BIA members have difficulty spending gov't allocated funds

JUDITH O'BRIEN
Leader staff

MORRISBURG — As incredible as it sounds, members of the Morrisburg BIA found out it is easier to get money than to spend it.

At the Board of Management meeting Wednesday, BIA Co-ordinator Wilf McAuley informed members the provincial Ministry of Municipal Affairs has established specific guidelines for spending the village's $250,000 PRIDE grant.

One-third of the total must be spent by March 31, 1989, the second third by March 31, 1990 and the final third by March 31, 1991. If the money is not spent the municipality could lose provincial commitment of the amount underspent. On the other hand, if the money spent in one year is greater than the one-third stipulated, the province may not be able to meet the extra expense and the municipality may have to carry these costs over a maximum three year period.

And that is the crux of the problem according to McAuley. The number one priority of the BIA is to remove the existing canopy at the shopping plaza and replace it. McAuley said this type of renovation is a one shot deal which will cost more than the allocated one-third for 1988.

"Assuming at this point the canopy costs us $600,000 and we finish it by next spring and we bill the province, they will only give us 33 per cent the first year. That means the village may have to carry the balance over a three year period," he said. "The province will endeaver to pay but it would only be luck if they did."

McAuley said MMA has never faced this type of renovation before and he thinks the best course of action is for the BIA to write a letter to the ministry accompanied by a letter from The Starr Group, official planners, explaining the canopy repair replacement is not the type of thing that can be done in pieces.

"You can't do the canopy piece be piece so council will probably be stuck with some," said BIA member Tom Morrow. "This isn't geared for general improvements you can do over time. With the canopy you either do it or you don't."

McAuley said the allocation periods are based on different phases of improvement projects but Morrisburg's problem is phase one of the project is the bulk phase.

"I think we should apprise council of the situation," said McAuley. "We may need some political lobbying."

Streetscaping

The BIA has also received a $100,000 commitment from the present village council for streetscape improvements in the shopping plaza and BIA President Peter Remillard suggested the money be turned over to the BIA before another municipal election in Oct. 1988 changes the face of council.

"If council changes we may have to approach a new council for $100,000 again," he said.

McAuley said council has committed the money and he thinks it would be a mistake to start streetscaping improvements now which might have to be ripped out when the new canopy is installed. The new canopy cannot be installed however until each merchant in the plaza deeds his section of the canopy into the public domain because grant money cannot be spent on private property.

Remillard said he doesn't think it will take more than a year to deed all of the canopy to the village but if some merchants resist, expropriation, which is costly and time consuming, would be the only route left.

"I can see other issues creeping into the discussion," he said. "People will want to know if council will guarantee they can put their sign on the structure or want a clause which can revoke the agreement at the request of the store owner or hand over the deed when they get their licence."

"Our worst scenario is the project will cost us an extra $25,000 in interest," said Dirk Testerink.

Though it seemed the BIA was trapped in a catch-22 situation McAuley said a representative from MMA said the ministry might make a funding exception for this unique case. BIA members agreed to inform council about the funding situation and ask MMA to review their case.

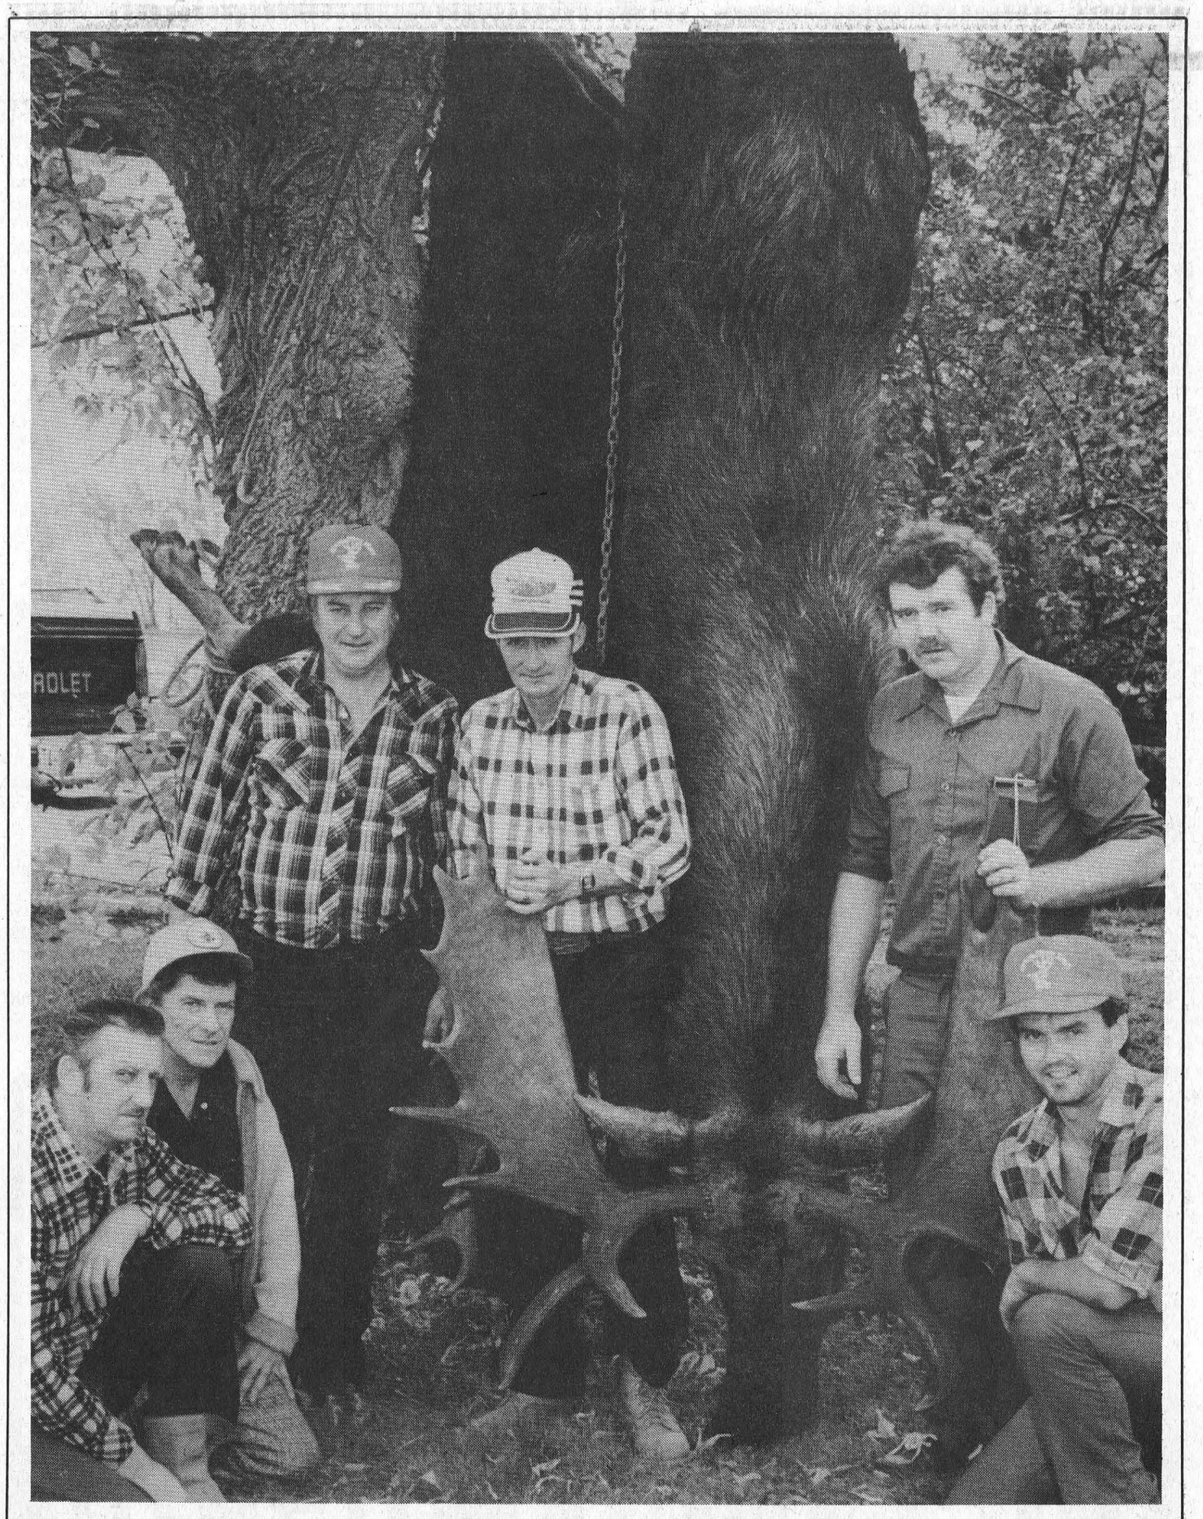
Ship runs aground

A ship that ran aground near Morrisburg will have to be off loaded in order to be re-floated.

