CRUMBS from Graham's Loaf

We felt sorry for one of our daily contemporaries this week. A small slip in proofreading a Canadian Press story left this dominion in a new and exciting character. There in print was "the United States of Canada recommends some action on easier divorces . . ." Aside from the interesting attitude on easier divorces, we wondered out loud to the v.p. whether the Douks in B.C. included as part of the United States of Canada.

Of late we have been suffering from an ailment common to many. After a certain number of years have caressed the human animal, he has a tendency to go to pot. Suddenly we find that situation is sitting right in our own contented lap and something will have to be done about it. Urged by critical prods and sundry cracks from the women of the Castle, we are about to embark on a purely local austerity program. We have lived too high on the hog for our own silhouette, and it is time we dip down into the knobbier and less succulent meat.

There was a time in our burgeoning youth, when we ate anything, washed it down with water from the creek and tamped the whole situation solidly with slabs of pie a la mode. We became hungry in about thirty minutes after a meal and stayed hat way until feeding time arrived again. We stoked, stuffed, poured and packed enough food into our reservoirs to man the Light Brigade. Through it all we remained a steadfast 125 pounds, soaking wet, felt fine and smoked steadily to keep down the appetite.

The soft life of the local city finally caught up though. The appetite came within reason, probably because the stuff we dealt with here was not of the same heft and flavour as on the farm. We still had a lot of threshing to do, but that was separating wheat from chaff, blown about by hot air, not the winds from heaven. Eventually, we found we harboured a revolving revolt just below the belch factory, and unlimited quantities of milk and gloop did little for it. But it did start a slippage. Like a snow slide on a winter slope, the weight began to shift until suddenly the whole frontal area changed shape and settled into a new profile.

We have finally recognized that the extra bulge behind is not money overlooked in the pants pockets. And the time has come to wear loose and blousy shirts, unless a publisher's paunch predicates particular predilictions politically. The v.p. has opened the book and noted we are now divorced from tasty, tempting tid-bits, tucked tenderly between flaky pie crusts. We are also offered less gravies, less potatoes, less butter and in general, less of everything. There is no assurance the slipped chest will rise back to its former glory and leave a shrunken and toughened hull to face the world. There is positive assurance the diet is going to sour this Crumb's outlook on life.

Even so we have no intention of taking off into the wasteworld of canned reducers. When we have to sit down to a can opener and a tin of chocolate flavoured lunch, that will be the end. We will roar out to the west keep of the Castle, raise the draw bridge, and dip deep into our hidden store of fall-out shelter goodies. And just to spoil the record further we will wash the whole thing down with a foaming beaker of homemade brew, that we plan to run up from our recipe book. A little barley, a little malt, a spot of sugar, water from the well, mix and wait. An explosion felt any time now from the west side of the settlement will be one of two things. Either we have rebelled against the diet or the brew has blown up.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr and Mrs Clinton Presley, of Brockville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Janice, to Mr James Lionel Carlyle, youngest son of Mr and Mrs Walter B. Carlyle, Morewood. Marriage will take place in Wall Street United Church, Brockville, on Saturday, October 6, 1962. 52-1

DIES IN 101ST YEAR

Word has been received here that Miss Charlotte Helen Broadley, Nafferton, Eng., passed away in her 101st year. She was a cousin of the late Mrs A. A. Morris, of Chesterville.

First annual banquet at Morrisburg--

Premier John Robarts warns party to prepare for Ontario election

Ontario's Premier John Robarts issued a call-to-arms to Progressive Conservative supporters, urging them to begin immediately their campaign work for the next provincial election.

Speaking at Morrisburg to some 350 people at the first annual banquet of the Grenville-Dundas Progressive Conservative Women's Association, the premier stated: "In the next year or so, we will go to the people. Now is the time to examine your organization and put your house in order.

"You must encourage workers to start campaign activities at once," he added. "Be prepared and victory will follow."

Mr Robarts also lent support to the federal government's dollar devaluation move, noting that the measure had brought a 13-15 per cent increase in tourist business across the province and 33 per cent increase to Seaway Valley.

The premier reviewed the special tax assistance being received by the province in the form of educational grants and assured those at the banquet that the present provincial government is "looking to the needs of the future with new policies and new measures to meet the problems of the 1960's and 1970's."

Speaking on the increase in tourism Premier Robarts pointed out that during the past summer some 2,000,000 people vacationed in the Seaway Valley area.

"There were 50,000 more people at Upper Canada Village than last year and 60,000 more at campsites, bringing an average increase in business of 28 per cent," he said.

In his review of educational grants, he indicated that these grants will increase in the future in a move to alleviate the heavy burden of taxation. He noted that in 1944 educational grants in Grenville-Dundas totalled less than $100,000 whereas in 1961 grants amounted to $1,500,000.

Mr Robarts said the current Ontario government combines youth and action with age and experience to give effective, energetic administration.

He said a government should always present a true picture with no false promises.

"Expenditures must give more in human betterment and opportunity and our administration is aiming at this betterment through promotion of welfare in the field of education, the major problem of today since 40 per cent of the population is 18 years or younger," he said.

Mr Robarts also spoke briefly on the province's highway program stating that when the trans-provincial program is completed the government will carefully consider diverting funds into municipalities.

He was introduced by Hon. F. M. Cass, Q.C., M.P.P., Grenville-Dundas, and Minister of Municipal Affairs.

Others attending the banquet included Hon. Irwin W. Haskett, M.P.P. Ottawa South, Minister of Reform Institutions; James Auld, M.P.P. Leeds, and Mrs Jean Casselman, M.P. Grenville-Dundas.

Premier John Robarts of Ontario made a visit to Eastern Ontario last week. He attended and was the featured speaker at a rally in Morrisburg and then attended another function in Cornwall. His mode of transportation was as modern as his ideas. Here shown in a photo by Smith of Morrisburg is the premier accompanied by James Ault, MLA, as they docked from a seaplane at Long Sault.

Chesterville Volunteer Fire Brigade got in the news a while back by topping the mutual aid area in working points for the season. At a meeting held recently in Cornwall, they were presented with the Jack MacMillan Trophy, presented by the local oil dealer here. Pictured here are some of the members of the brigade admiring the fine trophy. From the left they are: Walter Whittaker, Harold N. G. Merkley, McMillan Beckstead, fire chief John Hehir, Al Kilby, Wilson Fyke and Lloyd Fyke.—Record Photo.

More school tenders

This week saw more tenders opened, this time for the proposed Chesterville Public School. They were opened Wednesday evening, too late for the results to be known in this newspaper until next week. In conversation with the board chairman, Lorne Thompson, we understand the bidding will be close, if the number of tenders received is any indication.

