Government funding to be scarce in 1985 say area reeves

By Alvah Hanrahan
Record News Editor

Area municipal officials say on the whole 1984 was a fairly satisfactory year for local projects although money from provincial sources was tight. The situation promises to be no better in 1985, they predict.

Chesterville reeve Carl Ward said the village had successfully supervised the second phase of paving on King Street to end that section of the work. "We'd like to complete the rest of King Street in 1985," Mr. Ward commented, "and we've also done some preliminary work on Victoria Street."

Another Chesterville village project will see some updating of the hydro system involving moving of hydro poles early in 1985, "whether or not the Ministry of Transport and Communications comes up with the money," said Mr. Ward.

"The past year's work cost us $200,000 and we received only $42,000 on road subsidies."

As well, the village is considering moving over to cable TV facilities in the future. Already a Smiths Falls firm has expressed interest in establishing a network locally. The company is seeking a mandate from the federal government authorities and when this is received will be in a position to negotiate with the village regarding prices and long-term communications facilities. The same company is also interested in moving into Morrisburg.

As far as recreation is concerned Chesterville is moving ahead quickly with the soon-to-be-completed poolside building.

Mr. Ward said the new change room facility with its cement block construction will not deteriorate like the previous building did and should be completed by spring of this year.

The village is considering moving over to computers in the office and this system, Mr. Ward indicated, would be especially good for billing and would pay for itself in a few years. The system has been studied by council over the past eight or 10 months. Even with the grants available, though, there would still be a shortfall of $40,000 to be provided by the village to pay for a system to be installed. Consequently the matter is still under review.

An Ontario government program being considered by Chesterville is known as the Ontario Neighborhood Improvement Program (ONIP). The village qualifies for inclusion in this program which would involve receiving grants from the province in the future for upgrading local facilities.

On the whole, concluded reeve Ward "we're quite pleased with what has been going on in the past year and hope to continue."

In Finch village the immense project concerning the senior citizens housing complex has already started with the sod being turned in November of 1984. Councillor Dalton Ouderkirk said the facility should be completed by fall. As well, there is still paving work to be done in the village and more of this will be done in 1985, with the streets due to be upgraded.

Finch township tax rates should stay on an even keel, reeve Ralph MacKenzie said. "We hope to hold taxes where they were last year," said Mr. MacKenzie, "although the school rate will probably be up some."

"Money was tight last year," continued the reeve, "but overall it was a pretty good year."

Mr. MacKenzie said the township resurfaced 2.6 kilometers of road and intends to continue with approximately the same distance in 1985. As well, road work will be carried out between the 7th and 8th concessions. The development road between the 11th and 12th concessions with also receive attention from the road department. This will take place despite meagre funding from the province for roadwork.

"It doesn't look good at all as far as getting extra money from the government is concerned," said the reeve, "and that curtails our work quite a bit."

Mr. MacKenzie said the Crysler dike project recently completed by the South Nation Conservation Authority was an excellent job and should serve the community well in future flood prevention.

"The county road east of Crysler village needs some construction and paving," he added, "and hopefully we can get some of that done this year."

The big news in Osnabruck township is the site for an industrial park recently purchased. The land, located near the Kraft bulk cheese plant, cost the municipality roughly $130,000. The site is intended to have several uses other than industry which the township hopes to attract to the area. Presently being surveyed, the property will also provide for recreational use and possibly a housing development.

Tax-wise, Osnabruck township hopes to hold taxes down as much as possible.

"I don't think the rate will rise that much," said reeve Stewart Hart, "and our auditors have already done some preliminary work on the budget."

"We're looking for grants from the government and hope to get some industry in here. I think this industrial park will be something to watch in the coming year and it should really take off."

Williamsburg township's two megaprojects are the $1.8 million sewer system and $1.3 million senior citizens housing complex. "That's a lot for a small village," commented reeve Johnny Whitteker. The senior citizens complex should be finished and ready to move into around March, said reeve Whitteker. "It's coming along very well with the roof enclosing the building and only the inside work to be done."

Roadwork in the township saw the usual 3.4 kilometers paved. The east-west road where the sewer pipes were installed is finished and 1985 will see the north-south road along highway 31 torn up and renewed when the system is installed along each side of the highway to serve the residences and businesses there. "We're going to tender any time for this," Mr. Whitteker said.

As far as taxes are concerned in Williamsburg township "we're hoping to hold the tax rate to five per cent, although we haven't yet settled wages for the coming year. We'll do that at the first council meeting of 1985 and make it retroactive to January 1."

Farmers organize

WINCHESTER (Staff) - A local farmer, Dan Harkin, has become a founding member of a lobby group to fight for tax reform policies affecting Canadian agriculture.

Mr. Harkin, an employee of Agriculture Canada, and others who include Donald Good, an Ottawa lawyer and agrologist and William Graham, a consulting agrologist, belong to the Farm Finance and Tax Research Institute.

One of the primary goals of the Institute is to achieve the repeal of Section 31 of Canada's Income Tax Act. This section of the act permits the deduction of only $5000 for farm losses. Members of the institute say beginning farmers should be able to write off losses against their off-farm income and should be treated like any other business.

The institute opposes the position of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture which recently proposed a formula of farm losses that farmers should be able to deduct from taxes based on the size of their off-farm income. The newly formed group says works against the interests of those beginning farmers genuinely trying to make a go of farming.

"If the OFA is concerned about non-farmers using farms as a tax shelter then it should address that problem and not penalize the legitimate farmer using off-farm income to develop his farm," Mr. Harkin said recently, describing the goals of the institute.

The Farm and Finance and Tax Research Institute's proposal calls for two classes of farmer: commercial and non-commercial. The latter group would include those who have no realistic expection of ever developing their properties into profit-making farms.

The new organization is currently seeking to increase its membership and hopes to attract a wide variety of members including farmers, consultants and corporate members.

