THE MORRISBURG LEADER

VOL. 90, NO. 52. MORRISBURG, ONTARIO, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 23rd, 1952 SINGLE COPIES 5c

MURDER SUSPECT HELD IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Henri Seguin, 27-year-old murder suspect, cut down by police bullets in wild west fashion in the frontier town of Williams Lake, B. C., may come east to face trial as soon as he recovers from his wounds.

Seguin is wanted in Cornwall, in connection with a charge of murder in the August 16th slaying of Maxville, Ont., taxi owner Leonard Hurd.

At Williams Lake, B. C. Seguin is charged with attempted murder.

Although he had been sought for many months by Ontario Provincial Police, he was captured after shooting a bank manager and stealing a small mount of money in Williams Lake, 350 miles north of Vancouver. RCMP officers said it was probable he would face the more serious charge first.

Seguin allegedly shot the bank manager when he was surprised by two accountants who came unexpectedly into the bank after banking hours.

After allegedly shooting the bank official, Seguin fled, but police followed his tracks in the snow, and he was finally brough down in a gun duel with the RCMP, when a bullet piereced his chest.

Provincial police headquarters in Toronto yesterday stated that Inspector Robert H. Wannell would go to Williams Lake to question the suspect. Future disposition of his case was "a matter of a conference with the police there".

When Seguin was brought down by a police bullet, he was taken to hospital in Williams Lake, and fingerprinted. When his fingerprints were sent to police headquarters in Ottawa, it was established that he was the man wanted for the Maxville murder last August.

IF YOU DRINK - DON'T DRIVE

Here's some good advice for the holiday season. And it's authentic too. If you want to drink, then don't attempt to drive your car.

Chief Constable Clare Biccum told The Leader this week that drivers who are in charge of motor vehicles while their ability is impaired by alcohol will be prosecuted during the holiday season the same as at any other time of the year.

Each year at this time, he said, many accidents are caused by people who are very good drivers at most times, but who take one drink too many of "Christmas Cheer". Fortunately there have been few fatal accidents in Morrisburg of recent years and the Chief would like to see the status quo in this regard maintained.

So, if you are planning on "taking on a few" during the holidays, just make sure you are not driving.

It will save you embarrasement, and a possible fine, or license suspension. And it may also save somebody's life—maybe even YOURS.

THE CHRISTMAS STORY

Pictures depicting the Christmas story fill two pages in the rotogravure section of December 27th Toronto Star Weekly. One is of a painting by the artist Schnorr von Carolsfeld of the angel appearing to the three Wise Men of the East and announcing Christ's birth. Another picture is of an engraving from an original showing St. Luke making a portrait of the Divine Child in the arms of the Virgin. The Bible story has been a prolific story of inspiration to artists through all the Christian ages.

EARLY ISSUES THIS WEEK AND NEXT

Due to the holidays falling as they do, this issue of the Leader was produced on Tuesday instead of Friday. Next week's issue will also be on Tuesday, and any contributions of news or advertising copy should be in our hands by the week end.

The next issue after that will be on Friday, January 9th, 1953.

FIRE LEVELS HOME OF FOUR AT WINCHESTER

A Sunday morning fire left a young couple and their two infant children homeless near Winchester. All their possessions were lost in the blaze, which levelled their rented home northeast of the town. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Servais found their residence wiped out, when they returned to it from an overnight visit with Mrs. Servais' parents at Chesterville.

All Winchester has rallied to help the Yuletide homeless.

Appeals for clothing and household goods came from the town's church pulpits on Sunday evening and the response started to be felt at once at the town hall, where the assistance will be centered. Earl Freeland, president of the Winchester 100 Club, a service organization, issued radio appeals for assistance for Servais, a worker at the local Hydro Commission, and his family. The two children are two years and 15 months old, respectively.

Alfred Beardsal, manager of the Hydro at Winchester, pledged cooperation in easing the burden of the loss, which included the family's preparations for Christmas.

DONALD W. CAMPBELL

Donald W. Campbell, a former well known resident of Morrisburg died very suddenly in Montreal on Monday of last week. He was 56.

Born in Morrisburg on June 3rd, 1896, he was a son of Mr. and Mrs James Campbell, and after receiving his education in the local schools, he moved to Montreal after his first marriage to Florence Nichols of Quebec. He served during the first world war, and following his return home he entered the employ of the Montreal Hydro Commission, with whom he remained for 32 years.

