Winchester mural art now public

by Amanda Smith-Millar
Press staff

WINCHESTER — If you want a sneak peek of what the mural in downtown Winchester will look like, copies of the artist's sketches have been released — and are for sale, too.

Winchester Travel, Winchester Video, and Annable's Jewellery have started selling poster-sized versions of the mural that will adorn the northern wall of the building directly beside the parking lot at the corner of Main and St. Lawrence streets.

The smaller posters (nine by 18 inches) cost $25, while the larger ones (15 by 30 inches) carry a $50 price tag.

All proceeds will go towards beautifying the centre square in downtown Winchester.

The goal is to turn the dusty lot into a park and community gathering place.

The mural itself, however, was essentially paid for back in July when the Stormont, Dundas, and Glengarry Community Futures Development Corporation awarded the Township of North Dundas $19,000 to hire an artist to design and create a mural celebrating the Winchester District Memorial Hospital (WDMH).

The township also announced it had purchased the lot itself for about $55,000.

Jeweller Gary Annable — who is heavily involved in the project through the North Dundas Chamber of Commerce's Downtown Revitalization Committee — said the public should be able to spot some familiar local faces in the posters.

He explained that the artist, David Yeatman, examined photographs taken at WDMH, or events related to the hospital. Based on those shots, the artist created multiple scenes with many people, then arranged them all to create a single mural.

Someone smaller than me!

Three-year-old Ethan Goodwin — who, according to his mother, insists on wearing his Buzz Lightyear outfit just about everywhere — met a guinea pig at the Metcalfe Farmers' Market Annual Fall Fest on Sat., Oct. 10. Winchester Springs-based business Vanderlaand: The Barnyard Zoo brought many animals to the celebration. The last day of the Metcalfe Farmers' Market 2009 is scheduled for this Saturday (Oct. 17). Meanwhile, the regular season of the Chesterville Farmers' Market wrapped up for the year last weekend on Sat., Oct. 10. However, both markets will host special Christmas events in the coming months.

Farmers' markets wind down for season

by Amanda Smith-Millar
Press staff

METCALFE — You know fall is in full swing when local farmers' markets begin to close for the regular season.

The Metcalfe Farmers' Market will open one last time this Saturday (Oct. 17). Last weekend, on Sat., Oct. 10, the Metcalfe market ran its annual Fall Fest, a harvest celebration that is traditionally held near the end of the regular season.

Meanwhile, the Chesterville Farmers' Market has closed up shop for 2009. The last apples, pastries, and crafts were sold on the final day of the regular market on Oct. 10.

"Overall, I'm happy with the results of the farmers' market," said Shawn Funk, president of the Chesterville Farmers' Market.

He added that due to cold and wet weather this spring, there weren't as many vegetables available this year, and hopefully, there will be more produce in 2010.

"There was not as significant a bounty this year as we would have liked," he said.

Funk added that 2009 successes included the chili cook-off competition, cooking presentations, various art and craft demonstrations, and performances.

According to Chesterville market organizers, there will be a number of new events next year. The market will be taking over the organization of a resource fair featuring local services and products for infants, toddlers, and small children. (The event's previous organizer — Sheila McDonald — no longer has time to co-ordinate the fair because she is planning a rodeo for 2010.)

Hudak, Hillier at meet & eat event

MOREWOOD — Two Tory politicians are scheduled to appear at a local food sampling session on Sat., Oct. 17.

Ontario Progressive Conservative leader Tim Hudak and Lanark, Frontenac, Lennox, and Addington MPP Randy Hillier are scheduled to be the special guests during an event called A Sampling of Eastern Ontario.

The public is invited to enjoy local produce, meats, cheeses, wines, and beer from noon to 4 pm at the Morewood Community Centre.

Admission is $10, and tickets for samples will be available at the hall. For more information, call Susanna Cayer at 613-448-2743.

POLICE BLOTTER

Missing person alert

CHESTERVILLE — The Stormont, Dundas, and Glengarry (SD&G) OPP would like the public's assistance in locating a male from the Chesterville area.

Family members of Raymond Collison, 58, say they haven't communicated with him in more than three weeks.

Collison spends his time living between the Township of North Dundas and the Cornwall area. Collison's friends didn't provide police with any information about his location.

The man is white, about 150 pounds, and five feet, 10 inches tall with a medium build, brown greying hair, blue eyes, and a thick moustache.

Anyone with any information should contact their local police detachment.

More charges for Chesterville man

CHESTERVILLE — One of the men accused of deliberately setting fire to a vacant house on Nation Valley Road is facing additional (but unrelated) charges — this time, for allegedly committing a break and enter on Fri., Oct. 9.

At approximately 3:30 am, SD&G OPP responded to a report of a suspicious person on Forward Road in the Township of North Dundas.

The investigation revealed that a homeowner discovered a man on his property, and when he confronted the individual, the suspect tried to run through the back yard.

Unfortunately for the accused, he struck a fence and fell down, enabling the homeowner to hold the man until police arrived.

Police conducted a search of the area and found that the male (Steven Seymour, 20, of Chesterville) allegedly broke into another residence and stole a credit card.

Seymour was arrested and faces a break-and-enter charge, as well as a charge for breach of recognizance. He was held in custody pending an appearance in Cornwall court.

Police charged Seymour with arson earlier this year, and he has appeared three times in Morrisburg court in regards to the issue.

Later, on Wed., Sept. 16, Seymour received a number of charges after allegedly ramming an all-terrain vehicle into a Chesterville home's garage doors.

Mural revealed

Bev Shortt (left), Diane Annable, Linda Thompson, Dr. Duane Justus, Sandy Puddephatt, and Gloria Stewart with the "poster version" of Winchester's to-be-erected mural, which will cover the wall located behind this group.

"Those people are taken from actual photographs," confirmed Annable.

For example, the late WDMH physician and benefactor Dr. Howard Justus features prominently in the artwork.

The poster sale will not only act as a fundraiser, but allow people to keep their own copy of the mural at home, where it can be stored as a keepsake or displayed for visitors to see.

Annable added that volunteers have some other "irons in the fire" and fundraising projects on the go for the downtown square.

However, the poster fundraising plan is the only initiative made public at the present time.

Christmas events at markets

Both the markets in Metcalfe and Chesterville have special yuletide events scheduled to take place later this year.

In Metcalfe, there will be country Christmas shows on Sat., Nov. 21 and Sat., Dec. 12. More information will be available in the future.

Also on Nov. 21, the Chesterville market will host a Christmas sale and a visit from Santa. A number of calendars will be available for purchase in support of the Dundas County Food Bank.

These calendars will feature local artwork and creations — the originals of which were sold during a silent auction, along with other items, at the Oct. 10 market. The action raised about $500, which will go toward the printing of the calendars.

On Common Ground Oct. 17-18

SOUTH MOUNTAIN — The On Common Ground Studio Tour will be held this weekend (Sat., Oct. 17 and Sun., Oct. 18), allowing the public to check out the arts and crafts being created in local studios.

This year, about 25 juried artists and artisans will be demonstrating, exhibiting and selling their work in a total of 10 studios located on a 30-kilometre circuit near South Mountain.

