$1500 for Chesterville

The Honourable Donald R. Irvine, MPP Grenville-Dundas, Minister of Housing, is pleased to announce that funds have been made available to the Village of Chesterville in the amount of $1,500. under the Community Planning Study Grant Programme. 50 per cent of this amount will be forwarded to the Village shortly as an initial payment, with the remaining funds becoming available to the Village after satisfactory completion of the study. The grants are provided as part of the Ministry of Housing's objective of assisting municipalities to determine their own housing requirements and targets, as well as integrating these with provincial housing objectives, all within a sound planning framework.

We get phone calls

We received a phone call this morning, Tuesday, from an anonymous caller, questioning the validity of using a Peewee player from Morrisburg to play for Chesterville Legion Peewees, in a recent tournament. The gentleman stated that there were many irate parents over this incident and he wanted to know what the Record was going to do about it. We pointed out that the rules are set down by the ODMHA and we really don't have much to say over who plays, or does not play in the Minor Hockey System. We had a slight disagreement over whether a team should play to win or only the sport of the game. We felt that winning had some merit while he was for the sport of the game, with winning a secondary thing. Can anyone give us the right answer to this situation.

Initial meeting held

The first meeting of the Morewood 4-H Calf Club was held on Tuesday, April 1st, at the home of Doug Hunter. The agenda for the upcoming season was discussed and an election of officers was held. President, Margaret Hunter; Vice-President, Connie Vanderlaan; Secretary, Mary Beuman and Press Reporter Janet Hunter. Lunch was served following the meeting.

Honoured on birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Leduc, of Finch, entertained at their home last Sunday in honour of Mr. Walter Carlyle, of Morewood, whose 75th birthday is April 10. Mrs. Leduc, the former Linda MacLeod, is a granddaughter of Mr. Carlyle. At the conclusion of dinner a beautifully decorated birthday cake was enjoyed by all. Among those attending were four of the five children - Mrs. Archie MacLeod (Gladys) of Finch, John and Donald of Morewood and James of Brockville. Mac of Edmonton was unable to be present. Several grandchildren and great grandchildren were also in attendance.

Review '75 Fashions

Neither sleet, nor snow nor wind conquered the determination of the sponsors of the fashion show organized for Signet Chapter No. 272 O.E.S.

The show was originally scheduled to be held on Thursday night but the infamous late winter storm forced postponement until Friday night. Then over 50 women braved the elements to see fashions from Al-Mor Ladies' Wear modeled in Chesterville Community Hall.

The hall had been delightfully decorated to illustrate the theme of the show "April Showers bring May Flowers" which in view of the revolting weather developments did seem to be rather ironic. Miss Addie Campderros, Mrs. Jean Loughridge and Mrs. Olive Cass were responsible for the decorations.

The beautiful gay spring and summer fashions were skillfully modelled by Mrs. Norma MacIntyre, Mrs. Betty Shaver and Miss Eileen Runions of Finch, Mrs. Ann Langabeer, Mrs. Joyce McMahon, Mrs. Betty MacIntosh, Miss Kathy Ziebel, and Miss Addie Campderros of Chesterville. Commentator for the show was Mrs. L. Hough of Finch and delightful music throughout the show was supplied by Mrs. Helen Cross at the piano. Make-up artist was Mrs. Betty MacIntosh through the courtesy of Beauty Counsellor.

The show was opened by Mrs. Anne Cook, Worthy Matron of Signet Chapter, who conducted the drawing for several beautiful prizes supplied by generous merchants in Chesterville, Crysler and Finch.

Mrs. Cook also expressed the appreciation of all present to Mrs. Jean Ziebel, proprietor of the Al-Mor Ladies' Shop, for supplying the fashions and to the models and all others involved for their assistance.

After the close of the show, doughnuts and coffee were enjoyed.

Chesterville Council April Session . . .

New speakers and tractor purchased for arena site for Senior Citizen Housing to be discussed

Rent-Geared-to-Income Housing for Chesterville and Winchester Township. The Ontario Housing Corporation had received a letter of protest concerning the site that was being considered (the Eric Casselman property). Senior Land Agent K. Krause will be meeting with council representatives and the Executive of the Chesterville Senior Citizens' Association on Friday of this week. At this meeting it is hoped that some of the differences can be resolved.

Discussion was held on the extension of water and sewage serices to the Thompson and VanKessel sub-divisions at the South-West side of the town. The sub-dividers cannot proceed with plans until they are served by a trunk sewer line and water main West on South Street from College Street. It was related that the Minister of the Environment insists that sub-dividers pay the total cost for the installation, although the work must be done on town property.

The sub-dividers have indicated they will proceed, at their cost, with the construction as soon as the weather is fit.

Chesterville Council, in December, had ordered an official survey of the Eastern Boundary of the Village. The line has now been established and registered as official.

Council met in session again on Tuesday, April 8, to clean up the regular business for the month.

The sound system in Chesterville arena has been a real 'bugbear,' from 'Day One' of its installation, the system has insisted in producing garbled reproduction and has been everything but satisfactory.

The sound system has been 'cussed' and discussed at great length, and now something of major proportion is going to be done to improve the situation. Two new speakers have been ordered from Roy Fawcett of Winchester. The speakers that are to be purchased have been tested in the 'hockey palace', using another amplifier with less wattage, and have received the stamp of approval. If the present amplifier at the arena does not come up to scratch it will also be replaced. Reeve H. Keith Graham and Village Clerk Lloyd Graham were authorized, at the meeting, to complete the transaction.

While discussing problems at the arena the topic was switched to the possibility of purchasing a gasoline powered tractor to handle ice cleaning and flooding. A proposition was considered from Burnis Short, M - F Dealer, Chesterville, whereby the rent paid over the season, just over, would be applied against the purchase price of the tractor. The initial cost of the vehicle was set at $4,000. Taking away the $900 paid in rent over the past few months reduces the price to $3100. The tractor transaction was completed on Tuesday night of this week.

Clerk Graham reported to council on the recent developments regarding Senior Citizen

Weather plays havoc with Carl-Don Sale

Annually, the firm of Carl-Don Equipment, IH Dealers with branches in Chesterville and Mountain, hold Pancake Day in the early days of spring. Again this year plans were made to hold the Pancake Day, only for 1975 an auction sale was added to the plans. The plans were well laid — the pancakes were ordered, the coffee, cheese and pickles were made ready and consignments were being received in record numbers. This is when Mother Nature took the notion not to co-operate. By last Friday morning, the first day of the sale, Eastern Ontario was witnessing one of the worst storms of the winter. On Saturday, when the sale continued, the weather had improved slightly, but many roads were still unpassable, due to the blowing snow.

Just to prove what a hardy lot farmers are, approximately 700 people turned out over the two days to purchase a piece of equipment or partake of the goodies offered by the firm.

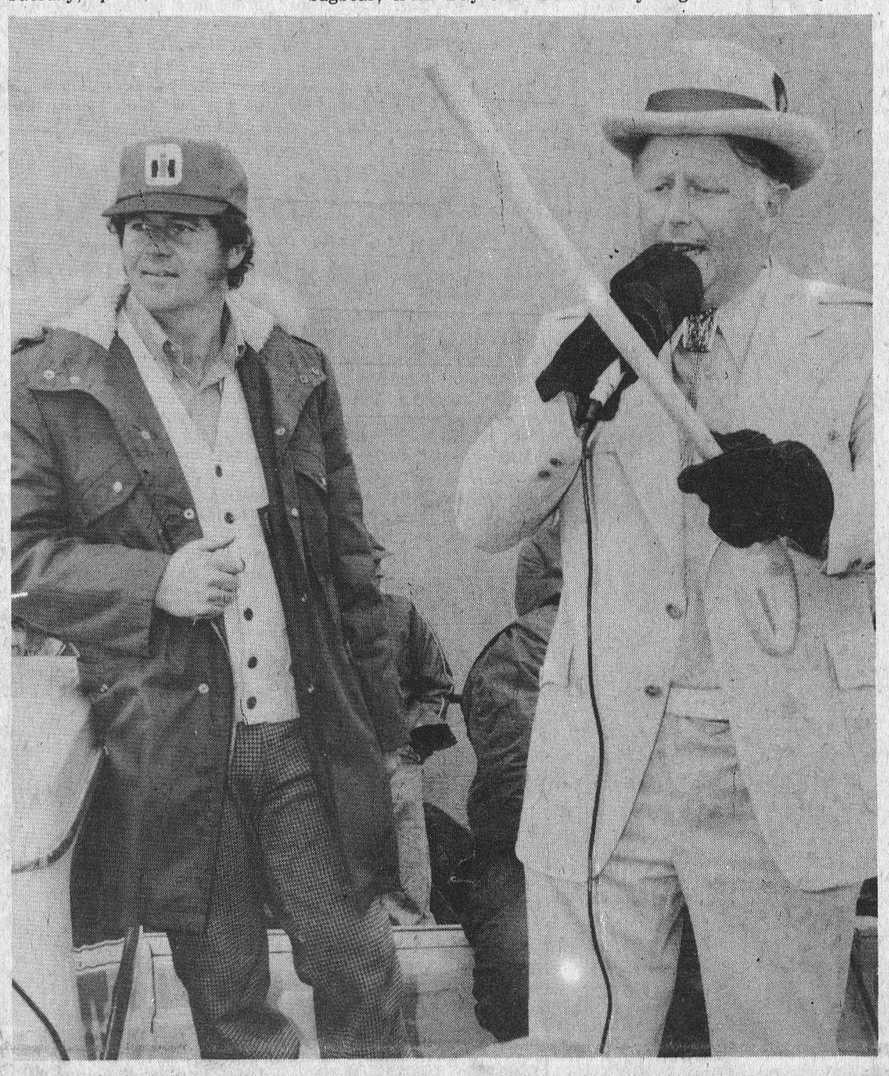
The crowd that was on hand at 2 p.m. on Friday, for the start of the sale, was small and only about 75 lots were moved before the auctioneer called it quits for the day.