The Willow Glen, owned by P and H Shipping of Mississauga ran onto a sand bar at 11:30 p.m. Saturday after experiencing mechanical problems. The ship is out of the shipping lanes and poses no threat to other traffic, said John Kroon of the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority.

After trying to refloat the vessel with the cargo hold full of wheat, it was decided to off load some of the wheat in order to lighten the ship. Mr. Kroon said it is not known when the ship will be under way again because they do not know how much wheat will have to be off loaded.

Kroon added that there was some structural damage to the ship, but that it is under control and the ship is in no danger.



Glen Becker party lands big one

The 1987 moose hunting season again has proved to be a successful one for a Glen Becker hunting party which returned home from the Goganda area last Tuesday with a pair of prizes, the largest of which was estimated to weigh up to 1,000 pounds field dressed. Members of the gang, l-r, were Randy Shaver, Rae Loucks, Wayne McHaffie, Dalton Barkley, Ron Ferguson and Neil Strader. Absent were Bruce Gillis and Tommy McPherson, the successful marksmen. —McNairn photo

Road workers sign 3 year deal

JUDITH O'BRIEN
Leader staff

CORNWALL — Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry unionized road workers returned to work Thursday morning after voting to accept the Counties latest offer by 62 per cent.

Members of the Canadian Union of Public Employees local 1715 were locked out Sept. 30 after members rejected an offer by the Counties.

The union was seeking a $1.50 per hour increase over the next two years while the Counties were prepared to offer 50 cents the first year and 55 cents the second year. The workers were also seeking job security against the Counties contracting out work.

In the end the two sides agreed to a 60 cent per hour increase added to the average wage of $10.15 over the next three years retroactive to March 22.

In addition there is an understanding between the Counties and CUPE that no employee that is a member of CUPE local 1715 and employed with the United Counties of S.D.&G. as of Oct. 7, 1987 will be subject to layoffs as a result of contracting out of services during the term of the three year contract.

Counties Clerk-Treasurer Raymond Lapointe said he is pleased with the agreement.

"The Counties can still contract out but it will be done in such a way employees won't lose their jobs," he said. "Everyone is back working. It's good news."

At its last session in September, Counties council voted to lock-out workers if mediation talks failed. The lock-out lasted seven days but Lapointe said there were no problems except the one incident the first day of the lock-out when picketing union members occupied his office for 45 minutes.

The Wesley side road north of Hwy. 401 in Lancaster was shut down during the lock out but United Counties engineer Don McDonald said it is a low volume road which only sees about 250 cars per day.

CUPE district representative Steve Backs said it is a "darn good contract."

Block Parent program for adults and children alike

DOUG CARSON
Leader staff

Block Parent week is from Oct. 19 to 26, and the organization in Morrisburg feels this is a good time to remind people of their duties when they become block parents.

"The kids in the schools are aware of block parents and aware of what the signs mean. Even if you haven't had someone come to your door in two years you have to remember to use the sign properly," said Teri Martel, president of the Morrisburg Block Parents.

Martel said about six new homes became involved in block parents in the past year, bringing the total in town to around 40.

Martel also emphasized that block parents are not solely for the use of children.

"If I'm being harrassed, or a senior citizen has a weak spell while out walking they can go to a block parent house for help. We're not allowed to give medical attention, but we can call for help," she added.

Martel also cautioned that if you are a block parent and you move to a new town, you just can't take your sign with you and put it in the window of your new home, you have to get in touch with the block parent program in your new town, she said.

Martel also had a few tips on how parents can help make the program more effective. "A parent could drive along the route their children usually take when walking to school, if there is no block parents along that route we could see about getting some," she said.

A grant from the Morrisburg Legion has provided most of the financial backing the group needs to operate, and co-operation from the schools and police community services officers has kept the program running smoothly, Martel said.

Should anyone be interested in joining the block parent program contact your school principal or Martel at 543-3337.

Trial delayed

The trial of Robert Gauthier, charged with the murder of his wife and son after an incident in Ingleside last year, has been transferred to county court and has been traversed to the next sitting of the Ontario Supreme Court, which is to begin in February, 1988.

Originally the case was to go to trial in November, of this year, but in weekly court in Ottawa Gauthier's lawyer requested and received permission for the trial to be held over to the next Ontario Supreme Court sitting.

Plans for drains to cost local landowners

Some land owners in Matilda Township will pay a total of $21,000 for a report they may never use.

Last February 26, John Wilson, Garnet Johnson, Delmer Adams, Glen Schwerdtfeger, Annabelle Casselman and John Johnson requested Thompson-Errington drain be made suitable for tile drainage.

Council requested engineers prepare a preliminary report, which was filed on May 27 and considered at the June 11 Matilda Township council meeting.

At that time the petitioning parties were told that they could withdraw their name from the petition and only have to split the cost of the preliminary report, which was $4,000, and would be eligible to receive a grant to cover a portion of the cost of the preliminary report.

No names were withdrawn from the list and the decision was made to go through with the final report. At the council meeting last week, with most of the land owners involved attending, the final report was submitted.

When Casselman decided to withdraw her name from the list and decided not to have the work done, it meant the work could not go ahead and the group was

Group support main goal of weight loss program

JUDITH O'BRIEN
Leader staff

MORRISBURG — Anyone who has ever tried to lose weight can tell you it is a frustrating and very lonely experience, but there is an organization in Morrisburg which provides support and encouragement to dieters.

TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) is an American based organization headquartered in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. It was founded 39 years ago by Esther Manz. Starting with four members, the organization has grown to include over 12,000 branches in the U.S., Canada and 22 other countries.

Winnie Hutchinson organized the local branch on May 26, 1981. There are now 26 members including one man. The branch meets at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Morrisburg Legion.

"I was so heavy I would wake up at night gasping for breath," she said. "I knew I wasn't the only fat lady around and I figured if something was going to get started I might as well start it myself."

Winnie decided to begin a TOPS chapter here because her sister belonged to one in Kemptville. She has been a faithful member ever since. New members pay $20 per year. After two years their fee drops to $18 although the branch does pay $3 towards membership fees. Dues total $1 per week.

Not like Weight Watchers

TOPS is not similar to the well-known Weight Watchers program. There are no diets prescribed in TOPS. Group members are there for companionship and support.

"We applaud everyone who has had a weight loss during the week," said Hutchinson. "We try to encourage them and show them we are pleased. We've had some really good success stories here."

Competitions are also used to motivate people to stick with their doctor-prescribed diets. A TOPSI award is given to the greatest weight loss winner each week and the recipient also receives 10 cents from each member. If a member gains weight during the week he or she must pay five cents for each quarter or half pound gained and 10 cents for each three-quarter or pound gained.

Winnie says TOPS does not prescribe diets to members because it isn't healthy. "I don't know what health problems you may have," she said. "See your doctor to find out your ideal weight. The important thing for us is that you come in and weigh every week. When you have to face that machine every week, and sometimes it can be an ordeal, it helps."

There is an official weight recorder in the club who keeps track of each member's weight every week. Hutchinson stresses however that each person's weight is kept confidential.

KOPS

Once the ideal weight is reached, a member is entitled to be called KOPS (Keep Off Pounds Sensibly). KOPS members only pay 50 cents dues each week and are a source of inspiration to other dieters. KOPS members are encouraged to maintain their weight in the 10 pound range — allowing three pounds over and seven pounds under their ideal weight.

Hutchinson says getting the last five pounds is probably the hardest part of all but once it is achieved there is a real sense of satisfaction.

TOPS members are weighed on the club's official scale. The scale is placed in the same spot on the floor each week and it is the only official weight recorded.

"It's no secret formula, it's all up here," said Winnie pointing to her forehead. "We can give you support but no one can take weight off for you. You must do it yourself."

Social club

Chapters are allowed two food functions per year. The menus must be planned in advance and sent to co-ordinators for approval. The Morrisburg chapter has a Christmas party every year.

