The Fair A Good One.

The weather was very unfavorable for the first day of Winchester Fair, which was billed for Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, but yesterday the weather took a change and the directorate got busy and everything passed off smoothly. There was a splendid show of horses in all classes and very keen contests in many. A government Judge was in charge and his decisions seemed to meet the views of the admirers. A lot of work was put on the track and at the appointed hour it was in very good shape. There were a few horses faster than others therefore the races were won in straight beats and the interest not so keen. This of course was no fault of the society, and if the weather had been favorable on the first day many more horses would have been there. Good purses were hung up. From reports the concert given in the evening before the grand stand was excellent. No doubt the society will lose a good deal of money this year, but they will have to bear with the weather and look forward for better results next year.

Call Was Sustained.

At a special meeting of the Brockville Presbyterians there the call extended by Knox Church, Westport, to Rev. Dr. W. A. McKenzie of Hannibal, N. Y. was approved and arrangements made for his induction on the 22nd inst. A letter was read from Dr. McKenzie signifying his acceptance.

Earn Destroyed By Fire.

William Gallingar's barn in Cornwall township was destroyed by fire Monday morning. The cause is a mystery. The barn was a large one and contained about ten ton of hay and some farm machinery. Mr. Gallingar estimates his loss at $600. His loss is partly covered by insurance in the Royal Insurance Co.

Dread Disease Claims Baby Victim.

Though infantile paralysis has been reported to be quite prevalent in sections of the west it has been an unknown thing in this part of the province until a few days ago when Allan McLaughlin, son of Nathan McLaughlin, of Bonville, was suddenly seized. The little fellow, three years old, suffered intensely for three days and passed away.

Two Drowned In Launch Accident.

A double drowning accident occured from a launch in the St. Lawrence five miles east of Brockville at one o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

J. J. Letoile a Thiel detective of Ottawa and W. Brander two guests at the Hotel Strathcona left here this morning in the launch "Imp" in charge of J. D. Clendenning. The river was rough and at the point mentioned the launch capsized. The strangers were accompanied by their wives and Clendenning managed to save the women and himself. Further particulars at this writing cannot be obtained.

Letoile was in Brockville in connection with the G. T. R. riot on the night of July 22nd and was on the mission of making the arrest in Ogdensburg of a young man implicated in the trouble.

Death Of An Old Resident Of Roxborough.

One of our oldest and most highly respected residents, Mrs. Elizabeth McDonell, died on August 25. She was the widow of the late Allen R. McDonell, of the Second Concession, Roxborough. She was born in Glengarry, Invernesshire, Scotland, eighty-seven years ago, and came to Canada in 1852 with her husband. They were among the first of the early settlers of Roxborough which was then a dense forest. Mrs McDonell was a very rugged healthy woman and she worked hard in assisting to make the comfortable homestead where she passed away with its fine house, etc. She was active and intelligent until a few weeks previous to her demise and died fortified by the rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was a devout member. She was a splendid woman, a good wife and mother and sympathetic neighbor. She leaves four sons and two daughters, Messrs. John Daniel and Alexander, in the Western States, and Duncan, with whom she resided on the homestead. The daughters are Mrs. Charles McDonell, of Seattle, and Mrs. Angus R. Macdonald, of the 9th Con., Cornwall who nursed her during her last illness. She also leaves many grand-children and several great-grand-children. There are two sisters living, Mrs. Dixon Hill, of Finch, and Mrs. John R. Mcdonald of Cornwall. The funeral which took place on August 27th to St. Andrews Church and Cemetery, was largely attended. A solem Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. Father Wallace of Montreal, in the absence of Rev. Father McRae who was on retreat in Alexandria along with the other priests of the diocese The pall-bearers were Messrs. A. and D. McDonell, S. McDonell, Ranaly and Allen Macdonald grand sons of the deceased, and Ed. McKeown. Among those present at the funeral were Mrs. Malleny, Mrs. Gravely, Mrs. Cummings and Miss Christy McDonell. nieces from Cornwall; Mrs. John R. McDonald of Cornwall; Mrs. Dixon Hill, of Finch, and Mr. Chisholm of Cornwall. We extend our most sincere sympathy to the bereaved family. The deceased was a sister of the late Donald (Gold) McDonell, of the 2nd. Con., Roxborough.

Hector Murray was killed near Alix Alberta, by an employee named Woods, who struck him with a whiskey bottle.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

The longer an energetic person rests the harder work becomes.

If you take your time and are honestly industrious you may escape doing time.

Anyway, everything unusual and of the nature of a hardship can be charged up to the comet this year.

Many people of today believe in marriage on the installment plan.

