Prominent Local Citizen Passes in 92nd Year

Her many friends in Morrisburg, Winchester and throughout a very wide area, were saddened by the death of Mrs. Mabel Carr which occurred at her home here Monday, September 9th.

Mrs. Carr, in her 92nd year had not been in good health for some years, but almost until her death she maintained a lively interest in all that went on in the village and in the country. She enjoyed telephone visits with her legion of friends when she was no longer able to maintain personal contact and she will be missed by all who knew and loved her.

Although her main interest was always her family, she also maintained her interest in her church (United), her community, the local Horticultural Society and the Canadian Cancer Society.

An outgoing, kindly lady, she will probably be best remembered as the chatelaine of The Sign of the Ship, and The Ship's Mate, two well-known Morrisburg inns open to the tourist trade a generation ago. For many years her big home bustled with the comings and goings of visitors from all over United States and Canada. In later years the Sign of the Ship had been converted to apartments.

Born at Winchester, December 20th, 1882, she was a daughter of the late Aaron and Mary Esther Sweet of that place. She received her early education there and later at Whitby Ladies' College and Emerson College in Boston Mass. In November, 1918 she was married at Winchester to Benjamin L. Carr, who predeceased her in 1944. Nearly half a century ago, the couple moved to Morrisburg, and operated an earlier tourist home, also called The Sign of the Ship, in the former Flegg residence at Flegg's Creek. Later they moved to the village and operated their two successful tourist homes.

Mrs. Carr is survived by her two sons, Langton of Morrisburg and John, of Ottawa, and their families; nine grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

The largely attended funeral was held on Thursday at 10.30 a.m. in Lakeshore Drive United Church, with her minister, Rev. C. Massey, in charge of the service. Interment followed at the family plot in Maple Ridge cemetery.

Pall bearers were: Hugh Jarvis Leroy Hamilton, Dale Barkley, Bill Mongor, Ed Rice, Garnet Smith.

Writer Protests G & M Article Progress Sails by Morrisburg

Mr. A. Laurin, Editor
Morrisburg Leader,
Morrisburg, Ontario
Dear Mr. Laurin:

Please find enclosed a copy of a letter which I have forwarded to the Editor, Globe and Mail, Toronto, Ontario.

Yours very truly,
Erol Jane Welton

The Editor,
Globe and Mail,
Toronto, Ontario.
Dear Sir:

I find your recent article on Morrisburg, "Progress Sails by Morrisburg" (Tuesday, Sept. 10, 1974) very negative. Appearing only three days after the official opening of a new $181,280 addition to the Community Centre (arena) it appears that something is amiss.

Twenty years ago as a reporter (Brantford Expositor) I was told to get all of the facts. Unfortunately your reporter, Derik Hodgson only got half of his. We like to feel that we are a progressive community always striving for better things. Our "tacky plaza" may not be a Yorkdale but it adequately serves the needs of the community and surrounding areas with good stores and there are attractive touches to it with flower boxes and gardens, trees, benches and green space at either end. (We also have three grocery stores, not two.)

As for industry, since the advent of the Seaway there have been several new ones move in —Carmi Custom Foods Ltd., Cruickshank Construction Ltd., Eckel Industries, Kingston Dunbrik Ltd., Seaway Chemical (Rohm and Haas), also the head office of the St. Lawrence Parks Commission, to mention a few. I enclose a brochure compiled by the Industrial Committee for your information.

There are many civic-minded people here and during the year hundreds come from surrounding areas as well as distant points to attend our Winter Carnival (Feb.), Old Home Week (July), Tubie Races (Aug.), Trade and Home Show (Sept.) and Octoberfest as well as related events.

To a stranger, Morrisburg (pop. 2,100) may be "still a sleepy little village" but anyone who wants to may enjoy a very active life here without the problems of pollution, crime, etc. related to the more progressive places in this world. Visitors from U.S. and other parts of Canada count us as very fortunate to live in such a community with its many services such as excellent medical care, good schools and fair taxes. Maybe, because many of us are relative new comers we appreciate this environment more than others who have had it this way all their lives. People really care here and it might just count more than industrial development though that would be welcome too, if it should come our way!

Morrisburg Senior Citizens Hold First Meeting of Season

The first regular meeting for this season of the Morrisburg Senior Citizens was held in the Club Room on Friday, Sept. 6. As planned the meeting began at 6:30 p.m. with an excellent pot luck dinner prepared by the ladies of the organization and very daintily presented in the form of a smorgasbord.

