CRUMBS from GRAHAM'S LOAF

The Castle folk are more than a little blue. Seems this will be the last time we will visit from the Corner. After nearly 15 years, it will be something of a change. But we have had a lot of fun writing of the doings around and about this pile of stones. The place has become almost real and there is little doubt that the Crumb and the Small Crumb and the vice president have had their place in the scheme of things on the family newspaper.

We have ranged over a lot of ground. Subjects have varied depending on the mood of the writer. We hardly said anything about the Hon. John Diefenbaker that was complimentary according to our critics, yet we have loved the man in a manner of speaking. He offered more angles to write about than any other public figure we know.

Our delights here at the Castle are well known. Our faithful readers followed us through thick and thin and especially liked it when Small Crumb took a hand in the column. We received recipes for boils, prescriptions for water on the knee and positive directions to Hades when we stepped on sore civic toes. Our excursions into the mead room made history and incidentally very good wine. We went hunting with abandon and boasted from this corner on our return without shame.

The vice president has worked the beat over in the other part of the Castle. Every week she has turned out the "Everybody Eats" food column as well as the popular Ancient History return to the files. Now we will shut it off and let the younger and livelier minds take over. We may and we will be lost for a spell at the beginning, but new pastures take a while to prove their grass.

This column will be close to the 750th one we have sent to the printer headed Crumbs From Graham's Loaf. There have been times when the muse was lively and riding close and the words fell easily. Other times ideas would be as slow starting as bread to rise in a cold room. Some weeks our friends would agree with the ideas, other times and to our delight on occasion they would violently disagree. It has been a delightful time, this weekly visit. We could take off our shoes and let the fire roar in the draughty hall and dream of Henry and his wives. We have written the column from England, a half a dozen countries in Europe. Who knows, perhaps some day soon we might open the book again from that part of the world.

The new owners of the "Record" are no strangers to the readers of this newspaper. Blake Feeley and Wayne "Woodie" LaPrade have been members of the staff for a long time now and they know the ropes. They and their staff will be cutting new furrows but the fields of home will be the same. All the Castle folk would like to recommend them to you.

Finally and even though early, from this Ancient Crumb, his vice president and the travelling Small Crumb, our very best wishes for the coming Christmas Season.

OPINIONS . . . OURS AND OTHERS

A goodbye is difficult

We have come to another point in our business career, and it involves leaving this editorial chair. The choice has been made and this will be our last chance to inject an opinion into the public mind. But it is most difficult to find the right words to frame the farewells.

For two decades now we have used this forum on Page Two of the "Record" to stir action, to deride pompous public people and to work for a better Chesterville and district. We have had some small successes, a number of sound defeats and any amount of meaningful discussions. We have taken pride in the accomplishments of others and mourned when figures of public and private worth were taken by death. In short, we have enjoyed to the fullest measure the privilege of being the editor of a weekly newspaper. You, the reading public, accepted the product each week and helped us grow. In 1947 the newspaper circulation was a well-remembered 889. That was the week of March 10 of that year. This issue of your favourite paper will tip its hat at 2,500 in paid circulation.

The editorial "we" this week is truly that. My wife and I have been full partners in the growth and improvements in the newspaper and the allied printing plant. We have shared with you most of our growing pains including the personal growth of the rest of our family. We learned the work and worry from a master in the trade and George C. Lacey, my late father-in-law, was a master teacher. His daughter and I have been honoured to carry on the tradition.

The village and community has been good to us and we are grateful. I have had service through election in public office and my wife has spent many hours in the classroom when that was possible. Through it all we have had one abiding love and goal: To turn out a sound, sensible and well-liked newspaper in the tradition that any good newspaper cherishes. We have tried and our success in that direction is something we must leave to our readers to decide.

The decision to sell the plant and newspaper to two of our employees was made after some hard thinking. But we know the newspaper now can only go forward and the new owners, Blake Feeley and Wayne LaPrade, will prosper if they get the support we received. Both young men have worked for many years here at the "Record". They are familiar with the personalities that make the news, and with a dedicated staff there should be nothing but further improvement as times goes on. We would heartily recommend the new owners and their staff. The broom of change will bring differences but in our time we made many changes and still managed to be accepted with enthusiasm.

