Hotel Blaze Being Probed By Ontario Fire Marshall

The investigation into the recent fire that did several thousand dollars' damage at Hotel Winchester, has revealed that a mattress bearing evidence of gasoline fumes, and an empty gasoline can were found near the spot where the blaze was first noticed (beneath the staircase leading to the basement). This caused the local Fire Chief to suspect incendiarism and he notified the Fire Marshall's Office.

The investigation is being conducted by Fire Marshall Frank Gardner, of Belleville, assisted by a representative of the Fire Underwriters' Association, of Ottawa. Provincial Police have also been taking a hand in the probe.

While the Fire Marshall and police have uncovered enough evidence to warrant their suspician that the fire was an act of arson, no arrests have been made.

Mrs. Tracy, owner of the Hotel, does not know where the empty gasoline can came from nor who placed the mattress in the basement.

When the investigation is completed, no doubt a full report will be forthcoming from the Fire Marshall's Office.

WINCHESTER THEATRE NEWS

That rugged artist of the dramatic screen, Stephen McNally, has the leading role in this week-end's feature picture, "Wyoming Mail," and carries through a difficult part with great success. "Wyoming Mail" is a fast-moving story, with thrilling action from start to finish. It relates the battles of the U. S. Government against the gangs of bandits who, in the early days of the West, considered the railway mail coaches fair prey for their lawless depredations. The picture was filmed in Technicolor against backgrounds of great scenic beauty.

One of the outstanding Musicals of the year comes next Monday, "I'll Get By," also in Technicolor. It is a sparkling musical romance with a whole galaxy of stars who provide songs, dancing, and romance in a veritable extravaganza. This picture has just had a most successful run in Ottawa, breaking all records for attendance at The Odeon.

Roy Rogers is back next week, with Trigger ,and with Estrelita Rodrigues as the leading lady. "Sunset In The West" is Roy's newest production and tells of smuggling into Latin American countries, with hi-jackers and robbers at their boldest, until Roy rides to a brilliant success in restoring order.

On the same bill is a picture of thrilling drama, a New York murder mystery, "The Tattoed Stranger."

If the Board of Directors of the Winchester District Memorial Hospital will grant its permission for the installation of an elevator at the hospital at a cost of approximately $3000.00, and will consent to finance the project, members of the Ladies' Hospital Auxiliary will proceed at once to have the elevator installed and will raise the money to defray the entire cost. Municipal Council Appoints Officers

The first meeting of the Municipal Council of the Village of Winchester, for the year 1951, was held in the Council Chambers on Monday evening with Reeve Walter Moffat presiding and the following councillors present: Howard Fetterly, John Fader, Hugh Wilson and Ed. Boyd. The oath of office was administered to the members by the clerk-treasurer, Mr. C. R. Robinson.

The Reeve, in his inaugural address, welcomed the new members of the Board, and asked for the cooperation of all in administering the affairs of the village. He pointed out that wherever possible, rigid economy would have to be practiced if local taxes were to be kept from soaring to unprecedented heights. In adopting this policy, he said, it was not his wish to see necessary services curtailed in any manner.

First item of business on the agenda was the appointment of officers and committees for the year, a list of which follows:

Finance Committee — Councillors Boyd and Wilson.

Roads and Bridges—Councillors Fader and Fetterly.

Property Committee — Councillors Boyd and Wilson.

Relief Committee—All members of the Council.

Hydro Commissioner — Councillor Fader.

Council's Representatives on the District Memorial Hospital Board, Reeve Moffat and Councillor Boyd.

Clerk-Treasurer, Tax Collector and Secretary-Treasurer of the Hydro System—C. R. Robinson, at a salary of $152.00 per month, an increase of $10.00 per month.

Police Constable, Fire Chief, and Collector of Dog Taxes—Gilbert Raistrick, at a salary of $155.00 per month, an increase of $15.00 per month.

Assessor—J. M. Singleton, salary of $200.00.

Auditor—J. D. Stewart.

Fence Viewers and Pound Keepers —Jay Quart, Lloyd Wilson and Colin Hay.

By-Laws for fixing the estimates for Roads and Bridges for 1951, and for borrowing up to $15000.00 from the Bank to finance the town's business until such time as the 1951 taxes become due, were passed.

A delegation from Winchester Township Council, comprising Councillors Basil Dawley and Ken. McIntosh, interviewed the local Board regarding the services of the Winchester Fire Brigade for the Township. It was agreed that the local Brigade would respond to calls sent in by any member or official of the Township Council, and that any expenses incurred would be paid by the Township. Services of the local Brigade will be required in the western half of the Township, with the Chesterville Brigade serving the eastern half.

The Reeve and Councillor Fetterly were apointed a committee to interview Doug. Angus regarding municipal snow-ploughing, also to make inquiries as to what system was being carried out in other municipalities.

Councillor Fader spoke strongly in favour of bringing the Village's fire fighting equipment up to date and providing the firemen with ladders and other necessary equipment.

Civil Defences, the tax rate, and other items were discussed, and municipal orders for the sum of $343.21 were passed.

The cost of the new sewer on York and St. Lawrence Streets had entailed an expenditure so far of $1629.17, and this does not include manual labour costs.

The meeting adjourned to meet on Wednesday evening to complete unfinished business.

Inkerman Rockets Trim Maxville 10-4

Lloyd LaPorte and Company played their second home game of the season on Monday evening in the Winchester arena, and after sixty minutes of hockey skated back to their dressing room with another convincing win tucked under their belts. Rockets took the game from Maxville by defeating the fast-skating Intermediates 10-4.

The end of the first period saw the Inkerman crew holding a close 2-1 edge. They stayed ahead and at the end of the second the score was still only 4-3. The Juniors turned on the power in the final frame and knotched six more goals to make the final score 10-4.

The game, for the most part, was fast, clean and well played. Both teams came up with some lovely passing plays and until the eleven-minute mark of the third period it was a close contest, with both squads on even terms. Between the eleven and nineteen-minute mark of the last period the Millionaire's defensive tactics fell through and Inkerman rapped in six goals in the eight minutes and sewed up the game.

For Inkerman, Trussell, Baldwin and Bjorness each collected a pair, while W. Swords, C. Swords, McFarlane and Savard picked up singles to complete the Rocket scoring. Munro with a brace, Miller and Moore were the Maxville marksmen.

