Parade to light up village on Saturday

Registration for 11th annual event nears 40 floats

WINCHESTER — Warm up the apple cider and hang the Christmas lights, because the 11th annual Country Christmas Parade of Lights will light up Winchester on schedule this Saturday evening.

Registrar Sandra Cheney reported that 37 floats had registered as of the final pre-parade committee meeting on Tues., Nov. 27. She said that several other calls indicated more entries may join the procession on parade day — Sat., Dec. 1.

"Anyone wanting to be in the parade come and see me at the yard," said float organizer Bruce Currie. "I will be at the yard (behind the Dundas County Food Bank building on St. Lawrence Street) all afternoon and will help register the late ones."

Currie suggested that the last-minute additions arrive at least one hour (5 pm) before the 6 pm start time.

Cheney noted that the 37 entries matches the total reached last year.

"Most people I have talked to felt that the parade was just about the perfect length," she said about last year's procession.

The committee went over its check list on Tuesday and felt everything was in place for another successful event.

"We have a beginning (parade marshall Christina Campbell), a middle (four bands and at least 37 floats), and an end (Santa), so it looks like we have a parade," offered former chairperson Sandi Puddephatt.

Emergency access

OPP community services officer Const. Peter Robertson advised anyone needing access to Winchester District Memorial Hospital on parade day (between 6 and 10 pm) is asked to approach from St. Lawrence Street South and enter the hospital via May or York Streets. Police will be stationed at those locations to assist with traffic control.

"Please identify your needs to the police and they will assist in your timely arrival at the hospital," said Robertson.

Visitors are reminded that there won't be any access to Main Street after 5:30 pm.

The parade will leave the old hydro yard via Henderson Crescent and Louise Street at 6 pm. It will follow the traditional route to York, north on Albert, and west on Main.

New this year

A vendor fair will be held in the upstairs hall at the Winchester Arena from 10:30 am until 2:30 pm. There will be local artisans displaying their wares — everything from woodworking to homemade food and crafts.

"We have 20 vendors coming. It just keeps getting bigger," organizer Meaghan Elder told the committee.

Hospital to host forum

WINCHESTER — Area residents and business owners are invited to attend a "meet the contractor and consultants" forum on Thurs., Dec. 6 from 3:30 to 4:30 pm upstairs at the Winchester Arena.

The forum will provide community members the opportunity to meet the key players associated with the capital development project at Winchester District Memorial Hospital.

Members of the project team — including the architects, consultants, and contractor (PCL Constructors Canada Inc.) — will be in attendance to discuss the various stages of the project. They will describe work underway, and discuss what affect, if any, the construction might have on hospital users, visitors, and neighbours. All are welcome to attend.

Slip slidin' away

SD&G OPP were called to the scene of a single vehicle accident on the morning of Thurs., Nov. 22. Slippery conditions caused this school bus to leave the road and enter the ditch on Boyne Road east of Winchester. The bus was not carrying any students at the time of the accident, and there were no injuries reported. Above, a milk truck cautiously manoeuvred around the accident scene. The first snow storm of the year caused many similar mishaps throughout the area — OPP officers responded to 107 snow-related calls for collisions, accidents, and broken down vehicles across SD&G.

Highlanders propose commemorative highway

CORNWALL — The Regimental Foundation of the Stormont, Dundas, and Glengarry Highlanders will approach Counties Council to designate County Road 43 as a commemorative highway for the SD&G Highlanders.

The Glen's Honourary Colonel, Lieut. Col. (Retired) Bill Shearing proposed the action at the fall meeting of the regiment's foundation. Shearing had visited Prince Edward County and noticed that County Road 62 had been designated as a commemorative highway for the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment. Highway 416 and the Trenton to Toronto section of Highway 401 are both designated as veteran memorial highways.

The Regimental Foundation agreed that dedicating County Road 43 would be a way to remind travellers of the contributions made by those who have served and continue to serve Canada as members of the Highlanders.

The roots of the Highlanders include service in the War of 1812, the Rebellions of 1837 and 1838, the Battle of the Windmill, the Fenian Raids, the Northwest Rebellion, the Boer War, and the First World War. In the Second World War, 3,342 men served overseas as members of the First Battalion of the SD&G Highlanders of whom 278 were killed and 781 wounded. At home, the Second Battalion provided an entry point for men in all services. The Third Battalion served as part of the Canadian Occupation Force in Germany.

Since then Glens have volunteered for service in Korea and a number of Canada's peacekeeping missions. They have been part of the Canadian contingent in Afghanistan, where more will serve there in 2008.

Making County Road 43 a commemorative highway would remind people of the contributions that many have made, according to Shearing

Council notes from South Dundas

TOWNSHIP OF SOUTH DUNDAS

No maintenance for McInnis

WILLIAMSBURG — Public works manager Hugh Garlough was looking for direction from South Dundas council regarding a property owner's request for roadside maintenance at the Tues., Nov. 20 meeting.

"We don't have a policy — it's allowed under the direction of council," Garlough said regarding the 1.07 kilometres on McInnis Road, where the landowners would like to see brush cutting, stump removal, ditching, and two new entrances to the field.

The project was not included in the 2007 public works budget, and would cost about $25,000.

"We have enough roads that are over-maintained," said councillor Steve Byvelds. "I wouldn't recommend doing anything to McInnis Road."

Other council members agreed.

"It doesn't make much sense to me," said councillor Del Jones. With a unanimous "no" vote, staff was directed not to pursue the maintenance.

Runnalls to sit on SNC board

Council supported the appointment of North Dundas Mayor Alvin Runnalls to the South Nation Conservation board of directors.

The appointment follows Claude Cousineau's resignation from the board. Cousineau was elected to serve on the authority's Source Water Protection Committee and is therefore not allowed to serve on the board of directors.

"I questioned some of the antics involved," said Byvelds about the situation, noting that Runnalls had run for the position previously.

Beaver bungle

"It's been a long process," said planning and enforcement manager Don Lewis with regard to addressing the high water level in Hoasic Creek because of beaver dams. "My mandate, still, is to alleviate some of the water by the end of the year."

Lewis has inspected the creek to record blockage areas, and is creating a report that will include recommendations on how to proceed.

Water plant levy

Treasurer Lorna Seibert reported to council that 75 township resident have paid the $2,000 flat fee up front for capital repayment of the Morrisburg-Iroquois Water Plant. Another 25 have agreed to pay the sum over five years. Township residents have until Dec. 31 to decide how they will pay.

Counties chips in $50,000

Barkley updated council members on what occurred at the United Counties of SD&G meeting on Mon., Nov. 19, and noted that Counties council has agreed to chip in $50,000 to help recruit two doctors to South Dundas. The money will be used to round out the province's $15,000 for international doctors not practising in Northern Ontario. It is on top of South Dundas' $40,000 over four years for each physician, which is in general matched fully by the province, except in the case of international doctors.

Also, Counties council will spend $1 million to buy a fleet of machinery — four tractors and equipment — for mowing, so that the task will not be contracted out in the future.

"The idea is, they'll have more control over it," Barkley said. "I disagree with it, but anyways. It's going to be quite the undertaking — they've got an elaborate scheme worked out."

Four part-time Counties employees will be moved up to full-time, as well.

Plan strategically for the inevitable experts tell workshop participants

by Bonnie James
Press staff

WINCHESTER — A workshop at the Nor-Dun Seniors' Support Centre in Winchester on Fri., Nov. 23 called "Don't be caught unprepared" brought together three different professional — a financial advisor, a lawyer, and a funeral director — to discuss planning for death.

"As I make funeral arrangements, I'm finding families need to know more and more," said Jim Daniels of Daniels Funeral Chapels Inc. in Winchester about why he wanted to organize the workshop. "We (funeral directors, lawyers, financial experts) all touch in one way or another. It's good to pre-plan the whole thing."

The first topic discussed was estate planning.

"There are costs associated with dying," said Bruce Bartleman, an estate and trust advisor with RBC Investments, adding that estate planning can help things go smoothly after you die. "It minimizes the burden on your beneficiaries."

He explained that the most important things to do when preparing an estate plan are to determine your objectives, take an inventory of your assets, prepare a list of family members and beneficiaries, prepare a will, and select an estate executor or executors.

"It ain't much fun and it's a big job," he said about being an executor, noting people should carefully consider to whom they assign the task. He suggested asking if the potential executors are conveniently located, capable, have the time, are impartial, and will be committed to getting the job done.

He also pointed out that it is possible to assign a corporate executor or that an assigned executor can hire a company to help with some duties.

Bartleman then highlighted assigning powers of attorney.

"I believe it's so, so, so important," he said. "At least as important as a will."

Lawyer Leslie Ault also spoke about powers of attorney, noting there are two — one for financial matters and one for personal care. Once assigned, they will have the power to make decisions when you become unable.

