Youngest Dundas county brownie

This brand new baby girl, born at 4am on February 23, was the recipient of a gift by the Nation Valley Girl Guides. Sabrina Berseth, RR3 Williamsburg, has received a free registration to her local brownie pack in the year 1991 when she will be six years old. She was also presented with a brownie doll, held by district commissioner Anne Marie Dawley. Sabrina's mom, Sylviane, said on Monday she was delighted and surprised with the attention bestowed on her little girl.

Newborn baby honored by girl guides

WINCHESTER (Staff) - In 1991 Sabrina Berseth will be a member of the Williamsburg brownie troop. Although Sabrina is only five days old her registration fee of $10, her brownie scarf and a brownie doll have all be provided for her compliments of the Nation Valley Girl Guides.

To mark the 75th anniversary of the guiding movement in Canada the local companies have designated the first baby girl born on February 22 or afterwards to be the little girl honored in this way.

So Sabrina, whose parents are Sylviane and Frederick Berseth of RR 3 Williamsburg, will enter the local brownie pack in 1991 complete with her gifts.

District Commissioner Anne Marie Dawley was on hand at the maternity ward of Winchester District Memorial Hospital on Monday morning. At that time Mrs. Dawley presented Sabrina with her gifts and a card certifying to her honorary position with the brownie troop.

Asked if she thought Sabrina would be entering the brownie pack Mrs. Berseth said "Yes, I think so." She added she was surprised and pleased with the gesture by the Nation Valley guides. The baby, weighing a litle over six pounds was quiet and sleepy throughout the presentation and the photographic session with members of the local media.

Super international fair to be held

WINCHESTER (Staff) - To celebrate the 75th anniversary of the guiding movement in Canada in a very special way local guide companies are presenting a mammoth international fair here Sunday, March 3.

To be held at Winchester Community Centre, each of the companies in the area will present a booth filled with interesting displays featuring the arts and crafts and even food, of other lands.

Represented will be the guides of the Chesterville, Winchester, Morrisburg, Williamsburg and Iroquois districts. At the community centre they will be hosting booths set up like a trade fair. As well a special booth focusing on the history of guiding in Canada will be presented.

In addition to the exhibits each unit will present a number, musical, skit or demonstration for the audience. During the course of the afternoon there will be live action of this sort most of the time.

The guides as well as their leaders will be in costume during the international fair. Some will be wearing ethnic dress and others will be modelling vintage guide costumes from earlier years.

Locally the mail may get through . . .

(Staff) - The threat of a postal strike in Canada came closer to being a fact earlier this week but on the local front post offices will remain open.

Chesterville's acting postmaster, Chris McCadden, told The Record just before press time "we'll be open regular hours. Only the inside workers have voted to strike."

Mrs. McCadden explained that although the inside workers at the big post offices like Cornwall, Ottawa and Toronto would be affected. The staff of the small offices do not belong to the massive Canadian Union of Postal Workers.

While Mrs. McCadden is a member of the Canadian Postmasters and Assistants Union, most of the local staff is hired on a casual basis and belongs to no union at all.

Although there will be local mail delivered "we won't be getting any mail from the big centres."

Mail posted in Chesterville, for instance, would be sorted here. As far as Mrs. McCadden can tell at this point rural mail, what there is of it, will go ahead, "unless the carriers are laid off."

She emphasized several times in an interview that no word has been received from postal headquarters in Ottawa and local workers are as much in the dark as the general public.

"What I hear is from the news," said Mrs. McCadden.

In the eventuality of a strike by the inside workers, Canada Post would continue to send mail trucks, the small post offices would remain open and Priority Post, the crown corporation's courier service, would continue to operate.

The local post office in Chesterville will continue to maintain regular hours, 8:30 to 5:45 weekdays and 8:30 to 12 noon on Saturdays.

At press time the situation between members of CUPW and management was entering the showdown stage. Armed with what union leaders hope will be a strong nation-wide strike mandate, they are preparing for lengthy talks with the employer about several issues -- wages, job security and trends within the organization toward more evening and night shifts as well as job loss through attrition and the move to use of new technology.

In the event of a mail strike The Record's subscribers in local areas will continue to receive their newspapers. Further afield, though, in districts like Brockville and Ottawa, we shall be unable to make deliveries. In that case it is The Record's policy to extend the duration of subscriptions by the length of the strike, should this occur.

(Staff) - Beer supplies, locally, are holding for now but in view of the employee lockout of union employees of the big breweries, effective Monday night, the stream could dwindle to a trickle.

In Chesterville, just before press time the LCBO store had beer in stock but Harold Merkley didn't know how long their supplies would last.

"It depends on how fast people buy it," he laughed.

A spokesman for the LCBO store in Winchester refused to divulge any information on the matter.

However, in Morrisburg yesterday afternoon, there were six cases of domestic brand six packs left. "People don't seem to know about the lockout but by the end of the day it'll probably all be gone," a spokesman said. As well, Iroquois reported a run on beer supplies.

Although LCBO stores stock a limited amount of imported beers they were not selling by press time in Morrisburg.

One solved robbery leads to two more

WINCHESTER (Staff) - Police here have charged two individuals with the theft of two snowmobiles and say their investigation has led to uncovering two other robberies.

On February 19 members of the Winchester detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police were informed by Al Scott, Mountain township and Gary Collins, Winchester, that snowmobiles belonging to them as well as a trailer carrying the two snow vehicles were missing. The two snowmobiles had been on a trailer in Mr. Scott's yard.

Police have charged Sean Cleland, 17, of RR1, Winchester and David Jones, 18, of RR1, Winchester, with theft.

As a consequence of the investigation police have also charged the men in two other incidents.

On February 20 a video cassette recorder, a microwave oven and a cassette recorder, were missing from the residence of Hector Courville, lot 23, con. 7, Winchester township. Mr. Cleland and Mr. Jones were charged with break and enter and theft in this matter.

A third investigation resulted in the laying of the charge of possession of recovered stolen property against the two men. Property belonging to Richard Faubert, RR2, Spencerville, was reported missing. Items involved were electronic and camera equipment as well as rifles and shotguns.

The Casselman OPP detachment also has laid charges against the men who were incarcerated earlier as a result of those charges.

They will appear in Winchester provincial court March 22 in connection with the Winchester police case against them.

Pickup trucks in accident

AVONMORE (Staff) - A road accident Tuesday, February 19, resulted in injuries to two persons and estimated damage to the two pickup trucks involved $12,000.

The collision took place 9.7 kilometres west of county road 15 in Roxborough township. At 5:20pm, during a time of day when much of the area was experiencing whiteouts along the roads, a 1981 Ford pickup truck driven by Lloyd Jackson, 55, of Monkland, collided with another vehicle. This was operated by Siegfried Grabs, 30, of Moose Creek. Mr. Grabs was driving a 1981 GMC pickup truck eastbound on the road, while Mr. Jackson was westbound.

Both drivers were taken to Hotel Dieu Hospital in Cornwall where Mr. Jackson's injuries were described as major. Mr. Grabs suffered minor injuries. Two passengers were also taken to hospital, one with major and one with lesser injuries.

