The big cheese

Lawrence Lalonde of Balderson swept the cheese competition at this week's Stormont County Fair, winning seven of the expanded competition's eight classes, including the two new classes, the cheese display and the mature class. He also had the highest single score, 98.4, for his 40-lb. June make. Mr. Lalonde shows off his display with Joanne McCurdy and Lorraine Campbell immediately after Friday afternoon's judging in the fair hall. - staff photo -

Record-setting crowds at 111th Stormont Fair

NEWINGTON (Staff) - The 111th Stormont County Fair was one of the best ever, directors agree, with a boost in attendance to bring the total to close to 15,000 and a dramatic increase in both the quantity and quality of this year's exhibits.

Secretary-treasurer Wally McEwen, who announced this would be his last year in that capacity, said Tuesday gate receipts over the four days of the fair were up $2,000 to $12,300, breaking last year's record.

Attendance was up on Saturday and Monday but declined for Friday night's Hell Drivers show and on Sunday, due to the morning's wet weather.

Mr. McEwen was enthusiastic in describing the quality of the competitions, both in the show rings and in the fair hall.

"The quality of everything was just tremendous. Our cattle and horse shows were bigger and better this year than they've ever been and our light horse show Monday was larger than the one at the Ottawa Ex. You can tell the quality's better by the number of animals being transported to the shows. It costs so darned much for trucking these days that if you haven't got top quality animals it isn't worth your while to take them any distance."

He said there were more entries in the fair hall this year than ever before.

Even with the 4-H exhibits moved to the new exhibition hall, the fair hall was packed to the rafters with domestic science and manufacture exhibits, fruits, flowers and vegetables.

"There were even 17 handmade quilts on display, and you know how much work goes into making one of those. I can't ever remember seeing that many," Mr. McEwen said.

With the increase in the number of exhibitors, Mr. McEwen said the agricultural society will be paying out almost all the prize money listed in its catalogue.

In the Holstein class, Gerald Jans of Moose Creek retained his crown as Premier Breeder and Exhibitor and Oran Montgomery of Avonmore topped the largest Holstein field ever for Grand Champion of Show with the mature class winner Stobodale Belle, a five-year-old by A Dutch Croft Fury Lad.

Kenneth Campbell of Maxville showed the Grand Champion Ayrshire, Glen Fergus Kellogg's Giftie, a three-year-old Oak Ridge Flashy Kellogg, and James Cotton of Navan showed the Reserve Grand.

Mr. Dingwall, the show's Premier Exhibitor, took the three-year-old class, the Senior Championship and Grand Championship of Show with Kate. Ralph MacKenzie, the 1977 Reserve winner, again took the Reserve with a two-year-old Beauty Doris Master daughter, Payneside Master's Betsy.

Ralph Miller of Renfrew gave a repeat performance in the Stormont Fair's largest-ever beef show, winning the Stormont Cattlemen's Association Trophy for Supreme Champion of Show with his Shorthorn bull Lochwinnoch Juggler IJ. Mr. Miller also won the rosette as Premier Exhibitor.

The Hunter family of Smith Falls made its presence felt in the sheep classes, with Gerald taking the Premier Exhibitor award, father Donald taking the award for new exhibitor with most points and sister Shirley coming in second in the new exhibitor class. Dwayne Acres of Russell won Premier Breeder.

Lawrence Lalonde of Balderson swept the enlarged cheese competition, winning seven of the eight categories, including the new display and mature classes. He was named Champion Exhibitor and had the single highest scoring cheese, a 40-lb. June make which received 98.4 of a possible 100 points.

Mrs. J. Scott, RR2 Newington, was the winner of the 700-lb. steer draw on Monday.

In the fastball tournament, Montain rode the three-game-winning pitching of Danny Hogaboam to the championship and $500 in prize money with a 2-1 win over Morrisburg in the finals. Hogaboam picked up the pitching award while Morrisburg's Wayne Summer's was voted the tournament's Most Valuable Player. Morrisburg received $300 as the runner-up while Berwick and Osgoode received $150 each for making it to the semifinals.

Lafrance backs vote on gag rule

CORNWALL (Staff - Local trustee Alphonse Lafrance joined Cornwall trustee Yollande Charron to cast the only two votes preventing a delegation of parents from making their pitch to the SD&G separate school board last Tuesday.

About 12 parents from the Marie Tanguay school in Cornwall approached the board to ask for retention of their bus service, but had the right to speak turned down because unanimous approval of trustees is required.

This was the second time in a month a delegation had been denied the right to make a presentation. Two weeks prior to this meeting Andre Rivette, spokesman for a group of Cornwall parents called the "forgetten francphones", suffered a similar fate because he hadn't given the required seven days' notice.

Waiver of the seven-day rule requires unanimous consent and Mr. Rivette was denied that consent because, argued Mr. Charron, he was fully aware of those rules.

Last Tuesday, the delegation was unable to give proper notice because they had only been informed the subject would be discussed at a public meeting the previous weekend.

The subject had been initially slated for a closed-door session of the board and no explanation for the change to the public meeting was offered.

Trustee Norman Roy, who had been contacted by the parents earlier, urged the board to waive the seven-day rule because of extenuating circumstances.

"They didn't know the issue would be discussed tonight so they had no way of giving the proper notice," he declared.

Agenda for the in-camera, or closed, portion of board meetings is never made public.

Trustee Pierre Landry supported him explaining there was a differnce between the Rivette affair and the Tanguay delegation.

"Rivette knew the rules. The Marie Tanguay parents were probably not aware of our rules."

Mrs. Charron, however, maintained rules were rules.

"The board policy was passed in 1974 to prevent last-minute delegations. We just can't accept people like this at the last minute. We can't start accepting them. It's not fair."

Mr. Lafrance didn't utter a word, but when the time came for a vote, supported Mrs. Charron.

The Record made several attempts to contact Mr. Lafrance for an explanation, but was unsuccessful.

Mrs. Charron said Monday she had three reasons for denying the Marie Tanguay parents speaking privileges, - one, it's board policy that seven days notice must be given; two, Mr. Rivette's delegation had been refused, and three, that particular group had made two previous presentations.

"We knew what it was all about," she stated.

"It's not because I'm such a rigid person, I just feel if you have to be just, you have to be just to everyone. If I just refused it to Rivette, I had to refuse it to my friends," she told The Record.

Can't find suitable teacher

Kindergarten off for year

CORNWALL (Staff) - The bilingual kindergarten program for Winchester and Nationview Public Schools will probably be postponed for a year because the SD&G County School Board has been unable to find a qualified candidate for the teaching position.

"In all likelihood we will have to cancel the program for this year. We were a bit late in getting it underway. Hopefully we will have it next year. We will be starting to look for a teacher early in spring," Jean Comptois, superintendent of Education told The Record Tuesday.

There have been over 20 applications from Winchester parents who wish to send their children to a bilingual kindergarten program.

Mr. Comptois said the board has certain criteria for the prospective candidate, but hasn't been able to find one who would match.

"Teaching a language at the primary level is quite different from teaching it at the junior or intermediate. We want to make sure we don't let the parents down."

He said the board also expects the successful candidate to take a special prepratory summer program before commencing instruction.

Mr. Comptois said the board has advertised, but to date has only received one written application.

Friday he conducted interviews with three candidates at Nationview Public School, South Mountain, but none of them were acceptable.

Boy Scouts registration

(Staff) - First Tagwi Boy Scouts, Wolf Cubs and Beavers will hold their 1978-79 registration from 7-8:30pm Mon., Sept. 11 at Tagwi Secondary School. Any boys between the ages of 5 and 14 in the area served by Tagwi is invited to register.

Services resume

(Staff) - Morewood and Chesterville United Church congregations will hold their services as usual Sunday morning, with Cathy Crump, a divinity student at Queen's University conducting the services, in Morewood at 9:30 and in Chesterville at 11. As Sunday school resumes this Sunday, teachers are asked to be on hand.

Baetz promises renew support for tent theatre

UPPER CANADA VILLAGE (Staff) - As the champagne corks popped audience and cast at Prince of Wales Theatre heard some encouraging works from Rubin Baetz, newly-appointed Minister of Culture and Recreation, as George Blackburn's "A Day To Rember" closed its curtains for the final time this year, Sunday.

"I will pledge the full support of my ministry to move this play on," said Mr. Baetz in one of his first public pronouncements since assuming the portfoilio.

Members of the cast and crew embraced each other bidding a farewell. Tears flowed down the cheeks of nine-year-old Kimberly Seim, playwright Blackburn's granddaughter.

"I can't help it" she said.

Mr. Baetz caught the mood of the evening when he stated, "Through all this there is a feeling of bittersweet as the season draws to a close."

Citing the opening lines of Ruby's song "A' Ready A' Willing", he echoed the confidence members of the theatre had expressed in the success of their project.

