Glens to stay in riding

(Staff) - Glengarry county will remain in the provincial riding of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, it was revealed Monday by the members of the province's Electoral Boundaries Commission.

In order to deal with shifts in population over the past ten years the commission was established by the Davis government to alter the electoral boundaries throughout the province to achieve the magic number of 69,000 voters where possible in each riding.

With Glengarry originally scheduled to be lumped in with the city of Cornwall several local groups and individuals made a concerted pitch to help SD&G intact last May when hearings were held at Ottawa.

Under the plan worked out the existing riding of Cornwall picks up the township of Charlottenburgh from SD&G. However, the addition of the northern part of Grenville makes the new constituency roughly 100 miles in length. Other parts of Carleton-Grenville as it is now composed will go to Leeds-Grenville and Carleton. Leeds-Grenville would then consist of the existing riding of Leeds in addition to the town of Prescott as well as Augusta nd Wolford townships.

Leeds-Grenville MPP Norm Sterling has offered vociferous objections to the new plan. SD&G MPP Noble Villeneuve detained by fog at Ottawa International Airport, could not be reached for comment before press time.

The riding of Prescott-Russell doesn't change and only 15 other ridings across the province have been left untouched. A total of 90 revisions to the province's voting districts has been made following a series of 12 public hearings held last spring.

The proposed changes will not be in place in time for the next provincial election expected sometime next spring. The number of provincial seats in the next election after 1985 will be increased to 130 from the current 125.

Earthquake shakes area: 3.2 on Richter scale

(Staff) - An earthquake measuring 3.2 on the Richter scale occurred in the area at 4:04am Monday. Described by a spokesperson at the National Research Centre in Ottawa as "a small tremor" the epicentre of the quake was located at latitude .1 west and longitude 4.2 degress north. Translated onto the map this puts the centre of the minor quake just northwest of Eamers Corners near Cornwall.

The tremor was recorded by the NRC's station at the quarry in Williamsburg, the nearest station to the most recent earthquake in the area. According to the NRC these quakes take place very far beneath the surface of the earth at a distance of about 14 kms. The tremendous noise heard is actually a result of the vibrations which follow the charge of energy as it leaves the earth and enters the atmosphere.

Radio station CJSS in Cornwall reported 15 calls enquiring about the earthquake. Some listeners reported themselves a little shaken by the noise but there was no discernible damage.

The NRC's spokesperson said the effects of a minor tremor like this would be "a bit of shaking and older windows might rattle, so might the dishes a little bit, and people would certainly be award of what was going on."

Several other similar tremors in the earth were recorded during the first week of October last year.

River diverted for bridge

OAK VALLEY (Staff) - A new concrete bridge built to replace the former 1920 vintage structure was opened and dedicated last Thursday afternoon here.

The project, in addition to the new bridge, involved diverting the South Branch River realigning approximately 350 metres of county road five. The new bridge, named the Oak Valley Bridge, is capable of carrying all legal loads on a new alignment.

The Oak Valley Bridge replaces the 1920 seven tonne load limit pony truss bridge (22.5 metres long by five metres wide) with a concrete deck on a precast concrete beam bridge (22.5 metres long by 10 metres wide).

The total project will cost roughly $440,000. The major portion of this figure is the cost of construction of the actual structure ($240,000.) The remainder will be dedicated to river relocation (30,000); approaches and road work ($100,000); design ($30,000); on-site superivision of the project ($50,000).

Funding was provided by the province of Ontario which contributed 80 per cent of the cost, and by local property taxes. The province's portion was part of its normal subsidy towards county roads.

Chesterville village parades for Santa Dec. 8, 10:30

(Staff) - Parade marshall Jim Sullivan has released details of the village's annual Santa Claus parade. Featured this year are the Cornwall branch of the Shriners. These worthy gentlemen told Mr. Sullivan they would be delighted to visit Chesterville this year and will make an appearance the same day at Finch. The parade starts here at 10:30am, unlike other years when an afternoon time slot was in force.

The parade will gather at Faubert Avenue in the Thompson sub-division and will wend its way along South Street, Main Street, across the bridge, down King Street and along to Emma.

The parade will then turn left on Main Street. Mr. Sullivan emphasized that this is the fine day route. Should the weather turn cold that morning the route will be shortened to alleviate discomfort for those taking part in the spectacle.

The floats will make their way to the town hall where coffee and hot chocolate will be provided for everyone by the Chesterville and District Chamber of Commerce.

ATTENTION, PARADE—GOERS

As a public service The Record's float in the annual Santa Claus parade here in the village will serve as a depot to collect tinned food for families in need this Christmas season. Members of our staff will man the float to receive donations of non-perishable food along the parade route. Our float decorations won't amount to much but there will be empty cardboard cartons on our wagon. Please help us fill them. The donations will be distributed by Mark Hart representing Social Services.

Store robbed at gunpoint

(Staff) - The Punkin Shell restaurant here was held up last Tuesday at 5:05pm by a masked gun-toting robber dressed in green coveralls.

Present in the store at the time were owner Ina Graafland and employee Chris Elliott. The thief escaped with a small amount of money.

"This is a hold-up," the intruder announced.

When Mrs. Graafland, who initially thought a prank was being played, fumbled with the cash register in her nervousness he told her to "hurry up."

"Hold your horses," she replied.

She said later her legs were shaking like jelly and she was unsure whether "my feet would hold me."

"Getting over something like this takes a long time," she commented and said the onset of darkness each evening is upsetting.

I'm really paranoid now as soon as it gets dark."

The robber left on foot, disguised by an orange rubber mask with black trim. No one was injured in the incident. Police arrived on the scene about 10 minutes later but were unable to locate the suspect. The case is still being investigated.

Miller gathering votes in EO

CORNWALL (Staff) - Ontario Progressive Conservative Leadership candidate Frank Miller has added two local delegates to his list of supporters. At last week's delegate selection meeting of the Cornwall riding delegates Malcolm MacDonald and Luke Bedard said they're in the Miller camp.

The riding's two automatic delegates, Stormont-Dundas MP Norm Warner and the Cornwall candidate in the upcoming by-election, Luc Guindon, said they were uncommitted.

Another leadership candidate, Larry Grossman, gained a supporter from the Cornwall contingent. The other seven delegates elected to vote at the leadership convention said they were uncommitted.

However, delegate Jim Kirkey said he was committed to Grossman at least for the first ballot. He indicated he might tilt to Miller if more ballots were required after that.

Early Christmas present

"Smokey" the grey kitten was as surprised as anyone when he become the center of attention at the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Ladies rummage sale Saturday morning at the Legion Hall. Bargains on clothing, knick-knacks, handmade crafts and baked goods were featured at the sale, and "Smokey" was one of the more unusual items up for grabs. The event managed to raise close to $500 to go towards the St. Andrew's building fund. Pictured from left, are Julie Armstrong of Chesterville, and the kittens new owner, Susan Rice, Manotick.

DHIA banquet honors top dairymen

SOUTH MOUNTAIN (Staff) - More than 300 people showed up at the South Mountain Agricultural Hall Saturday night for the annual Dundas County Dairy Herd Improvement Association awards banquet.

Formed as an incentive for better milk production, the association used the occasion to honor those producers in the county who exceeded provincial production averages last year and to present prestige awards for outstanding performances in particular areas of production.

Members also used the occasion to formally say thanks to Harold Boyce of Mountain. A local DHI supervisor for the last 16 years, Boyce was creditied for almost single-handedly getting the message across in the county that milk recording will lead to better production.

The 65-year-old Boyce, who officially retired Sept. 30, was presented with a retirement gift on behalf of the association.

In the awards ceremony, the Douma family of Chesterville was the big winner, picking up three of the eight prestige awards.

John, Abe and Rick Douma, representing Chestcreek Farms, were presented with trophies for highest plus cow (+82 over herd mates), highest BCA milk (240 BCA) and highest BCA fat (225 BCA). All three awards were based on the production of Chestcreek Farms cow Stirling-dale Tribune Vieta.

The Most Improved Supervised Herd trophy was presented to Gordon Smith of RR4, Winchester whose herd production went up +24. Placing second in the category with +21 was Bernard VanDerZweep of Morrisburg.

