Williamsburg PS future again in doubt

WILLIAMSBURG (Staff) - Ten months after the SD&G County Board of Education backed down on its decision to close Williamsburg Public School, the question has arisen once again.

The 76-year-old three-room school is one of seven across SD&G which has fallen victim to extreme declines in enrolment and at a public meeting in the school Monday evening, board of education and administration members told an audience of less than 20 village residents that the problem has reached acute proportions.

The meeting was organized by the board's School Facilties Committee - formerly known as the School Closing Committee - and is one in a round of seven public informational meetings being held this month.

Others are being held at Stampville, Maxville, Monkland, Moose Creek and Cornwall, all areas in which enrolment decline has led the board to question the existence of present school facilities.

Uppermost in the board's thoughts is the consideratin of costs. By closing the seven schools, it would save in the neighborhood of $117,000, $6,000 of which would be realized in Williamsburg.

A total saving of $12,000 in Williamsburg would be partially offset by maintenance costs of $900 and transportation costs to Elma Public School of about $5,900.

Lorne Thompson, Chesterville, Winchester and Winchester Township trustee, chaired Monday night's meeting and told the ratepayers on hand that the board isn't necessarily closing the Williamsburg school. The purpose of the meeting was to get community input to help the committee make its final decision, he said.

"We're not here to sell you a bundle of goods," he commented.

The board had decided to close the school in September 1976 but delayed the closing after a meeting last spring when parents agreed to do without some educational benefits until the board's proposed building program was completed at Elma Public School. They agreed that once Elma was enlarged Williamsburg students would be bused there to school.

Superintendent of education Ken MacLennan said the province's freeze on capital expenditures is still in effect but the board hoped the Ministry of Education would thaw funds later this year or early next to allow the Elma project to get underway.

The enlargement of Elma School, which will see construction of a gymnasium, music room, library and kindergarten, will cost in the neighborhood of $200,000 and is the board's number one building priority Mr. MacLennan said.

It shared priority with construction at Char-Lan High School before the freeze but has since emerged as the board's single most pressing construction project.

There are 39 students now enrolled at Williamsburg Public School in grades one to six. Kindergarten students are now bused to Elma. The enrolment has slipped from 44 as of September 30, 1976.

Declining enrolment is not limited to Williamsburg, Mr.-MacLennan said.

He pointed out that since the tri-county board was created, in 1969, there has been a total decline of 1,655 public elementary school students and 2,955 separate school students across the counties.

This is a total decline of 4,620, which has created potential problems for secondary schools. Right now there is a bulge in enrolment between grades five and eight, but the board is predicting a further decline of 1,000 elementary students before enrolment levels off. Projections show a decline of 295 in September 1977.

According to board facility utilization policies, the rated capacity for each elementary school classroom is 35 students.

However, Mr. MacLennan explained that the board tries to keep class size at 90 per cent of capacity, or 32 students. This is considered the maximum for best classroom instruction.

Using this formula, Williamsburg has a rated capacity of 105 students and Elma 245.

If the two schools were to be consolidated, there would be a total enrolment of 192 students at Elma, which he termed an "excellent capacity of 78 per cent".

According to board enrolment forecasts, this will drop to 76 per cent in 1977, 75 per cent in 1978, 73 per cent in 1979 and will level out at 72 per cent in 1980.

Average number of students in each of Elma's seven classrooms would be 26.

Both Mr. MacLennan and superintendent J.J. Comtois said that by consolidating the two schools, Elma's chances of getting it addition would be enhanced. According to the report prepared by superintendent M.N. Hutchison, the ministry might be just waiting for consolidation before freeing capital funds.

They pointed to the recent approval of two construction projects in neighboring Leeds-Grenville as evidence that the ministry is giving special consideration to Eastern Ontario and said at least Queen's Park hasn't given the board any negative responses on the Elma proposal.

The advantages of putting the two school populations together would outweigh the disadvantages, Mr. MacLennan said.

On the positive side, Williamsburg students would be in single and double grade classrooms instead of the present triple grades; they would have special subject teachers for music, physical education and remedial work; there would be a decrease in costs, and increased enrolment at Elma would give the building project a better chance.

On the negative side there would be increased transportation costs; a sociological disruption as students were removed from their own community, and the board would be going against the area's tradition.

In the question and answer period following their formal presentations, committee and administration members said the teachers now employed at Williamsburg public would be absorbed into the system and Mr. MacLennan said he could see no problems in transferring them to Elma. There are now two or three teacher vacancies in the immediate area, he pointed out.

As for transportation, one

Snow removal budget hard hit by January fall

(Staff) - Weather conditions so far this winter have proved to be more than just a motorists headache.

January's heavy snows have given the municipality's roads department budget problems as snow removal during the month ate up almost half of the total amount of money set aside for winter road control.

It cost the village $8,094.50 for snow removal during January. The total budget for "winter control" - which includes salting and sanding - is $18,472 and we still have at least another month of winter to contend with. No provincial subisidies will e supplied for expenditures over the budget.

The budget for last year was $15,750.91.

The Ministry of Transportation and Communications has approved the village's 1977 road maintenance budget which takes in winter control, and will supply half the amount the village has alloted. The province's subsidy comes to $15,500.

The total estimated roads budget for 1977 is $172,673, which includes $157,000 for the reconstruction of South St., this year's major roads project.

The budget also includes funds for finishing up the Joseph St. reconstruction project.

The South St. Project, if approved by the ministry, will receive a provincial subsidy of 50 per cent of total costs. Work will be stretched over two years, the village hopes, and will include installation of storm sewers, curbing, gutters and repaving. No changes will be made in the street's sanitary sewer lines.

At its meeting last Tuesday evening, Council agreed in principle with the offer made by James Sullivan, Queen St., for an arrangement to have the village assume the entranceway he plans for a three-lot housing development east of Albert St.

Council had earlier refused to accept the entranceway since it is blow the minimum width required for provincial road subsidies. Mr. Sullivan's latest proposal would have him give the village $500 for each lot, for a total of $1500, to be invested and the interest to be used to carry out maintenance work on the entrance.

Although Council agreed in principle with the idea, it is checking out its legal implications with the village solicitor and informed Mr. Sullivan of this fact in a letter.

In a matter related to streets, Council decided it will from now on charge for fire calls to burning vehicles within the village. Insurance companies involved will receive the bills since Council feels the cost of putting out fires should be included in vehicle fire insurance coverage.

Ratepayers take reeve at word on road pledge

MAPLE RIDGE (Staff) — Winchester Township residents are taking Reeve Delbert Link's inaugural address to heart.

At the first meeting of the year, Reeve Link said roads will receive special attention in 1977. And at the second meeting, last Tuesday night, Council was presented with three requests for road work.

Frank Schoones started the ball rolling by asking about work on the sixth concession and Gerry Brugmans followed close behind by requesting that work be done to the Nation River road.

Reeve Link concluded the list of requests by saying Claire Summers wanted a portion of his road east from Cass Bridge, built up because the spring flood washes it out every year.

The Summers project was given approval by Council and the two others will be seriously considered in the near future when the road budget is discussed.

It has to be set by March 31.

Veteran Councillor James Sullivan noted the roads in the northern part of the township received more attention than those in the south last year and the pattern should be reversed this term.

Deputy-Reeve Gerald Holmes commented that was true but the priority should be given to roads most needing the work the most.

R.M. Kostuch Associates Ltd., in a letter to Council, asked that it be considered in regards to the bridge improvement program Council approved to go ahead with last month.

Council received an estimate from A.J. Graham Associates for the project and will request an estimate from the Kostuch firm before making any final decision.

The Graham firm is the township's engineer and Kostuch did the township's road needs study program a couple of years ago.

Work done on the project to upgrade the standard of all township bridges with a span of 20 feet or more is being paid for by the provincial government.

CP Rail also notified Council it will, starting in June, be reballasting the eastbound line from Bedell, near Kemptville, to 2½ miles east of Chesterville.

Tenders were also called to supply 12,000 tons of crushed stone, 150 tons of calcium chloride, 75 gallons of weed killer and a year's supply of steel culverts.

Bids must be received by clerk-treasurer Glenn MacGregor by 12 noon Wed., March 2.

A tile drainage application was accepted from John Byvelds at a value of $15,000.

Two land severance applications were received. One from Willis McKeown Ltd. was not recommended and the other from William Merkley was recommended but only if the lot is reduced in size.

Council's next regular meeting is at 8pm Wed., March 2.

Dundas Dairy Day

(Staff) — Dundas County Dairy Day will be held Thurs., Feb. 17, beginning on the Dwight Gilmer farm, South Mountain, at 10:30am. Harold Clapp, dairy cattle specialist, will present a program on heifer raising in the Brinston Odd Fellows Hall. The afternoon program will be held on the Arnold Barkley farm, Iroquois.

Council shifts hours

(Staff) — The next regular meeting of Finch Township Council will be held in the township offices at 1pm Mon., Feb. 14. Council shifted the meeting to daytime hours because of the uncertainty of the winter weather and is considering keeping daytime hours for its March meetings as well, although that decision won't be until later this month.

Foley Drain report

(Staff) — The engineer's report on the Foley Drain will be presented for consideration by the landowners affected by the project at the Township Community Hall, Berwick, at 1pm Wed., Feb. 16. The meeting was to have been held in the township offices but because of the large number of landowners on the drain it was shifted to the hall.

(Staff) - Two persons are dead and a third is listed in satisfactory condition in an Ottawa hospital following a three-vehicle collision on county road 13 about a mile west of Morewood Friday evening.

