SNRCA and OFA agree to meet

BERWICK (Staff) - The chairman of the South Nation River Conservation Authority will set up a meeting between the ministries of agriculture and natural resources, the Ontario Federation of Agriculture (OFA) and the authority as a result of an August 28 brief from the OFA.

The request for the meeting came from James Auld, minister of natural resources for Ontario.

The OFA brief charged the authority with shunting aside agricultural problems and MNR staff with anti-agricultural attitudes.

It recommended the South Nation River Basin Study project be turned over to the hands of the ministry of agriculture and food, the ministry be given the funds to conduct the study, that OMAF consult with the Federation to determine the planning needs of agriculture and that a meeting be set up between the government officials and the county federations to state their plans.

The authority passed a motion to support Ernie Brisson, the chairman in setting up such a meeting.

Keith Graham, Chesterville, indicated it would probably be an invitational meeting and the press would be invited since it was they who had created the problem.

The agenda for the tour of the east section of the conservation area was proposed by resources manager Robin Rogers. On November 26 the bus tour will begin at 10am at the Crysler dam and proceed to the Casselman Conservation area. Lunch will be at Plantagenet, where the rock cut will be viewed.

Return will be via the Seguin bridge and enroute, the hybrid poplar project east of the office will be viewed. Return to the office is scheduled for 3:30pm.

Mr. Rogers drew attention to the erosion problem at Plantagenet. He stated there was more work involved than just drawing some stone and suggested the funds allocated to the North Plantagenet erosion project in the 1981 budget could be extended to include the village of Plantagenet. The authority concurred and passed the necessary resolution.

During the morning session the authority passed three resolutions concerning farm and township drainage work. The first requested the Ferguson drain in Matilda Twp., the Mullen drain in Mountain Twp., and the Johnson drain in Osnabruck Twp. which wave received first, second and third readings be approved for one-third grants under the general development agreement.

The second requested if any ministry required extra engineering or studies that the relevant ministries assume the costs and carrying charges related to the work.

The third resolution requested the authority investigate the possibility of construction or remedial work to the South Castor in Osgoode Township and the Payne drain in Roxborough Township and report back to the executive at future meetings.

The resolutions were introduced by Mountain reeve, Ewart Simms in view of the agricultural nature of the Basin area.

Research papers released

OTTAWA (Staff) - Diane Harkin, chairperson for the Nation Farm Women's Conference to be held December 2 to 4 at the Chateau Laurier Hotel, released the research papers to be studied at the conference, last week at a press conference in Ottawa.

The papers include the portrayal of farm women in the Canadian media, women and farm credit in Canada, land use policies, government policy promoting young farmers, farm wives and property law and husband-wife partnerships in small unincorporated businesses.

The research material, gathered by a team of 13 students will be mailed out to all delegates in order they will be prepared for discussion at the conference.

Organizers hope to have 100 farm women delegates from across Canada, broken down to approximately 10 from each province, with a minimum of four from each.

Mrs. Harkin, president of Women for the Survival of agriculture, said she felt women could end the squabbling between farm organizations and solve many of the problems facing women in agriculture.

The problems encountered by the group include the desire to be recognized as a career woman, as an equal and valuable partner in the production of the country's food industry.

In addition the women would like to see a better image and more coverage given to women in agriculture by all aspects of the media. Radio, television, daily newspapers, weekly newspapers, magazines and farm papers drew fire from the group who then solicited the media's help in mounting a new image campaign.

Credit granting institutions have, as a rule, been prejudicial in granting credit to women. especially women in agricultur states the Women and Farm Credit paper.

The women would also like to see equal pay for equal work, said Mrs. Harkin, although it would not be as significant to actually receive the money as would be the recognition of a worthwhile contribution, recognized by a salary.

Young farmers, too, are bearing a harsh credit burden when trying to break into farming, says the group. Inadequate farm credit and lending institutions will lead to less and less young people entering the field of farming, said Mrs. Harkin, which in turn leads to more and more importation of food for the country's consumers.

Women are a great untapped resource, said Mrs. Harkin. It is time everyone understood the value they could be to the agricultural community and allowed them to perform to the best of their ability.

Mrs. Harkin attributed the poor self image of farm women to the attitudes of the general populace, which in turn, she said, are formed by the media.

The conference will help to raise the socio-economic status of women, she said. An attitude change needs to take place, she said for this to happen.

Along with this change will come the acceptance of many of the ideas and aids the women can offer to farm organizations and farms themselves.

When asked if the men behind these women were resentful or backed their women, she said at first the men were quite nervous of the project and viewed it as a threatening entity, however now are more willing to back the delegates.

Mrs. Harkin was asked how she felt Women for the Survival of Agriculture or the Farm Women's conference would serve to unify farm groups when the women members of the National Farmers' Union had been in-

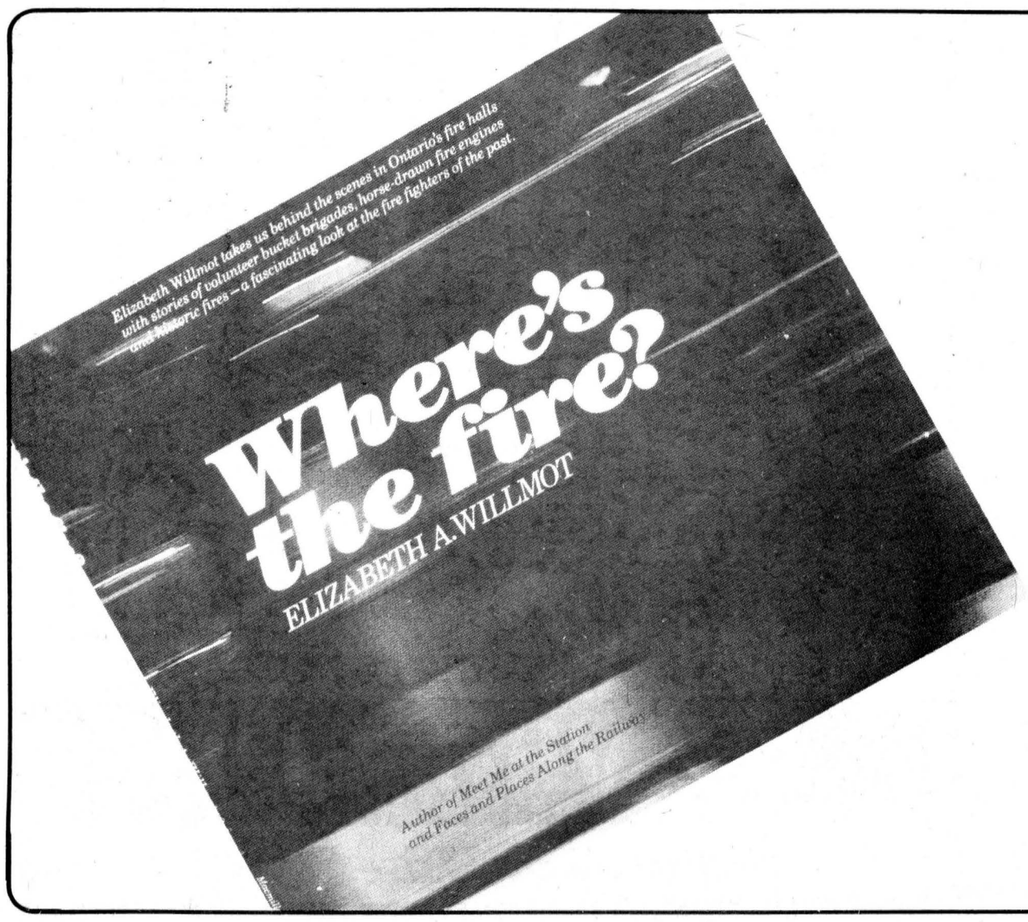
Mrs. Lajeunesse cited the disappointment of the reeve and friendly persuasion from her family as the reasons for reconsidering her decision to leave.

