CRUMBS from Graham's Loaf

When Al Beardsall dropped his guard last Monday night and the power went off, we worried. Just last weekend we had been expounding the infallibility of hydro to some friends and neighbours. They had dropped in at the Castle to gnaw a bone and quaff a beaker of milk. It was our positive opinion, and here at the Castle we are really positive, that hydro affairs are now in such good shape that outages, as lights out periods are quaintly called, would last only 40 minutes.

Our intimate companion of bed and board made several pointed remarks before the world was bright again. It would appear we had once more opened the trap and let the event prove us wrong. But power was restored in five minutes less than two hours. Not too bad for a major line break on the feeder lines running up from the Front.

It seems a long time ago that electric light was something only the rich village people could afford. Out in the country we lived in a world of coal oil lamps and smokey chimneys. All winter routines were centred around the lantern in the barn. Two managed to light up enough stable to tend 30 hungry cows and calves. One was plenty to tend the horses and the hens were always fed before dark anyway.

We had a big lamp that hung over the winter kitchen table. It provided a remarkable amount of illumination. Four kids either read or studied around it after the cloth had been draped with the fringes reaching to the floor. The lamp moved up and down on a counter weight and when it was finally adjusted for father's eyes to read the paper, everybody was set. The hired girl darned at the edge of illumination; she wasn't much for reading. Mother would catch up on the latest library book and the rest of us would take up the mysteries of reading and writing.

Bedtime posed a continuous problem. Brother and this ancient tried always to read a few more continued chapters in the old Chums annual. It was printed in type so small one's eyes needed to be good; to read in bed with a tired coal oil lamp was trickey. We would cover the stove pipe hole with a couple of socks so eagle eyes would not see the light, then read along page by page together. Generally we would manage another chapter before our eyes would blind with either effort or sleep.

Still and all, the change to electric living has some advantages. One of the worries in the cold winter nights was what to do about the insistent calls of Nature, especially if it had been a hot cocoa evening. Before the days of indoor plumbing, it posed quite a problem and without either immediate light or running water, running water developed into a hazard. Various commodius appliances were at hand, but again the lack of light offered only a partial solution to the dark. We sometimes worry we have it too luxurious here at the Castle what with our built-in creek.

The chores that accompanied coal oil lamps were astounding. Women prided themselves on their shining lamp chimneys and every morning the ritual began. All the lamps were lined up at the kitchen table. The chimney department took over with hot soapy water, soft cloths and finally last week's "Record." Nothing like an old newspaper to polish glass. In the meantime the coal oil department headed for the can of oil out back in the woodshed. Here each lamp was carefully filled with the amber fluid and readied for the next night.

We had a tender pointing finger for years because of the coal oil. We were ordered to fill the lamps one Saturday morning. Nothing to it, except the oil was slow running, it was ten below in the shed, and why not just unscrew the little faucet a bit more. We did, the thing flew out on the floor and with our immediate presence of mind, we plugged the running oil with the nearest finger. Then bellowed for help. When help arrived to tip up the can, we were sporting the most peculiar finger on the Finch Road. It was nicely frozen up to the first joint and looked like a chunk of cod fish.

For weeks we stripped instead of milking with that hand. To this day we have an aversion against cold oil, castor, coal or old.

4-H Clubs organize for up-coming season

Once again it's time for the organization of some of the 4-H Agricultural Clubs in Dundas County. 4-H Forestry Clubs are to be organized by mid-January.

The 4-H Club movement in Caanda is a nation-wide educational program for young people associated with farming, homemaking and community activities.

The name 4-H is derived from the first letter of the four words, Head, Heart, Hands and Health. The chief objective of 4-H Agricultural Club work in Canada is the development of the Club member through training in agriculture and citizenship.

More specifically, the 4-H Forestry Clubs try to stimulate interest in the conservation and better management of farm woodlots, the reforestation of non-agricultural land and planting of windbreaks and shelter belts or snow hedges.

There is a choice of projects which the member can do at home. Some plant and care for one hundred trees as a windbreak while others thin and improve a half-acre of woodlot on the home or neighbouring farm.

Educational meetings are held during the Spring and Summer months under the guidance of the Zone Forester of the Department of Lands and Forests.

Another feature of some 4-H Forestry Clubs is a field trip to a pulp and paper mill or plywood manufacturing mill.

The Achievement Day exhibit consists of a collection of twenty forest trees leaves and ten wood samples of forest trees.

If you were 12 years of age by January 1, 1967, and will not be 21 by December 31, 1967, and are interested in joining this 4-H Club, you should contact the agricultural representative, W. D. Keys, P.O. Box 488, Winchester.

North Stormont High School Board hold inaugural meeting

Murray Rowe, safety officer of the Department of Transport, Ottawa, was the featured speaker at the inaugural meeting of N.S.D.H.S. board. The meeting was held in the school at Finch.

The Driver Training program will get underway almost immediately at the school. Mr Rowe explained in detail the workings of the program and answered questions of board members. A member of the staff, Mr R. Lalonde, will be the teacher-instructor.

Finch Community Centre Rink will be used again this year by pupils for hockey and skating at stated periods.

All former members of the board are back on the job for 1967. They are Roy E. Rupert, chairman; A. McElheran, vice chairman; A. Clouthier, R. Simmons, Don Smirle, board members, and A. V. Empey again holds the position of secretary-treasurer.

Demonstration lighting to start January 28th

The Centennial lighting program demonstration slated for this week in the village will now begin next Thursday. It has taken a little longer than anticipated to get materials ready for the various displays and the date has had to be revised.

The object of the demonstration is to show what kind of lights can be used for outdooor lighting, not only on Centennial but at all times. The fixtures will be sold by Chesterville Hydro to any one wishing to light up their premises. Post lamps, floods and many kinds and various types of decorative lights will be seen. Buildings on show will be Community Hall, St. Mary's Catholic Church, Trinity United Church and at least two private houses of the village including the residences of Gordon Lannin and Robert Coleman.