The Highest Composite BCA certificate (for a 167 BCA) and the Strader Trophy were presented to Bill Harbers of Brinston. The second highest composite (166) was recorded at the farm of Martin Verburg of Iroquois.

The Breeding Efficiency Certificate, presented to the producer whose animal had the shortest calving interval, was received by John Melenhorst and Sons of Winchester with an interval of 12.3 months.

Among those members who had animals with composite BCAs five points over the provincial average, three achieved the status for the first time. They were John Melenhorst and Sons, 147; Thomas Forward of Chesterville, 146; Gordon Smith of Chesterville, 137.

Also winning the DHI Shields were Bill Harbers, Martin Verburg, Carl and David Bryan, Chestcreek Farms, Bruce and Gordon Garlough, Francis Lynch, John DeJong, Charles Farlinger, William Merrakker, Tibben Farms, John VanDelst and Wilmer Porteous.

Other Shield winners were Coons Brothers, Ken Carkner, William DeJong, Mac Graham, Carl Sears and Sons, Cory Van Delst, Durk Bylsma, William KleinSwormink and Bert Moore.

The composite BCAs of the winners ranged 167 to 140.

Cheerleader clinic in Cornwall

DALLAS, TEXAS (Special) - It was announced last week that final plans have been made for the first annual one day cheerleader clinic to be held at St. Lawrence High School, 1450 Second Street East, Cornwall, Saturday, December 15.

Organizer of the clinic, Mrs. Bartle, cheerleader advisor at St. Lawrence High School, said she is very pleased to have the World Cheerleader Council conduct this first annual clinic for it provides a rare opportunity for eastern Ontario and northern New York area students to receive instruction from this internationally known staff of professional cheerleader instructors.

Mrs. Bartle explained that the WCC offers a program of cheers, songs, pom pom routines, technique, crowd control, sportsmanship, appearances, conduct and when and what to yell. The World Cheerleader Council is considered one of the foremost Cheerleader Organizations in the World. Their staff of college and professional cheerleaders have travelled throughout the United States and Canada conducting clinics and camps for over 13 years.

The program will begin at 9am and end at 3:30pm with an hour break for lunch.

The program is open to all students - ages 12 to 18 - whether elected cheerleaders or individuals interested in learning more about cheerleading for future tryouts.

Students interested in obtaining more information about the clinic, or to register, should contact Mrs. Bartle, Cheerleader Advisor, St. Lawrence High School, 1450 Second Street, Cornwall, Ontario K6H 5Z8 or call 613-933-8410. W.I. views slides of Stormont Fair

By Lee Hesson

INGLESIDE (Special) - Mrs. Margaret Markell chaired the November meeting for our president Mrs. Mary Nugent who is holidaying in Florida.

Following the welcome, ode and Mary Stewart collect Mrs. Jean Thompson took us on a delightful trip to the "World's Fair" - where? - Newington of course. She showed vivid colored pictures of prize cattle, draft and driving horses, horse races, the new cattle shed, 4-H exhibits, amusements, food tents and last but by no means least the clowns, floats, bicycles, antiques and children with the parade.

Mrs. Thompson also showed slides on the disappearance of the small farms especially in western Ontario where precious foodland is being swallowed up by urban development. Ontario has two-thirds less farmers than 15 years ago. Our future depends upon the survival of the farm, but it is almost impossible for youth to start farming due to the exorbitant cost of operation. Today to be a successful farmer one must be a mechanic, engineer, veterinarian, accountant and almost superhuman.

Mrs. Doreen Winters gave a reading on "The Seed and the Harvest" as well as "An Alphabet for Life."

Thoughts on the disappearance of the small farm were expressed in the roll call by members.

Mrs. Marion Green read a letter from our sponsored boy, Mark.

Members interested in the rug braiding course will meet at the home of Mrs. Kay Flegg, Mon., Dec. 3 at 1:30pm to make arrangements for classes in January.

Mrs. Enid Wasson gave a brief resume of the area convention held in the Talisman Hotel, Ottawa.

Mrs. Muriel Dixon gave a talk on the Women's Institutes organizations, emphasizing that the branch WI is the first and most important part of the whole organization. It is open to all women and girls interested in the promotion of better living.

We received an invitation to attend the St. Andrew's WI meeting on Dec. 4 at 8pm in the Heritage Centre.

Arrangements were made for our next meeting to be held in the library on Dec. 10 at 8pm. Mrs. K. Flegg, J. Thompson, and M. Nugent were appointed as a committee to prepare for an auction sale of gifts.

'Aerobics and Iron' to open

CORNWALL (Staff) - Chesterville's Blaine Symonds and his business partner, Doug Kennedy, Iroquois, have opened the area's first fitness club, Aerobics and Iron, on Pitt Street here. With open house last Saturday and Sunday interested persons and members of the media had an opportunity for a sneak preview.

With the grand opening scheduled for December 15, the club is already underway with several memberships signed up. Besides the two proprietors the staff consists of two specially trained instructors, Faye Brunet and Laurie Hawn.

Faye listed the facilties available: "there's 6,000 square feet of space and members have unlimited use of the facilities." There's Zen-Tec equipment, 5,000 lbs. of free weights, Olympic weights, Ergometer bikes and aerobics classes. To assist the tired fitness enthusiast there are also showers, saunas and lockers.

Memberships are sold at three levels, three months, six months and one year, although there is currently a pre-opening special rate which lasts until December 1.

Faye said "there's been a lot of interest so far and our central location makes everything convenient." She said members can have individual training programs designed for them according to their fitness needs.

Blaine Symonds, 30, is married to Jane (Allison) of Winchester Springs and the couple has a youngster, Jordan. Blaine is currently in management at Footlocker, a Mississauga sportswear company. Doug Kennedy was also a Footlocker manager for several years at Ottawa and Winnipeg. The two have joined forces to go into business independently here. Blaine also operates two discos, one in Chesterville and the other in Ottawa.

Doug Kennedy said at the open house that he felt the business enterprise was going to take off with a great deal of interest being displayed in the few hours the premises had been open. With a busload of Chesterville residents already making plans to attend on a regular basis Aerobics and Iron looks like becoming a popular fitness stop.

Council receives snow removal tenders

(Staff) - Although tenders for the village snow-blowing contract were submitted and were opened at last week's council meeting there has been no decision made. Because the members of council could not form a quorum the bids were handed over to town foreman Jack Smith for his perusal. With instructions to Mr. Smith to check the bids for quality reeve Carl Ward said no decision could be made at that time.

Tenders for the tandem dump truck were: Gerald Stewart, $32 per hour; Sullivan Bros. $33 per hour; Lynn Robertson $33 per hour; Ron Droppo $33 per hour; Harold Smith $33 per hour.

For a tractor backhoe with front-end loader and operator tenders were: Monast Backhoe $28 per hour; Sullivan Bros. $30 per hour; Gordon Elliott $30 per hour.

N.D.D.H.S. student art

Chesterville Rotary Report

By Allison Graham

Once again we enjoyed a fine meal followed by a sing-song led by Rotarian Chuck Adamson with Doris Cross at the piano.

It was decided to sponsor a student for the Adventure in Citizenship. In other business, the club will be selling mixed nuts as a way to raise money for club projects. If each Rotarian sells a case of twelve cans, our profit is $600. Unfortunately, our funds have reached a very low point.

The speaker was Bill Bradley, introduced by Martin Derks. Mr. Bradley is a social worker, employed by 'The Shepherd of Good Hope.' This organization cares for the destitute in Central Ottawa. A church basement is used to serve meals. The basement seats 120 people and sometimes two sittings are necessary. They started with three volunteers and two hungry "Street People." Funds and supplies are all donated and sometimes are down to their last dollar but always some generous person helps out.

Many of the people who come in for meals have no place to sleep except under bridges or next to warm walls. Eventually, another church basement was found to supply the beds for the needy. The amazing thing about this set-up is as the need became greater, the community responded to keep on hand sufficient funds, food and clothing.

Mr. Bradley felt that the future is not very bright for the type of people being served. More and more machinery is used to replace people who once performed the menial tasks in the community. Also, the average age of this type of person is becoming younger.

Chuck Adamson thanked the speaker and presented him with a jar of Nescafe.

PROPERTY ASSESSMENT
and your 1985 Municipal and School Taxes

Regional Offices located throughout Ontario are responsible for assessing all real property for the purposes of municipal and school taxation.

