Welcome Parade — 2 p.m. Saturday

Santa Is Coming To Town

Fortunately the air strike has not grounded Santa Claus completely and he will make his annual appearance in Winchester on Saturday. What happens when he gets here is a parade story in grand style.

Scheduled for arrival in the village at 2 p.m. Saturday afternoon, Santa will arrive in the village proper by highway due to trouble in finding connecting flights into Winchester. The bearded gentleman in the bright red suit will be greeted by one of the biggest Christmas Santa parades ever assembled here. Swinging up on his sleigh on the Chamber of Commerce float Santa will yell "forward ho" and the parade will wind itself through village streets.

Morrisburg Legion Boys' Bugle Band, resplendent in gold and blue, will lead off with seasonal music to set the spirit and tempo. Members of the Blossom Park Majorettes will be close by twirling and leaping with skill and precision. Beauty follows immediately with lovely representatives Miss Ottawa Rough Rider Hendrika Steenbakkers and her twin sister Anne Marie; North Dundas District High School's Snow Queen newly crowned to-morrow evening; possibly the Dundas County Dairy Princess, Miss Winchester and Miss Lower Ottawa Valley Jane Casselman, and many more lovelies.

Waving and cheering with the spectators along the crowd-lined streets will be a host of clowns and comic acts who have fun plans for the parade. Radio Station CKOY in Ottawa will send along air wave personalities Bill Lee and Ray Green to add to the festivities. Floats? Lots of them. Definite entries on Tuesday afternoon were from North Dundas District High School, Ontario Hydro, Bell Telephone, Winchester 5c to $1.00 store, Winchester Fire Department, Boy Scouts, and a brand new entry from the Winchester Women's Institute. A veil of secrecy surrounds the W. I. entry and it should be a pleasing surprise.

CANDY AT ARENA

What the hundreds of children in town really want to see is Santa Claus, and they will. At the half way mark in the parade Santa will stop in the Community Centre for a few minutes to talk to some of the boys and girls and his helpers from the Winchester Chamber of Commerce will distribute bountiful bags of candy, courtesy of the same organization. Mounting up in the parade once more, it will proceed south to the hospital for the annual visit of Santa and his helpers.

Parade time is two o'clock and incidentally if parents are asked to leave the kids on their own for awhile or after watching the parade, Winchester stores are in the midst of the Christmas shopping season with stock at an all time high and variety. They would be pleased to set aside your Christmas selections Saturday.

SANTA'S POST OFFICE

Santa will visit Winchester again briefly on December 10 and 17 to officially take mail and requests at Santa's Post Office in the old Royal Bank building on St. Lawrence. This is a new seasonal venture sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and supervised by the Women's Institute. Santa will take time each day from 10 until 5 to talk to the children who drop in to to see him. December 10 and 17 in Winchester.

Returning to the parade, co-chairman Reg. Fetterly and Bill Collins report all in readiness for the major winter event at 2 p.m. Saturday. The town will be decorated in the festive spirit.

Rink and Fair Grounds Refurbishment Mountain Centennial Project

Work has started on the South Mountain Centennial project. An estimated $11,690.00 has been allotted for improvements and additions to the grandstand and construction of a natural ice rink at the Mountain Agricultural Fair Grounds in South Mountain.

The new rink to be built across the racetrack, in the centre oval directly in front of the grandstand, will be used as a show ring during the fall fair.

Buildings will be maintained by the Mountain Agricultural Society while the South Mountain Rink Committee will maintain and operate the open arena.

Financing of the project is broken down by Township Clerk G. L. Graham as follows: federal and provincial grant of $5,086.00; Community Centres Act grant, $2,920.00; balance from donations from Mountain Agricultural Society, $1,000; Community Rink, $500.00; Police Village of South Mountain, $500.00; Township of Mountain, $500.00; Oddfellows' donation of proceeds of July 1st races.

New Ministers Ontario Cabinet

Five new Ministers are involved in Cabinet changes announced last week by Premier John Robarts. Reorganization of the Cabinet means the retirement of two veteran Ministers and reduces the average age of the Ontario Cabinet to 51.4 years from the previous average of 55.7 years.

"Our opponents say we are old and tired," Mr. Robarts said after the swearing-in ceremony in the Lieuteant Governor's suite. "I don't think we are and I don't think we behave that way."

Named to the Cabinet are Dalton Bales, member for York Mills, who becomes Labor Minister; Rene Brunelle (Cochrane North) who is Lands and Forests Minister; Robert Welch (Lincoln) Provincial Secretary and Minister of Citizenship and Immigration; Thomas Wells (Scarborough North) and William Darcy McKeough (Kent West) are Ministers without Portfolio.

In the new Cabinet former Highways Minister Charles S. MacNaughton (Huron) becomes Provincial Treasurer replacing James Allan (Haldimand-Norfolk) who is now a Minister without Portfolio; former Labor Minister Leslie Rowntree (York West) has been named to the new Financial and Commercial Affairs Department; George Gomme (Lanark) is the new Highways Minister, and John Yaremko (Toronto-Bellwoods) is Minister of Welfare.

Leaving the Cabinet are Louis Cecile (Prescott) who was Minister of Welfare, and A. Kelso Roberts (Toronto - St. Patrick) who was Minister of Lands and Forests.

New Licence Plates On Sale To-day

Ontario's 1967 licence plates and vehicle permits will be available from Thursday, December 1st, for passenger cars and station wagons, Transport Minister Irwin Haskett announced this week. Motorycle plates will be available by December 19.

The plates and permits will be on sale at all licence issuing offices throughout the province.

The 1967 plates have been specially desinged to mark the observance of Canada's Centennal. They will have white lettering and numbering on a blue background and will carry the lettering "19 Ontario 67" on the top and "18 Confederation 67" on the bottom. The licence numbers will be separated by a crown, instead of a dot as in previous years.

Expiry date for present plates —and the final day for getting 1967 plates—will be Tuesday, February 28. Mr. Haskett said there definitely would be no extension beyond this date.