Mr. Grabs' vehicle received an estimated $2000 worth of damage while the Jackson truck was damaged at an estimated $8000.

Playhouse expands season for 1985

MORRISBURG (Staff) - The 1985 repertoire for Upper Canada Playhouse, the tent theatre located on Upper Canada Road, will expand from two to three plays. Details about the plays selected will be released soon.

Board directors Doug Grenki, Morrisburg, and Roger Croxall, Cornwall, said the new season will open June 30 and continue until September 1, two weeks longer than the initial season last summer.

Mr. Croxall noted the theatre broke even financially last year but "in order to increase the season and to continue the theatre in the area, new finances are necessary to ensure there is no financial loss."

He added the theatre enjoyed "tremendous success last year with thousands of local residents and tourists enjoying the performances of "1837: The Farmers' Revolt" and "Billy Bishop Goes to War."

This year the board of directors is aiming at raising $20,000 from corporate donations and local citizens in order to complete the season "without financial loss or embarrassment."

Last season the playhouse received $30,000 in federal and provincial funding.

ND students chase away winter blues

By
Danielle Gryspeerdt
and Caren Wu

As the last few grains of sand trickle down the hourglass of February, the student body surges with pulsating energy pumping new life in the spirit of North Dundas.

Our vivacious social convenor, Damian Laflamme, enjoyed another exhilerating success as more than 350 students got down and boogied at the Carnival Dance '85. His enthusiastic efforts raised an inspiring $550 for the Muscular Distrophy Association.

Our radiant carnival royalty - Oliver Bartsch (king), Danielle Gryspeerdt (queen), Mark Armstrong (prince), Pam Carkner (princess) - enjoyed their royal splendor to its fullest and kicked off the carnival day procedings by judging the legs contest.

Who's got the sexiest legs around? Mr. King, that's who! He walked all over the competition while his wife followed in his footsteps. Cute calves Chariot jumped in third place sending this enthusiastic arch-supporters wild!!

Elsewhere in carnival activities, Steve Molloy demonstrated innovative banana-eating techniques which enabled him to down 6 bananas in 1 minute flat upon questioning his aptitude at banana eating, I discovered his strong beliefs in Darwin's theory of evolution.

All in all, the carnival day was a tremendous success which has lifted the school spirit from its tomb and made it shine brilliantly again.

The pudding-dropping contest at the NDDHS Winter Carnival offered students an opportunity for revenge. With one partner standing on a table, the other waited lying down for a spoonful of pudding which would ideally land in the mouth. Most didn't and this girl got her dessert in the neck. The activities were restricted to indoors because the teachers wouldn't venture out in the rain, forcing cancellation of the outdoor games. Record Photo - Mitchell

Danielle Gryspeerdt and Mark Armstrong were chosen queen and king at the NDDHS Winter Carnival last week, but they didn't receive any special treatment. Here they teamed up for the banana-eating contest, with Mark eating and Danielle peeling. The winner took top honours by downing six bananas in one minute. Karen Anderson was staff advisor for the carnival that included a dance Thursday night that raised $550 for the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Record Photo - Mitchell

Snowmobile strikes auto

LONG SAULT (Staff) - Christopher Adams, a 17-year old Lunenburg resident, suffered injuries when the snowmobile he was riding last Thursday night hit a parked car near the Post Road in Cornwall township.

Mr. Adams was taken to Cornwall General Hospital for observation. He suffered lacerations on his knee and face when his snowmobile ran into the back of a 1981 Honda owned by Wesley Fraser of RR1, Lunenburg.

Damages to the snowmobile were estimated at $2000 and $200 to the car. The accident occurred on a road allotment north of the Post Road.

SNRCA estimates call for more funding

FINCH (Staff) - The 1985 budget for the South Nation Conservation Authority shows the organization needs 9 per cent more funding in fiscal 1985. Presented here last Tuesday, the SNRCA budget was passed at a full authority meeting.

The authority, which has set its gross figure at $864,315 for the year has received funding approval for $634,228. Added to this are $453,650 to be received from the province and $300,156 in municipal levies.

A major decrease is expected in the allocation for this year's surveys and studies. Such projects last year cost $782,102 but the authority expects to spend only $307,255 in 1985. These studies are allocated for water and related land management.

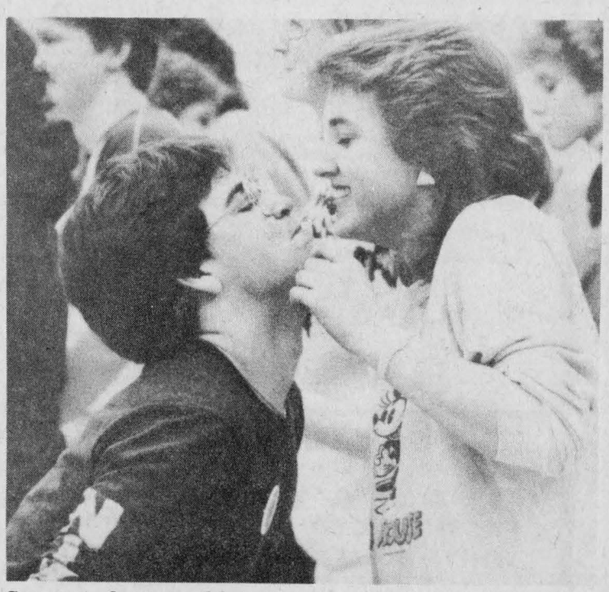
In the area of conservation and recreation land management administration costs this year will jump from $2,400 last year to $14,620. As well, surveys and studies for this field will rise from $8,288 to $99,000.

One additional staff member has joined the authority, work supervisor Roy Steele. Mr. Steele replaced Bert Rady who retired in December, 1983.

In the area of general administration the budgeted figure for 1985 is $222,260 while this cost $201,708 last year.

The authority has on hand an operating reserve of $94,509 and a capital reserve of $16,000.

Last year a total (including all grants) of $1,442,577 was budgeted and of that amount $1,227,465 was actually used.



Some students couldn't do it to save their lives but they still had fun. With a toothpick between the teeth the participants in the NDDHS Winter Carnival event had to pass along a lifesaver to the person behind and hope it didn't fall off and break. Though some students took the day off, a good number took part in the games that help promote school spirit, said carnival advisor Karen Anderson. Record Photo - Mitchell

Negative image hurts corn growers

MONKLAND (Staff) - Speaking at the annual regional meeting of the Ontario Corn Producers' Association, Franz Haerle, a St. Isidore grower, told representatives of seven counties that farmers need to erase the negative image they present to the media.

On a positive note he said government should assist grain growers to obtain seed from sources like Europe where four-year trials mean that another three years testing should not be needed in Canada.

"We should be able to get seed from where we want," Mr. Haerle said. "It won't cost the government a cent but it will assure farmers a better income."

He also stressed in his talk that crop rotation was important for a climate like Canada's as well as spending more time on the breeding of plants at the research level. He pointed out that in Europe better seed varieties give higher yielding crops and show themselves to be more resistant to disease.

