Knox Church Congregation Honors Young People

Pictured above are three of the four High School graduates of Knox Presbyterian Church who were recipients of the congregation's annual "Scholarship Awards" during the morning worship hour, Sunday, September 14th — L to R Misses Rose Marie Lavallie, Joyce McCaslin, Mary Ann Petre, and the Rev. John Hibbs, Pastor, who, with the Church Treasurer, Mr. Knox Thompson, made the presentations. Miss Ardith Dunbar, the fourth recipient, was unable to be present for the occasion, having just enrolled in Trent University, Peterborough.

Graduates of the Seaway District High School, and either furthering their education, or entering employment in their field of training, these young people were honoured by the congregation for their work and witness within its fellowship during their secondary school preparation, and with the best wishes of the congregation for their future vocations.

One of the largest congregations noted at a Rally Day Sunday service, the sanctuary was filled with children and young people of the Church School, teachers, parents and friends, and for this annual service of recognition of the important place of Christian Education in the development of the invidual and family in our society. The Knox Junior Choir led in the ministry of music, singing the stirring anthem, "Songs of Praises", by R. Johnston, and two members of the Church School, Miss Janis Thompson and Mr. Gary Lockhart, led in the reading of the Scripture Lessons.

The service, prepared with the young people in mind, saw the introduction of contemporary hymns and spirituals for congregational singing, and the showing of a film-sermon, entitled, "This Call is For You".

Following the tradition of Rally Day Sunday, presentations were made to the Church School pupils, by their teachers, for catechism, memory-course, and perfect attendance accomplishments and a very impressive Act of Commissioning the Church School Teachers and Session Representatives to their respective offices of Christian Education in the congregation was conducted by the Minister.

The Knox Church School, commencing another season of continuing education of young people, from Kindergarten (4 years) through Senior age-levels (Grade 12), commends its facilities, courses and personnel to any families of the area who are without an established church - home. Classes in all departments are held every Sunday morning from 9:45 a.m., with a Nursery Pre-School Class held in the lower church hall during the morning worship hour, commencing at 11 a.m. each Sunday, allowing parents of small children to attend the worship service. Enrollment of pupils is still continuing, with the largest enrollment in some years being noted this season.

Ministerial To Meet

The first meeting of the fall season will take place Thursday at 10 a.m. at St. Daniel's Rectory South Mountain.

The Reverends John Hibbs, Leslie Dean, D.W. MacDonald, Allan Rogers and James Stewart will meet with their host, Father Lloyd Cummings, and a special welcome will be extended to the new Minister of the South Mountain and area United Church Charge, the Reverend Mr. Rowley.

First on the agenda will be the planning of the ecumenical services for the year, starting with a Service of Worship at St. John the Baptist Anglican Church, Iroquois on October 19 at 8 p.m.

Circle your calendar now for the third Sunday evening in October. One of the basics of the Christian faith is the Holy Bible so the first Service of public worship will have as guest preacher the President of the Ottawa Branch of the Canadian Bible Society, the Rev. T. H. Bridle.

Other occasions at which the whole Christian community may have the opportunity of involvement will be sponsored over the winter season, so contact your local minister if you have particular ideas that you would like to have considered. One of the great values of the intensive questioning that is now going on within the Church is the growing awareness of ecumenical witness, in which all the families of the Christian Cimmunity have an equal and responsible share.

Four Men Foiled By OPP, Caught In Bank Building

Four Montreal-area men are being held by Ontario Provincial Police after being apprehended in the Royal Bank of Canada branch in this community early Saturday morning. Police surrounded the bank and arrested the men who had come to spend at least a night or two and according to police "were well equipped".

The tip-off that something was going on in the bank came from a young man who was developing pictures early Saturday morning in a camera shop and craft house next door to the bank. Hearing strange noises the young man called police who immediately surrounded the building and kept a watch on their activities for a while before surprising them.

Investigation showed that the men had gained entry to a vacant store to the east of the bank, smashed through the wall between the roof and the ceiling and were drilling into the vault from above. It is reported that over $1,000 worth of equipment, along with food, was found in the bank building.

During the night the men had knocked a hole into the Beamish Store and then further east into another vacant store with a hole beside the furnace in the Beamish Store building.

While only four men were apprehended, it is believed that another man spent the night in the area and escaped by car. Police did find a truck which was used to transport the equipment.

