100 Club Street Dance Attracts Large Crowd

The 100 Club's annual Street Dance and "Night of Fun," held here on Monday evening, attracted a large crowd and was a financial success. Approximately $325.00 was cleared from the event and this money will be used by the 100 Club for sending smokes and treats to the local boys on Active Service, and for the Underprivileged Children's Welfare Fund.

During the early evening a delightful program of music was presented from the balcony of Hotel Winchester, by the Morrisburg Boys' Band, under the direction of Bandmaster Epplett. The program consisted of marches, light classics and popular music, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience which had assembled to hear it.

At nine o'clock the street dance got under way, with Eldred Duquette's popular dance orchestra providing the music. Main Street was fenced off between the intersection of St. Lawrence Street and the hotel, and provided plenty of room for the unusually large crowd which appeared to be in a dancing mood.

For those who didn't dance, there was plenty of entertainment in the Bingo and other games which were located on the street, just east of the dance section. The games, like the dance and band concert, attracted many patrons and were busy all evening.

Prize winners in the draw for War Savings Certificates, which took place during the Street Dance, were Wilbert O'Neil, James S. Crummy and Hubert Riddell.

Another feature of the evening was the appearance of "Miss Canada" selling War Savings Stamps. This role was taken by Miss Marion Helmer, who was attired in the official costume of "Miss Canada." She sold nearly $30.00 worth of stamps.

Members of the 100 Club who were quite active during the evening were Centurians Ken. Ault, President; Albert Johnston, Chester Timmins, Walter Moffat, W. A. Rowat, Alex Davidson, Nelson Dixon, Howard Fetterly, Harry Flora, Harold Lannin, Paul Sanders, Walter MacDonald, J. L. Dixon and Doug. MacLean.

Definite Ration of Sugar Is Set For Harvesters

The provision of sugar for the feeding of harvesting crews and other groups of farm workers has now been placed upon a definite ration basis, it is announced by ration officers stationed in the Brockville region of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

While farmers' wives may still obtain extra sugar for this purpose by filling out purchase vouchers with their suppliers, it has been decided that the amount thus made available for consumption shall not exceed one ounce per worker per meal. It must be definitely understood, the Board points out, that all baking done for the groups of farm workers has to be carried out with this allowance, and that it cannot be employed for other purposes.

When the sugar purchase voucher is filled out, the consumer is required to specify the number of harvesters whom she expects to feed and the number of days they will be working at her farm. On the basis of one ounce per worker per meal, her needs may then be estimated with exactitude. The consumer must also give the number of her ration card when applying for such extra rations.

It is emphasized by the ration officers that sugar, a commodity now rationed, cannot be obtained in extra quantities except for certain specific purposes and that the concession granted for the feeding of harvesting crews is for that purpose alone. Close scrutiny is given to purchase vouchers after they have been honored with a view to the detection of abuses.

LOST RATION CARD MEANS NO SUGAR

Since it may not be possible to replace lost or stolen sugar ration cards before the permanent cards are issued some weeks hence, all those holding them are cautioned by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board to regard them as exceedingly valuable documents and to take every precaution against them being mislaid or stolen.

The regional office of the Board points out that these cards constitute the sole legal means of householders obtaining supplies of sugar and that, with the preparation of the permanent cards now well under way, their replacement becomes a matter of some difficulty. Indeed, there is every likelihood that the consumer who loses his temporary ration card may have to do without sugar until the permanent cards are issued early in September.

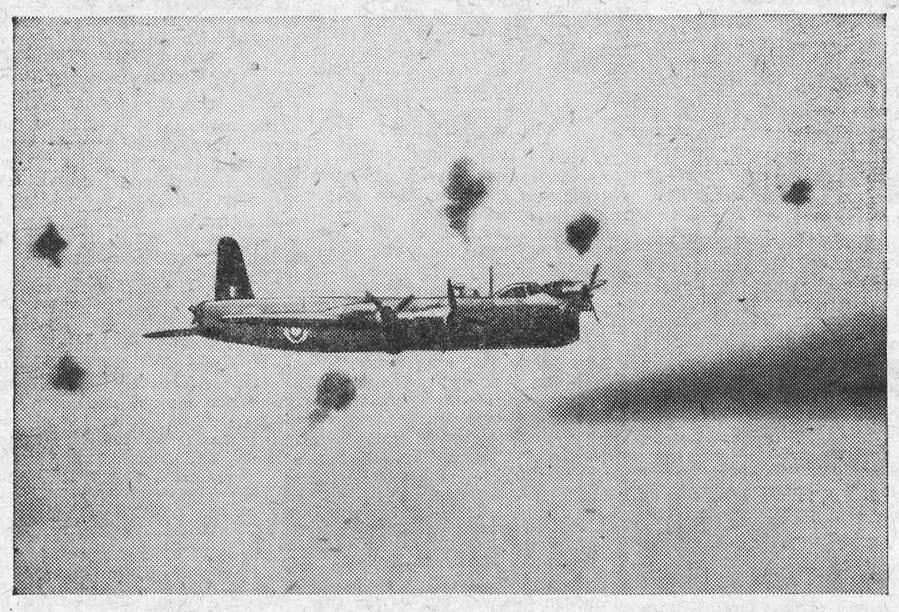
R. C. A. F. Bomber Finds Target Through Cloud of Flak



As a flight of bombers sailed over enemy territory on its way to the target of the day, a gunner poked his camera over the side and made this photograph of a Stirling bomber, surrounded by anti-aircraft gun-bursts. On every mass bombing raid—over Hamburg, Essen and all the other huge Nazi munitions centres—fighting fliers of the R.C.A.F. do their share in the work of crippling the enemy's munitions industry. Any one of those chunks of flak in the above photo could have meant tragedy to the courageous Canadian crew, but it is a matter of record that they went on to the target, dropped the bomb load and returned safely to their base.

