Early bus brings concern

IROQUOIS– Members of the Upper Canada District School Board transportation team, who met with parents Thursday, May 3, at Seaway District High School were up front about their reasons for proposing changes to the 2007-8 school year.

"These changes represent the best scenario for us from a financial point of view," said Ron Cotnam, Supervisor of Transportation for the Board. "We have a transportation deficit of over one million dollars which must be addressed."

The Board team, assembled to answer the questions and concerns of the nearly 40 parents who attended the meeting included, Rick Gales, Superintendent of Business, Ron Cotnam, Tracey

Grass roots gather seed money

WILLIAMSBURG – The committee representing a grass roots movement to bring more long term care beds to the people in this area, is approaching local councils for resolutions of support and seed money.

Steven Byvelds, who chairs the newly formed South Eastern Ontario Long-Term Care Facility Committee asked his fellow council members to consider supporting the movement, both in principal and financially at the May 1, South Dundas council meeting.

Recognizing and expressing the importance of the issue to the constituents of South Dundas,

A Roaring Good Time

There was an unexpected interruption to the Iroquois-Matilda Lions Club 60th anniversary celebration on Saturday, May 5. Mrs Claus, arriving in Iroquois following a five month search for Santa ("He's been missing since December 25. Probably wouldn't stop and ask for directions."), finally found the jolly fellow in civilian clothes enjoying the Wayne Ronstadt show. To the delight of the over 300 anniversary guests, she dragged Santa out by his ear. Pictured above, Lions Jim Mustard and Barry Fawcett channel their alter-egos. Gibb photo

Serving 60 years

DIXON'S CORNERS – Saturday, May 5, in the presence of over 300 guests, the Iroquois - Matilda Lions Club officially celebrated its 60th year as, in the words of South Dundas mayor Charles Barkley, "a tremendous asset to our community."

"They've served this community for all these years, and they have done remarkable things," Barkley continued. "I've been privileged to be at some of their meetings, and you have no idea of the work they are involved in. The Iroquois - Matilda Lions Club absolutely lives its motto, 'We Serve.'"

Speaker after speaker at the gala dinner, held at the Matilda Hall, echoed the mayor's sentiments.

MPP Jim Brownell was "delighted" to join with the club on

Early bussing concerns local parents

Mayer, Transportation Coordinator, Heather Jones, Routes Planner and Charlotte Patterson, Superintendent of Education for the St. Lawrence region who acted as a facilitator for the meeting.

The Team presented some fiscal statistics to the assembled parents.

"We've been losing six to eight hundred students a year on the elementary panel," said Rick Gales. "The closing of local plants has accelerated this loss. As well, the population of Eastern Ontario as a whole is aging, which means fewer school age children. The effect ultimately hits secondary schools as well."

"Our enrollment numbers should even out at around 17,000 in 2016, versus the nearly 25,000 students currently being served. These declining numbers matter because funding from the Ministry of Education is based on the number of students enrolled in the Board. Fewer students equals less funding."

At the same time as student numbers in the Board decline, the cost of bus transportation has increased. The situation is particularly acute in a Board which encompasses 12,000 square kilometres and is largely rural. Ministry funding will not make up the difference.

"In the 2007-2008 budget," Gales explained, "transportation expenses total $24,776,086, while Ministry funding totals $23, 639,839. This means a deficit of $1,136,247. This might be a smaller deficit than we've had in the past, but it is still a deficit."

"The cost of fuel is another factor. In 2002, we paid 60 cents a litre. Now it's 95 cents a litre, with every prospect of increasing."

The Board's plan to remedy the transportation situation involves changing the start up and ending times of Iroquois Public School, Seaway District High School and Morrisburg Public School.

The proposed changes would reduce the number of actual busses the Board would need to contract for, and permit several busses to do double runs.

The Board says it would be able to eliminate seven busses through double and triple bussing. Despite an increase in fuel expenses, the reduction of seven vehicles at an upfront cost of over $30,000 each, should equal about $100,000 in savings from these three schools alone.

The Board also claims that it would eliminate current waste by ensuring that all seats on a 72 passenger bus are filled. With the Ministry mandate that the public and separate Boards must now pool their transportation resources, further savings should be possible.

The Board also feels the new proposal will address some ongoing concerns of parents.

Busses will be no longer carry a mixture of secondary and elementary students. Waiting times on the busses, currently up to 15 minutes for some students, should be reduced to five minutes. Bus routes in the country will be streamlined, and there will be fewer collection stops for town students. The plan states that no student will board the bus before seven a.m. and that students will arrive five minutes before the bell, rather than up to 30 minutes in some cases, since busses will now be dedicated to a specific school.

To make these changes and potential savings possible, the Transportation plan proposes a new staggered starting time for the school day.

Seaway District High School would run from eight a.m. to 2:10 p.m. Iroquois Public School would run from 9:15 a.m. until 3:40 p.m. Morrisburg Public School would start at 8:40 a.m. and run until three p.m.

While some parents present at the meeting supported the proposed changes, others voiced concerns to the Board team.

Some parents argued that research indicates that most teenagers learn better later in the day, and starting classes at Seaway an hour earlier could affect their learning.

Others were concerned that if they had children in more than one school there could be an hour and fifteen minutes time difference in school starting bells.

A few working parents argued that a 9:15 start time at Iroquois Public School could mean children left unsupervised at home after their parents had left for jobs.

Concerns were also raised by working parents whose children planned to take part in extra-curricular activities at Seaway, that it would be very difficult to pick them up as early as three in the afternoon. The teens would be in for long waits for rides. (Late busses have not been available in the Board area since the mid 1990's.)

Others at the meeting appeared unconvinced that doubling up busses would actually save money if fuel costs increased, and the bus still had to cover two or three long rural routes.

And, as one parent said, there remain safety issues. "Whether an elementary child is standing in the dark at seven a.m. or standing in the dark at four p.m., he is still standing in the dark at the side of a road."

If teenagers are out of school at two in the afternoon, have no jobs, and likely no parents in residence until at least four p.m., one mother felt that this was just "asking for trouble."

According to Ron Cotnam, the Board will send a survey early next week to allow area parents to express their concerns. Then he and his team will analyze the results, and try to provide solutions.

But time is definitely a factor in the transportation proposal.

"Whether we go to the new system or maintain the status quo," Cotnam said, "the decision must be made by May 30 at the latest. Ninety per cent of the transportation planning and work has to be done by August when the Board is scheduled to meet with nearly 100 contractors to set up the system. The contractors demand three weeks to test the proposed routes, and make adjustments. On that, our hands are tied."

on this "historical day. When you think of the Lions, all you can think of is their many milestones." He presented the club with a special certificate from the Provincial Parliament honouring their years of hard work.

Special guest, District Governor James Johnston remarked that it "was an honour to be here to celebrate 60 years of Lions serving their community. Thank you for making a difference, and for making your community so much stronger."

He presented president Bill MacDonald with a Certificate of Congratulations from Multiple District A.

The Matilda Hall was filled with memories and memorabilia from 60 years of community involvement. In scrap books, banners and during a continuous power point program, the Iroquois-Matilda club celebrated a long heritage of service.

Over 50 charities, schools and deserving organizations have at one time or another been recipients of the Lions' hard work and selfless generosity.