4-H awards Friday

(Staff) - Dundas 4-H Awards Night and Banquet will be held Fri., Nov. 21 at the South Mountain Agricultural Hall. The banquet begins at 7pm and tickets are available by mail from the Ag. office in Winchester, at $4 each. The awards ceremony begins at 8:15pm.



Hot off the presses

(Staff) - Two years ago when author-photographer Elizabeth Willmot asked Fire Chief Mike Fyke questions about the Chesterville Fire Department and its history, he thought she was just another curious information seeker.

When he received a copy of her latest book, "Where's the Fire", auographed and sent with a letter of thanks, he took it all more seriously.

Chesterville is accorded a full page picture of the fire hall and another for a story which includes history and present statistics on the department.

Ms. Willmot delineates the history of our fire station, formerly the Chesterville Town Hall, through its 113 year history. Many community groups used the hall as a meeting place, "The Chief of Police had one corner of the building for his office, the public school used it for their Christmas concerts and before the "talkies", Jack Morris used to play an accompaniment for the silent movies shown in the hall."

She also makes mention of some historical data quoted from the program published to commemorate the 39th Annual Convention of the Eastern Ontario Fire Fighters Association, held in Chesterville. Sid Morris was chief at the time and our present chief, Grenville 'Mike' Fyke, was the brigade secretary.

The conclusion to the article reads "The Village of Chesterville, which is about half-way between Ottawa and Upper Canada Village, and is located on the South Nation River, has excellent fire protection for its 1,336 residents. They have two fire trucks, a fire prevention department, a staff of eighteen part-time firefighters and three part-time officers. Grenville Fyke who was the fire brigade's secretary about 40 years ago, is now the department's fire chief. The 1867 Town Hall is still serving adequately the town as Chesterville's Fire Hall."

A picture of the Chesterville Fire alarm box in the book is mistakenly attributed to Deseronto, pointed out Mr. Fyke. The glass door on the alarm box reflects the white frame house of Mrs. Florence Hall, across the street.

Chesterville is included with such illustrious company as the Kingston, Windsor, Yorkville, Toronto and Sault Ste. Marie fire departments among others.

The book, published by Macmillan of Canada, is 120 pages of attractive photographs and interesting, short articles on 24 Ontario Fire Departments.

Ms. Willmot dedicated her newest book "with sincere gratitude to all Ontario firemen".

According to the jacket cover, Elizabeth Willmot is a graduate of the Banff School of Fine Arts, where she received a scholarship for her photography and is now a freelance writer, photographer and specialist in 19th century Ontario history. She lives in Oakville.

Copies of the book will be available in book stores from early October, wrote Ms. Willmot.

School Guidance Corner

Don Stephen, Head of Guidance
North Dundas District
High School

It is now application form time for Universities and Colleges in Ontario.

Gr. 13 students who have indicated that they will apply for admission to an Ontario University have received their personal pre-printed form and now have to decide on the Universities to which they will make application. They have until the end of the month to make their decisions.

As a help the representatives of the Universities of Ontario will be at La Citadelle in Cornwall November 27. Those students in grades 12 and 13 who wish to visit with them must sign up so that we can order the buses needed.

College application forms are not due until the start of the New Year but now is the time to get one and start to fill out the A part so that we can get all the other parts ready for mailing.

The first formal examinations will be held from January 22 to 28. In order to prepare for these examinations the next seven columns will be devoted to study methods. The various heads of departments will offer suggestions on "How to Study" their particular subject area.

You may ask the questions: Why study?, and how much? Every student needs to study if he intends to make a success of school work.

Of course, if a student makes up his mind that he is not interested in making progress he should not bother reading any further.

Some students must study more than others - a great deal depends on a person's basic ability and speed of learning. This is something that each student has to find out for himself - how much study is necessary to do a good job.

In high school it is usually estimated that a Grade 9 student should do, on the average, from one to one-and-a-half hours per night of homework and study. This should be increased each year until he is doing about three hours or more in the senior grades.

Notice I said average - some students may be able to do less and others will have to do more.

There is something to be gained from every subject whether or not it applies directly to what you intend to do in the future. If a subject did not provide some value it would not be in the curriculum. Try to see the practical, academic and cultural values of subjects and realize that all these values are necessary for a well-balanced education.

"You will get more out of school if you adopt the idea that each subject is worthwhile and that each day you will have accomplished something for your effort.

The suggestions that we will be giving you during the next few weeks are intended to develop procedures, that repeated over and over again will become "habits".

It has been found that so-called "good students" have worked out ideas such as will be described, and have used them consistently over a period of years until they have become fixed habits. No longer, then does the student have to force himself to concentrate, do homework, review, etc., because now it is an automatic habit - the same as one's daily routine of getting up at a certain time, eating in a certain place, washing and dressing in a certain manner and so on.

So next week we will start with some hints on how to study Mathematics and each week following will highlight a different subject. On January 14 I will end up with "How to Write an Examination". Then from January 22 you will be on your own!

Haitian students guest lecturers

(Special) - Students at North Dundas District High School listened attentively to Georges Seraphin and Claude Berthaud, Ottawa University students originally from Haiti.

The two men explained marriage and courtship customs in their native land to the students as part of a continuing series on differing customs.

The nearly six million people of Haiti are a mixture of Indians,- the original inhabitants, Africans, who were brought to the island as slaves to work the mines and fields, and French Colonizers who introduced formalized religion and who brought Catholicism to Haiti, they said.

The family in Haiti defies any strict sociological classification. Both monogamy and polygamy are accepted.

There are many families in Haiti which are free union relationships or common law arrangements. Some of their relationships are formalized later on by a civil or religious marriage ceremony but many never go through any marriage ceremony as in Canada.

Children are most welcomed in Haitian families especially among the lower classes, they explained. Because the lower classes are generally poor, children are seen as a form of wealth and as a form of Insurance in old age. It is understandable then why there are relatively few abortions among lower and middle class families.

Premarital sex is generally condemned and a double standard seems to exist in the attitude toward adultery said the Haitians.

Adultery is absolutely taboo for women but when a man is caught in adultery, the fault tends to be overlooked.

There tends to be a clearly marked division of labour within the Haitian family. The husband plays the disciplinarian and authority figure role. The wife plays the role of housekeeper, mother, and banker. In Haiti, the wife handles all the money in the family.

Haitian students from Ottawa University visited the grade 13 Family Studies class at North Dundas District High School last week as part of a series on courtship and marriage in other countries. From left are NDDHS student Kristine Frappier, Haitians Georges Seraphin and Claude Berthaud, NDDHS student Bill Smith, and Andre Brossard, foreign student advisor at Ottawa University. -staff photo-

Stormont-Glengarry District

First Tagwi Scouts host 35th annual

AVONMORE (Special) - The First Tagwi Scout Group hosted the 35th annual Stormont-Glengarry District Banquet. Scout leader, Sanford McCallum of Avonmore, acted as emcee.

Special guests for the occasion were Rev. Tom Villeneuve of Ingleside, Rev. and Mrs. Wiseman of Avonmore and Assistant Provincial Commissioner Earl Myers and his wife.

During the evening awards of achievement and service were presented.

Fifteen persons received the wood Badge I certificate and woggle for recent leadership training. Sandy McCallum for his advanced training received the coveted Gilwell Neckerchief and Baden-Powell Beads.

Service awards were given as follows: five years-Dwayne Julien, Mary MacLaurin, Lee Russell, Mary Theoret and Wayne Comway; ten years-Brian Fourney and Rheal Rochon; fifteen years; Marian Barnes.