"When you (appoint) that power of attorney, don't keep it a secret," stressed Ault, noting that it should be discussed with family, your doctor, and any other important contacts. "And tell them — the people you have chosen."

Pre-planning workshop team

Professionals from three different areas — financial planning, funeral arrangements, and law — presented a workshop on pre-planning for your death at the Nor-Dun Seniors' Centre in Winchester on Fri., Nov. 23. Pictured are: RBC Winchester branch manager Brent Towers (left), RBC estate and trust advisor Bruce Bartleman, Daniels Funeral Chapels owner Jim Daniels, RBC representative Lorrie Munro, lawyer Leslie Ault, and RBC representative Colin Pring (front). Press Photo — James

Ault conveyed her thoughts on the importance of having a will, and suggested to workshop participants that they should check to make sure their will is up-to-date.

"What happens when you don't have a will is the law takes over," she said, explaining the law has a strict hierarchy for distributing assets — generally spouse, children, and then parents. "This may not have been your plan at all."

While she noted many people are concerned about the cost associated with probate (getting court approval of the will), she said some taxes are a much bigger concern.

"Capital gains (taxes) can be extraordinarily expensive," she said.

Daniels spoke about finances as they pertain to funerals and explained the process and benefits of pre-planning and pre-paying for a funeral.

"The money invested in a pre-paid funeral is not taxable," he said, noting that the money is placed into a registered GIC and that the interest generated usually covers inflation to funeral costs over time. "You can transfer it to any other funeral home at any time — because it's your money. It's cancellable and refundable."

He pointed out that pre-arranging funeral details ahead of time can save your loved ones making difficult decisions they may not be sure about, such as burial versus cremation, or open versus closed casket.

He said there are many things to consider including the laws around cremation and the scattering of ashes and the potential for multi-use graveplots.

The presenters all stressed that it is important to talk about and plan for the details associated with death, both with the family and friends involved and the professionals involved.

"That's why we're here today, to encourage you to do that," said Bartleman.

Daniels, who helped organize the event, said he considered it to be a success, noting that between the workshop in Winchester and one on Tues., Nov. 20 in Chesterville about 100 people took part.

"We handed out evaluation forms and they've all come back very positive," he said.

Daniels explained that there will be another information session in the spring.

Foodgrains bank to meet in Morrisburg

MORRISBURG — The Canadian Foodgrains Bank (CFGB) is holding its regional autumn meeting at Morrisburg Pentecostal Tabernacle tomorrow (Thurs., Nov. 29) at 7 pm. The guest speaker is Joshua Mukusya, a rural development worker from Kenya. He will explain how the people of rural Africa are trying to cope with climate change — a problem for which the developed world is largely responsible. What solutions can Africans offer? How can Canadians help?

Many churches and farmers in this area are involved in "growing projects" for CFGB development work. The meeting is a chance for anyone interested in third world development issues to hear directly from a worker from the heart of Africa.

The CFGB is a truly ecumenical Christian organization. In 2007 the Roman Catholic church and the Anglican church joined 13 other denominations to make the CFGB a Canada-wide Christian effort. Each year, the CFGB raises about $7 million in resources — part as cash, part as grain from growing projects. In co-operation with the Canadian International Development Agency, those funds are used to provide about $23 million in actual development assistance to third world people.

Source water committee named, has mandate to create protection

CORNWALL — The Raisin-South Nation Source Protection Committee (SPC) members were officially appointed last week. Under the province's Clean Water Act, the 16-member committee is responsible for developing protection plans to help eliminate or mitigate risks to the sources of municipal drinking water.

"This is a really strong collection of local knowledge, which will lend itself to good source protection planning," said Raisin-South Nation SPC chair Claude Cousineau about the committee. The Morewood resident was appointed in August by the minister of environment.

The committee includes municipal representatives Norm Levac (Cornwall), Chris McDonnell (SD&G), Mary McQuaig (Prescott-Russell), Darcy Alkerton (Leeds Grenville), and Clive Doucet (Ottawa).

> "Strong collection of local knowledge..."

The sector representatives are Shawn McRae, Bill Smirle, and Brian Powell (all for agriculture); Blair Walker (aggregates); and Margaret Taylor (commercial-industrial).

The other committee members are Denis Perrault (CWC), Ray Beauregard (EOWRC), Walter Oeggerli (SLRRC), Tom Van Dusen (general public), and Don Munroe (general public).

The committee has five years to create source water protection plans for the Nation and Raisin River watersheds. The committee is scheduled to present a preliminary plan in August 2008.

The SPC will host public meetings in the new year.

Pre-planning a good idea

Death is not a nice thing to think about, but planning for your own demise makes a lot of sense. While most people don't expect to die anytime soon, death is inevitable. Deciding what you want to happen at your funeral and with your estate can help loved ones who are left behind.

This was the sensible message presented at a workshop in Winchester last week sponsored by Daniels Funeral Chapels and the Royal Bank. The workshop was a good idea and hopefully got those in attendance thinking about their final wishes.

Even if you don't pre-plan your funeral, at least talk about your ideas with your family, so they will know whether you favour burial or cremation, whether you want an open or closed casket, or whether you prefer tears or beers to flow.

Making decisions about funeral arrangements, care of minor children, or financial matters in the wake of a family member's death will not be an easy task. At least if those left to make the decisions have an idea what you would have wanted, the process will be simpler.

The workshop attracted mainly senior citizens. Those who have yet to see wrinkles or grey hair appear may think this little spiel doesn't apply to them, but it does.

No matter what your age, you can make your thoughts about being an organ donor clear to your family. If you're old enough, sign an organ donor card, if not, tell your family what you think.

If you have children, plan for their future if something should happen to you.

And you know what? Spending some time thinking about death can make you appreciate all the little nuances of your life a little more — something that is always worthwhile.

Child poverty in Canada a shame

Campaign 2000 released its annual report on child poverty in Canada this week and the results are disturbing. The report notes that in 1989 the House of Commons unanimously agreed to work toward ending child poverty. Eighteen years later in 2005, the statistics remained the same. One in eight or 11.7 per cent of children in this country live in poverty, despite a 50 per cent increase in the size of the economy.

Because statistics can be bent in so many ways to paint different pictures, we can only take the broadest of messages away from this type of report. That message is we're not doing enough to improve the situation of children in this country.

It's not that people aren't working. The report says 41 per cent of all low-income children in 2005 lived in families where there was at least one person with a full-time, year-round job.

This is the same message we are hearing from our local food banks. The working poor are just that — poor. Even though they have jobs, they are using food banks more frequently and struggling with higher costs of living.

It's not to say that our government isn't doing anything. Programs such as the GST credit, the Canada Child Tax Benefit, and Employment Insurance play an important role in preventing child and family poverty. The report suggests that if it weren't for these types of programs, the child poverty rate would have been a third higher in 2005.

However, we've got to find a way to do better. As a society, we can be judged on how we take care of those who can not take care of themselves. Children certainly fall into that category.

As we enter the holiday season, which is one of both giving and over-indulgence, spare some cash for the children in this country — and in this county — who are living in poverty. At the very least keep them in your thoughts.

The Winchester Public School walk-a-thon took place on Fri., Oct. 12 and raised $4,365.61, which will be put toward subsidizing bus costs for field trips and funding drama and music presentations for the students. The top fundraiser from each grade was treated to a ride in a stretch SUV-limo to Morrisburg for lunch at Subway on Wed., Nov. 14. Top fundraisers were: Grade 6 student Dylan Kelly (top), Kindergarten students Alexis Sharpley (middle, left) and Ben Weber, Grade 3 student Matthew Helmer (front, left), Grade 1 student Madison Shouldice, Grade 5 student Jarett Cutler, Grade 2 student Samantha Benoit, Grade 4 student Sarah Vanscoy, and chaperons — principal Dawn Bouchard and administrative assistant Marie Shelp. ## Remember when...

1957

About 1,400 youngsters gave Santa Claus an overwhelming ovation on his annual pre-Christmas visit to Winchester. Because of heavy rain, the parade was re-routed to finish at the Community Centre where the crowds gathered to greet the jolly old elf.

The official opening of the modern Morrisburg Shopping Centre and the relocation of the last 525 houses were significant steps toward completion of Ontario Hydro's rehabilitation program in the areas affected by the building of the St. Lawrence Seaway Power Project.

1967

Brian MacFarlane, formerly a hockey star with Lloyd LaPorte's Inkerman Rockets, came back into the limelight as a television sports personality. Winchester area residents watched eagerly every Saturday night when MacFarlane took part as a commentator on Hockey Night in Canada. It was a big year for the former athlete, who also released his book, Fifty Years of Hockey in Canada.

1977

Despite previous objections by neighbouring residents, Winchester Village council decided to uphold its approval of a building permit for a restaurant in the former Duncan building. A delegation of objectors based their argument on the zoning by-law — the property had previously been a craft shop.