Interested members of the public are invited to drop by any or all of these studios to see creators at work from 10 am to 5 pm on both days. A home-cooked luncheon or snack will be available at the South Mountain Agricultural Hall.

The public is invited to pick up a map of the studio route by visiting the tour's website at www.ocgstudiotour.ca. The information is also available over the phone by calling 613-989-5426.

Local bus line joins battle against Ontario government

by Matthew Uhrig
Press staff

WILLIAMSBURG — During the regular Township of South Dundas council meeting on Tues., Oct. 6, the councillors received a letter from Kevin Whitteker, president of Whitteker Bus Lines Limited in Iroquois.

Whitteker asked the politicians to support a fight being waged by the Independent School Bus Operators Association (ISBOA) against the Ministry of Education and its potential introduction of a standardized government tendering process.

The ISBOA is concerned about the direction the province is taking in regards to mandating a competitive procurement process for school bus transportation.

This means the government is open to allowing large multinational operators (such as Stock or First Student Canada) to move into rural areas and submit a low bid for their service. By doing this, the large companies could acquire several routes formally operated by companies such as Whitteker Bus Lines, knowing that the smaller operators cannot compete against the low profit margins.

Deputy-Mayor Steven Byvelds said he was "torn," because competition is good for business, but he understands the issues created by tendering.

In an interview with the Winchester Press, Whitteker said he also understands that competition is a good thing in business; however, he said, underbidding the "little guys" is not fair.

"If the province decides to move to a competitive tender process, many independent operators will be put out of business," reads a statement on the ISBOA's website.

For Whitteker, it could mean the loss of a company three generations in the making. "It was started by my grandfather, then my father, and now myself," he said.

The ISBOA currently represents more than 90 school bus operators across the province, with the single goal of ensuring the survival of the independent operators.

In a petition drawn up to be sent to the Ontario Legislature, Whitteker's signature is among 66 others from across the province.

Whitteker said he is thankful for the relationship he and his fellow drivers have with the local schools boards and students.

"We work together, and voice our concerns," he said.

Whitteker said the boards have policies and procedures, and his drivers work to meet those standards.

"We've had really good relationships with the school boards, and it has worked out," he said. "[We know] we can't ask for something that's outrageous and we work as a team."

Another concern for Whitteker is losing the bus lines identity within the local community.

"I do a lot for the community," he said, noting the help his company has provided to local groups and businesses. "Everything is invested in the community."

Through it all, Whitteker said, the fight is with the government and its process.

"The way they're doing things, it's not going to work," he said.

At the end of the day, said Whitteker, if the large multinationals move in and control the "monopoly," they will change whatever they want.

Council agreed with the position the ISBOA is taking, and in a show of support, urged the Ontario government to "consider the needs of small, locally owned school bus operators."

Council notes from South Dundas

Indoor pool feasible?

WILLIAMSBURG — At the regular Township of South Dundas council meeting on Tues., Oct. 6, Deputy-Mayor Steven Byvelds brought the politicians up to speed with a proposal of constructing a YMCA indoor pool within Dundas County.

Winchester Springs resident Sheila McDonald, who is behind the initiative, held a meeting on Thurs., Oct. 1 to drum up support for the project. In attendance was Township of North Dundas Mayor Alvin Runnalls, Byvelds, a YMCA representative, and other interested parties.

"[I think] the only thing that's going to stop her is a big fat 'no'," Byvelds told his fellow politicians on Oct. 6. However, as Byvelds said, the project is still in its infancy.

Byvelds said that he informed McDonald she should prepare a business case, acknowledging what the necessities of the operation would be. He also told council the volunteers were working towards finding funding for a needs study.

"[Ask the residents], do you want one or not?" said Byvelds.

Byvelds stated that the indoor pool would require 5,000 memberships to make it viable.

"[But] McDonald spins the concept well," said Byvelds. "She knows how it will work if it all goes in place."

Councillor Delbert Jones said the geographic area is a problem. "I have trouble believing you'll get people from the extremities," he said, suggesting Iroquois residents wouldn't drive to Maple Ridge if the pool were placed there.

Byvelds said the concept is "worth pursuing."

Mayor Robert "Rowdy" Gillard told Byvelds to keep the councillors informed as the project progresses.

SNC Low Water Response

Lisa Migneault, resource technician for South Nation Conservation (SNC), spoke before the politicians to inform them about the SNC Low Water Response plan.

The program is a branch of the Ontario Low Water Response plan, which was prepared by the provincial government in 2000 to deal with low water conditions in Ontario to ensure provincial preparedness, assist in co-ordination, and assist local responses in the event of a drought.

Migneault said SNC has water gages set up in 11 streams within its watershed, which help to determine the severity of the water level.

SNC uses signage and its website www.watershedconditions.com, as well as sending a press release to the municipalities within its watershed.

"We're prepared in the event of a drought," said Migneault.

Interesting wildlife

Michelle Scheerder of South Nation Conservation (SNC) made a presentation before council about the Ontario Stream Assessment Protocol and SNC's Turtle Watch program.

Scheerder said the SNC had completed a study of 13 sites within South Dundas, and of the 30 species being sought by SNC staff, 22 were located within the township.

"South Dundas had the highest species composition of all townships," said Scheerder.

As for the Turtle Watch program, Scheerder said SNC is working with the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas, and Glengarry (SD&G) to better monitor the turtle population.

As well, Scheerder said SNC staff spent five days monitoring for turtles in South Dundas. They located both snapping and painted turtles within the township.

"We measured, weighed, identified sex, and left a distinguishing mark on them," said Scheerder.

Better signage is going to be set up across the township and county to inform residents of the increased population, as well as the installation of fencing along county roads to keep the turtles off the roadway, said Scheerder.

Magician and Greely resident Alecks Charron.

Local youth magician in Players' annual Cabaret

GREELY — Greely resident Alecks Charron, 14, has been performing professionally as a magician since she was eight years old. The Grade 9 Canterbury High School drama student will show off her skills in the Greely Players' upcoming Cabaret on Fri., Oct. 23 and Sat., Oct. 24.

"I got a magic set and loved it, and I guess it just escalated from there," Charron said about how she got into magic — she prefers to be known as Aleckazam when performing.

Charron has done shows throughout the Ottawa area, mainly at various library branches.

"I love to do kids' shows," she said, noting that for smaller venues, she focuses on up-close magic and card tricks.

For the Cabaret performance, Charron will work with Chinese linking rings and do a few tricks with light.

"It'll be a lot of fun," she said, pointing out that she was previously on stage at the Greely Community Centre in the Greely Players' 2007 production of Annie Warbucks.

"I love performing in my community," she said.

The Cabaret, a dinner-theatre fundraiser in partnership with the Greely Lions, will feature some big musical numbers as well as some humorous smaller skits.

The cast will also perform a medley of tunes from Rodgers and Hammerstein's Cinderella, the Greely Players' spring 2010 musical. Auditions for Cinderella are scheduled to take place in early November.

For tickets to the Friday night performance, call Catherine Douglas at 613-826-2538. For tickets to the Saturday night show, call Marg Van Dusen at 613-822-1136. Visit www.greelyplayers.ca for more information.

