BLOOD DONORS "WANTED"

Here & There

by Kay Kay

As time passes and fads come and go (like the walkathon Dr. Barbara Moore has undertaken) we're reminded of the days of the travellers who undertook to walk across "the dark continent", Africa. They then toured Canada and the U.S. giving talks and showing pictures, telling of their many thrilling experiences. There was a long string of them and we considered them something akin to pioneers with their adventurous sorties. Today, however, when someone undertaken a 300-mile walking jaunt, we consider them something of a nut.

Our sentiments exactly!

We watched the latest American space achievement float over the heavens last Wednesday p.m., just shortly after 11 and it did something to us. (Gave us a crick in the neck from looking up!) First thought we had was that today's young lovers, looking at the moon, are apt to be talking about rockets, orbiting space vehicles and the like, instead of the things we talked about when we sat and watched the moon and the stars in younger days. Can't make up our mind whether it's a healthy sign or not. Nevertheless, today's young people are also going to find it hard to concentrate on the moon when bright man-made "stars" are floating by.

The skies have always been considered the last uncluttered piece of so-called "real estate" left, but not any more. Perhaps someday we'll realize the assets of space and wonder no longer at man's ingenuity when it comes to probing the upper reaches still seemingly beyond our grasp.

The days of barefoot boys (and girls) seems to have passed. . to a great many at least. Children still love to go around minus their shoes and now and then sneak them off while summer-tired mothers are catching a cat nap or something. In by-gone days mothers found that after a summer of running shoes and bare feet many a youngster's feet were so wide, they needed a "pulling-in" ceremony during the first day of school to get the new shoes on the feet. Many a foot was so hard on the bottom that the youngsters actually could have got along for a while without shoes. No matter what the changes in footwear, though it will be many a year yet before manufacturers stop making running shoes and rubber boots for youngsters.

Sisters Bridesmaids At Local Girl's Wedding

GREAVES-JACKSON—Mr. and Mrs. Martin E. Greaves are pictured following their wedding at St. John the Baptist Anglican Church, Iroquois, August 13th. The bride, the former Miss Roberta Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Jackson, was attended by her sisters the Misses Nancy and Marion Jackson as bridesmaids. Mr. Greaves is the son of Dr. and Mrs. C. Greaves, of Iroquois. The couple will reside at Norwood.

Last Stop!

When Dr. Barbara Moore, walking from Montreal to Toronto, passed through Iroquois last Tuesday, sore feet and all, she stopped for a few minutes in the shade of trees at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Merkley, river road west. Her late afternoon "snack" consisted of a can of apple juice. She told her hosts she expected to stop near Cardinal overnight, since the weather was too hot for walking. She still maintained she would be in Toronto for the CNE opening.

Walks On

Just a reminder to those whose names appeared in the Monthly Bonus Days advertisement published in The Iroquois Post on August 4tht. If you haven't already clipped out the advertisement, do so at once and take it to the store in whose advertisement your name appears to collect $1.00 worth of merchandise. The offer for August expires on the last day of the month. After that date the first batch of names aren't worth a pen scratch.

The next advertisement for the Monthly Bonus Days will appear in our next issue, September 1st.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hodgson, of Chesterville, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Freida Edith, to Jackie Lawrence Coughler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burnice Coughler, of Inkerman.

Mr. A. H. Merkley is a patient in Winchester District Memorial Hospital. His friends will wish Mr. Merkley a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fetterly, Barbara and Donald returned home Thursday evening, August 18th, after a 13-day holiday trip which took them through the provinces of Quebec and New Brnuswick and the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Warner and sons, Brian and Dennis Warner, and Mrs. J. J. Hayes, Santa Barbara, Calif., spent last week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hare and Alan.

Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson and Mrs. Harriet Gilder attended the Snedden-Parker wedding at Brockville last Saturday.

Mr. John Phillip of the staff of the Rural Co-operator spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McInnis.

