Love is an ocean of emotion surrounded by expanses of expenses.

CRUMBS from Graham's Loaf

No one has ever been able to explain just what it is that turns a common, ordinary, garden-variety slob about the house into a roaring nimrod about this time of the year. Whether it is the smell of rain and smoke in the west wind, or the drift of top dressing effluvia that is noticeable as Fall comes on, we don't know. At any event just about any time now there is a deer chase going at the nearest corner.

Deer hunting probably comes closest to getting the human male back to Nature since the days of caves and long hair. And according to the beloved partner of our old age, that is just what comes out of the bush at the end of the hunt: A cave-like aroma and long hair. It has been noised about that water is usually shunned with considerable relish in the hunting camps of the East. That, of course is the rankest kind of rumour. After nearly twenty years of investigation and close observation we have noted quite a lot of use for water in the camps.

Water comes in handy for rinsing the dishes; it is used to some good purpose by escaping deer to swim through; it keeps the trees green; it can be used sparingly to dilute cough medicine, if an epidemic of coughs breaks out on the hunting premises; once or twice we have seen it used as a soothing bath for tired feet when the rubbing variety of alcohol failed to do the job. Any other is purely accidental like getting caught in a downpour or falling into Hoag's creek on the journey to camp.

The tired business man heads for the bush with mixed feelings. He leaves more work on his desk than the accountant can posibly take care of, the back shop is suffering a malaise of overwork again and the machines are being contrary. In spite of all that, or because of it, away he goes. The trusty rifle at the ready and with a big yellow hat protecting him from wandering bullets, he plans to sit for a week in the wet, cold bush... Just sit,.. is the word, and listen to the trees snuggle down for a Northern Ontario winter. Maybe get friendly with a chickadee or tease a chipmunk into a frenzy or watch the big soft clouds streak across the tops of the jackpines. If the hounds start music nearby, all the old fire rises and the tired businessman becomes the original hunter again for a few minutes. That makes hunting what it is.

Hunter safety program graduates eleven

Chesterville Fish and Game Association instructors graduated eleven students in their fall classes on hunter safety. The classes were held in Community Hall and were under the guidance of instructors Harry Hummel and Keith Graham.

The students received training in gun handling, lessons in practical safety while in the field and an outline of some of the more important game laws and hunting practices.

Those graduating included Ronnie Doering, Glen Robinson, Billy Butcher, Allan Robertson, Arden Marcellus, Myles Merkley, Douglas Merkley, Don Sirvage, Mark Hart, Wayne Price and Peter Merkley.

It is interesting to note a change of the licence laws this year. Students 15 years old may obtain a gun licence if they first take and pass the student training course.

The next series of instruction will be held as soon as enough registrations are received by the instructors.

October meeting--

Chesterville W.I. see slides Mrs Harold Lannin speaks

Colourful slides taken during a trip to the Orient were presented by Mrs Harold Lannin who was guest speaker at the October meeting of Chesterville W.I. held Wednesday, October 26, in the library.

Mrs G. W. Gilbert presided, assisted by Mrs Dalton Docksteader secretary who called the roll which was answered with a safety rule. Mrs Fay Shaver gave the treasurer's report and Mrs Geo. Johnston the cheer sister's report.

The president reminded those present of the course on drama, books and reading to be given November 1 and urged all who could to attend.

Mrs Harry Allison submitted resolutions which are to be presented at the area convention in Ottawa. After some discussion the delegates to the convention Mrs Harry Allison and Mrs C. A. Graham, were advised to support all the resolutions.

It was moved by Mrs A. E. Jarvis that the rent for the library be paid. Mrs Harold W. Merkley seconded this. It was decided that henceforth all organizations would be required to pay $1 rent for use of the library. Mrs Mansel Brownlee moved and Mrs George Johnstonston seconded a motion that the library be cleaned on a regular basis.

Mrs Keith Graham moved and Mrs Fay Shaver seconded a motion to donate $10 to the rink fund.

Mrs C. A. Graham reported that judges had been secured for the Hallowe'en party Monday night and Mrs Frank Cox agreed to lay the wreath at the Remembrance Day ceremony.

The guest speaker, Mrs Harold Lannin, was introduced by Mrs Harold W. Merkley and thanked by Mrs Wm. Forward. Mrs Lannin took her audience, by means of fascinating slides, on a trip to the Orient which included stops at Hawaii, Fiji, New Zealand, Australia,, Thaialnd the Philippines, Hong Kong and Japan.

At the close of the meeting a successful sale of home baking was presided over by Mrs A. E. Jarvis and Mrs Myles Merkley. Mrs H. W. Merkley, Mrs Wm. Forward, conveners, served lunch, assisted by Mrs Irwin Baker, Mrs J. F. Moriarty, Mrs Graham Johnston and Mrs Len Giles.