The highlight of the evening came with the presentation of the Special Appreciation of Service plaques to the following who have been involved in scouting for at least thirty years: Claude Ray (who started the original Stormont troop in Mille Roches) and is now district badge chairman, Colin Marshall now assistant district commissioner, George Sawinski of 17th Cornwall and Mrs. Dora Kitchener who is still helping in addition to having served with her late husband, himself in a former local commissioner.

Honored also was Mrs. Vanda Lynch for her having inaugurated and fostered the Beavers in our area.

The evening ended with a camp-fire gathering in the Avonmore Community Centre.

Changes for agricultural education

KEMPTVILLE (Special) - Agricultural education may be in for some sweeping changes in the 80's. The decade will be characterized by post-diploma courses, co-op type programs and internships, says Dr. Clare Rennie, in charge of Agricultural Research and Education for the Province of Ontario.

Speaking at a supper meeting at Kemptville College, Mr. Rennie said he wanted all Ontario farmers to have the equivalent of a diploma. Each year Ontario needs 1,200 replacement farmers. About 30 per cent of these are in colleges or universities.

Though he didn't say how he would provide a diploma for every farmer, he did point out that "young people realize the importance of education regardless of their walk in life."

Between 1974 and 1979 the Kemptville College tripled its enrolment in agriculture. However, this year enrolment dipped by five per cent, a trend reflected in Ontario's other agricultural colleges.

At Kemptville the drop has been the result of fewer women and urban students enrolling in agricultural courses.

Post-diploma programs may be just around the bend, Mr. Rennie told his audience composed mainly of veterinarians. A grain and supply course for diploma graduates has been tentatively scheduled for Ridgetown College of Agricultural Technology next year.

Mr. Rennie said the same type of program would also become available for veterinarians. He predicted an internship program for veterinarians within the next decade.

Among other trends, will be co-op type programs where students combine work and school and an increase in the number of "hands on experience" type courses.

Morewood residents observed Remembrance Day last week with a wreath-laying ceremony at the village cenotaph. Aiding in the ceremony honoring the war-dead from both wars were Rev. Alex Dobson of the Anglican Church (right), Rev. L. Ferguson of the United Church and Father John Appelman of the Catholic Church. Wreaths were laid by various village organizations.

Morewood honors brave

(Special) - The Morewood community met in the Presbyterian Hall Tues., Nov. 11 at 10:30am to honor those brave men who paid the supreme sacrifice in the two World Wars.

Hymns O God Our Help in Ages Past and Abide With Me were sung, with Gladys Broom at the piano.

The gathering was welcomed by Rev. Alex Dobson of the Anglican Church. Scripture was read by student minister, Bert D'Brigan.

Father Appleman gave the message and told of his recent visit to his native Holland.

While there he visited the war cemetery at Arnheim where thousands of young Canadian men were buried.

Rev. L. Ferguson led us in prayer. We then proceeded to the war memorial where the wreaths were laid. The following took part in the laying ceremony: Firemen's wreath was laid by William Smirle, The Dutch Sash and Door wreath by Art Koolwine The Community wreath by Tressa Nurse, and The Provincial by Cecil MacNabb, The Legion wreath was laid by John Cronin, Cecil MacNabb's by Mr. Mason, Dillabough Family by Jack James, and The Township Council's by Claude Cousineau.

The Last Post was sounded by Janet Jansen. The service closed with the singing of O Canada.

Osnabruck to hire new Rec. Supervisor

OSNABRUCK CENTRE (Staff) - Osnabruck Township council decided to advertise for a Recreation Supervisor for the township at Monday night's council meeting, the last for the present council.

Council passed a resolution to advertise in the three local papers as well as the Ottawa Citizen for someone with a "B" certificate in recreation or a willingness to obtain certification.

Allan Thompson of Ingleside and Madeleine Brown of northwest of Newington were appointed to the recreation committee to replace members who resigned earlier this month.

Ingleside senior citizens wrote to council to request walkways in the town be kept open through the winter. The walkways make a shorter route possible from the shopping centre to Farran Street and from the senior citizen home to the medical clinic. Council also agreed to install two culverts at Memorial Square to bridge two ditches.

Council passed a motion to proceed with seismic testing along Concession 3. VME Associates will premark homes to determine the damage, if any, done by blasting, at a cost of $550 per eight-hour day.

An additional allotment of $98,600 was received for tile drainage loans in the township. The original allotment was $23,800, for a total until March 31, 1981 of $122,400. This amount will cover all applications in to date.

Council accepted the price quote of Canadian Salt Company of $27.21 per metric tonne for their winter road salt.

An error in last week's Record stated the Winter Carnival Committee donated $10,000 toward recreation. In fact the committee donated $2,000.

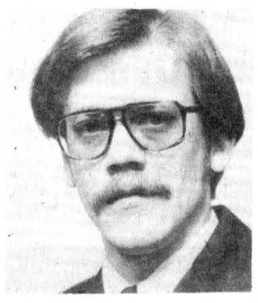
Osnabruck this week

Richard Waldroff



During the past months I have had the occasion to visit our local hospitals. These short visits have brought my attention to the quality of care the patients receive.

I have also noticed the number of elderly people who are patients, many of them temporary. There are several there, unable to care for themselves, waiting for space in a nursing home.

The hospitals in our area have, because of financial restrictions from senior levels of government, been forced to cut back services.

Some hospitals have closed wards and floors in order to keep facilities for other services open.

I don't believe the elderly people waiting for nursing homes can be handled any other way. They must be cared for where their needs can be attended to. I do believe though, these rooms, wards and floors that are closed should be reopened to meet the need.

I have been told that in some cases people wait weeks for beds in order to be admitted. Some emergency patients have been known to wait in emergency rooms as much as eight hours before getting a room and bed.

To open these wards, floors and rooms requires more funds. This must come from the government. The additional money would provide in my opinion, better services for all. It could possibly prevent unnecessary construction of new nursing homes.

What we should and must do is make better use of what we now have. The next time you speak with you local MP or MPP ask his opinion and tell him yours.

Dear Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: You are undoubtedly aware of the revival of the old chain-letter concept in the form of a pyramid.

I thought you might be interested in the one I received for my birthday. I sent it on - in two languages. Here it is, to share with your readers if you desire.

-Still Laughing In Lima, Peru

Dear Lima: Chain letters are illegal in the United States, but yours is different and involves no money. Thanks for passing it on. - Ann Landers

"This chain letter was started by a woman like yourself in the hope of bringing relief to tired, discontented wives. Unlike most chain letters, this one does not cost anything. Just send a copy to five of your female friends who are equally tired. Then bundle up your husband and send him to the woman whose name appears at the top of the list. Add your name to the bottom of the list. When your name comes to the top, you will receive 16,748 men. Some of them will be dandies. Have faith and don't break the chain. One woman who broke the chain got her own husband back. At the time of this writing, a friend of mine has received 183 men. They buried her yesterday, but it took three undertakers 36 hours to get the smile off her face."

Dear Ann Landers: I am a recently separated female in my early 20's and live in an apartment alone. My mother is a kind soul who offers to clean up my place periodically . I am an occasional pot smoker.

On Mother's last housecleaning day she went poking through my bureau drawers and found some pot and a few pipes. When she confronted me, I said, "Yes, I do smoke pot occasionally."

That put her in an uproar, and she made a scene I'll never forget. Now both Mom and Dad view me as some sort of derelict.

Is there a way to get them to see that smoking pot once in awhile is not such a terrible thing? Also, does my mother have the right to go through my bureau drawers? I feel violated and she feels justified.

-Stoned Now And Then, In Nashville

Dear Nashville: If you are looking for someone to defend your use of pot, you rattled the wrong cage.

I agree that the occasional use of marijuana does not make a person a derelict, but to people of your parents' generation it means smoking dope, which is illegal, and there is no way you can put a respectable face on it.

