Winchester to pioneer adult literacy program

by Andy McLeister
Press Staff Reporter

CORNWALL — Winchester will serve as the laboratory to test an innovative program for teaching adults how to read and write and, if it works here, the system could spread from coast to coast.

The Cornwall-based Tri-County Literacy Council is establishing a satellite branch in Winchester that could serve as a model to revolutionize literacy programs across the country, according to the organization's executive director and co-ordinator. "The rest of Canada will be looking at Winchester," Dina McGowan said Monday.

An information meeting is scheduled for April 19 in the Winchester Municipal Building, starting at 7pm. There, prospective volunteers will learn more about details of the program and be given the opportunity to meet the pilot project's co-ordinator, Claire Bonneville.

The program will need unpaid tutors and other volunteers to form a board of directors to oversee the local program, McGowan said. Tutors are all trained in the "Laubach way to reading" system and are carefully screened before being matched with a student. To become tutors, persons need not be certified teachers or carry any other special credentials beyond an ability to read and write.

The Canadian branch of Laubach International - a worldwide organization devoted to promoting literacy - is providing $21,000 in seed money to get the Winchester project off the ground, McGowan said.

A unique aspect of the Winchester program is a plan to expand on the one-on-one philosophy the Laubach system uses to teach adults with reading and numeracy disabilities. A group-to-group concept will be pioneered here with the Cornwall council assisting Winchester organizers in establishing its program, McGowan indicated.

This will, hopefully, enable the local project to avoid some of the growing pains the tri-county council experienced when it was founded four years ago, McGowan said. With Bonneville providing liaison between Winchester and the council, the local group will be advised on how to set up the program, recruit volunteer tutors, establish a board of directors, and access funding from government and private sources. (The tri-county council currently operates on a $42,000 grant from the provincial Skills Development Ministry.)

McGowan is confident that this buddy system between Cornwall and Winchester will ultimately result in the local program becoming totally self-supporting. Indeed, the local group could in future be called upon to pass on the lessons it learned to other groups.

"Why re-invent the wheel everytime we set up a new branch?" mused McGowan.

The council's executive director pointed out that the Canadian and provincial branches of Laubach now rely on field workers to bring English language literacy training to locations

Local man admits assault

OTTAWA — A Winchester man will be sentenced Sept. 10 after pleading guilty in an Ottawa court Monday to sexually assaulting a 16-year-old girl.

Jeffrey Windsor, 27, will undergo psychological assessment prior to sentencing.

Windsor was charged with sexual assault two weeks after a young girl was handcuffed, blindfolded, forced into roadside bushes and raped near Burritt's Rapids last Oct. 29. The court heard the girl had been cycling about three kilometres north of Burritt's Rapids when a balaclava-clad Windsor confronted her.

When an OPP officer returned to the scene two weeks after the assault in search of more evidence, he met Windsor, who was hunting with a bow and arrow nearby. A balaclava was found in the back of Windor's pickup truck.

Twenty jobs could be lost to stiff global competition

CHESTERVILLE — Twenty jobs could be cut at Nestle Enterprises Ltd. here, says the plant manager.

Jim Cummings said the cuts are aimed at increasing the company's competitiveness with foreign manufacturers. Increased global competition from coffee manufacturers has forced Nestle's to streamline operations to keep its strong market position.

During contract negotiations in January, the company warned its workers the Chesterville plant might close due to increased competition from U.S. manufacturers arising from free trade and pressure from manufacturers worldwide, if the workers didn't give it the power to streamline operations.

The key issue in the negotiations was Nestle's insistence to remove a clause which protects jobs. The clause which is not included in the workers' contract, requires the company to consult the union before changing job classifications. Workers maintained at the time that if the clause was removed, the company would cut jobs to become more efficient.

Nestle workers were informed by letter last week, the company must be more customer-oriented, ensure superior quality, provide dependable delivery of products and be innovative and flexible.

While Cummings acknowledged jobs will be trimmed, he said the company will also look at other ways to keep its foothold on the world market.

New product lines may be investigated and workers could be redeployed in other areas of production. A consulting firm will begin a review of factory operations this week to determine how to increase efficiency to secure a bigger share of the world market.

Cummings said it is "a well known fact" that up to 20 jobs could be lost through the reclassification of positions. Workers were told during contract negotiations, jobs might be cut through the removal of the reclassification clause.

He would not say if more jobs could be lost after consultants Peat Marwick Stevenson and Kellogg complete an operation's review. It will likely take up to a year for a final report to be completed, he said.

Cutting jobs can't be avoided, said Cummings. "That's part of the whole process. No one likes doing away with jobs."

No new clues found

PRESCOTT — The search for baby Joshua continues after police pumped out a septic tank at the former home of a Winchester Springs man charged in connection with her death.

According to OPP investigators, the pump-out turned up no new evidence in their search for the child believed shot to death in Augusta Township about three years ago. With the search now in its fourth week, police continue to look for Joshua's body around the stone house in Throopville where the man charged with her murder once lived with his family and common-law wife. They are also continuing their search of a cemetery across the road from the house.

William Elliott, 25, of Winchester Springs was charged with murder in the case and faces a preliminary hearing May 14. He was charged March 2 and has been since released on bail.

Elliott is among six males, including two juveniles, so far charged with 37 counts of physical and sexual assault.

Thousands sign parks petition

TORONTO — A 6,700 name petition protesting the closure of five area parks and campgrounds was presented to the Ontario Legislature Thursday by SD&G and East Grenville MPP Noble Villeneuve.

But the future of the five parks, ranging from as far east as Charlottenburgh Township and west to Prescott, remains uncertain, at least for this year.

The St. Lawrence Parks Commission announced the closure of Farran Park, Morrison-Nairne and Brown's Bay campgrounds and Charlottenburgh and Grenville Parks, Feb. 18. The commission said the five parks had low occupancy rates and were the least profitable of its operations.

Members of the Help Save Our Parks Committee and Villeneuve met with Tourism Minister Ken Black Thursday to persuade him to keep the parks open. Although he was sympathetic to people's concerns, the minister said he had no power to reverse the commission's decision, Villeneuve said.

The main contention of those opposing the closures is the parks commission doesn't have the mandate to do this. According to Villeneuve and Save the Parks committee members, the commission only has the authority to maintain and upgrade parks and promote tourism.

"I think they (provincial officials) have asked for some clarification from their solicitors regarding the total mandate of the parks commission, and I think that's got them scratching their heads a little bit."

The fact that area residents gathered petitions and took them to Toronto personally to ensure their concerns were heard, made an impact on the minister, Villeneuve said.

"The little comments that were made (and) they were all in different handwriting, wasn't

Students win national berth

Young scientists' project charts traffic in school hallways

by Jim Day
News Editor

MAPLE RIDGE — For about four months, fellow North Dundas District High School students were simply numbers to Kevin McCargar.

McCargar, 17, of Mountain teamed up with Chesterville's Ivan Bowman, also 17, last year for a project they entered in the SD&G Science Fair held recently at St. Lawrence College in Cornwall. They placed in the top four projects overall and are now preparing their display for the Canada-wide Science Fair in Windsor May 13 to 19. They also received the gold research award and were best in the Math or Computer Science Category.

The pair's project is aimed at determining the movement of students throughout the school. By calculating the density of students in different areas of the school and the length of time they stay there, certain observations can be made which may be useful for expansion or the construction of a new school.

Where to locate fire exits, water fountains and lockers are among the considerations which could be added to school planning, the duo explained of the data's usefulness.

The numbers were gathered by McCargar, who spent day after day sitting in locations throughout the school trying not to be noticed in case curious students, seeing him collect data, might change their natural patterns.

"It shows how a chaotic system can be tabled accurately," said McCargar, of recording the steady flow of traffic through the high school's halls.

Assessing the data was left to Bowman, who said his calculations were based on "an extreme scientific method."

Bowman noted a developer told him planning for construction isn't usually based even in part on the anticipated movement of people through a building. But Bowman contends it is important to collect the data they have when designing institutions such as schools.

"One judge (at the SD&G Science Fair) suggested we bring our work to a mall," said Bowman in explaining the possible marketability behind their project. "If we had the time and resources it would be interesting" to see how they could apply their person-motion work in other areas.

Bowman, who is holding a 93 per cent average in Grade 13, and McCargar with a 83 per cent average in Grade 12, have both set their sights on university. Bowman is planning to pursue a career as a computer analyst and McCargar would like to be a nuclear or chemical engineer.

"We're very science-oriented," said Bowman. "It's something we can do very well at."

Holding down high averages in school which allow the option to pursue university training in a science field is no easy task, the pair agree.

"It's very difficult," said Bowman. "You have to be very organized." The project, which the pair hopes will be rewarded with at least honorable mention at the Canada-wide Science Fair, also taught McCargar and Bowman "organizational skills."

"You have to have priorities," added McCargar. "School work comes first."

However, McCargar and Bowman admitted their current project has redirected some of their attention away from other high school work. The partners agree they have a lot of work to do in improving their project to make it more competitive in the upcoming national science fair.

"It's a good project but I know there (will be) a lot of really good projects there," said Bowman.

The area was also well represented at the SD&G Science Fair by a number of other local students.

Winchester's Troy Acres of St. Bernard School, received the Best Atom award for top Grade 6 student and also took home a silver medal for his erosion display. St. Bernard Grade 6 students Jill Byvelds and Tracy McMartin, both of Chesterville, received a bronze medal for their project on tropism. They were also tops in the botany category.

Grade 8 student Brendan Shane of Winchester Springs took home excellence in agricultural science honors and a silver medal for his project on hydroponics.

Maple Ridge Grade 7 student Andrea Sharkey of Chesterville won the science and development award and also placed a bronze finish with her project on the Amazon rain forest.

Literacy

outside major urban centres. The organization will be closely monitoring the Winchester project to see how effective it becomes.

While Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry school boards do operate literacy programs, McGowan noted that these usually involve teaching adults to read and write in a group or classroom setting, unlike the tri-county's one tutor to one student philosophy. She stressed that negative classroom experiences are often at the root of an illiterate's handicap, and he/she would be reluctant to return to a school setting.

The one-on-one or "each one teach one" method of teaching reading and writing was developed by Doctor Frank Laubach - for whom the international organization is named - whose life's work involved teaching literacy in Third World countries.

As McGowan tells it, the missionary ran short of funds while teaching tribesmen in the jungles of the Philippines and had to leave his students. So the tribal chief called together the men of the tribe and ordered those who had been taught by Laubach to instruct the others. "Each one teach one," the chief decreed, and as an incentive he promised that those who co-operated could keep their heads.

In the Laubach system, each tutor receives about 12 hours of training initially with more in-service training while they remain with the program, McGowan said. They are matched with a compatible student, ideally one with whom they share a similar background and common interests, she added.

The tri-county council feels there is a need in the Winchester area and the rest of rural SD&G for literacy training. Of the approximately 80 tutor-student matches currently registered with the council, about one-quarter are from outside the city of Cornwall, McGowan estimated.

If figures for the province apply here, and McGowan feels they do, about 24 per cent of the population in SD&G are functionally illiterate, and this estimate may be conservative. She noted that while Statistics Canada figures include only those people who have eight years or less of formal education, the council's students usually have completed between nine and 12 years of schooling.

The 1987 Southam Literacy Survey concluded that as many as five million adult Canadians are functionally illiterate. The survey's findings refute government claims that four million cannot read or write adequately.

The council's typical student is male, between 25 and 45 years old, and has attended school for between nine and 12 years. McGowan said that, surprisingly, some students have even attended college and university yet their reading and writing skills still are not up to acceptable standards.

Petition

just someone who took down a phone book and wrote some names. It was a very, very...legitimate and concerned petition that was presented."

Up until Thursday, Black could have easily dismissed area residents' concerns. But it is a little more difficult now, said Villeneuve.

"I think he didn't realize this is a petition that is very much for real and it's not the last he's heard about it."

The group told Black there wasn't enough time given in the announcement of the parks closures to allow municipalities to take them over. "It was really springing it on them at short notice."

Concern was also expressed about washroom facilities in some parks not meeting ministry of environment standards. The facilities would need to be upgraded before the parks open, meaning a major expense for any municipality taking over the park.

"If you dump that onto a municipality, you certainly have to allow that there's going to be money spent."

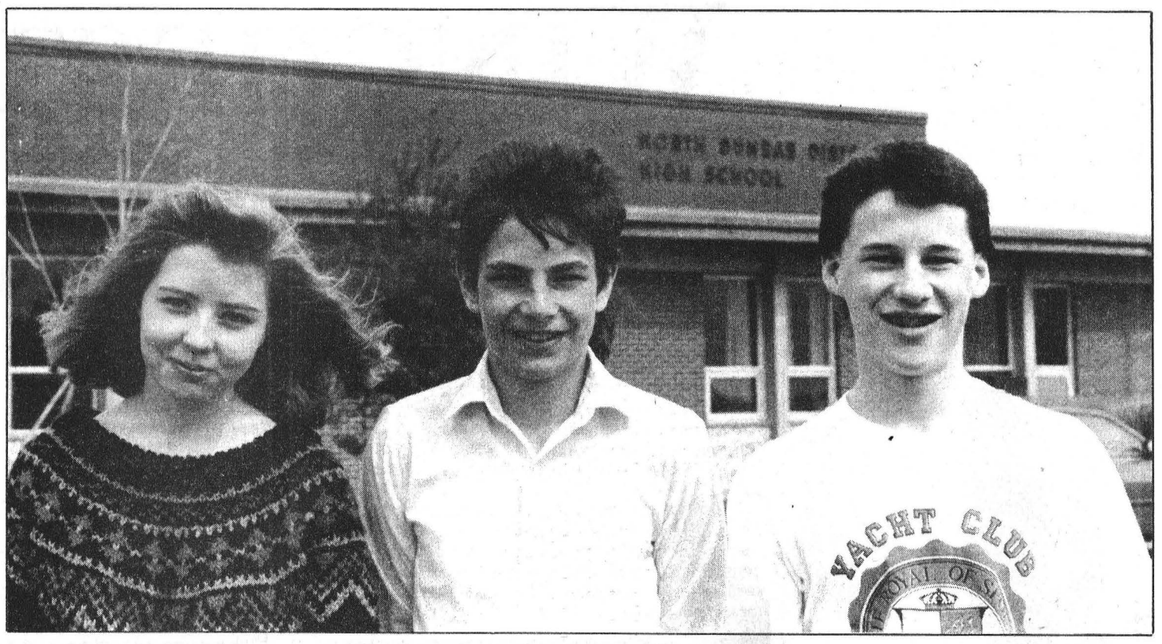
As well, because the municipalities had such short notice of the closures, planning for hiring summer students to work at the parks is impossible.

Villeneuve also suggested the parks be operated by municipalities under a 20-year lease so if money is invested, the municipality can ensure its investment will be returned.

Elliott said the future of the parks, at least for this year, will depend on what the government's legal department's ruling on the parks commission mandate is. "It's a very, very grey area and very questionable area."

He said the tourism minister was "very dismayed" that there are different sets of figures concerning the attendance of the five closed parks. He was also surprised to learn tourism in the area was on the upswing last year.

"I kind of feel he (Black) wasn't fed the information that should have been fed to him," Elliott said.