There were 10 children by his first marriage. His first wife died five years ago. Later he married Mrs. Lewena Sanford of Montreal, who survives. Also surviving are six sons, four daughters, 8 grandchildren and 5 stepchildren, all in Montreal; His parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell of Morrisburg; one brother, Malcolm in Philadelphia; and two sisters Mrs. Clifford Gilchrist (Susan) in Ottawa, and Mrs. Mervin Duval (Mary) of Morrisburg.

The funeral servic ewas held on Thursday afternoon at the D. A. Collins Funeral Parlours, Montreal and interment was in Memorial Park cemetery.

MRS. P. E. BECKSTEAD DIES AT WILLIAMSBURG

One of the oldest residents of Williamsburg, Mrs. P. E. Beckstead, passed to her eternal rest, at her home on Friday, December 19th, which was her wedding day in 1894. She was in her 85th year and had been in failing health for some time.

She was born at Osnabruck Centre Stormont County on July 23rd 1868, the youngest and only surviving member of the family of the late Nicholas Shaver and his wife, Mary Ann Hollister. There had been eight children by this marriage, four boys and four girls. By a former marriage of her father, there had been six children.

She married Peter Edmund Beckstead who predeceased her on April 5th, 1934. To this union were born four daughters and two sons, Arthur (who died shortly after birth); Eva, (Mrs. Eva McIntosh, Winchester); Ross H. Beckstead (at home); Mary, (Mrs. Donald Hess, Williambsurg); Gertrude, (Mrs. Arnold Montgomery Gananoque); Nellie, (Mrs. Aden Casselman, Williamsburg). There are fifteen grandchildren and twelve great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

The funeral was conducted by her pastor the Rev. K. M. Kirchhofer at St. Peter's Lutheran Church on Monday, December 22nd at 2 p.m. Fitting tribute was paid to the memory of a devoted mother. Mrs. Graham Froats rendered a beautiful solo—"Take My Hand, O Precious Lord", and hymns sung by the choir were "Now the Laborer's Task is O'er", and "Peace, Perfect Peace".

Interment was in Williamsburg cemetery.

Pall bearers were W. E. Trickey, George Larsen, Harold Algire, Walter Whitteker, Jack Johnston and Wilfred Belanger.

Honorary pall bearers were M. E. McLaughlin, J. S. Everett, E. H. Armstrong, K. G. Whillans, H. Gibson, all of the International-Harvester office in Ottawa, and George F. Jowett of Morrisburg.

The many beautiful floral tributes sent by friends and neighbours expressed the high respect in which Mrs. Beckstead was held.

Women's Institute

The annual Christmas party of the Women's Instiutte was held in the Public School Auditorium on Thursday evening, December 11th, with a good attendance of members and visitors. A gaily trimmed Christmas tree was on the stage, where many gifts for the Children's Aid were placed.

The secretary was asked to send letters of thanks to W. P. Allison and R. L. Duvall for the making and painting of fourteen long tables for the Institute; also to E. J. Farquhar of the Central Plumbing and Heating for installing a range used for the Holstein-Freisian Breeder's banquet served by the Institute. The presedent reported the banquet had been a big success, the proceeds being $367.67.

A letter from Don Rutherford, assistant Agricultural Representative, thanked the Institute for the banquet served the Holstein-Freisian Breeders' Club.

Miss M. Coligan reported the proceeds from the Cooking School held in November were $136. Mrs. Leo Laurin, convenor of the Red Shield Drive, reported the drive had realized $435.10. Envoy Myers of the Salvation Army thanked those who had given so generously of their time and money to make this drive so successful.

Miss M. Coligan, Mrs. Frank Hummell, Mrs. Lorne Kinkaid, Mrs. Sam Casselman and Mrs. W. G. Baker, were appointed a Christmas cheer committee.

The committee for the Christmas Party, under the convenorship of Mrs. Hugh Shannette and Mrs. W. Handewerker, had charge of the program. This consisted of two vocal solos by Carol Ann Cancilla "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus" and "C-h-r-i-s-t-m-a-s". Ann Colquhoun gave two piano accordion selections "Silent Night" and "Joy to the World". Mrs. Stanley Casselman favoured with a vocal solo "Christmas Carols". Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Armstrong showed Kodachrome pictures of their trip last summer to England, Ireland, Scotland and the Continent. These were greatly enjoyed.

