WEDDINGS

LENNOX—COONS

The United Church Parsonage was the scene of an interesting wedding ceremony on Friday evening last, when Rev. Norman J. Thomas united in marriage Miss Marion Barclay Coons, younger daughter of Mr. F. A. Coons and the late Mrs. Coons, to Mr. James Richard Lennox, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lennox.

For her wedding, the bride wore a street-length, wine colored dress, with shoulder bouquet of yellow mums and black accessories.

The bridal attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party motored to Ottawa for dinner and later Mr. and Mrs. Lennox left on a motor trip to points in Eastern Ontario. They will reside in Winchester, where the groom is a member of the Winchester District Rural Hydro Staff.

KIRKWOOD—FLETT

A quiet, but pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday, Nov. 6th, at 2 o'clock at the Anglican Church, Iroquois, with Rev. W. L. Thomas officiating, when Gladys Maria, eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Flett, of Iroquois, became the bride of Charles Lawrence, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirkwood, of Toyes Hill.

The bride wore an opal blue dress, with black accessories. Her corsage was a bouquet of red mums.

They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Henderson, of Brinston.

Later, the couple left for a trip to London, Ont., where they visited with the groom's daughter and son-in-law.

DESJARDINE—FAIRFIELD

A pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized at the Wesleyan Methodist parsonage by the Rev. Mr. Kielty on Saturday, November 20th, when Miss Rita Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fairfield, of Kemptville, was united in marriage to Mr. Earle Desjardine, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruggles Desjardine, of Winchester.

The bride was charming in an aqua street length dress with a round net yolk and net skirt over crepe. Her shoulder-length veil was of the same shade and was held in place by a cap of satin ribbon of the same shade. She wore long white elbow gloves and her corsage was of pink roses.

The young couple were attended by the groom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Redmond, of Prescott. Mrs. Redmond wore a navy blue crepe with black lace, and her corsage was red carnations.

Following the ceremony, dinner was served to several friends at the home of the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Redmond. The young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends.

An election will be held to choose a Deputy-Reeve and three Councillors from the following:

For Deputy Reeve—George Hess and Frank Darling.

For Councillors—Bernice Froats, Bernice Gallinger, Keith Schell, Donald Kyle.

Trustees for the Police Village of Williamsburg were returned by acclamation. They are: D. Hugh Thompson, Douglas Barclay, Raymond McIntosh.

School Area Trustees were also returned by acclamation when only two were nominated. They are Earl Colquhoun and Harry Casselman.

Council Ignores Order For Evening Power Cuts

Reeve Fader, Chairman of the local Hydro Commission, received a phone call on Monday afternoon from the district office of the Ontario Hydro Commission at Cornwall, ordering Winchester to take an additional half-hour power cut before 10 o'clock on Monday evening. The reeve consulted with other members of the Council, all of whom are local Hydro Commissioners, and all were of one opinion—that there would be no further cuts unless Hydro pulled the switches. Winchester is already observing two one-hour cuts each day, the stores are closed every night except Saturday, the village streets are blacked out every night, and some local industries have installed small generating plants to cut down on their consumption of Hydro power. The Winchester Commission, with the co-operation of the local consumers, are doing everything possible to conserve power, but feel that they are not getting the co-operation from the Ontario Hydro Commission which the local situation justifies. At night Winchester is the gloomiest place in Eastern Ontario.

On Tuesday evening another order was received from the same source to cut the power 1 1-2 hours that evening. This order was ignored also. What next?

COL. DREW WAS UNANIMOUS CHOICE AT CARLETON NOMINATION

At the Progressive Conservative Nomination Meeting, held at Carp on Saturday, Col. George Drew, newly appointed Leader of the Progressive Conservative Party in Canada, was unanimously nominated to contest the bye-election to be held in Carleton County next month. The seat was made vacant by the resignation of Mr. G. Russell Boucher. Mr. Drew's opponent at the bye-election will be Dr. Eugene Forsey, the C.C.F. candidate. The Liberals are not contesting the seat.

INKERMAN ROCKETS LEAD KINGSTON CITY LEAGUE

By defeating the Disney Barons 2-1 at Kingston last Wednesday evening, marking their third successive victory in the race for the Van Horne Trophy, the Inkerman Rockets jumped into first place in the league standing. The goal-getters for the Rockets on this occasion were Bob Lunny and Bill Stitt, while J. Joyce netted the Barons' only count.