Right now the members are preparing for an area rally day in Cornwall to be held Oct. 24. Over 240 members from the area will meet to discuss their projects. The guest of honor will be Sandra Webb of Gloucester. She was the TOPS International Queen this year, losing the most weight for a female member from all branches. Webb lost 221 pounds over 59 weeks without a weight gain.

"Losing one to two pounds per week is a good weight loss," said Hutchinson. "You can get too over-anxious about it and do too much the other way. It's not what you eat but how much."

But rather than dwelling on food and diets all the time, the TOPS chapter often welcome guest speakers from different walks of life to talk about a variety of subjects.

TOPS is a non-profit organization. The minimum age for members is seven years. Everyone is welcome but those who have undergone stapling operations as a means of weight loss and control cannot be members of the club.

responsible for the cost of the initial report and $17,000 in cost of the final report.

For petitioned work to go ahead, the owners of the majority of the land involved must agree to have the work done. Because Casselman owns the majority of the land where the work has to be done her withdrawal forced cancellation of the project.

However, the representative for Stidwell and Associates, who did the engineering reports, said the final report could still be used as the basis for the work should the land owners decide to have it done at a later date.

Rooney Feeds celebrates 25 years in business

JUDITH O'BRIEN
Leade staff

IROQUOIS — Times have changed since Rooney Feeds in Iroquois opened its doors for business a quarter of a century ago.

It used to be run by Frank Rooney; now his son Louis handles the business. Farmers used to bring their own grain to the mill for processing; now trucks from the feed store can head right out to the farm and pick up grain. It used to operate mainly as a grist mill; now the store retails dairy, poultry, hog and horse feed. The processing and mixing of feed is a highly researched business and isn't thrown together in a haphazard manner. Louis says the store has changed from primarily a bag feed industry to bulk products.

Frank purchased the Merkley Feed business in 1962. He admits when he started he was a greenhorn in the business, but quickly learned several tricks of the trade.

"I had one truck that came with the business," he said. "The two men who worked here knew more than I . At one time when I made deliveries I used to drive up and down country roads and make it look good. People would see the truck and think I was out delivering feed."

Rooney Feeds has grown from two employees to six, from one truck to four. The Rooneys also have a large bulk fertilizer business and deliver 75 per cent of what they sell from Cornwall to Vernon to Prescott. One year after he purchased to business Frank installed the molasses machine at the store to help in the preparation of animal feed. Ten years later a 70 tonne bulk storage bin was added and five years after that Rooney Feeds acquired a fertilizer distributing centre with a 1,000 tonne bulk capacity, located in Matilda Township.

Today one man at the feed store can produce seven tonnes of feed in one hour. Twenty-five years ago it would take two men all morning to produce the same amount.

While Frank admits the feed store services a large area he says there are fewer and fewer farmers around. Feed stores rarely get new customers and must keep service high and prices competitive to retain old customers and try to win new ones from other stores.

"We are in a no-growth industry and if the farmer is going to make money and we're going to make money we have to be progressive," said Louis. "That's why a farmer today does little without taking samples of grain etc. We have a salesman on the road who takes fertilizer and feed samples and recommends to the farmer rations to use."

Rooney Feeds has faced many ups and downs in its 25 year history. Frank retired from active business 10 years ago and spends much of his time nowadays on municipal matters as reeve of Iroquois. When he underwent heart surgery 14 years ago his wife Margaret went from running the books to running the store.

Rooney Feeds is a francise of Shur-Gain, a division of Canada Packers. Technical information relating to feed and fertilizer is researched by Shur-Gain and relayed to Rooney Feeds. Shur-Gain is also available if something goes wrong with the feed or fertilizer which is why the Rooneys believe they have kept the same customers for many years.

"Our whole philosophy has been to get yourself tied up with a qualified supplier and everything falls into place after that," said Louis. "If you buy no-name products that's what you are."

Libraries serve us well

The week of October 19th to October 25th is observed as Public Library Week in Ontario, and all around the province libraries are using this occasion to enthusiastically promote the many valuable services they offer.

The special week should remind all of us of the great advantages which have accrued to every resident through our enlightened and comprehensive library service. With the development of branch libraries in the smaller centres, and the use of bookmobiles in the even more remote areas, the benefits of information and education have been made available to many thousands who could otherwise not afford these informative services.

Nearly two thousand libraries across the province will hold special events to mark this special week, to emphasize the statement that "libraries are more than just books", and the many impressive ways in which our libraries serve us in a changing world. These institutions have become an important and an integral part of our daily lives and our culture. The week-long celebration is designed to make more people more aware of the variety of services offered.

If you haven't visited your local library recently, why don't you drop in during this special week. And bring along your family as well. The kids are never too young to learn about the pleasures and the advantages offered by a good library, and your local branch has something for readers of all tastes, all ages, all backgrounds. You will find the early childhood fairy tales, and the large-type novels for those whose eyesight is not so accute. You need only ask your friendly librarian for help in finding just what you are looking for.

A qualified source of information is essential to any community for education, personal growth and entertainment. Your public library provides the resources for access to all types of information, and a library card makes all these resources available to you.

As a special part of Library Week, all branches of the Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry County Library will be holding a "Forgiveness Week", and no overdue fines will be imposed on books returned to the library during that time. A warm welcome will be extended to new visitors as well as to those who have been regular users of the facility.

We are most fortunate to have in these counties such a comprehensive, educational and entertainment service available. Every resident should take full advantage of this rather remarkable learning resource.

Life for the world's kids

For almost a third of a century, Canadian children have collected coins on Hallowe'en to help UNICEF children around the world. Last year, more than half a million dollars was raised in Ontario alone, to assist UNICEF Canada's projects in many countries.

The collection from the UNICEF Hallowe'en boxes assists projects supporting better health care, improved nutrition, clean water and sanitation. One of the major focal points of the United Nations Children's Fund is the Expanded Program of Immunization, which aims to eventually immunize every single child in the whole world against killing diseases. The lack of such immunization results in more than five million child deaths every year in the developing world, from polio, measles, diphtheria, tetanus, tuberculosis and whooping cough. These diseases are no longer a threat to Canadian children, due to the availability of vaccines, and comprehensive immunization programs.

These programs are extremely cost-effective, too. It costs just over $5.00 to immunize one child for life against the six major killing diseases. And that cost includes the price of the vaccine, transport and medical support. Another plus is that immunization also avoids the high cost of rehabilitating an afflicted child in the future.

But achieving the goal of universal child immunization is not without challenge. It is essential for many vaccines to be maintained at a constant cool temperature to retain their effectiveness. This is being done with specially-developed, solar-powered refrigerators and battery-powered cold boxes. The vaccines are tested regularly to ensure their effectiveness at all times.

Parental support is the cornerstone of any successful immunization program. UNICEF plays an important role in educating mothers on the importance of immunization as well as encouraging proper health care and nutrition for their children. Mobile health clinics are provided by UNICEF to give mothers easy access to basic health care. Otherwise, thousands of rural women would be unlikely to carry their children the long distances to the nearest health clinic for proper health care and immunization.

This Hallowe'en, Canadian school children will once again be carrying the UNICEF orange and black collection boxes. Please join UNICEF in helping to immunize millions of children by having a good supply of coins ready on Hallowe'en. Help your children to help assure the children of this world a better tomorrow.

This Week In Morrisburg's History

Compiled from The Leader's fyles
by Bonnie McNairn

1977

Pictured on the front page of the October 12th, 1977 issue of The Leader was Kim Rosenquist of Morrisburg who was the big winner at Seaway District High School's Commencement Award Day. Kim picked up four trophies including the Seeley Trophy for the highest standing in grades 9 and 10.

The Morrisburg Arena was to open for the season on October 17th.

The Village of Osnabruck Centre received a double blow when two homes were destroyed by fire leaving eight people homeless. Mrs. Gertrude Yates lost her home on the weekend and one day later Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Collins and family narrowly escaped a fire in their home which occurred in the early morning hours.

At Heinz Food Market a 16 ounce jar of Kraft peanut butter was 85 cents and mushrooms were 69 cents a half-pound box.

Heather Hutchison was validictorian at the Seaway District High School Commencement Exercises. Others picking up awards were Wanda Boulerice for the highest standing in Grade 12 French, Steven Byvelds for the highest technical proficiency and Susan Casselman for the highest standing in combined business subjects.

Ontario Scholars at Osnabruck District High School included Linda Brown, Danny Stewart and Alice Schultz.