The resulting Assessment Rolls are delivered to municipalities which use them to set their mill rates and compute municipal property tax bills.

The amount of property tax you pay on your home or business depends on the assessed value and the mill rate set by your municipality. The assessed value multiplied by the mill rate will determine your 1985 property taxes.

Open House Sessions
Open Houses are your opportunity to fully understand your assessment and to evaluate its equity.
Open Houses are held in every municipality at convenient times and locations, to provide you with the opportunity to discuss your assessment with staff of the Regional Assessment Office.
An assessor will be pleased to explain the basis of your property assessment and is authorized to amend any information as may be necessary prior to the delivery of the Assessment Roll to your municipality.
If you have any questions but are unable to attend the Open House, please contact your Regional Assessment Office at the address or telephone number shown below.

Assessment Notice
Property owners and tenants will receive an Assessment Notice only if information regarding their property or assessment was changed during the past year, if the assessment was appealed last year, or if the property has been reassessed under section 63 of the Assessment Act. If you receive an Assessment Notice, it may reflect changes you have requested in your school support designation, in the amount of your assessed value, or other recorded information on last year's Notice.

Appeal Procedure
If, after attending your local Open House, you are still dissatisfied with your assessment, you have a right to appeal it to the Assessment Review Board. The Assessment Review Board conducts informal hearings and is responsible for determining whether the assessment under appeal is fair and equitable with the assessments of similar properties in the vicinity or neighbourhood, and may alter your assessment accordingly.

Appeal Deadline
The final date for appealing your assessment is January 9, 1985.
Your appeal must be forwarded, either on a Notice of Appeal Form or as a letter, to the Regional Registrar of the Assessment Review Board on or before January 9, 1985, noting your property address, Roll Number and the reason for the appeal.
To assist you in this regard, Notice of Appeal forms and the address of the Regional Registrar of the Assessment Review Board are available at Open Houses, your Regional Assessment Office, or your municipal office.

SNRCA lobbies for government flood funds

BERWICK (Staff) - The executive of the South Nation River Conservation Authority (SNRCA) wants a meeting with Stormont-Dundas MP Norm Warner at the earliest opportunity in order to press for a new federal-provincial agreement whereby some of the authority's flood-control projects may receive government funding in the future.

With the expiry of the former Eastern Ontario Subsidiary agreement (EOSA) the authority is lobbying both levels of government to get together to establish a formal structure for payment of local projects touching both on environmental and agricultural concerns.

General manager Jim Windsor said last week "we should get as many projects into a new agreement as we can." Mr. Windsor argues the pre-engineering phase of new projects should be completed so that SNRCA will be ready to go should funding come through at any given time.

Members of the executive have already lobbied the eastern Ontario caucus of the Davis government. They met recently at Ottawa and were allowed an hour to present their position regarding upcoming projects.

"The province will provide money sufficient to keep some projects moving there but there are no construction dollars in the '85 or '86," Mr. Windsor told the authority's executive members.

Chairman Lorne Strader read the contents of a letter received from housing and municipal affairs minister Claude Bennett after the meeting with the caucus.

Bob Graham, representing Oxford-on-Rideau township, said "they're putting us on hold with that letter. I suggest we take action and see the ministry headquarters people."

Members of the authority felt they should name their upcoming projects in order of priority so that they can tell the ministries providing funds what their needs are at any given time. Areas for future projects include Bear Brook, Plantagenet, North Augusta and general flood plain mapping.

"That letter is a put-off," Mr. Graham noted again. "We should be lobbying. It's worth the $1000 or whatever it takes to send four guys down to Toronto.

John McIntyre objected saying, "we should know what projects we want." Members were hesitant to do this, saying such a decision could be construed as being of a political nature by members of the public.

A committee of four will visit both the PC caucus and the Ministry of Agriculture and Food at Toronto in December.

Church history related at SV Presbyterial

By Peg Campbell

KEMPTVILLE (Special) - A cold, gusty wind ushered in 46 women to the warmth of Hulbert Valley United Church on Tuesday, November 13, for the Seaway Valley Presbyterial UCW Executive meeting. The welcoming committee soon took away the chill with a cup of hot coffee, muffins, and doughnuts.

President Phyllis Noble opened the meeting with a poem. We were then officially welcomed by Mrs. Marion Gilmer, president of the local UCW, who gave a most informative history of the church. They are celebrating the 110th anniversary of the first church on the same site. Several churches have been lost by fire through the years, but a new one has always been erected through the commitment of the community.

Charlene Smail, Ruth Coons and Helen Scharfe, representing the Brinston UCW, led us in worship - "How Big is your God?" We must be buttressed from within by faith. Suited to the theme, we sang "Faith of our Fathers."

The business then proceeded as usual. Doris Begg informed the ladies that the report forms will be ready and will be given out at Presbytery. The new Stewardship convenor is Phyllis Steele from Vankleek Hill. It was with regret that we accepted the resignation of our vice president, Jessie Foster. That position is now open.

Presidents, have you received your copy of "Recycle Resources - Stewardship Starters for Women"? It contains good program material.

The regional vice presidents all reported interesting and worthwhile rallies. Felicia Bailey of region one thanked the ladies for her two years in office as also did Betty Beckstead of region three. These ladies felt that their term had been a growing experience and that they had learned a great deal in the two years they had been visiting with and helping the UCW's in their areas. Charlene Shepherd of region two is just beginning her term and is looking forward to meeting with the ladies in her area. Region four representative was absent from the meeting.

Peg Campbell, of communications, was glad to see that so many of the ladies had noticed the meeting write-ups in the local newspapers. Our thanks to the papers for this service. It is much appreciated. Peg had been to presbytery where their communications division had given a presentation on the value of a church bulletin board. Joyce Stevens had described the Cassburn bulletin board with its great variety of items (a feedback box, youth area, local news, community events calendar, upcoming church workshops and events, box for Campbell soup labels and more). It sounded like a weekly "must see" for those church goers - and a great idea for others to try.

Linda Kubelka of Christian Development mentioned that the Avel catalogues are out. The Korean study kit was discussed and other good sources of program material may be found in Mandate, The Gathering, Exchange and Women's Concerns. "The Gathering" may be ordered through Canec.

For World Outreach, Ruth Alguire made mention of Mandate and the Stewardship Magazine, and particular emphasis was given to Africa, their emergency fund and the need to keep the Mission and Service fund well supplied all through the year so that money is available when needed. She proposed a project for us: read as many newspaper articles and books as we can find on Africa so that we may be up to date and well informed.

Joan Oakwell and Bea Ogilvie, the ladies who are responsible for all our great book displays, reported sales of $1211.83. They had received a letter of thanks from Mr. Tilley of Canec.

President Phyllis rounded out the morning by bringing us the latest information on the fish pins ($74,200 has been sent to the Korean ladies), by reminding local convenors to send in their reports to presbyterial officers, and by reminding outgoing officers to pass on their material to the new convenors.

Mention was made of the national boycott of military toys sponsored by the Alliance for Non-Violent Action and supported by UCW groups, among others. Your November Observer, page 19, has details.

Phyllis gave us an informative slide talk on General Council this past summer at Morden, Manitoba.

Rev. Paul Miller from the Vankleek Hill Pastoral charge spoke to the ladies on "Celebrating Life's Important Events". Through a discussion of worship, we learned that it is the work of the people (not the minister alone), that it is more than words, and that, as it is central to our lives, it is not just a one day a week thing. Creative worship is appropriate for special occasions and at different times. This led into a discussion of rituals, their purpose and formation. The ladies present will remember Paul's discussion, examples and "sample" celebration when in the future they have a special event to celebrate - moving to a new home - thankfulness for a new child - a special anniversary or retirement - a special gift, a good harvest - and perhaps they will celebrate their special event with creative worship.

At the closing of the day, Linda Kubelka asked us to bring with us to the February meeting in Winchester our song books, worship resource books, concordances, poetry and any other material we have so that we may work together in creating several worship services for Easter, based on various symbols, which she will provide.

An excellent day of sharing and learning.

Teacher demand 6.4 per cent

CORNWALL (Staff) - Factfinder Dr. Harold E. Jakes has recommended a compromise in the contract demands by elementary school teachers employed by The SD&G County Board of Education.