I agree that your mother should not have been going through your bureau drawers. From now on, clean the place yourself.

Dear Ann Landers: Bless you for putting me in touch with Recovery, Inc. I looked in the phone book as you suggested and discovered they were meeting less than a mile from my home.

Recovery, Inc. did for me what psychiatry, medicine and religion could not. I am no longer afraid to go shopping, to the movies or drive a car. I've also learned that I am not crazy and occasional spells of weakness and nausea and heart-pounding do not mean I am going to die.

The cost? Whatever you want to give to pay for the refreshments. After spending thousands of dollars on doctors, I consider this the bargain of a lifetime!

-A New Me

Dear You: Wonderful! Those who are interested and can't find Recovery, Inc., in the phone book should write to the national headquarters. The address is 116 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60603.

It's not always easy to recognize love, especially the first time around. Acquaint yourself with the guidelines. Read Ann Landers' booklet, "Love or Sex and How to Tell the Difference." For a copy, mail 50 cents and a long, self-addressed envelope with your request to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11995, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

District News

FINCH (Special) - The November meeting of St. Bernard's Catholic Women's League was held at the home of Mrs. Frances MacMillan. Mass preceeded the meeting.

Father Bougie opened the meeting with the League prayer.

The Day of Recollection at Shalom was discussed and some members planned to attend.

A Diocesan meeting will be held at St. John Bosco on Wed., Nov. 26 at 7:30pm.

The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Betty Moran with the exchange of gifts.

Mountain Orchards receive incentive

MOUNTAIN (Staff) - Mountain Orchards was one of the first small businesses to be granted a forgivable loan as an incentive under the Eastern Ontario Subsidiary Agreement and will put the loan funds toward their new juice plant.

The juice plant was in use since September, explained co-owner Bob Hobson, but the funds will go toward the project. Although the plant went over budget, the loan is for 25 per cent of the original cost estimate, as applied for.

The forgivable aspect of the loan is spread over a period of three years. Each of the first two years, 25 per cent is forgiven and at the conclusion of the third year, if the company is still operational, the final 50 per cent is written off.

The construction at the orchards includes a building and all the machinery purchased for the processing and packaging of the cider.

Mr. Hobson said he is presently investigating the New York, Vermont and Quebec markets for his product. A steady increase over the coming three years will be necessary for the company to recoup its investment in the plant, he said.

The major marketplaces in Ontario, the urban centres, have been subject to scare tactics in the form of irresponsible reporting of illness incidents, said Mr. Hobson. The cider blamed for illness in several Toronto children was sent to the United States for analysis and all tests came back negative, he said. This was never reported though, he noted.

Mr. Hobson said applications are available from the Ottawa office of the Eastern Ontario Development Corporation. EODC also handle the applications once they are complete.

He said the Ottawa office had been very helpful with the maze of forms the government requires.

Thank You...

I wish to thank all those people who supported me at the polls on Monday, November 10 and elected me for another 2-year term as Councillor of the village.

I congratulate the people who were elected to council and assure you that we will work together for the betterment of the village of Finch.

Record Recipes

by Chris Brown

A friend of mine recently wrote what I consider the working person's cookbook: all casseroles!

Not that I think everyone could eat only baked dishes but it sure is handy when you set the stove as you leave for work and come home to a piping hot meal that no one slaved over all day.

I can't speak for all the recipes because I haven't tried them all. Some look very interesting to me and some, I have to be truthful, will stay in the book and out of my kitchen!

Although he didn't put in an index the recipes are all divided up into categories by their main ingredient, beef, chicken, pork, fish, vegies or variety meat.

I printed a recipe for cabbage rolls previously, and they are delicious, but everyone knows there is a lot of work goes into them. Austin (my friend) evades the problem quite nicely by adding all the same ingredients but ignoring the work!

Cabbage Hot Dish

1 small cabbage, cut in wedges
1 pound hamburger
¼ cup rice (raw)
1 tin tomato soup
1 apple peeled, cored and chopped
1½ cups hot water
salt and pepper to taste
1 large onion chopped

Brown hamburg over low heat and drain off fat. Place cabbage in greased casserole dish and cover with other ingredients, pouring soup and water over at the last. Bake for one and a half hours at 350. Serves six.

I also tried substituting tomato juice for soup and water as I do with my cabbage rolls and the results were good. I also like a spicy dish as I have mentioned and add oregano to almost all tomato dishes.

The paper covered book is titled 100 Country Casseroles. If most of the 100 pander to my laziness as this one does, I'm all for it.

Severance rules relaxed by planner

BERWICK (Staff) - At the last meeting of the 1979-80 Finch Township council held Monday, they received a letter from county planner Charles Miller informing them of relaxed severance regulations.

The new consent plan is in the form of an amendment to the Lower St. Lawrence Plan. Previously severances were not granted on parcels of land less than 10 hectares (previously 25 acres). If certain conditions are met, the severance can be granted for a minimum of 22,500 square metres (half an acre).

The provisions for a severance are that the lot not be agricultural land as provided for in class 1 through 4 of the Canada Land Inventory, that the Agricultural Code of Practice be adhered to, the lot is not in a village, hamlet rural residential or estate residential and it is not adjacent to an incompatible land use.

As well, the lot cannot be adjacent to a gravel pit or quarry, or on or near lands with a potential for aggregate; it cannot be next to a wrecking yard or disposal site and it must have natural amenities which allow it to blend with and not disturb the surrounding rural scene.

There must be no problem installing services such as telephone and hydro and the township must not be burdened excessively.

Council discussed the amendment and stated there would be very few lots in the township which would qualify, with consideration of the fact the plan is only effective for parcels of land which were not created since the inception of the Lower St. Lawrence Plan. Land severed before the plan came into effect would be eligible for a severance if all the above conditions were met.

Notification was received from the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food of an additional tile drainage allocation of $358,800 for the current year. The original allocation was $227,600. Council expressed some concern they might not have use for all the funds but it was thought some applicants would be able to start work immediately and utilize their loans.

In response to a petition for a drain, McIntyre-Lagrove, council appointed Stidwell and Associates to do an engineering report on the area. Petitioners were Eugene Vanier, Wayne Ouderkirk, Robert McLeod and Hiram Hume.

Council agreed to vote the Crysler Fire Department $500, double last year's figure, for two-night patrolling, October 31 and November 1. Members commented there was little or no damage Hallowe'en night and the money was well spent on preventive patrolling.

In a letter from the county planner, council was informed the Lower St. Lawrence Planning Board would hold a meeting mid-December to discuss the possibility of its retention as an entity. Mr. Miller stated in the letter some member municipalities had expressed the desire to retain the board for the savings it would entail.

All member municipalities would probably meet in January, 1981 to decide the fate of the board, continued the letter. Mr. Miller asked municipalities not to formalize agreements with planners in order to avoid prejudicing the decision.

Council also approved a number of cancellations on tax assessments, due to the removal of buildings, barns which had burned down, removal of mobile homes and buildings added to property.

Mr. and Mrs. H.E. Labonne (Dorothy Senn) of Lisbon, Connecticut and Douglas Senn of Sarnia, Ont., spent last week with their mother Mrs. Gordon Senn and Marjorie, and attended the funeral of their aunt Mrs. Arthur Strader.

the farmer's wife — by wyn thompson

Without so much as a glance at the calendar, you can still say it is November. For the one thing, the wind has its November voice, and so do the fallen leaves.

Then, there is the November sky, clear of summer dust, and clear too of autumn's haze. It is a sky so deep, so blue that it puts a spring sky to shame. When a November day is clear and blue and sunny, it is a joy to behold.

There is the brush of November air on your cheek, chill enough to be invigorating, like properly aged wine. Not air that caresses as a cat's paw, nor yet air that nips. Air that makes one breath deeply and walk briskly.