More than fair

These North Dundas District High School students helped their school finish first among all SD&G schools' Grade 10s and sixth in Eastern Ontario in the junior math portion of the 1990 Canadian Mathematics Competition. Marty Van Lanen, 15, centre, had the highest individual score in SD&G and combined with the solid efforts of Christa Wallbridge, 16, and Doug O'Connor, 15, to place first in the tri-county. NDDHS' Grade 11s managed a second place finish in SD&G and a fifth place in Eastern Ontario. Top scorers were Jason Schoenfield, 16, Mark St. Pierre, 16, and Rob Wallbridge, 17. The Grade 11s placed fifth in SD&G and 18th in Eastern Ontario. Top scorers were Heidi Rachel, 15, Ted Wallbridge, 14, and Laura Hoogenboom, 14. There were some 62,132 students from Grades 9, 10 and 11 competing in the challenge day Feb. 21. Elementary and senior students who write their versions of the competition later in the spring, will add a further 80,000 competitors for a total in excess of 140,000 students across the country who will attempt mathematics' contests this year. While the topic is mathematics, the competition appeals to outstanding students with a variety of interests, and in addition to many who have proceeded to careers in the mathematical and technological areas, there are large numbers who have gone on to successful studies in medicine, business administration, humanities, and many other areas of study.

Motion for Bill 8 hearings defeated

TORONTO — The Liberal government has defeated a motion by the PC Caucus to hold public hearings into how the French Language Services Act (Bill 8) is being implemented across the province.

Noble Villeneuve, MPP for Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, says he's personally disappointed that the government would not encourage a full discussion over the controversial language law.

"I believe recent events have shown us there is a misunderstanding of Bill 8," says Villeneuve. "In light of this, I would have thought the government would be in favor of 'clearing the air'."

This PC motion called upon the government of Ontario to establish as soon as possible an all-party committee of the legislature to travel across the province this summer to receive public input on the administrative guidelines, regulations and implementation of the French Language Services Act, 1986 (Bill 8).

Playhouse sets lineup for new season

MORRISBURG — Marshall Button, artistic director of Upper Canada Playhouse has announced the 1990 season's lineup. Dedicated to producing at least one new play each season, Button brings the excitement of a world premiere, and an Ontario premiere.

Six shows round out the company's seventh season. In order of appearance; Cindi Rella, Seduced by moonlight, Battle fatigue, The school show, I do! I do! and Lucien.

Cindi Rella (for young audiences), opens June 18: by Stephen Kirwin and Nancy Ahern. The classic tale of Cinderella and her mean stepsisters takes on a new look as the story is retold by two clowns who have their own lively musical version. One evening performance will be included with a series of school matinees.

Seduced by Moonlight (world premiere), opens June 23: by Claire Harrison and Clive Doucet. Set in a remote winter cabin, a husband and wife romance writing team try to cure their writer's block and patch up their marriage. The cabin is not the chalet they expected, and characters in their novel keep coming to life, creating one hilarious scene after another.

Battle Fatigue (Ontario premiere), opens July 13: by Jenny Munday. A daughter visits her mother for a quick cup of coffee. An old photograph sparks some dazzling memories and this modern sophisticate learns what her mother was — before she was a mother. A docu-drama about women's role in World War II.

The School Show opens July 31: by Ted Johns. A one-man comedy performed by David Jacklin artistic director of Perth Summer Theatre, deals with a small community torn apart during a labor dispute between teachers and the local board of education, and highlights the reaction of a variety of characters.

I do! I do! opens Aug. 14: by Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt. A heart-warming musical taking the audience through the laughter and tears of 50 years of marriage. Mark Morton, former artistic director of the Playhouse, returns to the role of Michael. (Adapted from The Fourposter by Jan Hartog).

Lucien (six nights only), opens Aug. 28: written and performed by Marshall Button, the same old Acadian millworker with updated material. Guaranteed laughter.

Mountain Musings

by Shirley Mills

I saw a shocking statistic recently — five million Canadians can't read or write. The Literacy Council, with help from the Ministry of Skills Development, is trying to do something about this, but perhaps those of us who have the ability to read can also help.

Volunteers are needed to help with the adult literacy program, which brings to those who cannot read a wonderful gift — independence. It perhaps allows a tradesman to look for brand names in a store and not be restricted to what is on display; a person could follow knitting or embroidery instructions; to read street signs and find the right house by the number on it; or to order after reading the menu.

Tutors are needed from all levels of society. Training, a support back-up system and appropriate matching between tutors and students are provided. This is a one-to-one program with confidentiality guaranteed. So if you would like to share your ability to read with someone, there are a couple of things you can do.

The Tri-County Literacy Council is located in Cornwall, but its members are trying to set up groups in local areas for ease in tutoring sessions. Claire Bonneville (Cornwall) at 932-5121 or 932-7161 will be glad to give you more information. In the meantime, a meeting will be held in the Municipal Hall in Winchester on Thurs., April 19 at 7pm, to provide information about this program. If you can volunteer some time, or you know of someone who might benefit from such a program, plan to attend.

The Rummage Sales are starting and these provide a good opportunity to clear out those unwanted garments and the things you don't want to wear again this summer. There will be a spring rummage sale at the Inkerman United Church on Fri., April 20 from 7-9pm and on Sat., April 21 from 9am-11am.

Osgoode firemen receive recognition for service

METCALFE — On Sat., April 7, 1990 at an informal potluck dinner and dance held at the Metcalfe Lions Den, the following certificates were presented by Fire Chief Peter Griffin as his last official duty before retirement on April 30, 1990.

For five years service: Charles Laurin, Denis Morand, Pascal Tesser, Paul Sonnichsen, Dan Prest, Henry Zirbser, Richard Auprix, Gordon Bracken, Albert Ethier and Andrew Orchard.

For 10 years service: Grant Watson, Doug Cook, Cecil Stanley, Pat McGoff, Scott Campbell, Bob McDougall, Bruce Griffin and Bob Heath.

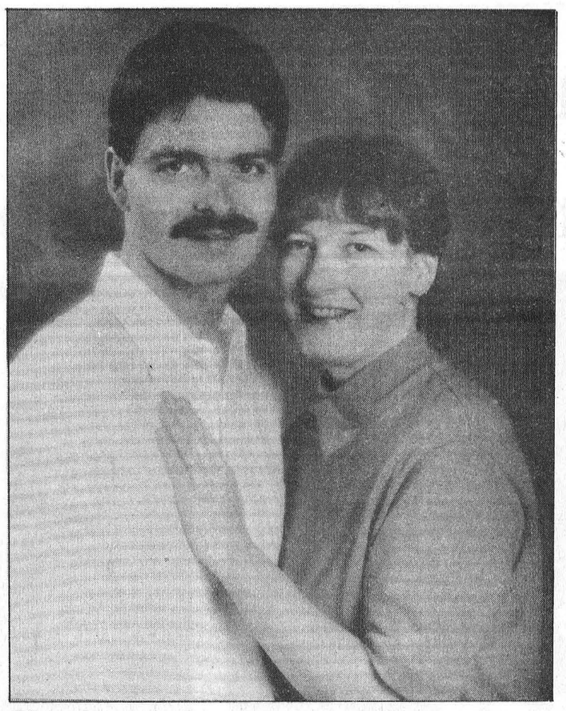
For 15 years service: Beric Roberts.

For 20 years service: Fred Meinert.

Passed probation: Thom Fuller, Sean Cook, Jim Haldane, Adrian Dearman, Rob Ney, Paul Charron, Dan Lawrie, Ken Carlson and Don Gamble.

Certificate of appreciation (on retirement): Barry Alexander (also given departmental retirement plaque), Jeff Kuiack and Jean Martel.

Certificate for hours of specialized training: Beric Roberts, Pascal Tesser, Bob Heath, Dan Prest, Grant Watson, Doug Cook, Cecil Stanley, Bruce Griffin, Scott Campbell, Henry Zirbser, Fred Meinert and Pat McGoff.



Hartley — Jampen

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hartley of Fredericton, N.B. are pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter, Eleanor Anne, to Ruedi Jampen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Jampen of Mountain, Ontario. The wedding will take place on May 12 in New Brunswick.

Joseph Lucien Boisvenue

Joseph Lucien (Gene) Boisvenue, a former employee of the Town of Winchester, passed away in the Crysler Residence on April 4, 1990. He was 76 years old.

Mr. Boisvenue was born in South Plantagenet Township on Sept. 16, 1913, the son of the late Napoleon Boisvenue and Ethel Racine.

He was a member of the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 108

Mr. Boisvenue is survived by sisters Lucille Wicks of Winchester, Laura Wicks of Morrisburg and brothers Albert and Florient of Cornwall. He is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held in the J.R. Vice Funeral Home in Winchester on April 6 with Rev. Jim Mills officiating. Cremation followed.

Ada Elizabeth Carlyle

Ada Elizabeth Carlyle, a resident of Winchester and a former retail store clerk, passed away in Winchester Hospital on April 1, 1990.

Mrs. Carlyle was born in Mountain, the daughter of the late William H. Allen and Martha Adams. In 1943 she married Robert M. Carlyle, who predeceased her in 1971, in Hallville United Church.

Mrs. Carlyle is survived by sisters Edythe Allen of Winchester and Viola (Mrs. Hedley Wood) of Agincourt. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by sisters Martha Meunier and Idella Kennedy and her brother Rae.

Mrs. Carlyle graduated from an Ottawa Business School College and worked for Henry Birk's Jewelery in Montreal for several years. She was a devout member of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Winchester.

Funeral services were held at the J.R. Vice Funeral Home in Winchester on April 3 with Rev. Ian Johnston of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church officiating.

Pallbearers were Ernie Risebrough, Byron Edney, William Smith and Jim Allen.

Interment is at Reid's Mills Cemetery.

Spring into summer

North Dundas District High School's 1990 prom committee presented its second annual fashion show last Wednesday. $1,500 was raised during two showings, afternoon and evening, of the latest in fashion. Clothing, courtesy of Winchester's CountryBoy, CountryGirl and Country Attic shop, ranged from beach wear and casual to young men's and ladies' formal prom attire. From left to right, Ms. Acheson, Cathy Allison and Craig Lyon, Tania Lobb and Richard Hamelin were among the 24 models (students and staff) taking part in NDDHS '90, 'Spring into Summer'.

Christie classic set to go

RUSSELL — Suspense and high-powered courtroom drama abound in the Russell Association for the Performing Arts' (RAPA) Chatterbox Productions' staging of Agatha Christie's Witness for the Prosecution. (Produced by special arrangement with Samuel French Inc.)

Performances will be on Fri., April 20 and Sat., April 21 at 7:30pm at Russell United Church in Russell. Tickets are $5 ($3 for seniors). They are available at the door or in advance at Russell's IDA Pharmacy, Castor Country Gallery, Millstream Crafts and Village Meat & Grocery.

This is the first undertaking of the association's adult drama arm. Founded in mid-1989, RAPA's first endeavor, Barbara Robinson's The Best Christmas Pageant Ever (staged before Christmas) was a production of its youth drama program.

A Winter Blues Gala in early March, was staged by its music arm, with proceeds going towards the Sterling Presley Memorial Music Scholarship. This scholarship will be awarded to two young Russell-area music students at a music festival on May 4-5 in Russell.

For further information, please call Susanna Cluff-Clyburne, 445-2915 or Julie Callon, 445-3244.

Let's get together.

Whatever your group wants to discuss, we're ready to join in.

We can discuss a broad range of topics, from how we turn PCBs into salt, to electricity savings, to energy options facing our community.

Osgoode library fund grows

OSGOODE — The building fund for the new Osgoode library is one step nearer its $30,000 goal. With the recent contribution of $1,000 by the seniors at the Osgoode Drop-In Centre, the total amount committed and raised is now up to $12,660.

Library board member George Royer is hopeful of a further $10,000 or so from the two fundraising projects of Raymond's Osgoode Confectionery and Paul and Joanne Saunders. Every Osgoode resident can add to the fund by purchasing gas at Raymond's (every litre sold will put one cent into the building fund) or by obtaining lawn and garden fertilizers from the Saunders (all profits will go to the fund).

Royer has also applied to the Ontario Real Estate Association Foundation for a grant which, if successful, will put another $5,000 to $7,000 in the kitty.

"It's been great to receive the support of local groups and some individuals," Royer said, "but I'd like to see more Osgoode people really involved in this project, especially the kids who are great library users." He hopes people will call him with some ideas.

"Some extra funds would allow us to purchase special equipment such as a new photocopier or computer for processing cards and books," he said. "There are many items which would enhance the new library and provide more services there for Osgoode residents."

Auctioneer set

OSGOODE — John MacCaskill has returned from Mason City, Iowa, where he completed a course at the World Wide College of Auctioneering (formerly Reisch Auction College), where Col. Gordon E. Taylor is president. He received training in all phases of auctioneering.

John also received on-the-spot training by selling at real public auction sales during the term where he demonstrated his ability as an auctioneer. There were 57 students who graduated from 19 States and Canada.

The World Wide College of Auctioneering is the largest college of its kind in the world, and has been operating for over 50 years with over 21,000 graduates.

John is fully qualified to conduct any, and all, types of auction sales using the most successful and advanced methods in the auction profession.

John and his wife Margaret, and their three children, live in the Osgoode area at Dalmeny, where his auctioneering office will be located.

Greely Cadets third in Ontario

by Ralph Dowling, CLO

GREELY — The National Cadet Biathlon competition was held in Petawawa from Feb. 24 to March 3, composed of cross-country skiing and shooting.

The Greely Cadets' team, consisting of Shawn Stewart (team captain), Tylor Brooks, Monique Paquette and Marc Osterholt, competed first in the Ontario Biathalon where they placed third, and went on to compete in the national competition where they placed 11th. Osterholt placed 15th in the individual event with 100 competitors.

All members excelled in marksmanship with Osterholt and Stewart achieving perfect scores.

During the week the cadets made many friends. All the teams went to Ottawa for a day-long tour of the capital and were honored at an awards banquet the final evening.

The teams were admirably coached by Captain Engyel of CFB Petawawa.

The Greely Cadets are recruiting members — it costs nothing and is lots of fun. We are especially looking for instrument players for the band.

Playhouse strikes deal

MORRISBURG — The Upper Canada Playhouse has reached a tentative agreement to purchase a building here as the new home for its theatre.

Odonto Corporation last week announced it has reached "an agreement in principle" with UCP over the sale of its property on Hwy. 2 in Morrisburg.

Further negotiations are still needed to ensure proper zoning and feasibility of converting the former toothbrush factory to a theatre, says UCP president Lily Worrall.

Worrall is hopeful the theatre will be in place at the new Morrisburg site by mid-May. The playhouse's season comes to a close Sept. 3.

The proposed theatre site could house 250 seats at first with expansion allowing for somewhere between 300 and 350.

"Greatly relieved," was Worrall's reaction to striking a deal for a new site. She was also praiseworthy of the effort made by Odonto General Manager Nick Lee in bringing the plan to fruition.

"(Odonto was) very helpful and very interested in bringing in a theatre here," she said.

UCP is awaiting word on possible government grants which could help ensure the playhouse is able to continue its operation in Morrisburg once it's under way.

Artistic director Marshall Buttons has said the playhouse needs to average over 200 persons per show to cover its $180,000 annual budget. It was a disappointing season last year with attendance averaging only 130 a night at the theatre's Cornwall location.

Following the poor season in 1989, UCP decided to move back west to Dundas County to regain some of its former patrons. The group moved to Cornwall last year to avoid making costly repairs to its tent theatre on Upper Canada Road, east of Morrisburg.

"Upper Canada Playhouse is excited about the proposal of moving to a permanent home," said Worrall.

Eight points give Gaels SD&G victory over North Dundas

MAPLE RIDGE — They made it three in a row here last Thursday.