If you take a man's word how in the world can you expect him to keep it?

A strike is always a good thing—if it is a ten strike.

A man's idea of a good woman is a woman who spends the remnant of her time not devoted to his comfort in canning peaches.

The reason a woman believes everything that a man tells her is because a long experience with him has shown her that that is the only way to get on in comfort.

It is kind of our friends to take a deep interest in our welfare, but a long course of their treatment seldom shows a stupendous benefit.

Sometimes it seems to call for people who are not really bright to discover the bright side of some things.

Being a transgressor doesn't seem to be so frightfully hard if there is money enough in it to oil the track.

A Simple Treatment that Will Make it Truly Fascinating —Bolster Guarantees It.

Nowadays every up-to-date woman has radiant hair.

What a foolish creature a woman would be if she lost the opportunity to add to her attractions.

Yet in Canada to-day there are hundreds of thousands of women with harsh, faded, characterless hair who do not make any attempt to improve it.

In Paris most women have beautiful hair, and in Canada all woman who use Parisan Sage have lustrous and luxuriant hair.

And any woman reader of the Record can have attractive and lustrous hair in a few days' time by using this great hair rejuvenaParisan Sage.

W. G. Bolster sells a large bottle for 50 cents and he guarntees it to banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Parisan Sage is an ideal hair tonic not stickey nor greasy.

Aylesworth To Retire.

Toronto Sept. 5.—North York party organization are expectantly waiting for the return of the Hon. A. B. Aylesworth from Europe. It is stated that as soon as the Minister of Justice gets back announcement of his retirement will be made. He will not only, it is said withdraw from the government, but will give up politics altogether resigning the New York seat. Friends of two prominent Toronto Liberals have fixed their eyes on North York with the probable result that an effort will be made to run either Mr. T. C. Robinette or or Mr. H. H. Dewart in Sir William Mullock's old riding. Any influence that the Aylesworth following may have in the constituency is not expected to be cast in favor of Mr. Dewart in view of the latter's outspoken criticism of the Minister of Justice last spring. There is another trouble looming up. The farmers of North York want a man of their own as member and are not disposed it is said to stand for another importation. There is likely to be a big scrap when the minister retires.

Failed To See Dynamiter.

Kingston Ont. Sept. 3.—The penitentiary authorities keep a close watch on the Welland canal dynamiters Philadelphia friends of Carl Duliman (Luke) applied to see the prisoner and were refused access to him. The parties stated that they had letters from the penitentiary iuspectors and one from a member of Parliament but even those credentials did not secure for them an interview. The visitors declared they would report to the Minister of Justice whom they intend to meet in Montreal. They stopped off here for the express purpose of calling upon Duliman.

Fell Down Stairs And Broke Neck.

London, Ont., Sept. 2—Mrs Jessie Smith, of Kingston, was almost instantly killed there Friday night by falling down stairs at the home of her daughter, the wife of Rev. James Rollins, where she had been visiting. With her daughter and son-in-law, she returned about 11 o'clock from King Street Presbyterian Church, where Mr. Rollins had been tendered a reception by the congregation on returning from his vacation. In the fall Mrs Smith's neck was fractured and she died in a few minutes.

Neck Broken, But Is Alive.

Ottawa Sept. 4.—With his neck broken between the fourth and fifth vertebrae, Fred Foster, a young man from Caldwell Renfrew County is in a critical condition, with about one chance in a thousand of recovering. When brought into the hospital this morning Foster's lower limbs were all paralyzed as a result of the break but an operation was performed which relieved the pressure on the spinal cord and allowed circulation to resume normally.

At Caldwell on Saturday evening as Foster was unhitching a team of horses he went behind a balky horse to urge it on when both bolted knocking Foster down. He was entangled in the wheels and whirled around until his neck broke.

Arrest Sailor As Murder Suspect.

Nelson Shorrow, a member of the crew of the Thousand Island steamer Riverside, was arrested on suspicion of being connected with the murder of Varick Drake, of Potsdam, at Ogdensburg, on August 16 last.

On being closely questioned by Recorder Waterman, Shorrow admitted having robbed Drake on the night in question, but denied having taken anything but his money. The prisioner asserted that he merely ran his hand down into the man's pocket, took the money and then left him in front of Marceau's black smith shop, across the street from the vacant lot where the body was found several days afterward.

Shorrow had a bad record, having been convicted of choking and robbing a Chinaman, burglarizing Renter's saloon, and assisting in the hold up of Percy Amsden on Lake street a few days ago.

Rev. Reuben Millyard, President of the London Methodist Conference, died at Fort William. He was taken ill on his way home from the General Conference at Vancouver.

