. Let us KEEP ON GIVING, for WE ARE STILL ALIVE!

P. S. BOYD,
Dundas County Chairman.

Chesterville, Ont., May 13, 1941.

Receives War Souvenir From Son In England

Mr. F. A. Coons has in his possession several pieces of silk cord, which was sent to him by his son, Pte. Gordon Coons, on Active Service with the Canadian Army somewhere in England. The cords were strands of a silk rope, 5-8 inch thick, and were taken from a parachute of a German Land Mine, shortly after it exploded. Gordon, in a letter to his father, said that the mine exploded about half a mile from the camp he was in, and the concussion was so great that it knocked him and several other fellows off their feet, even at that distance. When they rushed to the scene of the explosion a few minutes later, everyone was looking for souvenirs, so Gordon salvaged a piece of the rope which he sent home to his father. The land mines, which are amongst the most devastating bombs, are timed to explode a few seconds after they hit the earth. They do not descend with the force of other bombs, but come down gradually—their fall being broken by the opening of a small parachute shortly after it is released from the plane. The damage they create is reported to be worse than any other type of explosive—especially if they happen to land in the centre of a town or city. One dropped at the intersection of Main and St. Lawrence Streets would probably make a clean sweep of our business section—but here's hoping one never does.

WEDDINGS

WELLS—ERRATT

The United Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 7 o'clock on Thursday evening, when Miss Viola Evelyn Erratt, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Erratt, of the Melvin Settlement, was united in marriage to Mr. Graham Wells, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Durham Wells, of Colquhoun. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. S. Atchison.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a floor-length model of pink satin with quilted bolero jacket, waist-fitted, and full-flared skirt. She carried an arm bouqet of Talisman Rose Buds and Maiden Hair Fern.

Immediately after the signing of the register, Mr. and Mrs. Wells, accompanied by Mr. Morley Erratt, brother of the bride, and Miss Madge Wells, sister of the groom, witnesses at the wedding ceremony, motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding luncheon was served to the immediate relatives.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with Narcissus and Tulips, while the tea table was centred with the bride's wedding cake.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Wells left by motor on a trip to Kingston, Toronto and other western points, the bride travelling in a crepe dress of Air Force blue, navy coat with red trimmings and hat, shoes and gloves in blending tones. On their return they will take up residence on the bridegroom's farm at Colquhoun.

Red Cross Superfluity Sale This Saturday

Local and district citizens are reminded that the Red Cross Superfluity Sale is being held in the town hall this Saturday evening, May 17th, commencing at 7 o'clock. While it is impossible, at the present time, to give a detailed list of the articles to be auctioned, the committee hopes to have a wide variety of goods which will be sold to the highest bidder. If you have anything to donate, get in touch with Mrs. C. R. Robinson or bring your articles to the town hall on Friday or Saturday afternoon of this week. There will be a committee there to receive them. Look around your house now and decide what you can donate to the Red Cross for this Superfluity Sale—anything you care to give will be greatly appreciated. The success of the sale will depend largely on the number of articles donated, so do your part.

The Red Cross needs money to carry on its work and it is hoped that all local and district citizens will plan to attend the Superfluity Sale on Saturday night and take part in the bidding. Tell your friends about it—and be sure and come yourself. There will be plenty of entertainment and you'll enjoy being present. Remember the date —May the 17th, and the place and time —Town Hall, Winchester, at 7 o'clock, Standard Time.

CANADIANS ARE LOYAL—BUT !

Most Canadians are loyal citizens and will not grumble too much about paying new and increased taxes to finance the country's War Effort. They realize that money is required in enormous amounts when a country is at war, and they know that the only method the government has of getting it is by introducing new taxes and by floating War Loans. But, the average Canadian is a thrifty individual—he is only able to pay these increased taxes and save his money for the purchase of War Savings Certificates and investment in War Bonds, by practicing economy and altering his course of living—in many cases to the extent of sacrificing luxuries and personal comforts which are not really necessary to his existence. He does not care how much the government spends so long as the money, he sacrifices to give, is wisely invested by those it is entrusted to. He will, however, give grudgingly if he becomes convinced that the government is not practicing the same program of thrift and economy in spending public funds as he is in contributing to them—that is only human.