In this last year alone, the Iroquois-Matilda Club completed a $50,000 pledge to Winchester District Memorial Hospital, donated $10,000 each to the Beach House and community soccer, and sent $2,000 to the fund to assist Caylen Laberge.

Following speeches and a delicious roast beef dinner, the floor was turned over to Wayne Ronstadt, whose performance at the gala was a highlight for all in attendance.

Ronstadt was introduced by Lion Glenn as "one of the most recognized voices and faces in entertainment, a man who has won the hearts of people across Canada. He is a member of the Order of Canada, and has been awarded the Lions Clubs' highest honour, the Judge Brian Stephens Humanitarian Award."

Ronstadt, who shared hilarious and sometimes touching anecdotes about Canada, and had the crowd tapping its toes to his music, was the consummate showman.

Some local talent took to the stage as well.

At various points in the show, Jim "Grizz" Adams (reluctantly) sang "Please Release Me," while Glenn Schwerdfeger joined Ronstadt for an 'unusual' rendition of "Your Cheatin' Heart". Carol Brouse's version of "Blueberry Hill" had both the entertainer and the house in stitches.

There was also a completely unexpected visit from an irate Mrs. Claus (AKA Barry Fawcett) who had misplaced her husband in December, and was shocked to find that he (Jim Mustard) had been hiding out in Iroquois all this time.

At the end of the evening, door prizes were awarded to lucky ticket holders.

Keith Banford of Iroquois won $100 worth of Schneider's Meats from Whitteker's Meats in Williamsburg. Bev Barkley won the beautiful porcelain doll donated by Val Bennett. Steven Cauvier of Morrisburg was the winner of the 50/50 draw.

As Lion Paul Robertson said later, "It was a terrific celebration, and we want to thank everyone who helped make our 60th anniversary a success."

council readily agreed to, and passed, the resolution of support and provided the group with $3,000 seed money. The money will be used to help them incorporate and do a feasibility study outlining the need for long term care in this area.

The study area will include the townships of North Dundas, South Dundas, South Stormont, North Stormont and Edwardsburgh-Cardinal. All of the councils will be approached by the organization, both for support and for a $3,000 contribution.

"We want to make sure all of the townships are involved," said Byvelds. "If it is just a South Dundas project it will never fly," he added.

Morrisburg Composite Site Closed

MORRISBURG – Blatant misuse of the Morrisburg Compost Site has resulted in township officials closing it to the public indefinitely. The decision was made at the May 1, regular council meeting.

The site, located in the Morrisburg industrial park was manned by a volunteer, who after manning the site for a couple of weeks, resigned from the responsibility.

South Dundas manager of public works, Hugh Garlough informed council of the situation at the May 1, regular council meeting and said, "We have been having trouble with misuse of the site. Mike Clark volunteered to look after the site and today he resigned. It is my recommendation to close the site," said Garlough. "We have been left with no alternative until another volunteer comes forward."

"I would like to see the site open, but it has to be supervised," said South Dundas councillor Steven Byvelds. "We should close it, but not permanently."

Council agreed to the closure until another volunteer comes forward to run the site.

Since this decision was made, the misuse of the site has continued. Garlough said that sometime Thursday or Friday construction material was dumped at the site.

Homeowners attempting to take their yard material to the compost site Saturday, were greeted with a locked gate, and as is evident with the amount of yard material left outside of the gate, decided to leave the material along the road.

"The sign said no dumping, so everyone that did that is littering and should be dealt with in an appropriate manner," said Garlough Monday afternoon.

He also reported that sometime between Saturday afternoon and Monday morning someone cut the lock and opened the gate to the site.

Since that time the gate has been locked again and Garlough says he has been instructed to take no further action, including cleaning up the debris outside of the site, until instructed to do so by council.

"We have had no trouble at the Iroquois compost site, but there has always been an ongoing battle at the Morrisburg site," said Garlough. "People constantly leave tires and garbage at the site, even with supervision."

Until a volunteer is found to run the Morrisburg site, Morrisburg residents can take their compost material to the Iroquois site, located just off Carman Road, in the Iroquois industrial park, which is open from 10 a.m. until noon Saturdays.

This huge pile of yard waste was left outside of the closed Morrisburg Compost Site over the weekend.

Opening soon, seeking vendors

IROQUOIS – The Carman Farmer's Market is getting ready to start their sixth season of operation, and the group is looking to expand their offerings to include more fresh produce and unique crafts.

In 2001, the market, which operates from permanent log shelters on the grounds of the Carman House Museum in Iroquois, opened for the first time.

They currently have a handful of permanent vendors, and are open weekends starting May 12, until at least Thanksgiving weekend.

They are currently seeking new vendors to add to the site, and are hoping to attract those who have produce and unique crafts to sell.

"All of our present vendors do home baking as well as produce, some bedding plants, and one vendor has some crafts," says Ray Mason of the farmer's market committee. "There is room to add more shelters, if needed," he says.

According to Mason, the location of the market, which is adjacent to the municipal campground, in Iroquois, brings in a lot of regular customers, and they are also well supported by local residents.

South Dundas township has provided the group with signs which have helped them immensely by attracting tourists and those driving by to their small outdoor market.

Happy Mothers Day

The mothers in our society are the most important single group of us all. For without them, the human race, and all its accomplishments, and all its knowledge, and all its potential would very quickly disappear from the face of the earth forever.

On one Sunday each year most of us in the Western world pay tribute to our own mothers and to all mothers, or to their memories. But besides being the second Sunday of May, Mothers Day means many things to many people. One writer has listed a few of them:

It is an afternoon spent at a neighborhood coffee party, where the main topics of conversation are first smiles, first teeth, first steps, first words, and the first potty training triumph.

It is the day your kids decide to bathe the cat.

It is the day you found you had survived the terrible twos and threes, and then burst into tears on the first day of school.

It is the day you found three mouldy plates under the living room couch.

It is the day you get two misshapen clay pots and a crepe paper corsage for your birthday.

It is the day you lead a cheer in a cold arena at 6 a.m.

It the day your children balk at having a baby-sitter.

It is the day they say "I love you Mom", instead of "awe gee, do I have to?"

It is the day that you realize that your child is one of your very best friends.

Mothers Day was originated to give thanks to and to pay tribute to that very important person who has done more for you, and has sought less in return than anyone else ever has or ever will. It is an opportunity for each one of us to acknowledge our great debt to all mothers everywhere, for the important gifts of love and life which they bring to every human who was ever born.

Motherhood remains the most challenging, and most certainly the most rewarding career of all. Everyone loves mothers – young mothers, older mothers and grandmothers. They deserve every accolade on Mothers Day and every day.

Around the Township

We have another big weekend coming up in South Dundas, and to get it off to a good start you can take in the Seaway Singers Concert on Friday evening, May 11 at the United Church in Morrisburg. Our very popular local choir will be performing various numbers including Camelot and Phantom of the Opera pieces. Tickets are available at the door. The Seaway Singers are also pleased to be venturing into the community and you can look forward to hearing them when the Cruickshank Waterfront Amphitheater is officially opened and during the 50th anniversary celebrations for the Morrisburg Shopping Plaza.

Saturday (May 12) you can head over to the Morrisburg Fire Hall from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., where our local firefighters will turn the hoses on, not a fire, but your dirty car. The annual car wash by our firefighters is a Canada Day Fireworks Fundraiser, so head over to help guarantee some bright lights over the village on July 1st.