November air has a magic that brings the hills closer by day and the stars closer by night. There is the simple countryman's outdoor world, on a bright November day. It is a bigger world, a world that simply invites walking and exploration.

And that is November making fall special, making September and October rather pale months indeed, and making a simple countrywoman like myself glad to be alive and out where she can see the sharp line of that far horizon.

Now the oaks come into their own. They have been there all along, but they weren't really visible until the more showy damsels began to fade. Now they dot the landscape, making the maples look twice as naked and the pine twice as green.

The oaks are solid citizens, deliberate in their moves. They are slow to leaf out in the spring, slow of growth, slow to colour in the autumn, and very reluctant to shed their outgrown leaves. It is the tannin characteristic that makes them so durable that they rot slowly and form a mat under the trees instead of the bed of humus that arrives under other trees. It is this same tannin that makes the oak bark so useful in tanning leather.

Now the oak stands tough and full of defiance of the fall rains and winds. In a way, they prolong the fall season, for these leaves will still be rustling on the branches when snow begins to dust the woods around us.

Tonight the budget comes down. I listened to a summary of the budgets for the last hundred years as I drove to work this morning. Tonight, also, is the Reagan-Carter debate. Iraq and Iran are still having a go at it.

But those who would look for simple answers to gigantic questions should walk a country lane on a November afternoon, out where the leaves shuffle, the squirrels scurry, the jays cry trouble, and the everlasting shape of the hills is now revealed.

Choose a leaf and try to match it. Leaves are almost as varied as snow-flakes. Watch the wind as it propels aloft a shimmer of floss-borne milkweed seeds. Watch the goldenrod and wild asters as they add to the aerial cargo, and realize the meaning of infinity, and numbers that making counting meaningless.

Hold in your hand the empty shell of a bug. Examine the intricate parts, the ingenuity of life, now departed elsewhere. Watch a rabbit scurry, a crow circle overhead. Look at your own hand. Know that there is order even in complexity.

Sense the earth. See the sky. Listen to your own pulse, rythmic as the tides themselves. These are the answers for those who experience, by feeling, seeing, and listening.

We think of it as the quiet time, and indeed, it is so. It is not silent though, and there is a difference. It is seldom more evident than in November.

There is no bird's chorus. The songbirds have gone south. There is no buzz of insects. The chattery chipmunk has finished his business of hoarding and settled down to a long winter's nap. Even the winter jays are a bit subdued, and the winter crows attend no conventions, but are content to simply announce their presence as they fly up and down our valley.

After the sounds of summer and early autumn, it certainly is quiet. You can now hear yourself think, you can hear the earth settle for winter. And you know that this is the quiet time of the year, not the silent.

Soon the snow will come, and snow in November isn't really any colder or more slippery than it is in January, cautions my mechanic. It merely appears that way because I haven't yet put on my emotional gloves and show boots.

In essence, I am not ready for winter. I still have half my summer tan. My hand is still shaped to the hoe and the rake, and the canoe paddle, not to the snow shovel. Even the skiers aren't quite ready.

But it snows, and there are problems. Traffic snarls itself. Even the walkers have difficulty, with snow underfoot and slush splashing at them from all directions. The buses bog down, the commuter's car stalls. Snowplows and sand trucks haven't got into the swing of things. Power lines develop trouble and repair crews are behind schedule. Nobody likes a November snowstorm, much. Nobody likes the weatherman for not warning us sooner.

Only the country-folk are reasonable about it. The farmer doesn't have to catch a taxi or a bus. He goes out to the barn or the feedlot, does the morning chores, and looks thankfully at his ample supply of hay and his full silos and corn cribs, and spends a good amount of the day working on the books that have been waiting for just such a day.

As the Farmer in my life says, "Early snow is a nuisance, but nothing to fret about. It won't stay long and the fields need the moisture...so do the wells."

chesterville's past

From the Record
November 21, 1940

A successful conference of junior farmers from districts east of Kingston was held Tuesday afternoon at the Kemptville Agricultural School when 150 received valuable information on conservation and reforestation.

Marshall Rathwell, reeve of Cumberland Township and vice chairman of Zone 5 Committee of the OCRA was chairman for the opening session and welcomed the young men. Pictures on forestry work and conservation were shown. The opening address was given by W.H. Casselman reeve of Chesterville and chairman of Zone 5 committee, who spoke on the great need for reforestation work in various parts of old Ontario. During 1939 he stated, 14,422,854 trees had been distributed but much work was necessary.

Yesterday application was made for positions with the RCAF at Ottawa by three young Chesterville men, Lee Smith, Cecil Plantz and Floyd Hess. All passed their test and expect to be called by the first of the year. the first two as butchers and the latter as airplane mechanic.

Elva Barr, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barr, underwent a successful operation for appendicitis in the Cornwall General Hospital yesterday morning and is reported doing nicely.

The high wind of Monday night tore part of the roof off Dr. Bean's residence in Winchester.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Lawn Bowling Club was held on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Haldane Durant with the president, Mrs. P.S. Boyd in the chair. An expression of sympathy was voiced by the president to one of the members, Mrs. Gordon Senn, in the loss of her father on Friday morning.

A splendid report of the year's activities was given by the treasurer and $25 was voted to the Men's Bowling Club to clear off the debt on the clubhouse.

It is very much to be regretted that more members of the Women's Institute with their friends, were not present last Friday evening in the Library when three members of the United Counties Health Unit were present to show the workings of the unit to conserve our health.

Miss Lowrey, superintendent of the district nurses of the Health Unit, outlined the work of the district nurses in combatting the menaces to health.

From the Record
November 23, 1950

Tomorrow night will find the call out for the annual nominations for the offices of reeve and councillors for the municipality. This is the time for the voters to get the lowdown on the business of the year. It is hoped that a good number of interested parties will be on hand.

Tuesday, November 21st saw the opening of the new Nation River bridge, here in Chesterville. The weather was raw and cold, but the crowd that thronged the fine, new span paid little heed to the wind in the general excitement that ran as an undercurrent as the events unfolded.

The day was a fitting climax to the effort that had been expended by the various committees to make the day a success. A little thing like weather was no deterrent to W.O. "Bill" Dixon and his helpers when it came to organizing a bang-up first class bridge opening.

The new bridge is a thing of beauty and every member of the community feels proud of it as a worthwhile addition to our town. Spanking new and clean, it adds to the town, no matter what angle it is viewed.

Mr. Harold Fetterly of Morewood suffered a triple back fracture on Thursday last while working at Lancaster with the Faulkner-Thompson Construction Co. on the new reservoir being built there.

He is now a patient at the Cornwall General Hospital. Reports of his condition are favorable.

Mrs. Una Fisher, 32 Uxbridge Ave., in Toronto was the lucky winner of the 1950 Crysler Royal sedan when the tickets were drawn to wind up the Community Centre selling campaign. The lucky seller was the winner's brother-in-law, Mr. Martin Foran of the same address. Mr. Foran is a brother of Mrs. James McCloskey of Chesterville. Mr. Foran is the proud owner of a new Chevrolet.

The handsome refrigerator went to Keith W. Smith of Morrisburg. The only Chesterville winner was Russell Froats and he copped third and now has a brand new Connor washing machine. The Lazy Boy chair went C.L. Dodd of Belleville. The radio went to Renfrew to George Welk.

A tremendous crowd was on hand for the Bingo that preceded the draw. The Montgomery Branch of the Canadian Legion put on their show and prizes for the games were many and costly.

From the Record
December 1, 1960

This newspaper is appearing for the last time this week in this particular size. As explained on page three of this issue, the Record is getting bigger. We are adding a column to each page and making each page longer.

The newspaper has grown steadily and in the past few years, local advertising and local news has had more and more difficulty finding proper space on our smaller sheet. In spite of extra page, we have felt the pinch.

