RECIPE FOR A HAPPY NEW YEAR

Take twelve fine full-grown months —see that these are thoroughly free from old memories of bitterness, rancor, hate and jealousy. Cleanse them completely from every clinging spite; pick off all specks of pettiness and littleness—in short, see that these months are freed from all the past —have them as fresh and clean as when they first came from the great storehouse of time. Cut these months into thirty or thirty-one equal parts. This batch will keep for just one year. Do not attempt to make up the whole batch at one time (so many people spoil the entire lot this way). But prepare one day at a time as follows:

Into each day put twelve parts of faith, eleven of patience, ten of courage, nine of work (some people omit this ingredient and spoil the flavour of the rest), eight parts of hope, seven of fidelity, six of liberality, five of kindness, four of rest (leaving this out is like leaving the oil out of the salad—don't do it) three parts of prayer, two of meditation, and one well selected resolution. Then put in about a teaspoonful of good spirits, a dash of fun, a jigger of laughter, a sprinkling of play, and a heaping cupful of good humour. Cook thoroughly in a fervent heat, garnish with a few smiles and a sprig of joy, then serve with quietness, unselfishness, and cheerfulness, and a Happy Year is a certainty!

A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR

from the Editor and staff

Santa Came to Town Given Royal Welcome

On Saturday afternoon with fanfare and flourish, Santa Claus arrived in Chesterville from Ottawa and was welcomed by Reeve Chas. McMillan and members of Council, members of the Community Service Committe of the Chesterville Rotary Club, the boys of the Fire Brigade and IOOF of Chesterville.

Santa was driven around town in the fire truck drawn by two tiny reindeer which together with the lovely greenery made the fire truck a thing of beauty. In the entourage old King Cole's Chief Fiddler was present and strutted his stuff magnificiently. Harlequin and Punchinello were Santa's attendants. The smart looking boys of the Fire Brigade in their new uniforms were a fitting escort for the venerable saint who was, we noticed jolly and very portly.

Upon arrival at the Community Christmas tree, a towering spruce on Market Square about 400 delighted and enthusiastic children received large cellophane bags of candy.

Mouth organ selections were played by Mr. Arnold McMahon. A lovemaking and proposal was very ably done by Miss Doris McMahon and Miss Joan McMillan. Mr. Arthur Brian and Mr. Fred Beckstead played several piano duets. A play entitled "Wanted a Housekeeper" was presented. Mr. Brian gave a couple of accordion selections which were greatly enjoyed.

The members exchanged Christmas gifts. Santa arrived in time to give out the gifts and candy. A box of candy was made up for the sick, who were not able to be present.

A very delightful lunch was served by the ladies. A vote of thanks was moved by the president to all who had taken part. The meeting closed with "God Save the King".

Colquhoun Women's Institute December Meeting

The Colquhoun Women's Institute meeting for December was held in the Church Hall on Tuesday evening, December 20th. The meeting opened with the opening ode. The minutes of the last meeting were given by the secretary, Mrs. Robert Colquhoun, approved by the members and signed by the president, Mrs. Roy Hart, who also planned the meeting.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOMINATIONS HELD ON TUESDAvY

Chestervile Public School nominations were held in the school building on Tuesday of this week. As usual a very poor attendance was experienced. The outcome saw the names of Lorne Marcellus and Myles Merkley replacing those of Thomas Klingvall and Alex Barrie for the next two years. Messrs. Barrie and Klingvall are longtime members of the board, and have served faithfully and in the interest of the community. Mr. Barrie was chairman of the board in 1949.

Harry Henderson who has served for the past two years was nominated by acclamation for the next two years. The Board now includes, besides the new members, Percy Gilroy, Fay Shaver and Mansell Brownlee.

Women have more strength in looks than we have in our laws; and more power by their tears than we have by our arguments.—Saville.

RIFLES REMOVED FROM CHS FIVE STUDENTS QUESTIONED

Four of the rifles of the Cadet Corps of the Chesterville High School were missing from their rack on Tuesday of this week. The loss was discovered by Mr. Clarke, the principal, and a search was immediately instigated. The guns are the property of the Department of National Defense and must be accounted for at all times. After a thorough search joining the school building. It was joining the scrool building. It was evident that the school had been entered and the rifles taken without permission. After consultation with the Chairman and members of the school board, it was decided that the matter was of a serious enough nature to be placed in the hands of the police. The local Provincial policeman, Gordon Jack, was notified and he immediately started an investigation.