Bruce Jones blocked a total of 21 third-period attempts and back-stopped the Winchester Junior "B" Hawks to a fifth consecutive victory when they trounced the Prescott Saints 4-0. The game was also the first time Jones was back on the ice following a battle with mononucleosis, which was believed to be the blame for the Hawks' 10-4 loss in the first game of the season.

Nathan Svenson was the slave Pseudolus in North Dundas District High School's production of A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum in 1997. Here, the Geminis (Natasha Penney and Amanda Walker) vie for his attention. The production included a cast of 27 students and over 100 others helping out behind the scenes.

1987

It was announced that the cheese plant in Winchester was getting a $1.75 million facelift. The construction would add 3,750 square feet to the plant, and expand the cold pack department, which manufactured specialty cheeses. The plant — celebrating its 10th anniversary — would also be furnished with state-of-the-art equipment.

1997

In the Press's "Letters to Santa Claus" section, Winchester resident Kira McClenahan wrote: "I would like the new Spice Girls CD and the Aqua tape. I hope I'm not asking too much, but I would like one more thing — a hamster. That's all"

Fearfully, wonderfully made

Shepherd Talk

by Carol Heymans, Harmony Community Church

HARMONY — Psalm 139:14 reads, "I praise You because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Your works are wonderful, I know that full well."

Genesis 5:1 and 2 reads, "This is the written account of Adam's line. When God created man, he made him in the likeness of God. He created them male and female and blessed them. And when they were created, he called them 'man.'"

These two pieces of scripture tell us that we have been made in the likeness of God; created in His image. Why, then, do we try to make others be like us? We try to make people conform to our way of thinking, our ideas and ideals. We resist change and different opinions over and over again, even rejecting ideas that are not in line with our own way of thinking. Why?

My theory is that we are close minded, selfish, arrogant... and fearful. Yes, fearful. We are afraid of change; afraid of the unknown; afraid perhaps of not being right.

We treat our existence as though we are in some sort of competition with each other, but that is not what God intended. He has created each one of us with a diversity that represents His own vastness, yet we try to manipulate our situations, our families, and our friends to get them to fit a mould that we see for them — or for us — when, all the while, we have a creator who formed each one of us, with all the gifts, talents, and abilities that He needs for His work. We are not to be in competition with one another, but to use the gifts and talents that God has given us to compliment, to encourage, and to strengthen one another.

A while ago I watched the animated movie Happy Feet. It's a story about a colony of penguins. When one penguin is born who does not "fit in," he is ridiculed and eventually thrown out of the colony. The message that God quickened in me was to beware of being so set in our ways that we miss the blessing He can send to us through someone else's methods or ideas. Being thrown out, ostracized, shunned, and rejected — these things are not new today; even Jesus warned the disciples of this very thing.

John 16:1 through 4 reads, "All this I have told you so that you will not go astray. They will put you out of the synagogue; in fact, a time is coming when anyone who kills you will think he is offering a service to God. They will do such things because they have not known the Father or me. I have told you this, so that when the time comes you will remember that I warned you. I did not tell you this at first because I was with you."

God wants to bless His people. I believe we miss those blessings many times because they don't come packaged the way we think they should.

Let's put away our thoughts and ask God to infuse us with His thoughts.

Let's lay down all our preconceived ideas of what God will do and how He will do it. His ways are not our ways.

Let's stop trying to figure things out and ask Him to show us His way.

Let's stop discouraging people from stepping up because we don't understand their way of doing things.

We pray, "Lord, take this from me," but then we don't let go. Let's let go — so that God can truly have His way in us. Let's ask Him to reveal in us those things we need to let go of and ask Him also for the strength to open our hands. Let's ask Him to reveal where we need to change and ask for the courage to step out where He is calling. Let's ask for the courage to see each other's differences as the blessings and strengths they are meant to be within the body — and not as weaknesses or hindrances. Let's ask for the courage to accept one another; to love one another; and to encourage one another as the scriptures command.

As the psalmist wrote in Psalm 139:14, "I praise You because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Your works are wonderful, I know that full well."

Taking steps toward a cure

To add to the $3,800 success of the Taking Steps Against Breast Cancer walk that took place in Winchester in October, Taking Steps committee members Janet Hutt (left), Bank of Montreal employee Louise Moore, and Claudette Casselman presented Canadian Cancer Society fundraising co-ordinator Sharyn Duffey with an additional cheque for $1,000 on Mon., Nov. 19. As a volunteer with the walk, Moore was able to apply for a volunteer grant through the Bank of Montreal.

Golden Years welcomes new members

by Roberta Giberson

WINCHESTER — President Dick Giberson welcomed 75 members and four guests to the November general meeting of the Winchester Golden Years Society. Doris Cross played piano for "O Canada" and the Lord's Prayer was recited. A minute of silence was observed for lifetime member Phebe MacDonald.

New members Elva Collingridge, Hubert Ouderkirk, Pat MacLean, James MacLean, Jean Keyzer, Allan McMahon, Theresa Strandon, and John Strandon were welcomed.

Card, euchre, bridge, zone, choral group, and bus trip committees reported.

Giberson presented a $1,000 cheque to Pauline Pratt from the House of Lazarus, a $1,000 cheque to Donna Quesnel and Judy Hilson of the Dundas County Food Bank Winchester location, and a $500 cheque to Connie Coughlar of Nor-Dun Seniors' Support Centre. Pratt, Hilson, and Coughlar thanked the members for the donations. As well, $250 will be given to the Scented Garden.

Many jokes were read and told by Vivian Jackson, Ray Robinson, Jessie Ball, and Giberson throughout the meeting.

Rev. Thurland Brown said grace before a potluck lunch was enjoyed. After lunch, members played military whisk and crokinole.

The Golden Years welcomes anyone 55 or older who would be interested in joining. For information, call Roberta Giberson at 613-774-4273.

OZ! hits the stage Dec. 6

NDDHS Notes

by Sonje Bols

MAPLE RIDGE — Although last week was a short one for us students, what with the snow and P.D. day, we still had a lot to do and think about.

OZ! will hit the stage on Thurs., Dec. 6 and will continue until Sat., Dec. 8. Curtain goes up at 7 pm. The general vibe from the cast and crew is nervousness, but excitement and energy, as well. This play is great for all ages. It's appealing to children who will love it for the story and all the great costumes and characters. Adults will also enjoy it for the hilarious twists the actors put into their roles. As for the students, I'm sure they would love to see their friends sing and dance like maniacs.

Tickets are on sale now: $15 for adults, $10 for students, and $40 for a family (two adults and children). For information, contact Ms. Garlough at 613-448-2328, extension 4817. Wish us luck!

Mid-term report cards were sent home earlier this week, along with the North Dundas newsletter. In it is important information on past and current events, plus the new Boundary 2020 program. Be sure to check it out.

The "Red Carpet Affair" junior semi-formal is happening tomorrow! Tickets are $10 in advance or $12 at the door. It will run from 6 to 10 pm. See you there!

In and around Osgoode Ward

by councillor Doug Thompson

OSGOODE — The Osgoode Ward budget meeting will be part of the Osgoode Ward Advisory Council Meeting on Thurs., Nov. 29 at 7 pm at the Osgoode Community Centre.

The 2008 City of Ottawa draft budget was tabled at council last Wednesday. City staff were asked to present draft budgets for a zero per cent increase, a 1.4 per cent increase, and a 3.4 per cent increase. There is much discussion among staff and politicians as to whether reductions in service — libraries, arenas, community centres — or whether reductions in number of employees or streamlining city services is the way to keep taxes down.

Residents who want to make presentations to the city council in regard to the 2008 budget should contact Kris Chepelsky at 613-580-2424, extension 28625 or send an e-mail to Budget08@ottawa.ca.

Consultations will take place on Mon., Dec. 3 from 10 am to 7 pm; Tues., Dec., 4 10 am to 9 pm; and the following two days if required.

Christmas in the ward

Osgoode's annual "Christmas in the Village" is taking place on Sat., Dec. 1. Grab breakfast with Santa between 7 and 11 am at the Osgoode Community Centre then find a spot to watch the parade, which starts at 11:30 am. Check out the O-YA Gingerbread Village at the O-YA Centre at 12:30 pm, then head to St. James United Church's bazaar. If you're not tuckered out, head to St. Paul's Anglican Church the following day (Sun., Dec. 2) for dessert and carol singing.

Community Soldier Tree

This year there will be a very special Community Soldier Christmas tree in the Market Square Mall (Beveridge's) in Osgoode. It will be decorated in red ribbons and the tree will sparkle to life with lights at dusk on Dec. 1 in support of our troops. There will be a drop box for Christmas cards and letters for the soldiers that will be sent overseas Mon., Dec. 3. Help show our soldiers we are with them in spirit. This Christmas, send them your best wishes and gratitude with a card or letter. Yellow ribbons pinned with the Canadian Flag will be available for you when you drop off your card. For more information or to help out, please contact Trudy Quinn at 613-826-1649 or on the web at www.osgoode-village.com.