There are many evidences today of extravagant spending in the various government departments. There is far too much red tape connected with the government's administration of the Country's War Effort—too many high-salaried officials not earning their salt. There are altogether too many new government jobs being created—soft jobs that could easily be handled by regular government employees, if they were willing to sacrifice a little extra time in the interests of economy. Careless spending should be stopped. Our money should be used for the essential needs of our war program and the maintenance of public services, and not to fatten the purses of government job-seekers. The Federal Government should give this matter much more attention than it is doing—the war is not over and Canadians cannot afford to see their money spent unwisely.

CONSCRIPTION MUST COME !

It is becoming more apparent every day that the only method of recruiting an army and keeping it supplied with reserve man-power is through the channels of Conscription. Voluntary enlistments in Canada at the present time are anything but favourable. During the past few days, recruiting meetings have been held at various centres in this district, and, in most places, little or no interest was taken in the proceedings. Young men, whom it was hoped would attend these meetings, evidently went out of their way to avoid coming in contact with the recruiting officer. Such was not the case during the last war. At Lancaster, we are informed, not a single person entered the hall where the recruiting meeting was scheduled to be held. Other meetings were also lacking in attendance. The one held here on Thursday evening last was considered the best in the Counties—and it was nothing to crow about from the point of attendance. There was a large crowd in town to see the parade, but few attended the meeting in the hall. This lack of interest in recruiting cannot go on indefinitely. Wars are only won by fighting and it takes men and more men to put up a good fight. Canada is in this war and she needs men. How is she going to get them? There is only one answer and that is "Conscription," and the quicker the government realizes that, the better it will be for our War Effort.

THE PRESS AND PROPAGANDA

One of the ever present dangers in the publishing field is the possibility of becoming a propaganda agency for some group or cause. Editors guard carefully against this possibility, and their efforts to be fair sometimes incur the displeasure of those whose propaganda they refuse to propagate. Of course there are two kinds of propaganda—good and bad. The word propaganda has been much abused in the past few years and to the man on the street propaganda now seems to mean exclusively that type of news sent out by the enemy to confuse and confound those who read it.

Propaganda is actually the method adopted for the propagation of doctrines and principles, either religious or secular. If there is such a thing as good propaganda the question naturally arises, why does the newspaper not become a propaganda agency for all propaganda that is good? As a matter of fact the newspaper does become such an agency in a broad sense, but not in just the way that some propagandists would have it. For instance, any religious sect might consider its propaganda good, and therefore entitled to space in the newspaper. An important factor is overlooked however in this reasoning. Propaganda espoused and supported by a newspaper must be of a type generally beneficial to the community as a whole. It would not be fair or ethical to use the propaganda of one church, where there are perhaps half a dozen churches in the same community.

Then, too, there is often confusion in the minds of many people as to what is news and what is propaganda. For instance, an item relating to an actual event which took place in a church, or a lodge, or a service club, would be news. On the other hand, an item which sought to impress the reader with the principles or the doctrine of the organization would be propaganda. In short, propaganda is that type of news matter which seeks to proselytize or convert the reader to one particular code of ethics, principles or doctrine.

The position of the newspaper is clear on this point. The newspaper is representative of the whole community, and while its editor or publisher might be an Anglican, Baptist, Presbyterian, United Churchman, or Roman Catholic, it would not be fair to give undue prominence to the doctrines of the sect to which he personally belongs. News is another matter. If more news comes from the United Church because it has more organizations, or because its press secretaries are more wide awake, then naturally that church would receive more space in the paper than the Anglican or Baptist if those churches were not so well organized or did not possess good press secretaries.

Weekly newspapers depend to a very large extent upon correspondents and press secretaries for news items, and this being the case it is timely to remind correspondents and secretaries that the newspaper is interested primarily in the news, and not in acting as an agency for the dissemination of their principles. This reasoning, however, does not preclude the newspaper drawing attention to any special effort made by any organization or institution within the community.

To sum up the attitude of the press toward propaganda it should be clearly understood that the press is interested in the events concerning organizations, rather than the ethics or principles which attract one to membership in these groups.

THE THINGS THAT MATTER

Prime Minister Menzies of Australia: "All I want to do is to say to myself, as I invite every man in public life all over the British world to say to himself day by day: "Am I so utterly convinced that I must put everything I have into this task, that I will spare no effort, that I will never spare myself in order to have victory?"