P. C. Jack was able to uncover most of the details regarding the missing rifles. It would appear that a group of boys, five in number, wishing to indulge in a little target practice forced the front door of the school, entered and took the guns. After the shooting, with no apparent harm to the rifles, they were placed in the outbuilding with the hope that no one would be any the wiser.

Target practice is a pleasant pastime but not with proporty that belongs to the Department of National Defense, and under the care of the Chesterville High School. The investigation is proceeding. It is hoped that the outcome will impress on the minds of those involved and any other of a like bent that property rights must be observed.

SIREN TO BLOW SAT. NOON ALSO ON NEW YEAR'S EVE

The fire siren atop the Fire Hall will wail this coming Saturday at 12 noon, and if present plans are completed, every Saturday noon thereafter. It is necessary to give the hooter an occasional workout, and general practice is to sound the siren at least once a week.

New Year's Eve will be a signal for another blast, so if anyone is awakened at midnight, which is improbable for who will be sleeping at the beginning of the New Year, just put it down to the general merriment.

MEMBERS OF CHS STAFF PRESENT TURKEY TO MR. AND MRS. W. YORK

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn York were very pleasantly surprised last week to receive a fine dressed turkey as a gift in appreciation of their work from the members of the Staff of the Chesterville High School.

SHOWER TENDERED MRS. BALLANTYNE AT MOREWOOD

A delightfully arranged shower was held last Friday evening in the United Church hall in honor of Mrs. Jean Ballantyne whose marriage takes place shortly. A short program, under the direction of Mrs. Walter Steven, consisted of a duet by Dale and Sharon Marcellus, "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer"; a dialogue, "Monday Morning" by Sheila Whittaker, George Barclay, Doris McNab and George Barclay; a solo by Katharine Coulthart, "That's What I Want For Christmas"; a drill by eight little girls and a solo by George Addison, with Mrs. D. Marcellus at the piano.

Mrs. Ballantyne was escorted to the platform, where a decorated chair was placed over which was suspended balloons filled with confetti, which showered on the bride-to-be.

An address was read by Mrs. Stuart Mattice and the presentation of a coffee table, a silver tea service and a silver dish was made by Miss Ina Mackenzie and Mrs. Lou Dyer.

Mrs. Ballantyne replied in a few well chosen words, thanking her many friends for their lovely gifts. A bride's book was on display and was signed by nearly 100 friends.

Refreshments were served by the ladies. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. H. R. Faulkner, Mrs. Thos. Reveller, Miss Ina Mackenzie, Mrs. Lou Dyer, Mrs. G. Fraser, Mrs. S. Mattice, Mrs. H. Stewart, Mrs. E. A. Thompson, Mrs. H. Stein, Mrs. G. Countryman, Mrs. R. Swerdfeger, Miss Lily Feely, Mrs. Dwight Marcellus and Mrs. Walter Steven.

AYLMER MAY ENTER COVHL HOME GAME IN CHESTERVILLE

Secretary C. L. MacGregor yesterday announced that the possible entry of Aylmer Saints into the COVHL may necessitate complete revision of the season's schedule.

An application for entry has been received from the Aylmer club, and the majority of the other clubs in the league have signified their approval. The Aylmer club is expected to be accepted at a league meeting to be held soon. It is the intention of the Aylmer team to play all home games in the Chesterville Arena, which will mean no more travelling than last year for the other teams.

Approval of the Aylmer application will mean change of a schedule already disrupted by mild weather, to accommodate six teams instead of five. Teams are Alexandria Maroons, Inkerman Rockets, Cornwall Community Sports Club, Maxville Millionaires, Cornwall Falcons playing under the standards of last year's Finch Blue Devils, and Aylmer.

Recent mild weather has almost completely wiped out natural ice in the district, and to date only one game of the schedule has been played. Maxville's second postponement came Tuesday when the scheduled game between Millionaires and Alexandria Maroons was cancelled indefinitely because of ice conditions.