Fishy incident on highway 401: hijack

MORRISBURG (Staff) - A tractor-trailer rig, owned by Globe Fish of Montreal, was hijacked at gunpoint in Cornwall and the trailer section of the vehicle was found abandoned at a highway service station near Morrisburg. The incident took place on Boxing Day.

At approximately 9pm Wednesday a 42-year old Montreal truck driver Vlassios Karahalios was forced at gunpoint to lie down in the sleeping portion of his cab just after leaving the Fifth Wheel Truck Stop in Cornwall. He was approached by two men, one of whom was armed with a revolver.

With Mr. Karahalios aboard the hijackers then drove the truck most of the night, reportedly stopping at one unknown location for about an hour.

Around 6am Mr. Karahalios was left on the 401 near the Curry Hill exit in the Lancaster area. The trailer was found at a Morrisburg Shell garage with some of the fish cargo missing. There had been about $61,000 worth of frozen fish bound for Toronto aboard the truck.

A spokesman for the Morrisburg detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police said the investigation into the kidnapping and hijacking is continuing but no arrests have been made.

MNR funds SNRCA and Williamsburg twp. for forestry projects

BERWICK (Staff) - The Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources and the government of Canada have announced a joint grant of funds to the South Nation Conservation Authority and to Williamsburg township.

Announced last week by Flora MacDonald, federal Immigration and Employment minister, and Ontario Natural Resources minister Alan Pope, the projects will provide nine seasonal jobs for SNRCA to administer and six similar jobs in Williamsburg township.

The conservation authority has been granted $53,769 to provide for 117 work weeks. This translates into 13 weeks of work for the team. In Williamsburg 78 work weeks have been allotted for a total $30,780.

The SNRCA grant is primarily for forestry and is part of an ongoing project at the Mountain Provincial Wildlife area. In that location maintenance work will be performed, dead and dying trees will be removed and boundary areas will be cleared.

Picnic areas under the jurisdiction of the authority such as Cass Bridge will be a maintained with the main improvements being clearing, brushing and tree pruning. As well, land under forest management will also be maintained.

In Williamsburg 400 acres of bush owned by the township is managed by Natural Resources. Located east of Elma, the forest will be maintained as part of last winter's program. Protective and hand pruning of white spruce and the removal of poor quality trees from hardwood stands in the Williamsburg agreement forest will be carried out. The equipment is supplied by the township.

In total 86 laid-off workers in eastern Ontario will share in the project which has received overall funding of $473,491.

The federal-provincial job creation initiative is jointly funded by Employment and Immigration Canada and the Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources which also administers the program. Project areas include fisheries, wildlife, parks, mines, forestry and conservation authorities.

The federal government provides workers with their regular UI benefits plus a supplement to a maximum of $315 a week. The Ministry of Natural Resources provides support costs as well as equipment and materials required to carry out the projects. MNR may also provide a wage supplement of up to $60 per week to match prevailing wage rates.

Diamonds are a girl's best friend

Mary Chapman, Chesterville, was the very lucky winner of a $1000 diamond ring and earring set in a draw sponsored by the Brookslyn, Al-Mor Ladies Wear, Lots for Tots and Call It Casual just before Christmas. Brookslyn proprietor Alan Sharkey presented Mrs. Chapman with what she termed "a bonus Christmas gift" on Christmas Eve. "I've been wearing it ever since," she said of the lovely raffle prize. The winning ticket was filled in by her husband, David Chapman, at Al-Mor while he was buying her a gift there.