End of an era

Winchester-based WJL Boyd and Sons ended a 73-year relationship with Chrysler Canada on Wed., Sept. 30; however, the business will continue to operate as auto shop and used-car dealer. The final chapter for the local business was written on Thurs., Oct. 8, when employees from Ottawa's Rainbow Signs spent the morning removing the sign, which bore the name Chrysler, Jeep, and Dodge. Jean-Marc Monette (left) and Francois Boudreault helped position the sign as it was loaded onto the bed of the truck. Press Photo — Uhrig

Getting green

Employees from Winchester Home Hardware, and the Township of North Dundas, as well as local gardening enthusiasts spent the better part of Thurs., Oct. 8 planting shrubs on the front lawn of the new resource centre and library in South Mountain. The project was funded by a Tree Canada Grant. United Counties master gardener Barbara Baker (front, left), volunteer Anne Caza (back, left), and Winchester Home Hardware gardening guru Fay Gallinger helped position one of the plants into its designated home.

Free kids' fitness class on Oct. 19

CHESTERVILLE — Therien Jiu-Jitsu and Kickboxing is offering a free class to children in the hopes they'll catch the fitness bug and develop a love of healthy living.

Children aged five to 13 are invited to the Chesterville fitness centre (49 John Street) on Mon., Oct. 19 from 5:15 to 6 pm.

The activities will be based on Therien's upcoming kids' fitness session, which will include games, challenges, and goal setting that incorporates fitness, nutrition, active living, and fun.

While most of Therien's youth programming in the past has focussed on martial arts, the upcoming fitness session will be more general, using obstacle course training and other fun activities designed to appeal to all kids, regardless of whether they like organized sports or not.

Therien will run a similar free class for seniors on Tues., Nov. 24.

For more information, call 613-448-1233.

Why not just set our money on fire?

What a week.

If Dalton McGuinty's government is good at one thing, it's wasting our tax dollars at the worst possible time.

First, the horrifying auditor general's report released Wed., Oct. 7, which dissected the eHealth Ontario spending scandal. Roughly $1 billion evaporated in the Liberals' failed quest to digitize our province's health records. Ontario auditor general Jim McCarter revealed the story of a government agency gone haywire; an organization drowning without goals or clear timelines; a culture of entitlement and secrecy where sole-source contracts were awarded without shame, and opportunists blurred the line between the public purse and their own bank accounts.

Then, the internal audit of Cancer Care Ontario, an organization that suffered from many of the same contract problems as eHealth.

Yes, heads rolled. Shortly after the Winchester Press went to print last week on Tues., Oct. 6, Minister of Health and Long-Term Care David Caplan informally resigned over the eHealth scandal. Wednesday morning, when the report went public, Caplan officially stepped down.

The minister's resignation certainly put things into perspective for our paper. Our front-page story last week was about a critical Ontario Ombudsman's report called A Vast Injustice. The investigative organization said the government was wrong and mislead the public when it claimed that a 16-cycle cap on the cancer-fighting drug Avastin was based on science. (In fact, according to the Ombudsman, the cap was a cost-cutting measure, plain and simple.) As a result, many Ontarians — including Winchester resident Pat Holmes — have relied on charity to pay for Avastin, which costs a couple thousand dollars per treatment, depending on the dosage. When asked to comment on A Vast Injustice, Caplan almost seemed to dismiss the report entirely, saying he relied "upon the advice of medical experts" instead of anecdotes. His flippant and ill-prepared response was confusing — it seemed like he hadn't even read the report. Now we know why. Caplan acted like any bad employee on his way out the door. On the Richter Scale of Public Relations Disasters That Could End Your Political Career, eHealth ranks at about eight or nine; Avastin, at one or two. The Ombudsman's report was small potatoes compared to the eHealth fiasco.

McGuinty's spending scandal may have serious repercussions for our health care.

But here's the trouble. The Avastin issue is still a serious one. Patients throughout the province may face death if they can't pay for the drug. As the government dithers and delays, all while trying to mop up the eHealth and Cancer Care Ontario mess, everyday people need help. According to Ontario Ombudsman André Marin, it could take only $9 million more to cover Avastin treaments for the select few who continue to benefit from the drug after 16 cycles. It would be "a virtual drop in the bucket for the government's $3-billion drug budget," Marin wrote in an opinion piece in the National Post last week.

The government needs to remember that people's lives are more important than damage control. Of course, that's wishful thinking on our part.

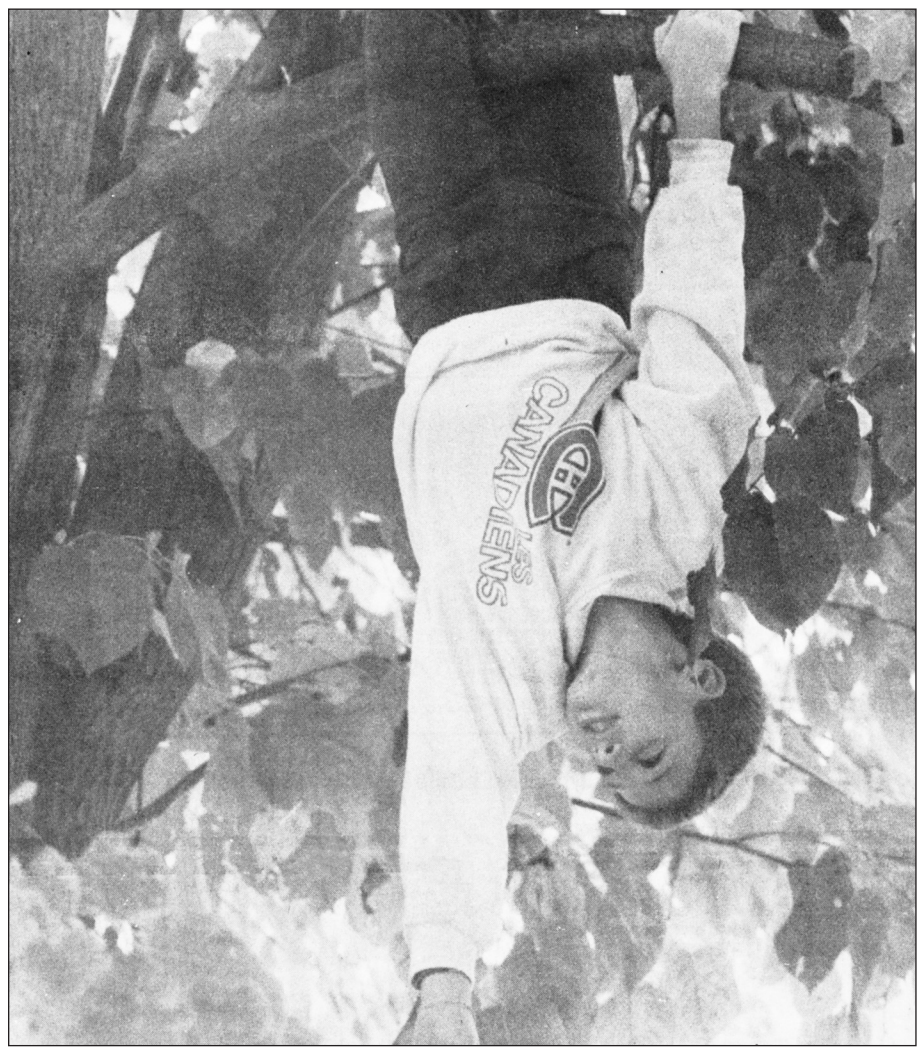
How do you recover $1 billion dollars? It remains to be seen if this mess will result in greater wait times or decreased services at hospitals throughout the province. A bad economy, plus major stimulus spending, plus the eHealth fiasco equals financial trouble for hospitals — including, potentially, our own Winchester District Memorial Hospital (WDMH). It's infuriating to think that after our community raised roughly $15 million for our own hospital expansion the hard way — through bake sales and galas and the like — bigwigs at upper levels of health bureaucracy are burning through that amount and more without consideration. Here we are, raising money for the WDMH CT scanner and other health equipment, thinking there wasn't enough money "up top" to pay for this crucial technology. Boy, were we wrong.