The Morrisburg Junior B Lions were preparing for another season with only four veterans returning to their lineup. Two years early, in the 1975-76 season, the Lions had won the Ottawa and District Junior B League championship. Because they hadn't done as well the following year, losing to the Renfrew Lions in the final, and considering the lack of returning players they were not expected to have a good year in 1977-78. Brian McNairn was taking over as head coach after working for Ken Morrow as assistant in 1975-76 and sharing the duties the following season.

1967

Pictured on the front page of the October 13th, 1967 issue of The Leader was William J. Snyder of Morrisburg who had retired from his position of lockmaster at Iroquois Canal after serving 37 years on the locks beginning in 1930 in Morrisburg. He transferred to Seaway Authority Lock No. 7, Iroquois at the time of the Seaway.

It was with a feeling of genuine regret that his many friends learned of the death of a universally esteemed citizen, Thomas Rockley Parker, former reeve of Morrisburg and town councillor for many years.

Chief Murray Storey of the Iroquois Fire Department was presented with the Jack McMillan Mutual Aid Trophy for Firefighters at the annual get together of firemen from the three United Counties.

At the Domion, tomatoes were 69 cents a three-pound tray and 16 ounce packages of Cattelli macaroni were four for 89 cents.

Mrs. Arnold Payment was elected president of the Morrisburg Figure Skating Club while Shirley Rice became vice-president, Mrs. Bruce McKay secretary and Linda Smithson treasurer. Fees for the year were $8 for children over 11 and $5 for those 10 and under.

Headlines in the October 11th, 1957 issue of The Leader read Plan to Open Shopping Centre before Christmas. The official opening was to be on December 5th and a special attraction was to be a giant Santa Claus parade.

The first boat was to go through the new Seaway Lock at Iroquois on or about November 10th. Work on the giant lock had been completed recently and flooding of the lock approaches was carried out.

The October 10th, 1947 issue of The Leader reported that Captain Luke Mallan had died at his home on Lock Street. "The Captain" was known familiarly all along the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence, by steamship company officials, captains, crewmen and lock men. He was highly regarded as a river pilot. He was born at Cardinal on February 24th, 1874 and in 1901 in Prescott he was united in marriage to the former Miss Mary Jane Gogo who survived.

At Sam Agulnik and Son, kiddies' snow suits were $6.95 each and ladies all wool sweaters were $3.95.

At Weegar's Store Dalton's pitted dates were 35 cents a pound and Valia choice peaches were 35 cents a 20 ounce jar.

1937

Pictured on the front page of the October 8th, 1937 of The Leader were Hon. Michell F. Hepburn and Hon. George H. Challies both of whom had been successful in the provincial election. Premier Hepburn had returned to office with 63 seats while the conservatives had taken 23. Challies had won quite handily in the Dundas-Grenville riding.

At Lloyd's Market bologna was two pounds for 25 cents and roast veal was 15 cents a pound.

The October 14th, 1927 issue of The Leader reported the vote at the Conservative Convention at Winnipeg was overwhelmingly cast for Hon. Richard Bedrod Bennett, member for Calgary West, as permanent leader of the party in the Dominion House.

Mrs. G.M. Gorrell was advertising that she would take a limited number of students in elocution.

Allan W. Lavis had Snow, Russet and Talman Sweet apples for sale at $1 per bushel.

the Kitchen Garden

V.A. Hughes

Planting bulbs always seems to take more of an effort than any other form of gardening. The weather can be counted on to be cold and wet, the time before freeze-up is critical and the bulbs that seemed in plentiful supply last week are almost certain to have vanished. But the payback is certainly worth the trouble, nothing is as welcome as "The flowers that bloom in the Spring, tra...la..."

Encouragement comes with the bulb catalogues and the photo of mass plantings of Tulips and Daffodils. Cruikshanks always carries a fine selection and offers introductory collections to tempt the gardener who hasn't ventured into bulbs before. Seasoned growers are more likely to spend time browsing through the listings of species Tulips or Lilies.

We fell victim to the advertising from White Flower Farm and must have a "drift" of Daffodils which require bulbs by the hundreds. Our meager two dozen will be more of a dribble than a drift. But unlike Petunias, the Daffs we plant will multiply. The beds in Mariatown were started by the previous owners and have grown in flower-power while we've been there. It's not impossible, but happily difficult to eradicate Daffodils once they've established themselves.

We already have bulbs to plant. For once we remembered to dig up some of the Daffodils when they had finished blooming and "heel" them in. This involves replanting in a trench, allowing the leaves to dry back naturally and then digging them up in August and ripening them in the sun. This is the first time we've been organized enough to remember to go through all the steps at the right time. Now all we have to do is get them planted before the frost sets in. A new product in many garden centres is Bulb Booster, a specially prepared bulb food.

Since our Daffs are all young ones we'll add a spoonful of this to each planting hole.

Again we hope to naturalize Daffodils. The plantings we made in the Mariatown garden were so successful that we're going to try them again. This time they will be along the roadway, (dirt track is a better description), but finding planting space is going to be a problem. The road climbs steeply winding around the rock that the house sits upon and very little soil exists on either side, leaving only small pockets in the rocky face of the hillside. From a little book titled "BULBS for small gardens", we learn that:

"Bulbs from the screes and turf-covered ledges in the mountains number mainly dwarf species of daffodil, crocus, squill and anemone that are ideal for an alpine garden or for really small beds and borders, and window boxes. Most alpine bulbs grow in very gritty soil that is rich in plant foods but perfectly drained, so that though the ground may be very wet with water from melting snow in the spring, the water is never stagnant."

The bulbs we're planting in the scree are of this miniature variety, one called HAWERA, the other MOONDROPS. They are clustered in an area with low growing shrubbery (identification continues, have added the Scarlet Oak — a lovely wild thing that could well be used as an ornamental). One group of eight bulbs the other planting 10. We're also trying a double Snowdrop, with a deep blue minuature Iris behind.

Once the snow comes they will be forgotten, but the planning and planting must happen now for the blooms that will appear next spring.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Editor,
The Morrisburg Leader,
Morrisburg, Ontario

Dear Sir:

October 16 is World Food Day. It is celebrated yearly in commemoration of the founding, 42 years ago, of the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization (F.A.O.) in Quebec City.

Over 147 countries around the world commemorate World Food Day by reflecting on the importance of global hunger and food problems. The Ontario World Food Day Co-Ordinating Committee is a coalition of voluntary and private sector organizations and government agencies, such as UNICEF, Red Cross and the Ontario Federation of Agriculture.

This year the Ontario World Food Day Co-Ordinating Committee wishes to focus on the future of food production technology and the role of the small-scale food producers.

Canadians have an efficient food-producing industry and enough money to import vast volumes and varieties of food which are not produced in Canada. In contrast, many parts of the world suffers food shortages, black market prices and starvation. Civil wars rage because poor men and women are fighting for land reform and the right to produce food on their own acre or two.

There is no simple answer to these problems. Canada is a relatively young nation with a stable government. It is a rich nation blessed with resources which are the envy of most other countries. Canada is highly industrialized and new technology has been widely applied in farming. But many Canadian farmers today are in serious economic difficulty, an easy fact to overlook in relation to the world's other agricultural problems.

Many Canadian farmers in 1987 are worse off than they were in 1983, caught in a vicious cost-price squeeze, the result of a damaging grain trade war between the U.S. and the countries of the European Economic Community. U.S. and E.E.C. farmers are highly subsidized. Ironically, it is our largest and most productive farmers who are suffering the most. The Canadian government has developed programs to help keep them in production because it would be a major disaster if our main food production base is seriously eroded. We are not in danger of experiencing food shortages today, but it's not impossible in the future.

Through increased awareness and efforts to address the situation, it is still possible for the world to feed itself and for our farmers to have a decent standard of living.

World Food Day on October 16 brings these issues to the forefront; a solution to food production and world hunger must be found; our international survival depends on it.

Sincerely yours,

Marilyn J. Sanders
Chairman
Ontario World Food Day
Co-ordinating Committee

Village hires worker

MORRISBURG — At their meeting last week, Village councillors agreed to hire Lloyd Wells as part of the municipal work force for a six month probationary period.

Wells will perform general labor as well as drive municipal vehicles. He will be paid $7.90 per hour for the probationary period. If his work is satisfactory he will be hired as a full time employee with regular benefits.

That brings the total to six including superintendent Clare Van Allen municipal force workers.