Dead are 19-year-old Danny McDonald of Vernon, and Roger Gibeault, 24, RR3 Chesterville.

Penny Gibeault, wife of the deceased, was listed Monday as being in satisfactory condition in the Ottawa Civic Hospital suffering from undisclosed injuries.

According to investigating officer Const. The truck apparently went out of control and crossed into the westbound lane, hitting the Gibeault car head-on and bursting into flames.

mother said buses in the area are now overcrowded and the addition of 40 students to the bus system would worsen the problem.

She was told some Williamsburg students could be placed on the Maple Ridge express bus and the 20-seat van now operating east of the village would be scrapped for a new 66-seat bus.

If the Williamsburg school is closed, the building would be kept up by the board as "attractively as possible" and it would be offered for sale to, in order, the separate board, post secondary institutions, municipality, province, federal government, conservation authority and lastly, the general public.

There have been indications the Township of Williamsburg would like to purchase the building and convert it to a township hall, several at the meeting told the board representatives.

Discuss school closing

Superintendent of educational J.J. Comtois, left, and trustee Lorne Thompson, extreme right, discuss the advantages and disadvantages of closing the 76-year-old Williamsburg Public School with village residents following Monday night's information meeting in the school building. The board said it would realize a net saving of $6,000 a year by closing the three-room school and busing students to Elma. Williamsburg's is one of seven elementary schools under study by the SD&G County Board of Education's School Facilities Committee. -staff photo-

Our teachers participated in two professional development days which took place on the two school days following the examinations.

Because of our recent snowstorm, buses were unable to run Tues., Feb. 1. Therefore, students finally returned to begin the second semester Wed., Feb. 2.

On this day, levels three, four, and five were grateful for the opportunity to watch a play presented by the Theatre Hour Company.

This production focused on the 60s and consisted of fine dancing, singing and acting.

There were no major events in the line of sports this past week. Our senior girls basketball team, having completed a very successful season, enjoyed a visit to the Nestle (Canada) Ltd. plant in Chesterville. This company helped sponsor the girls on their trip to Sarnia.

He was the board's vice-chairman responsible for the finance, property and administration committee, last year.

Joan Wills, Director of Nursing for the Leeds, Grenville and Lanark District Health Unit in Brockville, was re-elected vice-chairman responsible for the board's staff and student affairs committee.

The other vice-chairman is Frank Quaife of Kingston. He will be responsible for the finance, property and administration committee.

Welcomed to the board as a new member was Arden Lee of Sharbot Lake. Mr. Lee is the treasurer for the Township of Oso.

The other eight are appointed on a geographical basis by the Council of Regents for the Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology.

Mission work changes theme at WMS annual

PRESCOTT (Special) — Chosen for Service was the theme of the annual meeting of the Brockville Presbyterial WMS held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Prescott.

At this well attended meeting, the year's work was reviewed and plans for the ongoing work of the WMS were made. The following points of interest arose from the day's business: two new adult groups were formed; 95 per cent of all WMS members subscribe to the Glad Tidings; the 1976 allocation to Council went 14 per cent over the top; the March Executive meeting and children's workshop are to be held in Winchester; the Synodical will be in Brockville in April; the May Rally is to be in Morrisburg.

Mrs. Rosemary Doran of Richmond gave the theme address and that Christ has commissioned us to be missionaries, a missionary being a person who is sent. Because of the reaction against mission work to-day, to be acceptable immigrants, missionaries must have another vocation such as being a teacher, doctor, social worker or agricultural expert thus enabling them to meet the physical as well as the spiritual needs of the people.

Some people think of missionaries as old ladies, sitting under palm tree, talking to small colored children who have no clothes on.

However to-day, in mission work, as well as in any other field, change is necessary and often bring a renewal of enthusiasm.

The 1977 executive of the Brockville Presbyterial WMS (W.D.) is as follows: past president, Mrs. Edith Adams, Brockville, president, Mrs. John Gray, Kemptville, first vice-president, Mrs. John Clark, Mountain, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Arnold Davidson, Kemptville, recording secretary, Miss Edna Lorimer, Brockville, treasurer, Mrs. Lorne Seeley, Chesterville, adult secretary, Mrs. Gordon Blow, South Mountain, girls' and children's secretary, Mrs. L.J. Cowper, Spencerville.

Associate members secretary is Mrs. Brown, Lyn, glad tidings secretary, Mrs. Harold Greer, Chesterville, supply secretary, Mrs. John Clark, Mountain, life membership secretary, Mrs. J.W. Moke, Iroquois, press secretary, Mrs. Donald Messenger, Kemptville, friendship and service secretary, Mrs. Reid, Prescott, literature secretary, Miss Heather Moody, Chesterville, historian, Mrs. Frank Dobbie, Spencerville.

Road information calls clog OPP phone lines

MORRISBURG (Special) - During the blizzard Mon., Jan. 31, Ontario Provincial Police detachment switchboards in both Winchester and Morrisburg were inundated with telephone calls from area residents requesting information on road conditions, states Const. J.P. Watson, OPP Dundas County community services officer.

Most of those who called appeared to be considering driving to their various destinations despite one of the worst and most widespread storms in recent memory, he ways.

During the storm highway 31 north of highway 43 was completely blocked by the heavy drifting snow and this condition was broadcast on all local radio stations, which also advised motorists to stay off the roads.

Almost all area roads were snowbound and visibility was reduced to near zero as the high winds swirled snow across the landscape in powdery clouds and as a result OPP cruisers were in stationary positions, responding only to emergency conditions, Const. Watson states.

He says it has always been the OPP's policy to assist the general public in all respects but when police telephones are clogged by callers wanting road reports, it may cause vital delays in responding to emergency situations.

In the likely event that similar storms strike this area, Const. Watson advises motorists to call the Ministry of Transportation and Communications Road Information Centre in Ottawa at 745-7049 where they will get the latest updated information on road conditions and expected weather conditions.

This number should be clipped out and pasted near a telephone or placed in a visible spot so that the next time a storm strikes, those having to do any travelling in this area will be able to get information quickly and without inconveniencing police.

Ministerial approval first, acceptance second

(Staff) - Municipal Council has turned down the applications of two developers to have their subdivisions' roads and underground services accepted into the village system.

Council received the requests, for Armstrong Place and Brookside Gardens, at last Tuesday night's meeting but turned them down, not because they are unacceptable, but because the village wants to get confirmation from the ministries of Transportation and Communications and the Environment that they will in turn accept them for subsidy.

Once the roads and services are given ministerial approval, the village will accept them.

Village streets will finally get proper identification signs and buildings will be numbered in an orderly way if Council's request for a Young Canada Works grant is approved by the federal government.

Recreation director Rick St. Dennis applied for the grant last week.

The decision to embark on the program was made after a request from a Riverside Drive resident, Al Kennedy, to have proper signs erected to distinguish Riverside Drive from South Street East. He also requested that Council do something about the street numbering of buildings in the village.

In his report to Council, Mr. St. Dennis gave a commentary on his recent trip to the Ontario Recreation Society's convention in London, Ont.

He said one topic dealt with at the annual gathering, certification changes for recreation directors, could have serious effects on smaller centres such as Chesterville.

It was the general feeling at the convention that present certification methods should be scrapped in favor of a system of ongoing education in which the director would report to a provincial body.

The system of classifying directors and issuing them with interim and permanent certificates would undergo a drastic changes but Mr. St. Dennis, now classed as an Interim A director, would still be eligible for a $1,200 provincial grant on his salary.

Mr. St. Dennis, town works foreman Harold Sharkey and Councillor Mac LaSalle will be meeting with the Chesterville and District Agricultural Society to work out an agreement between the society and village on putting up a fence around the ball diamond on the fairgrounds.

The fair board owns the land but allows the village the use of it and wants to erect and patrol its own fence.

A representative of the Winchester Township Snowmobile Club, Bob Larose, was told Council has no authority to allow groups to use the Senior Citizen Drop-In Centre, under construction in the Community Park.

The club would like to use the building as a meeting place during the winter months, but Mr. Larose was told the committee in charge of the centre is the group to contact on the matter.

The club doesn't want to use the building on a regular basis but would like to spot its meetings here throughout the year. Because the club has members on a township-wide basis, it will also hold meetings in Morewood, Ormond and Winchester.

The village will have to purchase more street lights this year, Mr. Sharkey told Council. About 10 will be needed at a cost of about $200 each.

Mr. Sharkey said it is the usual practice to move older lights into previously unlighted areas when new lamps are received, but the older lights are getting to the point where they are no longer serviceable.

Council received its share of the $694 bill for a new building on the sanitary land fill site to be used by the dumpkeeper. Chesterville pays one-third of the cost of operating the dump.

UCW afternoon unit meets

(Special) - The ladies of Trinity UCW afternoon unit met in the dining hall of the church Thurs. Feb. 3.

Mrs. Graham Smith opened the meeting with a poem and hymn.

The regular business was conducted by Mrs. Eric Casselman, Mrs. Graham Smith and Mrs. Dalton Docksteader and members learned the Chamber of Commerce will be holding a meeting to hear suggestions on how best to spend the money made from the carnival.

"Death" was the topic chosen for study and discussion. The sub-topics were Learning about death as a child; learning to die and needs of the family after death. An open discussion followed.

Verses were read from the Bible relating to death. The 23rd Psalm was read n unison followed by a closing hymn and prayer.

Lunch was served by the conveners Mrs. Ed Forward, Mrs. Ed Shay, Mrs. Dudley Craig, Mrs. Ken Merkley and Mrs. P. Gilroy in absentia.

