Industrial Commission to host trade workshop

Judith O'Brien
Leader staff

MORRISBURG — The Eastern Ontario Trade Workshop will be held in Morrisburg November 29, thanks to the hard work of the Morrisburg-Williamsburg Industrial Commission (MWIC).

Commission member Peter McCooeye said the workshop is sponsored by the Ontario Ministry of Trade, and will bring plenty of business into the community. Instructors from the Ministry of Trade will travel to the village for the one day event.

"People will be coming from Brockville, Hawkesbury and many other places, and it is a nice boost for us to get the workshop," said McCooeye. "We are expecting 50 to 60 people to attend."

The Commission has also decided to hold an appreciation night in late Jan. or early Feb. for those involved in the manufacturing sector in the community. McCooeye said it is impossible to invite every business-person in the area because there would be more than 400. He said the appreciation night will not be expensive for the Commission. A speaker from the federal or provincial government, who has something relevant to say to the industrial manufacturers, will be invited to speak. Final details will be worked out at the next MWIC meeting but McCooeye says the Commission is not trying to offend anyone, by holding an appreciation night exclusively for the manufacturing sector.

"The Commission is trying to be upbeat and we don't want to alienate people who aren't invited," said McCooeye. "We want to start on a small scale and learn as we go." He added that if things work out at the first appreciation night, another will be held.

A bylaw was passed by Morrisburg and Williamsburg councils recognizing the existence of the MWIC but McCooeye says a third member is needed from Morrisburg. Presently McCooeye and MWIC Chairman Blake Noon are the two representatives.

Firefighters and police kept busy on Hallowe'en

by Louis Daignault
Leader Staff

MORRISBURG — There were a lot of dirty tricks but few treats for area firefighters and police officers Hallowe'en night last Friday.

The most serious damage occurred west of Williamsburg when about $5,000 worth of hay was destroyed by fire on Mabel Whitteker's farm.

Williamsburg fire chief Lyal Kehoe said about eight firemen were called to the scene.

"It was blazing when we arrived," said Kehoe. "It was quite large but was not close to any buildings."

The haystack fire, which Kehoe believes started at about 9:30 p.m., took more than three hours to extinguish.

Morrisburg OPP were called to the blaze which was under control when they arrived.

Meanwhile Iroquois fire chief Willard Duncan and his department crew were also busy.

"There was nothing serious," said Duncan. "Just burning of leaves and rubbish."

The crew was called three times to Matilda Township and three more times to the Village of Iroquois.

Long Sault OPP reported three Hallowe'en night incidents in Ingleside which could be linked.

Const. Rick Griffis is investigating an incident at Rothwell-Osnabruck High School where more than $2,500 damage was done.

At 9:27 a.m. on Saturday, OPP discovered that 14 windows had been damaged on the south side of the building and one wire mesh window, on the east side, had been pulled out.

As well other windows had obscenities written on them.

At the Parkview subdivision, three homes owned by Bill Mesman had their patio doors and windows smashed. Damage is estimated at $500.

Finally, the Sage residence on Pine street was scarred with red paint sprayed on one side of the house, extending for five feet.

OPP did not evaluate the damage but said the paint will have to be sandblasted to be removed.

Can you name this pumpkin?

Legion celebrates anniversary

BOUCKS HILL — The Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 538, celebrated a 35th anniversary over the weekend. The actual charter was granted to the Williamsburg Legion at Boucks Hill on Nov. 12, 1952.

The Legion members threw themselves a birthday party and celebrated a new addition to the Legion Hall. Saturday night marked the dedication of a new meeting room/dance hall attached to the Legion. The addition was built with very little money, and all work was volunteer. Stormont-Dundas MP Norm Warner and Stormont-Dundas-Glengarry MPP Noble Villeneuve attended the opening, along with Legion Branch Presidents from Winchester, Chesterville, Greely, Prescott, Cardinal, South Carleton, Spencerville, Iroquois, Russell and Kemptville.

Larry Empey, Branch President told the assembled crowd that the two most common phrases he has heard since joining the Legion was "knock out the south wall" and "over my dead body". He said most of the south wall is still standing and there were no dead bodies due to construction.

The Williamsburg Legion is located in the old Borden cheese factory and boasts 60 members. In the past year Legion members have donated $1,870 throughout the community.

History of Branch 538

The Legion had 13 members when it was granted its charter in 1952.

In 1954 the Ladies Auxiliary was established and in 1956 the first dance to sponsor the Williamsburg Fire Department was held. The Legion has held a dance to benefit the Fire Department every year since then.

The poppy fund in 1963 was not very successful. Legion members managed to buy one carton of cigarettes with the proceeds. The Ladies Auxiliary sponsored a scholarship fund two years later, a fund which is still operating today. During centennial year, the Legion erected a bronze plaque honoring fallen comrades at the recreation park in Boucks Hill.

The present day site was purchased in 1968. The terms of the purchase agreement were $2,000 down and $2,000 in 120 days. The 13 Legion members each signed a credit note of $1,000 as collateral. The branch began accepting fraternal members in 1972, and in 1974 they held a mortgage burning party.

Discussion of an extension to the hall began in 1976, and in 1981 a building committee was formed. The branch membership climbed to 48 the same year. In 1984, 10 additional members were added to the Williamsburg Legion, and the Legionnaires contributed to the building of Park Drive Villa in the police village of Williamsburg.

Legion work in Canada

Alan Brown, District Commander of the Royal Canadian Legion said he was very proud of Branch 538 accomplishments and said small Legion branches are the backbone of the Royal Canadian Legion in this country.

Brown said the Legion plays an important role in the community, and employs over 200 full-time and another 100 people part-time. In the past year, the Legion has paid over $2 million in wages and benefits, and owns over $17 million in real estate across the country.

There are 69 Legion Branches in Eastern Ontario, and Brown said with 65 per cent of branches responding to questionnaires, total cash donations of $5 million have been made. He said the Legion donates to the Heart Fund, to diabetes research and many other clubs, including the Lions and Rotary Club. Municipalities in the area have received over $200,000 from various Legion branches and they are the biggest service club in Canada.

Warner said communities are thankful for all the hard work the Legion has done, and Villeneuve told the crowd it's a good thing governments are not involved in Legion activities or they would probably bungle it.

MORRISBURG — Isabel Donaldson of 4 Orchard Way was found guilty of violating bylaw 26, and received a heavy fine of $100 for allowing her dog to defacate in the Morrisburg Waterfront Park last month.

Judge Bruce Hunter had some doubts about the validity of the bylaw passed by Morrisburg council this summer. He told village lawyer Doug Grenkie that the bylaw had not been approved by a relevant provincial department.

"The Ontario Municipal Board (OMB) does not have to approve all municipal bylaws," Grenkie told the court. "The OMB must approve bylaws concerning money, and some for roads, but certainly a bylaw of this type can be passed under the Municipal Act without OMB approval."

Hunter questioned that statement saying the Municipal Act mentioned personal disposal of refuse and debris but didn't include anything about dogs. He said the bylaw could be valid under the public nuisance clause, but he said no evidence had been given at the trial three weeks ago to suggest the incident had been a public nuisance.

"It is a nuisance if you walk through the park and you get something on your foot," replied Grenkie.

This prompted Judge Hunter to ask what would happen if someone stepped in cow waste, to which Grenkie replied that if cow waste became a problem in Morrisburg the village council would pass a bylaw against it.