Real Estate

"Please Leave Us Alone"
by Ken Kirkby

The heading "Please leave us alone" can apply to more than one situation and the first one to come to mind is when husband and wife have split up and an ambitious sales person shows up or calls the house and asks if it is for sale. It is often the wife who is still in the house and with all the problems the couple have probably had in their last few weeks together, she feels she doesn't need someone wanting to help pull the house out from under her.

Keeping in mind that the sales person is only doing his job, under other circumstances no-one would object, but this is often an unusually traumatic time for the whole family. If the sales person doesn't call or send a note, someone else no doubt will, and sooner or later it is probably that the house will be listed unless one or the other spouse can afford to buy out the other's share or it is a mutually-agreed settlement.

"Please leave us alone" also comes into play when over-eager sales people approach prospects at a funeral home after the death of one of the spouses. It really does happen, we're told, and while some may feel it is all in the line of doing business, hopefully few will pursue this avenue of securing property listings.

A death in the family, no matter the ages of the remaining relatives, is a severe and trying time. A wife left without a husband, a husband left without a wife, brings a psychological shock that can leave the remaining spouse vulnerable to making rash decisions. Among those decisions is one on where to live. Shall you stay where you are, or sell the house and move to a senior citizens home or lodge; shall you sell and move closer to the kids? A hundred different approaches may be used but it is again one of those times when sales people of any product line might well be told "Please leave us alone".

Selling real estate is no different than selling many other products; one has to work at it to be successful, but one also must use discretion and a respect of human dignity in carrying out the duties. Certainly a listing or a sales might be lost to another firm, but is their gain really worth it? Or is community respect more valuable? The decision should be automatic.

IN MEMORIAM

STRADER — In memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, Lyell who passed away October 16, 1984.
Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain;
To have, to love, and then to part is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
Time may wipe out many things
But this it wipes out never—
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together
Dearly loved, sadly missed,
Gertie and family

Buckmaster elected president of Ontario senior citizens

Mr. Arthur Buckmaster of Ingleside, Ont. was elected president of Zone 35 of the United Senior Citizens of Ontario at the annual meeting held on September 30th in the Matilda Community Centre. 122 senior citizens sat down to a delicious pot luck luncheon. Past president is Mr. Aden Marcellus of Iroquois. Other officers elected were first vice president, Mrs. Hilda Kirkby of Mountain; second vice president, Mrs. Leila Helmer of Chesterville; recording secretary, Mrs. Doris Hyndman of Mountain; treasurer, Mr. Stuart Mattice of Morewood, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Enid Wasson. Auditors appointed were Mrs. Vivian Murphy and Mr. Joe Hanniman of Long Sault. In addition two directors from each of the ten clubs of the zone namely; Long Sault, Ingleside, Morrisburg, Iroquois, Winchester, Chesterville, Morewood, Mountain, Matilda and Russell are members of the executive.

Each club gave a two minute report on the highlights of the year's activities. These highlights included trips taken, special programs enjoyed, fund raising projects, money donated and establishing of relationship with young people and the handicapped, etc.

Mrs. Doris Hyndman gave an interesting report on the annual meeting of the U.S.C.O. held in August at Guelph, Ont.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Marion Crawford of Ottawa who was recently appointed field representative of the U.S.C.O. for our region. She emphasized the need for seniors to retire to something not from something. There are many things which seniors can do, for example; become hospital visitors, go back to school or university, travel, etc. She also emphasized the power which seniors have when they work together for a common purpose, eg. the protests against deindexing of pensions.

Mrs. Crawford also conducted the election of officers and installed the new executive.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Anthony den Admirant

Thompson-den Admirant exchange wedding vows

The marriage of Rebecca Ann and Michael Anthony den Admirant took place on August 22, 1987 at Glouchester Presbyterian Church, Ottawa, Ontario.

Rebecca is the daughter of Ms. Cheryl Thompson of Morrisburg and Charlie Perkins of Mariatown.

Michael is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony den Admirant of Ottawa, Ontario.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother Raymond. Sarah, sister of the bride was the maid of honor. The best man was Edward Hodgins of Calgary, Alberta.

The beautiful bouquets were arranged by the bride's cousin Barbara Casselman of Country Blossoms, on Lakeshore Drive.

Following the reception, the couple departed for a honeymoon at Mont Tremblant, Quebec.

They are now residing in Ottawa.

Winchester, Nationview teams win County cheerleading titles

IROQUOIS — Thursday's annual Dundas County Cheerleading Competition lived up to its usual high standards with the Nationview seniors and Winchester juniors cheering their way to victories.

The Morrisburg juniors received an honorable mention behind Winchester and the Iroquois Two Team was second in its division.

Judges for this year's competition were Cindy Laurin, Isabella Farlinger, Kim Dalrymple and Stephanie Wells all of whom are members of the Seaway District High School cheerleading squad.

The 12-member Nationview senior entry, dressed in red and white and coached by Helen Lefleur-Guilbeault, brought new cheers and formations to this year's competition, which was dampened only by the cold rainy weather.

They kicked their championship performance off with an unusual opening and delighted the audience with their program.

The junior winners from Winchester also gave a delightful performance with some interesting formations and cheers. Their squad consisted of 10 members dressed in blue and white.

Cheering for Morrisburg this year at the senior level were Sarah Perkins, Candice Desparois, Patricia Toop, Christine Shaver, Laura Neild, Jennifer Torres and Dana Douglas.

Members of the Morrisburg junior entry were Leanne McNairn, Tara Hill, Crystal Hummel, Jennifer Baker, Leslie McIntosh, Sherri Dolan, Amy White, Jennifer Morrow and Morning Hunter.

The Winchester junior win broke a five-year Dixons Corners stronghold on the V Speer trophy and Nationview was awarded the Myrna Michilicka trophy for the second consecutive year.

The competition was short one entry at the junior level with the absence of Inkerman.

Each team performed several cheers of its choice plus a compulsory number. They were marked for performance and appearance, the largest portion of the marks going to the former. Judges considered voice, content of cheer, co-ordination, timing, and the variety of jumps and moves.

The Leader Sports

Jr. B Lions open season at home Friday, end pre-season with win

MORRISBURG — The Morrisburg Junior B Lions completed their pre-season schedule with a win and a loss this weekend and now it's down to the serious business of league play.

The Lions open the season at home Friday night when the Kemptville 73s come to town and Saturday they are on the road to CharLan.

They'll complete a three-game weekend in Navan on Sunday.

Team down to 20

Head coach Kevin Casselman finished his cuts after weekend play and now has plenty 19 players on the roster and one signed as an affiliate on a midget card.

"We're down to what we are going with and now it's a matter of working on lines and a system," he said.

With the cuts now complete fans can look for veteran defencemen Sean Baker, Jim Bennis, Greg Whitteker, Mike Fetterly, Sean Lapier and Steve Horner. Jamie Chenney is the lone "new kid" on the blueline.

Back on the forward lineup are Johnny Morrow, Bobby Jack Hart, Rod Lemieux, Randy Mullin, Lyle Schell and Charlie Carbino. Rookies, here include Mike Lamarche, Andy Lee, Rob Whitteker, Randy Jodoin and Alphie Tabrin.

Veteran goaltenders, Andy Cummins and Kent Pilon are both back.

Casselman says all of the newcomers are looking shart. "Jamie Chenney, who comes from Chesterville, looks good on defence and Mike Lamarche is playing well with Johnny Morrow and Bobby Jack Hart.

"Randy Jodoin is a nice smooth player and Andy Lee had an extremely good game Sunday," said Casselman. Alphie Tabrin is working well with Charlie Carbino and Rob Whitteker, signed on a midget card is doing well."

Lose to Alexandria

The Lions were unable to handle the visiting Alexandria Glens Friday night, despite a 2-1 first period lead and a 5-4 advantage after two.

The Glens came up with four unanswered third period tallies to take the win 8-5.

Mathew Berthiaune and Andrew Meth had three goals each for the Glens and Leonard Seguin and Mike Daniels provided one each.

Answering for the Lions was Randy Jodoin with two and Peter Clothier, Mike Lamarche and Bobby Jack Hart with singles.

Double the Hawks

Sunday in Winchester the Hawks and Lions played to a 1-1 first period tie and second period action saw the Lions take over with two unanswered goals as they headed for their own preseason victory 4-2.

Mike Lamarch struck for the Lions in the first and Andy Lee and Bobby Jack Hart hit in the second to send the Lions into the third with a two-goal advance. Peter Clothier finished the scoring early in the final stanza.

Scoring for the Hawks were Tim Ouderkirk and Scott Gibson.

"We played a much better game Sunday," said Casselman. "The boys stayed out of the penalty box. Friday night they took a lot of unnecessary penalties."

