The Board recommended that the Chairman be authorized to appoint different Ad Hoc Committees to liaise with any Board, municipal Government or Community Organization whenever the need arises. It is hoped that through the formation of such committees, from time to time, that the Board will be able to build stronger links of communication with all other groups representing community interests throughout the three United Counties.

After the discussion of a brief received from the Ministry of Education, regarding Community Education, the Board formed an Ad Hoc Committee to study and report back to the Board on Community School Programs.

The Board announced the appointment of Paul Lusignan, a Guidance Counsellor at Cornwall Collegiate and Vocational School, and Richard Forrester, a Technical Director at Char-Lan District High School, as co-principals of the Summer School.

Carnival epidemic hits Winchester

An 'epidemic' of 'carnivalitis' hit Winchester suddenly Tuesday morning and it appears the accompanying 'high fever' will not subside till the curtain falls on Carnival-75.

The dates? Thursday February 20th — Friday February 21st — Saturday February 22nd — Sunday February 23rd — and WATCH FOR 'WINNIE' and 'CHESTER'!

Carnival co-ordinator Frank Morgan and his able committee members are presently drafting what they claim will be 'Winchester's Finest Hour' — only the 'hour' will last for four full days and nights.

Before the stage lights dim on the final day some lucky ticket holder will have won a trip for four to Montreal; a new Queen will have been crowned; and the Community Park will be filled with elaborate ice sculpturing.

A New Queen

The Carnival Queen competition will be a part of the first night's program and all single girls between the ages of 14 and '39' will be eligible. Entry forms are now available at either the Snow Drop Boutique or Jo-Anne Shoppe.

On this final night the draw will be made for the Montreal trip and prizes awarded for the many carnival contests including sculpturing, best dresser, etc.

AND DON'T FORGET TO WATCH FOR 'WINNIE' AND 'CHESTER'.

Some people have all the luck . . . in this case it's Crysler's Bonhomme Carnival. The 'jolly lad' is here surrounded by four very lovely young ladies. The gals were all making a bid to reign a Queen of the Annual Winter Carnival. The young lady, second from left, Louise LeBrun, won by a narrow margin and she was crowned last Friday evening. Miss LeBrun not only gets to reign but she picked up some handsome prizes which included the Royal Bank Trophy donated by the Crysler Branch. "My Bonhomme what a big mouth you have . . . the better to see you." Check the eyes peaking through the mouth of the costume, can you blame the impersonator for taking a better look. From the left — Diane Farley, Bonhomme Carnival, the 'Queen' Louise LeBrun, Annette Champagne and Kathy Fleming.

St. Andrews Presbyterian hears reports, elects officers

Reviewing a year which was quite memorable to the life and witness of the local church and in the much wider outreach of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, the members at the annual congregational meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church heard reports of the various official boards and organizations which showed much activity and progress.

Rev. W. J. Morrison, Finch, interim moderator, conducted a brief worship service prior to the business meeting and he was chairman of the meeting.

The minutes of the last congregational meeting were read by the congregational secretary, Neil Bush and approved. Highlighting the year was the acceptance by Rev. W. E. Sayers, M. A., minister of the local church for over six years, of a call from the congregations of Hull and Aylmer, P.Q. in the Presbytery of Ottawa. Rev. Mr. Sayers conducted his final service in Avonmore on the first Sunday in September of last year. During his years in Avonmore Mr. Sayers had been particularly active in the Presbytery of Glengarry, serving for a time as Moderator and for several years as convenor of the stewardship and budget committee.

In June the congregation took pride in participating in the great Presbyterian Centennial Rally in Maxville, marking the beginning of a twelve-month period of special activity marking the 100th anniversary of the formation of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

At the beginning of the current year the congregation is looking forward to celebrating its own Centennial in 1976. It was 1876 that the Avonmore congregation came into being, as an off-shoot of the old Lunenburg congregation. Plans are presently underway for suitable celebrations. It was reported that a committee is at work updating the history written of the congregation.

Reports were given by: Kirk Session, Allan McIntyre; Board of Managers, Gordon Campbell; Women's Missionary Society, Mrs. Fraser MacRae and Mrs. Hugh Morrison; Ladies Aid Society, Mrs. James Tinkess and Mrs. Clifford McElheran; Sunday School and Cradle Roll Department, Perry Tinkess; Cemetery Report, Neil Bush; Church Treasurer, Doug Robertson; Auditors Report, Jack Bush; Children of the Church and Explorers Groups, Mrs. Gordon Campbell.

Burns McIntyre gave the report of the Nominating Committee. Officers and officials for 1975 are as follows: Kirk Session, Rev. Wallace MacKinnon, Ingleside, Interim Moderator; Allen McIntyre, Clerk; George D. McElheran, Neil Bush, Duncan Bethune, Glenn McIntyre, Ford Warner, Jack Bush and Gordon Campbell

Board of Managers (For one year): Perry Tinkess, Auley Morrison, Garnet Robertson; (for 2 years) Earl Canham, Gordon Robertson, John McIntyre, (for 3 years) Doug MacMillan, Hector MacRae and Jack Bush.

Trustees of Congregation: Neil Bush, Sinclair Feek, Hector MacRae, Howard MacMillan, James Tinkess and George McElheran.

Treasurer of Congregation: Mrs. Douglas Robertson; Envelope Secretary, Douglas Robertson; Auditors, Jack Bush and Mrs. Stewart MacRae.

Ushers: Glenn McIntyre, chairman; Jack Bush, Gordon Robertson, Doug Bush, Doug Robertson, Garnet Robertson, Reid McIntyre, Dean McIntyre, Perry Tinkess, Bert Henderson and Byron Henderson.

Organist: Mrs. Neil Bush; Assistants, Mrs. Hugh Morrison and Miss Lee McIntyre. Congregational Secretary, Neil Bush. Centennial History Committee, Mrs. Neil Bush, Miss Margaret Morrison, Clifford MacRae, Mrs. Fraser MacRae and Calvin Grant. Church Officer, John Amsing. Church School, Sterling Lang; Superintendent, Perry Tinkess; secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Perry Tinkess, Cradle Roll Superintendent — Nominating Committee for 1976, James Tinkess, Mrs. Sterling Lang and Mrs. Glenn McIntyre.