The teachers are demanding a compensation package of 6.4 per cent but the board has offered a five per cent deal. Dr. Jakes has noted, however, that the teachers demands are not unreasonable.

He acknowledges all settlements in the province have been piercing the five per cent suggested maximum. "I have recommended a total compensation package, including increments and grid restoration, which would range from 5.2 per cent to 5.8 per cent."

Dr. Jakes commended both the Board and teachers for their mature bargaining. Issues of principals' designates, vacancy policy, parental leave, tenure and recall, staffing, and facilities have been resolved. Agreement has also been reached for joint committee discussion of issues such as retirement gratuity and the impact of French programs in the elementary schools.

The demand by teachers would increase taxes and additional .5 mills for the balance of 1984 and 1.3 mills for the 1984-85 contract agreement. The Board's levy for 1984 was 4 mills, a 6.41 increase over the 1983 contract.

Plastic toys can be X-rayed

OTTAWA (Special) - The Consumer Affairs Department says a new formula that allows plastics, such as toys that have been swallowed, to be detected on an X-ray film is a breakthrough for consumers -- especially parents of infants.

Most plastics don't show up on an X-ray but after five years of research, the world's largest toy-maker, Mattel Inc. has developed a formula that allows their plastic products to be detected on X-ray film.

And the safer toys are on the market in time for the Christmas season.

"The problem has been one of our biggest concerns," said Dr. Kamlesh Gupta, of the department's product safety branch.

"We were anxious to see some remedial action and this is certainly a move in the right direction."

Gupta said that his department does not have statistics on how many children become ill or die because plastic toys they swallow are not detected on X-rays.

But, he said, physicians have long been complaining about the problem, particularly in recent years, as toymakers use more and more plastic parts in their products.

Usually, the piece of plastic swallowed by a child comes up in a fit of coughing or passes through the system without causing harm.

But, in some cases, the part can lodge in a vital area of the body, like the respiratory tract, lungs or intestinal tract.

Mattel's engineers and chemists have found a way to safely the substance people are asked to They have used barium sulfate - substance people are asked to swallow when X-rays are taken of their gastro-intestinal tracts -- which makes the plastic visible on X-ray film.

SNRCA wants staff but curtailed by province funds

BERWICK (Staff) - With government funding tight members of the South Nation River Conservation Authority (SNRCA) were told their plans to hire three additional staff members may have to be curtailed or modified.

The authority is seeking to hire a works superintendent, a second engineering technologist and a land management coordinator. Of the three positions the one most likely to be hired will be a public works superintendent. Provision for this position will be made in next spring's budget. Half the funding for the position will probably be obtained from the Ministry of Natural Resources and the rest paid by the authority.

SNRCA plans to hire the engineering technologist though, and is also working on ways to provide funding for the third position, possibly out of the levy.

Calling all cooks

Our Christmas issue, December 19, will centre around a country cooking theme, with our readers' help. We're calling the issue "A Country Christmas Cookbook" and we need your recipes to give a down-home flavor to this project.

Since we're nearing the end of Ontario's bicentennial why not send us some treasured, old "receipts" of your grandmother's or great-grandmother's? We'll print them and credit the sender of the recipes. We need lots of recipes and we'd like to see some of the gentlemen among our readers contribute some too. Good cooking is not defined by gender -- anyone can cook.

To allow time for type-setting may we have your recipes by Monday, December 3. Please help -- get into the Christmas spirit early and help the Record's harried news staff compile a super Christmas issue.

Audrey's law part II

Audrey Cross reports an update on her cash register sign. To replace the pink sign reading "The Best Man for the Job is a Woman" described in a recent Record editorial, Mrs. Cross has received a new one all the way from Fort Smith in the North West Territories. A parcel arrived on Monday and inside was an impressive looking object. Audrey says she was getting a bit bored with the old one and is delighted with this new ornament. The gift came compliments of The Snowbirds. Audrey says she suspects Bill Lannin was behind it. Audrey says she also received a note in the mail claiming that "behind every successful woman is a surprised man."

The leaders course in braiding was taken by Vivian Mixon and Millie Bradford. They will be teaching it later on to any interested members.

Congratulations were extended to our members Susie Cass and Mildred Paul who played euchre and won top spot in the Legion Auxiliary tournament held in Brockville recently.

Congratulations were also extended to Margaret Casselman who will receive a Bicentennial medal in December for her voluntary service.

Guest speaker Muriel Allen of Cornwall was introduced and thanked by Anne Craig. Her topic was "The Toastmaster's Communication and Leadership Program" which was thoroughly enjoyed by all members. She was presented with a gift by Anne Craig.

A delicious lunch was served by the committee.

Update for bylaw

BERWICK (Staff) - The township of Finch has requested funding for a community planning grant for preparation of a major update in the zoning by-law to conform with the recently approved township of Finch official plan. The total amount for this work is $10,000, including $7,700 for consultant fees and $3,000 for municipal costs. The firm of J.L. Richards has been appointed consultants for this work.

A severance was approved for Ewart Neville. Permission was granted to sever 49½ acres for sale to his sons and to retain a parcel 190' x 160'.

Carl Nugent's application for a tile drainage loan was approved subject to a sufficient allocation from the provincial government. Mr. Nugent will receive $18,000.

St. Bernard's CWL meeting

FINCH (Special) - The November meeting of St. Bernard's CWL was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Luykx with 11 members present. Father O'Brien said Mass prior to the meeting and bless the new home of Mary Luykx.

President Mary Grady welcomed everyone and began the meeting with the league prayer. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The St. Bernard's CWL will be hosting the diocesan annual meeting in May 1985.

The members of the CWL will arrange the lunch for the annual parish Christmas dance November 24.

Kathleen MacNaughton, the convener of Christian family life, spoke on her trip to Toronto. As president of the diocese she went to the provincial CWL meeting.

She noted that the CWL will be no longer sponsoring the girl guides. She also mentioned that there will be no more floating president allowed on the CWL parish's levels. A president must serve her two year term.

The meeting was adjourned and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess and her lunch conveners.

SVTC welcomes hotel program

MORRISBURG (Staff) - The Seaway Valley Tourist Council has welcomed the announcement that courses on hotel management will likely be available in Cornwall next September.

At its meeting last Wednesday, Tourist Council president Roger Croxall noted that the Cornwall campus of St. Lawrence College hopes to introduce the new courses. "The courses are close to becoming a reality," he told Council directors' meeting at the Morrisburg Civic Centre. Mr. Croxall added that the Brockville campus of St. Lawrence College has been running similar courses for the past two years.

Terri Lalonde, executive manager of the tourist council, said the courses will benefit the hospitality industry and all tourism related activities.

The courses, on different components of hotel management, are expected to include programs on bar tending and food preparation.

Agricultural health and safety hearing at Casselman December 13

CASSELMAN (Staff) - The Ontario Task Force on Health and Safety in Agriculture, established by the Ministry of Agriculture and Food and the Ministry of Labour, will hold a hearing here December 13 at the Knights of Columbus Hall from 2-5pm and from 7 to 10pm.

Representatives of organizations and individuals are invited to present their concerns about the health and safety of farmers and farm workers at the public hearings from November 1984 to January 1985.

Although the task force would prefer receiving written briefs prior to the hearing, it also welcomes oral presentations. Participants are asked to advise the task force of the time and the meeting they plan to attend.

"The task force is particularly interested in views about the nature of occupational health and safety hazards in agriculture and where the need for protection exists," said Dr. N. Richard Richards, chairman. "It seeks information on variables in occupational health and safety experiences, including age and involvement to the industry. Suggestions about mechanisms for providing protection against health and safety hazards in farm work will also be welcomed."

The task force was formed in October 1983 to investigate and report on the need for protection of the health and safety of farmers, farm workers and members of farm families engaged in farm work.

NDDHS report

Caren Wu

Visons of holidays dance in our heads, and glittering gossip flows through the halls as the student body gets ready for Christmas.

Several classes drew names this week, and arranged gift giving get-togethers (with an abundant supply of Christmas cheer, no doubt). Wondering what to buy that person who has everything??? The art department and Athletic Association have the answer...a Christmas calendar displaying talented art work of rural scenes around the area. It's sure to be the perfect gift and they're only $5.75 somewhat inexpensive for a collector's item.