S. D. & G. Reserves Home From Camp

Bronzed and looking fit, members of the Second Battalion, S., D. and G. Highlanders (R.F.) returned to their homes early Sunday evening from Connaught Ranges, near Ottawa, where they spent the past two weeks at the annual summer camp for reserve army units.

The Cornwall companies formed up after leaving the train, and marched to their headquarters at Cornwall Armouries where they were dismissed. Heading the parade was the unit's smart pipe band. Crowds lined the curbs to watch the reservists swing along gingerly through the streets to headquarters.

Members of "A" Company, which includes the boys from Winchester, Chesterville and Morrisburg, detrained at Finch, while "D" Company, comprising platoons from Maxville, Alexandria and Hawkesbury, travelled home via Canadian National Railways. Total strength of the unit at camp was approximately 400 men, all ranks.

Praise for the unit's showing at camp came from Lieut.-Col. W. J. Franklin, V. D., officer commanding, who expressed satisfaction with the battalion which underwent a rigorous training schedule during the two-week period.

"I think our battalion was not only the strongest unit at camp, but the finest," said Col. Franklin. "All ranks were eager to absorbe the training which was intensely interesting, due to the increase in equipment and weapons for instructional purposes."

Training Highlights.

Highlights of the training syllabus included rifle firing, firing of Bren guns, mortars, pistols and submachine guns. Tactical training comprised battle drill, engineering, wiring and map reading. The field exercise covered an 11-mile march in battle formation, with additional manoeuvres which made a strenuous day for the troops. A hot meal was served in the field at noon.

Target practice unearthed several excellent shots. Competition at all times was exceptionally keen.

For the most part, weather conditions during the two-week training session were good.

On their arrival, the Highlanders were greeted by a terrific electric storm which brought with it a torrential downpour and high winds, blowing down tents and generally creating minor havoc in the camp area. On two or three occasions, troops were drenched by heavy rains, but all took the weather in stride and were none the worse for the experience.

Col. Franklin said his men were so keen to train that they protested against being detailed to any duty which would keep them off parade. The O. C. said also that the S., D. and G.'s lines and cooking system was a model for the camp. Senior ranking officers of National Defence Department headquarters, Ottawa, along with the messing officer for Canada, paid regular visits to the Highlanders while they were at their meals. All were loud in their praise of the first-class messing arrangements.

A distinguished visitor to the S., D. and G. unit was Maj.-Gen. Alexander, Inspector General of Canada, who remained about four hours, reviewing the field training, records and personnel of the battalion. He found all phases satisfactory.

Col. W. S. S. Slack, camp commandant, was highly pleased with the showing made by the Highlanders.

Tents Taken Down.

Before leaving camp, the S., D. and G.'s, as well as other battalions, had to clear their lines and return all tents and equipment to the camp storage quarters. This entailed a great deal of work but there was plenty of help and the job was completed in record time. On Saturday afternoon some 75 sleeping tents were taken down and packed in individual bags. On Sunday about 20 more were taken down, as well as a dozen larger marquees. Mattresses, ground sheets, blankets (1200 of them), cooking and eating equipment, etc., all had to be collected, checked and properly packed before being returned to the quartermaster's stores. Every piece of paper, cigarette butt, etc., was then picked up, and when the boys lined up and marched away to board a train on a nearby railroad siding, there was little evidence that a camp had been situated in that particular area of Connaught Rifle Ranges.

Had Picture Taken

On Saturday afternoon the battalion formed up on the parade grounds to have a panorama picture taken. The picture was a good one, but, unfortunately, only about two-thirds of the members were present to face the camera—the rest having left camp earlier in the week. Out of the twenty-six local men who attended camp, only ten were present when the picture was taken.

RETURNS FROM WAR ZONE

Pilot Officer William Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dixon, arrived in Ottawa on Tuesday on two weeks' leave, after being on Active Service with the Royal Air Force in Cairo, Egypt and Malta for the past six months. Bill, as he is known by his many friends here, has seen plenty of action since he left Canada over a year ago. He knows how it feels to be in contact with the enemy at the controls of a plane, and, no doubt, he has had many close shaves as he battled his way out of aerial battles. Probably he will visit Winchester before he returns to duty and give us an earful of his experiences in the war zone. He was calling on relatives here yesterday.

RETIRED MAIL COURIER HONOURED

Last evening Mr. Morley Shortt, who recently retired as mail courier on one of the local rural routes, after several years of courteous and efficient service, was honoured by members of the Post Office staff, mail couriers and their wives. Mr. Shortt was taken completely by surprise when the party of 20 called at his home to honour him on his retirement.

During the evening Mr. Shortt was presented with a beautiful electric reading lamp by Mr. Fred Johnston, while an appropriate address was read by Postmaster Erle Helmer. Mr. Shortt replied in his usual cheery style, stating that he had enjoyed the years spent as mail courier and would long cherish the friendships he had made with the people he worked with and those he served.

Following the presentation, a social hour was enjoyed, with dainty refreshments being served by Miss Marion Helmer and Miss Leita Cross, of Smiths Falls.

WEDDINGS

COCHRANE—DIXON

Summer flowers were used effectively to adorn the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dixon, Ottawa, for the marriage on Saturday of their daughter, Gertrude Helen, to Andrew Baxter Cochrane, son of Mrs. Cochrane, of Toronto, and the late F. S. Cochrane. Rev. John A. Waddell performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by her younger sister, Miss Shirley Dixon, as bridesmaid. Mr. Fred Dixon, brother of the bride, was best man.