Officials of Carl-Don were enthusiastic with the crowd on Saturday as they prepared to move the balance of the $500,000 worth of equipment. 360 registered as buyers on Saturday. People travelled from the States, Quebec, Western Ontario and the surrounding area to get in on the action. At 11 a.m. on Saturday the auction was started and contintued until 6:30 p.m. in the afternoon.

The Saturday session was not only gratifying for the owners but the Iroquois Lions Club, who ran the refreshment booth in conjunction with the sale, was completely sold out of hot dogs and hamburgs. In all over 600 stopped at the Iroquois concession.

Wayne Spratt, 'The Valley Auctioneer', and his Associates were able to move 125 lot on Saturday. Management at Carl-Don Equipment were satisfied with the two-day sale, despite the freak April storm which hampered both buyers and sellers.

The fact that the weather retarded the selling last weekend and with many consignments still coming in — the sale will continue again this Saturday with selling to start at 11 a.m. and will continue until the estimated 175 items are gone.



Yes, and who will give me another fifty? The famous words of Wayne Spratt as he auctioned off hundreds of items during Carl-Don Equipments two day auction sale held last weekend. The huge snow storm took its toll keeping many buyers away. Another sale is slated for this weekend in order to sell the remainder of the vast stock of machinery. In the photo above Don Graham, left admires an artist at work as Wayne Spratt gets another $50 out of a prospective buyer. — Staff Photo.

Alexandria man will seek Liberal nomination

Gerard Massie, who farms three miles East of Alexandria, announced this week that he will seek the nomination in the upcoming convention to represent the S. D. and G. Liberals at the polls.

1963 was the first year that Mr. Massie became involved in politics, when he won a bid to sit as a councillor in the Township of Lochiel. He served for two years as a councillor and then moved up to sit for three years as Deputy Reeve. From this position Massie sat as Reeve of the Township from 1968 to 1974. In 1973 Gerard sat as Warden of the Three United Counties. When it came time for nominations at the municipal level Mr. Massie did not contest the riding in 1974.

Recently, after attending the Liberal Annual meeting and Policy Conference, held in Windsor, and having followed the conference very closely, especially the keynote speech of Liberal Leader Robert Nixon, Gerard Massie has decided to throw his hat back into the political scene at the provincial level.

"I feel I could represent the constituency with the advantage of knowing the needs of the area" said Mr. Massie.

North Stormont Branch Broomball Bonanza . . .

Generates enthusiasm, raises $267 for Cancer Research

The North Stormont Branch, of the Canadian Cancer Society, kicked off their current campaign for funds for Research and Education with a Broomball Tournament held in the Finch Community Centre on Sunday. The tidy sum of $267, was realized from the afternoon's proceedings to make a start on the $4,000 which is the target for this area.

Bill Workman, on behalf of the Finch Village Council, welcomed all those present and Miss Louise LeBrun, Crysler Carnival Queen led the first of the set of three teams onto the ice. The first game featured the Crysler Ladies' Team against the Finch Lion's Club. The ladies showed fine style and gave the roaring Lions a run for their money but failed to come up with a win.

In the second game, Finch Ladies' pitched their skills at broom weilding against a formidable detatchment of O.P.P. from Morrisburg. However, the ladies, fearing recriminations in the form of traffic tickets, played at less than their usual great form, as evidenced by the 3-1 score. Sharon MacLeod was the lone markswoman for the ladies while at least one of the O.P.P. goals was scored by Garry Ouderkirk of Finch, who along with Colonel Montgomery had been enlisted to support the boys in blue. During the last two minutes of the game it was noted that there did seem to be more than the usual number of female players on the ice — in fact, the players box was entirely empty.

The third game just had to be the ultimate in amusing spectator sport, when a team of Doctors, Dentists, and assorted personnel of Winchester and District Memorial Hospital took to the ice against the Berwick Ladies. The Doctors, nattily attired in their green operating theatre gowns, featured the "Masked Marvel" in goal. He appeared to have suffered a broken leg as evidenced by the swathing of leg bandages and fended off his opponents' advances with a crutch instead of the usual broom. Special note should be made of Dr. "Boom-Boom" Baron, whose advanced training in the art of square dancing, enabled him to move very gracefully up and down the ice. And Dr. Slowey's skill on the soccer field helped him to bounce the ball off any part of his anatomy very adroitly. Dr.'s Domanco and Justus were reported to have found it difficult to disassociate themselves from their profession and requested any recumbent Berwick player to "stick out your tongue and say Ah". During the second period, two clowns "crashed" the game and with the aid of a second ball scored two unauthorized goals for the Berwick gals. These clowns, who had entertained during the afternoon, bore a striking resemblance to a certain Mr. Arden Robertson and Hubert Casselman of Berwick.

Connie Dingwall, Coach of the Berwick team, was rumoured to have gotten even with all doctors in general who use especially

'Have Books' — 'Will Sell'

Excess of books, shortage of buyers

Chesterville Cubs and Scouts, who are diligently working to raise funds for the Norway Fund, have mixed emotions over a recent venture they tried. The lads busily gathered pocket novels to be sold or traded to the public. The gathering process went like clock work and the end result was nearly 2300 pocket novels, touching on nearly every topic imaginable.

The collection and gathering of the books was the gratifying part. The disappointing aspect came in last Saturday when Mother Nature played havoc with the sale. And although a good number of books were moved out, three-quarters of the amount are still waiting on buyers.

The Chesterville group 'has the word' . . . the weather this weekend is positively going to be better and the sale will go again from the Anglican Church hall on Queen Street, from 12 to 3.

An official of the Cub-Scouts advised the Record that the paperbacks are extremely low priced. A stop at the Anglican Hall this Saturday should provide you with cheap entertainment for many months to come.

Nestle and Union meet Tues. hoping to settle without strike

Management of the Nestle (Canada) Ltd., plant, here, and about 250 of its employees continue to try to reach contract settlement in order to avert strike action.

Although members of The Retail, Wholesale, Dairy Workers Union have been in a legal position to strike since the middle of last week, members of both sides met in a last effort to resolve their differences on Tuesday, April 8. A strike deadline had been set for Wednesday, April 9, at 8:00 a.m. stated local union officials.

Earlier last week union membership rejected the company's offer by a vote of 171 to 71. The offer was for a total wage increase of slightly more than 38 per cent ($1.41 an hour) over two years.

The union is asking for at least an additional 19 cents an hour for a total of about $1.60, Alec Paterson, business representative told the 'Record'.

Also disputed are vacation and sick leave idemnity clauses, added Mr. Paterson.

Nestle employees involved in negotiations now earn between $3.45 and $4.20 an hour depending on qualifications, claimed Mr. Duncan, factory personnel manager.

The old contract expired at the end of last year, and Union officials here say they are hoping to settle without strike action. The results of Tuesday's meeting will depend on whether strike action will be necessary, claimed a member of the local executive. It was felt that the company would have to come close to meeting the 19c per hour difference between the two parties in order to avert an April 9, walkout by the union members.

Tagwi to hold Drama Night

The Tagwi English Drama Club will present two one act plays at Tagwi Secondary School.The first, titled "Make Your Play" by Kenneth Lillington, is a spoof of a shoot-out in an old-west saloon. The play has been "modernized" and seminized by our making the three villains, "villainesses". Black Bertha, Penelope Primrose, and Ophelia Ogle, the outlaws, terrorize the town and the saloon, run by bar man Morton McSissy but in the end as you'll see — Love Triumphs.

The second presentation is Tagwi's entry in the 1975 Seaway Collegiate Drama Festival, "My Lost Saint", by Tad Mosel. This play adapted to the stage from the original T.V. Script is a serious domestic situation centered upon the conflict in a household maid torn between loyalty to her employer of 18 years and her recently widowed mother. Some moving scenes highlight the increasing bitterness before the parties reach a compromise.

William H. Moore

William Hugh Moore, a retired resident of the Chesterville community passed away at the Winchester Memorial Hospital on April 4, 1975.

He was born in Ireland, November 19, 1885 to William John Moore and the former Jane Hathaway. He was predeceased by his first wife the former Lillian Haggerty, whom he married on Feb. 9, 1909 at Elma, Ont. and by his second wife the former Ella Mae MacLean, whom he married in Winchester in September of 1923. He was also predeceased by two daughters.

He was educated in local schools, and was a member of the Prebyterian Church and the Orange Lodge.

Mr. Moore is survived by two sons, Grant of Kingston and Stuart of Toronto, also by five daughters, Mrs. Orville Smail (Charlotte), Brinston, Mrs. Arnold Riddell (Jean), Mrs. Charles Stevens (Irma), both of Cornwall, Mrs. Donald Loucks (Betty), Mrs. Start Allan (Ruth), both of Chesterville and by 17 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren.

The Chesterville Record

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. George Tattrie, from the chapel of the Vice and Craig Funeral Home, Chesterville, on April 7, 1975, at 2 p.m.

Pall bearers were; Raymond Smail, William Moore, Brent Moore, Wayne Sorbie and Harry Castle.

Interment was in the Maple Ridge Cemetery.

Payments exceed $5½ million on corn

Over $5,500,000 has been paid to field corn producers in Ontario as a result of the 1974 crop. Figures released by The Crop Insurance Commission of the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food indicate record payments in all counties in Ontario.