The congregation accepted as its 1975 missionary budget an allocation of $2200.

A special vote of thanks was directed to Doug and Grace Robertson for the able manner in which they are serving as the congregational treasurer and the envelope secretary.

Several matters relating to the church were discussed.

Rev. W. J. Morrison pronounced the Benediction.

David Ferguson

After a one-years illness David Ferguson, a highly esteemed and respected citizen of the village of Avonmore, passed away at the Cornwall General Hospital on Thursday, January 23rd. The announcement of his death brought many expressions of regret from a host of relatives and friends throughout the district.

Mr. Ferguson, 62 years of age, was born in the Township of Finch on September 28, 1911, the son of the late John Ferguson and his wife Melissa Benton. He attended school in Finch Township and later in Avonmore where his family had taken up residence while he was quite young.

For several years Mr. Ferguson worked for E. L. Filion when he operated a bake shop in the village. Later Mr. Ferguson worked for many years as a salesman for Canada Bread.

For the past eight years Mr. Ferguson was an employee of the St. Lawerence Parks Commission. Last summer despite deteriorating health he was able to work for a few weeks.

On June 3, 1933, Mr. Ferguson married Jean Awbury, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Awbury.

Besides his wife, Mr. Ferguson is survived by two daughters: Mrs. Bernard Robertson (Lois), Maxville; and Mrs. Blaine McElheran (Ila), Finch; three sons; Donald and Kenneth, Toronto, and David, Smiths Falls; four sisters; Mrs. Mary Jane Beckstead, Avonmore; Mrs. D. A. Gillies, Finch; Mrs. Lottie MacMillan and Mrs. Ford Warner, Avonmore; three brothers, John B. Ferguson and James Ferguson, Newington and Alex Ferguson, Cochrane, two grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by one son, Douglas, who passed away in 1944 at the age of 5½ years and by two sisters and three brothers.

The body rested at the Brownlee Funeral Home, Finch, where many relatives, neighbors and friends called to pay their respects.

Rev. Fred Rennie, minister of St. John's Presbyterian Church, Cornwall, conducted the service at the funeral home and at the graveside on Saturday afternoon, January 25th. Mr. Rennie brought a comforting message to the members of the sorrowing family and to the assembly of relatives and friends.

Pallbearers were Stirling Lang, Hector MacRae, Stuart D. McRae, Karl Snyder, Lawrence Steele and Thomas Tulloch.

Interment was made in the family plot in Paul's Hill Cemetery, Avonmore.

A wealth of beautiful floral tributes surrounded the casket. Many friends chose to make donations to the Canadian Cancer Society.

Relatives and friends attended the funeral from such distant points as Toronto, Bramalea, Cochrane, Kitchener, Barrie, Ottawa and from many other communities within the Three United Counties.

PREVENTIVE LAW

These questions and answers, based on Ontario law, are intended to inform and not to advise. No one should try to apply or interpret the law without the aid or advice of a trained expert who knows the facts, since the facts of each case may change the application of the law.

Q. I parked my car at a downtown lot to go shopping. When I got back my front headlight had been bashed in. I think its the parking lot's responsibility to care that no one clips my car. When I talked to him, he showed me a sign on the front of the booth. The sign said, "We are not responsible for any loss or damage whatsoever, however caused, whether by fire, theft or negligence." The same notice was printed on the ticket.

The owner of the lot says that this was part of the contract, so he has absolutely no liability. I told him that I didn't sign a thing so it couldn't be a contract. Who is right?

A. You don't have to sign anything to form a valid contract. If the lot owner makes reasonable efforts by posting a sign to inform you of the terms on which you can park your car, you are bound by the terms he posts whether or not you read it or sign anything.

Q. When I rented my apartment, I paid a $135.00 deposit. The landlord said it was for the last month's rent. My lease runs out at the end of next month, and now the landlord says I owe him money for the last month. He says he is going to use my deposit to clean up the place and pay for repairs. He says, anyways, that the money was a security deposit. I think my landlord is trying to pull a fast one. Am I right?

A. Security deposits were abolished for residential premises in 1968. Your landlord can ask for a deposit, but he cannot use it for anything but the last month's rent without a court order. And he must pay you 6 per cent interest per year on your deposit. Violating these laws is a criminal offence and could cost him a $1,000.00 fine.

If he wants to make you pay for repairs he has to get a court order, and sue you in Small Claims Court.

Telephone Talk
by Ray Jetté
your Bell manager

You may be aware that Bell Canada is initiating directory assistance charging in the Chesterville exchange area, starting February 9, 1975.

I thought it might be helpful to review the plan and to stress that no one need ever incur an unnecessary charge. Most people use Directory Assistance only as a last resort, when the phone number they need is not yet listed in their directory. These necessary requests will continue to be free. It's the unnecessary calls we want to discourage to ensure reliable Directory Assistance service for those who really need it.

That's why, beginning February 9, 1975, there will be a 25 cent charge for each phone number provided by a directory assistance operator when the requested number is listed in your phone book. Every billing month, the first three such requests made from your residence phone will be free. After that, the charge will apply.

Necessary calls, for numbers not yet listed in your directory will still be free. And whether the number is listed or not, there will be no charge for anyone who has a handicap that makes it difficult to use a directory or for persons 65 years or over.

If you qualify for an exemption, just call your Bell Canada business office*and ask for a special exemption form. Also free are emergency calls and calls from pay phones, hotel, motel and hospital rooms.

In closing, I'd just like to repeat that you can avoid unnecessary charges by looking in the book before calling Directory Assistance. The number you need is probably listed. (In 1973, our directory assistance operators handled more than 220 million calls—more than 70 per cent of them were for numbers already listed in the phone book.)

It's also a good idea to keep emergency and frequently called numbers up-to-date in the space provided in the introductory pages of your directory.

Scouts hold 'Klondike Derby' at Cardinal

Cardinal Scouts were hosts to troops from St. Lawrence and Brockville Districts for the annual "Klondike Derby" last Saturday. "Camp Cardinal", north of the town, situated in a lovely white birch forest was the locale. Seventy-one boys and seventeen leaders participated in the all-day event.