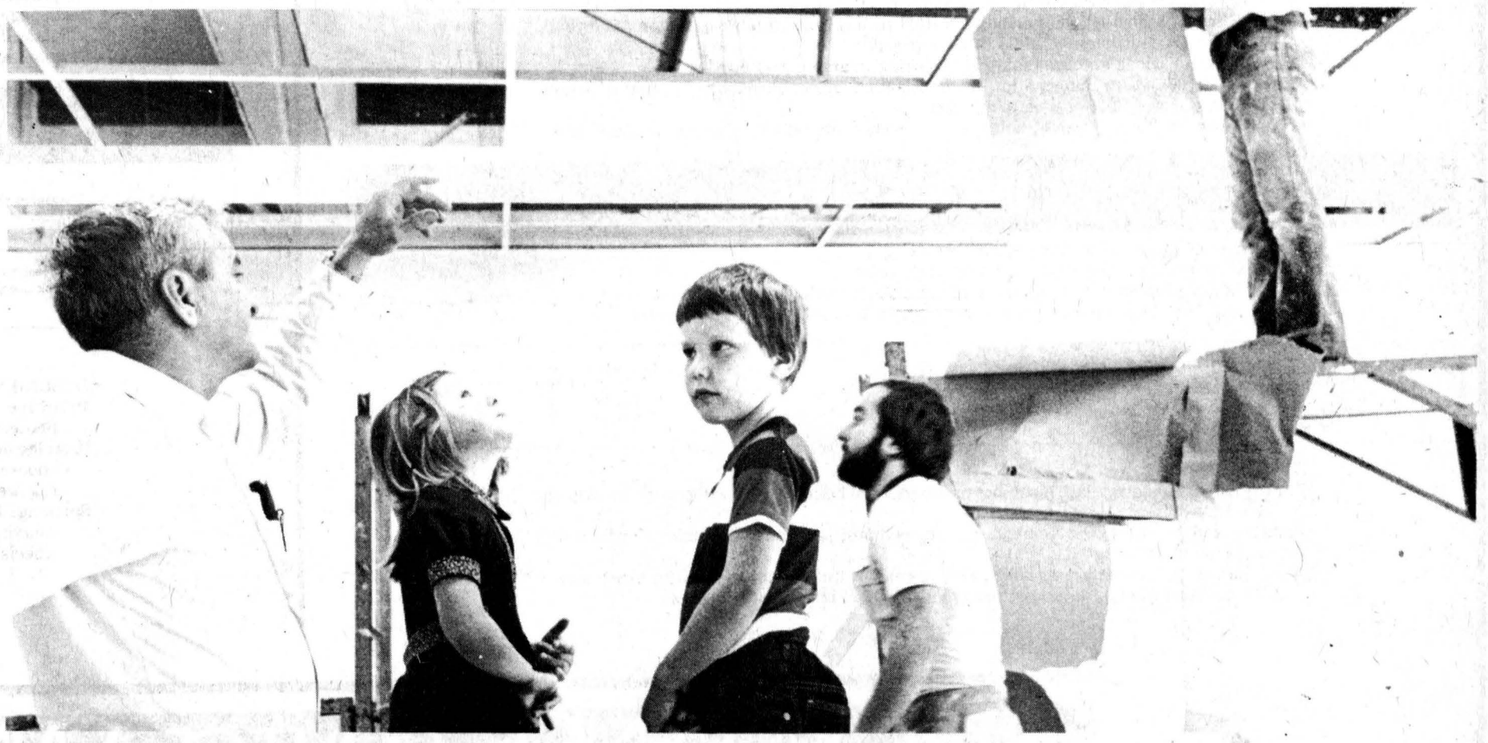
"There's a feeling in my heart, that I can't deny and that feeling is my firm belief this play will go on next year".

"A Day To Remember" opened on a perilous note in early July as inadequate publicity resulted in miniscule crowds and Mr. Blackburn threatened to close the production down.

But a determined effort to bring the project to public attention increased the crowds and even though the overall season ended in a deficit, the profits of the last few weeks left everyone involved confident the theatre was viable.

Mr. Baetz noted the play was relevant across the nation.

"It tugs at the heartstrings because it talks about the flooding of many a village. I think in this play there is a tremendous message to be brought to all who come."



Addition ready next week

Joe Gagnon, an electrician with the SD&G County Board of Education, explains to Jennifer Buter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hank Buter, and Michael Barkley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barkley, on the first day of school how their new kindergarten room will look when workmen are finished at Elma Public School this week. The two kindergarten students should move into the new classrooms next week, after having held their class in the school's new library. The new long-awaited general purpose room shoule also be ready for occupancy next week.

Beef competition

Renfrew breeder wins top prize

(Staff) - Ralph Miller, RR1 Renfrew, won the Stormont Cattlemen's Trophy for Supreme Champion of Show for the second consecutive time Sunday in the Stormont County fair's Interbreed Beef Show.

His Shorthorn bull Lochwinnoch Juggler IJ by Lochwinnoch Fillet took the yearling bull class over Roy Cartwright's Hereford Casburne Justa Guy and Steven Findlay's Angus Prospect Winton, on its way to the championship and helped him claim the trophy for Premier Exhibitor.

Beef directors were as happy as producers scanning supermarket beef prices as they contemplated the success of Sunday's show. Ten herds were represented and an all-time high of almost 50 animals exhibited.

Results of the show are as follows:

Bull calf - first, Lochwinnoch Just Deal (Shorthorn), Ralph Miller, second, Verch View Super Flag (Shorthorn), Gus Verch, Renfrew, third, Verch View Super Flag 5J, Gus Verch.

Bull yearling - first, Lochwinnoch Juggler IJ, Ralph Miller, second, Cassburne Justa Guy, Roy Cartwright, Vankleek Hill, third, Prospect Winton, Steve Findlay, Manotick.

Two-year-old bull - first, HC Ideal Major, Ralph Miller, second, Lochwinnoch Habitant, Ralph Miller, third, Ellanin Fairlad, Steve Findlay.

Female yearling - first, Verch View Jealousy, Gus Verch, second, Ladysmith Fern, Gus Verch, third, Erica of Newlodge (Angus), Donald Fraser, Dunvegan.

Female calf - first, Puddles Secret (Shorthorn), Paul Villard, Renfrew, second, Lochwinnoch Duchess, Ralph Miller, third, Miss Morrison of Carlsway, Donald Fraser.

Female with calf or evidence of being in calf - first, Verch View Jealousy, Gus Verch, second, Ellanin Miss Morrison (Angus), Doug Seabrook, North Gower, third, Blackcap Bessie of EG, Steve Findlay.

Female with 1978 calf at foot - first, Verch View Carrie, Gus Verch, second, Early Sunset Pride (Angus), Roberta Romanko, North Gower, third, Susie of Wiwa Creek, Donald Fraser.

Breeder's Herd - first, Gus Verch, second, Roy Cartwright, third, Ralph Miller.

A RITZY RODENT REMOVER

Whoever said the world would beat a path to the doorway of the person who invents the perfect mousetrap couldn't have expected Patent number 305,102, which was issued September 16, 1884. Officially titled an Ornamental Rat Exterminator, it consisted of a paper mache figure of a cat, coated with flourescent paint and doused with essence of peppermint. The cat was supposed to glow in the dark, scaring the rats that saw it. Peppermint was supposed to be offensive to little rodent noses. Henry Ford Museum provides visitors with a look at many far more practical inventions, spanning America's history.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF LAND UNITED COUNTIES OF STORMONT, DUNDAS AND GLENGARRY

Under and by virtue of a Writ of Fieri Facias issued out of the Supreme Court of Ontario, bearing date of October 27th, 1976, to me directed against the Lands and Tenements of Vincent Quesnel, Defendant at the suit of Arco Petroleum Ltd., Plaintiff, I have seized and taken in execution all right, title, interest and equity of redemption of Vincent Quesnel, Defendant in and to: all singular that certain parcel or tract of land premises situate, lying and being in the Township of Roxborough, in the County of Stormont, and being composed of Part of the North West Quarter of Lot 10, Concession 2 of the said Township of Roxborough.

On the premises is said to be erected a one storey building of cement block construction. The front part is a restaurant and the back part is a self-contained, three bedroom apartment. The premises were formerly known as the "Choo Choo Diner", at the Hamlet of Monkland.

All of which said right, title, interest and equity of redemption of the said Vincent Quesnel, Defendant in the said Lands and Tenements, I shall offer for sale by Public Auction at my Office in the United Counties Administration Building, 26 Pitt Street, Cornwall, Ontario, on the 7th day of September, 1978, at 2:00 P.M. in the afternoon.

This sale is subject to cancellation up to the time of sale without further notice.

DATED at Cornwall this 23rd day of June, 1978.