Although all claims have not yet been paid because some crops are still left in fields, crop insurance payments of $5,584,832 have gone out to 1969 claimants. This represents a loss of over $3,700,000 on the corn fund for the 1974 crop year. Total premium income on corn was just over $1,850,000, one half of which came from farmer premiums. In other words, the 4544 farmers who participated in the crop insurance plan for corn paid $925,000 in premiums on contracts which resulted in corn claims of over $5.5 million.

These large claim payments, which compare with $932,000 paid on the 1973 crop, are a direct result of the adverse corn season in 1974. A cool, wet spring resulted in most of the corn being planted late, much of it early in June. Following that were early killing frosts in September so that the corn did not properly mature. As a result, Ontario corn producers experienced what may well be the worst crop year in memory.

Crop insurance premiums are established so that each crop plan is self-sustaining in the long term. The premium rates for corn for the 1975 crop year have not been increased as a result of the heavy 1974 losses. However, because of the heavy claim payments in 1974 and because of the steadily increasing costs of producing corn in 1975, participation in the crop insurance plan for corn is expected to increase in 1975.

Frank Joyner

A former resident of Newington Frank Joyner, passed away April 1, at Irish Nursing Home, Ville-La-Salle at the age of 78.

Born in Gloucestershire, England, he was the son of Samuel and Emma Joyner. He was a veteran of the First World War, where he was awarded the D. C. M. for Bravery on field of battle. After emigrating to Canada, he was interested in farming where he spent several years in Ontario.

He leaves to mourn one brother Charles of Newington and two sisters, Mrs. F. Herbert (Milly) of Montreal and Mrs. H. Edenden (Eunice) of Newington.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Donald Scoates of Chalmers United Verdun, from the funeral chapel of Clark, McGillivary, White, Bannantyne and Beatty, Verdun, on April 2nd and thence to Mt. Royal Crematorium.

George H. Barkley

George Henry Barkley, a former Reeve of Chesterville, and a life-long resident of the area, died at Winchester District Memorial Hospital on Monday March 31st in his 86th year.

Born at Finch, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Barkley, he was educated at area schools and served for many years on Chesterville Village council. It was during his term as Reeve that promotion of the water and sewer system was begun.

The late Mr. Barkley was also a past president of Chesterville Rotary Club, a member of Chesterville Masonic Lodge and keenly interested in all community affairs.

At Chesterville, in 1912, he married the former Ethel Sarah McMillan who predeceased her husband in 1970. And was also predeceased by a brother Donald.

One daughter, Mrs. Hugh Marcellus (Marion) of Winchester survives, as well as three grandchildren, Melvin, Vancouver; Larry and April of Winchester. Three sisters and two brothers also survive; Mrs. J. R. O'Brien (Ella), Ottawa; Mrs. Kenneth Baker (Jennie) Ogdensburg, N.Y.; Mrs. George Hay (Annie), Russell; Crawford Barkley, Ottawa and Charles Barkley of British Columbia.

Masonic service was held on April 1st under the direction of Brother Russell Servage.

A member of the United Church, the funeral service was held from Vice and Craig Ltd. Funeral Home, Chesterville, conducted by Rev. L. M. Ferguson at 2:00 p.m. on Thursday April 3rd.

Pallbearers were Dwayne Munro, Grant McMillan, Earle McMillan, Floyd Dingwall, Murray Doyle and Glen McMillan.

Interment was at Maple Ridge cemetery.

W.D.M. Hospital Auxiliary raises $8,000 during fiscal year

The Winchester District Memorial Hospital Auxiliary is alive and well. In our last fiscal year almost $8,000 was raised, out of which $5,000 was spent on equipment which included fireproof cubicle curtains, electric cautary equipment, and since last October, the purchase of stretcher beds, special forceps, a set of surgical instruments, a hi-lo bed, pillow pad mattresses and busy boxes for Pediatrics has been authorized.

Meals for the teenage volunteers during the summer were paid for, as well as a pizza party for these volunteers with their mothers — pins for hours of service were given a number of these volunteers. There were twenty-two active teenagers last year; these volunteers helped during the holiday season.

Adult volunteers received special recognition this year when the hospital board entertained them at a dinner served here in this conference room. To date there are almost 50 active volunteers in seven areas of the hospital, admitting, information, physiotherapy, pediatrics, medical, surgical and one east.

Volunteers took part in the disaster exercise and help regularly with the blood donor clinics. A meeting was held in January with the Fire Marshall and another of these will be held in July.

This spring auxiliary members are looking forward to the district and regional meeting on April 24th. This will be held in Chesterville with this auxiliary as host. Special guest speaker will be Mrs. Ruth Murray, Provincial President of the Ontario Hospital Auxiliaries. A tour of the hospital will conclude the meeting.

Our past president, Mrs. Olive Cass, is now second vice-president of District No. 9.

Mrs. K. Hillis hosts Morewood U.C.W.

The regular meeting of the Morewood U.C.W. was held at the home of Mrs. K. Hillis on Wednesday, April 2nd, with Mrs. H. Crump in charge. Mrs. M. Casselman conducted devotions, assisted by Mrs. A. Coulthart, who gave a reading, the moral of which was to stay in the rut where there is a solid foundation — an aid to good living.

In connection with the 50th Anniversary Fund, the members decided to make a contribution to the Services to Children Overseas. An invitation to the Thankoffering in Chesterville was accepted, and a number of members desire to attend. The Presbyterial in Ingleside to be held was brought to our attention, and a car will be going. Many items of business were brought up and dealt with.

Mrs. A. Coulthart reviewed a portion of the Study Book, "Mission Begins at Home". If we make ourselves as good an example as we can in the home, this is really missions. She said we should always think positively and asked each member to tell what good thing happened to her that day.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction and lunch was served by Mrs. R. Dillaboughs' committee.

of the Corporation of the Village of Chesterville

We have examined the 1974 financial statements of the Corporation of the Village of Chesterville and its local boards, which are listed on the attached Index. Our examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Corporation of the Village of Chesterville and its local boards as at December 31, 1974 and the results of their operations for the year then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted for Ontario municipalities applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

PREVENTIVE LAW

Q. When my fiancee started work in this restaurant, she signed this long contact where she agreed to eat her lunch everyday, and they would deduct $1.00 from her wages. Now it happens that my fiancee is a vegetarian and couldn't eat the lunches they gave her, so she just didn't bother. She has worked there for about 2 months now, so she's lost about $40 for food she didn't eat. It hurts when you're only getting the minimum wage. Any solution?

A. Your fiancee can get back the deductions from her wages, if she can show that she didn't eat the meals they charged her for. The regulations under the provincial Employment Standards Act make it clear that "charges for meals . . . shall not be deducted from the minimum wages of an employee unless he has actually received the meals . ."Furthermore, where an employee is paid the minimum wage, an employer cannot deduct more than 85c for each meal actually eaten.

Q. When I started work in this department store, I signed a long contract full of fine print. I read some of it, and it seems to me that I agreed not to sue the store if I was killed or injured or suffered any damage or loss, even if it was the store's fault.

I needed the job so I signed. But lately I have been worrying. What happens if I should fall and get really badly injured, or if someone dropped a heavy crate on me. Would I be bound to this contract?

A. Since you work in a retail store, the employer is obliged to pay into the accident fund of the Workman's Compenstaion Board. Since you are covered under the Workman's Compensation Act you would not be able to sue your employer for job-related injuries in any event. You would have to go to WCB.

Your employer cannot ask you to sign away this right, so in any event, that term of the contract is of no legal effect watsoever.

Q. If a 15 year old kid orders a bicycle costing $189.00 and signs the order forms, will the parents be obliged to pay for it?

It won't be very useful because when we found out about it, we made sure that the 15 year old in question won't be able to sit on the bicycle for quite awhile.

The Chesterville Record

A. The age of majority and accountability in Ontario is now 18. Anyone under that age is considered a minor or an infant. A contract cannot be enforced against a minor unless it is a contract for necessities such as food, shelter and clothing. If the infant receives goods which are not necessary he may repudiate the contract. The goods can be returned and the money paid refunded.

If the bicycle has not arrived, the minor can refuse to accept it when it does and get his deposit (if any) back.

If you're out of shape, you're out of the running.

National Cancer Institute of Canada

$3,495,185 granted to Research Workers

Awards totalling $3,495,185 have been granted to Ontario research workers according to an announcement by the National Cancer Institute of Canada.

This sum is part of the $7,531,359 to be distributed to support research into the causes and treatment of cancer. Most of the funds will come from the April campaign of the Canadian Cancer Society which is affiliated with the Institute.

The largest single grant ($562,183) went to the Cancer Research Unit at the University of Western Ontario in London, directed by Dr. J. A. McCarter.

Substantial grants also went to the directors of the two divisions of the Ontario Cancer Institute. Dr. J. E. Till, Director of the Division of Biological Research, received $509,488 while Dr. H. E. Johns, Director of the Division of Physics Research, was awarded $378,769.

The Epidemiology Research Unit of the National Cancer Institute, under director Dr. A. B. Miller received $449,984 — one of eight grants to research units and institutes in the country.

Other awards were made to research teams at Ontario Universities: the University of Toronto; University of Guelph; University of Ottawa; Queen's University, Kingston; McMaster University, Hamilton; York University, Toronto; University of Windsor; University of Western Ontario, London.

Scientists at four Toronto hospitals also received funds: Mount Sinai Hospital, Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto Western Hospital and Sunnybrook Medical Centre.

Several teams of investigators are studying different aspects of the relationship of viruses to cancer while other projects include: the removal of carcinogens from the air; regulation of the antibody response; and a study of cell growth and hormone interaction.

Choose Hybrid Seed Corn carefully

Learn from last year's experience and make this year's corn crop a success. "Remember — there is no point in planting a late-maturing corn hybrid late in the season," warns R. C. Jenkinson, agronomist at the Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology. "Last year, farmers who did this were thwarted by the cool season and an early frost. Their yields were low and their corn was wet and poorly filled."

