Ceremonies held Friday evening

Maple Ridge Senior Public School officially opened

Friday, November 23rd, 1973, will probably be recorded in the annals of Maple Ridge Senior Public School. On this evening an official opening was held. It was the culmination of many, many planning and discussion meetings, followed by months of construction.

The addition to the school and the plans to change it to a Senior Public School had been a topic of debate over the past couple of years. Now the school is established and quotes form a speech given by a student, Fred Rance, may sum up the feelings of many: "When this school was being built I wondered what the many changes would be and if I would like or dislike the new school. I also thought it would be a welcome change but some people worried about open concept, could we adjust. I think open concept is better than staring at the same four walls all day long. Our school really isn't that open, and the moveable barriers cut down on the little noise distraction there is. I think Maple Ridge was very worthwhile and acts as sort of a stepping stone to high school.

Four other students addressed the assembled crowd during the official opening ceremonies, with each student receiving a warm round of applause.

Lorne Thompson, member of the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry County Board of Education, was chairman for the evening. Fraser Campbe l l, Chairman of the Board, in a brief statement, stated that the Board takes pride in construction of new facilities for education. He said the decision to enlarge the Maple Ridge School the Board felt was a right move.

Wm. MacMillan, principal of Maple Ridge, said that this was the second time in his career, that he had been able to work in a school from the ground up. He was appreciative of the opportunity to do so. Mr MacMillan while introducing the staff said that there had not been any energy or fuel saved at Maple Ridge in the last month, the teachers had been working full out. "Your children are in good hands, parents. If I were picking the staff myself, these would be my choice," Mr MacMillan said.

T. R. Leger, Director of Education for the S.D.&G. Board of Education, was emphatic in his praise of the speeches given by the five students. Mr Leger related that the ability shown by the young orators made him feel humble. The speaker offered his congratualtions to the people of the North Dundas District for such a fine institution as Maple Ridge. He felt the education opportunities in this area were equal if not better to anything offered anywhere else in Ontario.

Mr Leger in his closing remarks said "I am certainly confident and optimistic that this building will be used to the utmost of its potential."

Don Irvine, MLA Grenville-Dundas, was the guest speaker for the evening. He was introduced by Mr Leger.

Mr Irvine congratulated the S.D.&G. Board for their planning and opening of the new open concept school. Mr Irvine felt that the open classroom design would raise the quality of education. The speaker was thanked by Lorne Thompson.

Following the handing over of the keys the official opening, the unveiling of the plaque, was carried out by Mr Irvine.

Rev. D. L. Gordon of Williamsburg offered dedication to the new school.

The school choir under the direction of David Irwin rendered several numbers and was applauded by the audience.

Following a tour of the school which was explained by the principal Wm. MacMillan, coffee was served in the gymnasium.

The insignia on the plaque goes in part "The Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry County Board of Education Maple Ridge Senior Public School, officially opened November, 1973". The dignitaries pictured here all had a part in the program last week. From the left, Lorne Thompson, member of the S.D.&G. Board; Fraser Campbell, Chairman of the Tri-County Board; M. N. '74 plates on sale Dec. 1st

The Ministry of Transportation and Communications has announced that commencing December 1, 1973, renewal registration for passenger motor vehicles and trailers will go on sale at 284 Licence Issuing Offices throughout the Province. As in 1973, the fees are $23 for a 4-cylinder vehicle; $32 for 6-cylinders; $40 for an 8-cylinder car and $5 for trailers.

This year marks the first tiem that Ontario will be issuing a licence plate sticker instead of new plates to signify that the vehicle owner has paid his annual registration fee.

No new permit will be issued for renewal — the present permit will be used for five years.

Under the new system motorists will not be required to fill in an application as in the past, but rather need only present their permit with the fee to the issuer. The issuer will then ask the motorist to sign an insurance declaration and will return the multi-year permit on which he has affixed a sticker. He will also provide another sticker the motorist will be required to attach to the plate on the rear of his vehicle.

This new system is similar to those presently in use in 30 other jurisdictions across North America.

Honorable Eugene Whelan, M.P. addresses UCO annual meeting

INGLESIDE — "There are literally hundreds of opportunities open to the Co-operative movement in Canada today. And I am confident that you have the leadership, and the enthusiasm, to make good ideas work. As Minister of Agriculture, I stand willing to help in any way that I can to help you build a better, more rewarding future for Canadian farmers."

These were the words of the Honourable Eugene Whelan, Minister of Agriculture, as he spoke to the crowd in attendance at the Annual Meeting of the UCO St. Lawrence Group.

The St. Lawrence Group which encompasses Cornwall, Finch, Chesterville and Avonmor e Branches held thier meeting last Wednesday evening in the United Church hall in Ingleside. The hall was filled to capacity as there was a large attendance to hear the guest speaker, the annual report and to partake of the delicious meal.

Don Kyle, substituting for Hugh Esdale, acted as chairman for the evening. Prior to the meal Mr Kyle called on Rev. H. W. Giffin to say Grace. Following the supper the head table guests were introduced.

The U.C.O. Director Report was given by Allan McIntosh. Mr McIntosh, covering for Ed Legault who is a patient in the hospital, also officiated for the election of delegates. The Councillor's Report was given by Mac Robertson.

Hon. Eugene F. Whelan

Wm. Mullin, St. Lawrence Group Manager, stated that this was his 17th report and would be his last. Mr Mullin has accepted a position with ARDA. The manager said he would be available to anyone over the following couple of days to answer any questions relating to this year's annual report.

The manager said he felt that the current year had been very successful, with much of the success being attributed to some of the changes that had been instituted over the past couple of years. It was the manager's opinion that change is the only way to success, and he felt that U.C.O. is doing its utmost to keep pace.

Dun. E. clubs hold 4-H Achievement Day

"Creative Block Printing" came to a close for Dundas East 4-H Homemaking Club members at their Achievement Day on November 24th in Winchester Public School. Many lovely articles were on display to show the techniques of eraser printing, nature printing, string printing and lino printing.

With completion of this project, several girls received special awards. Those receiving County Honours for completion of six Homemaking Club projects were Brenda and Linda Como, Connie Crump and Jean Sirvage, all of Morewood No. 2 Club; Brenda Spearman of Winchester No. 1 Club; and Sandra Hutchinson of Winchester No. 2 Club. Provincial Honours for completion of twelve projects were presented to Judy Crump and Cheryl Godard of Morewood Club, and Ellen Johnston of Winchester No. 1 Club. Assisting with the presentations was Mrs G. Woods, Williamsburg, who extended greetings on behalf of Dundas District Women's Institutes.