"I need not say to you, but I must say it to myself, and repeat it to myself constantly, that nothing else matters except that we should live when this war is over, in a free world, in the kind of world in which we want to live.

"What does it matter if we come out into that world bankrupt? What does it matter if we come out into that world with lower standards of material living than we have now? What does it matter if in that world the rich are not so rich? What does it matter if in the last resort the business of statesmanship in that new world becomes the business of sharing a new and honorable poverty?

"These things do not matter. The only thing that matters to free men is that the policies under which they live shall be the policies that they have themselves devised as the representatives of their own people."

EDITORIAL NOTES

Canadians overseas who like strawberries are going to be out of luck this year, since they are currently selling in London at $8 per pound or at 20 cents apiece as a special concession.

It would seem that if Canada is able to relax her foreign exchange provisions, and if the United States amends the passport law, it would be better for both countries and tend to greater cross-border travel, in both directions.

There are many definitions of Experience, and one we came across the other day seems satisfactory. Experience is not what happens to a man, says a well-known writer, but what a man does with what happens to him.

Don't waste another minute of your time trying to become independent.. It can't be done. A community of people is like a pyramid; the higher you get up in it, the more men and women there must be underneath to keep you there. The more independent you become in one way, the more you increase your dependence in every other direction.

Watching the kiddies swarm around the S. D. & G. Pipe Band last Thursday evening, brought to our memory the story of the "Pied Piper." There's nothing like a parade to attract a crowd, and there's nothing like a Highland Pipe Band to lure the youngsters away from their normal recreations of play. Those big, kiltie-clad Scotsmen were all heroes to the youngsters —and boy, did they like to see that bass-drummer swing his sticks.

"An intelligent victor will, whenever possible, present his demands to the vanquished in instalments. He can then be sure that a nation which has become characterless—and such is every one which voluntarily submits—will no longer find any sufficient reason in each of these detailed oppressions to take to arms once more. The more extortions thus cheerfully accepted, however, the more unjustified does it seem to people finally to set about defending themselves against some new, apparently isolated, although really constantly recurring, oppression."—Adolf Hitler.

Premier Hepburn is ranging himself wholeheartedly behind the Dominion War Loan Campaign which is expected to commence on June 2nd. He declared that the seriousness of the war to Canada cannot be overemphasized and it is the duty of everyone to lend his full support to the raising of money necessary to provide planes, tanks, ships, ammunition, and most important of all, to back up to the limit the efforts of those who are fighting our battle. Mr. Hepburn asks the reeves and mayors of Ontario to issue proclamations urging the public to decorate their homes and offices with flags during the Dominion War Loan Campaign. How about it, Mr. Reeve—Will Winchester fall in line?

DISCREDITED IS RIGHT !

(Carleton Place Canadian)

Now that Lindbergh has resigned as a reserve officer of the United States Army Air Corps, there is nothing to prevent him continuing his work for Hitler and his baby killers. Perhaps he could do more effective work in Germany as he is pretty well discredited on this continent.

IT NEVER WAS BEFORE

(Smiths Falls Record-News)

Last week we predicted in these columns, that conscription in Canada was in the offing. Reports from Ottawa this week show that we were not far wrong in our prophecy. One press despatch from the Capital was headed "Conscription applied to 5,000 Now in Camp." The interrogation that comes to us is: Will this new compulsion be enforced in the province of Quebec?

CANADA'S LEADERSHIP IN THE REAR

(Ottawa Citizen)

It has never been Mr. Mackenzie King's way in politics to lead on the fighting front. It has been politically expedient to keep behind rather than ahead of public opinion. This method paid dividends in party politics. In war, however, the effect of the lag of leadership behind public opinion is to leave the sheep without a shepherd.

HITLER'S TONE CHANGES

(Trenton Courier-Advocate)

Hitler made a speech on Sunday and it was apparent that he has lost a lot of his zip. He called Winston Churchill a lot of names, which reminds us that "whom the gods would destroy, they first make mad." Hitler is just about as mad now as he ever was, and that is saying a lot. However, he is not saying any more that Germany will win the war in 1941. In fact, he is not saying very much of anything. We have Hitler on the run.

THIS IS YOUR PAPER

(Alameda Dispatch, Sask.)

As everybody knows, most of our day-by-day happiness comes from pleasant associations with others. One of the cheery incidents in the newspaper office is to have one say over the phone, or by letter: "I just thought you might be interested in this little event in our district." Such a gesture of thoughtfulness is pleasing. But, alas, there aren't many who take the trouble to jot things down and send them in, or call up on the phone.