Using the 1975 report on the Ontario Hybrid Corn Performance Trials, select hybrids with heat unit ratings equal to or less than the heat units available on your farm, advises Mr. Jenkinson. For information on the 1975 report, contact your county or district Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food office or seed corn dealer.

Low stalk breakage and high yield are the other characteristics to expect from the corn hybrid you choose. To ensure low stalk breakage, aim for a final population of 18,000 to 20,000 plants an acre. Excessively high populations lead to increased stalk breakage, an increase in the number of barren plants, lower yields and higher seed costs.

DILLABOUGH — In loving memory of a dear husband Arthur Dillabough, who passed away suddenly, April 9, 1973.
I lost a dear husband with a heart of gold,
Who was more to me than wealth untold,
Without farewell he fell asleep,
With only memories for me to keep,
I have lost but God has gained,
One of the best the world contained.

IN MEMORIAMS

IN MEMORIAM

DILLABOUGH — In loving memory of a dear father, and father-in-law, Arthur Dillabough, who passed away April 9, 1973.
You never failed to do your best
Your heart was true and tender
You lived your life for those you loved.
And those you loved remember.
Sadly missed by Doug & Marilyn 31

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear father and father-in-law, William Pettit, who passed away April 18, 1971.
We often sit and think of him,
When we are alone,
For memory is the only friend,
That grief can call its own.
Like Ivy on the withered Oak,
When other things decay,
Our love for him will still be green,
And never fade away.
Loved and remembered by son Leonard, daughter-in-law Erma, grandsons Peter and William 31-1

IN MEMORIAM

HUGHES — In loving memory of a dear husband and father William Alfred who passed away April 6, 1970.
Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain
To have, to love, and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never-
The memory of those happy day's
When we were all together.
Always remembered by wife Lillian, Sons and Daughters

IN MEMORIAM

BALL — In fond and loving memory of a dear wife, mother and grandmother, Alice Katherine Ball, who passed away April 15, 1970.
God's Golden Gate stood open wide,
He saw you needed rest,
His Garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.

Legion Pee Wees hang up blades

Chesterville Legion Peewees hung up the blades for another year by losing a 2-1 overtime thriller to a superb well-oiled skating machine from Cornwall Township.

Cornwall Township again had Legion's number, as this was the third time that the locals had lost in overtime Tournament action to Long Sault.

Cornwall Township's John Benns opened the scoring in the first period as a lack of backchecking by Legion forwards enabled Benns to walk in unmolested. The first two periods featured end-to-end action with both teams having numerous opportunities, but neither goalie would yield. Jeff Blodgett handled ten Legion drives while Jeff Moore and Eddie Witteveen kicked out 15 shots in the first two periods.

The final frame saw Legion come to life and tie the game 1-1 on a goal by big Don Richards from Marque Laflamme. Legion controlled the play for the remainder of the period, firing 9 shots at Blodgett, to only 3 shots on Eddie Witteveen. But Blodgett refused to yield, and regulation time ended with the score at 1-1, with Legion edging Township in shots, 19-18.

Overtime at the Embrun Tournament in sudden-death, played with five skaters and no goalies. With barely two minutes gone, John Benns notched his second tally from super center Newell Brown to give Cornwall Township a hard-earned 2-1 victory over Chesterville, eliminating them from further play.

To prepare properly for the big one against Cornwall Township, Legion played two exhibition games.

Last Wednesday, Morrisburg visited Chesterville and the locals skated to a 5-1 win. Ricky Grisel came up with his best game of the year, notching two goals and assisting on a third. Curt McMillan, Glen Patterson and Marque Laflamme added markers, while assists went to Mike Beckstead with two, Patterson, Shay, Laflamme, Servage and Richards. Replying for Morrisburg was super defenceman Glen Howald. Morrisburg was outshot 25-8 by Legion.

Their second game featured the first visit to Chesterville by the Charlan Peewees. They were rudely received by Legion as they were outshot 34-4 and Legion Posted a 3-1 win. Derrick VanDelst notched a pair, each from Tony Fraser, and Curt McMillan added another from Don Servage. Wayne Ball, filling in for the injured Eddie Witteveen, was steady in nets.

And so the little team with a lot of heart packed it in after providing their fans with a thrill-packed season. A sparkling average of 74.4 percent over 88 games against top-flight competition is an indication of their excellence on the ice.

Twelve of the sixteen players are slated to move up to Bantam next season, and should strengthen the Upper St. Lawrence League Colts and the Carleton-Dundas League Bees. An outstanding nucleus consisting of Marque Laflamme, Mike Beckstead, Tony Fraser and Garry Beckstead will make Chesterville Legion Peewees a force to be reckoned with again next year.

Views . . .

Listen Intelligently

Persuasion is an intellectual process. With every advance in science and technology and management, the capacity for reasoning becomes more necessary.

Some persons shy away from the thought of intelligence and from people who have the reputation of being intelligent. Charles Kingsley wrote: "Be good, sweet maid, and let who can be clever." This is the shocking alternative which is accepted by many as being a matter of course — the choice between goodness and intelligence. Everyone who listens with care to what is going on in the world knows the goodness and cleverness are not mutually exclusive.

Lots of would-be persuaders are like Marc Antony. They cry out "Lend me your ears!" But in these days the people are shouting back: "Now, you listen to me. I have an identity and I have intelligence, and I want to have my say."

It is only by listening that we get the other person's arguments and viewpoint. There is a difference in thinking between the person who grows wheat on the prairies and the person who earns his living in a factory in the east. It is not merely a difference of economic thought about what to work at, what to buy, what taxes one should pay, and the relative worth of equalization payments to the provinces. Different environments create differing philosophies of life.

No one will learn the art of dialogue by reading books or studying papers like this one, which are only guides, but there is one lesson to be learned no matter to what schoolmaster you go: use common sense.

Looked at practically, common sense is seen to be the result of the sum total of unconscious impressions in the ordinary occurrences of life as they treasured up in the memory and called out by the occasion.

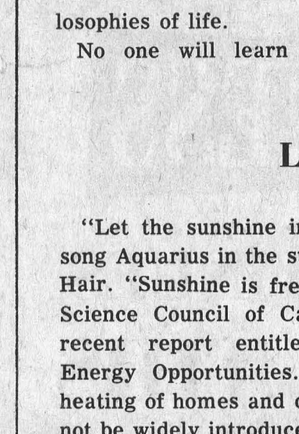
Common sense enables us to judge the meaning and worth of a statement, a promise, a proposal or a plan by criteria that are too many and too refined to be all distinctly recollected, but which do not therefore operate the less powerfully upon the mind. By putting this past experience of ours to work we find that we feel and know much more than we can pin down with reasons or express in neatly-rounded statements.

Reasonable words, supported by facts and inspired by enthusiasm and bounded by common sense can solve problems and tranquillize quarrels. Dialogue replaces browbeating and storming, and wins by the use of methods that belong to a mature and intelligent person.

In selling goods or services or an idea through dialogue, one must arouse interest, establish confidence, create favourable reactions, meet and overcome objections, and close the sale. This path must be followed in any circumstance where you are proposing rational action.

Let The Sun Shine In

"Let the sunshine in," goes the song Aquarius in the stage musical Hair. "Sunshine is free." says the Science Council of Canada in its recent report entitled Canada's Energy Opportunities. "Yet solar heating of homes and offices would not be widely introduced unless the cost of converting this free sunlight into usable heat were in the same range as heating by gas, oil, or coal." Japan and the U.S. are mentioned as countries now showing increased interest in solar energy. More than 90 percent of Canadians live below 50 degrees latitude north, where the average solar radiation is about 150 watts per square metre, with four-eight times more power in June than in December. Although this energy is plentiful, its diffuse nature makes efficient collection crucial, and at the same time its variablity requires either storage capacity or a coupling of the solar-power system with other energy sources. Not only is sunlight free, it is plentiful. The earth yearly receives the equivalent of 5,000 times as much energy from the sun as the world is expected to use in the year 2000.



Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Last week I received something in the mail from the National Council on Alcoholism. It underscored the dramatic increase of alcoholism among women in the last ten years. That pamphlet contained a test that hit me right between the eyes. I knew then and there that I could no longer lie to myself and pretend that I am a "social drinker."

Please run the test in your column. Maybe others will make the same discovery and decide to do something about it. — Determined To Beat It.

Dear Determined: Here's the test and my thanks for sending it. If you are "Determined To Beat It," you will. Good Luck.

Specific Symptoms of Early — Alcoholism Gulping drinks.

Making promises about drinking — to herself. She may promise herself "to do better next time" or "to be more careful in the future" if her behavior causes comment or worries her.

Lying about her drinking — minimizing the number of drinks or attempting to conceal the fact that she had any drinks at all.

Taking a drink before going to a party where there undoubtedly will be drinking.

Feeling the necessity of having drinks at certain regular times — must have a cocktail or two before lunch, must have drinks at 5:30.

Insisting on drinks with any special event: going to the theater, to a concert, to a football game, or even a Sunday jaunt to the beach.

Needing three or four drinks before she can entertain her husband's or her own boss at dinner, or introduce a speaker at the PTA, or meet a difficult client.

Must have drinks for nerves because of a shattering day at the office or a frantic day with the children.

Drinking when "blue" — to forget problems.

If you recognize yourself, please accept the fact that you can't fight alcoholism alone. Write to the National Council on Alcoholism for specific information regarding help in your own community. The address is 2; Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10016.

They know all the available sources for treatment, doctors, hospitals, alcoholic clinics and the nearest groups of Alcoholics Anonymous.