"Right now we are only concerned with animals that are causing the problem," he said.

"You don't think this bylaw discriminates against dog owners?" questioned Judge Hunter.

"No I don't think it does descriminate," said Grenkie. "The bylaw does not refer to the dog owners' personal property but to public property. If we didn't have this bylaw it would discriminate in the opposite direction. People who don't own dogs have the right to use public property like the park just as much as dog owners do."

Grenkie asked for the minimum fine stipulated in the bylaw which is $20. The maximum fine is $2,000. Judge Hunter said he should impose the maximum fine to deter others, but settled for $100.

Donaldson asked for one month to pay the fine, but the judge gave her two weeks.

Wmsbg. council hesitates about joining dump study

Judith O'Brien

WILLIAMSBURG — Council members have adopted a wait and see attitude in response to a proposal submitted by Edwardsburgh Township inviting the Township of Williamsburg to participate in a landfill site study.

Williamsburg reeve Johnny Whitteker said the township already has a waste disposal site, and since they have just purchased land adjacent to it, the site is good for another 15 years. "Why should we help them pay for their study when we have a good set-up now?" he asked. "We will be sent resolutions by other councils because they want us to help pay for it. If we didn't have a study I'd say get into it but we have a study."

Councillor Graham Hess said the disposal site at Boucks Hill will probably be closed and council should consider the possibility that both its sites could be shut down, when tougher Ministry of Environment (MOE) regulations come into effect next year.

Township clerk Mike Waddell told council a study will have to be done soon, and it can either be shared with others or council will have to pay for it alone. "If you send someone to these meetings and you don't agree with what they're saying you have the right to pull out of the study up until stage two," he said. Stage two involves looking at candidate areas for landfill sites and studying the environmental impact on nearby areas.

Deputy reeve Glen Cunningham expressed concern that council could be blackballed if they didn't support the government sponsored program, and suggested a representative be sent to the meetings to find out if it served council's interests.

"You would really be blackballed if you joined the study and pulled out when it was time to pay," said Whitteker.

All council members except Whitteker expressed concern that Williamsburg Township's waste disposal site study was 10 years old and would need updating soon. However the reeve said the main landfill site is far from being full since most of the waste had been burned.

Whitteker and Cunningham suggested that council wait until the United Counties council decided if it should fund a waste disposal study. Raymond Lapointe, United Counties clerk said such a proposal was submitted by Andre Lafleche of Moose Creek and was supported in principal by the S.D.&G. council, but it is not a participant.

Members join in proposed protest

IROQUOIS — Council members here supported a motion submitted by Onaping Falls council to protest the removal of the existing legislated designation of lottery funds for culture and recreation for Ontario municipalities by the provincial government.

Recreation Chairman and councillor Lorraine Fader said she would like to guarantee that money for recreational purposes will always be available. Some of the money in question is designated to support hospital beds across the province but says Fader "if you don't have recreation, there will be more people in hospital beds."

At the Tuesday night meeting council also agreed to a plan proposed by the United Counties council to purchase a basic extrication kit for the village fire department. The kits cost $2,000, half to be funded by S.D.&G. council and the other half by a $1,000 Provincial grant.

S.D.&G. clerk Raymond Lapointe said the goal is to supply every fire department in S.D.&G. with one of these kits. The kit contains a manual hydraulic spreader used mainly in auto accidents to free people and will also include a first aid kit. Heavy duty equipment will be installed in Williamsburg, Long Sault and Alexandria. "This kit will not be costing the village any money at this time," said reeve Frank Rooney. "Most fire departments have the necessary equipment to go along with the basic kits. I have spoken to the fire chief and he believes we should support the idea."

LET US REMEMBER THOSE WHO GAVE

They went with songs to the battle,
they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye,
steady and aglow,
They were staunch to the end
against odds uncounted
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall not grow old, as we that
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn,
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.

Poppy symbol inspired by work of Canadian poet

Each November over 10 million poppies bloom in Canada. Dotting the lapels of half of Canada's population, this symbol of remembrance makes its annual appearance as it has done since 1926.

Although everybody knows what the poppy means, nobody is certain of how it all began; of how the poppy became so closely associated with remembrance of the war dead.

The association was certainly not new when the poppy was adopted in Canada in 1921. At least 110 years before that time, a correspondent wrote of how thickly poppies grew over the graves of the dead. He was speaking of the Napoleonic War and its campaigns in Flanders.

But a Canadian medical officer was chiefly responsible for this association, more so than any other single known factor.

John McCrae was a tall, boyish 43-year-old member of the Canadian Medical Corps from Guelph Ont. An artillery veteran of the Boer War, he had the eye of a gunner, the hand of a surgeon, and the soul of a poet when he went into the line at Ypres on April 22, 1915.

That was the afternoon the enemy first used poison gas.

The first attack failed. So did the next and the next. For 17 days and nights the allies repulsed wave after wave of attackers.

During this period, McCrae wrote: "One can see the dead lying there on the front field. And in place where the enemy threw in an attack, they lie very thick on the slopes of the German trenches."

Working from a dressing station on the bank of the Yser Canal, Lt-Col. McCrae dressed hundreds of wounded, never taking off his clothes for the entire 17 days. Sometimes the dead or wounded actually rolled down the bank from above into his dugout. Sometimes, while awaiting the arrival of batches of wounded, he would watch the men at work in the burial plots which were quickly filling up.

Then McCrae and his unit were relieved. "We are weary in body and weary in mind. The general impression in my mind is one of a nightmare," he wrote home.

But McCrae came out of Ypres with 13 lines scrawled on a scrap of paper. The lines were a poem which started: "In Flanders fields the poppies blow..."

These were the lines which are enshrined in the hearts of all soldiers who heard in them their innermost thoughts. McCrae was their voice. The poem circulated as a folk song circulates, by living word of mouth. Men learned it with their hearts.

In the United States, the poem inspired the American Legion to adopt the poppy as the symbol of Remembrance.

In Canada, the poppy was officially adopted by the Great War Veterans Association in 1921 on the suggestion of a Mrs. E. Guerin of France. But there is little doubt that the impact of McCrae's poem influenced this decision.

The poem speaks of Flanders fields. But the subject was universal; the fear of the dead that they will be forgotten, that their death will have been in vain.

The spirit of true Remembrance, as symbolized by the poppy, must be our eternal answer which belies those fears.

"In Flanders Field"

In Flanders fields the poppies blow,
Between the crosses, row on row,
That marked our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below
We are the Dead. Short days ago.
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie In Flanders fields.
Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow In Flanders fields.

John McCrae

Tom Fraser

Honored on 91st

MORRISBURG — Long-time Mariatown resident Tom Fraser celebrated his 91st birthday with a party in his honor over the weekend in Ottawa.

Tom, born Nov. 6, 1895 in Forfairshire, Scotland moved to Canada in 1921. He settled in Mariatown in 1938, and moved to Kyle Street, Morrisburg in 1979. For many years, Tom and his wife ran a florist shop in Mariatown. He is a veteran of World War 1, serving with the British Army for four and a half years.

He has five children and 12 grandchildren. Each year the family holds a birthday party for Tom. His daughter Janet said the tradition began on her father's 75th birthday and this is their sixteenth annual party. The party moves to a different location each year but everyone agrees it will continue for many more years to come.