The group chose four deleg - gates to attend the upcoming annual meeting and convention in Kitchener March 26 and 27. Attending will be Hank de Kemp, Ottawa-Carleton; Martin Schneckenburger, Dundas; Jim Vallance, Maxville; and Sylvio Pilon. Nominated as a director to Toronto was Martin Schneckenburger, who held the position in 1984.

Asked by Mr. Schneckenburger whether the members wanted any resolutions conveyed to the conference the Prescott-Russell delegate stated a stabilization program like that of the growers in Quebec should be made available in Ontario.

Stan Vanden Bosch, Dundas county, said "I'm not in favor of subsidies and we're asking for problems five or ten years down the road."

Mr. Schneckenburger indicated in his opinion the granting of such a program was highly unlikely.

Monkland centennial plans promise exciting weekend

MONKLAND (Staff) - Plans for the upcoming Monkland centennial weekend were formulated last week and the results mean an exciting time for young and old.

The dates to keep in mind are June 28 to 30. Planned for June 29 are a ball tournament, parade, official opening, nostalgic fashion show, lots of local talent, historical displays, lawn decorating contest, beer gardens, buffet supper and dance.

This will be preceded by Friday's centennial queen pageant featuring both a junior and senior queen.

On Sunday, June 30, there's a ball tournament planned as well as general fun day, ecumencial church service, barbecue and camp-fire and sing-a-long.

The recreation committee has stressed that volunteers are urgently needed. They also welcome suggestions. To help calls may be made to Sandra Sproul at 346-5643 or Bernie Barker at 346-2006.

$4000 grant to help upgrade zoning bylaw

BERWICK (Staff) - Finch township has received a grant of $4000 from the Ontario municipal affairs and housing ministry, it was announced last week.

The money will be used by the municipality to upgrade its zoning bylaw which is due for a major update. The zoning bylaw is required to conform to the newly formulated official plan, completed in 1984.

The work has been assigned to the firm of J.L. Richards and Associates of Ottawa. Funded to the ratio of 50 per cent, the municipality can pay up to $8000 for the work.

Community planning grants are provided by the province to encourage municipalities to resolve land use planning issues to reflect municipal and economic priorities.

They may also be used for special studies to develop community improvement policies, to determine the feasibility of using data processing technology in the local planning process and to assist in implementing the Planning Act.

Weather just right for run-off

BERWICK (Staff) - Although there are signs of spring in the air there is currently no danger of flooding along the banks of the South Nation River.

Staff engineer Kim Eaton, of the South Nation Conservation Authority, said on Monday the weather we're having right how, not too warm, no snow and no more rain since last weekend's two days of downpours, means that the deterioration of the snow and ice is proceeding at a controllable rate.

"We're just watching the situation day by day," Ms. Eaton said. "We're holding our breath and hoping that with warm weather we may be in a situation where there is a nice run-off."

"There is no danger of flooding for the next week," she added.

In all areas especially vulnerable to ice jamming such as the Chesterville dam area, and districts downstream of Crysler and Plantagenet near the highway 17 bridge, there is no sign yet that the ice may form into large chinks that tend to cause jamming.

"This type of weather is not warm enough to break up the ice too much," Ms. Eaton explained. With the recent heavy rain a lot of rain was absorbed into the snowpack and there has been some increase in the flow but not too much.

As well, there have been no stop-logs removed from the Chesterville dam. This procedure is sometimes performed to decrease the water level and allow more flow area since the dam is subject to ice build-up. The removal of logs is not done every year.

Currently the snow is deteriorating at an even pace and officials of SNRCA are monitoring the river along its length.

Bridal nostalgia at Avonmore

AVONMORE (Staff) - A parade of antique and nostalgic wedding gowns can be seen here at the Avonmore Community Centre Saturday, March 30. The unique presentation, which begins at 2pm, is being brought to the public by Roxborough Agricultural Society.

On the runway may be seen a black wedding gown, a pink wedding gown dated 1935 and an exact copy of Margaret Trudeau's hand-made creation. The dresses have been collected in the area by members of the women's division of the Avonmore fair.

All these gowns will be modelled by the owners or daughters and even grand-daughters. The afternoon will also include door prizes, tea and bake sale.

Case and IH dealers merge company

LAS VEGAS (Special) - It was agricultural history in the making last week in Las Vegas when Case IH dealers from around the country joined forces for the first time.

Bert Blom, owner of Winchester's new Case IH agricultural equipment dealership, Eagle Farm Equipment, joined nearly 2,200 other deal principals for the formal kick-off of the expanded J I Case agricultural equipment operation. On January 31, 1985, the U.S. Justice Department gave the final green light to Tenneco Inc.'s purchase of International Harvester's agricultural equipment business, which has now been merged into Tenneco affiliate, J I Case, headquartered in Racine, WI.

A high point of the dealer meetings was the unveiling of colors and graphics for the new Case International produce line. Displayed on a Case IH 2096 tractor, the new graphics feature a major IH hallmark -- the characteristic IH red.

The new logo retains the best of both traditions, putting the two established logos side by side -- Case IH. This fresh look will soon be a familiar sight across the continent.

"There wa a terrific feeling in the air," said Mr. Blom. "The entire Case IH dealer organization was excited -- excited to see the equipment, excited about the new look, the new logo, the new colors -- and excited to be a part of the new Case IH Agricultural Equipment dealer network.

"Our Case IH dealers can offer the most complete product line in the industry, backed by the financial strength of Tenneco," he said.

Case IH dealers participated in intensive training seminars on product features such as the Case IH Intelligence Center, CDC engines and power transmissions. The seminars also profiled equipment lines including combines, hay and forage tools, planters and tillage equipment.

In addition to product information, dealers learned of new financing programs, warranties, parts availability and other information vital to farm customers.

"I think our customers will be delighted the way things are shaping up," said Mr. Blom. "Both Case and IH warranties will be fully honored, parts availability will be excellent -- and Case financing, warranties and service will just be outstanding," he said.

"I think our customers will be delighted the way things are shaping up," said Mr. Blom. "Adding the IH agricultural equipment line to our Case tractor line offers the farmer full line, top quality one-stop shopping and superior service," he said.

New Case IH dealers carry two-and four-wheel drive agricultural tractors up to 400 gross engine horsepower, plus a full line of planting, harvesting, tillage and other agricultural equipment. The equipment line reflects the technological expertise of two strongly innovative companies.

Early Rise Cyclo Air planters and Axial-Flow combines offer unparalleled productivity and efficiency. The Case IH Intelligence Center, standard on most tractor models, is the industry's most comprehensive electronic monitoring system.

New Case state-of-the-art diesel engines, already featured in the Case 96 Series tractors, will gradually be phased into all of the company's agricultural and construction equpment.

Case is a worldwide manufacturer and marketer of construction and agricultural equipment.

Tenneco Inc., with headquarters in Houston, is a $15-billion, multi-industry company with major operations in integrated oil, natural gas, pipelines, construction and agricultural equipment, automotive components, chemicals, shipbuilding, packaging, life insurance and agricultural-land management.

Village store expands

MORRISBURG (Special) - A Morrisburg construction firm, one of seven area companies invited by the St. Lawrence Parks Commission to bid on the expansion to the village store at Upper Canada Village, has begun work on the first phase of the project.