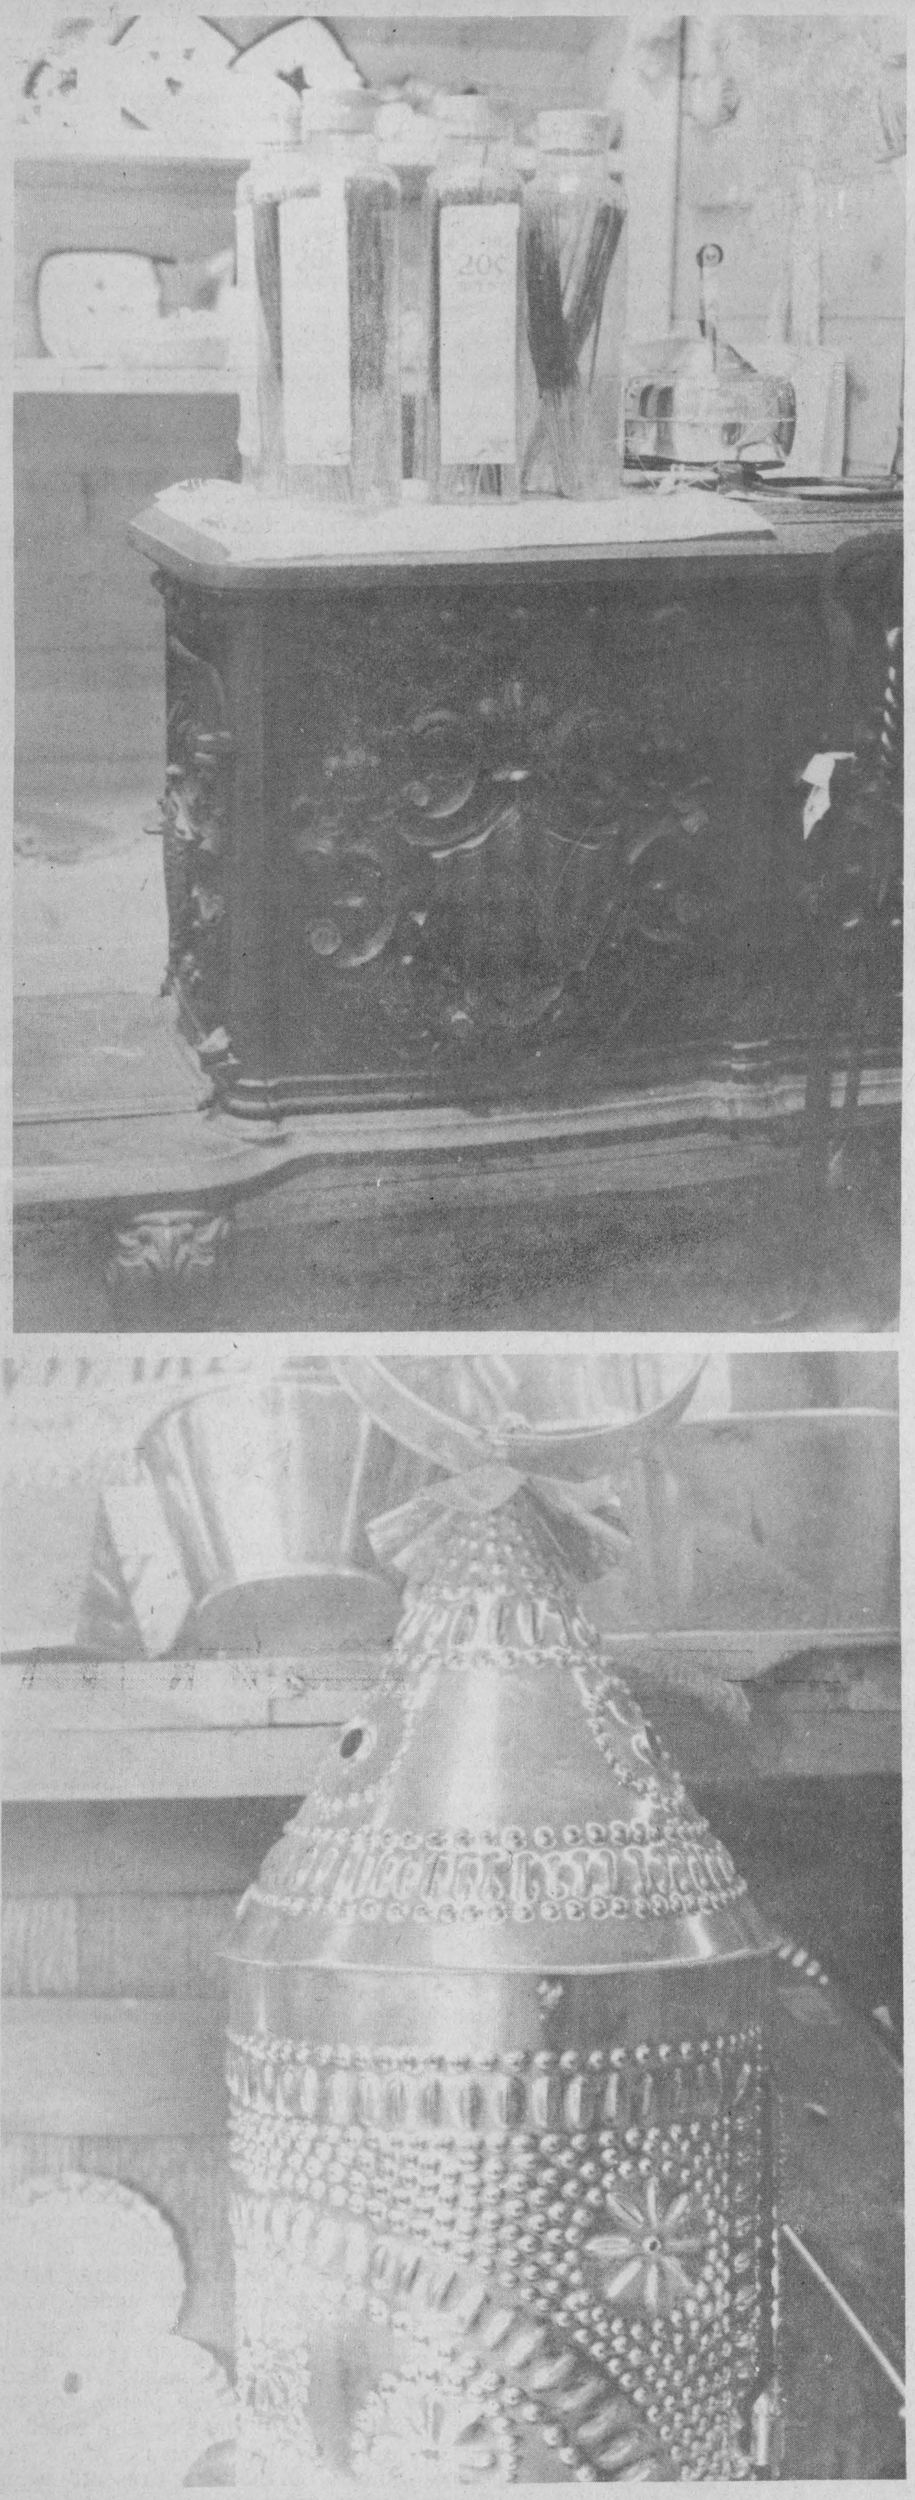
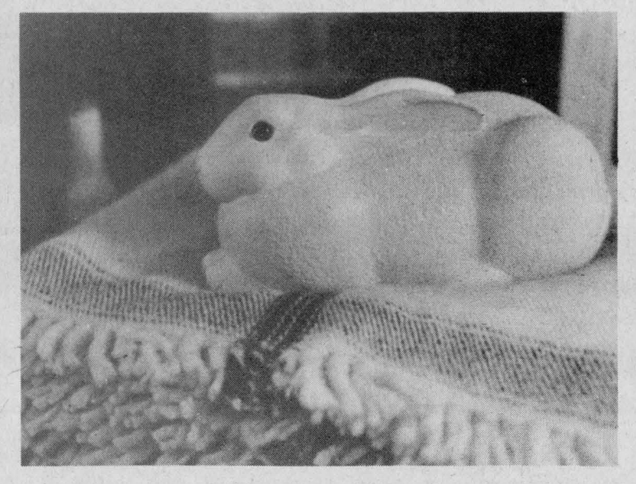
Winter indoor images





The weather outside is frightful, but . . .