Friday night the Lions handled 19 minor penalties and a game misconduct to Andy Lee while the Glens took 15 minors and a game misconduct to Mike Daniels.

In Sunday's game the Lions had 14 minor penalties and the Hawks 16.

Game time Friday night is 8:30.

Maple Ridge, St. Mary's tops at championship soccer tournament

IROQUOIS—Morrisburg Public school came as close as the B final in both senior and junior boys soccer action here Thursday but in both cases the silverware proved to be just beyond their grasp.

In junior play Morrisburg lost to Elma 2-1 in the B final and at the senior level it was a 4-2 Nationview B victory over the locals.

On the A side the finals were anything but dull, both going into overtime to produce a winner.

Maple Ridge takes senior

Maple Ridge got off to a strong start against Nationview, building a 2-0 lead on goals by Troy McNaughton and Jason Ibbetson but Nationview was unwilling to give up.

They came back with a goal from Martin Panserol and then with just seconds left in the game Panserol again found the spot, sending the contest into overtime.

With the goalkeeps out of the nets and the game down to penalty shots Dan Adams came up with the winner, the Ridge taking the championship 3-2.

The Ridge began the day with a 3-0 win over the Nationview Bs and then downed Iroquois 2-0 to earn entry into the final. Nationview had wins over Morrisburg 1-0 and St. Cecilia's 3-0.

After losing to the Nationview As, Morrisburg defeated Iroquois 5-0 to earn entry into the B final.

Junior action

In junior action it came down to the wire between St. Mary's and Dixons Corners, the former taking the win 3-2 in overtime. After regulation play the teams were tied 1-1.

St. Mary's kicked it off with a 7-0 win over the Chesterville Bs and then defeated Nationview 3-1. Dixons worked its way to the final with wins over the Winchester As 4-1, Chesterville 2-1 and Inkerman 2-0 in overtime.

After losing to Iroquois, 1-0 in overtime, the Morrisburg As worked their way to the B final with wins over the Winchester Bs 2-1 and the Winchester As 4-3.

The Morrisburg B team lost its first game to Inkerman 2-0 and was then eliminated by St. Cecilias in a 4-1 loss.

Individual winners

At the senior level Morrisburg's Albert Chan walked away with the goalkeeper's most valuable silverware, Dan Adams of Maple Ridge was named top senior back and Jason Fawcett of Nationview the top forward.

John VanLanen of St. Mary's claimed the most valuable forward silverware at the junior level, and Scott Verkey and Chris Simon both of Dixons Corners were named most valuable goalkeep and back, respectively.

Minor hockey

West boundary extended

MORRISBURG — Representatives of the Morrisburg and Iroq-Card Minor Hockey Associations have worked out an agreement concerning the boundary line between the two groups.

A problem developed this year when the Upper Canada Minor Hockey League decided to crack down on boundaries to prevent players from moving from one association to another.

This crackdown affected 16 players who in the past had played their hockey in Morrisburg but now would be expected to join the Iroq-Card Association in whose area they live.

Pointing out that their children attend school in Morrisburg and families are affiliated with Morrisburg in minor ball and various clubs, parents were upset with the possibility of having to drive to Cardinal for their hockey.

The disputed boundary lies about a mile and a half west of Morrisburg and most of the families affected live on Lakeshore Drive.

To comply with the boundary would have meant a 10 mile trip to Cardinal instead of the short drive to Morrisburg.

According to Billie Donaldson, vice-president of the Morrisburg and District Minor Hockey Association, the two groups reached an agreement which now sees, for one year only, the boundary moved to the westernmost end of Lakeshore Drive.

As a result Morrisburg was able to hold on to 10 of the affected players.

"The extension was granted for one year only and is to be reviewed next fall," said Donaldson. "At that time a permanent boundary could be put in force."

Winchester takes junior soccer win a second year

WINCHESTER — The Winchester A team put together a 2-1 victory over St. Mary's here Tuesday to claim the 1987 Dundas County junior girls soccer championship for the second consecutive year.

Winchester opened with a 4-0 win over Chesterville and then had victories over Inkerman 2-0 and Dixons Corners 2-0 as they headed for the final.

St. Mary's got it rolling with a 4-0 win over the Winchester Bs and then downed Dixons Corners and Nationview.

The B championship went to Chesterville who, after losing to the Winchetser As, were the only team to complete B side play without a loss. This cancelled the need for a championship final.

It was a tough fight for the Chesterville team as they headed for the championship. After just getting by Morewood with a 1-0 win they again came up with a close one, this time against Morrisburg and again by a 1-0 count.

Morrisburg opened with a 2-0 loss to Dixons Corners and came up with a big 2-1 win against the Winchester Bs in a game which went into four periods of overtime before it was decided.

Panthers overcome by Spartan attacks

IROQUOIS — Thursday was a good day for the Seaway Spartan basketball teams, both coming up with wins over the visiting St. Josephs Panthers.

The seniors extended their record to two wins and one loss with a 48-30 victory. Out front all the way, they led 24-14 at the half and 38-22 as they headed into the final quarter.

Kim Bucking led the Seaway effort with 22 points, Lisa Van Hoof had a 10 point effort and Heather Crawley contributed six.

For the Panthers Wanda MacDonald dropped 17 points and Christie Levac had 11.

In junior action Krista Casselman got it started with a nice hook shot and the juniors went on to an 8-1 lead at the quarter as they headed for a 27-21 victory.

The second quarter saw them let up and the Panthers were able to come back closing the gap to 14-11.

The Spartans recovered in the third as they worked their way to a 24-16 lead enroute to the victory.

The game was highlighted by the play of Stephanie Dodge who had 11 points and Jennifer McNairn with eight. The hard work of Kelly Tryon was good for numerous turnovers and Catherine Carruthers and Pam Martin had a good day under the basket.

Karen McDonald and Christie Weagant provided eight points each for St. Josephs.

Next action for the Spartans is Tuesday, October 13 when they take on the Lancers at Rothwell-Osnabruck.

Riverside darts

RIVERSIDE HEIGHTS — A four-out performance allowed John Gummeson to lead the Close Calls into first place in Riverside Mixed League dart play here Wednesday night.

In total the Close Calls picked up six of a possible nine wins to move ahead of the rest of the pack at 18 points.

Backing Gummeson were Betty Grey and Dave Robertson with one win each.

The Asteriks surrendered their first place position to the Close Calls with only four wins, but it was still enough to hold them in second with 17 points. Mike Lortie had two winning throws and Mary Gummeson and Gail Robinson supplied singles.

Kim's Cuties moved, all alone, into third with a six win night led by Lloyd Smirle's four-outs. Kim Grey finished off the effort with two wins.

The Bozos and The Cosmos settled into a tie with 14 points, the Bozos with six wins and team eight with five.

Cecil Lewis and Keith Wereley had two wins each for the Bozos and Karen Beckstead added a single. For The Cosmos it was Chris Casselman with three and Sharon Wereley and Lynn Dillabough (spare) with singles.

It wasn't a great night for the Rejects who dropped into a tie with Markell's Marvels at 13 points. Hitting for the Rejects were Kenny Baker, Gayle Hart and Don Lewis. Gary Hart (spare) had three Marvel wins and Rick Markell and Ron Bradford had singles.

The No-Names and No Fools both had four wins and the Hit and Miss managed two. For the No-Names it was Gary Bradford, Sarah Merkley and Sandra Baker with singles and for the No Fools Guy Hart had two and Carl Robinson and Roger Markell singles. Jim Scott and Peggy Kaddie (spare) struck for the Hit and Miss.

Legion darts

MORRISBURG — The Kings and Queens took over first place in Legion mixed dart league action here Tuesday night with a 12 point victory over the Daredevils.

Dalton Dawley was all that stood in the way of a perfect match for the Kings and Queens, Dawley finding the winning spot in game two.

Roy Lapierre (spare) led the attack with three wins, Bruce Armstrong had two and Phyllis Dawley a single.

The win gives the Kings and Queens 20 points in total and a one stroke lead over The Flyers who were able to keep the distance at a minimum with an 11 point win against The Odd Ones.

After an opening game tie Orval Delage got hot, hitting for five Flyer outs. Answering for the Odd Ones was Gayle Hart (spare).

The B 52s settled into a tie with The Arrows thanks to a 10 point win against the Strangers. Brian McNairn led this effort with four wins and Carl Schwerdtfeger provided a single.

Terry Laurin and Floyd Elliott had one each for the Strangers.