Clinic On Monday Iroquois Civic Centre

Next Monday, August 29th, a blood donor clinic will be held in the civic centre, Iroquois, during the hours from 1 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8.30 p.m. Mr. James Drennan, chairman, Iroquois Red Cross Society, made the statement last week.

Mr. Drennan went on to say that the last clinic here was a wonderful success and expressed the wish to see more people turn out at the forthcoming clinic.

He said "When we donate our blood, we make the less fortunate citizens happy." He referred to a true incident recent at Winchester District Hospital and the expressions of thankfulness from an elderly lady, that blood transfusions were available. Mr. Drennan said the lady remarked of her husband following the transfusion: "He is so bright and really feeling fine".

"It is really a great credit to the Red Cross Society to have this blood available", the lady stated.

Recalling the lady's remarks, Mr. Drennan reminds readers that "it is your donations that make this blood available when it is needed" and he went on to say he hoped to see many strange faces at the clinic on Monday, August 29th.

Local Restaurant Wins National Award

The Llo-Mar Restaurant, Iroquois, was named today to receive the highly regarded nationally known C.A.R. Service Standard Award. The announcement came from J. Leo Callan, President of Certified Associated Restaurants, with headquarters in Minneapolis, Minn.

The Llo-Mar Restaurant will now be able to display the coveted C.A.R. emblem and other insignia of the coast-to-coast chain of qualified independently owned restaurants.

C.A.R. service standards include that a restaurant must be located on a traveled route, serve good food at popular "family" prices, and be clean and sanitary throughout. Personnel must be neat appearing and give prompt, courteous service.

The C.A.R. family of restaurants are listed in a National Motorists' Guide Book, with millions of copies being distributed to the motoring public throughout the nation.

"The purpose of C.A.R. is to provide the motorist with the answer to 'where to eat' when he is on the go," said Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davis, owners of the Llo-Mar Restaurant. "All C.A.R. restaurants must provide wholesome family atmosphere."

To receive the sought-after C.A.R. award, a restaurant must also offer children's portions at lesser prices. Traveling inspectors regularly visit franchised restaurants to see that the owner is constantly abiding by the required service standards. Failure to do so means revocation of the award.

"You will have lots of new visitors to Iroquois now," said Callan, head of the nation-wide plan. "Through a gigantic advertising program the American and Canadian motorist is becoming acquainted with the C.A.R. emblem, and is seeking out those restaurants identified by the symbol of good eating at popular prices".

Bonus Buck Draw

For the second week in succession a Cardinal area resident won the $10.00 Bonus Buck draw. Last Friday night, Mabel Armstrong, Cardinal, won the top money. Roma Salvas and Charles Stone, Iroquois, went home with $5.00 each to complete the draw.

Personals

Dr. H. Lee Foster, Mrs. Foster and children left on Friday for their home in Hamilton, after spending the past week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foster and other friends. Dr. Foster was an old I.H.S. boy and was delighted to meet many of his old friends.

Miss Pat Anderson and Miss Mavis Storey, of Kingston, left Tuesday from Dorval for a three weeks' holiday in Europe. They will visit Italy, France, Austria and Switzerland.

Mr. Wm. Wallace and son, Dale, of St. Catharines, spent a few days with his brother, Cecil Wallace and also visited his mother who is a patient in Brockville General Hospital.

Wins 'Ex' Award

Seven teenage girls from Eastern Ontario each received $125 to help further their education at a presentation during the Homemaking Club banquet at the Central Canada Exhibition Monday afternoon.

The award winners came from seven counties. They have been selected by the county home economist in consultation with local Department of Agriculture officials.

All are active 4-H Homemaking Club members.

Dixon's Winner

Winners are: Carleton County —Barbara Ross, Kinburn; Dundas County — Jean McGinn, Dixon's Corners; Glengarry County — Wendy McRae, Bainsville; Lanark County — Phyllis Thompson, Almonte; Leeds County — Elizabeth Forth, Forthon; Renfrew County — Gladys Wallace, RR3, Arnprior; Stormont County — Margaret Salmon, Cornwall.