Browsing at the Village Store is always rewarding and winter provides another perspective to the delights of the nostalgic atmosphere. Peering in through the window display past the blue and white stoneware you're likely to see a collection of handmade corn brooms or a shelf of choice teas or a basket full of sugar bags. Then again the shopper might like to take advantage of the selection of old-style tinware made right on the premises. The box stove looks welcoming too. The store is a photographer's delight, to say nothing of shoppers in search of the unusual.

Jack Frost visits countryside

The countryside was sparkling last Saturday when icicles clung to the evergreens and the bare branches of hardwoods. The spectacle doesn't last long, though, and the photographer has to hurry to capture something that won't be there tomorrow. By Sunday the ice was gone and a thaw had warmed temperatures and given rise to the white fog that hovered over the fields. On Sunday temperatures were back down to a more seasonal level.

WI lists accomplishments at Dec . meeting

By Luella Robinson

AVONMORE (Special) - At the Dec. 17 meeting members were encouraged to blow their own horn as to what the WI has accomplished , both in the past and present. Everyone is encouraged to attend all WI meeting and join in the fun of helping others.

Thirteen members and two visitors attended a lovely pot-luck supper held at Mabel Watkins.

The roll call for the evening was "a sleigh ride I remember." The motto was "love is only a mere chatter, but friendship is the real matter."

A Leadership Pursuit Course sponsored by the Ministry of Agriculture will be given in Finch Community Hall at 7:30. The course will consist of (8) Wednesday evening sessions Jan. 23 to March 13, 1985. Irene McIntyre, Jean McCormick and Luella Robinson will be attending.

Allison Fawcett, former national president of Holstein Canada, urged members of the Dundas County Holstein Club to lend their support to Farlinger and Ralph Fawcett at the convention Feb. 6.

"What these two fellows contribute at the national and provincial boards is just incredible," Fawcett said.

"I think the Holstein club owes them this support," added John Dalrymple, the club's past president.

The club elected its own executive officers and directors for 1985 at its annual meeting

Last night on the local rink a friendly exhibition game of hockey was played between a team representing the James Davidson and Son's Co. of Ottawa and the Nestle which was won by the home crew by 11 to 4. There was nothing to the game but Chesterville all the way. In the first few minutes of play, Munro, goaler for the Davidson's stopped the puck with his face which stopped the game for a few minutes, and the period was eventually closed 3-1 against them. Letters — The teachers' side

The Editor:

I believe the time is right to set the record straight. On Monday, December 10th, around 250 elementary teachers met in Avonmore to discuss, and vote upon, the final contract offer from the County Board of Education. The result was a unanimous rejection of an offer that came very close to being insulting. The teachers were told that certain parts, including a 3.6 per cent pay increase (.4 per cent lower than the trustees gave themselves), were as good as "cast in stone". Despite the insult of such a low pay increase, the pay factor received the smallest amount of discussion time of all subjects discussed. Despite media emphasis on our pay "demands" it was other factors that concerned the teachers most.

Matters such as the pupil-teacher ratio; making all teaching positions vacant (another "cast in stone" item), loss of allowances to consultants, co-ordinators and special class teachers as well as the Board's attempts to make negative changes to the existing contract, took up the majority of time. This final offer of the County Board of Education leaves one wondering if they are heading the teachers towards strike action so as to reduce expenditures this year.

If this is then perhaps the local taxpayers should assert themselves through the medium of a citizen's committee. Such a committee would have to insist upon seeing the positions of the teachers and the Board as well as examining the Education Relations Commission Factfinders Report. If what they see is an irreversible situation then perhaps an outside arbitrator should be brought in. The children in our communities should not be made to pay the cost of adult inability to negotiate in good faith.

Recent publicity about contract "demands" in the County Board of Education, the recent trustees' pay hike, the mammoth 11 per cent settlement for some and the inference that teachers are trying to bleed the bank dry cause me considerable anger.

The Board of Education, has, for years, denied teachers the right to pay increases based upon the consumer price index because this was thought to be inflationary. Now we have the trustees using the consumer price index as the basis for giving themselves a 4 per cent pay hike although they acknowledge the consumer price index to be 3.4 per cent.

Certain employees of the Board have been given an enormous 11 per cent even though it was known this was 7.6 per cent above the consumer price index. Because Trustee Joe Gunn, seeking openness in Board matters, was still denied information as to which group of employees has been given such a massive increase in these times of restraint, one can only guess the huge pay hike is to the senior administrators. If this is so then it borders upon being obscene - the senior administrators are already very highly paid with something in the region of a major Wintario prize each annually.

Now to the teachers - the people who labors and skills enable the administrators to have their high salaries and the trustees to have 25 per cent of many teachers pay - as a second income. Simply because there are more teachers than trustees and administrators does not mean the teachers should receive less percentage pay increases than the management.

Perhaps the public does not realize how small the salary of some teachers might be and so it may be appropriate to give an example. After spending three full years in university, and two years of studying the needs of the learning disabled child, take home pay amounts to $398.93 a week. From this must be saved sufficient money to live on for the months of July and August when there is no pay coming in. Included in the $398.93 a week is an allowance of $10.00 for teaching in a special education class - the Board is trying to take away the $10.00. Actual take home home, spendable money amounts to less than $300.00 a week.

There are many people, from post men to those in the factories in this area, whose take home pay is as good as this and they had no need to spend a fortune in university schooling to get it. A third of our elementary teachers are in this position and, whilst I recognize they could earn more if they went back to school again, is not three years of full time schooling enough? If the job wasn't being done well with the three years of schooling then why would the Board keep these teachers in their positions?

Both the S.D.&G. County Board of Education and the Teachers Federation owe it to the public to keep them fully and honestly informed. It is unfortunate that they have not seen fit to tell the story as it is. Be that as it may, I cannot stand by whilst the public is misled into believing that teachers are nothing more, or less, than money grabbers who care not for the children in their schools.