The visiting Home Economist, Mrs Heather Butt, from Brockville praised the clubs for their afternoon program of exhibits and skits. All had valuable information to teach the audience. Susan Ball, for Winchester No. 3 Club, described "The Versatility of Block Printing", using a Poinsettia theme to decorate for a Christmas Party. The Winchester No. 1 Club members presented a skit to teach "colour Effects of Block Printing." A "Showcase of Block Printed Articles" was commented on by Joan MacGregor of Morewood No. 1 Club. Williamsburg Creative Cutters, represented by Beth McIntosh, Laura Holmes and Martha Ostrander, presented a skit entitled "Creative Block Printing." "The Technique of String Printing" was described by Colleen Young

Five of the six Branches were represented. Their reports were given by Dr. J. Marston and Mrs S. McDonald, Morrisburg, Mrs K. Beedie, Winchester, Miss V. Milligan, Iroquois and Mrs I. Casselman and Mrs M. Rushford for North Stormont.

The objective for the 1974 Campaign has been set at $15,000.

Easter Seal campaign over top

The Ontario Society for Crippled Children announced that the 1973 Easter Seal objective of $1,675,000 has been reached.

In making this announcement, campaign chairman Denis Whitaker revealed that a tally of the Society's 234 affiliated Easter Seal service club reports indicated a gross return of $1,703,474.

"Not only is this the highest return in the Society's history," said Whitaker, "it is also the first time since 1969 that the objective has been reached."

Whitaker attributed this achievement to the individual efforts of thousands of service club members throughout Ontario who collectively went that one step further to make the campaign a success.

It was in 1971 that the campaign started to gain greater public support with the introduction of a more positive approach. The following year, new areas of fund raising were integrated into many communities in Ontario, such as Walk-A-Thons, Buck-A-Cup, telethons, youth support and other imaginative approaches by individual service clubs.

This year, club enthusiasm and public response was so great that 36 clubs showed a 25 percent increase over their 1972 results and more than half of the clubs exceeded their local objectives.

In expressing thanks for the public's generous response to the clubs' efforts, Whitaker also pointed out the vital role played by the news media.

Said Whitaker: "Without their help in informing people of the services and facilities available to Ontario's handicapped youngsters and the need for their continued support, we could never have done it."

Bits & Pieces

Congratulations!

William Prunner, a long time resident of the Toyes Hill district near Mountain, now a resident of Hillcrest Haven, will mark his 98th birthday on Thursday, November 29. We offer Mr Prunner sincere congratulations.

Snowplowing . . .

In a story regarding a Chesterville Council meeting, it was revealed that Southlawn Farms, owned by the Durant Bros., had been awarded the contract to keep the streets plowed this winter. We either misinterpreted or misunderstood when we were advised the contract would start on November 15, 1973. Our news piece stated December 5. One excuse for our error could be chalked up to wishful thinking — no snow until after mid-December.

Awarded Stelco Bursary

Robert Moffatt was notified on November 15, 1973, that he had been awarded the Stelco Bursary from the Steel Company of Canada Limited. The Bursary carries a value of $500 to be continued for four years. Rob was an Ontario Scholar from N.D.D.H.S. and is at present attending Carleton University, Ottawa. He is the son of Mr and Mrs Mac Moffat, Chesterville.

Legion's Highest Honour

On November 10, 1973, Mr and Mrs Harvey Casselman of Berwick, were invited to the Royal Canadian Legion Remembrance Day Awards Banquet, at the Civic Centre, in Ottawa. The invitation had come from Mr and Mrs George Elliott, Ottawa. Mr Casselman had a most enjoyable time chatting about local history with The Right Honourable John Diefenbaker, who had been the guest speaker at the banquet. Mr Elliott was presented with the Canadian Legion's highest honour, The Meritorious Service Award.

Mutual Admiration

Kay Bouck a resident of Queen Street, is the proud owner of a small dog, which she is very fond of. The following story will prove that the admiration is also shared by the dog. One morning recently the small pet disappeared from Mrs Bouck's yard. She frantically called and called to no avail. In a state of panic she hopped in her car and proceeded to search up and down the streets of town. Chesterville's Reeve H. Keith Graham got in the act when he noticed the worried look on the Queen Street resident's face as she continued the search. To make a long story short, the Reeve, for the life of him, couldn't figure out why one small dog was desperately trying to keep up to Mrs Bouck's car. You guessed the answer, the dog and its owner were merely going around in circles, each trying to meet up with the other.

One for the Post Office Dept.

We, like many others, have more than once been loud in our criticism of the service offered by the Post Office Department. We tell this tale with tongue in cheek. Early last week, in dire need of supplies from a city in Western Ontario, and on an austerity jig, we sent a letter off for the supplies. By Saturday, the Post Office had done its job, we received the invoice for the material. We're still trying to figure out what the transport company did with the parcel.

At present, eight recipients are served daily from Monday to Friday. Among these are Senior Citizens living alone, three special diets and a post-operative case.

Marion Lynch, driver co-ordinator, reports that there are driver-visitor teams for each specified day of the month with several spares ready for emergencies.

Meals-On-Wheels has been supported generously by the Service Clubs and other village organizations contacted for financial assistance. Those in charge are most grateful for this as well as for the ready and loyal services of the volunteer driver-visitor teams.

Safe Driving Week – 1973

Do you drive a motor vehicle? There are more than 9,000,000 licenced drivers in Canada. Safe Driving Week, sponsored every year at this time by the Canada Safety Council, is an attempt to alert Canadian drivers to the traffic accident problem.

These drivers are involved in a half million traffic accidents in one year. As a result of these accidents, over 200,000 people are badly injured in one year. Still worse, close to 6,000 people are killed in one year.

Because they hold current drivers licences, these people are considered to be qualified for the driving task. It is taken for granted that they know all about the accepted methods of controlling a vehicle, that is to say, how to go forward, go back, turn and stop. These procedures might be called the mechanics of driving; to which are added of course, all the rules and regualtions governing such movement.

Upon receiving a licence, far too many drivers lull themselves into a belief that they can compete in today's traffic environment. But can they?

There is a useful analogy that can be used to make a point here.

A professional athlete acquires that status after many years of learning a great deal about his specialty under many instructors in many different places and under increasingly demanding conditions. What does our professional athlete do after he had arrived? He still practices, practices the fundamentals of his trade. Why? Because he knows that he must remain perfectly conditioned for the demands being made upon him and that he must do all the right things instinctively every time, or sooner or later, his ability will diminish and his professional status will suffer.

The driving task is no different from this — and there is even more at stake. Your life.

Canada's Adopted Citizens

By becoming a Canadian citizen a person shows that he is no longer satisfied to be merely a guest in the house where he lives but that he has, in fact, become one of the family.

In primitive times, when a person sought to live in another group than his own, ceremonial rites of adoption were necessary. These rites were supposed to make the incoming individual a blood member of the new group.