Awards were not made this year in the counties of Prescott, Russell or Grenville.

Many Uses

The money may be used for fees, books or board for university, teachers' training or nursing training, or for courses in music, drama or art.

The awards were open to girls in ten counties of Eastern Ontario who were at least 15 years of age, who had successfully completed at least six Homemaking Club units, and who, preferably had completed Grade 12.

Evidence of personal growth during her club work, and leadership qualities were also looked for. High school work was not considered.

GOLF CLUB AN ASSET

Now that the Iroquois Golf Club has announced all nine holes of the course are open, even though there is still some remedial work to be carried out by Ontario Hydro work crews, Iroquois and district residents, whether they are interested in playing golf or not, have received a fine asset to the community.

Not only will the golf course provide a great deal of entertainment and exercise to its members and fellow golfers who use its facilities, but the golf course provides a measure of increased value to properties in the village.

Properties adjacent to any golf course tend to have a higher value than in those communities where such facilities do not exist. In the case of Iroquois, all homes are readily accessible to the course, the park and the swimming beach, all of which are an inducement to better property values.

Over the coming years these assets will do much towards keeping home values in Iroquois at a high peak.

In an age when people have more time on their hands for recreation, the addition of such facilities as provided by a golf course will be acclaimed. The directors of the course, Village Council and Ontario Hydro, the latter having provided the course, are to be complimented on the fine course and clubhouse facilities. With its final completion later this year and its official opening next Spring, the new club should prosper and grow, to the advantage of us all.

TB NOT YET IN CHECK

Although Tuberculosis, once a major killer, may be well on the road to being "licked" the fight to prevent it and to cure it is far from over. Persons who believe that they do not have to worry about TB would do well to consider a few important facts as they apply right here in our own area.

The annual report of the St. Lawrence Sanatorium at Cornwall makes it clear taht tuberculosis is far from being conquered in the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry. Incidence of the disease last year in the counties—39 cases for each 100,000 population—was higher than the general rate for the province. The death rate of 8.5 per 100,000 was about the same for Ontario and almost identical to the rate in 1958.

However, the report for the counties indicated that the number of new active cases increased substantially during the year, as did the number of admissions. This is in sharp contrast to 1957 when TB incidence and death rates were at an all-time low in the United Counties.

Strange it is, therefore, that so many people residing in these counties failed to take advantage of the mass TB clinic which operated only a few short weeks ago free of charge to anyone who wanted to use it. With ashade under 50 per cent of the total population being tested, there are many people who do not know if they have TB or if they are carrying on spreading it to others.

As a result, TB preventive work, sponsored in this area by the St. Lawrence Tuberculosis Association, will have to be maintained at its present level or possibly broadened if we are to hold TB well in check. And a major part of this program must rest with the individual who is asked to co-operate. Co-operation, we might add, was not particularly significant in the recent survey.

The annual report demonstrates conclusively that we must not relax our work to stamp out this disease. We still have a long way to go before this can happen and medical authorities state that despite progress made in fighting TB, the disease still persists as a great threat to humanity.

In the United Counties the incidence rate of this disease can be greatly reduced if the public co-operates fully with authorities who are working constantly for better health.

OVERSEAS BRIGADE AWARDED DRIVING TROPHY

SOEST, West Germany.—Eastern Ontario was to the forefront of an important trophy presentation at Headquarters of the 4th Canadian Infantry Brigade Group, when Brigadier Donald C. Cameron of Alexandria accepted the Pearkes Trophy won by our NATO formation by leading all services in vehicle accident prevention.

The 20-inch gilt and marble colonnaded trophy was presented to the Brigade Commander by Lt. Col. T. W. Bigelow, of Ottawa, on behalf of the Minister of National Defence, Hon. George Pearkes, VC.