"The three month issuing period gives ample time for everyone to get plates," Mr. Haskett said. "For their own peace of mind, we hope more motorists will get their plates early and avoid last minute line-ups."

For commercial vehicles, trailers and conversion units, 1967 plates go on sale March 1 and the expiry date for current plates will be March 31. This procedure is the same as it has been for the past three years. For these vehicles, plates will continue to be available on a quarterly basis as well as for the whole year.

On and after December 1, 1966 the Uninsured Motor Vehicle Fee will be raised from $20 to $25.

Two Candidates Election For Reeve

Two veteran municipal politicians each with a long record of service to the community, will stand for election to the village's highest office, that of Reeve, in a December 5th battle of the votes in Winchester.

Reeve G. H. Reynolds has served in the senior post since taking over in mid-term from John Fader five years ago. Geo. E. Elliott has served on the four-man Council for ten years and has, on several occasions, been touted as a possible candidate for the reeveship.

The election for Reeve is the only question to be placed before village voters this year. All positions in Council and School Board were filled by acclamation. Polls in the village open at 10 a.m. Monday. South side residents of Main Street will vote in the Library, and north side residents in the new municipal office sections. Both locations are in the Town Hall, municipal building. Chief electoral officer for the village, Clerk C. R. Robinson, informs The Press that polls will close at 7 p.m. on Monday.

Three incumbent councillors will return to the long table January 1 joined by one newcomer. Returnees Don Christie, A. E. Dukelow and Roy Fawcett, both serving second two year terms, will be joined by newcomer Dwight Lannin. Fourth incumbent Councillor, G. E. Elliott is challenging for the reeveship.

Three returnees to the six positions as Public School Trustees for the village are Ron. G. Workman, Mrs. Irene Byers and Keith Carkner. Three remaining seats were filled by acclamation in the qualifying hours after nominations last Thursday evening. Completing the trustee slate will be Howard Summers, George Hanes and Gary Collins.

NOMINATIONS

A slow starting nomination meeting in the Town Hall on Thursday evening last began to simmer with a final quarter hour rush of nominations for all municipal offices. For the senior office, Reeve G. H. Reynolds gained quick nomination, with other possible candidates G. E. Elliott and W. C. MacDonald being also named. Mr. MacDonald withdrew from the race.

For council a total of eleven nomination from the floor of fifty was depleted to four necessary names by close of the qualification period on Friday evening at 9. Nominated with the acclaimed board were retiring Public School Board Chairman Raymond Annable, N. D. D. H. S. Board member R. W. Vice, and businessmen Lloyd Dixon, Walter Shadbolt, William Collins, Keith Carkner and George Elliott.

Mr. Vice, until the last minute, had all intention of qualifying for council. His application for election was overruled on a technicality that required his resignation previous to nomination from the high school board.

School trustees Raymond Annable, retiring Board Chairman, Brut Hodgson and Ken Summers did not stand for nomination as returees to the Board. Nomiated in addition to the members now named to serve were Edwin Duncan, Max Boyd and Mr. Annable.

Election for Reeve, Monday December 5th, 10 a.m. until 7 p.m. in the village of Winchester.

District elections coverage can be found on Pages 6 and 7 of this week's issue of The Press.

Guest From Down Under

In land area Canada ranks with the major countries of the world and dwarfs tiny New Zealand way down under. The shoe was on the other foot, however, when Junior Farmer Sam Inden of Ranfurley, Otago, New Zealand, compared the sheep farms of his land with Dundas County cattle and crop land areas.

The 23-year-old son of a New Zealand sheep farmer, Sam represented his country as one of two delegates to Canada in the International Farm Youth Exchange Program. The trip to North America was sponsored by the New Zealand Young Farmers' Club and the New Zealand Producer Board, meat, wool and dairy.

Returning to the sheep farm, it is 2,000 acres with 1,000 of the acres tillable, 750 irrigated. Crops are turnips for feeding to the sheep, general pasture and alfalfa. Why all the land? Easily answered. 2,800 cross bred ewes, 800 hoggets, one year old sheep, and 80 Shorthorn cattle take a lot of room and a lot to eat.

The delegate that so impressed all with whom he talked or visited while on the tour — age 23, educated in primary and secondary schools, youngest of four boys, speaks English, Angyican Church member, member and vice chairman of the Ranfurley Young Farmers' Club and takes a special interest in sheep farming, feeding beef cattle, irrigation and dry land farming, and high altitude grazing, over 4,000 feet, for sheep grazing.

Arriving in Dundas County last Tuesday, Sam was greeted by his hosts, Bruce Garlough and Doug. Keys, both of the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Guests with the Garlough family in Williamsburg, a hotbed of ideas and comparisons passed between Canada and New Zealand. One contrast of interest was about Christmas. In New Zealand snows come in August and Christmas is in the summer.

Second New Zealand delegate was Derek Glass, who visited with Ian Catley of Grenville County. Sam and Derek have uppermost in their minds with the visit to establish as regular exchange between Canadian and New Zealand Young and Junior Farmers and promote a closer relationship between these similar organizations in sister countries.

The trip for Sam will end in April of 1967 when he returns home via the Suez Canal and the Indian Ocean. Starting the trip in April 1966 he travelled to Hawaii and Vancouver and then to the State of Washington. A six months sojourn in the U.S.A. was mainly spent in the states of Montana and Iowa, guest of the National 4-H Club Foundation. In the western states he observed farming methods and techniques, many which may apply to his New Zealand homeland. Visits to 4-H conferences and camps preceded a country side trip to New York and thence to Ontario for the month of November.

Departure from Ontario came Sunday from Ottawa to New York and thence to London by ship, the Queen Mary. Destination, London, as a delegate to the Junior Ambasador's banquet sponsored for young men and women such as he by the British Young Farmers.