The bride wore a model of pale pink crepe with the new long torso and a full skirt. She wore a small hat of the same material with a short veil. She wore a gift of the bridegroom, a string of pearls, and carried Butterfly roses and bouvardia in shower.

The bridesmaid wore a costume of waterfall blue in street length with front fullness. She wore a matching Dutch cap and carried a nosegay of Sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Dixon, mother of the bride, was in navy blue and white printed crepe with a corsage bouquet of white gladioli.

Mrs. Cochrane, mother of the bridegroom, was in flowered sheer and wore roses.

Following an informal reception, the couple left for Quebec. For travelling the bride wore a dressmaker suit of Air Force blue with tan shade accessories. They will take up residence in Ottawa.

ROONEY—McKEE

The marriage of Miss Margaret Edna McKee, daughter of Mrs. McKee and the late Mr. James McKee, to Mr. Daniel Harold Rooney, son of Mrs. Rooney and the late Mr. A. A. Rooney, took place on Tuesday morning at eight o'clock in Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, Ottawa. Rev. Father Leo Blanchfield was the officiating clergyman. Mr. Kenneth O'Hare played the wedding music and Miss Eileen Mahoney sang.

Mr. Leo McKee gave his sister in marriage and she was attended by her sister, Miss Helen McKee, as bridesmaid. Mr. Myles McBride was best man for the groom and the ushers were Mr. Lewis Neville and Mr. Bernard McEvoy.

The bride was wearing a floor-length gown of shell pink sheer. A wide band of shirring at the waist gave fullness to the skirt and bodice and the long full sleeves were caught at the wrist. The neckline and front of the bodice were adorned with hand embroidery. A matching coronet of lattice work held her waist length veil in place and she carried a cascade bouquet of Briarcliffe roses.

The bridesmaid's dress was of aquamarine sheer fashioned with quilted inset at the waist, full bodice, bishop's sleeves and gathered skirt. Her pleated halo of matching material had a shoulder veil and she carried an arm bouquet of Joanna Hill roses.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother after the ceremony. Later, the couple left on a wedding trip to Toronto and western points, the bride travelling in a thistle rose light weight wool dressmakers suit with brown accessories, brown hat and kolinsky furs. Her corsage bouquet was of pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Rooney will take up residence in Ottawa on their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson, Brockville; Mrs. Margaret McDonnell, of Montreal; Mrs. Elmer Prunerd, of Farran's Point; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McKee, Inkerman, and Mr. L. W. Neville, Toronto, were out-of-town guests at the wedding.

The bride is well known here, where she attended high school. She formerly resided south of Inkerman.

Tea and Coffee Now Rationed

The rationing of tea and coffee became effective throughout Canada on Monday, when a ration of one ounce of tea or coffee per person, per week, was announced by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. It is now necessary to buy your tea or coffee by coupons, in the same manner as you procure your sugar—using the same ration card.

The five coupons at the top of the present temporary ration card, marked "A-B-C-D-E" will be used to purchase tea or coffee in the five weeks between August 3 and Sept. 8, at which time ration coupon books will be issued.

The tea and coffee rations are one ounce of tea per person per week or four ounces of coffee per person per week. Each lettered coupon is good for one week's ration of tea or coffee—but not both—and all the coupons are valid on and after August 3. Ration coupons issued for children under 12 years of age cannot be used for tea and coffee purchaases.

Sharp curtailment of tea and coffee consumption by coupon rationing is necessary because of the acute supply position. This results from shortage of shipping, the great overwater distances involved in bringing tea and coffee to Canada, and the fact that tea is grown in theatres of war. If consumption of tea and coffee continued at the present rate and new supplies were not forthcoming, present supplies would run short in a matter of months. It was, therefore, decided to institute coupon rationing, thus ensuring equitable distribution of available supplies over a longer period.

To Farmers Of Dundas County

Would you pay one dollar a year to support an organization comprising 350,000 Canadian farmers, that would enable our national and provincial officials to stand guard and fight for your interests with the knowledge that you were supporting them?

Would you support Provincial legislation that would authorize your township council to add to your municipal taxes an amount that would average one dollar per farm? If you would, then get your neighbours interested; if you would oppose such a scheme, again talk it over with your neighbour but also with a member of your County Federation executive.

Would you support a community doctor, who would give you free medical attention (cost of medicine, extra)—an important step in the prevention of sickness and disease—if it cost you only the price of the dog tax?

Would you support provincial legislation authoriizing your township council to add this amount to your municipal tax?

Do you realize that a community health system tends to do away with indigent hospitalization costs and charity?

We farmers are enjoying comparatively good times now—but only as a result of this wasteful war. Help yourself prepare for the difficult times which are sure to exist in the post-war period by doing your share in making the Canadian Federation of Agriculture the most powerful organization in Canada. It can be done, if you only do your share.

BACK TO THE LAND

When the great readjustment of human life and destiny has to be faced at the termination of the war there is hope that the congestions of great cities may be healthily reduced, comments the Carleton Place Canadian

"Three acres and a cow," not so long ago was a popular slogan and we shall not be surprised if it materializes into something more than a slogan. So many men have learned with profound surprise that life is not only possible far from the reek of the cities, but that it has something fine and comforting to offer.

Among the many stiff and apparently unsolvable problems which will present themselves to legislators when peace comes, this question of readjustment will have to be faced with full cognizance of the importance of transferring as many as possible to the land, which is the backbone of every country in the world.

In the great empire under the British flag there is room and to spare, especially in Canada, for every unit of the surplus population, especially the youthful units, so many of whom will be at a loose end when released from active service. Surely wise statesmanship will here exhibit foresight, understanding and that vision without which the people perish.