The trophy, offered for annual competition by all three servies—Navy, Army and Air Force—and Defence Research Board, was originally given to the Minister by the Automotive Transport Association for Ontario for military participation in the annual truck roadeos.

The presentation ceremony by the head of the transport section of the Directorate of Supply and Transport, Lt.-Col. Bigelow, was witnessed by the officer who supervises the brigade's accident prevention program, Major Earl Ward of Halifax, N. S., and three soldier drivers who have accumulated well over 100,000 miles in the past year without accident. These three drivers were Gnr. John V. Evans, 1 RCHA, of Abbotsford, BC., Pte. George Lewis, HQ 4 CIBG, of Halifax, NS. and Pte, Josehp G.J.P. Cliche, 1 Tpt Coy, RCASC, of Wolfe, P.Q.

Canada's 4th Canadian Infantry Brigade Group won the valued trophy for showing the greatest improvement in military vehicle accident rate during 1959. The brigade had 1.7 less accidents per 100,000 miles in 1959 than in the year previous. During the winning year about 1,000 vehicles travelled 9½ million miles through Europe with an average of 3.1 accidents per 100,000.

Brigadier Donald C. Cameron accepted the trophy on behalf of units of his brigade. He has directed that during the coming year it will be placed in temporary custody of major units winning the local quarterly Safe and Skilled Driving competitions.

Brigadier Cameron, beloved of his officers and men for his personal interest in everyone under his command, began his military career in 1926, at the age of 15, when he enlisted as a private in his local unit, the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders, and was commissioned in 1928.

Going overseas in 1940 he went to Italy with the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment. In April of 1944, Brig. Cameron was appointed commanding officer of his unit.

He was awarded the Distinguished Service Order and Bar for gallantry and leadership in action. He was also mentioned in Despatches for his service in Italy and Northwest Europe.

Promoted in 1945 to the rank of colonel, he was appointed Commander 7th Canadian Infantry Training Regiment. At the end Training Regiment. At the end of the war he reverted to the rank of lieutenant-colonel to command the SD&G Highlanders in the Canadian Occupational Forces.

Returning to Canada in 1946, Brig. Cameron was appointed Commandant of Fort Churchill, Man., serving there until 1948. Later, he commanded the 1st Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry. In 1950 he was promoted to the rank of colonel and appointed Commandant of the Royal Canadian School of Infantry at Camp Borden, Ont. In August, 1953, he became Director of Infantry.

He was promoted to the rank of brigadier and appointed Commamder 25th Canadian Infantry Brigade (now the 4th Canadian Infantry Brigade) in February, 1955. In November, 1957, his brigade took over as Canada's NATO formation in Germany.

In congratulating Brigadier Cameron, and the drivers who heeded the accident prevention ampaign, the army's Quartermaster-General, Maj-Gen Robert Moncel wrote: "That your brigade group should be able to qualify for this trophy despite the many millions of miles travelled by your vehicles is proof indeed of a most conscientious and successful effort to achieve a high standard of driving skill. Please convey my congratulations to all those who contributed to your success."

The German accident prevention program continually stressed with drivers of the brigade and which was responsible for the 1959 win, awards windshield safety stickers to the major and minor unit which establishes the best record over a three-month period. It also presents careful military civilian drivers with lapel pins and 24, 48 and 72 hours special holidays.

Now, as long as it remains in Europe, the Pearkes trophy will honor the major unit with the best three-month record.

THE BIBLE TODAY!

In Camaguay and Manzanillo, two cities in Eastern and Cenrtal Cuba, the Baptist. Methodist, Pentecostalist and Adventist Churches co-operated in two one-week campaigns to distribute the Scriptures.

Two hundred and fifty volunteers were trained in Camaguay and sixty in Manzanillo in preparation for the work of distribution of the Scriptures. Special services were held and the co-operation of local radio stations was secured.

The campaign was carried out on the basis of house-to-house visitation. The visitors were generally well received and the American Bible Society reports that considerable success was obtained.