Detective Sgt. Clifford Perry of Long Sault Detachment, Cpl. Ian Doney, Constables Brian Jeffrey and Lee McCaslin of the Morrisburg OPP Detachment were the officers surrounding the building.

Appearing in Morrisburg court on Tuesday were Frank Thomas, 40, and Richard Dollard Foley, 37, Dollard Des Ormeaux, Quebec; Fred Austin Griffith, 35, Montreal, and J-Guy Carle, 35, of Laval.

Short-term Wildcat Strike

The entire production staff of Caldwell Linen Mills walked out in a wildcat strike last Wednesday night which kept the textile plant out of production until Sunday night. Employees who were dissatisfied with the progress being made in contract negotiations initiated the strike, followed by the remainder of the 430 employed at the mill.

Employees are being represented by the United Textile Workers of America, a new union currently negotiating their first contract with the company. Union representative Verne Mustard met with the employees on Friday and after a heated session the workers agreed to return to work. The first shift reported back Sunday night and by Monday afternoon, normal production had been attained.

Picketing at the plant was orderly and office staff permitted to enter the plant.

Both Union and company officials are awaiting word from a conciliator and a meeting is expected to be set up for some time next week.

Season Nears End

On Thursday, September 11, 1969 a meeting of the directors was held at the club house. At this meeting it was decided to build three new tees on No's 2, 4 and 6 fairways. On Saturday, Fetterlys garage made available two trucks and we took the earth from the pile on No. 9 and made the base for the new tees. During this next couple of weeks we will need all the help we can get to prepare and seed these tees so that they will be ready for the golf season come next spring.

We also decided to hold the closing banquet at our club house this year.

We are contacting an outside catering service to take care of the dinner. When we receive the cost there will be tickets available and we hope to have everyone turn out to this dinner. We also hope to have local talent to entertain after the dinner and trophy awards have been made.

We also decided to plant some larger trees on No. 5 fairway to make this a more interesting hole for the long ball players in the club.

I would like to remind you that there are still lots of tickets left on the colour TV. This TV will be on display at Styles and McIntosh's window from this week until the drawing on October 4th. Get your ticket, it only costs one dollar and just think you can't buy a TV anywhere for one dollar.

The directors would like to say thanks to Fetterly's garage for the use of the two trucks on Saturday. Thanks again.

Our golf course is in excellent condition again this year and we would like to see more people taking advantage of the use of the course and the club house. As you know this is the best course by a dam site, so come out and enjoy yourself, we will be glad to see you.

The play-offs are still going on

In B. class P. MacDonald vs. J. Knudson, 1st round; D. Cook vs. J. Beaupre, 2nd round.

In C Class, Ron McIntosh vs. L. Hall, this will be the final.

In A Class, T. Cummins is still waiting for the winner between Duval and Monaghan.

In the ladies division, final rounds were played on Sunday, September 14th. Mary Jean Craig defeated May McCracken, Class A division.

Ann Cassentree defeated Sandra Kabelin for the net honors.

Congratulations to Mary Jean and Ann.

On Thursday night the final rounds for the twilight league will be played. Let's have everyone out on Thursday. On Saturday there will be a steak dinner for all the players in the twilight league. Let's have a good turnout fellows.

Saturday's final play for the Twilight league starts in the A.M.

New Department at District Hospital

Mrs. Martine Gow, the newly appointed Director of the Social Service Department, was guest speaker at the September meeting of the District Memorial Hospital Auxiliary in Winchester.

Mrs. Gow brings to this new department a sound training in her chosen field, as well as a warm and charming manner. Post graduate work, following a B.A. degree from Sir George Williams, is being completed this year from McGill University in a Master's degree in Social Service. After some years of service in the Children's Aid Societies of Ottawa and Cornwall, she is well equipped to deal with the many problems which arise in discharge planning and other phases of family life affecting the hospital patient. Her address, which lucidly touched on the aspects of her work directly concerning the Hospital Volunteer Service, was most practical and clarified her position as liaison between hospital and home

Prior to her introduction by Mr. Stel, a heavy agenda of work was completed. The treasurer's report showed the total receipts of the Hospital Fair in June to be $2,118.88 with a net ballance of $1767.15. An innovation among the booths was the Volunteer Service booth which displayed and sold the many beautiful articles made and donated by the patients in the Long Term Wing. This booth cleared $71.25 and made the Volunteer Service self-sustaining to date.