Speaking of collector's items, how about $5.00 tickets to see a live performance of the hottest Canadian rock group right here at our humble highschool?!? The raging rock group from Niagara Falls, will grace our stage on December 15 with their heavenly presence. Now that's what I call jingle bell rock!!!

The Spirit and Float committee have already discussed plans for the upcoming parade. Tim Lumis seems to be doing a fantastic job in organizing the event and this year's entry should be well up to par.

New scouts

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Chesterville's past

24 — From the Record, Thurs., Dec. 18, 1924

The Elma Methodist Sunday School will hold their Christmas entertainment on Friday, Dec. 19 at 8 o'clock. Choruses, dialogues, pantomines, drills and recitals are planned. Admission is 25 cents.

The continued cold spell has given hockey a good send off in Chesterville this year, when more interest is being manifest in the activities of the club than for some time. The rink opened last night, the earliest in years, with a perfect sheet of ice and a large crowd present. With the exception of Johnny Sorrell, the whole senior bunch was on the ice and for a first night had a rather strenous work out. If the first flash is an indication of what may be expected later on Chesterville is going to require some beating this year. There will be two new faces on the team this year in Jarvis, a centre man, and Cross, a defence player, and the reappearance of the ever popular Ralph Hummel. The team will appear in new colors this year, a gift to the club by Mr. O.L. King, manager of the local Nestle's plant, bearing on the front the word 'Nestle's' with the number of the player on the back. The sweaters will be those of the color of the Nestle company, white with blue trim.

A number of young people at Morewood, learning that Mr. McCrae our Banker, was about to leave the village on account of his Bank withdrawing from Morewood, met at the Manse on Tuesday evening where a delightful time was spent with Mr. McCrae as their guest of honor. The address was read by Mr. Sherwood Wilson and the presentation made by Miss Margaret Carlyle. The orchestra of which Mr. McCrae was a member, rendered several selections.

$300 worth of prizes are up for grabs at the grand opening of the new Finch Arena, Dec. 19. The opening will be in the form of a masquerade Skating Carnival, with fancy costume and moccasin dance. "Come see the finest covered rink in eastern Ontario." Good music will be furnished by Strollers Dance Orchestra and the Highland Pipe and Brass Band. Refreshments and fancy drinks will be served during the evening. Admission is 50 cents.

At the last sitting of the Division Court at Finch, J.H.D. McMillan was penalized $10 and costs for not affixing a two cent excise stamp to a receipt for more than $10 as required by the provisions of The Special War Revenue Act. The report of the above case is inserted pursuant to instructions from the Department of Customs and Excise.

BORN — Hummel - at Chesterville, on Dec. 13, 1924, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hummel, a daughter, (Gladys Marjory).

BORN — Shaver - At Finch, on Thursday Dec. 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Shaver a daughter (Bertha May).

44 — From The Record, Thurs., Dec. 14, 1944

There will be an organization meeting of the Chesterville Badminton Club in the upstairs of the Community Hall next Friday. Please turn out and give us your support.

Saturday evening around seven o'clock the fire alarm was sounded for a blaze in Jim Casselman's buildings about four miles north of Chesterville when the barn was completely destroyed. It was practically empty at the time with the exception of some hay and straw.

The barn doors blew open dislodging a lantern from where it hung. The lantern exploded, the flames catching quickly in the loose straw and the place was a mass of flames almost before Casselman could get out. So quickly did it burn that in about fifteen minutes the roof had fallen in. The horse stable caught fire more than once but was saved by strenous work of the neighbours.

Chesterville will have a skating rink this winter. The damage to the superstructure has been repaired and with other changes and improvements the prospects look good for skating and hockey this winter. Contractor Emerson Faulkner had had the work in hand and it is understood that repairs will be made with cables and bracing. Cinders have been built up at both ends of the ice surface where standing room only will be provided for viewing the games.

The Crysler Women's Institute spent a very pleasant evening, Dec. 7 at the home of Mrs. I. Armstrong with 17 members present. Mrs. M. Johnstone, president, read the ode followed by the creed.

The presentations of diplomas was held at the High School Commencement last Thursday. In track and field, Ardeth Justus took the junior girls award, while intermediate winner was Rita Paul, and Senior Marjorie Wood. Junior track-and-fielder was Floyd Taylor; Intermediate, Grenville Fyke; and Senior Dwight Droppo. The O.L. King shield for mathematics went to Lila Young. The Allison and Gillian trophy for home economics went to Lois Renwick. The Dr. Clayton trophy for general shop went to Douglas Hough. Those taking part in the Folk Dance at the end of the awards ceremony included Helen Moore, Ruth Moore, Helen Servage and Marjorie Wood. Scandinavian Dancers were Evalene Thom, Lois Renwick, Margaret Gilroy, Patricia McCadden, Marion Bell, Jean Murphy, Phyllis Clayton, Rita Paul, Sheila MacMillan and Lois Merkley.

The butter ration is being reduced from seven ounces to approximately six ounces per person a week at the first of the year according to the Prices Board. This step has been taken to adjust consumption to supply during the winter months.

While it may be considered lucky in comparison to other parts of Ontario when it comes to a matter of snow, we think it is being overdone just a bit. Two record breaking snow storms and this only the middle of December, has us wallowing in snow of unusual depth. The streets and roads in the vicinity were just getting back to normal when this second storm has come along.

NORTHFIELD NEWS: Mr. and Mrs. Brownell of Farran's Point were Sunday tea guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Warner and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Eamer spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Antoine and family, Mille Roches.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Markell were in Cornwall last week.

Mr. Cecil Warner has secured a position in Nobel, Ontario.

Dundas-Grenville Temperance Federation elected officers for 1945 recently. Some of those now posted include: Dr. J.J. McKendry, Mr. Cass, Howard Nesbitt, Mrs. Strader McIntosh and Allison Graham

The Editor's Notebook

Red tape blues

The bureaucracy required in order to do business with the bureaucracy is phenomenal, not to say frustrating and highly annoying.

Take the National Research Centre, for instance. In order to make a few enquiries about Monday morning's earthquake we perused the blue pages of the Ottawa telephone book searching for a series of seven digits which would put us through to this organization.

Finally, we found a number. We dialled. The operator answered and said that number had been changed. She supplied a new number. Now, why would a long-established body like the nation's premier research outfit shift and change its phone number like a fly-by-night enterprise? We dialled the second number. It turned out to be someone's private residence. We tried the operator. She told us to dial 555-1212. We did just that. And received a third number..

Third time lucky. And number three tries to get connected to someone at the NRC who knew a little about earthquakes. With the finest telephone system in the world (they tell us) and the finest civil service in the world (former trade minister Ed Lumley once told us that) and an army of very highly paid scientists in residence at the NRC, why is getting a little information so tremendously difficult? Does anyone do any work any more?

For anyone who cares the telephone number of the National Research Council is 993-9101, not 993-3659 or 995-6295. Got it?-Alvah Hanrahan-

Let's shop at home

When you're making a list and checking it twice, why not stay home? If we shop at home as much as we can this gift-giving season we'll be helping the community greatly. Dollars kept here circulate and are spent over and over in businesses in the district. And salaries.

There are lots of spin-off benefits like taxes and community services, not to mention civic pride when the fragile economies of small rural areas are buttressed by money kept in the community itself.

In many cases the success of local business is dependent to a great extent on the few weeks preceeding Christmas. Local patronage is crucial to small businesses surviving and remaining healthy.

Chesterville provides a wide range of goods and services and going outside for interesting or everyday items really isn't necessary most of the time.

Let's do ourselves a favor this year and make an effort to shop at home.-Alvah Hanrahan-

Local Rembrandts

We've noticed there is a plethora of talented local young artists here. Like many others we were impressed by the fine work displayed in the high school's hand-drawn calendar. And we're featuring one of the pen and ink sketches on this page.

As well, the touching posters painted for the Legion's Remembrance Day Poster Contest are also in this week's issue and we thought them as fine as the national winners featured in the press kit sent out by the Legion across the country.