School of art open house

The Village School of Art in Osgoode is hosting an open house on Sat., Dec. 1, from noon to 2 pm. Enjoy a cup of hot chocolate and a tasty treat after the Santa Claus parade. Hundreds of samples of student work by both kids and adults will be on display. There will be a free kids tree ornament decorating station and a silent art auction at the Market Square Mall. Check out www.artmadefun.com for more information.

Choir concert

Our Lady of Visitation Church — 5338 Bank St. — is hosting a three-choir Christmas concert on Sun., Dec. 2 at 3 pm. The Concordia German-Canadian Male Chorus, the Ottawa-Carleton Male Choir, and the OLV Children's Choir will all perform, as well as special guest Louise Ebeltoft (harpist). Everyone's welcome to attend. Goodwill offering accepted. Call 613-821-2040 for more information.

Variety at Vernon craft sale

When he heard that the Vernon library was under threat of closure, 14-year-old James Garland wanted to do something about it. He put his name to a petition that was located at the entrance of the Vernon Recreation Centre during the community's annual Country Craft Sale on Sat., Nov. 24. The petition will be forwarded to Ottawa City Hall. Photos — Barbour

Now retired, Harry Foster is devoting more of his time to selling "the Woody," a harness he designed 15 years ago for carrying firewood. He was one of more than 20 vendors who displayed their wares at the Vernon Recreation Centre during the community's annual Country Craft Sale.

"Babies love playing with tags and labels," said Anne Duquette of Osgoode during the craft sale on Sat., Nov. 24. With that knowledge, the mother of two was inspired to create a tab toy for infants and it was one of the many items she had on display.

Filling the food cupboard

Grant Beardall was one of more than 30 students from Osgoode Township High School in Metcalfe who were collecting cans and cash on Sat., Nov. 24 in support of the Osgoode Food Cupboard. They fanned out to communities from Greely to Embrun, as well as Metcalfe and Osgoode and collected 2,500 non-perishable food items to add to the 1,000 already donated by students. Jane Woodley, one of the supervising teachers, reported that the students have also accumulated $550 in cash through public donations and in-school activities. The students will be conducting another door-to-door drive on Sat., Dec. 8.

Messiah brings home message of the season for local soprano

by Bonnie James
Press staff

WINCHESTER — For soprano Maureen Heuff, Christmas is coming when she hears the music for Handel's Messiah. She can't help but connect the song to the season, because she has performed the classical oratorio so many times with the North Grenville Concert Choir. Heuff will take part in her 10th Messiah performance on Sat., Dec. 15 at 7:30 pm at Winchester United Church.

"It is Christmas," said Heuff about Messiah. "It's the starting of Christmas."

Messiah is made up of arias, duets, trios, and choruses, composed by George Frideric Handel and first performed in April 1742. It tells the story of Christ's life. The words are Bible verses compiled by Handel's friend, Charles Jennens.

The North Grenville Concert Choir, under conductor James Watson, first performed Messiah in 1997 in Kemptville and the Winchester United Church Choir was invited to take part.

"Since then we've done it in Merrickville, and Manotick, and Smiths Falls, and Winchester," said Heuff, who has sung with the Winchester United choir for 26 years, noting that about five of the 50 singers in this year's production have been involved from the start.

She explained that in 1997 the performance was supposed to be a one-time concert. The choir members learned their parts without accompaniment.

"When we heard it for the first time with the orchestra, it was like, "Wow!" recalled Heuff.

After years of repeat performances, Heuff noted that the group has developed a process. The choir begins rehearsing once a week after Labour Day and new singers are paired with a "buddy" to facilitate learning the two-hour oratorio.

"If you've never done it before, yes (it's challenging)," said Heuff. "Especially because I don't read a note (of music), I learn by ear. And it does go very high."

She said that over the years she has developed some good friendships with the other singers, noting a group goes for coffee after rehearsals.

Winchester's Maureen Heuff is performing in Handel's Messiah with the North Grenville Concert Choir at Winchester United Church on Sat., Dec. 15 at 7:30 pm. It will be the soprano's 10th time singing the oratorio.

Heuff said she hasn't lost her passion for the music.

"You could keep doing it year after year and there's always something new," she said. "If you love it, you'll basically always love it."

Joining the North Grenville Concert Choir in Winchester will be 22 members of the Divertimento Orchestra, conducted by Gordon Slater.

Although the choir performed Messiah at Winchester United last December, this year's production will feature some different soloists.

"And we've added two choral group (sections), that haven't been (performed) recently," said Heuff.

Shaun Steele, who has performed with the choir in the past and is helping promote this year's Messiah rendition, noted that last year's performance was a big success. He said he received letters from local people thanking the church for hosting the show.

"It's a wonderful opportunity for somebody local not to have to travel far to take in a professional (calibre) production (of Messiah)," said Steele. "It's maybe once in a lifetime for some people."

He explained that the church is happy to host the production as a community outreach project.

"We've got the facility," he said. "Acoustically, this church just works."

Heuff said she is looking forward to the night of the performance, noting that the choir is coming together very nicely.

"The sound is amazing," she said.

Tickets to the Sat., Dec. 15 performance are $20 for adults, and $15 for seniors and students. They are available at Annable's Jewellery on Main Street in Winchester, or by calling Steele at 613-774-0093.

Expert lectures W.I. on climate change

METCALFE — Personal lifestyle changes are a necessary response to the changing climate patterns, said Heather Hamilton of Osgoode, executive co-ordinator of the Canadian Biodiversity Institute based in Ottawa.

Speaking to the Metcalfe Women's Institute at its Nov. 14 meeting, Hamilton referred to a recent United Nations survey in 22 countries where 1,000 people in each country were asked if they would be willing to make changes to their personal lifestyles in order to adapt to the changes in world climate. The resounding answer was "yes." People around the world feel they are prepared to make the changes needed to stave off environmental disaster.

Active in environmental issues all her life, Hamilton said this time in history is the final chance to make these changes.

"Every major environmental group around the world is speaking out about the pressing need for change — now or never," she said. "There will soon be a time when it is too late."

Former U.S. vice-president Al Gore has made a film called An Inconvenient Truth, which outlines the massive degradation of the environment that will result from global warming. The film's website tells us that since the beginning of this year the world has emitted more than 35 billion metric tons of carbon dioxide into the atmosphere. This film provided the major impetus for the Canadian Biodiversity Institute's new Community Climate Change Action Plan.

Hamilton told the Women's Institute that women's groups are seen as potential leaders for these changes, because a grassroots movement is the only way real change will happen.

"Governments are not doing it," she said.

About 40 per cent of all greenhouse gas emissions are generated by individual lifestyle choices. Women make 80 per cent of consumer decisions for the home, and homes use up to 17 per cent of our energy use. Therefore, women can be effective in making changes.

The goal of the program, said Hamilton, is to provide practical information to a world ready to change, and to offer it through networking groups so that accountability and encouragement are present at a local level. Small discussion workshops to develop actions for permanent lifestyle change will be the main vehicle for creating the momentum for change.

Simple decisions and actions can make a big difference. "Think globally, act locally," is the catch phrase. We can choose reusable shopping bags rather than using new plastic bags for each shopping trip. We can learn how to compost our food garbage and use the resulting rich soil for fertilizer, rather than buying petroleum-based fertilizers for our lawns and gardens. We can refuse to buy over-packaged foods and consumer items. We can turn out the lights in our rooms as we leave. We can use our cars more efficiently.

Any group wishing more info can contact Hamilton at 613-826-2190.

Keeping things hot

The Bank of Montreal Winchester branch donated $1,500 to Meals on Wheels North Dundas last quarter as part of its Volunteer Grants Program. Nor-Dun Seniors' Support Centre Meals on Wheels co-ordinator Caroline Rooney (right) was at the branch on Mon., Nov. 19 to show branch manager Connie Kirkwood a sample of the 10 new insulated food transport bags the program purchased with the donation. As Meals on Wheels volunteers, Kirkwood and assistant branch manager Henriett Pemberton were able to apply for the grant through the bank.

Ringing in the season

Riley Steele (left) and her sister Sydney joined fellow members of the Junior Handbell Ringers of Winchester United Church in a rehearsal with the Seaway Valley Singers on Sat., Nov. 17, in preparation for their annual Christmas concert on Sun., Dec. 2 at Iroquois United Church (2 Elizabeth Dr.) beginning at 3 pm. The choir is directed by Robert Jones, and Valerie Kilpatrick is the accompanist. The Junior Handbell Ringers will accompany the choir in arrangements of "Silver Bells" and "Jingle Bells" as well as ringing solo arrangements of "Away in a Manger," "Sussex Carol," and "I Saw Three Ships." Tickets are $10 (adults) and $5 (students), and are available from choir members or at the door. # Knox celebrates 77th, welcomes new minister MOUNTAIN — The congregation of Knox Presbyterian Church in Mountain presented a monetary gift to retiring minister Rev. Paul Chambers and his family and enjoyed a social time following the service on Sun., July 29. On the same day, the congregation welcomed its new minister, Rev. Samer Kandalaft and family.