Up on the Ridge, Sullivan Brothers Construction equipment is being readied to begin the excavation sub-contract for Angus Robertson Ltd., the primary contractor. It would now appear that April 1st, 1963 is a reasonable date to see completion of the school. If nothing unforseen occurs, the exodus of school pupils to the Ridge would then start after the Easter holidays.

Ducks become targets this Saturday

This newspaper is willing to bet a lot of ducks will be scared but otherwise uninjured come daylight on Saturday. With the hunting season opening on the 22nd, a large number of local enthusiasts will take to the river and bush, looking for a target preferably not flying too high, too fast or too suddenly. Even so, the opening day is the one the ammunition companies love. More powder is burned that day than any other, with hardly any effect on the population of local fauna.

Very likely the editor of this family journal will be numbered among the targeteers.

Ted Fawcett dead at Trenton

It was learned at the end of the week of the tragic death of a former Chesterville native, Ted Fawcett, son of Mr and Mrs Spearman Fawcett of the Ridge. He died at Trenton, Ont. His wife, the former Vivian LaSalle, a daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Elgar LaSalle, was visiting friends here at the time accompanied by one of her daughters. The Fawcett family numbers ten with the youngest 3 and the eldest 24.

The Canadian Press story read as follows:

"Police said Saturday a 42-year-old father of ten shot himself in the head Friday night while playing a game of Russian roulette in front of his 16-year-old son.

"Ted Fawcett, who recently retired from the RCAF as an armorer and demolitions expert, put the revolver to his head three times before killing himself.

"After pulling the trigger twice he offered the gun to his son who refused it.

"Police said Fawcett and his son, Charles, were sitting in their home when Fawcett suggested the game."

Store rented to Eastern Breeders

The Gillard store, empty now for some time since the departure of a furniture company, has been rented again. In conversation with the owner, Bert Gillard, we learn that Eastern Breeders have taken over the front half. It will be ready for occupancy by November 1st. The store will be partitioned and it is understood Coyne's Hardware is interested in renting the remaining half of the store.

Eastern Breeders will station about half a dozen of their technicians here in the future to take care of the needs of the dairy industry.

ELMA SUPPER TEENS HOLD SECOND METTING

The second meeting of Elma Supper Teens was held on Saturday, September 15th, in the Elma Church hall.

The meeting opened with the 4-H pledge followed by minutes of the last meeting. The roll call was answered by seven members.

Marjorie Casselman and Marie McIntosh demonstrated how to prepare a dish of fish scallop. Beverley McIntosh and Janice Gow prepared a thin white sauce to be used for cream of tomato soup.

After some notes from the leaders, a delicious supper was enjoyed. The meeting was adjourned until Saturday, September 22.

High School News

Last Wednesday at 12.30 p.m., a bus bearing the C.H.S. band, majorettes and Mr Hubenig, left to put on a performance at South Mountain District Fair. While there, they played twice and looked at several exhibits. On the way home a hidden talent was exposed. Mr Hubenig sings — and we all enjoyed it. We sang most of the way home and even Mr Hummel, our driver, joined in. It was agreed that we had had a "wild" time.

Friday at noon Carol Maxwell, head majorette, held a meeting with the new members of the Majorette corps. The membership is going up.

The Cheerleaders also welcomed two new girls into the ranks. They are Barbara Plantz and Sylvia Bowman. The cheers used now are designed for six girls, so for the time being, the extra girls will be used as spares. The regular cheerleaders have been busy every available moment working on their entries for the ONDAA which will be held in Chesterville this year.

This season the cheerleaders are going to do a lot of cheering. Mr Hubenig has had the football club out morning, noon and night, trying out new methods and teaching the newer members. Also the club is now in a football league with Iroquois, Mountain, Winchester, Kemptville, Finch and Morrisburg. This means we should play more than the two games of last year when we were not in the league

There was a track and field meeting and practice at the school on Saturday morning for those interested.

Some time this week construction of our new school on the Ridge is to begin. It is hoped it will be completed for the school year 1963 - 64.

Wednesday, Grade 13 had the nominations for Students' Council. The elections will be held Friday.

Peter Manley injured

Peter Manly, M.P.P. for Stormont, was taken to Winchester Memorial Hospital early Monday morning after the cattle he was herding into the stable stampeded and threw him against a large stone.

His condition is not believed serious. He was taken to hospital suffering from bruises, a wrenched back and shock.

The accident happened about dawn when Mr Manley was taking the cows home from pasture for the morning chores.

90th birthday

The "Record" joins the many friends of Mrs J. M. Shaver, Russell, in offering her congratulations on her 90th birthday which she will celebrate on Saturday, September 29. Mrs Shaver was a former resident of Morewood.

Receives contract

An $80,000 contract has been awarded by Ontario Hydro to Roads Resurfacing Co. Ltd., of Chesterville, for reconstruction of 13,000 feet of sidewalk on Hawkesbury's Main Street.

Eight companies submitted tenders.

A Canadian survey has shown one out of every four tires in use to be defective, says the Ontario Safety League.

To commemorate discoverer of McIntosh Red Apple at Dundela

On Saturday, September 22, commencing at 2 p.m., an historical plaque commemorating John McIntosh, discoverer of the McIntosh Red Apple, will be unveiled on the farm of H. A. MacIntosh, Dundela, Dundas County. This plaque is one of a series being erected throughout the province by the Department of Travel and Publicity, acting on the advice of the Archaeological and Historic Sites Board of Ontario.

Saturday's ceremony is being sponsored by the township council of Matilda, whose reeve, M. W. Zeron, will act as program chairman. Among those taking part in the ceremony will be Dr G. F. G. Stanley of the Royal Military College, Kingston, a member of the province's Historic Sites Board; R. Smith, warden of the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, and E. K. Pearson, agricultural representative of the Ontario Department of Agriculture for Dundas County. The plaque will be unveiled by the Honourable Fred M. Cass, Q.C., Ontario's Minister of Municipal Affairs, and Dr Pember MacIntosh, great-grandson of John McIntosh. The Rev C. A. Addy, minister of Brinston United Church, will perform the dedication.

The McIntosh Red Apple is well and favourably known to Canadians, and has achieved a world-wide reputation. To understand its history, one must go back to the early days of settlement in this province.

John McIntosh, the discoverer and original propagator of this apple, came to Canada from the United States in 1796. His parents had emigrated earlier from Inverness, Scotland, and settled in the Mohawk Valley, N.Y., where John was born in 1777. He married Hannah Doran and lived for a time in Upper Caanda beside the St. Lawrence River east of the present community of Iroquois. In 1811 he exchanged his land for an underdeveloped farm lot on the 5th concession of Matilda Township.

There he found the runs of a house and a small clearing covered with second growth timber, indicating that some unknown early settler had attempted to farm there before him.

While clearing his new property, John McIntosh found 20 or more small apple trees. These he replanted in the area he had laid out for a garden. One of them, possessing superior fruit, survived, and it is from this historic tree that the famous McIntosh Red Apple spread throughout the world.