It is expected that further campaigns will be conducted in other parts of Cuba in the future.

Dundas Cheese Producers Hear Outlook Good

A meeting of the directors of the Dundas Cheese Producers was held in Locketon Lodge Hotel at Williamsburg on Friday, August 19th, at 8.30 p.m. The President, Byron Martin, was in the chair.

Members present were Harold Allen, John Barrett, Walter Carlyle, Harold Hillis, Wm. Lane, Ralph McIntosh, Graham McPherson, Cyphus Smyth, Dwight Merkley and Wilfred Cooper.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary and passed that same be adopted as read.

The President gave a full report on the progress of the Dairy Princess, Miss Dawson, who will compete at the Toronto Exhibition for Dundas County. The group wishes her success.

There were seven young ladies in the June competition for this honor.

The president also reported on the monthly meeting of the county presidents at a meeting in Brockville, Monday, August 15th.

The production of cheese for July, 1960, was much below that of July last year, he reported, as the price of cheese controls the price of milk. The whole milk producers are in favor of helping the Marketing Board export the cheese to England. The Board is buying one-quarter of all cheese made in Canada and are exporting 1,000,000 lbs. of cheese each week to England.

The British importers are well pleased with the fine quality of Canadian cheese and are willing to pay a premium per pound. The future, therefore, looks good for the remainder of 1960 and also 1961.

It showed the necessity for the farmers to produce the best possible milk for cheese.

A motion was passed that the secretary send a cheque to Frank Robinson, dairy inspector, Kemptville, for $50.00 prize money for cheese exhibited at the Ottawa Winter Fair and also to pay the room rent.

After further discussions, the meeting adjourned to the call of the chair.

Looking Into Farmers Moving Vehicles on H'way

Recent cases involving farmers moving extra wide equipment on the highways without a permit has prompted the Ontario Federation of Agriculture to look into the matter, according to Gordon Greer, President. "Section 19(1) of the Highways Traffic Act states that traction engines and threshing machines having a total width of 110 inches are permissible, but some of the modern day machinery exceed this width by several inches".

"However, the Ontario Department of Transport reports that it has a new policy in effect, which allows farmers to get a special permit to move their extra wide equipment without being charged for violating the Act," Mr. Greer said. "All a farmer has to do, if he plans on moving equipment by road, is to apply to the Special Permits Division, Department of Transport, Parliament Buildings, Toronto. The permit is good until October 14. After that, he will have to renew the permit if he wishes to continue moving his equipment on the highways".

"Possibly the problem calls for a study of the Act with the idea of requesting amendments, so that farmers need not obtain special permits," Mr. Greer continued. "The only other recourse is for the machinery designers to produce farm equipment that is within the requirements of the Highways Act. In the meantime, I urge all farmers to observe proper caution on the highways to avoid accidents to themselves and other people.

Mourn Demise William Barnhart

Wm. Barnhart, pioneer resident of Matilda, passed away on Wednesday, August 17th, at his home, Second Concession, Matilda. He was in his 91st year and had been in failing health for the past three years, but had only been confined to the house for one month previous to his death.

Deceased was born in Matilda Township where he spent his entire life, following farming. He was of a most industrious nature, pleasing personality and sterling honesty, and had a host of friends throughout the township.

He was twice married, his first wife being Hattie Lewis, who predeceased him 56 years. His second wife was Susan Lewis, who survives. In religion he was United and in politics a Liberal.

Surviving, besides his wife, are four daughters, Mrs. Wm. McIntyre (Ida), of Gouverneur, N.Y.; Mrs. Thos. Wright (Maggie), of DeKalb, N.Y.; Mrs. John Merkley (Nellie), Iroquois, and Mrs. Allen Donelley (Hattie), of Inglesdie, Ont.; and two sons, Thomas of Morrisburg, and Roy, at home. He is also survived by 22 grandchildren and several great grandchildren; two brothers, James of Ottawa, and Frank of Cornwall, and one sister, Mrs. Ralph Ward, of Parish, N.Y.