Junior Farmers of Dundas hold first meeting

Election of officers saw the appointment of Bruce Garlough as president at the initial meeting of Dundas County Junior Farmers. His vice president is Lyman Holmes; secretary, Shirley Levere; treasurer, Stella Robinson; press reporters, Joan Farlinger and Lyman Holmes. The position of provincial director is filled by Charles Farlinger.

Joan Farlinger reported at length on an interesting time spent at Albion Hills Conservation School Dec. 27 to 30. Chas. Farlinger attended the Toronto Junior Farmers conference January 6 and 7 and he told of his visit to the city.

The usual business of the evening was completed by the officers and a program of recreation was provided by Shirley Levere.

O'Shaughnessy, Prescott; Mrs Ross Dafoe (Bessie), Ingleside, and Mrs Gordon Smith (Mary), of Morrisburg. There are 11 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren. We join their host of friends in wishing them a most enjoyable Centennial year. —Record Staff Photo.

Centennial Queen program

The Rebekahs in co-operation with the Centennial Committee of the village are planning a big carnival on the park rink for January 28. One of the main features of the affair will be the choice of a Centennial Queen.

Applications are now being accepted for the competition. Mrs Ross Casselman is in charge of this part of the program and her phone number is 448-2619. All entries should be in the hands of the committee by January 26. The Centennial Queen must be between the ages of 14 and 18. Organizations can sponsor an entry if they wish. The judging will take place at the Carnival on January 28 in the Park in the evening.

The Centennial Queen will have other duties during the Centennial winter programs. The various events that are being organized can always use a nice young lady to add grace and beauty to the affair. It is hoped a large number of entries will make the judges' job difficult.

Tuesday games close in North Stor. Hockey play

The North Stormont Hockey League double-bill at the community Centre in Finch on Tuesday night featured everything the average fan enjoys seeing. Close hard fought games, plenty of thrills with a minimum of penalties. Games for the winners were not decided until the final bell.

In the opening game Avonmore got the jump on Finch at the 5-minute mark on a goal by Bob Grant from Connelly and Robertson to take the first period 1-0. In the middle frame Finch outscored Avonmore 3-0 on tallies by Rocky Martin from St. Pierre and Smith. Mike Malepa on a pass from Martin and Shaver and by Rombough on a relay from St. Pierre and Vollrath. Avonmore registered the lone goal of the final 20, after three minutes by Brian Robillard with Grant and Doug Robillard earning the assists. Each team had three penalties with Robertson of Avonmore picking up one 10-minute misconduct tag.

With the score 2-all in the 1st period, 3-3 in the middle frame and 4-all in the third period, the final game of the evening between Lunenburg and Chesterville was the best game of the season. Ernie MacMillan uncorked the first goal of the night for Chesterville after 11 minutes of the opening round with Doug Thompson and Floyd Dingwall getting the assists. Percy Brownlee replied for Lunenburg on a pass from Moore and Warner as the clock showed 14 minutes. Chesterville came right back after 18 minutes as Bob Henderson hammered one in with the assist going to Don Munro. Linden Wells evened it up at 2-all one minute later on a pass from Harry Fetterley.

Chesterville got the first goal of the second period at the 2-minute mark from Reg Hutt on a hand-off from Imrie and Fred Harper followed by Brownlee's second of the evening after 6 minutes from Tom Moore and Prieur.

Tangle on King Street

Slippery roads make driving hazardous. Early this week three vehicles got together rather forcibly on King Street.

Chas. Marcell was travelling south, Perso Cleaners' truck was going north and Cam Thompson's Cadillac was just parked at the curb quietly. Something slipped and when the crunch had settled, Perso had a dent and the Cadillac door was in for repairs. The damage to the Marcell car was modest.

An editorial on Page Two wonders aloud about the efficiency of OPP service for the town. Local constable Shane was in Cornwall on police court duty. OPP Long Sault detachment was called. The call went in from here at 10.35 a.m. A cruiser arrived via Iroquois at 11.10. During this time King Street was blocked to traffic.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our neighbours, friends and everyone else for helping out when we lost our barn by fire. This is greatly appreciated.

Donald and Eleanor Dingwall.

OPINIONS . . .
OURS AND OTHERS

Small villages and the OPP

A new system is to be tried by the Ontario government. Policing of small municipalities having one-man police forces will be allowed to do away with their regular man and use the nearest OPP detachment. Local by-laws would then be administered by a peace officer or someone not necessarily a police officer.

No matter from what angle this newspaper looks at the proposition, it has little merit.

Chesterville has been well served with the present system. While a policeman's lot is not a happy one, it must be admitted we have had good policing. Constable Shane is a graduate of the Police College, the government establishment; he is a former member of the OPP and has served the town long and faithfully. His hours are crazy but don't try anything at 2 a.m. or you may find Shane on your tail. The present constable is well qualified to serve the community. Much more so than an occasional caller in a black and white car. The fact of distance alone leaves the idea of OPP service a thing to be questioned. When a disturbance erupts, and they do, just who is going to take the phone in hand, spend five minutes trying to get a signal through the Bell system to Long Sault, then wait until a policeman 12 miles away eases his way into the village. Especially when the average disinterested policeman will not hurry into a fracas. All too often his attitude is to take it easy and let tempers settle. Broken furniture and a kick or two in the groin are incidental.

This village boasts two hotels that serve intoxicating liquids. One of the features of the evening is the exodus from these places of refreshment. It is then that tempers sometime get a bit out of hand and the presence of the local cop has a very soothing effect. We wonder if the influence of the OPP would be felt to the same degree when they serve the town from a travelling patrol car somewhere down by Newington or over at Cloverdale.

The new system of policing is of little use to us. Our distances are too great; it even took ten minutes to get in a patrol when thieves tipped the local bank for over $50,000 last Summer. At that time the Long Sault detachment was alerted while the robbery was in progress, because our local man was taking a rare half-day off.

We will await the next move of the planners in Toronto. Anytime now they will be ordering us to sleep on the other side of the bed and let the wife use the side nearest the register.

Sewage problems multiply

The cry to clean up pollution in the Nation River has been strong and continuous. This is as it should be. The Nation, like most small streams in the area, turns into something less than an inviting water course when the flow drops in the Summer.