Citizenship implies acceptance of a code of behaviour, but that is only the starting point. It also gives one a set of anticipations and expectations. After a few years residence in Canada an adopted citizen becomes endowed with all the rights that any of us have.

There is little or nothing to distinguish a person born in Canada from an adopted citizen. People do not go around wearing badges.

If you are a newcomer you are free to lead your own life without reporting to any authority. You can start a business or get a job provided you have the necessary skills. You can buy a house, drive a car, educate your children, join all sorts of clubs and societies, express your opinions, claim the justice of the courts, and in general, live in the Canadian way.

The worth of these freedoms is more evident to adopted citizens than to those who have never experienced the repression and restraint associated with other ways of life.

Becoming a citizen gives you a sense of having a part to play in the community, of sharing fully in the duties as well as in the advantages of being Canadian. You realize that your contribution is appreciated and desired by fellow Canadians, and that you are accepted and welcomed along with the heritage and the culture you bring with you.

Practically all the races and nationalities of the world are represented in our foreign-born population. The ancestors of all of us wore animal skins and coloured themselves blue with woad to ward off evil powers. Today we work together in an enlightened way to build a country in which the best things become available to all of us.

DON IRVINE REPORTS

Donald R. Irvine, MPP for Grenville-Dundas
7th Floor Frost Building-Toronto-Tel 416-965-6701

This is about the energy shortage — more particularly, the oil problem. You have heard a lot about the situation in recent weeks and you are going to hear a lot more in the future. Unfortunately a great deal of the impassioned oratgory that you will undoubtedly be subjected to will be inaccurate, uninformed and in some cases downright misleading. The circumstances as they apply to Canada are made to order for demagogues seeking short-term political gains at any price.

The issues are anything but simple but it is possible to isolate some fairly basic facts.

1. The United States is a major oil producer. At one time its won production was sufficient to sustain its industrial growth. This is no longer the case and hasn't been for years. Industrial production in that country uses every available drop and still requires imports to the extent of 26 percent of the total consumption and going up. By 1980, the present rate of industrial expansion will double imports. In acquiring these imports the U.S. will incur a deficit in its trade balance in fuel of as much as $20 billion. This figure has to be added to the over-all trade balance which, in 1972, was already in a deficit position. You can imagine what may happen to the U.S. dollar in those circumstances.

2. In its search for oil the U.S. must go where it is available and, apart from North American sources, and barring unforeseen discoveries, that is primarily the Middle East. These countries have huge reserves and little or no industry to use them. Of the four major industrial regions in the world, at least three — Japan, Western Europe and North America — are dependent upon this source for years to come. Obviously, the oil-producing states will be exporting oil and importing dollars, yen and other currency at a breath-taking rate. What they do with such huge sums of money may well throw future world money markets into total confusion.

3. Canada's position in all of this is rather unique. We are capable of producing more oil than we require for our own purposes. Because of its geographical location, it has been cheaper for us to imprt oil from abroad for use east of the Ottawa River rather than to transport it across the country. Alberta, and to some extent Saskatchewan, has been exporting oil to the U.S. in approximately the same volume that we have been importing Venezuelan and Mid-East crude at the other end of the country. Those exports make us the largest single source of oil for the U.S. (1.1 million barrels per day.)

It's on this point that emotional comment or political expediency can operate in a harmful way. Current oil shortages can seriously damage the U.S. economic outlook. We can't forget that the U.S. is our biggest customer. An economically exhausted U.S. is certainly not going to do us any good. If, on top of this, we were to shift our present exports to Eastern Canada to remove our own foreign dependency, we would complicate their problem intolerably, and even invite economic retaliation by the U.S.

The world energy shortage is going to be with us for a long time — at least into the 1980's when technology will permit development of resources such as the Colorado shales and expanded nuclear generation. If we are to continue to prosper we must in enlightened self-interest help the U.S. to do the same. This doesn't mean giving non-renewable resources away; and it doesn't mean adopting short-term selfish measures which can see us progress right into a new Stone Age either. It means that we must plan for our future carefully; we must define our national goals and adopt the policies to realize them. It means — finally — a national energy policy.

That is the message. It was what Premier Davis called for in April; what Darcy McKeough, Minister of Energy, has been saying time and again throughout the province; what all the provincial premiers asked for in May.

So far there has been no response from Ottawa. The result is that no one knows where we are going, why or how to get there.

Ann Landers...

Dear Ann Landers: Five and a half years ago I finished my junior year in college and decided to go to Europe for the summer. I ran into a bunch of American kids in Amsterdam and was told it was easy to get drugs all over Europe and pot wasn't considered much of an offense. So, I carried a few joints in my pocket and had no trouble — until I got to Budapest, Hungary.

I was caught with one joint by the Hungarian police and put in jail for four months to await trial. I tried to notify my folks but I don't think they got any of my messages.

I was sentenced to five years with no parole. At the end of three months I couldn't take it anymore so I beat up a guard and tried to escape. they they really let me have it. I was thrown in solitary confinement for the rest of my term.

Do you know what it's like to be in solitary for five years? The air grows hands and tries to choke you. Every day you swear you are going crazy, so you practice multiplication tables and try to spell hard words. You recite the names of the states and all the poems you ever learned — anything to use your mind because you're scared to death if you don't use it you'll lose it.

I wrote on the walls and floors with my fingernails to make sure I wouldn't forget how. No one will ever know the hell I suffered.

Please tell all the kids out there if they are planning to travel to Europe to leave the drugs alone, AND I MEAN ALONE. When you're busted in Europe you're in for the hassle of your life. If you live. — Home, It's Wonderful

Dear Home: Glad you're back. But bear in mind that some states still have outrageously harsh penalties for possession of marijuana. I hope one day soon we will decriminalize this drug. I DIDN'T say legalize, I said decriminalize. Kids caught with pot should be charged with a misdemeanor and not be classified as criminals.

Dear Ann Landers: Thirteen years ago our second son was born. My wife informed me she had picked out a name for the child. "Why call him Leonard?" I asked. She replied, "I went with a guy by that name and he meant a lot to me."

When the boy was five years old she told me he was not mine, that he'd been fathered by someone else. I asked if it was the guy the boy was named for. She said, "No, there was another guy, but he left town three years ago."

I can't describe the anguish I have suffered since she told me that. I keep wondering if she is cheating on me now although I have no evidence she is. My confidence in her is shot. Whenever I look at the boy I find myself searching his face for features of men I know.