Throughout the year, Debra-Anne and Eddie McBride and volunteers have been shopping and collecting items for Christmas boxes to be sent overseas. A total of 100 boxes were sent, and the congregation would like to sincerely thank the McBrides for doing this mission work.

The church celebrated its 77th anniversary on Oct. 21. Kandalaft spoke and the South Mountain Gospel Singers, accompanied by Jane Boyd, entertained with many beautiful selections. A social time followed.

Kandalaft dedicated a beautiful pulpit Bible and 40 large-print pew Bibles on Sun., Nov. 11. A gift from Hugh Blaine and family made this donation — in memory of Margaret Blaine — possible. Her daughter, Linda Porteous, replied very fittingly on behalf of the Blaine Family.

The congregation is excited and thankful that Cody Pelkey, son of Bruce and Libby Pelkey, is returning home from military service in early December. Welcome home, Cody!

Graduating members Jamie Edwards and Shanna James were presented with The Ottawa Citizen Leadership Award at the Russell 4-H awards night on Fri., Nov. 16 in Vars.

VARS — The Russell County 4-H awards night was held Fri., Nov. 16 at KC's Country Inn in Vars.

For the Russell 4-H Calf Club, awards went to Ben Luchtenberg as most deserving first-year member and Trevor Perrault as most-improved member. Jenna James received the leadership award. Kelly Ross was deemed the top overall member and Sam Menard was recognized as having the top record book. The first four awards were based on attendance, judging day scores, record books, and showmanship scores.

There were five new calf club members this year — Ben Luchtenberg, Emilie Huneault, Tamara Hamilton, Shae-Lynn Votary, and Julie Regimbald each received a certificate, a one-year seal, and movie passes.

Members receiving their second-year plaque were Alex Chabot and Maria Maloney. Members who completed six projects are Sara Akkermans, Trevor Perrault, and Eric Ross. Graduating members are Shanna James and Jamie Edwards.

Crop update: Specialist determines quality, yields

by Meghan Duncan
Press staff

KEMPTVILLE — It was a good year for crops in Eastern Ontario. The Press chatted with Gilles Quesnel, field crop specialist with the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture, Food, and Rural Affairs (OMAFRA) in Kemptville, to get the scoop on how farmers have fared.

"Eastern Ontario was significantly different from the rest of the province this year," Quesnel pointed out on Fri., Nov. 23. "We had a lot more rain than other parts of the province."

He said that overall Eastern Ontario experienced a close-to-normal growing season.

"We had an excellent harvesting season," Quesnel noted, pointing out that there were only a few wet days. "Because it was so dry, there was minimal soil compaction from harvesting ... which will make for good conditions for spring planting."

He said the harvest conditions were near optimal for farmers, especially when compared with last year's extremely wet weather that hindered harvesting.

FORAGES

"In '07 growers had one of the best alfalfa over-wintering season that they've had in years," Quesnel said about the hay crops. "The losses to winter kill were extremely limited, which meant (the crops) were off to a great start."

He said that first-cut yields were excellent, while second-cut yields were slightly below average. Third-cut yields were deemed normal.

"There is ample hay in Eastern Ontario," he said about the yields overall.

CORN

Corn acreage in this area of the province was up by 10 per cent this year, according to Quesnel. The killing frost came late this year, giving corn an opportunity to mature fully, and the in-season growth was normal.

"We had a very open fall, which benefitted the corn crop," Quesnel said. "Producers ended up with an above average corn yield, and the quality was good."

SPRING WHEAT

Quesnel said that the spring wheat crop had a slightly above average yield and was of good quality.

"A portion of the acreage was sprayed for army worm," he pointed out, noting that there was an infestation that was a bit larger than normal. Army worms affect the spring wheat crops every year in Eastern Ontario.

SOYBEANS

"The soybean acreage was down slightly, partly due to lower predicted prices," Quesnel said. "Growers ended up with an average or slightly below average yield of good quality."

Quesnel pointed out that in July producers sprayed for soybean aphids, which were at a high count.

"It's been varying," he said about the presence of the pest in Eastern Ontario, noting that each season is different. "In 2006 there was no significant infestation."

He noted that the aphid population dropped after the first part of August.

"This was the first time that Asian soybean rust spores were collected, although infection was not detected in Eastern Ontario," Quesnel pointed out. "It will be monitored in future."

The rust blew into Ontario crops from the southern U.S. Quesnel said that while the spores were detected, they were not detrimental to the crops.

Happy Trails members conclude year

by Stefanie McKeough

GREELY — Over 100 guests turned out to the Happy Trails 4-H Horse Club achievement banquet at the Greely Legion on Sun., Nov. 25, which was held in conjunction with the host Vernon Calf Club, as well as the Metcalfe Beef Club, and the Carleton Sheep Club.

Each year, the 4-H Horse Club awards are presented to members to recognize their achievements. Congratulations to all our members — your commitment to 4-H is a gift to me and to your parents and your fellow club members.

What was really amazing to see was how the new members were quickly brought up to the next level by our veteran members. The new members learned to do by doing with help from the long-time members.

For most members, riding was the highlight of the year. For Sarah Neuman, the achievement day must have been her highlight — she was the club's Achievement Day Victor, and was presented with the top member award.

Kelly Ross was named All Star for her demonstration of outstanding dedication to the 4-H Horse program. The Newcomer's Award, presented to the new member who survived all aspects of the club, this year went to Eric Ross. These members could not be at the banquet, but deserve recognition.

The Rookie of the Year Award was presented to Eric Snedden, who came away with a red ribbon in his first attempt at patterns.

Dedication to the 4-H program cannot be overlooked. Even though Olivia Groniger was over-booked, she gave her best to the club. She has been an active member since its very first meeting, and there is no question that she typifies the qualities of a good club member. She was rewarded with the Golden Oat Bag Award for her contributions over the years.

The Perseverance Award is presented to the member who overcame challenges with their project. This year's recipient, Kelly Velthuis, really worked hard with her pony. As all members know, ponies have very special personalities and her's was no exception.

This year the Sportsmanship Award went to the member who demonstrated to others that not only were they a graceful winner, but they were also a quiet loser. Ever aware of the importance of 4-H, Stefanie McKeough has been an active member in the club and has demonstrated a positive attitude and exhibited good leadership qualities.

The 2007 Happy Trails Horse Club was geared toward members and their achievements with the horse in mind. This year the club had seven members. Meetings started in late March.

The achievement day was held on May 5 in conjunction with a 4-H Horse Education Day. The event was hosted by the Ashton 4-H Horse Club in Franktown, Ont.

At the Horse Education Day, members learned more about horses, horse safety, showmanship, and patterns when leading a horse, and had fun learning how to be prepared for the achievement day. Members met lots of other 4-H horse club members and enjoyed a great barbecue lunch. John Drummond paid the Horse Day an unexpected visit. It was good to see support from 4-H Ontario.

Christmas Market benefits food bank

by "Pharmer" Phil Labossiere

CHESTERVILLE — The Chesterville Farmers' Market wrapped up its 2007 season with its annual Christmas market held at the Royal Canadian Legion on Sat., Nov. 24. A gift basket raffle was conducted with proceeds going to the Dundas County Food Bank. Winners of the three baskets were: Jean Byers, Darcy Paquet, and Tamie Munro. Combined with other activities, the market raised a total of $382.13 for the food bank this year.

The vendors would like to thank all the market patrons for their support and look forward to seeing them next year when the market opens its doors in May.

Don't Hold Back movie in the works

EMBRUN — It was in November 2006 that the Press reported that Brandon and Tyler Hynes of Embrun had released a concept album entitled Don't Hold Back: The Story of Jarvo.

With the release of the album, its creators said they were hoping to make a film, a documentary, and several music videos.

"The movie is coming along well — we just had another meeting with another potential investor, and the main producer of Don't Hold Back has been working on the major distributor," Brandon said in an e-mail to the Press. "We're learning that there's a lot of pieces to the puzzle in getting it all shot and wrapped up."

The brothers have also been busy with other acting and music endeavors along the way.

Tyler wrote a script with the same name as the album four years ago. Using the script as a springboard, the two began to compose music.

"It's the story of this 19-year-old kid, Jarvo Anderson, living in this disconnected suburb with his family, and what he goes through," Tyler said in an interview with the Press at the time of the album release. "It about his life at this certain point ... and the one thing in his life that gives him existence."