The Nestlé disposal plant is in operation now and in process of testing for ability. Great things are expected of it and engineering skills have been spent lavishly to ensure the system operates as hoped.

The village sewage problems are still with us. But following some studies by the OWRC, it almost appears that the time has come to look closely at the installation of at least a partial system.

The engineering firm of J. L. Richards and Associates, Ottawa, have presented a plan to the Water Resources Commission. The basic features of the system would be to collect the north and south mains at the foot of Water Street below the dam site, pump the sewage through a force main north then east to a lagoon system situated north-west of the present village dump.

The costs have been estimated for a partial system. This would include Main, King, Joseph, part of Queen, Water, a river crossing and a short main line as far west on Victoria as the McCloskey Hotel corner.

The consulting engineers have prepared a presentation for the local government. A few revisions have been made, and by next week, the village hopes to make an appeal to OWRC for the commission to build a partial sewage system.

The province comes into the picture by building all the system known as the main lines. These will include the section at the pumping station, the force main to the lagoon, the land for the lagoons, 40 acres, and the lagoons themselves. This system then would be leased back to the village for ever at an annual charge against each property.

The big question is whether the town can afford the $150,000-odd cost. Final word will come from the Ontario Municipal Board when that body examines our other debts. But the time has come that something needs to be done. The next few weeks will see some interesting developments.

ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: I am not a very good writer and you can tell from this letter I haven't had much schooling. But I have some good ideas about living that might help your readers who are upset about the state of the world.

Too many people worry over things they can't do anything about. They worry about other people smoking, a neighbour who drinks too much, long hair and tight pants on teen-age boys, short skirts on women, the war in Vietnam, prices in grocery stores, unidentified flying objects and dirty movies. Just name it and somebody will worry about it.

My idea is this: If each one of us would go to work to improve himself the whole world would be in better shape. I know where I need improvement better than anyone else. Worrying takes a lot of energy out of a person and it doesn't accomplish anything. Just think how wonderful it would be if all that wasted energy went toward mending our own faults and being more kind, more honest and more helpful to others.

I know I didn't express myself very well, but I hope you will fix up the words and print my idea. Thank you very much.—Two Cents Worth.

Dear T.C. Worth: There's nothing wrong with the way you express yourself, and your idea is well worth passing along. Thank you for writing. Socrates couldn't have said it better.

Dear Ann Landers: Today is our son's 16th birthday and it is the saddest day of my life. I just left him in a school for delinquent boys and I am heading home, 1,600 miles away. I've had some time to reflect on what went wrong and I would like to tell you.

My husband and I are hard-working, honest people. I'm a registered nurse. We have five children and I've always worked to supplement my husband's income. Sunday has always been just another work day for me so I wasn't a church-goer. Consequently, our children didn't go either. I see now what a big mistake it was.

Our son began to run with a bad crowd. He did poorly in school. I was too busy to keep an eye on him. His father was not strong enough to discipline him. I knew the boy was drinking but I couldn't do anything about it.

Two weeks ago the principal telephoned. Our son had been out all night and came to school Monday morning intoxicated. He did some damage in school and the principal had to call the police. The boy was arrested. The judge gave us permission to place him in a Christian home for delinquent boys rather than a reformatory.

So, this is the story of a mother's failure, Ann. It adds up to no religious training and no discipline in the early years. You have my permission to print this letter if you think it might help someone else.—Heartsick.

Dear Heartsick: When a mother asks if she should work outside the home I never give a flat yes or no answer unless I have all the facts. Some mothers who must work because of economic necessity bring up children who are first-rate citizens. In other situations, the extra income is not worth the human cost. The mother would have been wise to forego the luxuries and stay at home and take care of her youngsters.

One thing is certain, however. Delinquents don't get that way overnight. A working mother should be alert to the signs of trouble and get outside help long before the police get into the act.

OPP Report

OPP officers in Dundas County last week patrolled 8483 miles of highway and secondary roads in 594 duty hours. As a result 48 traffic charges were laid and 28 warnings issued. Three property damage accidents were reported and investigated. No person suffered personal injury.

Two thefts which occurred during the past week are presently under investigation. Officers also answered one call to a disturbance caused by fighting and six other calls arising from various circumstances.

A total of 19 hours was spent in the courts with 50 convictions being registered.

This weeks tip for the driver — The Highway Traffic Act states: "No person shall park or stand a vehicle on a highway in such a manner as to interfere with the movement of traffic or the clearing of snow from the highway.

In addition to being a nuisance and a danger to snow plow operators, a vehicle left on the highway is a menace to other motorists using the highway. They can and will be towed away at the owner's expense, and the owner is liable to be charged".

Your Federal Report

Mrs Jean Wadds, M.P.

This was Sir John A. Macdonald Week.

On the eve of Sir John A.'s 152nd birthday, Conservative Party historian, Heath Macquarrie, expressed his disappointment that the Prime Minister had not announced a national holiday in recognition of the birthday of our first Prime Minister.

He quoted the magnificent tribute at the time of Sir John A.'s death by Sir Wilfred Laurier — "I think it can be asserted that for the supreme art of governing men, Sir John Macdonald was gifted as few men in any land and in any age were gifted; gifted with the most high of qualities, qualities which would have made him famous wherever exercised and which would have shone all the more conspicuously the larger the theatre."

On Sir John's actual birthday, January 11, the first business of the House of Commons was tribute to him.

The Prime Minister had journeyed to Kingston to celebrate the occasion and the Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Hon. Paul Martin, spoke on behalf of the Government. His warm, unequivocal praise was heartwarming to all who hold dear the memory of our first Prime Minister's contribution to Canadian affairs.

Mr Martin said:

"That Canada exists today is probably the result of the effort and determination of Sir John A. Macdonald more than any other man . . .

"We remember Macdonald chiefly as the principal architect of our Confederation . . .

"What is the relevance of Macdonald's sharahter and arhievements for Canadians today? Many of the problems with which he dealt are still with us—how to ensure unity while preserving the diversity which enriches Canadian life."