Please tell your women readers that if they become pregnant by a man outside of marriage to keep it to themselves. There is no way I could possibly trust my wife again. — Tormented

Dear T.: I won't attempt to restore your faith in your wife. Obviously, her record isn't one that would inspire confidence. But people DO change, and perhaps she has. Incidentally, there's a chance that child is yours, unless you were out of town for a month. (P.S. You didn't mention what occurred in your marriage that made your wife flatten you with that devastating confession. I wonder what made her so angry.)

Are your parents too strict? Hard to reach? Ann Landers's booklet, "Bugged By Parents? How to Get More Freedom," could help you bridge the generation gap. Send 50c in coin with your request and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 3346, Chicago, Ill. 60654.

Chesterville Pee Wees top league

Chesterville Legion Pee Wee's this week moved into first place in the Carleton-Dundas Minor Hockey League. Last year's cellar dwellers have pulled themselves together into a cohesive high-scoring unit, scoring 26 goals and allowing only three, in four league games to date.

In a battle for first place, the Winchester Pee Wee's visited the locals last Wednesday night. The high-scoring unit of Pat Kelly, Curtis MacMillan and Donnie Richards did most of the damage in a 4 to 2 win over Winchester. Curtis MacMillan accounted for two goals with Donnie Richards adding another, Pat Kelly chalked up two assists. Garry Beckstead rounded out the scoring on a pass from Donnie Servage. Dean Williams and Gary Spirals replied for Winchester.

On Thursday, the locals travelled to Metcalfe to play the hard-hitting Metcalfe, squad. It looked like it would be a long night as Marty Campbell opened the scoring for Metcalfe with only 50 seconds gone in the game. However, Garry Beckstead tied it up for Legion on a beautiful rink-long rush. Then league-leading scorer Pat Kelly went to work. By the time the final whistle was blown he had recorded a hat trick. Rudy Grisel and Ron Richards also tallied to give Chesterville a 6-1 win.

In exhibition play the locals travelled to Maxville to meet a very big and very aggressive Maxville Pee Wee team. Tom Feeley and Curtis MacMillan scored to give Legion a 2-2 tie in a disappointing performance by the locals.

Eager to redeem themselves, Chesterville rallied for a 6-2 win in a return game last Saturday in Chesterville against the same Maxville team.

Pat Kelly figured in five of Chesterville's goals, scoring his second hat trick of the week and adding two assists. Singletons were added by linemates Curt MacMillan and Donnie Richards. Robert Wood rounded out the scoring. Replying for Maxville were Andre Massia and Barry Montgomery.

Agriculture Minister speaker at UCO annual banquet

Wm. Mullin, in the centre, Manager of the St. Lawrence Group UCO, gave his 17th and last annual Manager's Report, last Friday evening. Mr Mullin has now accepted a position with ARDA, a Branch of the Federal Government. The group shown here, from the left — The Honourable Lucien Lamoureux, Mrs Mullin, Mr Mullin, The Honourable Eugene F. Whelan, and Hugh Esdale. — Staff Photo.

The annual meeting of the St. Lawrence Group UCO was held at Ingleside last Wednesday evening. Following the address of the Honourable Eugene F. Whelan, a question and answer period provided lively debate. The two men standing, in the photo, fielded all questions aimed their way. Standing at the left, Mr Whelan, Minister of Agriculture, in the foreground the Honourable Lucien Lamoureux, MP for Stormont-Dundas and Speaker of the House of Commons. — Staff Photo.

Health Minister urges use of Denture Program

The low-cost denture program in Ontario is fully capable of meeting the needs of Ontario residents, according to Health Minister Dr. Richard T. Potter.

Commenting on his announced intention of enforcing the Denture Therapists Act (1972), Dr. Potter said residents of the province are not taking advantage of the low-cost denture plan initiated by the Ontario Dental Association (ODA).

"Figures provided by the ODA through a province-wide spot check show a slow growth in patient-use of this service," Dr. Potter said. "Dentures are a necessity for a large segment of the population and the cost of quality dentures is a major concern, especially to those with fixed or limited incomes."

Dentists participating in the low-cost plan are obliged by statute to provide this service to anyone, who asks for it. The maximum fee is $180 for complete upper and lower dentures, with single dentures, partial plates and reliners at proportionately lower prices.

Dr. Potter referred to the position taken earlier this year by the ODA, which stated its intention to fulfill completely its obligation to provide low-cost denture service to those who want it, in a reasonable time, from a licensed dentist, at a fee of $180 for standard dentures.

"The position taken by the ODA, supported by the figures provided by the dentists, indicates that they have taken serious steps to make the service available," Dr. Potter said. "However, while the dental profession is fulfilling its obligation to make the service available throughout the province, the service has not been used to the extent it should.

"Almost all dentists surveyed reported that they could look after many more denture patients than they have been seeing under the plan. Many reported that they have had few enquiries or none at all.

"I would particularly like to draw this to the attention of municipalities, homes for the aged, senior citizens' groups, welfare departments and other social service agencies," Dr. Potter said. "The program is available, low cost is legislated, and quality health care is assured. These were the objectives of the program."

Dr. Potter also pointed out that a denturist who deals directly with the public without professional supervision is an illegal practitioner. "If people continue to go to this group for denture service, they should be aware of the possibility of considerable inconvenience, once prosecutions get under way," Dr. Potter said.

"As long as denturists continue to advertise and operate outside the law, our citizens are being denied the advantage of the low-cost denture service provided by our dentists and the certified denture therapists" Dr. Potter said.

Dr. Potter said that the ODA has informed him that 650 dentists are participating in the low-cost denture program, 174 dentists have indicated that they want to use the services of denture therapists, and the present 10 low-cost denture clinics across the province are to be expanded in number.

"For the record," said Dr. Potter, "I'd also like to point out that a refresher course for those wishing to qualify as denture therapists will be held December 8 and 9, and written examinations have been slated for January 14 of next year. These will be followed by clinical examinations February 15 to 20. The registration deadline, and this is important, is December 7."

R. A. Bell, P.C., Q.C. new president of Canadian Cancer Society

The Honourable Richard A. Bell, P.C., Q.C., has been elected President of the Ontario Division of the Canadian Cancer Society, it was announced at the Division's Annual Meeting held November 23, in Toronto.

Mr. Bell, a former Member of Parliament and Cabinet Minister, is senior partner in the law firm of Bell, Baker, Thompson, Oyen and Webber, of Ottawa. For a number of years Mr. Bell has been a volunteer of the Cancer Society, having served as National Campaign Chairman 1970-1972 and as President of the Eastern Ontario District, 1968 - 1969. He is also a member of the National Board of Directors and Executive Committee, and of Ontario Division's Board of Directors.

He succeeds Kenneth A. West, of Toronto.

Safe Driving Week will be held across Canada December 1 through 7. Make it a family affair — fifty-two weeks a year, asks the Ontario Safety League.