The Arrows had a good night against the Awesomes with five wins, two each from Tom McCutcheon and Bonnie McNairn and a single from Bobby Jack Hart. Edith Baker supplied the two Awesome wins.

Guy Hart (spare) led the Spoilers to their 4-3 win against the No-Outs with three outs and George Baker added a single. Lynden Casselman had two No-Out wins and Rick Vaughan hit for a single.

The Double Ones were sitting out the evening bye.

High scores: Dalton Dawley 140; Mary Barclay 125; Bobby Jack Hart 120; Bob Henophy 111; Terry Laurin 109; Elsie Vaughan 103; Floyd Elliott, Elva Baker and Bruce Armstrong 100s.

Fisheries management proposal now available

CORNWALL — The Ministry of Natural Resources' proposal for future management of fisheries in this area is now available, and ministry fisheries staff are anxious to get the public's reaction.

The "Draft Fisheries Management Plan for Cornwall District" examines the major problems and issues that presently influence the fisheries in the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, and Prescott and Russell. The plan outlines a five year action plan for fisheries in this area.

"In the proposal we have discussed the important issues that affect our local fisheries," said Mike Eckersley, MNR District Biologist. "For example, we have listed our recommendations for managing the Perch fishery on Lake St. Francis and Lake St. Lawrence, for managing the Ottawa River and St. Lawrence River, and for improving enforcement of fisheries laws and public awareness," added Eckersley.

The ministry has summarized their proposal in a new tabloid newspaper which contains a questionnaire for people to offer their opinions and ideas. It is available free from the ministry office on Amelia Street, in Cornwall, or by calling that office at 933-1774.

Eckersley said the information in the tabloid will be discussed at upcoming public meetings in Hawkesbury on October 22 at the Holiday Motel on McGill Street, and in Cornwall on October 23 at the Cornwall Civic Complex. Both meetings start at 7:30 p.m.

Public review of this proposal fisheries plan is the second step in the preparation of a long-term strategy for managing local fisheries. Similar proposals for adjacent counties are also available.

Meanies come back for flag football league win

MORRISBURG — In a game described by both quarterbacks as one of the best this season the Blue Meanies came from behind to hand the White Ferrets an 18-16 loss in flag football league action here Sunday morning.

After receiving the opening kick the Ferrets were soon stopped by the Blues heads-up defence and in return quarterback Tom Dawley's pass to Willy Pepers quickly put the Meanies ahead 6-0.

The Ferrets came charging back but again were stopped by a stubborn Meanies defence, this time on the two yard line. The Meanies taking possession, were surprised by a sack on Dawley in the end zone which gave the Ferrets two points and new life with the Meanies also having to give up the ball.

The Ferrets, with excellent field position moved in and a Russell Cameron to Jeff Van Moorsel pass put them up 9-6.

With time running out in the first half the Ferrets came up with a great goal line stance to halt the Meanies on the one-yard line as the half ended.

The second half began with a Meanies drive down field and a Dawley to Philip Dillabough strike to regain the lead 12-9. But Cameron, finding time in the pocket to throw, soon struck again with a pass to veteran Sam Laurin which put the Ferrets back in the lead 16-12.

The Meanies were now in the do or die situation and quickly moved the ball down field. It was Kevin "Right-Turn" Keyes who took a short pass to go in for six.

The Meanies put a double rush on Cameron in his last drive, a move that proved to be the right one. With the Ferret quarterback trying to unload quickly the Meanies were able to knock down several key passes.

The second game was not played for lack of players and the Red team was awarded two points. Next week the Greens tackle the Whites at 10 a.m. and the Reds and Blues mix it up at 11.

Teams almost settled for minor hockey season

MORRISBURG — Teams in the Morrisburg Minor Hockey Association, with the exception of the bantams, have been settled and this year 11 entries will be wearing the Morrisburg colors.

At the time of registration it looked as if Morrisburg would drop back to 10 teams when only eight girls registered for the Charlie's Angels squad. But some late recruiting has now brought the number up to 12 and the Angels will be back in action.

At the time of registration in September only 125 youngsters had signed on the dotted line, well down from the 1986-87 figure of 166 players. This in turn was down from the year before when there were 186 players.

However, since registrations, the association has picked up 10 players resulting from a western boundary move and another four girls.

The association is icing one peanut team, and two teams at each of the novice, atom, peewee and bantam levels. As well it is going with one midget team at the A level.

According to Billie Donaldson, vice-president of the association, it has still not been decided if we will see a bantam A or B team in Morrisburg.

Planning at first to go Bantam A, with an affiliated team with Iroq-Card, it has since been found out Iroq-Card is looking elsewhere for their affiliation.

With not quite enough to go A alone it was then decided to drop to B, parents, players and coaches all in agreement. But this could backfire as well depending on what Iroquois-Cardinal does. "If they affiliate with someone else and go A that leaves only three teams for the B league," says Donaldson. "And that would mean that the B division would be folded and we'll be forced to go A anyway."

"Right now we have to wait and see what Iroq-Card does," she said.

Seaway News

by Cindy Laurin

IROQUOIS — Congratulations to our own Barry DeGray who will be representing Seaway in Canada's Olympic Torch Relay on December 17th. He was selected as one of three S.D.&G. Board of Education representatives in the cross Canada run.

Speaking of running, Monday in boys soccer the junior and senior teams lost to LaCitadelle by a score of 5-2 in both games. Markus Staebler and Randy Mullin scored for the seniors and Chris Merkley and Kevin Neild scored for the juniors. On Wednesday the guys played against Rothwell-Osnabruck. The juniors lost their game 2-1 with Matt Bilmer scoring the single goal. The seniors did better to come up with a 4-4 tie. Markus Staebler and Rob Baynham each scored two goals for the Spartans.

Thursday the senior girls played two games of soccer at CharLan. In the first game against Glengarry Seaway lost 4-0 and against North Dundas, they fared a little better, but the result was a 0-0 tie.

In girls basketball on Thursday the seniors and juniors both had outstanding games against St. Josephs. In the senior game Kim Bucking and Lisa VanHoof led the team to their third straight win, the score being 48-30 for Seaway. The juniors won their game with a score of 27-21. Stephanie Dodge and Jennifer McNairn led the offence while Pam Martin and Kelly Tryon put in good defence efforts for the team. Congrats to both teams.

Commencement awards for grades 9-11 were given on Friday afternoon. In grade 9 General Proficiency awards went to Martha Dulmage, Laura Rosenquist and Cathy Marcellus and in grade 10 they were given to Eric Pietersma, Doreen Venema and Roxanne Backes for receiving the highest marks. Honour crests and bars were given to students recieving over 75% and medals for over 80% and over 90%.

General Proficiency awards were also given to Rhonda Foster, Amy VanVeen and Cynthia Cassidy in grade eleven. Congratulations to all those who received awards.

Friday night graduation ceremonies were held for grade 12 and 13. Many cash awards and trophies were given out for outstanding performances in different subjects. There are too many names to mention so I will just say congratulations to everyone. OAC scholars were announced and they are Dwayne Backes, Grace Casselman, Kevin Dalrymple, Mark Garlough, Robert Hamilton, Katherine Shaw and Nancy St. Pierre. The outstanding graduate award was picked by the students by secret ballot. The year's choice was Krista Duncan. Congratulations! It was nice to see everyone back at Seaway and all dressed up. Everyone looked great.

Tickets went on sale for Brighton Rock at a cost of $8.00 in advance or $10.00 at the door. Concert items will be sold in the gymn the night of the performance. That's it for now. See you next week!

Legion bowling

INGLESIDE — It was a night of all or nothing in Legion mixed bowling league action here Thursday when the Cyclones, Three Ballers and Go Getters all blanked their opponents for four point wins.

The Cyclones counted on big efforts from Frank Marriner with a 624 cross (232-151-242) and Karen Holmden with a 611 (216-174-221), to do their damage to the Bad News Bears. And this was despite a strong showing from Linda Stata with a 724 (283-208-233).

Led by Barb Marriner's 604 (204-248-152) the Go Getters picked up their win against the Back Spinners. Backing Marriner was Dave Zewuster with a 603 (191-182-230). George Baker was the high roller for the Spinners.

Guy Hart put together a 600 (204-216-180) as the Three Ballers went to work for their win against the Basement Team. Answering for the Basement was Hilton Cryderman with a 602 (221-151-230).