This Editor and his wife, co-publishers only until the bell tolls at the end of the week, would now say: Goodbye. We enter a new phase with a somewhat less burden and we will still be in business, but not the printing and publishing business. Thank you, so many faithful subscribers and friends. It has been a fruitful 22 years.

May we recommend most highly our successors, Messrs Feeley and LaPrade?

Township voters have a choice

The township of Winchester is about to have an election after a long spell of acclamations. Reeve Cecil MacNabb, the warden of the United Counties, will face his deputy-reeve, Willis Robinson, for the office of chief magistrate. Delbert Link has been acclaimed as deputy-reeve and four men are looking for three seats as councillors. Two old hands, Garfield Baker and Dwaine Wheeler, will mix it up with newcomers James Sullivan and Roland Cayer.

Cecil MacNabb has been a good reeve for quite a spell now in the township. He and his councillors have been active in general improvement in the capital worth of the municipality. If improvement shows, it must be a result of reasonable government. Under reeve MacNabb the township of Winchester has rolled along year after year with reasonable solvency and reasonable taxes.

There has been considerable pussyfooting about the Winchester Community Centre grant. We are slightly amused at the sideways approach being taken by most of the office seekers. At the heat of discussion during the summer and fall, loud words were spoken and it was suggested MacNabb had made a wrong move when presentation was made of a petition from the east side to question the grant of $20,000. We doubt if the last is heard of the petition or of the problem of the grant to Winchester village. Battle lines may not show on the surface but many votes Monday will be influenced by that fateful decision to support the village centre with township money.

We like MacNabb for reeve. One can only hope, along with our friend Cecil, these are not the famous last words.

ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: The other day I ran across a very old clipping. It was time-worn and in small print. I found a magnifying glass and read it. It is one of the loveliest expressions of humanity I have ever seen. I hope you will considr it worth reprinting. It gave nothing of the author.

On This Day—
Mend a quarrel,
Search out a forgotten friend,
Dismiss a suspicion and replace it with trust,
Write a letter to someone who misses you,
Encourage a youth who has lost faith,
Keep a promise,
Forget an old grudge,
Examine your demands on others and vow to reduce them,
Fight for a principle,
Express your gratitude,
Overcome an old fear,
Take two minutes to appreciate the beauty of nature,
Tell someone you love him.
Tell him again,
And again,
And again.
—Oregon Friend.

Dear Friend: Beautiful! Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Dear Ann Landers: I am a 15-year-old girl and my problem started three years ago. My brother Joe is a slow learner. He had to repeat the third grade and that's when all the trouble began.

My mother said I had to help him with his studies and I was willing, but it got to the point where I was actually dictating Joe's homework and doing everything for him. It required about one hour and fifteen minutes every evening.

Joe should be going to a special school but my folks refuse to admit it. They say so long as I work with him he can stay in the public school, which is free. Ann, I'm not working with him, I am doing his work and he is faking out the teachers. Now it takes two hours. This leaves no time for my extracurricular activities. Is this fair? Please say something. I need an adult to speak for me.—Weary Bones.

Dear Bones: Joe should have a tutor — and the sooner the better. Doing his homework is not helping him. Furthermore he won't be able to fake it much longer. I don't understand how he has managed this long.

I hope your parents will listen to reason. The situation as you describe it is not only unfair to you, but it is unfair to your brother.

* * * *

Confidential to Assaulted Eardrums: The weaker the idea, the stronger the language. A person who fears his argument lacks substance swears in the hope that profanity will give it muscle. The next time your friend becomes especially profane, listen with a third ear.

Christmas can be a problem. What can you give the person who has everything? Ann Landers' new book, "Truth is Stranger," is available in book stores. It can also be obtained by writing Prentice Hall, Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey. Price: $4.95.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Your Legislature Report . . .

Fred M. Cass, Q.C., M.P.P.

As the end of the year holiday season approaches the tempo of business in the Legislature seems to increase along with completion of many matters of business, some of which have been on the Order Paper for many months. It seems indeed as if even Opposition Party Members have had enough in this Second Session of our 28th Legislature.