The Editor's Notebook

Well done, Mr. Cross

While 1984, that year of Orwell, continued its way through the months last year with no evidence of the end of the way of life we know and events took their normal course, 1984 proved to be a happy landmark in the life of a distinguished citizen of Chesterville.

We're proud of you, Mr. Cross, and we're delighted our government is recognizing your contribution to the office of the Privy Council.

In being awarded the Order of Canada Mr. Cross is being thanked on behalf of all of us for a job well done as assistant clerk of the Privy Council, with responsibility for much of the framework underlying modern Canadian statutes as they are carried out in regulations attached to our laws.

Mr. Cross achieved an expertise in this area of the Canadian political system that was often sought by prime ministers and governors-general as well as the law-makers and drafters of statutes.

We're pleased, sir, that your achievements have been acknowledged and rejoice with you in the good news you received about this decoration just before Christmas.-Alvah Hanrahan-

Non-event

The Ontario Tory leadership campaign appears to be something of a non-event. Gathered up into the enveloping folds of the well-oiled big blue machine, the heirs-presumptive to Bill Davis apparently wend their way, destined to eliminate three of their number in the contest for the rose.

Scour the printed media for news of the fight to the death and what do you find? The contestants appear to have hibernated for the duration. Maybe they'll emerge when the date of the Toronto convention draws too near for them to back off. The electronic media provide no more clues to the whereabouts of Timbrell, Grossman, Miller and McMurtry than do the newspapers.

Amid what provincial forums is the battle, if such it be, being waged? No-one, including the candidates, appears to care. Several of them made a swing through the area here but no one from any of the four camps bothered to telephone the newsroom of the Record to allow as how the handlers were propelling their man through SD&G for a few hours. Not so with the recent national election campaign when gung-ho workers phoned us every five minutes to impart some immortal piece of news about what the candidate's views of that moment were.

Ho-hum. There's a leadership change in the works in the nation's central province and no one seems to care.-Alvah Hanrahan-

by Wyn Thompson

January was known to the Indians as Kisapowatukinumoowepisin...if you try to pronounce it you may dislocate both your jaws...but it can be translated at "Frost-Exploding-Month"...and where could you find a more descriptive term?

Did you make New Year resolutions? Making such a list was serious business when I was growing up, as was the custom of hanging it above your bed as a reminder each morning and evening.

If I had religiously followed all of it, no doubt I would have died young. But by January 10 I went right back to reading in bed with a flashlight, forbidden after lights out, writing prose in church under cover of the New Testament, and sleeping in my undies under my pyjamas. The latter speeded dressing in a cold room in pre-oil heated homes.

Nowadays one rarely hears about resolutions. Perhaps with this old world hanging by such a precarious thread, a year seems too long a span to consider. Or perhaps with modern communication and transportation time moves so rapidly that we find one year no different from another.

We are so concerned with desperate governments, exploration of space, plus a number of private concerns that we do not enjoy the miracle of another new year. So to rekindle the magic flame I embarked on this perilous journey. The Farmer's only remark was in the form of a reminder that "the road to hell is paved with good resolutions." Well, so is the road to heaven.

So I began a list. Almost forgot how, so brewed a hot pot of coffee, took mug in hand, curled up in my old rocker, and wrote.

To take down all the Christmas decorations before March 1.

To throw out a decade of Christmas cards.

To say "no" to fattening foods.

To replenish typewriter ribbons promptly. (Amen, eh, Alvah?)

To clean my desk...I keep hoping if I ignore the littler long enough, it will go away on its own.

To check gas, oil, water in the car regularly...to relieve the stress on the Farmer when he discovers both the car and I have departed.

To continue to make long-range plans even if they don't always work out.

To arise bright-eyed and cheerful from my bed.

To be moderate in all things.

To put less seasoning in the Farmer's food.

To write a letter to friends I love.

To reform my temperament...'er, to work on it...one doesn't want to get too carried away.

To mend the Farmer's socks...oh, brother,

To plant fresh bulbs this spring.

To reconsider the bargain.

To keep a serene domain.

To refrain from nagging the man therein.

To finish what I begin and in a reasonable time.

To drive more slowly and not always be on the run.

To find time for quiet, laughter and loads of fun.

To follow all these resolutions...next year, or the next, or at least the year after that.

A friend dropped in today to wish me compliments of the season and to say Good-bye. "Good-bye," I said in disbelief. "That 22cm dump of snow in December really did it," she grimaced, "and I determined if my sister's annual invitation to 'come south' was in forthcoming, I would take her up on it."

Going to be away a couple of weeks or...? I asked her. No, was the emphatic reply, I won't be back until it's time to cut the grass. Which means, of course, she'll be gone for some time.

When you have lived almost seventy-five years in the same place pulling up stakes, even for a couple of months, isn't the easiest thing in the world to do.

There are so many memories, associations, built-in comforts that have become discretely but firmly entwined in your life that you hesitate to make a break for it.

Your home is your life as difficult as some days might be.

Your whole contact with this world has its focal point in that home and to leave it, even for a few weeks, is a wrench.

There is no stronger backer of Canada and all that is Canadian than my friend. You would have to know my friend, too, to appreciate that it is certainly not her advacing years which prompted the flight south. Just simple recognition that she could not bear the thought of several more weeks of struggling with her snowblower and shovel as she blew herself in and out her laneway.

I hope she rests, soaks up the sun, relaxes and lets tomorrow look after itself. She has earned that much and much, much more. Yes, I envy her this trip south and I don't feel the least bit guilty about experiencing envy. In this instance I think my friend is a lucky woman indeed.

It would be a fine thing to follow the warmth, I decide, as I venture forth to post some letters. However, those of us who remain in the valley make out quite well.

In lieu of strolling by a moonlit tropical beach, we play cribbage by the fire, later on pop white fluffy corn and spoon over mine with caramel sauce. And then, perhaps play a few records. Or if we do not feel like records, we read.