McGuinty's spending scandal may have serious repercussions for our health care — and that's unacceptable.

We hope there never is a "next time" for McGuinty's government to essentially set our tax dollars on fire.

It's time to clean house.

It's time for new leadership.



Nine-year-old Clayton Oldford of Winchester was getting closer to nature on a fall day in 1989. The front page cutline of that week's Winchester Press quipped that "Clayton appears ready for the NHL season, which got underway last week, as he is immersed in both the Leafs and the Habs."

Remember when...

1939

Five area men were convicted of gambling with cards on the Sabbath — an offence under the provincial Lord's Day Act — and were each fined $5. The quintet was taken into custody by a four-man raiding squad, and the cards and cash on the table were seized.

1949

Flora's in Winchester began marketing itself as a great place for "an after-theatre snack." The shop offered sodas, sundaes, hamburgers, ice cream, pie, and more.

1959

Area youth and parents were anticipating a meeting of the High School Board, which would decide whether a new high school would be built in the North Dundas area. Citizens of Winchester and Chesterville were wary of having one shared school and were considering a number of different options.

1969

A great amount of concern was expressed when members of Winchester council learned that the fire department's pumper truck was not being refuelled when it returned from late-night blazes. There were no service stations in the area that remained open late enough. The politicians agreed to thoroughly discuss the matter at the next council meeting.

1979

Things went horribly wrong when Canadian stuntman Ken Powers tried to jump his rocket-powered Lincoln Continental across the St. Lawrence River from a ramp in Morrisburg. Pieces of the car began flying off immediately after it left the ramp, and its parachutes deployed early, leaving the car about 100 yards from where it took off. Powers blamed bumps on the ramp for his eight broken vertebrae.

1989

In a session closed to the public, Mountain Township council passed an agreement to allow Ault Foods to spread sludge on property off of County Road 43. It was stipulated that sludge could not be spread within 95 metres of a well site and could not be spread during precipitation.

1999

Halloween in the Township of North Dundas fell on a Sunday in 1999, and Rev. Bruce North approached council to request the date be changed to Sat., Oct. 30. "This is a spooky issue and it's an issue of respect," said North. However, council said Halloween would remain on Sun., Oct. 31.

The student council of North Dundas District High School (NDDHS) had a good time packing up at least 1,100 non-perishable food items for transport on Fri., Oct. 9 for the Dundas County Food Bank. According to the council, NDDHS students contributed between 100 and 200 additional cans of food at the most recent school dance. Left side: James Shaw (front), Emily Wicks, and Paul Erickson. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

eHealth: $1 billion wasted

The Editor:
How can the provincial government continue to steal from the taxpayers? We were lied to six years ago when Premier Dalton McGuinty imposed a health care levy. Now, we have the $1-billion eHealth scandal along with the Cancer Care Ontario scandal.

Half our taxes already go toward health care, and in five to 10 years, the baby boomers will be at their peak. Soon, health care will be unaffordable for us all.

McGuinty and Deputy-Premier George Smitherman should hang their heads in shame.

I'm disgusted.

Resident says Tim Hortons cups belong in the garbage, not in ditches or on roadways

The Editor:
One cup of Tim Hortons coffee will last you for about 14 kilometres of driving.

I know this because I live 14.1 kilometres from the nearest Tim Hortons.

My property has about 420 feet (roughly 128 metres) of road frontage on a rural road. Throughout the past summer, these cups have been deposited by Tim Hortons customers on the road along the front of my house, and by a factor of 10 to one outnumber all other flotsam deposited by litterpigs on the roadside. Perhaps it's the same litterpigs who leave frequent deposits in the same location. Perhaps not.

I am not alone in facing this barrage of litter. Ask the clerks at the local hardware and grocery stores who do patrols to pick up the empties inconsiderate people abandon on store shelves.

One would think a responsible corporate citizen like Tim Hortons would adopt a policy of promoting responsible disposal of their cups and encourage eco-friendly behaviour.

Maybe a five-cent-per-cup refundable deposit would do the trick.

Leif Schonberg

Vernon resident Leif Schonberg is sick of collecting Tim Hortons cups from his property.

4-H UPDATE

Cracksters make divine angel food cake

by Patricia Thompson

MOUNTAIN — The Mountain 4-H Cool Cracksters' latest meeting took place on Mon., Oct. 5 at the village's community hall.

The group members took the pledge and minutes. They learned how to separate eggs before making an angel food cake. They also made baked Alaska, a dessert consisting of ice cream on a slab of cake, which is typically covered with meringue and browned quickly.

The previous meeting took place on Sun., Sept. 27. The Cracksters opened the meeting, after which the minutes were read, and the group got busy by washing a whole chicken and making a savory dressing.

After that, the group made parmesan chicken fingers. They made a batch of fudge brownies, too. Cracksters learned about how to handle raw meat safely and how to store it after it has been cooked.

The Cracksters also played games about the safe storage of poultry. They made "eggimals," which are hard-boiled eggs and vegetables stuck together to make an animal-like shape.

The Cracksters' next meeting is scheduled for Mon., Oct. 19.

Don't forget that the Dundas 4-H Awards Night is scheduled for Sat., Oct. 17 at the Winchester Community Centre at 7:30 pm. Registration starts at 7 pm.

'Your dream, your business, your passion'

Entrepreneurs and their innovative businesses are key to Canada's economic growth. By responding to the changing demands of the marketplace and creating jobs, local entrepreneurs continue to be a driving force in the national economy.

Entrepreneurs are idea people – filled with ideas, aspirations and objectives. They see an opportunity at every turn and are continuously looking for improvement. An entrepreneur's life is busy, powered by a seemingly endless vitality. The entrepreneur's tenacity is surpassed only by a strong passion for business.

The theme of Small Business Week 2009,'Your dream, your business, your passion', reflects the energy and efforts of Canadian entrepreneurs of all ages and pays tribute to their important contribution to the strength of the economy and our community.

Alyssa Waldroff (left) was the Stormont Queen of the Furrow until she passed the title to Kelsey Smith during the banquet ceremony after Saturday's plowing match. The queen represents the county's plowing association and typically competes for the Ontario Queen of the Furrow title.