The greatest surprise of the day, and probably the most indicative, was the strong statement by Real Caouette, M.P. for Villeneuve, Quebec. Mr Caouette is considered somethinb of a stormy petrel with very strong French nationalistic feelings. His comments were most encouraging and could only have been accepted with good grace from someone with his relationship to the Province of Quebec. He said:

"Mr Speaker, this brings me to say that in 1967 on the day we are celebrating Sir John A. Macdonald's 152nd birthday, we find people, particularly in the Province of Quebec — the Province where 75 Federal Members come from — who seek to spread discord, misunderstanding, error and lies by trying to affix on the back of cars small plates that say taht Confederation was and is one hundred years of injustice in Canada, yes, for the Province of Quebec: 100 years of injustice for the Province of Quebec . . .

"Mr Speaker, there have undoubtedly been cases of injustice since the beginning of Confederation, but it cannot be said that we have suffered from injustice for a hundred years . . . If we had to pay our share to belong to Confederation, we also benefitted from Confederation during the hundred years of its existence . . .

"Mr Speaker, as we celebrate the birthday of Sir John A. Macdonald, I feel reluctant to mention what is going on in certain areas of the Province of Quebec, particularly in Montreal, where bombs go off, where abusive language is used towards everybody, where even self-respect is gone. I am against such goings-on on the part of young people, most of whom are under the spell of some educators or professors who came here from Marxist or other countries of Europe, Asia, from Algeria or from African countries, and who are teaching revolution to our young people."

Good for Mr Caouette! For him to say that he is against some of the events in the Province of Quebec will hearten others there who feel likewise.

Sir John A.'s birthday was an encouraging day. Let us hope that this Centennial year brings out the best in us all.

COSTS CUT IN DRY PAPER PROCESS

Karl Kroeyer, Danish industrialist and inventor, announced at Aarhus, Denmark, that he has developed a new method of making paper which practically eliminates the use of water and which he claims could cut manufacturing costs by 40 per cent.

About 100 tons of water are normally used to produce one ton of paper. Under Kroeyer's system, water is replaced by air and static electricity. Kroeyer said it is now possible to make paper "in the middle of the Sahara Desert."

'HOCKEY HIGHLIGHTS'

Millionaires out to prove O.D.H.A. wrong

Back in June 1966 when Maxville Millianaires made application for the Ottawa Central Junior A. League the application was turned down because the Millionaires had no Jr. B experience, but nearing the half-way mark in the schedule they hold a 10-point lead over the second place Prescott Royals.

With players like Kenny MacDonald, Dee Leonard and Donnie Benton, all of whom have played Junior A hockey with Hawkesbury in the Ottawa Central Junior League, the team certainly has gained a lot of experience.

Apart from these players they have some of the finest centre men in the League. Any one of these players could step into the Ottawa Central League and not look out of place. Players such as Donny Blaney, Ron Boseleil, Johnny Marperrison, Bruce Munro and Art McQuaig, to mention a few, all fit into this category.

When the 1967-68 seson rolls around, certainely from this corner, a great deal of consideration will have to be given to this club. The management of Maxville Millionaires feel very confident that the Millionaires can win the Ottawa District Hockey Assoc. crown this season.

A lot of credit has to be given to John Merritt, Jim Meek, John Shaver and Jake Leonard for welding together these high flying Millionaires. It is thought also that the Millionaires could give any club in the Ottawa Central Junior A League a good run for their money.

The people of Maxville are 100% behind this club when they play in the Indian TeePee in Maxville.

Chesterville, Lunenburg take games in double-header

Finch pucksters are still searching for their first win of the season following the 3-1 defeat which Chesterville handed them in the opening round of a North Stormont Hockey League double-header on January 10.

Chesterville captured the first period 3-0 on goals by Ernie MacMillan, Fred Harper and R. Sharkey. Reg Hutt and McMillan picked up the assists. The lone Finch tally came in the second frame when Shaver's shot glanced high and in falling dropped into the net behind Peter Monast.

Larry Barkley was injured when struck on the head by a slapshot. Barkley was taken to Winchester Memorial Hospital for treatment. Twelve penalties were awarded — 7 to Chesterville and 5 to Finch.

In the nightcap, Lunenburg fattened its scoring statistics with a 19-3 win over Avonmore. The victors made sure that Villeneuve in the Avonmore nets would not have any dull moments. With 19 shots trickling in plus numerous brilliant saves, "dull moments" fails to describe his activities. Harry Fetterly had 5 for the winners, Tom Moore and Bryan McEwan netted 3 each; Percy Brownlee, George Raymond and Bun Warner added 2 each, with Wayne Armstrong and Larry Prieur pitching in singles. Assists on Lunenburg oals went to Armstrong with 4, Brownlee and Moore, 3 each, Wells and Raymond, 2 each, and Fetterly, 1.

Murray MacMillan, Ron Buchanan and Gordon Robertson scored for Avonmore, with MacMillan earning an assist on Buchanan's goal.

J. Roy and R. Fenton officiated for both games and tagged Avonmore with 4 penalties and Lunenburg with 3.

Chesterville 8, Avon. 5 Lunenburg 5, Finch 2 in N.S.H.L. play

Chesterville met Avonmore and Lunenburg played Finch in the North Stormont Hockey League double bill at Finch on Friday, January 13th.

In the opening game the teams apparently had this date in mind for the scores in the game totalled thirteen with Chesterville having eight and Avonmore 5. The winners grabbed the first period 2 to 0, losing the second 3 to 2 and coming back strongly in the final frame with a 4 to 2 lead. Chesterville marksmen were Thompson with 3, Fred Harper having 2 and Munro, James Harper and Burnside tapping in one each.

Murray MacMillan was the top ranking sniper for Avonmore with three goals, Allan Ferguson and Neil MacMillan adding one each.

In the night cap Finch sank deeper in the basement following a five to two loss to Lunenburg. The winners captured all three periods leading two to one in the first, one to nothing in the second and two to one in the final frame. Adams, McGregor, Fetterley, Moore and Brownlee had one each for Lunenburg. Dalton Ouderkirk and Mike Nalepa scored for Finch. Team standings are as follows:

Team	played	won	lost	tied	Points
Lunenburg	5	4	0	1	9
Chesterville	6	4	1	1	9
Avonmore	6	2	4	0	4
Finch	5	0	5	0	0

Maxville Millionaires increased their lead to 10 points int he St. Lawrence Junior B League on Sunday afternoon.