Only seven penalties were handed out in the game including majors to Romhild and Moore in the third period for roughing.

The line-ups were:

Maxville—Goal, York; def., Sherman and Molinski; centre, Moore; wings, Rooke and Hudon; alternates, Schroeder, Miller, Pope, Blaylock, Houlahan, Munro, Richer, Messier, Johnson, Robertson.

Inkerman—Goal, Diguer; def., C. Swords and W. Swords; centre, McFarlane; wings, Bjorness and Savard; alternates, Marlin, Duncan, Fader, Leblanc, Pelino, Baldwin, Romhild, Crowder, Trussell, Nicholson.

Referees—Mel. Scott, Winchester, and M. McIntosh, Berwick.

In another scheduled C.O.V. game, played in Richmond on Monday evening, Cornwall's undefeated Falcons made it four straight by defeating Richmond 6-3.

INKERMAN ROCKETS TROUNCE RICHMOND 13-2

Winchester and district fans got their first look at this year's flashy Inkerman Rocket team last Friday evening when the Rockets opened the home season in Winchester Arena by soundly whipping Richmond Intermediates 13-2. This was the first home game of the Junior crew who are presently playing in the Central Ottawa Valley Intermediate Hockey League.

Rockets sparked the play all the way, with Fader, Bjorness and McFarlane each completing the hat trick. Baldwin with a pair, and singles by Leblanc and W. Swords completed the Rocket scoring. The first period saw Inkerman take a 5-0 lead, adding five more in the second, and finishing the game by denting the twine three times in the final frame. Richmond's tallies came in the second Taylor and Denofrio. Goalie Ron. Diguer, of the Rockets, was replaced and third periods and were scored by in the third period by Nicholson due to a back injury he had suffered in a previous game. Approximately 450 fans attended the game.

The line-ups were:

Inkerman—Goal, Diguer; defence, Duncan and Marlin; centre; Crowder; wings, Romhild and Baldwin; alternates, W. Swords, C. Swords, McFarlane, Bjorness, Savard, Leblanc, Pelino, Fader, Nicholson.

Richmond—Goal, K. Duncan; def., Brown and Harper; centre, Denofrio; wings, Boville and Seymour; alternates, Leggo, Higgins, R. Duncan, Montagano, Real, Taylor, Gibson.

Other C. O. V. Games

While the Rockets were overpowering Richmond, Maxville R.C.A.F. were outscoring Russell in the Millionaire's home town by a score of 10-6. The Airmen, leading 8-1 going into the third period, were thoroughly outplayed by a game Russell team in the final frame.

In the third game, played at Cornwall, eight penalties were handed out in the first period of a rough but fast game between the Falcons and the Kemptville Royals. The high-flying Cornwall sextette snapped the five-game winning streak of the Royals by handing them a 11-3 setback. On Saturday evening the Cornwall team continued their winning ways by defeating the Alexandria team by the close score of 5-4, at Alexandria.

Local Curling Rink Opened Last Friday

The local Curling Rink was officially opened on Friday evening last, when members of the Men's and Ladies' Curling Clubs formed several mixed rinks for a number of friendly games. Following the contests, refreshments were served in the Club Rooms and a social hour enjoyed. Howard Fetterly, president of the Men's Curling Club, acted as Master of Ceremonies.

The Curling Rink is now located on a lot east of Winchester Theatre. Its former location was near the local Skating Arena, west of the Ault Creamery. The contract for its removal to the new site was given to Mr. Peter MacGregor, who engaged Mr. Wm. Carlyle to assist him with the job. The building was divided into eight sections and each section was moved separately on a truck, and placed on a good solid concrete foundation, which had been laid during the early autumn months.

When the Curling Rink was erected in 1927-28, the cost was around $1700.00. To lay the new foundation, dig a well, and have the building moved, entailed an expenditure of $3500.00. The job was done last autumn.

To finance the removal project, a canvass of the curlers and business men was made, from which about $1000 was realized. Another $1000 is being donated by the Rink Company. This is the proceeds of the sale of the former site of the Curling Rink. A few hundred dollars was raised from a dance, leaving a deficit of about $1000.00.

The Club Rooms are heated with a large oil-space heater, sold to the Club at cost price by Mr. Robt. Woods, proprietor of Woods' Hardware, Winchester. In addition to this, Mr. Woods donated a complete pressure system (new), valued at about $150.00, to the Club for flooding. Needless to say, the Curling Club is very grateful to Mr. Woods for his generous donation and assistance.

In its new location, the Curling Rink has two splendid curling surfaces, a cozy, well-finished club room and all facilities necessary for curling. New members are being sought and the Club extends a welcome to anyone who wishes to join. The fee for old members is $10.00, for new members $5.00, and for associate members $2.00.

With a good strong membership, the Curling Club executive believes the deficit it now faces could be cleaned up without much difficulty.

Curling is a fine sport—good exercise. Join the Curling Club to-day.

SEED GRAIN CLEANING

Local grain is in better supply than other years and considerable cleaning will have to be done between now and seeding time. It is a good idea to have grain cleaned during the winter months when there is more time to handle it than later in the spring. Also, if you have seed grain for sale, early cleaning will get it in shape to offer in good time.

Another advantage is that if seed grain is fixed up and put in a separate bin you know just how much is left for feeding purposes.

To encourage early cleaning we are making a special rate of 20 cents per 100 lbs. on half ton lots or more of one run of grain. Cleaned grain to be taken home as soon as it is done.

It will help a lot if grain is brought in within the next few weeks. We can give better service and spend more time on any lots that need special cleaning. The co-operation of those who have grain to clean will be appreciated.

WESTERN OATS

With the lower dollar value, and transportation difficulties, western grain prices continue to advance. We are not raising prices until we really have to and would suggest that anyone needing grain should buy now and hold their own grain for later on in the season.

Millfeed is also good buying at to-day's prices.

JUTE BAGS

Jute Bags are scarce. Care should be taken to see that bags are kept clean and not torn or damaged by mice or rats.

As far as possible used bags should be kept in the district for local use.

We are paying 12 cents for clean, sound jutes.