Percherons Prince and Mac, with Marwin Antoine of Lunenburg, Ont., placed second in class 1A during the Stormont County Plowmen's Association Annual Plowing Match on Sat., Oct. 10. The team recently took top honours in their division at the 2009 International Plowing Match in Temiskaming, Ont. Press Photos — Smith-Millar

Jean-Marc Dessaint and his son — eight-year-old Étienne — competed side-by-side during the plowing match in Finch, each on their own plots of land. Both placed first in their respective divisions, and Étienne also won an award for being the youngest plowman that day. The pair are pictured here on an antique 1951 Massey-Harris number 30 tractor.

Plowmen have fun with furrows

FINCH — The results submitted from the Stormont County Plowmen's Association Annual Plowing Match on Sat., Oct. 10 are as follows:

Best overall land plowed: Marvin Waldroff (donated by Jamieson Campbell).

UCW thanked for generosity

by Norma Wylie

WINCHESTER — Clara Edwardson welcomed the United Church Women (UCW) to their fall meeting on Mon., Oct. 5 in the Winchester church's hall with a prayer, which addressed the many blessings we all have.

Janice Hyndman lead the worship service using the theme of Thanksgiving, reminding the group about all the things for which we should be thankful.

Bea Warren read the minutes of the September meeting, and all reports were heard.

The UCW received a letter of appreciation from Pat Holmes, who thanked the group for fundraising to help pay for her expensive cancer treatments. Also, a Rideau Hill Camp participant thanked the UCW for helping to pay for her enjoyable camp experience.

Plans were finalized for the anniversary buffet dinner on Mon., Oct. 19 at the Winchester United Church, beginning at 4 pm. No tickets are necessary. The cost is $12 for adults and $6 for children aged six to 12, although preschoolers eat for free. Takeout is available at the Winchester Baptist Church. If takeout is needed, please call the Winchester United Church Monday, Wednesday, or Friday between 9 am and noon at 613-774-2512. Or, call Clara Edwardson at 613-774-2407 and leave a message.

The meeting closed when the ladies sang, "Go Now In Peace."

The units are all to meet on Mon., Oct. 26. The schedule is as follows: unit one, 7 pm at Dundas Manor; unit two, 1:30 pm at Betty Skuce's; unit four, 7:30 pm at Kay Cowell's. All United Church ladies are welcome.

Milne, Delage top NDDHS runners in Turkey Trot

KEMPTVILLE — Bailey Milne and Victor Delage clocked fifth-place times running with the North Dundas District High School Devils in the second annual St. Michael Catholic High School Invitational Turkey Trot.

The Turkey Trot, run through scenic grounds of the Ferguson Forest Centre last week (Thurs., Oct. 8), was the second cross-country run for the North Dundas squad and produced some solid results — the senior girls' team finished second in their division and the junior girls' squad placed third.

The Devils ran against teams from the City of Ottawa and from as far away as Pembroke.

Devils coach Julie Green reported 17 runners took part in the competition that presented each division winner with a frozen turkey — suitable for use as Thanksgiving dinner.

Green noted the school had four athletes finish in the top 10 including: juniors Bailey Milne and Victor Delage who finished fifth; senior Madison Koekkoek who placed eighth; junior Rebecca de Paiva and senior Paige Warren who crossed the finish line in 10th place.

"The team had a good day," said the coach. "Many runners had personal best races."

This week (Wed., Oct. 14) the Devils are taking part in a pre-EOSSAA meet in Renfrew. Next up will be the SD&G championship, which will be run on Tues., Oct. 20 at Grey's Creek Conservation Area east of Cornwall.

Off and running

The North Dundas District High School Devils senior girls cross country team broke quickly off the start line and ran to a second-place finish in the second running of the St. Michael High School Invitational Turkey Trot In Kemptville last week (Thurs., Oct. 8). Madison Koekkoek (left) finished eighth, Paige Warren 10th, Tasha Vanderveen 17th, Kirsten Milne 34th, Anja Manuel 36th and Christina O'Connor 22nd. Press Photo — Van Bridger

Devils stats

Midget girls (25 runners): Amber Moak - 18th - 17:51; Jodie Hall 22nd - 19:53.

Junior girls (33 runners): Bailey Milne - fifth - 19:25; Rebecca de Paiva - 10th - 19:50; Jessica VanWinden - 14th - 20:40; Isabel Schmid - 20th - 23:01.

Junior boys (17 runners): Victor Delage - fifth - 25:35; Sebastien LeClerc - 17th - 35:54.

Senior girls (38 runners): Madison Koekkoek - eighth - 27:08; Paige Warren - 10th - 27:21; Tasha Vanderveen - 17th - 28:37; Christina O'Connor - 22nd - 30:35; Kirsten Milne - 34th - 34:06; Anja Manuel - 36th - 34:06.

Second straight victory

Senior Devils tank Tagwi

MAPLE RIDGE — Eight different shooters drained buckets as the North Dundas District High School Devils pushed their SD&G senior girls basketball record above the 500 mark with a 46-27 victory over the visiting Tagwi Warriors.

North Dundas led the game, played on their home hardwood last week (Tues., Oct. 6), 12-2 at quarter time and 28-10 at the half. A change of tactics by North Dundas coach Deanna Corbett-White in the second half opened the door for the Warriors who banged in eight points in the third quarter and another nine in the final frame but still fell by 19 (46-27).

The victory improved the Devils' record to 2-1-0. This week (Tues., Oct. 13) North Dundas played a home game in Cornwall at GVIS against the Char-Lan Crusaders. Next home date at NDDHS is slated for Friday (Oct. 16) when the Seaway Spartans will pay a visit for a 2:30 pm encounter.

Corbett-White explained that she changed up her defence "a little" to give the team something different to practice.

Hay perfect, Hawks blank Akwesasne Wolves 2-0

CORNWALL ISLAND — Rookie goaltender Ryan Hay was solid working the cage for the Winchester Hawks as they whitewashed the Akwesasne Wolves 2-0 and salvaged two points in another weekend of mixed results.

The Hawks opened their latest St. Lawrence Jr. "B" Division weekend twin bill dropping a 5-1 decision to the visiting Alexandria Glens on Saturday (Oct. 10) night. Sunday's (Oct. 11) 2-0 verdict on Cornwall Island levelled the Hawks' fifth-place record at 4-4-0 and left them in a tie with the Alexandria Glens (3-2-2) at eight points. The Morrisburg Lions (5-2-0) and Casselman Vikings (4-2-1-1) are tied for the divisional lead with 10 points. The Char-Lan Rebels (3-1-2-1) stand third with nine points. Akwesasne (0-5-1) occupy the basement with one point.

This week (Fri., Oct. 16), the Hawks will play host to the Akwesasne Wolves at 8:15 pm and travel to Prescott for a Saturday night (Oct. 17) tilt with the South Grenville Rangers.

The shutout victory over the Wolves gave rookie 'tender Hay a 2-0-0 record against the Wolves. He also registered a 7-1 win back on Sept. 25. Winchester's veteran stopper, Michael Hitesman, also owns a zero having blanked the Alexandria Glens 2-0 on Sat., Sept. 26.

A pair of veterans accounted for Winchester's scoring. Parker Davies cracked open the scoreless encounter, netting the winning goal on a short-handed, unassisted play. Taylor Davis slapped in a feed from Shane Ramsay to insure the victory.