Community Hall renovations

A workman trims a sheet of drywall in the clerk-treasurer's office in the Community Hall as the building's renovation program nears completion. The new office is the former Women's Institute room and should be ready for occupancy next month. When the program is completed, the WI will move into the room now occuppied by the clerk. Last Tuesday night Council put off its decision on ordering furniture for its new chambers until the renovations are completed. - staff photo -

IN MEMORIAM

In fond and loving memory of our dear parents, Marshall E. Merkley, who departed this life Sept. 21st, 1921 and Catherine C., Feb. 12th, 1970, and our dear uncle, W.C. Merkley, Jan. 1, 1976.
The years are quickly passing,
Though still we can't forget,
For in our hearts we loved them,
And their memory lingers yet.
The years wipe out many things,
But this, they'll wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days,
When we were all together.
We know you are with us in all we do,
Your love will see us through,
Though absent now you are always near,
Still loved, still missed and still very dear.

Lovingly remembered by their family Grandchildren, nephews, nieces, Chesterville and Ottawa

Township bridges getting attention

BERWICK (Staff) — R.M. Kostuch Associates Ltd. has been appointed by Finch Township as project engineer for a new Ministry of Transportation and Communications program which pays a full subsidy for upgrading municipal ridges with spans of 20 feet or more.

The appointment was made at last Wednesday's Council meeting following receipt of a letter from the ministry informing Council of the municipality's eligibility for the program.

The letter stated that maintenance of township bridges should take precedence over road repair and for this reason the province is willing to pay the full cost for having bridges appraised, inspected and maintained.

In addition to the subsidy, the province will provide technical guidance under the program.

In the past there has been a lack of regular inspection and maintenance of bridges in small municipalities with the result that many have had their lifespans considerably shortened.

The township will take part in the first phase of the program, the appraisal stage, and have Kostuch inspect bridges over the Payne River.

Council agreed with road superintendent Reg Burd's suggestion to have two-way radio installed in the three township trucks and base radios put in at the township garage and at the road superintendent's home.

Mr. Burd said Finch is one of the few remaining townships not to have radio communications for its road department vehicles.

Radios would assist the roads department in finding vehicles which had broken down and in cases of emergency. "It would be money well spent," he told an audience of receptive councillors.

The township will tender for the radio system.

Council named its township officials for the year 1977 at last Wednesday's meeting. The list of appointments includes livestock evaluators Barry Armstrong and Ewart Neville; fence viewers Allan McMahon, Olivier Courville, Garnet Johnstone and Clair Robertson; dog tax collector, Hilliard McCorristan, and animal bylaw enforcement officer Laurent Hebert.

Grants were made to minor hockey organizations in the township's two hamlets and in the village of Finch. Crysler and Berwick will each receive $600 and Finch Village will receive $200.

Township ratepayers will find a change in the first installment of property taxes this year. Council increased the size of the first installment from 40 to 45 mills to reduce the tax bite which comes later in the year. The first installment is due June 30.

Avonmore native dies in Brockville

Funeral services were held on Friday, February 4 at the Appleton-Slater Funeral Home for the late Mrs. Bessie Downey, who passed away suddenly at Brockville General Hospital on Tuesday, February 1. She was in her 88th year.

She was born in Avonmore on August 22, 1890, the daughter of Silas Shaver and his wife, Mary Blair, both now deceased.

She moved to Saskatchewan and married Dan Downey in Weyburn, Saskatchewan in 1916. Mrs. Downey came to Prescott to live in 1963 after the death of her husband.

She is survived by three sons, Dan, of Bothell, Washington, Frank of Ridgeway, and Ted of Perth, and two daughters, Mrs. Elmer Deschamps, (Ferne) of Prescott, and Mrs. Courtney Gibson, (Leona) of Regina, Saskatchewan. She is also survived by 13 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Frederick Payne of St. John's Anglican Church where Mrs. Downey was a member. Interment will be at Sandy Hill Cemetery.

Hydro bills create confusion

Hydro bills sent out this month by the village utilities commission are creating some confusion among Chesterville ratepayers. The problem arises from the code nine appearing on the bills in red ink (shown here underlined). Code nine in the explanation at the top of the bills appears as arrears, but is in this case a credit for electrical power consumed during the month of December. Because the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission increased its bulk power rates at the first of the year, bills just sent out for the months of December and January are calculated at the new rate. However, December's power consumption must be charged at the old rate. This is where the code nine comes in. In the above sample, the credit of $3.50 is the difference in charges for December consumption between the two rates. It appears as a credit since that amount was deducted from the bill, due for payment February 21. Village clerk-treasurer Lloyd Graham points out it is not a refund, just an indication that December's billing was done by 1976 rates.

Morrisburg Knox women celebrate anniversary

MORRISBURG (Speicla) - On Thurs., February 3, members of the Knox Women's Club of Knox Presbyterian Church, Morrisburg, got together to celebrate their 40th Anniversary. Upon arrival everyone received a lovely corsage to mark this special occasion.

To open the meeting, President Mrs. Joan Farlinger read an appropriate selection "Another Year is Dawning." The worship portion of the program was based on 'What does the new year mean to you?' and 'Measures'. Mrs. Margherita Baker read the scripture lesson and Mrs. Catherine Scott led in prayer.

Everyone enjoyed listening to a poem written for the 40th Anniversary. It contained many interesting facts that happened within the Club over the past 40 years. A candle light ceremony was held as everyone watched Mrs. Annie Kinkaid light a candle for the past, Mrs. Catherine Scott lighting one for the present and six-year-old Isabella Farlinger lighting one for the future.

The business portion of the meeting followed and it was reported 1977 will be another busy year for the Knox Women's Club starting immediately with the ladies doing another quilt.

On March 15, Mrs. Helen Laurin of Laurin's Beauty Salon will demonstrate hair styling and fashions from The Clothing Barn in the Lecture Room of the Church. Tickets for $2 will be sold in advance, quantity limited. Coffee and desserts will be served.

To close this special meeting, a short play was put on by four members of the executive committee - Mrs. Joan Farlinger Mrs.Catherine Scott, Mrs. Margherita Baker and Mrs. Grace Dikland. Pictures were taken of the members with an anniversary cake baked especially for this occasion. Everyone enjoyed the social hour that followed. Pictures and historical records were on display during the evening.

The next meeting will be held on February 28. Members are invited to bring friends in for the evening. Mrs. Glen Keyes will be guest speaker.

Dear Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I am fed up with your all-purpose answer - "Get some counseling." You apply it to every situation. "I hate my father." "Get some counseling." "Nobody likes me." Get some counseling. "I was hit by a bus." Get some counseling.

I admit that last one is a little far-fetched, but so is your idea of counseling. How many people can afford $50 an hour for a shrink?

Don't tell me about those wonderful "free clinics." Show me a free clinic in a small town and I'll show you a zebra with feathers.

Telling a kid to see her school guidance counselor is ridiculous when she goes to a school that doesn't have one. Besides, a 13-year-old girl like myself doesn't want counseling. She wants your advice. That's why she writes to you. -Mad Teen

Dear Teen: Some problems can be solved by saying yes or no, or, "Tell him to get lost," or "Forget it." Other problems need to be talked out. Just verbalizing your feelings can make you feel a whole lot better... and sometimes it can help you identify the problem yourself, which is better than having someone point it out to you.

Any junior high school that doesn't have at least one guidance counselor is short-changing its students. If they have money for gym equipment they have money for a counselor. The parents should raise Cain.

If there is no free clinic in your town there must be a clergyman or a doctor or a judge or a kind teacher who will listen to a troubled kid. I'm not copping out when I, say "get counseling." It's good advice and I stand by it.

Dear Ann: A woman wrote to say she wished her friends and relatives had sent money to help pay the funeral expenses when her husband died, instead of sending huge baskets of flowers and long letters that only made her feel worse. You replied, "Sorry, it would not be in good taste."

Dear Mrs. M.: You are right. I, was wrong. I checked with my Japanese friends and learned the "ko-den" (money gift) is not only proper but considered a very thoughtful gesture. Money gifts are accepted by a committee at the wake. The list of donors is then given to the next of kin who later sends each donor some home-baked sweets or a note of appreciation. "Arigotto" for straightening me out.

You are WRONG. Sending money to the family of the bereaved is an honorable Japanese custom. When my father-in-law died, the money gifts not only paid for his funeral, but helped keep my mother-in-law in a nursing home until she died.

A retraction, please. - Mrs. M (Chicago)

FROM THE RECORD THURS., FEB. 11, 1937

Pursuant to call, a meeting was held last evening in the auditorium of te Community Hall for the purpose of discussing the desirability of having a home-town reunion of the old boys and gilrs in Chesterville during the coming summer. With a fair representation of the citizens present, Reeve Casselman announced the object of the meeting and Dr. Clayton was selected chairman of the evening. Messrs. Walter Moffat and A. Johnstone of Winchester were present and were called upon by the chairman to enlighten Chesterville folk as to the manner Winchester had proceeded when their very successful affair of a couple of years ago was staged.

Monday evening, dependents upon Hydro light were thrown into darkness throughout this district when lights suddenly ceased to function. The Brockville-Chesterville hockey game at the local arena was at a tense moement when in the twinkling of an eye all was pitch darkness and was not relieved for more than a half hour except by a couple of flashes. During the dark period an electrical storm passing at a little distance added its detonations and flashed making a scene not often witnessed at this time of year. The interruption in the power is said to have been caused by wires breaking under the accumulation of ice.