Last week's fire at the local hotel was the third serious blaze that was extinguished by our Volunteer Fire Brigade, and the property saved from total destruction. The other two fires, both of a stubborn nature, were at Mr. T. O. Keyes' residence and the garage of Messrs. W. J. L. Boyd & Sons. In all of these cases, it looked at times as though the firemen were fighting a losing battle, but due to their good judgment and concentrated efforts all buildings were saved. This is a record any village may well be proud of—thanks to our Volunteer Fire Brigade.

And while we are on the subject of fires, we reproduce this comment from the Presbyterian Record, which deserves some consideration: "Church fires have usually gained tremendous headway prior to discovery. Investigation has shown that more than one-half of all church fires were first detected by outsiders. Each church has its fire hazards, some of which could be eliminated. Rather than term church fires as "acts of God," we ought to ascertain if they are not the sins of omission of church officials."

WINCHESTER HAS AN EFFICIENT FIRE BRIGADE

Winchester may not have the best Volunteer Fire Brigade in this district, nor the best equipment to work with, but after the performance the members gave in fighting the blaze that broke out at the local hotel in the early hours of Tuesday morning, last week, we cannot help but give them a pat on the back for a job well done.

The hotel blaze had a good start before it was discovered and, as the firemen well know, it was a stubborn fire to fight. Good judgment and persistent action on the part of the local brigade, and the assistance of firemen from other nearby centres, were responsible for the fire being brought under control and the hotel building saved from greater damage.

Had that fire not been extinguished when it was, there is no telling where its spread would have ended, as the hotel is situated in the heart of Winchester's business district, surrounded by buildings on all sides. Yes, as citizens, we can thank our Fire Brigade for averting a catastrophe.

We would also like to say a good word for the co-operation that exists between all Volunteer Fire Brigades in this district. When the local Fire Chief sent a request for assistance to Brigades at Chesterville, Morrisburg and Iroquois, everyone responded without delay. While only one of the visiting Brigades used any of their equipment, the others stood by, ready to go into action if their services were required. For this splendid co-operation the members of all brigades are to be commended. We are sure that the Winchester firemen will return the favour at the first opportunity.

The Winchester Fire Brigade is comprised of a group of hard-working firemen—men who are not afraid to take chances—some even at the risk of their lives—in fighting a fire. Let us see to it that they have whatever equipment they need and that they are well paid for their services. A good fire brigade is truly one of the biggest assets in any community.

CHRISTIANITY VS. COMMUNISM

As we enter a new year, most of us wonder just what it has in store for us—for our town or for the world in general. One thing is certain, for Democracy the year 1951 promises to be the year of destiny. The Democracies have the opportunity to build a new world based on freedom, or to see a totalitarian dictatorship destroy all freedom. We face either the decline of nations, or the rise of a new spirit. There is no other alternative. The choice is Communism or Christianity.

Communism says to the Christian world, "Either you live your ideology and conquer the world with it, or we will take over." This is not an empty threat. Communism, the force that has taken over half the nations of the world—taken them over in the sense of being the directing force in their thinking, is not just a political idea—it is an ideology.

Now, what is meant by the word "ideology," asks the Smiths Falls Record News, which answers its own question by saying: "Faith is an idea that changes people, but an ideology is an idea that changes nations. The average Christian today is not living an ideology. He may have a personal faith, but it is not a burning, living, moment by moment reality.

"An ideology is a belief that makes a total claim on a man's life, and on a nation's culture; that man's personal habits, who his friends are, how he spends every minute of his time, the way he spends his money, whom he marries, his home, his future, his hates, his defeats, and his dreams. Nothing less than that is an ideology.

"Deep in its heritage democracy has an idea that it is big enough to inspire ideological living in all its citizens. Communism demands ideological living. Can democracy hope to survive if we demand of ourselves anything less?"

THE CANADIAN FOUNDATION FOR POLIOMYELITIS

We, who represent the Canadian Foundation for Poliomyelitis, (Canadian March of Dimes) have often been asked: What is your Foundation? What is its work? What is its value? Is it really necessary? says the Committee sponsoring the Campaign. We answer: Yes!

The Foundation is necessary. It is necessary to help relieve pain and suffering and the anguish of the thousands of Canadians who have and are still suffering from attacks by the dread crippler, Poliomyelitis. The Canadian Foundation for Poliomyelitis is so necessary I now wonder how we ever got along without it.

Yet, there are Canadians who wonder if the Foundation is necessary. These sceptics are few—very few, and fortunately, you are continuing to support your Foundation generously. Your Foundation's fight against Polio is going forward on an ever-widening front, fortunately for the many Canadidans who have been victims of the cruel crippler. And if, through the intensification of medical research projects in the Poliomyelitis field, we are privileged to help discover a means of preventing Polio, then how very fortunate for the many Canadians who might have fallen victims. That, of course, lies in the future.

In the present there are a great many ways in which you are fighting Polio through your Foundation. And you can tell the critics that those ways are necessary . . . very necessary, indeed. There are various provincial health policies in various provinces. There are various agencies augmenting the Government program in each province. There are also many gaps in all programs. Your Canadian Foundation for Poliomyelitis is not an overlapping agency. It is not duplicating the work of any existing organization. Rather, it is filling in the gaps. It is assisting provincial government and the various existing voluntary agencies wherever possible in their work in the Polio field. While it is thus helping, your Foundation is co-ordinating as much as it can, all the forces which are fighting Polio.

Let me list a few—just a few—of the concrete things you are doing through your Foundation:

1. You are helping children and adults in the matter of braces and shoes of special construction.

2. You are getting Polio victims from their homes to various orthopaedic centres where they can be examined and fitted. Most of them have no money for travelling, and many of the provincial governments and other agencies operating in the Polio field are unable to supply this transportation. You have done that.

3. You are picking up Polio cases where provincial governments and other agencies leave off.

It is very important that all the people of Canada understand that your Canadian Foundation for Poliomyelitis is working harmoniously and effectively with all the various local and regional agencies that are working so selflessly in the Polio field.

The officers and directors of your Foundation are doing everything possible to see that there is no duplication, no wasted effort, no haphazard activity. The dollars and dimes you donated to the first annual Canadian March of Dimes in 1950 have been fighting magnificently against that cruel enemy, Poliomyelitis. But the fight is far from over.