Dillabough-Turvey Nuptials In Brantford Church On Friday Last

Wesley United Church, Brantford, was the scene of the candlelight wedding Friday, December 23, at 4 p.m. of Miss Madeline Pearl Turvey and Mr. Kenneth Douglas Dillabough. Rev. L. R. Ballantyne officiated. The church was decorated with white 'mums and carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Turvey, 58, Cayuga Street, Brantford. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dillabough, Chesterville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a charming gown of white slipper satin styled with a nylon cape yoke trimmed with braid and seed pearls and Peter Pan collar. The basque bodice was back-buttoned and ended in a bustle and the gathered skirt fell into a short train. Her orange blossom crown held a floor-length veil and she carried a white Bible, gift from her grandmother, Mrs. James Turvey, and a nosegay of roses and carnations. White streamers with white roses and carnations fell from the Bible.

Miss Dorothy Brewer, Brantford, was bridesmaid. Her gold satin gown was styled with a sweetheart neckline, cap sleeves and pointed bodice. The skirt was three-tiered. Her goldbraided crown-headdress and gold mitts matched her costume and she carried a bouquet of bronze 'mums and yellow roses.

Master James Edward Turvey, nephew of the bride, was ring-bearer, wearing short navy trousers and white shirt. Mr. Wally Skinner was best man. Ushers were Mr. Harold Turvey and Mr. Wray Turvey, brothers of the bride.

Mr. Frank W. Holton played the wedding music and accompanied Mr. Fred Lewis when he sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

A reception was held in the Blue Room of the Hotel Kerby, Brantford. The couple received, assisted by the bride's mother gowned in ashes of roses crepe, black accessories and corsage of American Beauty roses, and the groom's mother, wearing a gown of green chiffon velvet, matching hat, black accessories and corsage of yellow roses.

Bouquets of red roses flanked the three-tier wedding cake.

For travelling the bride donned a sherry red gabardine suit, mouton coat, brown accessories and corsage of red roses. During the ceremony and for travelling, she wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Following a motor trip to eastern points, Mr. and Mrs. Dillabough will reside in Owen Sound. Guests were present from Chesterville, Kingston, Waterford and St. Thomas.

The bride's gift to the bridesmaid was an evening bag and the groom's gift to the ushers and best man were ties and socks.

LOUIS BROMFIELD WIZARD OF THE SOIL

With the need for soil conservation being stressed in both Canada and the United States, Louis Bromfield, Ohio farmer-lecturer-author and a conservationist of world-wide fame, should be a real drawing card as an after-dinner speaker.

Mr. Bromfield today lives on a farm which has been developed from 600 acres made up of five badly run-down eroded and inefficiently operated farms, into one successful establishment of 1,000 acres.

On January 19, this wizard of land reclamation will be guest speaker at the Ontario Crop Improvement Association's banquet in the King Edward Hotel. He will also address an O.A.-C. Alumni luncheon in the Royal York Hotel on January 20.

Malabar Farm, which is the name of his Ohio homestead, is operated most successfully on a co-operative basis. Workers on the farm share in profits and enjoy an abundance of vegetables, meat and other farm products. And his 30-room home is the mecca for displaced persons as well as agricultural experts from all parts of the world.

"The valley in which Malabar farm is situated, was a paradise for the Indians 45 years ago," he says in his book "Malabar Farm." He left the valley when he was 15 and did not return for 25 years. He found conditions bad. Milldams had been carried away by floods. Pools had vanished silted up with mud. The soil had failed miserably and many farmers had moved out.

In his books "Pleasant Valley" and "Malabar Farm," Mr. Bromfield outlines a method of farming which at first was regarded with suspicion and criticism by many agriculturists of both Canada and the United States. Yet these methods have been preservation and maintenance have been the basis of his plan. Today it is the outstanding showplace of agriculture.

He is a firm believer in the axiom that "production and efficiency makes rich farmers just as it does rich industrialists."

And he has demonstrated that his ideas are sound. Today he operates his large farm on a streamlined basis and he can show visitors acres and acres of reclaimed land which had been abandoned by former owners as worthless.

He knows from actual first-hand contact, what soil erosion means, and he is also fully acquainted, by actual experience, with what soil conservation can accomplish.

WHAT IS A CANADIAN ?

We are citizens of Canada, either by birth or by adoption and naturalization.

We are citizens of the Commonwealth.

Our skin may be brown or yellow or black or white. But we are Canadians.

Our name may be Podolski, Fraser, Wong, Spermanti Dubois, Schmidt or Jones.

Our forefathers may have come from Glasgow, Prague or Tokyo, from Dublin, Bordeaux, Rotterdam or Newcastle.