It isn't often a hockey game is staged in this locality during a thunder storm, but Monday's game with Brockville here proved the exception. The Leafs also did some thundering and pealed forth a flashy 4-0 win. The Leafs went into the lead 38 seconds from the end of the first period and then scored three in the final as Jimmie Fyke won his third shut-out of the season, and the second against the Island City team. Shi Harper, the Leafs' "Pony Express" shone as he scored the neatest goal of the evening. He stopped a rush at the defence, carried the puck through the entire Brockville team, drew Countryman out of his net and flipped a nice shot into the cording for the locals' third goal of the evening.

The following are the January results of S.S. No. 8, Williamsburg: Sr. IV - Freeman Beckstead 65, Ren Elliott 62. Jr. IV - Lyle Whittaker 82, Anita Elliott 82. Sr. III - Grant Harper 71, Laura Harper 66, Wray Froats 62, Graham Heagle 62. Jr. III - Dorothy Carkner 74, Marjorie Whittaker 70, Doris Carr 63. II - Elva Heagle 71. I- Vivian Harper.

The Women's Missianary Society of Trinity United Church met at the home of Mrs. W.N. Fulton on Wednesday afternoon with the president, Mrs. W.O. Dixon, in charge. Mrs. D. McElheran sang a solo very acceptably. The scripture reading was given by Mrs. G.J. Hunt. After the devotional leaflet entitled "Jesus, the Pioneer of Life", Mrs. Geo. Reaburn and her committee took charge of the programme which consisted of intimate glimpses of the life and work of Dr. Schweitzer in Africa.

FROM THE RECORD THURS., FEB. 6, 1947

R.H. Fawcett, Dunbar, has been notified by the Air Transport Board that his charter has been granted to operate non-scheduled air service, sight-seeing trips and a flying instruction school at Cornwall. It is expected to start in the near future on the base just east of Cornwall and also for the nose hanger to be built at the base.

The Council of the Township of Winchester met in the Presbyterian Hall in Morewood on Monday of this week with all the members present. Mr. H.E. Durant, deputy reeve, was appointed to attend a meeting of the South Nation Watershed Authority, to be held in the Court House, Ottawa, Monday, February 17th.

St. John's Anglican Church, Chrysler, held its Annual Meeting on February 2nd. Rev. Percy Clark opened the meeting with prayer and expressed his thanks for interest shown in the past. The financial report was read by Henry Armstrong, treasurer, and showed all expenses paid and a balance in the bank of $265.03. The Guild had $28 on hand and the W.A. reported plecges paid in full and all other obligations met and had a balance of $4.41.

Friday morning last about 6:45, smoke was discovered by George Cass coming from the fine new building of the Chesterville and District Co-operative company on King Street in this village. The fire was confined to the northerly side of the basement where it appeared to have developed in unused egg cases. The floor above was burned near the office counter, which permitted motors and other equipment in stock to fall below. Smoke and water caused much damage to other stock on display and to feed stored in sacks. The damage is reported as about $3,000, covered by insurance.

Spotting Maxville Millionaires two goals early in the first period, Chesterville Legionaires tied the score and went ahead 4-3 in the second priod, but succumbed to persistent attacks in the last period and lost a 5-4 count. A crowd of over 700 attended the game, which was one of the best seen on local ice this season. The win puts Maxville one point ahead of Chesterville in the Central Ottawa Valley League standings and Winchester's 13-9 drubbing at the hands of the Finch-Berwick Blue Devils places them in third place, two behind Chesterville. The schedule winds up wtih Winchester playing here next Thursday night, while Maxville and Finch-Berwick exchange a home and home series on Saturday and Monday.

The Chesterville Chamber of Commerce will entertain the Executive Committees of Kemptville Board of Trade, Winchester and Moose Creek Chambers of Commerce and the newly-formed Maxville operation at a Field Service Clinic Tuesday evening, sponsored by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

by wyn thompson

The blizzard I spoke of in my last column is slowly blowing itself out, having had devastating effects on Eastern Ontario, Western Onario, and our neighbors to the south of the border.

Weather in Eastern Ontario is, on the whole, what might charitably be called 'capricious' - but in winter there is always a good deal of cold, slanting knife-like snowstorms during most Januarys, Februarys, and Marches. But, this year winter set in in December and has shown no mercy so far, in this the first week of February. And to my glee the Old Farmer's Almanac hit the Blizzard of '77 dead on. Now didn't I tell you! There are worse things you can do than read the Almanac.

To continue with the weather, who would have thought that two such great nation's as Canada and the United States would become so vulnerable to such unpredictable conditions at approximately the same time. I'm sure our ancestors coped with as bad conditions, if not worse, but were they as vulnerable with their wood burning stoves and two teams of horses at the ready.

So, as the Farmer says, "The dog days of winter are here and it's darned cold turning out each morning to milk the cows and do the daily chores. And the schedule won't change much on a dairy farm until April rolls around once again."

Tonight as I serve up a meal that was totally grown or raised on Lone Pine Farm and eat it before a fireplace burning wood from the farm woodlot, I appreciate the farm as I never did before, especially in the light of the shortage of natural resources to the south of us.

The round of winter farm meetings begin afresh, and, I feel it is the appropriate time to quote what W.D. Hoard said in his Dairyman publication of ninety-one years ago..." What sort of men were these pioneers? We will answer in a word. They were always on the hunt for good ideas. They put a premium on intelligence. They early saw that cow farming could not be handled with the cheap estimate of brains so many men have.

Consequently, you would find them in attendance upon every convention where the dairy business was discussed - and they would help discuss it. You would find on their tables the best literature on the subjects that vitally concerned them that was obtainable. It is just the same today; they seek the very best dairy literature that is going. They were thinking men and they were anxious to buy anything that would help them to do a little better thinking tomorrow than was done today."

The same applies to today's dairymen...they must always be on the hunt for good ideas. Never more so than in 1977 for it seems that the rapid rise in Farm Cash Receipts experienced from 1971 to 1975 has come to a halt this year, and is expected to remain at approximately $2.6 billion for next year as well. So says the "Outlook for Ontario Agriculture 1977" a publication of the Economics Branch, Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food.

"Expenditures have continued and will continue to increase: 10 percent this year and 6 percent forecast for next year. The net effect has been a decrease in realized net income: $863 million in 1975 to $710 million in 1976 (-18 percent), to a 1977 forecast of $579 (-19 percent)."

"Receipts from crop sales from 1974-1977 are remarkably constant at $850 million. In 1976 soybean sales rose to $71 million from $45 million in 1975, while reductions occurred in fruits ($66 million to $56 million) and vegetables ($159 million to $144 million).

In the livestock sector receipts from cattle and calves rose 8 percent in 1976 to $610 million, poultry receipts rose 7 percent to $163 million and cash receipts from eggs rose 9 percent to $108 million. Reductions were experienced in hogs of 8 percent to $288 million and in dairy products (excluding subsidy) of 5 percent to $467 million.

Greatest increases in operating expenses were in the following items (with percent increase of 1976 over 1975):- Interest on farm indebtedness (28 percent), machinery expenses (18 percent), gross farm rent (17 percent), wages to labour (16 percent)., and repairs to buildings (15 percent). Reductions took place in fertilizer costs (-18 percent) and the costs of some pesticides and baler twine."

And so the farm business merry-go-round continues...like any other business.

Meanwhile Darcy James Thompson thrives while sister Sarah holds a waiting brief attempting to assess the merits of a baby sister versus a baby brother.

The wind continues to blow and the forecast is for more snow. When the Farmer's Almanac says "Watch this Storm" we get ready for it. The Farmer and I arrived home simultaneously with six loaves of bread each tonigh, and tea, and butter.

It was a day of low skies and much wind, a day when everyone felt tense. At the store, people were hurrying to fill the carts to bursting. My favorite grocery packer, helped rush cartons and bags to waiting cars.

At the feed store, extra bags of feed were loaded onto trucks of nervous farmers and animal and bird lovers alike. The big storm has been a punishment to many. I was lucky, I guess, as I came down the hill toward home just as the first innocent flakes drifted down. Within an hour the air was very bitter and snow swirled against the windows.

Tonight, four days later the wind seems to pick up the fallen snow and fling it in the air in great wheels. It is an awesome sight and the Farmer reports that the temperature is dropping. I have just let Scamp in and the air crackles with cold.

As night takes over the valley, a star stands clear and pure in the western sky. A cold moon slips above the trees in the bush across the way. Supper is over and I settle down by the fire to read. I have always been what might be termed a mystery buff and I have not as yet found anyone to replace Agatha Christie's type of mysteries. But, I am still looking!

the editor's notebook

BACK TO BASICS: The SD&G County Board of Education has learned a lesson in basic diplomacy in dealing with the United Counties' ratepayers, who, after all, have fed, nurtured and brought it to maturity. The current round of public meetings on declining enrolments in some tri-county elementary school areas is an indication the board has done its homework on the lesson taught it last spring in Williamsburg when the proposed closing of the public school there met with howls of protest from village parents. When the board realized the determination of those opposed the the closing it backed off and left the school open for another year. In the interim, the committee dealing with such matters has undergone a name change, from the School Closing Committee - an ominous title which conjured up images of buzzards circling, just waiting for the body to give up the ghost - to School Facilities Committee, and its composition has been changed. Lorne Thompson, Chesterville, Winchester and Winchester Township trustee, chaired Monday night's meeting in Williamsburg and although the tune was different, the song remains the same: the board wants to close the 76-year-old school and bus its 39 students to Elma next fall. Its wishes aren't unreasonable. Enrolment at Williamsburg has declined steadily - as it has at most elementary schools in SD&G - in the past decade and with a dwindling student population, it just isn't practical to keep the school open. It's a hard decision but one the committee and board will most likely make after this round of meetings is finished, but Williamsburg parents were prepared for the blow last spring when they bargained off some educational benefits to allow the school to be kept open for another year. Monday night the committee's approach was low-key enough for a small gathering to accept the inevitable, although they certainly didn't enjoy doing so. Mr. Thompson explained that it isn't a cut and dried matter, but his determination and that of the superintendents of education who accompanied the two committee members, to paint a gloomy picture for Williamsburg and a rosy one for Elma would seem to indicate that the meeting was window dressing. There seems to be no future for the old three-room school, but by taking its side of the story to the ratepayers of the village, the board will appear less impersonal when its decision is handed down. - robin morris.