The House went through and finished the estimates of the Department of Energy and Resources Management with little difficulty although there were many words on hydro rates and pollution costs and problems. As to the former, it was pointed out by the Minister that Ontario Hydro was owned by the municipalities and operated very well indeed for them by the Ontario Hydro Commission; with respect to the latter, all agreed that the problems were tremendous and continuing and costs of improvement astronomical, but felt perhaps the new Minister (Kerr) would give all programs a needed injection of enthusiasm and provide increasingly efficient leadership.

The estimates of the Dep[t] ment of Public Works w[as] with in one evening sitt[ing] the debate consisted m[ostly] attacks on the Minister [Lester] ett) personally by the M[ember] for High Park (Shulman type of debate hitherto f[ar] ately little known in the [Leg]ario Legislature but ever[y] ent since the election of the [for] ber mentioned.

The large estimates of th[e] partment of Education [were] considered by a Standing [Com]mittee in Supply were also [com]pleted. Members of all par[ties] reported that the estimates [were] received the best considerat[ion] within their memory and agre[ed] the new procedure not only si[m]plified consideration of Depa[rt]mental estimates but also wer[e] a better forum for discussio[n] than in the House acting as Com[-] mittee of Supply. The last of the three Departmental estimates (Highways) to go this Session before a Standing Committee are now under discussion. However, it seems certain that in view of the success of this new procedure, the next Session will find estimates of many more Departments being dealt with by Standing Committees in Supply.

The new Election Act and complimentary amendments to the Voters' List Act, mentioned by me in a previous report, were unanimously adopted by all parties so that our next Provincial Election will be on a Thursday. Several other Bills were pushed along the legislation trail and even some ten new Bills were introduced so it can be seen that once again our Provincial Parliament is operating in a productive vein.

Should I be your choice of Reeve for the coming year, I will endeavour to deal with your municipal needs in a fair and honest way.

Willis Robinson.

FOR REEVE

TO THE ELECTORS OF WINCHESTER TWP.

Having decided to allow my name to stand on the ballot for COUNCILLOR for Winchester Township, I would solicit your support next Monday, December 1.

My experience in farming and business would be of value to the voters if elected. I am married and have a family of three children. Other affiliations include membership and shareholder in the Winchester Curling Club; past member of NDDHS board and elected member to Chesterville Public School board; member of Dundas Crop and Soil Improvement Assoc.

Our construction business covers the Three United Counties and are keenly interested in same.

I believe it is time for some young blood in council. New ideas are needed and I would like to be part of the new team.

Full schedule of games in N.S.-L.S. Junior League

Two goals by Ricky Row of Glen Walter were not quite enough and they had to settle for a three-all tie when they played Eamer's Corners in the first game of a double-header last Wednesday night in a North Stormont - Long Sault Junior Hockey League game. The other goal came off the stick of Billy Major. Picking up goals for Eamer's Corners were Phil Quinlan, W. Lalonde and Joe Younge.

The night-cap saw St. Regis jump into a six to two lead at the end of the first period over Avonmore, but the latter stormed back to score four unanswered goals in the second, thus ending the game in a six-all tie.

Dennis Poirier had a hat-trick for Avonmore plus a double to Harry Lalonde and a single to Reggie Alguire. For St. Regis it was Harold Lauzon with two Ruddie Seymour, G. Thomas, Arnold Caldwell and Dennis Cook all scoring singles.

Friday night's action saw Osnabruck Centre make their debut this year with a five to three victory over Glen Walter. Lyle Swerdfeger broke a three-all deadlock late in the third period when he scored on a penalty shot and his brother Dale put the game on ice when he scored two minutes later. Also helping out the cause was Danny Beaudette, Brian McIntyre and David Bancroft all with singles. Glen Walter goals were scored by Peter Amell with two and Glennie Bethune with one.

In the second game of the night Crysler came from behind to edge out St. Regis by the score of five to four when P. Courville scored two goals late in the final period. Helping him out with one each were P. Cloutier, P. Pierie and A. Richie, St. Regis markers were evenly divided between B. Roundpoint, H. Lauzon, G Thomas and Ruddie Selmour.