The Glengarry District High School Gaels earned their third consecutive SD&G Gymnastics championship defeating the host North Dundas Devils by 8.35 points.

Led by the strong performances of Level I competitors Julie Brousseau and Donna Flaro; Level II athletes Lysanne Leger and Jennifer VanderWaude and EOSSA sensation Suzanne Glaude, the Gaels earned a meet-winning total of 307.35 points.

North Dundas' Devils received gold medal efforts from Level I girls Laura Hoogenboom and Catie Clapp and Level II competitor Tamara Bond as they piled up a total of 299 points.

A rejuvenated team from St. Lawrence High School placed third with 251.75 points while La Citadelle finished fourth with 139.35 points.

North Dundas' coach and SD&G competition organizer Fran Kelly made the medal presentations and congratulated the competitors for their efforts. She noted, with pleasure, the size of St. Lawrence's team this year and hoped the sport would continue to grow within the SD&G board.

As for her winning Devils, Kelly said, "I was pleased with the kids' efforts, and by in large pleased with the way everything turned out."

She also thought her kids did very well and noted 14 of her 15 athletes have qualified to attend this week's EOSSA championship.

Kelly figured probably, "eight or 10 girls will go."

North Dundas takes part in this year's EOSSA Meet in Deep River as runners-up having lost to Glengarry last year here at NDDHS. In 1988 North Dundas captured the EOSSA trophy defeating Glengarry 249 to 240.

This year's "SD&G Overall winners" in Level I were Julie Brousseau of Glengarry with 34.55 points. She edged out teammate Donna Flaro who earned 32.25 points. North Dundas' Lisa O'Connor was third at 24.6 points.

Level II's top athlete was Lysanne Leger of Glengarry with 31.8 points. She nipped fellow Gael Jennifer VanderWaude by .1 of a point (31.8 to 31.7). Two North Dundas girls, Tamara Bond (24.58) and Hazel Booth (23.55 pts.), finished third and fourth.

Janice Butters of St. Lawrence was top competitor at Level III earning 35.4 points. Rachelle Vallee of La Citadell picked up 34.55 points, Cynthia Wilson of Glengarry was third (33.3 pts.).

There was an upset in the final Level IV standings as La Citadelle's Aleisha Sabourin edged defending champ Suzanne Glaude of Glengarry 35.75 to 35.7.

EVENT RESULTS

UNEVEN BARS - North Dundas swept the top three placings in the Level I uneven bars competition.

Laura Hoogenboom took the gold medal with 8.7 points. Lisa O'Connor was a close second with 8.6 points and Stephanie VanGilst third with 8.5 points. Glengarry's Julie Brousseau was fourth at 8.4 points.

Jennifer VanderWaude of Glengarry took the Level II gold with an 8.5 mark. North Dundas' Nancy Houle was second at 8.2 points. Lysanne Leger (Glengarry) was third and North Dundas' Hazel Booth was fourth (7.6 pts).

Defending EOSSA uneven bars' champion Mary Theos of North Dundas had to settle for second place this year losing by .2 of a point to Janice Butters of St. Lawrence (9.1 to 8.9). Marsha Leslie was fourth with a mark of 8.6. Stephanie Fraser (Glengarry was third).

La Citadelle's Aleisha Sabourin topped the Level IV polls with a strong 9.2. Holley Riviere (St. Lawrence), Suzanne Glaude (Glengarry) and Jennifer Kulick (La Cit.) completed the top four.

VAULT

LEVEL I - North Dundas pulled off another three place sweep on the vault as Catie Clapp struck gold with an 8.1, Lisa O'Connor collected silver (7.9) and Stephanie VanGilst earned her second bronze (7.85) tying with Julie Brousseau of Glengarry.

Tamara Bond picked up North Dundas' third gold medal of the day earning an 8.5, best in the Level II rankings. Karrie Carpenter and Nadina Camplin of St. Lawrence posted the second best marks (8.15) while North Dundas received a bronze medal effort from Nancy Houle who collected an eight. Shane Duggan of Glengarry was fourth.

Janice Butters of Glengarry won the Level III competition polling 8.6 marks. La Citadelle's Rachelle Vallee was second while North Dundas placed Barbie Dowell third at 8.45 and Mary Theos fourth at 8.30.

Suzanne Glaude grabbed Level IV honours (9.2), Aleisha Sabourin was second, North Dundas' Karen Gilroy third with a very respectible 8.7. Marvin and Riviere of St. Lawrence tied for fourth.

FLOOR EXERCISES

North Dundas managed just a pair of silver medals on the mats.

Tamara Bond was second (8.6) to Karrie Carpenter (St. Law.) who earned 8.8 points at Level II.

Marsha Leslie came up with an 8.7 routine but was second to Rachelle Vallee of La Citadelle.

Chantal Ryan of La Citadelle was best at level I (8.4) while Glengarry's Suzanne Glaude topped the Level IV marks with a 9.2.

BALANCE BEAM

North Dundas picked up second, third and fourth place marks on the balance beam.

Hazel Booth was a strong second with 8.2 at Level II. Joy Roach was third in Level I (8.2) competition. Tamara Bond was third in Level II standings while Barbie Dowell's 8.3 was a fourth place mark in Level III.

The gold medal winners were Donna Theoret of Glengarry (8.6) at Level I, Lysanne Leger of Glengarry - Level II (8.5), Jennifer Wilson of Glengarry posted a 9.0 to win the Level III gold and St. Lawrence's Cori Marvin edged out Aleisha Sabourin and Suzanne Glaude for the Level IV gold.

Winchester chosen for tournament site

WINCHESTER — Winchester has been selected as the site of a very prestigious fastball event.

Winchester's 100 Club Community Park and its two diamonds will be the site of the Inter-City Fastball League's 1990 Eastern Interdivisional Softball Tournament June 8-10.

Manager Bill Hogaboam and his Winchester Dynes will help host and compete in the event which will bring Canada's strongest pitcher, Brad Underwood, to this village.

Underwood is the Canadian National Team's top pitcher and is currently considered the strongest pitcher in this country. Underwood and his team, Owen Sound, along with Port Perry, Bracebridge, Greenbank and Oshawa are the other teams coming from the Inter-City League to take part in this qualifying tournament.

The Inter-City Fastball League, the only fastball organization in Ontario sanctioned by the International Softball Congress, accepted five area teams last week as an Eastern Division - The Carp Valley Pride, Turpin Pontiacs, Bernwood Contractors, Winchester Dynes and Rideau Valley Pioneers (Manotick Juniors). These local clubs and the five teams from the Inter-City fastball league will compete here in June and then return to Oshawa in July to play the second half of the qualification.

"We're very pleased with the set-up of the league and we are excited about having the tournament in Winchester," said Carp Valley Pride president Jim Taylor.

"Winchester has a class facility and it is a great fastball town," Taylor added. "There is great support for fastball in the small towns, and with the Dynes involved, we hope to make this the biggest softball event the Ottawa area has ever seen - especially with Underwood (Brad) coming. It should be a real treat to see some of the pitching match-ups."

Dynes manager Bill Hogaboam is eagerly awaiting the Inter-City tournament and figures the five area clubs hosting it should be able to raise enough money to fund their return trip to Oshawa.

He is hoping at the same time that fastball fans don't overlook another tournament slated for Winchester.

"I hope our (Dynes) tournament goes over well," he commented Tuesday.

The Dynes will host a 16-team intermediate fastball tournament May 25, 26, 27 and are offering $1,500 to the winner. All of the Eastern Ontario Fastball League teams are automatically committed to play here so Hogaboam guarantees excellent fastball will be played.

The Ault Foods-sponsored Dynes are hoping to fund a large portion of their 1990 campaign with revenue generated from their tourney in May.

"Surely fans will want to watch both tourneys, it will be good ball, the best in Ontario," the Dynes' player-manager added.

"Our league (the Eastern Ontario fastball League) and the Inter-City League are the two strongest leagues in the province without a doubt," said EOFL president Peter Freamo.

The EOFL replaced the Valley Senior Fastball League this year and added the top three teams from the Ottawa Carleton Intermediate League. "Having the leagues affiliate was a natural progression, and it will open a lot of doors for all the teams involved.

Colts skip to championship

SHERBROOKE, PQ — A Winchester Curling Club rink, skipped by Martin Hagedorn, came within a win of earning the 1990 Canadian Branch Colts "A" Event championship.

Hagedorn, vice Dan MacMartin, second Brian Clement and lead Harry Thompson won their zone competition, defeating three opponents in a playdown recently in Gananoque. They extended their win string to five straight here in Sherbrooke defeating Lachine 11-7 and Gananoque 8-5 before losing their one and only Colts' match.

Sherbrooke doubled Winchester 8-4 in an "A" event semi-final and dropped them into the "B" flite.

The Hagedorn foursome rebounded with a 10-2 semi-final victory over a team out of the Royal Montreal Curling Club and wrapped up the "B" event championship doubling a Lacolle Curling Club representative 8-4.

Winchester received the Mount Royal Trophy as winners of the "B" event. Sherbrooke, the only rink to put a blemish on Winchester's record, eventually was awarded the "A" event's Royal Montreal 150 trophy.

The Canadian Branch Colts' competition is geared for curlers with less than five years of experience. A total of 16 teams from Ontario and Quebec competed in this year's event. All of the teams entered had previously won their district competitions.

A special presentation was made by the Branch Colt committee to seven-month-old Stacey MacMartin who received a curling pin for being the youngest supporter at this year's championship. Stacey is the daughter of Dan (Winchester third) and Debbie MacMartin.

Huslers, Outlaws win tournament

OSGOODE — Two of 16 teams emerged from the four day, sixth annual Kamikazes Hockey Tournament with perfect records.

The Winchester based Harvex Huslers and Osgoode Outlaws skated to division championships here over the weekend.

Harvex won all four games, outscored their opponents 17-5 and claimed the Over 35 Samurai Division championship. This year's win marked the fourth time in five years Harvex has captured the championship. South Carleton derailed the Huslers in the 1989 competition.

The Outlaws downed the Osgoode Pypers 4-1 in the Hari Kari showdown to become 1990 Open Division champs.

Harvex trimmed Osgoode Old Pride 6-1 in their championship match. Goalie Kevin Baldwin missed his shutout by a goal when Rug Pritchard snapped a shot in off the right goalpost early in the second half.

Huslers led 3-0 before Pride, game MVP, Pritchard scored to close the gap to 3-1.

Harvex winger Peter McKay, who scored twice and set up a third goal in the finale, earned Husler MVP honors.

Dick Christie also scored twice while Phil Lyall and Bob Peddle added single goals.

Harvex opened the event downing the Greely Grizzlies 6-2 last Thursday. Bob Peddle and Dick Christie scored two goals each while John Ralko and Peter McKay notched a goal each.

In game two on Friday John Ralko snapped a 1-1 tie and Al Van Bridger scored into an empty net as Harvex edged the Bells Corners Vets 3-1. Bob Peddle had tied the game up 1-1 scoring from John Ralko.

Goalie Dan Hogaboam filled in for Kevin Baldwin and turned in a superb effort against the Vets.

Saturday the Huslers skimmed by Kemptville 2-1, thanks to goals by Peter McKay and Richard Gilmer and a strong effort by Baldwin.

Pride reach the Samurai final winning two and tying Metcalfe 4-4.

Metcalfe edged Kemptville 3-2 to become Samurai Consolation champs. Dan Morris, who scored twice, was Metcalfe's MVP. Ron Walker was deemed Kemptville MVP.

OPEN DIVISION

Osgoode Pypers and Outlaws squared off in the Hari Kari (Open Division) championship match.

Both teams emerged from round robin play with perfect records and battled through the first half tied at 1-1. Three unanswered goals in the final half gave the Outlaws a 4-1 victory. Outlaws' goalie Bill Jamieson was judged the champs' MVP while Kevin McManus was named the Pypers' MVP.

Ottawa's MPR took the Hari Kari Consolation trophy defeating Chesterville 4-1. Sean Clement, who scored twice and set up a third goal was named MPR MVP. Kevin Moore received Chesterville's MVP award. Steve Plummer fired in the lone Chesterville goal scoring on a rush engineered by Mike Armstrong.

Members of the Kamikazes hockey club passed along thanks to all of the tournament's participants and to the 37 local businesses for supporting the event as sponsors.

Canadiens grab Melvin Cup

Casselman knocks in two late goals to assure victory

WINCHESTER — Barry Casselman banged in a pair of short- handed goals late in the game here last Wednesday to give the Country Kitchen Canadiens a 4-1 win over the Boyd Chrysler Ramchargers and the 1989-90 Melvin Cup.

The evening before, the Rams, teetering on the brink of elimination (trailing 2-0 in best-of-five final) staved off expulsion beating the Canadiens 5-4.

The Winchester Town Hockey League regular season champion Country Kitchen squad, on the strength of Casselman's short-handed efforts, bounced right back the next night and secured the historic Melvin Cup with their 4-1, fourth game victory.

Mike McMillan snapped in a John Ralko relay at 13:16 of the first period of Wednesday's final game and put Country Kitchen up 1-0.

Dave Coleman tied it up at one when he collected an Andy Wattie pass at centre ice and raced in on Canadiens' Kevin Baldwin. Baldwin blocked Coleman's first attempt but couldn't stop the rebound from making it into his net.

Period two was scoreless as both Baldwin and Rams' Dave Hutt played flawlessly in their respective cages.

Barry Casselman finally broke up the 1-1 stalemate when he took a pass from defenceman Gord Milne, walked in on Hutt and drilled a low snap shot through the goalie's legs. Casselman's winning goal came while his team was serving a minor body contact penalty.

Pete Marriner teamed up with Steve Crowder on a Canadiens' powerplay and gave their squad a 3-1 lead wth 7:47 left on the clock.

Barry Casselman made it a 4-1 final when he capitalized on a second penalty-killing break. Wally Vandekemp corralled a loose puck and fed it to Casselman who ripped another low drive through Hutt's feet. His second short-handed marker came with just 1:43 left in the season and sealed the Rams' fate.

NEW LIFE

Stymied by close-checking and the goaltending of Kevin Baldwin for much of the Melvin Cup, scoring champion Darrell Shelp shook loose of the extra coverage in game three last Tuesday.

The 41-goal shooter scored twice and set up a third in Boyd's life-extending 5-4 win.

Shelp's third period goal, set up by Brent Theede at 11:45 of the final period, proved to be the winner.

Boyds led 3-2 after a period and it was tied 4-4 after 40 minutes.

In addition to Shelp's two goals the Rams got singles from Andy Wattie, Glen Simms and Keith McGrisken. Dave Coleman drew two assists while Shelp and Theede collected the others.

Mike McMillan, James Milne, Rod Bowman and Barry Casselman bagged the Country Kitchen goals. Steve Crowder (2), Wally Vandekemp (2), John Ralko, Pete Marriner and Barry Casselman all earned assists.

Midget Mustangs sweep by opposition

METCALFE — 1989-90 can be classified as a banner season for the Metcalfe and District Midget "A" Mustangs.

Under coach Gord Reaney, the Mustangs galloped through their playoff schedule posting six consecutive victories in winning their Upper Canada Minor Hockey League semi-final series in two games over Kemptville, then their Eastern Division championship in a sweep of the South Grenville Generals.

The Brockville Warriors provided little opposition in the UCMHL's League championship series. Metcalfe blasted them 8-1 and 3-0 to become overall 1989-90 champs.

The Mustangs stampeded the Kemptville Royals 6-2 and 5-3 in the Eastern semis and then belted the Generals 3-1 and 5-2 to capture the East championship. Overall they outscored their opposition 30 to 9.