Time to remember

Millions of people in many countries across the world, will join next Tuesday, November 11th, at the eleventh hour of the day, to pay tribute to all of their brave defenders, and to all of the innocent victims of all those cruel wars which have decimated the world's peoples, laid waste their personal properties and their countries' heritage, destroyed so much that was good and noble in their culture, and even the traditional way of life in so many lands.

And as we pause yet one more time to honor the memory of all those brave people who sacrificed their lives for their countries and their fellow humans, many of us will also be breathing a silent prayer for their peace and happiness in an afterlife, as well as for those other millions who still suffer from oppression in many parts of the world.

Unfortunately, it is much easier to talk about, and write about freedom and equality than to ensure it. Almost all of us are quite willing to admit that all people are created equal. But far too many of us are doing our very best to ensure that they don't stay equal very long. We are just as prone to racial and religious discrimination as any generation in history. We preach and declaim very loudly about freedom and equal rights for everyone, on each succeeding Remembrance Day. But we don't practice those virtues very much on the other days of the year.

And until we change our attitudes and our thinking towards our neighbors in every part of our own country, and in every part of the world, our loudest declamations and our most pious resolutions, our flag waving and our hymn singing on this one day of the year, are no more than "sounding brass and tinkling cymbals". They make only a hollow mockery of the very real sacrifices of those who have gone before us, and whom we purport to honor on this day.

A message of hope

The Lung Association's Christmas Seal Campaign, which began on November 1st, will reflect, through its bright and colorful Christmas Seals, a message of hope, happiness and health.

Ontario's goal this year is $4.5 million, and the target for Eastern Counties unit is $60,000. "We feel confident the community will come through for us again as we launch this 1986 appeal", said Roy Leaman, Christmas Seal chairman for the eastern counties. "This tradition has been carried out for more than 80 years, and each year the response is stronger".

Each year there is an increasing demand for health education programs, and the success of the Christmas Seal campaign, the major fund-raising event of the year, is crucial to the ability of the Lung Association to serve the community. Lung Associations across Ontario report that more families are seeking help and guidance from the Family Asthma Programs.

The 1984 Surgeon General's Report in the U.S. said "Cigarette smoking is the chief, single, avoidable cause of death in our society, and the most important public health issue of our time". School programs in these counties are focussing on smoking prevention, and health education is the key to convincing young children not to start smoking. The program presently being used by Eastern Ontario counties is being constantly updated to increase its effectiveness.

Through the generous response to the Christmas Seal campaign, more children than ever were able this year to attend special camps for children with asthma, where they enjoyed the out-of-doors in a supervised environment.

With emphysema increasing at a rapid rate, the Lung Association is in the forefront of the battle against this disease. One in every five Canadians has a chronic respiratory problem. Respiratory diseases are still among the leading causes of deaths and disability in Canada. Emphysema and chronic bronchitis affect more than half a million Canadians, and more cases are being diagnosed each year. Your Lung Association supports world-class research into these and other diseases with funds administered by The Ontario Thoracic Society medical division. These are just a few of the ways your Christmas Seal dollars help so many Canadians to hope, health and happiness.

Since 1927, donations to Christmas Seals have been helping Canadians to breathe easier, and to continue breathing for more years. Use your Christmas Seals as a sign of your support, on mail and parcels during this festive season. Don't forget — "Before you send it, Seal it!" with a Christmas Seal.

Work with AIDS victims not considered a hazard

Employees who work with an AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome) victim have little chance of contracting the virus, according to a fact sheet "Aids and the Workplace", produced by Ontario's Ministry of Health.

The fact sheet says "the disease is not spread through nonsexual, everyday contact". And contact with an object used by an AIDS sufferer — such as drinking cups or telephones — is considered to be safe. The virus, it is noted, "has not been transmitted through air, water or food, or by touching the skin of a person with AIDS, or by touching any object handled, touched or breathed on by a person with AIDS".

It is pointed out that people who come into contact with the AIDS virus through handling of body fluids such as blood, could be at a slight risk: however, standard infection control procedures reduce the risk to negligible amounts. "Studies have shown that, even in cases where health care workers have accidentally stuck themselves with needles contaminated with blood infected with the AIDS virus, the chance of becoming infected with the AIDS virus is very small — well over 100 times less than hepatitis B".

Refusing to work with an AIDS victim

"The Occupational Health and Safety Act allows workers to refuse to do a job that threatens their health", according to the fact sheet, "However, there has not been a single incident reported of someone becoming infected with the AIDS virus through nonsexual contact with a co-worker. Therefore, there is no medical reason to refuse to work with someone who is infected with the AIDS virus.

"To prevent discrimination, a number of companies are developing internal policies on the disease. Where policies exist, it may be a violation of conditions of employment to refuse to work with someone who has AIDS or who is infected with the AIDS virus.

"However, employers should be sensitive to co-workers' concerns and provide reasonable access to education to allay unreasonable fears".

The bulletin says AIDS victims have a right to privacy and confidentiality. Unless the employee gives consent, "An employer can only request medical information from an employee that is relevant to the job". And although voluntary testing may be considered for health care workers who were possibly exposed to infected body fluids or blood through a workplace injury, employers do not have the right to insist on mandatory blood testing. The fact sheet also says people who have AIDS or who are infected with the virus are not a health risk to co-workers, so there is no scientific reason to dismiss them.

Copies of "Aids and the Workplace" are available, as are four other sheets, "Information about AIDS"; "Information for Parents and Teachers"; "Detecting AIDS"; and "Women and AIDS". Contact the Health Information Centre, 9th Floor, Hepburn Block, Queen's Park, Toronto, Ontario. M7A 1S2.

The body of George Frederick Babcock, who had been missing from his Williamsburg home for more than a month, was discovered by Roy Herriman. The 85-year-old man had disappeared September 28th while he was out walking his dog.

David Berry, South Mountain, was elected president of the Morrisburg and District Canadian Club.

The Morrisburg High School Blue Tornados defeated North Dundas in a sudden death semi-final E.O.S.S.A. "B" football game 33-0 to advance to the final against Iroquois. Jack Notman scored three touchdowns in the effort with Mickey Mabo and Jim Scott crossing the line for singles. Steven Casselman kicked two converts and Henry Storgaard rounded out the scoring with a passed convert.

At Brinston's Allied Food Market fresh mushrooms were 29 cents a half-pound box and grapefruit were 49 cents a five-pound bag.

Pictured on the front page of the October 26th, 1956 issue of The Leader were some 85 Morrisburg residents as they prepared to embark on a three hour tour of the St. Lawrence Power Project. The tour was to start at Iroquois and include a view of the Iroquois dam as well as a drive through the new Iroquois townsite.

The IOOF officers installed a Williamsburg Lodge No. 349 were Brother Basil Casselman, Noble Grand; Brother Bert Casselman, Vice Grand; Brother Elburn McIntosh, Rec. Secretary; Brother John Wells Financial secretary and Brother Hubert Casselman.

The first basement in Morrisburg's new sub-division was dug with Village Councillor Wally Guay operating the backhoe. The new subdivision was being prepared by Ontario Hydro to accommodate the families of Morrisburg that had to be relocated from the path of flooding for the St. Lawrence Power Project.