Killed By Unknown Persons And Thrown Into River.

Sarnia, Ont. Sept. 4—The adjourned inquest on the death of Donald Alexander Stewart, of Toronto, whose body was found in the St. Clair River, opposite Sarnia. on the evening of Aug. 23rd convened last night and heard evidence.

Coroner Bradley and Dr. James described the nature of the bruises on the body, and stated that the evidence of effusion over the right eye and the bruised condition of the nose indicated injuries before the body had come in contact with the water. As the condition of the corpse had made a post-mortem impossible, the jury were not instruct ed whether death was due to drowning.

Alex. Sinclair, clerk at the Chapman House and George Hitchcock, bartender at the Western Hotel described Stewart's actions on the day of his arrival there. He left a valise and dinner pail at the former hotel and said he would return later. After supper he was in the bar of the Western, and had a glass of beer, but was entirely sober and in good spirits. He paid for the drink with a dollar bill. He inquired of Hitchcock the direction to the wharves at Point Edward and said he would like to engage as a fireman for trip up the lakes. The bartender noticed him talking to another man and supposed it to be a casual acquaintance He was under the impression that the two went out together.

Coroner Bradley called the attention of the jury to the fact that Stewart apparently had no enemies and it could not be deffnitely known whether the cause of death had been drowning. The jury rendered a verdict as follows:—

"That Donald Alexander Stewart, whose body was found floating in the St. Clair Riveo at Sarnia, on Aug. 23rd came to his death on or about Aug. 18th. This jury is of opinion that said Stewart was assaulted and his body thrown into the river by some person or persons to this jury unknown."

Perth's New Industry.

The Winn Shoe company have decided to move from Milton to Perth. The last of the stock of the new joint stock which was subscribed a few days ago by Perth capitalists which included $50,000 cash capital all invested by Perth men which with the other assets of the company brings the total stock up to $110,000. The company will employ 100 hands. Work on the building will proceed at once. Much of the credit for this enterprise is due to Mayor F. W. Hall who has been untiring in his efforts to have this industry located here. Winn brothers have built up a large business which has been gradually expanding until they found their present plant at Milton too small and decided to locate in some other town with a new and up-to-date factory. Perth people are congratulating themselves on this the latest addition to their manufacturing establishments.

Small Cyclone Sweeps Essex.

Windsor, Ont. Sept. 4—A storm of almost cyclonic proportions swept over South Essex late yesterday, leveling several barns, destroying fruit trees and working havoc generally. In Leamington, trees were twisted off short, outhouses blown over, and a big plate glass window in the Wigle block was blown in.

In Mersea Township, two barns were laid flat, while in the seventh concession of Gosfield, the barn of Charles Jeffries was struck by lightning and destroyed with its contents the entire summer crop.

WILL IT BE BLOOMERS?

Airships May Help Change Style of Woman's Dress.

So long as woman remained a creature of earth most any old style of dress skirt, from the balloon-shaped crinoline to the hobble, served her purpose. Now, all is changed. Her ladyship wishes to imitate the birds and whirl through the air, far above the envious crowd. But none of the old styles of skirt are quite the thing for this new sport, and so a change is imminent. As though to hasten the matter, the hobble skirt put in its appearance recently, and now shrewd forecasters believe they hear a sound in the air like bloomers.

Never before in the history of fashion has the longing for a change been more just, declares one woman. It was a man who said: "Let the galled jade wince!" And she is wincing with a vengeance! But wincing in shackles she has forged for herself, shackles that are more galling to her than any that the most tyrannical of men ever devised to hold her in bondage. Is it any wonder that men laugh at the appeals of their wives and sisters and daughters for a wider sphere of activity and freedom when they see us deliberately, wantonly, putting our feet in fetters that prevent us from walking, disguising the graceful curves of our bodies under gowns patterned after stove pipes and hiding under vast extinguishers whatever beauty we may have in our faces?

No harem slave is more thoroughly in chains than the woman with the hobble skirt. No African water carrier balances upon her head a more unwieldly burden than the modern hat. No prisoner wearing chains but had more freedom in the use of his arms than the fashionable woman of to-day, whose kimono sleeves forbid her raising her hands above her head.

How can a woman wear a hobble skirt if she is interested in any of the modern sports and pursuits? She may wear a hobble skirt once or twice, just because it is new, but her common sense and her desire for freedom above all things, as well as her innate sense of beauty show her that the extremely tight skirt is not artistic.