Following this sumptuous meal we were pleasantly accorded a visit from our local reeve, Mr. Earl Baker, who brought us up to date on the proposed building of Senior Citizens apartments in Morrisburg. Mr. Baker in his usual pleasing manner, explained some of the issues regarding this building which have been circulated about town and some of which were without foundation. However he said that the proposed site is between the Supertest and Fina service stations and south of No. 2 Highway. This location was probably not as desirable as might be but he considered it was better to have it there than not at all as this was the only pllace available at the time, also that there would be approximately 40 units built on the ground floor with more room to expand if and when needed. The responsibility for building, maintaining and operating this structure would be entirely in the hands of Ontario Housing, the only obligations to our local municipalities would be if the building operated at a deficit in which case the municipalities would be assessed 7 percent of that deficit for operation. Mr. Baker also informed us that this proposed building is to accomodate the municipalities of both Williamsburg Township and Morrisburg.

After an expression of thanks to Mr. Baker the regular meeting opened with the new president, Mr. Gordon Mulholland occuping the chair. A press secretary was appointed as well as a refreshment committee for the month of September and a committee to organize a one day bus tour to some point of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Glover then gave an interesting account of their conducted bus tour to California and Western States last May which was illustrated by slides. They Towere graciously thanked by Milton Carkner.

To bring the happy meeting to a close all joined in the singing of "O Canada".

The cost to the taxpayers of Morrisburg is $77,800 as $20,000 was given as a grant and $83,479 as a non-callable loan. He stated that this building has only been realized throug the initiative, planning and work of many people.

Mr. Lumley was assisted in cutting the ribbon to mark the opening by Reeve Baker, Mrs. Macdougall and W. Dillabough. Kicking off the sales for the $1000 bond in aid of the Zamboni Fund Mr. Lumley purchased ten tickets from Reeve Baker. Tickets for the bond which will be drawn for on Saturday, Sept. 28 at the Morrisburg Trade and Home Show are on sale in all downtown locations. They will also be available at the Trade and Home Show.

During the early evening music was supplied by Fawcett's Organ and Piano, Winchester. Following the official opening the gala ball with music by the Cornwall Centennial Orchestra was enjoyed by over 300 persons. During the evening C.F. McInnis spearheaded a drive for donations to the Zamboni Fund which realized over $700 in donations and pledges from many civic-minded businessmen and citizens. Decorating the arena were the new drapes, funds for which were donated by the Old Home Week Committee, Lions and Firemen Octoberfest, Chamber of Commerce and the village of Morrisburg.

Winner of the $100 door prize which has been put back into the Zamboni Fund and Zamboni Bond Draw was Dick Welton with the lucky number being drawn by Reeve Baker.

AREA COUPLE MARK 69th ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Saddlemire, Wililamsburg Township's oldest married couple, celebrated their 69th wedding anniversary quietly with a family dinner at their home on Friday September 6th. Many friends and relatives called to offer congratulations, and others sent congratulations by telephone.

Following their marriage in the "West Parlour" of the 133 yar old home where they now reside, the former Edith Eastwood and Merton Saddlemire enjoyed a wed ding dinner with their 20 invited guests in the adjoining diningroom Later they left by train for a honeymoon trip to see the Toronto Fair. On their return they lived on the Saddlemire homestead at Glen Becker where they remained until they retired to the former Eastwood home in Williamsburg 24 years ago.

While farming, Mr. Saddlemire was noted throughout the county for the excellent honey produced on his farm. Raising bees was his hobby, and he said, "I made my own hives, and did all the labour myself".

Both Mr. and Mrs. Saddlemire are in relatively good health, and lead a quiet, happy life, with their daughter, Beatrice, who is at home with them. Mrs. Saddlemire celebrated her 93rd birthday on May 20th. Her husband was 94 on June 26th. They have a son Keith, who with his wife, Pamela, of Ottawa, also attended the family dinner.

We join with the Saddlemires' many other friends in extending best wishes for continued good health and happiness.

Juniors Qualify for Ottawa Golf Final

A trio of local juniors, playing under ideal conditions, qualified Sunday for entry in the Ottawa District Junior Championship, scheduled for Sept. 20th at the Hunt Club. Kevin Duvall and the Cassell brothers, David and Jeff, shot identical 75's to lead a small but strong group which included Barry VanAllen, Gerald Scully, Mike Sheridan and Billy Veley.

The Ladies Annual Valley League matches were played at Iroquois this year and local players finished second overall, 20 strokes behind the host club. Individual winners included Mae McCracken, Shirley Rice and Bonnie Veley. The hospitality was first class-a 'thank you" to the ladies of the Iroquois Club.

The Armstrong Trophy match play final was completed last week with Bill Lawlor defeating Wayne Gurnhill in a closely contested match. The winner was a pre - game underdog but cam through in the clutch and won going away. Wayne has played fine golf over the season but hit the final game on an off day.

The Senior Trophy Low Net Competition, played on Sunday afternoon, was won by Bill Emmerson with Jack McCracken 2nd and Cec. McCracken 3rd. Many of the older golfers took part, including Harold Armstrong, Ray Summers, Hector Debeau, Jack Parnell, Howie Eamon and Walt Bowman.