Rotary welcomes four members

Chesterville Rotary Club welcomed four new members last Monday night. They are Robert Coleman, Ronald Lynch, Sarsfield O'Connor and Joe Pringle. President Richard Casselman was in charge of the meeting and the induction was made by Keith Graham.

Wm. I. Sleeth, Brockville, was the featured speaker. He spoke on "Estate Planning." He was introduced by Dr. Duane Justus and thanked by H. G. Bigelow.

McPhail-Butcher

St. Mary's Church was the setting of a double-ring ceremony on Saturday, October, 29th, 1960 when Judith Evelyn, daughter of Mr and Mrs A Butcher became the bride of Claude J. McPhail, son of Mr and Mrs Wm McPhail. Father Collins officiated.

The bride given in marriage by her father, was attended by Miss Eleanor Simpson as maid of honour, Mrs Adrien Laflamme as bridesmaid and Miss Beverly Butcher as junior bridesmaid.

Mr Dennis Rowen was soloist accompanied by Sister Mary Remegius.

For her wedding the bride chose a floor length gown of white silk velvet with scalloped neckline and lily point sleeves. Her waist-length veil was held in place by a small tiara of pearls and crystals. She carried a cascade of red roses.

Her attendants wore identical street-length dresses of red silk velvet with matching accesories and carried baskets of white flowers.

A dinner was held in the legion hall and later Mr and Mrs McPhail left on a wedding trip.

For travelling the bride wore a forest green knitted dress with brown accesories and a corsage of bronze and yellow mums.

Guests at the reception were from Montreal, Cornwall, Monkland, Avonmore, Berwick, Ottawa Belleville, Toronto, Thornbury, and Chesterville.

Special service for Anglican congregations

In the presence of a congregation comprising members of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Chesterville, and St. Matthias' Church, Winchester, the Lord Bishop of Ottawa, the Rt. Reverend E. S. Reed gave Institution into the cure of souls in the parish to the Reverend William Lorne Thomas, in St. Mathias' Church, Winchester on Wednesday evening, October 26th.

Several of the clergy from neighbouring parishes were present. The Venerable Archdeacon W. D. Christie, of Holy Trinity Parish, Cornwall assisted the Bishop. The Venerable Archdeacon C. C. Philips delivered the sermon with instructions to both clergy and people. The Rev. Canon J. S. K. Tyrrell, of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Cornwall acted as Bishop's Chaplain. The Reverend I. C. Scott of Morrisburg said Evensong. The Reverend Douglas Brown, assistant priest at Holy Trinity, Cornwall read the Old Testament Lesson. Canon Tyrrell read the New Testament lesson.

After the service the congregation and the clergy retired to the Rectory for refreshments and a social time. St. Matthias' Women's Guild and members of the A.Y.P.A. served refreshments. Mrs. C.C. Philips, of Pembroke poured tea.

Council troubled with trees

Chesterville council met Tuesday night in the clerk's office for the regular November meeting. Reeve Carl Merkley presided with clerk Lorne Marcellus and all councillors, Harold Sharkey, George Laflamme, Jas. Fyke and Keith Graham.

Chesterville hydro business was largely taken up with consideration of a tree problem. Duncan McElheran sat with the committee to wonder out loud if it had been necessary to decimate his grove of poplars to let the high line reach the water pump house. The committee expressed considerable ignorance about the matter. The members asked pointed questions about any private agreement that had been made with the tree cutters and Mr McElheran. It was finally decided to make immediate inquiry from both Hydro and the Water Resources Commission engineers to determine the extent of responsibility.

The committee toyed with the idea of constructing an aerial ladder suitable for changing tubes in the street lights. Committeeman Laflamme offered to test same if Mr Sharkey would hold it. The matter is to be examined.

Council listened to a plea from Lee Smith who would like water delivered to his slaughterhouse at the east edge of the corporation. It proved a knotty matter. There does not appear to be an open right-of-way leading to the property and council pleaded ignorance of procedure. Mr Smith was promised action immediately and the clerk was instructed to get the proper authority to decide the matter.

Nomination night was posted as being planned for November 25 with election to follow if necessary on December 5. Polling places and officials were appointed as follows: No. 1 Poll: DRO, Gord Lannin, clerk, Grenville Fyke; No. 2, R. Lynch, clerk, Mrs Al Kilby.

Considerable correspondence was read including acknowledgement of council's notice of resolution to LCBO and Brewer's Warehousing Co.

The following accounts were passed and paid:

Pictured above is the winning Colour Team of the Chesterville Public School annual field day. The school was divided into three colour groups of approximately 50 pupils, each with a colour captain and flying a colour pennant as its symbol. Red for Red Rovers, white for the White Phantoms and green for Green Dragons.

Competition was particuularly close and exciting as each winner of an event put his or her pennant flying to the top of the flag-pole.

Above are the Green Dragons, who under their captain, Michael Thompson, garnered in 249½ points in the more than 70 events, to become the winners. Also represented in the picture by their captains, Mary Graham and Brian Docksteader, are the Red Rovers with 212 points and the White Phantoms with 225½ points. Mary is at the right of the back row and Brian at the left back.

