Chesterville Fair Reaches New High In Excellence Of Exhibits Entries In All Classes Many, Usual Fine Standards Maintained

The Chesterville and District Agricultural Society Fair, held Tuesday and Wednesday of this week was one of the most successful ever to adorn the old Fair Grounds. In spite of the unseasonably cold weather, good crowds bought a higher number of tickets than for many a moon, to see a range of exhibits that was most gratifying to the hard-working executive. Concessions were plentiful and games well-handled. The whirling rides gave the kids a thrill and appetites were more than satisfied with the offerings of the booths.

Cattle entries were eyefilling. There were 121 entries alone in the Dundas Black and White Show, more than forty in the Guernsey Championship group and the other breeds were as well represented. The horse entries showed a decided improvement in numbers, as was hoped after increasing the prize money. Sheep and Swine made a fine display. Poultry entries were many, and the Grain showed much careful preparation.

Individual prize winners in the cattle classes piled up some nice totals in earnings. J. J. McKenzie and Son of Finch, in the Jersey Class made almost a clean sweep, winning all the sections except a second on the 2-yr-old heifer which was taken by Geo. Timmins of Inkerman, who also copped the first on the Junior Calf.

The Holstein exhibitors divided the cash with more variety. W. R. McMenomy and Son of Inkerman, and W. J. Fawcett of Winchester made the most of the firsts. Much credit is due to "Bill" Fawcett for his excellent showing this year in spite of the disaster that wiped out his fine herd a while back. He is making a fine comeback.

In the Ayrshire Class the names of R. McIntyre and Sons, R. Bruce and Sons, H. J. Kittle and Sons and H. E. Merkley appear most frequently. Golden Guernseys had the largest entries yet with most the winnings taken by the Almonte herd of Jas. Brown. Keith McConnell and R. J. Brown were close behind.

The new classes in Vegetables, Fruits, Flowers, Educational and Domestic Science brought out a gratifying number of entries. The Society Tent bulged at the seams with samples of good things to eat, wear, smell and admire. The Eamers of Newington took the most red ribbons in the vegetable and fruit classes, with Mrs. Roy Hodgson and Mrs. Wm. Merkley offering stiff competition all the way. Mrs. L. B. Giles had lovely exhibits of cut flowers and had the edge on the other excellent groups. Mrs. Wilburn York was outstanding in the cooking classes. With seventeen first, and many seconds, her skill in that fine art won the admiration of the many spectators. Mrs. Roy Hodgson and Mrs. Giles were close competitors and the judge had some difficult decisions.

Crafts demonstrated many painstaking hours with the needle. Mrs. Basil Rowe repeated the red ticket and ribbon with most frequency. Some outstanding items in the many sections can scarcely be passed without mention. Mrs. Sid Morris had a magnificient table cloth that called much comment and Mrs. Jay Alguire had a crocheted piece that was outstanding in it's class.

At 4.30 in the afternoon the Grand Parade passed in front of the grandstand. Paced by a dozen new cars and trucks, it was composed of machinery exhibits, horses and cattle. The spectacle was most impressive and well-ordered.

The Commercial Auction Sale went well. The yearling and 2-yr-old heifers took the highest bids of $155. and the highest calf was knocked down at $100.

The trials of speed were close fought affairs with a good field showing in the 2.20 and Free-For-All events.

The detailed list of prize winners follows. Space will not allow a full list this week, and it will be completed in the next issue.

Popular Ruth Moore Becomes Bride Of Stuart Fisher Allan

In a quiet but pretty wedding on Saturday, September 3rd at 2 p.m. in the charmingly decorated livingroom of the Manse at Morewood, the Rev. W. H. Heustin united in the bands of Holy Matrimony, Ruth, daughter of Mr. William and the late Mrs. Moore and Stuart Fisher, son of Mr. Robert and the late Mrs. Allan.

The bride's attendant was her cousin, Mrs. Harold Loughridge and the best man was Mr. Loughridge.