In the second game played Sunday afternoon Chesterville got bombed fifteen to one when after D. Beckstead opened the scoring up for the local faithful. Glen Walter took over and never looked back after shifting their scoring ability into high gear. Jean Tessier and Clem Beaudette each got hat tricks with Ted Genau, Peter Amell and Glennie Bethune each getting two apiece. Jerry Meilleur, Bruce McLennan and Jerry Plummer were each credited with singles.

Things were different in the first game of the day when Berwick blew a lead and had to settle with a four-all tie with Newington. Garnet Summers was the big gun as he scored three goals for Newington helped along by Rick Tait with the other one. Berwick's honours were evenly divided between Ken Hutt, Dave Ouderkirk, Gerry Rushford and Len O'Donohue.

After all the action last week everyone goes at it again this week and the upcoming games see Long Sault against Avonmore and Eamers Corners against Berwick on Wednesday, Nov. 26. On Friday, Nov. 28, it's Newington against Crysler and Osnabruck Centre against Chesterville. Sunday afternoon, Nov. 30, Eamer's Corners goes against L. Sault and Berwick takes on St. Regis. Starting off next month on Wednesday, Dec. 3, its Crysler against Avonmore and Newington against Long Sault. Wednesday and Friday games start at 8 p.m. and Sunday afternoon games at 1.45 p.m.

Glengarry Presbytery Men's Council entertain guests

Guests of the Glengarry Presbytery Presbyterian Men's Council at their recent monthly meeting in St. Matthew's Presbyterian Church, Ingleside, were members of the Brockville Presbytery "P.M." Men's Council.

Harold Shaver, Ingleside, chairman of the Glengarry Presbytery Men's Council welcomed the guests and members from the various congregations within the Presbytery.

The members present joined in paying tribute to the memory of John D. McLennan, who passed away last month. Mr McLennan had been closely associated with the Presbyterian Men's program since it was introduced locally in 1958. Since that time he was presbytery chairman, a position he filled ably. His leadership was recognized not only throughout the Presbytery of Glengarry but also in the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa where he was president of the Synod's "P.M." Council. In the later role he became a member of the National Committee where his wise counsel, enthusiasm and devotion were inspiritations to others.

The brief service of remembrance was in charge of Clifford MacRae and Rev. Kenneth H. McDonald, moderator of the Presbytery of Glengarry.

George Crawford, Chesterville, was in charge of a hymn sing. Rev. William Inglis, Winchester, was piano accompanist.

Douglas Hunter, Morewood, conducted the service of worship. Bev Graham, Winchester, assisted and brought a brief message.

Harold Graham, South Mountain, reported briefly on the Regional "P.M." Conference, held at Keswick Port Carling, Ont., in September. Mr Graham played a tape of an address given at the Conference by Mr Mawhinney, an outstanding layman from New York City.

Following the recorded message the men divided into three discussion groups to consider pertinent questions brought forth from Mr Mawhinney's address.

John R. Gourney, Lancaster, newly elected president of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa's Men's Council reported on the recent meeting of the National Committee he attended.

John K. MacLean, Moose Creek gave the treasurer's reports and read letters from the young men studying for the Christian Ministry who had received bursaries from the Men's Council.

Mr Shaver introduced the new members of the Presbytery executive, including M. F. MacRae, Avonmore, vice-chairman; Harvey Fickes, Ingleside, secretary and Arthur Phillips, Monkland, treasurer.

Plans were made for the annual Ladies Night dinner meeting to be held in St. Andrew's Church hall, South Lancaster, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 3rd, at 7.15 o'clock. Guest speaker will be Rev. Dr. W. L. MacLellan, St. John's Church, Cornwall.

A social hour and lunch followed the meeting. Arnold MacMillan, Avonmore, thanked the Ingleside men for the hospitality.

"Personal conscience," said one writer, "is the beginning of conservation." This application of personal conscience should not await the onslaught of a gigantic crisis in the resource supply. It should begin in childhood and grow with maturity and understanding, until conservation becomes a way of life.