The fourth evening match saw the Silver Bullets claim three points from the Dipsticks, the latter sneaking in for a win in the second game of the night. Dennis Baker was the top Bullets' roller with a 695 on single games of 261-185-249 and Gary Cryderman had a 627 (230-185-212).

Linda Stata had the high single and cross for the ladies and Denis Baker led the men.

IROQUOIS — Valedictorian David Mott and Outstanding Graduate Krista Duncan led the parade of 145 graduates at the annual Seaway District High School Commencement Ceremonies held in a packed school gymnasium here Friday night.

The two were popular choices by their fellow students who greeted the announcement of Duncan as Outstanding Graduate with a standing ovation.

In total $12,940 was made available to the graduates from local businesses, industries and clubs and along with this came another $1,500 in student council awards.

Seven Ontario Scholars

The 1986-87 school year saw Seaway District High School produce seven Ontario Scholars all of whom received Ontario Ministry of Education Scholarships of $100.

Seaway's Ontario scholars were Dwayne Backes, Grace Casselman, Kevin Dalrymple, Mark Garlough, Robert Hamilton, Katherine Shaw and Nancy St. Pierre.

Garlough on top

Leading the graduates with a most successful year was Mark Garlough who, in total, walked away with $5,200 in scholarships and bursaries.

Garlough received the University of Guelph Entrance Scholarship of $2,000 and the OAC Alumni Scholarship of $2,400. To this he added the Student Council Gold Medal and Honor Bar for over 90 per cent and the grade 13 proficiency award.

He picked up the Fred Geurkink Memorial Award of $50 for the highest standing in calculus, the $300 Rohm and Haas trophy and award for highest standing in chemistry, a Williamsburg Royal Canadian Legion Bursary of $150, the Principal's Award of $100 and the Mutual Products $200 scholarship for the highest grade 13 standing.

Kevin Dalrymple was also the recipient of a $2,400 OAC Alumni Scholarship and a Williamsburg Royal Canadian Legion Bursary of $150. He received a Student Council Silver Medal and Honor Bar for over 80 per cent and was presented the $200 Mahlon Zeron Bursary for a student continuing his studies in agriculture.

Excellence in Chemistry

A Student Council Gold Medal and Honor Bar and a Proficiency award went to Dwayne Backes, who also picked up the Cruickshank Construction Bursary of $200 and an Excellence in Chemistry Award of $50.

Grace Casselman received a Student Council Silver Medal and Honor Bar, an Ontario Secondary Teacher's Federation Bursary of $100 and the Mary Robertson Memorial Scholarship of $100.

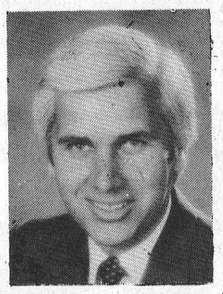
REPORT FROM

PARLIAMENT HILL

BY
NORM WARNER, M.P.



In an extremely important agreement effected last weekend, the government has eliminated much of the uncertainty in Canada/US trade relations emanating from over 600 protectionist trade bills before Congress and other protectionist measures.

The two governments made significant progress in meeting long-term goals of: eliminating barriers to trade in goods and services; establishing predictable rules, secure access and fair competition; reducing impediments to cross-border investment; establishing effective procedures and institutions for the joint administration of the agreement and the resolution of disputes; and laying the foundation for further bilateral and multicultural co-operation.

The agreement will cover trade in goods and services as well as investment and will involve federal, state and provincial measures.

Concerning agriculture, an important issue in Stormont-Dundas, the two governments have agreed to a package of liberalizing measures for trade in agriculture. These include: eliminating all tariffs (but allowing Canada to restore temporarily tariffs on fresh fruit and vegetables for a 20-year period under depressed price conditions); exempting each other from restrictions under the respective meat import laws; prohibition of export subsidies on bilateral trade; an exemption for Canada from any future quantitative import restrictions on products containing 10 per cent or less sweetener and on grains and grain products; conditional elimination of Canadian import licences for wheat, barley and oats and their products; eliminating Canadian Western Grain Transportation subsidies on exports to the United States.

In a related trade topic, I would like to focus briefly on Export Trade Month.

October is Export Month in Canada, and the aim is to expand the benefits of international trade by encouraging exporters and export-ready companies to tackle the international marketplace.

To this end the government is highlighting Marketplace '87. If you're contemplating exporting then this is the place to be.

Between October 13 and 30, trade commissioners from Canada's missions abroad will travel to 21 centres with information on export opportunities world wide.

In Ottawa the team will be present October 13. If you require details on the programs contact INFO EXPORT at 1-800-267-8376.

Locally, the Ottawa wholesale price of gasoline on October 6, including federal and provincial tax,, was 38.3 cents and litre for regular and 39.3 cents a litre for unleaded.

Although many retailers receive three cents a litre, most industry observers indicate six or seven cents a litre is a reasonable allowance for delivery, whole saling and retailing.

You be the judge.

OBITUARIES

Burrell Borden Becksted

A well-known farmer at Elma for many years, and a resident of R.R.1, Morrisburg for the past eight years, Burrill Borden Becksted died at the Winchester District Memorial Hospital on Friday, September 25th, following an illness of nine months.

Born August 14th, 1907, he was a son of the late Oscar Becksted, and his wife Lillian Lawrence. He attended the local school, and worked the home farm at Lot 24, Concession 6 Williamsburg, until his retirement. On April 19, 1938, he was married at Lunenburg to Gertrude Helen Smyth, who survives. He is also survived by a brother Weldon Becksted of Long Sault, and two sisters, Anne Black of Ottawa and Dorothy Millar of Iroquois.

Mr. Becksted was a member of the United Church of Canada, and of the Masonic Order.

Funeral service was held at the Fairbairn Funeral Home, Morrisburg on Monday, September 28th at 11:00 a.m., with Rev. Ted Power of Williamsburg officiating. Interment followed at Spruce Haven Cemetery, Brinston.

Pall bearers were: George Carruthers, Roger McMillan, Douglas Robinson, Jack Addlington, Harold Feeley and Bob Johnston.

Mona Fetterly

A retired R.N.A., and former resident of Morrisburg, Mona Fetterly died at St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Brockville on Friday, October 9th. She had lately been a resident at St. Lawrence Lodge, Brockville, and had previously been a resident of Prescott.

Born in Barnoldswick, England on August 4, 1908, she was a daughter of the late John Hartley and his wife Gertrude Davies. The family emigrated to Canada, and to Morrisburg, where her father was in business on Lock Street. She married Capt. Charles Fetterly, who predeceased her in 1975. She was a member of St. John's Anglican Church, Prescott.

Surviving are: one son Dr. William Fetterly (wife Chris) of Brockville; two daughters, Kay (Mrs. John Stewart) of Pakenham, Ont., and Bonnie (Mrs. Dr. Earle Potvin) of Shawville, Que., and a brother Garfield Hartley of Dartmouth, N.S.

Funeral service at the Chris Slater Funeral Home, Prescott, on Saturday, October 10th, was conducted by Rev. Robert Stewart, and interment followed at the Blue Church Cemetery, Prescott.

Honorary pall bearers were Richard Fetterly and Jason Potvin. Active bearers were: Bill Fetterly, Andrew and John Stewart, Bill, Derek and Jamie Potvin.

Library survey

Do you recall one book that has changed your life? One book that has influenced you the most? These were two questions some local residents were asked in a recent survey conducted by the S.D.&G. County Library as part of Ontario Public Library Week (Oct. 19-25).

According to Bill Shearing, a book that has had a great influence in his life is Michael Maccoby's The Leader. Gerry Rosenquist responded to the survey with Victor Hugo's Les Miserables which he read in grade seven in Saskatchewan. Gloria Foot has derived the greatest inspiration and enjoyment from books by Nevil Shute. Ruth Alguire remembers the first book she enjoyed was Peter Cottontail by Beatrix Potter.

These are only a few of the responses received from our survey. All of the letters and comments received will be on display at your branch library.

During Public Library Week, your local branch of the S.D.&G. County Library will be sponsoring "Your Card is the Key" a public library card membership drive. If you are not currently a member of the S.D.&G. County Library and register at one of our 20 branches during this special week, you will be eligible to enter the draw for a Canadian Encyclopedia.

As well, all branches of the S.D.&G. County Library will be holding a Forgiveness Week. No overdue fines will be charged on books returned to the library from Oct. 19th to 24th. Go on a book hunt and locate any overlooked books to take advantage of this temporary amnesty.

Your local library branch extends a warm welcome to you during Ontario Public Library Week. Come and help us celebrate.