We hope to live to see at least the beginnings of this great trek, which will do more to realize and solidify this great Dominion of ours.

IT'S UP TO YOUNG PEOPLE

Perhaps at this season, more than any other, parents and children are making plans for future activities, hence this advice is timely and to the point.

Young man or young woman, have you ever figured just how soon it may happen that you will be obliged to take care of yourself, and how you will do it?

Do you know that your school years are the best years of your life in the sense of receiving so much that means capital to you in later years?

If a man should hold out a million dollars' worth of bonds to you and say the Government will present these bonds to you for the asking, you would be mighty foolish if you did not ask forthwith, wouldn't you?

Your education may be worth a million dollars to you if you make your own all the valuable information and fundamental principles which your teachers are paid and ready to impart.

You cannot afford to waste moments because they do mean so much of future capital if used rightly.

It is not so much the exact information you acquire as it is the habit of careful, concentrated study that you form, the habit of thought and reasoning which you cultivate, which will be valuable to you in after life.

Get all the knowledge you can while the getting is good. It will prove a valuable asset all through active life.

DESTROY THOSE WEEDS

This is the season of the year when it is most important that the weed nuisance should be given closest attention by property owners and municipal authorities. It is the duty of every property owner, whether he is a resident in town, village or township, to take steps to destroy the weeds. Municipal authorities should see that this is attended to on the streets and roadways, and yet from year to year many of us note that no effort is made to have the law carried out in some sections. As a result the weed nuisance is becoming worse from year to year, instead of being brought under control. The weed inspector is the official clothed with the authority to see that the law is carried out and if some property owner ignores his order an example should be made and the mess cleaned up to prevent further spread. All of us who move about a bit know of properties, streets and country roads where no effort is made from year to year to comply with a law which is meant to benefit all of us.

COMMANDMENTS FOR VICTORY

1. Thou shalt keep thy mouth shut.
2. Thou shalt stay out of Ottawa; both thou and thy conventions and thy car and thy family and thy family's family and all thy correspondence and thy personal problems; none of these shalt thou send to Ottawa, for they clutter up the works.
3. Thou shalt not harass thy son because he hath not a commission; neither shalt thou make him to feel the service of an enlisted man to be beneath his college education.
4. Thou shalt not hoard; only the squirrel hoardeth and this he doeth because he is a squirrel.
5. Thou shalt not get ants in thy pants to put on a uniform only because thou art vain and hast no courage.
6. Thou shalt walk; even thus shalt thou aid to save gas and rubber; thus shalt thou redeem the price of thy girdle and thy doctor's bill and thy very hide.
7. Thou shalt not fret thyself because of evildoers, for thou has not done so well thyself.
8. Thou shalt ask for thy permit for any new job.
9. Thou shalt not lose faith; thou hast lost nothing beyond recovery if thy faith be not lost.
10. Thou shalt wage the war until victory is ours.

EDITORIAL NOTES

What am I to do? "I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good work, therefore, any kindness, or any service I can render to any soul of man or animal, let me do it now! Let me not neglect or defer it, for I shall not pass this way again."—An Old Quaker Saying.

Has anyone noticed that the same amateur gardener who, four or five months ago, poked a seed into the ground with a sort of humble skepticism, now displays his beans with a superior air, accompanied with a rather lengthy and professional description of how he grew them?

. . . — V . . . —

It has been pointed out that a fundamental distinction between the educated and the uneducated mind is that the first or anyone with even a partly trained mind, tries to find out his faults and correct them. The unschooled fellow usually tries to hide his. It is clear enough which of the two will go faster and farther.

With a scarcity of wool, so essential to our War Effort, looming, farmers are being urged to raise more sheep. Two large advts. in this issue and a story in the news columns will give farmers some idea of the seriousness of the wool situation. Farmers who have not been raising sheep would do well to take advantage of the assistance offered by the Dept. of Agriculture in getting a flock started.

Cost of conducting the April 27 plebiscite is estimated by the office of the chief electoral officer to be less than $1,500,000, it was reported in a return tabled in the House of Commons last Thursday for P. C. Black (Con. Cumberland). Regardless of how little or how great the amount was, it was money that was wasted—money that could have been put to much better use in necessary war expenditures.

. . . — V . . . —

With the announcement this week that tea and coffee have been added to the list of foodstuffs to be rationed, the war comes just a little closer to home. With these commodities becoming scarce, it might not be a bad idea for the Government to place a ban on the serving of afternoon teas, refreshments at entertainments, bridge parties, etc. As a rule, tea or coffee are always served at these functions. Three square meals a day are sufficient anytime—the in-between lunches should be cut out in order to conserve existing food supplies.

Other Editors' Opinions

HITS HIM ALL OVER

(Kitchener Record)

To the average man the Ottawa House debates give a pain in the neck. There is one exception, the Budget. That gives him a pain in the neck, a kick in the stomach and a wallop on the nose.

YES, WHO CARES?

(Smiths Falls Record-News)

As a means of saving paper we suggest that Canadian news sheets ignore the marriages and divorces of screen stars. Most of us can't keep track of all the interlocking marriages and anyway, who cares?

WED AUSSIE GIRLS

(New York Times)

Australia is one of the most sparsely populated of lands, having fewer than three inhabitants to the square mile. And yet 250 American service men in the State of Victoria alone have already, within three months of landing there, found ever-loving wives for themselves.

ALL CAN HELP

(Trenton Courier-Advocate)

We can't all be soldiers, sailors or airmen in this war, but we can stay home and mind our own business. This is something we cannot all do apparently, but there are a few who are consistent in this connection, as they are in all things of life. Wars are won on the home front, too.