District Scoutmaster Steve Brown of Cardinal was in charge of the day's activities, ably assisted by Scoutmasters George Fowler of Iroquois and Ron Baker of Spencerville, Assistant Diatrict Commissioner George Lewis of Morrisburg, and others. The course comprised twelve "stations" or "check-points", featuring various activities. Fire-lighting, in charge of Scoutmaster Lyle McNab and Committee Chairman Bob Gilroy of Chesterville, drew a tie from Spencerville and Cardinal. Three teams started their fires without matches, using flint-and-steel. Ground-to-air signals, in charge of Leonard Steele of Cardinal, had four tied in first place; — Cardinal, Morrisburg, Iroquois and Spencerville. Improvised stretcher, in charge of Brockville, drew three ties, — Iroquois, Cardinal and Spencerville. Ice rescue and first aid, in charge of Jim Kennedy, Brockville, was won by Spencerville. Finding direction by watch, in charge of Jim Donaghue of Brockville, was won by Spencerville. Snaring, in charge of Iroquois troop, was won by Cardinal and Morrisburg, tying; "Dinner", in charge of George Fowler of Iroquois and Bill Riesley of Brockville, was won by Iroquois. Knot-tying, in charge of Larry Mitchell of Brockville, and three tying for first place, — Brockville 1st, Morrisburg and Iroquois. Night signalling by fire, in charge of Ron Sayeau of Cardinal, had a tie, — Spencerville and Cardinal. Snow-shoe race, in charge of Dan Sayeau of Cardinal, was won by Maitland. Maitland also won the sled race, which was in charge of Steve Brown and George Lewis. There were inspection and compass readings at all check-points. Brockville 5th won the compass reading test. Cardinal, the host troop, acquired the highest number of points in all contests, and was awarded the District trophy. The Reverend E. Earle Eaton of Chesterville, District Public Relations representative, presented the trophy at a bean supper served at the Cardinal Legion Hall at the close of the Derby. Second and third places were won by Spencerville and Iroquois, respectively, while the out-of-district trophy was won by Brockville 8th.

Eleven teams competed, from the communities of Brockville, Spencerville, Morrisburg, Iroquois, Chesterville, Maitland and Cardinal. The Prescott Corps of St. John Ambulance was at the scene throughout the day, in charge of Corporals Robert Boivert, Robert Reid, and Pvt. Max McCallum. Happily, there was little for them to do, no serious mishaps occurring. A shelter tent was erected at the site, while Lean-to Erection, in charge of Dan Steele of Cardinal, was won by Brockville 1st.

Holstein Annual slated for February 12
several By-law changes contemplated

The Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada has slated February 12, 1975 for its 92nd annual meeting, which will be held at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto.

Several amendments to the Constitution and By-Laws are slated for discussion this year. The most notable proposal calls for an increase in registration fees from a basic $3.00 to $5.00 for Association members and from $6.00 to $10.00 for non-members. The penalty fee for late application will also be discussed, with a proposal that it be increased from 50c to $1.00 per month or part month.

Another proposal for discussion will be the formation of a Discipline Committee consisting of five Past Presidents of the Association. The Discipline Committee would hear and determine charges against any member who may have violated Association Constitution, By-Laws, rules or regulations, or may have conducted himself in such a manner that his continued membership may be detrimental to the reputation of the Association.

Various worthy individuals and animals will be recognized at this meeting. Seven Master Breeder Shields, the highest honour to be bestowed upon a member, will be awarded. In addition, certificates are awarded to Class Extra bulls, and to cows making Canadian Championship milk or fat records.

Mariners hold January meeting

The weather was "cold outside", as the song goes, but there was an inner warmth as a score of Chesterville Mariners and their friends gathered for the January "sailing" at Eatonholme on Tuesday evening.

"Weather conditions cold and stormy; unless the warth of God's love fills the heart of every sailor, there will be many frozen ships", read the Mariners' chart. Garnet Johnston, First Mate, was at the helm, and Mrs. Milton Shay, Purser, Logged the voyage. Steward George Crawford received an offering for the Work of the Mariners. The Mariners' Report was given by the host, Captain E. Earle Eaton. Prayers and Praises were given by George Crawford and Mrs. Bert Sharkey. Jim Bray supplied accordion accompaniment for the congregational singing by the crew; and vocal numbers were rendered by the Reverend R. R. Benson and Miss Ellen Johnston.

Several ill members were remembered in prayer, and cards sent them, signed by all those present. The Reverend Enos Brubacher, who was a two-day guest at Eatonholme, gave the Admiral's report, and spoke of the progress of the Work thruout North America; especially of the seventy-seven hiway Gospel signs erected and dedicated in 1974, several of which are in this immediate area.

Refreshments were served by a hospitality committee comprising Mrs. Garnet Johnston, Mrs. Milton Shay and Mrs. Duart McLean.

Crew members were present from Winchester, Metcalfe, Finch, Goldfield and Newington, as well as Chesterville.

New W.I. group formed at Long Sault inaugural meeting held last Thursday

Long Sault is a thriving town, located just a few short miles west of the city of Cornwall. The community, located on the St. Lawrence River and adjacent to the St. Lawrence Parks Commission, has many attractions and offers the usual list of organizations and small town groups.

Last Thursday evening was Inaugural Night for the Long Sault Women's Institute. The first meeting came about following many months of planning. The above ladies were named to work in an executive position with the newly formed group. From the left — Peggy Thompson, Alternate District Director; Mrs. Hazel Beckstead, Secretary-Treasurer; Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson, President; Mrs. Hazel Fickes, Vice-President and Mrs. Dorothy Durrett, District Director. — Staff Photo.

Up until last week Long Sault was lacking in one way, the community did not have a group to fill the needs of the community in social, cultural and moral endeavours . . . in other words a Women's Institute. That matter has now been resolved and Long Sault, with the formation of the W. I., has added another worthwhile organization to the organizations already in existence.