RICHARD LAMOUREUX,
Sheriff,
United Counties of Stormont,
Dundas and Glengarry

IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORIAM

WEEGAR — In memory of our loving son, Lyn who was accidentally killed Sept. 10, 1978.

"Tis a road eternally open
By Lyn was once explored
His soul is us awaiting
Behind the golden door
He was taken from us so very young
A husband, a father of a very young son
But he left us memories of him so much
That gives us love to those we touch.

Always remembered
Mom

IN MEMORIAM

JOHNSTONE — In loving memory of a dear husband and father who passed away Sept. 11, 1976.

Someone to count on, whatever the day,
Someone to talk with, when dreams went astray,
Someone to turn to, when troubles appeared
Someone to cherish and hold very dear.
We mention your name and speak of you often
God Bless you Frank you will never be forgotten.

Lovingly remembered by Freda, Darrell, Don, Dwayne & Doug

New developments feature of crop tour

(Staff) - The Stormont Soil and Crop Improvement Association will hold its annual tour to demonstrate new developments in a few of the county's cropping programs Tues., Sept. 12.

The tour begins at 9am and ends at noon and will feature demonstrations of trefoil establishment on untillable pasture land, direct seeding of early alfalfa varieties and soybean production.

It gets underway at the Barry Warwick farm on highway 43 at the Stormont-Glengarry boundary.

According to county AgRep Dale Miller this will feature a demonstration comparing round-up and paraquat for grass suppression in establishing trefoil on low pasture land.

Next will be a stop at the Marcel Racine farm at Tayside on highway 138 to see some direct seeded early alfalfa varieties.

By 10:30am the tour should be at the Marinus Pynenburg farm just west of the Roxborough-Finch boundary on the Glenpayne Road where SCIA members will see soybean variety trials, narrow and wide row widths and the effects of different herbicides.

The last stop, Henry Buiting farm just west of Goldfield on highway 43, will feature soybean varieties along with a different approach to weed control than on the Pynenburg farm, Mr. Miller says.

Area U.E.L. branch charter night Sept. 16

MORRISBURG (Special) - The St. Lawrence Branch, United Empire Loyalists' Association of Canada, will hold its Charter Night Sat., Sept. 16. This event is the culmination of several meetings held since last October throughout the Three United Counties. says R. Melvin Scott, Branch President.

During the American Revoluntionary War, thousands who wished to remain loyal to the British Crown came to Canada and settled in Ontario along the north shore of the St. Lawrence River between the Ottawa River and Quint Isle, in the Niagara Peninsula and also in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

U.E. Membership is granted to those person who can provide proof of lineal descent from the ancestors from which eligibility is claimed and proof that the ancestor is entitled to be considered a U.E. Loyalist. These past months have found many person searching archives, church records and libraries, checking tombstones and reading family Bibles so they may complete their proof of lineage in order to become members of the St. Lawrence Branch.

The Branch was given a Young Canada Works Program Federal Grant this summer and countless records have been updated and compiled and are in the office of Branch Genealogist, Miss Lynne O'Brien, Morrisburg.

The Association has the purpose of uniting people who were descended from the families who sacrificed their homes in retaining their loyalty by preserving the history and traditions of that period.

The Charter Night will be held at Treasure Island Inn, Ingleside, at 6:30 pm. National U.E.L. President, Mr. John A. Aikman, Hamilton, will address the gathering and present the Charter. Members will receive Certificates from U.E.L. Dominion Headquarters officers, and the Canadian and Union Flags will be presented to the St. Lawrence Branch.

If you have a United Empire Loyalist ancestor, and wish to join the St. Lawrence Branch, contact the Branch Genealogist, Miss Lynne O'Brien in Morrisburg for more information.

Power interruption

(Staff) - There will be a power interruption in Chesterville from noon to 4pm Fri., Sept. 15 as crews carry out work on the Hydro line on Main St. North. Village clerk-treasurer Lloyd Graham told The Record a heavier line is to be installed on the line over the railroad tracks.

1ST 500 MILE RACE (ALMOST)

On September 9, 1901, the Automobile Club of America sponsored the first long distance race in America. Announced as a 500 mile race from New York City to Buffalo, the winner, D.W. Bishop, in a French Panhard auto, actually covered 464.2 miles An endurance rather than speed race, it took Bishop five days to cover the ground. A number of important racing vehicles grace the Hall of Technology of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, Michigan. These include Henry Ford's famous racer, "999", a 1913 rolls Royce specially designed for Alpine racing, and the 1903 Packard, "Old Pacific", which set a transcontinental record that year.

Summer program concludes

Russell Township's Young Canada Works program recently drew to a close for seven instructors. The program, which featured arts and craft work, was held in Marionville, Russell and Embrun for nine weeks. The program attracted children 4-12 years of age for two mornings a week. The Embrun portion of the summer program attracted close to 60 youngsters for Christine Patenaude, Lucette Roy and Brigitte Lafortune. Above, Christine, left, and Brigitte work on a scrap book of their summer's activities. - staff photo -

Monkland man's salvage yard plans dashed

MOOSE CREEK (Staff) - Roxborough Township Council has turned down a Monkland man's request to operate an automobile salvage yard on property just east of the village.

At a special meeting Mon., Aug. 28 council told Peter Poirier it is unable to grant him a licence to operate the salvage yard in lot one, concession three, because the property is zoned for agricultural purposes in the Lower St. Lawrence Official Plan.

In another zoning matter, council adopted an amendment to its restricted land use bylaw at the request of the Ontario Municipal Board.

The change is a relatively minor one and involves standardizing terminology in the bylaw's maps and schedules. The bylaw's draft form used both "OS" and "O" to designate open space and the OMB requested only one term be used for the sake of uniformity. The letter O has been substituted for OS throughout the bylaw.

Council has called tenders on an 82-ft. dome to store salt for Roxborough Township roads. The tenders are being advertised in the Daily Commercial News, a Toronto newspaper specializing in the construction business, and will close Sept. 18. The dome will be constructed at the township garage northeast of Avonmore.

At its meeting on the 28th council accepted the Cornwall Gravel tender of $17.92 per ton for asphalt for paving a section of the development road between Roxborough and Finch Townships. The section to be paved is immediately adjacent to the railroad crossing.

Council also approved two tile drainage loan applications, one for $15,400 for Tayside Muck Farms, the other for $3,000 for Glenn McKay, RR2 Moose Creek. Both approvals are subject to completion dates, which for Tayside is Nov. 15 and for Mr. McKay is Nov. 1.

Inside Ingleside

by jean jeacle

It is hard to write a decent column and have a good cry at the same time - but that is what I am attempting to do. Deadline time has arrived yet I cannot seem to rid myself of the onions which have somehow managed to lodge themselves somewhere in back of my eyeballs. Any inksmudges which may appear on this paper will probably be the results of a tear which dripped off my nose and onto my copy as I was saying goodbye to my summer - two days after it had come to an end.

I maintained my composure fairly well during the final performance and the ensuing farewells to newfound friends but a few minutes ago I suddenly realized that I wouldn't be going tonight to wave my flag at the Prince of Wales and I felt unutterably sad.

These tears were to be expected of course. I cried when Rhett told Scarlett that he didn't give a damn and I wept when Lassie didn't come home, so it is only natural that I should cry when "A Day to Remeber" becomes but a memory. These tears are natural and necessary. They will help to wash down the many experiences of the last few months and digest them into fond recollections.

I expect that by Friday this process will be well on its way to completion and I will then be ready to involve myself in some new and engrossing endeavor. I've had my Summer to Remember - now I am going to start working on an Autumn to Enjoy.

BITS & PIECES

- Last week I left David Brassard's name off the list of stage crew at the Prince of Wales Theatre. I and his immediate boss Terry Moran knew he was there - and we were glad of it.

- This Friday is Don Cochrane night at the Edwardsburg Community Centre in Spencerville. I still have tickets if anyone wishes to buy them in advance.

- Congratulations to Ingleside's Squirt Girls and PeeWee Boys. They are both trophy-winners in their respective ball leagues.

- The Ingleside Ladies Marathon Bridge Club is on the look-out for new members. Any interested card players seeking further information should contact Helen Graham (537-2521;, Mary Trimble (537-2420) or Shirley Walsh (537-2537).

- Attention all Square Dancers. Classes will be resuming again Monday evenings at 7:30 at Rothwell School. New members are welcome to join in the fun. Ann D'Cruz (537-2391) has all the details.

- Nobody has been hired yet as school-crossing guard. If anyone is willing to take on the job to help ensure the safety of our children, contact Township Clerk Lloyd Marcellus at 537-2362.

Today is certainly sentiment day here at 65 Maple. I became engulfed in memories as I watched my firstborn set out for his first day as a high school student and I couldn't help but feel that sometimes time passes too quickly here "Inside Ingleside".