A ROUND-UP OF NEWS FROM THE DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOLS

OTHS MDHS NDDHS

(by Martha Moriarty)

Faces are pale, expressions are drawn and North Dundas is noticeably quieter this week as the student body settles down for one of the most dreaded weeks of the school year. It's exam time once again. The 286 desks which were placed in the gymnasium last Thursday present an impressive yet chilling sight to those who try their exams in the gym while the surplus of students are promptly stuffed into extra classrooms—temporary or otherwise. Our pity must go to the poor grade 13 students who are isolated for over two hours at the extreme end of the north wing; it's bad enough to be rigidly supervised in the expanse of the gym.

As we go to press, however, most students will have completed their set of exams; yet there are a few unfortunates, like myself, who have one gruelling exam left to write (in this case Latin). VENI, VIDI, non VISI! (I came, I saw, I didn't conquer!).

Friday brings the end of Christmas exams topped off by a liberation dance on Friday night. The featured group will be "Don Norman and the Other Four" from Ottawa, and it is expected that the gym will be filled to the rafters (with people this time) who will dance up a storm instead of racking their brains to find a point that just isn't there.

Don't forget that this coming Tuesday night, Dec. 6, is the occasion for the first showing of a "Reach for the Top" program in which the North Dundas team took part. The contest that will be shown on Channel 4 at 7.30 will show just how really fabulous the North Dundas students, whose pictures appeared in last week's paper, were against Ottawa's St. Pius X High School. It is really a program that no one should miss seeing.

That's all for this week—it's back to the books for me!

March Of Dimes Needs Fur Coats

March of Dimes workshops throughout Ontario urgently need old fur coats to keep up with the demands for the Eskimo dolls which are produced in these workshops by the physically disabled.

If you can help out, please send these coats to the Rehabilitation Foundation for the Disabled, 12 Overlea Boulevard, Toronto 17.

The dolls are one of the products made under the Foundation's sheltered workshop program. This provides employment for physically disabled citizens of Ontario who cannot compete in regular industry. Most importantly, it keeps them off total welfare.

The Eskimo dolls are sold through retail stores, but now demand is exceeding supply.

OPP Recruitment Success

The recruitment program recently conducted in the Ottawa-Cornwall area by the Ontario Provincial Police has produced 89 successful applicants. The Force, which was seeking prospective recruits who speak both French and English, attracted 53 bilingual and 31 English-speaking recruits as Constables and 2 bilingual and 3 English-speaking recruits as Cadets, and applicants are still being processed.

"At a time when other police forces are having difficulty obtaining men, we are most gratified with the results of the recruitment program," Ontario Provincial Police Commissioner Eric Silk, Q.C., said. "To qualify, these young men not only had to measure up to the Force's basic requirements, but speak French and English as well. Well over half of them satisfied all the requirements. The Englishspeaking recruits are a bonus and a welcome bonus."

"The people who live in predominantly French-speaking areas of this province have a right to expect that the police in those areas be able to speak English. The success of this recruitment program proves, I think, that there are an ample number of bilingual young men available for duty in predominantly French-speaking communities and, indeed, for duty anywhere in the province with the Ontario Provincial Police."

A prospective Constable in the Ontario Provincial Police must be between 21 and 35 years of age and have Grade X education. A Cadet applicant must be between 18 and 20 years of age and have Grade XII education. All applicants must be at least five feet eight inches tall and weigh between 150 and 200 pounds.

The salary for a Constable is $5,100 to $6,300, and for a Cadet, $3,800 to $4,500. Every new recruit is given careful training at the Force's own school, the Ontario Police College, and in the field under experienced officers.

The recruitment program conducted in the Ottawa-Cornwall area, which is O.P.P. District No. 11, was both regional and personal. Clubs, organzations, schools, churches, and prominent citizens were asked to supply the names of prospective recruits. During the final week of the three-week program, Inspector Jean-Paul Trudel, of Criminal Intelligence Branch, Special Serivces Division, a distinguished, fluently bilingual O.P.P. officer, was available for counselling and advising prospective recruits.

Ontario Heads Immigration List Of All Canada

More than half of all the immigrants to Canada come to Ontario. This year immigration to Ontario is expected to exceed 110,000 persons — 37 per cent. more than in 1965, and the third highest annual toll ever.

The Department of Economics and Development says that the majority of labourers joining the Ontario work force are qualified workers, technicians or professional people. Seventy per cent. of all immigrants to Canada from Britain settle in Ontario, with the next biggest groups from Italy and the U.S.

Ontario's previous highs in immigration were 147,097 in 1957 and 123,793 in 1915.

Monday - Election Day

There will be no television cameras and hot lights glaring down on the candidates. No maze of reporters seeking interviews nor adulating supporters clamouring around the candidates for the highest office the village of Winchester can offer. This election, however, is as important as any national or provincial election. The glory and the lights may not surround it but the importance can not be overrated. It is here in the small communities across the land and, indeed the free world, where democracy starts in its infant stages of local government and builds to the wider and grander scales.

Here in the small community the people have a direct voice with the candidate, the decisions, the questions, and the answers. The candidates are next door neighbours or friends, met daily on street corners or in post office. They have offered, after considerable thought and decision, their services to the betterment of this community. This applies not only to Winchester but to Williamsburg, Osgoode, Mountain and each of the individual municipalities which have staged a nominaton and possibly an election this year and other years. The candidate of your choice deserves your support at the polls Monday.

There is no excuse for a meagre turnout. The question of who is to head the municipal government is vital in the lives of all whose name appears on the voters' list. The decisions and ideas represented in these men affect the lives of each and the future of the entire community.

To the gentlemen of the council and members of the school board who have been placed in office already, congratulations — may your community benefit from your leadership. To the candidates for Reeve, good luck and congratulations for your interest and concern for this village.

To the voter, this exhortation. There will be no computer predicting the results of the election, so you won't know the outcome before you even vote or pass off the privilege of voting. Each and every vote is counted and helps decide the future of the viltage. If you are interested in yourself and your community you will vote.