In the first period Maxville took a 5 to 1 lead on goals by Don Blaney, 1, Donnie Benton, 2, and 2 goals by Kenny McDonald. Cardinals goal was scored by John Arnott.

Maxville increased their lead to 6 to 1 in the 2nd period on a goal by Kenny McDonald. In the third period Lee Leonard scored to make it 7 to 1 before John Arnott and Bob Baldwin scored Cardinals two goals. Their were 17 penalties in the game with Maxville getting 9.

League action this week looks like this. The Millionaires travel to Prescott on Wednesday night, Spencerville on Saturday night and return to Maxville on Sunday afternoon for a game against Spencerville at 2.30.

North Stormont Juniors play double-header on Saturday

In a North Stormont Junior Hockey League double-header played at the Finch Community Centre on January 12th, Osnabruck Centre defeated Avonmore 6 to 4 in the first game and Finch won over Berwick, 4 to 1 in the night-cap. Roger Zeran and Bob Heagle had two each for the Centre with David Collins and Larry Ezard adding singles.

Avonmore goals came from D. Wattie with two, followed by R. McIntyre and John Ferguson with one each.

In the final game Steve St. Pierre paced the Finch attack with three goals with Ian MacLean adding a single. Phil McMillan scored the Berwick counter.

Larry Prieur and Junior Groves officiated.

N.S.H.L. president hands out suspensions

John Cameron, president of the North Stormont Hockey League announced on Monday morning that following a meeting with J. Roy, officiating referee for the Lunenburg vs game on Friday night, three-game suspensions had been awarded to Ken Dingwall and Barry Brownlee, Finch, for roughing the referee.

Dalton Ouderkirk was also suspended for one game for his part in the third period melee.

HEDGE CUTTERS

Chain saws can be quickly converted into hedge and brushwood cutters with a new attachment developed by a British compasy.

Made of stainless steel, the attachment is simple, effective and safe, and makes full use of the powerful cutting action of a chain saw — a 40-foot stretch of rough hawthorn hedge, five feet high, can be trimmed in seven minutes.

In operation, five outrigger sprags on the attachment enable the operator to have good control when sutting without the problem of snatching.

Crysler plans gala carnival set for 5-day affair

The Centennial Winter Carnival will soon start in Crysler. Meanwhile, all the organizations have chosen their couples, which each hope will be elected as Mr and Mrs "Bonhomme Carnaval."

Mr and Mrs Roger Ouimet were chosen by the "Cercle des Fermieres"; Mr and Mrs Romeo Brisson by the Community Centre; Mr and Mrs Hector Masse by Parent - Teacher Assoc.; Mr and Mrs Amede by "Club 60," Mr and Mrs Andre St. Pierre by "Les Lacordaires."

The school will select a girl who can be any girl from 12 to 14 as Snow Fairy. This young lady as well as one of the couples will be chosen by the number of tickets sold by each association. Tickets are now on sale for major prizes, for some lucky winner.

The carnival this year will start on Sunday, January 29, by an opening mass, with last year's Queen, Miss Eva Landry, a special guest.

"Club 60" has organized a card party for Sunday night.

On Monday, January 30, a sleigh ride, and a dance, supervised by Parents and Teachers French Associations will be held.

The next few days of the week will be specially organized for sports.

Friday night will be the night of "Les Lacordaires." This evening will be an amateur one; the associations will help by each presenting a number, such as a play, songs, music, or an amusing skit.

Saturday night, organized by the Community Centre, a teenagers' dance will be held. The last Sunday, Feb. 5, is reserved for the Cercle des Fermieres who are now famous for their bean suppers. To end these festivities a dance for all, the old and the young, is planned. The winner of the ticket will also be revealed on this last night.

All members belonging to an association, who are organizing the carnival, are taking part. Alban Legault is treasurer, Jean Benoit is the secretary, chairman is Rev Rheal Gagnon and Mrs Juliette Champagne is publicity secretary.

If you suspect a gas leak, brush a lather of soap on the pipes. The soap will bubble at the place where the leak is located. Never use a match. That could cause an explosion.

Touch-up paint jobs are easy and neat with cotton swabs. After a paint job, remove small spatters with a turpentine-dipped swab.

Signing the register following their marriage at Westminster Presbyterian Church, Ottawa, are Mr and Mrs W. Alan MacGregor. The bride, the former Edith Irene Paul, is daughter of Mrs Robert J Paul, Perth, and the late Mr Paul, and the groom is son of Mr Hector MacGregor, Avonmore, and the late Mrs MacGregor. Rev W. R Bell officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. W. McMaster presides at meeting of Finch W. M. S.

Mrs William McMaster presided for the W.M.S. meeting of St. Luke's Presbyterian Church which was held in the Sunday School room. The scripture was read by Mrs George Rupert and Mrs Douglas MacIntyre led in prayer.

Mrs W. G. Brownlee read a paper concerning the growth of Armagh, The Presbyterian Home for Unmarried Mothers, which celebrated its tenth anniversary on July 4, 1966.

The World Day of Prayer will be held in St. Luke's on February 10th. Mr McMaster and Mrs Brownlee will meet with the ladies of Chalmer's United Church to plan the service.

Mrs McMaster urged the members to try and increase the membership this year. The auditor's report was presented by Mrs H. H. Ouderkirk and it showed that the Auxiliary had a very successful year.

A minute's silence was observed in memory of Mrs A. A. MacLean whose death occurred recently. Mrs McMaster gave a special prayer.

Miss Brenda Waldroff played a piano solo entitled "Woodland Echoes." Mrs McMaster announced that during Centennial Year a paper would be read concerning the missionaries who had pioneered in our country.

Mrs George Rupert presented the first of these papers on the interesting life of Miss Lucy Baker who has sent by the Home Mission Board to teach the Cree Indians in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. When the Crees were placed on a reservation she had nursed the Sioux Indians who were outcasts from the United States. Miss Baker died in 1909 in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, and is buried in Dundee, Quebec. Miss Baker was a half-sister of the father of George Baker, Miss Eva Baker and Mrs Wilda Duff who are well-known residents of Newington.