Beginning next week you will receive a bigger paper and as always we will strive to make it better.

Hooray for Santa Claus! That's the shout from the small fry when they hear the old gentleman has promised to be here in Chesterville Sunday afternoon, December 17.

Ladies of the Chesterville Women's Institute have just received word via rocket to expect him at the hall some time between two and three o'clock. It is planned to have everyone in the hall by two and await the coming while being entertained by the local talent.

Candy and treats are in store for those that come early and sit reasonably quiet.

As we go to press Wednesday morning there is word the rail strike has been averted by new legislation at least until May 15.

We are glad to hear the outcome of the Ottawa deliberations, Christmas time seems like a poor time to shut up shop on the railroads.

The Midget Hockey Club is grateful indeed to Teen Town. In answer to an appeal the Teen Towners voted to supply hockey sweaters for the club and this year the Midgets will turn out as one of the best clad teams for many a season. The executive and coaches of the team wish to take this opportunity to thank the Teen Towners for their unhesitating response to this recreational need.

"What it means to be a Canadian" was the subject chosen by Brian Docksteader, Chesterville winner in the Dundas Public Speaking contest held at Morrisburg Public School.

Seven pupils from public schools in the country delivered addresses on subjects ranging from Exploration of Space to Municipal Government and Civic Affairs.

1960 recipients of Provincial Honors for 12 completed projects in 4-H Homemaking clubs were Mrs. Edward Rose, Mountain, Mrs. Robert Dawson, Winchester.

EDITOR'S NOTE:
Record reporter Chris Brown attended a press conference in Ottawa last week given by the National Farm Women's Conference organizing committee. The organizers released information and research in preparation for the conference next month. Farm women from across Canada are to gather together to discuss the plight of their situation as a silent working force. Preparation for the conference began about a year ago. Whether there is a real need for this type of gathering has been a matter of controversy. Ms. Brown gives her view of the conference work.

Women for the Survival of Agriculture have had 13 students working on research papers to prepare for the first National Farm Women's Conference, over the past summer, gathering and colating data for discussion at the conference.

Unfortunately, the researchers have in some instances ignored control experiments parallel to theirs, they have used half truths and they have ignored their own research in other cases.

In "The invisible pitch fork" or The portrayal of farm women in the Canadian media, a section is included on advertising and its portrayal of farm women. The report states rural and agricultural ads fall short of providing an accurate picture of life on a farm or rural community. Farmers are almost never seen working. The woman is stereotyped as the "server" and bystander. The role of a woman varies according to her relationship to others.

The study did not compare or contrast these ads with urban commercials. Urban women fare no better in typecasting so typical of advertisments. Doctors are idealized in coffee commercials, waitresses are stereotyped in greasy spoons, and women's dreams are daycare centres in their own homes.

Another example of the lack of a control experiment is the magazine study. The conclusions state agricultural women are virtually ignored by both the English and French versions of Chatelaine and that women's news is relegated to a special inconspicuos section of Country Guide.

Where is the parallel study to show that men farmers are covered extensively in Playboy or Esquire? I wonder if the group is being a trifle unrealistic in demanding this standard from magazines which have no alter ego to compare themselves to.

Recommendations of the survey include "Farm women should be portrayed as active in both farm management and farm production. They should be consulted on all aspects of the farming operations, not simply those tasks related to the family and homemaking."

I wonder if any of the research students have walked a mile in media shoes. I wonder if they've phoned a farm to obtain information only to have the farm women answer that her husband would be at home in an hour, please call and talk to him. I wonder if they've gone to do a feature on a farm and asked the wife to share the limelight in a picture only to be told, no, let him be in it alone. I didn't think so. Well, it happens to us a lot.

In several cases the researchers have ignored their own work! In the section on television programming, the body of study states "Nevertheless, the women seem to have a very good understanding of agriculture judging from the farm work they are shown doing on these programs." The conclusion? "However, these women are not considered as knowledgeable about the farm operation as their husbands in these programs."

In the study of weekly newspapers the study states, "..a more realistic portrayal of the agricultural woman. One woman was shown winning an Ayrshire Breeders competition with her sons, while another discussed race horse breeding on her farm". The conclusion? "However, there seems to be a hesitancy on the weeklies' part to portray women as active workers in farming operations."

I don't dispute the need for such an organization as WSA nor for the raising of their issues. What I do dislike is the inadequate and one-sided research with conclusions of limited value.

Many of the recommendations made are worthwhile but they would carry much more weight if properly supported.-chris brown-

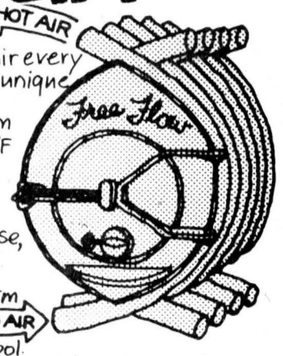
Is the Free Flow™ Stove just a lot of hot air?



It certainly is.
Our smallest Free Flow™ moves 160 cu.ft. of hot air every minute, through those unique tubes.
It lets you take a room 10'x20' from 20°F to 70°F in less than 20 minutes.
Without electricity.
Without a fan.
Without a peep of noise, warm air is circulated.
The walls are warm.
Even the floor is warm
But the stove itself stays remarkably cool.
Because the Free Flow stove doesn't work like other stoves, it doesn't look like other stoves.

Canadian Opera Company visits Cornwall, Avonmore

(Special) - Cornwall and area will come alive with the strains of operatic music, this week, when the Canadian Opera Company Ensemble arrives for a three-day residency starting Thursday.

The visit will feature several public performances, technical workshops and choral workshops.

The COC Ensemble's visit to Cornwall is part of its first ever tour which has taken the ensemble to six communities in Southern Ontario. Cornwall is the last stop on the tour.

"Opera has always been popular in Cornwall, and we're hoping that the residency program with its variety of performances and workshops will help the community to appreciate it even more," said John Limeburner, co-ordinator of the touring program at Aultsville Theatre at St. Lawrence College.

The ensemble's residency program here will start Thursday morning with a technical workshop for high school drama students.

Thursday afternoon the ensemble will perform Hansel and Gretel for children from six elementary schools in Cornwall. Kits have been distributed to the teachers of children who will attend the presentation, in an effort to help teachers and students understand opera better and to help them prepare for the audience participation that is part of the opera company's version of Hansel and Gretel.

Thursday night, Claudette Roy, a member of the ensemble, will sing O Canada at the start of the Royals hockey game at the Civic Complex. At the same time the ensemble's assistant technical director and its wardrobe, wig and makeup supervisor will conduct a technical workshop for members of the Glen Productions.

Two special one hour performances of "Opera Highlights" will take place Thursday at 8pm and Friday at noon, on the mall at Cornwall Square. At these free performances, four singers from the ensemble, accompanied by a pianist, will perform a selection of popular operatic tunes.

Friday, the ensemble will travel to Tagwi Secondary School near Avonmore to perform Hansel and Gretel for rural elementary school children. Friday evening, the ensemble will conduct two choral workshops for members of the Glen, the Cornwall Centennial Choir and the Ecumenical Choir.

The ensemble's stay in Cornwall will end Saturday night with the performance of the mini-opera Hello Beheme at Aultsville Theatre. Hello Beheme is a touring version of Puccini's La Boheme, a story of young love set in the Paris of the 1830's. The performance is in English.

The touring version of the opera makes use of a minimum number of singers, musicians, equipment and sets in order to make it easier to bring opera to more communities.

Advance tickets for Hello Boheme are on sale at the Capitol Theatre and at the college bookstore.

The performance begins at 8pm, Sat. Nov. 22. It will be followed by a reception at which the audience will have the opportunity to meet members of the troupe.