A beautiful quilt, made and donated by Mrs. Howard Justus, was on display. Tickets are now on sale and the drawing for the winning ticket will be made at the annual meeting of the Chesterville Unit in September.

The Ladies of the Metcalfe Orange Lodge donated funds for an arm chair for the physiotherapy department.

Mrs. Colin McGregor, the incoming president, introduced the new secretary, Mrs. Bernice Carlyle.

Tuck Cart will be in charge of the following units for the next four months: September, Morewood; October, Williamsburg; November, Williamsburg; and December, Winchester.

The units of Williamsburg, Winchester, Golden Valley, Morrisburg, Summers and Cass Bridge and Chesterville were well represented at the meeting which was followed by a social half hour in the cafeteria presided over by Miss Legris.

--- WORTHY AND OTHERWISE

Peace! . . . What Peace?

Dissidents must be running out of steam after a hot summer, or maybe we are experiencing a quiet before the storm. In any case, universities, racial troubles, hippies, government blunders, and what have you, seem to have quieted down.

Over in Ireland the disturbance seems to have finally taken a slower pace, if not a peaceful one. Israel and Egypt take the odd shot at each other just to keep their hand in. Viet Nam seems also to be fading a bit in the news. Trudeau had a good holiday. The world actually seems to have slowed down a bit with its agitation this Fall. Not peace, mind you, just a slowdown!

We, as individuals, have our peaks at working and at playing. It seems that we must periodically slow down for a while, to get our second wind, to rest up for our next hectic round. And maybe too, this is the way it must be with nations around the world, which nations after all are controlled by individuals like you and like us. But then, if they are like us, how come all this fighting and bickering that has been going on, How come nations cannot act like individuals who stop once in a while to take stock. It would be nice to think that there has been a slowdown around the world, in respect to wars and strife. But we hardly think that is the case.

Peace is a five-letter word . . . nothing more.

The only way it will mean anything more is for individuals like us to make it mean something. That isn't going to be easy because there are those working against peace just as hard as any of us can work towards it. That's a fact of life. There are those that build up and those that tear down.

Peace can be attained by working at it, but it must be hard work, and dedicated work. Next time you start to wonder about peace in the world, look around you and just maybe you can find something to do right in your own home, your own town, to help bring it about.

Tough Luck Fellows!

The four men who were caught red-handed, so to speak, in the ceiling over the Royal Bank must really think their luck is running the wrong way. Where else but in a small town would they find someone developing pictures at two in the morning . . . and civic-minded enough to take the initiative to become involved.

Tough luck fellows . . . and to the young man who was "on the ball" . . . thanks for "getting involved" the way any good citizen should but too often neglect doing.

Warm Weather Not Hard To Take

Apple men are hoping for a friendly frost to nip their apples to a sweeter taste, corn men like the warm weather for finishing off what looks like a good crop this year, but as a fellow just interested in being able to walk outside in shirt sleeves, we can stand this warm spell as long as it lasts.

Right through for another month if we could have it.

Last Sunday there were dozens of people out for an afternoon drive, having maybe one last picnic or a run along the river. Quite a few boaters did the same thing as their car-driving counterparts. For ourselves, it wasn't hard to put the head on a pillow and soak up an afternoon's sleep.

Everybody has their own way of enjoying that day of rest.

$$ and Good Sense

by William J. Martin

This column is a regular weekly feature prepared by the Family Financial Counselling Service of the Avco Dalta Corporation, P.O. Box 2820, London, Ontario. All questions submitted to the above address will be answered in print or by return mail. Names will not be used in print. However, all questions should be accompanied by a complete name and address.

Dear Mr. Martin:

We've been married for a year now and the thing we want most of all is a house. But we can't decide on whether we want a townhouse or a "regular" house at about the same investment. In fact, we're not even sure we should buy at this time with the money market what it is. Some say "yes", others urge us to wait.

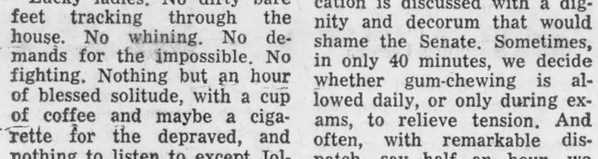
Mrs. M.W.