The Ontario Safety League reminds drivers to keep a window open just a bit during winter driving. Fresh air will help keep you alert and guard against carbon monoxide poisoning, too. If stuck in snow, the snow around the car may pocket the gas and cause it to seep into the body of the car. If you must keep the engine running while standing in snow, shovel the snow away from around the exhaust for an area of 3 to 4 feet.

TRUCK TENDER

Tenders, plainly marked "Truck Tender", for a new half ton pick-up truck will be received by the undersigned until 5:00 p.m., Monday, December 3, 1973.

Chesterville Recreation Committee, some months ago, made application to the Ontario Ministry of Community and Social Services, Office of the Athletics Commissioner L. M. McKenzie, Queen's Park, Toronto. The request was for hockey equipment to be used by the local Minor Hockey Assoc. The request was filled a short time ago and two complete sets of goalie equipment arrived. The equipment comprised: 2 masks and helmets, 2 sets of shoulder pads, 2 chests pads, 2 pair of blockers and catching mitts and 2 sets of leg pads. The new equipment is all first quality and is designed with one set for the Bantams, the other for the Pee Wees. A small contingent gathered at the arena last Wednesday evening to admire the new equipment. From the left, Frank Cook of Chesterville Recreation Committee, Bruce Casselman of Chesterville Atoms, Larry Beckstead of Chesterville Bantams and the Reeve of Chesterville, H. Keith Graham. Recreation members were strong in their praise of Don Irvine, MLA Grenville-Dundas, who assisted in acquiring the new equipment. — Staff Photo.

KITCHEN CORNER

SOUP

Once again it's the time of year when a bowl of hot, steaming soup has a special appeal.

Canned or homemade, it is always a good idea to give soups a boost by adding the extra goodness of milk.

Creamy Mushroom Soup

½ lb. fresh mushrooms, thinly sliced
¼ cup chopped onion
2 chicken bouillon cubes
2 cups boiling water
¼ cup butter
3 tbsp. flour
1½ tsp. salt
⅛ tsp. poultry seasoning
3 cups milk

In a medium sauce pan combine mushrooms, onion, bouillon cubes and water. Cover and simmer 20 minutes. Meanwhile, melt butter in a large saucepan. Blen in flour, salt and poultry seasoning. Gradually stir in milk. Cook over medium heat stirring constantly until smoothly thickened and mixture comes to a boil. Stir in mushroom mixture, undrained. Serve hot.

Bacon-Corn Chowder

10 slices bacon, cut in ½ in. pieces
½ cup finely chopped onion
½ cup finely chopped celery
1 (10 oz.) can cream of mushroom soup
2½ cups milk
1 (14 oz.) can cream style corn
1 (19 oz.) can potatoes, cut up
¼ tsp. salt
2 chicken bouillon cubes

Saute bacon in a sauce pan until crisp. Drain, reserving 3 tbsp. drippings.

Saute onion and celery in reserved drippings until tender. add soup, milk, corn, potatoes, bacon, salt and chicken bouillon cubes. Cook over medium heat, stirring occasionally, for 15 minutes or until heated through.

Tomato Cheese Soup

1 1-3 cups condensed tomato soup
1 -3 cups milk
dash of salt
½ tsp. celery salt
1½ cups creamed cottage cheese, warmed to room temperature.

Pour tomato soup into heavy saucepan. Stir in milk, salt and celery salt until blended. Heat thoroughly, but do not boil, stirring constantly. Just before serving, add cottage cheese, and beat with a rotary beater just enough to break up curds. Heat a minute longer, no more, stirring constantly. The soft tender cheese curds give an interesting new addition to soups, overcooking toughens them.

Remove soup from heat; serve immediately in hot dishes. If desired garnish with a slice of hard cooked egg and chopped parsley. Serves 4.

MARK 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr and Mrs Milton Shay, Chesterville, celebrated their Fiftieth Anniversary recently. The Shay's were married on November 21st, 1923.

The good driver observed in survey by Ont. safety League

So you think you're a good driver? Most of us believe we are! We are also quick to agree that there should be stricter enforcement of traffic laws and regulations by the police. We are in favour of compulsory Driver Education and most of us would recommend tougher Driver Licensing Examinations. That's because we know we are good drivers— it is just that we see so many others who are lacking.

The Ontario Safety League recently received the results of a survey conducted by Young Drivers of Canada. Research teams in Scarborough and Sault Ste. Marie found that the majority of drivers questioned agreed with the above recommendations. At the same time, the teams observed the driving habits of close to 10,000 drivers and came up with some interesting statistics.

In Scarborough, 73 percent of the drivers observed did not enter the correct traffic lane when completing a Left Hand turn, while 50 percent failed to enter the correct lane when making a Right Hand turn. 42 percent of all drivers failed to come to a full stop at a red light before turning right; 35 percent failed to yield to pedestrians in crosswalks at traffic light intersections; 33 percent failed to signal their intentions to turn; another 32 percent (39 percent in Sault Ste. Marie), did not stop behind the pedestrian crosswalk for a red traffic light.

Six common driving situations. We could pat ourselves on the back at the thought that 61 percent of the drivers observed passed with flying colours. But what about those three thousand, six hundred and forty-three drivers who committed the observed violations. Befor e pointing a finger, suggests the Ontario Safety League, why not examine our own driving habits.

Mrs. R. C. Dillabough hosts Morewood W.I.

The regular meeting of the Morewood Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs R. C. Dillabough on Thursday evening, November 15. In the absence of the president, the meeting was chaired by Mrs A. Stewart, who opened the meeting with a welcome to all, and a short reading. A report of the Area Convention held in Cornwall was given by the delegate, Mrs C. Dyer. The Roll Call was answered by "Any changes you would like to see in the vicinity where you live."

Discussions were held regarding Christmas Baskets for shut-ins and a committee was set up to take care of this. It was announced that the December meeting would take the form of a Pot Luck Supper. Pennies for Friendship were collected and members were advised to collect used stamps for the support of Lepers. So far this year, $7,000 has been realized from used stamps.

Mrs Stewart spoke on Resolutions, mentioning at least two answers to the roll call which would make good resolutions — the use of seat belts on school buses; and lower speed on most country roads.

Since the Indian question is much in the forefront at present, Mrs Stewart introduced Mrs D. Hunter, who spent some time with the Indians on their Reserve in Western Ontario. She said about half the Indian population live under the Indian Treaty agreement. The size of their reserves is one square mile of land for every five persons.

Although the government has certain jurisdiction on some things, the reserve has its own Band Councils, elected every two years. Education is under the Federal Government but use the same curriculum as we do. Under social welfare they get all the benefits as other Canadians, and they really have excellent health service. On the reserves there are many clubs simialr to our Homemaking clubs.