NDDHS NEWS

"Lest we forget". This was the thought on all students' minds during the school's Remembrance Day service last Monday morning.

The service was well planned and very appropriate. Pat Horsnby recited the poem, "Why Wear a Poppy", Mr. Ward read from the Bible, the Senior Band played selections, and Bill Stewart played the bagpipes for the laying of the wreaths. There was no school on Tuesday in acknowledgement of Remembrance Day.

On Wednesday. our Junior A and Senior Boys' Basketball teams travelled to Char-Lan for their first exhibition games. The Junior A team scored a victory of 57-51 over Char-Lan, while the Seniors went down to defeat.

On Thursday, the Junior A and B teams were at North Grenville where both teams were defeated.

The Boy Athlete of the Week was Bart Steele for his steady, consistent play with the Junior Basketball team, and Trish Henry won the Female Award for being top scorer not only of the season, but also of last Friday's game.

The Senior Girls' team played against St. Lawrence losing 68-51.

Midget girls' basketball began last week under the supervision of Miss Wilson.

The team will be coached by by Tessie Boretos, Nancy Vanden Bosch, Trish Henry, and Mary Ann Koeckoek, all members of the Senior Girl's team.

The Midgets will open their season with a tournament at General Vanier on Dec. 3.

In Girl's House League Basketball last Thursday, Gold and Green Senior girls played with Gold House winning.

Also on Thursday, the Reach For The Top team competed against the teacher's team in a test of intelligence and quick thinking.

The teacher's team, composed of Mr. Graham, Mr. Groves, Mrs. Lapointe, and Mr. King, lost a close game 415-380. They have asked for a rematch in Activity Period next Thursday.

This week almost became the shortest ever. Students were informed early Monday morning that Ontario Hydro would be shutting off the power in the area in order to carry out repairs and, as a result, the school would close on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons.

Later in the day, however, a news update told that the shutoff would not be necessary on those days. Well, maybe next week!

Chesterville's Martin Schoones (6) jets in on Finch goalie Scott McIntyre looking for the puck during EOJCHL action at Finch Wednesday night at Finch. Ron Leclair got the only Jet goal as Chesterville fell 5-1 to the 76's.

Chesterville Jets in early season slump

(Staff) - Embrun 72's continue to sail along at an undefeated clip but the Chesterville Jets are mired in an early season slump in the Eastern Ontario Junior C Hockey League.

Maxville 9 Chesterville 2

Maxville Highlanders broke out of a 1-1 tie with three second period goals and five third stanza tallies to defeat the Jets last Tuesday at the Chesterville Arena.

Darren MacQuaig paced the Highlanders with the hat trick. Adding a pair was Mike Haineault while Wayne Kippen, Willie Kippen, Paul Lessard and Darren Rolland had one goal each.

The Jets blasted from the starting gate when Bob Harper scored with just 22 seconds gone in the first period from Dwayne Fawcett and Jamie Utman. However they couldn't dent the scoresheet again until Steve Jones tallied at 12:16 of the third.

Finch 5 Chesterville 2

Chesterville came out on the short end of the score for the second time in as many nights when they bowed to the 76's Wednesday night in Finch.

Finch scored the only two goals of the first period as Doug Hough and Mark Marjerrison put the puck past Jets goalie Eddie Whitteveen.

After a scoreless second period, Finch increased their lead to 5-0 with three straight third stanza goals. Ron Smith struck for one and Roger Vanier the other two markers.

Ron Leclair averted a shutout when he scored Chesterville's only goal with 4:45 left in the game. Picking up assists were Rob Harper and Don Richards.

Steve Sullivan and Jerry McGillis had two helpers each for the 76's.

Embrun 8 Osnabruck 5

Mario Lessard scored three goals, increasing his league high to 11, as Embrun overpowered Osnabruck Township Kings.

Linemate Mario Savage chipped in with a goal and four assists while the third member of the troika, leftwinger Pierre Servant, earned two helpers.

Embrun's other goals came from Daniel Piche, Mario Bourgeois, R. Bourbonnais and Gilles St. Pierre.

Assistant captain Blair Henderson continued his fine play for the Kings as he drilled in two goals and added an assist. Jeff Johnson, Brad Shaver and Fred Ouderkirk got the other Osnabruck goals. Bill Kroze helped out on three tallies and S. Cowsell, two, for the Kings who were down 6-4 after two periods and couldn't catch up in the third.

Crysler 8 Alexandria 4

The Recreation Raiders continued their steady play as they dropped the Alexandria Glens.

Christian Brisson provided the offensive punch as he had three goals plus an assist. Sylvain Lafleche also enjoyed an exceptional night chalking up two goals and four helpers.

Denis Raymond, Michel Courville and Willy Huybregts rounded out Crysler's scoring. John MacSewyn scored twice and Mike Cholette and Marc Cooper once each for Alexandria. MacSewyn and Cholette added two assists apiece for the Glens who trailed 3-2 after one period 4-3 after two.

Alexandria 4 Embrun 4

Alexandria came off a bad game against Crysler and gave Embrun the best contest it's had all year.

Jocelyn Ranger tallied twice for the Glens. Mike MacDougall and Mike Cholette got the other Alexandria goals.

The Savage-Servant-Lessard line was again devastating for the 72's who had to score twice in the final three minutes of the game to earn the tie.

Savage slammed the puck home twice and Lessard once. The tying marker by Dan Piche was set up by Lessard and Savage.

Embrun won their next game, at home, against Crysler Sunday night 5-3, but no scoresheet was available at press time.

Maxville 4 Osnabruck 2

Three goals in the last five minutes of the game destroyed a 2-1 Osnabruck advantage.

Hubert Sauve was the main cog for the Highlanders notching two of those third stanza markers, including the winner with 1:10 left. Hughie Coleman iced the game when he scored in the last minute.

The Kings drew first blood late in the first period with John Hume scoring. Maxville didn't get on the board until 13:16 of the second when Darren Rolland hit the target.

D. Johnson put Osnabruck back on top with a goal early in the third but Maxville roared back with their three goal blitz to win.

(Staff) - Green came close but couldn't upend the Red squad in Town League Hockey last Thursday.

Two late third period goals enabled Red to pull off a 4-3 win. In the other game, Blue registered its first point of the season when they tied Maroon 3-3.

Gary Gallinger notched his fifth goal of the year with just 39 seconds left in the game to give Red the two points. Assisting on the play was Larry Gallinger.

Brent Theede had tallied from Lyle Servage at 12:11 to deadlock the contest. Green thought they were in good position for a victory when Pat Imrie scored at 9:17 with help from Barry Holmes.

Larry Gallinger opened the scoring for Red at 6:39 of the first period from John Douma. But Green's Barry Lajoie collected his third and fourth goals of the campaign near the end of the period giving them a 2-1 edge.

Theede evened things up for Red at 13:46 of the second stanza from Dave Cross, setting the stage for the third period fireworks.

Tony Welland and Richard McMillan traded unassisted first period goals in the Maroon-Blue match.

Doug Fry nudged Green ahead at 2:37 of the second period from Wayne Dillabough. Neil Beckstead tied it at 7:24 assisted by Bill Hallem.

Blue jumped in front for the third time on Bill Moran's marker with 16 seconds left in the period. Helping Bill out was Doug Fry.

Randy Elliot struck for the final goal of the game with four-and-a-half minutes remaining in the contest pulling Maroon even.

Action resumes Thursday night at the Chesterville Arena at 7pm when Green meets Maroon and Blue faces-off against Red.

Winchester Hawks score seven third period goals to dump Prescott

WINCHESTER (Staff) - Prescott Saints must be wishing the length of a hockey game could be shortened to 40 minutes.