On behalf of the Committee, Mrs. Shennette thanked those who had contributed to the program.

Refreshments were served by the Committee from a specially decorated Christmas table.

THREE DISTRICT MEN ARE FINED AT CORNWALL

Three district men paid fines in Magistrate's Court, Cornwall on Monday for breaches of the Game and Fisheries Act.

Magistrate P. C. Bergeron levied a fine of $10 and costs on Garnet McDonald, R. R. 1, Harrison's Corners for hunting without a license. McDonald's brother, Gordon, was given a similar fine for trapping without a license.

James Pozoyi of Charlottenburgh Township was fined $10 and costs for hunting without a license.

The charges against the McDonalds were laid on the complaints of Conservation Officer Wm. B. McConnell of Morrisburg. Conservation Officer E. W. Munro of Apple Hill was the complainant in the Pozoyi case.

NOTICE

Municipal Parking By-Law prohibits parking on any Morrisburg Street between the hours of midnight and 7 a.m., so that streets may be snowplowed. Persons contravening this by-law will be prosecuted and will also be required to pay towing charges.

C. B. BICCUM,
Chief of Police.

XMAS LONG AGO BACK HOME

Xmas time will soon be here
And we remember years ago
The horses were hitched up to the sleighs
And the bells did jingle go.
The lamp was lit on the fire place
And the stockings hung in a row
And two rocking chairs wth cushions fair
Held loved ones that I know.
I can see her still in that old rocking chair,
As she sang that Christmas carol
Peace on earth, and good will toward men,
Till all joined in a melodious choir.
And over the door was evergreen
Which formed a welcome true;
And lovelier still on the window sill
The dew-eyed flowers grew.
I still remember meager gifts:
We were satisfied with simple things;
Wax candles lit on Xmas trees
And pop corn hung in Crimson Strings;
The fragrance of spiced cookies
That were made to have in hand,
And a very large fat turkey, too,
Was roasting in the pan.
The pictures hung bright on the whitened walls,
And grandfather's clock stood so firm and tall.
It was 12 o'clock in Xmas
And we all gathered round to blessing say
It was such a friendly place it held us all bound fast
Close to two of the dear ones back home
A Xmas that belongs to the past.

Much credit is due to Miss Wells and Mr. Dafoe in training the children so well for the Christmas concert which was held in the school room on Friday last. It was enjoyed by all who were present. But there was quite a disappointment for the children as Santa Claus failed to put in an appearance. However the tree was well loaded with gifts and candy for the children.

Miss Ruth Fowler, high school principal is spending her holidays with friends in Montreal.

The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Burton of Archer was a lucky little girl on Saturday, when the lucky ticket was drawn and she received a tricycle. The draw was sponsored by Robin Hood Flour and the lucky ticket was drawn by the Police in A. N Dafoe's store.

Mr. and Mrs. James O'Shaughnessy spent last Wednesday with their son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Dafoe and family at Cedar Grove.

A number from here attended the school concert at Colquhoun on Tuesday night. Sponsored by the Archer School No. 5, and Miss Betty Jarvis as teacher the entertainment was a grand success.

Mrs. Delaney returned to her hom at Avonmore last week after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Clarence Baker and Mr. Baker, Melborn Street.

Happy New Year to the Editor and all the readers of The Leader.

Callers on Sunday, December 21st at the Cheley home were Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Gallinger and Gary Gallinger of Gallingertown and Miss Marion Campbell of Prescott.

WINTERIZE your home now...

WITH Bisco REPAIR AND INSULATING MATERIALS

Those worn spots on the roof and walls of your home can cause real trouble when snow and ice go to work on them.

But you can "beat old man winter to the draw" with a few minor repairs — if you make them right away! Bisco Caulking Compounds, roof coatings and sidings are the ideal materials for quick, effective home repairs.

Fleece Line Rock Wool Insulation — another fine Bisco Product — will bring new comfort into your home. Fleece Line will pay for itself in just a few years with fuel savings of up to 35%.

Don't let an ACCIDENT spoil your Holiday!

Christmas and The New Year again usher in a season of festivity and good fellowship.

As in the past it will also be marked by increased dangers — more traffic, more hours of darkness, slippery roads, and holiday haste and impatience.

I appeal to Ontario citizens to overcome these added hazards by greater care and common sense when walking or driving.

Don't let an accident spoil holiday happiness for yourself or for others.