On the recommendation of Revenue Minister McCann, the St. Lawrence River town of Morrisburg was to be closed as a customs port March 31, 1957. Reason for removal of Morrisburg from the list of custom ports was that on completion of the St. Lawrence Seaway a large section of the town would be under water.

The November 3rd, 1956 issue of The Leader reported Mr. and Mrs. Allen Beckstead of Morrisburg had observed their 55th wedding anniversary.

Thieves, who broke into the Morrisburg Poultry Plant and blew open a safe had met with quite a surprise. Not only was there no money in the safe but the door was not locked. The robbery which was discovered by Paul Barkley, son of the proprietor, was being investigated by Constable Hugh Nicholas of the Morrisburg Police Department.

The November 5th, 1926 issue of The Leader reported the management of the Grand Central Hotel at Iroquois had changed hands. Robert Cooper, proprietor of the Grand Central had engaged Michael Bolf of Smiths Falls to replace Mr. McCabe who had left for a position in Kingston.

John D. Harkness, local electrician had completed the installation of a fire alarm at Iroquois which was an electric siren donated to the town by the Women's Institute. It was considered quite an acquisition to the town, the old time fire bell having served its time.

W.O. Lane announced to the people of Aultsville and vicinity that he had purchased the undertaking business of Mr. C.S. Ault which had been conducted by R.H. Hanes. His intentions were to put into service a first class motor hearse for prompt and efficient service.

O.P. Snyder of Morrisburg was advertising the five passenger, four-door Hupmobile Six Sedan for $1,385. The Hupmobile Six was heir to those fine traditions which had made every Hupmobile built for 18 years a better and longer-lived car.

BY-LAW PASSES FIRST TEST

Letters to the Editor

Editor, Morrisburg leader
Morrisburg, Ontario

Dear Sir — I would like to use the vehicle of your paper to clear up some points concerning the "poop & scoop" bylaw.

Firstly, I would like to thank Isabel (Billie) Donaldson for allowing me to charge her and her co-operative dog for violating this Bylaw. Not everyone would have been as gracious and even though I agreed to pay any fine she might get it still took time and some notoriety on her part to accomplish our goal. Needless to say, she is not normally a wilful violator of this bylaw.

Our purpose for testing it was two-fold. One, we had to see if it could be enforced in court and secondly, we had to see if any citizen could charge someone easily and make it stick. It seems we have accomplished both of these goals. For the information of anyone in the Village, all one needs to do to make a "citizen's arrest" is to witness the incident and get the time, date and name of the person in care and control of the dog. This information is to be given to our Bylaw Enforcement Officer "Red" Cook who will do all the necessary paper work, but the citizen laying the charge will still have to be prepared to appear in court as a witness on the appointed date.

As I have mentioned before a lot of this seems a bit humourous and maybe even ludicrous until you or one of your children step in dog excrement. I am not as interested in accidental violations of this bylaw as I am in violations by design. Some people actually take their dog down to the park or to other people's property to do their job. Why they can't have their dog do this on their own property is beyond me. If we cannot respect other people's property in something as simple as this, it is not surprising that some also look on vandalism as a lark.

Let's hope all of us take this lesson to heart and act as a good example to our fellow citizens and neighbors.

Gerry Rosenquist,
Councillor,

Some people do not like autumn. They resent the shortening days, the drop in temperature and they complain about the leaves falling — they can find little good to say about the season. Not us. From the start we have had to take the defense, being born in November cast us a supporter of the month.

Looking at it from a strictly personal point of view we have an easy job of it. Next to February, November is one of the shortest months. It stands alone, too late for Indian Summer, too early for the deep cold of winter, more of a bridge between the two.

There are a few things about the month that you can count on; the first snow, ice in the birdbath, snow tires (the car always breathes a little thank you when it has its snow tires on and mittens. There's something cosy about a pair of mittens and blowing steam in the frosty morning air like a train (we never grew up). We like walking across the lawn early in the morning when each blade of grass is stiff with ice crystals, fascinating frost patterns of white on black — we love it.

With the leaves down we can see further, over the ridge to the next field, suddenly there are houses and barns that have been hidden. The whole sweep of the countryside that was covered in shrubbery is bare now and you can see the shape of the land. The bones of the trees are clean strong silhouettes against the sky, almost like a Japanese print.

For the best of November wait until evening, the night sky of this dark month sparkles with the brightest stars. From the Big Dipper to the Little One and on to the North Star; find Orion the hunter and the dog Cirius. You can find them all, crisp and clear in the cold night sky. Then inside warm to a mug of tea and some gingerbread.

Two weeks ago we planted some bulbs, Paperwhites a form of Narcissus. It was the easiest planting we've done. We sat the bulbs in a dish of chicken grit, the coarse grit an ideal planting medium. The roots reach down and anchor the bulb and all you need to add is water — be sure that the water level is high enough to dampen the grit that the bulbs are resting on. Too much water and they will rot. Of the seven bulbs we planted, five are over 10 inches tall with clusters of buds just about to open. When you are planting small quantities like this, use an odd number of bulbs, for an artistic arrangement.

An advertisement for Paperwhites in the New Yorker this past week, read: "This purchase will not prevent winter but it will help."

We like that kind of help. More help with the gingerbread comes from Fannie Farmer:

Hot Water Gingerbread

1 cup molasses
½ cup boiling water
2¼ cups flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
1½ teaspoon ginger
½ teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons melted butter

Add molasses to water, mix in sifted dry ingredients and add butter and beat vigorously. Pour into a greased cake pan and bake 30 minutes in a moderate oven.

This is one of our first successes — sometimes we throw in a handful of raisins or a little grated orange rind, either way it's good.

Playhouse fundraiser is successful venture

Judith O'Brien
Leader staff

CORNWALL — Upper Canada Playhouse raised approximately $1,400 at its fifth gala fundraising dinner held at the Best Western Parkway here Sunday night. One hundred and forty people paid $25 each for dinner and entertainment by the barbershop quartet, "The Sound Proposition."

Playhouse Board of Directors President Doug Grenkie said 10,000 people attended the three plays during the past summer, and the numbers of patrons and corporate sponsors had increased. He said the playhouse has a small deficit this year of $2,500 because repairs had to be made to the tent theatre or it would have fallen down. Grenkie said he hopes donations from the community will help erase the deficit.

Stormont-Dundas MP Norm Warner and Stormont-Dundas-Glengarry MPP Noble Villeneuve attended the fundraiser and were given special thanks by the Board of Directors for helping them to obtain government funding.

The evening also included a special tribute to Playhouse Artistic Director Mark Morton who is leaving to pursue a career in the secondary education system of Ontario.

Morton said he enjoyed working in Morrisburg, not only because of the theatre, but the community and people who supported the playhouse. He recalled when he originally arrived in Morrisburg, The Leader ran a front page story on him and he said he felt a sense of impending doom.

"I was featured on the front page," said Morton. "It was the only time I've ever been on the front page."

He also recalled how he had tried to find living accommodations in Morrisburg. Morton told the Board of Directors they would have to find him a place to live, since he didn't have the time. The job fell to Gordon Thom, who found a place for Morton on Lakeshore Drive.

"We were walking up the stairs to look at the place and Gordon started lecturing me," recalled Morton. "He said I don't want any of you actor types drinking and carrying on, because I know how you actor types are. We have a quiet way of life here and we don't want it to change."