Hartley Hodgson Construction, the successful bidder, is expected to complete the structural renovation portion of the project by the end of March, allowing for the set-up of store displays by mid-April.

The three-part project also includes construction and installation of display units and installation of lighting fixtures.

The current expansion will complement the theme of the popular pantry food section and craft room of the village store and will provide space for an increased range of Canadian-made products.

Wooden ceilings and wainscotting will highlight the historical motif of the expanded area in keeping with its Upper Canada Village location.

Because of the construction, the food outlet at the store is closed. Linton Rennick, of Osnabruck Centre, will be operating his chip wagon outside the store on weekends from 11 to 4:30pm until the end of the winter recreation season.

Canada West Lounge to undergo facelift for 1985 tourist season

MORRISBURG (Special) - The Canada West Lounge and Restaurant at the Upper Canada Golf Course east of here, will undergo extensive renovations in preparation for the 1985 season which begins in mid-May.

The 85-seat facility operated by The St. Lawrence Parks Commission (SLPC), now will include a luncheon and dinner area, as well as a private dining area.

The architectural firm for the project is Rysavy and Rysavy, of Ottawa.

The majority of funding for the alternations and expansion is being provided by a capital acceleration grant from the Board of Industrial Leadership Development (BILD).

A one-year catering contract, approved by the SLPC and the Ontario government cabinet, for food services at the Canada West Lounge and Restaurant, as well as the Tea Garden at Upper Canada Village, has been awarded to Versa Foods Ltd. The contract will be managed by the SLPC.

This Toronto-based company has operated the food service facilities at the Village's Willard's Hotel and the Upper Canada Restaurant since the Village opened in 1961.

The changeover in food service operations from the SLPC to Versa parallels the expansion of the Village Store where food services will be provided in the current Tea Garden.

A total of 26 seasonal staff affected by the new contract met with SLPC and Versa officials February 22. Versa staff will be interviewing the Commission's seasonal food service personnel for employment under the new contract.

Rotary

By C.A. Graham

Another fine meal and sing-song led by Rotarian Chuck with Elsie Graham at the piano.

Rotarian Jim Cummings presented the club with a banner from the Chatham Rotary club where Jim visited last week.

This was Easter Seal night with Dale McNaughton in charge. Four thousand envelopes had to be stuffed with three items - Easter Seals, a letter from the Easter Seal Society and a return envelope.

A goodly number of Rotarians were absent and as the evening wore on, president John was heard to mutter something about imposing a penalty on those Rotarians who were absent for this annual chore. However, the evening went quickly with much visiting and bantering among members. Ken Moran, a visiting Rotarian from Cornwall, stayed and helped.

The last job of the evening was to pack the bundles in Rotarian Dale's station wagon for delivery early Tuesday morning to the various post offices.

Red meat products featured at seminar

WINCHESTER (Staff) - "It's always been a matter of fact that meat matters," says Kathy Simpson, OMAF home economist.

Simpson and fellow home economist Susan Humphries presented a program of meat facts including the characteristics of different cuts, tips on buying and cooking meat, and a selection of recipes.

The seminar, held Thursday evening at the Winchester Community Centre, was a special program in honor of "Meat Awareness Month".

According to Ron Wilson, a member of the Dundas County Cattelmen's Association, meat Awareness Month was a cooperative venture by the provincial government and the red meat industry to "get their product better known in the consumers' minds."

Other representatives of local producers' groups sponsoring the seminar were cattlemen's association vice president Alv Seim and Ted Van Moorsel, president of the county pork producers' association.

"The beef cow of today has undergone quite a change," Seim told members of the audience. Producers, aware of the demand for leaner meat, have bred animals with considerably lower fat levels than those of 10 years ago.

Because today's meat is leaner, Simpson said, it offers more vital nutrients and fewer calories per serving, and is still comparatively inexpensive to buy. "An hour's pay today will get you as much meat as yesterday and nearly as much as 10 years ago," she said. "Meat is still a bargain."

Through a slide presentation, recipe demonstrations and a quiz, members of the audience learned how to identify quality cuts of meat, techniques for cooking less tender cuts, and how to recognize a bargain at the grocery store.

The tenderness of beef cuts is affected by the amount of type of connective tissue they contain, and by their location on the carcass. These factors dictate whether the meat should be cooked with dry or moist heat. The heat clues to quality are the size and shape of the bone, marbling, and the amount of fat present.

Ground beef, which is classified as lean, medium or regular according to fat content, comes from trimmings and less tender cuts.

Veal, which is noted for exceptional moistness and tenderness, come from young calves and is priced higher accordingly.

Both pork and lamb come from young animals, with "spring lamb" being slaughtered at the age of three to five months.

Simpson noted that in buying a side of beef, the consumer must expect a 25 per cent wastage in bone, fat and gristle.

Recipes demonstrated by Simpson and Humphries included "Meat-za pie", a unique way to serve ground beef, "Meat in the Round," which used a leg of lamb, and stir-fried pork and vegetables.

Included in the cooking demonstrations were hints on tenderizing meat by pounding with a mallet, marinating and slicing across the grain with a sharp knife.

Simpson recommended that every cook buy a meat thermometer, to compensate for variations in oven temperatures. When using a meat thermometer, make sure it is placed in the thickest part of the cut, away from the bone for an accurate reading.

Following the demonstration, guests were invited to sample the finished recipes.

Ingleside WI enjoys slide tour of Thailand

INGLESIDE (Special) - If your cup of tea is a leisurely holiday in a warm, scenic country abroad visit Thailand.

Mr. David Willus entertained WI members with his pictures and commentary on his trip there. He showed islands of volcanic origin in the Gulf of Siam, off the coast of Thailand, with rocks and mangrove swamps infested with snakes and mongoose. Rice is grown on the hard clay soil and the fields are ploughed using water buffaloes. Coconut palms and bananas grow in abundance in Thailand.

Bangkok, the capital is a very beautiful city with its Buddhist temples, monastery buildings and teakwood museums. Shopping day on the water is a great tourist attraction.

Mary welcomed the members and read an appropriate verse. Following the Ode and Collect Marion Green read the minutes of the January meeting which were approved.

Mary thanked all who had helped to make the carnival intermission sale a success.

Many thank-you notes were read and Isabel Thompson reported sending out eight get-well and two sympathy cards.

Kay Flegg said approximately 14 were interested in the rug braiding course. The achievement day will be April 21.

An RSVP (rural seminar for vital people) will be held in Maxville March 7 to develop leadership skills. Elaine Kyle, Dorothy Schultz and Enid Wasson are interested in attending.

Frances Marin will be guest speaker at the March meeting.

Our cheer lady, Kay Flegg, gave readings from Art Linkletter when he was dealing with children, which were very amusing.

Lunch consisting of cheese, cookies and fruit was served by Mary Nugent, Doreen Winters and Isabel Thompson was enjoyed by all.

Summer tall ship training program at UCV marina

MORRISBURG (Special) - Crysler Park Marina, 10 km east of Morrisburg on Lake St. Lawrence, operated by The St. Lawrence Parks Commission, will be the home port for two tall ships engaged in sail training this season.