Mrs Gordon MacIntyre presided for the meeting of the Ladies Aid. The annual congregational meeting will be on January 25th at 8 p.m. in the Sunday School room. Mrs MacIntyre and Mrs Keith MacMillan were appointed to arrange for the refreshments.

Some proposals were discussed concerning a project for the society for Centennial Year. The same committee was re-appointed for the bazaar and tea.

Mrs McMaster presented the auditor's report which indicated that 1966 had been a very successful year.

The meetings closed with a prayer by Mrs Ernest Naidow and refreshments were served by Mrs Gordon MacIntyre, Mrs D. MacIntyre and Mrs Keith MacMillan.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

By Martha Moriarty

Zero hour is rapidly approaching — January 23, that is — and the Gordon Lightfoot Concert is only days away. This week, the staff of North Dundas has been working us poor students particularly hard since they anticipate that we do entirely no work during the coming Centennial Carnival Week. How absolutely correct they are!

The first day of the carnival will start off on as grand a scale as possible as North Dundas plays host to Canada's number one folksinger — Gord Lightfoot, who will be accompanied by a popular folk - rock group—The Children. Ticket returns are rapidly coming in from Valley schools and they are even being sold at some Ottawa high schools. With every indication of a sell-out, it is expected that the audience will fairly "Spin, Spin" the entire evening to the music of Gordon Lightfoot and The Children.

On Tuesday night of Carnival Week, something new and different comes to the North Dundas gym, in the form of a basketball game between our teachers and the one and only Ottawa Rough Riders. At this point it is rather difficult to predict the outcome, for I am certainly not a sports expert. Nevertheless, it will surely be an exciting contest. In addition, all during Carnival Week, there will be a number of outdoor events. The major one will be that of snow sculpturing by each class for which there was a trophy presented last year.

With Thursday night comes the climax of the week as the auditorium will echo to the sound of two top area bands: Canada's number one recording group — the Staccatos — and the Beaux Gestes, a rising new group from Ottawa. On Friday the annual Teachers' Convention will be held. Parents, beware, we'll all be home that day!

Something new, worth mentioning, has been added to North Dundas's long list of extra-curricular activities. It is called PNYX and is in the form of a seminar, organized by Urmas Vilmansen and Mr Groves. Each session a topic is chosen and several students (and teachers) taking different sides present their point of view. Then there is open discussion and anyone who would like to participate may. One session of PNYX has been held so far, but judging by attendance, there is every indication that this interesting seminar will become a regular school activity.

Crysler people started the New Year by celebrating the Centennial. For this occasion a Centennial couple had been chosen.

Mr and Mrs George Bedard of Crysler will be Centennial representatives all year, participating in the many events planned for the occasion.

At midnight a mass was celebrated by Rev Rheal Gagnon; some of the parishioners had chosen to wear Centennial costumes. The congregation entered the church carrying lanterns, followed by Mr and Mrs Bedard and Father Gagnon. After mass, everyone went to Crysler Pavilion where lunch was served, and musicians were waiting for the dancers.

The assembly sang a special song composed by Mrs Moise Lafrance of Crysler concerning Canada's Centennial.

The party was organized by the Community Centre of Crysler.

The first order of business for the new year was the appointment of municipal officers: J. K. MacLean was re-appointed clerk-treasurer; Mrs Ella MacGregor, clerk's assistant; M. F. McRae, welfare administrator; Herbert Hill, building inspector, and Murdie MacLean, road superintendent.

Council also appointed a number of citizens to boards controlling rertain community projects: Donald A. Cumming, Andre Prevost, Emile Aube, Leonard Dupuis, Arthur Blair, Gordon McKercher and Cecil Robertson make up the Board.

Announcement was made a couple of weeks ago of Bell Canadas Centennial Fellowship Program. For years our Company has been interested in education projects, from the High School Science Programs to those at university level. And now as a Centennial Year project, the Fellowship program has been established to support the further development of post-graduate education — one of the urgent needs of the Canadian educational system. I was most interested to note that the fellowships will be truly a Canadian program. They are for exceptional Canadian students who plan to do graduate work in a Canadian university or college. Beginning this year, 1967, this program will be administered by the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada and will provide four new fellowships each year to assist students to achieve their educational objectives at a post-graduate level. And, there will be no restrictions as to the nature of the studies the successful candidate may pursue. Preference, however, will be given to those subject areas which appear most directly relevant to the scientific, political, social or economic needs of Canada. We at Bell Canada hope that by commemorating the past 100 years in this way, we are also assisting some of the young Canadians who are the future of our country.

I've decided to make an addition to my list of resolutions for 1967. After hearing a brief run-down on the bewildering variety of projects which will help celebrate Canada's Centennial, I think I'd better take a deep breath and "go into training" for the busiest, most exhilarating and interesting year most of us will ever experience. From the sound of things no one should be able to say "I've nothing to do" during 1967. The difficulty will come in trying to select the most interesting of the nationwide projects in addition to our own local celebrations. Already the Confederation Train has begun its coast-to-coast tour to bring Canada's story to 63 cities and the Confederation Caravans, which tell the same story, will visit 657 more communities. Ten teams of hardy Voyageurs will follow the treacherous 3,500 mile cross-country route of the original Voyageurs between Alberta and Montreal. In the summer 13 teams of mountaineers will climb 13 of the highest unclimbed, unnamed peaks in the Rockies and name one for each province and the Northern Territories with the highest peak designated Centennial Peak. For sport enthusiasts, the Pan-American games will be held in Canada for the first time — in Winnipeg, July 22 to August 7. The RCMP will stage special performances of their famous Musical Ride. And, of course, there is Expo 67 — the fantastic spectacle of Man and HisWorld being held in Montreal from April 28 to October 27. Expo people feel that all roads will lead to Montreal this year as millions of Canadians and their guests make a visit to Expo 67 part of their Centennial Year plans. While you are there, I hope you will also visit the Telephone Association of Canada pavilion, which, I understand, is even now quickly nearing completion. There you will see an exciting fim, "Canada 67." I'll tell you more about that in another column. Sounds like a fascinating year to be a Canadain, doesn't it? I hope you enjoy just as many of the celebrations as you possibly can.