The question was asked, "Should Institute women support the rights of Indian women who have lost their Indian status because they have married non-Indian men?" Discussions followed and many questions were put forward.

Mrs J. James thanked Mrs Hunter and presented her with a gift. The Queen closed the meeting and a dessert lunch was served by Mrs R. Marcellus and committee.

SCHOOL NEWS

STUDENT COUNCIL SERVICES — It is the World' Finest — chocolate bars, that is! This past week of November 19 to the 26th has been our annual chocolate bar drive. I'm sure Maureen McMillan and a few of the other campaigners are happy to have it all finally tucked under their belts for another year. the week of hustling here and there, reordering and carrying bars to and from home rooms has created down right exhaustion on our parts. But it is well worth the effort as many fine prizes have been given to top sellers during the week. Some of these are a genuine 5 lb. World's Finest Chocolate bar, free season's tickets to the Winchester Hawks hockey games, two free tickets as well as $10 for transportation to the Chicago-Montreal hockey game in Montreal. It seems, all has gone well and it will hopefully yield the desired cash total goal to which the Student Council will gratefully and without doubt deserve.

CLUB NEWS — The Curling Club is underway! Mr MacLean and his fellow curlers have organized nine teams each containing four curlers. The regular season was started Wednesday, November 21, with three games being played. The team standings were as follows: Don Anderson and team defeated Bill Workman and his team, 8-1; captain Mark MacIntosh and team won a very close game, 4-3 over Bob Hanes and company; as well as a match of skill between Tom Workman's and Paul Morgan's team yielded a 6-6 tie. It has been finalized that six teams will play each week. Since it is very early in the season, no bonspiels have been planned.

CLUB HIGHLIGHTS — We extend thanks to the Christian Fellowship Club as well as to interested teachers for organizing the November 23 assembly. Friday afternoon, period 9 class was dismissed to allow students to assemble in the gym for a rather interesting assembly. A gentleman by the name of Reverend Wesley Oak was present to address the student body. The topic discussed was in connection with the Winchester Crusade. Vocal entertainment was in the hands of the Berian Christian School Choir from Brockville.

GUIDANCE SERVICES — Wednesday, November 21, level 4 and 5 students were dismissed from two morning classes to complete the Personality and Motivation Tests, Part 2. These tests presented to the students in three sessions, will be brought back to us Wednesday, November 28. The whole purpose of such tests are not to determine the number of wrong or correct answers achieved but to give one an evaluation of personal motivation and personality. This is quite an interesting aspect to know about oneself. We thank our guidance department as well as Mr John Gillis, a psycologist, for giving us the opportunity to actually view inside ourselves.

SPECIAL EVENTS — We the students and staff of North Dundas are very proud to announce that our first band concert was a success. It was very pleasing for our members to look out over the auditorium, Wednesday night of the 21st, and see those warm, contented and happy people. This certainly influenced the performance of the four selections played by the junior band. Also adding to the sparkle of the performance was a quintet, quite well played by Bonnie McConnell, our basoon enthusiast; Bev Cheery playing clarinet; Joanne Wouters on the French horn; Shelley Fulton playing the flute and Cathy Suffel also featuring the flute. We offer Mr St. Louis and his junior and senior band congratulations for their tremendous effort and success of a Wednesday evening well enjoyed by all.

Thursday, November 22, classes were dismissed at 2 p.m. in order that teachers could attend a Professional Development Meeting. The topic discussed was "Positions of Responsibility".

Department heads as well as subject teachers have talked about certain responsibilities that they should perform. It was all a very interesting aspect, well worth the time taken to expand upon such issues.

SPORTS DEPARTMENT — N.D.D.H.S. Team Staff once again emerged from the depths to face house league football winners Black, in the final game of the season. Team staff once again resumed their position as the best. As for the score, we're finding it difficult to get it from Black House team members.

Mr Paquette and his junior boy's interschool basketball team are practicing hard, every night, either using North Dundas facilities or the facilities at Maple Ridge School. They are planning to play the Junior Girls' Basketball team this Friday. Women Liber's are expected to be out to cheer the best team on.

Due to all the activity the week has been a busy one and I imagine many North Dundas fans will eased off their tensions at the hockey game Friday night, November 23 as Winchester Hawks played on home ice against Spencerville Bruins.

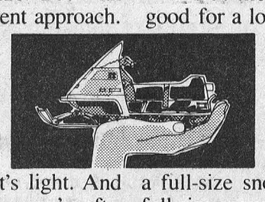
snowmobile buyer's guide

When you're out looking for a high performance snowmobile, don't be taken in by size.

Most people think high performance snowmobiles are big. Simply because most of them are. But with the SS, we took a different approach. We made it compact.



There are certain advantages inherent in a compact snowmobile. First of all, it's easier to handle on a tight trail. But more important, it's light. And lightness is essential when you're after performance.

Imagine a Volkswagen with a Ferrari engine

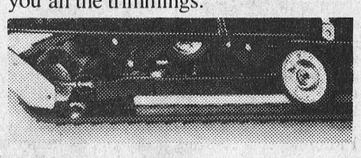
The Elan SS weighs in at a compact 330 lbs. But, instead of powering it with an appropriately compact engine, we gave it a super-tuned 293.5 cc Rotax twin. So SS moves out like a Volkswagen with a Ferrari engine. Just how hot can you get?

Less than 1/3 of a pound per square inch

But the lightness of the SS is good for a lot more than an excellent power-to-weight ratio. It also allows for an incredible ground pressure ratio.

Because, although Elan SS is shorter than a full-size snowmobile, its track is a full-size snowmobile track. So, as well as being light on its feet on hard-packed snow, SS has the flotation you need to hustle you through the deep stuff. And do it safely and surely with a wide 25-1/2" ski stance and a responsive ground leveller slide suspension.

SS gives you the guts of a high performance machine. But it also gives you all the trimmings.



Extra performance features

Add in extra performance features that are standard equipment like shock absorbers, ice-gripping carbide ski runners, our new positive response Square Shaft clutch and extra comfort features like our 3-layer foam sandwich seat, and extra value features like our full one-year warranty, and you've got a complete high performance snowmobile that just happens to be a little smaller than the big ones. And a lot less expensive.

You don't have to go big to go great

So if you're looking for a high performance snowmobile, just remember one thing:

You don't have to go big to go great. See Elan SS at your Ski-Doo dealer's.

Kemptville area

Teams take 'Top Honours' at Winter Fair

In the livestock evaluation competitions at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair in Toronto two Kemptville district teams walked away with most of the honours.

The Kemptville College team won the College and University competition, scoring 2136 points out of a total 2400. Michigan State was runner-up with 1994 points.