In the second game of the twin bill, the Kemptville Royals defeated Queens 5-3 and are tied for second place in the league standing.

Several fans from this district attended last Wednesday's games, and are all of one opinion, that the Rockets are fast shaping into a junior team that will provide plenty of stiff opposition in whatever league they enter, following the Van Horne series.

Won Again On Monday.

On Monday evening, the Rockets defeated Queens Intermediates 6-1 to strengthen their lead in the league race. Roger Hunter, flashy centre player from Ottawa, led the Inkerman attack with two goals.

Dep. Postmaster General Addresses 100 Club

Mr. Walter J. Turnbull, of Ottawa, Deputy Postmaster General for Canada, was the guest speaker at the annual Ladies' Night, sponsored by the local 100 Club at Hotel Winchester last Friday evening. The attendance was somewhat smaller than usual, about 60 members and ladies being present. This was due to the fact that the date of this event conflicted with the High School Commencement, which was being held the same evening.

Mr. Turnbull was introduced by the local Postmaster, Centurian F. Erle Helmer, and gave an informative and interesting address on Canada's Postal Service, which, he said, was one of the nation's biggest businesses today. He briefly outlined the history of the post-office, from its primitive beginning several hundred years ago. Referring to the secrecy of the mails, Mr. Turnbull said that the postal authorities would not divulge the contents of a letter, etc., even to the police. Once a letter or parcel entered the mails, it was protected by the postal authorities until it was delivered to the party to whom it was being sent.

Constantly on the alert for speeding up the mail service, the speaker said that he was looking forward to the day when a letter could be mailed and delivered anywhere in Canada within 24 hours. This will be made possible by the expansion of Air Mail facilities. At the present time air services were costing the Department $8,000,000, due to the reduced cost of mailing a letter via Air Mail, which was 4 cents, the same as for ordinary mail service. He also said that the Post Office Dept. suffered a loss of $7,000,000 per year by granting certain concessions to newspapers and other periodicals, which enjoyed extra low postal rates.

The Post Office does not exist, he said, to extract money from its patrons, but rathed to render a public service. It costs more money to maintain good service, but this was preferable to poor service at cheaper rates, the speaker said.

Years ago, the Postmaster was paid on a commission basis. He provided his own postal quarters and hired and paid his own help. This resulted in many cases, to a poor post-office building, cheap and inefficient help. This has been remedied, said Mr. Turnbull. Today the postmaster is paid a salary, his assistants are paid by the Department, and postoffice buildings are being erected or buildings purchased and renovated by the Government for postal services. He said he was looking forward to the time when rural mail drivers would not have to bid for their contracts, but would be paid a stipulated sum according to mileage and the number of people served on the route.

The word "Service" is a watchword in the Postal Department and its employees put "service" ahead of everything else, he said.

In concluding his address, the speaker asked the ladies, whom he claimed use the mails to a much greater extent than the men, to do their Christmas mailing as early as possible.

Mr. Turnbull was thanked, on behalf of the Club, by Centurian W. F. Workman.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Centurian Walter MacDonald. The Creed was recited by Centurian Max Boyd, with Centurian Chester Timmins leading in the singing, accompanied on the piano by Miss Annie Walker.

Guests present included members of the local postoffice staff, Miss Muriel Armstrong and Mrs. Ken. Barriger, Mr. Barriger, Mr. Jas. Carlyle, Mr. Herb Meldrum and Mrs. Turnbull. These were introduced by the president.

A prize boost was conducted on behalf of Centurian Arnold Duncan by Centurians Nelson Dixon and Leroy Boyd. The winners were Miss Annie Walker and Mrs. Robt. Woods.

Contributing to the evening's entertainment were Mr. Clarence Morgan, who rendered two vocal solos, accompanied by Miss Annie Walker, who also contributed a piano solo; and an interesting quiz presented by Centurian F. Erle Helmer.

No business was done during the meeting, but the secretary, Centurian Chester Robinson, announced that the next Blue Cross payment would become due at the December meeting, also that new members could be taken on now, if application was made by November 26th. New policies would be effective from Jan. 18th next.

Letters to the Editor

UNFAIR CRITICISM

Winchester, Ont.,
November 22nd, 1948.

The Editor, Winchester Press,

Dear Sir:—At the last meeting of the Women's Institute, the Rev. Leon B. G. Adams, in a public address to the members of the branch, is alleged to have criticized the Public Library and the manner in which the President and the members of the Board have been conducting its affairs.