The program, operated by Sail St. Lawrence Corporation, of Beaconsfield, Quebec, will see boys 13 to 17 years of age spend three weeks on board either the Tradition II, out of Lunenburg, N.S., or Sakoose II from Ottawa.

Participants will learn seamanship skills, ship maintenance, safety, anchoring, rescue, provisioning, galley, courtesy and mooring techniques.

The sail training component includes the theory of sail, sail handling, basic navigation, night and heavy weather sailing skills, Seaway navigation and restricted and deep-water sailing.

Preparation for licence examination in VHF radiotelephone procedures also is included in the program.

The cost for the three-week sessions which begin May 13 and end September 22 is $450.00.

The schooner Tradition II, built in Nova Scotia in 1975, is a Marconi rigged, wooden sailing vessel. She is 37 feet long, draws five feet and displaces 6.3 tons.

She is constructed of one inch pine over oak frames and her interior is finished in oak, ash, pine, cedar and mahogany. Her masts are solid Nova Scotia black spruce.

The centre cockpit ketch Sakoose II is a 22-ton ferrocement ship, 55 feet long, 14 feet wide and drawing 6.3 feet at the stern. Her sails are Canadian-designed and built.

Eight years in the building, she was launched in 1981. In 1984, she participated in the tall ships rendez-vous in Kingston, Hamilton and Niagara-Youngstown-Port Dalhousie.

Pastry Chefs receive tips on pie fillings

In the third meeting the members learned about dessert fillings. Pies with fruit fillings, custard filling, cream filling and savory fillings were discussed. The characteristics of pie fillings were also learned. For example a main course filling should have an average consistency, a tender texture and a flavor which is characteristic of the ingredients used.

The finishing touches were learned. Decorative edges included flute, fork trim, wreath and ruffle edges. Decorative Crusts included decorative vents, pastry cut-outs, simple lattice top and glazes. How to store the pies was also discussed.

The coconut and banana Cream Pie was loved by all those present and was quickly finished. Chicken and corn pie was also made with nothing but favorable comments being heard.

Our next meeting will be held on March 12 at the home of Mrs. Corry Dingemans. This meeting will start at 9:30 in order to have two meetings in one. This was planned because at the 4th meeting cakes are to be made while at the 5th meeting cake decorating is to be learned.

Ontario election only when Miller is ready

Premier Frank Miller doesn't want to fall into the trap that enmeshed the unfortunate John Turner in 1984. That is to say, the new premier wants to avoid leaping headlong into the fury of an instant provincial election in Ontario, against his or anybody's better judgment and lose his shirt and the whole kit and kaboodle in the process.

There's precious little chance of such a turnaround in this bluest of Tory blue strongholds, though. In the past, there have been some proportions of the vote that came too close for the Tories to be altogether happy about -- Mr. Miller would like a clear majority and a specific mandate to go along with his tenure in the leadership over the next four or five years.

If he holds on and chooses the right moment to jump in no doubt he'll get what he's looking for. He has promised the entire province is going to be polled ad nauseam so he and his workers can detact just the right instant to announce the date we're all speculating about.

Liberals searching for Prov. candidate

While we're wondering about the date of the forthcoming provincial election there's another political matter to resolve locally.

Although both the local riding assocations of the Progressive Conservative and New Democratic parties held their nomination meetings last fall in anticipation of the expected November 22 election which did not materialize, to this date there's no Liberal candidate.

Although being a representative of either the Liberal or NDP persuasion is a hard row to hoe in these counties the democratic process is not well served without a first-class candidate from all parties. The Tories and NDP are fielding good people but no press release from the local Liberals has come across our desk in about a year.

There must be many solid Liberals out there who can give Noble Villeneuve and Rudi Derstroff a run for their money and can contribute to the process of political democracy that has been extremely well demonstrated traditionally in this riding.

The Farmer's Wife — by Wyn Thompson

Another blizzard last night, sleet mixed with snow. This morning, the world is a drift of pearl and the sun shines from an intensely blue sky. It is warm...a false spring.

The dogs and I have just returned from skiing to the bush where the Farmer and his helper are cutting wood. The birds sing their hearts out, thankful for this respite from cold and snow. I fill the bird feeders, stand a while, reluctant to come from cold and indoors on such a jewel of a day.

In the bush there were countless tracks of the wild people who do not hibernate snugly during the long cold. Deer prints crossed the old orchard, for the deer come to eat the frozen windfalls. The shape of an apple tree was patterned against the pale sky, and the shadows were etched below on the snow in dark grey lines. Rabbit tracks were there too, and delicate bird tracings. I smelled a skunk.

We had skied by an huge old white pine, the only one around. Now in winter, it provides shelter for the birds, so the whole tree must quiver at dusk. The bare apple trees are no shelter but the close-set needles of the hemlock help break the night wind.

In the bush when it is deep with snow, quiet comes to one. The trouble and fretting of the world recede and for a time peace drops over the world as softly as snow slipping from a branch. When I return, I know I have received a gift, a special time of serenity.

"Come on in, "Lady whines at my feet. I take a last look at the sky. It is lemon colored. The snow is blue, dark blue as twilight drops down.

Over supper I tell the Farmer that it is time to have the dogs inoculated against rabies again. He agrees. After supper we settle down by the fire to get caught up on some of our reading before our favorite program, the new 'Planet for the Taking,' comes on television.

I like to read aloud but books to read aloud are getting fewer. I am always delighted when the grandchildren ask me to read to them, for there are some delightful children's books now. A veritable feast!

I am perfectly happy to re-read one of Agatha's mysteries. I have always been what one might call a mystery buff. Mysteries are just an escape, a cop-out and, if I may say so without offending the writers, a rest from the pressing problems of the world.

A group of grosbeaks swooped in to the bird feeder this grey February morning. They were a bright light on my world's scene. Unfortunately they cannot tarry long after grabbing a bite to eat, for they fear the bluejays' return. A friend reports that she has purple finches feeding at her feeder now. Her ambition is to have a cardinal arrive for a tasty tid-bit. We exchanged these bits of information at our local grocery just recently, while pondering the various bird seeds available.

My popularity and self-esteem is very low today. I am not liked...and in my own home, yet. Scamp looks daggers at me from his perch by the fire, for I have trimmed his toenails so his fine art of retaliation is greatly reduced.

Lady has an infected ear and cannot abide my beside manner. The Farmer is on antibiotics... enough said. So at the moment, Irish and I attempt to be rarely seen and never heard. Difficult feats, for both of us.

The sun has just broken through the clouds and shines brilliantly into the family room. A tardy amaryllis gives forth evidence of growth, about two inches since Christmas. They are a fickle plant, I find. My mother planted one the day after Christmas, as I did and hers has already produced ten magnificent tangerine blossoms, each the size of a dinner plate. While I await my flowers I alternately scold, cajole, and threaten the plant with extinction by way of the garbage dump.

"As in raising a child, one should be consistent," says the Farmer, "you confuse the poor thing with your alternating words of praise and damnation."

"Go confuse the cows," I answer.

As I write this column, a radio announced advises that it is Shrove Tuesday. It has sneaked up on me. Where has the time gone? Indeed, where has winter gone? For we have turned toward spring, no doubt about that.