Other colour party contests are planned for the school year in school subjects as well as in athletic events. It will be interesting to see which team will be able to fly its pennant at the top in a spelling bee or in a math contest. — Record Photo.

ENGAGEMENT

OPINIONS . . . OURS AND OTHERS

Hunters, be careful

It is easy enough to say "Be careful" but another thing to list what one should be careful ful about when the heat of the hunt is on. A combination of a gun, a chase and a rattling bush often spells sudden death for more than wild game. One careless second of time can start a lifetime of regret and remorse. One thoughtless action with a loaded firearm can mean disaster for oneself if not for anyone else.

This is the open season for wild game and hunters. Unfortunately too many hunters are bagged each year to laugh off the statement. The immense numbers of hunters now afield increase the risks of the sport until one is sometimes loath to hunt settled areas.

Bush and field hunters need to have a continuous awareness of the need for safety in handling their firearms. Regardless of the location or type of hunting, if one is using a weapon that can kill an animal, it can kill its owner.

A few rules are paramount to insure the return of the hunter in good. health and with peace of mind.

Guns are always loaded. Even with the thing dismantled, never point it at anything you do not want to shoot. Mechanical safeties on guns are not to be trusted. Being mechanical, they can go out of order. Shoot only at identified game and from a safe angle. Know where your companions are when you shoot. Above all remember a gun can kill a man much easier than it can kill a deer—don't let one careless moment spoil a lifetime of enjoyment.

Whiskey and gunpowder make a miserable and dangerous combination. Keep them separate and your life expectancy will be longer. In other words, in the bush, see that only the gun is loaded.

Mrs Wm. Nash sells over 100 deer licences alone each year for this district. Over 100 hunters take to the bush and fields for a sport that is classed as one of the best in all the world of game hunting. Over 100 hunters will average at least four dependents at home. See that no part of that group of nearly 500 persons will have cause to regret you were in the hunt with their loved one.

Hunters, be careful! Go out loaded for bear, bring home a bear or a deer and have a wonderful time. We hope to, for the twentieth year.

Nazis, now

We gagged Sunday over the mouthings of a character called Bellefool, or some such name, who seems to have a den in Sorel, Que. On a TV program, Newsmagazine, the above character took off after Jews, Negroes, and opponents to his drivel that was frightening to find in Canada.

The right of free speech is something we expect, and something editorial writers cherish and burnish frequently with rhetoric.

Licence and misuse of man's freedoms is something that makes us ill. Bellefool mouthed the Nazi slogans that caused millions of world citizens to die. He slid into the all-too familiar language of dictators and demagogues as if he had the right.

Revolting it was to hear him. It is also frightening. How can a sane Canadian think the world is a place where creeds, colours and races must be manipulated by man to develop a super-race? How can a Canadian abide the thought of extermination as a means to an end? How can a Canadian allow his mind to dwell on hateful things, when the world is full of so much beauty How can a Canadian forget that Jesus was a Jew or that Confuscius was a Chinese or that Mohammed was an Arab? And that only an All-Powerful Being has the right of life and death in our affairs.

Bellefool should have his steps marked very carefully. His rantings could lead to trouble, or the proper institutions for that type of delusions. The man in the white coat would be doing the country a service if he arrived any time.

EUROPE AND THE UNITED KINGDOM

SOEST, West Germany—One of the finest examples of friendly relations between Canada's NATO Brigade and the Germans of Westphalia is that of L/Cpl. Chalmers McCuaig, of Schreiber, Ont. When the citizens of the little village of Deilinghofen discovered that McCuaig was returning to Canada this Fall they immediately petitioned that he remain another year.

The reason McCuaig, stationed with the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals at nearby Fort Prince of Wales, brought the junior hockey team, organized in 1958, to fifth place in th West Germany championships last Spring.

Losing their mentor would be a crippling blow to the Deilinghofen hockey hopes, so 50 sportsmen signed a petition. They bypassed military authorities and went direct to the Canadian Embassy in Bonn. The plea read, in part: "Signalman McCuaig has devoted himself gratuitously and in a self-sacrificing way to the ice hockey training of German youths in Deilinghofen. By his untiring efforts to create a strong youth team he succeeded in promoting his team to German youth championship standard in 1960 . . . His activities have built a solid bridge towards better understanding and good companionship between the Canadian soldiers and the German population."

The petition came to the desk of Brigadier Donald C. Cameron. This was just the kind of co-operation he has wanted between his 5,500-man force and the German people. He whipped off a recommendation to Ottawa and a year's extension was granted for McCuaig.

L/Cpl. McCuaig was in Germany from 1954-56, when he married Eva Marie Delanck. He returned for another tour of duty in 1957. They have adopted two German children, a boy now three years old, and a month-old baby girl.