Some years ago a branch of the Women's Institute was formed in Mille Roches. With the coming of the St. Lawrence Seaway, when some members moved away, and the eventual flooding of the old town, the Institute was disbanded. During the transition from the old to the new, many of the families of the town of Mille Roches took up residence in the new town of Long Sault. A move was made a few months ago to organize a W. I., and the culmination of the planning was observed last Thursday night when a group of interested persons met in St. Andrew's United Church Hall on January 30th, for the inaugural meeting of The Long Sault Women's Institute.

The meeting was opened with the Ode and Mary Stewart Collect, which was followed by repeating the Lord's Prayer. Thirteen new members and one Life Member were in attendance.

Stormont District Vice-president, Mrs. D. R. Ouderkirk, conducted the meeting which included the reading of the Constitution and By-laws.

Nominations were handled by The Federated Representative, Mrs. Thorold Shaver, and officers were installed as follows — President, Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson; 1st Vice-president, Mrs. Daisy Fowler; 2nd Vice-president, Mrs. Hazel Fickes: Secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Hazel Beckstead; District Director, Mrs. Dorothy Durrett; Alternate, Mrs. Peggy Thompson; Branch Director, Mrs. Sarah Lawrence; Alternate, Mrs. Rhoda Pederson; press. Mrs. Minnie Snyder; Auditors, Mrs. Minnie Snyder; and Mrs. Gertie Rowe; Curator Tweedsmuir History, Mrs. Dora Barkley; Nominating Committee, Mrs. Sarah Lawrence and Mrs. Rhoda Pederson.

Convenerships were discussed and it was decided to hold the matter over until the annual meeting.

A few words of congratulations and welcome from the Stormont District were extended by Mrs. Irene Casselman, Public Relations Officer. One guest had a January birthday.

The next meeting will be held about the middle of February and will be held in the Church Hall. The roll call is to be answered with a Valentine Verse.

The meeting was adjourned after which Mrs. W. Cleary conducted a sing song which was followed by a social hour.

Rotary pancake breakfasts bring in $650. members disgruntled with arena P.A. System

Chesterville Rotary Club members, when meeting on Monday, January 27th, were pleased to hear that the pancake breakfasts held on Saturday and Sunday with the Annual Chesterville Winter Carnival were very successful. Saturday morning saw $213.00 paid for the goodies and Sunday the take was $463.00, for a grand total of $680.00. It was noted at the meeting that the 'breakfasts' would not have been the success they were without some outside help. The Rotarians expressed their thanks to those who helped during the carnival.

The membership voiced their disapproval of the sound system at the local arena. They felt the club had donated $1000 towards the installation of the P.A. System and if it could not be made to work better than at the present time, the money had been wasted. Rotary president Ian Macintosh was appointed to look into what could be done to improve the Sound System.

The president reported that Mrs. Helen Wells would soon be presenting the actual figures of operating the Nursery School Project. The Rotary Club had promised to pay up to $1000 to cover the costs of operation over the Provincial grant.

Bob Gilroy, fromer Boy Scout, has agreed to act, replacing Tom Rance, as chairman of the Group Committee in charge of Scouts and Cubs. It was noted that the Scouts are in need of a meeting place to call their own. The Rotary members were asked to think about the scouts dilemma and perhaps come up with some ideas.

The Rotary Program on this evening was cut short as the guest speaker at the last minute had to cancel his trip to Chesterville, due to other business commitments.

Fertilizer costs to soar in '75

At a meeting of the fertilizer industry and OMAF extension personnel at the Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology on January 14, 1975, it was revealed that fertilizer costs for 1975 could possibly be 40-45 percent above comparable 1974 price levels. However, with a possible increase in demand, it is recommended that farmers place firm orders for the 1975 crop year.

Some fertilizer materials, primarily nitrogen and phosphates, will be in tight supply, with some spot shortages. The Canadian market should be amply supplied by Canadian production of potash, since only 5 percent of Canadian production is used in Canada.

In Eastern Canada demand for nitrogen fertilizer could well be up 8-10 percent over 1974 consumption, while the supply for Eastern Canada is approximately the same as 1974. Sharply increased costs for natural gas, a basic material used in making nitrogen fertilizer, combined with rapid escalation in the capital cost of new nitrogen-producing facilities suggests that nitrogen fertilizer costs will never return to the levels of the 1960's Although new nitrogen-producing plants are planned they take about 36 months to build. It could be a few years before increased production can adequately supply demand, and any unforeseen delays could greatly strain the ability of production to meet demand.

Eastern Canadian farmers were generally well supplied with phosphates in 1974, although by the end of 1974 all blend plants and producing plants were cleaned back to the walls. This means that for the current fertilizer year demand will have to be met from current production. Due to strikes, production of primary materials at two large Eastern Canadian plants in 1974 was restricted and lost production cannot be recovered. This could result in some of the demand in Eastern Ontario being supplied from other areas.

S.D.&G. Separate School Board

Board to undertake evaluation of its educational system

Mr. Gilles Metivier announced today that in co-operation with the Ministry of Education, the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Roman Catholic Separate School Board is undertaking a comprehensive evaluation of its educational system. This undertaking is of considerable importance and will extend over the remainder of this school year and on into the next.

The major emphasis in this evaluation is at the local level. It is hoped that all segments of the community will become involved with the internal phase of the exercise which should lead to a better understanding of our school system and also develop positive recommendations that will be beneficial to our students.

As the project progresses, it is hoped that parents and ratepayers will join teachers, students, trustees and the administration in taking part in the evaluation of the school system.

Appointed by the Separate School Board as internal committee co-chairmen are Roger R. Davidson and Shirley A. Redmond. Mr. Davidson is Vice-principal of Ecole Intermediaire Jean XXIII and Mrs. Redmond is Primary Consultant for English schools. The project is a parallel undertaking in both linguistic sectors of the Board. Mr. Davidson will serve as co-chairman for the French sector and Mrs. Redmond for the English sector.

The Board feels that Mr. Davidson and Mrs. Redmond will establish the necessary climate, confidence and co-operation to facilitate the successful completion of the Co-operative Evaluation program of the Ministry.