The attractive bride wore a floor-length gown of white sheer over taffeta, a ruffled bodice with peplum, sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves and shoulder-length gloves. Her veil of embroidered net was held in place with a headdress of tulle and she carried an arm bouquet of red roses and gladioli.

The bridesmaid wore pink sheer taffeta with headdress of taffeta and long gloves in matching tones, the arm bouquet she carried being of pink roses and gladioli.

The aunt of the bride, Miss Daisy McLean, wore a becoming black gown, with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home, which was prettily decorated in bridal colours. The luncheon table being centred with a three-tiered wedding cake and white tapers.

The guests were immediate members of both families amongst whom were Miss Bertha McLean of Winnipeg and Mrs. Hugh McEwan of Perth.

The young couple left on a wedding trip to Western points, Mrs. Allan travelling in grey with black accessories and a corsage of red roses. On their return they will reside in Chesterville.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN HANDY ON TRAFFIC CONTROL

Adding to their reputation for efficiency, the Chesterville Volunteer Fire Brigade did a bang-up job yesterday at the Fair Grounds. They were in charge of traffic under Chief Sid Morris and their efforts were tireless and to excellent purpose. Traffic snarls were at a minimum, and the gates were nearly always clear to allow pedestrians through. The Fair Board and the general public were impressed with the volunteer work of these men.

ONLY ONE PAIR OF PANTS

"When the ten provinces meet with the federal government this Fall to discuss taxation agreements it is to be hoped that our elected representatives will remember that though the vast sums of money that are spent by our many governments may seem to come out of many different pockets, al the pockets are really in one pair of pants - the Canadian taxpayer's", said Joseph Lister Rutledge Chairman of The Canadian Unity Council, today. Mr. Rutledge was commenting on reports that a DominionProvincial conference will be convened in the near future to discuss the financing of such measures as a public works program, construction and maintenance of the Trans-Canada highway, national health insurance and other social security measures.

"The government of a village, a county, a town, a city or a province is very greatly in the wrong if it presumes it should spend money just because it can recover all or part of it as a grant from some other government," pointed out Mr. Rutledge. "It would certainly tend to produce economy in government if each level of government had to raise all the money it spends. It is very easy for a public body to overspend if it doesn't have to do all its own fund raising—but the ultimate fact is that all of the money that is spent by all governments in Canada must come out of the Canadian taxpayer's pockets. There may be lots of pockets but there is only one pair of pants."

WEEDLESS FERTILIZED PASTURS PREFERRED BY CATTLE

Cows can be as fussy about their food as the best of human gourmets. Given weedless pastures that have been fertilized, they will graze the grass evenly before touching tall growths of adjoining grass overgrown with weeds.

This was amply demonstrated recently at Richmond, Quebec, before a large group of district farmers. A portion of a large pasture plot near the town had been sprayed earlier with the weedkiller 2,4-D and applications of superphosphate fertilizer made by the agricultural chemicals division of Canadian Industries Limited. The grass was allowed to grow to a fair height before a herd of jersey cattle was turned out on the pasture.

Results were spectacular. With no fence dividing treated and untreated areas, the cattle would not go near the untreated areas but stayed entirely on the treated plot. The grass had been eaten down close to the ground. Weeds such as hardhack (wild Spirea), bracken ferns, club moss and orange hawkweed had been completely destroyed by the 2, 4-D ester which had been applied at the rate of one quart of weedkiller to one acre of pasture.

The weed infested untreated area, on the other hand, showed no evidence of cattle grazing. Grass was tall and spindly—and untouched by the cattle.

Barmaid: "Oh, yes, I married a man in the village fire department."
Sailor: "Volunteer?"
Barmaid: "No Pa made him."

Hot Bird

Recently, after attending a football game, several out-of-town college boys put up for the night at a certain Southern hotel. When one of their number passed out of the picture from drinking too much corn whiskey his friends decided to have a little fun with him.