By the fire with a bowl of popcorn and a good book is not a very dire fate to wish on anyone. And yet...the warmth of the sun, the ocean breezes, the soft, sand beaches...the stuff of dreams. And who knows, someday?

SMIRLE — In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, Millan Smirle, who passed away December 31, 1983.
It was a sudden ending,
Too sudden to forget
We had not time to say goodbye
And only God above knows why.
We who loved you dearly,
Are the ones who won't forget,
We are thinking of you to-day
But that is nothing,
We thought about you yesterday
And the day before that too.
We will think of you tommorrow
And each day throughout the year.
No matter what we say or do
Our thoughts will be of you
Because a golden heart stopped beating
Two willing hands are at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Public invited to babysitting awareness night and graduation

(Staff) - A graduation ceremony combined with a public awareness night will be held at the Chesterville Legion Hall for participants in the recently concluded babysitters' training course.

Organizer Elva Rutters said the course went extremely well with the co-operation of several persons to thank for the success of the project. Many persons involved with the public, like the OPP and public health and nursing representatives, contributed greatly to the project, added Mrs. Rutters.

She has asked for suggestions from parents and others so that subsequent courses may be organized to everyone's benefit. A total of 20 young people took part in the first course organized in the Chesterville area. As well, the participants also organized a float which appeared in the recent Chesterville parade in the village. Mrs. Rutters also acknowledged the help received for that event.

The upcoming graduation will be combined with a potluck supper which gets underway at the hall at 6pm. At 8pm the general public is invited to see a film and to hear presentations by a policeman, a lawyer, public health nurse, first aid attendant and members of the volunteer fire department. As well, a day care supervisor and early childhood graduate will be on hand to answer questions from the audience.

The ID cards identifying graduates of the course will be presented on this night as well.

Mrs. Rutters explained that the event "will be an opportunity to learn what options are open to working parents and to update oneself on the rights and responsibilities of babysitters, employers and parents of sitters."

Anyone wishing to register for the next course may do so on the same night. Suggestions for the course should be directed to the village recreation office at 448-3285.

US mail scam detected and stopped here in Canada

TORONTO (Special) - The Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations has closed down an American-based mail scam operating out of Toronto and warned consumers to disregard a questionnaire distributed by the operation.

An investigation by the ministry's business practices division revealed that an unregistered company calling itself Federal Testing Authority had, during the past two weeks, distributed through the mail a 10-question survey to 50,000 households in seven Ontario cities.

For completing and returning the survey, along with a cheque for $16.80 "to cover postage and handling", questionnaire recipients were promised a gift, claimed to be worth between $260 and $2,000.

Consumer minister Dr. Robert Elgie says anyone who received the Federal Testing Authority questionnaire should discard it.

"Consumers should be very cautious when asked in any way to send money through the mail. If there are doubts about the legitimacy of a mail solicitation, this ministry or the Better Business Bureau should be contacted immediately." Dr. Elgie warned.

On December 13, the ministry issued a cease and desist order against Federal Testing Authority of Miami Beach, Florida, and its Canadian representative, Leo Popkin, also of Miami Beach.

During a Dec. 12 interview with ministry investigators in Toronto, Mr. Popkin voluntarily signed a letter authorizing the Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations to take possession of all correspondence directed to Federal Testing at its Adelaide St. W. Toronto address.

At that time, 176 letters from questionaire respondents were seized. All mailed responses to the Federal Testing Authority questionnaire will be returned to sender by the ministry.

WDMH hopes to cure fundraising ills in future

WINCHESTER (Staff) - Starting next month, Winchester District Memorial Hospital will be appealing directly to former patients as part of an on-going fundraising program.

"We're appealing to the public who use the hospital the most, which are the in-patients," said Wayne Burns, chairman of the hospital's public relations committee.

Two weeks after their discharge from the hospital, former in-patients will receive a letter soliciting funds.

"We thought we would target the user to some extent," Burns said. "This hospital does need their financial support to keep on going."

The hospital needs an on-going fundraising program, hospital executive director Bert Stel said, because the budget provided by the Ministry of Health covers only operating expenses, and does not allow extra funds for expanding and upgrading services.

The annual budget, which increases by approximately five per cent per year, is currently more than $7 million, Burns said. "We can just operate this hospital very, very tightly with this budget," he added.

An equipment depreciation allowance is included in the ministry budget, Stel said, but funding to cover building depreciation is not included. The annual allowance for equipment depreciation is about $96,000.

The hospital needs additional funds through donations to acquire new, up-to-date equipment, he added.

"We're not underestimating what the service clubs have done and what the municipalities and the donations of private citizens have done," Burns said. They've done a lot."

"When the hospital was originally constructed in 1948, Stel said, the board chairman Walter MacDonald and other volunteers "spent countless hours trying to get the hospital going."

The first major expansion in 1955 didn't require much fundraising, he added. A northern extension to the centre section of the building was added at a cost of approximately $36,000.

"In 1968, of course, there was the big push and we had the expansion from 89 beds to 128 beds," Stel said. A direct fundraising approach was not required in 1968 either, because government grants were increased at that time.

In addition to service club activity over the years, private citizens have made donations, used primarily for replacing or buying new equipment.

The hospital went to the community for the first time to help fund this year's laboratory expansion and relocation project, using a low-key approach to service clubs and municipalities.

A more direct approach is being attempted next year, Stel said, because the hospital requires over $300,000 to meet its immediate needs.

These needs include an additional $20,000 required for the lab project, a proposed diagnostic ultrasound unit, replacement of heart monitors in the intensive care unit.

In the near future, the hospital board will also be considering the possibility of computerizing information and accounting systems. Computerization would require an initial outlay of $75,000-$100,000.

"We may break even this year, but only by operating the hospital extremely frugally as far as staffing is concerned," Stel said.

The hospital is still considering a master plan for future growth, which would have to be drawn up by an outside firm of consultants to be approved by the Ministry of Health. The entire project would cost over $60,000.