The Sadie Hawkins mixed-two ball is coming up on Sunday with tee-off time set for 12 noon. This is the day the ladies pay the way-don't miss this one, it promises to be a "fun" day on the golf course.

The annual golf dance is set for Sept. 21st. at the Legion—dancing from nine to one and trophy presentations. Tickets are available at the clubhouse for this event.

Bound For Beer Making Course in Belgium

Though one of the chemists in a large Canadian brewery laughed and said he'd never heard of a girl interested in brewing beer, an attractive young Cornwall resident may have the last and best laugh as the first Canadian woman to be accepted in an advanced technical brewing course by a Belgian university.

Miss Michelle Dionne, 21, will enroll Sept. 16 in the "cours de brasserie" at the University of Louvain, Belgium, aided by a special grant to cover her program expenses from Molson Breweries of Canada Ltd.

A graduate this year in Laboratory science technology from St. Lawrence College, Cornwall campus, Michelle will study towards a diploma in brewing under the auspices of an international student program conceived and developed by the staff of the college's Brockville campus.

Michelle is the first student to participate in the overseas study program, but college officials in the international project are particularly pleased that an Ontario community college graduate has been judged qualified for direct entry to an advanced university course on a post-graduate basis.

Since graduation this spring, Michelle has been working as a quality control technologist at the Kraft Foods Ltd. cheese processing plant, Ingleside. She said she has always liked science and laboratory work but "wanted a chance to specialize", which the opportunity in Belgium will provide.

The Louvain brewing program includes such subjects as brewing and malting, frmentation, microbiology, biochemistry and biochemical engineering, thermodynamics, fluid mechanics, economics and electricity. Of these, only the latter appears to worry Michelle.

But she said she is not too concerned about the difficulty of the course of studies she faces since some of the subjects were covered in her community college program, and most terminology is international due to the worldwide laboratory use of the metric system.

She is also fluently bilingual and will have no language problems at the French-speaking university.

"The first week will be kind of hard," she said, referring to the problems of acclimatization in a new life style and educational system. To help, the university provides an orientation period for foreign students, including films on the history of Belgium, and tours of museums and other points of interest.

Modern Campus.

For both economic and convenience reasons, Michelle plans to stay in the student residence. The university, at Louvain - la - Neuve 25 miles from Brussels, is a brand new campus accommodating 5,000 staff and students. A model site, the campus confines automobile traffic to underground tunnels and utilizes electric vehicles for surface transportation.

The campus is actually a small town unto itself, complete with its own railway station, shopping facilities and restaurants, and is expected to expand to a population of some 16,000 in the next five years.

Michelle will fly to Brussels on Saturday, Sept. 7), for registration at the University Sept. 16. She has been busy preparing for the trip, shopping, arranging for a passport and student visa, medicals required by university, and shipment of a large trunk full of all the necessities a student would require for a year away from home.

She said her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Dionne, of 112 Gardner St., Cornwall, at first refused to believe that the unique opportunity would actually come to pass "Now, my father thinks it's a good idea," she said, "but mother doesn't really want to see me go . . . like all mothers, I guess."

Though she doesn't expect to be able to come home during her year's studies, Michelle hopes that her family will visit her in Belgium at graduation next May.

Unlike the average traveller, Michelle has a close and influential contact in case of emergencies; an appropriate one, too, given the special nature of her trip. The new Canadian ambassador to Belgium, Lucien Lamoureux, is also from Cornwall and knows the Dionne family. In a vonversation with Michelle' father, Mr. Lamoureux kindly offered to do what he could if Michelle had any problems.

Employment Challenge

After graduation next spring, Michelle plans to travel in Europe for a few months and then return to Canada to look for employment in the brewing industry, probably in Montreal. She said she recognizes the challenge this presents: while in Montreal accepting her scholarship from Molson Breweries, she was given the opportunity to visit areas of the company's plant in which she might expect to work.

However, she shies away from the term "brewmistress' as being both facetious and inapplicable, at least at the moment.

"I suppose it (the brewing industry) is a different career to consider for any student," she said, adding with a grin, "It's really only discussed at student pubs."

Jack Butt, coordinator of the international project at the Brockville campus of St. Lawrence College, is very enthusiastic about Michelle's plans. He said her registration at the University of Louvain is under a new trial program, an "epreuve unique", which is specially significant due to Michelle's educational background.

"Normally, to qualify for this advanced brewing course, a student should have completed a degree program in chemistry or agricultural science at a university.

"However, the Louvain University senate reviewed the curriculum and objectives of the St. Lawrence College three-year lab science program and judged that it provided sufficient prerequisites to permit entrance," Mr. Butt said.

"The only additional requirement was fluency in French for any candidates," he added.

Scholarship awarded

Mr. Butt approached several Canadian brewing companies regarding sponsorship of a St. Lawrence College graduate, and, with Michelle's agreement to apply for the Louvain course, was rewarded by Molson's offering her a special grant-in-aid.