Glens 5 - Hawks 1

Winchester general manger/assistant coach Craig "JB" Smith said he was disappointed with Saturday's 5-1 home-ice loss to Alexandria.

"It was a 1-1 game after one. They [Glens] potted a couple of unassisted goals in the second period, but we were still in it [3-1]. But they made it 4-1 early in the third and that was it," he said.

"We didn't have any intensity — not a good effort. Which was too bad because a win would have put us four points up on them," he said.

Rookie Ben Brayman scored the lone Winchester goal tying it up 1-1 after taking a feed from Shane Ramsay and Ryan Leckie at 8:21 of period one.

Flyers, Rockets battle to 7-7 draw in town hockey league action

WINCHESTER — Nik Paas put five pucks into the back of the Sherrer's Rockets net and powered McLean's Flyers to a 7-7 tie and their first Winchester Town Hockey League point.

The Flyers and Rockets opened the Tuesday night (Oct. 6) twin bill, and Heuff's Howlers finished the evening's program, posting their first win — a 4-3 decision over Morozuk's Maulers.

With two games in the books, the Rockets (1-0-1) top the standings with three points. The Maulers (1-1-0) and Howlers (1-1-0) are deadlocked with two points, and the Flyers (0-1-1) have a point.

Paas led the Flyers' attack with his five goals and one assist. Travis "Toast" Armstrong scored once and drew three assists. Dean Moore had a goal and one assist. Assists went to Matt Van Delst (2), Dana Schofield (2) and Trevor Gilmer. Chris Currie tended the nets.

Travis Froats was top trigger man for the Rockets, firing in three goals. Jeff Lewis potted a pair and set up two scoring plays. Will McLean and Justin Morozuk each picked up a goal and one assist. Rob Thurler drew one helper point.

Howlers 4 - Maulers 3

Brent McFaul potted a pair of goals, including the winner, in the Howlers' 4-3 decision over the Maulers.

McFaul opened the scoring, completing a play set up by Al Christophersen and cracked in a pass provided by winning 'tender Jesse Whyte. Robyn Sadler (1-1-2) and Bill McRoberts sniped single goals.

Dean Byvelds, Chad Valcour and Derek Vingerhoeds counted the Mauler goals.

First win

Goaltender Jesse Whyte posted his first Winchester Town Hockey League win of the season defeating the Maulers 4-3 last week (Tues., Oct. 6). He also picked up an assist on Brent McFaul's winning goal. Press Photo — Van Bridger

Basketball

"I moved Olivia [Wouters} to guard to give her some experience at handling the ball and also give Alyson [Erwin] more time getting the ball in the post," she said.

The coach said the greatest thing about the win was the distribution of points.

"Just about everyone got on the scoreboard and we had five players with multiple baskets — that certainly makes it much more difficult for our opponents," she said.

North Dundas rookie Wouters put down a game-high 15 points and pumped up her three-game total to 43 points. The other shooters to hit for more than one bucket were Lyndsy Allen who drained nine points, Kirsten Milne and Rachel Saad each swished six and Rebecca de Paiva, who filtered five points through the onion bag. Emily Hilborn and Erwin each hit for a deuce and Emma Fraser hit a single.

Jen Christianson was top Tagwi scorer with seven points.

"I feel our level of confidence is building and we are becoming a better team — instead of a bunch of individuals I felt we were in the first game — 43-20 loss to La Citadelle," the coach said.

Corbett-White said Kirsten Milne had played great defence and provided some excellent passes.

"I also see Olivia and Lyndsy starting to click," added the coach. "All of the girls are working extremely hard on defence. These are all things that will help us to become a better team."

Dealer may sell or lease for less.

Team Blaine wins 2009 Swing and Sweep

WINCHESTER — Doug Blaine, Debbie Blaine, Mark Vanasse and Randy Leclair topped a list of 20 teams who took part in the Winchester Curling Club's 2009 Swing and Sweep.

20 teams participated

The weather conditions for nine holes of golf at Cedar Glen Golf Course were perfect and the Winchester Curling Club ice, hosting the first curlers of the new season, was keen for Saturday's (Oct. 10) competition. A supper, catered by Andy's Foodland, followed eight ends of curling and nine holes of best ball.

Following team Blaine in second place was the team of Robert St. Pierre, JP St. Pierre, George Bloom, and Peter Romme. Kurtis Byrd, Chris Lewis, Ben Miskew, and Sean Cormier finished third. Ken Quaile, Jim Hines, George Vaulgaris, and Andy Neilson placed fourth.

James Cave, Diane Spurr, and Terri VanHaren took high curl honours.

Gerry Mann, Michelle Frigualt, Trevor Connolly, and Dwaine Frattini were the low golfers.

Keith Wagner, Larry Michaud, Barb Hoople, and Don Hoople were deemed the most honest team.

The closest to the pin winners were: Michelle Frigault - ladies and George Bloom - men.

The longest drive were cracked out by Kelly Evans - ladies and Dave Summers - men.

Hawks

J.F. Dubois, Adam Simpson, Shane Kitchen, Julien Machabee, and Emilien Dupont cashed the Alexandria markers.

The Glens outshot the Hawks 43-35.

"Hitesman [Michael] played a good game for us," offered Smith. "If he hadn't been sharp it could have been 12-1."

Traded

Monday (Oct. 12) the Hawks traded rookie forward Jeremy Burley (Kemptville) and second-year defenceman Ryan Lesway (Kemptville) to the Rideau Division's South Grenville Rangers for future considerations.

On Sept. 30, the Hawks acquired forward Shane Ramsay from the Athens Aeros for future considerations.

Midget 'B' Demons open new season with two victories

WINCHESTER — Dustin Tinkler potted a pair of goals and propelled the North Dundas Midget "B" Demons to a 3-2 victory over the visiting South Grenville Rangers.

Defeat Rangers 3-2, Panthers 4-3

Tinkler's second goal, an unassisted effort recorded with 1:30 left in the second period of Monday night's (Oct. 11) home opener proved to be the winning marker.

North Dundas opened the 2009-2010 season last week (Tues., Oct. 6) posting a 4-3 win over the Panthers in Kemptville.

Tinkler's first goal in Monday's meeting with South Grenville was set up by Josh Stubbings and Brent Simms with 2:47 left in period one and tied the count at 1-1. The Rangers snapped in their second and final tally with 24 seconds left in the same frame and carried a 2-1 lead into the second stanza.

Adrian Lee knotted the count at 2-2 when he found the net after picking up a pass from Stubbings and Trevor Havekes with 5:33 left in second period. That set the stage for Tinkler's winner at the 1:30 mark.

Period three was scoreless.

Demons 4 - Panthers 3

Trevor Havekes converted a play started by Will Fawcett and Derek Simms into the game-winning goal 4:56 before the final buzzer in the Demons 4-3 win in Kemptville.

Tinkler and Stubbings cashed in first-period markers. Fawcett connected in period two. Peter Klein-Swormink, Derek Simms, Dylan Fawcett, Will Fawcett, Stubbings, Tinkler and Havekes all drew assists.

The game was tied 1-1 after a period and 3-3 after two sessions.