After you've worked up a big appetite watching someone else wash your car (which is definitely nice), you can head down to M&M Meats for your lunch. On Saturday, May 12, the local M&M Shop is joining 430 Shops across Canada to support the 19th Annual M&M Meat Shops Charity Barbecue Day which benefits the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of Canada. Between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m., you can drop in at the M&M barbecue and purchase a hamburger or hot dog, a drink and a bag of chips for a minimum donation of $2.50. All of the product and time is donated, so every penny goes directly to CCFC.

If you enjoy having someone else wash your car, how about having someone else prepare your lunch? Community Living (Dundas County) is hosting a Brown Bag Day on Tuesday, May 15. Lunch costs $8 and will consist of specialty sandwich, fruit, beverage and dessert and it will be delivered to your office. To have someone else prepare your lunch call Brenda Laviolette by Friday, May 11 at 613-543-3737 Ext. 231.

Headlines in the May 7 issue read: McGregor appeals to residents to open their hearts for flood victims. Village Reeve, Gord McGregor was appealing to residents of Morrisburg to support the Manitoba flood relief fund. "The flood in that province is probably the worst disaster in the history of our country and will be devastating to those people for weeks and months to come," said McGregor.

Seaway High hosted its annual Dave Steven's Memorial Relay meet and came up with a third place finish. Strong performances in the field by Laura McDonnell, Amanda Dillabaugh and Alan Markell were impressive as were the first place long and high jumping by Dave Vandermeer. The girls relay team of Sharon Spear, Shanna Dawley, Rochelle Croteau and Irene Berghuis picked up three firsts.

The Legion Mixed Dart League wrapped up its season at its annual awards dinner. The season's high score winners were Dorothy Simpson and Randy Butler. Carolyn Gale and Dorothey Simpson (tied) and Fred Diegel won for most outs.

The May 6 issue reported the St. Lawrence Parks Commission was relocating its administration building to a central facility. The Commission had several administrative centres in Morrisburg, at Upper Canada Village, in the Crysler Park Area and at Fort Henry in Kingston. The Commission was planing to relocate to the former Upper Canada Restaurant building located adjacent to Upper Canada Village which was closed in 1986, when the Harvest Barn opened.

Seaway High School track and field athletes Laura Dawley and Michael Reichert were off to a strong start. Dawley threw a personal best 31.90m to win the junior girls javelin at the National Capital meet in Ottawa, while Reichert threw a 43.60m throw to win a gold in midget boys javelin at the Thousand Islands Invitational meet in Brockville.

Top shooters in the Riverside Mixed Dart League were Sandra Baker and Jim Scott who posted the season's most outs and Ricky Markell and Sharon Wereley who registered the high scores.

The May 12 issue reported the Morrisburg Library was in the throes of drastic expansion. The county library board and Morrisburg council had reached an agreement on relocating the library from the old high school to the ground floor in the eastern section of the arena. Work at the arena involved removal of the old garage doors and filling in the two large openings this would create.

Mrs. Luke Mallan, one of Morrisburg's most beloved and most widely known residents, would celebrate her 100th birthday on Tuesday, May 17. Known to all as "Aunt Mary", this grand old lady had been a resident of Morrisburg since the turn of the century.

Featured in the issue was the picturesque home of Miss Gladys Bayne. The stately Victorian home was erected in 1870, by Morrisburg's first medical doctor, Dr. Sherman. The impressive entrance hall was highlighted by a graceful staircase of black walnut. Surrounded by the original wrought iron fence, the residence was one of the finest examples of Victorian architecture in Eastern Ontario. Windows on the second floor extended from ceiling to floor and opened to miniature balconies. The three storey dwelling was crowned by a unique and picturesque cupola with wrought iron trim.

Printed in the May 12 issue were the hours the public could visit the Confederation Caravan which would be set up opposite the Legion Hall on May 19. The four trailers would be set up in a quadrangle.

Although the Morrisburg residential tax rate was being reduced 1.3 mills for 1967, residents of the community were being warned to expect a substantial increase in 1968 due to the new composite high school at Iroquois.

Baskets of blue tinted white carnations decorated St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Morrisburg on May 6 for the marriage of Sandra Ann, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Casselman of Morrisburg and Robert John Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carman Bailey of Belleville. Mrs. Donald Smithson was her sister's matron of honor.

The May 3 issue reported S. Gordon Walroth would assume the managership of the Morrisburg branch of the Bank of Montreal succeeding K.G. MacLuckie who was transferring to a Toronto branch. Mr. MacLuckie came to Morrisburg in 1949, and was very active with the Canadian Club and the Morrisburg Curling and Golf Clubs.

Dates and times of local polio clinics were released (for the first dose of Salk vaccine) for Morrisburg, Aultsville, Williamsburg and Winchester Springs Public Schools.

The annual high school cadet inspection was coming up May 10 under Inspecting Officer, Capt. F. Evans of Kingston.

Waitresses and pin boys were wanted at the Playdium.

The May 9 issue reported that for three months Challies Dental Products had been busy on a single export order to Europe which culminated this week in the shipment of 550,000 tooth brushes. It was one of the biggest single civilian orders for tooth brushes ever handled by a Canadian firm and required extensive renovations and improvements to the Church Street establishment.

In a letter to the editor, the Legion complained that an outsider was awarded the tender for the dance hall in the rink.

Spring into Arts & Crafts

MORRISBURG – The Morrisburg and District Arts & Crafts Association turned the Morrisburg Legion into a Spring festival of florals, woodworking, stained glass, ceramics, clothing, painting, honey and jams on May 4 and 5. Eighteen exhibitors gave visitors a wealth of beautiful work to admire and purchase. Gibb photos

"We have eight new vendors for this Spring show," said Sharon Duprau, President of the Morrisburg and District Arts & Crafts Association. "We have wonderful displays by our talented exhibitors." Many of the exhibitors have been developing their crafts for a number of years. Pictured top, 91-year-old Jean Presley accepts a life membership from Duprau while (right) Lois Outerkirk shows off one of her dolls. "I was at my first craft show in Morrisburg 27 years ago. I'm back again," she said, "It's so much more intimate here."

Melinda Wert, whose Happy Hippie Creations featured stunning stained glassware said, "I started working in glass 10 years ago, and my craft just grew." Like Outerkirk, she enjoys the Morrisburg show. "It's local and the people are lovely."

The jolly garden Frog (centre) is a hand painted ceramic creation from Richard and Susan Bourget's Inspiring Designs. "Each of our pieces has a unique character," said Richard.

My prayers for South Dundas

Perspectives

Risen Christ, your love for the world was revealed on the cross.

Empower all to love one another as Christ has loved us.

You have blessed us with your creation, rich in beauty. Open our eyes to see your splendor; open our ears to hear even the mountains and the hills give praise to your name. You have given seeds to the sowers and bread to people. Nourish, protect, and bless the seeds which your people have sown in hope. May they bring forth their fruit in due season.

Your grace extends to all peoples of the world. We pray for nations divided by violence and other barriers, that efforts toward peace and reconciliation might create a world where all nations live in harmony. We hold up in prayer all families and military chaplains connected to all divisions of the Canadian Armed Forces, both in Canada and overseas.

You make all things new. We pray for all who are anxious, ill, or hurting. Dwell with us, and strengthen us, that all may feel newness of life. Your resurrection is the source of our healing. We give you thanks for the lives of nurses, physicians, therapists, and other members of this community who provide healing and wholeness to those in their care.