Brandon had said that while the music videos will be a great creative art expression, a movie will be the best way to tell the story. The documentary will go behind the scenes and show how the Don't Hold Back project came to be. Using different mediums of communication will expose the Jarvo Anderson story to everyone, he said.

Tweety truck

What's brilliant yellow, has a Mopar body, and a GMC powerplant? Andre Beaulieu's Tweety truck. The 1947 Dodge side-step pickup was originally manufactured by Chrysler in Windsor. Since then the yellow hauler has had a complete off-chassis restoration. The cab is original steel while the box is fabricated with new metal. The rear fenders are fiberglass and the interior has new upholstery. The Dodge has 12,000 miles and will bend the speedometer needle beyond the 140 miles-per-hour mark, thanks to a 360-cubic inch GMC V8, fed fuel through an Edelbrock four-barrel carburetor that rests on a high-rise manifold. Power goes to the rear wheels through an automatic transmission. Tweety Truck has been appraised at $16,500.

Paraguan harpist in concert Friday

DIXON'S CORNERS — The community is in for a special treat on Friday (Nov. 30) at 7 pm when Paraguayan folk harpist Eduard Klassen performs a Christmas concert at Community Christian Reformed Church in Dixon's Corners. The event is a fundraiser for Timothy Christian School in Williamsburg.

Klassen was born and raised in an isolated area of Paraguay, South America and was 15 years old when he first saw a paved highway. Playing the harp has been his passion since 1975. His formal musical training included five years of study in Asuncion, Paraguay.

Klassen now lives in Canada and has played over 3,000 music concerts in 20 countries. He has also recorded 14 albums, several of which receive international airplay. A typical concert includes a variety of Christian harp music from South America, North America, and Europe, interspersed with personal testimony and stories of God's work in his life, from boyhood in the wilderness of Paraguay to the present.

Hawks Hitesman hot: posts two more wins

WINCHESTER — Rookie Michael Hitesman is making the most of his opportunity to play nets for the Winchester Jr. "B" Hawks. The 18-year-old backstop worked the weekend shift for the St. Lawrence Division squad and booked his seventh and eighth victories in 11 starts.

Friday (Nov. 23) in Alexandria he stopped 22 of 25 shots backing Winchester in a 5-3 win over the number-two ranked Glens. Saturday (Nov. 24) on home ice he surrendered three goals while facing 33 drives as he and the Hawks lathered the Morrisburg Lions 11-3.

Hitesman sports an 8-3-0 record, a save percentage of .901 and a GAA of 2.81. Hawk teammate Kyle Neville leads the division with a GAA of 2.38 and a record of 7-1-0. Travis Coughlin of the Akwesasne Wolves sports a 2.74 but has only played six games.

"Hitesman had a great weekend," offered Winchester head coach Todd Marcellus. "He has been real steady and seems to be getting better every time he plays. He stays square to the shooter and plays with confidence."

Hitesman drew the back-to-back assignments when Neville was unable to suit up because of personal (family) reasons. North Dundas Midget "B" Demons 'tender Ryan Hay provided back up in both games.

Winchester's win string was extended to six games and their record improved to 15-4-0-0 with their victories over the Glens (10-8-0-1) and Lions (7-11-0-2).

Big test

This weekend Winchester will host the Rideau Division's number-one ranked Athens Aeros, who sport a 15-4-2-1 record, on Friday (Nov. 30) at 8:15 pm. Sunday night (Dec. 2) the Hawks travel to Gananoque to take on the Islanders (6-10-3-1).

"Athens is very similar to us," noted Marcellus. "They work hard and are a very deep squad. Their goaltender (overager Mike Robillard) is solid and his team plays good defence."

Robillard leads Rideau Division goaltenders with a record of 11-4-1 and a 2.64 GAA. Winchester defeated the Aeros 5-2 in their own barn on Oct. 24.

"A sweep would be great," suggested the coach. "But we are in for a very big test because Mark Armstrong (coach) has them playing great hockey."

Hawks 5 - Glens 3

Sam Raymond gave the Glens a 1-0 lead scoring unassisted in period one on Friday night.

Winchester answered with three second period markers. Ben Collins (12) tied it up scoring from Chris Giczewski and Ryan Workman at 3:19. Nick Enright (9) scored from Parker Davies at 11:20 and Scott Bradley (7) buried a feed from Collins and Enright on a powerplay at 16:41 o put the Hawks up 3-1 after 40 minutes.

Raymond (PPG 5:43) and Rejean Leduc (at 15:33) cracked in third-period shots and tied the game 3-3.

Winchester rookie Adam Schofield (6) snapped the deadlock netting the game-winner after taking a feed from Brodie Boulanger and Travis "Toast" Armstrong at 16:54. Boulanger, playing his first game after returning from a stint with the Hawkesbury Jr. "A" Hawks, iced the win dumping an Armstrong relay into the empty Glens' cage with four seconds on the clock.

Marcellus explained Boulanger opted to return to his home team to get more ice time, "Brodie is a good fit for us. He kills penalties well and got a couple of goals. He is just 17 so he will get another shot at the Central (CJHL)."

Hawks 11 - Lions 3

Winchester nailed five PPGs taking a 5-1 lead on Morrisburg in the first 20 minutes of Saturday's home game.

It was 8-2 after two and 11-3 at the buzzer.

McRae, Buma goals extend Demons undefeated streak

WINCHESTER — Ryan McRae snapped in the winning goal and Brandon Buma supplied the insurance marker as the North Dundas Midget "B" Demons extended their undefeated streak to 10 games with a 3-1 decision over the Cornwall Royals.

The first period of Monday's (Nov. 26) home game in Winchester was scoreless and remained so until the Demons got on the board when Matt Van Delst buried a feed from Chris Embury with 8:18 left in the second stanza. Cornwall responded with the tying goal at 2:26 and the teams went into period three deadlocked at 1-1. It was the only goal allowed by winning 'tender Craig Brogan.

McRae (unassisted) fired the winning shot into the twine at 12:29 and Buma made it a 3-1 final finishing a play fashioned by Embury and Nolan Winter 7:20 before the final buzzer.

North Dundas sports an Upper Canada Minor Hockey League record of 8-0-2 and will challenge the NGS Braves in Maxville on Friday (Nov. 30) and host the South Stormont Selects in Winchester on Monday (Dec. 3) at 8:30 pm.

Demons 5 - Lions 4

Buma was the decision maker in Morrisburg on Nov. 22 when he ripped in the game-winning goal at 12:30 of the third period as North Dundas squeaked by South Dundas 5-4. Jake McRoberts and Embury drew assists on the play.

The Lions led 2-1 after a period but a three-goal second allowed the Demons to knot the count at 4-4.

Winter registered the first two North Dundas markers scoring from Michael Cross with 6:21 left in the opening stanza and from Cross and Buma at 13:50 of period two. Cross earned his third straight assist setting up McRae at 4:13. An unassisted shot fired by Phil Duncan tied it up at four with 3:56 left in the sandwich session.

Ryan Hay worked the North Dundas net, allowed two goals by Josh Veltkamp and singles by Dave Toonders and Jay Keller.

The North Dundas Midget "B" Demons have put together an undefeated record of 8-0-2 through their first 10 UCMHL games. Craig Brogan (photos) gave up one goal in Monday's (Nov. 26) 3-1 victory over the Cornwall Royals and has allowed just four goals in his last three starts. Ryan Hay, the other member of the team's goaltending tandem, will start Friday's (Nov. 30) game against the NGS Braves in Maxville.

Kirkwood pots pair, Pee Wee "B" Demons perfect after 10 games

SMITHS FALLS — Mitchell Kirkwood potted a pair of pucks, one on the power play and the game winner, as the North Dundas Pee Wee "B" Demons recorded their 10th consecutive Upper Canada Minor Hockey League victory.

Win number 10 for Tom Kirkwood's squad was registered in Smiths Falls against the Bears on Sunday (Nov. 25). The 10-0-0 Demons also completed a back-to-back sweep of the Bears after taming them 15-3 in Winchester on Nov. 19. North Dundas has outscored the opposition 90-13 in their first 10 starts.

Bantam "B" Demons battle Athens Aeros to 1-1 draw

WINCHESTER — North Dundas Bantam "B" Demons team officials estimated that their shooters fired over 50 pucks at Hayden Hannah, but when the final whistle signalled the end of the Upper Canada Minor Hockey League contest the Athens goaltender had recorded a 1-1 tie.

Athens took a 1-0 lead in the Nov. 21 contest when Dillon Herbison put a shot in behind Demon 'tender Chase Beaudry with 5:18 left in the second period. The Demons finally solved Hannah with just 1:15 left on the clock. Captain Peter Klein-Swormink salvaged a point for his squad scoring on a pass provided by Matt Jarvis.

It was the first point of the season for the Aeros while the Demons improved their record to 6-1-3.