WOMEN AND SOCKS

(Chatham News)

The psychologist explained how easy it was to judge a man's character from his clothes. "Socks show a man's temperament very clearly; they tell whether he is generous or avaricious, nervous or phlegmatic," he announced. They also show the taste of his wife, who lays them out for him.

A GOOD MOTTO

(Perth Courier)

Still stands the motto of the King: "Put into your task whatever it may be, all the courage and purpose of which you are capable. Keep your hearts proud and your resolve unshaken. Let us go forward to that task as one man, a smile on our lips and our heads held high, and with God's help we shall not fail."

IT'S THE TRUTH!

(Stirling News-Argus)

When a man tells you he has something for sale that is so good that it needs no advertising—you may well view him with suspicion. The man who really has something good is so proud of it that you could not keep him from advertising it. Newspaper advertising is the great outlet, for the written message sells the goods. It reaches an audience that is always looking for something better.

IT'S THE SAME HERE

(Carleton Place Canadian)

We quite often hear the comment that the town is very quiet. Well, it should be at that with upwards of six hundred who have gone from the town through enlistment, a considable number of whom are overseas. But just drop down street on a Saturday night and it would be difficult to realize that anyone had gone away. It is apparently as busy as ever and there is always considerable trade left over to spread over the remainder of the week.

SH! NOT SO LOUD!

(Almonte Gazette)

Prime Minister King lost his temper in the House of Commons the other day and called his opponents a "mob." Probably Mr. King felt the heat because there is no place more like an oven than the green carpeted chamber as summer advances. But if Mr. King had done less procrastinating and expedited public business a little more, he wouldn't have allowed the session to extend into July. As it is we hope he gets a good roasting in all senses of the word.

Kind words are the golden rivets which help to hold together the splintered vase of human happiness.

Friends are people who watch you blunder into ruin without warning because they're afraid to offend you.

Speaking of recalcitrants, what is a gardener to do when his four-o'clocks refuse to conform to War Time?

Do we hear cheers from those of 'teen ages over the announcement that the secondary schools will not reopen until September 21?

"It is not good for a man to keep too much to himself," states a psychologist. The income tax authorities are said to share this view.

Some one has said that no college has ever been invented which can turn a fool into a wise man. The University of Hard Knocks comes the nearest to any to doing it.

THE POET'S CORNER

THE PLACE THAT GOD FORGOT

God could have worked another day,
And spent it here quite well,
But I guess he left the place this way
To show us part of Hell.

The sand is over ten feet deep,
The sun is scorching hot,
They call this place Camp Borden,
The place that God forgot.

* * * *

You claim that God could have worked another day,
And spent it in your camp quite well,
Why, in Camp Borden, boys, it's heaven,
It's England now that's Hell.

The sun doesn't shine now in England
It's carry on through slush and mud
It's better to walk through sand, boys,
Than to walk through human blood.

It's not what you want to do in England,
It's do it, like it or not,
And when Victory is jointly ours,
boys,
You'll know God hasn't forgot.

In England, today, its wire or phone,
But you boys in Camp Borden take train and go home;
Mothers are smiling to cover their fears,
Biting their lips to keep back the tears;
Sons in England in the most dangerous spots,
You boys in the place you claim
God forgot.

You should thank God you're there,
boys,
Where you really know the word
called "Peace."
Where the bombs are not dropping around you
Or the air raid alarms never cease.

God has done wonders for that camp,
boys,
And done His job quite well
In keeping a spot called "Canada"
From the blackouts of war and hell.

So carry on, and chins up, boys,
Thank God for the freedom you've got,
And when peace rings out on a midnight clear,
Remember God hasn't forgot.

—Pte. T. J. Clarke,
Canadian Army Overseas.

Peter was absent from school, so his teacher asked his friend, John, aged five, why he was away.

"He's poorly," replied John.

"What's the matter with him?" enquired the teacher.

"He has the flues," answered John.

MAILING CURTAILED OF NEWSPAPERS

Mailing of newspapers overseas by individuals will be restricted, effected August 10, Postmaster General Mulock said in the House of Commons.

Comlpete newspapers and periodicals will not be accepted from individuals, who will be asked instead to mail clippings, Mr. Mulock said.

The restriction is intended to conserve shipping space. Publishers have agreed to co-operate in the plan and the matters of newspapers and publications mailed to subscribers now is under consideration, he said.

These restrictions will apply to newspapers and periodicals to both civilians and members of the forces in the United Kingdom and other trans-Atlantic destinations, and in Central and South America, Bermuda and the British West Indies.

THE UNITED CHURCH

A challenging message was brought Sunday morning by Dr. T. A. Halpenny as he reviewed the past year and looked forward to the year upon which he has just entered in this church. Choosing for a motto, "Forward together with God," he spoke from Ex. 14:15, I Cor. 12:27, and I Cor. 3:9. He made a strong appeal for an increased attendance at the services of the church, for more people at work in the church, and a deeper consecration to the work of the Kingdom of God.

MRS. W. L. CURRIER VISITS VERNON RED CROSS

The Vernon War Unit held its July work meeting in the Institute Hall on Wednesday last with about forty ladies in attendance. Three quilts were completed, as well as a number of articles of sewing.

Mrs. W. L. Currier, honorary Secretary of Ottawa Red Cross, accompanied by Mrs. Sheldon, visited the meeting, and displayed finished articles of clothing of various types. Mrs. Currier brought an encouraging message to the Society, and gave an instructive and practical talk on the articles on display.

Mrs. Crerar voiced the appreciation of the meeting to the Ottawa ladies. Wartime refreshments were served.

ONE OLD TUBE CAN PLAY PART

What good is an old toothpaste tube? Here's the answer, from an official of the War Salvage Department.