Morton said over the past four years of the theatre's existence, he has become known in Morrisburg. "People either walk up to me and say you're the one with all the booze and women, or they say you're the one doing all the hard work at the playhouse."

Playhouse General Manager Lois Rosenquist said a replacement for Morton has not yet been found. A short list of possible candidates is being prepared for the Board of Directors and interviews may start as early as next week.

United Way Campaign A Success

Seniors learn crime prevention

Guest speaker at the October meeting of the Williamsburg Senior Citizens on Tuesday was Constable Al Lumiss O.P.P., with the Winchester detachment. He spoke on "Crime-proofing" and "Crime Prevention". He showed pictures as well, pointing out the "do's and don'ts", for personal and property protection.

Doris Hill, was program convenor, and introduced the guest soloist, Mrs. Betty Casselman, who sang "On a day like today", "Love theme", and "Don't sit under the apple tree".

57 members were in attendance. Thanks wer expressed by Mrs. Clifford Casselman and Cecil McMillan, for cards received while in the hospital, and the correspondence included thank you notes from Mrs. Emerson Carr and Mrs. Wray McPherson.

Plans for a Christmas trip to Bayshore were discussed, as well as one to St. Laurent shopping centre. It was decided that the group would go to St. Laurent on Senior Citizen's Day. Other trips were discussed, to be taken at a later date.

A Christmas donation of $25. will be given to the Stampville School students for their Christmas party. Plans for the bazaar on Saturday were finalized.

Visiting and playing cards were enjoyed for the remainder of the afternoon.

Williamsburg supports bill

Judith O'Brien
Leader staff

WILLIAMSBURG — Council members rejected a resolution by Onaping Falls council to condemn Bill 38, the provincial government's legislation removing designation of lottery funds for recreation purposes.

Williamsburg Township reeve Johnny Whitteker said there was nothing wrong with funding health and education in addition to recreation. "If the government left all the money to recreation they would be funding a lot of places that shouldn't be funded because the taxpayer can't affort to keep them up," he said. "As long as government funds recreation the way it should be funded, not give to everybody but give where it's needed, I don't think there's anything wrong with funding hospital beds, education, conservation authorities and all the others."

Deputy reeve Glen Cunningham said a close eye should be kept on recreation, and taxpayers should be careful about funding white elephants.

Councillor Gord McNairn said a lot of recreation money is thrown away on private clubs, which is not fair to taxpayers. "Several Legions I know were built with lottery funds, and they're nothing but a private club," he said.

The resolution by Onaping Falls has received support from Winchester and Iroquois councils.

Council has submitted a request to the Ministry of Transportation and Communication (MTC) to change Hess Road, north of Williamsburg, to Saving Street.

Whitteker said it has been a tradition that the road south of Williamsburg be named Lightning Street and the road north Saving Street. About 10 years ago MTC requested that roads leading onto Highway 31 be named, but Whitteker admits he doesn't know why the road was named Hess Road, nor who named it.

Rescue equipment owned by the United Counties and maintained by Williamsburg Township will be installed in the police village of Williamsburg. The equipment, part of the United Counties plan to update rescue equipment in the area, will serve Dundas County. Other equipment will be installed in Long Sault and Alexandria. Three men will run the equipment and the township will be paid $200 for the first hour, and $100 for each additional hour when responding to a call. The money will help defer insurance and maintenance costs.

VELEY — In loving memory of a dear sister and aunt, Joan who passed away November 8, 1980.
Deep in my heart lies a picture,
Of a loved one laid to rest
My sister's love and kindness lives on
Because she was one of the best.
Always remembered and loved by sister Judy, brother-in-law Carl and nephews

HALL — In loving memory of a dear father, Irwin, who passed away October 26, 1975.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
That He only takes the best,
God gave us strength to face it,
Courage to stand the blow,
But what it meant to lose you,
No one will ever know,
You were someone very special,
Someone good and true,
You will never be forgotten,
For we thought the world of you.
Sadly missed by daughter Pat Hall
45pd

REID — In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather Mr. Merch Reid who passed away Nov. 7th, 1964.
To us you were someone special
Someone good and true
You will never be forgotten Dad
For we thought the world of you
Every day in some small way
Memories of you comes our way
Today, tomorrow, our whole life through
We shall always remember you.
Sadly missed and always remembered by daughter Flossie and granddaughters, Shirley, Lorraine and Karen, grandsons Harold and Bud.

OBITUARIES

G. Leonard Keck

(The following obituary is reprinted from last week's issue of The Leader, when the latter part was inadvertently omitted).

Many friends in Morrisburg, Iroquois and over a wide area learned with regret of the death of G. Leonard Keck, a well-known retired funeral director, and resident of Morrisburg. Mr. Keck died suddenly at his Kingston residence on Friday, October 10th. He was 76 years of age.

Born at Ormond, Ontario, July 24, 1910, he was a son of the late Edward Keck and his wife, the former Katherine Barkley. Prior to coming to Morrisburg, he resided in Iroquois, for some years, where his father operated a hotel, prior to the Seaway relocation of the village. As a young man, he attended the Toronto School of Embalming, and came to Morrisburg in 1939, where he established a funeral director and furniture business, and later a rooming-house business, all of which he operated successfully until the demolition of the old Morrisburg business section. On August 1, 1940, at St. Philomena's Church, Howe Island, he was married to Nonie Goodfriend, who survives. The Kecks moved from Morrisburg in 1973, and have since resided in Kingston and Howe Island.

A devout Roman Catholic, he was an enthusiastic worker for any worthy cause, and he served as a member of the board which established St. Mary's Separate School in Morrisburg. He was, too an ardent hunter and fisherman, and was active in the local Fish and Game Club.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sisters-in-law, Mary Keck of Brockville, and Mary Cadman of Kingston; and two nieces, Joan Fawcett of Colborne and Gloria Osborne of Toronto.

Funeral service was held at St. Joseph's Church, Kingston, on Tuesday, October 14th, with the Mass of Christian Burial concelebrated by Rev. Fathers F. O'Connor and B. O'Neill. Interment followed at St. Mary's Cemetery, Kingston.

Pall bearers were: Robert Fawcett, Donald Osborne, Doug. Casselman, Michael Carey, Ed Payne and Andy Fawcett.

Retta M.S. Carkner

A native Elma, in Williamsburg Township, and a resident of Morrisburg for many years, Retta Maria Shaw Carkner died at Winchester District Memorial Hospital on Saturday, October 25th, following an illness of three weeks.

Born at Elma on July 5th, 1900, she was a daughter of the late William Arthur McMillan and his wife, the former Ann E. Shaw. She was educated at the Elma Public School, Chesterville High School, and Kemptville College. In 1926, at Elma, she was married to John Milton Carkner, who predeceased her in 1978. For many years, the couple operated the general store at Froatburn in Williamsburg Township, prior to moving to Morrisburg.

A member of Lakeshore Drive United Church, Mrs. Carkner also held a membership in the United Church Women, the Women's Institute, the Senior Citizens of Morrisburg, and the Order of the Eastern Star.

She is survived by two sons: Arthur R. Carkner and Jay M. Carkner, and a daughter Lois (Mrs. Paul Barkley), all of Morrisburg; also by a brother, Hyndman McMillan of Elma.