John's son, Allan, established a well organized apple nursery, and propagated and promoted the new series extensively. Its

OPINIONS . . .
OURS AND OTHERS

A school rises

This week a sign appeared on a fence. It made the announcement that a construction company was soon to be at work erecting a new high school. And so, on the Ridge, the new school to serve the students of the area will come into being.

Back in 1951 when the district took its present form, a new central school was a dream. Outlining the dream were certain definite ideas that made the thought of consolidation palatable. Stern parochial ideas are the privilege of any district or municipality, and North Dundas has its share of just such ideas. At that time, one of the planks of the young district board was developed on the thought of a central school when the time came to tie the whole school population into a single central unit. A site was to be in the centre of the area only, and a lot of midnight oil was burned over that knotty problem.

It has taken eleven years, a disastrous fire at Winchester, some resignations and a great deal of horsetrading to arrive at the point in time where the district now finds itself. Combine the above-mentioned sideways approach to centralization with a new Ontario concept for secondary education, and suddenly we find many of the problems have disappeared overnight.

Six municipalities are about to embark on an education experiment never tried before in old Dundas. The new school will be one of the new ones built under the Federal-Provincial plan to provide a fuller technical-trades education to those who wish it and a complete curriculum for those entering university or college. It will not solve the messy yearly problem of engaging teachers and assistants but at least the cry will not rise that small schools can't keep good teachers; now it will be that we are too far from the big towns to keep good teachers.

The new school will be a big business; its cost will come to nearly $1,500,000 and the teaching staff will take in all the present teachers of Winchester and Chesterville and a considerable number more. It will have more janitors alone than we had teachers at Chesterville High School when we bowed to higher learning.

We offer nothing but a fervent prayer for the success of the new North Dundas Central High School. While it is a compact, and not a full-size composite model, the school will offer a wide spectrum of education to over 600 students. May it prosper.

That nurses' residence

On April 13, 1961, this newspaper reported the bequest of a large sum of money. The disposition of the estate of the late Harvey Dillabough allowed for the construction of a nurses' residence in Winchester.

We have yet to hear of any further plans for the construction of the residence. Perhaps the Hospital Board has plans, but if anything is in the works, it is a well-kept secret.

A two-year term for council?

This newspaper has not been too enthusiastic about a two-year-term for local municipal councils. This year, as in other years, the matter has come up for discussion, and as in other years, nothing has been done about it.

It is difficult to get a public opinion about the matter. Unless the question is put directly on a ballot, councils generally vote on the matter themselves at the proper time and by resolution make the law.

It would be interesting to hear a letter or two on the subject. The columns of this newspaper are open to letters and we would be glad to publish them as long as they are signed to us although we are willing to offer a nom de plume to the public.

The strongest argument in favour of a two-year-term is that councillors and reeves need a seasoning period before they can do their best for their community. There is some truth in the statement, but it must be remembered that small local governments are run primarily by the book as outlined by the Ontario Municipal Act. It is interpreted to council through directives, orders and other approaches until local government spends half its time answering questionnaires and the rest of the time dealing with intensely local things like ditches, drains and streets. Directing the day to day affairs is the village clerk, and his responsibilities make up for any lack of seasoning a first-year councillor may have.

Any ideas on the matter? Write us a letter.

Time to think about grass mixtures

It will soon be time for fall seeding of lawns, say horticulturists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture, and one of the major considerations is choosing the best seed mixture for your particular lawn. This choice can mean the difference between a good lawn and a very poor one.

What should you look for? First look at the lawn-site. Is it well drained? Is it in a shady spot or full sun? How about fertility? These are some of the factors you should consider if you are to make your final choice of seed correctly. A seed mixture will do the best job.

A basic ingredient should be Kentucky bluegrass. This grass has proven itself in this part of Canada. Under average conditions, 4 parts bluegrass (by weight) to 1 part colonial bent is a good mixture. Red top may be substituted for all or part of the colonial bent to lessen the cost. Sow at the rate of 3 to 5 pounds be 100 square feet. If the conditions tend to be moist and shady, replace about half of the bluegrass with rough - stalked bluegrass. For dry shady areas, creeping red fescue should be used.

If you have a dry, light soil, the fescue should predominate. Sow the fescue mixture at the rate of 5 pounds per 1000 square feet.

Where the soil is very poor, dry and gravelly, use Canada bluegrass.

Always try to use Kentucky bluegrass whenever possible. Substitutions should only be used when it is impossible to get enough water to keep the bluegrass going.

What about mixtures? Many are good, but only buy the best. Be sure to buy only those that specify the seed used. Remember, your lawn should last for many years, so skimping on the seed is poor economy. Cheap mixtures often contain weed seeds and other foreign material, and frequently give poor germination.

CUT IN AIR FARES COMING?

Airlines which have spent the summer flying the Atlantic at half their load capacity, may be ready to lower the price of the ticket says The Financial Post. Watch for the word this autumn. When it comes to pricing airlines live by the dictum that the size of the market is determined largely by the cost of the ticket.

The BIBLE TODAY . . .

The demand for the Bible rises dramatically during periods of unrest, the annual report of the Board of Managers of the American Bible Society published recently revealed.

"Once again it is important to note the astonishing increase in Scripture circulation in areas of political tension and revolution," the report states. "Cuba and Congo are cases in point; in the former, distribution increased during 1961 from 611,993 to 906,660 Scriptures, and in Congo there was an increase of over 75,000 Scriptures. The Bible clearly brings God's power to men who are seeking freedom from oppression, whether it be political or spiritual."

During 1961, the Society distributed over 24,000,000 copies of Scriptures in over 100 countries on six continents. It was the largest annual total since the Society was founded.

The 23 members of the United Bible Societies, to which the Canadian Bible Society belongs, helped to bring about a distribution of more than two million copies in three countries and more than a million in two others. They were India, 2,791,297; Japan, 2,505,305; Argentina, 2,041,180; Brazil, 1,595,312; and Korea, 1,039,647.

Search is on for locally-produced souvenirs

The search is on in Seaway Valley for new and different locally-produced souvenirs. Whether they be made of wood, glass wool or what-have-you, the sales potential is tremendous. In fact the Ontario Government is sponsoring a "Made-in-Ontario" souvenir contest to be held in the spring. At the monthly meeting of the Seaway Valley Travel Council, held September 6th in Alexandria, it was decided to put forth every effort to develop the manufacture of souvenirs with a distinctly local flavour. These might include special packaging of local foodstuffs such as honey, cheese, berries, apple products, maple-syrup, relishes, and so-on. All members were urged to seek out local craftsmen and women, woodworkers, artists, weavers, and others who are able to create and produce novel souvenirs.