Put me in the "yes" category, too. However, I'm going to qualify this by urging you to "take it extremely easy and don't rush into it." Next to that marriage license, this has got to be the most important purchase you'll make.

So far as a townhouse versus a "regular" house is concerned, I'm no expert on the subject. There are just too many things to consider. For example, I don't know about the resale value of townhouses. It depends on the area in which you live. Secondly one if you're planning a family, I would certainly not considily in the near future. There's just not enough room for children to romp around in. It's o.k. when they're infants, but when they reach toddler stage, a three-storey "house" offers too many stairs to fall down. On the other hand, Mrs. W., if you don't plan a family for some time, perhaps a townhouse might just be the thing. There are some advantages. They're unique and interesting and somewhat different from apartment living. There is usually no great deal of lawn maintenance or snow removal. But, if you're the outdoors puttering-around type, you'll find the limited space a little boring.

While I can't see young couples continually pouring money down the "apartment drain", I do recommend that first year in an apartment. It gives you an opportunity to decide on your goals; where you wish to settle down; how large a family, etc.

So, if you qualify and can afford it, go ahead and buy. Proceed with caution, though, if it's a used house. Like a used car, it's been around and in some cases, maybe abused. To avoid costly repairs, know what you're getting. Read all you can in the library and check out books on the subject. Then, consult a realtor. He's a professonal and knows the market. Let him look for you, too.



Kids getting rough deal

Have you noticed what has happened to all those tense, harassed, haggard, harried, hysterical women who were around all summer? They've suddenly turned into fat cats, smiling, relaxed, ready to turn the other cheek rather than belt you on yours.

Know why? Because their kids are back to school, that's why. Not that they don't love their children. No, no, no. All mothers love their children. But they can't STAND them after two months' holidays.

Paradise on earth is not the Isles of Greece, or two cars, or four credit cards, or a mink stole. It's sitting down with a cup of coffee after the kids are off to school and realizing that you won't see them for anywhere from three to six hours.

Silence. Golden. No more of, "Jane's mean. Billy won't give back my bike. When are we going for a swim? I wanna popsicle. There's nothing to do. It's hot outside. How come we never have any cold pop?" And so on.

Lucky ladies. No dirty bare feet tracking through the house. No whining. No demands for the impossible. No fighting. Nothing but an hour of blessed solitude, with a cup of coffee and maybe a cigarette for the depraved, and nothing to listen to except Jolly Jack, the disc jockey. Even getting at the dishes and the washing is a pleasure, when there's nobody there snivelling, "I fell and hurt my knee, Mum, Mum my knee hurts, Mum."

Well, girls, I hope you enjoy it. You deserve it. But while you're lolling in this sybaritic splendor, let me remind you that I and all the other idiots who teach school are stuck with your rotten kids for ten months, six hours a day. Keep this in mind when you scream at your horrendous education taxes.

It's not that I don't enjoy getting back on the job in September. If I did, I wouldn't be right in the head. It's a pleasant change after two months of my wife and daughter driving me crazy, singly or in tandem.

Instead of two women yattering and wheedling and scolding and nagging and cajoling and conning me, all I have to face is about 165 kids doing the same. But there's safety in numbers.

And I have some authority at school. If a kid bugs me too much, I can threaten him with all sorts of dreadful punishments, like being sent to the principal's office, which terrifies him about as much as being attacked by a bunny rabbit.

Or I can resort to the final edict, "Look, if you're 16 and you don't like it here, out, vamos, raus, get lost. There's the door. You're free." This is fairly effective, especially in winter, because they don't want to go to work.

Another delightful aspect of getting to work is meeting all my old friends on the staff. There's the cut-and-thrust wit of the staff room at lunch hour, much like the atmosphere of the French salons of the 18th century. "Who's got the crossword puzzle? Gawd, my feet are killin' me. Jeez, I wish it was Friday."

And there's the genuine thrill of staff meetings, where the real, gritty business of education is discussed with a dignity and decorum that would shame the Senate. Sometimes, in only 40 minutes, we decide whether gum-chewing is allowed daily, or only during exams, to relieve tension. And often, with remarkable dispatch, say half an hour, we decide, within four inches, how long a boy's hair or how short a girl's dress must be.