Friends were received at the Fairbairn Funeral Home, Morrisburg, and the funeral service was held at Lakeshore Drive United Church, on Tuesday, October 28th at 2 p.m., with Rev. Donald Smith officiating. Interment followed at Maple Ridge Cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Claude Carr, Gordon Casselman, Roy Hart, Terry Laurin, Chas. McNairn, Graham Wells.

Albert Milton Castleman

A retired farmer and lifelong resident of the district, Albert Milton Castleman, who had resided at 9 Lanhurst St. Morrisburg for the past seven years, died at Winchester Memorial Hospital on Saturday, October 25th, following an illness of two weeks. He was 89 years of age.

Born in Williamsburg Township, April 17th, 1897, he was a son of the late William B. and Annie A. Castleman, and received his early education at the East Williamsburg Public School. He was twice married: first to Luella Canough, who predeceased him in 1955. In 1958, he was married at Morrisburg to the former Ruby Hall, who survives. Other survivors are his sons: Gordon M. Castleman of Morrisburg and Leonard Castleman of Guelph; also by nine grandchildren; Barton Castleman, Mrs. Edward Seymour (Barbara), Brenda Castleman, Cindy Castleman; as well as five great-grandchildren and two great-great grandchildren.

He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Morrisburg, and a life member of Royal Canadian Legion Branch No. 48 Morrisburg.

Friends were received at the Fairbairn Funeral Home, Victoria Street, Morrisburg, and the funeral service was held on Wednesday, October 29th at 2:00 p.m. in St. Paul's Church, with his pastor, Rev. Jens Kjaer, officiating. Interment followed at Maple Ridge Cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Harry Chapman, Carson Baker, Hartley Graham, Robert Howald.

On-court action, Seaway Spartans perform

The Seaway Spartan, junior and senior basketball teams picked up a pair of wins in S.D.&G. league action Monday against the Glengarry Gaels as follow-ups to exhibition wins against Tagwi Thursday. Spartans add wins as S.D.&G. season nears end

IROQUOIS — The Seaway District High School girls' basketball teams added another pair of marks to their win columns in SD&G action here Monday when they downed the visiting Glengarry Gaels.

After recovering from a weak first quarter, which put them ahead only 6-4, the Junior Spartans went on for a 53-23 victory and the Seniors worked their way to a 49-37 win.

The wins give the Spartan teams identical 6-2 records and keeps both at the top of SD&G standings, the Juniors trailing Rothwell-Osnabruck and the Seniors behind R-O and North Dundas.

Wednesday, the Spartans host R-O for what junior coach Judy Madden says will be very important games for both teams. There are two games remaining in league play, Wednesday's match-up against R-O and Tuesday, November 11 at CharLan. As well the Spartans have to make up games against St. Joseph's.

Senior Action

The Gaels opened the scoring Monday 32 seconds into the first quarter but Seaway turned that around and by the end of the stanza were out front 11-9. One minute into the second quarter the Gaels had evened it 11-11 but then Brenda Thompson struck to put the Spartans two up and they held the pace eventually moving into a six point lead.

The seesaw battle continued with the Gaels coming back to close the gap to 18-16. The Spartans Lisa VanHoof then struck to give the Spartans a little breathing room at 20-16 and Hali Adair helped the cause from the free throw line. The first half ended with the Spartans in the lead 24-16.

Counting heavily on steals Seaway had moved ahead 34-22 by the midpoint of the third quarter and finished it at 43-22 as they headed for the 49-37 win.

Top scorer for the Spartans was Hali Adair with a 21-point effort and Lisa VanHoof and Krista Duncan supplied eight points each. Brenda Thompson and Kathrine Shaw dropped two each and Bea Patterson and Cindy Warren contributed singles.

Junior Play

The Spartan juniors got off to a slow start against the Gaels managing only a 6-4 lead after the first quarter but in the second they recovered to stretch it to 18-9. They dominated the third quarter to move ahead 35-19 and polished it off 53-23.

Jennifer McNairn led the effort with 11 points and Kim Bucking and Stephanie Fisher added 10 each. Kathy Byvelds provided eight points, Laura Dawley and Kelly Tryon six each and Elizabeth Jones two.

Coach Judy Madden took the opportunity to rest some of her first string players - Bucking, Dawley and Byvelds seeing little time in the third quarter.

Although Madden says she is not certain how the playoffs will work she is confident the Spartans will be in the thick of them. It is probable, she said, that the fourth and fifth place teams will play off for the fourth playoff position and then first will play fourth and third versus second. The Seaway Juniors are in second spot.

Thursday's game against R-O is very important for the Spartans, the Lancers undefeated this season. Although she says the Spartans could pick up a win she admits that in junior ball you just never know. "They can play so differently from one game to the next," she said. A Spartan win would not knock R-O out of first place.

In exhibition play last week the Spartans hosted Tagwi a member of the A division league. The Spartans picked up victories at both levels, the Seniors 33-30 and the Juniors 38-34.

Hali Adair had 17 points for the Seniors, Brenda Tompson six and Cindy Warren four. Lisa VanHoof, Kim Bucking (junior) and Krista Duncan had one basket each.

Leading the way for the junior Spartans was Kim Bucking with 16 ponts and Laura Dawley contributed 10. Jennifer McNairn struck for eight, Kathy Byvelds six and Elizabeth Jones and Stephanie Fisher two each.

MORRISBURG — Goaltender Jack Bjergso set the pace in the opening night of town league hockey here Thursday holding on for the first shutout of the season against Rob Reynold's entry, 2-0.

Ferrets post near-perfect record

MORRISBURG—Regular season town league football play came to an end here Sunday morning with the White Ferrets on top of the standings — so far out front of their opponents that quarterback Russell Cameron's Ferret hat has become the envy of the league.

The Ferrets', near-perfect 11-1 record was marred by only one loss, that to the Blue Meanies, 38-12, in the first game of the year. From then on they rolled up one victory after another until they had secured first place four weeks ago.

In Sunday's action they worked their way to victory number 11 with a 26-19 win over the Greens. After building a 26-0 lead they were unable to hold the Greens off, the Greens coming back to make a game of it at 26-19.

Sam Laurin, Dave Tait, Jeff VanMoorsel and Doug Brunt had the Ferret touchdowns and answering for the Greens were Mike Schwertdfeger with two and Harry Peppers with a single.

In other action the Reds and the Blue Meanies played to a 6-6 draw, both teams without their regular quarterbacks.

Bill Dillabough threw to Bill Mullin for the Reds' points and Meanies' John Vaughan passed to Tommy Peppers to even it. The game featured several interceptions by both teams.

Final standings see the Ferrets in first place with 22 points, the Blue Meanies in second with 11, the Reds third at nine and the Greens with six.

The opening round of playoffs, a best of three series, sees first (Ferrets) VS fourth (Greens) at 11 a.m. and second (Meanies) VS third (Reds) at 10 a.m. Sunday, November 9th.

Lifeless Lions not up to Rideau challenge

MORRISBURG—The Morrisburg Junior B Lions were not up to the challenge in Sunday afternoon's Rideau-St. Lawrence division game against the Westport Rideaus.

The Lions trailed 1-0 after the first period and 4-2 going into the third as they headed for the 5-2 loss, their third in four tries. To date they have been outscored 24-13.

Coming to life midway into the second period of Sunday's game the Lions counted goals by Jim Bennis at 11:51 of the second and at 8:07 of the third by Lyle Schell — a nice individual effort which saw Schell cross the Rideau's blueline all alone and make a nice move on goaltender Dave Wells.