The Demons play their home games at the Winchester Arena Monday evenings at 8:30 pm.

2009-2010 Demons

Nationview Red Knights capture pee wee trophy

SOUTH MOUNTAIN -- Representing the Nationview Public School Red Knights, Shania Vanderveen, Karlee Ouellette, Taylor Sherrer, Payton Halpenny, and Sarah Henry teamed up and captured the pee wee girls (Grade 4) top team trophy competing in the 2009 Iroquois Locks Invitational Cross Country Meet.

The competition, held on Wed., Sept. 30, attracted 17 schools and 744 athletes.

Hein Sterkenburgh won the pee wee boys race and led a list of Red Knights who earned top 10 finishes. Hailee Coleman was second in the junior girls event. Owen Guy was fifth and Sjeord Sterkenburgh sixth in the junior boys race. Shania Vanderveen finished eighth and Karlee Ouellette placed 10th in the pee wee girls run.

Nationview also placed third in the overall team results in the K-8 division.

Jada Ouellette and Jordyn Francis earned top 20 points in the novice girls division. Cam Sherrer and Ethan Guy were among the top 20 novice boy runners. Victoria Corkery was Nationview's top senior girl.

Top twenty

The Nationview Public School Red Knights who finished in the top 20 at the 2009 Iroquois Locks Invitational Cross Country Meet on Wed., Sept. 30 included:front (left) - Ethan Guy, Jordyn Francis, Cameron Sherrer and Jada Ouellette; back (left) - Karlee Ouellette, Sjoerd Sterkenburgh, Owen Guy, Shania Vanderveen, Hein Sterkenburgh. Missing: Hailee Coleman.

The Nationview Public School Red Knights pee wee girls placed first in their division (based on the combine results of all Grade 4 runners) competing in the 2009 Iroquois Locks Cross Country Meet on Wed., Sept. 30. The champions are: front (left) - Payton Halpenny, Shania Vanderveen; back (left) - Taylor Sherrer, Karlee Ouellette and Sarah Henry.

North Dundas Novice House "B" Demons tie Athens 4-4

CHESTERVILLE — The North Dundas Novice House "B" Demons launched the 2009-2010 Upper Canada Minor Hockey League season by battling back from a 4-2 deficit and tying the Athens Aeros 4-4.

The Demons hosted Athens in their home opener at the Chesterville Arena last week (Mon., Oct. 5) and needed two goals in the last three minutes of the match to gain a point in the 4-4 draw.

Cameron Cotnam put the Demons up 1-0 when he scored unassisted with 3:45 left in period one. The Aeros tied it up 35 seconds later and took a 2-1 lead midway in period two. North Dundas evened things up at 2-2 with 7:45 left in the same frame thanks to another unassisted shot fired by Cotnam.

Athens potted goals with 7:19 and 3:48 left in the game and were cruising to a 4-2 win when the Demons rallied. Cotnam set up Ethan Guy and he closed the gap to 4-3, scoring at 2:57. Cam Sherrer became the Demons' saviour when he took a feed from Nolan Brown and Guy and netted the tying tally 49 seconds before the final buzzer.

Demons roster

The 2009-2010 North Dundas Novice House "B" Demons are: Bradley Larmour - goaltender, Samuel Sylvester, Bradley McLean, Spencer Horton, Liam Antille, Kobey Young, Nolan Brown, Joey Hannaford, Ethan Guy, Seth Christophersen, Cameron Cotnam, Cam Sherrer, Andy Cotnam - coach, Aron Sherrer - ass't coach, Rob Horton - Trainer, Leslie Cotnam - manager.

Dagenais pots three goals, WS Trucking wins 5-3

WINCHESTER — Edith Dagenais fashioned a hat trick scoring the first three WS Trucking Company goals in a 5-3 Winchester District Ladies Hockey League victory over Andy's Foodland Reds.

Dagenais buried a feed from Isabelle Dagenais and Natalie Brundige at 19:05 of the first period of Sunday's (Oct. 11) 8 am contest. Her marker tied the count at 1-1. The Foodland Reds had taken a 1-0 lead when Courtney Barkley scored from Nancy Bissonette at 19:46. They went up 2-1 at 12:40 on goal by Sarah Grady who finished a play created by Jada McNaughton and Barkley. Dagenais responded with her second tally at 10:26 finishing a play set up by Amanda Rylaarsdam and Brundige, but the Reds replied quickly and grabbed a 3-2 lead a minute later as Bissonette cashed in a pass from Barkley and Amy Darling.

Dagenais completed her hat trick when she used a relay from Isabelle Dagenais and Brundige to tie it 3-3 at 17:37 of period two. Isabelle Dagenais got into the act and cracked in the final two tallies netting the winning shot at 15:30 after taking a pass from Rylaarsdam at 15:30 of the second, and finding net again with 8:25 left in the game. Brundige and Edith Dagenais set up the play that made it a 5-3 final.

Roxanne Backes posted the win as the Truckers improved to 2-0-0. Kristie Wade took the loss for the 0-1-1 Reds.

Blues 3 - Stylists 2

The Annable's Jewellery Blues (1-1-0) used a goal by Nancy Pothier and posted their first win of the season — a 3-2 win over the Double Beauty Stylists (0-2-0).

Double Beauty bounced into a 2-0 lead in the first half of the 10 am game. Kelly Zeran (from Susan MacDonald at 13:44) and Meghan Gilmer (from Zeran and Robin Berends at 8:38) recorded the goals.

The Blues answered with the next three markers and skated away with the 3-2 win. Sonia Clement cracked in the first two finishing a play started by Aline Smith and Edithe Rivet at 19:00 and then scoring from Smith and Kelly Verhoeven at 15:09. Nancy Pothier took a feed from Clement and Jennifer Wilson and fired in the winning goal with 13:13 on the clock.

Carrie McCadden posted the win and Lorie Casselman suffered the one-goal setback.

Cooper 1 - Country Girls 1

Amy Fraser converted a pass provided by Vania Boulet into the tying goal as the Cooper Physio Pinks (0-0-2) played the Country Girls (1-0-1) to a 1-1 draw in the 10 am match.

Fraser's shot found the back of Karina Damato's cage 3:03 before the final buzzer.

Sandra Cloutier had teamed up with Julie Drouin to put the Girls ahead 1-0 with 4:41 left in the opening stanza. That was the only save Kristie Wade didn't make.

Jets open at home

METCALFE — Six games into the 2009-2010 Metro - Valley Jr. "B" Hockey League season, and the Metcalfe Jets will finally skate on home ice.

The Metro Division squad own a 2-4-0-0 record heading into Friday night's (Oct. 16) home opener at the Larry Robinson Arena against the Clarence Creek Beavers (3-5-0).

Osgoode Ward Councillor Doug Thompson will drop the puck at 8:15 pm.

The Jets will remain at home for their next six games, including a Sunday afternoon (Oct. 18) 2:15 pm matinee against the Gatineau Mustangs (10-2-0).

Minor Midget Demons open with 7-2 win over Rangers

WINCHESTER — Two-goal efforts by Brandon Cousineau and Mitch Kirkwood helped the North Dundas Minor Midget Demons open the 2009-2010 Upper Canada Minor Hockey League campaign with a 7-2 victory over the South Grenville Rangers.