It was decided to continue the effort to have the present Highway No. 2 officially named "Seaway Valley Route" from Brockville to Bainsville, as a means of luring tourists off of Highway 401 when it becomes completed.

A brief was prepared for the Ontario Economic Council outlining steps for improving the area tourist-wise. Presentation date is September 15th.

Films on tourism, how to treat visitors, knowing your ocmmunity, and other interesting and educational subjects are available through the Seaway Valley Travel Council, free-of-charge.

The lively meeting concluded with a decision to seek more members for the next year. The promotion and development of Seaway Valley deserves the active support of hundreds if we are to successfully compete with other wide-awake holiday areas.

M. M. Kastner, president, was in the chair, with many members from as far as Morrisburg, Chesterville, Lancaster, Berwick, and Cornwall in attendance.

To represent Stormont on tours

Two Stormont County young men have been selected to represent the county on two forthcoming tours.

Ian MacLean, RR3, Ingleside, has been selected as the Stormont County delegate on the Junior Farmers' United Nations tour. A graduate of Kemptville Agricultural School, Ian has been quite active in 4-H work, having completed 13 club projects. This year he has been very active as a 4-H Club leader.

Highlights of Ian's one-week tour will include a short stop at Niagara Falls, a visit to the University of Maryland and Beltsville Experimental Station, a tour of New York City, and a tour of the United Nations Building in New York. Ian will leave for New York on Sunday, September 23, and will return on Saturday, September 29.

John Casselman. RR1, Finch, has been selected to represent Stormont County on the 11th annual Soil and Land Use tour for Junior Farmers.

John is a graduate of Kemptville Agricultural School and has completed 15 club projects. He is operating the home farm.

John will visit farms in the Guelph area on his tour and will also tour the Soils Building at the Ontario Agricultural College.

YOUR EARLY PEEK AT '63 PROSPECTS

What happens to Ottawa's austerity program when the need to stimulate the Canadian economy clashes with moves to hold the dollar steady? Or what happens to the dollar if national policies are given priority over international obligations? These questions are raised by The Financial Post which says:

So far, most of Ottawa's emergency measures (which were inaugurated during a period of business expansion) have been restrictionist in nature. They include tight money, surcharges on imports and cutbacks in government spending. But the failure of 1962 to bring the Canadian economy close to capacity operation and high level employment, coupled with Canada's persistent and serious balance of payments problem, suggests these likelihoods for 1963: Indications are that there may be a decline in business and government spending on new plant and equipment —perhaps in the order of 5% — 6% from 1962's expected levels. Consumer spending on durables may be down by as much as 4% in 1963. Exports next year may not rise much, if at all, above 1962's record levels. This would be in sharp contrast with 1962's probable 10% — 12% advance and caused by the likelihood of a mild U.S. recession in 1963.

Such developments — which are very much in the realm of the possible — could have these effects in Canada: There could be a 5% — 7% decline in industrial production, seasonal factors discounted, from 1962 peaks. There could be a new postwar peak reached in unemployment. Seasonally adjusted, the 1963 peak could be as high as 9% of the work force. This compares with a high of almost 8% during the last ercession. There could be a minor fall-off in construction activity in 1963.

The emerging reality appears to be this: The Canadian economy will for many months be walking a tightrope between policies of financial restraint and policies of economic stimulation.

HOW THE FESTIVAL FLOPPED

One of the biggest tourist gambles in Canada's history has proved to be a resounding, expensive flop. There likely will be heated demands for an inquiry when MP's resume business in Ottawa, says the Vancouver correspondent of The Financial Post. The gamble: The Dawson City Gold Rush Festival which ended August 17. The biggest mutuel ticketholder: The federal government.

Elma Supper Teens hold first meeting

The first meeting of Elma 4-H Club was held on Saturday, September 8, 1962, in Elma Church Hall at 2 p.m. The name chosen was the Elma Supper Teens.

The first meeting was attended by five members, who were, Marie McIntosh, Janice Gow, Marjorie Casselman, Beverley McIntosh and Jean Barkley. The leaders are Mrs Donald Dillabough and Mrs Harold McIntosh.

Officers for the year are — president, Marie McIntosh; secretary, Janice Gow; press reporters, Jean Barkley, Chesterville Record; Marjorie Casselman, Winchester Press; Beverley McIntosh, Cornwall Freeholder.

It was decided to hold club meetings every Saturday at 2 p.m. in Elma Church Hall, until further notice.

Attend anniversary at Dundela

Mr and Mrs Lloyd Merkley attended the Silver Anniversary of Mr and Mrs Victor Riddell held at their home in Dundela on Saturday evening.

Recent guests at the Styles home were — Mr and Mrs Bob Walker and Son of Niagara Falls, Miss Shirley Styles and George Edward Styles of Athens, Mrs Annie Bowman, Church Rd., Mr and Mrs Ben Bowman, of Bouck's Hill and Mr and Mrs Albert Bowman of Chesterville.

Mr and Mrs Alton Lagrove and family of Brockville were weekend guests with Mr and Mrs Irwin Baker and family.

Mr and Mrs Milton Casselman of Morrisburg were recent guests with Mr and Mrs Ewart Stoddart and Basil.

Rev. L. Thomas of Winchester was calling on friends through here on Friday afternoon.

Mr and Mrs Lloyd Merkley and family and Miss Eileen Merkley attended the reception for Mr and Mrs G. A. Holmes held in Winchester Springs.

PLANTING CURRANTS AND GOOSEBERRIES

If you want to have a few currants or gooseberries in the garden, now is the time to start planning where to put them, advise horticulturists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Fall planting is generally to be recommended as both currants and gooseberries start growth very early in the spring. The time to plant is any time from when the leaves fall off to freeze up.

Prepare the ground well by digging to a depth of 12 to 18 inches, and work in some well rotted manure. Don't add any fertilizer till next spring, when you should apply about 1 pound of 10-10-10 to each five or six plants.

The best site for your plants is a cool, moist, but well drained, rich clay soil.

For planting, strong, well-rooted 1-year-old plants are best. Trim off any torn or broken roots and set the plants slightly deeper in the soil than they were in the nursery. Firm the soil well around the roots after planting.

Spacing? Plant red currants and gooseberries 4 feet by 4 feet, and the stronger growing black currants 5 feet by 5 feet.

Twilight is a time of special danger to drivers and pedestrians. Shortening days catch more home-bound motorists in the twilight trap. It takes practice and super-alertness to drive safely through the treacherous early evening hours. The Ontario Safety League suggests you drive slower when daylight begins to fade. Be especially alert for pedestrians — at this time of day, their distance vision is also impaired. Allow more time for passing other cars, to allow for possible misjudgement. And put on your headlights early — before it seems necessary.