When the short skirt was introduced some years ago, argues another woman, no one believed that it had really come to stay among the leisure classes. It was supposed to be only a necessity for the working woman, but it is no longer elegant even for the motor habitue to be seen shopping in the morning with a long skirt. Fashions must adapt themselves to the occupation, and they must be practical above all things. Whatever is impractical is conspicuous, and whatever is conspicuous is out of place, except in the evening, one might say, and then the conspicuous must be conspicuous for its beauty.

The new motor bonnet and the tight-fitting caps and turbans, especially those which can be worn without hat pins, are worn because they are practical in the first place and as they happen to be beautiful and most generally becoming I think the hat problem for the future is very nearly solved.

No one can think of a time when women will not wish to look beautiful. To want to be beautiful is not only a natural instinct of the race, but is a highly cultivated instinct as well, one to which all women truckle and to which artists and artisans have catered since just after the Garden of Eden episode.

But women have found out that unless they have some interest or some occupation they fall behind even in the race for pleasure, and these occupations, whether they be the sailing of an airship or the fingering of a typewriter, influence the future of the clothes question.

Just what the future dress may look like one may be able to gather from a glimpse at some of the reform dresses and some of the costumes used in the latest sport, aviation. No woman will attempt to sail the air wearing a skirt. Modesty, comfort and self-protection necessitate a tighter fitting garment, in which she would not run the risks incurred in the full skirt, no matter how short.

Women have been getting closer and closer to the bloomer idea for some years. Bloomers were worn when bicycling first came in and were discarded chiefly because they were not necessary for safety. Every now and then the bloomer or pantaloon garment raises its bifurcated head, but it was forced upon the public long before the time was right for it. With the advent of the airship and the tremendous interest developed by women in aviation, however, some sort of garment which will combine the freedom of pantaloons and the modesty of a skirt will eventually become popular; and when it does no one will give its propriety a second thought, for the proper and practical garment is always the most inconspicuous and modest.

Breechloaders.

Breechloading in artillery and small arms is popularly supposed to be an invention of the middle of the last century, but such is by no means the case. In a Dublin gunsmith's shop at Cork Hill is on view a breechloading rifle offered to the British War Office at the close of the eighteenth century and rejected, as it was considered to need too much ammunition!

An Easy Comparison.

Uncle Ethan was in a cautious frame of mind. "Which," somebody asked him, "do you think is the worst, a flood or a drought?"

Uncle Ethan scratched his head.

"It always depends," he replied. "I should say that a flood was a great deal worse, providing, of course, that there was a flood."

Miss May Downes of Montreal is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. W. McNeil of this place.

J. Shaver and son Heman of Osnabruck visited the former's daughter Mrs. H. Forsythe, Rockdale Farm ou Aug. 24.

Mrs George Walker and children Miss Inez and Master Kenneth Walker of London, Ont. visited relatives in The Grove during the first of the week.

Mysteries Of Tobacco.

Probably more than nine-tenths of males are smokers at all events among those who have reached years of discretion. A great deal has been said and written from time to time about the evil effect of smoking apparently without very widespread effect. A warning is once again given to users of tobacco in a little book "How Are You?" by Lenoard Henslowe, which deals with the problem of health generally. In his chapter on "Is Tobacco Really Injurious?" We read:

"The poison in a single pound of tobacco is enough to kill three hundred men if taken in such a way as to secure its full effect. A single cigar contains poison enough to extinguish two human lives if taken at once. Instant death has been produced by applying a little of the oil from the stem of a pipe to a sore upon the head of a child. The smoke of tobacco contains other poisons which are fatal when received into the system in any but minute quantities. Thus it is not to nicotine alone that the evil effects of smoking are due but to all these poisons combined Inhalation is the most speedy way of getting any volatile poison into the system

One wonders how many smokers among our readers will be influenced by even these strong words.

Daring Robbery Of Bullion.

Cobalt Ont. September 6.—A most daring crime was perpetrated last night when twenty-seven bars of bullion were taken out of the safety vault in the Nova Scotia mines.

Last night at ten o'clock the vault was locked up after the last bar of silver had been poured into moulds. Today the consignment was to be sent to London, England All the bullion representing $51,500, was in the safe. The concrete vault built into the mill near the amalgamating tube has twelve inch thick walls of concrete and through these the burglars bored. Tnis morning at seven when Superintendant Morgan went to take the bullion out for shipment the door was still locked but a circular hole big enough to admit the body of a small man was found in the wall.

Two men working in the mill had heard nothing. Their work does not carry them near the scene of the operations and any noise made would be overwhelmed in the thunder of the stamp batteries. It would be very easy to take 27 bars through the window, carry it over to a rig backed up on the main road and drive away with it.