Rev. Norine Gullons

You promise to wipe every tear from our eyes. We give thanks for hose who have died in the faith. We await your grace to draw us along the path of life and bless our creative powers, so that we may bear your grace to all people all around us.

Merciful God, into your hands we commend all for whom we pray for those we fail to pray for, for the sake of your crucified and risen Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Great support for recent "Farewell Tour"

Dear Editor,

On behalf of the volunteers for the Dundas County FoodBank, I would like to publicly praise and thank you for the tremendous coverage given to the "Farewell Tour of the Bucket Brigade" variety fundraiser held recently at the Upper Canada Playhouse.

I know that the glamourous photos of Hyacinth and friends, which appeared in the Morrisburg Leader announcing their return to host the show was a big factor in its success.

The dedication of the actors, including director Wendy Gibb, and the many performers who shared their talents with the enthusiastic audiences provided everyone with great fun and laughter at both the afternoon and evening performances.

Special thanks to Shirley Testerink of the Apple Tree Ministry (St. James Anglican Church) who undertook the production. Many volunteers assisted with the details of tickets sales, posters, food, sound and lighting, back stage work and hosting the audience.

This became a community affair!

Donnie Bowes and Tina Sypes of Upper Canada Playhouse were with the production all the way and appreciation is extended to them and the Playhouse board of directors.

As well, I would like to thank the Morrisburg and District Lions Club, the Iroquois Matilda Lions Club and the Christian Reformed Church of Williamsburg for their food drives also held April 28. This was a great day for the Dundas County FoodBank.

Thank you all!

Sincerely,
Brenda Millard
Chairperson,
Dundas County FoodBank

Big Bike, big fun for heart

MORRISBURG – Representatives from many local businesses rode a big bike for a big cause, Thursday afternoon.

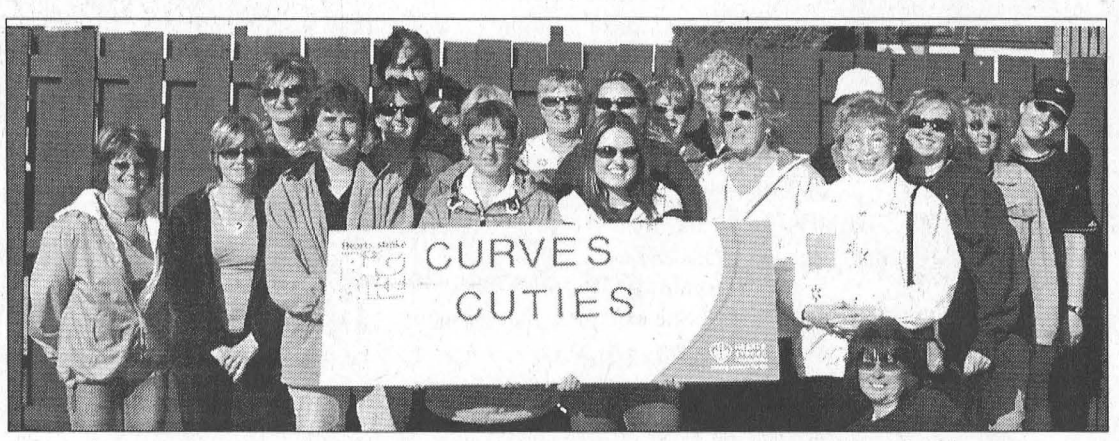
Departing from the McIntosh Inn, the Big Bike, which raises funds for heart and stroke research, right here in Eastern Ontario, has been making a stop in the Morrisburg area for about 15 years, and in that time has resulted in over $60,000 worth of fundraising for the Heart and Stroke Foundation.

There are four big bikes which travel all over Ontario and Canada to raise money for the cause.

Susan David, area manager of the Stormont, Dundas, Glengarry and Prescott-Russell, says that the big bike fundraiser, which is supported by local individual has a great benefit locally.

"The money raised goes to research in Eastern Ontario," says David, "such as the Ottawa Heart Institute, Stroke Centre for Excellence, Queen's University and CHEO. Our people are served by those places, and heart attack is still the number one cause of death in our area," she added.

The big bike was filled with people from the OPP, Ross Video, Curves, Canadian Tire, Mike's Valumart, Head to Sole Massage Therapy, Altima Dental and Brister Insurance.



News from Rothwell-Osnabruck

INGLESIDE–Public Speaking Competition occurs annually, showcasing students in a competitive fashion as they hone their public speaking skills. This year, Rothwell-Osnabruck's Jacquie Boileau competed with great success.

Jackie Boileau was successful at the Long Sault competition, the Cornwall competition, and went on to compete in Smiths Falls at the Regional competition. Against experienced speakers, Jackie (a first-time public speaker) competed with maturity and presence. She earned second place.

Jackie's powerful speech on bullying, suicide, and the death of a dear friend captivated audiences, and taught many listeners about our responsibilities to one another. Jackie was pleased to get her message out, and is confident that she will continue to speak on important issues in the future. Congratulations, Jackie!

The 11th Annual Mathieu Da-Costa Challenge took place earlier this year. Students from across Canada participated by submitting creative writing or artwork that celebrates the contributions made by Canadians of Aboriginal, African and other backgrounds to the development of Canada.

From all the submissions, 10 were chosen to represent Canada at their Diversity Celebration in Halifax, Nova Scotia, in April.

Rothwell-Osnabruck's Reba Timbrell was one of this year's winners. She won Best Written Composition in English in her age category and received an all expenses paid trip to Halifax with her family, along with various other prizes.

The greatest prize, however, was that Reba's poem was chosen as one of the best in Canada, addressing our beautiful quilt-like amalgam of diverse cultures. Rothwell-Osnabruck School congratulates Reba on her tremendous accomplishment.

Cow Patti Theatre

Great evening of entertainment

by Bonnie McNairn
Leader Staff

CORNWALL–As their theme song for the Cow Patti production of John Patrick's Opal's Baby suggests, "Yippee-i-ay Cow Patti".

The Cow Patti production of Opal's Baby, now running at the Glen Building in Cornwall, provided a wonderfully funny evening of entertainment last Thursday.

Veteran actress Patti Kazmer, who plays the lead role of Opal, was outstanding as she delivered her views on world events and divulged intimate information about her friends and acquaintances...including the poor chap who lost a couple of limbs and then had his ear bitten off by his wife.

The remainder of the cast, which includes AnnaMarie Lea as Rosie, Victor Cornfoot as Norman, Jonas Elliott as Norman's son Spencer, Jennifer Robertson as Spencer's wife Verna and Estelle Denis as Granny, delivered wonderfully funny versions of their characters.

Lea always brings something special to her characters and she does it again as Rosie, Opal's dear but quirky friend who solicits laughs from the audience every time she appears on stage.

Victor Cornfoot does a good job as Norman, the shady, conniving head of the colourful family that passes themselves off as Opal's long lost relatives and schemes to steal her money.

Jonas Elliot's character has few lines, mainly "yup" and "nope", but he delivers a character you won't soon forget. In fact even thinking about him, long after the play is finished, you can't help but chuckle.

In contrast to Elliot's lack of lines, it's Jennifer Robertson's delivery that leaves you wanting more.