I posed this question to the Farmer over a luncheon of pancakes. "For her, it has gone round and round the skating rink, and up and down the ski trails," he addressed Lady wryly, and ducked from my wrathful hand.

"Jealousy will get you guys nowhere," I admonished. "It has been a rather splendid winter, you know. And it's not over yet."

The Farmer agreed and said he'd see us both in the bush in the afternoon. Lady wagged her tail, always ready for any new experience.

We talked about seeing dark stains on a couple of maple trees this past weekend. This means the sap is running and soon every maple tree will have a sap bucket hanging on it. New ruralites enjoy the production of a bit of syrup for their morning pancakes.

The buckets look like top hats turned upside down and the spiles gleam as the sun brushes against their tin surface. Only a few wooden spiles remain and you see them mainly in a demonstration wood lot.

This running of the sap is the first promise of spring to come. For it means life is waking in the trees, the cycle of growth is beginning which will lead to green leaves, then to blossom, to fruit, and to the harvest in due course. Soon all up and down the valley people will hasten to the bush to witness sugaring-off time. A fun time, a great time to be alive.

As I ski by the farm pond, the ice cracks. But now we look toward spring as the Farmer peruses the corn planting schedules and I spread all the seed catalogues out on the seat of the deacon's bench and start making lists.

After all, the sap is running again!

New Guides inducted

Chesterville guides received into their midst two new recruits last Thursday. Present in the photo are Nathalie and Ann Ducharme who were inducted into the local guide company. Another enrolment recently took place when Mrs. Lois Lannin and Mrs. JoAnn Lewis were received into the group. Both ladies, who are faithful helpers with the organization, wished to be inducted since they had not had the opportunity as youngsters.

KCAT opens 85 Royal to E. Ontario judging teams

KEMPTVILLE (Special) - For the first time since it began more than 60 years ago, Kemptville College will reach into the community for people to compete in its annual student Royal. Judging teams from Ontario's twelve eastern counties have been invited to test their skills against College teams from Montreal, Alfred and Kemptville.

The judging competition is a new event which will require contestants to evaluate the genetic and market values of different types of animals.

Co-president of the Royal, Donna Burns, expects the interest and attendance to increase because of the judging competition. However, she views the Royal as a fun time for the public and students.

"That's why we picked our slogan, 'More alive in '85', she says. A second year home economics student, Burns comes from a dairy farm at Navan. She has been a professional figure skater for five years.

Open only to Kemptville College students, the traditional showmanship competition is expected to attract close to 140 contestants. In the largest show of its type in Eastern Ontario, competitors are judged on their ability to handle animals.

Along with the showmanship competition, all agricultural exhibits and the home produce show will be held in the new Show Arena. A multi-purpose structure with a seating capacity of 600 and a 100' x 140' show ring, the Show Arena will be officially opened in June.

Burns says attractions for young families will range from a petting zoo and tractor rides to fashion shows. A free baby sitting service in a nursery room atmosphere will be provided by College students.

In the fashion shows, forty students will model about 100 personal creations and designs. The theme will be Country Fashion. "We want to show people country style is more than plaid shirts and blue jeans," Burns says. The show will include co-ordinating designs of skirts and pants with matching dressy blouses. Both summer and winter wear will be featured.

For co-president Jackie Hutchison, the Royal has been an opportunity to organize and delegate. Three hundred students have been working on 23 committees, some since last September. She says the Royal gives students "The chance to display the College and show what we do well."

In the Food Service and Technology Section, visitors will have the opportunity to see cooking demonstrations as well as a focus on nutrition, fitness and health.

The final for the showmanship competition will be held on Saturday afternoon, March 9. Admission is free. Refreshments are available on campus and at the farm. The College maple bush is expected to be in operation. On Friday, the College will make cheese in Gibson Hall. The Royal will be held on March 8 and 9.

Dogs prey on deer in winter

(Staff) - Do you know where your dog is?

The season's heavy snowfall in several areas of the province has aggravated the annual problem of dogs chasing deer, according to the Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters.

The Federation has warned that deer can be killed by normally docile domestic pets that are allowed to run free.

In winter, deer are often severely weakend by the combined stresses of cold weather and a shortage of food, the Federation warns. They are easy prey when deep snow prevents their escape from marauding dogs.

Any attempt to outrun the dogs is physically exhausting for the deer. When a dog catches a deer, its attack can be savage, or the chase itself may be enough to weaken the deer so that it dies later.

All dog owners are being urged to confine their pets to minimize the harm to area deer.

Dairy Commission announces butter sale

OTTAWA (Special) - Agriculture minister John Wise last week joined with the president of the Dairy Farmers of Canada organization, Mr. Jacques Boucher, in announcing for the second year in a row, a Canada-wide sale of butter from the inventories of the Canadian Dairy Commission.

"The objectives of the sale are to provide consumers with an opportunity to purchase butter at a reduced price and to increase thereby overall consumption," Mr. Wise said.

"During the sale, butter in bulk from the Commission will be 30 cents per kilogram below the current support price."

Thirteen million kilograms, in 25-kilogram blocks, are being offered to butter processors between February 15 and 28 this year. This represents about one and half month's consumption in Canada.

It is expected that most of the price reduction will be passed directly to consumers by retail stores. And, as occurred last year, it is likely most retailers will use this butter in specials to attract consumers to their stores.

The butter is all Canada grade "A" and can be refrozen should consumers wish to take advantage of this opportunity by buying large quantities.

The butter sale is provided courtesy of the dairy farmers of Canada who will cover the costs of the sale.

Mr. Boucher expressed, on behalf of the 45,000 dairy farmers and their families across Canada, his appreciation to consumers for the support and loyalty for Canadian dairy products throughout the year.

"We hope those consumers who are not regular users of butter will take this opportunity to reconsider doing so in future," Mr. Boucher added.

Guide groups mark 75th anniversary

WINCHESTER — Seventy-fifth anniversary celebrations are under way for the Winchester area Brownies, Guides and Pathfinders. Each group is planning its own celebration activities.

Winchester Brownies started their year with a family skating party at the skating rink in Inkerman. In February, the Brownies made Valentine tray favors for Meals on Wheels. At their Thinking Day party, special guest Marilyn Cotton taught the girls new songs. They are now working on plans for the International Fair.

Winchester Guides worked on challenges in the guide program and planned a business lunch during January. February started with a business lunch.

The girls have participated in their own olympic night and received their athletic badge. At their Thinking Day party a birthday cake was decorated with the 75th anniversary crest, and the girls saw the movie "Granny was a Girl Guide". The guides are now planning for the International Fair.

Winchester Pathfinders meet only every two weeks. At their meetings in January the girls planned their program until the end of March. In February special guest Lorna Anderson-Smith spoke to the girls and gave them information about Scotland that they could use in the challenge work. At their Thinking Day meeting there was a discussion about their rights and freedoms as Canadian citizens, and later they joined the Guides in their birthday celebrations.

On Feb. 22 the Pathfinders presented two books to the Winchester library as part of our special 75th year. The Winchester Pathfinders plan to honor ladies in the area who will be celebrating their 75th birthday during our celebration year.