"These tubes have served us once but will do so again if we let them. They will help fight our battles. Consider what one tube will do. It will supply enough tin to line the water bottles of twenty soldiers. One tube will plate twenty shell cases. A number of them will do even more—sixty tubes provide all the tin necessary for solder in the electrical connections of a Flying Fortress."

You can leave your old tubes at the local drug store.

ORMOND B. Y. P. U.

MORE WOOL IS NEEDED
for Canada's War Effort

CO-OPERATE IN ONTARIO'S EFFORT TO PRODUCE MORE WOOL. HELP INCREASE THE SIZE AND NUMBER OF ONTARIO SHEEP FLOCKS

PRODUCING more wool to clothe Canada's fighting forces and her civil population is a vital task which deserves the earnest consideration of every Ontario farmer. A brief study of the wool production of North America and of world conditions occasioned by the war reveals an alarming situation that calls for straight thinking and forthright speaking.

North American Wool Production 1941		North American Wool Consumption 1941
Canada	19,200,000 lbs.	Canada	109,000,000 lbs.
United States	455,000,000 lbs.	United States	977,000,000 lbs.
Total	474,200,000 lbs.	Total	1,086,000,000 lbs.

DEFICIT - - - - - - 611,800,000 lbs.

You can see that with shipping space at a premium and with every merchantman a target for enemy submarines, the situation is indeed critical. More wool must be produced at home and it's up to Ontario farmers to help produce it.

The Ontario Department of Agriculture is working to effect an increase of 25% in this province. To do this, all present flocks must be kept, and in addition, 110,000 ewe lambs from the 1942 crop must be kept on the farm. If every present flock owner kept three ewes from this crop, most of the increase would be obtained. But since many sheep owners cannot accommodate any more animals, the Department is asking Ontario farmers to establish 1,000 new flocks which will absorb all surplus ewe lambs. Your Agricultural Representative will be able to put you in touch with men who have lambs for sale or men who wish to purchase them.

In establishing 1,000 new flocks, it is intended that expansion take place by counties in proportion to the present sheep population. You will see what expansion must be accomplished in your county in the lists below.

THE RAM POLICY

Any farmer starting a new flock of 15 ewe lambs or more may secure a ram for two years on loan from the Dominion Government.

CONSULT YOUR AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE

For complete information about securing ewes, ewe lambs, or rams, or about any part you can play in helping Canada produce more wool, consult your county Agricultural Representative or W. P. Watson, Live Stock Branch, Dept. of Agriculture, Toronto.

HON. P. M. DEWAN
MINISTER

W. R. REEK
DEPUTY MINISTER

ONTARIO DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

FARMERS
SHEEP!

This is an urgent appeal to all farmers throughout the counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, to help Canada meet the wool situation by raising flocks of sheep at once. Farmers, act quickly and either start raising sheep if you are not already doing so, or add to your present flock. Remember, it is absolutely necessary for our country to have an adequate supply of wool to clothe Canadians on both the home and fighting fronts. In raising sheep you will be doing two things — helping Canada's war effort and making a profit.

Canada's Wool Situation Is Critical

The wool situation in Canada is positively alarming owing to the extreme danger and difficulty of importing wool from Australia and New Zealand in quantities sufficent to meet the ever increasing demands. Here is the gloomy picture: In 1941, Canada produced 19,200,000 pounds of wool, and used 109,000,000 pounds. During the same year the United States produced 455,000,000 pounds and used 977,000,000 pounds. It is seen that consumption in these two great countries exceeded production by approximately 600,000,000 pounds. The situation is indeed critical with shipping at a premium.

Increase Your Flock At Once

Farmers, here is how to establish a sheep flock or add to your present flock: The Agricultural Supplies Board, Ottawa, will pay freight charges from points of origin to points of distribution on ewes or ewe lambs purchased for breeding. In addition, any farmer starting a flock containing a minimum of 15 females to be loaned a suitable ram for the first two seasons, such ram to remain the property of the Dominion Government. For complete instructions, write to J. A. Dalrymple, Agricultural representative for Alexandria, or to F. H. Cotton, agricultural representative for Morrisburg. You will be furnished with complete information on request.

Wool Is Needed By Canada--Now

Your country needs wool for both civilian and army purposes. Unless Canada is able to increase her production of wool, her war effort will be seriously impaired. So urgent is this problem of raising more wool becoming that the Dominion Government guarantees that the price for wool will not be lower for the duration of the war, and for one year following the duration, than present market prices. This guarantee will assure you of a good and steady profit — So act now!

Counties' Farmers Urged To Help Avert Wool Shortage

Farmers in Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Counties are urged to meet the increased wartime demand for Canadian wool by increasing the size of flocks or starting new flocks of sheep. Wool supplies in the Dominion are short, so short indeed, that drastic reduction in clothing is forecast if additional supplies of wool are not forthcoming to provide raw material for manufacturing civilian and army needs. To alleviate the condition the Department of Agriculture is prepared to co-operate with farmers in two ways; increasing sheep and urging protective measures against dogs.

A challenge is issued farmers in the wool crises. Insufficient numbers of sheep were raised in the three United Counties last year to provide wool to cloth the population. Statistics reveal there were but 1,122 sheep one year or older in Dundas county last December. Stormont county boasted but 1,215 sheep and Glengarry county 1,645 sheep in the same age bracket. It is this condition which farmers are called upon to remedy by increasing flocks of sheep by 25 per cent. in the current year. Not only are district farmers urged to co-operate to fill the wool wartime demand, but elsewhere in the province a similar appeal is issued.

Name Committee

A United Counties committee established to promote increases in flocks and introduce new flocks of sheep wherever possible is now operating. Members of the committee are Warden Alfred Deeks, Reeve W. J. McConnell of Winchester Township; Reeve Wallace Gallinger, Osnabruck Township; and Deputy Reeve Wilfred McDonald, of Charlottenburg Township.