IT'S THE TRUTH

(Almonte Gazette)

People who are having a hard time to get along these days will be enraged at the demands of overpaid employes like the railroad running trades, for money —still more money. In Kingston, carpenters who were getting 80 cents an hour, struck for 90 cents an hour. When some of these fellows went to the job they didn't even have a saw or hammer, in the way of equipment, and their experience was slim. A little more attention to the farmer's plight and the small town businessman's plight would be in order. If Hitler wins this war—and it is possible he may—there will be no more strikes on railways, in steel plants or anywhere else.

NOW IS THE TIME TO THINK RIGHT

(Leamington Post & News)

A large contingent of fighting Canadians just landed in Britain, and we aren't being loyal to them, of whom some are our personal friends, if we take a gloomy or hopeless view of the situation.

There is all the difference in the world between acknowledging reverses and howling bloody defeat.

There is all the difference in the world between letting your legs drag and keeping your chin up.

There is all the difference in the world between loyalty and a sort of pink neutrality which seems to be the pose of some people. Only a few, it's true, but talkative.

Winston Churchill remarked recently that there are, after all, only 70,000,000 malignant Huns. We know how much their allies count. And there are over 200,000,000 British people at home and overseas, and Americans pledged against Hitlerism.

Which, shall we say, should be today's thought. And tomorrow's.

We're all together. Let's all pull together. And perhaps it would be just as well if some of us left the major problems of battle strategy and of finance to those who know more than we do, and buckled down to do what we can.

And one thing we can do is—THINK RIGHT !

PROGRESS — AND TEARS

(Brockville Recorder & Times)

Some thousands of people who have lived alongside the St. Lawrence all their lives, as their fathers, grandfathers and great-grandfathers lived there before them, are to be told to get out and move somewhere else (as a result of the Seaways scheme). It is true that compensation is promised them, but what are dollars and cents in comparison with the sacrifices these people are being called upon to make? People who live in security hundreds of miles distant, and who may hope to profit from this undertaking, pooh-pooh the feelings of Dundas county residents, but the people directly concerned, those who have to surrender their most prized possessions, have other feelings and they are entitled to every sympathy.

The fighting forces are keeping at it; so must we, on the home front! Buy more War Savings Certificates now.

The precepts of the law are these: to live correctly, to do an injury to none, and to render every man his own.

Perhaps the world may seem to be getting worse because your standards of what it ought to be are getting better?

It is good counsel to take everything you hear with a pinch of salt, but is it not equally good to say everything with a little bit of sugar?

One of the sights worth stopping and looking at is the automobiles at a busy intersection—especially before you attempt to cross the street!

A press article from Ottawa states that there is "some doubt about the St. Lawrence plan going ahead now." To which we shout Hear ! Hear !

One young lad has come through with a brilliant suggestion for winning the war. Suggests Superman, Popeye, Flash Gordon and Tarzan should be sent overseas. If they live up to past performances the dictators are doomed !

Courtesy is always looking at things and remembering to put their happiness from the other person's point of view, before your own, and not to cause trouble or anxiety to anyone, or being casual and thoughtless.

Wooden shoes, a news despatch states, are becoming popular in Norway because of the leather shortage existing since the German invasion of that country. Perhaps it's the old old game that goes: "Woodenshoe be happy if Great Britain rushed these Huns out of here?"

You are needed NOW! for ACTIVE SERVICE

This is Canada's call to YOU! Men are now wanted to man the guns, tanks, armoured units; all the implements of modern warfare which the factories are producing in mounting volume.

It is a different war this time. When we licked the Hun before, men were recruited here to train in England, to fight in France. Now you are recruited and trained here; then go Overseas to join the stalwarts holding battle positions on the shores of Old England, or wherever the call demands.

The Canadian Active Army requires men for Artillery, Engineers, Signals, Armoured Cars, Tanks, Infantry, Transport and Supply, Medical, Ordnance and other branches of the Service. The Army is prepared to teach many trades, and to train you to efficiently handle Canada's weapons of war.

Go to your nearest District Recruiting Office. Find out about these Units; how they work, what they do. See just where you'll fit in. See where any particular skill you possess can best be utilized. Then join up for ACTION.