We are now in the midst of the second annual Canadian March of Dimes to raise money to "Fight Polio." With this additional money, your Foundation will undertake more research, will create more scholarships and bursaries to train Polio fighters, will spread out its facilities to take care of still more post-polio cases.

Let the day come, and let it come quickly, when we have found a means of preventing Polio. Then your Foundation will have only the post-polio victims for which to care.

So you can see the critics are wrong!

Your Canadian Foundation for Poliomyelitis is necessary—very necessary. Give generously to the Canadian March of Dimes—and God bless you!

EDITORIAL NOTES

Some people say that angels are all blondes, but that doesn't prove that all blondes are angels.

When it comes to a matrimonial engagement, every girl thinks she is a self-appointed board of strategy.

We have just read a statement (probably made by a bachelor) that a woman causes all the trouble in life. Maybe so, but it is woman who makes life worth all the trouble, comments the Smiths Falls Record-News.

Winchester's Municipal Council for 1951 assumed control of the village's affairs on Monday, when it held its inaugural meeting. We wish the Reeve and Councillors, and all other civic bodies, every success this year—with the best administration possible.

The Bible still ranks as the world's best seller, but, believe it or not, at Christmas time there was only one store in Winchester where a Bible could be purchased, and that store had a very limited stock. This information was given to us by a man who wanted to purchase Bibles to give to his children as Christmas Gifts. There are at least four stores in Winchester where, in our opinion, Bibles should be included in their regular stock.

With the advent of the new year, two of the district's outstanding weekly newspapers observed anniversaries. The Prescott Journal embarked upon its 104th year of service to the people of Prescott and district, with its January 4th issue, while the Smiths Falls Record-News started its 65th year of continuous publication with the same issue. Both these papers are among the leaders in the weekly field and are performing yeoman service in their districts. To the management and staff of each, the Press extends congratulations and wishes them continued prosperity in the years to come.

MEETING TO FORM MINOR LEAGUE HELD AT MORRISBURG

A meeting to organize Minor League Hockey throughout the district was held in the Agricultural Office, Morrisburg, recently. Mr. E. Doherty, president of the Ottawa District Minor Hockey Association, was present with the following places represented: Maxville, Carl Hubbell, Clarence McGregor; Aultsville, Glenn Froats, Fred Evans; Finch, Rev. M. J. O'Brien, Morgan J. Doyle; South Mountain, Rev. D. W. McDonald, Karl J. Guy; Prescott, Howard Miller; Winchester, A. Dukelow; Morrisburg, Rev. F. L. Howald, L. J. McCormick, C. M. Crober.

The following conveners were appointed for places expected to have one or more teams entered: Prescott, Howard Milller; Cardinal, H. Little; Iroquois, Robert Jackson; Morrisburg, Rev. F. L. Howald; Mille Roches, H. McIntosh; Finch, Morgan Doyle; Maxville, Carl Hubbell; Alexandria, Cornelius Lalonde; Russell and Metcalfe, A. Thompson; Winchester, H. Biccum.

A limit of Feb. 1 was set for cards to be sent to the Zone Convener, A. Dukelow, Winchester.

Tribute was paid by Rev. M. J. O'Brien to L. J. McCormick, of Morrisburg, who had been Zone Convener for the past three years, for the fine work he had done. E. Doherty, president of the Ottawa District, added to this saying it was the one zone from which his office received complete and detailed reports and schedules. Howard Miller, of Prescott, stated Mr. McCormick had put Minor League on its feet throughout this district.

As soon as the number of teams from each place is known, schedules will be drawn for the various groups, the winners going into the playdowns.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Stain Prevention

Try lacquering the brass articles, such as bowls, candlesticks, and fixtures. They will not tarnish and also will not require as much polishing.

Foot Aid

If one's work requires standing on the feet all day, thus making them sore and tired, try placing in the heel of the shoe a discarded powder puff. This will do much to lighten the shock of the foot's contact with the floor, acting as a sort of shock absorber.

Other Editors' Opinions

PARENTS RESPONSIBLE

(Windsor (N. S.) Hants Journal)

Not in every case, but almost invariably so, it is lack of proper home training that can be attributed as the cause of teen-age boys venturing beyond their rights to find themselves at times in serious trouble. How long parents can hope to escape this responsibility is a matter of conjecture.

KEEP PLANS GOING

(Salmon Arm (B.C.) Observer)

In dozens of places public-spirited citizens have raised funds and wielded saws and hammers to raise buildings that are used not only for hockey and skating but as community centres. Construction controls may outlaw such building but determined citizens are not likely to toss their plans overboard at the first sign of rough weather.

BUSY SMALL TOWN

(Virden, Man., Empire-Advance)

We always greet with a chuckle the words of so many city dwellers, "How pleasant it must be to live in a small town where there is so little going on that one can just sit around." Virden is probably typical of many small towns in the west. Here there is so much doing that the average citizen is faced with the problem of how to find one evening a week to stay home and relax.

COMMON SENSE DRIVING

(Melfort (Sask.) Journal)

The other day we watched a large truck attempt to turn at a speed far in excess of what common sense and safety demanded. There must be a great many such characters loose. The answer to this problem seems to be one arrived at by a number of states in the country south of us. They believe the proper place to correct bad driving habits is in the schools.

LIVE AND LEARN!

(Smiths Falls Record-News)

Wonder how many readers know the reason why there are twelve persons on a jury. In reading some historical facts during the week-end we read an article in which it was claimed that in ancient times the court astrologers appointed the juries, selecting one man born under each sign of the Zodiac. In this way it was believed every type of mind would be brought to bear in making decisions. To-day astrology plays no role in the selection of jurors.

RESPECT FOR OTHERS

(Windsor Star)

Inflation essentially is a result of human greed, of people endeavoring to acquire for themselves all the luxuries in addition to essentials, and of businesses seeking to acquire maximum profits obtainable under unusual circumstances. To stem it, Robert Rae advises we must use "the same self-discipline and respect for the needs of others as is asked of troops in war." That is a lot to ask but, if we are to avoid rigid controls, it is necessary.