He said the difficulties attending overseas studies wre great enough without a student having to worry too much about finances, and he was therefore very grateful to Molson's for helping to provide this opportunity for Michelle.

Michelle is a 1971 graduate of St. Lawrence High School, Cornwall, which she attended after studies at St. Michael's Academy, a girl's school which is now closed. She is not a stranger to international travel, having enjoyed a month's boat and train tour of some seven European countries five years ago while a student at the Academy.

Does she like beer? "Yes, of course," Michelle said. And as for a favorite brand, she stated quite frankly that she prefers her sponsor's.

Perhaps that laughing brewery chemist will wind up crying in his beer . . . whole vats of it.

YOURS SINCERELY

BY MRS. WELLWOOD ADAM

Do you look forward and welcome Sunday as a day of rest from the previous six days of the workday world and also as a day of spiritual strength for the six days ahead, whatever they may bring? Not everybody does, I know. I have seen evidence of some physically tired people and some very weary school children of all ages on Monday mornings.

As I was writing this, the Sabbath was ending and it was quiet outside, and the sun had set some time ago. I had enjoyed yet another church service during the morning with many others of like mind. As I sat in the pew of a small and well loved church a few miles to the north of Morrisburg, during the usual quiet fifteen minutes before the service started ... my thoughts were varied. At first, I was alone, and the calm serenity of the Sanctuary remained unbroken even when the pews gradually filled everywhere. Quiet moments always seem to do a lot for me, personally, and I often find myself asking myself if I am really what I want myself to be.

Then I remembered a story I had read during the week about an elderly man. He was walking by a similar small church, and suddenly he decided to go inside. He discovered that a wedding was to take place shortly, so he turned to go out again. The minister, who had arrived early, saw him and assured him he was most welcome to stay.

The stranger was still not sure if he should stay, and said so. Then, because he was attracted by the minister's kindly glance, he quietly told him he had not long come out from jail. The clergyman, said that it made no difference, and that he was still welcome to stay.

The man squared his shoulders and replied, "I would like to watch the wedding, and I would like to give the bride and groom a gift, if I could." The after a momen't thought, he added, "Do you think the organist might play my favourite hymn for them? It is "By cool Siloam's shady rill . . .' it was always a comfort to me when ever I heard it in prison."

The minister nodded and while the man chose a pew in the back of the church, he went to have a word with the organist.

You can imagine the surprise of everyone in the church, later on, and just before the wedding march, when the soft notes of that lovely old hymn tune spread all over the Sanctuary, and beyond it . . .

"Dependent on Thy bounteous breath
We seek Thy grace alone . . .
. . . To keep us still Thine own"

This was indeed a beautiful gift to any couple on their wedding day, it was a perfct prayer for them. A comforting one, too, for a man just released from jail. He was alone that day when he walked into that church, to s o m e extent, and I still feel there is a lot to be said for being alone with one's thoughts, now and then.

I don't know where the following lines came from, but I quote them, for what they are worth. They have helped me a lot, when I have needed to be alone occasionally.

If you think you are beaten ... you are!
If you think you dare not . . . you don't.
If you like to win but you think you can't,
It's almost certain you won't!
If you think you'll lose . . . you've lost;
For out of this world we find
That success begins with a person's will,
It's all in the state of mind.
If you think you're outclassed... you are!
You've got to think high to rise;
You've got to be sure of yourself
Before you can win a prize.
Life's battles don't always go
To the strongest or fastes men; (or women)
But soon or late the one who wins
Is the one who thinks he (she) can! (end of quote)

Yes, as I said before, there's a lot to be said for choosing a quiet place, sometimes, for marshalling one's thoughts together. What do you say?

BRIDGE TRAFFIC UP ON LABOUR DAY LONG WEEKEND

Traffic over the Ogdensburg-Prescott International Bridge increased over 23 percent over the four day Labor Day Weekend. Crossings totalled 9,154 compared to 7,429 for the 1973 holiday period

Sunday, September 1st recorded the biggest increase with 2,590 crossings vs 2,069 in 1973. Friday and Saturday marked 1,884 and 2,375 crossings respectively against 1,536 and 2,000 last year. Labor Day also showed an increase of 481 vehicles with total traffic of 2,305.

Bridge records indicated the traffic was evenly divided betwee Canadian and United States originations over the four day period. Saturday and Sunday were the biggest days for Canadian travel to New York, while Friday and Saturday marked the heaviest days for travel over the Ogdensburg Bridge to Ontario.

The return of more than 200 Amusements of America vehicles from the Central Canada Exhibition at Ottawa contined the busy traffic on Tuesday, September 3.

MINISTER URGES EXTRA CAUTION BY EVERY MOTORIST

Last year in Ontario 194 children were killed and 12,000 injured in traffic accidents . . . 95 of the children were pedestrians, 36 were riding bicycles and others were in motor vehicles.