The Saints and front-running Winchester Hawks were even at three goals at the end of the second period before the Hawks went on a third period scoring rampage, pouring in seven goals, to post a 10-4 victory Sunday afternoon at the Winchester Arena.

The win gives the Hawks eight wins and a tie in nine games. On Friday night in Metcalfe, the Jets held Winchester to a 4-4 draw.

Mark Beaupre of the Hawks was blazing on Sunday. The crafty center fired in three goals and collected four assists. Two of them were of the shorthanded variety and both came at a critical juncture of the contest.

With a little more than seven minutes remaining in the game and the Hawks hanging on to a 5-4 lead, Winchester's Ronnie Richards was banished to the sin bin for hooking.

Then the Hawks penalty killing crew went to work. Beaupre was setup by Al McLean, made a move on Saints netminder Tony Fortier, and shoved the puck into the net.

With Prescott still reeling from that shocker, Ken Shay fed Beaupre, who again found nobody between himself and Fortier and again the goalie lost the battle. The two goals were scored seven seconds apart.

By now the Prescott club was totally demoralized and the Hawks hit the net three more times before the final buzzer with Ken Shay, Rudy Grisel and Beaupre, with his third, doing the honors.

The Hawks scoring spree can be attributed, in part, to the fact the Saints had a manpower shortage and could only employ two lines. By the latter half of the third frame, Prescott was burned out.

This certainly wasn't the case for the majority of the game as the Saints kept the Hawks off balance with tenacious checking.

The Hawks opened the game's scoring with Dean McIntosh pulling the trigger and they made it 2-0 when Curtis McMillan outguessed Fortier.

However, control of the game slowly shifted over to Prescott. The Saints capitalized when Chris Logstrup scored after some ferocious action in front of Hawk goalie Bruce Jones. They then tied it up as George Pollman hit the net.

The teams scored a goal each in the second period. Hawks went ahead at 12:34 when Shay finished a precision passing play with Rick Grisel. But the Saints stormed back three minutes later when Pollman got his second after out-maneuvering Hawks netminder Jones.

Winchester could have been in the lead but Ken Shay clanged a drive off the crossbar and Beaupre hit the goalpost.

Shay made no mistake when he slammed the puck home at the two minute mark of the third stanza putting Hawks ahead. Rudy Grisel then pumped in Winchester's first shorthanded marker of the game making the score 5-3 but Prescott struck back quickly when John Lavery's rocket from the point zoomed over Jones' shoulder.

Then came Beaupre's shorthanded goals and from then on the Saints were a worn out and defeated hockey club.

Bruce Jones was called on to come up with some big saves during the course of the game. On each of Prescott's goals he had little chance.

His counterpart Tony Fortier, was beaten for 10 goals but played very well. He was especially sharp in the second half of the third period when the game resembled "Showdown in the NHL."

The Hawks next home game will be on Friday night against the unpredictable Char-Lan Rebels. Game time at the Winchester Arena is 8:30pm.

Dan's moved in for a share of first after they edged out Clements 2-1 at the Chesterville Arena on Monday night. In the other game Duff squeaked by Aqua Fun by the same 2-1 score.

John Dumolien assisted by Heine Bruing and Lambert Joldersma helped out by Glen Thompson notched Dan's Shoppe's goals. Ype Vanderveen replied for Clements Feeds who lost their first of the year.

Steven Byvelds and Lee Carruthers hit the net in Duff's win over Aqua Fun. Bill Steele, Jack Hoogeveen and Jeff DeVries collected assists on the two goals. Greg Beckstead was setup by Neil Beckstead on Aqua Fun's only marker.

Dan's Shoppe and Clements Feed are tied for first with seven points each. Duff is next with four followed by Aqua Fun at two points.

Oldtimers edge North Gower 2-I

(Staff) - The Chesterville Oldtimers won one of three games played last week.

Last Wednesday night, Cardinal came to town and left with a 8-5 win. Scoring for Chesterville were Mike Fyke, with two, Dick Henderson, Brian Savage and Les Holmes.

Chesterville travelled to North Gower Saturday night and earned a 2-1 win. Don Munroe and Mike Coyle tallied for the locals.

The Oldtimers played in Kemptville Sunday afternoon and came out on the wrong end of a 9-3 score. Goal getters for Chesterville were Rae Imrie, Don Munroe and Rick Cormier.

The team will be back in action Wednesday (tonight) when they host Berwick at the Chesterville Arena. Game time is 9:30pm.

NDDHS loses

MAPLE RIDGE (Staff) - The North Dundas Senior Girls basketball team fell short in their bid for a playoff spot Friday afternoon at NDDHS.

The squad dropped a 68-51 decision to the St. Lawrence Saints and thus finished the season with four wins in nine games and a sixth place finish in the league.

St. Lawrence on the other hand, won seven games in nine starts ending up third behind General Vanier and CCVS.

NDDHS stayed close to the Saints in the first quarter being just two points behind at 20-18.

However, the second and third quarters belonged to the visitors as they capitalized on turnovers and led 42-26 at the half and 65-32 after three.

The locals came alive in the fourth quarter but by then the game was out of reach.

Leading the way for NDDHS was Trish Henry who collected 12 points. Debbie McVey chipped in with eight.

Atom Flyers unbeaten

(Staff) - The Chesterville Atom Flyers enjoyed a perfect week taking two games from Metcalfe.

Last Thursday night in Metcalfe, Chesterville prevailed 5-2. Jason Groves opened the scoring from Bobby Van Delst and Ross Giles. Then Flyers John Mackler struck for his first of three putting the score at 2-0 for Chesterville at the end of the first period.

Flyers added two more in the middle frame with Mackler popping in his second from Mike Desormeaux, and Kevin MacLeod notching an unassisted marker.

Metcalfe's Steven Walker and Bruce Higgins scored in the third to cut Chesterville's lead in half but Mackler completed his hat trick with just 14 seconds left putting the game beyond doubt.

Chesterville hosted Metcalfe back at the arena on Friday night and posted an impressed 8-0 win.

The Flyers scored two first period goals, twice again in the second and four times in the final frame.

Jeff Barkley banged in both of Chesterville's opening period goals, his first from Ross Giles and his second from Ross and David Lannin.

Flyers upped the count to 4-0 after two on a pair of markers by Jason Groves. John Mackler and Ross Giles helped out on the first one and Bobby Van Delst set up the second.

John Mackler put Chesterville ahead by 5-0 when he started the third period off with a goal from Jeff Barkley and Shawn Beckstead.

Then Ross Giles got a goal of his own four minutes later from Mike Desormeaux.

Both Jason Groves and Jeff Barkley completed their hat tricks to end the scoring. Assisting on Jason's goal was Ross Giles and Bobby Van Delst while John Mackler and Jevon Groves helped in Jeff's third of the game.

Chuck Droppo earned the zero for the Flyers.

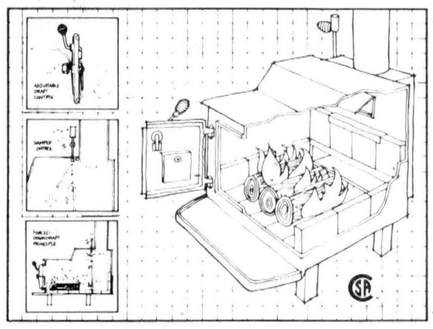
What makes the CANUCK such an outstanding stove?



It's the Canuck's integral damper design.

The Canuck wood burning stove features a unique integral damper system which allows you to actually control the airflow pattern within the stove. Other stoves rely on direct draft and air convection currents within the stove. But the Canuck has a built-in damper, which when closed, enables you to create a downdraft which forces the smoke back down through the fire. This causes secondary combustion of the excess gases in the smoke and creates even more heat.

The result is a two-fold advantage for you.

Canuck wood burning stoves are manufactured by High-Country Engineering and are available from a dealer near you.