However, I do like kids, and it IS rewarding to watch them grope, then cope. And a few weeks ago a couple of former students, now at university, who were real hellers when I taught them, asked me out for a game of golf. And then a little girl called me up, and asked if she could be in my English class.

And Jerry, a boy of whom I rather despaired, but a good lad, asked Kim what I wanted for a gift last June, when he graduated, magna sans laude.

She replied, rather intelligently, I thought, "Give him something he likes, and something useful." All on his own, he hustled downtown and bought me a bottle of good Burgundy and three golf balls. When a chap shows judgment like that, you can't help feeling you've succeeded, somehow.

Kim looks ready to burst into tears, perhaps because she didn't know the strange man trying to coax her to smile for her picture. This little Ojibway girl is 16 months old, with bright, intelligent dark eyes, fine dark hair and medium complexion. A plump, sturdy child, she is in excellent health, her only illness having been an early attack of broncho-pneumonia. Kim, who has spent her short life in a warm, secure atmosphere filled with love and stimulation, is an alert, responsive, contented child, with a sweet disposition. She enjoys other children and does not take long to make friends with adults. This little girl needs a mother and father who will welcome and love a dear little Indian daughter. To inquire about adopting Kim please write to Today's Child, Department of Social and Family Services, Parliament Buildings, Toronto 182. For other information about adopting ask your local Children's Aid Society.

What makes them happy?

In our experience there is one place where you can be sure of seeing happy faces.

It isn't the bank—though certainly we have great respect for our banks. There people look intent, busy, serious with the financial responsibilities of life.

Nor is it at the ball game. There is no joy in Mudville when mighty Casey strikes out.

But when you go to church you see so many happy faces! It is as though people had left their troubles behind them . . . their fears . . . their worries . . . their little sadnesses and great sorrows.

Yet we know that no one can really leave these behind him. They are part of our life—and our life goes with us wherever we go.

But church is a place where men come to share their burdens with Someone Else . . . someone who cares . . . who helps . . . who strengthens.

And this kind of sharing—between man and God — has always been the root of true happiness.

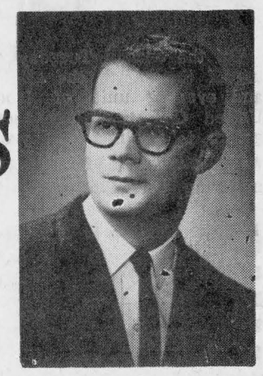
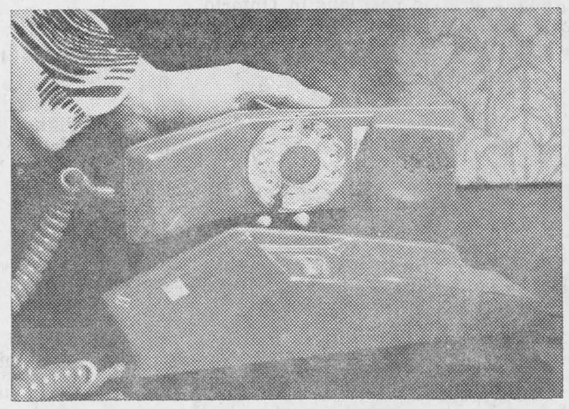
BELL LINES



By J. K. MacLeod
Your Telephone Manager

I'd like to use my column this month to tell you about our exciting new CONTEMPRA telephone. It's the very latest in telephones—combining modern design with compact dial-in-hand convenience.



When you pick up the handset of a CONTEMPRA telephone, everything you need to make a call comes to you. As you can see in the picture, the dialing unit fits right into the handset so you don't need to bother about the base when you place a call. An extra long spring cord (5½ feet) allows you to really move about as you talk. And the handy recall button, just below the dial on the handset, clears the line between calls so you can dial again without hanging up.

The graceful lines of CONTEMPRA phone and the fact that you don't need the base to dial, let you pput the set in places you've never put a phone before.

And CONTEMPRA phone is right in step when it comes to colors too. There are six new colors never before used for telephones — mauve, bright red, warm white, pale yellow, deep blue and deep turquoise. Of course CONTEMPRA phone also comes in the popular beige, ivory and deep green. You can see the CONTEMPRA telephone in all these colors at Brockville.