12 new CGIT members inducted at UCW meeting

INGLESIDE (Special) — The February meeting of Trinity UCW was opened by the president, Miss Lena McLaren, who welcomed the members and CGIT guests.

Mrs. Lois Johnson, Mrs. Muriel Allen and Mrs. Joan McEwen, all members of unit three, presented a most interesting program, entitled "Do We Really Understand?" which included a film dealing with the place of the handicapped in the community.

Following a worship, led by Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Johnson, 12 new members were initiated into CGIT, Canadian Girls In Training. The new members, together with present members, then presented the aims and hopes of the CGIT movement.

The president reminded members of the Annual Meeting, moved to Mon., Feb. 7 at 8pm because of inclement weather, and of the Presbyterial executive meeting at Williamstown February 8. Mrs. James Hesson, the secretary, read a letter describing the activities at Rideau Hill camp. The meeting closed with a prayer reading by Mrs. Allen, following which lunch was served by the ladies of unit one.

SOUTH MOUNTAIN (Special) — Mrs. Nelson B. Scharf returned home last Sunday evening after spending the past few days in Hamilton with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Watson of Cardinal called on Mrs. John Johnston last Monday evening enroute from Ottawa where they had spent the day.

The sympathy of this community is extended to the sister, Mrs. Theodore Beach, and brother, Ernest Barkley, and families and other relatives of the late Muriel Barkley of South Mountain who for the past few months had been living with her sister and family Lila and Theodore Beach during her illness. Her passing is deeply mourned by all her friends who knew her so well.

She passed away last Tuesday evening in Kemptville District Hospital and her funeral was held Thursday at the Rolston Funeral Home after which her body was placed in the vault awaiting burial in the spring at Union Cemetery in the family plot.

Mrs. Viola Marchand and sister, Miss Muriel Stanley, accompanied by Mrs. John Johnston were in Chesterville, Winchester and then to Kemptville last Friday shopping.

Mrs. David Black and Mrs. Nelson B. Scharf spent part of last Thursday shopping in Morrisburg.

Mrs. Neil Doyle spent a day through the week visiting with her sister, Mary Ann, and brother, Lorne Mulloy, near Inkerman.

On Wed., Jan. 26 the Senior Citizens of Hallville, Mountain and South Mountain met at the Oddfellows Hall in South Mountain for their monthly meeting with around 50 members and enjoyed a very good pot luck dinner.

The business meeting was held before the dinner and Mrs. DeVries of Brinston and South Mountain invited the crowd from her to visit them at different times. They were asked to come in small numbers as their quarters are small.

Mr. and Mrs. Crerar were invited for an entertainment hour so all was explained and demonstrated by all their products which they had brought with them to show us all about bees. A film on the bees was shown and explained from the beginning it takes 80,000 bees to make one pound of honey.

Receipes and books were given out to anyone who wanted them and they sold most of all the products they had brought with them.

Mrs. Harold Graham at the piano and Clair VanAllan led the crowd in a few familiar songs from the song books after which games were played for the rest of the afternoon and brought the afternoon to a close. The meetings are always the last Wednesday of every month and are usually held in the Oddfellows Hall in South Mountain.

CHESTERVILLE'S PAST

Saturday. The yearling had been injured in the long chase and become hung up in the late morning. Mr. Lang took the deer to the warm stable of Walter Loughridge whereit was cared for. Game overseer Garth Myers was called but the deer was unable to rally to the gentle care of the Mattice family and Mr. Loughridge and had to be destroyed on Sunday.

Edna Shay was chosen Snow Queen of Chesterville High School last week in a poll of students for the "gal with the mostest". There were four princesses chosen and they are Carolyn Durant, Myrna Froats, Mary McMillan and Edith Smith. As part of the school's carnival, the CHS hockey team defeated Morewood in a hard-gfought contest at the rink in the Community Park. Members of the Chesterville team are Charlie Graham, Gordon Beckstead, Mervyn Beckstead, Dwaine Merkley, Bill Lannin, John Carruthers, Bob Smith, Bernard Kelly, Bob Miltimore, Gary Price, Gordon Whittaker, John Durant and coach Jerome Cyr.

Chesterville Rotary held their ergular meeting Monday evening in the library. Speaker for the occasion, Mr. Melvin Baker, a new resident of Chesterville, proprietor of Albert's Hotel. Mr. Baker was introduced by the programme chairman, Howard Fulton, and thanked on behalf of the club by Dr. S.H. Hutt. The speaker outlined some of the methods small communities like Chesterville could use to keep their town and community in a prosperous and growing condition.

That the ancient game of playing cards is a popular way of whiling away the long evenings of a northern winter was demonstrated on the evening of January 30th when members of Chesterville Women's Institute, together with their husbands and friends, gathered in the Legion Hall and enjoyed games of euchre and bridge. Prizes were won by the following: Euchre - Ladies first, Miss Elizabeth Ruddy, consolation Mrs. Peter DeRooey; men's first, Campbell Thompson, consolation, Erwin Merkley. Bridge - Ladies first, Mrs. Haldane Durant, consolation Mrs. Hosea Droppo; men's first, Hosea Droppo, consolation, Alf Jarvis. Trailer park encouraged by Council

BERWICK (Staff) - Finch Township Council has encouraged a Crysler man to have detailed plans drawn up for a 70-lot mobile home park two miles northeast of here in the township's sixth concession.

Serge Brisson brought a rough drawing of the proposed park, situated on 50 acres of land about ½-mile west of the township dump, to last Wednesday afternoon's Council meeting but was told he would need a detailed development plan before Council could submit the project to the Lower St. Lawrence Planning Board.

Mr. Brisson's drawing showed 70 rental lots, each with its own well and septic tank, laid out on three north-south and one east-west street. The three north-south streets fronted on the concession road.

He said he plans to develop the site, named Evergreen Trailer Park, in stages with the possibility of tenants being able to purchase their lots if it is turned into a subdivision.

Reeve Johnson Ouderkirk said Council looked favorably on the proposal but would need much more detailed plans before it could act on it. He suggested Mr. Brisson have an engineer prepare a development study of the land to be presented to the planning board at its March meeting.

If the mobile home park is accepted by the planning board, it will require a change in the official plan since the area in which it would be situated is now zoned agricultural. It will have to be re-designated as residential.

Township clerk-treasurer Arnott Empey said there shouldn't be much difficulty in getting the Official Plan changed since six or seven amendments have already been made to it. Mr. Empey said the township's mobile home bylaw would also have to be updated. The original bylaw was passed in 1954 and is now obsolete.

In another planning matter, Council was informed by the Ministry of Housing that the township's draft zoning bylaws vary from those set down by the planning board and that by implementing them Council would not be in step with the Lawer St. Lawrence Official Plan.

The ministry, in its comments on the township proposal, called for several minor changes to be made and added that there were no major variances between the two plans.

Several drainage matters were also dealt with last Wednesday.

Tile drainage loans in the amount of $42,500 were approved for Bernard Beehler, Barry Armstrong, Armond Cloutier, H.J. Saunders, David Whetter and John Beehler, provided enough remains in the amount of money the township received for tile drainage projects this year.

Charles E. Johnstone had his tile drainage project accepted by Council.

Mr. Empey told Council over $47,000 in tile drainage loans will be placed on the tax rolls this year.

He said this is an indication of the increase in tile drainage projects in Finch last year since only $30,000 in drainage loans were placed on the rolls the previous year.

McNeely Engineering Co. Ltd. was awarded the contract to do the survey and prepare the engineer's report for a municipal drainage project to be dug between lot 24, concessions eight and ine, Finch township, and lots 38 and 39, concession eight, Roxborough Township. No date was set for the presentation of the report to the landowners in question.

A representative of Stidwill and Associates Ltd. consulting engineers, Cornwall, was on hand Wednesday to discuss with Council a letter from Rene Ouimet in which the Cyrsler area resident said he would not pay any taxes on the Ouimet Drain because work was not carried out to his satisfaction.

Mr. Ouimet had his appeal on the drain turned down at a Court of Revision in mid-1976.

The representative of the engineering firm said Stidwill would be answering Mr. Ouimet's letter and would look inot his complaints.

Mr. Ouimet also submitted a bill for $500 for supervision he said he carried out on the project. He claimed it was necessary for him to do the supervising since the construction company was not doing the job properly.

Morewood UCW discusses quilting

MOREWOOD (Special) - The Morewood UCW held its February meeting on Wed. Feb. 2 at the home of Mrs. Hector Carruthers.

President, Mrs. C. Crump was in charge and opened the meeting with a poem "May These Be Yours To-day" followed by the Purpose.

The worship service was under the direction of Mrs. Robert Walker with the theme "God is Light". She began with a short prayer and a hymn.