IN CO-OPERATION WITH THE CORNWALL & DISTRICT DENTAL SOCIETY IN OBSERVANCE OF DENTAL HEALTH WEEK FEBRUARY 2 - 8

My dentist has mentioned several times that I should not start smoking. I'm 17. Why should he care whether a person smokes or not?

Dentists are concerned about smoking and its harmful effects on oral tissues. They have examined the abailable evidence and believe that smoking is a serious oral health hazard.

Most people, for example, are aware that when they smoke, they increase the risks of developing lung cancer, but few realize that they also run a higher risk of developing cancer of the mouth and throat.

Oral cancer is one of the most difficult to treat of all cancers if not detected early. Unfortunately, oral cancer often is painless until it is too late for other than severely disfiguring treatment.

Smoking has other effects on oral health. For instance, smokers have more periodontal (gum) disease. A recent study shows that periodontal disease was more advanced in smokers than in nonsmokers, with greater rate of bone loss and tooth mobility in the smokers.

Clinical studies indicate that loss of teeth is more frequent among smokers than nonsmokers. It also has been established clinically that there is a positive correlation between the consumption of tobacco, gingivitis and the formation of calculus.

Your dentist has urged you not to start smoking because he knows that smoking affects your teeth and oral tissues in a number of other ways: it stains the teeth, causes bad breath, dulls the sense of taste and smell and increases the risk of many diseases.

Another little known fact is that smokers are, on the average, absent from their jobs about six to seven days more during the year than are nonsmokers.

As a young person, you are fortunate that you have never started to smoke. The hazards of smoking far outweigh its pleasures.

As League draws to a close . . .

Panthers pick-up hardware for finishing first Wormith top defenceman, Hughes best goalie

Action in league play in the Outouais Senior Hockey League is coming to a close, there are a few league games left to play but the standings will be unchanged by the outcome. The current season has been a rough one for the Embrun Panthers and only in the last few weeks have they put it all together. At the moment the only team that can come close to the Panthers is Potsdam and a couple of the stateside boys would only tie them with Embrun and the Panthers would still win the league by virtue of more wins against the American team.

As League Champions the Embrun team will be presented with the Melcher and Ralph Murray trophies.

As well as winning the league, which gave Embrun reason for jubilation, Steve Wormith, their stalwart defenceman, was named tops in the league. Jack Duncan, of Potsdam, was named the Most Valuable Player. Wayne Hughes, Embrun's steady goal tender, should win the Best Goalie Award, he would have to be bombed in the final game of the year to lose out. Hughes' closest rival, the Potsdam netminder has 17 more goals against him in league play.

Now that the league play is all but over all thoughts turn to the play-offs and a whole new series. Embrun have drawn Renfrew-Shawville in the semi-finals. Action starts this Sunday in Embrun at 2 p.m., on the 14th in Shawville, back to Embrun on the 16th, the 21st and, if necessary, Embrun on March 2nd.

The scoring title for the league is still undecided. Mike Cayer, of the Gatineau Nordiques, all but had the title tied up when he ran afoul of the referees last week and picked up at least a three game suspension. Jack Duncan of Potsdam is in second place with 56 points and right behind is Bill Bowker of the Panthers with 52 points. The final league games could make a difference on who wins the scoring title.

The Senior Girls' Volleyball Team from Maple Ridge School competed in a tournament at Nationview school on Saturday, January 25th. In the very first game the Maple Ridge girls lost and were placed in the B Division. From that point on they never looked back and emerged as B Champions. The same team has another feather in their hat — just previous to the tournament they challenged their teachers to a game, you guessed it . . . for the first time ever the students beat the teachers, by a score of 15-12. In the Saturday tournament Riverside provided the final opposition and were taken out in two games by the score of 15-16 and 15-7. Front row from left — Patsy Blair, Connie Vanderlaan, Debbie Woods (Captain), Caroline Sullivan and Nancy Stewart. Back row from left — Brenda Guy, Tessie Boretos, Deanna VanderVeen, Sharri Hillis, Susan Beckstead and Doris Oschman. The team was coached by Mrs. Whittaker. Absent when the picture was taken was Heather Loucks. — Staff Photo.

Chesterville Flyers fall to hard times, manage single point of possible six

This past week has not been too successful for Chesterville Midget Flyers, as they managed only one point out of a possible six from three games.

On Monday evening, January 27th, Chesterville travelled to Prescott and could only manage a scoreless tie from the up-and-coming Defenders, as both Dalley for Prescott and Bob Walker, for Chesterville, performed flawlessly in nets.

Morrisburg was in town on Wednesday, January 29th, to provide the local fans with a look at the district's most powerful midget team.

Flyers' Rick Sproule turned aside all but one of Morrisburg's fourteen shots on net in the first period, as Kevin Osler, assisted by Kevin Wells, scored at the 14:10 mark. Exactly one minute later Flyers' Lorne Cook, while killing a penalty to Kevin Smith, checked Osler at his own blueline and drove a hard, low slap shot past a surprised Jeff Fowler. The first period ended with the teams deadlocked at one each.

Morrisburg was not to be denied and they rolled on for two more unanswered goals in the second period and another in the third. Scoring for Morrisburg in the middle frame were Peter McIntosh, unassisted at 7:23 and David Tait, assisted by Bob McNairn and Kevin Wells, at 11:24. Peter McIntosh scored his second of the game at the 13:28 mark of the third period to round out the scoring.

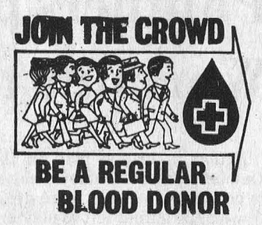
Morrisburg, still undefeated in league play, emerged victorious by the score of 4 to 1 and outshot the Flyers 36 to 9 over the course of the game.

Friday evening, January 31, saw the Flyers make the long trek to Athens in a bid to move into third spot in league standings. The game produced only four minor penalties. Athens emerged victorious by virtue of two goals scored late in the third period, to retain their third place position in the league standings.

Lady Luck is still not smiling on the Flyers as again three players are out of the line-up. Presently, Kevin Blair, Dale Reid and Kevin Smith are out with measles. The Flyers team roster has not been complete since November 27th, 1974. As either sickness or injuries have forced first one and then another player out of the line-up.