Coach Reaney explained his team was well balanced having good offence and solid defence, both of which were complemented by the great goaltending of Rusty Vachon and Derek Burger.

"There were no spectacular players, just many better-than-average," the coach stated.

All but six of the Mustangs are graduating from minor hockey this year and coach Reaney said, "I'm sure many will join the Junior B Jets as home grown products."

During the regular season the Mustangs won 15, lost four and tied one of their 20 games. South Grenville supplied three of those setbacks while Smiths Falls dealt Metcalfe the other. Kemptville played the champs to a tie.

Metcalfe finished second in the East, one point behind South Grenville.

In tournament play, Metcalfe won the "A" championship in the Kemptville Lions' tournament, were "A" finalists in the Osgoode Rideau event and consolation "B" winners in the North Dundas Demons' tournament in Chesterville. They also took part in tournaments in Smiths Falls, South Grenville as well as the South Ottawa Midget "A" event.

West Carleton eliminates Demons from competition

OTTAWA — The 1990 Canterbury Minor Hockey tournament began on a positive note for the North Dundas, Seaway Valley Pharmacy, Atom A Demons but ended with back-to-back losses.

North Dundas completely dominated their opponents in their first three games, outscoring them 19-2 but wound up dropping a 3-1 verdict to Rockland in Saturday's semi-final and then a slim 2-1 decision to West Carleton in Sunday's "B" semi-final.

West Carleton took a 1-0, first period, lead on the Demons but needed a powerplay marker with just 3:05 left in the game to win the event's consolation title.

Warren Holmes tied the game up 1-1 scoring for North Dundas on a pass from Terry Wagner with 9:51 left in the third period.

Saturday's semi-final encounter resulted in a 3-1 loss to Rockland, a setback that knocked the Demons into the "B" bracket.

Rockland bounced into a 3-0 first period lead and cruised to a 3-1 win. Warren Holmes put North Dundas into the game connecting on a feed from Jamie Hyndman at 4:43 of the final frame.

Earlier on Saturday (April 7), goalie Darryl Beck played perfectly in a 5-0, round robin win over Hawkesbury. Warren Holmes led the Demons with a goal and three assists. Craig Holmes and Ryan Swerdfeger each registered a goal and one assist. Jamie Hyndman and Ryan Filion potted a goal apiece. Stephen Henderson assisted on three goals while Terry Wagner set up one.

On the opening day (April 1) of the event, Jason Ross bagged four goals and drew one assist in a 6-1 win over St. Isidore. Terry Wagner pegged the other two. Warren Holmes (2), Craig Holmes (2), Jamie Hyndman (2) and Stephen Henderson all earned assists. Darryl Beck missed the shutout by one.

The same day here at the Canterbury Arena, all 10 skaters collected points in North Dundas' 9-1 decision over the Gloucester Rangers.

Demons outshot the Rangers 23-12.

Como tallies two to lead Vikings to championship

WINCHESTER — Brian Como potted a pair of goals here Sunday night propelling the Morewood Vikings to their first Winchester District Broomball League ''A'' Pool championship.

The WDBL's pennant winners dropped game one of their best-of-three championship by a 1-0 count to Russell's Magnum Force but came back and topped their winning season with a pair of victories.

Last Sunday a 5-4 win over Magnum Force knotted the set at a game each.

This week the Vikings stormed into a 3-0 lead and held off a spirited Russell attack for a 3-1 win and the 1990 ''A'' Pool championship.

Brian Como, one of the Vikings' offensive keys all season, sparked the championship win scoring a pair of goals. His side- kick, Brian Thatcher, engineered the win assisting on all three markers.

Vikes' goalie Laurier Menard, who tasted defeat just twice this year, shone in game three thwarting Russell's shooters, particularly in the second half when he made a couple of big glove grabs and kicked out several labelled shots. He even took a blast right in the facemask late in the game to maintain his squad's 3-1 advantage.

Magnum Force broke up Menard's shutout bid with just 2:48 left in the encounter.

Jim Pennock collected a loose ball in the face-off circle to Menard's left. He slid around a Morewood defence and unleashed a drive at the Viking goalie. Menard made the grab but the force of Pennock's shot pushed his trapper back behind the goal post and into the net.

Gerald Eby put Morewood on the board when he took a clearing pass from Mario Quenneville and Brian Thatcher and ran in on Force's Ken Carscadden. Eby caught Carscadden going down and stuffed a backhand shot through the keeper's legs at 16:47 of period one.

BRIANS CLICK

The Brian Como-Brian Thatcher combination started to click late in the opening half.

Thatcher and Eby combined to set up a two-on-one break. Como, trailing the play when it started, broke for the left post and slapped home Thatcher's crossing relay to make it a 2-0 game 2:48 before the half.

Como iced the title when he scored with 8:18 left on the clock.

Thatcher carried the ball into the Russell zone, drew Carscadden to the left side and flipped the ball back to a wide- open Como, who made no mistake burying a shot into the unguarded twine.

Prescott Road Knights blanked the Manotick Merchants in two games (3-0 and 4-0) and won the WDBL's 1989-90 ''B'' Pool two weeks ago.

Bantams win by sweeping

RUSSELL—It took four points to win the Upper Canada League championships and the Russell Bantam C Warriors didn't waste any time doing it.

After skating to a 5-3 victory over the South Grenville 2 on March 27, the Warriors clinched the minor hockey playoff finals by doubling their opponents 4-2 on March 30.

''It was a hard-fought game. We play well in the series,'' said Bantam C coach Peter Kruys.

Powerplay goals and strong third-period play by the Warriors made the difference in the series. Russell scored four of their nine goals, two in each game, while playing with an extra attacker. In both games, Russell scored unanswered goals in the final frames to secure the victories.

Goalie David Straby kept South Grenville at bay between the pipes for Russell during final games. ''He was there when we needed him,'' said Kruys.

The last game was in South Grenville's home rink in Spencerville.

Josh Seguin opened the scoring with a solo effort at 7:22 of the first. Then with 3:25 to go, Mike Surguy took advantage of a power play to put the Warriors up 2-0 at the end of one period of play.

It was South Grenville's turn to put the puck in the net during the middle period. They scored a pair of goals at 9:35 and 1:23 to even the score at two after two.

In the third, Alain Bouchard with help from Chris Richard and Jason Savage, scored at 13:25 to put the Warriors ahead for good.

Richard worked with Bouchard again, this time on the powerplay, to finish off the scoring and South Grenville.

It was a physical contest with 98 minutes in penalties handed out.

Gators growl to victory in own tournament

WINCHESTER — The Gloucester High School Gators hosted and won their own oldtimers hockey tournament here Sunday.

The glorious Gators glided through three games without a loss to win the second annual, six-team, tournament.

Tournament host Tom Kirkwood sparked the champion Gators to a 4-0 win over the Winchester Old Hawks in the event's "A" championship final.

Kirkwood and his fellow Gloucester High staffers led Winchester 2-0 at the half and cruised to the 4-0 win. Doug Lowe potted two goals for the champs while Kirkwood snapped in the winner 3:43 before the half and drew an assist on another marker. Buck posted the shutout.

Gators posted a 4-2 win over Morewood and doubled the Chesterville Oltimers to qualify for the "A" final.

Kirkwood and Lowe each bagged two goals in the Gators' 4-2 win over Morewood in an opening round encounter. Kirkwood also drew assists on both Lowe markers. Shane Jordan and Dan Moriarty pegged the Morewood goals.

Rob Hewitt was top gun in the 6-3 win over Chesterville firing home three goals. Drew Jeacle and Doug Lowe also clicked for goals. Tom Kirkwood collected an assist for the winners.

Dave Carkner, Rae Emery and Les Holmes replied for Chesterville.

Winchester's Old Hawks also won their first two starts to reach the final round undefeated.

Paul Sheard scored twice in the Hawks' opening 4-3 win over the Gloucester Selects. Pete Filion added a goal and one assist while Reg Hyndman hit for the other goal. John Ralko set up a pair of goals and Dan Hogaboam posted the win in nets.

The second time out, Winchester edged Confederation 3-2. Dan Lecours netted the winning goal scoring from Paul Sheard and John Ralko with 11:07 left in the game.

John Ralko and Reg Hyndman netted the other markers. John Sloan and Gary Hoy drew an assist each while Hogaboam registered his second victory.

"B" FINAL

The "B" final pitted Morewood and the Gloucester Selects against each other.

The Selects emerged with a 5-2 win and the "B" title. Clancy was a two-goal shooter for the winners. Shane Jordan and Dan Moriarty potted Morewood's goals. Moriarty and Mike Teirney picked up an assist each.

Morewood defeated Chesterville 5-2 in the day's first game. Curt Dillabough, Shane Jordan, Moriarty, Larry Stewart and Martin Schoones connected for goals in that encounter. Don Munro and Doug Cheney put Chesterville goals behind Rick Sproule.

Morewood then lost 4-2 to the Gloucester Gators to be knocked into the "B" round. Jordan and Moriarty, again, took care of the goal scoring.

The Selects dumped Confederation 9-5 and then lost 4-3 to Winchester in their opening games.

The "C" Pool showdown featured winless Chesterville and Confederation, also two-game losers.

Confederation came away 7-4 winners in that final confrontation. Alain Quiviero led the winners with a four-goal, two-assist effort. Paul Martin clicked for two goals and drew three assists while Denis Cousineau assisted on five goals.

Rae Imrie, Les Holmes, Brezleaf and Crackwell responded for Chesterville who had dropped 5-2 and 6-3 decisions to Morewood and Gloucester Gators in their first two outings.

Frankly speaking

BACK TO THE RAIN AND THE COLD

For a couple of beautiful weeks, we were able to leave the GST, Meech Lake and especially the rain and the cold behind and spend some time in the sun on the sandy beaches of Waikiki and Maui. It was indeed a beautiful two weeks but that is now only a fond memory, and as the rain falls, it's on with the show. Our ice machines were turned off on Sunday, the last goal has been scored and the skates have been cleaned and stored for the summer. With the cold weather, the ice is slow to melt but with a little help from a couple of heaters, it should be all outside by Wednesday night. After a couple of days of mopping the floor all will be ready for the big pieces of equipment from the farm show to start rolling in. Next Tuesday at 10am, the doors swing open and for the following two days, hundreds of farmers will pass through the arena viewing the latest in new John Deere equipment and all the products and services available to make farm operation a little easier and more productive over the coming year. Already plans have been made for lots of ball at the diamonds with most of the teams in the process of holding registration for their summer activities. Last week, soccer registration was held and that again will be a popular sport for many of the little gals and guys. So, it's on with the show and hopefully a warming trend. What's that mother? You have the mop and broom ready for a weekend of spring cleaning. You just can't win.

TWO BIG DANCES THIS WEEKEND

Anyone might say that this is the Easter weekend and activities will indeed be few. Well, not so. The boys from Shoneroy Splinters' Lob Ball team are taking advantage of the fact that all of the younger set will be home from colleges and universities and will want a place to get together, so they will be holding a big shindig at the arena hall this Thursday night. Yes, you heard correctly. It's this Thursday night from 9 till 1am. Just remember to have your proof of age ready for admission. Another big crowd is expected this Saturday night with a good ticket sale registered for the Minor Hockey dance. Saturday night's dance will hopefully raise some much-needed funding for this year's minor hockey, so if you are looking for something to do on Saturday night, you might consider the Minor Hockey dance.

CHANGE OF DATES FOR MINOR BALL REGISTRATION

When we got back from our holiday, we noticed in the Press that minor ball was planning to hold registration next Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Well we realized that someone had goofed because the farm show will be taking up all the space in the lobby and the upstairs hall, so we are changing the date to Thursday and Friday nights from 7 till 9pm. Please take note of the change and if you have a ball player in the house who is planning to join a team for the summer, please excuse our error and come out next Thursday or Friday.

Metcalfe skates to Novice C B medals

ROCKCLIFFE — Melissa Heeley scored 10 of her team's 12 goals here Sunday leading Metcalfe Novice Cs to an exciting 12-11 overtime victory over Orleans.

The Metcalfe victory gave the girls the "B" championship medals in the 1990 Rockcliffe Ringette Tournament.

Their victory concluded their season on a positive note as it marked their first win over Orleans.

Metcalfe played three games on Saturday beating Cumberland 11-10, losing to Leitrim 9-8 and tying Orleans No. One 11-11 to qualify for Sunday's "B" championship match.

Sunday's contest was tied 10-10 after regulation time. Metcalfe outscored Orleans 2-1 in OT to win the gold medals by a 12-11 margin.

Melissa Heeley provided most of Metcalfe's scoring punch, picking up 38 points in four games including 31 goals and seven assists. Alison Quinn contributed 25 points including 23 assists. Amanda Ford scored nine times and and set up eight others.

The goaltending duties were shared by Allison Brookes and Jordan Nesbitt who played two games each.

Pamela Kerfoot played three of the four games but managed to acquire 11 assists. Courtney Kelly and Julianne McDonald each had 10 assists. Stephanie Carreau (5), Jordan Nesbitt (4), Allison Brookes (2), Kelly Cook (2) and Trisha Zimmer all earned assists.

Metcalfe took a 5-2 lead in the first half of Sunday's final but enjoyed just a 5-4 edge at the break. Orleans then took control, outscored Metcalfe 6-5 and forced overtime with a 10-10 tie.

Melissa Heeley's 10th goal of the game gave Metcalfe an 11-10 lead at 3:41 of the five-minute OT session but Orleans' Marie Rancourt knotted it up at 11, scoring with 2:04 left.

Amanda Ford notched the winning goal (12-11) when she pegged her second of the game with just 40 seconds left on the clock. Courtney Kelly and Melissa Heeley engineered the winning goal.

*Price excludes freight, licence, and taxes. Limited time offer. See Dealer for details. Dealer may sell for less.
Guarantee period on selected vehicles expires September 30, 1990 and applies to 1990 models only. Guarantee does not apply to customers choosing financing option.
These offers are mutually exclusive and apply to purchase for personal use only. Qualified buyers choosing a reduced financing rate in lieu of cash rebate on selected vehicles are eligible for 9.9% financing over maximum 24-month term. For other selected vehicles as well as longer term loans, other low financing rates are available as alternatives to cash rebates. See Dealer for details. Transactions are subject to Chrysler Credit Canada Ltd. approval on purchase and delivery at participating Chrysler Canada Ltd. Dealers from April 1, 1990 until such time as terminated by Chrysler Canada Ltd. Delivery must be taken from existing Dealer inventory. Financing offers exclude fleet orders and retail lease vehicles. The offers cancel and replace any and all previous offers and may not be combined. Example: if the amount financed is $10,000 on the purchase of an eligible vehicle for a term of 24 months, the financing rate would be 9.9% APR, with a monthly payment of $460.99. Total cost of borrowing is $1,063.76. Assuming a rebate of $1,000 as the alternative, should you choose a reduced financing rate instead of cash rebate, legislation requires that the amount of the rebate not taken be included in calculating the cost of borrowing in order to arrive at an effective interest rate. In the example given, the cost of borrowing, including the rebate not taken, would be $2,063.76, resulting in an effective interest rate of 20.66%. For 10.9%/36 mos. and 11.9%/48 mos., the following would apply, respectively, to the preceding example: cost of borrowing: $1,768.76; $2,616.80. Monthly payments: $326.91; $262.85. Cost of borrowing, including rebate not taken: $2,768.76; $2,616.80. Effective interest rate: 18.34%; 17.68%. Buyers must pay for transportation, licence, taxes and other fees such as registration. Retail lease vehicles are eligible for cash rebates only. Special leasing rates, as an alternative to rebates, are available on selected models. See Dealer for details.