How will farmers be assisted in increasing flocks of sheep 25 per cent? The first measures of the agriculture Supplies Board, under authority of the War Measures Act, is to pay freight charges from points of origin to points of distribution on ewes or ewe lambs purchased for breeding. The second measure is to the extent they are available, to pay costs of purchase and distribution of suitable rams for loaning to farmers starting new flocks of sheep. Under the latter any farmer starting a flock containing a minimum of 5 females will be loaned a suitable ram for the first two seasons. The ram is Dominion property and the offspring belong to the farmer.

The United Counties council is urging all local councils within the three counties to pass by-laws prohibiting dogs running at large for the duration of the war.

Believing sheep more essential to the war effort than dogs, local councils are in receipt of a letter from the United Counties' council urging the necessity of the dog bylaw.

"The Committee of Council together with the district representatives of agriculture find upon investigation that many farmers hesitate to start new flocks of sheep due to the dog menace. May we point out that sheep are much more essential to our war effort than dogs. Don't you agree?" reads the council letter submitted to United Counties municipalities. Continuing, it says: "The committee realize the grave necessity of increasing our sheep flocks, and have directed the undersigned (warden and county clerk) to urgently request all local municipalities within our counties to pass a bylaw prohibiting dogs running at large for the duration of the war. Local municipalities have the authority to pass such a bylaw."

Canada's Wool Requirements

Faced with constantly increasing needs of wool for war purposes, Canada is making every effort to provide substitutes for wool, is restricting the use of wool for civilian and non-essential purposes, and is appealing to all sheep owners to increase the size of their flocks and to use good-fleeced rams in order that more of the wool urgently required in this country may be produced here.

At least 85 per cent. of Canada's present wool requirements come from overseas—chiefly from Australia and New Zealand. War developments threaten the supply lines over which this wool moves to this continent. Though certain wool reserves have been built up in Canada (and are still being accumulated) since the outbreak of war, the cutting off or reduction of overseas supplies might lead to a serious wool shortage in Canada by 1943 unless Canada can produce much larger quantities by that time. If imports can be continued and there is increased production of wool in Canada, the new Canadian Wool Board Limited will continue to build up the reserve stocks of wool so urgently needed in wartime.

Entire Canadian Wool Clip To Be Controlled

In order that all of Canada's wool may now be directed into the channels where it is most needed and that the wool of every producer shall be paid for on an equitable basis, Canadian Wool Board Limited has been established under the Wartime Prices and Trade Board to control the marketing of all wool in Canada for the duration of the war and one year thereafter.

The bulk of the wool, of course, will be utilized for military purposes. Approximately 80 per cent. of the military wools are of the so-called "cross-bred" type. As, however, there has been a considerable increase in Canadian combing capacity since the beginning of the war, it should not be necessary to go outside of Canada for a market for any of the wool which Canada can produce.

All Wool To Be Paid For On Graded Basis

Under the new arrangements, Canadian Wool Board Limited will buy all the wool produced in Canada except that which is needed by the grower himself for the making of articles for himself and family. All wool will be handled through registered warehouses licensed by the Dominion Department of Agriculture and the producer will be paid on the basis of grade and weight.

To facilitate the marketing of the wool under wartime conditions, certain changes have been made in the grades for Eastern Canadian wool. There will be only two basic grades for Eastern wools, for example: "Military Style Wool" and "Felting Wool" —but there will also be five "reject" grades. "Military Style Wool" will include clean wool from such breeds as Oxfords, Shropshires, Hampshires, Dorsets, Cheviots and Suffolks—all medium-wool breeds. "Felting Wool" will include clean, long-stapled wool from the Leicester, Lincoln, and cotswold breeds. "Rejects" will include cotted, grey and black, seedy and burry, dead and taggy wools.

No changes have been made in the grades of Western wools.

Prices To The Producer Increased

To encourage greater production of wool in Canada and to provide for increased production costs under wartime conditions, Canadian Wool Board Limited has prepared a new schedule of prices for the 1942 clip of wool. These provide returns for 1942 wool sold by any producer that are in most cases 8 to 10 per cent. higher than those received for 1941 wool marketed on a graded basis.

Further, Canadian Wool Board Limited gives the assurance that the prices named for Canadian wool (cleaned, scoured basis) for 1942 will not be lowered for the duration of the war and one year thereafter.

To make these new prices possible, Government funds become necessary as Canadian Wool Board Limited must sell wool to cosumers at not more than the "ceiling prices" established during the base period of September 15 to October 11, 1941, thus creating a loss on the sale of wool purchased at the advanced prices.

Prices set for 1942 for the different grades follow:

Eastern Canada:

Military Style Wool—30c per lb., Ontario and Quebec; 31c per lb. in Maritime Provinces.

Felting Style Wool—33c per lb. throughout.

Four Main Reject Grades—21c to 25c per lb. in all Eastern Provinces.

Tags—7c per lb. in all Eastern Provinces.

Handling and Settlement

All wool sold commercially must pass through a Registered Warehouse for grading. Farmers may deliver or forward their wool direct to a Registered Warehouse, or they may make use of the services of a Licensed Operator (i.e. agent, dealer, country collector, fieldman, Association, acting on behalf of a Registered Warehouse).

No producer should release his wool to any person, association or company not duly licensed; and since it is not possible for one Licensed Operator to offer more or less than any other Licensed Operator, subject to grade and transportation, every producer will receive exactly the same price for his wool regardless of where he may be located.