Every 100 Minutes

Every one hundred minutes, every day, in Canada a human life is snuffed out in road traffic. It is not a dignified death. It could have been avoided. The victim did not expect to die.

Every day in Canada more than 400 men, women and children are plunged into agonies of mind and body in road traffic. Many are permanently disabled. They did not expect to be hurt. Most of them lay on unfriendly ground as strangers stared down at them while they waited for assistance. It could have been avoided.

A human being is no match for 3,000 pounds of racing steel and glass, yet every day hundreds of humans challenge the speeding bemoths to duels the humans cannot win.

The only chance for the human is to recognize and avoid the highway perils. It's called defensive driving. During Safe Driving Week December 1 to 7 the Canadian Highway Safety Council urges every motorist to practice defensive driving, and continue it.

Filled Before Finished

"We may have to start before the contractor leaves." Words of Winchester representative on the North Dundas District High School Board, R. W. Vice. Mr. Vice, in reporting to the community at last week's nomination meeting, may have surprised a few people present with his statement that the million dollar plus addition that is now going up at N.D.D.H.S. will be filled when the doors open September 5, 1967.

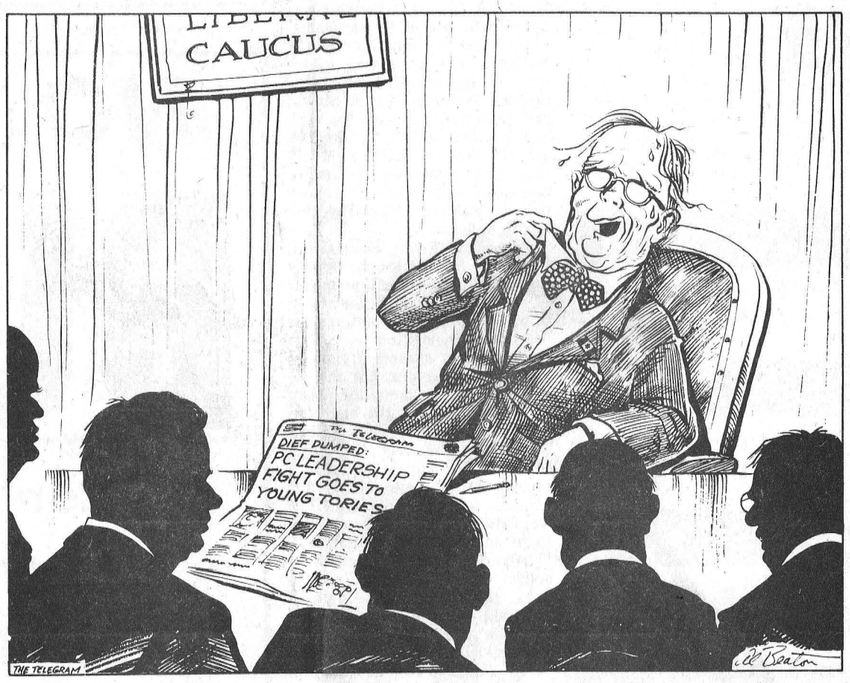
When the present construction is complete student capacity will be 1,000 and if the prediction of the Winchester representative is true, it will be filled immediately upon opening. Enrolment now at the school is well over 800. Averaged out over its years of existence, the enrolment jumps about 150 each year, and the 1,000 figure becomes likely. As a sidelight to the report, information passed on said the school was originally built at the demise of the Winchester and Chesterville High Schools for a student population of 660. This capacity in the estimation of the Department of Education would suffice for five years at a minimum. Within that five years the school will have expanded to almost twice its original size and apparently be full.

Five temporary classrooms are now in use and more than once the wish has been stated that things will change with the new addition and the temporary classrooms will disappear. What seems more likely now is that the temporary classrooms will be put on wheels, moved to the back of the school and rest for possibly a year before they are painted up and trundled out for use once more. No doubt the present School Board is faced with another construction program almost immediately.

What is the benefit of the educational complex that ranks with any in Ontario? Just that, it offers the best in secondary school education to the children of Winchester and Chesterville and areas beyond. With it our children are learning and doing in the finest atmosphere available anywhere and from a staff highly qualified, extremely competent and above all, interested.

The same situation no doubt exists in the Winchester Public School. Chairman Raymond Annable, in making his report to the meeting,expressed pride and satisfaction of his board with the accomplishment that has brought the Public School up to its high level of excellent and complete curriculum, accommodation and staff. The public school right now faces no major expansion program but, hopefully, a few years of stableness. A just completed multi-purpose room that will serve the school as recreational and assembly area and the community as a hall, enhances the school and brings it to almost a perfect position at least temporarily.

That's the school story.



"WELL, THAT'S ONE PROBLEM WE HAVEN'T GOT...HAVE WE..? WELL..? "

Meditations . . . by REV. CECIL W. TUININGA

Matt. 2:2—"Where is he that is King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him."

The story of these wise men, who came seeking for Jesus, is intriguing, to say the least. Very little is known about these men, where they came from, how they could be so certain, why they were willing to make such a long trip over dangerous robber-infested roads, etc. It is this that adds to the intrigue. Here were heathen men, obviously learned scientists, men who evidently read the stars, who came to the insignificant little nation of Palestine, to the infamous city of Jerusalem, asking to see a newly born king of the Jews, wanting to worship Him. It really doesn't make sense at all. Truly a mysterious episode, clothed in oriental magianism.

That these wise men were convinced of the King of the Jews being born is evidenced in many ways. First of all, that they came so many miles, a trip that cost time and money. Was it perhaps because as scientists they want to make sure of the star's revelation? Very clearly this is not the case. These men are in no doubt about what the star has revealed to them. They are thoroughly convinced, for they say "we have seen his star" and "are come to worship Him." It is not a question of whether, but of where.