Mr. Adams, in his address on "Citizenship," is reported to have said that good reading material was essential to good citizenship; that he had paid one visit to our public library, and did not care if he ever went back again. After spending a short time in the library, his criticisms were that there was no catalogue of the books on the shelves, there was no way of finding the books, and no way of telling when the library was open to the public.

As he did not see fit to bring his criticisms to me or to any member of the board, before airing them in public, I must answer them through the medium of your paper.

I consider the criticisms to be unfair, and made without proper consideration, or a true knowledge of the reading material which is available to anyone who cares to become a member of the Winchester Public Library. I am ready at any time to accept constructive criticism, as are the other members of the board, but I cannot allow any false impressions to be gathered which may reflect on the many hours of unselfish devotion of outstanding citizens who have given of their time and talents to build up this library for more than a quarter of a century.

It is true that we do not have an up-to-the-minute catalogue of the books. This question has often been brought up, but the cost of its preparation has always been out of proportion to its usefulness. Miss Emma Gardner does have, however, a catalogue of all the books on the shelves and will be glad to show them to anyone. Mr. Quart, the librarian, will be pleased to assist members to locate books, and the library does open at regular hours, which have been advertised in the Winchester Press or may be obtained from Mr. Quart or any member of the board.

In addition to the current books among which you will find fiction by all the authors of today which have been carefully selected, you can find the works of Dickens, Scott, Thackery, Stevenson, Barrie, Kipling, Anthony Hope, Jules Verne, Crockett, George Elliott, Hughes, Conan Doyle, Parkham, Hocking and Henty, to name a few. Volumes by the poets from the pens of Shelley, Wardsworth, Scott, Moore, Burns, Byron, Milton, Dante, Homers Odessy, etc. Many books of the latest editions are at the present time being catalogued and numbered and will be placed on the shelves shortly, and we seriously recommend them for your reading pleasure and for the improvement of your mind.

May I say in conclusion that as the President of the Library Board for the past three years, I realize that I have not done too much for its advancement. However, the other members of the board have devoted much of their time to the library work, and during the past 27 years we have had as presidents, the Rev. G. Oliver Davies, who was in office for nine years; Mrs. J. D. Stewart, M.A. B.Ss., for six years; Mr. J. D. Stewart, Mrs. J. E. Singleton, the late J. H. Ross, a former editor and reeve of the village, and the late Mrs. J. A. McDougall. To these outstanding citizens must go the greater part of the credit for the present high standing of the Winchester Public Library, attested to by the Chief Inspector of Public Libraries.

F Erle Helmer.

Nomination Meeting Here Friday Evening

A Public Meeting for the nomination of candidate for Reeve, four Councillors and three Public School Trustees for the Village of Winchester will be held in the local town hall tomorrow (Friday) evening, commencing at 7 o'clock. The nomination period will last for one hour, after which members of the Council and new aspirants for Municipal offices will address the meeting. All ratepayers are urged to be present.

Reeve Fader states that during the present year, he received 332 complaints or requests from citizens, seeking special favours. He urges those who have complaints to make to attend the nomination meeting and air their grievances.

Owing certain changes in the Municipal Act, the Council is no longer obliged to issue a financialstatement before nomination, but one will be published after the books are audited at the end of the year.

So far there has been little excitement over municipal politics, and although several members of the present Council have stated that they will not stand for re-election, anything can happen before the time for qualifications expire.

If an election is necessary, it will be held on Monday, December 6th.

FEED NEWS

"STONEMO" GRANITE GRIT

"Stonemo" Granite Grit is used in most of the larger flocks because it saves feed and promotes higher production.

"Stonemo" is classed as an "insoluble" grit. It will not dissolve like the softer grit. For that reason it will serve its purpose better and last longer than ordinary grit.

This granit grit should be kept before the laying flock at all times. Records show that it will save feed and promote higher production.

"Stonemo" is put up in 100 lb. bags and sells at $1.35 a bag.

OYSTER SHELLS

Laying flocks need a constant supply of Oyster Shells as well as grit. Avoid calcium deficiency and soft shells by providing good quality Oyster Shells.

"Chesapeake" Triple Screened brand is made from lime shells and the hens like it better than reef shell. It is well screened—no waste.

Sells at $1.40 a bag.

LADY CLUTTERBUCK OPENS

Lady Clutterbuck, wife of Sir Alexander Clutterbuck, High Commissioner for the United Kingdom, and her daughter, Miss Anne Clutterbuck, attended the Bazaar and Tea, sponsored by the Ladies' Guilds of Holy Trinity Church, Chesterville, and the Church of St. Matthias, Winchester, at the Community Hall, Chesterville, on the afternoon of November 16th.