Recently, too, we featured the local children's Hallowe'en efforts when they pitched into a contest to promote Hallowe'en safety. We're pleased to reproduce from time to time the children's art work and to provide space for young local artists in our community newspaper.-Alvah Hanrahan-

Ethiopians helped

JoAnne Saunders is a caring, plucky woman. Going out on a limb by herself and deciding to organize a one-woman effort to aid the Ethiopian relief effort from the confines of a small eastern Ontario town so far from the scene took imagination and courage. Others have joined her, to their credit. They are super citizens.

In a small way their efforts and your contributions will be felt. But so very little. Ethiopia has been revealed to the world outside its borders as something bordering on the Belsen or Dachau of our times.

With a megalomaniacal dictator in charge, aided and abetted by the Soviets and their gifts of war materials and weaponry the starving millions in the hinterlands were virtually ignored until one photographer opened the eyes of the world through the lens of his camera.

Then no one could ignore the situation. But we're really too late with the assistance that is now being organized. Feeling guilty with every good meal eaten in our homes now or taken in restaurants doesn't alleviate the despair of the truly unfortunate in a far-away African country many people had never heard of until lately. The organization has to come from governments around the world and established relief agencies as well as the United Nations.

But we can help too, just a little. JoAnne Saunders did.-Alvah Hanrahan-

by Wyn Thompson

Our host and hostess were wonderful tour guides of the Old Salem restoration. Of course, we could only visit a small portion of it, but what I did see reminded me so much of the approach that was taken at Williamsburg. The people live in the restored homes and go about their business of living each day, seemingly unaware of the singular pleasure they afford their visitors each day.

We did visit the Museum of Early South Decorative Arts, a lovely experience, for it was an artistic settlement, the Tavern Museum, Salem Square, the Single Brothers House, the Winkler Bakery and the Moravian Church, to highlight but a few of our stops.

We paused a moment at the Sidewalk Studio of Kim Kesterson. With a portable canvas and palette, she was free to find her subject anywhere. The brick sidewalk at Academy and Church streets proved to be a handy place for Ms. Kesterson, an art student at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, to sit and paint a picture of the 184-year-old Moravian Church.

I was fascinated by the Moravian Church, its doctrine and approach to worship. I had never heard of the Moravian Church before. It was founded in 1771 and it is a 2000-member congregation of the Southern Province of the Moravian Church in America and, thereby, a member of the World-Wide Unity founded in Bohemia in 1457.

The church doctrine allows for considerable freedom of personal belief and interpretation of scripture, always acknowledging Jesus Christ as lord of life. In doctrine and practice they try to abide by the motto adopted by Bishop John Amos Comenius: "In essentials, unity; in nonessentials, liberty; in all things, love."

Much of the uniqueness of the Moravian Church is found in its approach to worship. The lovefeast - a worship service including a meal of sweet bun and coffee, symbolizing the love of Christ and the unity of Christians, has been part of Moravian custom for two and one-half centuries. As in all churches choral and instrumental music and fellowship are a vital of their worship and congregational life.

Although the brothers and sisters are no longer segregated, the Home Moravian Church has retained many of its rich traditions of the past and at the same time provides a broad program of activity for its large, 20th century congregation.

One of these rich traditions I would love to be a part of is an old Salem Christmas, held in this historic area that is now designated a national historic landmark.

During an old Salem Christmas eight of the sixty-one restored buildings are open and alive with activities typical of the town during the Christmas season in the late 18th and early 19th centuries. In some ways the Moravians' celebration of Christ's birth was unique with their church lovefeasts, lighted pyramids, colourful illuminations and beautiful music, and an old salem Christmas recreates some of these special features. As anywhere in the world, the Christmas season was not all celebration for work had to be done everyday in the harsh back country. An old Salem Christmas therefore also recreates the day by day work of the tradesmen and their wives in this small, industrious town.

As we possibly might never pass this way again, the Farmer and I purchased some of the sweet buns and had our own lovefeast. I can taste them yet - a very sweet, rich, cinnamon-flavoured bun that simply melted in your mouth. Our host and hostess told us the coffee served was the best they had ever tasted, and of course no recipes are available, but we were told it was boiled in large kettles and the cream and sugar added to the boiling ingredients.

At the Winkler Bakery we also purchased a half dozen pumpkin muffins which inspired me to make some when I got home. At Christmas time I am going to attempt the making of some sweet buns flavored well with cinnamon. They will not be comparable but will be a pleasant reminder of a special time spent at old Salem with two special people.

We stopped at the Moravian Graveyard called appropriately God's Acre, which was first used for burial in 1771. The burial of members according to "choirs," or station in life (married men, married women, single men, single women) rather than by families, carries out the departmental system introduced into the Moravian Church over 200 years ago by Count Nicholas Zinzendorf.

The simple, recumbent stones symbolize the Moravian belief in the democracy of death, with no distinction between the rich and poor. Since 1772, the Easter sunrise service of the Moravians has been concluded in this graveyard.

At day's end we stopped at Bethabara Park, the first site of the Moravian settlement in North Carolina. In recent years archaeological research has revealed the foundation walls and cellars of many of the original buildings, and an archaeological park has been developed to interpret the early community. The 1756 palisade fort has been reconstructed, and the church and potter's house have been restored as exhibit buildings. The manner in which the foundation walls and cellars are displayed reminded us of the restoration of the Old Mill ruins in Merrickville by Parks Canada. A very pleasing display, indeed.

In the parking lot as we got out of the car, I noted a wonderfully sweet, fruity smell. About the same time our host said, "persimmons." His wife said, "Oh, and I thought I'd missed them and you wouldn't have the persimmon pudding you like so much."

They grabbed a paper bag from the back of the car and began picking like fury...so did we, although we hardly knew why. Then I tasted one and then another and...it was fruit fit for the gods indeed. I had never tasted anything like it.

All too soon, it was time to start north.

Since we came home I have received a letter from our friends, and they tell us that they got their persimmon puddings made and our host T.D. declares them the best they've ever made.

Guides get cooking

Although the cookies aren't visible here the girls had lots of fun baking and serving goodies they've chosen from their new cook book just published last week. Barbie Dowell (left) and Micheline VanWylick are examining the plate of cookies offered by Laurie Lannin. The guides are raising money through cook book sales for their March rally in Toronto.

Cookbook celebrates 75th anniversary

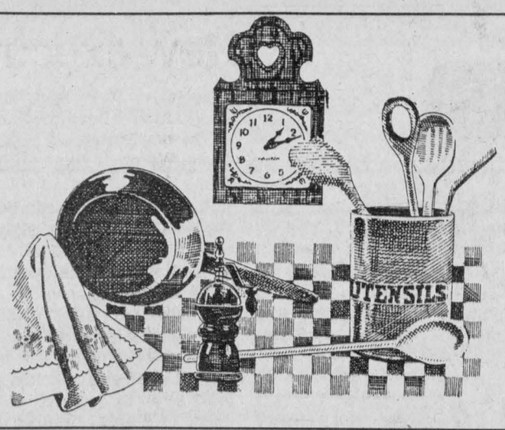
(Staff) - To celebrate the 75th anniversary of guiding internationally, to recognize Ontario's bicentennial and to raise funds for a provincial guiding rally in Toronto the local guiding group has produced a very fine cookbook. Just off the presses the book, bound appropriately in blue, features a section of treasured heritage recipes handed down to the girls from their grandmothers. As well, there are lots of modern treats featured in the pages of the book -- The Record staff was given a pre-Christmas present of goodies baked by some of the guides. Since many of these girls have earned their baker's badges recently there's a lot of interest in the culinary arts within the local girl guide company.

At last Thursday's weekly meeting trays of goodies baked by the girls according to the recipes in the cookbook were served. Each guide's family is represented in the book since everybody contributed. As well, the leaders are all represented too as are several friends of the guides.

When the local company visits Toronto in March and participates in the rally at Maple Leaf Gardens they will know that they earned the money themselves for their trip. Aided by some local organizations the girls are providing for their expenses themselves. They will be accommodated in church basements and will be camping out indoors. Accompanied by their leaders they are scheduled to leave Chesterville by chartered bus March 30. The rally takes place March 31. The major expense of the excursion is the bus rental.

Sales of the book should help, though. There are 200 volumes in the edition and the retail price is $4 and already 100 have been sold. The cover was designed by Tessie VanDongen, who worked for some time in the summer parks program in the village. Each section of the book was designed by the guides themselves with the individual patrols being responsible for the drawings. The Record's cooking columnist, Debbie Young, has included some of the inviting recipes this week.