One wonders what went through their minds when they found a sleeping city in regards to this so great an event. It must have been disconcerting to find nothing at the king's palace. Where else would one find such. a notable child? Kings are born in king's palaces, naturally: But not this king! If the wise men had any misgivings about a journey running out to a dead end in Herod's palace, it was soon removed when they left it, for the star re-appeared just outside of Jerusalem. The question answered by Scripture in Herod's palace was verified by nature's unusual star revelation. Undoubtedly God led these men to find and to worship His Son, King of the Jews, Redeemer of men.

Yes, these men learned by unusual means what Christmas meant. For them it meant to find and to worship the Christ of God. Their searching question, "Where is He?" was answered. They found Him and they worshipped Him, with humble praise and adoration and with their material goods. Yes, these men learned what Christmas meant, and no doubt it thrilled their hearts. all their lives.

The wise men's question is very revelant today. Everyone is singing, writing, or shouting, "Merry Christmas," but actually few know what it is all about. The wise men came many tortuous miles to find the "King of the Jews" but our modern civilization seems bent on burying Him. Our Christmas is filled with presents, drink, food, and fun, but where is He, the King? Christmas is that day that is meant to be used in worshipping the King. Only then can it be truly Christ-mas. What do we make of it, I and you? Have we found Him and do we serve Him, our King and Saviour?

"Dear Friends From Malaysia"

Dalat School,
Box 43, Tanah Rata
Cameron Highlands,
Malaysia, Nov. 19th

The Winchester Press,
Dear Friends:—

Greetings from the land of natural rubber. Here, in beautiful Malaysia, we have seen many things which at first seemed strange, but now are commonplace — rickshaws, drawn by weather-beaten, emaciated orientals; sacred cows wandering lazily along busy boulevards or across congested intersections; and innumerable motorbikes and bicycles overloaded with straw or boxes completely hiding the rider, who is entirely oblivious to the speeding modern vehicles along the narrow highways.

Travelling northward we pass the tin mines, and leave the heat, to wind our way up picturesque hilly countryside, blanketed with luscious green foliage, past many tea plantations, to the Cameron Highlands, holiday playground of Malaysia. 4700 feet above sea level.

Tanah Rata is a pretty town but displays the typical oriental scene — extreme poverty on the one hand and abundance on the other. Nestled not far from the highest peak on the Malayan peninsula, it is home to about four thousand people of many cultures—Chinese, Indian, Malay, British, and the one hundred and sixty Canadians and Americans at Dalat School, temporarily located at the Eastern Hotel. Several buildings have been converted to classrooms for the missionaries' children, who have come from all parts of southeast Asia to receive their elementary and secondary school education. Although under emergency conditions, after evacuating from war-torn Viet Nam, God in His providence has provided in a wonderful way for adequate accommodation, playground facilities and educational needs.

Penny and I have been living in a single room, but the satisfaction and reward of molding the lives of such a wonderful group. of students more than compensates for any inconvenience. Teaching the elementary French and music, and high school English has been an enjoyable experience for Penny during the first semester, and tackling modern mathematics for grades eight through twelve has been challenging and interesting for me. During the vacation, a two and a half month period when the children are home with their parents for Christmas, we will take up residence in two rooms. Four new classrooms, which have been so desperately needed, will also be completed.

We are thankful for the peace here in this country, and for the help of so many of you, enabling us to serve God in this way, to cultivate young lives that they might seek and follow His purpose for them.

As we remember the true meaning of Christmas this year, may each of us, not only think of the Christ Child, but dedicate ourselves to follow Him, who alone can change the heart and motivation of men that they might glorify and enjoy the One who sent Him.

A blessed Christmas to you all.

PENNY and JOHN HALL

SUGAR AND SPICE by Bill Smiley

What is the most difficult thing in the world to do? Climb a mountain? Swim Lake Ontario? Get through to a teenager? Face death with poise? Be a real Christian?

Nope. All of these can be done, if you have trained long enough and hard enough to prepare yourself for them; or if you have certain qualities of character.

Hilary climbed Everest. Marilyn Bell swam the lake. They began by climbing small mountains, swimming little lakes.

There are a few recorded cases of adults with great patience and insight getting through to teenagers. But they probably practised on little teenagers, the 13-year-olds, not yet battle-hardened.

One can face death with poise, if one has learned to face with poise all the little deaths that make up life.

One can even become a good Christian by starting on the little things like generosity and forgiveness and working up to the big hurdles, like humility and love.

The most difficult thing in the world today? To make and maintain a good marriage.

There's no place to train, for one thing. How do you get in shape? You can't start having little marriages in preparation for the big one. At least not around these parts you can't. Although some people try. I know one bird who says he has been happily married three times. All his wives are alive, not to mention kicking.

And it doesn't matter how many fine qualities you have. A veritable saint, of either sex, can have a rotten marriage; and a veritable bum, of either sex, can have a good marriage.

You might be better to read a good book about it, but after 20 years of advancing and retreating in that blood-soaked no-man's-land between husband and wife, I think I have a right to be heard.

There's nothing wrong with marriage itself. It's a venerable institution. And some wag will interject here, of course, "So is Kingston Penitentiary." But let's not be cynical.

No it's our modern conception of marriage that's all wrong. We laugh at the Victorians. Prudish stuffed shirts. But they were on the right track. For them, marriage was a serious business, evolved to meet specific needs in their society. For them, romantic love was usually tragic. There are no illusions about marriage in Hardy, Thackeray, Galsworthy.

Marriage: a tough task

We are the ones with the illusions. And delusions. For us, marriage is like that cotton candy you buy on the midway. It's whipped together out of hot air and sugar. It's pink and fluffy and you can hardly wait to get your teeth into it. And the first mouthful is sweet, delicious.

But pretty soon it's gone, and you're a little sick, and it's all over your face and in your hair, and you're left with a little roll of gooey paper. That's when marriage really begins.

Well, Mr. Diefenbaker has a favorite saying: "When the going gets tough, the tough get going." And that's what marriage is like. Those who just think they're tough get going and keep right on going. But we really tough ones dig in our heels and stay with it.