Chesterville Co-Op members and friends spent a pleasant time together last Wednesday evening. The occasion was the annual banquet in Community Hall. A view of the head table from the left shows Stewart Hart, vice president, Mrs Hart, E. A. Niazi, O.C.O. and speaker, Mrs McGregor, Roy McGregor, manager of the Co-Op, Don Kyle, president, Mrs Kyle, Allan McIntosh, U.C.O., Charles Connolly,, accountant, Mrs Clare Nugent.—Record Staff Photo.

FAREWELL

Our parting thought to all our friends and customers from November 12, 1924, to December 1, 1969, by the great poet Robt. Burns:

JOHN ANDERSON MY JOE JOHN

John Anderson my Joe John
When first we were acquaint
Your locks were like the raven
Your bonny brow was brent!
But now your brow is bald John
Your locks are like the snow
But blessing on your frosty pow
John Anderson my Joe!

John Anderson my Joe John,
We clamb the hill together
and many a canty day - John
We had with one another;
But now we two must totter down
But hand in hand we'll go,
And sleep together at the foot,
John Anderson my Joe.

NOW YOU KNOW

When seeking a definition for hunter orange, the Massachusetts division of fisheries and game came up with this one:

"Hunter orange is a daylight fluorescent orange colour with a dominant wave length between 595 and 605 nanometers, excitation purity not less than 85% and luminance factor of not less than 40%."

Although highly regarded by the veteran angler, the brown trout is a difficult fish to catch and tends to compete with brook trout thus lowering the availability of these fish to the novice.

"I'm for Safety" theme of safety rally held at Winchester

"I'm for Safety" was the theme of the active Zone 1 Farm Safety rally held in Winchester on November 11.

The chairman, Mrs Elsie Lacroix of Hammond, called on Mr Oscar Snyder, Farm Safety Co-ordinator, to introduce and show a 16-minute colour film called "Chance of a Life Time." This film was scripted and directed by Mr Hal Wright, Secretary-Manager of the Ontario Farm Safety Council, to illustrate the hazards of modern corn harvesting machinery. Copies of the film are available for use by Farm community organizations through the county agricultural representative.

The program, directed by Mr Vic Morrow, Toronto, program co-ordinator for R.L.A., emphasized participation to learn more about communications. Three principles were introduced as being essential in all groups: Individual Needs, Group Morale and Job.

Delegates worked in groups to prepare a force analysis chart to look at the reasons why people should become involved in safety programs and the reasons who so many people have failed to become involved.

Each delegate created and recorded a safety slogan for distribution to all attending.

Each group constructed an accident prevention poster.

Mr Glen Robertson, chairman of Ontario Farm Safety Council, brought greetings from the parent association and reported on an important survey just completed by the assocation about missing shields on power take-off shafts. The detailed results of the report were made by Oscar Snyder.

Next year's rally will be hosted by Grenville County at Spencerville.

Avonmore U.C.W. holds annual meeting in Sunday School Hall

The November meeting of the UCW of St. James United Church, Avonmore, was held in the Sunday School room last Tuesday evening.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs Clair Markell, with the reading of the UCW Purpose.

The worship program was presented by Mrs Maldwyn Watkins' group. The theme was "To Make Prayer Effective", the call to worship was given by Mrs F. C. Eligh and was followed by the hymn "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind". The scripture readings were read by Mrs J. M. Rielly. A story "The White Bird" was read by Mrs Watkins. A prayer closed the worship period. The offering was received and dedicated.

The president conducted the worship service. The correspondent, consisting of "Thank You" letters and an invitation to attend the U.C.W. meeting at Lunenburg on Nov. 10th, was read.

The community friendship convenor reported 24 visits and spoke of some of the new families in the community.

Mrs Rupert Pollock, convenor of social functions, reported on recent events and the Christmas Bazaar and Tea to be held on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 22nd.

Mrs Fred Barkley, program convenor, reported on plans for future meetings. The president appointed Mrs Wesley Meldrum, Mrs Maldwyn Watkins, Mrs Fred Barkley and Mrs F. C. Eligh as a committee to plan Christmas treats for shut-ins.