APRIL WAS SECOND DRIEST MONTH ON "FARM" RECORDS

Unusually dry and warm weather prevailed during the month of April, according to meteorological records at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa. April this year was the second driest and the third warmest month on record, with an abnormal abundance of sunshine.

The total precipitation recorded last month was only .77 of an inch of rain, no snow being recorded. The long time average rainfall is 2.03 inches and 3.41 inches of snowfall. The driest April on record was in 1898, when .55 of an inch of rain and two inches of snow fell, a total precipitation of .75 of an inch.

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR THE FARMER

1. Thou shalt pay thy taxes.
2. Thou shalt be thankful for small mercies.
3. Thou shalt produce more and take less.
4. Thou shalt uphold thy politics in all their crookedness.
5. Thou shalt wear old raiment and save it for thy children.
6. Thou shalt take no holidays.
7. Thou shalt use no luxuries.
8. Thou shalt not pay tax for fresh air.
9. Thou shalt vote without conscience.
10. Thou shalt work long hours, be frugal and die before old age pension age limit.

A CHILD'S TRIBUTE

Does the sun still shine on London,
Now such damage has been done?
Do the flowers look up smiling
Near the holes made by the Hun?

Aren't there dark clouds overhanging
Those dear old cobbled streets?
Is the Thames still flowing onward,
'Til the great North Sea it meets?

Are the children always laughing,
As they did some years ago,
Before this tyrant's coming
And the marching of the foe?

There are not so many children
But there's laughter just the same;
Theres' still that British spirit
In the sunshine and the rain.

Flowers will keep on growing, though
The clouds will come again;
So "Thumbs up" for dear Old England
'Til peace comes again to reign.

Yes, the sun still shines on London,
And will always—till she's gone;
But "There'll Always be an England,"—
So the sun shines on and on.

Ann Lindsay (14 years old).

IN LIGHTER VEIN

Lady Customer: I see this medicine is advertised as good for man or beast.

Druggist: Yes.

Lady Customer: Gimme a bottle. Maybe that's just the right combination to cure my husband.

A collier's wife, wishing to appear in the fashion during a holiday by the sea, decided to buy something up to date.

She entered a local shop, and the young assistant who served her was astounded at the following request: "A want a nighty wi' legs on."

"Of course, I want my daughter to have some kind of artistic education. I think I'll let her study singing."

"Why not art or literature?"

"Art spoils canvas and literature wastes reams of paper. Singing merely produces a temporory disturbance of the atmosphere!"

Jones had officiated at the opening of a flower show. In the morning paper he read as follows:

"As Mr. Jones mounted the stage all eyes were fixed on the large red nose he displayed. Only years of patient cultivation could have produced an object of such brilliance."

Mother's Day Services Held In Local Churches

With the Junior Choir assisting in the service, Mother's Day was fittingly observed at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning. Choosing "Mother," as the theme for his sermon, the pastor, Mr. A. L. MacKay, took his text from John 2:5: "His mother saith to the servants whatsoever He saith unto you, do it." The pastor paid a high tribute to mothers in general, and spoke of understanding and purity of Mary, the mother of Jesus. While we do not give her the same place in our religion as the Roman Catholics do, nevertheless we honour her. Mothers, all down through the ages,, have been the greatest force in moulding the lives of individuals. Men, who have accomplished great things in this world, owe the foundation of their success to the early training received from their mother. It was from her they first learned of God—learned their first prayer—were told about the church and the ideals of Christianity. A mother's love is second only to the love of God, said the pastor. A God who can place within a woman, a heart that reveals the undying love of a true mother, is surely a God of love. Mothers may differ in stature and personality, but they all have one thing in common and that is the love for their children. Mr. MacKay urged all to respect and honour their mother, not only on Mother's Day, but at all times. He also reminded mothers that they could accomplish much by instructing their children to attend church and take a deeper interest in Christianity. The fate of a nation is largely in the hands of the mothers, he said, and it is their task to shape its destinies by instilling in the minds of their children all that is good and pure in God's eyes.

During the service, two appropriate readings were given, one entitled "Mother," by Miss Lorna Workman, and the other entitled "My Mother," by Miss Ruth Churchill.