Kirkwood was one of two affiliate players coach Dale Murdoch used in his home opener in Winchester last week (Thurs., Oct. 8). Mark McRae was the other Bantam "B" Demons regular who suited up and produced points in the victory.

"Mitch had two goals and one assist, and Mark had a goal and two assists," said the coach. "Obviously they both played well and contributed to our win."

Murdoch said he was happy to get the win and hoped the team will continue to improve and be more competitive as the season progresses.

North Dundas led the Rangers 5-0 after a period and 5-2 after two sessions.

Matt Picanco worked the Demons' nets and posted the win.

Kirkwood (2-1-3), Cousineau (2-1-3), McRae (1-2-3), Josh Freake (1-1-2), Ryan Byers (1-1-2), Colton Stitt (0-1-1), Patrick Speagle (0-1-1), Garret Milne (0-1-1) all picked up points for the home town Demons.

Demons roster

The 2009-2010 North Dundas Minor Midget Demons are: Matt Picanco - goaltender, Colton Stitt, Patrick Speagle, Nick Read, Brandon Cousineau, Ryan Romans, Garret Milne, Kirk Gibson, Francis Lebrun, Paul Gibson, Ryan Byers, Josh Freake, Daniel McSheffery, Stewart McKelvie, Evan Durant, Dale Murdoch - coach, Robyn Sadler - ass't coach, Doug Duncan - ass't coach, and Sharon Speagle - manager.

Thank You

AJ's INC. CATERING

Al & Judy Graham, and AJ's Catering would like to thank the community for their support in the first "Breakfast for United Way", Friday, October 2nd, at the Metcalfe Fair. Despite the rainy weather, over 260 people attended and $1,710.00 was raised. Inspired by the overwhelm-ing turnout, Al & Judy are rounding up the figure, and a cheque for $2,000.00 will be presented to the United Way Ottawa.

Thanks to everyone who came out! We'll see you again next year!

Wild rice to be re-introduced in watershed

FINCH — South Nation Conservation (SNC) is partnering with Ducks Unlimited (DU) and Plenty Canada to re-establish native wild rice in parts of its 4,000 square-kilometre watershed. A traditional, significant food source for First Nations and migratory birds, the wild rice plant is also invaluable as a wildlife and fish habitat enhancer and water purifier.

> Wild rice is invaluable as a wildlife and fish habitat enhancer and water purifier.

Plantings are taking place in area wetlands. With most of the rice left on existing plants to naturally re-sow, ripe seeds from them are dislodged into a canoe, soaked in buckets, and hand-spread in other suitable locations.

Throughout the years, existing wild rice fields have deteriorated due to damming and shoreline development, as well as increasing encroachment by invasive plant species, said Naomi Langlois-Anderson, SNC Senior Fish and Wildlife Technician.

"To thrive, this aquatic annual grass requires slow-moving streams or shallow lakes and is particularly affected by flow and water level fluctuations," Langlois-Anderson explained, adding that an independent study of the South Nation River basin suggested lack of suitable habitat cover was an inhibitor to greater waterfowl usage.

While DU is contributing funds to undertake sowing and harvesting of wild rice on SNC properties, and environmental and sustainable development group Plenty Canada is providing expertise and 100 pounds of wild rice, the authority is seeking additional partners to make the project community oriented as a means of getting local groups more involved in environmental initiatives.

"We already have letters of support from some fish and wildlife clubs to help harvest and sow wild rice," Langlois-Anderson said. "We'd like as many clubs and groups as possible to get involved in this very significant project."

Wild rice re-establishment has been ongoing in several areas of the province. The SNC project is an expansion of a much larger one in the south-eastern portion of Algonquin Territory, where it's seen as an important heritage revitalization effort.

Kemptville Campus Harvest Fest celebrates foundation's 10th year

KEMPTVILLE — A rib-sticking dinner, live and silent auctions, entertainment, a draw on an antique tractor, a chance to contribute to the dairy barn expansion, and a modernization project at the University of Guelph Kemptville Campus is all part of the Kemptville College Foundation's annual Harvest Fest.

The event is set to be held at the W. B. George Centre on campus on Sat., Oct. 24, celebrating the 10th anniversary of the Kemptville College Foundation.

The annual event typically raises about $10,000 to be invested in students and projects at the campus. It's the foundation's largest fundraiser and has been instrumental in helping the foundation raise $550,000 in funds and equipment to date, said president Colin Carson.

The annual event typically raises about $10,000 to be invested in students and projects at the campus.

"It's also one of the best fall gatherings of staff, students, alumni, supporters, and friends of the campus," Carson said.

The cost is $40 per person, or $300 for a table of eight. The event begins with social hour at 6 pm, followed by dinner at 7 pm and a dance at 9 pm, with the live band Assembly Required. Contact Ian Carley at 613-269-4256 about donations for the auction sales.

Carley said the foundation hopes to build on previous years' auctions, which have boasted an impressive array of items, from Ottawa Senators tickets to gift certificates for massage therapy, to artwork and home decor.

The tractor raffle is one of the many projects the foundation has introduced throughout the past decade intended to raise funds for the campus while elevating its community profile. The 1953 Allis Chalmers Model G was restored by Kemptville students under the supervision of shop foreman Allan Smith. Tickets are $5 each or five for $20.

For more information, contact the foundation at 613-258-8336 extension 61413. Tickets for Harvest Fest and/or the tractor raffle can be booked by phoning the same number.

Historical workshop focuses on the life of Julian of Norwich

MORRISBURG — Anne Kathleen McLaughlan, a member of the Grey Nuns of the Immaculate Conception in Pembroke, is scheduled to present a workshop about Julian of Norwich on Sat., Oct. 17 at Lakeshore Drive United Church from 10 am to 4 pm.

McLaughlan will be presenting two lectures in the morning, focusing mainly on Julian of Norwich. In the afternoon, she will act in a one-woman play about the life of this historical figure.

In 1999, McLaughlan performed this same play in the tiny church in Norwich, England, where Julian's reconstructed tiny cell is located.

This Saturday's event is being organized by the Seaway Area Christian Meditation Community. For more information, contact Robin Lane at robin.lane@persona.ca or 613-543-3412.

It's in you to give

WINCHESTER — Canadian Blood Services has scheduled a blood donor clinic at Winchester Public School on Thurs., Nov. 5.

Donors can drop by between 1 and 3 pm in the afternoon, or 5 and 8 pm in the evening.

To make an appointment beforehand, call 1-888-2-366283 (DONATE) or visit www.blood.ca.

Williamsburg euchre winners

WILLIAMSBURG — The white-card winners at the Williamsburg Senior Citizens' euchre event, held at the J.W. MacIntosh Seniors' Support Centre on Wed., Oct. 7, were Lorraine Tupper, Betty Barkley, and Sheila Crowder.

The yellow-card winners were Evelyn Schwerdtfeger, Graham Pemberton, and Ruth Casselman, while Crowder, David Brown, Bert DeWitt, and Pemberton won the draws.

Mary Rutley and Howard Kennedy won the door prizes.

The next euchre event is scheduled for Wed., Oct. 21.