With only five games remaining in league play, it is hoped that further injuries can be avoided and all players will be ready to put on a concerted drive in the play-offs.

Tonight, Wednesday, Chesterville Flyers host Kemptville.



Legion Peewees lead by two points number two, Cardinal in town tonight

In a comparatively light week, Chesterville Legion Peewees put a little daylight between themselves and Cardinal with a 5-4 win over Athens Flyers in Chesterville, last Saturday. Iroquois helped the locals by handing Cardinal a 3-2 loss, the second by Cardinal in as many weeks at the hands of third place Iroquois. Chesterville now has a two-point first-place lead in the league standings. The key game of this half of the schedule is tonight, Wednesday, as Legion hosts Cardinal in the battle for top spot.

The Athens-Chesterville game showed remarkable ups and downs by both teams. Rick Grisel made no mistake as he put away a loose puck with less than a minute gone in the game to give Legion a 1-0 lead. Two minutes later Athens roared back to tie it up as Mark Moulton put away a Rick Johnson pass.

Defenceman Garry Beckstead then went to work and picked his way through the entire Athens team to cleanly beat Goalie Wes Slack. With seconds to go in the first period, Beckstead tried again, shot and Don Richards converted a fat rebound as the first period ended 3-1 for Legion.

Garry Beckstead gave Legion 4-1 lead at the mid-point of the second period on another solo effort. The tide then turned, and as Legion got a little lazy in the checking department, Athens started to come alive. Wally Pettem scored from John Robinson to narrow the gap to 4-2.

In the third period, a power-play goal by Richards from McMillan seemed to give Legion a little breathing room with a 5-2 lead. The goal, big Don's second, was his forty-second of the season. Flyers did not lay down and play dead. Eddie Witteveen was burned twice, by Moulton and Knapp, to narrow the score to 5-4 with 3:05 left in the game. With 2:20 left, McMillan was found guilty of tripping and Athens pulled their goalie in an effort to pull even. Forwards Laflamme, Byers and Beckstead along with defencemen Shay and Servage did a tremendous job of keeping the league's second best scoring unit — Dancy, Robinson and Knapp, off balance and off the scoreboard. Final score — Chesterville 5, Athens 4.

In exhibition play, Legion hosted Maxville last Wednesday night. The "sickies" had hit hard last Wednesday, with regulars McMillan, Laflamme, VanDelst and Moore unable to play. Capable replacements in the person of Doug Rance and Kim Cass were borrowed from Joe Cass' Clements Peewees. Realizing that the absence of Laflamme and McMillan would hurt, the team's 'journeymen' pulled up their socks and played a whale of a hockey game sending Maxville home on the short end of a 5-0 score.

The third period was scoreless. Eddie Witteveen went all the way and played very well to earn his shut-out.

On Sunday night, Legion travelled to the "Golden Dome" in Ogdensburg, N.Y., for a return game with the Ogdensburg Peewees. The "Golden Dome" is covered with a geodesic dome, not unlike the U.S. Pavilion at Expo '67. The arena itself is a field house. The floor is completely Tartan, a rubberized compound, used for indoor track meets. In all, a most impressive structure.

Legion was anything but impressive as the "sickies" set in again. The locals travelled stateside with six forwards, three defencemen and two goalies. Terry Barkley, a fine centre with the C. of C. Atoms, came along to lend a hand and performed admirably between McMillan and Richards. But it was not enough, Legion found themselves on the short end of a 3-1 score. McMillan got the first goal from Barkley and Richards, but that was the only Legion goal of the night.

Player-of-the-week

This week's player-of-the-week is defenceman Garry Beckstead. Garry 11, is a second-year man. He played with Legion Peewees last year, although he still has a year of Atom eligibility.

This season, Garry started off at centre, but returned to his more familiar defensive role where he's more at home. The 'A' on his number nineteen sweater is well-earned because of his leadership qualities. Although he's a defenceman, Garry is the most feared defenceman in the league because he can control the pace of the game; his specialty is rink-long rushes with the puck, more often than not ending in a good scoring opportunity for the team.

Garry is in the top ten scorers in the Upper St. Lawrence League, and so far has 20 goals and 21 assists to his credit. Brother Greg is Captain of Larry Stevens' Midget Flyers.

Lifelong learning

Education is a lifelong pursuit. Whatever a person does in life demands preparation, and since every day is a new day with new requirments he needs to face every dawn with renewed qualifications.

Education is not something that goes on for a certain number of years until it is capped by a graduation ceremony, whereupon it ends forever. That would be to let your mind die. An advertisement for Great Books has an illustration representing a gravestone on which is inscribed: "Here lies the mind of John Doe, who at age 30 stopped thinking."

Education in school has provided many tools of thought and some guides to action. It has led the student to recognize certain basic principals. To say at this point "That is it; I am educated" is merely another way of saying "I have stopped learning."

Every person has to live all his life with himself. He should, then, for his happiness' sake, make himself an informed, reasoning and interested companion.

This article is not an attempt to revise the educational system, but a reminder of the lifelong nature of education. Many people have ideas about changing the system, but they are careful when it comes to making proposals: they recall that Socrates was invited to drink the hemlock because he attempted to reform the university curriculum of his time.

Continuing education may be obtained within organized educational programmes or by our own initiative and design. Its purpose is to help us to make the most of our good points and to turn our deficits into assets. It keeps our perceptions sharp. It gives us the capacity for self-renewal.

Continuing education is essential if one is to be an efficient person, home-maker, and citizen. It enables one to grow and to live significantly as youth, parent and worker, and as a citizen of the world.

The Heart Fund: A unique health cause

It is important for everyone to realize that the Heart Fund, conducted here and throughout Canada during February is something more than 'just another health drive'.