Present to welcome Her Ladyship were The Rev. L. B. G. and Mrs. Adams, Mrs. J. Sutherland, Mrs. H. Barkley, Miss G. Fairbrass, and Mrs. D. Blair and Mrs. R. MacPherson, of Winchester.

A short address of welcome to Lady Clutterbuck and the many guests present was given by the Rector. Mrs. Sutherland, President of Holy Trinity Guild, presented Her Ladyship with a watercolour painting of Canadian wild-flowers, executed by Mrs. A. A. Acheson as a token of appreciation for her presence and in remembrance of her first official visit to the parish.

Lady Clutterbuck replied briefly, thanking the Guilds for their gift and for the invitation to open the Bazaar. She then declared the Bazaar officially open.

After visiting the many attractive stalls, Lady Clutterbuck and her daughter had tea with the officers of the two Guilds. Mrs. Leon Adams poured tea at the headtable, which was tastefully decorated with bright yellow mums and tall green tapers.

Mrs. J. Wray and Mrs. F. Gibbons were in charge of a stall for St. Matthias' Guild. During the afternoon, Miss Mary MacPherson was one of the young artists who rendered a piano solo.

The visitors were welcomed by the principal, Mr. Harry Potter. Other teachers on the staff are Mrs. James Blair, Misses Gwen Fraser, Olive E. Hughes and Maude Edgerton. Afternoon tea was served in the home economics room under the direction of Miss Edgerton, assisted by Norma O'Neill, Joyce Patterson, Marion McVey and Beryl Tavender, all Grade VIII students.

For Parents Only

(By Nancy Cleaver)

HELPING THE SHY CHILD

"Jean is so shy, I just dread when she should start to school. She does not seem at ease with other children and she positively dreads being left alone with a strange grown-up! I I wish I knew how to help her, but the more I urge her to be friendly the less she seems to want to mix with others!"

Mothers who have the problem of a very shy son or daughter do well to do all they can to solve this difficulty before a child enters school. It is true that a shy child often suffers from too much parental attention. Seldom does a very shy child belong to a large family, but likely he is an "only child." He feels his mother's anxious interest constantly focused on his actions and this tends to make him self-conscious and self-centred. But at the same time, mothers cannot let a very shy child "muddle along" hoping that time will cure this handicap.

The shy child is usually one who has lacked plenty of opportunity to play with other youngsters and to get to know adults outside his immediate family circle. Sometimes he has been subjected to too repressive and strict discipline. More often his parents are too fearful of harm befallin him and they have adopted a too protective attitude to all he does.

"Don't climb so high, you may fall." "Be careful or you'll hurt yourself." These are the type of admonitions he is constantly receiving from his mother. Much of the need for change lies in the parent's treatment of the too-shy small child, rather than in the child himself.

The shy child should have the chance to play regularly with other children, even if this demands special planning. In a city or town, the small fry in the same block soon "sort down" together and have good times in each other's yards. The community play centres are a great help to children who are inclined to be shy because there they can enjoy the play equipment and gradually get to know the other boys and girls who spend their time there. But for a child in an isolated district or a farm home, a mother can arrange a "Visitor's Day" for a neighbour's child around the same age. The other child's mother will likely be willing to take a turn looking after her child, and so the shy child has the opportunity to play with a chum at home and also visit at the chum's home.

The habit of arranging for a "baby sitter" occasionally in the daytime, an older girl or woman who likes chidren and knows how to play with them, is a help to a child of a retiring nature. Friendly relatives, aunts or a grandmother also strengthen a child's liking for other grown-ups beside his parents, whom he can trust and whose company he enjoys. The mother who prides herself on never leaving her child with anyone else, is not really preparing him to grow beyond the earliest dependent stage of childhood. As a child gets older, if he is entrusted with small errands, such as going to the store for a loaf of bread, this builds up his self-confidence. He needs praise and re-assurance for these excursions by himself, or for times when he has made a real effort to be friendly to a caller.

An adult visiting at a home where there is a very shy child should never comment on it, but should chat pleasantly with the child without expecting him to reply unless he feels like it. Children often enjoy some article they are wearing being admired, and many a visitor has found "What nice shoes you have!" a splendid introduction to an acquaintance with a child who is bashful.