Bicentennial book for Chesterville Guides



Deb's Delights

by Debbie Young

I promise, on my honor, to do my duty, to God, the Queen and my country, to help other people at all times and to obey the Guide Law.

If I remember it, that's the way it goes. It's been a long time. Lois Lannin came into The Record office selling cookbooks for the Girl Guides. Just like their cookies, who could resist. It's called "1st Chesterville Guide Company 75th Anniversary Cookbook." The first section features recipes that are 75 or more years old. I thought for the next few weeks we would share with you some of these old time favorites. When the girls come to call at your door please support their worthwhile cause. Also don't forget to send in some of your favorite Christmas recipes for our Christmas issue Dec. 19. We need your help to make this the best issue ever. Until next week - Keep on cooking!

Ingleside Seniors host Long Sault club

INGLESIDE (Staff) - Ninety-one members and visitors enjoyed a pot-luck luncheon provided by the Ingleside Sr. Citizens Club No. 283 on Nov. 19 in their meeting place, St. Matthew's Presbyterian Church Hall. The visitors were the members of Long Sault Friendly Circle Srs. Club No. 336.

As usual the meeting was opened with the singing of "O Canada" with president Art Buchmaster presiding. The minutes and treasurer's report were read and accepted. The visitors were welcomed and "Happy Birthday" was sung to five members. Sympathy was expressed to the Long Sault Club on the passing of their president, Mrs. Wm. MacLeod recently.

A letter of thanks was read from Miss Marion Avery, Osnabruck recreation director for the assistance given by the Seniors at the children's Hallowe'en party; nine had acted as judges of the costumes.

Leila Grandaw reported sending three Get Well and one Sympathy card. Ada Rombough, bowling convener, reported only nine bowlers last week and appealed for more to participate.

Miss Avery then reported the township's purchase of 278 acres north of the school grounds and between Dickinson Drive and Pottery Road for community purposes and hoped fifty of them would be for recreational purposes. A questionnaire will be sent out to community groups to secure people's opinions of the project and what they would like to see done.

The president then presented an illustrated lecture on parts of the north country he and his family had visited, Alaska, Yukon, Yellow Knife, James Bay and Moose Factory, enlivening it with humorous comments on the scenery and fishing.

After the meal games were enjoyed: shuffle board, bridge, euchre and bingo.

On behalf of the Long Sault group, Wm. MacLeod sincerely thanked the Ingleside group for inviting them and for the interesting program and enjoyable meal and fellowship, regretting that they could not return the invitation as their meeting place was not large enough unless they secured a hall.

Tickets were sold for the Ingleside Christmas dinner meeting on Dec. 10 and raffle tickets on the quilt, painting and large basket of grocers were also sold.

Why the home on the left shouldn't be heated like the home on the right.

On the left? Bill and Kim, the twins, baby Sarah. They've revitalized their furnace with an electric plenum heater; it's one of the most economical ways to cut winter fuel bills. And they've turned the drafty old attic room into a warm nursery with insulation and inexpensive, easy-to-install baseboard heaters. There's a separate thermostat, so baby's room can be kept at exactly the right temperature without overheating the rest of the house.

On the right? Mike and Stella - empty-nesters. They've installed an add-on electric heat pump to help save money and heat their home in winter and they're looking forward to the comfort of air conditioning next summer. It was easy to add, cuts their heating costs and adds to the value of their home.

Electric heat provides home-owners with many options for either total or partial conversion. Whatever your needs, there's an electric system that's just right to help you cut costs, without cutting corners on comfort. Once you understand the flexibility of electric heat, other heats just don't look so hot.

Write to Ontario Hydro and ask for your free booklet about satisfied families who installed electric heat. Ontario Hydro, 620 University Avenue, Dept. U4E3 Toronto, Ontario, M5G 1X6.

New executive heads Neighborhood Watch

(Special) - Rev. Rick Bombay was named to head the executive of the newly formed Neighbourhood Watch village program. Mrs. Mary Chapman agreed to act as secretary-treasurer. The meeting of the group was held last Tuesday evening at the home of the organizing committee chairman, Keith Graham. Fourteen interested persons were on hand along with OPP Constable Allan Lummis. Mr. Lummis is the coordinator for the local detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police at Winchester.

The winter program for the group, as outlined by chairman Bombay and Constable Lummis, will include many things. Paramount will be the effort to bring to the attention of village residents the need of safeguarding their property and person. The reputation of a community on guard against unwanted lawbreaking has proven to be an excellent deterrent in other communities.

It is planned to keep the activities of the Neighbourhood Watch group in the public awareness throughout the coming winter season. Scheduled meetings will be held with seniors, service clubs, other Watch groups in neighbouring communities and through news reports in the Record.

Kim Shaver of Tagwi (14) waits for the drop in an exciting Junior girls final basketball game. Tagwi beat CCVS 48-32 on Tagwi's home court last Wednesday. The Tagwi girls are the Junior Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry basketball champs and will advance to the eastern Ontario finals on Thursday, November 29 at Almonte.

Tagwi junior girls win championship

By France Brabant

AVONMORE (Special) - Last Wednesday in junior girls basketball, the Tagwi Warriors captured the SD&G championship.

The first game was played at CCVS where Tagwi gave themselves a 15 point lead going in the second game.

The game at CCVS was close during the first three-quarters but the Warriors proved stronger in the fourth quarter by controlling the plays. Freeman and McLean were thrown out of the game after inflicting five personal fouls each. After McLean, CCVS's best scorer with 9 points, was out of the game, the team really didn't have a chance. The game ended with a score of 46-31 with 18 points from Heidi Hollingdrake and 13 points from Judy Bender.

The second game was also very close. But the Warriors were playing at home and no way were they going to lose this championship! The top scorers were Heidi Hollingdrake with 22 points and Judy Bender with 16 points but this game of 48-31 was definitely won because of the exceptional talent, determination and team effort.

What really hurt CCVS was their best player, McLean was, once again, thrown out of the game because of her 5 personal fouls against Tagwi.

The next game for the junior Tagwi Warriors is going to be Almonte, November 29 for the eastern Ontario championship.

Unfortunately, the seniors weren't as lucky in the finals by dropped a 69-35 and 62-33 to General Vanier. The top scorers for Tagwi was Kelly Conroy with 19 points and Tracey Hollingdrake with 10 points.

Midgets earn two weekend ties

(Staff) - Chesterville Midgets B Flyers tied two games last week, playing in Metcalfe last Thursday, tying that game 5-5 and last Saturday in Smiths Falls tying their game 3-3 against Smiths Falls.

Ken Byers scored first for Chesterville at 13:29 in Metcalfe and was his first of the game. John Morin and Kevin Byers got the assists on the opening goal. Kris Rawlings got one back for Metcalfe after being set up by Rob Faubert at 6:33.

Rawlings scored unassisted with 4:09 on the clock in the period, giving Metcalfe a 2-1 edge over the Chesterville team.

Second period saw Metcalfe's Shane Racine score an unassisted goal, which put Metcalfe in the lead with a score of 3-1.

Chesterville's Rudy Witteveen put in a strong effort, scoring his first of three goals at 12:23 with John Morin assisting. Danny Dubois and Jeff Countryman set up Witteveen for his second at 8:25 of the second period. This tied it 3-3 as both teams headed into the dressing rooms.

Dunbar extends win streak to nine

WINCHESTER (Staff) - Dunbar maintained its narrow two-point lead in the Winchester and District Broomball League on Sunday night with a 3-1 win over Morewood, and in doing so have gone undefeated in nine games so far this season.

Ormond stayed hot on Dunbar's tail in the league standings, however, when they stretched their record to eight and one with a 6-1 thumping of Toyes Hill.

Finch blanked Osnabruck 5-0 to move into a third-place tie in the league standings with Morewood.

Crysler 5 - Newington 1

Crysler got two-goal efforts from Paul Fournier and Dwayne Harrison and a single from Dan McMahon to take an easy 5-1 victory over Newington in the first game of the night. Chris Lemery saved Newington from being blanked when he scored midway through the second period on a set-up by Alton Beckstead.