They conveyed their unconcious comrade to his room, smeared his body with vaseline, and then gave him a coat of feathers from the pillow. Then as a parting gesture they turned up the heat in his room full force.

The following morniing the inebriated student awoke in the stifling heat of his room and gazed blearyeyed into the full-length mirror opposite his head.

"My God," he croaked.!" "Gone to h-l- and turned into a bird!"

The "Pony" that replaces a Team

WITH the introduction of the "Pony" tractor, Massey-Harris extended the advantages of power farming to practically everyone who makes his living from the soil. There are thousands of farmers and market gardeners whose acreage does not justify the investment in large-size tractor equipment. Such men were barred from the use of power machinery until the "Pony" came into the picture. Today, it is helping them to increase their farm output, reduce production costs, and eliminate old-fashioned drudgery.

The "Pony" is an outstanding example of the farm-minded engineering that lies behind every Massey-Harris machine. In designing the "Pony", Massey-Harris engineers were not content merely to build a small-size low-cost tractor. They studied the kinds of work that a small tractor would have to do, in practical farm use, to give satisfaction to its owner . . . and they calculated the requirements of power, traction, weight, and endurance that such work would call for. As a result, the Massey-Harris "Pony" out-weighs, out-pulls, and out-works every other tractor in its class. It will do more work than a team, and much more work than a little walk-behind tractor.

Going further, Massey-Harris engineers designed an assortment of quick-mounted tools for the "Pony" . . . exactly the right size to yield the maximum amount of finished work per hour of time and per gallon of gasoline. With these tools, the "Pony" not only does more work than a team, but does it better, faster and cheaper.

Church News

MOREWOOD UNITED CHURCH

The services at Morewood United Church were conducted on Sunday by the minister. The theme of the morning service was the Sacrament of Service, based on Isaiah 41,6 "They helped everyone his neighbour; and everyone said to his brother, Be of good courage". There is a sense in which honest toil is an act of worship and a sacrament of praise. Work is a divine assignment and in serving our fellow men we serve our God. It may be difficult to think of the work of the farm, office, store, school or factory as worshipping, yet that is the ideal. "A servant with this cause makes drudgery divine, who sweeps a house as for thy cause makes it and the action fine." In our highly developed socialized civilization, where people live and work in multitudes, there is a great call for patience, toleration and understanding. To cope with the difficulties presented that the greatest good may come to all, there is great need of the application of the spirit and practical suggestion of the text, "They helped everyone his neighbour and everyone said to his brother be of good courage". Some people who need no financial help are discouraged, almost in despair. They need the inspiring exhortation, "Be of good courage". Henry van Dyke has this to say about the attitude of the Divine to the Worker:

"This is the gospel of labour,
Ring it ye bells of the kirk;
The Lord of love came down from above,
To live with the men who work.

This is the rose that he planted
Here in the thorne-cursed soil;
Heaven is blessed with perfect rest,
But the blessing of earth is toil.

The choir rendered an appropriate anthem directed by Miss Ellice Smith.