No one is authorized to collect wool unless he is licensed by the Canadian Wool Board Limited. No Licensed Operators authorized to purchase wool—he acts on behalf of a Registered Warehouse. Operators must give an official receipt for their wool to each person from whom it was received. Offers for outright purchase or for purchase on a flat rate must not be made, and operators violating this rule should be reported to the Canadian Wool Board Limited.

The net receiving weights at a Registered Warehouse on Government-tested scales constitute the basis of settlement, by grade, direct to the producer, and settlement can only be made through a Reistered Warehouse. Full settlement will be made immediately the individual clip is graded, but in the interim an advance payment may be made to the producer. This advance must not exceed 25 cents per pound in Eastern Canada or 20 cents per pound in Western Canada, and it can only be made as under arrangement between the Registered Warehouse and the licensed operator.

MARCHING MEN

Marching, Marching, men are passing by,
Trumpets blown—flags flying to the sky,
They have heard stern duty's call,
And they march because they must,
Lest their world be turned to dust,
So they give their life,—their all.

Marching, Marching, men are passing by,
Do we heed the message, or ask the reason why?
Or are we wrapped in slumber,
With heads buried in the sand,
Let us hearken to the call, give our time, our gold, our all,
Before it is too late
To save our honor and our land.

—Dorothy Sproule.

Because of the reduction of materials available for the manufacture of Duro Pumping Systems, our many dealers have been requested to place the few new Duro Pumps we can allot each one with prospective purchasers whose war-time farm production can be materially increased by having running water.

These dealers, because we cannot supply as many new Duro Pumps as they can sell, will be anxious to keep every Duro Pump in their territory in good running order, so that it will give maximum uninterrupted service.

The Duro dealer in your vicinity will be glad to service and replace worn parts in your Duro Pump. Have it checked now to insure a continuation of the satisfactory service to which you are accustomed.

Pilot Officer Clarke, who is well known in this district, signed up for Active Service with the R.C.A.F. last September. He received his wings with his commission.

Old Newspapers Not Wanted.

National Salvage Headquarters announces that for the present the need for old newspapers has been met, and the public is asked to defer further collection until supply and demand call for it. Wrapping paper and paper bags are still wanted. Everyone is urged not to let up on salvage of the other essential war materials—fats, bones, scrap rubber, scrap metal and steel, rags and bottles.

Birthday Party.

A surprise party was held Monday evening, August 3rd, at the home of Mr. Robert Rennick, in honor of his sister, Mrs. Geo. Vance, of Lakewood, Ohio, the occasion being her birthday. She was the recipient of many gifts from relatives and friends who called, also messages of congratulations and best wishes from those from a distance. Mrs. Vance and Mr. Rennick are the only two left of a family of ten, and the former is spending two weeks with her brother.

More Men Called Up.

Over the week-end another large group of local and district young men received their notice from the Department of National Defence to present themselves for a medical examination, pending official notice to report for military training. Included in the list were: Arnold Hogaboam, Clair Carkner, Arthur Summers, Victor Johnston, Bert Link, Willis Robinson, Josslyn Dixon, Stanley Gibson, Clarke Scott, Orval Christie, Cyrille Lamoureux, Gordon Baldwin Jr., Archie O'Neil, Robt. Rennick Jr., and Frank Merkley.

Died Suddenly.

A few minutes after she suffered a severe heart seizure on St. Lawrence Street, near the home of Mr. E. M. Shaver, on Wednesday afternoon last, Miss Helena Ellacott passed away at the home of her brother, Rev. J. A. L. Ellacott, Rector of St. Matthias' Anglican Church. Deceased was in her 74th year and had been visiting with her brother for the past three months. Her home was in Kingston and formerly in Montreal.

On Friday evening the funeral service was held at the Rectory, with Rev. G. Oliver Davies, of Morrisburg, officiating, after which the remains were taken to Montreal for interment in Mount Royal Cemetery.

The late Miss Ellacott is survived by two sisters, Mrs. R. Travers, of Kington, and Mrs. W. S. Weary, of Ottawa; also four brothers, Charles, of Kingston, George E., of Montreal; Victor, of Indiana, U.S.A., and Rev. J. A. L. Ellacott, of Winchester.

Will Preach Here On Sunday.

Rev. H. S. Rodney, B.A., of Montreal, will be the guest preacher at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening. Mr. Rodney is a Winchester boy who has made a success of his vocation. He is a brilliant speaker and his many friends will welcome this opportunity of once more hearing him preach from the pulpit of the church which inspired him to enter the ministry. Mr. Allan Thomson, B. A., pastor of St. Paul's extends an invitation to everyone to attend the service on Sunday evening.

Russell Marriage.

At half-past three o'clock on Saturday afternoon the wedding was solemnized by Rev. Mr. Carter in North Russell United Church of Miss Christina Jean Hay, to Guardsman Willard McDiarmid Blair, C.G.G. The bride, who is the only daughter of Mrs. Hay and the late George Hay of Russell, was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Russell M. Hay. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Blair, of Osgoode, and is well-known in Winchester, where he played hockey in the Town League for several seasons.

"There's only one thing wrong with this canoe," said the soldier to the sweet young thing on the river.

"And what's that?" she asked.

"Well," he replied, "if I try to kiss you in this it might capsize."

The girl sat silent for a few minutes. Then she remarked: "I can swim."

"Papa said that you had more than brains."

"Good joke. I'm broke, ha! ha!"

"Oh! yes; he added that, too."

To My Milk Customers

Friends and Customers—I know you are all wondering when I'll be back delivering milk. I am still negotiating with the authorities to get a license, and where there is a will, there is a way—they can knock me down, but they can't keep me down, and when I finally get things ironed out my prices and service are going to amaze you. Please be patient for a while longer.