We may be a labourer, student, doctor, merchant or machinist.

Whatever we are, whatever our occupation, whatever our background, if we accept Canada as our country, and with it the Democratic way of life, we are Canadians.

We have the right to speak freely, to worship freely, to choose our leaders freely, but with these rights we must learn our duties—to speak wisely, to worship wisely, to choose our leaders wisely.

We inherit, along with 13,000,000 other Canadians, a vast half continent, abounding in resources and opportunities—opportunities for a good, healthy, and a happy life.

We inherit two great cultures—the French and the Anglo-Saxon and more than 30 others as well. We are creating out of these a new and growing Canadian culture.

We are at the dawn of great things, for us and for our country.

We are the builders of a great and free nation, of a great and free people.

"It's Great to be a Canadian."

The Retreat From Socialism

R. J. Deachman

Three Socialist armies have been defeated in quick succession. The main force is likely to meet the same fate. It began with the retreat of Coldwell's little army in the elections of June 27th. At that time the main force of the CCF seemed at a loss to know which way to turn. Rightly or wrongly the popular vote was against the Conservative Party. Their day had not yet come. A section of the Socialist vote went over to the Liberals. The CCF started with over 30 members ended up with an unlucky 13. Then came New Zealand. The Socialist Party had been in power for fourteen years and was thought to be strongly entrenched but the people were thoroughly tired of controls, they said good-bye to them a few brief days ago.

Here was a small continent with limited population. It was the theorist's island, the place where popular experiments in government could be carried on. It was a country where every prospect beckoned, so far as socialism is concerned. It had no great neighbors such as we have on our southern border and the Socialist loves to carry out his work alone. Capitalism has proved, at least on this continent, its tremendous capacity to produce. It has vgiven to the people of the United States and Canada a higher standard of living than elsewhere attained.

The isolation of New Zealand failed to help. I have read a New Zealand paper for many years, I do not claim, of course, to be an authority but one thing was clearly evident, the people were tired of controls. Long accustomed to freedom they balked at restraints. They might stand for the blows of fate but not for the pinpricks of the Socialist planners. It would take tremendous compensatory advantages to induce men to live under a controlled economy. It could not be improved by small changes, they decided to jettison the works and prepare for the new day.

For years we have listened to stories of the wonderful achievements of New Zealand. It was the model state of the socialist dreamers. No other record of the Coldwell repertoire was played so persistently over a long period of years. It was held to be the perfect example which other nations should follow. Now this must be abandoned. Our Socialist friends have travelled a long way. Russia was, for a time, an outstanding example but despotism applied the whip too freely. The Socialists were inclined at first to be lenient to Russia then threw its new found friends to the wolves, Russian wolves! The kind which ate whole families alive. I remember them, they were in the school books of my childhood. Why bring that up from such distant shores of memory?

Now Australia has passed up the opportunity to carry on with the old controls. The story is similar to the one New Zealand told a few days earlier. Socialism, in Australia, has been under attack. Socialist parties have one big problem. It is always difficult to secure cooperation between socialism and agriculture. The farmer seeks lower costs of production. Labor, though perhaps not conscious of it, moves always towards higher prices. Capitalism with the use of improved machines tries to reduce costs. The natural and normal thing to happen is cooperation between capital and agriculture.

Britain is next. The signs indicate a change of government. Some point to the by-elections in the United Kingdom and emphatically deny this possibility. By-elections are not a good guide. A good many people will vote for the party in power but faced with an open contest will vote the other way. It is a government of austerity, it has a chilling influence upon the minds of the people. Experience comes with time. Slowly they are beginning to realize that restrictions on the wealthy do not necessarily help the poor. Social benefits must now be paid by the people who receive them. Accumulated wealth is not now an inexhaustible source of supply—a change is due in Great Britain.

There is a new situation—it is developing rapidly. The most stupid move ever made in this country was the adoption of bulk sales of farm products. The free market is impersonal, it is competitive. The wheat agreement cost the farmers of this country over $300,000,000 in the first two years of its existence. If Britain had suffered that loss instead of the farmers of Western Canada what would have happened? It looks, at the moment, as if we are likely to lose the British market. It would be a stupid and costly adventure for both countries but we have to remember that economic controls are for the direct gains of today—the future must take care of itself.

Too Much For Them

Some people who set out to learn the secret of success abandon the search when they run across a few clues that hard work has something to do with it.