HE'LL LEARN

(Christian Science Monitor)

Somewhere the Hopalong Cassidys, Gene Autrys, and Jimmy Cagneys failed to get a point asross to young Johnny. We call him Johnny because we don't know his name, but he is the 10-year-old buckaroo who in a misguided moment held up eight-year-old Marcella McLaughlin on her way home from a grocery store in Upper Darby, Pennsylvania.

Johnny, not knowing apparently even "tough guys" don't use an air rifle to take advantage of a lady, made off with 16 cents and a candy bar but left young Marcella with her bag of groceries.

As Johnny grows older his ways will change and undoubtedly for the better. Give him only a few years and he will be vieing for the privilege of carrying a grocery bag for some soft-voiced Marcella.

Give him a few more years, then, and he'll be devoting most of his waking thoughts to bringing home the groceries, including the candy bars and the change. For though young Johnny doesn't know it yet, he has been toying with two of the most civilizing influences in history—women and groceries.

Because now that it's done,
My head feels as big as a city."

INCOME TAX FORMS NOW AVAILABLE

One of the gloomy notes to be considered in welcoming the New Year comes in the announcement that Income tax forms T1 short and T1 general are to be made available to the public as of January 2nd, 1951. This means that John Public must prepare himself and his bank account for the annual "squeeze play."

According to the weekly bulletin issued by the Deputy Postmaster General, postmasters will receive fewer forms than were sent to them last year since the Income Tax Department intends to send these forms direct to employers for distribution among employees.

The new arrangement does not mean that taxpayers cannot obtain the hated forms from the local post-office. It does, however, mean that employees can secure the return forms from their employers and can save a trip to the postoffice.

Taxes, unfortunately, still have to be paid.

ONTARIO M.L.A.'S MAY GET SALARY BOOST

Increased salaries for members of the Ontario Legislature will be recommended by a select committee now studying members' indemnities, it was reported in political circles at Toronto last week.

The committee is reported prepared to recommend increases of $2,000 for Cabinet Ministers and $600 for members that would raise a Cabinet Minister's compensation to $10,000 and a member's to $3,600.

It is the only magazine of its kind, including the poems and also prose of young writers, with the advice and co-operation of its editors. In the latest issue a prize of fifty dollars is offered by Miss A. Louisa Peacock (see page 4) with heading "Canadiana Wins A Friend) for the best poem in the following number. Those wishing to compete should write: Miss Hilda Ridley (Editor), 39 McLaren Street, Ottawa.

The price of the magazine is only one dollar a year, and has a fine format of good size with 20 pages (no advertisements). The address: The Macnab Historical Association, P. O. Box 155, Foleyet, Ont.

Attention Please!

Please turn to Page One and check the label on this issue of The Winchester Press. If it does not read January 1951, your subscription is in arrears and should be paid at once. If it does read January 1951, it's time to renew your subscription, and as all Press Subscriptions are payable in advance, please do not delay sending in your remittance for another year.

At this time of year, the majority of Press Subscriptions fall due, and to save the extra expense of billing, we are asking for your prompt attention to this small outlay.

THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE IS STILL $2.00 PER YEAR IN CANADA AND $2.50 IN THE UNITED STATES

In spite of the fact that everything that goes into the publication of a newspaper has more than doubled in price during the past few years—newsprint, ink, metal, labour, machine parts, rent, telephone, freight rates, etc. —we have had only one increase in subscription rates and one increase in our advertising rates. Other papers have advanced their rates several times within recent years to keep pace with the upward trend of the cost of materials.

If our subscribers will pay their subscriptions promptly when they fall due (and in advance), and if our advertisers will pay their quarterly accounts at the end of each quarter, when they receive their statement, we will endeavour to finance our business without any further increases to our customers.

To maintain the present costs of our services to the public, we must insist that all accounts, subscriptions and otherwise be paid promptly.

The two-dollar subscription price may not seem like much to the subscriber, but when a newspaper has nearly 1800 of them to collect from, the amount is an important matter. Please remit by sending cash, postal note or money order. In case payment is made by cheque, please add exchange as it will be deducted at our local bank.

THE MIXING BOWL

by Anne Allan HYDRO HOME ECONOMIST

Hello Homemakers! The first grocery order which the homemaker phones in after New Year's gives some indication of what resolutions she had made. If, among her staples, she includes a few herbs and spices, it will be a fair indication that she has resolved to provide more interest in and zest to food for her family.

While spices and herbs are old-fashioned in themselves, they are right-up-to-the-minute when utilized to flavour modern dishes. (Brides take note.) They are not luxuries but essentials of fine cookery, and the well-equipped kitchen will have a special shelf for them alone.

When you begin to use spices and herbs, don't be too liberal. Remember that subtle seasoning is the most effective, so use in very discreet amounts.

The basic spices for your kitchen should include allspice, whole and ground; cinnamon, stick and ground; cloves, whole and ground; mustard, seeds and ground; paprika; nutmeg; chili powder; curry powder.

The basic herbs are bay leaves, savoury, sage, thyme, marjoram, dried parsley, mint and poultry dressing.

Further additions which the experienced homemaker might like to add to her spice shelf at this time are "accent", cardamon, saffron, dill seed, garlic salt, celery salt, white pepper berries and caraway seed.

TAKE A TIP

1. Add a 1-4 to 1-2 teaspoon of chili powder to two quarts of stew.
2. Drop in one bay leaf when simmering corned beef or tongue.
3. Leave two whole cloves in tomato soup while heating, then skim them out before serving.
4. Measure out 1-8 teaspoon garlic salt, then sprinkle over gravy as it heats. Also sprinkle sparingly over spaghetti and meat ball casseroles.
5. Take one pinch of dry mustard and mix into macaroni and cheese.
6. Sprinkle cardamon seed lightly into batter for dumplings or the tea biscuit dough for meat dishes.
7. To improve the flavour of bland canned pears, heat the syrup with two slivers of ginger root.
8. Three dashes of celery salt over the sour cream dressing for fruit salad makes a difference.
9. Ground cinnamon, chocolate malted milk powder, and sugar mixed together makes a delicious spread for hot buttered toast.
10. Monosodium glutamate improves the natural flavour of meats and vegetables. Although it is a vegetable protein, it belongs on your spice shelf.