And now an added P.S. from Ann Landers; In these difficult days of political unrest and financial crisis, those of you who are trying to drown your sorrow should be aware that sorrow knows how to swim.

Dear Ann: As you can see by the stationery, I am writing this letter on a plane. We have been on the runway 40 minutes. The problem is air traffic. Several passengers are behaving like spoiled brats, using obscene language, and demanding third drinks. Two couples are screaming to be taken back to the gate so they can be let off.

Don't these fools realize that the men in the control towers work under great pressure because they know their decisions can be a matter of life and death? Please tell the dummies off, as only you can. — Delayed But Alive. Dear D.B.A.: Those "dummies" are not about to listen to me or anyone else. I am printing your letter, however, in the hope that air travelers who encounter similar situations will see themselves as others see them.

Even if drinking is the "in" thing in your crowd, it needn't crowd you out. Learn the facts from Ann Landers's booklet, "Booze and You — For Teen-Agers Only." Send 50 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 1400, Elgin, Illinois 60120.

TIME & READER'S DIGEST

by
Hugh Faulkner
Secretary of State

Two months ago, I announced the government's intention to amend section 19 of the Income Tax Act to remove special tax advantages enjoyed by certain foreign magazines, particularly Time and Reader's Digest.

Successive Canadian governments have considered this action since at least 1960. In that year, a Royal Commission headed by a distinguished Canadian, Gratton O'Leary, urged that the country develop a self-sufficient national press:

> "Only a truly Canadian printing press, one with the feel of Canada and directly responsible to Canada, can give us the critical analysis, the informed discourse and dialogue which are indispensable in a sovereign society."

To attain self-sufficiency the industry would require advertising revenues, and the Commission concluded:

> "A nation's domestic advertising expenditure should be devoted to the support of its own media of communications, and . . . a genuinely Canadian periodical press can only exist if it has access to a fair share of domestic advertising."

CANADIAN PUBLICATION DEFINED

In 1965, Parliament passed legislation which, for the first time, defined a Canadian publication for tax purposes. Criteria were established whose purpose was to ensure that only Canadian magazines and newspapers could benefit from special tax advantages allowed to advertisers who used them to publicize their products. For various reasons, partly because they were already here, Time and Reader's Digest, although they clearly did not meet the criteria outlined in the law, were also allowed to benefit from these special advantages.

In 1968, a special Senate Committee on Mass Media in Canada, examined the situation in the magazine industry and recommended that the special tax privileges accorded to Time and Reader's Digest be withdrawn. For it was clear that these two foreign magazines were benefiting from this special status. In 1973, for instance, Time and Reader's Digest took over half the total of Canadian advertising revenues earned by the thirteen member magazines of the Magazine Association of Canada.

Why should these two magazines, alone of all foreign magazines, be exempted from the criteria established to help the Canadian magazine industry?

PURPOSE OF AMENDMENTS

The government is acting to remove this inconsistency from the law and to enable Canadian magazines to attract a more equitable share of advertising revenue.

Our intention is not to throw these magazines out of the country. They can conform to the law by meeting the conditions set out in Section 19 and become Canadian magazines. Or, like hundreds of other popular foreign magazines which get no special favours from the government of Canada, they can compete for your attention and advertisers' money. Whichever alternative Time and Reader's Digest accept, Canadians will not be "deprived of the right" to read editions of these magazines.

Time and Reader's Digest have protested that the conditions in the law relating to content amount to censorship. This is not at all the case. In fact, the legislation stipulates that the content of Canadian magazine must not be "substantially the same" as a foreign magazine. The purpose is to prevent the "dumping" of the contents of a foreign magazine into a so-called Canadian edition, thereby giving that magazine an unfair advantage over a Canadian one producing its own material.

The key element of this issue is where the editorial control of a magazine resides. If that control lies outside Canada, then, in the view of the government, the magazine should not be considered Canadian and should not benefit from advantages intended for Canadian magazines. In the case of Reader's Digest for instance, the U.S. owners have sole legal control over every word that appears in the Canadian edition.

The government is not telling Canadians what to read or what to write. It is telling magazines that to take advantage of tax concessions designed for Canadian magazines, they must be Canadian.

I am confident that the passage of our proposed legislation will strengthen our free press in Canada, without restricting the rights of Canadians to read whatever they choose. Our amendments will help to strengthen the Canadian periodical industry so that it can better serve our Canadian purpose.

Book Report

The Physicians by — Henry Denker

The physicians is a dramatic novel set against the two worlds of medicine and law.

A young and dedicated doctor, Christopher Grant, fights for his career against a powerful family head and hospital supporter.

Wonderfully detailed and fully dramatic courtroom and hospital scemes. The Physicians is a major novel of modern medicine.

CHICKEN

Chicken Hawaiian

3 lb. frying chicken pieces
1 tsp. salt
1 egg, slightly beaten
1-3 cup orange juice
4 cups corn flakes or 1 cup packaged corn flake crumbs
½ cup shredded coconut
½ tsp. curry powder
¼ cup regular margarine, melted

Arrange chicken in shallow baking pan. Sprinkle with salt. Combine egg with orange juice and pour over chicken pieces. Let stand in refrigerator about 1 hour, turning chicken pieces once. If packaged corn flake curmbs are not available, measure flakes and crush into fine crumbs. In shallow dish or pie pan, mix crumbs with coconut and curry. Drain chicken pieces slightly. Coat with crumbs mixture. Place skin side up in single layer in well-greased or foil lined shallow baking pan. Drizzle with melted margarine Bake in oven at 350 degrees, about 1 hour or until chicken is fork tender. Serve on heated plates. If desired, garnish with pineapple ring twists dipped in coconut or endive or parsley.

Japanese Style Dry Garlic Chicken Wings

24 chicken wings (3½ lbs.)
1 cup corn syrup
½ cup soya sauce
¼ cup water
1 tsp. garlic powder
1 tsp. ground ginger

Cut off and discard wing tips; cut each wing in half. Divide equally between 2 (9 x 13-inch) baking dishes. Mix together remaining ingredients; divide in half equally, pouring over chicken wings. Cover and marinate in refrigerator at least 3 hours or overnight. Bake as is at 350 degrees until tender, for 50 to 60 minutes, turning after half an hour. Serves 6.

Oriental Chicken

6 chicken legs, or cut-up chicken to serve 6
¼ cup flour
¾ tsp. salt
pepper
3 tbsp. margarine or cooking oil
1 onion, chopped
1 10-oz. can fruit cocktail
1 tbsp. cornstarch
1 tbsp. soy sauce
¼ cup vinegar
2 tomatoes, cut

Coat chicken pieces with mixture of flour, salt and pepper. Heat margarine in frypan, add chicken and brown. Cover and cook over low heat until tender. Drain off excess fat, remove chicken or push to side of pan; cook onion until transparent. Meanwhile, drain fruit cocktail. Combine syrup cornstarch, soy sauce and vinegar; add to chicken in frypan and cook, stirring until sauce is thickened and clear. Add fruit cocktail and tomato sections. Heat. Serves 6. Serve over hot, fluffy rice.

At Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology

Home Economics out . . . Food & Fashion in Home Economics is fast being replaced by Food and Fashion — at least at the Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology. Girls will soon be joined by male students in the same program.

"There is a need for graduates more specialized than those of the past," explains Miss R. I. Shaver, head of the Home Economics Department, "so our Program, which was very general just had to change. Besides, male students have been interested in the Program for some time, thus we had to redesign it to better meet their needs. Two men with part-time experience in the food industry will start classes this coming term. They are primarily interested in food-service training, but they are keen to learn about clothing as well."

The Home Economics Program was not transformed into the Food and Fashion Program overnight. Change came only after 5 years of questioning among employers and former graduates. "Both graduates and employers expressed satisfaction with the general Program," says Miss Shaver. "They felt it gave the student adaptability. However, because some employers felt management skills should be stressed more, and a few graduates suggested the opportunity to specialize should be given, the Program was changed."

It takes 4 semesters to get a diploma in Food and Fashion — just as required in Home Economics. Courses in food, nutrition, clothing and textiles continue to be required in the first 2 semesters of the Food and Fashion Program. However, business management has a new prominence in the first 2 semesters.

Students work in their area of concentration (either food or fashion) in their final 2 semesters. They take the few subjects, such as personnel management, human relations and communications, necessary to both fields. In addition, they may still choose to take both food and fashion courses.

"Accounting, biology, chemistry, and a few other courses have always been given by staff from the Agricultural Section of the College and taken by both Agricultural and Home Economics students," says Miss Shaver. "We feel the contact between the two sections helps to attract male students to the Food and Fashion Program."

Most Home Economics graduates from the College worked their way into managerial or supervisory positions in food service and retail management. "Graduates from the Food and Fashion Program will enter these fields as well," Miss Shaver says. "However, although they will have a broad base of knowledge, they should be prepared for management positions and have more training in their area of concentration."

Applications for the first semester of the Food and Fashion Program, to begin April 28, will be accepted until April 15. For more information, contact the Principal, Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology, Kemptville, Ontario KOG 1JO, or telephone 613-258-3411.

It was a hardy lot that turned out for the Fashion Show in Chesterville, sponsored by the Eastern Star, held last Friday evening. The turn-out for the Show was less than full house but all things considered, despite the original postponement and the inclement weather on Friday, the hall was partially filled. Forty-two members attend Dundas District Director's Meeting

Forty-two members attended the Dundas District Director's meeting which was held on April 2nd in the Town Hall, Winchester. The President, Mrs. Nina Wood presided, assisted by Mrs. Grant Beckstead, Secretary-Treasurer.

The meeting was opened with the singing of the Ode and the repeating of the Mary Stewart Collect.