ANOTHER ARREST

Provincial police said last Thursday they had arrested William Hanes of Matilda Township, in connection with investigation into the activities of an alleged large-scale rustling ring. Arrested previously and awaiting trial for cattle theft in that district are George Armstrong, of Edwardsburg township, and Kenneth Jackson, of South Gower township.

There's extra insulation in doors . . . extra insulation at seams and joints . . . extra insulation in the roof.

It is not by chance that Chevrolet's bodies by Fisher are so beautiful, so luxurious, so safe! Behind each body is forty years of motor-car coachcraft experience . . . forty years of building master bodies for precision-minded Canadians. To matchless craftsmanship have been added the methods and the metals of modern body engineering. Today, in your Chevrolet Body by Fisher, you are protected by steel welded to steel . . . you are cushioned by materials that add ease and relaxation to every driving mile. W. H. S. NEWS NOTES

(By Pringle Thomas)

W. H. S. Wins EOSSA Championship

Winchester High School's rugby team wound up a successful season of rugby this year when they defeated Morrisburg by a score of 27-10 on Wednesday last. The game was very well played, as is so often the custom when these two rugby rivals are up against each other. The windy field made passing plays erratic, and so both teams were at a disadvantage. For Winchester, Marshall, Justus, Loveless, Porteous and Morgan got the touchdowns, with Stitt and Ing getting the counters for Morrisburg. Bill Olive converted two touchdowns for Winnchester. The winning of this last game over Morrisburg gave Winchester a clean record of no defeats during the regular season. The undefeated champs are now champions of the Eastern Ontario Secondary Schools Association, Central Section, Group C. The line-ups were:

Morrisburg—Snap, Conners; ends, McHaffy and Campbell; halves, Stitt and Clark; quarter, Flynn; subs., Hill, Ing, Hummell, Martin; Coach, Casselman.

Winchester—Snap, Olive; ends, Carkner and Porteous; halves, Kennedy and Loveless; quarter, Hunter; subs., Justus, Feltham, Marshall, Morgan; Coach, A. Fisher.

Referee, Casselman; Umpire, Melvin.

MRS. J. J. McKENDRY, OTTAWA, ADDRESSES W. C. T. U. MEMBERS

Mrs. J. J. McKendry, of Ottawa, well-known Temperance worker, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the local Women's Christian Temperance Union, held in the United Church S. S. Hall last Wednesday afternoon. There was a good attendance at the meeting, which was presided over by the president, Mrs. T. J. Keyes, of Winchester Springs.

"Women's beverage rooms are the curse of this province and are a contributing factor in increased divorces, broken homes, juvenile and adult delinquency, suffering and even death of innocent children," said Mrs. McKendry, during her interesting address on the liquor traffic. "We must call upon our Christian leaders to combat the evil of the liquor traffic, let them give utterance in ringing tones and instead of mincing, let them be menacing," she said.

"The liquor traffic is protected by the people's ignorance, so let us combat it in the day schools, Sunday schools, in our churches and with an educational program."

At the close of her address, Mrs. McKendry was thanked on behalf of the W. C. T. U. by the president.

Members of Brinston and Inkerman Unions were guests at this meeting.

The Scriptures were read by Mrs. I. P. McIntosh, while Mrs. P. Durant took charge of the clip-sheet, Mrs. Karl Helmer led in prayer, and Rev. Iver MacIver, of St. Paul's Church, Mr. B. Richardson, pastor of the local Baptist Church, and Rev. N. J. Thomas, of the United Church, took part in the meeting.

During the musical part of the program, a solo was sung by Mrs. Dalton Robinson, of Winchester Springs, with Mrs. Byron Steele at the piano. Instrumental numbers were played by Mary MacPherson, Winnie Deeks, Jean McRoberts and Miss Annie Walker.

At the close of the meeting, dainty refreshments were served, and during the social hour a program of musical numbers was presented.

BOYS' RALLY AT KEMPTVILLE WELL ATTENDED

On Saturday, November 20th, the annual Boys' Rally for Dundas and Grenville was held in the United Church, Kemptville. This Boys' Rally was sponsored by the Dundas-Grenville Boys' Work Board, for boys of all denominations.

There were 73 boys registered, and 14 ministers and boys' leaders from 24 different churches in the two counties. All shared in the interesting programme of the day. The boys especially enjoyed the theme talks of the day given by Mr. H. K. Pullen, of Ottawa, Chairman of the Ontario Boys' Work Board. Other items on the programme were a period of study on the theme, "How Can We Know Christ?" sing-songs, group games, and pictures of Rideau Hill Camp in action. These pictures were provided by Mr. Clair VanAllen, of Mountain, who presented movies, and Mr. Eldon Fennell, of Winchester, who showed some very beautiful colored slides. There was time also to hear most of a period of the rugby game, broadcast from Ottawa.