Request for seven days

Quick. What seven day period did you just complete?

Did you say National Quackgrass Awareness Week. Sure, I knew you would. Well, you're now ready to advance to the bonus round of What Week Is This?

Farmers have their share — National Farm Safety Week (July 25 to 31), National Soil Conservation Week (April 9 to 15) and the lesser-known Moo At A Cow Week (celebrated primarily by the city folk).

The government has created weeks for your safety — Boat Safety Week, School Guard Patrolling Safety Week, Swimming Safety Week. And, as Johnny Carson might add, here are a few that didn't quite make the long government safety week list:

- Writing Editorials Which Poke Fun At Municipal Politicians' Performance And Living To Tell About It Safety Week.
- Forgetting To Cover A Community Event For A Photo Safety Week.
- Creeping To The End Of Church Street To Make A Turn On To St. Lawrence Street Safety Week.
- Trying To Say Anything Nice About The GST Safety Week.

And now for a few personal favorities in the General Week Category:

- Celebrate Catchy Country And Western Song Titles Like Get Your Tongue Out Of My Mouth (Because I'm Kissing You Goodbye) Week.
- Search For The Real Story On What The Hell Is Going On With Winchester's Water Project Week.
- The Your Guess Is As Good As Mine When, If Ever, The Village Will Get A Mall Week.
- Dairyfest Week (Also Known As Taking Hundreds Of Photos Until Your Fingers Bleed Week).
- Being A Maple Leaf Fan In The Playoffs For Only One Week Week.
- Noble Villeneuve Ribbon Cutting Week.
- The Reeve Gray/Phil Collins No Reply At All Week.
- The Chamber Of Commerce/Denis St. Pierre Celebrity Wrestling (With A Ministry Of Environment Official Refereeing) Week.
- Working 60 Plus Hours A Week For A Weekly Newspaper Week.
- Living In A Village Where The Main Social Event Is Round Robin Euchre Week.
- Listing More Than 100 Reasons To Not Follow The Expos This Year Week.
- Getting Absolutely Carried Away Week.
- Returning To Wise Acre Editorials Which Irk The Crud Out Of Some Villagers Week.

A three-year-old Holstein heifer owned by William J. Fawcett of Winchester, came close to setting a new Canadian record for her class and division in the ROP when she finished her lactation recently. It was discovered that in twice-daily milking in the 305-day division, she had produced 16,271 lbs. of milk and 551 lbs. of butterfat, seven lbs. less than stands to the credit of the title-holder, Clover Hill Kitty.

The "social evening" held by the Young People's Society of the United Church on Monday evening proved a most enjoyable event. Mrs. Howard Fetterly conducted the opening devotional exercises and then turned the program over to the convener of the social committee, Miss Mabel Suffel and her associates. A fine musical duet was contributed by Miss Gillies and Miss Singleton.

The annual meeting of the Winchester Horticultural Society was held Monday night, and all officers and directors from 1929 were re-elected except the secretary-treasurer, Mr. J. Gemeroy, who decided to retire. Mrs. George Armstrong was elected to the position.

Plans have been completed for the conversion of Finch's telephone system to the dial method of operation, says J.C.N. Cochrane, Bell Telephone of Canada area manager. The switch-over to the new system will take place towards the end of this year. In preparation for the conversion, subscribers now served by the Crysler exchange will be transferred to Finch during April, and the ouside plant between Finch and Crysler will be rehabilitated.

Nairn Boyd of Winchester was recently elected president of the student body at McMaster University. This office is the culmination of an active executive student career. In his first year, Nairn was treasurer of his class. This year he was president of the junior class which conducted several of the most successful social events of the year.

Councillor Henry Bessin, convener of the Red Cross Committee, has secrured several additional numbers for the cabaret concert planned for next Wednesday evening. New acts include contributions by Vivian LaSalle of Chesterville, and dancer Lillian Edelson of Ottawa.

The floods along the Nation River reached their peak yesterday when water was flowing over Hwy 31, south of the Cass Bridge, to a depth of nearly two feet. The Nation started its annual rampage last week and since then, thousands of acres between Spencerville and Casselman have been submerged, and several farms near Chesterville have been inundated, leaving the row boat as the only means of travel.

By losing the fourth game of their series with the Porcupine Combines by a score of 8-5, the Inkerman Rockets have been eliminated from the Memorial Cup playdowns. This evening, the Rockets, bolstered by several ex-members of the team, will play an exhibition game at the Ottawa Auditorium against a team of former professionals.

Rev. Leon Adams announced during services Sunday that St. Peter's Church in South Mountain is the beneficiary of a $2,000 bequest from the estate of the late Anna Winnifred Martin of North Vancouver. The bequest was made in memory of Mrs. Martin's parents, Dr. George and Phoebe Steacy.

The Editor:

Sir: I read with interest the editorial "Saving faith," "Racism is no stranger to Winchester by Jim Day, Wed., March 21."

Surely Jim Day must know that racism has been no stranger worldwide since "Day" One. The "Boer War," "The Crucifixion," the "Battle of the Boyne" and every war before and since the Great War. If Jim Day wants to write about racism, let him keep his eyes and ears open on June 24, St. John Baptiste Day, the "Day" after Meech Lake is probably scuttled.

We have all caused racism and no one is more guilty than all governments in this great country of ours, Canada.

Edward H. Touchette

Editor's Note: That racism is a worldwide problem is not disputed, but remember the role of the Winchester Press as a local paper is to look at the local side to any given situation.

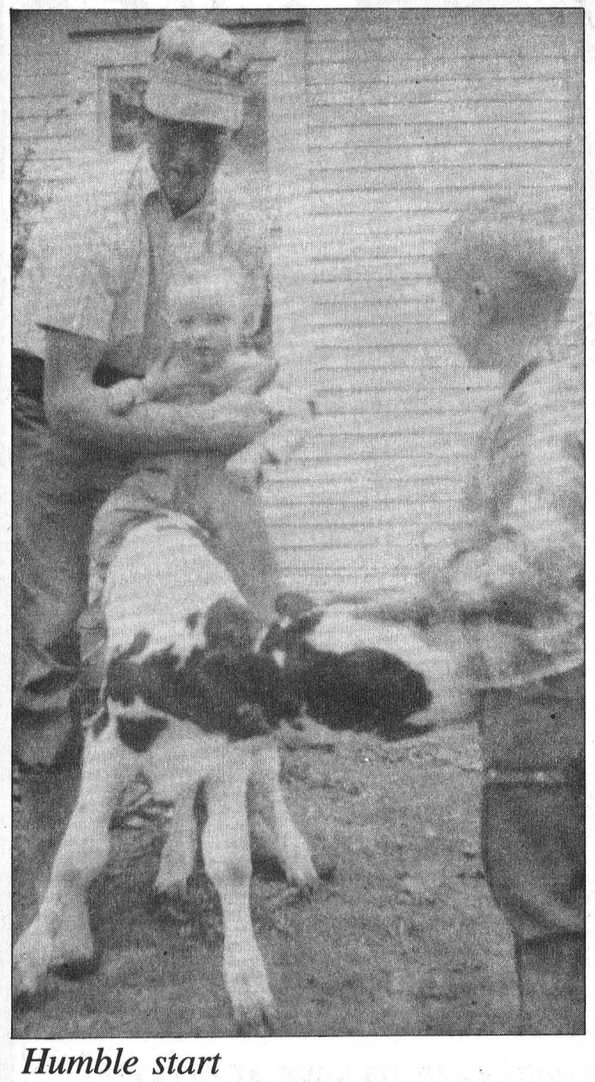
Hockey star's father coaches closeness in family



Humble start

Les Robinson hoists two-year-old Larry onto the back of a calf while Brian steadies the wobbly steed. This snapshot was taken in 1953 when Les was making a meagre living farming near Marvelville, long before his second son would win fame and fortune as a Montreal Canadien, then with Los Angeles Kings. Pictured above, right, Les at 68 divides his time between curling and visiting his far-flung progeny, with his wife, Isabelle.

by Andy McLeister
Press Staff Reporter

METCALFE — "I love sports. And anything to do with sports, I'm in like a dirty shirt."

If you wanted to summarize Les Robinson's character, that statement, out of the mouth of the man himself, would just about do it. There is more to be said about the father of one of hockey's all-time greats, of course, but he will invariably swing a conversation around to sports. Count on it.

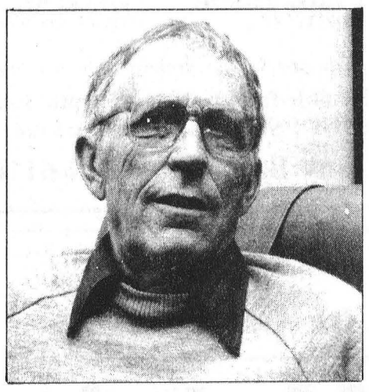
Ask about his childhood on a farm near the tiny hamlet of Marvelville, and you will hear about hockey in outdoor rinks, and trips to Russell to play in that town's enclosed rink. Mention summer, and you will learn that baseball was as much a part of Les' younger life as was hockey.

An interview last week in the Metcalfe apartment he shares with his wife of 44 years, Isabelle, though, proves there is more to Les Robinson than a man obsessed with sports. There is the family man, first and foremost, who spends a lot of time and effort along with his wife roving the continent to stay in touch with his five children and 10 grandchildren.

Evidently trips to visit family aren't enough to satisfy the Robinsons' appetite for travel. A month in Los Angeles this year to visit son Larry of the NHL L.A. Kings and his wife Jeanette and their two children, for example, was followed by a three-week road trip to Florida. Then there are trips to Olds, Alberta, where daughter Carol Robb nurses in that town's spanking new hospital, and her husband Harvey works at a nearby natural gas processing plant.

All the children are doing well, it seems. The eldest, Brian, 42, works for the Carleton Catholic School Board and farms the 50 acres his dad signed over to him soon after he got married in 1969. The youngest son, Morris (Moe), is a mechanic at Dingy's Garage in Montreal, owned by his famous brother. Daughter Linda Wilson is raising her three children in Kanata while her husband John runs a liquor store.

The Robinsons are justifiably proud of their children, and have reason to be proud of the influence they have had on them, especially their boys' love of sports. Isabelle was an avid skater back when Les was courting her in the 1940s



(they married in 1946). "She (Isabelle) used to walk halfway to Winchester to skate," Les says.

And Les. Well, he was an athlete of note in his heyday, and was to become a devoted coach and manager. An avid hockey and baseball player, he infected his three sons with the sporting bug. Larry is the only one to make the big time, but they all made it at least as far as junior hockey, playing for the Russell (now Metcalfe) Jets, which was managed by Les at the time, and coached by Irwin Duncan.

Indeed at one time it was thought that Moe would rival Larry's on-ice talent. Les reminded a reporter that Moe was drafted by the Canadiens and played for their farm team, the Halifax Voyageurs of the International Hockey League, then was loaned for a season to the Oklahoma North Stars, Minnesota's farm team. He couldn't gain the weight the coaches wanted him to, Les says, and ultimately lost his desire to continue his hockey career.

Les' influence on his most successful son is immeasurable. He brought him up from Bantams at the tender age of 14, to play for the Jets. When he played for the Brockville Broncos, Larry's father furnished him with a car to commute. When Larry transferred to the Kitchener Rangers and a promised job failed to materialize, Les intervened to straighten things out.

The Robinsons are a tight family with mom, dad, and sports being the anchors. There's the photo of coach Les with his three sons wearing the uniforms of the Marvelville Z's fastball team for concrete proof that the family's relations are enduring. Back in the 1970s, Isabelle recalls, Larry would drive from Montreal to play ball with the Z's.

If hard times help draw a family closer together, then the Robinsons could serve as a perfect case-in-point. "Mother and I got married in '46," Les remembers, "and dad gave us seven heifers. That's what we started with."

The cows were milked by hand until Isabelle became pregnant with their first child and could no longer help out in the barn. It's then that Les incurred the expense of a milking machine.

In the days before marketing boards, Les recalls, it was a struggle to make ends meet. The cheesemaker in Marvelville, he says, would pay producers pretty well what he pleased for their milk, and payment would await sale of the cheese. Things improved when he started shipping to Ault Foods' Winchester plant, where farmers were paid $1.25 per hundred weight, a princely sum when compared to the 60 cents the Marvelville cheesemaker was offering.

Les left the farm in his son's hands not long after accepting a fulltime job at the Experimental Farm in Ottawa, where he worked for 14 years before retiring in 1983. In 1986, Les and Isabelle sold their Metcalfe house and moved into the Stanley Apartments.

One has to wonder why an athletically built man like Les (well over six feet and lean) did not himself pursue a career in hockey. "There was only the six team league then," he says, and he didn't have the money it would have taken to go beyond the bush leagues.

In retirement, sports remains a large part of the Robinsons' life together. Both Les and Isabelle curl, but not on the same rink. "She curls better against me," Les explains. They both curl in a seniors league but Les also belongs to a "fixed league" where the competition is tougher.

Les admits, though, that he is not as reliable player as he used to be, confessing that he missed three out of five games in a recent draw and didn't show up for any matches at all in a draw last December. But we'll have to excuse him, because it is difficult to curl in Canada and be in Los Angeles or Florida at the same time.

Seventh Column

by Joe Rowan

Easter Sunday is a time when Christians in all parts of the world joyously remember Christ's resurrection. We're confident most will be celebrating this glorious feast day in the church of their choice. Some, however, may be searching for an excuse that might justify drafting other plans for the day. As always, we think we can help. Found these lines in one of those 'future reference' files. Guess they were penned by that world-famous poet 'Anonymous.' It occurred to us that such naive thinking might serve as 'reverse psychology' — with packed churches the end result. Here it is:

"I DON'T GO TO CHURCH ON SUNDAY"

I work eight hours, I sleep eight and have eight hours for leisure;
But I don't go to Church on Sunday, since that's my time for pleasure.
I was out several nights last week, it was 20 below I'm told;
But I didn't go to Church on Sunday because it was too darn cold.
My family is well fed all week, they're not getting any thinner;
But I don't go to Church on Sunday, because I have to get the dinner.
I went out on Saturday night, even though I had a chill;
But I didn't get to Church on Sunday — because I was too ill.
I get to town several times each week, I use both truck and car;
But I don't go to Church on Sunday because it's much too far.
I got my feet wet twice last week but I didn't complain;
But I didn't go to Church on Sunday — because it looked like rain.
We always get a sitter when to parties we get bids;
But we can't go to Church on Sundays — because we have to mind the kids.
TV shows last two hours or more, but I don't mind a bit;
But I don't go to Church on Sunday — an hour's too long to sit.
I took my cold to the party and sneezed my head near off;
But I didn't go to Church on Sunday — I was afraid I might cough.
If, when I'm going out, some friends drop in, I go just the same;
But I didn't get to Church last Sunday — because some company came.
No one asks me to the movies but I go often, nothing slighted;
But I don't go to Church on Sunday — because I haven't been invited.
One Elder is a member of our club, each Wednesday with him I sit;
But I don't go to Church on Sunday — because he's a hypocrite.
I attended Church one time, the Pastor preached at them, and it was good to see;
But I'm not going anymore — last week he preached at me.
We get along without the Church, it adds nothing to our fun;
But we'll be in Church next Sunday — we're getting the baby done.