And stay and stay and stay. According to all the propaganda from movies, television, and the Ladies Home Journal, marrage is one big, wonderful miasma of giving and taking, of sharing, of total togetherness.

Oh, those things are there. You give and your wife takes. She's willing to share everything you have, from your bank account to your booze. Not necessarily equal shares, but shares. And togetherness? You'll get total togetherness until you look in the mirror some day, when you're 65, and realize with a shock that you look more like your wife than she does.

But according to us old sweats, marriage is mostly a matter of staying power. Stay out of jail, stay on the job, stay away from other women, stay on the wagon, stay healthy until your pension begins, and stay out of her way when the old lady gets steamed up.

Which I plan to do when mine reads this column.

"It may be safer, but is it as satisfying?"

The Seventh Column

Now, about that football game in Vancouver last Saturday. We've received a few letters. For instance, would you believe . . .

Dear Fathead:
I remember you. You were one of Frank Clair's crusaders who kept saying Jackson was better than me. Well, Fathead, I guess I showed you on Saturday who the best quarterback in Canada was. Yea, and I guess me and my team from that little wee city way out on the prairies showed you and all you easterners who had the best team in Canada. And just to prove to you that I mean business I'm taking out my papers right now to become a Canadian citizen. That's how much I like Canada, er-r-'rather Sas-Kat-Chew-On where all them good Canadians live. And we'll be down to Don Reid's new stadium next year just to show you it was no fluke. Yes sir, you better believe it.
Ronnie Lancaster

Dear Friend of the Divided Ranks:
It was truly a magnificent game. But in my position, you know, and following a policy of straddling the fence, I must say that I was glad to see Saskatchewan win and most saddened to see Ottawa lose. Votes, you know.
Lester B. Pearson

Dear Loyal (?) Supporter:
As a friend of Mrs. Wadds (the enemy) you no doubt will now see the light and appreciate that all the great ones come from Saskatchewan.
John Diefenbaker

Dear Jinx:
Will you please stop calling us to win. Your list of predictions is almost as bad as the CBC.
Punch Imlach

Dear Pal:
Realize this will be a little hard to take but my game was off on Saturday. Sorry to let you down Buddy. But, you know you can't win them all.
Russ Jackson

Dear Friend:
You will realize that my boys were not up for this one. I've said it before and I may as well say it again "you have to be mentally up for these big games." Although I can't give you the exact details I'll be able to come up with a better report after I hear from our psychiatrist and see the films.
Frank Clair

Dear Loyal Fan:
Sports is unpredictable. But just you wait until next year.
Ottawa Rough Riders

Dear Meathead:
That stuff you sent me that looked like glue but was really chloroform didn't fool me. I used my own make and wiped the stuff you gave me in the faces of those big Black Riders. Nice effect too.
Gluie Hughie Campbell

Dear Editor:
Don't think it hasn't been fun . . . because it hasn't!
Mayor of Vancouver

Financial Editor:
This is to advise you that the Grey Cup week-end has again been an overwhelming success.
Distillers Corporation of Canada

So a tip of the hat to the new Grey Cup champs. They were the better team last Saturday. But we still think Jackson's the best in the land, that the Ottawa Rough Riders did have a great season, that the Toronto Maple Leafs will win the Stanley Cup, and that Ottawa will win the Grey Cup next year. Yup, we're a real true blue die-hard.

Finally this week a word or ten about an important date. We refer of course to election day 1966. next Monday, December 5. There are several elections in the Press reading area and we would sincerely urge every eligible voter to make an all out effort to go to the polls. In Winchester there is a straight two-way fight for the reeveship. All other offices have been filled by acclamation. We are most fortunate in Winchester to have two prominent men interested enough in the town's welfare to seek its highest and most challenging office. Please show your interest in them by voting next Monday.

Be Sure to VOTE!

MATILDA TOWNSHSIP

Matilda Reeve Mahlon Zeron, fifteen years on local council, returns once again to office by acclamation. Nomination meeting in Matilda was Friday afternoon with a complete slate of municipal officials being brought into office. All the incumbents were returned by acclamation.

Headed by Reeve Zeron, returning for another term were Deputy Reeve John S. Thompson, and three-man council, Harold Boyd, Douglas Irvine and Harry Smail. Five incumbents returning as School Trustees were Lorne Mellan, Delmer Adams, George Cooper, Andy Cooper and Alex McQuigge.

MOUNTAIN TOWNSHIP

Although nomination meeting brought forth more names than necessary for filling of municipal posts the 1967 version of Mountain Township Council was taken into office by accclamation. Veteran Councillor Harry Williams was acclaimed to office of Reeve after nominees Delmer Timmins, Ewart Simms and John E. Thompson, for various reasons, failed to qualify. Mr. Thompson, retiring Mountain Reeve, abstained due to business, and retiring Deputy Reeve Delmer Timmins for health reasons.

Councillor Ewart Simms will be sworn into office as Deputy Reeve as he, with all members of the council was acclaimed to office. Other nominations for the Deputy's position were Harry Williams, Joseph Hyndman and John Loughlin. On the incoming slate Councillor John Loughlin stands as the only vetteran with newcomers Alton Casselman and Ray Guy joining the municipal governing board. Other nominations for council seats were Donald Erwin, Harold Allen, Harry Williams and Joseph Hyndman.

Hubert Riddell, incumbent school trustee, although nominated, retired from the municipal field and one new face, that of John Palmer, appeared on the School Trustee list. Incumbents returned by acclamation were George Corry and William Graham. Other nominees were Donald Alllen and Ray Guy.

Nomination meeting was held Friday in the I.O.O.F. Hall at Mountain with 50 in attendance.

WILLIAMSBURG TOWNSHIP

Long on council grooming for the position, John Whitteker is the incoming Reeve of Williamsburg Township. Incumbent Don Kyle, Warden of the United Counties, stepped down from the senior chair this year but has left his name stand for a seat on the three-man council.