Tonight (Wed., Nov. 28) the Demons are hosting the Smiths Falls Bears in a 7 pm contest. Sunday (Dec. 2) they are in Lanark to play Perth.

Time was down to 2:46 when Prince netted her second goal (winner) after taking a pass from Brown.

Metcalfe's attack hit high gear in game two as they ripped Caledonia 9-3. Metcalfe led 3-2 at the half and the game was tied 3-3 before the Hornets broke things wide open. Brown powered the offence producing six points (2-4-6) Facette had a five-point game (3-2-5). Prince also netted two rings and drew an assist. Sullivan and Christine Kalyn snapped in the singles. Assists went to Green, Lindsay Donoghue and Megan Vriend.

Atom "B" Demons earn five of six points – two wins and a tie

WINCHESTER — Braden Findlay converted a play created by Zach Poirier and Mitch Melenhorst into the only goal the North Dundas Atom "B" Demons would score in an Upper Canada Minor Hockey League home ice encounter with the Char-Lan Rebels.

Findlay's marker handed the Demons a 1-0 lead at 8:02 of the first period of Friday's (Nov. 23) contest. The Rebels answered with 2:54 left in the same frame and the remaining two periods were scoreless as the East Division rivals finished tied 1-1.

The day before (Nov. 22) North Dundas visited the NGS Braves in Finch and registered a 7-2 victory.

Zach Poirier led the Demons to victory scoring three times, once in each period. He also drew an assist on a first-period goal by Findlay.

North Dundas led 2-0 after a period and 4-1 after two sessions.

Findlay, Melenhorst, Owen Guy and Bradley Stitt snapped in the single shots. "AP" Brodie Barkley (2), Jarret Cutler (2), Findlay (2), Stitt, Melenhorst and Poirier all earned helper points.

Goaltenders Nikolas Carruthers and Steven McSheffery shared the net minding chores and the shutout as the Demons whitewashed the Cornwall Royals 6-0 in the Seaway City on Nov. 19.

Findlay used a pass from Cutler and Mason Durant to ring up the winning goal with 8:53 left in period two. North Dundas led the Royals 1-0 after the second period, but expanded their final margin of victory to 6-0 cashing in five more goals in the final frame.

Stitt (unassisted at 6:16), Guy (from Stitt at 5:29), Cutler (from Findlay and "AP" Victoria Corkery at 2:35), Poirier (from Melenhorst and Dillon Clemen at 1:48) and Guy (from Stitt and Poirier at 1:31) pegged the final five markers.

North Dundas played a penalty-free game against the Braves and were pegged for one minor infraction in each of their encounters with the Royals and Rebels.

The North Dundas Atom "B2" Demons posted wins in their first two games in the Clarence Creek tournament on Saturday (Nov. 24) and qualified for the "A" final against the host team who posted a 2-1 win. The runners up are: front (left) - Evan Durant, Kyle Findlay, Cassandra Young, Jarrett Williams, Jack VanKessel, Drew Cotnam; back (left) - Mason McLeod, Anna Gruich, Samantha Benoit, Kalleigh Young, Sheldon Lafortune, Adam Geertsma, Jacob Robinson; Missing - Justin Shay.

North Dundas finalists in Novice "B" tourney

CLARENCE CREEK — Jack VanKessel tried to rally his team but his unassisted goal, recorded with 1:12 left in the game, wasn't enough to tie the "A" championship game in the Clarence Creek tournament on Saturday (Nov. 24).

The host Clarence Creek Senators held on for the 2-1 victory and the top prize in their own tournament.

North Dundas went into the title match sporting an undefeated record having blanked the Canterbury Crusaders 3-0 and edged the West End Ice Dogs in their opening and semi-final games.

VanKessel took care of the scoring in his team's 3-0 win over the Crusaders scoring from Kyle Findlay at 4:29 in the first period to make it 1-0. He then cashed in pass provided by Anna Gruich (at 4:51) and Findlay (at 4:02 of the third period) in a penalty-free game. Sheldon Lafortune started and Mason McLeod finished the game and the North Dundas netminders shared the goose egg.

Findlay was the scoring hero in the Demons' 4-3 semi-final win over the Ice Dogs cracking in a pass from VanKessel to win the game with 26 seconds left on the clock.

Defenceman Evan Durant opened the scoring netting his first goal of the season after taking a pass from Sam Benoit with 5:27 left in period one. VanKessel finished a play started by Gruich and Jarrett Williams and tied the count at 2-2 at 7:40 of period two. There were four minutes left in the same frame when Drew Cotnam gave the Demons a 3-2 lead after taking a pass from Findlay. The Ice Dogs knotted the count at 3-3 with a goal at 11:31 of the final frame forcing the Demons to break the tie with Findlay's marker 26 seconds before the final buzzer.

Santa is coming, vendor fair highlights parade day

Remarks
by Mark Guy, director of recreation

WINCHESTER — It's a go! This Saturday the annual Country Christmas Parade of Lights will take place starting at 6 pm.

A host of local suppers will be available before the parade at the United Church, Wesleyan Church, and the Lions Hall. Most meals begin between 4 and 4:30 pm.

Also, there will be specialty food vendors at the corner of Main and St. Lawrence Streets for those who love Beavertails and other delectable goodies. The Girl Guides will be serving hot dogs and hot chocolate, as well.

The vendor fair could be a great place to get a head start on Christmas shopping. There will be a kids' craft corner, Santa will make an appearance to visit with the little ones, and Mayor Alvin Runnalls will be there to read The Night Before Christmas at 2 pm.

The Vipers broomball team will provide a soup lunch, and at 2:30 pm there will be a free family skate.

5-4 come-from-behind victory

Flyers stage late rally, defuse first-place Rockets

WINCHESTER — Winchester Town Hockey League veteran forward John Guy's second goal of the second half snapped a 4-4 tie 29 seconds before the final buzzer and lifted the Winchester Flyers to a 5-4 come-from-behind victory over the top-ranked Inkerman Rockets.

The Rockets (5-2-1) carried a 4-1 lead into the second half of the Tuesday night (Nov. 20) twin bill, but weren't able to manage another goal against Jesse White and the Flyers (4-2-2) and wound up losing for the second time in eight games.

The struggles for the fourth-place Chesterville Combines (0-7-1) continued as they opened the double header losing for the seventh time in eight starts — 5-3 to the number-two ranked Chesterville River Runners (5-3-0).

Jeff Lewis cracked in goals set up by Brian Downey at 18:54 and 14:19 to put the Rockets into a 2-1 lead. Matt Baker followed by finishing a play started by Downey and Rob Thurler at 7:29 to make it 3-1. Downey collected his fourth point of the half snapping in a Justin Morozuk feed 3:48 the intermission to give his squad a 4-1 lead.

Darrel Moore (from Guy at 18:08) put the first Flyer goal on the board on the first half. Captain Josh McLean was the sniper who started his team's rally scoring from Mike Thompson at 15:08 of the second half. Thompson and Justin Heuff then combined to set up Guy at 12:31 and the gap was closed to 4-3. Thompson finished a sharp give-and-go with Guy and tied it up 4-4 with 3:31 still on the clock. Guy decided the issue batting a short-range shot in behind goaltender Chad Kennedy with 29 seconds to play in the game.

Runners 5 - Combines 3

Once again the Combines scored first and kept it close but couldn't close the deal and wound up losing by two 5-3 to the Runners.

Troy McNaughton buried a Chris Van Bridger relay and handed the Combines a 1-0 lead at 20:40 of the first half. A pair of goals by Al Christophersen at 8:21 (unassisted) and at 7:21 (from Derek Vingerhoeds and Kelly "Rubber" Beckstead) put the Runners into a 2-1 lead but the Combines evened the count at 2-2 when Bill Henderson scored after taking a feed from McNaughton and Marty Link.

A three goal explosion early in the second half opened up a 5-2 lead for the Runners as shots fired by Travis Froats (from Beckstead at 25:51), Trevor Morozuk (unassisted at 24:22) and Christophersen (from Vingerhoeds and Beckstead at 22:45) struck sting.

Troy Baldwin completed a play engineered by Devon Kelly and Jamie McIntosh with 7:37 left in the game, but 5-3 was as close as the Combines would get to gaining a point.