Ladies, please call Mrs. Sill at 774-6215 as soon as possible. The Pathfinders are now helping to plan the International Fair.

Thinking Day has been observed by Scout and Guide movements since 1926. The date, Feb. 22, was chosen because it is the joint birthday of Lord and Lady Baden Powell, the founders of the movement.

Van Delst's overtime goal clinches 'A' final for B Flyers

(Staff) - Bobby Van Delst's overtime goal gave the Chesterville Bantam B Flyers a 4-3 win over Alexandria and the 'A' championship at their own tournament on Sunday.

The Flyers' first game was against Morrisburg and they won that as well in overtime with John Mackler scoring on a pass from Ross Giles with just 13 seconds remaining in the period.

Mike Desormeaux set up the play for the Flyers' first goal with a pass to captain Bobby Van Delst at 9:35 of the first period. Morrisburg then came back with two goals to take a 2-1 lead before Desormeaux combined with Van Delst again to tie it at 2-2 with just 4:46 remaining in the final period.

The pressure was on Chesterville again as Morrisburg scored their third goal at 3:23 of the third period. With 46 seconds remaining in regulation time, Mackler scored to tie it up on a combined play by Desormeaux and Giles, sending the game into overtime.

The Flyers doubled North-Glen Stor 6-3 in their second game, which was climaxed with a four-goal final period.

NGS got off to a quick start, scoring the first two goals of the game seconds apart. With 1:50 left to play in the first period Giles and Mackler combined to set up Desormeaux for his first goal of the game, making it 2-1.

With 9:22 on the board, Van Delst and Desormeaux set up Mackler to tie the score 2-2. The Giles-Mackler combination did the set-up for the Flyers' third goal, passing the puck to Desormeaux who blasted it past NGS's Mario St. Pierre. This put the Flyers in the lead at 8:42 of the second period.

Desormeaux and Mackler combined to set up Giles at 9:58 of the third period, which made the score 4-2. Kerry Irven and Chris Hart then combined on a play, getting the puck to Van Delst who scored the Flyers' fifth goal.

The final game pitted Alexandria against the Flyers with both teams playing a scoreless first period. Alexandria then took a 1-0 lead early in the second period as Mike Sauve made a rink-wide pass to Trevor Marley who shot the puck between the Chesterville pipes.

Shawn Beckstead and Ross Giles set up defenceman Van Delst at 5:50 of the second period, tying it 1-1. A few moments later, left-winger Joey Barkley scored on a combined play by Irven and Van Delst, making it 2-1. With 41 seconds to play in the second period, Pierre Cuerrier and Marc Sauve worked the puck to an open Mike Sauve, who tied it 2-2.

Alain LaRocque and Marc Sauve set up Alex McLaren who blasted the puck into the Flyers net, making it 3-2.

Joey Barkley and Giles then combined to set up Van Delst who tied it again 3-3 to send the game into overtime and their fans into a frenzy. This enthusiasm provided the spark for Van Delst's overtime winner.

The tournament was sponsored by Nestles and the Chesterville Fire Department.

"I thought it was a pretty successful tournament, Flyers coach Bert Beckstead said. "A lot of good hockey was played and the teams were so evenly matched, almost any of them could have won it."

This happy bunch of guys are the Bantam B Flyers who won their own tournament edging Alexandria 4-3 in overtime. Organizers claim fourth drag best races ever in Canada

CRYSLER (Staff) - Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 16-17, saw two great days of snowmobile racing as Crysler hosted the 4th Canadian World Series Drag Races that saw 190 drivers competing in 330 classes.

Drivers from three Canadian provinces and four U.S.states competed.

Weather conditions would not cooperate however, as snow fell across most of Ontario, keeping some drivers away.

"We thought we might have to cancel the races on Sunday because visibility was poor for an hour and a half," Francois Forgues, Crysler organizer said.

"It was a really good turn-out. We have more machines than we expected and we couldn't finish all the classes on Saturday and had to overlap on Sunday.

"I had a lot of comments on the track...every racer I talked to really liked the track. There's a better chance with four lanes because every run you make, the first and second still qualifies," he added.

Forgues says that he would like to hold the race again if given the chance, but added that he would like to have more of a separation between the races.

"I would like to give a special thanks to the guys for cleaning the track. They include: Sheldon Shane, Ed Chabot, Raymond Provost, Claude Racine, John Guy Vanier, Jocelyn Champagne, Sylvain Lafleche, Brian McMahon, John Ouderkirk and Adrian Lamoureux."

"It was definitely the best day of drag racing yet in Canada," Brian Murphy, vice-president of the Ottawa Valley Racing Association, said.

Murphy says that the $8,465 in prizes were given away with a guaranteed purse of $4000, plus the entrance fee with 100 per cent pay back.

"Middlesex Performance of Tyngsnorg, Mass., won the open classes with their turbo-equipped sled. Second place was won by Finatera Ltd. of Ottawa, and third went to Rheaune Rodrique of Thetford Mines, Quebec with an alcohol-fueled sled."

Area sponsors of the Crysler drag were the Crysler Community Centre; G. and J. Yelle Inc., Crysler; Crysler Commercial Hotel; Ron's Service Shop, Moose Creek; B.and B. Sports Ltd., Cornwall; Sam's Body Shop, Ingleside; Masse Sports, Embrun; Jean Guy Desormeaux Meat Market, Crysler; and the Ottawa Valley Racing Association which sanctioned the races.

Racers wait in quiet reflection in the shoots before entering the starting line up at the 4th Canadian World Series Snowmobile drag races held in Crysler on Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 16 and 17. A total of $8,465 was given away in prizes with the open class races receiving a purse of $1,000.

Wins leave Pee Wees in second spot

(Special) - Chesterville Peewee B Flyers completed their regular season Upper Canada Minor Hockey League play with a pair of impressive wins last week over Cardinal-Iroquois Redbirds and Winchester Hawks.

Good News - Bead News time: First, the good news: Flyers posted a 14 wins, 3 ties, and three losses record over the regular season, garnishing 31 of a possible 40 league points for a 775 winning percentage, an impressive feat for the Flyers.

The bad news is that the locals finished second in regular season play to the undefeated Metcalfe Mustangs, who defeated Flyers for their only three losses. Metcalfe had two ties, finishing with 38 of a possible 40 points, a .950 winning percentage.

In an outstanding contest last Wednesday in Cardinal, Todd Marcellus got the Flyers going late in the second period with a screen shot that eluded Redbirds' Clayton Smith. With 1:06 left in the second, Craig Smith notched what proved to be the winning goal, unassisted.

With only 6:23 left in the game, big Gene McInnis rallied the Birds to within one, only to have Marcellus make it 3-1 only 35 seconds later. With only 1 second on the clock, David Harper converted a Marcellus pass, giving Flyers a tough 4-1 victory.

The story of the game was the outstanding play of Flyer netminder Matthew Giles, who turned away 26 Redbird drives.

On Friday night, Flyers got 3 goals each period, production from all three lines, a great performance from Craig Smith with 3 goals and an assist, and outstanding goaltending in a 9-1 win over Winchester Hawks.