The 30-year-old signalman employed his hockey knowledge gained with the Schrieber team in the Thunder Bay League to interest the kids in his adopted land. Few of them could even skate—now they play hockey all summer long, in the fields, on the village streets on roller skates. And to improve their shooting, McCuaig has built a board with varying size holes with which they will practice until ice is available this Fall.

Throughout the Summer, their technical knowledge is being improved with a rink drawn on a blackboard where plays are mapped.

The 1st Regiment, Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, with which the Signals unit is affiliated, participated 100 per cent, providing uniforms and equipment for the youngsters. Permission was also granted to take up a silver collection outside the entrance to the regimental arena.

Upwards of 3,000 spectators jammed the arena for play-off games, and police had to set up special traffic controls.

The youngsters placed second in the Westphalian League, defeating, in two games straight, Dortmund, Dusseldorf, Prs. Kroutr and Essen, and winning on points after winning and losing one over Cologne. They went into a gruelling seven-day championship race for the West German title, with only eight men playing a game a day. They defeated Berlin, Mannheim and Bad Norheim.

With no competition remaining in Westphalia, they took on second string senior teams, defeating Essen two straight; Dortmund and Durhang, Holland.

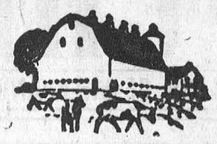
To build up a reserve of players, McCuaig has organized a public school league, and has been almost swamped by the young tads.

He has had an offer from Berlin to handle all junior hockey in that city, but he will remain with his first olve, the Deilinghofen youngsters.

The so-called flying fish seen in warmer waters do not actually fly; fast take-off as high as 25 feet.

To avoid paying his bill in a restaurant, John Walton, 21, dived through a plate glass window, He was spotted outside by a policeman, and was fined £17 in a Leicester, Eng., court.

FRENDLEE FARM CHATS



by Lillian Allison

I like the story about the minister who was writing an old friend. After he had sealed the letter it occurred to him that he should have added a word of cheer. So at the top of the address side of the envelope he wrote, "Be of good cheer, brother." When the friend received the letter he found the post office had stamped beside the message "Contrary to Regulations."

It sometimes seems that a great many people live their lives according to that directive. Being of good cheer is definitely contrary to regulations as far as they are concerned. They look and act as if their ship had just gone down and with it their last dollar and their last friend.

I wonder if you ever watch that TV program called "American Bandstand." There's a similar one on CJSS-TV sometimes too. On both shows teenagers dance to their favourite tunes and the chatter of the emcee. I watch sometimes. I don't like the emcee particularly and I despise the music but I get a big bang out of the teenagers.

It would seem there must be a sign in the studios that says, "Laughing or smiling contrary to regulations." A more sad, serious, sober-looking crowd would be hard to find outside a concentration camp. They move their feet and their bodies with the tempo of the music while their faces remain bored and expressionless.

I can't help comparing these rock and roll youngsters with their parents who dance on the Lawrence Welk show. The oldsters smile and laugh and talk to each other. They act as if they were having the time of their lives. Perhaps they've learned to accept their corns and aching feet. Maybe they've finally realized the truth in the song. "Enjoy yourself. It's later than you think."

To those teenagers I'd like to have the opportunity to say, "Cheer up, kids, it really isn't that bad." In fact I could say that to a lot of people for there are plenty of folks besides teenagers who could use that advice. There are altogether too many long-faced, sad-eyed, sober-sided people roaming around looking for bad news or something to worry about.

Of course that isn't a very difficult search. Any newscast or evening paper will supply plenty of material to keep us awake at night. And he's a pretty fickle-minded individual who doesn't at some time during the day give some thought to war, unemployment and who's going to pay his taxes next year.

It's a sign of maturity, however, to be able to put these anxieties into their proper pigeon-holes and as the minister said, "be of good cheer."

One of the nicest things that could ever be said of us is that we're very cheerful people. Beauty and good looks are fine. Intelligence is an enviable gift. Wisdom and understanding are qualities to seek after. But all the world loves a cheerful person.

Conversly all the world hates a grouch. We avoid the person who habitually gets up on the wrong side of the bed as we'd avoid smallpox. We dislike the one who wears a frown that is imprinted indelibly on his wrinkled brow. We steer clear of moody people whose temperature must be taken before we know how to approach them. But the cheerful soul is like a ray of sunshine in a cold, damp room.

Some of us are afraid to be cheerful in case people will think we're flippant and insincere. Teachers often disguise themselves with a mask of sternness in the hope that it will improve discipline. Maybe it helps discipline a little but it doesn't do much for education. I remember well the English teacher at Normal School who kept us trembling in our shoes and the science teacher who regaled us with stories and comical illustrations. I'm sure I learned much more science than English.

Yes, we're often afraid to be cheerful. We're afraid to laugh in case it isn't proper or sophisticated. But think of the number of times Jesus admonished His followers to be cheerful. "Be of good cheer, your sins are forgiven," He said. "Be of good cheer, your faith has made you well." "Be of good cheer I have overcome the world."