BEAN PATTIES

2 cups cooked dried beans, 3 cups cornflakes, 3 tbsps. finely chopped onion, 1-8 tsp. powdered sage, 1 egg, 1 tbsp. catsup, 3-4 tsp. salt, 1-4 tsp. pepper, 3 tbsps. fat.

Partially mash beans. Crush the cornflakes. Combine beans, cornflake crumbs, onion, sage, egg, catsup, salt and pepper; mix well. Shape into patties; fry in fat until browned, turning only once. Serve with catsup sauce. Servings: 6 patties (3 inches in diameter).

THE QUESTION BOX

Requested by Mrs. R. W.:

Herb Bread

1 cup milk, scalded; 2 tbsps. granulated sugar, 1 1-2 tsps. salt, 1 fresh compressed yeast cake, 2 tbsps. soft butter or shortening, 1 egg, beaten; 2 cups sifted bread flour, 1-2 tsp. nutmeg, 1 tsp. powdered sage, 2 tsps. celery seed, 2 cups sifted bread flour.

To scalded milk, add sugar and salt. Let stand until lukewarm. Add crumbled yeast and stir until dissolved. Add soft butter or shortening and beaten egg.

Measure the 2 cups sifted flour into sifter and sift into liquid mixture. Beat until smooth. Combine nutmeg, sage and celery seed with the other 2 cups sifted flour and add gradually to the first mixture. Mix in with wooden spoon or with hand until ingredients are thoroughly blended. Turn out on lightly floured bakeboard and knead for 5 minutes. Shape into a loaf and place in greased pan. Let rise double size. Bake at 400 degs. for 1 hour.

Requested by Mrs. M. N.:

Spiced Crumb Cake

1 cup sugar, 2 cups pastry flour, 1-2 tsp. cinnamon, 1-2 tsp. ginger, 1-2 tsp. nutmeg, 1-2 cup shortening, 1 beaten egg, 1-2 cup sour milk, 1-2 tsp. baking soda, 1-2 cup raisins, 1-2 cup nutmeats.

Sift together sugar, flour and spices. Cut in shortening as you would for tea biscuits and take out 1 cup of this mixture. Mix together the egg, milk, soda and baking powder and stir into the dry ingredients. Fold in raisins and nutmeats. In a greased cake pan, spread half of the reserved cup of crumbs, pour in the batter, and sprinkle on remaining crumbs. Bake 45 minutes in an electric oven at 350 degrees.

Ford Introduces New Truck For 1951

A new deluxe cab having many interior refinements usually found only in passenger cars, is an optional feature of the new line of Ford trucks for 1951 which were shown the Canadian public for the first time on Friday, January 5th, at Ford-Monarch dealerships.

Among other features, the V-type, eight cylinder engines of the new trucks will have fully automatic power pilot carburetion-ignition controls designed to govern and fire the correct amount of fuel under varying loads, free of spark knock. Steering column gear shift is introduced on the half-ton models.

Both the deluxe and standard cabs, and the front end of the 1951 trucks have been restyled to provide additional, functional advantages including increased rear vision through a greatly enlarged back window. Special attention has been paid to the weather and sound-proofing of the cab, and dual windshield wipers are positioned to give a full vision pattern on the one-piece windshield.

Improved distribution of braking force on the medium duty models has been effected.

The Ford truck line is made up of nine series ranging from half-ton to five-ton capacities, with a selection of three V-type, eight cylinder engines to suit individual power requirements. The 1951 line also includes a cab-over-engine series among the more than 80 models available.

Since that time, Canadian dimes and dollars have given help, heart, hope to Polio victims from coast-to-coast!
Linda, dear—just keep on saying
"With your help I can win!"
You will win, please God—helped by every Canadian.

HUNGARIAN PARTRIDGE SHOOT MAY BE BIG SEASON HERE NEXT YEAR

It looks as though Winchester and district may be in for an influx of ardent hunters next year when the Hungarian Partridge season opens. The following is, in part, a copy from Kendrick Kimball's famous column "Outdoors," in the Detroit News, published two months ago:

"Leaving an area of Eastern Ontario, which was knee deep in birds, a few score hunters are incoherent over the greatest week of Hungarian partridge shooting most of them had ever seen. Within 400 miles of Detroit and over paved highways, there is much farm territory which has never been gunned over. Detroit bird dog men might ring their calendars to watch for the opening of the province's third season on the 'Hunkies,' probably around mid-September of 1951.

"The story is almost too fantastic for belief. But the fact is that hunters and even some game experts had no idea the birds planted in eastern counties back in 1933 had suddenly appeared in hundreds—and even thousands—and in coveys ranging up to 20.

"According to C. D. H. Clarke, expert of the Department of Lands and Forests, and veteran hunter and dog handler, the shooting was better than on Pelee and a lot more exciting.

"After failures elsewhere in Ontario, the Hungarians were released in the counties of Dundas, Stormont, Carleton, Grenville and Prescott. From there they spread both east and west, reaching plenitude also in western Quebec. Until a few months ago authorities of that province were unaware of their fortune.

"The Eastern Counties are old, settled areas. There is little bushland and farms are small. There are few bird dogs in the area, but according to Clarke, a good dog is worth his weight in gold. What few gun dog specialists visited the area found accommodations with Canadian farmers, who readily granted permission to hunt on their fields.

"It was hard hunting over old fences, according to Clarke. Fields are small and out of the fall wheat and stubble area. The birds fed on spring grain and cut buckwheat and millet. The season ran from Oct. 2 to Oct. 9 with a limit of six birds per day and two days' possession allowed. Few gunners were good enough to fill their bags.

"One of the best shots in Clarke's party came in with but one bird, although he reported seeing 500 that day. Don't expect to take your limit, but do expect some of the most exciting sport in your life. Clarke suggests that hunters planning on a shoot next fall contact Harry Keyes, Winchester, Ont., who can advise on accommodations and other details."

Since the publication of this article, Messrs. Harold and Harry Keyes have received many letters regarding the hunting of the Hunkies in this district. Typical of the interest shown by some of Michigan's big time hunters is the following letter from Tom McGuane and Company, Detroit, Michigan:

Mr. H. R. Keyes,
Winchester, Ontario.

Dear Mr. Keyes:—We read with interest an account of the bird hunting in your area, and are most anxious to make reservations with somebody for the season this year.