It was the final tally of the game although both teams had several excellent opportunities which were blocked by Wells and Lions netminder Kent Pilon, both of whom were playing well. That included a gift Pilon made to the Rideaus when he misjudged a weak shot dumped at the Morrisburg net.

Scoring for the Rideau's were Ron Pyne, Paul Rodgers, Barry Seed, Russell Parslow and Terry French, Rodgers and Parslow hitting for their markers while on the powerplay.

The two teams came out even in the penalty department, each handling 11 minors.

The Lions have a busy week ahead of them starting tonight (Wednesday) when they travel to Brockville to take on the Tikis at 7:45. Friday the two will resume action at the Morrisburg arena at 8:30 p.m. and on Sunday the Lions are on the road to Athens for an 8 p.m. game.

Seaway High news

by Wendy Laurin

Did anyone notice how quiet it was around town on Hallowe'en?

Hallowe'en at Seaway High was... well it was interesting to say the least. Quite a few people sported costumes, purple hair with the electric shock or painted faces (We're still searching for the black hand who slapped many a face!)

There was a sock-hop during lunch hour Friday where - finally - everyone danced and had a good time. But all good things must end, although many students tried to forgo afternoon classes and continue partying!

In sports last week, the boys senior volleyball team won their 6 games at the tournament and continue to fight for a top spot in SD&G play.

The girls basketball teams were in luck when they both beat Tagwi, the seniors 33-30 and the juniors 38-34. Both teams picked up wins against Glengarry on Monday.

The Pep Rally is today, Wednesday, after lunch. There'll be face-painting, chanting, raps and lots of pot pounding so let's cheer our teams on to victory.

Last week the seniors (or most of them) travelled to the NAC to see "A Man of All Seasons". However the highlight of the trip was not the play, (though when one of the actors told the audience to shut up it was quite amusing!) but the ride home.

When we boarded the bus to go home, who was there but Gordon AirHead to give us his version of "You're a Strange Animal" by Gowan. If that didn't have us in stitches Dr. Ruth's talk show on the banana phones (a pair of shoes!) certainly did.

Volleyball title still unclaimed

CORNWALL — The Seaway District High School Spartans are heading for a strong finish in S.D.&G. senior volleyball play, their final match prior to playoffs scheduled for this Thursday on their home court.

Tuesday the Spartans travelled to Cornwall where they won six straight games, three against Glengarry and three against General Vanier. This, said player David Sabourin, brought their record to 17 wins and seven losses and holds them in the top three against Cornwall Collegiate and La Citadelle.

Thursday they host La Citadelle against whom they'll be working for a first place league finish.

In junior action last week the Spartans managed one win in their three-games against General Vanier and lost two against both Glengarry and their hosts, St. Joseph.

GOOD NEWS
Your CANADA PENSION PLAN is changing for the better.
As of January 1, 1987:

On January 1, 1987, your Canada Pension Plan will change. These changes put your Plan on a solid, long-term financial foundation.

It's important to know what benefits are available because your Plan provides you and/or your family with a basic level of earnings protection when you retire, become disabled, or die. You will, however, have to apply for the benefits when you believe you are eligible.

The information that follows highlights the major improvements. It's good news!

Financing a better tomorrow
New financing arrangements will make and keep your Plan more secure than ever.
Right now you and your employer each contribute 1.8% of your earnings up to a maximum amount. Each year until 1991, the contribution rate will rise by 0.2% and from there until 2011 by 0.15%. If you make the maximum contribution, you will pay about $26 more in 1987.

A wider choice of retirement options
After January 1st, you can begin receiving your CPP pension as early as age 60. You could qualify even if you are not fully retired.
If you begin your pension before age 65, your benefits will be less because you will have contributed less and will get the benefits for a longer period of time.
Or, if you choose not to start your pension until after age 65, (up to age 70), your monthly benefits will be greater.
Your pension would normally be payable the month after your 65th birthday. For each month between that date and when your pension begins, your benefit will be adjusted by 0.5%. This adjustment will apply for as long as you receive the benefit.

Increased disability benefits If you qualify for disability benefits, your monthly payment will now be significantly increased. For example, the maximum disability pension in 1987 will increase from $487 to more than $635 per month.
As well, anyone entering or returning to the work force will have disability coverage after contributing in 2 of the last 3 years, in which contributions could have been made.

Survivor benefits continue on remarriage
If you receive survivor benefits, they will now continue even if you remarry.
If you remarried and had your survivor benefit discontinued, you can have your benefit reinstated.

Splitting pension credits If your marriage ends in divorce, each spouse will be entitled to one half the "pension credits" you earned together. After January 1, 1987, the credits can also be divided if your marriage or common-law relationship ends in separation.

Sharing your pension When you and your spouse receive your CPP retirement pensions, the benefits you've both earned during your life together can be shared if either of you makes this request.

Additional benefits for dependent children
In the past, dependent children were limited to one flat-rate benefit, even if both parents had paid into the Plan and died or became disabled.
Should the same happen now, your children would be entitled to double benefits.

Improved 'Combined' benefits If you are entitled to a combination of survivor and disability benefits, the maximum monthly amount you could receive will now be greater.
As for combined survivor and retirement benefits, these will now be more generously awarded to those who qualify.

Building on a solid foundation Being financially prepared for the future is a responsibility we all share. Your new Canada Pension Plan now gives you a stronger foundation. It's a sound base, and it's up to you to build on this foundation.
It's never too soon, or too late, to begin building for your future. We hope you'll start today.

You may need further information to better understand these changes. For booklets about your Canada Pension Plan, call the toll-free number below or fill out the coupon and mail it to:

Grant for Iroquois refused

IROQUOIS — An application for a Wintario grant to add a 35 by 60 foot annex to St. Cecilia's School has been turned down.

Local Catholic Churches, Knights of Columbus council 6882, and the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Separate School Board applied for the grant in June. The annex would have been used as a general purpose room for the community and as a place for physical education for the school's 80 students.

"The parish finance committee heard from Wintario in September," said St. Cecilia's principal Doug Jarvis. "We were turned down because there were so many applications and all the money had been allocated. We were told that we are free to re-apply if we choose."

Jarvis said the finance committee is keeping all options open and at the present time it is negotiating several alternatives with the separate school board.

The Knights of Columbus applied for the grant since a chartered group must sponsor the project.

National Crime Prevention Week
November 2-8, 1986

Crime is a problem that touches all our lives in some way. Over the past decade we have seen that when all sectors of the community work together with police and governments, crime can be reduced. Programs such as Neighborhood and Rural Crime Watch, Block Parent, Anti-Vandalism Committees, and Drug and Alcohol Abuse Prevention initiatives are growing in number and in strength.

National Crime Prevention Week provides an opportunity to recognize the professionals and volunteers who devote themselves to creating the kind of community where crime can't get a foothold. It is a time to let Canadians know what they can do to help prevent crime and encourage more citizens to become actively involved.

Since the first week was celebrated in 1983, business leaders, teachers, students, media, professionals and many others have joined with police and governments to share information and raise awareness about topics ranging from home security to child abuse. The week has also been the occasion to launch dozens of new community crime prevention programs.