The Cornwall actress, now in just her second professional show, has come up with a vocal tone that you immediately fall in love with and has you thinking...maybe Scarlett O'Hara. She is excellent in her role and proves that she is definitely worthy of professional theatre.

Last, but as they say, definitely not least, is Estelle Denis of Cornwall, who plays granny. Denis entertains you throughout the play with her various versions of her very few lines, which mainly consist of the well-known English nursery rhyme, "Four and twenty blackbirds, baked in a pie. When the pie was opened the birds began to sing...cock-a-doodle-doo."

We say no more.

We thoroughly enjoyed the play and recommend it to all theatre goers.

Business first at Chamber AGM

MORRISBURG – A new position and a new committee were made official at the South Dundas Chamber of Commerce Annual General Meeting held April 18, at the McIntosh Inn.

The meeting was well attended with about 50 people on hand, including members and invited guests.

The meeting consisted of a number of business items and guest presentations.

On the business side of the evening, the voting Chamber of Commerce members in attendance accepted the nomination committee report to reappoint Cam Martel (past president), Ed Kingsley (board chairman), Dick Kropp (vice chairman), Jane Ewing (secretary) and Kathy McIntosh (treasurer) to the executive positions. Also reappointed for another year were directors Roy Brister, Robert Fortin, Barbara Scott, Shirley Pulfer, Claudette Pitre and Richard Zandbergen.

The voting members were also asked to support a motion to form a ways and means committee responsible for making decisions about fundraising opportunities and to help establish better community awareness of the chamber and its initiatives.

In addition to this new committee, members were asked to support a resolution to hire a manager of day-to-day operations.

"We are in effect re-inventing a position we had 10 years ago," said Martel.

Geraldine Fitzsimmons was named to the new position for a term of one year with remuneration of $10,000, for the one year tenure which will be reviewed annually. She will also chair the ways and means committee.

Board Chairman Ed Kingsley spoke about the successes of the Chamber over the past year including the trade show which was moved to the arena venue and the May long weekend.

Kingsley said that his mandate as chairman was to increase membership. "I believe we have done that, and are at 134 currently. That's a good sign of our success."

Gail Logan, president of the Ottawa Chamber of Commerce network, was the evening's guest speaker.

She spoke about the importance of the Chamber of Commerce and shared some of their secrets to success such as making connections and maintaining positive relationships with the municipal level of government.

Joanne Klauke-Labelle also spoke at the meeting about a new youth program which is coming to Morrisburg - Harmony.

The program was founded by Klauke-Labelle and gives children 2-18 years of age the opportunity to participate in free programing centred in the arts, free of charge, in exchange for community service.

In establishing the program, youth, volunteers and community involvement are all key to getting it off the ground.

To the chamber members, and the business community she said, "You are so important to the kids." She explained that through this program kids learn to be accountable to and feel important in their community.

She urged the businesses to make use of the program and the youth who will be involved. "The kids will be around. Welcome them."

South Dundas Chamber of Commerce Executive Returning

At their annual general meeting, April 18, the South Dundas Chamber of Commerce reappointed the executive positions and directors for the second of a two year term. Agreeing to let their names stand for the following positions were (front left to right) Ed Kingsley as board chairman, Dick Kropp as vice chairman, Cam Martel as past president, and directors (standing left to right) Claudette Pitre, Barbara Scott, Shirley Pulfer, Richard Zandbergen and Robert Fortin. Also re-appointed, but unavailable for the photo were Jane Ewing, secretary, Kathy McIntosh, treasurer, and director Roy Brister. Appointments to the board by outside agencies are Bill Ewing of the Morrirburg BIA, Jeff Beaupre of the Iroquois Business Group, Anne Marie Waddell of South Dundas Economic Development and Robert Gillard, Deputy Mayor of South Dundas township council.

Playhouse charity fundraising is back

MORRISBURG – Charitable organizations in the area are invited to take advantage of Upper Canada Playhouse's sixth annual Charity Fundraising Event.

The Playhouse is donating the proceeds of the September 1 matinee performance of It Runs in the Family to 15 area non-profit charitable organizations.

The organizations are each given 18 tickets to sell, retaining 100 percent of their sales for their fundraising work.

"It's really as simple as that," says artistic director Donnie Bowes. "It's a great way for The Playhouse to give back to the community that supports us. It's also made possible through the generous support of our sponsors, staff and artists."

"The tickets aren't purchased by the organizations, they're donated to them," explains Bowes. "The only responsibility the organizations have is to sell their own tickets. They're encouraged to sell them at the full regular price of $26 per ticket so they get a good return."

Interested organizations are asked to contact The Playhouse by Fax at 543-4388 or by mail at PO 852, Morrisburg, On, K0C 1X0. Unfortunately, requests cannot be taken by phone or email.

No special form is required. Organizations are asked to include the name of their organization, its mandate, contact person, phone number, and what they propose to do with their ticket revenue. The request must by signed by a member of the organization stating that it is a charitable non-profit organization.

Tickets will be given to qualified organizations on a first come first served basis and those receiving tickets will be contacted by June 15.

Arts and Crafts Association presents generous cheque to WDMH

"As we collect extra funds during our shows, we try to give them to Winchester District Memorial Hospital," said Sharon Duprau, President of the Morrisburg and District Arts & Crafts Association. "Over the years, we have made 22 donations to that cause." Friday, May 4, the crafters presented a Spring show cheque for over $1,000 to Dawn Cooper, Managing Director of the Hospital Foundation, bringing their total givings to $5,000. Cooper, who was delighted to accept the gift, said "We appreciate this very generous donation. We are very grateful for the strong support of our community." Cooper went on to say that the Hospital is waiting daily for Health Minister Smitherman's official permission to begin the ambitious renovation program which will include new beds in maternity and long term care, a new operating room and day surgery. The craft show ran May 4 and 5 at the Morrisburg Legion. Pictured above, left to right, are Sharon Duprau and Dawn Cooper.

Annual meeting for UCW

MERRICKVILLE– A warm welcome was extended to members of Seaway Valley Presbyterial United Church Women, when they gathered April 10 at Merrickville United Church, for the 39th Annual meeting. Welcome and a reading were given by President Janice Reynolds.

UCW President, Ferne Richardson and Rev. Christine Lowson also welcomed everyone.

Nancy Hazen, President of the Montreal-Ottawa Conference spoke of the 45th Anniversary of the UCW celebration in Newfoundland and anniversary pins that are for sale. She indicated new membership cards will be available soon. Gail Telford presented a brief history of the Merrickville church from its early services in the blockhouse to the present.

The worship service was presented by Algonquin UCW.

Jodie Oliver King and her dad performed a beautiful rendition of "Reach Out and Touch". Following the blessing of the offering, "Jesus' Hands were Kind Hands" was sung with Joan McEwan assisting on the piano.

Joan McEwan and Lois Johnson conducted the memorial service. "I Was There to Hear Your Borning Cry" was sung and a candle was lighted, as the names of the members were read.

A tribute was read by Lois Johnson for the East Hawkesbury and Manhard UCW's which are closing. Edna Spicer responded, telling us she has been part of the UCW since she was 13.

Reports were accepted and the budget was passed. Barbara Barton read the nominations and all seats, except secretary, were filled. Nancy Hazen installed the new executive for 2007/2008.

BrochuresforSummerEventAugust 17, 18, 19 at Kemptville College were given to the presidents. "Rhythms of Life" is the theme for Summer Event. A Salad Bar meeting is scheduled for Johnstown, June 12.