In announcing these figures, Minister of Transportation and Communications John R. Rhodes reminded all motorists that the opening of a new school year presents particular hazards.

"The first days back at school are an exciting time for youngsters," Mr. Rhodes warned. "They often become forgetful about the traffic safety rules. Thus, all motorists must be constantly alert when driving in school areas. — They must take extra caution where there are parked cars, school crossing zones or playground areas.

"In rural districts, adult drivers must be very cautious when they see a yellow school bus. If the bus is stopped with red signal lights flashing it means children are getting on or off the bus.

The onus is on all drivers to see that children cross the road safely."

Parents must help too, Mr. Rhodes added. "Check the route your children have to follow to get to school and discuss any particular hazards with them. And find out what they are learning about traffic safety at school so you can reinforce these messages at home.

Let's all do our best to make sure that a child's forgetful moment does not result in a tragedy"

53 ANIMALS IN STORMONT BLACK & WHITE SHOW

Fifteen exhibitors brought out 53 animals at the Stormont County Black and White show held on August 31, commencing at noon hour. Gerald Jans, Moose Creek, received the Premier Breeder and Premier Exhibitor awards with J. H. Morrow, Maxville, second for each win.

Judge Joan McNeely, Lyn, did an excellent job of placing the classes, and found her senior champion females both in the class for four-year-old cows. Standing first was Glenstor Queen Rock shown by Gerald Jans, while Harperview Ann was in Reserve position sho .wn by Oran Montgomery of Monkland. Both cows were daughters of Seiling Rockman.

Oran Montgomery's entry in the senior yearling heifer class stood first and was named Junior Champion female. She was another Seiling Rockman daughter, Montmaple Rockman Hazel. The first place junior yearling heifer shown by Gerald Jans was Reserve Junior Champion female, Glenstor Crystal, also by Seiling Rockman.

Six bull calves were shown, with Wesson Laddie, sired by Wesson Lad, standing first and taking the Champion bull award for J. Wesley Ferguson and Sons. The Reserve win went to Murrayholm Alert Dandy, sired by Glenholm Alert Dean and shown by Marland Murray and Son, Martintown.

Gerald Jans had the first prize Breeder's herd and stood first in class with his entry in the three-year-old and two-year-old classes. J. Howard Morrow had the first prize aged cow and Oran Montgomery showed the winning heifer calf.

RIVERSIDE SCHOOL NEWS REPORT

Last Tuesday, September 3rd, marked the beginning of a new school year for the students and staff at Riverside Heights Public School. All of last year's regular and itinerant teachers were back to welcome 132 returning pupils, 16 new grade 1's from Morrisburg kindergarten, and 10 new students from other schools. While enrollment has been dropping in many elementary schools, the total of 158 marked an increase of four pupils from a year ago at Riverside Heights.

Several improvements were made during the summer months, the most prominent of which was the acquisition of a portable classroom to serve the dual purpose of a French room and a library resource centre. In addition, the main entrance driveway to the school was paved and roof repairs were made.

By the end of the first week, forty of the junior and senior boys were busily occupying part of their noon hours by competing in respective soccer matches for the school championship. This, of course, will be a prelude to the picking of the school teams for the Dundas Invitational Soccer Tournament to be held in Iroquois in October.

Fix-It Tip

Place a piece of heavy aluminum foil between the seat cushion and the spring on each patio chair to prevent unsightly metal rust stain on the seat cushions. The foil works perfectly on the chaise lounge springs, too. Protect the outdoor pillows from rain and dew by removing the decorative cover, wrapping the inner pillows in heavy foil, sealing the edges tightly with a double fold, then putting the decorative cover back on.

Study of Animal Health Services in Ontario

The Honourable William A. Stewart, Minister of Agriculture and Food, today announced the appointment of Dr. E. Harry Botterell, Kingston, Ontario, to conduct a study of animal health services in Ontario. His appointment reflects the concern expressed by livestock producers for readily available veterinary service across the province now and in the future.

In making the announcement, Mr. Stewart said, "Dr. Botterell is a scholar and clinician of international acclaim and will bring a high degree of objectivity and scientific background to the study. His knowledge of the health sciences, though he is neither a livestock owner nor a veterinarian, puts him in a position to assess objectively all aspects of the delivery of veterinary services."

The terms of reference of the study are broad and will allow Dr. Botterell to examine all segments of the livestock health services field, and to make recommendations respecting the provision of veterinary services to livestock owners in the future. He will assess the current and future needs of veterinary practices serving livestock owners, the role of animal health technicians, the animal health assistance programs that have been employed in various jurisdictions, veterinary laboratory services, and other related topics.

Dr. Botterell, a former Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, Queen's University, and more recently Vice-Principal of Health Services there, is well known in Canada for his accomplishments in medicine. A graduate of the Medical School of the University of Manitoba, he achieved prominence as a neurosurgeon. He has written many papers on neurology and neurosurgery. While still a part-time member of the staff of Queen's University, he recently conducted a number of studies, including an enquiry into the Health Care System in the Ministry of Correctional Services in Ontario.