Under the direction of Mrs. Walter Moffat and Miss Clara Irving, Organist, the Junior Choir rendered two special numbers. In the one selection, "Let's Wear a Flower Today," Miss Marguerite Murdock was the soloist, while in the other number, "I'll Wear a Flower For Mother's Sake," Miss Lorna Workman took the solo parts and Miss Sybil Empey and Miss Mona Robertson, duet parts.

Included among the baskets of flowers which adorned the front of the church, was one from Miss Mary Empey, in memory of her mother.

Moderator Speaks.

At the evening service there was a large attendance, with many visitors present, when Rt. Rev. Dr. Wm. Barclay, M. A., D. D., Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, delivered the address. He was introduced by the pastor, Mr. MacKay, and was assisted during the service by Rev. Mr. Revie, of South Mountain, and Rev. Mr. McKenzie, of Chesterville. Dr. Barclay's sermon was entitled "The Price We Pay," his text being taken from Job 5:7, "Yet man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward." From this text, the Moderator pointed how people sometimes bring trouble on themselves by playing heroic roles in this life. Those who accept responsibility for the benefit of their fellowmen sometimes work under such strain that their health becomes impaired and they get into trouble. He classed such people as heroes. They were making sacrifices unselfishly, said the Moderator. He urged all Presbyterians to work for the extension of the church and God's Kingdom, and stated that the need for this service was greater today than ever. All may not be able to give of their money for this purpose, he said, but all can give service.

A full choir occupied the choir loft and rendered the anthem, "Praise Ye The Lord," by Gounod, while Mesdames Hugh Wilson, Colin Hay, George Wilson and Walter Moffat were heard in a quartette, when they sang a special arrangement of "Jesus Lover of My Soul."

THE UNITED CHURCH

The United Church on Sunday morning presented an inspiring sight with its pews well filled with parents and children, and the choir gallery occupied by 24 girls and boys, with Mrs. Scobie at the organ. Besides leading the congregation in the singing of the hymns in the order of service, the Junior Choir contributed 3 special numbers: "Love at Home," was sung by all; "When Mother Prayed," was a quartette by Doris Armstrong, Marion Helmer, Irma O'Neil and Betty Stewart. These were all enjoyed greatly. The front of the church was prettily decorated with spring blooms, in pink and green.

An interesting feature of the service was the baptism by Rev. W. S. Atchison, of the following babies, Shirley Bethea Fawcett, Barbara Ann McVey, Thomas Allan Wylie, Wallace Gary Cinnamon, and Lloyd Douglas Guy.

For the Order of Service, the topic of which was Christian Homes, Mr. Eldon Fennell, the S. S. Supt., presided. Two Bible passages. Matt. 20: 20-23, and John 19:25-27 were read by Bobbie Graham. A story on Mother Love entitled "The Quest," was well told by Patti Cass, whose closing words were: "In all the world I find no more beautiful thing than mother love."

A scene in the life of Timothy was depicted by Mrs. Nesbitt, who represented his grandmother Lois; Miss Laura Dukelow, representing his mother, Eunice, and James Carlyle as Timothy.

Following this, Rev. W. S. Atchison gave an excellent talk on the Christian Home and its wonderful influence, making reference to the beautiful homes of a few of our great men and women—David Livingstone, Frances Willard, Sir Wilfred Grenfell, Florence Nightingale and Helen Keller. He showed that everything depends on the life of the home. At the evening service Rev. W. S. Atchison gave a great message of encouragement from the story of Elijah and the juniper tree as told in I Kings, 19. He said all have dark and troubled days, seasons of sorrow, despair and disappointment. We ask "What shall we do in the face of present day circumstances?" We need to lean upon this promise of God. "Lo, I am with thee always." The presence of God gives hope.

The Senior Choir sang "Mother's Bible," with good effect. A duet by Mrs. E. Steele and Mrs. S. Lindsay was well received. It was entitled: "Mother's Prayers will follow you."

WHEN BUYING A CHICKEN

Press the end of the breast bones to see if a fowl is young. If the breast bone is flabby and soft the bird will be lovely for frying, grilling or roasting. If the breast bone is broken, have nothing to do with the bird and be careful of the poulterer who tried to sell, too. If the bone is hard, the bird is suitable for boiling. but in this case always choose a white fowl with white legs, they are far the best for boiling.

CANADA CALLS

Canada has reason to count her blessings in these days of trial.

Canada is three thousand miles away from the sound of guns which are devastating Europe.