This week we just have to profusely thank Metcalfe Agricultural Society ladies. The busy lassies, perhaps unknown to themselves, have solved a multitude of problems for us. Our 'Old Girl', like all other sweethearts, wives and mothers, anticipates special consideration (dinners, and gifts etc.) on all special occasions. Last week, for a mere hundred bucks, we picked up a 'Metcalfe Fair Society Ball' admission ticket...a ticket entitling us to 'Dinner for 2' — Friday, May 25 — in a ballroom atmosphere — catered by those inimitable 'A.J's' gourmet specialists — with the fabulous 'After 8' tune-masters on stage for hours of dancing delight — and the possibility of winning thousands of dollars. But hear this...for the paltry "hundred" we picked up a $50 income tax receipt...and then drafted an ingenious money-saving scheme. What we've done is secure the ticket to a rather unique greeting card designed by friend Bud (Winchester Print) conveying the following message: "To Our Loved One — Happy Birthday, Happy Wedding Anniversary, Happy Valentine's Day, Happy Easter, Happy Mother's Day, Happy Thanksgiving, Merry Christmas, and Happy New Year." We signed it and pinned it to her pillow. Now, the really good news! You can do the same — if you act fast. A very limited number of tickets are available, but you'd better call Betty (Eastman) today. The number is 821-2134. And, if she doesn't answer, dial 821-2061 and ask for Ida (Craig).

And it says here if you enjoy quarrelling, what you should do is study law — and get paid for it.

Grahams capture top dairy herd award

by Dianne Fetterly
Press Staff Reporter

Trophies were presented to owners of cows with the highest composite BCA in the different age categories at the annual DHI banquet Saturday night. Left to right are: Blair Hutchinson, over 10-year-old; Bruce Garlough, one and two-year- old; Steven Byvelds, three-year-old; John Lee DeVries, lowest SSC and Tom McGregor, four-year-old. Absent was Frank Casselman with top cow in the five to nine-year-old category and second highest herd BCA. Other big winners were: Malcolm and Marion Graham, highest herd BCA; W.R. McMenomy, most improved herd and most improved herd above provincial average; and tied for second most improved herd John VanDelst and Allan and Blair Hutchinson.

WINCHESTER — A South Mountain couple capped off 40 years in the dairy business by winning the Strader Trophy for the highest composite herd BCA in Dundas County.

Malcolm and Marion Graham received the prestigious honor at the Dundas County Dairy Herd Improvment Association's annual awards banquet Saturday with a herd BCA of 201.

Graham said he knew he was doing well, but was surprised at how high his herd's BCA actually was.

The Grahams milk about 35 cows year-round and grow most of the feed for their cattle on the 200-acre century farm. Graham's grandfather bought the farm about 105 years ago.

The herd with the second highest composite BCA (186) belongs to J. Frank Casselman of Chesterville.

Casselman's nine-year, three-month old cow, 'Victory' also won for the highest composite BCA (235) for a cow aged five to nine years.

Most improved herd above provincial average was W.R. McMenomy's herd of Inkerman with plus 40 points.

The second most improved herd honors went to two farms, both with plus 21 points. John Van Delst of Chesterville and Allan and Blair Hutchinson of Winchester. The Hutchinsons also had the highest BCA (228) for a cow 10 years and over for their 12 and one-half-year-old, 'Maple'.

The herd belonging to John Lee Devries of Williamsburg had the lowest average Somatic Cell Count of 70,080.

Bruce and Gordon Garlough of Williamsburg won the award for the highest composite BCA for one and two-year old cows, with a BCA of 238 for their two-year, 11-month-old cow 'Robin'.

Highest BCA for a three-year old, was 'Barbie' a three-year, four-month old cow belonging to John and Steven Byvelds also of Williamsburg, with a BCA of 243.

Rhod and Tom MacGregor of Morewood received the award for the four-year-old cow with the highest BCA for 'Grenodien's Red, a four-year, eight-month-old with a composite BCA of 253.

Gold seals award winners for 20 plus points above provincial composite BCA average were: Malcolm and Marion Graham, 201; J. Frank Casselman, 186; John DeJong, 185; Theodore Ceelen, 185; Bruce and Gordon Garlogh, 184; Carl Smith, 182; Richard Hess, 182; Brian Enright, 182; Robert S. Smith, 180; Herman Jansen, 180; John M. De Vries, 180; Beat Schraner, 177; Albert and Linda Harbers, 176; William Meerakker, 176; Jim Adams, 175; W.R. McMenomy, 175 and Dwight Gilmer and Sons Ltd., 175.

Red seal award recipients for 10 to 19 points above provincial average were: John Stoodley, 174; John and Steven Byvelds, 173; Wm. DeJong, 173; John Melenhorst and Sons, 173; Allan and Blair Hutchinson, 172; Carol and Dave Bryan, 171, Charles Farlinger, 171; Herman van-Wylick, 169; John VanDelst, 169; Wilmer and Linda Porteous, 169; Gary W. Pemberton, 169; Henry Geurkink, 169; Lorne and Andy Driscoll, 168; H.J. Boyd and Sons, 168; Ken Carkner, 168; Raymond Porteous, 168, Donald S. Rose, 168; Alvin and Dawn Runnalls, 168; J. F. and M. Schoones, 168; Franklin J. Milne, 167; Henri and Lawrence Hofer, 167; Patrick J. Lynch, 167; Frank DeVries, 167; Chris and Peter Brissenden, 166; Barbara Merkley and Sons, 166; Allison Fawcett, 165; John M. Dalrymple, 165; Wm G. Klein-Swormink, 165 and Con Pemberton, 165.

Blue Seal winners for provincial average and up to nine points above were: Keith Guy, 164; John T. VanDongen, 163; Terry Spratt, 163; Glenn Pemberton, 163; Graham and Kim Link, 163; Martin K. Verburg, 162; Alexander and Perry Hart, 162; Carl Sears and Sons, 162; Bert Smail, 161; Tom W. Clapp, 160; J. Alan Fawcett, 160; Peter Leyenaar, 159; B.A. Brunt and Sons, 158; John and Archie Mellan, 158; Merkley Bros, 158; John Douma, 158; David Jorgenson, 158; Durk Bylsma, 157; Arnold and Martin Byvelds, 157; Irvan Simpson, 157; Donald R. Johnston, 157; R. and T. MacGregor, 157; Giulio Pizzamiglio, 157; Cory VanDelst, 155; Andreas Brunner, 155; J. E. Davidson, 155; Glen E. Beggs and Sons, 155; Nicolas Pasquier, 155; D. Keyes Smith, 155; Albert Koekkoek, 155; Henry and Rita Velthuis, 155 and Hans Schuler, 155.

Tractor mishaps lead fatalities

WINCHESTER — Farm Safety Association statistics show an increase in farm fatalities over the past three years, with the tractor still the biggest danger.

With spring planting just around the corner, farmers should heed these few safety tips when working around tractors and other machinery.

- Don't try to cut corners. Many farm accidents occur because of neglect or carelessness. All machinery must be kept in good operating order.
- Only the driver should be on the tractor during operation. Children should be kept off machinery at all times.
- Always throttle down the tractor and be cautious when attaching machinery. Never stand between the tractor and implement being attached.
- Be extra cautious when working on hilly fields or near ditches. The tractor can easily roll.
- When maintenance or repair is necessary, the machine must be shut off to prevent clothing from catching on moving parts. Loose-fitting clothing will catch on PTO shafts and other moving machinery parts.
- When machinery is not in use, leave it lowered to the ground.

Locals tops in mechanics class

by Dianne Fetterly
Press Staff Reporter

KEMPTVILLE — A Winchester man took top honors at the mechanic apprenticeship graduation ceremonies held last Friday at Kemptville College.

John Vanderlaan, 25, currently employed with Hamilton and Graf in Winchester, was named top student in the Farm Equipment Mechanics Apprenticeship advanced course with an over 90 per cent average.

He, along with 12 other students, received certificates and now qualify to write the provincial exam for their mechanics license.

A Williamsburg resident, Martin Nicholassen, 22, employed with Eagle Farm Equipment in Winchester, was named Most Improved Student.

Fifteen students also graduated from the 14-week basic part of the program.

The mechanics' course teaches the basics on diesel fuel systems, electrical systems, hydraulics, welding, rebuilding engines, alternators and starters, machine shop practices and business management.

The apprenticeship program, co-sponsored by the Ministry of Skills and Development, takes three to four years to complete and consists of one 14-week, and two eight-week sessions.

MSQ allotments will be revamped

Farmers to get paid for the contents of their milk

by Dianne Fetterly
Press Staff Reporter

MISSISSAUGA — Changes made to Market-Sharing Quotas by the Ontario Milk Marketing Board should create a fairer system for everyone, says the Dundas Milk Committee chairman.

"Farmers will be paid for what's in the milk," said Ted Ceelen, who added there should still be incentives to have high butterfat, but that farmers will also be getting paid for protein.

According to the OMMB, changes were made to the quota system to encourage farmers not to increase butterfat content in their milk due to a growing demand for lower fat dairy products.

"We recognize the problems associated with increased skim-off of cream as our butterfat test continues to go up and as the demand for butterfat continues to decline," said OMMB chairman, John Core.

Effective Aug. 1, 1990 all MSQ in litres held by Ontario producers will be converted from litres of milk to kilograms of butterfat, based on the individual's highest weighted average butterfat test from either the 1987/88 or '88/89 dairy year, whichever is to the producer's advantage.

For the 1990/91 dairy year, producers will be paid for their milk shipments in the same manner as at present, and levies will continue to be collected on a volume basis.

OMMB spokesman Bill Mitchell explained that regardless of butterfat content in the milk after Aug 1, 1990, the new system will not affect the volume of milk that producers can market within their quotas, provided their fat test does not change in relation to the base period test.

Also if less butterfat was shipped, then the producer would gain MSQ the following dairy year, he added.

The move to kilograms of butterfat sets the stage for multiple component pricing on Aug 1, 1991, which will mean farmers will be paid not only for butterfat but also for protein and other solids, said Mitchell.

He added that although the new system is designed to put a cap on the total amount of butter, it may be good for farmers who have concentrated on getting higher fat from their herd because generally milk high in butterfat is also high in protein.

Current methods of allocating MSQ in litres encourages higher fat tests, and it is the board's view that the new system will prevent the increase in Ontario's fat test by making producers accountable for all fat marketed.

There are also no changes to the milk payment system to producers in the coming dairy year.

Villeneuve pans cutbacks to agricultural spending

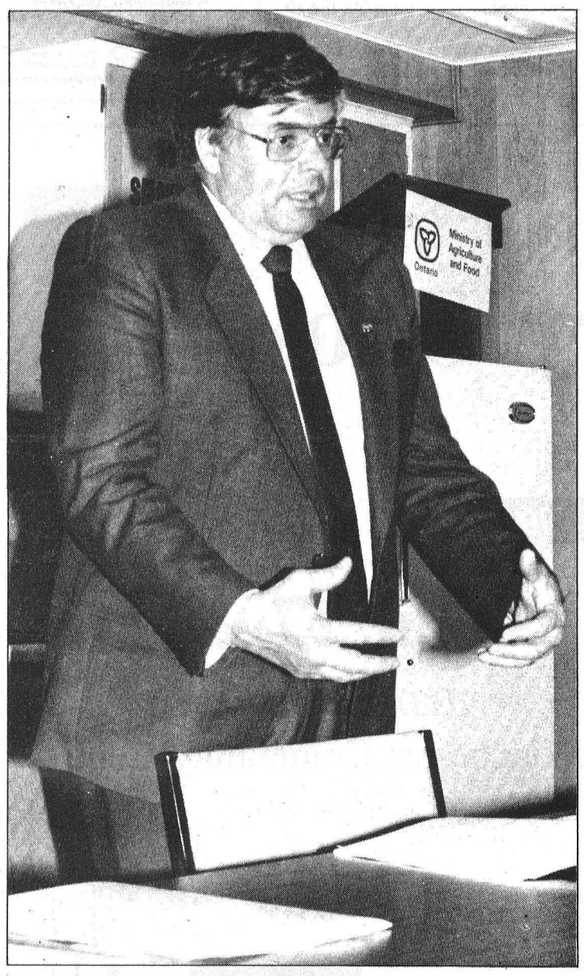
by Dianne Fetterly
Press Staff Reporter

WINCHESTER — Provincial agriculture critic Noble Villeneuve says agriculture in Ontario is being "relegated to a lower profile than it deserves."

The Conservative MPP for Stormont, Dundas, Glengarry and East Grenville said $100 million has been chopped from the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food's budget over the past two years, mainly to rebates.

Villeneuve, speaking to farmers at a Dundas Federation of Agriculture meeting last Wednesday, said OMAF has suffered more budget reductions than any other ministry.

He added that slightly more than one per cent of the provincial government's $41 billion budget is slated for the OMAF this year.



Conservative MPP Noble Villeneuve was guest speaker at a Dundas Federation of Agriculture meeting last Wednesday evening. Press Photo—Fetterly Villeneuve contends farmers and farm organizations need to put pressure on the government to prevent further cuts to the industry.

"We need to make more noise about it," he urged. "We may even need paid lobbyists, as in the U.S."

Villeneuve is particularly concerned with the future of the Farm Tax Rebate, which he feels the government is playing around with.

"It (the farm tax rebate) is made to look like a giveaway," he said, "when in fact, it is an equity injustice in the system".

He went on to say that city people have the misconception that farmers are getting a lot of handouts, and that the government has to look very closely at the taxing system.

The effects of high interest rates on farm income are also a concern to Villeneuve, who said he firmly believes we will see the popular interest rebate program resurrected.

"It is rough to pay 15 or 16 per cent interest...and they tell us it will get worse," he explained. "An interest reduction program is a must."

Villeneuve added we are now seeing a situation where farmers are either "doing very well or really struggling."

A farmland protection program is also being recommended by Villeneuve, who says farm practices should be defined to protect farmers against unsubstantiated complaints.

He also said, if "we are going to be environment friendly, then we are going to need a 12-month manure storage system, (but) you can't ask farmers to pay for all this."

Villeneuve also commented on OMAF's recent cutting of 10 agricultural engineers.

He said when he questioned OMAF Minister David Ramsay about the cuts, he was told government statistics showed that ag. engineers were only working to 27 per cent of their potential.

"I hope they're not thinking that the engineers have to be working to 100 per cent all the time to be efficient," said Villeneuve.

"Cutting back on our professional help is not the way to assist us," he said.

Crop insurance amendments

Legislation designed to make crop insurance programs more responsive to producers' needs, became law March 29, after receiving Royal Assent.

The changes give the provinces more flexibility in estimating probable yields and unit values which are used to determine the level of reimbursement to farmers. The Act will allow maximum coverage up to 90 per cent of probable yields to be made available for lower risk crops and areas.

Insurance requirements for new and minor crops have been eased to encourage diversification, and compensation for crop damage caused by protected migratory waterfowl is now statutory.

Producers will continue to pay 50 per cent and the federal and provincial governments will share the other 50 per cent.

Favored exhibition site receives mixed reviews

OSGOODE — Tilt-a-whirl or not-to-whirl.

Members of the public invited to an information night by the Central Canada Exhibition executive, seemed to be split on their acceptance or opposition to the Limebank Rd. Ex site in Gloucester.

Farmer George Drew said, "I may represent the silent majority but I feel it's necessary to find a place for the Ex to continue and I feel there is no better place for the Ex to take place."

The meeting opened with a half-hour presentation by Joe Mangione, an engineering consultant for the CCEA.