Mrs. S. Mattice and Mrs. R. Marcellus assisted, alternately reading passages of scripture showing God's Light. The Canticle, "Arise, Shine" was read in unison. Another hymn was sung and prayer closed devotions.

Quilting was discussed and it was revealed that contacts had been made for the purpose of quilt sales.

The president announced that a fashion show will be held in march, the date of which has not yet been decided. It was agreed to hold the anniversary supper this year on the Saturday, preceeding the Anniversary Sunday.

The treasurer announced a cheque had been forwarded to the Ian MacDonalds who recently lost their house by fire.

A "thank you" letter was received from the CGIT association in appreciation of the donation sent them. This year again the UCW agreed to donate to the Rideau Hill Camp.

The president asked that the committee conveners and those responsible for devotions meet with her next week to plan the meetings for the remainder of the year. Other items of business were discussed at length.

It was announced the Seaway Valley UCW Presbyterial Executive will meet in Williamstown on Feb. 8 from 10am to 3pm, when the program will be on Stewardship and also a meeting in Avonmore February 16 which involves Outreach.

Attention was directed to an article by Gordon Sinclair in the January issue of the magazine "Mandate", which makes very interesting and thought-provoking reading.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction, after which a dessert lunch was served by Mrs. A. Carruthers and her committee.

SDHS curlers stranded

IROQUOIS (Special) - Seaway's Public Relations Club would like to thank the editors of the Chesterville Record, Iroquois Post, Morrisburg Leader, Winchester Press, and Cornwall Standard-Freeholder for their support during our first semester.

Through these newspapers we can explain and publicize the events which take place at Seaway throughout the year. Our club's aim is to promote good relations between Seaway and the people of this area. Without the help of these newspapers, this would be impossible.

Our annual hockey tournament was held at the Morrisburg Arena Thurs., Jan. 27.

The results of the games were as follows: Warlords over Tupper's Torpedoes 4-2; Combines beat Flat-Top Chippers 6-2; Blasters over Blonde Bombers 3-2; Mark's Sparks over Row & Row 6-1; Tupper's Torpedoes beat Flat-Top Chippers 3-2 with an overtime goal by "Sudsy" Whelan; Warlords over Combines 3-1; Row & Row topped Blonde Bombers 4-3; Blasters beat Mark's Sparks 5-2.

In the B final Row & Row won 5-3 against Tupper's Torpedoes. In the exciting A final, it was the Blasters vs. the Warlords. The Blasters won 2-0 on goals by Robin Adair and Neil "The Blaster" Cameron.

The Tom Corden Memorial Trophy, presented by Robin Whitteker, Seaway's Carnival Queen, was accepted on behalf of the Blasters by Scott Corden.

According to Randy Vienotte, Head Boy, enough money was made to cover the cost of ice time. We appreciate the help of Neil Cameron and all others who worked in any way with the organization of the tournament.

Despite storm warnings January 28 two curling teams from Seway attempted to attend the annual school curlers bonspiel in Utica, NY.

Under the capable driving of Mr. Morell and Mr. Boyd, everyone made it to Watertown but that was as far as they could go. There was a raging blizzard which had paralyzed the area so the teams were unable to turn back.

Tom MacDonald, Leslie Brais, Doug Tupper, Jo-Anne Christensen, Gary MacDonald, Lori Boyd, Doug Brunt and Karen Shearing were chaperoned by Mr. Morrell and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd. All were stranded in Watertown at the Holiday Inn for two nights.

Althoug Seaway was unable to participate in the bonspiel, the students and chaperones experienced a blizzard they will not likely forget for some time.

'Togetherness' Osnabruck carnival theme

INGLESIDE (Special) - "Togetherness is Osnabruck Township".

Last year's theme is being repeated but there will be some new attractions at the 1977 edition of the Osnabruck Township Winter Carnival, Thurs., Feb. 24 through Sun., Feb. 27.

The Carnival Queen Pageant will take place Thurs., Feb. 24 in the ODHS auditorium immediately after the official opening ceremonies at 8pm.

The Upper Canada Jaycettes will be the co-ordinators and CJSS personality Wayne Waldroff will act as MC for the choosing of Miss Osnabruck. Admission fee wil be $1.

Friday evening the young set will be able to dance to the music of "Circus" at ODHS for $5 per couple ($3 stag). The young-at-heart group can pay $1 and take in the Osnabruck Centre Recreation Association's euchre at the township hall.

People will have to pick and choose the events they want to go to on Saturday.

In the Finch arena there will be Mixed Broomball from 8am to 12 noon; minor hockey from noon tile 5pm and from 5-6pm there will be a challenge match between the Osnabruck Oldtimers and the township's Junior "C" club. Upstairs at the arena, there will be an Arts and Crafts display from 10am to 5pm.

In Ingleside, amateur athletes can participate in a volleyball tournament while armshair athletes vie for cribbage honors. Both events will be held at Rothwell Public School, both will begin at 1pm and both will have a 50 cent entry fee.

One dollar is the price of admission to a variety show which will be held Saturday evening at 7:15pm. The early hour is to ensure people can go to the show and still have time to take in the Pub Night at the Treasure Island Inn or the Carnival Dance at the township hall.

Ron Perkins will be featured at the Treasure Island and the Lancers have been booked for the township hall.

Sunday will be another activity-filled day. Osnabruck Centre Recreation members will start it off by serving pancakes from 8am-10am. In the afternoon most of "the goings-on" will be going on in Ingleside:

1pm - A parade beginning at the Treasure Island and ending at Memorial Square.
2pm - Bed Races sponsored by the Ingleside Fire Department will be held around Memorial Square.
3pm - A "SNOBALL" game between members of the Inglebrook Snowmobile Club and the Cedars club will take place in the ball park.
3:30pm - Ingleside Lanes will host a Mixed Bowling Tournament.

From 5-7 the Ingleside Fire Auxiliary will be serving Chili Con Carne at the fire hall. Prices are $2 for adults, $1 for children ages 6-12. Children under six will be served without charge.

The carnival will come to a close with a community Humn Sing at Newington United Church, Sun., Feb. 27 at 7:30pm

Carnival buttons ($1 each or $4 per family) will be sold house to house in the built-up areas by Cubs and Beavers.

Inside Ingleside

by Jean Jeacle

Somebody-Up-There has a sense of humor...but it is lost on me. At this very moment, while Norm Trimble is outside filling our bottomless oil tank, the radio station is featuring the song of the day, "It's June in January". Personally, I DON'T THINK THAT'S THE LEAST BIT FUNNY!!!

So far I have gone along with this "snow and blow" scene, but enough is enough! I cannot be brainwashed into thinking that this winter of '77 is not as bad as I think it is. It is terrible, dreadful, hateful and yecchhhh!

I am bored with snow. I am sick of lost mitts and wet boots; I am fed up with dripping noses and tingling toeses, and I am tired of buttoning up and shovelling out.

Most of all, I have had it up to the top of my 165 centimeters with minus degrees celsius. In spite of my husband's insistence that conversion to metrics is "a good thing", I believe we would be better off if we had stuck with fahrenheit degrees. Anyone can see that 20 degrees does not sound nearly as cold as minus six.

BITS AND PIECES

— The Group Committee for the Beavers and Cubs is sponsoring a Valentine Bake Sale at Wyatt's drug store on Saturday at 10am.

— At Rothwell's Carnival, Leona Duncan kept her hula hoop spinning for 55 minutes. Unless some of you would like to challenge her, I am willing to concede the Ingleside championship (My personal best time is 14 seconds.

— Sunday evening there will be a 7:30 choir practice at Newington United Church for all Carnival Hymn-Singers.

— Congratulations to the PeeWee hockey team. In the Morrisburg tournament they made it to the "A" finals before bowing out to the host club. Greg Kielec picked up the top goalie trophy.

— Attention all you local-history buffs. Monday at 8pm in the ODHS Rothwell library there will be a meeting to discuss the setting up of a local museum.

— In a neighborhood hockey draw Clarence Meyers put his money on Guy Lafleur. How's that for playing it safe? Bill Johnson is more daring. He is going with Minnesota's Tim Young.

I wish you hearts and flowers and better weather on Valentine's Day here, "Inside Ingleside".

Chesterville ousts Avonmore, two other series squared up

(Staff) - The Avonmore Aces are the first team to fall to the sidelines as five others remain in the running for the North Stormont Long Sault Junior C Hockey League championship.

Chesterville nipped the Aces 4-3 last Wednesday to win the quarter-final series in four straight games.

The Jets will now await other quarter-final series between Finch Township and Osnabruck Township which is tied up at one win apiece.

Pennant-winning Maxville squared their eight point semi-final series with the Char-Lan Rebels at 3-3 Sunday with a 4-3 come-from-behind win.

Jets 8, Aces 2

Chesterville scored five times in the opening period and three times in the last frame in taking a commanding 6-0 point lead in the eight-point series over Avonmore here last Tuesday night.

Greg Beckstead scored a pair in the first period outburst and John Elliott, Dave Arnold and Kevin Smith tallied singles to give Chesterville a 5-1 lead.

Bernie Henderson scored Avonmore's first goal and Danny Marsolais, who drew an assist on the first goal, scored late in the second period for the Aces.

Arnold ran the count to 6-2 midway through the final stnaza and Neil Kittle nothced a pair of goals to conclude the scoring.

Avonmore received two minors, a fighting major and a game misconduct, all in the third period, while Chesterville was handed 11 minors and a fighting major.