Others to hit the scoresheet were: Marcellus and Gerry Van Keesel with a pair, and singletons to Harper and Andrew Henderson. Brad Cotnam had 4 assists, Harper and Will O'Connor had 2 each. Single assists were credited to Kyler Wells, Daragh Slowey, Jeff Miltimore, Jason Kennedy and Todd Marcellus.

Playoffs will open for the locals next Friday March 1 at 7pm at Chesterville arena.

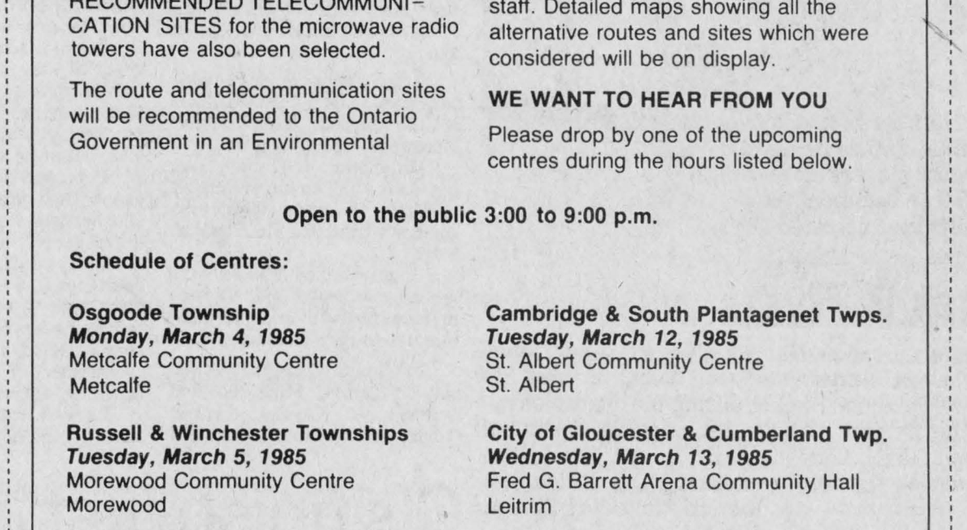
Eastern Ontario Study



ROUTE AND SITES SELECTED

To continue providing dependable electrical service to Eastern Ontario, an additional transmission line is required. Telecommunication facilities are also needed to protect and control power flow along the new line.

A RECOMMENDED ROUTE for the 500 kilovolt transmission line has now been selected from the alternative routes presented at Municipal Participation Centres last September. RECOMMENDED TELECOMMUNICATION SITES for the microwave radio towers have also been selected.

The route and telecommunication sites will be recommended to the Ontario Government in an Environmental Assessment and will be the subject of a public hearing before the Joint Board later in 1985. This Board may consider for approval any of the recommended or alternative locations within the route stage study area.

HOW TO FIND OUT MORE

By attending one of these centres beginning in March you can learn more about the study, review the displays, and discuss the proposals with Ontario Hydro staff. Detailed maps showing all the alternative routes and sites which were considered will be on display.

W. Dingwall's third period goal ensures 40 and over title for Berwick

FINCH (Staff) - Winston Dingwall's goal at the mid point of the third period gave Berwick 2 (Oldtimers) a 4-2 win over Crysler 2 and the championship in their 40 and over hockey tournament on Sunday.

There were three divisions in the 30 and over category, with the A championship going to St. Albert, the B championship going to Stan's Gas Bar and the C championship to Harvex.

In the Berwick-Crysler final John Gove put Berwick ahead 1-0 at 7:06 of the first period when he finished a play started by Winston Dingwall. R. Quinet fed Y. Lafleur a pass and he beat the Berwick goalie to tie the score at the 14:35 mark.

Gove scored his second goal of the game when he combined with W. Dingwall and Ron Brown at 9:50 of the second period. This gave Berwick a 2-1 advantage entering the second period.

Ossie Shaver made a rink-wide pass to Winston Dingwall early in the third period, to give Berwick their third goal. Syd Bird passed the puck over to Dingwall at 7:40 of the third period who put the puck past Crysler's goalie G. Benoit, which was the fourth and final goal.

R. Deschamps scored Crysler's second goal from a pass by B. Pilon, making it 4-2 with 2:50 left in the game.

G. Wathier set up C. Charette, to give St. Albert's a 1-0 lead in the 'A' finals against Athens with 5:50 remaining on the clock in the period.

St. Albert's P. Adams scored the team's second goal on a R. Matte pass at 8:50 of the second period, and then Matte scored on a pass from R. Legault making it 3-0 at the 6:50 mark.

P. Adams and R. Lafleche combined to get the puck to J.C. Bourgeois, who beat the Athen's goalie, C. Buker, to open the lead to 4-0.

St. Albert's R. Paquette scored the final goal in the 5-0 shutout.

Fourteen teams competed in the tournament with 10 teams in the 30 and over, and four teams in the 40 and over.

Berwick 2's John Gove won the MVP in the 40 and over final, while St. Albert's R. Matte received the MVP in the 'A' championship.

Bob Simpson won the 'C' championship's MVP for Harvex. The 'B' championship MVP went to Dale Swerdfeger from Stan's Gas Bar.

Berwick Oldtimers (40 and over) hosted a tournament with the final games being played last Sunday. These two Berwick 2 players close in on Massena's goal tender in an earlier tournament game. Berwick 2 advanced to the play-offs and defeated Crysler 2 by a score of 4-2. Winston Dingwall scored the winning goal at 7:40 of the third period. Four teams competed in the 40 and over division and 10 teams competed to reach the three play-off games. St. Albert blanked Athens 5-0 to take the 'A' championship. Record Photo - Weaver

Midget B Flyers win twice in week's play

(Staff) - The Midget B Flyers played two strong games of hockey, defeating Russell 3-2, last Tuesday night in Russell and blanking Smiths Falls 10-0 at the arena on Friday.

In the Chesterville-Russell game, Dick Geertsma put the Flyers ahead 1-0 at 12:50 of the first period when he finished a play by Rudy Witteveen and Tim Grose.

Grose fed Kevin Byers a pass and he beat Russell's goalie - Gordon Sheldrick, which made it 2-0 at the two second mark of the second period.

Russell could not score in the first two periods, but fired in two goals within 35 seconds of each other with left-winger Brian Carscadden scoring both goals.

With 54 seconds left to play, Kevin Byers broke the 2-2 tie after he finished a combined play by Donny Marcellus and Jamie Cheney, which made it 3-2.

In the Smiths Falls-Chesterville game on Friday, the Flyers scored four goals in the first period with Danny Dubois, Tim Grose, Kevin Byers and Rudy Witteveen scoring respectively.

The second period was much the same as Donny Marcellus scored the Flyers' fifth goal unassisted, with Jamie Cheney scoring the sixth and Dick Geertsma netting a pair, back to back, with his second goal entering the net with 58 seconds left in the period. Geertsma's pair of goals brought the score to 8-0.

Kevin Byers finished a play from Geertsma and Marcellus, making it 9-0 at 10:17 of the third period. A combined play by Cheney and Witteveen set the play for Dubois' second goal and the 10-0 clincher at 4:20 of the second period.