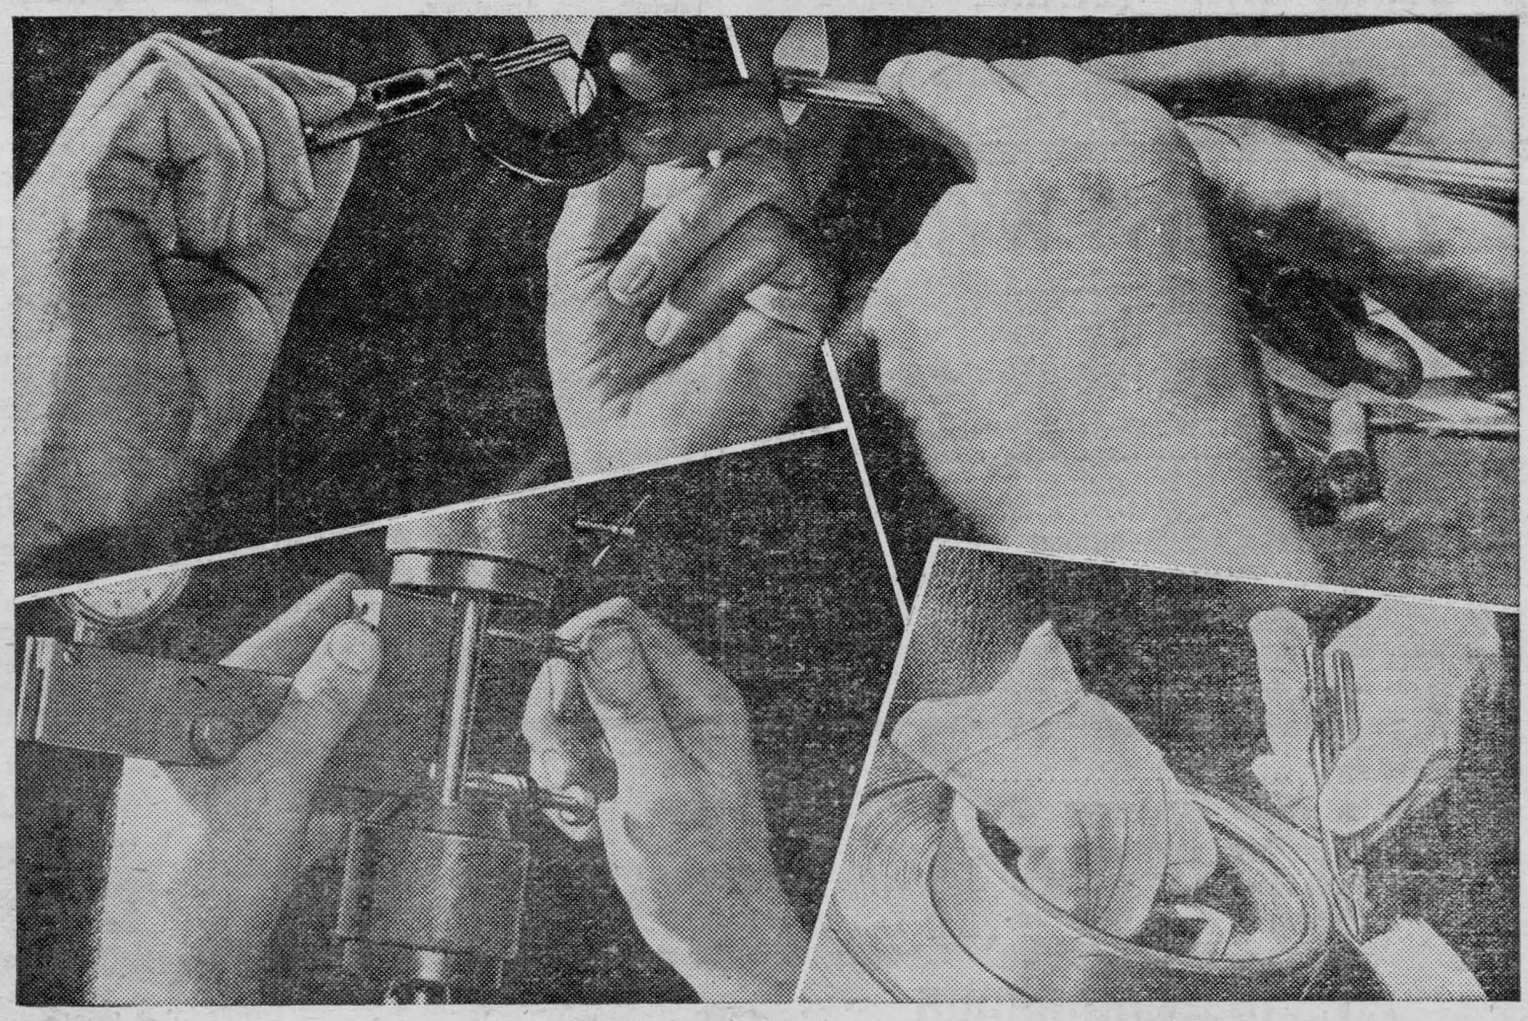
HANDS IN TRAINING...FOR ONTARIO



Learning to Work With Copper and Brass

IN Ontario the wheels of industry turn for the benefit of every single one of us. Our lathes, dynamos, drill presses, farm combines, tractors, business machines, etc. are producing goods and services which earn dollars. These dollars provide food, clothing, medical care and other necessities which contribute to our security and high standard of living. Every single one of us, therefore, has a very personal interest in the flow of a steady supply of trained workers to industrial plants. These workers will operate machines which are important to our way of life.

We should appreciate, then, the co-operative efforts of government, industry and labour in the field of employee training. In schools and in factories our workers, young and old, are given the opportunity to develop new and specific skills in every field of business and industrial activity. For instance, every effort on the part of workers to become proficient in the art of shaping and moulding copper and brass, will mean greater industrial progress—will help to make Ontario a finer place in which to live and work.

THE BREWING INDUSTRY (ONTARIO)

Our Way of Life Rewards Trained Hands

Ontario workers know they can earn more, have executive responsibility and enjoy a higher standard of living in direct ratio to the skills they acquire and the way they make use of them. That's always true in a free economy—that's why our competitive system will continue to make Canada great and a great place in which to live.

Fair Enough

It is always a pleasure to observe the reactions of a man whose politeness is wholehearted and generous.

Such a one was the tall gentleman hurrying down the street. Out of a doorway came another man, also in haste, and the two collided with great force.

The second man was beside himself with anger, and exploded into a fury of abusive language.

"My friend, I don't know which of us is to blame for this encounter, but I am in too great a hurry to investigate. If I ran into you, I beg your pardon; but if you ran into me, don't mention it."

and then with another smile, he hastened away.

"Book of the Month" New Telephone Book

The "Book of the Month" for many residents of Chesterville will be the September, 1949 telephone directory. The new books will be mailed to subscribers here, commencing Thursday, September 1st.