The original concept of the Festival was to revive the adventurous days of '98, to preserve the historical aspects of the Yukon town, to boost tourism in the North and to give substance to a well-known "vision". But things started to go wrong. There was bad weather in Dawson. Private backing for the show fell down. The Festival's drive for funds produced poor results. The federal government was cajolled into becoming a theatrical "angel". In addition to its grants in aid of the old theatre and the old paddle-wheeler, it was entranced into putting $160,000 into the production of Foxy, a musical. The federal government was now in show business.

The show went ahead after this substantial rescue work and the curtain rose July 1 on tne farthest off-Broadway tryout in history. The show needed sellout houses to break even on weekly expenses of 16,000. Latest attendance figures: only one quarter of the hoped for 16,000 theatre goers actually saw the show. On Broadway the show would have closed promptly. This situation was near in Dawson when the cast was given its notice July 23. But the Yukon territorial Council also went into theatre business with a $212,500 federally guaranteed loan to keep Foxy and the Festival alive. All this added up to the federal government and the Yukon Council being angelic toward an American production for a total of $372,500.

Local weddings of interest

Stewart–Hutt

A white gown of pure silk organza over taffeta was chosen by Miss Leara Marlene Hutt for her marriage to Alan Dale Stewart at Chalmer's United Church, Finch.

The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Burns Hutt, Finch, and the groom is the son of Mr and Mrs Frank Stewart, Ingleside.

Rev Gordon Rajotte, of Finch, officiated. The church was decorated with baskets of pink gladioli for the occasion and Bill Hamilton, soloist, rendered the Lord's Prayer and "Because" during the ceremony and the signing of the register respectively. Mrs Earl Droppo was organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her floor-length gown was styled with an oval neckline appliqued with seed pearls and sequins and the long sleeves ended in points at the wrists. Floral appliqued detail accented the full skirt.

Her bouffant veil of tulle illusion fell from a silk organza rose headpiece and she carried a cascade of red roses and gardenias. Her only jewellery was a cultured pearl teardrop necklace, a gift of the groom.

Mrs Jean McGee attended her sister as matron of honour wearing a waltz-length dress of rose petu de soie over taffeta with matching pink accessories and she carried a nosegay of white Shasta daisies.

Duane Stewart, brother of the groom, was best man and ushering the guests to the pews were Clinton Hutt, brother of the bride, and Neil Stewart, brother of the groom.

The mother of the bride chose a brown silk organza Swiss over taffeta dress, beige accessories and yellow sweetheart roses en corsage. The groom's mother was wearing a beige Chantilly lace over dusty rose taffeta ensemble complemented by beige accessories and Talisman roses en corsage.

The bride travelled in a blue and white linen sheath with matching linen duster, red and blue accessories. She wore a corsage of Sweetheart roses.

The couple will reside at 11 Adolphus Street, Cornwall.

Guests from Cornwall, Ottawa, Arnprior, Toronto, Kingston, Bancroft, Agincourt, Montreal, Winnipeg and the surounding district attended the wedding.

Cuerrier–Beckstead

Rev S. B. Profitt of Ingleside officiated at the double ring ceremony uniting in marriage Margaret Beckstead and Guy Cuerrier.

Standards of summer flowers decorated Trinity United Church, Ingleside, for the occasion. Mrs Bryan McEwan was soloist and Miss Lena McLaren was organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Garnet Beckstead, of Ingleside, and the groom is the son of Mr and Mrs Wilfred Cuerrier, of Green Valley.

Miss Helen Beckstead was maid of honour for her sister and the Misses Linda and Irene Beckstead, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Maurice Cuerrier, of Verennes, Que., was best man for his brother and ushering guests were Bruce Beckstead, Newington, brother of the bride, and Bill LaSalle, of Cornwall.

Given in marriage by her father. the bride was wearing a gown of Italian silk organza over silk taffeta. The scalloped neckline was re-embroidered with sequins and seed pearls and long sleeves ended in points at her wrists. The full skirt was accented with a large bow at the back and side detail.

A tiara of pearls and sequins held a silk illusion veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses. Her only jewellery was a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

The senior attendant chose an orchid silk organza over taffeta gown, matching accessories and carried a nosegay of mauve chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids wore similarly styled gowns of lime nylon chiffon over taffeta, matching lime accessories and they carried nosegays of lime and white chrysanthemums.

The mother of the bride wore a green crepe sheer silk dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations. The mother of the groom chose a pale blue linen dress with white accessories and pink carnations en corsage.

Following a reception held at Trinity United Church hall the couple left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and points in the United States. For travelling the bride chose a mauve organza over floral cotton sateen ensemble with white accessories and an orchid en corsage.

The couple will reside at 827 Monte St. Hubert, St. Hubert, Que.

Guests from Varennes, Green Valley, Montreal, St. Hubert, Finch, Newington and Cornwall attended the wedding.

Prior to her marriage the bride was guest of honour at a shower held at Osnabruck Centre Hall.

Allison – Whitteker

Standards of white gladioli and mauve chrysanthemums decorated the altar of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Williamsburg, for the marriage ceremony of Erma Edith Whitteker and Andrew Thomas Allison. Rev. A. C. Blackwell officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony, Saturday, September 1.

The bride is a daughter of Mr and Mrs Bernard Whitteker of Williamsburg. The groom's parents are Mr and Mrs Ralph Allison of Inkerman.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor-length gown of white embroidered nylon over taffeta with a full skirt featuring scallops at the waitline with matching trim at the neckline and three-quarter-length sleeves. The neckline was accented with a dseign of seed pearls. Her waist-length veil of tulle illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a white Bible adorned with Talisman roses. Her jewellery was a single strand choker of cultured pearls with matching earrings, a gift of the groom.

Miss Joyce Mariner, maid of honor, chose a cap-sleeved street length dress of gold organza which opened from a centre in the bodice to reveal a gold taffeta underdress. Her picture hat and mitts were of gold taffeta and organza, matching her dress.

The bridesmaids, Miss Norma Allison, sister of the groom and Miss Judy Whitteker, sister of the bride, wore matching gowns of mauve taffeta and organza similar in design to that of the maid of honor Each of the bride's attendants wore a single-strand of pearls with matching earrings, the gift of the bride. The maid of honor carried a crescent shaped bouquets of bronze mums and wheat. The bridesmaids carried similar bouquets in deeper shades of bronze.

Laurie McIntosh, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dressof mauve taffeta, fashioned with three tiers, of mauve organza and a matching shoulder drape. Her headdress and mtits matched her gown and she carried a tiny puff of mauve net in which dainty bronze mums were inserted.

Reginal LaPorte of Prescott was best man. Ushers were Peter Bissell and Conrad McIntosh.