Plans were formulated for the District Annual meeting to be held in Elma United Church, May 14th. Mountain W.I. and Riverside Heights W.I. to be responsible for the entertainment part of the program. Every member invited to attend.

Each Branch District Director to bring to the District Annual the "Penny for Friendship" contribution.

To commemorate the 70th anniversary of Dundas District Women's Institute a Banquet will be held in the United Church Hall, Iroquois.

The nominating committee brought in a very satisfactory report with the feeling that all Offices will be filled for the New Year.

The meeting closed with the singing of O' Canada. Tasty refreshments, served by the members of the Winchester Women's Institute, was much enjoyed by all.

If Green Foxtail is your problem, Ekko® should be your herbicide.

Annual grasses, particularly Green Foxtail, are the reasons you need Ekko in a corn-after-corn operation.

Ekko is a safe, economical, one-package herbicide that saves you work while controlling broadleaf weeds and grasses.

Ekko offers the same flexibility of application times you've been accustomed to with AAtrex: pre-plant incorporated, pre-emergence and post-emergence in an oil-water emulsion.

And Ekko is safe to corn and is effective right up to the three-leaf stage of grasses.

Ekko was designed to give season-long control of grasses in continuous corn operations, so only corn can be planted the year following application.

A suggested method of controlling grasses is to plan on two years of corn. Use Ekko the first year and AAtrex,® combined with a short-residual grass herbicide, the second year. Then, your field will be ready for a change of crop in the third year.

Ekko. The convenient, easy-to use, one-package corn herbicide that prevents grass build-up and gives you clean fields right up to harvest.

Ingleside-Osnabruck

Rotary Club hears guest speaker from Montreal

The Ingleside-Osnabruck Rotary Club held its regular meeting last Wednesday evening at the Treasure Island Motel. Attendance was a bit heavier than at other meetings, as some members had just returned from the sunny south. In addition there were three visitors from Cornwall and two new members.

Guest speaker for the evening was A. Liddard, Past President of a Montreal Club. He was introduced by Garnet Ezard. In the absence of the President Wm. Mullin, the meeting was chaired by Vice-President Ross Walker.

Mr. Liddard showed a series of coloured slides on the Sagon Project, Rotary International's hospital project in Dahomey, Africa. The slides showed the progress made, and graphically illustrated the effort that has been made by the people there in building the hospital.

Rotarian Bill Demerling thanked the guest speaker on behalf of the Club.

One of the Club's newer members, Wallace McKinnon Jr., who is quite active in the Ingleside community with the local Scout and Cub Groups, gave a report on a field trip the Pack made to the farm of R. Beaudette, to let the boys see how a dairy farmer makes his living. He reported that the boys seemed quite interested and the group is looking forward to making visits, of a similar nature, to other industries at a later date.

Following the routine business of the meeting a motion was received to adjourn.

Lunenburg W.I. holds Annual Meeting

The Lunenburg Women's Institute held their Annual Meeting at the home of Mrs. Gerald MacDonald and Mrs. Albert MacDonald on Tuesday evening. Piano music by Mrs. Kathleen MacMillan was provided before the meeting opened.

Mrs. Neil Cleary brought the meeting to order assisted by the secretary Mrs. Charles Huggins. The meeting opened with the Chairman expressing her delight in seeing such a large attendance and welcomed everyone including the visitors. The Institute Ode was sung, followed by the Mary Stewart Collect and out National Anthem, "Oh Canada". A minute of silence and prayer was offered by all members for those who are suffering such terrible hardships in Vietnam.

Mrs. Huggins, Secretary, read a short poem, hoping this Annual meeting will be the beginning of a fruitful year. The title "This is a New Year" Roll call was then answered by paying membership fees and a joke pertaining to April Fool's Day, this provided much merriment.

Mrs. Cleary reported a very good year both financially and otherwise. With increased revenue we were able to support many more worthy causes, sincere appreciation went to new members, this enabled us to extend our Friendship and Neighbourliness further afield. She also expressed pleasure in having such an enjoyable neighbourhood Xmas Party, which brought approximately 100 people out to enjoy a turkey dinner and an evenings entertainment provided by the local talent including "The Ladies in White" now known as "The Senior Country Gals" who have entertained and are entertaining Sr. Citizens' groups near and far. A taping for T.V. will be done by this group on April 14. Another highlight was when the "Ladies in White" entertained at a Tea held in The Nepean Sports Plex in Ottawa, in honour of Mrs. Harvey Noblitt, president of the F.W.I.O., (Federated Women's Institute of Ontario). Pictures of this event appeared in "Home and Country" Women's Institute Magazine. Another event which seemed of great importance was when the W. I. members of Lunenburg during the distribution of Xmas Cheer and Carroling Party, joined in with the Newington Fire Brigade's Xmas Parade and Carroling.

The same officers agreed to carry on with their positions for another year.

Mrs. Helen Rupert gave very sound advice on First Aid methods. Mrs. Ruth MacDonald rendered some Toe Tapping music as back ground music for Three Irish Coleens to make their appearance, dressed in Irish Bonnets and green shawls. They also related many interesting things pertaining to Ireland. This was the result of Mrs. Neil Cleary, having just returned from a trip to Ireland which she had won through a contest sponsored by C.J.S.S. Mrs. Cleary, Mrs. Helen Rupert, C.J.S.S. manager, Mr. J. Kidd, and Mr. Wayne Waldroff enjoyed a trip to Dublin via Aer Lingus, where they were guests at Fita Patricks Castle Hotel, nine miles from the heart of Dublin. These ladies gave very interesting and comical highlights of their trip.

The door prize was won by Mrs. Lalonde who also expressed a sincere thanks to our very gracious hostesses "The Mrs. MacDonalds" who served a bountiful lunch.

All joined in singing "Let's sing a song of Love, that Peace will come my Brother." The meeting was then adjourned.

As I See It

By Mike Rowden

Now and then, in the process of writing these articles, I am often called upon to write of something that is controversial. These are what I call fun articles — because they are designed to make people think. And often what they think doesn't agree with what I think and that is as it should be.

Lately we have been bombarded by the television and newspapers about the situation in Vietnam. When the American forces were there we heard a lot about Vietnam and Cambodia, as well as Laos. Probably about all we remember are the film clips of the fighting in small out-of-the way places, with names that were and are still unpronouncable. Even though the miracles of modern communication, such as satelites in orbit, able to transmit the pictures of disasters in other parts of the world, bring the happenings into our homes, even while they are happening. It's difficult to completely absorb just what is going on from the comfort of an easy chair, in homes such as most of us are fortunate enough to have, here.

Looking back over the years it should be remembered that the French were involved in the fighting in Indo China, Cambodia and other parts of that particular area for years, in a futile attempt to retain the remnants of what was once part of the French Colonial empire.

After the Second World War things changed and the people of those countries began to look for what they considered was a better way of life . . . less corruption in government and a more socialist type of life or even the promise of more even distribution of the country's resources and profits of an individual's labors.

This naturally made the area a ripe breeding ground for Communism — which lost no time in stirring up trouble and promising to be the solution to the country's troubles.

French resistance to the new threat of the colonial way of life, finally ended at a place, which some of you may remember as their last stronghold, Dien Bien Phu. And later the Americans, having learned nothing from the French failure, stopped in to take over where the French left off — figuring that they could succeed where the French had failed.

History has proved, time and time again, that in a country where there is internal conflict, and no set battle lines, an outside country invariably makes things worse and rarely is successful. Look at the Middle East, look at Ireland.

Unfortunately in this type of situation, which is in reality a civil war, just as in any war civilians suffer. Their homes are destroyed, their way of life is upset, they are maimed and killed and thousands are left homeless and destitute.

Quite naturally the ones that become the frequent objects of pity are the children. Now that Vietnam is practically finished as a free democratic type of country as we know it, there seems to be a frantic effort being made to get the kids out of there. And spread them all over the world into other countries, where they will be safe, and not have to live the way they have had to.

Sounds commendable enough, but as a well known news commentator said on his 'Backgrounder to the News', "Is the world really concerned about the kids or are people in the more affluent places, like the United States or Canada, exhibiting feelings of guilt and trying to expiate their feeling of sins and failure to solve the Indo-China problem . . . by opening their doors to the most pitiful victims of the fighting, the children." What I'm wondering is whether we are ourselves victims of emotion and if so whether bringing these children here is actually doing them any favour.

Sure for a while they will be fed well, a different food to what they have become accustomed to. Their new homes will be different, in short their whole way of life will be different. And even though they may live here for years, they will always look different, and because of that, Canada being little or no less racsist than other countries — will they have the same opportunities? I doubt it.

Kipling said it years ago, "East is East and West is West and never the twain shall meet". No doubt in the countries from which these children are being brought, there are thousands of mothers and fathers who have lost their children because of the ravages of war. And who, when the situation has stabilized and life becomes somewhat normal again, would love to adopt some of the homeless children of their country. After all, they may look different but who is to say that underneath their different looks, they don't feel the same way we do.

For years the myth has been perpetrated that Orientals are unscrutable and don't show their grief and feelings like Occidentals. Just watch TV pictures of the people in Vietnam and Cambodia and you will soon see that they are no different from us in that respect.

Better I think for us to help out with cash, or government loans, to help rebuild their way of life and provide for these orphans of war, than to bring them here, away from all that is near or dear to them.

If some of the Canadian people are sufficiently interested in adopting children, because for some reason they can't have children of their own. Can you imagine for one moment that there are not hundreds of children in Canadian orphanages that would like to have a Canadian father or mother. Orphans who are just as much in need as the ones from Vietnam, but whose plight is not publicized as much.