The railroad is being closely watched but there is little likelihood of the thieves attempting to pass it in buik for some time. It must be cached in the bush around the camp somewhere. So far the police have no clues.

Ottawa Youth Drowned.

SAVED FROM THE KNIFE

Appendicitis Cured By "Fruit-a-tives"

NEWBURGH, ONT., Feb. 12th. 1910.

'Just about a year ago, our daughter Ella, (fourteen years), was taken with terrible pains in the right side. The pain was so severe that we had to carry her to bed. We at once put her under the care of a first-class doctor, who pronounced it a case of Appendicitis and advised an operation.

We took her to a hospital in Kingston where she was again examined by an eminent specialist. He said she had Appendicitis and must be operated on at once if we wanted to save her life. As we had taken her to Kingston to have this done, we were ready, but our daughter was afraid and cried and begged so pitifully, that we postponed it for that day. Luckily for us and for her an uncle came in with some 'Fruit-a-tives' and insisted on Ella taking them. Good results were apparent almost from the first dose, and the continuous treatment cured her.

'Fruit-a-tives' saved our daughter from the surgeon's knife and to-day she is enjoying the best of health."

J. W. FOX, (Father).
LILLIAN FOX, (Mother).

Words cannot express the gratitude of Mr. and Mrs. Fox. And Miss Ella will always remember "Fruit-a-tives"—the discovery of an eminent physician, and the only medicine in the world made of fruit. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial box, 25c. Stamp-Selling Machines

Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and Winnipeg to Be Provided With Them.

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—The lowering of the charges to two cents a letter from all parts of Canada, the United States, and the British Empire, and to one cent a letter where the letter is delivered to the same place in which it is posted have added tremendously to the amount of mail matter handled by the Canadian Post office Department. To such an extent is this case that the department is sometimes overtaxed to handle business as expeditiously as it requires, and it has had to look about for devices to assist it in its work. The selling of its postage stamps to meet the exacting demands of a public who are peremptory in regard to its postal service has for some time been a vexing problem. But it is believed the solution has been found.

For some years past, experiments have been made in stamp-vending machines, which would deliver stamps automatically when the proper amount was paid. The Hon. Mr. Lemieux, Postmaster-General, has been following these experiments with interest, but until recently the results have not been such as would warrant the Postoffice in embarging on a scheme of this kind. Now however a machine has been perfected, which has been submitted to exhaustive tests, with results so good as to give the Postmaster-General reason to believe that what he has been looking for has been accomplished.

The machine is a British invention, and has been tried thoroughly at two points where the demand for stamps in small quantities is greatest. One is in the British House of Commans, the other is in Threadneedle street near the Bank and at what is probably the most crowded square in the world. The tests were so satisfactory that the British Postoffice has ordered a number of these machines for use in the principal offices in London and in the leading towns of the kingdom

The Postmaster-General has ordered fifty of these machines, and by way of satisfying himself as to whether the machines will meet the demand in Canada, which he anticipates, is having them erected at central points in Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto and Winnipeg. Operating at all times, it is expected that they will prove of inestimable value in the meeting of a public need.

The machine is simplicity itself, and can be replenished practically without cost. In England it is estimated that a machine selling $10 worth of stamps a day, or over $3,000 worth a year can be loaded at an expenditure of time of not more than two hours in a year. It can be fixed on pillar boxes, in halls of hotels, flats, country houses, railway stations, shops, public buildings, theatres, mail steamers, seaside places of amusement, and other places where stamps are required. It is proof against tampering immediately rejecting foreign coins and false coins without operating the machine. It is interesting to note that twelve machines have sold over 250,000 stamps in five months. If a man were to serve 500 customers a day, more than one a minute, he would take 500 days to serve 250,000 customers.

A British company was formed a year ago to operate the British rights. The Chairman of the company, Sir William Preece, the well-known consulting engineer, was at the head of the Telegraph Department of the British Postoffice for many years. The British company is placing its machines very successfully, not only with the postal authorities at home and abroad but likewise with various firms, hotels, etc., where they find commercial application.

Long Sault Dam Project Stalled.

Ottawa Sept. 1.—From all that can be learned here the Long Sault dam project is pretty effectually stalled.

This, it will be remembered, was the scheme which had in view the damming of the St. Lawrence near Cornwall, and the export of power. Such storm of opposition developed last session over a subsidiary proposal that the promotors are said to be very dubious about going ahead with it.

The application is now before the Waterways Commission. It has been there for months but no report has been made.

Members of the Commission carry the idea that it may never be made. Under the Waterways Treaty a new and permanent Commission will have to be appointed and there is the best of reason to believe that the present body will present its successors with the project as a rather unwelcome legacy.