Receiving the guests at the reception held at the church hall following the ceremony were the bride's mother, Mrs Whitteker, wearing a gown of spic beige organza with matching three-quarter length duster. Her accessories were chocolate brown and she wore a corsage of Tallisman roses, and the groom's mother who chose a gown of wine paisley silk jersey featuring an accordian pleated skirt. She wore accessories in tones of beige and white and yellow roses en corsage.

To travel the bride donned a sheath gown of Alice blue silk, accented by a white lace overblouse and topped with a bolero jacket matching her gown. Her accessories featured a beige purse and shoes and and a pera white hat and gloves. Her corsage was of pink carnations. The couple left for a wedding trip to the Maritime Provinces.

Guests were present at the wedding from Peterborough, Niagara Falls, Quebec, Williamsburg and Chesterville.

TOO MUCH WORK MAY INJURE FREEZER

You may be tempted to overload your freezer during the season when fruits and vegetables are so plentiful.

If you don't know the freezer capacity, check the instruction book. It will list the load and also give directions that should be followed.

Frances Van Duyne, University of Illinois director of foods research, said overloading slows down freezing and may endanger the quality of foods by raising the freezer temperature.

Elma W.I. holds September meeting

The September meeting of the Elma W. I. was held in the Elma Church hall, on Tuesday evening last. It was opened in the usual way and then business was dealt with.

On October 1st and 2nd a short course on Copper Tooling will be held in the Elma Church Hall from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Colquhoun W. I. members will be invited to attend along with our W.I. members and friends.

It was moved and seconded that $25 be sent to the Winchester Memorial Hospital. The members were also reminded that Mrs Andrew McMillan is a patient in the Cornwall General Hospital. Mrs Donald Dillabough briefly explained the 4-H training school held at Winchester for two days. The 4-H club has now begun its fall project "The Supper Club" with seven girls attending.

The lunch convenors for next meeting are Mesdames A Folkard, D. J. Dillabough, Wilfred McMillan, D. A. Dillabough. For the October meeting everyone is asked to bring a stamped get-well card as a donation.

The meeting was then turned over to the convenor of Canadian Industries and Agriculture, Mrs D. A. Dillabough. The program was opened by all singing, "The Old Grey Mare." Mrs Dillabough then welcomed a number of 4-H girls; they had been asked to bring their 4-H books of different projects. These were on display.

Mrs D. J. Dillabough gave a reading, "Dobbin's Dwindling Days." Miss Marjorie Casselman and Beverley McIntosh in turn explained briefly their trip to the Central Canada Exhibition, sponsored through 4-H work. A reading was given by Mrs Edgerton Barkley, "Diversified Agriculure." Mrs D. A. Dillabough read an Antidote for a Sultry Day and The Value of a Smile. A contest closed the program with Mrs Alfred Carkner as winner.

Each one helping with the program was thanked and the meeting closed with the Queen. Lunch was then served.

Chesterville - - - Ontario

Eastern Breeders Incorp. appoint secretary-treas.

Eastern Breeders Incorporated, Kemptville, are pleased to announce the appointment of W. Glynn Thomas, of Gananoque, as secretary-treasurer.

Mr W. Glynn Thomas

Formerly secretary - treasurer of an Arnprior lumber firm, Mr Thomas brings to Eastern Breeders some thirty years experience in the accounting field. Mr Thomas is a veteran of World War II, having served with the Royal Canadian Army Pay Corps as Staff Captain and Audit Officer. Active in church work, he is also a member of the Gananoque Rotary Club and a Mason.

Eastern Breeders Incorporated was formed as a result of the amalgamation of Quinte District Cattle Breeding Association, Belleville, and Eastern Ontario Cattle Breeding Association, of Kemptville. This organization is presently offering service to nine breeds of cattle in 16 Ontario counties and five counties in Western Quebec.

Large Black and White show at Mountain Fair

One hundred and eighty-nine head of Holstein cattle were exhibited at the Dundas Black and White Show. The Show was held at Mountain Fair on September 12th.

Female classes were evenly filled with high quality cattle. The four classes for cows in milk brought out 13, 19, 10 and 16 head respectively.

From the 18 bulls exhibited, Judge Ray Wilson of Kenmore selected the entry of Lorne Strader, Brinston, as Grand Champion. The Strader bull, Elmside View Pabst Pride got the nod for championship over the first prize two year old, Rose Vega Truine Rocket. This bull owned by Allison Fawcett and Morton Stobo, Winchester, was made Reserve Grand Champion. The Junior Champion bull, Willola Big D, was exhibited by Ralph J. Fawcett, Winchester, while Lorne Henderson, Brinston, had reserve Junior Champion in Terrdale Intriger.

The Grand Champion cow was the lovely home bred three year old in milk, Fawcettdale Jo-Anne Reflector, exhibited by Allison Fawcett, Winchester. Topping a class of 19, this entry went on to the Championship over Maggie Pabst Walker which was made Reserve Grand Champion Female for Ralph Fawcett. This Reserve Champion had been winner in a class of 16 aged cows in milk.

Junior Champion Female was exhibited by Ralph J. Fawcett and Reserve Junior Champion by Harold W. Merkley, Chesterville.

The Premier Breeder and Premier Exhibitor Awards for the largest number of points on 10 head were both won by Hugh Blaine, Mountain.

Hospital Auxiliary meets at Winchester

The September meeting of the District Memorial Hospital Auxiliary was held in the hospital board room, with Mrs J. D. Campbell presiding. Thirty-one members answered the roll call.

The minutes of the last meeting before the Summer recess were read and approved.

The treasurer's report was given as follows: Receipts from the hospital fair held in June, $1,129.39; receipts for June, July and August, $11,292.26; disbursements for June, July and August. $3,691.16; balance, $7,601.10.

Miss Legris, R.N., director of nursing, gave her report showing 311 admissions, 323 discharges for August, 147 outpatients, 30 inpatients.

Miss Milne, reporting for the library committee, stated that new books had been marked and older ones repaired and the library would be ready for the patients very soon.

The memorial table purchased by the Auxiliary was on display at the meeting and should soon be installed in the hospital waiting room. The Memorial Fund now stands at $720.53.

Morrisburg unit will look after the tuck cart for October.

After a short business discussion the meeting was adjourned.

The Ontario Safety League reports that William Wanthouse of Irvington, N. J. has decided not to drive anymore, although he has never had an accident or received a ticket. He is 91, and has been driving for 66 years.

Mrs Wm. Sanderson presides at meeting St. Luke's Ladies' Aid

The September meeting of the Ladies Aid of St. Luke's Presbyterian church was held in the Sunday School room with Mrs William Sanderson presiding.

The devotional service was conducted by Mrs Hugh O. Cameron.

Reports of the bake sales and the Farmers school held during the summer were given by the treasurer Mrs Lorne Presley. Authority was given to the Manse Committee to purchase drapes for the Study.

A bake sale will be held on Saturday, September 29, in McQuaigs store, with Mrs W. G. Brownlee and Mrs Wm. McMaster as convenors.