We can't all be clever or rich but we can be cheerful and cheerfulness will pay us greater dividends I am sure than will government bonds.

Women teachers hold October meeting at Mountain

The October meeting of the Federation of Women Teachers was held in Mountain Public School October 26th. Mrs Coons, president, was in charge of the meeting assisted by the secretary, Miss Edgerton. The meeting opened with the singing of O' Canada, followed by the Lord's Prayer. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Business was discussed and plans laid for the annual banquet in April and for the November meeting at Stampville. Mrs Hazel Dawson reported from the conference which was attended by several of the members in Pembroke recently. Because 7,000 teachers are attending Teachers Colleges in Ontario this year, the end of the teacher shortage is in sight.

Miss Butler and Miss Coleman, two of a class of Grade XII students of Hallville school who had enjoyed a weekend in New York City in May, gave interesting talks on their trips. Their talks were supported by many pictures and souvenirs of the big city. Mrs MacDonald thanked the young ladies for a very interesting program.

The singing of the National Anthem closed the meeting after which lunch was served.

Finch "Lucky Thirteens" enjoy Hallowe'en party

The "Lucky Thirteens" held their regular meeting on Thursday at 7 p.m. in Chalmer's Church hall, Finch. The president, Lois Hutt, opened the meeting with the C.G.I.T. Purpose and hymn, with Bonnie Flegg as pianist.

Minutes were read by the secretary, Margaret Swerdfeger, and the roll call was answered.

In the business meeting an invitation was extended by Mrs Profitt to attend a teen-age rally at Ingleside on November 8 from 7.30 to 9 p.m. The leaders, Mrs Hutt, Mrs Harold Winters and Mrs Albert Winters, accepted an invitation to all leaders for supper at Mrs Profitt's.

Members were asked to assist in collecting for the Bible Society.

Mrs Hutt led in the lanyard ceremony, with Bonnie Flegg reading the Scripture and Mrs Albert Winters presenting Sharlene Henderson, Hope Simmons, Lois Hutt, Sharon Montgomery and Margaret Swerdfeger with their lanyards.

Bible study was started and memory work was given to each member for which they will receive a Star Memory Certificate when completed.

The group enjoyed a Hallowe'en party and costumes were judged. D. Begg was chosen best dressed and Bonnie Flegg funniest. Games were played.

Lunch was served by Elaine Graham, Bonnie Flegg and Lois Hutt. The meeting closed with Taps.

Easy to Make

An easy way to make concrete stepping stones. All you have to do is to dig out sections of the lawn the size and in the location where you want the stones to be about four inches straight up and down. Fill these voids with concrete and when it's dry, you have a walk.

Chesterville milk producers hold annual meeting

The annual meeting of Chesterville Concentrated Milk Producers Association was held recently. Over 100 members were present to hear the reports of the year's work.

The president, Douglas Durant, explained briefly what the local directors had done to help the shippers to the Nestlé plant.

Freeman Miller, Association fieldman, reported that he had made 21 checks at the local plant and had found tests fairly satisfactory. He had had few requests for herd tests. He reported that Nestlé's were starting bulk hauling in the near future.

Provincial president Wilfred Keyes, Chas. Milton, provincial secretary, and directors Orvil Guy and Geo. Lowery also addressed the meeting.

Election of officers resulted as follows: President, Douglas Durant; past president, Lorenzo Leduc; 1st vice president, Clark Smith; sec.-treas., C. A. Graham; directors, Sheldon Ball, Hulbert Cross, Edward Wheeler, John Maxwell, Lloyd Morrow; auditors, John Sutherland, Mac Curran.

Soldiers of Canada's NATO bigade in Germany recently completed two weeks of intensive field training in Northern Germany. The complete lack of peace-time comforts and amenities injected realism into the war games designed to practice the brigade in both defensive and offensive operations. The nuclear aspect of modern warfare was stressed throughout the training period. Mr, Mrs Durham Wells mark 50th anniversary

On the evening of Saturday, October 8, Mr and Mrs Durham Wells celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in the form of an "at home" between the hours of 7-10 p.m. at their home in Williamsburg Township.

It was in the year 1910 that they were united in marriage by the Rev H. S. Osborne of the Methodist Church, Morrisburg, and came to reside on the Wells' homestead where they still live.

Their home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with fall flowers and potted plants, many coming from kind friends at Kingston, Ingleside, Morrisburg, Williamsburg, and Colquhoun United Church.

During the day they received many phone calls. One cheerful greeting came from Rev and Mrs C. A. Adey, a former pastor of Colquhoun United Church, where both Mr and Mrs Wells have long been members. Mr Wells has served many years as an elder and Mrs Wells is a charter member of the W.M.S. and was a member of the choir and president of the Bible Society until a few years ago when her health caused her to take a less active part.