Designed in Canada, CONTEMPRA phone is available in Iroquois. Why not order one today. Just give us a call at Brockville.

Begin Fall Term

On the second Tuesday evening of the month the afternoon and evening units of Iroquois United Church women met together to begin a new year of work, study and fellowship. An inspiring period of worship led the ladies into a splendid meeting. Mrs. George Fowler led in worship assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Davis, Mrs. W. McAdam, and Miss K. Morgatroyd. A number of Gospel Hymns were sung.

The members had the pleasure of sharing a letter recently received from Miss Violet Hall who is a patient at Pioneer Lodge, Middle Lake, Saskatchewan.

Mrs. H. VanAllen made known to the group information as regards required reading and study material for the coming year, as well as dates for the fall regional rally at Shanly on October 22 An invitation has been received from the Presbyterian ladies to join them for their thankoffering on October 15th.

A colour film "China Part II) was shown. All present felt this was one of the best films that have been made available. It depicted life on a commune in China and all the colourful ceremony of a National Day Parade. It left everyone understanding how the Chinese are educated to be so loyal and dedicated to the cause of the People's Republic, and their chairman Mao Tse Tung.

A period of questions, opinions and discussions followed. Having thanked Mr. Dean for time spent securing and showing the film, the ladies enjoyed a social hour over a cup of tea.

Williamsburg Pioneers stayed off elimination again with a 4-2 win in a 16 inning game Sunday night in Domville. Cardinal Pats held a 3-2 series lead, but now the series goes to the 7th and final game.

Pioneers grabbed a 2-0 lead in the 2nd inning on an overthrow by the catcher. Pats scored in the 5th and 6th on singles to tie the game. In the 3 remaining innings of the regulation 9 innings, Pats had 8 base runners, but failed to score.

Top of the 16th, Paul Beckstead got on base with an error, Gord McMillan struck out, Gerry Morrell sacrified. Big Doug Casselman hit a triple to right field to score Paul for the winning run. Ted Smith's single sent in Big Doug to lead 4-2. Pats had 1 base runner in the bottom of the 16th, but couldn't score.

Big Doug hurled a 12 hitter, walked 2 and struck out 17. Ted Hoy tossed a 7 hitter (2 of them triples) walked 3, hit 1, and struck out 20. Pats had 13 left on base to Pioneers 8. Pioneers had a double play in the 9th inning of the game which lasted 3 hours and 4 minutes.

Cardinal Pats thought they had the best of 7 Dundas Fastball League Playoff Finals all wrapped up after 13-3 and 10-2 victories over Williamsburg Pioneers. But, the Pioneers turned the tables on the Pats with a 4-1 win Friday night.

Big Doug Casselman hurled a 4 hitter, 1 walk and struck out 11. Ted Hoy suffered the loss with 10 hits, 1 walk, hit 1 and struck out 5.

Gerry Morrell was the big gun for the Pioneers, with 2 runs on 2 singles, 1 triple, and a homer with 2 RBIs. Ted Smith connected with a triple but failed to score.

Pats lead the series 3-2 and could wrap it up Sunday night.

Get Lights

Morrisburg finally got their lights!! The Jets played the first game under the lights Thursday night and lost to the OPP Manglers 21-10.

The Jets won the first game 14-11, but the Manglers have been practising and were ready to swamp the weaker sex.

The Jets would like to thank each and everyone who contributed in the new diamond. For the benefit of the doubting Thomas who claim that the field is too small at 200 feet, every team in the area, including the senior men's uses the Ontario Amateur Softball Association Softball Official Rule Book. The 1969 book states "the shortest distance from a fence or stand on fair territory to the home base should be 150 feet and from home base to the backstop 15 feet." The Jets invite the doubters to measure the field and then try Domville's which was the last modern diamond built.

Monday night the Jets lost their first game of the best of 5 finals to Cornwall 5-0.

K.C.A.T. HARVEST SHOWCASE '69

The third annual Harvest Showcase at the Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology will be held on Wednesday, October 1.

There will be special demonstrations of machinery used in corn handling systems, as well as exhibits on weed control problems.

Of particular interest will be some results of the College corn and soybean research programs. Farmers are invited to bring samples of corn from home for moisture testing during the day.