Dear Ann Landers:

Advice from male point of view offered

Dear Ann Landers: I have always wanted to be an advice columnist but I am trapped in the real-estate construction business on a remote island in the Pacific. I am a faithful reader of your column and almost always agree with your advice. But once in a while I wonder if the world might benefit from reading a male point of view.

How about hiring me to handle some letters (under your byline, of course) from time to time - especially those that deal with problems between man and wife?

Just send me the letters you don't want and I will furnish the replies. I am serious about this because I have felt for a long time that there should be a male in the advice field and so far as I know there's not one. Aloha - Your Man In Kamuela, Hawaii.

Dear Man: Some trapped! I've been to Kamuela and it is a garden spot. The fact that there's not a male in the advice field is not for lack of trying. Several male advice-columnists have come and gone, but it seems they couldn't cut the mustard.

What your suggesting is that you ghost for me, which is out of the question. I have always done all my own writing and it should be ever thus.

As for for the letters "I don't want" - I want 'em all. But thanks for writing. If you should flip your wig and decide to leave Hawaii and come to Chicago, I might consider you as an assistant if there should happen to be an opening on my staff, but there hasn't been an opening for several years, and I have a long waiting list.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 36, married and the mother of two children. The problem is my husband who is involved in law enforcement. He became attached to a 16-year-old rape victim. My husband arrested the man and was very helpful to the girl at a time when she needed it.

This happened six years ago. The girl is now 22, married and lives 100 miles from here. She and my husband have kept in touch. She writes go him at his place of business and he carries a picture of her in his wallet. I have never said anything about this although some wives might object to such coziness.

Yesterday this girl phoned my husband at home and they spoke (long distance) for half an hour. Without asking me he invited her and her husband to visit us.

After a lengthy discussion with me, he got nasty and loud and said, "I am boss in this house and I'll be a friend of hers until the day I die."

I cried and slept on the couch all night. I don't think I could ever sleep with him again. Help me, please, - World Turned Upside Down

Dear Upside Down: You need more help than I can offer, dear. Please get some counseling and learn how to deal with what appears to be a complicated and difficult situation.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a widow of 44. The days are fine but the evenings are lonely. I've gone to some nice single bars but have met nothing but bums who want a bed partner. How does a respectable woman meet a decent man? Or - are there any left? - Beginning To Doubt It

Dear Doubt It: If you want to catch trout don't fish in a herring barrel. Enrol in an adult education class. Get involved with a political group or a good cause. Attend seminars or lectures on subjects that interest you. There are plenty of decent men around but they aren't looking for company in singles bars.

A no-nonsense approach to how to deal with life's most difficult and most rewarding arrangement. Ann Landers' booklet, "Marriage - What to Expect", will prepare you for better or for worse. Send your request to Ann Landers, PO Box 11995, Chicago, Illinois 60611 enclosing 50 cents in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

St. Matthew's Society pays tribute to Flora Ault

INGLESIDE (Special) - Tribute was paid to a devoted and loyal member, Mrs. Flora Ault, when St. Matthew's Presbyterian Missionary Society group met for the August meeting.

Mrs. Ault's death occured July 12, in Toronto Western Hospital, following a lengthy illness and just six weeks prior to her 99th birthday. An In Memoriam service was conducted by the president, Mrs. Frank Stewart and a period of silence observed by the members.

Unitl failing health curtailed her travels, Mrs. Ault visited her friends in Ingleside and the area each summer, her last visit was in 1976. Endeared by all who knew her, her reminescing of

In her remarks Mrs. Stewart stated Mrs. Ault had been made a life member of the Women's Missionary Society many years ago by the Aultsville auxiliary, where she had served several years as president as well as holding other offices, and maintained a keen interest in the life and mission work of St. Matthew's church, also in community interests and person well known to her.

early days will be long remembered by her many friends here.

The W.M.S. group acknowledges with appreaciation the several contributions which were received as memorials. As a tribute of esteem, love and sympathy to their departed member an In Memoriam certificate will be sent to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ault, Rexdale.

Mrs. D.H. Gilmour conducted the lesson from the study book, "Live Into Hope". Discussion centred around faith in God, whereby faith enables persons to act for others because of their hope.

Theme for the worship service was "the fruits of the Spirit" as revealed in Phillipians Chapter 4, and conducted by Mrs. Frank MacAndrews, who also led in prayer.

Mrs. Elburn Crites was secretary for the meeting and read the minutes. The treasurer, Mrs. MacAndrews gave the financial statement. Members signed cheer cards to be sent to Mrs. Naomi Stata, Mrs. Irma Donnelly and Mrs. Gladys Hollister.

Roll call was answered by a scripture verse, containing the word, "summer". The offering was received and dedicated by Mrs. Harvey Fickes.

The president announced that the annual Council report had been received and that two courses of study are available for next year. Further information will be available at the Presbyterial Fall Executive meeting.

An invitation is to be extended to Miss Annabell McNaughton, Lancaster, to speak informally at the October meeting, and tell something about her responsibilites of office, as the representative of Quebec and Eastern Ontario Synodical to Council. The September meeting will be held in the church parlor.

Smile if you think you're in shape.

Popular misconceptions regarding cows cleared

OTTAWA (Special) - "Mommy. Why do some cows have horns while others don't?"

This question is often heard at the barns housing the National Showcase Beef Herd at the Central Experimental Farm.

Often as not the answer heard is that ones with horns are, of course, bulls as cows don't have horns.

This is a popular misconception among the non-farming public.

To find the answer to this and other questions concerning beef cattle, come out to the beef cattle barns located at the foot of Ash Lane at the Farm.

During warm weather, the cattle can be seen in their outside pens next to the barns. At 3pm they are put out to pasture and can be seen from Baseline Road.

The three most popular breeds of beef cattle in Canada are represented in the showcase herd - Hereford (brown and white), Shorthorn (red) and Aberdeen-Angus (black). There is one bull and 14 cows for each breed.

The three bulls are kept in seperate pens across the road from the barns. The massive, black Aberdeen-Angus bull, known as Early Sunset Bardoliemere 8, weighs in at about 2,300 lbs. and is a popular attraction.

There are also a number of calves in the herd that were born early this year. Some of these will be kept as replacements for the herd.

The main purpose of the herd is to show prospective foreign buyers the quality of cattle that is available for sale as breeding stock across Canada.

And what about the question of the horns?

Most cattle come in two types - polled (born without horns) and horned. The polled cattle have been bred in the past to eliminate horns through genetics.

The Aberdeen-Angus breed are all polled while both sexes of the Herefords and Shorthorns, as can be seen in the showcase herd, come in both types.

Does your monthly heat bill leave you cold?

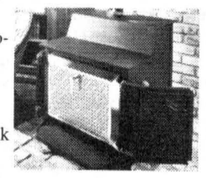
If opening your heat bill gives you the chills, maybe it's time to investigate another way of heating.

In fact, there's one heating fuel that's inexpensive and in plentiful supply.

Wood.

Which brings us to the Fisher Stove. It burns wood so efficiently it can trim 50% or more off your heating bill.

You see, a Fisher Stove is made from heavy plate steel that's carefully welded to make sure it's virtually airtight. (Gaps in the seams could suck in air and waste fuel.) It has patented spin draft controls so you can easily regulate the amount of heat it puts out. And its unique two-step design gives a Fisher two cooking surfaces with two different temperatures.



So whether you want to heat a single room or an entire house, look into a Fisher. And help make heat bills a whole lot easier to live with.

A Day to Remember

A dream come true

- morris photo -

Champagne flowed as "A Day to Remember" closed it's two-month natal season at the tent theatre on Upper Canada Road Sunday. Beset by initial difficulties caused by low turnout, the production began to draw sellout crowds towards the end of the season leaving organizers hopeful of the project's future success. Organizers hope to turn the tent theatre into a Seaway Valley version of the Charlottetown Festival which features "Ann of Green Gables" as the annual staple and two other different plays each year. Left to right: actor Peter McConnell, actor Giulio Kukurugya, Jim Bredin, corporate secretary of the Prince of Wales Theatre Company, author, George Blackburn, Minister of Culture and Recreation Rubin Baetz, actress Joy Thompson, actress Bridgette O'Sullivan and director Joseph Shaver.

UPPER CANADA VILLAGE (Staff) - It started at a cocktail party 21 years ago.

The clock was approaching midnight. Both George Blackburn and the land purchasing agent had had a few belts down the hatch. The conversation got around to the subject of expropriating homes to make way for the Seaway flooding.

"These houses are nothing, but a monument to failure," was the agent's comment.

That statement sparked a raw nerve.

"I thought, my God, if that's what people think, then something must be done - that's what triggered it", recalls Blackburn.