The hospital has about 3,200 in-patients each year. It costs over $200 to stay in the hospital for one day, and Ontario Health Insurance Plan (OHIP) premiums cover only 25 per cent of the total health care bill. The remaining 75 per cent must come from the Ministry of Health's other sources of revenue.

The hospital will expand its letter campaign to include out-patients if the approach proves to be successful this year. A hospital in Toronto used a similar fundraising technique to both in-patients and out-paitents and achieved "fantastic success," Burns said.

"We are hoping through this new approach that we will be in a better position to explain what the financial picture is in reality," Stel said.

Queen's Park Report

by Noble Villeneuve

This year, the residents of the three United Counties, like people all across Ontario, will elect representatives to serve in our municipal governments. Local representatives serve on our municipal councils, school boards, and electricity and public utility commissions: they are responsible for overseeing local budgeting, policy-making and long-term planning. Local government spending in Ontario will be more than $14 billion in 1985.

Municipalities are already gearing up for Local Government Week. From January 14 to 19, 1985, community activity will focus on the people, organizations and services which make up local government. The Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing, in co-operation with other provincial ministries, is making resources available to help municipalities mount their own Local Government Week activities and events.

Through Local Government Week, people can increase their understanding of how local government works. By promoting a positive awareness of the role played by local government, people will gain respect for the contributions made by our representatives at the local level. In turn, this will encourage participation and involvement in local government process.

As well as highlighting the contributions made by our elected representatives, Local Government Week will pay tribute to the people who work for the communities: our teachers, library workers, social workers, the people who make sure that our water is clean and plentiful and our roads are in good repair. Local Government Week is a chance for everyone, from volunteers to elected representatives, to talk with the public and develop community support.

From January 14 to 19 next year, Ontarians will have a unique chance to salute the work of local government. Nowhere are there better managed, more responsible communities than in the province of Ontario. Local Government Week will give credit where credit is due.

The new firehall in Williamsburg has modern and up-to-date facilities that will assist in the delivery of efficient fire-fighting services to the community. Congratulations to the volunteer fire department of Williamsburg.

I recently attended a farewell party in honor of the Rev. Cannon Frank Lawlor, who is retiring from pastoral duties in Hawkesbury. Once again, I would like to wish Rev. Lawlor and his family a happy and healthy future.

I also attended the annual meeting of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture for Glengarry county. I would like to wish them good luck in the upcoming year.

Congratulations to all OFA members for the strong lobbying position they have worked to maintain at both levels of government in the past year.

As we approach the holiday season, I would like to extend to you and yours my personal best wishes for a joyous Christmas and New Year.

We in Canada and Ontario are very fortunate, yet even here there are those - the elderly, the ill, the needy - whom we should not forget. We should all do what we can to make this season a little brighter for everyone in the community.

WI collects hospital donation

Cards were addressed and boxes packed while lovely lunch in keeping with the season was enjoyed, served by Mrs. Nugent, assisted by Mrs. Rita McGill. Mrs. Muriel MacMillan thanked Mrs. Nugent for providing a holiday atmosphere for our meeting.

Eva A. E. Justus

Eva Anna Miriam Justus, a Winchester resident, died at her home December 20, 1984. She was 84.

Born December 6, 1900 in Mountain township, Miss Justus was the daughter of Richard Willis and Edith Melissa (McConkey) Justus.

Miss Justus is survived by brothers Howard and Bill and her sister Helen. She was predeceased by a brother, Mac. She was a member of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Winchester.

The funeral took place from Vice and Craig Funeral Home, Winchester, December 22 at 10:30am. Rev. L. Smith officiated. Interment was at Maple Ridge Cemetery. Pallbearers were Don Scott, Jim Daniels, Randy Vice and Lyle Redmond.

Metcalfe takes title in tourney

(Staff) - Chesterville Bantam C Flyers hosted a round robin tournament, Friday in which Winchester won the 'B' title, beating Morrisburg 5-0 and Metcalfe downed North-Glen-Stor 2-0 to take the 'A' title.

In their first game, Chesterville Flyers fell to a stronger Metcalfe team, losing 4-1. In the fourth game of the tourney, Chesterville was beaten 5-2 by Morrisburg, which meant they were out of both title races.

In the 'B' championship race, Winchester tied their first game against Russell, 1-1 and also tied their second game against Metcalfe, 3-3. The second game of the tourney, saw NSG edge Morrisburg 2-1, while NGS beat Russell 6-2 in the sixth game, which meant NGS clinched a spot in the 'A' championship.

In the 'B' championship neither Winchester or Morrisburg could score in the first and the second periods.

The third period erupted in a five goal scoring blitz with the first three Winchester goals coming inside of a 2:07 frame.

Marc Sarault and Jeremy Lyall combined on the play at 11:07, allowing Chuck Droppo to score with a quick wrist shot into the centre of the net. Then 64 seconds later, Chris Lortie and Danny Cayer set the play for Stephan Drouin to make a quick shot, with the puck just out of glove's reach for Mike Barkley in net for Morrisburg.

Drouin and Cayer then combined at the nine minute mark to set Clarence Holmes up for Winchester's third goal. Holmes then put the rubber between the pipes again with the Drouin-Cayer combination setting the play.

Droppo and John Tessier then set the play to allow Dan McIntosh to get the 5-0 clincher at 3:05 of the final period.

Winchester goalie Marc Sarault registered the shutout.

The 'A' championship started out the same as the 'B', with no scoring in the first period.

The second period was beginning to look the same until David Stachon and Jeff Potvin combined to set up Chris Eggens with a quick shot into the centre region of the NGS net.

With less than one minute left to play, NGS yanked their goalie and Joe Speek scored seconds later on an empty net. Ian Ferguson set the play for Speek's goal, making it 2-0.

"Nobody knew until the 2 o'clock game was over, who would play in the finals. If Russell won it, it would have changed the whole thing around." Chesterville Bantam C coach, Adrian LaFlamme said.