Mrs. Harry Garlough and infant daughter returned to her home on Friday from the Memorial Hospital, Winchester.

Sincere final tribute to the memory of Miss Doris Marion Casselman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Casselman by the large gathering of sympathizers, relatives and friends who attended her funeral held on Friday afternoon from her home to St. Peter's Lutheran Church, when the pastor, Rev. Mr. Neff spoke words of comfort to the bereaved parents, sister, brothers and friends. Deceased passed away at her home early Wednesday morning after an illness of a couple of weeks, in her fifteenth year. She was beloved by all who knew her and a very genuine regret was felt at her passing. Interment was made in the family plot in Williamsburg cemetery. The pallbearers were Fernly Johnston, Emerson Carr, Lloyd Casselman, Jack Hall, Ralph Casselman, Clair McIntosh. During the service the Junior Choir of St. Peter's Church sang "What A Friend We Have In Jesus." The sincere sympathy of the community goes out to the parents, sister and brothers in their sad bereavement.

Confusion

Auctioneer: "What am I offered for this beautiful bust of Robert Burns?"

Man in Crowd: "That ain't Burns . . . that's Shakespeare."

Auctioneer: "Well, folks, the joke's on me. That shows what I know about the Bible."

May we at this time cordially express our appreciation of your friendship and goodwill with the hope that our service will continue to be a factor in the prosperity we wish for you during the year 1950 including a large measure of Health and Happiness.

Anglicans Observe Christmas Festival

At 10.30 a.m. on Christmas Day the Sung Eucharist was offered in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Chesterville, by The Rev'd Leon B. G. Adams, B.A. who also officiated at the annual Blessing of the Crib.

The Altar was adorned with white festive hangings, tall lighted candles, and vases of snapdragons which were given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of the late John Fyke by his family. Both the Altar and Crib were flanked with decorated Christmas trees while in the nave were boughs of pines. A large lighted star suspended over the Altar added a further touch of beauty to the scene.

Miss Edna McGee provided the organ accompaniment for the familiar Christmas carols and Merbecke's setting of the Eucharist. During the Offertory the choir sang the carol, "God rest you merry, Gentlemen".

The Rector's sermon stressed the Good News of God's Love shown in the Incarnation and in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. He said, "The word Bethlehem means House of Bread. Here in the Blessed Sacrament God comes to His House of Bread today. The Altar is our Bethlehem. Here in very fact we may kneel and worship the Christ Child in our midst today."

The Rector also officiated at the Midnight Sung Eucharist on Christmas Eve at St. Peter's Church, South Mountain, and at the Holy Eucharist in St. Matthias Church, Winchester, on Christmas Day at 9.00 a.m.

On Wednesday, December 28, the Feast of the Holy Innocents, the Rector officiated at the Children's Eucharist at the Crib in Holy Trinity Church. The children brought gifts of food as an offering of love to the Christ Child. The food parcels were afterwards sent to the Winchester Hospital. After the service the children enjoyed their annual party which was held in the Library in Chesterville.

On January 1st, the Anglican Church will observe the Feast of the Circumcision of our Lord with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 9.30 a.m. The annual Carol Service (this year in candlelight) will be held on January 8th, during the Octave of the Epiphany.

Unanswerable Logic

"I don't like to criticize," said the English visitor, "but I do think our way of answering the telephone is better than yours."

"Oh? What do you say that's so much better?"

English Visitor: "Well, instead of saying 'Hello,' we say 'Are you there?' Then, of course, if you're not there, there's no use going on with the conversation."

Voice of Experience

"My wife always lets me have the last word!" exulted the husband of two months.

What's In a Name ?

John Smith happened to witness a minor holdup. In due time, the police arrived, and one officer asked the witness his name.

"John Smith," said Smith.

"Cut the comedy," snapped the cop. "What's your real name?"

"All right," said Smith, "put me down as Winston Churchill."

"That's more like it," said the officer. "You can't fool me with that Smith stuff."

EYES OF A CHILD

(Written after seeing pictures of the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund at work.)

Eyes of a child, beseeching wide,
Doomed by the war to live outside,

Outside the things of childhood's right -
Of food by day, warmth at night.

Feet of a child, unshod and torn,
The patchwork garment thin and worn.

Oh, homeless orphan, hungry, gaunt,
Whose hopeless plight should daily haunt

The heart, the mind of you and me
Until we give more liberally!