The funeral was held on Friday, August 19th, at the White Church, the service being conducted by Rev. Thos. Knowles, of Brockville, a former pastor. During the service Miss Margaret Kaine sang "Good Night Here, Good Morning Up There".

The large attendance at the funeral and the many beautiful floral tributes showed the esteem in which deceased was held.

We wish in this way to thank all our neighbors and friends for their many acts of kindly aid rendered and expressions of sympathy tendered us at the time of our bereavement of a beloved husband and father, Wm. Barnhart. We also wish to thank those who sent floral tributes and those who assisted us in any way. Special thanks to Rev. T. Knowles and Miss Margaret Kaine.

The young man, leaving for college, announced that he was going to study medicine. "I've decided to be an obstretrician", he said.

"Well, I'd think twice about that," counseled his grandfather. "You spend all that time learning to treat just one ailment and bang! six months later some fool comes along with a cure."

A motorcycle cop caught up with the woman driver who was going the wrong direction on a one-way street. "Where do you think you're going?" he demanded.

"I'm not sure", said she, "but I must be late—everybody is coming back."

Many Mourn Passing A. Prosser, Cardinal, In His 85th Year

There passed away in Brockville General Hospital on Monday afternoon, August 15th, Mr. Alvin Prosser, in his 85th year.

He had been a patient there one week. Born in the Township of Edwardsburg on January 9th, 1876, he was a son of the late Ryerson Prosser and his wife, Jean Reid.

He had been a most successful farmer in Cardinal for his entire lifetime, and only last summer enjoyed working with the farm tractor. He resided at his home with his youngest son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Prosser. He had been living in the same farm home here since he was 12 years of age.

Being a willing worker and a good neighbor he had made many friends in the district.

Mr. Prosser is survived by seven sons and three daughters, Seaver Prosser, of Thorold; Ralph of Morrisburg; Mrs. Chas. Provost (Marjorie) of West Palm Beach, Fla.; Mrs. Grant Turner (Dorothy), Ottawa; Mrs. Edward Payne (Lola), Brinston; Gilbert, Dudley, Norval, Walton and Ronald Prosser, all of Cardinal. He was predeceased by his wife, the former Ethel Robson, 18 years ago. He also leaves several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, two brothers, Milo of Kingston, and Leonard, of Ogdensburg, N.Y., and a number of nieces and nephews.

The remains rested at his late home, Cardinal, until Thursday, August 18th, when funeral services were held in St. John's United Church at 2 p.m., with Rev. N. Winsor, minister of the church officiating. He chose as his text, "The Epistle to the Romans", chapter 6, verse 23, "The gift of God is Eternal Life", and spoke comforting words to all who mourned.

With Mrs. N. Winsor at the console of the organ, the choir led in the singing of the hymns "We Cannot Think of Him As Dead" and "Abide With Me".

The numerous floral tributes and the many who called at the home gave testimony to the respect in which deceased was held.

The bearers were Reeve Geo. Brown, Cardinal; Reeve V. H. Woodland, Edwardsburg; Harold Wells, Howard Dodge, Leonard Rooke and Carman Brown, all of Cardinal.

Interment took place in the family plot in St. John's United Church cemetery, Cardinal.

Don't add lettuce to sandwiches till just before serving, so it will be crisp, suggests the Home Economics Service of the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Off The Record by Gary Parmeter

As you know, I recently spent a couple of weeks at WSTS in Massena. There I worked with three fellows whom you hear every day on Radio One. Since you do listen to these fellows all the time, I thought you might like to know a little about them. So here we go with thumbnail sketches of 1050's dee jays in the order in which they are on the air daily.