Many friends and relatives called and registered in the Golden Anniversary book and congratulated the esteemed couple and wished them many more years of wedded life. Receiving the guests were their two children, Graham, at home, and Mrs E. J. Lanigan (Madge), of Gananoque.

Presiding at the tea table, which was adorned with a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake decorated with gold leaves and a golden "50", were Mrs Laura Tinkess, Kingston; Mrs Fred Casselman, Riverside; Mrs Ernest Hart, Chesterville. Rev E. B. Bugden, who is at present serving the Colquhoun charge, was present with Mrs Bugden and during the evening Mrs Ernest Hart and Mrs Mahlon Gow sang very feelingly "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

The happy couple received many greeting cards which continued to come in all through the week as well as many callers who were unable to attend the "at home." A very welcome guest was Mr Ellis C. Hanes, of Ottawa, who in the year 1913 was a teacher in the local school and boarded at their home.

On the folowing day Mr and Mrs Wells entertained at a turkey dinner their immediate family: Mr and Mrs E. J. Lanigan, Francis, Mary Ellen, Edward, Michael and Anna Marie, Gananoque; Mr and Mrs Graham Wells, Mervyn, Sharon and Carson, and Dr and Mrs Duncan Boucher, of Kingston. Mrs Boucher is a niece of Mr Wells and a daughter of the late Dr and Mrs I. G. Bogart, Kingston.

The couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. Included among them was a very beautiful framed scroll bearing greetings from the Ontario government and also congratulations from the Hon. Fred Cass and Mrs Cass which were greatly appreciated.

Men teachers meet here

The men teachers of Dundas County met for a dinner meeting at Droppo's Restaurant, Chesterville.

Present at the meeting were Harry Potter and Gordon Coons, Winchester; Hosea Droppo, of Morrisburg; Melville Tomkins, of Hallville; Murray Shane, U.S.S. No 3, 14½ Mountain and Matilda Twps., Mervyn Wells, S.S. No. 4, Mountain; Bob Coleman, Chesterville.

New members to Dundas were welcomed, minutes read and considered and reports received. Hosea Droppo gave a report on the district meeting held in the Prince of Wales School, Brockville, on Friday, October 14.

The next meeting of the local will be held in mid-February to consider reports of the Toronto provincial assembly meeting.

Knox Church groups meet at Smirle home

Mrs Jake Smirle was hostess to Knox Presbyterian Church W.M.S. and Ladies' Aid, Crysler, for their October meetings.

Mrs K. McGillivray, W.M.S. president, conducted the meeting. Following the Call to Worship, a Psalm was read responsively and Hymn 797 was sung.

Mrs Jake Smirle led in prayer. Roll call, by Mrs W. Ouderkirk, was responded to with a verse of Scripture containing the word "Light."

Minutes of the September meeting were read and the offering was received and dedicated. Mrs Carl McRae led in prayer. Arrangements were made to hold a Thankoffering service at Knox Church November 6.

Subscriptions for Glad Tidings were received. Members were requested to send agricultural, trade or similar magazines, church and Sunday School papers to John Paterson, East Nigeria.

Following a business discussion, the meeting closed with benediction.

President Mrs W. Paul conducted the Ladies' Aid meeting. Following roll call and collection, minutes of the last meeting were given by Mrs W. Ouderkirk.

The president thanked all those who helped make the fall supper such a success. Business matters were discussed.

Mrs Paul thanked the hostess for entertaining the societies. The meeting closed with a hymn, folowed by the Lord's Prayer.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Muriel Smirle.

IN MEMORIAM

WALDROFF—In fond and loving memory of Mrs Edith Waldroff who passed away November 4, 1959.

Beautiful memories of one so dear
We cherish still with love sincere;
A day that comes with sad regret,
Of one that we will never forget.

Ever remembered by the family.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr and Mrs O. K. Steven would like to take this opportunity to thank their many friends, neighbours and relatives who sent cards, gifts and called on the occasion of their 35th wedding anniversary. A special "Thank You" goes to the girls who served and all who helped in any way to make the anniversary such a happy occasion.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to say "Thank You" to the many friends and neighbours for flowers, cards, treats and visits while I was a patient in Winchester Memorial Hospital. Special thanks to Drs Howard and Duane Justus, the nursing staff, Rev W. L. Thomas and Rev D. L. Gordon.

Mrs Alice Steen.

In net value of production the manufacturing industry in Manitoba now accounts for more than twice the value of that province's agricultural output.

WAYNE AND SHUSTER—Professor Waynegartner (Johhny Wayne) manages to have some far-fetched ideas under his wig every time he is interviewed by Frank Shuster on CBC-TV's "The Wayne and Shuster Hour." Have you ever wondered how to tell which is Wayne and which is Shuster? Johnny Wayne always stands on the left in pictures and on television, and Frank Shuster always stands on the right.

RUN OVER TWICE —BY OWN CAR

"I'll bet I'm the only woman in the city who was knocked down twice by her own motor car."