Elwin Earle of Brockville, leader of the Kemptville College team, was awarded the C. D. Graham Memorial Trophy for the highest number of points accumulated by an individual. In a near perfect performance Earle scored 729 of a possible 800 points.

Commenting on the victory, Earle said: "To succeed at the Royal today you must develop a different philosophy to a few years ago."

"Milk for dough, look for show, is no longer satisfactory," he says. "You havae to combine a knowledge of livestock production and marketing with common sense."

Runner-up to Earle, James Nelson of Codrington, figured that in judging dairy animals records and pedigree accounted for 60 to 70 percent but the records had to match type. "We aren't judging livestock in the traditional sense", said Nelson, "we were evaluating a marketable product."

Other members of the Kemptville College team included Philip McEwen of Kars and William Asbreuk of Mallorytown.

In the County competition involving 15 entries, Grenville County took first place with 1987 points, based on an evaluation of three classes of dairy cattle, three classes of beef, two classes of swine and one of sheep.

Members of the team included Kemptville College students John Templeton and Harold Tompkins, along with '73 graduate Allan Sommerville.

Templeton says the toughest part of the competition was the sire selection exercise. From a list of 10 dairy bulls with a progeny test rating, competitors had to select for herd improvement.

"The problem", Templeton says, "was that none of the bulls had strong legs and we kept thinking we had overlooked something."

Both groups gave credit for the wins to their training in 4-H and to their coaches. Arnold Morphet and Dennis McKnight coached the College team, Kenneth Knox the County group.

Officially open new County Road

The Warden and Members of the Advisory Roads Committee of the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, are pleased to announce the official opening of County Road No. 3, from King's Highway 31 to County Road No. 2, in the Townships of Winchester and Mountain; the Winchester Springs Bridge, on County Road No. 5, in the Police Village of Winchester Springs; and the Black Creek Bridge, on County Road No. 1, south of Hainsville, in the Township of Matilda.

R. M. Kostuch Associates Limited were retained for the design and supervision of the 7.4 mile road reconstruction, and for both bridge projects.

On June 15, 1972, Cruickshank Construction Limited, Morrisburg, Ontario, was awarded the contract for grading, drainage, granular base courses and minor urban work. The hot mix paving contract was awarded to Cornwall Gravel Co. Ltd. on June 20, 1973.

To serve its inter-urban connector classification, the road is designed to a safe 50 M.P.H. standard, with a basic 100 foot right-of-way and pavement widths varying between 20 and 22 feet, depending on the degree of curvature.

This $640,000 project, the cost of which has been shared between the Ministry of Transportation and Communications and the Counties, was started as a development road and completed as a County by-law project.

Looby Builders (Dublin) Limited was awarded a combined contract for the two bridges. The project to remove two narrow bridges from the County Road System was a County by-law job, with normal subsidy from the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, totalling approximately $130,000.

As I See It...

By Mike Rowden

Pick up the paper these days or watch TV and you are sure to read or see something about the James Bay Hydro Project and what it may do to the ecology and the lives of several thousand people, mostly Indians.

To most people living in the lower parts of Canada — living in nice homes, driving good cars and having comfortable eight to five jobs with good pay, it's easy to look down on the Indian way of life. Fishing, trapping and hunting, the way the people of the James Bay area do, is anything but easy. But as long as they are self-sufficient and happy with their way of life, who are we to argue?

In this day and age it is fashionable, even acceptable, to be allowed to do your own thing. Here in Cornwall area we should be well aware of the vague promises of politicians and hydro commissions. A lot of people have lived through similar experiences.

The Seaway flooding — what was the real purpose behind the flooding? Acess for larger ships, or dams and more power for the northern part of New York State? Whatever the reason, certainly in 1957 and earlier, when the whole St. Lawrence River Project was being planned, there were several aspects of land change that didn't get much consideration.

If you don't believe me, come down to the St. Lawrence River and see the hundreds of acres of drowned and useless farmland, the acres of mud, the remains of groves of trees which are nothing now but unsightly messes of drowned stumps. If one inquires as to the reason for the low water, he will get one or both of two answers.

The water is high in the Great Lakes and must be kept low to avoid damage to Western Ontario tourist areas or the prevailing winds have blown the water out. How come there is still low water when we have a dry summer or there is no wind? Power — the hydro dams are running full blast and generating every ounce of power that can be generated and then sold across the border.

Certainly the people living within a few miles of the big Cornwall Generating Station and Dam, see little benefit from these efforts. Rural hydro bills, 15 miles from the Cornwall area, are twice what they are in the cities.

How many people that read this article will think back to what the future would be like if they sold the land and moved? How many will remember the way of life they had before the flooding. And on looking back, will consider it better. Some won't because they adapted to new ways or got better homes out of the deal. But quite a few will, in all conscience wish that the big change hadn't been made.

Now sixteen years later, another group of people are going to have their lives changed and the "rat race" on their door steps.

When these huge projects are planned the engineer fingers his slide rule, the draftsman wields his pencil and square and all the other planners involved compile masses of data, on reams of paper, shuffle it around their air conditioned offices, convinced they are doing a good thing.

Will future generations bless them for their efforts or will they be cursed because they are blinded by their technological skills. Time will tell.

Avonmore couple honoured by friends at farewell party

AVONMORE — The many friends and former neighbours of the Avonmore Community assembled in the Avonmore Community Centre last Thursday evening to honour Mr and Mrs Calvin S. Grant, for many years residents in the Fouth Concession of Roxborough who have recently moved to their new home in Ingleside.

Said in a variety of ways by many friends last Thursday night was "Avonmore's Loss — Ingleside's Gain."

The evening was spent very enjoyably dancing to the music of Sylvester MacDonald and the Clansmen.

During the course of the evening, Mr and Mrs Grant were presented with a purse of money on behalf of all the assembled friends by D. D. Cameron. John E. Miller capably expressed the sentiments of the Avonmore community as they met to express to Mr and Mrs Grant something of the esteem in which they were held; the regret that they had decided to leave the community; and the best wishes accompanying them.

Both Calvin and Grace expressed their appreciation to those responsible for arranging such a memorable evening in their honour and they spoke of the many cherished memories that would always be theirs of their happy associations throughout the years with their good nieghbours, friends and relatives in Avonmore.

The singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" seemed a fitting climax of this portion of the evening's program.

A sumptuous lunch was served by the ladies of the Avonmore community. Dancing continued until one o'clock.

Local Midget Teams Tie two, lose two

The two Midget Hockey Teams, Stedman's and Clements playing out of the local arena, played four games over the past week and came away with two ties and two losses. None of the games were push-overs and resulted in very close scores which could have gone either way.

Stedman's travelled to Osgoode to play a game against a team from that own. When the game was over and the score sheet had been tallied the local lads found themselves on the short end of a 4 to 2 decision.