The broad Atlantic Ocean rolls between us and the ruthless savagery of the German Armies.

The strongest fleets in the world — British, American and Canadian—patrol the sea between us and the enemy.

We have a great friendly nation, probably the richest and most powerful in the world, at our side.

CANADA CAN AFFORD HER SACRIFICES

This war is a mechanized war.

We have the nickel . . . copper . . . lead . . . zinc and other metals the war industries need. We have access to the iron. We can make the steel.

We have the organized industries to fabricate these metals and make the trucks, and tanks, and guns, and planes, and the ships.

We have skilled workers and the plants for mass production. Canada has the wheat and the food supplies.

Let us count our blessings, and tighten our belts.

Canada is rich—one of the richest countries per head of population in the world. Let us lend our strength to the utmost of our power. Our national future depends upon Victory.

We must win to live.

THERE WILL BE FURTHER CALLS

There have been many calls upon the people of this country for money since Canada entered the war at the side of Great Britain.

There will be further calls.

Let us face the future unafraid.

Canada can carry the load.

But every Canadian must shoulder his and her share.

This is the most critical hour in our history. Let the future historians say of Canada, as they will say of our Mother Country: "This was their finest hour."

A Classic Modernized

(With Apologies to the Author of "The Shooting of Dan McGrew.")

A bunch of the boys were whooping it up in the Kiserhof Hotel,
Hitler and Himmler, the Gestapo Chief, were paving the road to hell.
Back of the bar with his medals on, was Goering, that hunk of cheese,
While poor old Hess in an awful mess, was searching himself for fleas.

When out of the air raid shelter below, and into the din and the blare,
There stumbled a little rabbit-toothed man, named Goebbels, with greasy black hair.
He looked like a man with a foot in the grave, and he certainly looked like a louse,
As he Heiled old Adolph several times, and started to lie to the house.

Herr Ribbentrop collared him right away, and asked him, "Vat is der news?"
"Der Britons is starving," Goebbels replied, "and der Yankees quake in dere shoes."
Then Hitler spoke up, "Iss dat the truth?" and Goebbels replied with a grin,
"You know darn well how we fool the troops, it doesn't mean a thing."

Then all of a sudden the lights went out, and outside was heard a roar,
The lights went on and who do you think was standing at the door?
It was Benny the Duce, the Dago's pride, and stupid as a mule,
While clutching his hand was his son-in-law, Ciano the simpering fool.

Benny turned round, and his eyes grew dim, and then he started to cry,
"Oh, Adolph, ain't the British beat—if not, oh why, oh why?
You promised me over three months ago, you'd be in Britain by now,
But you've let me down and my poor darn troops are getting short of chow.

Their water is low, and the British Fleet, you promised to annihilate,
Are keeping supplies from my Libyan troops, act now, or 'twill be too late"
Hitler looked sheepish and hung his head, then stammered and started to swear,
"The blame's on Goering, that hunk of cheese. He promised to clear the air."

Then Georing stumbled across the room with a clank that all could hear,
He looked at Hitler and Mussey the Duce, and his face went green with fear.
"Herr Ribbentrop told me," he spluttered out, the British were awful crummy,
But the way they chase my bombers away, it isn't even funny;
Der R. A. F. my number's got. It's a thing I can't deny,
We'd make a hit if our navy were fit, and would only just stand by."

But Raeder turned, and his cheeks they burned, and he spoke and his voice was grim;
"Der British Fleet won't let me out, and I can't ask my men to swim;
I've destroyed a lot of refugees, and scuttled a ship or two,
I've done as much as Von Tirpitz did, vat more do you vant me to do?

The bickering suddenly died away, then it burst like a pent-up flood,
And Hitler screamed, "Mien Gott, we're beat," and his lips were flecked with blood
He stumbled and staggered across the room, then fell in a heap on the floor,
As a string of bombs from the R. A. F. burst just outside the door.

Those are the simple facts of the case—and strictly between you and I,
To conquer the world, you've the British to beat, so you needn't even try.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

Dried Glue.

Add a few drops of glycerine to the dried glue, and it will be usable again.

Garden Stakes.

Nothing is better for flower and vegetable garden stakes than the steel ribs of an old umbrella. They will last for several seasons.

Substitute Shoe Polish.

The majority of furniture polishes can be used for cleaning patent leather shoes.

Paint Removal.