This summer Blackburn, a native of Wales, one of the villages destined for the bottom of the St. Lawrence, got his revenge. That comment has been immortalized as one of the key lines in the powerful closing scene of Blackburn's "A Day to Remember" - the story of that village.

It took Blackburn 20 years to get his project - a summer festival featuring that musical drama, in a specialty-constructed tent theatre - into being. First it was slated as a centennial project. That fell through. Blackburn tried again a year later - the same story.

"It was a pretty hebulous idea being proposed by an author. Surely this must have been suggested in some quarters."

Finally, this year he got it underway.

It started on a perilous footing. The crowds just weren't coming in. Money was being lost and the theatre looked doomed. Blackburn himself threatened to close it down.

"It seemed like suicide to go on in the face of mounting deficits."

Blackburn's threat created an uproar and his phone was ringing off the hook the following day - offers to help, suggestions, pledges of assistance.

"It stiffened our spine. It was like a grade B Hollywood movie - you know 'Save the Show' and all that. It made you want to cry."

The offers came from all over - from people Blackburn had met only fleetingly.

"I do know for a fact that I had a page of suggestions from Nancy Turner, president of the (Ottawa) Orpheus Theatre alone. Now I only met her once for about five minutes at the theatre."

The publicity began to increase and so, slowly, did the audience. In mid-July a bus tour from Ottawa was started. People would ride down in the morning, visit the site of Wales, a guided tour with narrative provided by the performers, and see the play in the afternoon. Next year organizers are planning similar tours from Kingston and Montreal as well.

All the efforts of the summer began to gel the last few weeks of the run. The crowds started coming. During the last week, the 450-seat theatre began to enjoy sell-outs.

"I was very excited at the time. It rather justified our confidence that the audience would build."

Blackburn hopes "A Day to Remember" will eventually become a festival not unlike the Charlottentown, "Ann of Green Gables" annual affair. "A Day to Remeber" would become the mainstay of the festival while one or more other productions would be offered yearly.

Blackburn also hopes to get the season extended so special tours could be arranged for schoolchildren.

All these plans will be discussed during the upcoming year. What is important for Blackburn is that the theatre survived it's nascent run.

By the time the curtain had rung down after Sunday night's final performance, Prince of Wales Theatre Company had rung up a deficit for the season, but the returns and attendance figures for the last few weeks left everyone hopeful.

For George Blackburn it was more than that - it was a dream come true.

chesterville's past

FROM THE RECORD THURS., SEPT. 6, 1928

In these days of swimming marathons, it is interesting to learn that Chesterville has a potential champion among the girl swimmers in Miss Madge Campderros, who recently, while the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Orok at their home near the Blue Church, west of Prescott, swam the Blue Church bay to Ogdensburg, a distance of almost three miles in one hour and forty-five minutes.

A very serious accident occured on the provincial highway about two miles south of Winchester, Monday night about 11 o'clock when Asa Hutt and his wife were returning to their home in Nation Valley after the show in Winchester. A Pontiac car, in which four or five young men were riding, came up behind Mr. Hutt's car and struck it on the side and drove him into the ditch fully six feet deep.

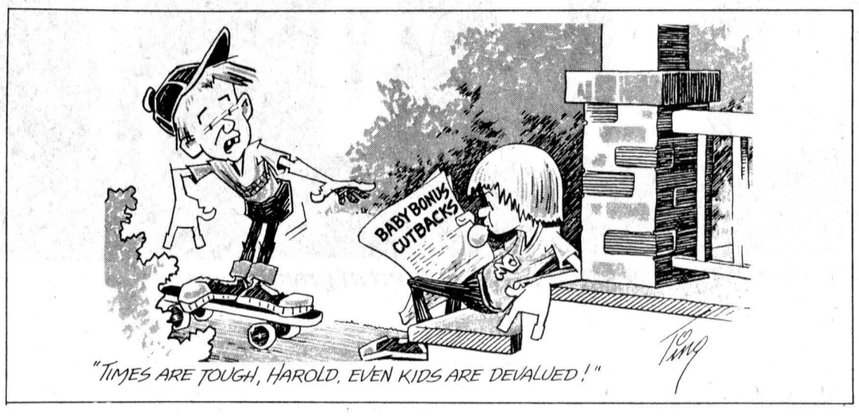
In one of the best exhibitions of ball witnessed in the Eastern Ontario Baseball Association Playdowns in some time, Chesterville climbed a peg in their bid for diamond supremacy in the district when they made it two straight over Laurentian View on the Highland Park Diamond on Saturday afternoon by 3 to 2 score. (Ottawa Citizen).

Winchester Township Council met at Chesterville on Monday, September 3rd, members all present. The engineer's report of the Edwin Baker Drain was read and adopted.

Last Sunday morning as a Ford sedan belonging to Mr. Abram Ball and driven by his son was proceeding south at Allan's corner, a milk truck driven by a man named Rombough was met on the corner head on just as the corner was rounded, with considerable damage to both vehicles. No personal damage was sustained.

Mr. A.J. Forward brought into the Record office yesterday, what is believed to be a rare occurrence among colvers, it being a stem of common red variety of clover carrying seven leaves. Three leaves are quite common, four leaves considered particularly lucky to the finder and if good fortune increased with the number of leaves to the stem, Mr. Forward is surely set for life.

Friday a basket of very fine cobblers was received by the editor to augment the return from his own potato patch which was decidedly disappointing this year. Mr. Wifrid Hutt of Morewood, whom it is said has the finest garden within the limits of Morewood District, was the grower of potatoes and whom we very heartily thank for the gift.



With alterations all but completed at the High School, the members of the school board made a visit of inspection Tuesday night to view the finished work. The old ceilings have been removed and replaced with squares of fiber board.

The regular monthly meeting of the Chesterville subdivision of the C.W.L. was held in St. Mary's School on Friday, September 3rd with Mrs. Michael Curran presiding.

FROM THE RECORD THURS., SEPT. 9, 1948

The regular meeting of the Chesterville council was held last Tuesday evening in the clerk's office with the Reeve Chas. MacMillan in the chair and councillors McMillan, Turner and Hamilton, present. In discussing Hydro business it was decided to ask the public to cooperate with the local commission in the conservation of energy.

The Rotary Fun Fair wound up last night with a "Whoop and a Holler" on King Street that swelled the coffers of the service club with a tidy sum.

The regular meeting of Winchester Township Council was held in the Presbyterian Hall, Morewood on Monday, the 6th of September, with all members present. The clerk was instructed to have a bylaw prepared regulating the construction of buildings within 10 rods of any road in the township of Winchester.

FROM THE RECORD THURS.. SEPT. 4, 1958

With the able assistance of an energetic local committee headed by Peter Manley, M.P.P., and backed by the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry the 45th annual International Plowing Match, under the sponsorship of the Ontario Plowmen's Association gets underway at Crysler Tues., Oct. 7. The famous "Tented City" with displays of every type of farm and home equipment will be on the farm of Armand Cloutier, who, along with his neighbors, are furnishing all the land required for exhibits, plowing, parking and demonstrations. Upwards of 100,000 visitors are expected.

The schools of the district filled up this week to start the new Fall Term. Chesterville Public School shows the greatest increase with 161 pupils registering the first day. That figure is the largest ever registered any first day. St. Mary's Separate School also registered an increase in pupils with 75 on the books Tuesday. Chesterville High School numbers appear to be nearly the same as last year. Teachers this year in the public school will be headed by Hosea Droppo, principal, with Mrs. Evelyn Gillard, Mrs. T.D. Ross, Mrs. E. Cole and Mrs. M. Thompson. Separate school teachers are Sisters Mary Marguerite and Mary Lawrence.

Don Johnston of Winchester won the high senior trophy and Lorraine Holmes, Winchester Springs, the high junior in the annual Dundas County livestock judging held at Winchester. Don Rose, Ken Carkner, Allison Fawcett and E.K. Pearson were the judges.

The fifth meeting of the Chesterville Poultry Club was held recently at the hatchery of Donald MacIntyre, in Finch. Mr. MacIntyre conducted the club members through the hatchery.

Thirty members and guests attended the annual grandmothers meeting of Osnabruck Centre W.I. held at the home of Mrs. D. Rutley. Mrs. Dorothy Morgan, teacher at Rothwell Public School, Ingleside, and a grandmother, gave a delightful and interesting account of her holiday when she attended Summer School at Toronto. She was thanked by the president, Mrs. George Ferguson.