DOUBLE A

The big voice at Radio One belongs to a talented fellow named ANDY ANDREWS, whom you know as DOUBLE A. ANDY is program director at WSTS, and one of the best in the business when it comes to interviewing, emceeing, ad libbing, or just engineer work. (I think he could take the station apart and put it back together again.) ANDY is a family man, (and what a family) and we had a ball together at work and at his home where I stayed. In the past, ANDY has worked on stations like CKSF Cornwall (now CJSS), CKOY Ottawa, and he was in TV in Quebec City. For my money he's the greatest, both as an announcer, and as a regular guy.

RON ROBERTS

The rotund one is my favorite songwriter since CARL DOBKINS JR. recorded his song "One Little Girl". It goes without saying that RON is one of the most entertaining and humorous jocks around. I know he kept me in stitches whenever he was around. RON is a big favorite with all 1050 listeners due to his winning personality on and off the air. RON used to do the all night show on CFRA Ottawa, after which he went to Halifax and was the top dee jay down there; then he moved to Ottawa again, this time to CKOY. From there he moved to WSTS to the delight of 1050 listeners. RON is a happy bachelor who always has a happy show for everyone.

"Thankya RONNIE, yer doin' a wunnerful job."

JOE TARAS

Although a comparative newcomer to radio, JOE is a promising young fellow who has a vast knowledge of the music business and therefore is always able to broadcast an interesting program. From New York JOE has seen many Broadway plays and loves to play showtime music as he does every Sunday morning. Although he is not allowed to program any loud teen beat rockers, he always has a good program for young and old. JOE is also a fine guy and was a terrific help to me while I was at WSTS. JOE'S show is heard Tuesday through Sunday 6-8 and on Saturday from 12-2 and 5-6, and Sunday from 7-12. Tune him in.

All in all we had a lot of laughs and good times together at WSTS. They're a swingin' bunch of guys and I'm glad to have them as friends.

LAURA NOT WELCOME

RAY PETERSON'S recording of "Tell Laura I Love Her" will not be released in Britain because of its morbid theme. The British diskery changed their minds twice before deciding to sit on the song. They had pressed over 20,000 copies of the disk, which they are now scrapping.

OH NO!

Of course RCA Victor records have put out a sequel to "Tell Laura I Love Her" by a gal named MARILYN MICHEALS. This one's called "Tell Tommy I Miss Him". (Ye gads.)

NEVER IN BRITAIN

ELVIS PRESLEY'S "It's Now Or Never" is also banned in Britain. This ban is not due to the lyrics however, but the melody. The melody is that of "O Sole Mio" and is still under copyright in Britain, while here it has reached P.D. status. (This also happened with DELLA REESE'S "Don't You Know" on RCA.) So in Britain, "A Mess Of Blues" is the A side of the disk with "The Girl Of My Best Friend" from his LP "Elvis Is Back", on the flip. The LP is selling so well it's listed on the singles chart in Britain. Meanwhile in Belgium, the restriction has just been lifted so the same disk that is now available in Britain will be followed up with "It's Now Or Never" b/w "The Girl Next Door", also from his album.

THAT BIKINI

In Germany JAN & KJELD ("Banjo Boy") and LAURIE LONDON ("He's Got The Whole World In His Hands") have released versions of "The Itsy Bitsy Teenie Weenie Honolulu Strand Bikini".

Two beatniks were lounging outside a San Francisco saloon. "Dig that crazy moon up there," said one.

"Man, that's no moon," said the other. "That crazy thing is the sun."

About that time a third beatnik sauntered out the door and they put the question to him. Without bothering to look up he said, "I don't know, man. I'm a stranger here."

IN MEMORIAM

FADER — In loving memory of Velva Fader, who departed this life August 27, 1958.

"Safe in the arms of Jesus".

Sadly missed by her mother-in-law and father-in-law, Maud and Arnold Fader.