The Heart Fund is uniquely important. Essentially, it is a combined appeal supporting the nationwide fight against a great complex of diseases and disorders — heart attack, stroke, high blood pressure and hardening of the arteries, rheumatic fever and inborn heart defects, to mention only a few. Diseases of the heart and circulation, which your Heart Fund dollars help to fight, are responsible for more than 78,000 deaths in Canada each year. That is more than the combined total, resulting from all other diseases and causes of death. In fact these cardiovascular diseases account for over 51.4 percent of all deaths. The heart problem is no distant abstraction. Although national and international in scope, it exists as a painful and costly reality right here. If you have doubts, examine the obituaries which appear in our daily newspapers. You will find that our local mortality experience closely parallels national figures; that, on the average, about half our death notice will mention 'heart attack', 'stroke' or 'heart disease'. All too often these terms are applied to family breadwinners in the prime of life — men in the 45 to 65 year age bracket.

There is only one practical way to fight heart disease, namely by supporting your Ontario Heart Foundation's balanced programs of research, education and information. You can do this by contributing Heart Fund dollars. Truly, the Heart Fund deserves a place at the very top of your 'giving for health' list.

77.5% haven't obtained '75 licence stickers

Out of 2,761,385 motorists, 2,140,074 have failed to purchase their 1975 green vehicle licence stickers. And there are less than five weeks remaining until the February 28, deadline.

This represents 77.5 per cent of the province's drivers who could be caught in the last-minute rush, according to officials of the Ministry of Transportation and Communications.

Renewal stickers have been on sale since December 2, at the 296 issuing offices throughout the province.

To speed up the renewal process, the Ministry has made available insurance declaration forms at LCBO retail outlets and issuing offices. Motorists save time by filling out one of these forms before arriving at the issuing counter with their ownership permit and fee.

This year the validation sticker is to be attached to the car's rear licence plate on top of the red 1974 sticker.

The fees are: $23 for a 4-cylinder car, $32 for 6 cylinders, $40 for an 8-cylinder vehicle, and $5 for trailers.

Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I are in our mid-30's and have three children who are all normal and doing well in school. Our fourth child was born in 1971 — the sweetest little girl you'd ever want to meet, but unfortunately she came into the world with a severe facial deformity that makes her look like some sort of a monster.

Her brothers and sisters treat her nicely, but she is stared at and shunned by the neighbor children, and even some adults. It is incredible how insensitive people can be. Some grown-ups have asked me right in front of the child, "What happened to her?" I try to be civil and reply, "She was born this way" — then I move on as fast as I can.

One of the most heartbreaking aspects of the problem is that my husband believes we should not seek surgical help because "it is God's will." He is a strong-minded person, but I am beginning to feel that I must stand up to him. I'm sure I can do it with encouragement from you.

Is there a doctor or a clinic in the East who can make our little girl look less grotesque? I'm not expecting a miracle, just some surgery that will put her more in the class of a normal child. I'll find the money somehow.

Please print your advice in the paper because I can't take a chance on receiving a letter from Ann Landers. He opens everything. I am not concerned that he will recognize this letter as mine because he hasn't read anything but the Racing Form for ten years.

Thank you, Ann, and God bless. — A Mother.

Dear Mother: By all means, stand up to your husband. And do so at once. If you permit him to intimidate you with that nonsense about "God's will" you must bear part of the guilt for not at least attempting to get your child the help she needs.

Nursery School Supervisor speaks at W.I. meeting

Mrs. S. Coyle, supervisor of the Nursery schools at Chesterville was guest speaker at the Chesterville Women's Institute meeting on Monday evening.

Her address was most informative and enlightening as she compared Day Care Centers and Nursery Schools. Day Care Centers have a larger age deferential, babies to children 5½ years old, whereas Nursery school is from 3 years to Kindergarten age.

More professional help is required in Nursery Schools. The local Nursery is licensed for twenty children with a staff of two teachers and one helper.

The chief aim of nursery school is self developement. Even at this early age, in the example of finger painting, the colours a child would choose indicate their feelings whether it is happiness and joy or anger and resentment.

Also present was Mrs. Carole Bodzin, who joined Mrs. Coyle and told how the Nursery school here was started. Mrs. Bodzin, now living near Chesterville, came from a district where there were nursery school facilities and having children nearing Nursery school age, she investigated the proper channels to see if interest warranted such a school and as a result the Nursery school was established.

A film strip of the Nursery school's Christmas party was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Mrs. D. Wells and Mrs. Chas. Graham assisted by Mrs. B. Kennedy and Mrs. Robert Gilroy were convenors of this Education and Cultural Activities program.

The roll call "Name a needed local improvement" was answered by 27 members and guests. The president Miss M. Casselman, felt that some of these suggestions should be given to the Chamber of Commerce for review.

Mrs. Chas Graham read the minutes of previous meetings. Correspondence included several "Thank You" notes in appreciation of "shut in" remembrances, also a letter listing articles for W. I. display for The Ottawa Exhibition was shelved until the next meeting.

Miss M. Casselman read a detailed report on the progress of the Senior Citizens Housing Project.

The treasurer reported that more than five hundred dollars, the proceeds from the Carnival supper had been turned over to the Recreation Committee.

A committee consisting of Mesdames E. Casselman, D. Wells, Albert Smith and G. Smith was chosen to convene the luncheon for the Regional Hospital Conference to be held in April.

Mrs. D. Wells reported on the present 4-H Homemaking Club. Some of the stitches required were on display. Achievement day to be the 10th of May.

Miss Janice McCadden delighted the ladies with a piano solo. She chose two Conservatory selections namely, a "Waltz" and "Bagatelle" by Beethoven. Janice was thanked by Mrs. Graham.

Following the Queen, a social time was enjoyed.

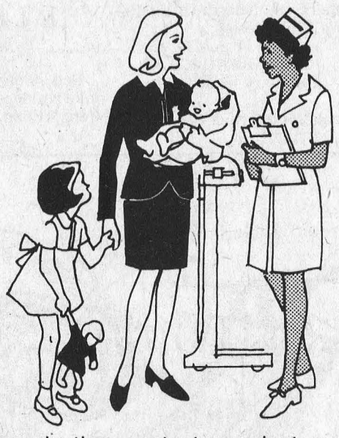
Protect your children against disease, through immunization.

This is what Ontario is doing to help you.