"It's a day for the kids to play and just have fun."

Bantam Flyers take 3 in weekend play

BROCKVILLE (Staff) - Chesterville Bantam Flyers had a strong December 21 to 23 weekend of hockey as they dumped the Brockville Braves 4-2, Sunday.

Last Friday they played host to Cornwall edging them 3-2 and the next day they travelled to the Prescott Defenders' home ice and blanked them 7-0 with Flyers' goalie Steve Conley registering the shutout.

Brockville took the lead early in the first period as Rick Grabell set up Steve Gregus. Marty Robinson then set the play for Blake Sheldon to give Brockville a 2-0 lead entering the second period.

Ross Giles put the Flyers on the board with his unassisted shot which got past Brockville's goalie Tim Caldwell at 10:31 of the second period. Bobby Van Delst passed the puck over to Kerry Irvine, making it a 2-2 draw entering the third period.

Mike Desormeaux then set up Giles for his second goal of the night at 11:56 of the third period, which gave the Flyers the edge for the first time in the game. With 6:02 on the clock, Giles set the play giving Mike Desormeaux the puck for the 4-2 clincher.

In Friday's game neither Cornwall or the Bantam Flyers could score in the first period.

Cornwall took the lead with Steve Lamarche setting the play for Mark Carkner early in the second period. John Mackler then responded with a goal off his blade at 3:42 of the second period. Bobby Van Delst and Ross Giles combined on the play.

Carkner put the Cornwall team ahead with an unassisted second goal in the early part of the third period. Mackler equalled this for the Flyers from a combined play by David Lannin and Mike Desormeaux at 7:31 of the first period.

With 5:40 on the clock, Shawn Beckstead fed the puck over to Bobby Van Delst for the 3-2 clincher.

In last Saturday's game against the Prescott Defenders, the Chesterville Bantam Flyers exploded with a three goal second period, with Ross Giles scoring a goal in each period and David Grose scored a pair of goals.

John Mackler set the play for Ross Giles for his first goal of the game at 10:15 of the first period. Joey Barkley then set the play for David Grose's first of the game.

In the second period, it was Grose's stick that did the scoring, netting goal three from a pass by Bobby Van Delst. Kerry Irven and Van Delst combined on a play, setting up Joey Barkley, which made it 4-0.

The fifth Flyer goal came off Ross Giles' blade from a play by John Mackler and Mike Desormeaux.

After assisting with two goals, Bobby Van Delst scored unassisted and made it 6-0 with 9:34 remaining in the third period. The 7-0 clincher was by Giles and was set by Barkley with 4:14 remaining in regulation time.

WANT TO APPEAL YOUR ASSESSMENT?

You still have time to appeal your 1984 assessment if you feel your home or business property has been improperly assessed.

Your assessment is important because the amount of property tax you pay depends on it, in that the assessed value of your property is multiplied by your municipal and school mill rate to determine your 1985 property taxes.

Notices of Assessment have been mailed to property owners and tenants whose assessments have changed since last year. Open houses have been held in your area to answer questions and amend assessment information if necessary. Open house dates and locations were announced in a previous advertisement.

The Assessment Roll has now been delivered to your municipality for the purposes of calculating the amount of taxes you must pay on your property in 1985. For information on your assessment, the Assessment Roll is now available for review at your Municipal Office during regular business hours. If you feel your property has been improperly assessed, and you have not yet made your appeal known, you still have until January 8, 1985 to deliver or mail an appeal to the Assessment Review Board. And remember, even if you did not receive a Notice of Assessment, you still have the right to appeal.

Appeal deadline—January 8, 1985

The Assessment Review Board is an impartial body reporting to the Attorney General of Ontario, which provides you with an additional opportunity to have your assessment reviewed if, in your opinion, it is not fair and equitable with similar properties in your area. The Review Board is more informal and relaxed than a regular court of law. You may present your own case, retain a lawyer or ask a relative or friend to speak as your agent.

To help you in filing your appeal, Notice of Appeal forms are available from the Assessment Review Board, your Regional Assessment Office or your Municipal Office. As well, you can use the reverse side of a Notice of Assessment or write a letter stating the property address and roll number, together with your reasons for appealing. Appeals should be forwarded to the Regional Registrar of the Assessment Review Board listed below.

Peebles gives C's tie game

METCALFE (Staff) - Saturday, December 22nd's game against Metcalfe was a 2-2 draw thanks to Atom C's Aaron Peebles, scoring with seconds to play in the third period.

The Atom C's zapped Metcalfe 8-0 at the Chesterville Arena on Dec. 18th with Keith Armstrong netting three goals, the third of which went unassisted.

In Saturday's game in Metcalfe, the hosting team made their presence felt as they got on the board at 12:30 of the first period with a goal by Dave Corkett who put the puck past Peter Forrester in net for the Flyers. David Pyper did the setting for Metcalfe's goal.

A combined play by Corkett and Greg Jeacle gave Metcalfe's Pat Hall a scoring opportunity to blast the puck into the Flyer's net at 4:28 of the first period.

Keith Armstrong for the Flyers put his team's first goal past goalie Cory Wallace at the 3:23. Armstrong's unassisted goal made the score 2-1 as the first period ended. Neither team found an opportunity to score during the second period.

In the December 18th game, Chesterville started out with Armstrong scoring his first goal of the game, which was set up by Aaron Peebles, midway in the first period.

The third period must have been sheer agony for Metcalfe's goalie Cory Wallace when ever he saw Armstrong or Robby McDowell closing in on the net. Armstrong scored the Flyers' fifth and eighth goals with Peebles and Cees Roosendaal setting the play in the fifth goal.

Armstrong scored unassisted to get the 8-0 clincher. McDowell scored the sixth and seventh goals back to back with Jason Desormeaux and Jamie Francis assisting in the sixth and Michael Barkley and Steinburg assisting in the seventh at the 2:50 mark of the third period.