A real election fight shapes up in the Township with two incumbent councillors, Graham Hess and Hugh McMillan contesting the Deputy Reeve's chair. Moving around the table incumbent Ed Hanson heads the list of council hopefuls. Retiring Reeve Don Kyle is standing for election and Hubert Casselman. Fourth candidate for the three-seat council is Mrs. Sally McIntosh, first woman candidate to run for a council seat in the Township.

The election fever continues into the battle for school trustees as three vye for election. Robert Coughler, Arden Black and Arnold Barkley seek the two seats available.

Police Village of Williamsburg trustees put into office by acclamation were Fred Pinkus, Ernest Trickey and Dwain Hess.

OSGOODE TOWNSHIP

In Osgoode the fight shapes up for council seats as Dr. W. A. Taylor was once again acclaimed to the Reeveship. Deputy Thomas Stanley also returned by acclamation.

On the front for three council seats the incumbents Stewart James, James Lee and Maynard McDiarmid are challenged by Philip McEvoy.

School trustees were put into office by acclamation. Named to serve by the electors were Stewart Holmes, Carman Blair, Albert McKeown, Bruce Acres and Maitland Waddell.

CHESTERVILLE VILLAGE

Reeve Carl Merkley was acclaimed to office for another term in Chesterville after nominations closed last Thursday evening.

There will be an election however with six men seeking four seats on council. Contesting the election will be incumbent councillors Keith Graham, James Fyke, Alllan Clement and James Moran, with hopefuls Gord. Lannin and Rev. Lorne Trimble.

Three school trustees were acclaimed to office, James Sullivan, Leon McMillan and Grenville Fyke. Serving second year of a two-year term are trustees Archibald Black, Stewart Allan and Lorne Thompson.

DEAR FRIEND:

Experience, leadership, active participation, foresight and sincere interest. I have brought each to Williamsburg Township Council in two terms of office serving you. With your support I shall endeavour to serve to the utmost of my ability once again.

The best interests of the people of Williamsburg Township are my primary objectives. As council representative on the Citizens' Centennial Committee and a proud citizen of our prosperous Township I anticipate and will work diligently for an even better Township community in the coming years.

In the forthcoming December 5th Election I urge you to vote for the candidates of your choice.

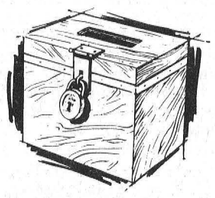
FOR COUNCILLOR

BE SURE TO VOTE

Monday

December 5th



IT'S YOUR PRIVILEGE

To The Electors Of The Township Of Williamsburg

As a young business man in Williamsburg and as the father of a youngster attending Public School I am keenly interested in the educational facilities of our municipality. Therefore, at the request of other parents and ratepayers and because of my interest in this important phase in the lives of our youngsters I am seeking the office of trustee on the Williamsburg Township Area School Board. Your support at the polls on Monday will be greatly appreciated and if elected I will serve you to the best of my ability.

ARDEN BLACK

To The Electors Of The Township Of Williamsburg

I have decided to leave my name stand for councillor of Williamsburg Township. As you know I will not be able to call on each of you. Therefore I am taking this opportunity to solicit your support in the coming election on December 5th.

Hubert Casselman

To The Electors Of The Township Of Williamsburg

Again I have accepted the nomination for school trustee in Williamsburg Township Area School Board and I shall be trying for re-election at the polls on Monday. As an incumbent member to the board I would again ask for your support. If I am elected your interests, just as they have in the past, will be my guide to decisions on this education board.

Robert Couglar

To The Electors Of The Township Of Williamsburg

LADIES and GENTLEMEN:

I have had eight years of experience as a member of your municipal council. During that time I have always endeavoured to serve you faithfully, to the best of my ability.

In Monday's election my name will appear on the ballot as a candidate for deputy reeve. If my past record recommends itself to you, I will appreciate your vote and influence.

Mrs. Sally McIntosh is running for Council in Williamsburg Township

A woman councillor, what does she have to offer?

Let me tell you:

"A resident of Williamsburg Township for 21 years, she knows the people. Knows them personally, knows and appreciates their interests and problems. Mrs. McIntosh wants to assist in the development of their interests and the solution of their problems, thereby making Williamsburg Township an even better place in which to live."

"Active and energetic now, in the future and the past. In the work of the community she has been a leader and an organizer. These abilities and talents can well serve the Township."

"Leading citizens of the Township community have asked Mrs. McIntosh for her candidacy for a council seat. They have already expressed their confidence by nominating her. They feel as responsible citizens this woman can do a job to benefit all of Williamsburg Township."

"A prime mover in the Citizens Centennial Committee, of which she is co-chairman, Mrs. McIntosh views 1967 as a milestone not only in Canadian history but in Williamsburg Township history. A proud heritage exists in the Township and every effort to program and improve should be and will be encouraged by her candidacy for a seat at the council table."

"Not unlike a majority of taxpayers in the Township to-day, she is not fully aware of the tax dollar — where it comes from, where it goes and what it does. As an elected member of council, your representative will do her utmost to bring to herself and the taxpayer a better and complete understanding of the tax dollar and structure."

"A married woman, wife of a former Township Councillor, Raymond McIntosh, the candidate is keenly interested in this Township and is willing to devote time, talent and energy to promote and develop Williamsburg Township. Not just a woman's point of view will be expressed by Mrs. McIntosh but the views, considerations, suggestions, criticisms and questions of a business executive experienced and successful. Nonetheless, where the feminine touch, intuition or resourcefulness can be applied the council candidate is prepared to do so. Certainly this will enhance and benefit the activities and development of the Township."

The candidate makes sense

will get my vote

She asks for yours.

Ottawa Report by Mrs. Jean Wadds

Parliament saw a very interesting comparison this week between young Richard Cashin from Newfoundland and silver-haired Colin Cameron from British Columbia.

First of all they come from the extreme East and the extreme West of our vast country.

Mr. Cashin is Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Fisheries. He has been in the House of Commons since 1963.