Immunization protects against polio, diphtheria, measles, rubella (German measles), whooping cough, smallpox and tetanus. Although often considered to be "childhood diseases," they are anything but minor—measles, for instance, can lead to encephalitis (brain disease), a cause of retardation!

Here in Ontario, the Ministry of Health provides the vaccines and your Ontario Health Insurance Plan (OHIP) pays a fee to the physician for administering them.

But the responsibility for immunization—for making sure your children are protected—is still up to you. Have your children immunized by your family physician. Or, for school age children, use school immunization programs provided by Health Units.

Immunization is quick and convenient—vaccines against several diseases are often combined. And the only way to control these diseases is to immunize as many people as possible.

Your Ontario Government is doing its share—by providing vaccines and paying for immunization through OHIP.

Do your share—make sure your children are immunized. Consult your family physician, public health nurse or local medical officer of health.

A free booklet on immunization is available, with a chart showing what diseases your children should be immunized against, and at what ages. For your copy, write to:

Carnival Capers at St. Mary's

The annual Carnival Capers and learning experiences were the highlights at St. Mary's School in Chesterville during the past week.

Throughout the week the children participated in activities of their own choice, such as Creative Writing, Graphing, Poster Making, Art, Baking, etc. A vote by ballot decided the choice of the children for the Primary and Junior Kings, Queens, Princes and Princess.

A school assembly was finally held on Thursday afternoon, at which time judges from Room 5 announced the winner of each learning activity. This allowed the children to share their ideas and experiences with others.

Some of the objectives behind the planning of Carnival Day at St. Mary's School were: to develop the social skills of sharing, cooperating, helping, respecting leadership, good sportmanship and fair play; to develop the act of making decisions; to develop an understanding of the history of the carnival and to develop through discovery, specific facts regarding the organization of a carnival; certain activities may stimulate personal initiative, allow the child the responsibility of leadership, help the child to gain self-awareness, and further develop the child's creativity.

Friday saw the culmination of the week's program with stress placed on the physical aspect. The morning consisted of various events such as relay races, toboggan races, tug-of-war, etc. The children were then treated to a noon-hour luncheon of hot dogs and hot chocolate, after which everyone proceeded to the Chesterville Arena for the afternoon program. While at the arena, free skating was enjoyed by everyone, after which the children challenged the teachers to games of broomball and hockey.

One of the highlights of the Winter Carnival held at St. Mary's School, Chesterville is the Crowning of the "Kings and Queens". This year there was an added feature giving the crownings an extra degree of elegance, Miss Ann Thompson, Chesterville Carnival Queen was on hand to perform the official duties. 'All About Oil'

It's that time again and the same old problem, what to write about. You know this writing business, it's something like feeding voracious sharks — it's a never-ending proposition, the readers are always hungry and you have to come up with something different every week. Mind you, I'm not complaining, it's a fascinating challenge.

This week I thing I'll take a shot at high finance and big business and money. Never having had a lot of money, I don't see why I shouldn't have some good opinions on the subject. Lots of politicians don't know anything about running a country but they get elected and try, sometimes with success, sometimes without success.

It will be interesting to see if in the future the Federal Government's decision to back the controversial Syncrude Project, in northern Alberta, was a good plan or not.

I, for one, think the Federal government should be involved in that project and by putting a large sum of money into it they would be protecting the interests of all Canadians in the future, from outside influences, that can and may affect their lives. After all, our resources are not as limitless as we think. Sure, at the moment we may have oil to burn, but the day will surely come when we have neither the money nor the oil, to burn, and then we will be at the mercy of those countries that have an abundance of oil.

The old law of 'supply and demand' is always going to be with us, just as sure as death and taxes. So it's up to us, and our government, to look to the future.

One aspect of the oil situation, that is quite often overlooked, is not just the use of oil, and its by-products such as gasoline and fuel oils, but lubricating oils. If the day should come after burning the sticky stuff for years, or making gasoline out of it to be used in such an inefficient gas-consuming machine, as a car engine . . . the flow should dry up. What will we use to lubricate the moving parts of our highly mechanized industries?

In the World War of 1939-45, Germany had to resort to making synthetic oil, and found it costly to process. When Germany's oil supplies and synthetic supplies were systematically destroyed, the tanks and guns in the fields became useless and were easily handled by the allies, who didn't have the same oil shortage problem.

When oil stops, machines stop — whether they be cars, tractors, looms, lathes, drills or what have you.

One interesting aspect of the Syncrude project is the projected cost to build the plants to get the oil out of the tar sands and into the refineries, so that it can be converted into the products to which we have been accustomed.

At present the experts claim it costs about 15c per barrel to get oil from the vast underground pools. When it has been processed and finally reaches the market, gasoline and lubricating oil, it costs the customer 60c to 70c per gallon and a dollar a quart for a can of oil. That's inflation for you! But if you think that is high, then as the fellow said "stick around a while, you ain't seen nothing yet".

According to the experts, that are saying that there is something like 22,000,000,000 barrels of oil in the tar sands, which should last us for many years to come, we will never run out. Thank God for that, I can now go to bed and rest a whole lot easier with that comforting thought in mind. At least I thought I could, go to bed and rest easy that is. But then I remember the kicker they also attached to the project . . . the fact that despite all our technology and knowledge it will cost about twenty times as much to extract the oil from the tar sands as it does today to get it from conventional oil fields.

I mentioned before the figure of 15c per barrel to get the oil from deep in the earth. So using the figure as a guideline it will cost $3.00 per barrel to process the oil from the tar sands. By the time it gets on the market, at that rate, we will be paying $12.00 a gallon for gas and $20.00 a quart for oil.

I only hope I'm wrong and they figure out a way to keep on selling our gas and oil to us at a price we can afford. One thing for sure, it would make Christmas shopping a lot easier. Just imagine opening your Christmas presents and finding that dear Aunt Matilda, the rich one on your mother's side, the one with the wart on her nose, has sent you a case of oil. But then, she was always partial to you and never did fail to send you something expensive. But you never dreamt, for a moment, that she would think of sending you a case of oil. I wonder if it will be safe to keep the oil in the house until morning when the bank opens. Bless her heart, maybe next year she will send me some, gas and I can see if the car still runs . . . its been ages since it did.