Rietta Hillis introduced Rev. Rodney Merkley who spoke about his experience in Bella Bella and showed slides of the villages and homes. Samples of dried food, stored by the natives for the winter months, were tasted and clothing displays were viewed.

The meeting closed with the benediction by Rev. Merkley.

Season wrap up for Morrisburg Junior B Lions

WILLIAMSBURG–Veteran forward and St. Lawrence Division top scorer, Cory Gove, was named the Morrisburg Junior B Lions most valuable player when the team got together for their wrap-up banquet at the Cedar Glen Golf Course on Saturday.

Gove had another outstanding season for the Lions, who after finishing in third place in the regular season, ousted the favoured second place Winchester Hawks in the first playoff round. They then lost in the St. Lawrence Division Championship to the Alexandria Glens who went on to win the Eastern Ontario Jr. B Hockey League Championship over the Gatineau Mustangs.

Gove finished the regular season tied at 108 points with the Winchester Hawks' Ben Collins for the St. Lawrence Division Scoring Championship. In addition to receiving the Brian McNairn Most Valuable Player trophy Saturday, he was presented the Gerry Hess Memorial Trophy as the Lions' leading scorer and the Morrisburg and District Minor Hockey Trophy as the Best Forward.

Pat Mainville got the nod as this year's top defenceman and was presented the Richard Baker Most Valuable Defenceman trophy. "When we needed him he was there. Pat really stepped up to the plate for us this year," said coach Eddie Gove.

Also getting a much deserved pat on the back was Chad Galipeau who received the Junior B Lions trophy as the most valuable player in the playoffs. "Chad did everything for us except play net, and I hear he is pretty good at that too," said Gove. Galipeau also had a big season for the Lions finishing as their third top scorer with 91 points.

Finishing in second place in the team scoring was Ryne Gove at 94 points. Gove received the Charlie Cassell Memorial trophy for most assists.

The Garry Lawlor Memorial Trophy for Rookie of the Year went to Ryan Wong and the James McAllister Lady Bing trophy to Kyle Lagace. The SDS Kerr Award for the most improved player went to Kyle Jarvis who was credited for his versatility. "He was a forward all his life," said Gove. "We put him on defence, then up on forward and back on defence, and he did one helluva job."

The Canadian Tire's Defensive Player of the Year Award was presented to Devon Brunet and the Clare Van Allen Memorial Trophy presented annually to outstanding graduates of the South Dundas Minor System went to midget affiliates Chris Tindal and Graham Peters.

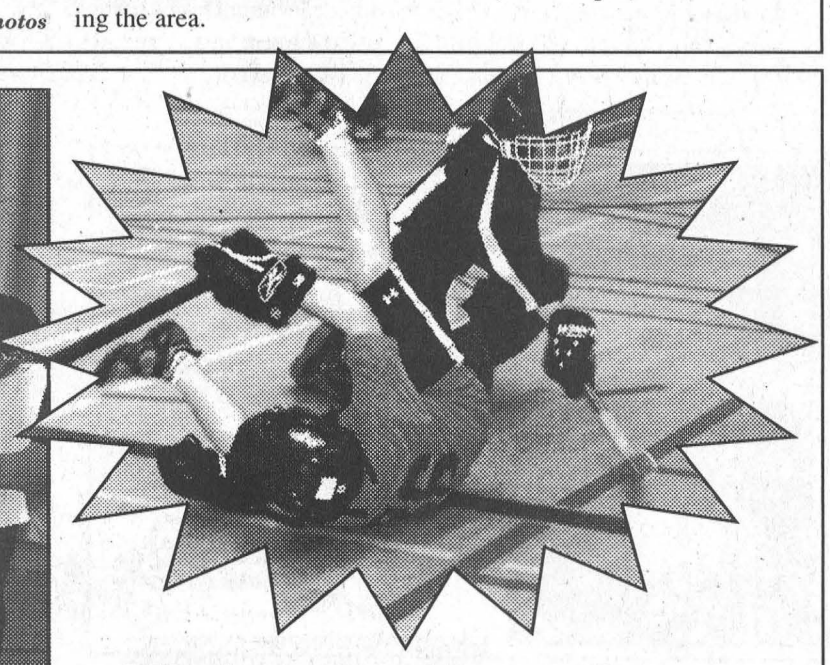
This year's Harold Theriault Coaches Award was presented by Gove and assistant coach Dave Brandt to team captain Justin Elliott and Chris Sommers.

Ronnie Casselman, team manager and a co-owner, thanked the coaching staff, players, parents and fans for a good season. "We thought we'd go a bit further than we did, but there has got to be a winner and a loser. Next year we'll be the winner."

"We had a great bunch of guys and a great bunch of parents," added Gove. "I was proud of you guys. You did really well. We had a great year and a great team."

"You are a good bunch of guys," echoed Brandt. "We were disappointed, we thought we were going to go further, but the flu bug dominated our team."

The evening wrapped up with good byes to graduating players Justin Elliott, Travis Baldwin and Ryne Gove and to assistant coach Dave Brandt and his son Curtis (team helper) who are leaving the area.



The Junior girls of St. Mary's/St. Cecilia's posted a 3-0 win over Winchester to claim the annual County Floor Hockey Championship at Seaway District High School on Friday. High velocity action at floor hockey tournament

IROQUOIS–Sixteen teams representing eight local schools participated in this year's Junior Floor Hockey Tournament played at Seaway District High School on Friday, and when the final shot was made it was the St. Mary's/St. Cecilia's (SMSC) girls and Chesterville Public School boys coming out on top. The SMSC girls went undefeated in West Division play to meet Winchester who were undefeated in the East. SMSC claimed the championship by a 3-0 count. In the boys' final it was SMSC versus Chesterville with the latter scraping out a close 4-3 win for the championship. On the B side of the tournament, the Morrisburg girls won the championship with a 3-2 victory over Inkerman, and Inkerman won the boys with a 4-3 win over Morrisburg.

Skater lands silver

Claiming a second place finish at the Gloucester Spring Skate was a great way to end the winter skating season for Morrisburg Club skater Hayley Mills.

MORRISBURG – It was a perfect way to end the season, says professional skating coach Allison Scott.

Scott is referring to a "fabulous skate" by Morrisburg and District Figure Skating Club skater, Hayley Mills who claimed a second place finish at the Gloucester Spring Festival on the weekend of April 14-15.

For 14-year-old Hayley, the skate felt good from start to finish. "I landed both my double salchows. It was only the second time I did that in competition."

Hayley skated her 2.5 minute junior ladies skate against nine competitors in her flight. Her music is from Explosive: The Best of Bond, which offers a mix of speeds.

"Hayley had a fabulous skate," said Scott. "She rose to the occasion and skated a clean performance, landing two axels and two double salchows."

"We were so pleased, and I was so proud of her. She couldn't have done any better."

Also proud of Hayley's performance was her mom Kim. "She seldom smiles when she skates. But after she landed the first double, she was beaming."

The first of the two double salchows comes early in Hayley's program, and she says once she landed it really boosted her confidence.

Hayley has been skating since she was three years old. She is currently preparing to test for her Gold Skills and is working on her last Senior Silver Dance.