He did not win any extra friends by announcing in his maiden speech that he is the grandson of Sir Richard Cashin. This, accompanied by a rather superior manner of speaking tagged him with many as a rather pompous young man.

He was speaking Tuesday of this week on the "record of accomplishments of this Government during the last three and a half years. He naturally spoke much of his own province:

"Newfoundland still has many problems in this area, perhaps more than any other part of Canada. But let me point to the record of achievement of the past 17 years, and to the fact that a Liberal Government has remained in office in that province for 17 years. This Government has not lost its enthusiasm or its idealism. It has been able, with the co-operation of the Federal Government, to introduce programs and policies which are aimed at the very problem which the Leader of the New Democratic Party said has been completely ignored."

He was followed immediately by Mr. Colin Cameron from Nanaimo - Cowichan and the Islands. Mr. Cameron has a big twinkle in his eye and can ridicule with good humour as well as anyone in the House of Commons.

He said, referring to Mr. Cashin: "I have considerable affection for this young man. I have always had a soft spot for ebullient and boisterous children, having raised four children myself who now, with the march of time, have become middle-aged parents rearing another generation of ebullient and boisterous children. They never miss the opportunity to teach their grandfather to such eggs. I have learned to combat them effectively, I have thought to myself that, after all, even the most ebullient and boisterous children grow up. But since last night and this afternoon, I have entertained some doubts whether this is always so."

Well said, Mr. Cameron.

New records across the board —in assets, loans, deposits and earnings — are reported by the Bank of Montreal in its 149th annual statement for the year ended October 13st, issued last Friday.

The bank's assets, now at $5,423 million, are up $426 million from 1965, while loans climbed $112 million to $3,280 million.

Record high earnings for the bank's more than 1,000 offices at home and abroad were $19,905,599, or $3.28 per share, compared with the 1965 figure of $18,730,353, which represented $3.08 per share. Total provision for income taxes was $20,988,731.

Deposits at the year-end rose $390 million from 1965 to $4,995 million. Personal savings accounted for $2,307 million, up $140 million compared with 1965.

The total loan figure of $3,280 million includes an increase of $172 million in the key category "commercial and other loans."

Securities holdings increased by $70 million to $1,046 million, compared with $975 million in 1965. "Quick" assets were $2,091 million, against $1,859 million the prevous year, reflecting a high liquidity ratio.

Dividend payments for the year have amounted to $14,428,125, or $2.37½ per share, 10 cents more than in 1965.

After payment of dividends, the balance of earnings for the year is $5,477,474, to be added to the balance of undivided profits of $1,467,327 carried forward from 1965. From this total of $6,944,801, an amount of $5 million has been transferred to rest account, which now stands at $168 million, leaving a balance of undivided profits carried forward of $1,944,801.

Premier D.H.I.A. Member

Wilfred McIntosh of Williamsburg was honoured as owner of the high testing herd in the membership of the Dundas Dairy Herd Improvement Association. Winner of the Royal Bank of Canada silver tray, Mr. McIntosh's herd averaged 114% B.C.A. for milk and 112% B.C.A. for fat, with 19 out of 20 cows qualifying for production certification. John Hatcher, Manager of the Royal Bank, Winchester, presented the award at the annual banquet of the group in the Country Kitchen Restaurant.

Future changes in the D. H. I. A. were outlined by Bill Clarkson of Toronto, in charge of the particular program under the Livestock Branch.

Stressing that less than ten per cent. of the Ontario dairymen are participating in any form of production testing, Harold Clapp, Dairy Specialist with the Ontario Department of Agriculture, addressed the banquet. A former herdsman and farm manager with Fraserdale Farms, Toronto, the guest speaker is a native of the Manotick area.

He pointed out the advantage of grain feeding dairy heifers early, suggesting in most cases these heifers would come into production earlier. and would develop into larger cows. Experimental work and practical tests indicate the many dairymen underfed their cows in the early part of lactation and over fed in the latter stages. Far too many cows go to bed hungry and as a solution he indicated that "lead feeding" has proven successful with many producers.

In lead feeding the cow is placed on a high grain ration at least two weeks before calving and then as she comes into production the ration is increased to encourage peak production at an early stage. When the peak is reached the grain feeding is cut back according to production.

Reiterating the importance of information supplied through D.H.I.A. testing to improve the herd, he emphasized the importance of selecting best heifers and breeding to best bulls available.

Chairman of the Dundas Milk Committee Malcolm MacGregor told the meeting of the activity of the O.M.M.B. during the year. He pointed out that very soon a licence application form will be coming to all producers. It should be filled out and returned promptly.

Members of the Association Douglas Durant, Ken Carkner, Gerald Adams, Art Vandekempt, Gerry Van Vliet and Ralph McIntosh were appointed to the Advisory Committee. Tentative plans for a dairy feeding workshop in 1967 were discussed.

Chairman of the meeting was Dundas Agricultural Representative Doug. Keys. The program was arranged by Dundas D. H. I. A. Supervisor Reg. Strader.

Miss MacFarlane wanted to know what we did with the $4,995,368,152.00

Reading annual statements isn't Miss MacFarlane's cup of tea, but she put her finger right on the most important figure on our balance sheet, representing the highest total deposits in the Bank's 149-year history. Nearly half of this amount of $4,995,368,152, is the savings of individual depositors like yourself.

All that money was put to work in many ways and in many communities across the country . . . in industry, commerce, on the farm, in the fishing fleet.

At the Bank's year-end on October 31, 1966, a record $3,279,997,060 was on loan to people in all walks of life to buy cars, finance household goods, educate children and improve businesses. $906,160,879 was invested in high-grade Government bonds and public securities which have a ready market, and $139,545,596 in other securities—mainly short-term credits to industry.

Miss MacFarlane will also be interested to know that Canada's First Bank has been busy in other ways. We're starting our 150th year of activity, but we're not looking back on our long record of pioneering and achievement. Instead, we're looking well ahead. And moving ahead with a fresh, new outlook and new ideas and plans for constantly expanding and improving our services to you.