If you are not already involved in crime prevention, a first step is to follow basic safety precautions at home, at work, and on the street. Examples of these precautions include using proper locks, engraving your valuables, destroying expired credit cards, insisting on proper indentification from service persons, and maintaining a readily accessible list of emergency phone numbers. You may also wish to join in co-operative crime prevention activities, or in activities which provide alternatives for people who might be disposed to criminal activity.

The Ministry of the Solicitor General is pleased to support National Crime Prevention Week, and will be providing crime prevention information at the following address. Good Neighbors, Solicitor General, K1A 0P8. Crime prevention is a community affair, so let us join in strengthening the crime prevention partnership.

VanAllen goes ape

WILLIAMSBURG — After much discussion and furious debate, council members here decided that councillor Lyle VanAllen was indeed dressed as a gorilla Friday night, and visited the homes of Graham Hess and Glen Cunningham.

In his defence, VanAllen said he left to visit his brother in Ingleside at 8 p.m. and didn't return home until midnight. His argument didn't sway Hess and Cunningham, who say they are one hundred per cent positive they discovered the gorilla's identity.

Two gorillas were loose in the Williamsburg area Friday night, the black gorilla identified as VanAllen, the brown gorilla still unknown.

Man pleads guilty to drinking and driving

MORRISBURG — Lyle Fickes, 30, of RR 1 Iroquois pleaded guilty to driving while impaired and refusing to provide a breath sample, in court here Tuesday.

Fickes, who is a third time offender was arrestd at 12:25 a.m. on Aug. 9 by OPP Constable Frank Wert. The officer stopped Fickes' car on Highway 2 in Matilda Township for speeding.

The officer said in his report that Fickes had difficulty locating the necessary papers for his car when requested and stumbled when he got out of the car. The officer believed Fickes was intoxicated and read him the breath demand. Fickes refused and was notified by the officer of the increased penalty for refusing to provide a breath sample.

Fickes has worked as a lab analyst at DuPont for the past 11 years. Duty council Mills asked Judge Bruce Hunter to support an application for the temporary absence program. A representative from DuPont and the union appeared in court to support Fickes.

The temporary absence program will allow Fickes to serve time in the Brockville jail and from there he can make an application for a place at a halfway house in Brockville. Mills said his client would be able to commute from Brockville to his job and therefore would not lose his employment.

Judge Hunter supported the application and suspended Fickes from driving for two years. Crown Prosecutor Mary McFadyen asked that Fickes be sentenced to 90 days in jail, but Judge Hunter said it is no longer mandatory to impose a jail sentence for a repeat offender, since the Ontario Court of Appeal ruling last month.

The judge said he never believed sending a person to jail did any good but since Fickes has already completed a program sponsored by DuPont for alcohol abusers and committed another offence, he would sentence him to 45 days in jail. Last time Fickes appeared in court he was sentenced to 14 days in jail.

Roland Eichler of Cambridge, Ontario was found guilty of careless driving involving an accident on Highway 401 in Williamsburg Township on Sept. 9.

Eichler, a truck driver, hit a car driven by John Hastings of Hemmingford, Quebec. Hastings testified that he was driving eastbound on Highway 401 at about 90 kilometres when his car was banged on the right rear by a tractor trailer and knocked into the median. He said he pulled his car back onto the road and was not injured. His car received $1,900 damage and he paid $335 for car rental while the car was undergoing repairs.

Hastings and Eichler pulled into the Shell service station on the highway and called the Morrisburg OPP detachment. OPP Constable William Renshaw was the investigating officer and he testified he noticed skid marks caused by the tractor trailer on the highway, running about 25 metres in length. He also noticed skid marks from a car heading into the median and back onto the road.

Eichler, who was travelling with a friend driving another truck testified that he saw the car ahead and it was moving very slowly. He was approaching the service station for the night and turned on his blinker signalling his exit. Through his CB radio, Eichler told his friend the car ahead was not moving very fast and he was going to swing out and pass him.

He then told the court that Hastings must have been shocked to see his truck or surprised that he was right behind him and put on his brakes. He said the car disappeared beneath his front window and he applied the brakes and veered on to the right shoulder. Eichler said the car was right in the middle of the road and if he had tried to pass him on the left he probably would have killed the driver.

Crown prosecutor Mary McFadyen suggested that Eichler was distracted by talking to his friend via the CB radio and since he was pulling into the service station for the night he was probably tired and didn't notice the car ahead until it was too late.

Justice of the Peace Gord McGregor agreed with the Crown's case and the original fine of $128.75 must be paid within three months.

Michael Lapensee pleaded guilty to charges of driving with an excess alcohol limit and was fined $300 and prohibited from driving for three months. The incident occurred on Oct. 31 in Williamsburg Township. OPP Constable Frank Wert was the investigating officer.

Charges of driving with an excess alcohol level against Diane Barkley were dismissed by Judge Hunter. OPP Constable William Renshaw and Faye McAvoy were the investigating officers. They both testified that they stopped a vehicle near Lightning Street, south of Williamsburg on Highway 31 on Oct. 12 for speeding.

McAvoy said she noticed a strong odor of alcohol on Barkley's breath and asked her to provide a breath sample. The two officers subsequently brought Barkley to the OPP detachment for a breathalyzer test.

The charges were dismissed however, when defence lawyer Doug Grenkie point out to Judge Hunter that one officer's report said the incident occurred on Oct. 12, while another said Oct. 11.

4-H Week official

Federal Minister of Agriculture John Wise has proclaimed November 10 through 16 as National 4-H Week 1986, bringing to public attention the extensive and exceptional work of the 4-H organization across Canada today, - and Canada's major grocery chains will be joining the salute!

From its early days as a purely agriculture-centred youth club, Canadian 4-H has evolved into a sophisticated program promoting responsible citizenship, leadership, social awareness and independence, while still maintaining the basic concept of learning to do by doing. At the community level, thousands of leaders share time and expertise in supervising local 4-H groups in skill-developing projects and activities. At the national level, largely thanks to corporate sponsors, 4-H achievers continue to learn and grow, travelling to workshops, conferences, camps and on youth exchanges in Canada and abroad and vying for valuable scholarships.

In keeping with the increasing community-mindedness of Canadian business, for the first time this year more than a dozen major grocery chains from coast to coast will be saluting the work of Canadian 4-H in grocery ads during National 4-H Week.

Given the link between Canada's agricultural community and the food business it seems fitting that this sector should join others in recognizing the contribution 4-H has made to Canadian youth.

National 4-H Week highlights the unique opportunity 4-H represents today for young people growing up in our rural communities to develop their potential. These young people will someday thread their way through the entire fabric of our society in rural, urban and surban settings. Thanks to 4-H, to these young Canadians, learning and doing will have become second nature.

Police Report

MORRISBURG — OPP here report a quiet Hallowe'en night and weekend with cases of egg throwings at passing cars and bonfires in the area.

There was one traffic accident east of Mac's Milk when a car left Fifth Street and hit a pole in the south ditch. Reports have not been completed and details were not available at press time.

LONG SAULT — A cow owned by Allan Beaudette of Ingleside was struck on Dickinson Rd. west of the Hwy 401 overpass.

The accident occurred Saturday morning at 10:00 a.m. as 69-year-old Anna-Bell Russell from Ingleside, driving a Ford pick-up truck failed to see the animal and hit it in the head.

OPP report about $1,000 damage done to the pick-up truck, while the worth of the cow is estimated at $800. They are not sure if the cow died.