Mr. Stewart, in stressing the importance of the study, paid tribute to Ontario's veterinary profession for the invaluable contribution that it has made to the success of the province's livestock industry. He added, "We must ensure that good veterinary service continues to be made available in rural Ontario. The information obtained from Dr. Botterell's study should be of great value to our Ministry in guiding future policy regarding animal health services.

In the course of the study, Dr. Botterell will meet with members of the veterinary profession and livestock producers. In addition, he invites the views of any individual or organization concerned with or affected by veterinary services. Letters or briefs should be directed to Dr. E.H. Botterell, at 151 Bloor Street West, Toronto, Ontario, or 84 Barrie Street, Kingston, Ontario.

NEW WATERFOWL MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

A cooperative agreement for the management of waterfowl for interpretation, viewing and hunting with the St. Lawrence Parks Commission, Ontario Hydro and the Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources has been reached and is now in effect.

Planning is being undertaken for a total Waterfowl Management Programme within the Lake St. Lawrence Wildfowl Extension Landowner Agreement Area. The eastern extremity of this area is County Road No. 15 and the western boundary, County Road No. 3, on the south, the International Border and on the north, Highway 2.

Under this Agreement, the new Regulations will apply for the '74 wildfowl hunting season. All hunting will be "offshire" with the Upper Canada Migratory Bird Sanctuary totally restricted.

A Designated Hunting Point System will be implemented. Within the area, related to the Agreement, there will be 6 vehicle parking areas and each parking area will have parking space numbers. The number of the vehicle parking space will correspond to the number on a stake identifying the particular hunting point. All hunting points will be available on a first come-first serve basis.

A pattern of signs will direct hunters to each of the designated parking lots and from there to each hunting point.

Boats will be necessary to reach most of the hunting points. While there will be no charge for hunting, the normal vehicle Parks entrance fee will apply until October 15.

Wildfowl hunters may obtain further information from the Ministry of Natural Resources, Cornwall, telephone 933-1774 and from the St. Lawrence Parks Commission, Morrisburg, telephone 543-2951.

Controlled Wildfowl Hunting, as part of the overall Management Programme, will insure the continuance of hunting in this area for the future.

The first in the eight-game international hockey series will be carried live on the CBC Radio network, Tuesday, Sept. 17. Team Canada '74 meets the USSR National Team in Quebec City. The second game will be played in Toronto, Thursday, Sept. 19. Commentators are Bob Cole and Fred Sgambati.

Efrem Zimbalist Jr. best-known for his role on the FBI series on TV, is also a composer. His musical ability comes naturally through his famous violinist father. Zimbalist will be the guest on Music and Opinion, Thursday, Sept. 19, and the guest panelist is Toronto violinist Philip Frank, who will play the world premiere of Zimbalist's Sonata, in Toronto. That performance will be recorded for Themes and Variations, Thursday Oct. 17. Frank, who studied with Zimbalist Sr., taught Efrem Jr. to play the violin while he was pursuing an acting career, in 1933

Another world premiere comes up Saturday, Sept. 14 when Music Alive presents an all Harry Somers concert, introducing his newest work, Kyrie. The Festival Singers of Canada, conducted by Elmer Iseler, with soprano Roxolana Roslak, contralto Patricia Rideout, tenor John Martens, bass Dodington, and an instrumental ensemble were recorded at Toronto's St. James' Cathedral.

The adventures of a middle - aged Jewish couple, played by Marian Waldman and Paul Soles, are chronicled in Larry Snyder's Just A Bowl of Cherries on CBC Stage, Saturday, Sept. 14. Miss Waldman is also a playwright of some note, and Paul Soles is seen regularly on CBC-TV's Take Thirty and This Is The Law.

Between Ourselves visits the Toronto Islands, Friday, Sept. 20. It's an historical exploration of Ward's, Hanlan's and Centre Islands, with some contemporary comment prepared by Cindy Bisaillon. The islands were the settings for summer homes of many old Toronto families. What homes are left are now occupied by a cross-section of people and City Hall is trying to oust them to convert the area into parkland.

British novelist Anthony Burgess, author of the controversial A Clockwork Orange, is interviewed by Patrick Hynan on Sunday Supplement, Sept. 15. He talks about his latest novel, Napoleon Symphony, which attempts to develop characters and themes in the style of Beethoven's Eroica Symphony.