Clara Bernhardt.

Church News

MOREWOOD UNITED CHURCH

The service at Morewood United Church on Sunday morning was conducted by the minister, Rev. W. J. Copsey, B.A. The theme of the sermon was "The Excluded Christ", based on Luke 2.7 "And she brought forth her first born son wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn."

The inn at Bethlehem was like the small town hotel of today, seldom filled with guests except in an emergency. This was an emergency, Augustus Ceasar had commanded that all people be registered for the purpose of taxation. For the purpose of registration each must return to his ancestral home. So when Joseph and Mary came to Bethlehem, every available room in the inn was taken and we read, "There was no room for them in the inn." The Christ was crowded out. Others had the place he might have had. Maybe some petty governor, some learned professor, some great social leader, or some man of big business, all native sons, occupied the rooms so that the Christ must be laid in a manger. There is a parable in this. There is great danger that there be no room for the Christ in governments, that he be crowded out of education, no room for him in our schools, colleges and universities, no room for him in our social life, and no place for him in the realm of business. Give the Christ a place in politics and there will be peace in the world; give him a place in education and the graduates will go forth not worshipping the god of gold; but with the determination to serve their fellow men, give him a place in our social life and the gods of wine, of fashion and of worldly excesses will find no place, give him a place in business and justice and good will must result. Put Christ at the head of the business realm and there will be no economic depression. There is grave danger that we crowd the Christ out of time, out of our budgets, out of our work and our play, out of our hearts.

Have you any room for Jesus,
He who bore your load of sin;
As He knocks and asks admission,
Sinner will you let Him in?

The anthems by the choir were: "The Old Refrain" and "The Story of Jesus." Mrs. Sam Barrington was at the organ.

ONE PASSENGER CAR FOR EVERY 8.6 CITIZENS

A milestone in the production record of the Canadian Automobile Industry was passed in 1948 when, in August, the 5,000,000th Motor vehicle was driven off the assembly line. The total production of all vehicles during the year was the greatest peacetime accomplishment in the history of the industry, reaching a record of over two hundred and sixty-three thousand units.

The number of motor vehicles operated by Canadians continues to increase. In 1948, the total passed the two million mark, being a ten per cent. increase over the preceding year. On a per capita basis there were 8.6 citizens per passenger car.

An indication of the increased use of the motor vehicle as a mode of transportation, is the ten per cent. rise in the consumption of gasoline by motor vehicles over the previous year.

Canadians purchased over one hundred and forty-five thousand passenger cars, and over seventy-five thouand trucks and buses, at a combined retail value of over four hundred and thirty-nine million dollars.

Hyndman

Sincere tribute to the memory of an aged resident of this community was paid by friends and neighbours on Wednesday, December 21st, at two o'clock in the person of James Lattimore, who passed quietly on Monday evening at 9.30. He had been in ill health for a number of years and had suffered greatly. On Friday evening he was stricken with a slight stroke and internal hemorrhage and death came as a happy release on Monday evening.

The service was in charge of Rev. Simmons of Heckston, taking his text from St. Peter.

Mr. Lattimore was a son of the late Thomas Lattimore and his mother was Jane Hainey, early settlers from Ireland. On June 7th, this year, he celebrated his 94th birthday.

The late Mr. Lattimore was twice married, his first wife being Margaret Smith, to this union was born one son, Thomas of Minnesota. The present wife being Janet Conley, who in 1947 celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. To this union was born two sons, Bert at home and John who predeceased him in January 1940. Others left to mourn his loss are one grandson, Lyall, of Brockville; Misses Doris and Phyllis Lattimore, Ottawa; one great granddaughter, Joan of Brockville.

Hymns during the service were "Rock of Ages", "Safe in the arms of Jesus", the hymn "Meet me there" was sung by Mrs. Mansel Bennett and Mrs. Lyall Hess.

Floral offerings were pillar: the family; sprays: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conley and family. The remains were laid to rest in the family plot at the South Gower Cemetery by the following pallbearers: Robert and Ray Grant, Thomas Canning, George Francis, Sam Gilmer and Willie Farrell.

Shoes For Baby

In selecting a shoe for a baby, buy one with a puffy toe. In fact, the only part of a baby's shoe that should fit snugly is the heel, which should grip the foot firmly, as the heel controls and balances the foot. The instep should be loose. If it's too tight, it stops blood circulation and presses the arch bones out of shape.