The marriage of Marjorie MacIntyre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. MacIntyre, Finch, to Leonard A. Acreman, Toronto, took place in St. Luke's Presbyterian Church, Finch, with Rev. J. Bell performing the ceremony. In a double ceremony in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, Winchester, on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, Miss Alice Edith Derby became the bride of Mr. John Weaver and Miss Olive Ethella Derby became the bride of Mr. Allan Hutchinson. The brides are twin sisters.

the editor's notebook

With schools opening up across Ontario after Labor Day put the "official" end to summer, it's nice to see some encouraging words come along to help gear up the educational system. A report issued by the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education indicates that, contrary to the conventional wisdom, our elementary and secondary schools are not going to hell in a handbasket. In short, the study, by OISE's Henry Hedges, shows that today's senior elementary school students have a much better vocabulary, can do arithmetic every bit as well and can read as well as their parents and grandparents. The Toronto Sunday Star says Hedges' study doesn't stand alone: the Ontario Ministry of Education's Secondary Post-Secondary Interface study of 1977 shows that today's grade 13 graduates do as well in mathemeatics as those in 1968 - before the start of the permissive era in education in Ontario. The same study shows that on the whole, Ontario's university-bound students are capable of writing essays with serious errors in grammar, word choice or sentence structure. The Star points out that the seeming incongruity of these findings and the burgening remedial reading programs on today's campuses isn't really so strange after all: there has been an eight-fold increase in the number of post-secondary students in Ontario since 1952 and the Star says "Where once universities were the domain of a small group of well-prepared students, today students come from a wide variety of backgrounds and schools."

These are heartening words from The Star, not noted for its cozy relationship with the provincial government, and should provide encouragement for our teachers, principals, school board employees and trustees across SD&G as they embark on another academic year. - robin morris -

Those who have pinned their hopes on the magic solution of the creation of a crown corporation to solve the labor problems afflicting the Canadian postal service had better take a long hard look at Air Canada to see just how effective a nationalized corporation is in serving the needs of the public. The recently concluded strike by Air Canada's machinists - which caused a 10-day shutdown, creating more than just minor inconvenience and expense for the travelling public - doesn't by any stretch mean that the national airline is out of the bushes. Now its 2,700 flight attendants are in the midst of a strike vote, the results of which could ground the country's major air carrier again in another month. All this comes on the heels of threatened strike action by Air Canada pilots, settled and celebrated at the last minute by Labor Minister John Munro.

The problems with Air Canada are those of the post office in reverse. While postal workers serve many many masters - the post office, treasury board, supply and services and public works - the airline is one master dealing with many servants' agents. Postal workers' arguments that the creation of a crown corporation would simplify the running of the post office don't hold up in light of the situation at Air Canada where labor problems are stretched over several months because the expiry dates of collective agreement's don't coincide. If the post office is to become an entity unto itself, let's hope the government has the foresight to have its labor contracts come due concurrently so that such lengthy disputes don't disrupt the country's postal service.

one for the record

by marco levytsky

In a field halfway between Morrisburg and Ingleside history was writtten this summer. The fate of Wales and other villages lost during the Seaway inundation was immortalized in George Blackburn's "A Day to Remember".

One cannot overemphasize the importance of the Prince of Wales Theatre Company to this region. What the Shakespearen Festival did for Stratford, Ontario, what the Shaw festival did for Niagara-on-the-Lake, what "Ann of Green Gables" did for Charlottetown - "A Day to Remember" may do for the Seaway Valley.

Perhaps the best comparison is with the Charlottetown Festival. Like "Ann of Green Gables", "A Day to Remember" deals with a local theme. And like the Charlottetown Festival, the Prince of Wales Theatre hopes to establish "A Day to Remember" as the annual staple and have other plays put on for variety.

While "A Day to Remember" and "Ann of Green Gables" can't match the stature of the work of such literary giants as William Shakespeare and George Bernard Shaw, they nevertheless have a unique quality. They reflect the history and traditions of Canadians, a people yet to find their true identity.

It may be unfair to compare these plays to Shakespeare and Shaw because, after all, British culture is long-established. But just as Shakespeare and Shaw contributed immeasurably to the development of British culture, so "A Day to Remember" is contributing to Canadian.

But the Prince of Wales Theatre is more than just a cultural development - it's a community endeavor. All over the valley people assisted in anyway possible. And it was little Ingleside, home of many of the former residents of the lost villages, which was in the forefront.

From the women who designed the costumes to the townspeople who came out to watch the cast baseball games and adopted the performers as some of their own - the whole community identified with the production and empathized with the trials and tribulations which accompanied the past two months.

Just as today people see the play and recall those fateful days of the Seaway flooding, so 20 years from now people will point to a national cutlural landmark and be able to say with pride "We were part of it. We were there when it all began."

Alphonse Lafrance, separate school trustee for West Stormont and Dundas Counties, along with Cornwall City representative Yollande Charron, were the only two trustees to vote against waiver of the SD&G Roman Catholic Separate School Board seven-day advance notice rule, preventing a delegation of parents from making their pitch to the board last Tuesday.

One may disagree with this vote, just as one might disagree with some of the other votes Lafrance has cast previously - a proposal to make trustee's votes at in-camera sessions made public, which was quashed earlier this summer, or the Janurary vote to rush the green and white papers (anglophone ratepayers argued for more time), but this is not the issue. The effectiveness of Lafrance in representing local interests is.

Perhaps Mrs. Charron has a point when she says you have to be fair to all and the board had heard the Marie Tanguay parents' arguments earlier. Perhaps not. What is at issue is that last Tuesday, as always, it was Charron doing the talking, Lafrance the voting.

During all the meetings of the separate board I have attended, I have yet to hear Lafrance open his mouth, especially when local interests were concerned. He may be aware of conditions in Crysler, but what about Chesterville, Finch, Ingleside, Morrisburg and Iroquois? All these villages have separate schools and all of them are within Mr. Lafrance' jurisdiction. When he went to a meeting in Morrisburg this winter he even had trouble finding the school.

Perhaps the one incident which sticks out most prominently occurred in March when the board voted to accept a 50-50 bilingual program everywhere in the United Counties - except here. Parental response towards the program in Chesterville and Finch equalled the tri-county average and in Morrisburg-Iroquois was higher. St. Andrews West trustee Terence Wheeler was the only member to raise this point - and it was a token gesture at that. While his constituents got the shaft, Lafrance sat as mute as a log.

I approached the English section superintendants to ask for an explanation for this inequity and was given the usual song and dance about it being unfeasible. Sure it may have been unfeasible, but seemingly unfeasible projects have a way of becoming suddenly feasible if enough pressure is applied.

Take the example of Chesterville's four-year-old kindergarten. Parents approached the County Board and were given a song and dance about feasibility, location and so on.

Well, local trustee Lorne Thompson got his act together, found a suitable location at a cheap price, approached the board anew and got the project approved. County Board administrators admitted it was the concerted drive by Thompson and the parents that gave Chesterville the honor of serving as the Tri-County public board pioneer in the four-year kindergarten program. Now that's GOOD representation.

The trouble with the separate board may be that there's been too much FLAC (excuse me) over the language issue. There have been attempts to gain political mileage out of it and the issue has been blown out of proportion. Most of the French-English difficulties involve Cornwall - not us.

Crysler deserves good representation, but so do Chesterville, Finch, Ingleside, Morrisburg and Iroquois. There is no reason why the vote should be polarized between the French in Crysler and the English elsewhere.

Lafrance maybe a sincere, hard-working and honest man, out as a trustee he is ineffective.

We need someone who has demonstrated his ability to understand the problems of the area, someone who is dedicated towards all the consitituents, someone who wants to ensure children are educated in both offical languages, even though it means taking his own time to teach them his mother tongue - Dutch. (Yes, while many people are running around seeing bugaboos in each attempt to teach a second language, there are many who actually want three). Such a person is Glen Becker farmer Peter Van Moorsel, chairman of the Morrisburg-Iroquois Catholic Parent-teacher Association.

Double honors for Gerald Jans

(Staff) - The trend toward's bigger and better cattle shows this year continued at the Stormont County Fair Satuday as 11 exhibitors showed 68 head in the Holstein class.

County Holstein Club secretary Stuart Clark said it was the biggest and best quality show he has seen in Newington "since I started coming to the fair, 10 or 12 years ago".

The stiffer competition didn't faze Moose Creek breeder Gerald Jans who walked away with the Premier Breeder and Exhibitor ribbons for the second straight year. James Campbell of Maxville took both Reserves.

Oran Montgomery of Avonmore took the Senior and Grand Championships with Stobodale Belle, the aged class winner, with Murrayholm Farms of Martintown taking the Reserve with three-year-old winner Murrayholm Kem Andres.

Glenstor Man-O-War Pioneer was Male Champion winner for Gerald Jans with Case Michel of Finch taking the Reserve with Distel-Burg Fury Piers.

James Campbell's C. Kemp Alice was Junior Champion with Mr. Michels' Distel-Berg Maria taking the Reserve.

Class-by-class results are as follows:

Female calf - first - Distel-Berg Mint, Case Michels, second, Wielendale Senator Gina, Tony VanderWielen, Maxville, third, Glenstor Flossie, Gerald Jans.