Continuous two-hour tours will feature visits to livestock, poultry, soils and crop research areas, along with discussion opportunities for everyone.

Imports

The farm machinery importation program of The Ontario Federation of Agriculture is continuing with the expected arrival of at least 13 more tractors from Britain by ship at Toronto by the end of the month.

A shipment of 10 tractors docked yesterday. The machinery will be picked up early next week. Officials of The Ontario Farm Machinery Agency state that this shipment has been purchased by farmers representing many sections of the province.

The Ontario Farm Machinery Agency is a special company owned by the OFA for importing machinery for Ontario's farmers at great financial savings. The importation program has been in operation since last November.

David Crone, head of the OFA Marketing and Research Department and secretary to the Farm Machinery Agency, expects three more tractors to arrive at Toronto in a little more than one week. He points out that further orders have been placed in Great Britain.

The agency is presently answering more than 350 inquiries which have been placed by farmers across Ontario in the past few weeks concerning various pieces of farm machinery. To date almost 200 pieces of machinery have been imported from the United Kingdom.

The importation program was initiated because of the excessively high mark-up prices injected into farm machnery costs by numerous manufacturers. Much farm machinery sold on Ontario markets is actually manufactured in Great Britain.

O.P.P. REPORT

Ontario Provincial Police in Dundas County last week patrolled 10,422 miles while working a total of 1,037 hours. During this time there were 64 charges laid under the Highway Traffic Act along with 54 warnings being issued. Officers from Morrisburg and Winchester Detachments also investigated 2 Break and Enters, 4 Thefts, 3 Disturbances and 17 miscellaneous complaints. They also investigated 11 infractions of the Liquor Control Act which resulted in 10 persons being charged.

Members of Morrisburg Detachment, acting on reliable information received apprehended 4 men. As a result these men were charged with Break and Enter with intent to commit an indictable offence therein in relation to the Royal Bank of Canada in Iroquois, which took place September 13, 1969.

Our area highways were fairly busy with officers investigating 6 property damage accidents and 3 personal injury accidents which resulted in 4 persons receiving minor injuries.

Provincial Court was quite active with officers spending a total of 21 hours in court while registering a total of 58 convictions.

Isn't it strange: People spend a lot of time, money, sweat and tears to invent and perfect some thing to help keep automobile drivers and passengers from being hurt or killed.

The result? Safety belts.

Then other people spend a lot more time, money, sweat and tears trying to persuade drivers and passengers to use this life-saving piece of equipment.

The result? More people do not wear belts than those that do.

So every year thousands of people are killed or injured simply because they had not buckled their safety belts. And thousands of people who do not use safety belts spend a lot of time and sweat thinking up reasons why they do not.

Funny, isn't it? Tragic, too'

Lands & Forests Report

FORESTRY ASSISTANCE TO PRIVATE LANDOWNERS

by M.E. Dillabough
Forestry Technician

While driving the highways and byways in Ontario, you will quite often see signs reading "Trees for To-Morrow", "Reforested Area" etc., and also "Please Be Careful With Fire. The main purpose of these signs is two-fold:

1. To enlist the public's cooperation in forest fire control, and forest management.

2. To advise the public of the Department of Lands and Forests' efforts to keep all forest land productive.

In 1966 Legislation was passed giving the Department of Lands and Forests authority to enter into agreements with private landowners for the management of their land for forestry purposes. Since this programme was initiated over 3,000,000 trees have been planted on private land in the Kemptville District.

We are often asked the question — why plant trees? Perhaps this can be answered best by briefly considering some of the benefits the forests provide for the people.

They serve as places for recreation and sport. They provide food and shelter for wildlife and therefore provide a livelihood for trappers. They also help prevent soil erosion from the forces of water and wind. The forests' aesthetic value is essential to the tourist industry. This form of beauty inspires artists, poets, authors, nature lovers, photographers and has a favourable effect on the tranquility of many peoples minds. Last, but not least, is the economic value. Because it takes trees a long time to grow the return on investment is not realized as quickly as in other fields but the potential is always there, and the forest industry is vital to the economy of this province.

In this part of Ontario there are thousands of acres of land incapable of producing satisfactory agricultural crops, however a large portion of this land will grow good forests.

Anyone interested in converting their idle land into productive forest land please feel free to contact the nearest office of the Department of Lands and Forests for information.