A lot of the Canadian orphans are the children of unwed mothers or victims of circumstances and need the care and attention of parents. Don't get me wrong. I feel for the kids in war-torn countries as much as the next person. Probably a lot more than most, as I have been in a war and seen some of these pitiful young victims. And felt the frustration of being helpless to do anything about it. Years later I can still see them, but now I can thin more objectively.

Despite Friday's storm over 200 attended the annual banquet of Osnabruck Township Minor Hockey held at Ingleside. League and individual trophies were awarded during the evening. New minister to be inducted

On Monday evening, April 14th, the Presbytery of Brockville will meet in Knox Presbyterian Church, Morrisburg, to induct the Reverend Dr. W. Lloyd MacLelland into the Pastoral Charge of Knox, Morrisburg and Dunbar Churches. A public service of worship will be held, to which the Ministerial of the area has been invited.

Participants in the service will be the Moderator of the Presbytery, the Rev. J. P. Schissler, Kemptville, the Rev. R. D. Currie, Lansdowne, the Rev. L. R. Renault, Brockville, the Rev. J. J. Hibbs, Iroquois, the Rev. A. J. Morrison, Cardinal and other members of Presbytery.

A reception for the Rev. Lloyd and Mrs. MacLellan will follow the service in the lecture room of the church. Dr. McLellan is preaching his first services in his new pastoral charge this Sunday.

The Rev. MacLellan comes to the pastoral charge from New Glasgow, Nova Scotia, where he has been pastor. And following a number of years of ministering in the neighbouring pastorate of St. John's Presbyterian Church, Cornwall. Born in Pictou County, Nova Scotia, Dr. McLellan is a graduate of the public and high schools there, and of McGill University, Montreal, honouring in English and Philosophy (B.A.) His theological training was in Presbyterian College, Montreal, graduating with his B.D. degree and in 1954 was awarded the Doctor of Divinity (D.D.) Degree of his alma mater.

The MacLellan's have three children, Mrs. David (Peggy) MacNeill of Winnipeg; Mrs. B. H. (Norma) Fallows of Dorval and the Rev. William G. MacLellan of Westminster Presbyterian Church, Ottawa.

The community extends a sincere welcome to Dr. Lloyd and Mrs. MacLellan as they enter the ministry in the area.

NUTRITE THREE STAR NUTRITE FIVE STAR**

Reason? Nutrite supplies two vital elements that are missing from most other NPK fertilizers — sulphur and magnesium — two essential plant food elements needed by crops in substantial amounts.
Nutrite's premium fertilizers are specially formulated to put these two important elements — sulphur and magnesium, plus others such as boron and zinc — back into the soil.
Result? Tests carried out over a three-year period show that the addition of sulphur and magnesium to high analysis NPK fertilizers substantially increase yield, test weight and protein content of the crop.

Fun Fair held at Maple Ridge Sr. Elementary School

On Tuesday, April 1, 1975 a Fun Fair was held at Maple Ridge Senior Elementary Public School from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The 'Fair' was followed by a hot dog sale.

The following events provided fun for all — Mrs. Robertson's Class organized a 'Smartie Count'. The students were required to guess the number of smarties in a jar. Laurie Porteous and Doug Carruthers put the figure at 825 and won the event. 'Apple Bobbing' provided a challenge for all who participated. Many students were not deterred by the ice-cold water and a total of fifty apples were claimed as prizes.

Students claim fifty apples this way!

Connie Nurse, Bob McRoberts and Melissa Vander Veen were in charge of the Candy Sale, which was very successful. Glen Thompson kept a lookout for potential 'snitchers' . . . Mr. MacMillan spent a great deal of time around this booth. Glenn was also responsible for the 'penny count' which consisted of guessing the number of pennies in a jar and their metric weight. Debbie Woods won this event with the correct guess of 250 pennies weighing 800 grams.

Kevin Crump and Kim Cass held a comic book sale, which was soldout almost immediately. Mrs. Marcellus' Class raised nearly $30.00 with these events.

A 'ring toss' and a 'bubble gum blowing contest' were organized by Mr. Turner's Class. Mr. Turner claimed the prize for ring tossing with 110 points. It was suggested that the teacher had been practicing beforehand.

A 'pool ball shoot' was provided to test the students' and teachers' skill with a cue. And it was quite an attraction. The idea of this game was to knock a silver dollar. which was balanced on a pool ball, out of the circle. The following are the few who managed to accomplish this extremely difficult feat — Principal Bill MacMillan, Tom Feeley, Heather Cooke, Chris Casselman, Gerry Westenbrook, Rodney Shaver, Robin Cleland, Mr. Cooke, Robert Woods, Sharon Cinnamon, Angela Hutt and Robbie Sullivan.

Mr. Moffat's Class also organized a styrofoam peanut throw.

A raffle for three cakes and a stuffed owl was organized by Mrs. Steele's Reading Group. The cakes had been made by Laurie Beckstead, Bev Morrison and Erma Moore. They were won by Mike McKee, John Fawcett and Tessie Bortos. Mike graciously donated his cake to the staff and Tessie shared her winnings in the lunch room.

Tommy Feeley took home the stuffed owl. The students were asked to guess Mr. Irwin's weight in metric, and this was won by Susan McRoberts, whose guess was 95 kilograms. A basketball throwing contest was held at the same time as the weight guessing.

A bingo, efficiently run by Dawn Casselman, Faye McLaughlin, Maureen Steele and Janice Gates, was very popular — especially since the prizes offered were bubble gum.

Mrs. Theriault's Group staged an 'apple on a string' and 'bean bag throw.' The bean bag throw was won by Kenny Laporte. A limit of 30 seconds was set on the apple game, however, most of the participants were awarded an apple.

A Penny Arcade, which was held on the stage, included many funfilled events, ranging from ping pong to penny pitching. Other events were — golf putting, obstacle course, card tricks, pen picking, throwing money on a plate, into milk jugs, etc., ect. other games were provided by Mr. Cooke's Class.

A total of $126.33 was raised during the hour-and-a-half. The students will present the money to General Grant, who will be visiting the school on April 10. The 'General' will donate the money, in the school's name, to Muscular Dystrophy or the Distress Centre.

Mrs. G. Duvall hosts Newington W.I. meeting

Mrs. Gerald Duvall was hostess for the March meeting of the Newington Cedar Brae Women's Institute with an attendance of fourteen members and five guests.

Mrs. George Zeran, the president, opened the meeting with the Ode, Mary Stewart Collect and Lord's Prayer. The motto was "A teacher affects eternity, she can never tell where her influence stops" and the roll call was answered by naming a course you would like to see conducted for adult education.

Mrs. Lawrence Steele, convener of Education and Cultural Activities, introduced the guest speaker who was Mr. Dalton Snetsinger of Cornwall. He showed slides of the trip he and his wife had taken last year. Their first stop was in Brazil where they visited the beautiful city of Rie de Janeiro. Continuing on, they went to South Africa and East Africa, and while on safari took splendid pictures of the wild life there including some animals and birds which are rarely seen in our zoos here.

Mrs. Steele thanked Mr. Snetsinger for his interesting pictures and comments, presenting him with a gift in appreciation.

A short business meeting followed and the conveners of the standing committees gave their annual reports.

Lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed. The president thanked the hostess and the lunch committee, Mrs. Harold Cameron and Mrs. Lawrence Steele.

The annual meeting in April will be held at the home of Mrs. Douglas Wallis. Everyone is welcome.

Cornwall Township Broomball Girls hold awards night last Sunday

The Township of Cornwall Girls' Broomball Association gathered at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, Cornwall, on Sunday evening for the Annual Banquet and Awards Night. The event had to be cancelled on Friday evening due to inclement weather. The hall was packed, with almost three hundred girls and parents on hand, in addition to the coaches and executive of the association.

Following the singing of 'O Canada', the head table guests were introduced by Sister Callahan. The blessing was given by Rev. Loree, of Long Sault.

Due to cancellation and unforeseen circumstances, the guest speaker could not be present and Mrs. Lilly Grant, president of the League, spoke a few words to the assembly. Thanking all who had helped to make the Association the success it has proven to be.

Trophies were then presented to the winners in the Novice Division — the Team Trophy went to the American Legion Team which had been coached by Leanne Francis. The Play-off Championship in this division was won by the Causeway Catering team, coached by Patsy Adams.

In the Peewee Division, St. Regis, coached by Sister Callahan, took first place and the Laframboise Trophy was taken by the OPP Team, coached by Tom Werely.

Rene Emonds coaching of the Sullivan Bros. Team, in the Junior Division, earned that team the Trophy for first place position.

The Junior Champions of the League, coached by Peggy Rowden, received the Ruth Adams Trophy. In addition crests were presented to teams in all divisions.

Individual awards were presented to members of the Novice Division with Top Scorer Award going to June King, Most Valuable Player to Anne Marie Quail, Best Defence to Agnes King and in this class the Goalie of the Year Award was shared by C. Wheeler and C. Beatty.

Top Scorer for Peewee Division was another shared Award, the honours going to Janet Jeard and Becky Francis. Sandra Brisebois picked up the Most Valuable Award in this division. Top Defence went to Audrey Johnston, Goalie of the Year to Rosemarie Monseur and Sportsman of the Year to Maureen MacAllear.

Not to be outdone . . . in the Junior League Marion Lauzon and Linda Sauve split the Top Scorer Award with Patsy Adams picking up the Most Valuable Player Award. Best Defence went to Kim Bogart and Barbara Taylor took home the Sportsman of the Year Trophy.

Sister Pat Callahan was judged to be the Coach of the Year. In addition a Trophy for the one who it was felt had contributed the most to the Girls' Broomball League was presented to Hugette Bies.

Following the presentations, Tom Werely addressed the gathering, backing up President Lilly Grant's plea for more of the players' parents to become involved with league activities.