The estimated audience of 300 Osgoode, Rideau and Gloucester residents listened intently. Others raised concerns over the environment, water, sewage, noise, traffic and money.

Mangione stressed the CCEA would like to return the focus of the fair to its agricultural roots. "There will be no rock concerts or football games at the new site," said Mangione. "We would like to maintain the pastoral country setting."

The site plan calls for the concessions and midway to be centrally located with an arena to seat approximately 3,000 people, a football field with a track surrounding it, and two lighted ball diamonds. Additional areas are available for other sporting or recreational events.

The Ex site will contain cattle, sheep and horse barns, agricultural, general and food exhibit pavilions, future expansion areas both for exhibits and agriculture.

The 265-acre site is classified as agricultural in the Regional Official Plan. A portion of the property is also designated as a mineral resource area, which means there may be limestone or sand and gravel on the site which would have to be extracted or "used as building or upgrading material" on the site.

The official zoning bylaw and regional official plan will have to be amended to allow construction of the Ex site.

A hydrogeological study will be done to assure the availability of fresh water for the site and whether the site is suitable to accommodate a septic system.

Fay Hutt, an area resident whose property adjoins the proposed site, wants to make sure there is no hidden agenda for the Ex.

"I couldn't get a permit from the City of Gloucester to put in a new kitchen sink and you're talking about enough water for 500,000 people."

Hutt also said, "I guess I'll be an endangered species," in reference to the Ex's commitment to protect or relocate wildlife on the site.

"An initial study of the well system at St. Mark's High School," adjacent to the Ex site, "indicates they have a 60 gal. per minute capacity at a well depth of 87 ft. This indicates there is plenty of water to meet our initial requirements," said Mangione.

A septic system will be constructed on the site with tile fields to be spotted throughout the development. "It is intended to collect the sewage in a holding tank and disperse it through the tile system over a six-week period."

Two lakes will be created on the site to accommodate stormwater. "The lakes will store water for over 72 hours. The water to be released as runoff will be treated with ultraviolet light to remove effluence," said Mangione.

The lakes are also to be used to meet Gloucester firefighting requirements.

The new site will also have a berm (a grassed slope) surrounding its borders with deciduous and evergreen trees planted on the top of it.

The idea of a berm is to reduce sight lines to the fair and to keep the noise level to a minimum. "We will make every effort to meet and maintain provincial noise level standards," said Mangione.

The Ex executive is undertaking a study to conform with the Ontario Ministry of the Environment requirements on the site as well.

Parking lots on the Ex site are to be primarily grass. "We will insert a plastic gridding system about an inch under the surface of the grass to give it support and stability. We don't want the site to become an asphalt jungle. We want it to be green," said Mangione.

Highways to the site will have to be upgraded as well, Limebank Rd. primarily. "We estimate that six intersections along Limebank will have to be upgraded with the installation of left turn lanes. The site itself will have collector lanes to prevent traffic backing up onto the main entrance on Limebank," said Mangione.

Residents wanted to know why this site was chosen over 50 other possible sites.

Ex chairman Garry Guzzo says there are a number of reasons. "The price of the property, the future existence of a ring road adjacent to the site, two existing roads adjoining the site." Guzzo made it clear in no uncertain terms that if it wasn't the exhibition, it would be somebody else coming to the area.

The regional plans for the future of the area include the Nepean Urban Development with 60,000 people and South Gloucester 30,000.

Guzzo said that having chosen the site, the Ex should be given the same consideration any landowner would receive and he would ensure that every conceivable option would be exercised to guarantee just that.

Guzzo envisions perhaps a reopening of the Winter Fair on the new site with possible seed shows, trade shows and ploughing matches.

The Junior Farmers and the 4-H clubs would seem to welcome the Ex to the area as they found the present site at Lansdowne Park "To be cramped and the facilities are not adequate."

Larry O'Brien, of the Gloucester Lions Club, offered to put up a building on the site "At our expense."

In closing, Ex general manager Don Reid, said "I would like people to know the financial spin-off is considerable from the Ex site. Last year alone, I hired more than 900 kids to work at the Ex in Ottawa. The business community in the region will be positively affected."

Junior Farmers hold conference

by Wilma Nyenkamp

BARRIE — The annual conference of the Junior Farmers' Association of Ontario held March 16-18 in Barrie, was represented by seven delegates from Dundas County.

Attending delegates were: Wendy Achtereekte, Rosemary Beuman, Rob Carkner, Andreas Jampen, Heather McDiarmid and Wilma Nyenkamp.

The weekend's schedule included guest speakers Herb Roseneck speaking on this year's theme, "In 1990 you and I can reach the sky"; Joan Johanson — Feeling good about yourself and your organization (excellent presentation); and John Woods also speaking on the JFAO's theme.

The 'Dreamland Auction' of Zone packages (consisting on non-perishable items) was held Saturday afternoon. A total of close to $20,000 was collected and will be going toward the "Advanced Agricultural Leadership Program" (AALP). Thanks to all merchants in Dundas County for their contributions to our package.

With many sessions to attend, including the annual meeting, there was always time for a little socializing and a lot if you didn't need the sleep. On Friday night from 10pm to 1am, a reception was given on behalf of Zone 3 with the theme, 'Glow in the dark.' Following the banquet and dance Saturday night, Junior Farmers rushed back to their rooms for a second round (all dressed in green) from 1am to 4am.

Overall, the conference was a great success. New friends were made and new ideas attained and although there were weary eyes by Sunday afternoon, a great time was had by all.

Not to be forgotten, Thom Mueller, presently with the University of Guelph Junior Farmers and soon returning to Dundas County, won the international trip to Australia this year. Bon Voyage.

Fiddler on the Roof raises the roof in Greely

GREELY — The musical, Fiddler on the Roof, exceeded all expectations last weekend as the delightful production drew laughter, applause and standing ovations from the three appreciative audiences.

Producer Carol Parker, stage director Patsy Royer and musical director John Pohran made excellent use of the local talent available to them, with impressive and professional results.

The story revolved around Tevye and Golde, their daughters and their small Jewish community, which shared a little village with Russians in that country. Tevye's deep-rooted beliefs in 'tradition' were put to the test as one daughter after another broke 'tradition'by defying the matchmaker Yente, and their father, in building their own futures. The Russian soldiers in the village, although usually maintaining a peaceful co-existence, mamaged to present problems too.

Al Page played the role of Tevye with sensitivety and power. His scenes with Paul Warmington (perfectly cast in the role of Lazer Wolf) were a delight, and his unique dancing style was a joy to see.

Joan Scott was a most convincing Golde and the role gave considerable scope for her beautiful singing talent. Another amazing powerful singing voice was that of Kirk Douglas. He was perfectly cast as Motel, the poor tailor who courted and wed Tevye's eldest daughter, the lovely Tzeitel (played by Janice Calnan).

Hodel, the second eldest daughter, was played by songstress Janet Villeneuve. She was converted to more untraditional ideas by the student Perchik, played by Art Conn. Emily Conn as the next daughter, Chava, presented the most difficult break in tradition which Tevye could not accept. She ran off with one of the Russians in the village, Fyedka, played by Eric Seely.

The remaining daughters, young Schprintze and Bielke, were portrayed by Heather Scott and Corrie Clarke.

Elaine Stanley as Yente, Lawrence Miron as the pesky Russian constable, Garnet Quaile as innkeeper Mordcha, Roy Parker as the wise Rabbi and Linda Feenstra as the beggar Nachum all demonstrated their individual talents more creditably.

The 'dream scene' with Diana Boland as the 'back from the grave' Granma Tzeitel and Marian Thibault as the ghostly and ghastly Fruma-Sarah was incredible, with impressive lighting effects.

Kirstin Daub was charming in displaying her talents as 'The Fiddler' and the Russian soldiers, Jeff Stanley, Paul Elford, Tamara Lanthier and Mike Calnan, were entertaining too.

David Gray, Tamara Lanthier and Eric Seely added special interest and excitement with their exotic 'Bottle Dance'.

Ron Parker as Mendel, Cecil Stanley as Avrahm, Kathy Daub as Shaindel and Al Bezanson as the priest were important in their supporting roles; and, adding the background for the magic of the show as villagers were Joanne Nevins, Holly Villeneuve, Eve Spragg, Kirsten Daub, Sylvie Royer, Danny Royer, Peter Tretter, David Gray, Debbie Stanley and Bryce Douglas.

Not the least of the whole performance was the wonderful music supplied by the Canterbury High School orchestra under the direction of John Pohran.

Also worthy of special mention are Julia Larose for her excellent makeup of the cast and Chris Gibson for excellent lighting effects.

Even without a stage manager, the cast is to be commended for their swiftly efficient handling of scenery and props during scene changes. It was well planned and perfectly handled.

Emotions ran high as the curtain fell on the final act Saturday night. Carol Parker, Patsy Royer, John Pohran and Lize Bezanson were presented with flowers amidst a rousing standing ovation.

One of the unforeseen benefits arising from the preparations for this production were the 'lifelong friendships' which had been forged, Kirk Douglas commented.

"It's been the greatest experience of my life," said Janet Villeneuve in reminiscing about the show. "I'm really looking forward to doing the next one." It may be another two years as the excellent orchestra will not be available again until 1992 she said.

There is no question that the newly-formed Greely Players plan to stay together to produce future shows. With this incredible success behind them, they will be assured of sell-out audiences.

With an all-time record number of members, Winchester Curling Club has just completed the most successful year in its 32-year history. Treasurer C.R. Robinson said that total revenue during the year was $9,160, including a $5,000 loan. Total membership now totals 100 men and women. In other business, Sam Ault has been re- elected president of the club. Other officers include treasurer Robinson, secretary Howard Summers and directors Ed Boyd, Charles Anderson, Howard Biccum and Fred Christie.

The poor condition of township roads came up for discussion at the April meeting of Williamsburg council held Saturday in the IOOF Hall. Council expressed the view that the deteriorating state of many of the roads was due largely to big trucks carrying heavy loads. Council instructed the road superintendent to erect Half Load signs immediately.

Winchester's Highway 31 bypass will likely get under way next year. Along with the rehabilitation of the route through the village, the finishing touches, paving and so forth, the project should be completed in 1972.

Williamsburg Township voters go to the polls next Wednesday, in a special election being held under the Liquor Control Act. The plebiscite has been called to determine whether or not the St. Lawrence Parks Commission will be allowed to serve liquor with meals and operate a lounge in its new Upper Canada golf course clubhouse. At least 60 per cent of ballots cast must favor the liquor application for it to be approved.

The First Winchester Scouts and Cubs are in need of used uniforms. Scout leaders feel there may be several good uniforms not in use and if so, they might be worn by new members of the troops. Scouts and Cubs who find it financially impossible to purchase uniforms would benefit greatly and those who have either pants, shirts, hats or other Scout apparel are asked to contact either Cub leader C. Taylor, Scout leader L. Gray or group committee chairman George Elliott.

Before long, South Mountain residents will have a chance to broaden their lunch and dinner menus. At a meeting of township council Monday, Ed Borne was given the nod to operate a pizzeria out of his home. Borne, who lives on Main Street beside Tremblay's Garage, told council that the pizzeria will operate solely as a take-out service.

American import Rich Boprey scored three times, leading visiting Morrisburg Lions to a convincing 8-5 victory over the Hawks here Tuesday. The win evens the Southeast Junior B championship final series at three games apiece and forced a seventh and deciding game in Morrisburg tonight. The largest crowd in Winchester hockey history - 1,306 - jammed the arena here for the game which kept Morrisburg alive for a second time.

Ratepayers throughout SD&G are facing an average 23 per cent hike in their county taxes this year, resulting from a $9.9 million budget passed last Wednesday by Counties Council. Winchester Township is one of the hardest-hit municipalities, facing a 43 per cent tax hike. This is due to the township's increased assessment and higher levy.

Vision conference offers alternatives

STRATFORD — The Victorian Inn, Stratford, Ontario was the site of a two-day conference March 22-24, reports John Langlois. The chairman of the Catholic Rural Life Conference of the Diocese of London, from Embro, Ontario, who organized the Vision 2000 Conference with the National Farmers Union continued, "I am delighted with the response and the results of the conference."

"We had a great cross-section of family farming communities from all parts of the province. The speakers provided information to participants to reach concensus in the workshop sessions. The proposals contained in 'Growing Together', the paper presented by the federal government in December 1989, represent the greatest threat to the family farm by accepting and promoting the Free Trade Agreement and globalization," Langlois pointed out.

The conference produced an 'alternative vision' to 'Growing Together' that establishes social and economic objectives for the family farm and determines its policy direction based on these objectives.

It was considered that social programs and economic safety nets are at risk as well as serious consequences for the ecology; our soils cannot sustain continued intensive production without rapid deterioration. Canadian farmers must have the security of priority access to their domestic markets and prices for products linked to cost of production to create an environment where stewardship of the land remains the prime consideration.

There were numerous speakers from all parts of Canada as well as the EEC and Japan. Bishop John Sherlock of London gave the keynote address with a concise analysis of Agriculture Canada's 'Growing Together' and the dangers of its proposals to the survival of the family farm.

A panel comprised of John Dowling, Howe Island in Frontenac County, Ont., co-ordinator for the NFU, Dr. Michel Morisset, University of Laval, Quebec City and Ed Bespalko, Saskatchewan Rural Life Ministry from Qu'Appelle, Sask. summarized their views on the condition of the family farms in their areas and their views on the future of agriculture under the federal government's agenda and the Free Trade agreement.

Dr. Sicco Mansholt, Holland, first agriculture minister of the EEC and author of its Common Agriculture Policy, and Yutaka Usui, liaison officer for ZENCHU, the Agricultural Co-operative Movement in Japan, compared their countries' protection of family farms in comparison to Canada's market oriented economy.

Del O'Brien, Pembroke, Ontario, lawyer and former chairman of the Ontario Drainage Tribunal, gave the address at Friday night's dinner.

On Saturday, the principal speakers were Hon. Eugene Whelan, former minister of agriculture, who gave his usual critical analysis of present Agriculture Canada policy, followed by Roy Atkinson, Landis, Sask., co-founder and past president of the National Farmers Union, who exhorted farmers to inform themselves and thereby make the decisions as to how and with whom they should organize.

The closing address of the conference was given by Raye-Anne Briscoe, the executive assistant/national issues for the NFU, challenging participants to empower their communities by informing their families, neighbors and general farm organizations of this new vision and the need for clear-cut, hands-on leadership. Briscoe emphasized the need for commitment, involvement and sacrifice.

Does the cost of bottled water make it hard to swallow?

A Bruner/Goulds AquaGuard Drinking Water System can make bottled water from your tap water for only pennies-a-day. The system fits under your sink and dispenses high quality drinking water from its own faucet. No bottles to carry — no inconvenience...and a lot less cost.

That's a lot easier to swallow isn't it.

Osgoode Township toasts Volunteer Appreciation Week

GREELY — Osgoode Township council will host an Appreciation Night for the many residents in the township who volunteer their time for the betterment of their community. The event is planned for April 27, during National Volunteer Week, at the Greely Community Centre.

The doors will open at 6pm with a cold buffet available at 6:30. The Old Tyme Music Association will entertain from 7 to 9pm and there will a special demonstration by the celebrated Greely Grasshoppers, a team of local young people who have been highly successful at national skipping competition.

To provide fun for people of all interests and age groups, a DJ will play music more suited to younger volunteers, beginning at 9pm and continuing until 1am. Late revellers will be treated to a midnight buffet.