Featuring on its cover the familiar figure of "The Spirit of Communication," the new green-covered edition of the telephone directory will replace the buff-covered book issued last year. It will be thicker than its predecessor containing 76 pages in its alphabetical section as compared with 71 in the previous issue.

The first telephone directory in Canada and probably in the British Empire, published in 1878, consisted of a single sheet, 18 by 5½ inches, and contained the names of a mere 68 subscribers.

The old book should be discarded as soon as the new directory arrives, the Bell Company Manager warned, for around 2,250 new and changed listings will be contained in the forthcoming directory. The directory will contain listings for Brockville, Iroquois, Prescott, Morrisburg, Winchester, Cardinal, Mallorytown and other centres.

The manager also cautioned subscribers to give the obsolete directories a thorough "shaking out" before they are discarded as old directories have been found to contain documents, folding money, letters and even ties that were being pressed. Lists of frequently called numbers kept on office desk-pads, on cards pinned to the wall by the home telephone or in pocket note books should also be checked and changed when the new directory arrives.

Motorist Saves Five From Fire Near Pett Swamp

Awakened by John Clark of Mountain, a passing motorist who saw the fire which destroyed the brick residence. Ezra Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bryan and their two little girls escaped from their upstairs bedroom scantily attired at 10 o'clock Thursday night.

The fire was thought to have started from the stove in the back kitchen and had made such headway that nothing could be done to save the large solid brick residence and adjoining sheds.

The fire brigades from South Mountain and Winchester did manage to prevent the spread of flames to other farm buildings.

The residence is located on the "Pet"road, six miles west of Winchester. It is one of the oldest farm buildings in the district.

Total loss was estimated at $7,000. Only a few articles of furniture from the downstairs part of the house were saved.

A brooder, hatching equipment, sap buckets and 50 cords of hard wood were also burned. The loss was only partially covered by insurance.