In Memoriam

BALL – In loving memory of a dear husband, father, father-in-law and grandfather, Eric, who passed away November 29, 2004.
As time goes by without you,
And the days turn into years;
They hold a million memories,
And a thousand silent tears.
To us you were so special,
What more is there to say;
Except to wish with all our hearts,
That you were here today.
– Sadly missed and forever in our hearts, Jessie, Steven, Susan, Cathy, Wayne and families 37

THOMAS – In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Beverly, who passed away November 2005.
God knows how much we miss her
Never shall her memory fade,
Loving thoughts shall ever wander
To the spot where she is laid.
– Forever missed,
– The Smiths
37

In Memoriam

HOLLIDAY – In loving memory of a dear husband, dad and papa, Ray, who passed away November 30, 2004.
In tears we saw you sinking,
We watched you fade away,
Our hearts were almost broken,
You fought so hard to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping,
So peacefully free from pain,
We could not wish you back,
To suffer that again.
– Forever in our hearts,
– Phyllis, Tracey and Dave, Mitchell and Brandon
37

CRUMP – In loving memory of a dear mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, Helene, who passed away November 24, 2004.
We seldom ask for miracles
But today just one would do,
To have the front door open
And see you walking through.
A million times we've missed you,
A million times we've cried,
And if love could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we love you still,
In our hearts you hold a memory
That no one else can fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day you left us.
– Miss you, Elaine, Betty, Angus and Heather

Many Thanks from Arie Kardolus

Presently I am residing at the Winchester Hospital, Room 231A, where I have been for part of 2006 and 2007. A special thanks to the Williamsburg Seniors' Centre where I was for three months. I would like to acknowledge all those who visited me throughout the year and the care I received from the hospital staff and doctors. Thank you for all the prayers during this time from my Christian friends. I wish that all of you may be blessed with a prosperous 2008.

~ IN MEMORIAM ~

BROWN

In memory of a loving husband and dad, Frederick, who passed away November 28, 2006.

God saw he was getting tired
And the cure was not to be
So He put His arms around him
And whispered, 'Come with me.'
With tear-filled eyes we watched him
Suffer and fade away.
Although we loved him deeply
We could not make him stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard-working hands put to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Loved forever,
–Joyce, Alley & The McAuley Family

Card of Thanks

Dan Hubert and his daughters, Melanie (Hare) and Lisa (Farrelly), would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to all family, friends and neighbours who helped support us by offering their cards, kind words and prayers, flowers, food and donations to the Cancer Society. It is impossible to thank all of you personally. The passing of Linda Hubert, the most loving and compassionate wife, mother, grandmother and friend to so many, was extremely difficult, but the kindness of so many people helped ease this pain. We would like to thank the many friends and family who visited Mom during her short stay at the Ottawa General Cancer Clinic. These visits meant the world to her, which she stated to us many times. To the staff at Lannin's Funeral Home, we thank you for being so professional and for helping us through all the arrangements. To Jim Patterson, our minister, we thank you for your compassionate service dedicated to Mom and to the Westminster Church for offering a wonderful luncheon afterwards. From the bottom of our hearts, we thank Mom's close friend Cornelia and her niece Marsha for the beautiful and personal eulogies, and Nancy for reading poems about the 'wonderful friend' that Mom was to all. As well, Brian, thank you for the beautiful song 'Tears In Heaven' you played and sang for Mom at the funeral. It all helped to make it a personal funeral we know she would have loved so much. Lastly, thank you to the pallbearers; your kindness will always be remembered. We feel blessed to know that Mom had such a special place in the hearts of so many people, and we know she would have been so very happy to not only see all of the people who attended her wake and funeral, but to also know that those who are suffering in her absence were so well looked after. We miss you so much, Mom: You were our rock. You were such a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother and friend, and should have been told this more often. Rest in peace, knowing that you were so loved by all of us.

– Sincerely, Dan, Melanie and Lisa

Audrey Morrow

Audrey Theresa Morrow (nee Eggens) passed away Nov. 8, 2007 after a long and difficult battle with cancer.

She was born Feb. 3, 1933 to John and Gladys Eggens of Manotick Station. She was the third eldest of eight children: Paul Turpin, Bella Menard (Paul), Jack Eggens (Pat), Phyllis Sigouin (Gerald), Lois Bumstead (Harold), Bill Eggens (Pat), and Susan Rosettani (Joseph).

She was deaf as a child and did not hear until the use of a hearing aid in her early teens. She persevered and managed to successfully complete her studies at Willis Business College.

She was the loving mother of seven devoted children: David Mulligan of South Mountain, Linda Mulligan (Keith Cartmell) of Calgary, Kelly McKinnon (Bruce) of Brinston, Kim Morrow (Chris Kayuk) of Ottawa, Angie Morrow (Donald Johnson) of Dixon's Corners, Gerald Morrow (Karen) of Stampville, and Mary Morrow (Scott Kitson) of Brockville. She was affectionately known as "Mom" to Cheryl Graham of Mountain.

She had many hobbies including cross stitch, sewing, knitting, crocheting, quilting, and gardening. Her love of the outdoors and all things in it were very important to her. Her dog, Sport, was her faithful and loving companion, always at her side. She also loved to cook, and many people were welcomed to her happy table over the years. She made friends easily and was known for her happy smile, giving temperament, and thoughtful ways. Her work at the Mayfield Retirement Home in Prescott introduced her to Joanne and Pierrette, and they became affectionately known as the "The Three Musketeers." She was an active member of "The Mermaids," a swim group she joined whose members quickly became dear, lifetime friends. She was resourceful, never wasteful, and a strong conservationist. She believed in seeing the good in everyone, and she had admirable qualities too numerous to mention.

She is cherished by her 16 grandchildren: Donnie Johnson, Jason McKinnon (Shelley), Johnnie Johnson (Joann), Jennifer Mulligan (Christian Salmaso), Jimmy Johnson, Matthew McKinnon, Derrick Johnson, Brooke Kitson, Zacchary Kayuk, Amber Morrow, Dillan Johnson, Taylor Kitson, Kiersten Kayuk, Austin Morrow, Joshua Kayuk, and Sarah Johnson. She is loved by two great-grandchildren Destiny and Shianne.

She will always be remembered for her laughter and her smile.

The arrangements were entrusted to Marsden and McLaughlin Funeral Home in Williamsburg.

Ruby Evelyn Dawley

December 3, 1918 - November 18, 2007

Ruby Evelyn Dawley passed away peacefully on Sun., Nov. 18, 2007 at the St. Lawrence Lodge in Brockville. She was 88.

She was predeceased by her husband of 58 years, Basil Dawley of Winchester (2001), and by her youngest son, Glen of Blind River, Ont (1983). She is survived by four children; Leslie (Helen) of Kingston, Dwayne (Ruth) of Edmonton, Carole (Ferenc) Miklian of Morrisburg, and Carman (Heather) of Calgary. She was the cherished grandmother of 12: Jeffrey, Kevin, Janice, Lorinda, Steven, Tracey, Nancy, David, Sarah, Mitchell, Christopher, and Tina, as well as a loving great-grandmother to five. She was the dear sister of Lola Cumming, Beulah Richdale, and Maynard Cinnamon.

She was born and raised in the Harmony area attending the Ormond Public School. As a wartime bride, she accompanied her new husband to Vancouver, BC and the Queen Charlotte Islands where Basil served in the R.C.A.F. during the Second World War. In 1945 they returned to Winchester and took over the Dawley family farm where they raised five children.

Ruby and Basil operated a family farm and several businesses in the Winchester area for many years. They were well known and respected as purebred Holstein breeders, business entrepreneurs, sports enthusiasts, and very active in both local and provincial politics.

Ruby supported her husband and her children in each and every endeavour in which they participated. She was equally as comfortable and capable milking cows, as she was baking pies in the kitchen.

After the passing of her husband, she spent five wonderful years living in the Hartford Retirement Centre in Morrisburg, and for a brief period in St. Lawrence Lodge.

She enjoyed many pastimes including, gardening, golfing, curling, and playing cards. She was an avid sports fan and cheered on her favourite teams, the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, and Toronto Blue Jays with fervour.

She will be forever remembered for her caring nature, her generous spirit, her mischievous sense of humour, and her unwavering devotion to her family.

The funeral service was held at the Winchester Funeral Home Chapel on Sat., Nov. 24 and was followed by a reception in the Sunday School Hall of the Winchester United Church. The pallbearers included grandsons Jeffrey, Kevin and Stephen Dawley, David Miklian, and nephews Brian and Dennis Cinnamon.

Our sincere thanks to Rev. Bob Williams who conducted the funeral service, and to Tammy McRae, who provided the musical leadership. Our appreciation is also extended to the UCW members who provided the refreshments, and to all the staff at both the Hartford Retirement Centre in Morrisburg and the St. Lawrence Lodge in Brockville for their loving care of our mother.

Donations to Winchester District Memorial Hospital or the Heart and Stroke Foundation will be gratefully acknowledged.

Sincerely,
The Dawley family

Ruby, A Precious Gem.....

(by granddaughter Nancy Miklian)

Today we shed a tear
For a remarkable strong lady
With a heart of gold and a loving smile,
So sweet and sincere
"Ruby, a precious gem indeed."

A class act all the way,
With perfect make-up, hair and nails
And a unique pin on every coat and sweater
She was a beauty queen everyday
"Ruby, a precious gem through and through."