Equal parts of ammonia and turpentine will remove paint from cloth, and for removing stains from bathroom fixtures use a cloth dampened with kerosene.

Storing Furs.

When storing furs, buy ten cents' worth of twist tobacco, sprinkle it over the furs and then wrap them in newspaper. It will not retain the odor as much as moth balls.

After Unpacking.

If the silk dresses are mussed and wrinkled from packing, hang them over a bath tub of hot water for an hour or so, and see if they will not be quite freshened and free from wrinkles.

Grease Spots.

Grease spots can be removed from rugs or over-stuffed furniture by rubbing baking soda liberally into the spot. Allow to dry. Then remove the baking soda with the vacuum cleaner or carpet sweeper.

Metal Polish.

An effective polish for metals can be made by using 1 cup of cigar ashes mixed with 2 tablespoonfuls of bicarbonate of soda, brought to a smooth paste with water. Use on a clean cloth, rubbing vigorously.

Unpleasant Job.

When the frying pan has been used for onions or fish and you do not relish cleaning it, soak it during the meal with a strong solution of ammonia and water. This will take away the odor, and the pan will wash readily.

Laundering Curtains.

It is a good idea to add a little starch to the rinsing water used on curtains; this will make the curtains easier to iron. When rinsed in slightly starched water, curtains will also stay in place better and soil less easily.

Appetizing Dish.

A noodle cheese rink filled with creamed shrimps makes a delicious dish for the bridge club luncheon. This, combined with an attractive fruit or vegetable salad, light dessert, and plenty of coffee, will afford an ample menu, not hard to prepare.

To Clean Gold Chains.

Put the gold chain into a small glass bottle with warm water, some pulverized chalk, and a little grated castile soap. Cork the bottle and shake vigorously. Rinse in clear cold water, wipe on a towel, and the polish will be surprising.

UNITED W. M. S.

The May meeting was held on Thursday afternoon last in the S. S. Hall, with the President, Mrs. Wm. Steele, in the chair. After the opening hymns were sung, a Bible questionnaire on Mothers was conducted by the President, followed by a period of silent prayer, then the Lord's Prayer and National Anthem.

After reading the minutes, among other business taken up was the voting of $1.50 to help pay the freight on supplies sent to the Lachine Children's Home in Montreal. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the June meeting when a family gathering of our missionary organizations is held.

Miss Mae Rose gave some very interesting items about the recent meeting of the Presbyterial held in Kemptville. The study for the month was "The Surgeon of the Skeena," Dr. Wrinch, who spent many years as a missionary among the Indians of B. C. A resume of his life and work was given by Mrs. Thos. Annable. The building of a hospital, which was completed in 1904, at Hazelton, B. C. was described by Mrs. E. Fennell. It was the first building of that size erected in that district. She also told of a Methodist Church being erected in Hazelton under the direction of Dr. Wrinch who occupied the pulpit. He was also a member of the Legislature of B. C. from 1924 to 1933, and made a fine contribution to Agriculture. In closing Miss Rose told of his great influence on the lives of the Indians, and of his great spirituality.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. W. Steele. Mrs. E. Steele was the pianist for the meeting.

Defence Minister Ralston declares that men and money are the most pressing needs of the moment. And Canada will furnish both.

outside France," Miss Bouchard said of his subsequent work in Africa. "He feels that he is burdened with a responsibility much bigger than himself, in keeping intact this bit of French soil, because the French Empire is not the possession of either Vichy or De Gaulle. It belongs to eternal France. The organization of the naval bases of the French equatorial African empire is all to the glory of the commandant, who in a short time has founded a force which is now very active and strong.....

"To us French-Canadians, who have listened to him, and wanted to understand him, he has shown us how greatly thankful we should be to live in a free country, has shown us the great possibility to develop a deeper unity with the English, and strengthened us to fight to the end."

"With the written word more powerful today than ever before in aiding millions of people in the acceptance or rejection of current ideas, "literature and those who produce it are not luxuries in war-time," Margaret E. Barnard said in her presidential address at the annual meeting. Mrs. Barnard was re-elected president for the forthcoming year.

"More than ever it is necessary for writers to see clearly, think honestly and record and interpret unselfconsciously. Dorothy Thompson has said recently that people are looking for leadership," Mrs. Barnard recalled. "They will need it desperately in the postwar world. They will expect some of it, at least, from those who write."