Junior yearling -first, Avon Acres Blondie Renown, Gordon McRae, Avonmore, second, Wielendale Cita Honey, Anton VanderWielen, third, Glenstor Barnnet Mag, Gerald Jans.

Senior yearling - first, C. Kemp Alice, James Campbell, second, Distel-Berg Maria, Case Michels, third, Distel-Berg Bar Patricia, Case Michels.

Two-year-old - first, C. Unique Star, James Campbell, second, Madawaska Gilda, Oran Montgomery, third, Distel-Berg Catrina, Case Michels.

Governor visits

Rotary District 704 Governor Paul Merritt visited the Ingleside-Osnabruck club at its meeting Aug. 23 as part of his program of visiting the district's 60 clubs. Mr. Merritt is flanked by Governor's Aide, Ross Walker of the Ingleside-Osnabruck Club, left, and club president Jim Zeran. District 704 is unique in Rotary in that it crosses provincial as well as international boundaries. It includes parts of Ontario, Quebec and Northern New York State.- shelley mcintrye photo -

Double honors for Gerald Jans

(Staff) - The trend toward's bigger and better cattle shows this year continued at the Stormont County Fair Satuday as 11 exhibitors showed 68 head in the Holstein class.

County Holstein Club secretary Stuart Clark said it was the biggest and best quality show he has seen in Newington "since I started coming to the fair, 10 or 12 years ago".

The stiffer competition didn't faze Moose Creek breeder Gerald Jans who walked away with the Premier Breeder and Exhibitor ribbons for the second straight year. James Campbell of Maxville took both Reserves.

Oran Montgomery of Avonmore took the Senior and Grand Championships with Stobodale Belle, the aged class winner, with Murrayholm Farms of Martintown taking the Reserve with three-year-old winner Murrayholm Kem Andres.

Glenstor Man-O-War Pioneer was Male Champion winner for Gerald Jans with Case Michel of Finch taking the Reserve with Distel-Burg Fury Piers.

James Campbell's C. Kemp Alice was Junior Champion with Mr. Michels' Distel-Berg Maria taking the Reserve.

There were 385 4-H exhibits in the new fair hall, an increase of 25 over last year. Winners names will be announced at the Stormont County 4-H Achievement Night later this fall.

In the display competition, Stormont Beef Club placed first, Avonmore Calf Club second, and the Stormont Farm Management Club came third.

OPP warn against "hugging"

MORRISBURG (Staff) - An ever-increasing number of motorists, including motorcyclists, have acquired the dangerous habit of "hugging" the centre of the road close to the dividing line, says Dundas County OPP public relations officer Const. J.P. Watson of the Morrisburg detachment.

"This type of manoeuvre has caused several accidents" cautions Const. Watson. "Surely the area highways are sufficiently wide enough to accommodate normal vehicles!"

Const. Watson quotes section 98 (1) of the Highway Traffic Act to show this.

"Where a person in charge of a vehicle on a highway meets another vehicle the driver shall turn out to the right from the centre of the roadway allowing the oncoming vehicle one half of the roadway free. Exceptions - road building machines or apparatus engaged in construction, maintenance of a highway."

BACK TO SCHOOL

Most children enter school with hyperopia, commonly called farsightedness, but 10 to 20 percent of these children are likely to become myopic or nearsighted. both conditions are correctable with proper vision care. To insure early detection of all vision problems, the Ontario Association of Optometrists recommends regular, professional vision examinations.

Oshawa-Whitby tops at local tournament

THE CHESTERVILLE RECORD
SPORTS
PAGE 19, WED., SEPT. 6, 1978

(Staff) - Every major softball event has to produce atleast one exceptional mound effort.

The Seventh Annual Chesterville Ladies' Labor Day Weekend Fastball Tournament lived up to that reputation with fans waiting until the last game to see Ellen Coe of Oshawa-Whitby Dodd and Souter deliver a two-hitter.

The local 16-team event has also become famous for its cliff-hanging final games. And, there again the last match came through with Kingston, no stranger to championship play in the local tournament, bowing 1-0 to Oshawa-Whitby.

Coe delivered everything in the book to Kingston with her infield making only two blunders and her outfield being called upon twice to make outs. Coe fanned three and walked one.

Kington's Pat Fowler scattered five safeties over the distance.

Kingston left runners on second and third in the second frame before Coe slammed the door.

Oshawa-Whitby finally hit paydirt in the top of the fourth with Kelly Ferguson and Patti Cormer delivering back-to-back safeties. Cormer's line shot over the outstretched mitt of Kingston shortstop Claudette Grimshaw set runners on second and third.

Debbie Oilver produced the game's only run with a sacrifice fly to left field to score Ferguson.

O-W threatened to add the insurance run in the seventh but Kingston's stingy infield would have nothing to do with that. With one out, O-W had Sharon Hatch on third and Cathy Fertile on second.

Bonnie Jankowski grounded out to the shortstop and first baseman Kip Kelly fired the ball home to Sue Lawrence in time to cut off Hatch.

The consolation final was less exciting with the Ottawa Valley Jrs. humbling a much younger and less experienced St. Pascal team 7-0.

OV righthander Brenda Deugo delivered a two-hitter as she struck out seven.

Daniel Boudreault was tagged for eight hits as OV scored twice in the first frame and once in the second. They put the game out of reach with three more in the fourth and one in the fifth.

The four local teams in the four day tournament were knocked off early in the competition.

Defending grand champion Mountain doubled Ottawa Bank Note Beavers 8-4 in the opening round but lost 5-4 to Kingston in the next round. Mountain led 4-0 going into the seventh inning and fell apart.

Metcalfe easily disposed of Montreal 10-5 but ran into a wall in losing 7-3 to Oshawa-Whitby.

The young Chesterville entry was greeted with the three-hit combination of Linda Marcell and Debbie Bradley of Ottawa's Kelly's Panthouse in the tournament opener Friday night. The locals bowed 4-1.

Ottawa counted two in the first and single runs in the fourth and fifth. Chesterville got its run in the fourth. Debbie Woods was the losing pitcher.

In Friday's other game, Ingleside could salvage only two hits as they committed four errors in going down 12-2 to the Brockville Blues in six innings.

In the second round, Ingleside got by Chesterville 9-8 with a late rally.

Chesterville counted two runs in the top of the seventh and left the tying run on third when the final out was made.

Audrey Lenard and Sue MacGregor outdueled Debbie Woods and Elaine Martin on the mound.

Ingleside also outhit Chesterville 9-8. Ingleside scored three in the first, two in the third, three in the fifth and one in the sixth.

Chesterville got two in the first, three in the fourth, one in the fifth and two in the seventh.

Ingleside was ousted in the next round Monday morning, losing 5-2 to St. Pascal.

St. Pascal got three runs in the first and two more in the fourth as Anna Patenaude needed mound assistance from Sue MacGregor.

Individual awards in the consolation section were presented to Carol Jerome of St. Pascal as the MVP and OV's Brenda Pilon as the top hitter. In the championship round, Kingston's Claudette Grimshaw was the MVP and O-W's Debbie Oliver was the best batter.

Awards to the top individuals and members of the two winning teams were donated by Labatt's Brewery.

Ladies' event success

(Staff) - The Seventh Annual Chesterville Ladies' Labor Day Weekend Fastball Tournament has again been tabbed a financial success by event organizer Edythe Cameron.

Mrs. Cameron, aside from being weary with fatigue from the major softball weekend, was pleased on how smooth the tournament was played.

She had 16 teams scheduled in the opening round but it was reduced by one shortly after noon Saturday when the Oshawa-Whitby Teddy Bears cancelled out - too late to get another team to fill the vacancy.

That was the only setback with "not one complaint" said Mrs. Cameron. The intermittent rain wasn't a factor with grounds crew personnel doing an excellent job.

She said the tournament will definitely turn a profit but she will have to sit down and total up all the receipts.

Newington wins NSIFL opener with ease, 12-1

NEWINGTON (Staff) - Newington men mean business in repeating as North Stormont Intermediate Fastball League champions.

They served up the message - loud and clear - here last Tuesday night, whipping Chesterville 12-1 in first game of their best-of-seven league final.

Newington righthander Terry Gove sparkled on the mound in the semi-final sweep over Osnabruck Centre and he continued to pace the attack. He fanned 11 Chesterville batters, seven of those in the first three innings.

Chesterville left six runners on base in the game, managing to score their lone run in the top of the sixth when Dave Cross stroked a two-out single. Chesterville left the bases loaded in the seventh.

Steve Plummer, a one-man show against pennant-winning Berwick in the semi-finals, fanned eight Newington batters.

Newington pounced on Plummer for two runs in their trip to the plate and they increased the margin to 4-0 in the second frame.

They put the game out of reach in the sixth, scoring six times as they sent 10 batters to the plate.