Mrs Nona Kitchell, Kansas City, explained that she parked her auto on a hill to take her six-year-old son to a baby-sitter's home. As she returned to the car it began rolling. She grabbed for a front door handle but was flung to the ground and a wheel passed over her leg.

"I got up and started chasing the car," she said. "It was not moving too fast and I tried to grab the rear door handle."

Down again she went and again a wheel passed over her leg.

The auto struck two parked cars and stopped after a 300-foot run.

X-rays revealed no major injury to Mrs Kitchell.

Recent research has carried the history of Cyprus in the eastern Mediterranean back as far as about 3700 BC.

Finch "Vegerettes" meet at Nephew home

The fifth meeting of Finch "Vegerettes" 4-H Homemaking Club was held at the home of Mrs Blake Nephew Saturday afternoon.

The meeting was opened by the president, Linda MacLeod, with the members repeating the 4-H pledge. Roll call was answered by the members stating "The Vegetable Supper Dish I Made at Home."

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Shirley Wiseman who acted as secretary.

Plans were made for Miss Nancy Pritchard, home economist, to visit the club meeting November 12.

Salads were discussed: Types, raw, cooked and jellied; selecting and preparation of salad ingredients; salad dressing, garnishes, appetizers and relishes.

The leader, Mrs Stuart Duff, demonstrated under the headings. Preparations of raw vegetables for salads; assembling of at least one or two salads from raw or cooked vegetables; lemon jello and grated carrot salad; garnishes for salads; relishes, making simple relishes, arranging a relish tray.

The salads were enjoyed by all and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs Blake Nephew, at the close of the meeeting.

HORSE MAY AID FIGHT AGAINST ASTHMA

The horse, well known to be a noble animal, may soon help rid the human race of asthma and hay fever, a British scientist said recently.

Dr. W. R. Wooldridge scientific director of the Animal Health Trust, a research group looking into the welfare of animals, said a substance that seems to defeat allergies has recently been discovered at the equine research station at Newmarket, headquarters of British horse racing.

The substance was found in certain white cells in the blood of racehorses. It played an active part in controlling histamine, a chemical in animal tissues which is freqently the cause of surgical and accidental shock, skin lesions of the nettle rash type and such allergies as asthma and hay fever.

Wooldridge, speaking to the Animal Health Trust, said the discovery came during a prolonged inquiry into the basic function of the blood of race horses.

He said the substance has such a far-reaching potential for human sufferers that workers in the medical research council of the National Research Development Council are co-operating in its devlopment.

Research at the equine station has shown that excess production of histamine in the body and its subseqent ill effects were automatically reduced in the presence of white blood cells called "eosinophil leucocytes."

Now after more than a year's work the equine station has evolved a technique for recovering these cells alive and normal from the blood of horses and in a high degree of purity.

NEW METHOD

Danny Atmond, a 29-year-old Anglo-Indian, was a porter at tiny Woodgrange Park railroad station, 25 miles from London, England.

His method of lighting the station's coal stove was the talk of the town.

He'd gargle in an amount of kerosene, light his breath and blast flames on the kindling.

A television talent scout heard about Danny and sought him out. He found him in his room at the station—sleeping on a bed of nails.

Danny signed a contract to light fires before the cameras.

REAL PAY PHONE

Has anyone ever struck it rich on a pay telephone?

Impossible you say.

Well, some telephones seem to operate similar to a slot machine—at least one did.

About to call in a news items, the reporter deposited a dime but heard no dial tone.

Pressing the coin return button he was astonished to see not only his own dime drop out—but three additional dimes.

Yes, it apparently can be done, but to top it all off the phone wouldn't work on nickels or dimes!

Canada had 2,605 miles of railways in operation in 1871.

CRANBERRIES AGAIN

LAST YEAR you may have hesitated to serve cranberries following the unfavourable publiicty given to west coast cranberries. The cranberries on our grocery shelves were given a clean bill of health but even so some may have omitted them from last year's menus. I think we need have no fear this year so here are some of my favourite recipes:

Baked Cranberry Pudding With Butter Sauce

2 cups flour
1 cup sugar
2½ tsps. baking powder
3 tbsps. melted shortening
2/3 cup milk
1 egg
2 cups cranberries

Sift dry ingredients into mixing bowl. Add shortening, milk and egg. Beat 2 minutes. Stir in cranberries. Bake in moderate oven 40 minutes. Serve hot with butter sauce.

Butter Sauce

½ cup butter
1 cup sugar
¾ cup milk

Melt shortening in top of double boiler. Add sugar and milk. Mix well. Cook over hot water about 5 minutes. Serve hot.

In the spring, substitute rhubarb for the cranberries in the above recipe.

Cranberry and Orange Relish

2 cups raw cranberries
2 oranges
1 cup sugar

Grind all together in a food chopper. Let stand 24 hours before using. This relish is so good with cold meat.