We understand you can put us in touch with a party who can assist us, and look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,
Tom McGuane.

According to some of this district's better hunters, the Hungarians are prevalent in this district in large numbers and are often seen in coveys of 40 or more birds. How deep the reserves are is still unknown, but it seems apparent that the number of birds here will make sufficient hunting for everyone for sometime.

If enough interest can be created in the new discovery in this part of the province it should not only make for some highly interesting sport but for better business in Winchester and district.

Any hunter who is contemplating on coming to Winchester next year to shoot these birds may be reminded of the difficulties in shooting them. Quoting Mr. Kimball: "Don't expect to take your limit, but do expect some of the most exciting sport in your life."

DISTRICT YOUNG PEOPLE TAKE SHORT COURSE

Four Dundas County young people attended the Christmas Short Course for rural young people, held at Queen's University, Kingston, for three days last week.

They were: Earl Casselman, Bob Dawson and Jack Gibson, all of Winchester, and Ronald Dillabough, of Chesterville. They were sponsored by organizations including the Dundas Hog Producers, Concentrated Milk Producers and Milk Producers' Association.

Co-operation was the theme of the conference and Principal R. C. Wallace, of Queens, in talking to the young people, said: "Cultivate co-operation. Learn to live with others who have different points of view than your own. There is nothing bigger in the world than to learn to do that. If we all co-operate in our communities, the movement toward co-operation will spread. This will help to bring world co-operation and end wars."

The young people heard talks from experts in various lines of work, saw motion pictures and a playlet on practical problems of living, learned group games and square dancing, and took part in group discussions.

What are the essentials of a satisfying life? The boys and girls decided that some of these were a happy home, friendly relations with neighbours, a feeling of belonging to a group and of acceptance by a group, the opportunity to serve others through church, service club or other group, and an acute appreciation of the democratic way of life. The course will be given again next year.

RALPH HURLEY MAKES GOOD AS DUNDEE HOCKEY CAPTAIN

A newspaper clipping submitted to this office from a Dundee, Scotland, newspaper, informs us that Ralph Hurley, a former member of the Inkerman Rockets and a last year's star of the Kemptville Royals, has been making good in the hockey line and has been made Captain of the Dundee Tigers.

The clipping in part says, "Once again Ralph Hurley played a captain's game, and helped the Tigers to the honours in the league game in Dundee."

"Twice in the final period he crashed his way into the Falkirk Lions' goal mouth and monopolized the defence, while Thompson and Sinfield stood clear to flick the puck past a bewildered goalie."

Ralph was always a popular player with the Kemptville Royals and there are many of that team's fans who wish he was in a Royals' uniform again this season.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

Bugs

Borax is one of the best things to discourage bugs, roaches, and ants.

Darned Stockings

The task of darning stockings at night may be made much easier by slipping a lighted flashlight into them

Match Scratches

If the painted wall has been marred by match scratches, rub over these marks with the cut surface of a lemon.

Figs and Dates

The children's stomachs will be kept in a better condition if figs and dates are given to them in the place of candy.

Dust Cloths

Excellent dust cloths can be made from old discarded lisle or silk stockings. Cut and pad several of them together.

The Rocking Chair

A rocking chair will not creep if the wrong side of strips of velvet or felt are glued to the bottoms of the chair rockers.

Washday Hint

Did you know that a handful of salt added to the final rinsing water will prevent clothes freezing to the line in winter.

Dust Mop

To renovate the dust mop put one tablespoonful of concentrated lye in an old bucket half full of water and boil it. Then rinse a few times.

Tan Leather

If it is desired to blacken tan leather, try rubbing the leather thoroughly with the inside of a raw potato. Let dry and then polish.

Linoleum Treatment

On washday, before mopping the linoleum floor, add the leftover starch to the water. It will give a brilliant gloss to the linoleum.

Smooth Irons

Irons that have become rusty, sticky or rough can be smoothed to a glass-like finish by rubbing with salt and a piece of crinkled-up paper.

Faucets

A very good polisher for the faucets is half of a lemon after the juice has been squeezed out. After scouring wash it, and polish with a dry cloth.

Meat

When roasting meat, cook it quickly at first to sear the outside enough to prevent the juices from escaping. Then lower the temperature of the oven to avoid burning.

Fur

If a fur coat or scarf is rain-soaked hang it in a cool, well-ventilated place to dry, never near heat. Shake gently or brush after it is dry. Heat will cause the skin to crack.

Potatoes

When preparing potatoes, place them in a kettle to soak in cold water for an hour before cooking. After they have boiled and are ready for the table, they will be white and dry.

Hanging Sweaters

Try using large-sized embroidery hoops in your clothes closet, through which you may hang sweaters and knitted blouses. They get aired in this way without stretching out of shape.

Fresh Fish

Here is how one may determine the freshness of a fish. See that the gills are red, the scales stick close together, the eyes are bright and bulging, the fish doesn't have too strong an odor, the flesh looks clear and is firm to the touch.

Turkey Roasting

If turkey is to be cooked uncovered and yet a wing or leg is apt to become a bit scorched from standing too high in the oven, place a large pie plate over the top of the bird after it has browned. This is easily removed to baste and yet will not cause the turkey to steam as a lid would.

Eye Glasses

Eye glasses may be polished by first moistening the tips of the fingers, rubbing them over a cake of soap, and then rubbing them over both sides of the lens. Polish as usual. Cold cream or vaseline jelly are also very good cleansers. Rub well afterwards with tissue paper.

TWIN SISTERS OBSERVED 77th BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Kiah Clark and Mrs. Alex Hyndman observed their 77th birthday on January 3rd. Mrs. Clark resides at Mountain, and Mrs. Hyndman at Sudbury. They were born at Vernon in the year 1874 and are the daughters of the late James Kennedy, native of Scotland, and his wife, Maria McLaren.