Why I Am Proud To Be A Canadian

By Martha Moriarty, Grade 5A12a, N.D.D.H.S., 1966-67.

"Ca - na - da - one little, two little, three Canadians;
We - love - thee - now we are twenty million!"

Many people may recognize these words as those of a song, performed by a handful of children — Canadian children — and recently heard on thousands of television sets across this great land — this great Canadian land. The words of this symoblic tune are the most beautiful and meaningful that I have ever heard regarding our wonderful country, for I am proud to be a Canadian. For myself and my nine hundred and ninety-nine thousand, nine hundred and ninety-nine fellow Canadians, who feel the way I do, these words, sung by innocent children, symbolize the pride which a true Canadian should feel for his heritage; the recognition of a country, "glorious and free;" the promise of a peaceful tomorrow.

When John A. Macdonald landed on the shores of the old Upper Canada, more than a century ago, he little realized that he would be the "father" of a nation as great as our Canada is today; yet to this great statesman, all Canadians owe a debt of gratitude. His dream of a unified country "ab mari usque ad mare" — from sea to sea — came to be realized with Confederation on July 1, 1867, and this year — 1967 — will be a time for all Canadians to swell their chests, raise their heads, and say to the world, "See what our forefathers did for us! Don't you see how proud we are?" What other country has so great, so dramatic a history to recall? Canada is truly a nation from sea to sea, having become so with the unification with Newfoundland in 1949. Truly, the Fathers of Confederation, the instigators of such a great "Dominion of Canada," are a body of men, of whom all Canadians can be proud.

The country for which I possess so much pride is a leader among many, being recognized as a major power of the free world. Geographically speaking, one must feel certain pride to see the name of one's country written in geography textbooks as the second largest country, in area, in the world. I have not seen much of Canada, myself; yet even in our own Province of Ontario, I became aware of the great expanse of land there is and the economic potential and beauty of this great nation. In the political field, Canada is depended upon as a mediator in crucial situations. One proof of the ability of our politicians to handle difficult situations is seen with the solution of the Suez Crisis by our present Prime Minister — Lester B. Pearson. I, as I am sure, my fellow Canadians are, am proud of this great man who won the Nobel Peace Prize for his efforts in this situation. What an asset to our country's record! Canada is also a leader in the field of economics, being a great source of natural resources, as well as a trading partner for many foreign countries. The graduates of our universities and colleges are in demand, all over the world, and recently, educators have had to worry about the "brain drain" which has been taking many of our intellectuals away from Canada. While this is a problem, it is thrilling to know that these people are recognized as leaders among the educated of the world. Canada surely is "the true north, strong and free" and will continue to be so for many years to come and for this, I, a Canadian, feel great pride.

Bruce Hutchinson, a noted authority on Canada, calls its citizens a "nation of beavers;" he says that they are continually building for a bigger and better future. This, I agree with. We are a young country — young in body and young in spirit and this youthful vitality will make us strong and powerful. What other country has the culture that Canada has? What other nation has the second largest French-speaking city outside of Paris? We are a bilingual and bi-cultural race, and, although this aspect has caused friction in recent years, it is rare and should be treated with as much pride as possible, since it has so much to offer those who embrace it. One of my dearest wishes is to be able to speak French fluently, for I feel this would make me a better Canadian. In addition, no other country has so much to offer its citizens in the way of jobs, careers, employment. With our education facilities ranking at the top, and with our nation continually expanding, there will be a more peaceful, more comfortable future as students become aware of such great opportunities. We indeed can be proud to work and live here.

"With glowing hearts we see thee rise," dear Canada. You are our mother, father, teacher, friend, employer, guardian. Does anyone have as much right to be as proud as I am of my country, If only the entire population felt this way; if only we could stop our petty bickering and quarreling; if only we could stop and see just what advantages we have at our fingertips. Then, only then, would we be a nation, a democracy. Then, truly, we could say in unison, "Canada, we love thee! We are truly proud to be Canadians!"

HUNTER CHOKES LEOPARD WITH FIST

Malawi hunter Mdwandwa Musichili swapped blows with an enraged wounded leopard and finally won by raming his fist down the animal's throat, choking it to death.

The fight to the death happened at Mzuzu, 310 miles north of Blantyre, Malasi, after the leopard was wounded in the hunter's gun trap.

After a savage tussle in which Musichili was severely clawed on the back and legs, he hurled the animal to the ground and killed it.

Mrs Irene A. Cross

Rev James D. S. Ibbott officiated at the funeral of Irene Cross, 62, formerly of Ingleside, Tuesday, at St. Peter's Anglican Church, Ingleside. Mrs Cross died suddenly Saturday at Ottawa Civic Hospital.

Born at Gallingertown, she was a daughter of the late Wilbert and Margaret Gallinger. Mrs Cross was a member of the Altar Guild Women's Auxiliary, president of the Ladies' Guild and a member of the Boy Scout organization of St. Peter's Anglican Church. Mrs Cross was also a member of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Canadian Legion, Long Sault Branch.

Predeceased in 1951 by her husband, John S. Cross, she is survived by two sons, Fraser of Ottawa, and Malcolm, of Fredericton, N.B.; one daughter, Mrs Robert McCormick (Jacqueline), and granddaughter Leslie, both of South Bend, Indiana. A brother, Alex Gallinger, of Lethbridge, Alberta, also survives.

Pall bearers were James and Robin Cross, nephews of Mrs Cross, Wesley Bedingfield, Edward Canough, Ernest Gillard and Harold Hollister.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Long Sault Branch of the Canadian Legion held a service at the chapel of St. Peter's Anglican Church on Monday.

Burial was in St. Lawrence Valley Union Cemetery. The body rested at the chapel of St. Peter's Anglican Church, Ingleside.

CAMEL HAS LEG IN CAST AFTER FALL

Ever see a camel on ice?
Better you hadn't.

His name is Clyde, the crippled camel, after his encounter with the slick stuff.