Jets 4, Aces 3

Wayne Dillabough's goal with 3:02 remaining in the game lifted Chesterville to a 4-3 win and clean sweep of their eight point quarter-final series over Avonmore last Wednesday in Finch.

Jeff Smith and Greg Beckstead spotted Chesterville a two-goal lead midway through the first half.

Not to be counted out, Avonmore replied quickly in the second half with Blair Henderson scoring. John Elliott converted a pass 10 seconds later to increase Chesterville's lead to 3-1.

Henderson scored five minutes later and Doug Ferguson tied the score two minutes after.

Avonmore received three minor penalites and Chesterville seven.

Finch 7, Osnabruck 1

Finch squared their series with Osnabruck at two points each in the second game of the double-header at Finch with a 7-1 win.

The league's regular season scoring champion, Dave Rumer, scored three second half goals and set up a fourth. John MacNaughton scored once and collected three assists.

Others contributing single goals were Eddie Gove, Richard Courville and Frank Briere.

Archie Aubin spotted Osnaburck an early lead but the 76s charged back to hold a 3-1 lead at the half.

Finch was handed four minor penalties and Osnabruck three.

Rebels 2, Highlanders 1

Late goals have earned the Char-Lan Rebels a 3-1 point lead over the Maxville Highlanders in their eight-point semi-final series.

The Rebels got a goal late in the third period in game one to get a 2-2 tie and Mickey Wolfe scored with 36 seconds remaining in the game Thursday night to lift the Rebels to a 2-1 win.

Wolfe's goal came on a breakaway just four seconds after a penalty to Maxville's Ian Sandilands had expired.

After two scoreless periods, Tom Ross staked the Rebels to a lead while playing shorthanded with 9:12 left in the game. With 6:20 remaingin, Linden Jackson evened the score.

Maxville's Brian Kinnear was so upset with the late winning goal he tossed his stick into the crowd at the end of the game to earn himself a game misconduct. He was suspended for one game for this actions.

Highlanders 4, Rebels 3

Maxville scored three third period goals Sunday to earn a 4-3 win over Char-Lan and even their eight point semi-final series at three apiece.

In the middle period, Mickey Wolfe upped the Rebels' lead to 3-1 on a powerplay midway through the frame.

A LITTLE TO MUCH TO CHEW

Let's make this perfectly clear: we have nothing to hide. We are one of the staunchest Montreal Canadien supporters in this part of the country.

But, it sure hurt deep inside last week when Pete Mahovlich came out with a statement that he wanted to be traded because he wasn't getting enough ice time.

Pete didn't seem to mind getting lots of work last year while others road the rail. But the shoe is on the other foot this year with his play slipping drastically from its level of last year when he centred Guy Lafleur and Steve Shutt.

The lanky centreman last year was named the most valuable player in the mid-season All-Star game. For his effort, he won a car and he later sold it and split the money with his teammates. He said then it was teamwork that got him on the all-star team.

The Canadiens are flying higher this year than last when they smashed all kinds of league records, but big Pete is not one of the major reasons for the team's success.

If he were so interested in the team's success last year, what happened to him in the off-season?

Don't despair Pete. GM Pollock (Mr. Hockey) will probably grant your wish and even pull out a couple of future draft choices.

AROUND THE NHL

Philadelphia Flyers captain Bobby Clarke has hit the nail on the head.

While glancing through our hockey Bible (The Hockey News) last week, we happened upon a short but interesting story in which Clarke stated that NHL should be more concerned with its own problems than with promoting international hockey games.

Right on! The hockey world in Canada and the United States is in a big enough shambles without dragging someone else in to make the problem even more complex.

What ever happened to those good old days when the only real professional hockey league was the old six-team National Hockey League? Fans then knew the players on all the teams. Now you can hardly name the roster of your favorite club.

One day we read a hockey club is suspending operations; the next we see a club is asking its players to take a pay cut so the team can finish the current season; the next day we have a team sold and moving. The first thing we know Chesterville or Finch may have its very own NHL or WHA franchise.

Ottawa, the natonal capital for non-supporting sports fans, has even managed to get back into the headlines.

That city has enough problems supporting the Major Junior A 67s. It should leave the larger ball field of the NHL or WHA alone.

It has already played "home" to two WHA teams and a third time at the professional realm may be about all it can handle.

WINTER TRAIL GROOMING

ATTENTION: Snowmobilers and cross-country skiers. You are invited to a unique workshop - a day of practical, informal discussions and outdoor demonstrations to determine the best methods and equipment for grooming trails. The workshop will be held at Limerick Forest this coming Sunday.

The workshop begins at 11am with an introduction and slide show on snowmobile safety and demonstration and discussion on cross-country ski safety.

After lunch, which you must supply, there will be commercial and homemade trail groomers on display; a discussion on trail grooming, and an OPP representative will be in attendance to outline legislation and answer questions about regulations affecting snowmobilers and cross-country skiers.

The workshop will conclude at about 3pm. Persons interested may phone Ted Devries, Recreational Supervisor, Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources, at 1-342-8524 for further information.

Embrun Panthers clinch first place with weekend split

EMBRUN (Staff) - Just about anything is liable to happen when the Gatineau Nordiques and Embrun Panthers get together.

Tempers usually flare to the ceiling and it was no exceptinn Friday night but it wasn't the players involved in the fracus at the end of the second period.

The Panthers were well on their way to beating the Nordiques and clinching first place in the Ottawa District Senior Hockey League when the trouble erupted.

Embrun trainer Claude Bastien became involved in a disagreement with Gatineau's colorful coach Lally Lalonde and words led to punches. Embrun general manger Gerry Bourdeau came to te rescue and when order was restored all three were banished from the bench area for the remainder of the game.

Embrun got goals from six different players in building up 2-1 and 6-2 period leads.

Contributing singles were Dave Hunt, Steve Desloges, John Hutton, Randy Bruman, Chris Hayes and Dave Dixie.

Scoring leader Mike Cayer scored twice for Gatineau and singles went to Luc Charbonneau and Denis Roy.

On Sunday, in Embrun, Roy scored at 15:27 of the third period to lift Gatineau to a 4-3 win over Embrun.

Embrun outshot Gatineau 41-16 in the game but the Nordiques made the most of their chances. Cayer collected a pair of goals and Dan Moreau got the other goal.

Dave Hunt, John Coburn and Marc Brunet scored for Embrun.

The league closes out its regular schedule this weekend with Potsdam at Embrun and Ottawa visits Gatineau Friday night. Potsdam play sEmbrun in Smiths Falls Sunday.

Bantam B's win 6-2 over Winchester

(Special) - The Bantam B Flyers played a league game with the Winchester Hawks Tuesday night ending with a 6-2 victory.

The Hawks opened the scoring with a penalty shot after only two minutes was played in the first period.

Tony Fraser scored for the Flyers and Jeff McIntosh followed by Jimmy Derue each contributed a single in the second period.

There seemed to be no stopping the Flyers in the third period as Jimmy Derue, Kim Cass and Tony Fraser each fired one in, to be followed by the Hawks scoring once. Excellent goaltending by Bruce Casselman and Wayne Ball resulted in a victory for the Flyers.

Pat Kelly paces midgets

(Staff) - Centre Pat Kelly continued his high scoring ways last week in leading the Chesterville Midget Flyers to a pair of Carleton Dundas Minor Hockey League victories.

Kelly scored twice and set up a third goal Wednesday night as the Flyers downed Russell 5-1 and Saturday he counted one goal and two assists in a 5-2 win over Kemptville.

Jimmy Cochrane managed Russell's only goal before Kelly and Glen Mackler scored for Chesterville to end the opening period.

Marty Little ran the margin to 3-1 in the middle frame and Kelly and Rudy Grisel scored in the third period for the Flyers.

Kelly's second goal came while the Flyers were playing shorthanded.

Russell was handed five of the game's nine minor penalties.

On Saturdy, the Flyers overcame a 2-1 first period deficit with a pair of goals in each of the final two frames.

Kevin Byrd and Ted Rintoul got the Kemptville goals.

Kelly, Mackler, Little, Jeff Leclair and Martin Schoones got the Chesterville goals.

The Flyers received four minors while Kemptville had six minors and 10-minute misconduct.

Winchester Hawks suspend five players

WINCHESTER (Staff) - The Winchester Hawks are making the most of a difficult situation as the ODHA Junior B Hockey League regular season winds to a close.

The Hawks started the season in the St. Lawrence division in fine style but have been on a slow tailspin since about the fourth week of play.

Erwin and Edwin Duncan were named as new coaches of the team to succeed Dave Armstrong less than a month ago and five players were suspended last week for failing to offer suitable excuses for missing games.

Suspended for the balance of the season were Danny McMartin, Mike Armstrong, Dave Richards, Mike Rochon and Bruce Eadie.

With six games remaining in the regular schedule, the Hawks trail fourth-place Long Sault by seven points for the last playoff slot.

Playoff hopes seem dim with team management forced to bring up juvenile and occassionally midget players to fill out the team's roster in an effort to finish out the season.

Playoff hopes dropped further from sight on the weekend as the Hawks lost 10-6 to Brockville Friday and 7-1 to Kemptville Sunday. The defeats ran their winless string to 10 games. Their last win was December 29.

Fan support has dropped at Hawks' home games but the team is still managing to break even financially.

The forward line of Greg Martin, Len McLean and Keith McRoberts provided the offensive punch in Firday's defeat. Greg had three goals and two assists, Len had a pair of goals and two assists while Keith had a goal and two assists.