Mock Cherry Pie

1 cup cranberries
½ cup seeded raisins
¾ cup sugar
1 tbsp. flour
1 tsp. almond extract
1 tsp. butter

Line a pie pan with pastry. Fill with cranberries, washed and cut in half, mixed with chopped raisins. Sprinkle with mixture of sugar and flour, add almond extract and dot with butter. Cover with second crust and bake in hot oven.

Cranberry Salad

1 pkg. cherry flavoured gelatine
1 cup hot water
1 cup sugar
1 tbsp. lemon juice
1 cup pineapple syrup
1 cup ground, raw cranberries
1 orange, ground
1 cup drained, crushed pineapple
1 cup chopped celery
½ cup chopped walnuts

Dissolve gelatine in hot water. Add sugar, lemon juice and pineapple syrup. Stir well to dissolve sugar. Chill until partially set, Then add remaining ingredients.

BOSSY NEEDS FALSE TEETH

A set of fase teeth may be all old bossy needs to add a few more useful years to her life. Dr. Nelson Cruz Arias, a dentist from Cali, Colombia, said that by wearing false teeth, a cow can start gaining weight again and have more years of useful life.

He was in Dallas, Texas, to attend the Pan-American livestock show. He said he fitted a number of cattle with false teeth in Colombia and in one case a 15-year-old cow gained 45 pounds after getting the teeth.

OVEN GLASSWARE

Ordinary glass cracks when it is suddenly heated or cooled, because glass is a poor conductor of heat. On the other hand, like all other substances, it expands when hot and contracts when cold. So if a cold glass dish is placed in a hot oven, the outside skin is heated and expands, while the inner portion is still cold, with the result that something has to give, and the glass cracks.

If glass could be made a good conductor of heat it would not crack in this way, because then the inside would be heated very quickly, and the whole lot would then expand or contract together, as a metal basin would.

This was impossible, so the problem was solved by finding a type of glass which expands only very little when it is heated, and this is the well-known glass used in modern ovenware. In this case there is no appreciable expansion of one part when it is heated, and the glass is strong enough to put up with this small expansion without breaking under the strain.

Mr and Mrs Andrew Blair celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last Sunday at their home in Berwick. We are pleased to picture them as the first cut was made in the lovely cake.—Record Photo.

MR AND MRS ALBERT BLAIR CELEBRATE 50TH ANNIV

Mr and Mrs Albert Blair celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary during the past week end with a buffet supper given by their four daughters, Mrs Geo Pearson (Phyllis), Mrs Ken Kirk (Elizabeth), Mrs Jas. Johnstone (Irma), Mrs Oscar Godard (Shirley), at the home of Mrs Chas Johnstone on Saturday evening.

A table appropriately decorated was arranged for Mr and Mrs Blair and their attendants, Mrs Alex McLeod and Mr Carmel Smirle. Mr Smirle proposed the toast. All members of the immediate families were guests at the supper.

On Sunday Mr and Mrs Blair were at home in Berwick to their friends and relatives.

Numerous gifts, telegrams, (many from friends in U.S.A.) and cards of congratulations were received.

Carkner–Lobb

Standards of pink gladioli and bronze and mauve 'mums formed a lovely setting for a double ring ceremony in Morewood United Church for the marriage of Miss Glenna Mae Lobb, daughter of Mr and Mrs Fred Lobb, Morewood, and Signalman Donald Alfred Carkner, son of Mr and Mrs Alfred Carkner, of Chesterville.

Rev D. L. Gordon officiated at the ceremony and Miss Marjorie Thompson was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor-length dress of white satin with lace inserts and long sleeves ending points over the hands. The shoulder-length veil of tulle illusion and nylon net was held in place by a coronet trimmed with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a white Bible with bronze orchids.

Miss Elaine Kyle and Mrs Audrey Henophy, sister of the groom, were maid of honour and bridesmaid respectively and wore identical gowns of mauve and green with matching mitts and headdresses and carried crescents of bronze and yellow 'mums.

Miss Marion Lobb, sister of the bridge, was flower girl and wore yellow nylon over taffeta with matching headdress and mitts and carried a basket of yellow and bronze baby 'mums.

Pat Curran was best man and ushering the guests were Rodger Carkner, brother of the groom, and Bobbie Lobb, brother of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore a blue orlon jersey with blue feather hat, white gloves and black accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations The groom's mother wore a printed silk in blue and mauve with small feather hat with veil, white gloves and black purse and shoes and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception was held in the church hall with about 85 guests attending from Smiths Falls, Chesterville, Morrisburg, Cornwall, Montreal, Ottawa, Welland and Arnprior.

For a wedding trip they went by way of Prescott bridge to the United States, Niagara Falls and Toronto. The bride travelled in a rose suit with white lace hat, black shoes and purse and wore a corsage of bronze orchids.

Mr and Mrs Carkner will reside in Hemer, Germany, where Signalman Carkner has been stationed with the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada. He is a radar, teletype and radio technician.