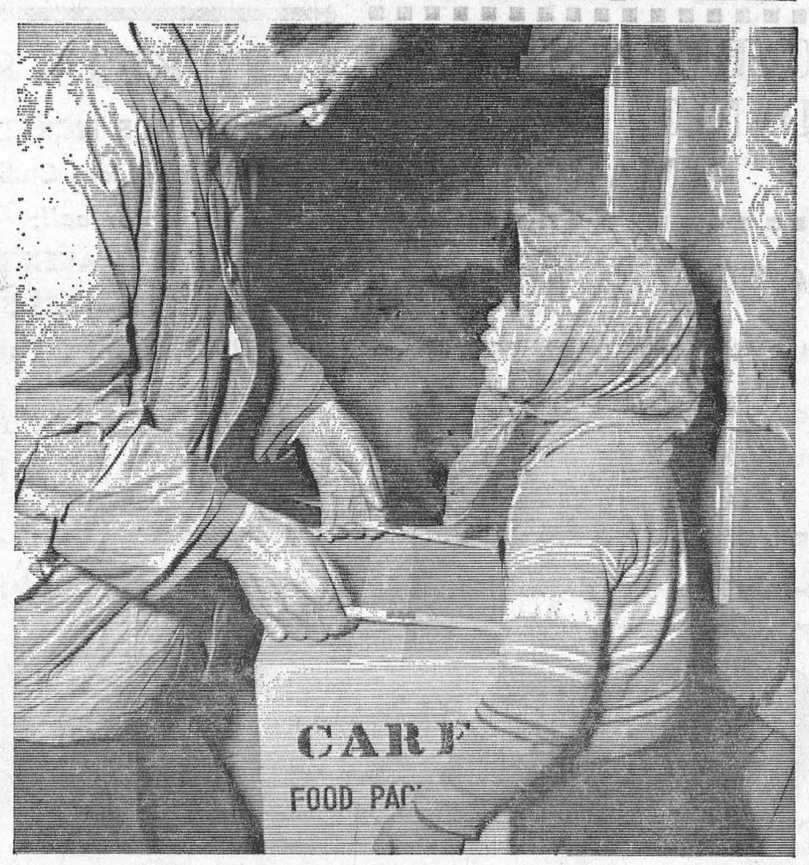
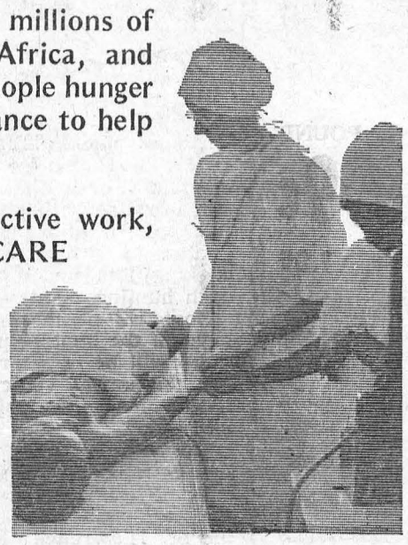
CARE is more than just a package

It's people helping people



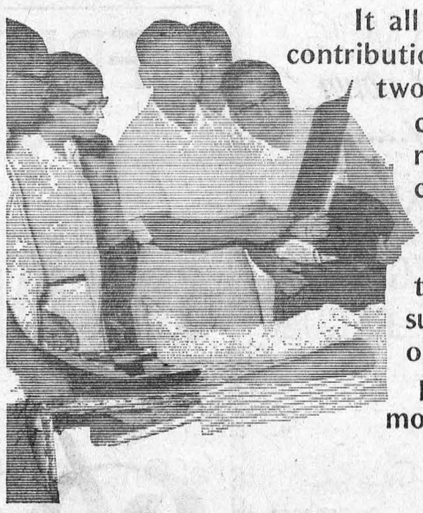
Each day CARE feeds millions of hungry families in Asia, Africa, and Latin America. But, these people hunger for more than food: the chance to help themselves.



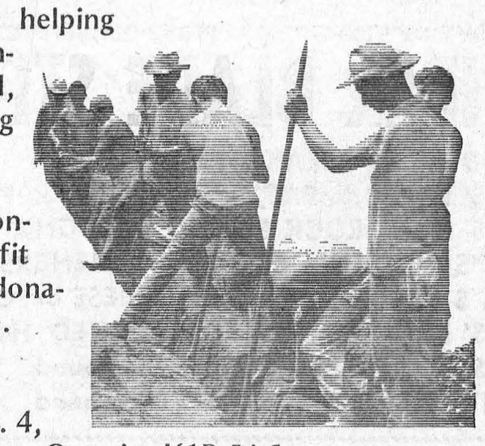
They yearn for productive work, for education, for tools. CARE works to satisfy these hungers.

Throughout the developing world Canadian CARE teams co-operate with local people in an effort to provide better nutrition, safe water, permanent housing, less illiteracy, more and better medical services, and information about family planning.

Through CARE's partnership program local governments give what they can and the people volunteer their labour.



It all starts with YOUR contribution to CARE. For two dollars CARE can provide nourishing food to 180 children. Five dollars provide a CARE MEDICO team with enough suturing material for 20 operations. Ten dollars provide enough cement to mold 400 construction blocks.



CARE is people helping people to help themselves. But most of all, CARE is YOU making all this possible.