Wrestling coming July 7th

MORRISBURG – It's been many years, but local wrestling fans have something to look forward to this year when Pro-Wrestling Productions brings CGPW wrestling to the ring at the Morrisburg Arena on Saturday, July 7.

Promoter Joe Dunlap, who has been promoting wrestling for seven years and involved in the sport for 17, is excited about bringing his venue to the area.

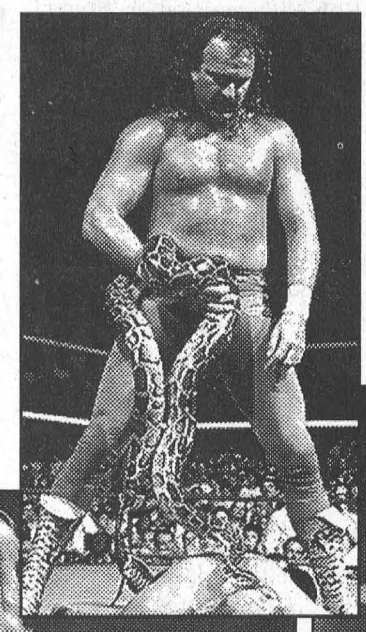
"I started in Cornwall and ended up in small towns in Southern Ontario. Small towns are very receptive."

"It will be lots of great family fun, and I am sure it will be a night they won't forget."

Although Dunlap stresses there could be changes, the lineup at this time includes WWE Hall of Famer and former WWE World Tag-Team Champion Greg "The Hammer" Valentine, wrestling legend Jake the Snake Roberts and NWA-TNA Star, SharkBoy who can be seen almost weekly on Spike TV's TNA Wrestling Impact.

Also planning a trip to South Dundas for the July 7 event are Quinson Valentino and the Hickster who stands six foot three inches and weighs in at 320 pounds.

"We also have She-Nay-Nay, the most in demand woman wrestler today," says Dunlap. "She is a blue-eyed beauty, but don't let that fool you."

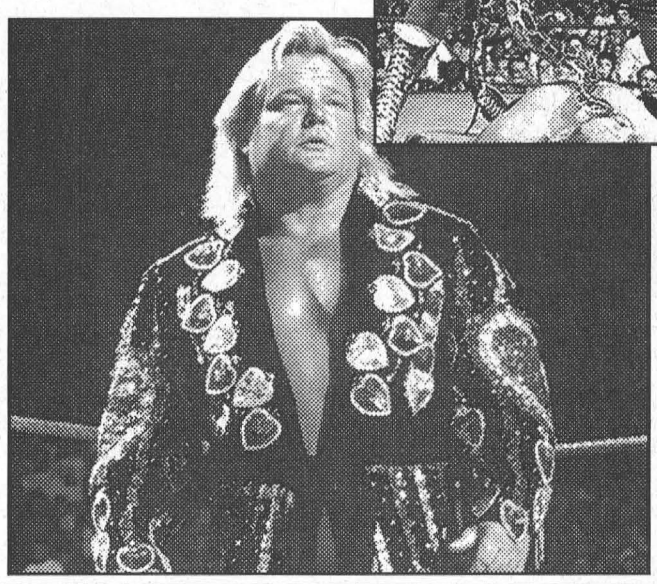


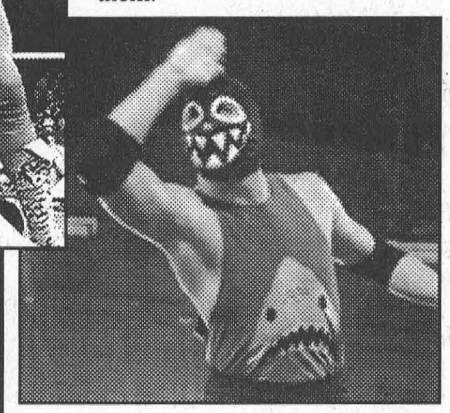
The doors will open at the arena at 5:45 p.m. on July 7 and the program will begin at 7:30 p.m. Dunlap says the evening will last about 2.5 hours.

Advance tickets can be purchased by calling 613-361-1102 or through e-mail: tickets@cgpw.cjb.net

As an added bonus, wrestling fans will have the opportunity to meet some of the wrestlers during the Morrisburg Fire Department's July 1st Celebration in the Earl Baker Park.

"On Canada Day, I will have tons of stuff,' says Dunlap. "There will be raffle draws for tickets and photographs, and one of my fighting females, along with the Hickster and a referee will be there. People will be able to ask questions of them."





Wrestling Making a Return

This Week at MGC

MORRISBURG – The golf season kicked off at the Morrisburg Golf Club last Wednesday night when the ladies hit the course for the first of their weekly Wednesday nights.

Leading the field were Monique Patenaude and Lori-Anne Davies with 48s, good enough for the A flight win for Patenaude and the B flight win for Davies. Shelley Broad shot a 53 to win C flight and Kathy McIntosh led the D flight golfers with a 57.

Right on the leaders' heels were Brenda Stitt and Anita Cooper both of whom shot 49s. Stitt's 49 gave her the A flight net win with a 38.5 and Coopers the B flight net win with a 36.

It was a crowded finish line in C flight with Heather Black, Patty Boucher and Jane Lee all posting 54s for 38.5 nets for the low in the flight. In D flight, Carol Armstrong's 64 gave her a 42 net for the win there. The top putter of the evening was Barb Allard with just 14.

Both the opening ladies' and men's nights were sponsored by Mike Vrab and Valumart. Many thank to Mike for his support.

Allan Black's 39 led the men's night field last Thursday for the A flight win and Harold Chalker won B with a 40. Top shooter in C flight was David Van Moorsel with a 44. Net winners were Sam Laurin in A flight, Lawrence Larocque in B and fittingly, Mike Vrab in C. Closest to the pin winners were Jim Annable and Randy Veinotte.

The first big event coming up on the club calendar is the annual "Spring Fling" mixed two-ball set for Saturday, May 26. The cost is $30 per couple. Registrations are now being accepted at the snack bar and payment is due at the time of registration. Tee-times are available from 10 a.m. until noon. Members and guests are invited to get the 2007 golf season rolling with a "Spring Fling". The entry deadline is set for Sunday, May 24 so don't delay, register today.

All junior golfers are advised that the Junior Program kicks off next Tuesday night, May 15. Tee-offs begin at 4 p.m.

That's it for this week. Until next time, good golfing.

Cyclones "AAA" hockey launched in local area

BROCKVILLE – The Ottawa District Minor Hockey Association has just recently created a new "AAA" league.

This league is on a three year pilot project with the idea to bring "AAA" hockey to the area. To date the highest level of hockey made available for minor hockey players has been "AA" with the Rideau St. Lawrence Kings.

There are five new zones. District 1 players from North Dundas, South Dundas, Kemptville, South Grenville, Brockville, Athens, Smiths Falls and North Leeds will now be able to play in Zone 1 of the ODMHA "AAA" League.

Zone 1 held its first meeting on Sunday, March 4 in Brockville. An executive, formed at this time, has been busy creating a new association for local minor hockey players.

Zone 1 has been named the Upper Canada Cyclones.

"It is important to get the news out to all minor hockey players and parents within District 1," says Cyclones Association secretary Vicki Sargeant in a press release.

"We will be hosting two "Town Hall Meetings" shortly to answer any questions that interested people may have."

For further information please feel free to contact Dale Adams, President at 613-543-2479 or Vicki Sargeant, Secretary at 613-925-5048.