Mrs Rutherford MacIntyre gave a very complete report on the fall rally, held at Winchester on Oct. 29th.

Mrs H. A. Funge spoke on the study material, the theme "Reconciliation in a Broken World". She explained that Reconciliation implies that there once was harmony, that harmony had been lost, and that there is a keen need for harmony. By the use of a map, pamphlet and charts Mrs Funge told the causes of poverty and the countries where the Christian Church supports agricultural missionaries, namely India, Nepal, Korea, Japan, Zambia, Congo, Brazil and Jamaica. The film strip "Crusade Against Hunger" and the accompanying record gave a clear picture of how the work is carried on and the great need of the work.

Mrs Clair Markell thanked Mrs H. A. Funge for her informative talk.

EVERYBODY EATS TRY THESE

By Helen Graham

INSTANT CANDY IN THIS AGE OF HURRY

WE HAVE MORE labour saving devices than ever beore but everyone seems so busy all the time. Instant coffee, instant tea, instant cakes and desserts. If the label says instant we buy it. Perhaps the following recipes are not actually instant but at least they do not require boiling and beating.

Peanut Brittle

The easiest method and oh, so good!

2 cups sugar
3 cups unshelled peanuts

Shell peanuts; remove skins. Roll fine or leave whole as desired. Melt sugar in heavy frying pan, stirring constantly until all is melted and a light golden brown colour. (If you allow sugar syrup to become dark brown it may have a bitter taste). Add peanuts, mix well and pour into ungreased pan. Cool gradually; mark in squares while cooling. Whole peanuts may be placed on pan and syrup poured over.

Walnuts may be used in the same way to make walnut brittle.

Rich Chocolate Fudge

1 lb. semi-sweet chocolate
3 eggs
1 lb. icing sugar
1 tbsp. vanilla
1¼ lb. chopped nuts
½ cup seeded raisins
1 tbsp. butter

Melt chocolate and butter in double boiler. Add beaten eggs, sugar and vanilla. Mix well. Add nuts and raisins. Spread on buttered pan. Cool and cut.

Five-minute Fudge

(Makes about 2 lbs.)

2 tbsps. butter
2/3 cup (small can) undiluted evaporated milk
1 2/3 cups sugar
½ tsp. salt
1½ cups (about 16 medium) diced marshmallows
1½ cups (1½ 6-oz. pkgs.) semi-sweet chocolate chips
1 tsp. vanilla
½ cup chopped nuts

Combine butter, evaporated milk, sugar and salt in saucepan over medium heat. Bring to a boil, and cook 4 to 5 minutes, stirring constantly. (Start timing when mixture starts to bubble around edges of pan.) Remove from heat. Stir in marshmallows, chocolate, vanilla and nuts. Stir vigorously for 1 minute (or until marshmallows are completely melted and blended). Pour into 9-inch square buttered pan and allow to cool. Cut in squares.

Uncooked Fondant

1/3 lb. butter
1 1/3 cups condensed milk (1 can)
2 tbsps. corn syrup
1 tbsp. vanilla
3 lbs. sifted icing sugar

Melt butter; mix with milk, corn syrup and vanilla. Add sugar. Chill.

CANDIES MADE WITH FONDANT

Chocolates: Divide fondant into three or four parts and add a different flavour to each, such as maple, peppermint, almond, cocoanut, etc. Roll into balls of suitable size and dip into chocolate as follows: Melt 1 package of unsweetened chocolate with half bar of parawax in top of double boiler. Dip pieces of fondant in chocolate, one at a time, and drain on wax paper. Keep chocolate over hot water while dipping and use a fork for lifting pieces of fondant from chocolate. If you desire a thicker coating of chocolate allow to cool slightly during dipping.

To add variety, roll cherries nuts, raisins or California grapes in vanilla fondant before dipping.

Stuffed Dates or Figs: Stuff dates and figs with small piece of fondant. Roll in granulated sugar.

Walnut Creams: Press a piece of fondant between two walnut halves. Roll in sugar.