Shortly after, complete with plenty of fried chicken, french fries, soft drinks and ice cream the banquet broke up.

Despite storm . . .

Over 200 attend Osnabruck Twp. Hockey Banquet

Friday, April 4, will without a doubt be remembered by many as the last terrible storm of the winter of 1975, but Osnabruck Twp. Minor Hockey officials and players will remember it for another reason. Their annual banquet was slated for Friday evening and went off even without the co-operation of the weatherman. Over two hundred braved the worst storm this year to participate in the annual event held at St. Mathew's Presbyterian Church Hall in Ingleside.

At 7:30 p.m. everyone assembled in the hall and were greeted by the master of ceremonies for the evening, Clayton Ouderkirk. Clayton welcomed everyone and congratulated the members of the teams and coaches for the effort they put forth over the past season.

Head table guests for the event included: Clayton Ouderkirk, President O.T.M.H.A.; Cliff Middleton and John . Dunlop, vice-presidents, O.T.M.H.A.; Earl Jeacle, Secretary-treasurer, O.T.M.H.A.; Father T. Reinhardt, Edwin Waldroff, Reeve of Osnabruck Twp.

League and individual trophies were presented, among these presentations each participant in this year's program received an Osnabruck Twp. Hockey Crest.

Each player on the Osnabruck Twp. Atoms, winners of the North Stormont Hockey League Trophy, was awarded an individual trophy donated by John Plumadore Construction.

Individual trophies also went to the Peewee division for winning the North Stormont Play-offs. These awards were donated by the Treasure Island Motel.

A second Peewee team copped the Upper Canada League Play-off Trophy, and members of this team were honoured with individual trophies for their efforts. The hardware for this team was donated by Oscar Ouderkirk, Arthur Gogan, Roy Heagle and Dale Heagle.

Osnabruck Midgets won a couple of awards this year making them tough contenders for many area teams. They managed to pick up the North Stormont League Championship and also the Lloyd and Stewart trophy for the Maxville Midget "B" Championship.

Following the presentation of awards an election of officers was held. It was felt at this time that since Minor Hockey in the Township had shown such an increase in interest and accomplishments in the past year that the entire executive be reinstated for the coming season.

Clayton Ouderkirk, President of the League thanked those present for coming. "Storm or no storm everyone here has helped to make Minor Hockey in Osnabruck Township an outstanding success." He also apologized for some of the interesting features missing on the program, the guest speaker and a film which were not available due to the storm. "But", said the president, "I am sure everyone here has enjoyed himself and I hope to see you all again next year as we continue to work together to make Minor Hockey in Osnabruck Township a program that everyone can be proud of."

Doctor up your vegetables

Food specialists at the Ontario Food Council, Ministry of Agriculture & Food tell us that, with surprisingly little added preparation, you can add a dash of imagination to vegetables and transform them into THE dish with which you serve meat.

To prove a point, here are a couple of ideas using vegetables in season - especially winter vegetables.

CARAMEL RUTABAGA (yellow table turnip)

2 medium RUTABAGAS, cut in ¾ inch cubes (about 6 cups cubes)
2 teaspoons salt
Boiling water
¼ cup butter
3 tablespoons brown sugar
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg
Freshly ground pepper

Cook rutabaga in boiling salted water, uncovered, until tender, about 15 minutes. Drain very well. Add butter to drained rutabaga; sprinkle in brown sugar. Set over moderate heat; cook, stirring gently with a fork until butter and sugar melt. Add nutmeg and a generous grating of pepper.

Serves 6 (¾ cup each)

PIQUANT BEETS

2 bunches (about 6 to 8) BEETS, cooked and peeled
1 tablespoon prepared horseradish
2 tablespoons liquid honey
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cornstarch.

Slice beets, set aside.

In a saucepan, blend horseradish, honey, lemon juice, salt and cornstarch. Bring to the boil; remove from heat; set aside for 5 minutes. Return to the heat; add beets, heat through, stirring occasionally for 4 to 5 minutes.

Makes 6 servings, ½ cup each.

1 chicken flavored bouillon cube
½ cup boiling water
1 pound CARROTS (about 6 medium) peeled and cut in julienne strips (2 inches long) (3½ cups)
2 medium ONIONS, sliced
1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon flour
½ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
Pinch sugar
⅛ teaspoon dried thyme (optional)
¾ cup water

Add bouillon cube to the ½ cup boiling water in medium saucepan; stir until dissolved. Add carrots; cook covered, 10 minutes. Do not drain. Meanwhile, cook onions in melted butter in skillet, covered, shaking the pan so onions don't stick (5 minutes). Remove cover; stir in flour, salt, pepper, sugar and thyme. Remove from heat; add ¾ cup water. Return to moderate heat, cook, stirring until boiling, thickened and smooth. Add carrots and their cooking liquid; simmer, uncovered, until carrots are tender - about 5 minutes.

Serves 4 to 6.

Chesterville W.I.

"Citizenship and World Affairs" topic of discussion at March meeting

The topic for the March meeting of Chesterville W. I. was "Citizenship and World Affairs", with Misses Addie and Madge Campderros as conveners.

Mrs. Albert Smith, 1st Vice President, assisted by Mrs. Chas. Graham opened the meeting in the usual manner. The roll call was answered by naming a federal minister and his portfolio.

Business arising from the minutes and correspondence was a reminder of the Directors' meeting in Winchester; a letter from L. Graham acknowledging suggestions for local improvements; an invitation to attend a banquet in Iroquois in April to celebrate the 70th Anniversary of Dundas W.I.; the annual mometary donation to Easter Seals; The District Annual in Elma in May; to re-order W.I. Spoons; an invitation to attend the 4-H Homemaking Achievement Day in May to be held in Winchester; notification that the April meeting will include a pot luck supper and the Officers' Conference to be held in Waterloo at the end of April.

Mrs. Eric Casselman said plans were completed for the Regional Hospital Luncheon and Mrs. Dennis Wells reported for the local 4-H Homemaking Club and stated the fall project will be "Let's Make Bread."

The treasurer reported a substantial bank balance. Mrs. George Johnston, card secretary, said that eighteen sympathy and fourteen 'Get Well' cards were sent out in the month of March.

Miss Madge Campderros gave a short history on the lovely painting on display at The Campderros Home. The painting had been done by Mrs. Harold Sharkey.

The speaker of the evening, Mr. Jack Morris, was no stranger to the group. The Morris family moved from Chesterville to Prescott in 1947 and since that time his weekly paper "The Prescott Journal" has won twenty-three National and Provincial Awards. Three members of the Morris family have followed in their father's footsteps and are associated in newspaper work.

This past February, Jack was given the Prescott "Community Service Award". This award is attained as a result of many years of service to the community.

Always interested in young people, Jack has organized and conducts a folk mass group of forty-five young people of St. John's Anglican Church, known as the "Joy of St. John."

The speaker for his illustrated address chose slides of Israel, where he visited recently. Landing at Tel Aviv he travelled to Jerusalem, a distance of one hundred and thirty-seven miles. Approaching the ancient walled-city modern architecture was much in evidence. In and about Jerusalem he visited Golgatha, the Uper Room, and the Church of the Sepulchre. As the speaker took his audience throughout the countryside, such familiar places as Bethlehem, the Church of the Nativity, the homes of Elizabeth and Mary, Nazareth, the Sea of Galilee, the Jordan River, the Dead Sea and the Mount of Olives told the story of Jesus' birth to Good Friday and Easter.

Jack's commentary combined with the slides was most informative and interesting. Mrs. Mac Curran thanked the speaker for coming and sharing his trip.

A social hour was enjoyed.

long and dull "Hypo needles" with a few well aimed and not-so-dull 'elbow jabs'.

Following the last game, everyone was invited to the upstairs hall where an educational film was shown and coffee and donuts were served. All kinds of literature was available for those interested.

Mrs. Glendon Casselman, of Berwick, who is the president of the North Stormont Branch of the Cancer Society said that everyone was overjoyed with every aspect of the afternoon. The society is grateful to all who participated in the games, to the officials who donated their time and talent, to the Finch Recreation Association for providing the rink free of charge, and to the Ladies' Recreation for supplying the coffee. It was really a great afternoon of fun and enjoyment for everyone of all ages and already plans are being made for a bigger programme for next year.

Williamsburg Twp.

Meet for regular session open tenders for supply

The regular meeting of the municipal council of the Township of Williamsburg was held on April 5, 1975 in the IOOF Hall at Williamsburg Ontario, with all members present.

The clerk was instructed to request the Township Engineer to examine and report on the construction of the Chas. Marselis Drain. The clerk was also instructed to advertise for tenders for the improvement of the Joseph Shannette drain.

Council discussed at some length the entry into the Provincial OHRP program for home improvement and the clerk was instructed to apply for a grant of approximately $37,000.00 in this regard. As soon as the final approval is received council will advertise in all local papers for applicants in this program.

Tenders for the 1975 supply of Chloride, Brushkill and Culverts were then opened with the tenders of R. S. Allison and Sons Ltd., being accepted for brushkill, and Hough Bros. for culverts and Lafferty-Smith for chloride. The proposed 1975 budget was presented by the clerk and discussed at great length but no final decision was reached and the matter was held over to a future meeting.

Council did then adjourn.

Thanks

As another season of activities at the Chesterville & District Arena come to an end, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the very fine people of the Village and District who so freely gave their time and efforts this past winter to help the programs run so smoothly.

To the coaches and assistants who spent so many hours with the boys in minor hockey; to the parents who supported them and helped out in the dressing rooms; to the people who worked so hard to make the Figure Skating Club and Ice Revue the success it was; to the people who organized the Broomball and Hockey Leagues; to those who helped at the Junior C games and at public skating and in the canteen, a very sincere thank you for all your efforts.