They ran the score to 12-2 in the bottom of the eighth when Jim Wert slapped a two-run homer.

Mountain wins at Newington

NEWINGTON (Staff) - Danny Hogaboam was up to tricks here on the weekend, striking out opposing batters as Mountain captured the $500 top cash award at the annual Stormont County Fair Fastball Tournament.

The young lefthanded hurler was named the tournament's best pitcher, winning three games and striking out 30 batters while allowing eight hits.

Hogaboam tossed a pair of one-hitters in the 14-team tournament. He evened carried a perfect game into the seventh inning against Osgoode before giving up a hit.

He fired a one-hitter against Morrisburg's New Centennial Restaurant in the final game and Doug McNairn collected that in the fifth frame. He eventually scored on a throwing error.

Mountain struck early, chasing Randy Cleary from the mound in favor of Jim Morrell in the second inning. They combined for a four-hitter.Mountain counted both of their runs in the second inning with the eventual winning margin coming when Al McLean singled home Reg Hyndman.

Morrisburg's Wayne Summers was named the tournament's most valuable player hitting .555 in three games.

Morrisburg knocked off Berwick 1-0 in the semi-final on the strength of Mark Pinkus' solo homer and Mountain got by Osgoode 4-2.

No word yet on sr. league

OTTAWA (Staff) - Carl Foley, a director with the Ottawa District Hockey Association, says three teams are committed to forming a senior hockey league within the branch this coming winter.

Embrun Panthers, Rockland Nationals and Pembroke 77s, Mr. Foley said Monday, have all indicated their seriousness in entering the league by paying a $200 bond to the ODHA.

Mr. Foley said he has not heard back from Perth representatives and he understands now another community near Pembroke on the Quebec side of the border is interested in a franchise. He has not talked to anyone from that community and did not mention the name.

However, he did say time was becoming a factor and he is trying to get all interested parties together some time this week or early next.

Go against Brockville

Pioneers in final

(Staff) - Williamsburg Pioneers used the long and short ball last week to advance to the Dundas Fastball League championships series for the fifth straight season.

And, for the fourth time in five years, the Pioneers will be up against the pennant-winning Brockville Commercial Stars for the F.M. Cass Trophy. Williamsburg has won the title on two of those occasions and are the defending champs.

Williamsburg got by Cardinal in five games, scoring a 3-1 win last Tuesday and a 4-1 decision Thursday. Brockville eliminated Domville in four straight concluding the set with 5-2 and 2-0 wins. In the final victory, Thursday night, Dave Dixie fired a no-hitter.

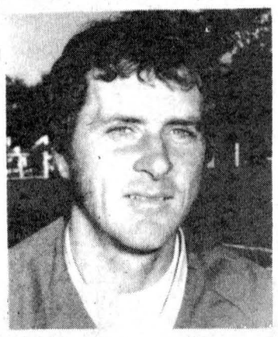
The final series started in Brockville last night (Tuesday) with the second back in Williamsburg Thursday and the third in Brockville Friday. All games start at 8pm.

Gerry Belanger was the mound victor over Ted Hoy Thursday. Belanger gave up eight hits and three free passes to first in striking out nine batters.

Hoy was tagged for 11 hits and two walks as he fanned six Pioneers.

Williamsburg quickly served notice they wanted to wrap up the series when Paul Beckstead opened the game with a triple and scored on a one out single to left by Wade Roles.

They increased the margin to three runs in the top of the fifth. Owen Shortt led off with a bunt and reached base on an error and Roger Morrell followed with a single to centre. Beckstead lined a shot to second and was safe as Shortt scored. Hogaboam flied out as Roger Morrell moved to third and Roles was issued a walk to load the bases. Belanger followed with a hard drive to left.



Paul Beckstead
...three safe hits

Casselman was the mound victor, hurling a four-hitter and striking out 15 Pats.

Stan Woods got the starting nod for Cardinal but he was chased from the mound in the fourth. He gave up one run, two hits, a walk and fanned three before giving way to Hoy. Hoy was tagged for five hits as he struck out five.

Hogaboam paced the Pioneers with a triple and homer. Other safe hits went to Casselman, Roles, Larry Cooper, Owen Shortt and Jim Shaw.

second and Roger scored.

In the bottom of the sixth, Cardinal broke the ice when Ed St. Louis tripled to right and scored on Tom Hare's third single of the game. That came after the Pioneers had doubled off Ed Orzel and Wayne Jones.

Williamsburg added their fourth run in the ninth when Beckstead, Hogaboam and Roles all singled. Hogaboam scored after Beckstead had been called out at third base.

Beckstead had three hits in the win as Doug Casselman had two. Hogaboam, Roles, Belanger, Shortt and Roger Morrell had one each.

Hogaboam was the hero of Tuesday's win, poking a two-run homer over the left field fence in the top of the eighth to snap a 1-1 tie. The game winning hit came with two out and Shaw standing on first after hitting safely to left field.

Hogaboam also counted Williamsburg's first run in the fourth frame when he tripled to right field and scored on Belanger's sacrifice fly to left field.

The Pats evened the score in the bottom half of the fourth when Tom Hare tripled and scored on Ed St. Louis' sacrifice fly out to Oshawa-Whitby Dodd and Souter made their long trip here worthwhile as they captured the $250 top cash award at the Seventh Annual Chesterville Ladies Labor Day Weekend Fastball Tournament. O-W knocked off the Ottawa Valley Jrs. 5-4 in the first round before taking Metcalfe 7-3, Ottawa Don's Variety 7-0 and Kingston 1-0 in the final. Ottawa Valley Jrs. blanked St. Pascal 7-0 to win the consolation round title for a second striaght time. To the left is the winning team and above tournament organizer, Edythe Cameron, centre, is flanked by the event's top four individual players. They are Carol Jerome of St. Pascal (B division MVP), Brenda Pilon of Ottawa Valley Jrs. (B division top hitter), Claudette Grimshaw of Kingston (A division MVP) and Debbie Oliver of O-W (A division top hitter).

Award winners

In CTFL final series

Golddusters, Bill Willies open Sunday

(Staff) - First ranked Golddusters and second ranked Bill Willies qualified for berths in the best-of-five championship playoff series in the Chesterville Town Fastball League Monday night.

The Golddusters were first to qualify by downing the Rockets 23-15. The Bill Willies nipped the Farmers 12-11 in the second half of the double-header. Both best-of-five semi-final sets lasted four games.

The final series will get started Sunday with a double-header. Games start at 7pm and 9pm.

With each series tied at a win apiece, the Golddusters posted a 9-6 win and the Bill Willies claimed a 9-3 decision.

In Monday night's opening game, the Golddusters were never really threatened. They trailed 3-1 after two frames but fell behind to stay in the third.

Golddusters led 5-3 after three and increased to 14-3 going into the sixth. Rockets rallied for five runs in their last trip to the plate but were still well off the mark in forcing the series to its five game limit.

In the night cap, Rockets could only squeeze in a single run in the top of the seventh inning, falling short by one run of sending their set to the limit.

Rockets led for most of the game and it wasn't until the bottom of the fifth, the Bill Willies rallied for five runs to move in front 12-10.

Rockets led 4-0, 5-2 and 9-7 in the first three innings.

Ingleside win away from SLFL crown

INGLESIDE (Staff) - Ingleside has moved to within a single victory of claiming the Stormont Ladies' Fastball League playoff championship.

The pennant-winning riverfront team moved into a 2-1 game lead in the best-of-five set here Monday night by nipping Crysler 11-6 behind the pitching of Sue MacGregor.

Ingleside could wrap up the series in Crysler tonight (Wednesday) when they meet in game four at 8pm. If the set is pushed to the limit, game five will be played in Ingleside at 8pm Thursday.

Crysler won the series opner 9-7 last Tuesday night but Ingleside rebounded the following evening with a 36-6 romp to square the series.

MacGregor has pitched all three games for Ingleside and Anna Patenaude has handled the mound chores for Crysler.

The league's annual awards night will be held at the Crysler Community Centre Friday night, starting at 9pm.

The regular season and playoff trophies will be presented along with individual trophies to the MVP, most sportsmanlike player and top rookie.

Registrations rolling in slowly

(Staff) - Mike Lecuyer of Chesterville Sports reports only three soap boxes have been registered for this Sunday morning's races. The races will start at 10am and will be held in the parking lot at the Chesterville and District Arena.

Entry is $1 per cart and the final deadline for registration at Chesterville Sports is 5:30pm Saturday.

Lecuyer cautions youngsters the races will be cancelled if there are not enough registrations received. All carts must be homemade. Participants must be 13 years and under and each cart must not have more than two pushers.

A drag race and obstacle race will be held for the boys. If there is sufficient interest, girls can enter a special powderpuff obstacle course.