Pringle Thomas, of Winchester, was elected chairman for the rally, and Clair Bailey, of Inkerman, was elected secretary. Three candidates for Older Boys' Parliament were present. Keith Matthie, of Algonquin, has been declared a member of the Boys' Parliament for Grenville by acclamation. Pringnle Thomas and Malcolm Fairfield are candidates for Dundas. On Saturday these candidates gave their campaign speeches, and next Saturday, November 27th, one will be elected to represent the boys of Dundas County.

KENMORE W. I. DONATES $50.00 TO WINCHESTER HOSPITAL

Mrs. R. E. Kinkade was hostess to the Kenmore branch of the Women's Institute, held on Tuesday evening of last week. The president, Mrs. Robinson, was in charge, assisted by Mrs. N. Carkner as secretary. There were 15 members and several visitors present. The roll call was answered by each member demonstrating "Something made from nothing." This was very interesting.

A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. A. Clarmo for printing the 1948-49 programmes. Mrs. Dalgleish again expressed her thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness and delightful gift of the Institute members on her 50th wedding anniversary. She also gave an inspiring report of the annual convention held recently in the Chateau Laurier.

The Branch voted $50.00 to the Winchester District Memorial Hospital and Miss A. MacTavish and Mrs. N. Carkner were the committee appointed to contact Mr. Chester Robinson, Winchester, regarding the use of the $50.00 donation.

It was decided to have the next meeting on December 14th and that each member should bring 50 cents for Christmas Cheer boxes for the shut-ins, instead of the first planned exchange of Christmas gifts.

Mrs. S. Fisher gave a very interesting reading on "Buiding," while Mrs. W. R. Wilson capably dealt with the motto: "The world is taking your photograph, look pleasant please."

Lunch was served by Mrs. Lemoine, Mrs. Loney and Mrs. Kinkade, after which everyone enjoyed the rummage sale, which realized $8.50.

On Monday evening, Judge Allan Fraser, of the Family Court, Ottawa, was guest speaker in the Kenmore United Church at an open meeting of the Women's Institute. Judge Fraser impressed his audience with the tremendous increase in the work covered by his department. Last year, he had handled 500 family cases, 500 juvenile cases and 500 neglected children, dealing with every angle of each case. He reminded those of each case. He reminded those present that these were not all city cases, as his jurisdiction covered the county as well. He asked the co-operation and assistance of the organization in his work. He stressed the fact that community centres were the best possible places for children and grown-ups, and hoped Kenmore would be successful in getting its objective, "A Community Rink."

Mr. Don Hay, of Russell, favoured the gathering with two delightful solos, and the Carkner girls rendered trio selections.

A vote of thanks to Judge Fraser, Mr. Hay and the girls was given by Mrs. Roy McKeown.

Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Arbuthnot, Mrs. Clarmo and Mrs. N. Carkner.

WANT CEILING LIFTED

Dairymen at the regional meeting of the Creamerymen's Association at Kemptville, adopted a motion whereby the National Dairy Council will be asked to repeat efforts to have the butter ceiling lifted at the earliest possible moment. At the same time, however, delegates moved to ask the Dairy Council to urge the government to continue butter imports until "such time as our production is sufficient for consumer requirements."

Sunday In The Churches

By Rev. N. J. Thomas, B. Th., Church Editor

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 28th, 1948.

"A Fatal Lack."

The Northern Messenger quotes the following from the War Cry: "An artist was once asked to paint a pictude of a dying church. Instead of putting on the canvass a small, feeble, poor congregation in an old building, he painted a stately, modern edifice, through the open portals of which could be seen a richly carved pulpit, a magnificent organ, beautiful stained glass windows, ornate frescoings and perfect seating facilities.

Just within the entrance and guarded on either side by a "pillar" of the church in spotless apparel was a contribution plate of goodly workmanship for the offerings of fashionable worshippers.

And right above the plate, suspended from a nail in the wall, there hung a small box bearing the inscription, "Collection for Foreign Missions," and over the slot through which the contributions should have gone he painted a huge cobweb.

The editor of this column would like to know what you think should be the remedy for a dying Church, or how to make a living Church more alive and wholesome.