Crysler jumped to a 4-0 lead in the first period and then scored again early in the second before Lemery tallied for Newington.

Newington played the game with only one extra man, while Crysler was able to dress nine substitutes to spell their starting six.

Also having a big night in the scoring department for Crysler was Steve Boucher who had three assists.

Finch 5 - Osnabruck 0

It was the Perry Dewan show in the second game of the night as the tricky forward knocked in four goals to lead Finch's 5-0 assault on Osnabruck. And to keep his hand in on all the scoring, Dewan assisted on the only other goal of the game scored by Dave Peterson.

Assisting on all four of Dewan's goals was Dave Dumoulin.

Finch took a 3-0 lead at the end of the first period and then scored two more at the midway mark of the second for the 5-0 win.

Dunbar 3 - Morewood 1

Dunbar got two goals from Pierre Roy and a single from Larry Gallinger in their 3-1 win over Morewood.

Roy scored the first two goals of the game late in the first period and early in the second and then Gallinger added his marker before Gerald Eby put Morewood on the board with just 3:41 left in the game.

Ormond 6 - Toyes Hill 1

Although Toyes Hill opened the scoring with 12:13 left in the first period, Ormond stormed back for five unanswered goals in the first period and another in the second in the 6-1 route.

Dan McDiarmid led the Ormond attack with two goals while singles went to Keith Young, Tony Vanderlaan, Doug Sloan and Jim McDiarmid. Scoring for Toyes Hill was Dean Hansma.

Smith Falls wins tournament

(Staff) - Smith Falls came away from the fourth annual Dunbar Panthers Broomball Tournament as the A final champions, Saturday night.

Smith Falls downed Metcalfe's Prescott Rd. with a score of 3-1, scoring two goals in the first period; one of which was unassisted. The final goal came at the 13:40 mark of the second period.

Smith Falls received $350 in prize money and Neil Coleman was awarded the most valuable player and received a gym bag. Greg Fournier of Smith Falls was awarded best goalie of the tournament and also received a gym bag. Paul Petersen got the lone goal for Prescott Rd. around the mid-point of the second period.

Smith Falls defeated team Samuri 4-1, St. Rose 3-1 and Morewood to reach the finals.

Prescott Rd. received a $200 prize for being the runner-up of the A Finals.

The B Finals concluded with a 5-0 shut-out going to Casselman. The team was awarded $175 as a cash prize for their strong victory. The runners-up were Tremblay Pole Lines, from Maxville who received $125 cash prize.

Casselman lost only one game to Finch (2-1) and in the other pre-final games, Casselman shut out Newington and the Avonmore Rockets. The final scores for both games were 2-0.

The ladies finalists were Finch's A Touch of Class and they received a prize of $200. The team edged Menard Sports 3-2 in sudden death after Menard tied the game with seconds left to play. The finalists defeated the Morewood Gold Diggers 2-0, Avonmore 3-0 and Chantilly Lace 2-1 in pre-final play.

Menard Sports from Embrun got $150 for being the ladies final runners-up.

Gary Gallinger was mainly responsible for the organization of the tournament. Other members of the Dunbar Panthers worked at the dance or refereed the games.

Gallinger would not discuss the amount of money the tournament raised, but described the tournament as "successful."

"The tournament pays for itself," and added that the profit was made from the dance held after the tournament finals on Saturday night. "The tournament acts as a fund-raiser for our team in Winchester."

Gallinger says that it cost $85 for each men's team to enter and $65 for each ladies team. He pointed out that having the ladies in the tournament gave it variety.

He hopes to have the tournament next year and would like to hold it on the same day and include the ladies as well. Gallinger added that the teams enjoy themselves and if they enjoy themselves they will be back next year. "Every year it's been pretty much a success."

Pat Imrie leads Blues with three goals

(Staff) - Blue and Red Army were the victorious teams in last Wednesday night's Town League hockey games with Pat Imrie putting in three for Blue, beating Maroon 8-3, while Red Army edged Green 4-3 at Chesterville Arena.

Peewees tie with Metcalfe, Morrisburg

(Special) -Chesterville Peewee Flyers earned themselves a split in Upper Canada Minor Hockey League action last week, dropping a 4-1 decision to Metcalfe Mustangs, and doubling Morrisburg Lions 6-3.

In Metcalfe last Thursday, Flyers were taught a fine lesson in head-manning the puck. The Mustang's moved the puck with authority and built up a 2-0 first period lead over the bewildered Flyers. Steve Shields and Glen Murphy were the scorers. Not content to sit on a two-goal lead, Mustangs added a pair of second-period markers by Kirk Meldrum and Ken Stanley.

Matthew Giles performed brilliantly in net for the Flyers who were badly outshot.

Craig Smith spoiled Mustangs' Derek Burger's shutout, from Brad Cotnam with 3:21 to play.

On Sunday night, Flyers spotted Morrisburg Lions a 3-0 first-period lead before coming back with six unanswered goals to win 6-3. Giles had little help from his defencemen in the first period as Mike Francais, Tim Casselman and Eric Millward lit the red light for Lions. Then Gerry Van Kessel started the Flyers on the way back with a first period goal from Bruce Belanger to end the first period at 3-1 in Lions' favor.

Flyers added two second period tallies to pull even at 3-3 at the end of the second. Peter De Cooman scored his first peewee goal, as the young Atom put away David Harper's set-up. Todd Marcellus added one from Harper.

The third period was all Flyers as Harper scored from Marcellus, and Marcellus added his second from Van Kessel.

This Friday night, Flyers host Kemptville Royals at 6pm.

Chesterville's Colin Cotnam and Mark Dion went on a two on one break at 2:18 of the final period, allowing Cotnam to score the winning goal.

WINCHESTER (Staff) - Winchester Junior B Hawks climbed four points in the standings on the weekend with wins over the two top teams in the league. On Saturday night they outscored Char-Lan Rebels 8-6 and on Sunday they edged first-place Navan Grads 4-3 in overtime.

Jeff Thompson led the Hawks in the Char-Lan game on Saturday with four goals, while Trevor McClatchie had a pair and singles were scored by Kirk Barkley and Kevin Henry.

Hawks had a two-goal lead at the end of the first period, stretched the lead to 6-3 in the second, and then held on for the 8-6 win.

Thompson was the Hawks' scoring hero again in the Navan game on Sunday. His unassisted goal with three minutes left in the overtime period gave the Hawks a 4-3 win over the Grads.

Navan jumped to a 2-0 first-period lead, but the Hawks came back with three unanswered goals in the second to take a 3-2 lead. Navan tied the game with 5:43 left in the second period and the teams went scoreless in the third to force the overtime.

North Stormont got the lead as Jean Lauzon put the rubber between the pipes off a pass from Mike Campeau at 14:10 of the first period. Dennis Sullivan then threaded the puck over to Shawn Flanagan to tie it 1-1 for Alexandria.

Rock Sabourin and Lauzon combined on the play to set up Luc Paquin at 10:45 of the second period. Sabourin scored one of his own, which put North Stormont ahead 3-1. Marc Poirier got the assist on that goal.

Bernard Grady got goal two and three for Alexandria. His first came at 9:19 of the second period with help from Raymond Grady and his second came at 8:30 with Flanagan and Sullivan getting the assists. Lauzon got his second for North Stormont at 4:20 of the second period. Sabourin got the assists.

Michaels got his first of the night, tying it 4-4 with Steve Flanagan and Alexandria team mate Mike Van Delst getting the assists. Mike Lebrun put Alexandria ahead 5-4 at 10:32 with Flanagan assisting. Bernard Grady and Mike Lebrun set up Michaels for his second of the night, making it 6-4 at the 5 minute mark.

Marc Lalonde and Ken Barton edged North Stormont a little closer by setting up Marc Poirier and making the final score 6-5.

Kim Casselman brushed the ball over to Sherry Lalonde, allowing her to score the lone goal of the game at the 4:22 mark of the first period. Neither team could find the mark in the rest of the game. Lalonde's goal gave Crysler the 1-0 win.

Tammy Rainey started Finch off to a 1-0 lead at 18:53 of the first period. Kelly Shaver swept the ball over to Rainey. Osnabruck's Ann Zeran put Osnabruck on the board at 9:19 of the first period. Monique Andre assisted in Zeran's goal, which made it a 1-1 tie.