Mitch Donnelly, John Macari and Curt Perrin each scored twice for Brockville. Singles went to John Graham, Rick Reynolds, Jeff Bennett and John Hensen.

The teams were tied 2-2 after one period before the Tikis outscored Winchester 5-1 in the middle frame.

Officials were busy calling 37 penalties in the game. Winchester received 15 minors, two fighting majors and a 10-minute misconduct while Brockville was handed 15 minors, three majors and a game misconduct.

On Sunday, Al Porteous notched the lone Winchester goal early in the first period in his debut up from the juveniles.

Getting goals for Kemptville were Tom Beach, Willy Rasa, Doug Barnett, Charlie Legault, Stu Watson, Kevin Empey and Bill Cunningham.

Kemptville led 3-1 after two periods after the teams split a pair of goals in the first period.

Winchester wa assessed seven of the game's 13 minor penalties.

The Long Sault Pats posted a pair of weekend wins to enhance their chances of catching third place Cardinal and Morrisburg downed Athens 7-2 Friday. The Lions need only three points to clinch first place in the division standings.

Morrisburg's win, however, was costly with defenceman Tim Cassell suffering a broken jaw when struck in the face by the puck. He will be out of action for an undetermined length of time.

The teams were scoreless after one period but the scorers took charge in the middle stanza.

Bob McNairn and Kevin Mackler sent the Lions into the lead before Chris Bresee replied for Athens. Dave Tait, Bob Seed and Mackler scored 51 seconds apart later in the period as Morrisburg claimed a 4-2 lead.

Bob McNairn, Brian Moran and Bill Veley got third period Morrisburg goals. McNairn added two assists and Veley three.

Each team had three minor penalties.

People problems can be serious problems.

This is what Ontario is doing to help solve them in advance.

Recently arrangements were made for a group of Indian children to attend the public school in a northern Ontario town. The principal of the school in the town was aware that Indian children sometimes had a rough time at the hands of other students, and to try to forestall this kind of situation, he called in a Human Rights Commission counsellor to talk to the other children. The counsellor asked the children if any of them had ever moved to a new school, and what they thought it would feel like if they were the strangers. In this way he helped them understand how the Indian children would be feeling when they arrived, and the integration proceeded relatively smoothly.

Community counselling is one of the major roles of your Ontario Human Rights Commission. We hold seminars and discussions with police in areas where there are communication barriers between them and minority groups, to help relieve tension and promote mutual understanding. We attend meetings of immigrants and native-born minority groups to explain to them both their rights under the legislation and their responsibilities as citizens of this Province.

We also help bring people into contact with local agencies like home-and-school groups, community and government agencies, and churches, which are available to help but which many people don't even know exist. Wherever there's a difficulty based on race, language, colour or creed, the Human Rights Commission is available to generate discussion and motivate people to develop understanding and respect for the other's point of view.

Our job is to help bring people together and encourage healthier relationships among all groups.

Atoms win league game, split pair at Char-Lan

(Special) — Chesterville Teams made good use of their home ice time last Wednesday and all four divisionsNovice through to Bantam came up winners.

The C of C Atoms hosted Russell in CDMH League play and played a good game. The scoring was opened when defenceman Derek Morrison blasted a shot from the point and came up a winner. The period ended 1-0 for the Flyers.

Both Teams caught a penalty at the end of the first period which left them shorthanded for the first two minutes of the second period. Chesterville was able to get past the Russells defence as Mark Smith scored. The rest of the second period was scoreless as the checking kept both teams at bay.

The third period saw yet another goal for the Flyers as David VanDelst scored.

The 3-0 score didn't stand to give Chesterville goalies a shutout however as Russells centre Ambroise scored unassisted in the last half of the period to leave the final score 3-1 for Chesterville.

The first game was played against Osnabruck Township and Chesterville goaltender got a shutout as the Flyers won 8-0. Mark Smith got a hattrick, Glennie Merkly scored two and singles went to Michael Van Delst, Kelly Mitchell, and David VanDelst.

The second game Chesterville played was against Iroquois.

Iroquois scored two goals in the first period, three in the second and two more in the third. Flyers didn't want to hand Iroquois a 7-0 shutout so with one second left in the game Kelly Mitchell made the most of a pass from Michael VanDelst and Mark Smith leaving the final score 7-1 for Iroquois.

Join an odyssey into the world of illusion, as Ice Capades begins another new production with "ORIGINS 25". See futuristic go-go dancers with flashing lights and veiled in a flickering strobe.

A dream comes true for children of every age in "IT'S CHRISTMAS EVERY DAY". Accompany the Watch Cat toy as it travels to a land of giant lollipops and alphabet blocks, toy soldiers, marionettes, Swiss dolls and zany Christmas seals.

Come back to the '30s, to a talk-of-the-town nightclub replete with fun and frivolity. It's titled "STEREOPTICON" or "GOOD OLD, BAD OLD, GOOD OLD DAYS".

Adorned in possibly the most glamorous costumes ever to grace the ice, the Ice Capettes perform their famous precision routine with more than just a "TOUCH OF CLASSE".

Ice Capades stages its own song fest. It's a " 'POP'-POURRI" of modern musical styles. Feel free to sing along!

Newcomers this year are U.S. Free Style Champion Perry Jewell, Australian Champion Sharon Burley, former U.S. Gold Medalist Julie Johnson, plus Jannat Thompson, Sissy Moody, and the adagio pair of Patty Morton and Randy Coyne. For laughs there are Michael Course and Robert Young and the monkeyshines of Lucien Meyer and his skating chimps and many othersurprises.

Returning is airborne acrobatic skater Ken SHook, for comic relief there's Jean-Pierre and the "The Chairpersons" Wes and Chris.

To wind up festivities, the entire cast presents "LET'S GET IT ON". It's a modern minstrel show and a joyful close to this year's Ice Capades.

The old days of radio inspired "THE PERFECT FIGURE EIGHT CAPER". The spoof is the search for the ingredients of stardom - complete with a young starlet, a choreographer and a detective to help defrost the "frozen facts".

Music is the star of Ice Capades' very special tribute to Edward Kennedy Ellington. It's "THE DUKE - ROYALTY, AMERICAN STYLE", to bring Duke Ellington's unique sounds to life.

Chesterville Bantams capture Alexandria consolation crown

(Special) — The past week has been extremely busy for Chesterville's Bantam Flyers. The locals took part in two league games, three tournament games and two exhibition games in the space of six days.

The high point of the week was the B championship win at the Alexandria Minor Hockey Tournament last Sunday at the new Alexandria Sports Palace.

In their first game, they drew the always tough Cornwall Bantams, and almost pulled off the day's upset before bowing 5-3.

The Flyers' persistent checking kept Cornwall off balance as Curtis McMillan capitalized on a miscue to score with the game only 29 seconds old.

Cornwall tied it up, and Doug Rance gave Chesterville a 2-1 lead. Cornwall tied it up early in the second only to have Steve Jones make it 3-2. One minute later, Cornwall made it 3-3.

The teams battled throughout the remainder of the game until Cornwall made it 4-3 on a power play with only 42 seconds remaining in the game. They added another into an empty net ten seconds later to win 5-3.

Cornwall moved to the "A" side and defeated Char-Lan entry 4-0 in their second game.

The Flyers met an aggressive Maxville team in their second game and posted a 5-2 win. Flyers' defencemen shone, accounting for four goals.

Garry Beckstead broke a long scoring drought with a pair of goals and big Glendon Shay also added a pair. Steve Jones added a singleton.

A large crowd gathered to see the consolation final between the hometown Alexandria Glens and the determined Chesterville Flyers.

Flyers wasted little time as Glendon Shay blasted a point shot past Glens' goalie with only 18 seconds gone in the game.

Persistent checking and capitalizing on Alexandria's mistakes gave Flyers goals by Richards and Laflamme, before Glens could reply. Alexandria made it 3-1 before Richards added his second marker to make it 4-1.

Glens then turned on the heat and narrowed the score to 4-3 before Chesterville captain Curtis McMillan made it 5-3 for Chesterville.

Flyers were underdogs in the final and only excellent checking allowed them to win. The real story of the game was the brilliant goaltending of Eddie Witteveen. Eddie had the Glens shaking their heads in disbelief with outstanding saves. The Glens outshot Chesterville 23-12 in the game.

It was a "good news - bad news" situation, however, in CDMHL play. Flyers continued their dominance over Greely Eagles, with a 4-1 win over the Eagles last Wednesday at Chesterville Arena. Glendon Shay had a super game, scoring twice. Laflamme and Richards added singletons.

The "bad news", from a Flyer viewpoint, took place in Winchester last Friday. Winchester Bantams handed Flyers their third loss of CDMHL regular-season play, and at the same time, their worst drubbing of the season, a 6-2 setback.

The friendly rivals from our neighboring community played superb hockey leaving Flyers flat-footed and disorganized. Scoring for Winchester were: Bill Kerr and Darryl Last with a pair each, and Bruce Graves and Peter Marriner with singletons. Replying for the Flyers were Marque Laflamme and Curtis McMillan.

In exhibition play, Flyers played a home-and-home series with an All-Star squad built upon the first-place Berwick Bantams of the North Stormont league. To Berwick's team was added players from Crysler and Avonmore. The squad proved to be extremely competitive and such an all-star collection by our esteem neighbors would be an asset to the Carleton-Dundas League.

Flyers were hard-pressed to gain 3-1 and 2-0 wins over the All-Stars. In the two games, Flyer scores were: Laflamme, Mike Beckstead, McMillan, Jones and Richards. Chris Laflamme was steady in goal against Berwick.