Clyde Jr., nine-months-old dromedary at the Columbus, Ohio, zoo, came bouncing out of his stall, slipped on ice and broke a bone in his right hind leg.

An 18-inih steel pin was inserted in the leg during a three-hour operation at Ohio State University's Veterinary Clinic.

Because of Clyde's age his chances of complete recovery are considered excellent. Born in the zoo, he lives with his mother, Fuzz.

SOW WINTER CORN FROM AIR

Farmers in the English Midlands have sown winter corn from the air because the soil was too wet in the autumn to take normal implements.

A contract firm doing this work uses Chipmunk aircraft and operates with a three-man team. One marks the field with fluorescent discs, one loads the special hopper and broadcasting device and the third flies the aircraft, sowing from a height of 30 to 40 feet (about 9 to 12 metres).

After the corn is sown, fertilizer is applied in the same way. Provided the farmer can harrow the land after sowing, the take of seed is claimed to be satisfactory.

THE BIBLE TODAY..

"One Thursday a young boy of about 10 to 12 years, and his father, paddled here in rough seas in a small canoe for two to four hours," writes a missionary in the Solomon Islands recently.

"Why?" she continued, "to get a Bible. He came to the door with eager, smiling face, his money wrapped safely in a bag and asked: 'Please, may I have a Bible?'" Our writer says that her heart sank, for she knew that her husband had just sold the last one. She went to look to make sure. "How I hated telling him I had none, and seeing his sad face! They left straight way to paddle home again," she writes.

This is not an isolated occurrence. "When mission boats come, they bring books from Munda, but they are always sold long before the next lot arrives. We are greatly indebted to the Bible Society for sending Bibles and New Testaments at prices people can afford. This is likely the only book many people own," this missionary on the island of Ranonnga explained.

The world-wide work of the Bible Societies commenced over 160 years ago after a Welsh girl walked over rough hills for 25 miles for a Bible, only to be similarly disappointed. The Rev. Thomas Charles of Bala, Wales, was instrumental in its formation.

At Avonmore-

Centennial celebrations start 1967 with full agenda

Taking precedence over all other activities in the Avonmore District at the present time are the activity and planning that centres about Centennial Year. The tempo of activities is ever on the increase. Public meetings and committee meetings are the order of the day.

Last Wednesday night the first in a series of euchres was held in the Avonmore Public School and from all accounts it was a very successful event. Over 80 persons attended and the Finance Committee was pleased with the profits.

Mrs W. M.Campbell entertained a group of 11 ladies last week at a Centennial Dinner is support of Avonmore's Centennial Programme. There is an indication that other Centennial dinners will be held.

At a largely attended public meeting in the Avonmore Public School last week, the Projects Committee lifted the lid off its proposed program for 1967. Chairman James Tinkess and secretary M. F. MacRae outlined plans which include such items as the painting of rural mail boxes; painting hydro and telephone poles in the village; car bumper stickers; new sidewalks; colored street lights, street signs, and banners and signs at the four approaches to the village.

The Finance Committee headed by Hubert Delaney, is launching an energetic program in support of the Projects Committee and Program Committee. The members of Mr Delaney's committee met at his home Monday night.

Activities slated within the next week include another euchre in the Avonmore Public School next Monday night and a masquerade and carnival at the local skating rink on Saturday night, Jan 28th. Committee members for the latter event include Douglas Robertson, Sesel Wert, Glenn McMillan, Maldwyn Watkins and Dr. J. G. Bennett.

Main events during February include an old time box social and a program of square dancing in the IOOF Hall on Tuesday, Feb. 14th, and a Centennial ball, tentatively set for February 24th.

Members of the Program Committee are agreed that special events will be held every month during 1967 with the "big"' events centred on the Old Home Weekend July 7th - 9 th. Plans for that week end include such items as softball tournament, two dances, a monster parade, a variety program, an old-fashioned lawn social and a community church service.

Under the general chairmanship of Miss B. J. Banfill, the second issue of the Avonmore and District Gleaner will be appearing within the next few days. Other members working with Miss Banfill on this project are Mrs Ada Eligh and Mrs John D. Ferguson.

A youth Committee is now being organized. It is hoped that this committee will organize a series of events for young people. The young people are also being asked to take on the project of preparing a float which will be available not only for the local observences but will be sent upon request to other communities planning Centennial events.

The Program Committee has an interesting project in mind. It involves the collection of interesting photographs of events, people and faces in the Avonmore and District of yesteryears. Photographs should be carefully identified so that they may be returned at a later date.

The general committees are making every effort to ensure that Centennial Year 1967 will be a year that will be remebered throughout the years.

Old plaque found

Arthur Ringrow has turned up an interesting brass plaque. It was found along the river down near Casselman and commemorates Canada's 60th birthday. The coat of arms of Canada is surrounded by maple leaves, perhaps a forerunner of the new flag. The metal embossing also carries the legend "Confederation, Canada, Our Country." The dates are 1867-1927.

The plaque has been cleaned up and polished a bit. It will make an interesting ornament for the Ringrow house.

Any other plaques of a similar nature are interesting and these columns would be glad to report them.

STORMONT HOCKEY

Lunenburg went in front 4-3 after seven minutes of the final frame on a goal by Fetterly from Armstrong. Ernie MacMillan fired his second of the game on a pass from James Harper to make the score 4-4.

Brilliant goal tending by Lalonde and Monast captured the fans' applause. There were only three penalties in this game with Chesterville having one and Lunenburg two.

In the opening game Bert McMahon was in the nets for Finch and like Gary Villeneuve for Avonmore played an excellent game.

The fans who stayed at home sure missed it. The teams were fired up and gave everything they had in both games.

FLUORESCENT LIGHTING

Unlike an incandescent lamp, a fluorescent lamp has no filament which glows continuously to give light. Instead, the inside of the tube is filled with mercury vapour which is heated by special filaments at the tube end. this gas then transmits its energy to the phosphor coating inside the tube, and this is what glows to give visible light.

Because little or no energy is wasted in heat, fluorescent lamps give much more light per watt than incandescent lamps. Therefore they are much more economical to use wherever a lot of light is needed for work or play.