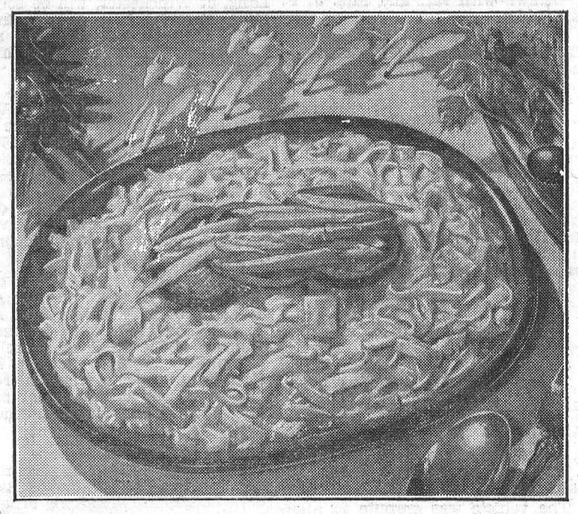
The Finals in the Junior Farmers' Provincial Machinery Adjustment and Safe Driving Competition will be held on Wednesday, January 17th.

Mr. James Stuart Duncan, C.M.G., President of the Massey Harris Co., well-known internationally, will be the guest speaker at the banquet on January 19, to be held at the Kingsway Club, Toronto. All farmers and farm equipment dealers are cordially invited to attend.

Chicken Finale



A BIT of chicken takes right to a combination with condensed cream of chicken soup and noodles.

Fix the last of the holiday fowl this way and it's really a "bird in a gilded cage" Takes just a short time to fix too You can also make the dish with turkey or ham And to go with it, how about hot buttered broccoli or peas and a relish dish of celery and olives?

Chicken Finale

2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 can (1¼ cups) condensed cream of chicken soup
2 cups cooked noodles
Diced cooked chicken

Simmer green pepper in butter in a saucepan until tender. Add soup, noodles—and chicken if desired (½ cup or more is good) Mix all together. Cook over low heat for about 10 minutes or until heated through. Serve on a warm platter, garnish with green pepper rings and additional slivers of chicken. Makes four servings.

SOUP SCOOPS

Soup for supper is a life-saver when you're in the thick of the holiday rush. Hot canned tomato soup and grilled cheese sandwiches will keep the family happy. Round out the menu with a tossed salad or a fresh-fruit dessert.

For a holiday luncheon, treat the crowd to bowls of cream of mushroom soup big fruit salads, and toasted cheese rolls If your friends like dessert could be cranberry pie.

Holiday time is the season to be sure you have a variety-soup shelf. Keep several kinds on hand—vegetable, chicken noodle, cream of celery, etc Then everyone can fix his own supper when the "chief-cook" is dining out or just too busy

CANADA'S health

EPICURES UNLIMITED

Food can be fun as well as a necessity if you plan for plenty of variety. Youngsters can be trained from an early age to enjoy different kinds of food if they are given small, introductory portions at first. Fish is one food that can be served in many delicious ways, and it provides iodine, fat, calcium, protein, minerals and vitamins—in all, a valuable food for children and adults.

DENTAL CARE

Two good health rules are: Wash your hands immediately before eating or handling food, and brush your teeth directly after eating. If you haven't a toothbrush handy after eating, rinse your mouth with water. These are good rules for children and adults alike.

"WHY, MUMMIE?"

Too many "don'ts" and "mustn'ts" in early childhood may develop a feeling of resentment and insecurity in a child. Children benefit by explanations as to why they should or should not do certain things.

FIRST AID

Infection can come through a pinprick. The small cuts and scratches that children get at home or at school should be given immediate attention and the wound, no matter how small, cleansed and an antiseptic dressing applied. To be on the safe side, mothers of families should take a course in "First Aid to the Injured," an inexpensive fund of knowledge that will prove of value in hundreds of ways.

IRON FOR YOUR HEALTH

To maintain a healthy body, good red blood is necessary. To supply this, you require a variety of foods rich in iron. Meats, dried beans, cereals, spinach, almost all kinds of fish and dried fruits have a high iron content. Glandular meats such as liver and kidney are also good sources of this mineral.

TIRED BUSINESS MAN

Fatigue is almost a disease. There are many causes. It can stem from fear, discontent, faulty diet, or health or business worries. Lack of sleep, excessive eating or drinking may also be contributing causes. It doesn't pay to skip your annual vacation or the legal holidays. Taking home your business problems is not a good idea—lock the office door on them. A few minutes' rest during the day will help; just relax close your eyes and stop worrying.

MILK TRAILER DITCHED

When a trailer, owned by Ault Creamery Limited, Winchester, became detached from a tractor, owned by Mr. Dan. Blair, its contents of 17000 lbs. of whole milk was spilled in the ditch adjoining Highway No. 2, just east of Farran's Point, last Saturday.

The vehicle was enroute to Montreal where it makes a daily delivery of milk to Wonder Bakeries. When the trailer hitch loosened, the trailer and tank containing the milk went into a ditch on the south side of the Highway and just missed coming to rest in the St. Lawrence River. It was badly damaged.

This was the second accident the trailer was involved in last week. It jacknifed on the slippery highway, near the Quebec border, enroute to Winchester, last Wednesday. The tank was empty at the time, and while the trailer suffered little damage in this accident, the tractor, owned by Don. Redmond, was damaged and had to be taken to the garage for repairs. During the time it was out of service Mr. Blair's tractor had been engaged to haul the trailer. Mr. Robt. Brown was the driver of the truck in Wednesday's accident.

LATE MRS. T. A. WOODS

Mrs. T. A. Woods, for the past several years an esteemed resident of Iroquois, passed away on Monday, December 25th. She was in her 75th year and had been in failing health for some time. For the past three months she had been a patient at the Williamson Nursing Home, there, where she received the utmost care and attention.

The late Mrs. Woods, whose maiden name was Mary Annie Bell, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, and was born in Matilda Township, receiving her education in the rural schools there. On August 3rd, 1909, she married Rev. T. A. Woods, of Metcalfe, who predeceased her March 6th, 1950. After her marriage she resided in different places throughout Eastern Ontario in centres where her husband held ministerial charges. She took a keen interest in all phases of church work and was held in high esteem by all who knew her. In religion she belonged to the United Church.

Surviving is one son, Earl Woods, of Ottawa; one sister, Mrs. J. R. Bullis, of Iroquois; and one brother, Andrew Bell, of Dixon's Corners. She is also survived by one grandchild, Ian Woods.

Numerous floral tributes showed the esteem in which the deceased was held.