The meeting closed with the Lords prayer repeated in unison.

Berwick W.I. holds September meeting

The September meeting of the Berwick Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs D. Meldrum.

The motto — If you go around with a chip on your shoulder, it's usually from the block above it.

The roll call was - name one thing you did to make your home a safer place to live in.

The secretary Mrs Anderson dealt with the business arising from the minutes and read a number of letters tnd thank-you notes. A number of members reported seeing the TV broadcast pertaining to institute work. The aprons shown at Newington Fair were on display. The aprons won second prize.

Plans were made for a booth at the local ploughing match.

Mrs Clair Robertson, convenor of Home Economics and Health organized a trip to the Children's Hospital at Smiths Falls to take place early in October.

The meeting was then turned over to the convenor of Safety, Mrs James Pollock. Mrs Pollock introduced the guest speaker Mr MacDonald from Ontario Hydro. He gave an interesting talk on Safety with Electricity, he also showed a film on the Hoded Neilson method of Artificial respiration.

Mrs Pollock thanked the speaker for a most interesting talk and presented him with a gift.

The meeting was then adjourned. Mrs Meldrum and her committee served a delicious lunch and a social hour was enjoyed.

Daily throughout the year Canada produces some 29,000 tons of pulp and paper.

Really fine rag paper has qualities which make it endure for centuries.

WHAT'S THE "INSTALMENT PLAN" WAY TO SAVE FOR THE FUTURE?

Suppose, for example, he has the makings of a concert pianist . . . or a scientist, a doctor, a lawyer, or a statesman. Now is the time to ensure that, when the time comes for it, you can afford his training. It's time to start looking after his future with the help of Scotiabank's Personal Security Program, or PSP—a protected savings plan that's exclusive with The Bank of Nova Scotia. Here's how PSP works: you select a savings goal (from $100 to $2,500), which you reach in 50 equal payments. As you save, you're life-insured for the full amount of your goal—at no added cost to you. When you reach your goal, you collect all you've saved, plus a cash bonus. PSP is the ideal way to save for any future, for a holiday abroad, or a boat, or a new home. Ask about PSP at your nearest Scotiabank.

Koob–Masterson

On Saturday, September 1, in St. Mary's Church, Chesterville, Helen Mary Masterson became the bride of LAC Daniel Charles Koob.

The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Wm. Masterson of Chesterville, and the groom's parents are Mr and Mrs Dominic Koob, Meacham, Saskatchewan.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony and celebrating the Nuptial High Mass was Rev. Fr. Richard Koob, O.S.B. of Meunster, Sask., brother of the groom.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a street length gown of white peau de soie with a fitted lace bodice and long sleeves. The bell-shaped skirt featured a back panel with three large satin roses. Her shoulder length bouffant veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a coronet of pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

The only attendant of the bride was her sister, Miss Sheila Masterson, she wore a gown of peacock blue peau de soie with matching headdress and carried a bouquet of shasta daisies.

Louis Koob, of Meacham, Sask., was best man for his brother. Ushers were Mr Al Morphy, brother-in-law of the bride and Harry Hinz, cousin of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece olive green sheath dress with rose and black accesories and a corsage of pink roses.

The groom's motner wore a dress of light navy wool with light blue accesories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Following the marriage ceremony a reception was held in the Legion Hall.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Western Canada. For travelling the bride chose a beige wool suit with brown and gold accessories and a corsage of bronze and yellow mums.

On their return, Mr and Mrs Koob will reside in Ottawa

Guests were present from — Meacham, Sask., Muenster, Sask., Toronto, Montreal, Goderich, Deep River and Ottawa.

C.A. McConnell

Charles Amon McConnell, a resident of Morrisburg for many years, died at Richville, N.Y. Mr McConnell had not been in the best of health for some time, but his death from a heart attack was unexpected. It was the cause of much regret to a wide circle of riends. He was in his 82nd year.

Born at Morewood, Amon McConnell was a son of the late Charles T. McConnell and his wife the former Jane Beattie. He received his education in area schools, and later, farmed in his home township for many years.

In 1928 he moved to the Morrisburg area where he resided until very recently. He married the former Ida Shaver of Grantley. She predeceased him in 1949.

He is survived by one brother, Alexander McConnell of Morewood, and several nieces and nephews. His only daughter died at birth.

Funeral service was held at the Jarvis Funeral Home, Morrisburg with Rev. W. J. March of Morrisburg United Church officiating, sasisted by Rev. D. L. Gordon of Morewood.

Interment was in the family plot at Fairview Cemetery, Morrisburg. Pall bearers were: Basil St. Pierre, Francis Serviss, Donald Canning, Edward Casselman, Archie Murphy and Stanley Stevens.

A good driver uses his car horn sparingly, says the Ontario Safety League. And he uses it only to warn — never to scold, or threaten, or bully, or advertize, or joke, or catch the attention of friends. And he never uses it to dissolve a traffic tie-up, because it doesn't work.

Pullets require some special attention when they come into the laying pen, say poultry management specialists with the Ontario Agricultural College. The change is usually a shock to the birds, and the type of feeders, waterers, and roosting facilities are all important in getting a young flock in peak production.

Chalmer's U.C.W. holds September meeting

Chalmer's U.C.W. held their September meeting in the S. S. hall on Wednesday evening. Miss Lillian Droppo had charge of the worship service, assister by Mrs Edgar MacLean and Mrs Walter Burd.

Mrs Gordon Ouderkirk presided for the business meeting. The treasurer reported an encouraging bank balance and a successful dinner had been served for a wedding in August. It was decided to hold the Autumn Thankoffering in conjunction with the October meeting. A cooking sale will be held in Mrs O. Shaver's porch on Saturday, Sept. 22 with Mrs H. Nugent and Mrs W. Burd in charge. A tentative date set for the fall bazaar was Thurs., Nov. 22.

Prayer by the president and a delicious lunch served by the hostesses brought the meeting to a close.

EVERYBODY EATS - TRY THESE

MANY APPLE VARIETIES MAY CAUSE CONFUSION

FROM NOW UNTIL THE END OF OCTOBER, commercial fruit growers will be busy picking this year's crop of apples. Immediate cooling followed by temperature and atmosphere controlled storage will ensure that top quality apples appear in your local store.

Are you confused by the many new varieties? Do you wonder which ar suitable for eating, which are suitable for eating, and which are dual purpose apples? The Foods Department at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, says that because everyone's taste is different, no two people can be expected to agree completely on any strict division between eating and cooking apples. However, for the most part, the following varieties are generally accepted as being "eating apples": Delicious, Jonathan, McIntosh, Tolman Sweet, Russet and Red Melba.