Extra Calcium

You get extra food value in a can of fish, because the canning process softens the small fish bones which are included and makes this excellent source of calcium completely edible.

THE MIXING BOWL

By ANNE ALLAN
Hydro Home Economist

Here's to you, a happy New Year, friends!

This New Year's toast was introduced in England at the Court of Henry VII, with elaborate ceremonies marking the occasion. For this rite, a bowl, like a supper tureen, filled with wassail and cups for everyone present were used. Wassail consisted of hot ale or wine, sugar, nutmeg or ginger, with sweetened apples floating on top. The occasion was marked by a gathering of friends who expressed best wishes for the future while cups were held high, then everyone's agreement was confirmed as each drank wassail.

Today, many hosts and hostesses plan a special buffet supper or a midnight snack immediately after toasting their friends. We intend to serve tomato and chicken clock salad; waldorf salad with halved raw cranberries; buttered rolls; relishes, celery curls, carrot sticks; Christmas cake; cookies; coffee.

Other suggestions may be a Make-Your-Own Sandwich Party:

HOT SPICED APPLE JUICE

1 Can Apple Juice
1 Stick Cinnamon
6 Whole Cloves

Remove top of can completely, then drop in spice. Place the tin of juice on the top shelf of the oven to heat during the cooking of New Year's dinner. Strain hot and serve in cups.

CREAMED TURKEY

2 cups cooked turkey
1 cup peas
½ cup cooked celery
½ cup sliced olives
4 tbsps. fat
4 tbsps. flour
2 cups milk
1 tbsp. parsley, salt and pepper
1 egg yolk

Make a white sauce of fat, flour and milk. Season with salt and pepper. Add parsley and turkey and cook until the mixture is thoroughly hot. Beat the egg yolk, adding two tablespoons milk and pour into the mixture. Cook two minutes, stirring constantly, adding peas, celery and olives. Serve with diced turkey on tea biscuits.

SNOW PUDDING

½ cup corn starch
2|3 cup sugar
1 tsp. salt
4 cups boiling water
2 lemons
4 egg whites

Mix corn starch, sugar and salt thoroughly. Gradually add boiling water, stirring constantly. Cook over an electric element turned high until thick and clear, about five minutes. Add lemon juice (6 tbsps.) and grated rind and pour slowly over stiffly-beaten egg whites. Yield: 12 servings.

CHERRY SAUCE

2 tbsps. sugar
1 tsp. corn starch
Pinch salt
1½ cups milk
1 egg
½ tsp. vanilla
½ cup maraschino cherries

Mix sugar, corn starch, salt and one cup milk. Heat in double boiler. Beat egg yolk slightly with remaining milk. Add slowly to hot milk, stirring constantly. Cook until mixture is thick and will coat a spoon (8 minutes). Remove from heat, add flavoring and cherries. Serve on Snow Pudding.

FESTIVE SANDWICH LOAF

Remove crusts from a sandwich loaf, cut lengthwise into slices about ¾ inch thick. Butter each slice with a filling, then cover with another slice and spread with another filling. Continue in the same fashion until loaf is completed.

Spread top and sides of loaf with cream cheese which has been softened with top milk. (It will take about ¼ cup milk to cover one loaf.) Chill before serving and garnish platter with parsley, tomato wedges, gherkins and olives. Dot the top with strips of tomato and pieces of green cherries in a poinsettia design.

Cut in thick slices. One sandwich loaf yields about ten large servings.

MORE TELEPHONES INSTALLED IN FINCH VILLAGE

A totay of 20 new telephones are in service in Finch as a result of the recent installation of equipment at the exchange there, J. F. Gardiner, Bell Telephone manager for this region, said this week.

All waiting appicants are expected to receive telephone service within the next few days, the manager stated.

The new equipment consists of 200 terminals, and representing a new telephone number available for a subscriber, and sufficient to meet the needs of Finch for some time. During the past months, Bell workers have been busily engaged installing the necessary outside wires and cables to connect those waiting for telephone service with the exchange.

The number of telephones in Finch has increased at a rapid pace since 1945, the manager pointed out. At the end of November, there were 507 telephones in operation compared to 315 in December 1945. The recent extension brings the number of lines connected to the dial office to more than double the number of telephones in service four years ago.