Floral Setting at St. John's For Local Girl's Wedding

Blue and white gladioli formed an attractive setting for the candlelight ceremony in St. John the Baptist Anglican Church, Iroquois, for the wedding on Saturday evening, August 20th, at 8 o'clock of Miss Lois Marilyn Caloren, first daughter of Mrs. Arthur Banford, Iroquois, and the late Donald R. Caloren, and Mr. Neil Charles Coir, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Coir, Morrisburg.

Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was Rev. D. Fred Weegar, Rector of the church. Mrs. Ruby Bell, Brinston, was organist, and the wedding choral music was supplied by the church choir.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride chose a floor-length gown of white net and chantilly lace over taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice of chantilly lace, embroidered with mother of pearl sequins and seed pearls at the neckline and long lily-point sleeves. The full skirt of alternating tiers of net and chantilly lace, featured a chapel sweep of chantilly lace, tapering to points at sides. Her bouffant veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a cap of chantilly lace, embroidered with mother of pearl sequins and seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and white stephanotis.

Miss Carol Caloren, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Jean Lindsay, cousin of the bride and Miss Judy Caloren, sister of the bride. They wore identical street-length dresses of pale blue taffeta, with white organza overskirts, cummerbands of matching taffeta with bows at back, sleeveless fitted bodices with round necklines. Their tulle headdresses and shoes were of matching color, white wrist-length gloves and they carried baskets of blue and white shasta 'mums with long blue and white streamers.

Little Miss Lyn Aikman, of Brockville, was flower-girl, wearing a street-length blue and white organza over taffeta dress with matching cummerbund, blue poke bonnet with crown of white daisies, short white mitts and she carried a basket of white shasta daisies, with blue and white streamers.

Mr. Gerald Dafoe, Cornwall, was groomsman, and the ushers were Mr. Dale Beckstead, Cornwall, and Mr. Allan Casselman, Morrisburg.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church hall when the mother of the bride received some 100 guests attired in a heavenly blue sheath of organza over taffeta with matching velvet and feathered hat, black patent accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Coir, the groom's mother, assisted in receiving wearing a grey flowered silk dress with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Coir will take up residence at Norwood, N.Y., where the groom is on the staff of the Norwood Central School.

Guests present at the wedding were from Syracuse, Canton and Parishville, N.Y.; London, Stratford, Ottawa, Cornwall, Brockville, Morrisburg and Iroquois, Ontario.

Mrs. Jean Casselman Hostess To Tea

Mrs. Jean Casselman, M.P., was hostess last Wednesday to a tea for the Grenville Historical Society at her home in Prescott. A capacity attendance of historically interested persons from Morrisburg, Williamsburg, Iroquois and neighboring centres assisted in making the occasion an unqualified success.

Displayed at strategic locations in the drawing room were rare old maps, pictures and pieces of pottery and china. On display was one unique covered dish of "Mooney" pottery and a map of Ontario drawn in 1800 on which "Bytown" was not of sufficient importance to be marked. There was no Morrisburg but Mariatown was there.

Presiding at the damask covered tea table were Mrs. E. McNally and Mrs. W. Webb followed by Mrs. W. Keeler and Mrs. W. O. Williams and later by Mrs. C. B. Shannon and Mrs. F. Bevan.

The Grenville County Historical Society is still in its infancy having been organized in December, 1959, with president Edward McNally; vice-president, Dr. W. O. Williams; secretary, Miss Phyllis Stephenson, who was largely responsible for the formation of the organization and Gerald McArthy, treasurer.

Grenville County is primarily an agricultural area. The Historical Society has begun a special study relating to this and is most anxious to record both the past and the present. In July an interesting and informative occasion was conducted at Merrickville, encompassing Eaton's Corners when a historic old home belonging to the Cairns family originally, was visited and old time furnishings of the 1800's were displayed. The home has been retained in its original condition. The outing was followed by a social hour of tea and conversation and was an outstanding success.

The Grenville Historical Society wishes to instigate and stimulate local interest so that all possible sources of revenue may be tapped, not only to preserve the County's history, but to make it attractive to the rapidly expanding tourist industry.