Cooking apples are Duchess, Greening, Northern Spy, Atlas and Wolf River. Baxters are good for baking and Close make excellent sauce. The Margaret Pratt when picked at the proper maturity, produces a good sauce, too. The Dolgo Crab is a juicy apple and jells well, giving a rich red jelly of excellent quality; the Hislop Crab will also make a good jelly.

Apples classed as dual purpose for cooking and eating are Baldwin, Spy, McIntosh, Gravenstein, Wealthy and Cortland.

Salad Apple Ring for Six

Dissolve 1 package of apple-flavoured gelatin and a dash of salt in 1 cup of boiling water. Cool to room temperature; add 2 tablespoons of lemon juice. Carefully pour 1 7-ounce bottle of lemon-lime carbonated beverage (well chilled) down the side of the bowl. Stir gently with an up and down motion. Chill until partially set.

Meanwhile, wash and halve ½ cup of seedless green grapes. Core but do not peel 1 large (or 2 small) tart, red apple. Slice very thinly. Add apples and grapes to the chilled gelatin mixture. Pour into a 4-cup ring mold or dish. Chill until firm.

To serve, unmold on lettuce. Garnish with unpared apple slices that have been dipped in lemon juice to prevent darkening. (If Cortland apples are used, lemon juice may be unnecessary, since this variety of apple darkens less than others.)

(This is a Macdonald Institute recipe.)

Graham Cracker Brown Betty

24 graham crackers, finely rolled
3 tbsps. soft butter
½ cup brown sugar
3 to 4 medium apples, pared, cored and sliced
1 tbsp. lemon juice
½ tsp. grated lemon rind
1/3 cup hot water

Thoroughly blend together graham cracker crumbs, softened butter and sugar. Place 1/3 crumb mixture in greased baking dish. Arrange half of apple slices over crumbs; sprinkle with half of lemon juice and rind. Add second layer of crumbs and remaining apple slices, lemon juice and rind. Cover with remaining crumbs; pour water over. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 deg. F.) 45 minutes. Serves 6.

Apple Cranberry Crisp

4 cups sliced apples
¼ cup white sugar
½ cup cranberry sauce
½ cup flour
½ tsp. nutmeg
⅛ tsp. salt
¼ cup lightly-packed brown sugar
½ cup rolled oats
5 tbsps. butter

1. Butter a 1½-quart baking dish. Preheat oven to 350 deg. F.
2. Place apples in baking dish. Sprinkle with granulated sugar. Spoon cranberry sauce over.
3. Sift flour, nutmeg and salt into a bowl; stir in brown sugar and rolled oats. Cut in butter.
4. Spread mixture over apples. Bake until lightly browned, about 50 minutes. Delicious with pouring cream.

Caramel Apples

Remember this resipe for Hallowe'en.

54 caramels
2 tbsps. water
4 or 5 medium tart apples, washed and dried
Wooden sticks

Place caramels and water in top of double boiler. Heat, stirring freqently, until the caramels are melted and the sauce is smooth. Insert a wooden stick into the stem end of each apple. Dip them into the hot caramel sauce and turn until the surface is completely coated. Scrape off caramel sauce from the bottom of the apples. Put on waxed paper and place in refrigerator a few minutes until firm. Remove and serve.

Canada is taking more measures to protect the forests.

No mistakes in oil deliveries with our government inspected, truck-mounted meters.

ERROR PROOF DELIVERIES:
We measure our heating oil deliveries by meter to assure accuracy
NOW SHELL Heating Oil is measured by government-inspected meters, very much like those in gasoline pumps.
Our trucks are equipped with these highly accurate meters that measure the exact amount of oil we deliver to your tank.
The meter prints the amount of oil delivered on a receipt. You get the printed receipt as a permanent record for your files.
Metered deliveries are one of the many advantages we offer our heating oil customers.

IN MEMORIAM

WARNER—In loving memory of our dear daughter, Mrs R. J. Warner (nee Muriel Ouderkirk, R.N.) who passed away September 24, 1960.

God saw you getting weary
So he did what he thought best,
He came and stood beside you
And whispered come and rest.
You bade no one a last farewell,
Nor even said goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.

Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by her Mother, Dad and the family. 52

IN MEMORIAM

SHAY—In loving memory of a dear father, Frederick Shay, who passed away September 24, 1961.

Today in memory's garden
We still walk side by side.

Son Lorne, wife and family. 52-1

CARD OF THANKS

Many thanks to neighbours and friends for calls, cards, phone calls and flowers on the death of Milton Carr, Brewster, N.Y. Special thanks to Doug Fawcett and Chas. McMillan who did the work while we attended the funeral.

Sister Ruth Bogart and Clifton. 52

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our most sincere thanks and appreciation to neighbours, friends and relatives for their kindness, cards, floral tributes, memorial gifts to Cancer Society and United Church Missions during the illness and death of our sister Ethel. Special thanks to Cancer Society and Red Cross.

Sisters Ida, Pearl and Evelyn.

CARD OF THANKS

Our sincere gratitude is extended to friends and relatives for their many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy during the recent illness and death of Mrs Allen.

Mr M. Thomas Allen and Irene.

IN MEMORIAM

DOOLEY—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Mrs Agnes Dooley, who passed away September 15, 1959.

Beautiful memories are all we have left
Of one we loved and will never forget.
A loving smile and a happy face,
A broken link we can never replace.
Just as you were, you always will be,
Treasured forever in our memory.
To some you may be forgotten,
To others a part of the past,
But to us, who always loved you
Your memory will ever last.

Always remembered by Bill, Betty, Jane and Susan.

CARD OF THANKS

Sincere thanks to my friends and relatives for their cards, flowers and gifts during my stay at Winchester Memorial Hospital. Special thanks to Dr H. W. Justus, Rev E. B. Bugden, Rev D. Gordon, Rev A. W. Williamson, Rev A. D. Sutherland and the nursing staff.

Dolton Henry.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to neighbours, friends and relatives for their kind words of sympathy, acts of kindness, memorial gifts and the beautiful floral tributes extended during the recent bereavement of my dear brother, Mr Harry Chambers. Special thanks to Rev Mr Sutherland.

Gertrude Hess.

Tree farms pay good dividends to farmers and other owners.

McINTOSH PLAQUE—

delicious flavour and spectacular appearance soon made it a prime favourite. Widely acclaimed in Ontario and the northern United States, it was introduced into British Columbia about 1910, and later into many other countries.

The plaque is situated only a short distance from the site where the original McIntosh Red tree stood. That tree continued to bear fruit until about 1906, although it had been damaged by the fire that destroyed the farm house in 1894. Apart from its own value, the McIntosh Red has been used in the propagation of many other famous varieties, including the Courtland, Joyce and Melba.

Chance played a part in the apple's discovery, but we owe much to the initiative and hard work of the pioneer McIntosh family who propagated and promoted this famous fruit, which has become a household word throughout large sections of the world.