CARE is a non-governmental, non-profit organization and all donations are tax deductible.

Send your dollars to:
CARE of Canada, Dept. 4,
63 Sparks Street, Ottawa, Ontario, K1P 5A6

Please cut out this coupon and return it with your donation. CARE will send you an official receipt and a report on current programs overseas.

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

You can guess from Jamie's smile that he is an enthusiast. The good-looking 12-year-old has many interests and is full of zest about all of them. Probably sports are at the top of his list. He is keen on hockey, playing either goal or defence, and his favorite reading is hockey magazines. He is first baseman on a baseball team, a forward in basketball, and plays any position in football.

An outdoor boy, Jamie enjoys camping, fishing, canoeing and boating. He is also fond of crafts and woodworking.

Healthy, active Jamie has brown eyes, light-brown hair and fair skin. He is generally cheerful though he can fly off on occasion. He is neat and tidy and enjoys helping with household chores.

Jamie is in senior opportunity class but his teacher feels he may be able to enter the regular school stream in the future.

Farm life rather appeals to Jamie because he is especially fond of animals.

This lad needs warm, understanding parents who will give him time to feel he is really part of their family. He would like to maintain limited contact with two brothers and a sister who are not to be adopted with him.

To inquire about adopting Jamie, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, please contact your local Children's Aid Society.

Ex-Wife's Benefits

Dear Margaret Brookfield:

In reply to a reader, you stated that a divorced wife is eligible for social security benefits on her ex-husband's account, if she was married to him for 20 years before the divorce. Is the wife ineligible if she hasn't received support from her former husband since the divorce? V.T.

Dear V.T.

A divorced wife is eligible for social security benefits on her ex-husband's account if she was married to him for at least 20 years, even if she was not dependent on him for support. At age 62, a woman becomes eligible if her husband retires or becomes disabled. Widow's benefits are paid as early as age 60. Your local social security office has free literature that will bring you up to date on the changes in social security.

Job Seeker

Dear Margaret Brookfield:

My husband is in poor health and unable to support me and our children adequately, and so I have decided to return to work. I last worked in an office eight years ago, but I can still type. Do I stand a chance? G.K.

Dear G.K.:

You have motivation and the skills: all you need is confidence. Start by checking the classified advertisements in your local newspaper and, if possible, visit your state employment office. Don't be discouraged if you fail to find a job immediately. Keep trying. At the same time, order a booklet entitled: "Job-Finding Techniques for Mature Women" by sending 30 cents to Women's Bureau, U.S. Department of Labor, Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. You might find it helpful. Good luck.

Painful Sexual Relations

Dear Margaret Brookfield:

I was widowed three years ago. About eight months ago, I met an old beau who is also widowed, and we are having wonderful times together. He proposed recently but I hesitate to accept because sexual relations had become painful in the last year of my marriage. A friend tells me this can be due to the menopause. Is this true? I'm 55. Can anything be done? J.E.

Dear J.E.:

We urge you to consult your physician who can diagnose your problem and prescribe treatment, if necessary. Your friend is correct: some menopausal women experience pain during sexual relations. The reason may be an insufficiency of the female hormone, estrogen, in the woman's system after menopause. This insufficiency may lead to a thinning of the tissue lining the vagina, which may become irritated during relations. Doctors sometimes prescribe administration of estrogen in such cases because it often helps to thicken the lining.

Tourism means jobs.

This is what Ontario is doing to keep the tourists coming.

Tourism is good for Ontario. Tourists take nothing away except happy memories, but they leave plenty of money behind them.

That's why your Ontario government seeks to attract visitors to our province, and asks for your help in making them feel welcome.

Already, tourism is Ontario's 3rd largest industry. It provides jobs for over 154,000 people, quite possibly including you and your neighbours. What's more, by 1978 Ontario expects to play host to enough visitors to create 85,000 additional jobs.

A worthwhile goal, certainly. But how can all this be accomplished? Here are some of the things that your Ontario government is doing:

We're making loans for the development of tourist facilities—through the Ontario Business Incentives Program, Ontario Development Corporation, Eastern Ontario Development Corporation, and Northern Ontario Development Corporation.

Ontario now has Tourism specialists in London (Eng.), Los Angeles, Frankfurt, and Tokyo.

We are working with airlines, railroads and bus companies to promote the pleasures of Ontario.

We are striving to bring conventions to smaller as well as larger communities, and to resort areas, especially during off seasons.

We are supporting your local Travel Associations, with ample money to promote local tourism.

We are promoting the attractions of our Province by advertising throughout Ontario and nearby U.S. states.

You can help us welcome visitors by greeting them in a friendly manner, and showing them genuine hospitality.

Encourage visitors to come back, and to bring their friends.

If we all do our share, we can increase the number of tourists who come here, and that's not only good for the tourists—it's good for Canada, good for Ontario, and good for you.