This is the third such event to be held in the township over the years. They occur about every three years.

The township could not afford to operate the countless sports events, youth and seniors groups, activities and other community functions which are made possible, without the generosity of the many township residents who volunteer their time and talents. Council members feel these efforts should not go unrecognized and the Volunteer Appreciation Night is their way of saying 'thank you.'

Every Osgoode Township resident who volunteers time for the benefit of his/her community is invited to attend this event.

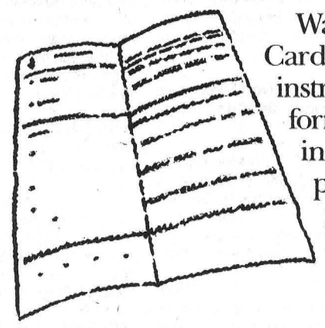
The new Ontario Health Card is coming.

It replaces your OHIP card and gives you all the same benefits!

What is the new Ontario Health Card?

It's a plastic card with your name and new, personal health number printed on it. It gives you the same benefits you received under OHIP.

How do I get my new Health Card?



Watch your mail for the Health Card Information Kit. Read the instructions carefully, then fill in the form, and return it to us right away in the postage-paid envelope provided. The sooner we get your form, the sooner you get your new Health Card.

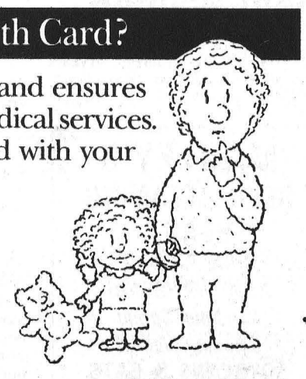
Why do I need a new Health Card?

It replaces your OHIP card and ensures your continuous coverage for medical services. Your new Health Card is printed with your personal number.

No one else can use it.

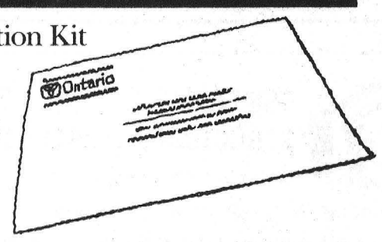
It's yours for life.

Until your new Health Card arrives, continue to use your OHIP card!



How will I get a Health Card Information Kit?

A Health Card Information Kit will be delivered to each Ontario household. Additional kits can be picked up at Canada Post Offices and local Ministry of Health offices.



I am a Senior Citizen. Do I get a new Health Card and a new Ontario Senior Citizen Privilege Card?

Your new Health 65 Card replaces both your OHIP card and your Ontario Senior Citizen Privilege Card. As of July 1, 1990, the one number on the new Health 65 Card will provide you with all the same benefits.

Why is the system changing?

The Ontario Ministry of Health is changing to a new system that serves you better.

The new card will make possible the gathering of reliable data on services used which, by indicating health trends, will enable the Ministry to plan efficiently to meet future health care needs. This personal number will ensure a high level of confidentiality.

If you need more information, contact the Ministry of Health office nearest you, or call the toll-free Health Card Information Line: 1-800-268-1154.

Telecommunication Devices for the Deaf (TDD): 1-800-387-5559.

Card of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS — The members of Royal Black Precepetory No. 509 Winchester would like to say thank you to the local merchants for their generous donations at our annual ladies night banquet: Muriel's Flowers, Ault Foods Ltd., Stedmans Dept. Store, IDA Drugstore, and Fawcett's Heritage House of gifts. 1

CARD OF THANKS — I would like to thank Robert, Marion, Phyllis, Carl and families for organizing my 80th birthday party. I enjoyed the fellowship of relatives, friends and neighbors. The buffet lunch served by the Women's Institute was delicious. Thanks for coming and making Saturday a day to remember. I would also like to thank Unit 4 of the UCW for coming to my home and serving birthday cake.
—Pearl Carkner 1

CARD OF THANKS — I would like to thank my family, friends, neighbors, Lodge members and West Osgoode Old Tyme Music Association for visits, flowers, cards and phone calls while I was a patient in WDMH. Special thanks to Dr. Chande and Dr. Vorebej, nurses and students of 1st floor for their excellent care. Your kindness will be remembered.
—Fred Alexander 1

CARD OF THANKS — In memory of our dear brother, Gene Boisvenue, we would like to thank everyone for their kindness, those who visited and gave donations. Special thanks to the Legion members, Rev. Mills, also to the undertakers. A very special thanks to Mabel Ogden for all her help and kindness. It was deeply appreciated.
—Lucille and Laura Wicks 1

CARD OF THANKS — The family of the late Thomas I. Holmes would like to thank everyone who remembered us in any way during the illness and death of our loved one. Thanks to those who sat with him in the hospital. We would also like to thank Dr. Dawes, the nurses and staff on 2nd floor for their special care and concern. Thank you for the cards, flowers, phone calls, visits, prayers and food donations to Marion and Bob's home. Your generous donations to the Heart and Stroke Foundation, the Winchester Hospital Fund, the Cancer Fund, Wesleyan Church, were all appreciated. Special thanks to the Mountain neighbors for the lovely flower arrangement and hospital donation. Thanks to grandsons: Gregory, Lynden, Randy, Kevin, Jeffrey Holmes and Brent Carkner for acting as pallbearers. Special thanks to Rev. Eldon LeRoy for his comforting works of condolence and prayers, to Mr. Daniels and staff and to Mr. Elgin Bowman for supplying the music. We appreciated the ladies who served a delicious lunch in the Wesleyan Church Hall. Your many acts of kindness will always be remembered. God bless you all.

In Memoriam

CROSS — In loving memory of a dear husband, Lawrence, who passed away April 13, 1989.
We made our vows together,
And said "till death do part"
So when God came and took your hand
My whole life fell apart.
No one knows the heartache
I try so hard to hide
When I look back upon our lives
Just one thing makes me glad
That you chose me to share
With you the precious years we had.
—Sadly missed by your wife
Cyprienne (Cippie) 1

McROSTIE — In loving memory of our parents: Howard, who died April 15, 1976 and Ethel, April 17, 1988.
From our family, home and circle
God took them whom we loved.
Borne away from sin and sorrow,
To a nobler rest above.
We miss their loving hand clasp,
We miss their cheery smile,
But God to us is whispering,
It is only for awhile.
—Sadly missed,
Oswald, Ken and Audrey 1

BECKSTEAD — In loving memory of our dear daughter Pheobe, who passed away April 4, 1989.
You had a smile for everyone,
You had a heart of gold,
To us you were so special,
What more is there to say,
Except to wish with all our hearts,
That you were here today,
We like to think when life is done,
Wherever heaven may be,
That you'll be standing at the door,
To welcome us so tenderly.
—Sadly missed, never to be forgotten,
Albert, Pauline and family 1

WARREN — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Clifford Warren who passed away April 10, 1982.
We keep in our hearts the love of the past,
For there it was planted, forever to last.
—Always loved and remembered,
Beatrice, Elizabeth, Shelley and Shannon 1

BECKSTEAD — In loving memory of a dear mother, Phoebe, who passed away April 4, 1989.
We think of you dear mother,
And our hearts are filled with pain,
Oh this earth would be a heaven,
Could we hear your voice again,
One year has swiftly passed away,
But still we don't forget,
For in our hearts that loved you best,
Your memory lingers yet.
—Sadly missed, but always remembered by your daughter
Christina, son Joseph 1

THOMAS — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Orval Frank, who passed away April 11, 1974.
We often sit and think of him
When we are all alone
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.
—Always remembered by wife Della and daughter Geraldine 1c

BECKSTEAD — In memory of our son and brother, Barry, and (Joe) Allan Bouck who died accidentally on April 13, 1979.
They say time heals all sorrow,
But this is just not true:
And memories are just memories,
They'll never replace you.
—Sadly missed, Mom, Dad, Shannon and Christopher 1

Notice of Public Meeting
concerning proposed Zoning Bylaw Amendment
(BURNS)

Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the Village of Winchester will hold a public meeting on the 7th day of May, 1990, at 7pm, Municipal Building, Winchester to consider a proposed Zoning Bylaw Amendment under Section 34 of the Planning Act, 1983.

The proposed Zoning Bylaw Amendment would rezone a property located at the southeast corner of Main and Mill Streets from "General Commercial" (C1) to "General Commercial - Exception" (C1-1).

The exception provisions permit reduced yards and parking.

It is proposed to construct a retail store (grocery store) on the site. The proposed use is permitted in the General Commercial (C1) . The exception provisions are required in order to permit the proposed building to be located on the property.

Any person interested may attend the Public Meeting and/or make written or verbal representation either in support of, or in opposition to the proposed Zoning Bylaw Amendment.

Additional information relating to the proposed Zoning Bylaw Amendment is available for inspection during normal office hours at the Municipal Offices in Winchester.

Dated at the Village of Winchester this 10th day of April, 1990.

W. B. Appleby
Clerk,
Village of Winchester

Notice of the passing of a Zoning Bylaw
by the Village of Winchester

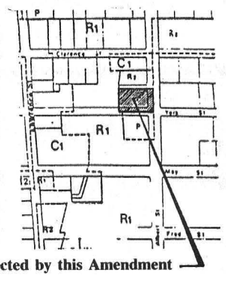
Take Notice that the Council of the Village of Winchester passed Bylaw no. 90-9 on the 2nd day of April, 1990, under section 34 of The Planning Act, 1983.

And take notice that any person or agency may appeal to the Ontario Municipal Board in respect of the bylaw by filing with the Clerk of the Village of Winchester not later than the 30th day of April, 1990, a notice of appeal setting out the objection to the bylaw and the reasons in support of the objection.

An explanatory note of the purpose and effect of the bylaw, describing the lands to which the bylaw applies (or, alternatively, an explanation as to why a key map is not provided) are attached. The complete bylaw is available for inspection in my office during regular office hours.

Dated at the Village of Winchester this 3rd day of April, 1990.

W. B. Appleby
Clerk
Village of Winchester



Lands affected by this Amendment

Purpose and effect of bylaw

This Zoning Bylaw Amendment rezones approximately 1780 m² (19,159 ft²) of land located on Part 1, R.P. 8R-2794 at the northwest corner of Albert and York Streets from "Residential Density 2 Zone" (R2) to "Residential Density 2 - Exception" (R2-4, R2-5, R2-6) to permit the creation of three lots through severance.

Three exception zones have been created to recognize reductions in lot area and lot frontage for the three proposed lots. It is intended that two of the proposed lots be developed with semi-detached dwellings, with the third lot to retain the existing single-detached dwelling.

The permitted density for residential development on this 0.43 acre parcel would permit one single-detached dwelling and 1.7 semi-detached dwellings or 3.4 semi-detached dwelling units. As the applicant's request is only slightly greater than the permitted density as defined by Bylaw no. 76-11, Council considers the creation of these lots as appropriate.

Mr. W. Appleby, Clerk, may be contacted for further information at 774-2105.

Save our wildlife

Laurie Lyon, representing Greenpeace, spent an afternoon at Metcalfe Public School recently when she spoke to pupils, not only from the host school, but also visiting girls and boys from neighboring St. Catherine's School and Greely Public School. The children listened attentively as she painted a vivid world-picture of what the future holds in store unless action is taken to protect the environment and all forms of wildlife. She used a tiny inflated replica of the Beluga whale to demonstrate her message. The photo is conclusive evidence the little ones were deeply impressed. Press Photo—Rowan

Mountain Seniors plan trip to London

by Doreen Gillespie

MOUNTAIN — Mountain Seniors held their March 28th meeting in the Mountain Community Hall. Sixty-eight members and three guests were present. President Beulah Allen opened the meeting, welcoming members and guests.

O Canada and the Lord's Prayer followed. Minutes were read and approved and other committee reports given. A short discussion was held on this year's Spacewalk.

A trip to London, St. Thomas area is being planned for May 7 to 10. This should be a real fun time. For booking, call Doris Hyndman.

During the month of April there will be practices for euchre, shuffleboard and cribbage held in the hall on Tuesdays at 1pm.

A good play is coming up on April 20 in Iroquois at 8pm. A country dance is being held April 5 at 8pm in the Winchester Lions Hall.

A donation was made to the Cancer fund. After completing the business meeting, the luncheon was enjoyed by all.

Doris Mills, in keeping with the theme, read a poem entitled "Animal Friends," after which she introduced guests Cathy Lynn, George Caldwell and his faithful companion, guide "Fergus," a beautiful golden retriever.

Cathy spoke first on Canadian guide dogs for the blind or disabled. The school in Manotick has turned out over 80 graduates. Labradors and golden retrievers appear to be the favored dogs for this life, as they adapt to families so readily and are not upset at being moved from their first adopted family to their permanent homes after they have completed their schooling.

George then spoke of his experiences going through the school and the training of the dogs. He also told how puppies are put into homes to be taught basic manners and be sociable first; they are also taken into noisy situations, streets, malls, anywhere there is lots of people and traffic.

George demonstrated how well Fergus works, but he took off Fergus' harness and then the dog romped around like a happy child at recess.

Anyone interested in visiting the school may do so as there are tours on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Contact Canadian Guide Dogs for the Blind, Rideau Valley Drive North, Box 280, Manotick, K0A 2N0. You may also support this project by sending a donation to the above address if you wish.

The program closed with a doggie poem by Evelyn Francis called "Old Ring."

The South Mountain ladies are to be commended for their lovely program.

The next meeting is April 25 with the Hallville ladies in charge. Euchres are on April 16 and 30.

May your journey be short and the wind always at your back. Till next time.

Dairy Club meets

by Charlene Enright

WINCHESTER — The 4-H East Dundas Dairy Club held its first meeting at the OMAF office on March 29.

Club leaders are Paul Helmer, Gord Milne, Paul Porteous and Alvin Runnals. Darlene Van Wylick was elected president; Derek Merkley, vice-president; Melissa Douma, secretary; Charlene Enright, press reporter; Marie Enright, youth leader.

Our next meeting will be held at Paul Helmer's on April 19 at 8pm.

Lions Hall hosts country dance

by Ruby Steele

The Old Time Country Dance, which was held on Thurs., April 5 in the Lions Hall in Winchester, was a great success. Approximately 80 people enjoyed the evening, dancing to the music of the 1920s and 1930s, played by the Hy Shy Nigh Orchestra and guest artists, Thelma Bradford, Malcolm Scharf, Norman Robinson and Lorne Barkley.

The party was planned and designed by Ruby B. Steele. A scene to reflect. The theme was: An adult-sized doll (Polly) was scrubbing clothes on an old glass washboard in a tub. Polly was dressed in a long, green cotton, full-skirted dress, trimmed in chinchilla lace with brown accessories which matched her golden hair — quite appropriate for yesteryear.

The old wooden bar dryer displayed a white pair of ladies' underwear, made from bleached rolled oats bags which were proudly worn in those days.

The lace curtains, nicely hung on the wall behind the scene, added a touch of warmth. A table was also placed there with a guest book and a black plumed pen for all guests to sign.

The Lions Hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion with Chinese lanterns and red and green streamers, plus 50 colored balloons.

The lights were turned low to make a more cozy atmosphere and to reflect the old lamplight for dancing. The traditional square dances were called by Dwight Baker and the old waltzes and fox trots kept the floor well occupied.

The committee consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Docksteader and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Steele.

Barbara Blair and Thelma Bradford sang several solos and Edith Waldroffe played some nice selections on the mouth organ.

Lunch was served after the home waltz, with Mrs. Gordon Irven pouring coffee. The cookies which were not used were donated to the Matilda Resource Centre.