Chesterville opened the scoring early in the game when Andy Windsor found the target at the 50-second mark. He was assisted by Bob Sharkey and Barry Lajoie. The Chesterville team held the lead throughout the first period. Osgoode's J. Holmes was nailed for a penalty in this period.

Osgoode roared back in the second period with three unanswered goals — J. Fee assisted by C. Scobie at the 4.12 mark; R. Blue assisted by R. Brachin at 4.38 and B. Morris from D. Harrison at 11 minutes. Chesterville's Bob Sharkey found the range at the 12-minute mark. Randy Elliott, and Andy Windsor were credited with assists. Scobie of Osgoode drew a penalty, Derek Van Gessel served two two-minute infractions during the second period.

Osgoode put the icing on the cake at the 11-minute mark of the third period when D. Meisner scored unassisted. No penalties were called in the third period.

The final score was Osgoode 4, Chesterville 2.

In a game played in Chesterville last Wednesday evening the local Clement's Midgets hosted the Metcalfe entry in the league.

The affair proved to be a ding-dong battle with neither teams able to score. Wayne Love recorded the shut-out for Metcalfe. Chesterville's Rick Sproule added another to his record. The Chesterville net keeper following three games has two shut-outs and has allowed only one goal.

The statisticians had very little difficulty keeping the official game sheets filled in with only a list of the penalties to record. Each team took 4 during the game.

In the first period Metcalfe's Jeff Porteous was tagged for tripping.

Chesterville's G. Casselman and Tom Feeley each sat out penalties in the second period. Jeff Porteous of Metcalfe was tagged for interference and also drew a misconduct.

Five penalties were called in the third session. Gord Ziebell took Chesterville's three, one of which was a game misconduct. Blake Morrison and Paul McLean sat out time for Metcalfe.

Stedman's Chesterville Midgets were at home to Winchester on Saturday, November 24. The game again was a close contest with the score ending tied at 2 all.

Chesterville scored two quick goals in the first period — Steven Stewart asisted by Bob Sharkey scored at the 2.35 spot; Neil Kittle scored for Chesterville, unassisted at the 4.27 mark. Doug Crowder scored for Winchester at Starting one September night after school the 1973 Junior Girls' Basketball Team was chosen. This was the beginning of a well played season for North Dundas. Playing each team twice (four others), the local gals finished in first place with seven wins and one loss. The Island Squad from Brockville proved the downfall of North Dundas. In a two-game play-off the Dundas crew lost both games by close scores. The Junior Girls voiced their approval of the coaching handled by Mr Nasvadi and the enthusiasm shown by the entire student body towards their team. Back row from the left, Cathy Workman, Teresa Suffel, Jane Allison, Julie Holmes, Martha Justus and Heather Douglas. Front row, Debbie Thompson, Janet Graham, Linda Holmes, Vicki Lennex, Lori Boyce and Nancy Patterson.

This year's North Dundas Senior Girls' Basketball Team had a reasonably good year. The local team played hard all season and ended up in third place, which gave them a play-off spot. Injuries took their toll and the North Dundas Girls lost the play-off round to T.I.S.S. The current schedule has been completed and the uniforms have been turned in. The girls are looking forward to another round of play next year. Team members were high in their praise of their coach, Mrs Sharkey, Manager Margo Rombough and Statistician June Spearman Back row, from the left, Janine Ennis, Elizabeth Wouters, Karen Koekkoek, Connie Broad and June Spearman. Front row Donna Armstrong, Kim Smith, Mary Wilkie and Heather Patterson.

The Blue Team continued their winning ways on November 21 when they downed the Gold Team by the score of 5 to 1.

Red came back with a win on November 22 when they beat the Green Team by a close score of 3 to 2.

U.C.O. ANNUAL MEETING —

At this point in the program a draw was conducted to see who would take home the door prizes. Leo LeBlanc, R.R.2, Lunenburg, won a candle kit; R. Kirk, Cornwall, won a lamp; and Carol Esdale, Cornwall, won the hair curlers.

The Annual Report revealed that during the current year the list of members who have purchased more than $10,000 of farm input from their Co-operatives has grown. They are as follows: J. R. Leduc, Crysler; Don Sirvage, Chesterville; Anton Sanders, Berwick; Rolland Leduc, Finch; Lloyd Gallinger, Chesterville; Stuart Hart, Newington; Cliff Middleton, Newington; John Byveld, Chesterville; Ewart Neville, Finch; Campbell Murray, Martintown; Howard Prodonick, Avonmore; Wm. Sanderson, Newington; Dave MacIntyre, Finch; and Gerry Brugmans, Chesterville.

The total member purchases for the year was up considerably; $792,453.00 as compared to last year at $508,813.00. Total customer purchases was up from $1,070,360.00 last year to $1,464,305.00 currently.

The categories of feed, seed, fertilizer, and hardware showed increased sales. Petroleum showed a slight decrease over last year. Comparable figures showed the years 1971 and 1972 with losses, the operation for 1973 showed a profit of $3,466.00.

Three new products services have been added to the Co-op line: Chemsil, a preservant for hay silage; Aqua Ammonia, to increase protein in corn silage and "LPS", Liquid Protein Supplement, an easy method of adding higher levels of protein to livestock.

The Honourable Lucien Lamoureux, MP for Stormont-Dundas, speaker of the House of Commons, was a head table guest and introduced the guest speaker.

The Honourable Eugene F. Whelan said that it was a pleasure to return to an annual meeting of the United Co-operatives of Ontario. He confessed that he felt far more comfortable when he had attended these functions as a director rather than in his present position as Minister of Agriculture for Canada. Mr Whelan said there was some justification in his present position due the fact that he has some definite ideas regarding farming in this country and he feels he is in the proper position now to make his views known.

Mr Whelan had just returned from Rome where he had attended a world meeting of the Food and Agriculture Organization. He noted that the theme of the conference had been "to discuss how we can and should be going about increasing food production."

The speaker related "In the past ten years, food production in the developing countries has gone up faster than it has in the rich nations, such as the United States, Europe and Canada. Food production has gone up 30 percent in the developing countries. But still the progress we have been making is not enough. More is needed."

The Honourable member said "the developing nations are going to have to go through the same process we went through if they hope to build a solid future. In the countries where agriculture has been changed and put on a solid footing, there has been tremendous progress."

Mr Whelan, in his closing remarks had this to say, "Maybe farmers could organize their own labour pools, and run them along the lines of the big city companies that specialize in providing secretaries (Office Overload). Personally, I think farmers would welcome the service. A co-operative that would do all the paper work for the farmer, and keep track of people who want to work on farms, might provide a very improtant and useful function."

The guest speaker was thanked by John Vanden Bosch, Chesterville.