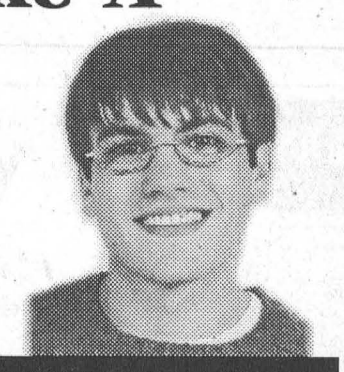
"We are excited to provide the opportunity of "AAA" hockey to our area children and look forward to your support," says Sargeant.

Could You Make A Difference?

We are currently in need of families to care for teens.

Could you provide a caring home on a temporary or long term basis?

We offer intensive support and programs.



The next information meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 16th 7 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. at 150 Boundary Rd., Cornwall

IROQUOIS LEGION NEWSLETTER

Royal Canadian Legion
Branch #370

IROQUOIS – Since I didn't get my Newsletter in last week, I'll give you some new items from that before I go on for this past week's events.

The Pot of Gold winner was Carl Banford who was not signed in.

At euchre, there were nine tables. Picking up the first prize was A. Schraner. Andy Acelvari came in second, while low score of the evening was a tie between Marie Kelly and Myrtle Weagant. A total of four skunks were picked up and claiming them were Jean Dunbar, Cecil McDermott, Norma Sherman and Garfield Wright.

This past week, the Pot of Gold winner was Brian Cole who unfortunately was not signed in. At euchre, there were seven tables. Garfield Wright got the first prize while Norma Smith picked up the second prize and Irene Smith came in third.

The Friday meal will be beef pot pie and dessert will be Black Forest cake.

Concerning the Pot of Gold, there has been a change. Just starting on May 4, the Pot has been increased to a "toonie" instead of a "loonie." Just try to remember this when you drop into the Branch. Your chances of winning remain the same, but now it will be for more money.

This past Saturday was again another successful Birthday Bash with Dennis Cooper providing the entertainment and Bob Esford flipping the burgers. A good time was had for sure.

Saturday May 5, I was fortunate to attend the 60th anniversary celebrations of the Iroquois-Matilda Lions Club at Matilda Hall. Wayne Ronstadt performed to a full house. A good time was definitely had by all. Congratulations, Lions, on your 60th and may you enjoy many more. You sure are an important part of our community.

This coming week, euchre is on Tuesday evening. The Ladies Auxiliary meeting is Tuesday. The General Meeting is at 7:30 p.m. The Legion Executive meeting will be Wednesday at seven p.m.

Please keep in mind our upcoming elections for the Legion. These will take place on Thursday, May 24, not on May 17. The date had to be changed as the Provincial Convention is being held in London, Ontario, that week. It's time more of our members took more of an interest in our Legion, and attended the meetings. We need your support.

This coming Saturday, May 12, "Ambush" will be playing at the Legion. This is a very popular group and they always provide a good time.

Until next week, take care.

SDHS student wins award

IROQUOIS – "Our school is very proud of Matt on every level. He is academically great, but he is also a humanitarian who appreciates all people for all things. He's contributed an enormous amount to Seaway over the years, and I know that he will excel at university."

Gisela Kerr, Student Services at Seaway District High School, is describing grade 12 student Matt Goodmurphy who has just been awarded a Canadian Millenium Scholarship worth $20,000 over the next four years.

"In all my years of teaching," Kerr adds, "I know of only one other student who has won a Millenium Scholarship."

Goodmurphy, who learned two weeks ago that the Millenium committee has chosen him as one of 45 Ontario students (100 are selected in total across Canada) to receive the National award, is thrilled.

"I am really looking forward to the excitement and the challenges ahead," he says.

The Millenium Scholarship is offered to students who take an active role in their school, and maintain excellent academic grades. Students applying must also forward letters of recommendation to the committee.

Matt has been accepted to the University of Ottawa where he hopes to pursue a career in the sciences.

He will definitely have some additional incentive to work in his chosen field.

He has also won an undergraduate Research Scholarship from the University in the field of bio-chemistry.

"On July 1, I join the research team of a PhD candidate at University," Matt says. "The team I am hoping to make is studying cryogenics, the process of freezing organs for future transplanting."

"I am very interested in synthetic chemistry, and this team is basically searching for the 'anti freeze molecule', a way to prevent 'freezer burn', or the extreme cold from destroying or damaging the organs."

"The long term implications of this research for health care, and for organ donation are incredible," Matt says.

For the next two summers, Goodmurphy will be assigned to research teams as part of his Ottawa grant.

In the meantime, the Seaway student is excited about the possibilites opened up by the Millenium Scholarship.

"I haven't fully decided between abstract research, or a degree in medicine," he says, smiling.

Matt feels that high school is the ideal time for young people to experiment with learning.

"You have to try a little of everything. Don't ignore any fields of study. In high school, education is free, so take a variety of courses. At some point you'll know what it is that you want to do with your life."

David Ross, CEO, Ross Video with the award winning Vision Video Production Switcher at the National Association Broadcasters (NAB2007) exhibition in Las Vegas.

Ross Video's Vision wins STAR award

IROQUOIS – Ross Video announced the newly launched Vision Series production switchers were honoured at the National Association Broadcasters (NAB2007) exhibition held April 16 -19 in Las Vegas, Nevada.

The Vision Series is Ross' next generation multi-definition production switcher, handling standard and high-definition formats. Vision received the STAR (Superior Technology Award Recipient) award by TV Technology magazine and the Broadcast Engineering magazine Pick Hit award.

The Broadcast Engineering Pick Hit is awarded in recognition of innovative technology developed and shown at NAB.

The Pick Hit awards are the industry's new product technology awards celebrating 23 years. The judges are the readers of the magazine. They are working professionals in the broadcast, post, and network and satellite industries.

"The Broadcast Engineering Pick Hits are the longest-running and most sought-after technology awards given at NAB," said Brad Dick, Broadcast Engineering Editor.

"Companies know that being selected to receive a Broadcast Engineering Pick Hit represents the ultimate in product recognition because the winners are selected not by publishers and editors, but by the professionals who will actually use the products."

The STAR Award is designed to celebrate and showcase the preeminent technological innovations available to the broadcast industry. A panel of judges consisting of TV Technology editors and columnists reviewed a variety of products, examined the technical applications and their overall contribution to the industry, and then submitted their award nominees.

"Every year, the NAB show serves as the launching pad for thousands of new products and services for audio and video professionals," said Tom Butts, TV Technology Editor. "Our panel of editors walked the show floor in search of the most innovative technologies. The products and services that we selected for the STAR Award made the cut--they demonstrated their ability to help advance the acquisition and distribution of entertainment and information across the media spectrum."

"We are honoured to receive these prestigious industry awards for our Vision Series Video Production Switchers," said David Ross, CEO, Ross Video. "At Ross we continuously strive to develop leading edge technology working with our customers to deliver a superior experience."

Building on over 30 years experience in production switchers, the Vision control panel incorporates a number of new concepts. Vision is highly modular and all models share a common platform and common set of modules.

The use of RGB buttons results in a stunning new look and allows personalization of Vision's control panel. Vision offers a new DualDisplay(tm) color touch screen allowing the operator to view and control two menus simultaneously.

A long list of other enhancements including built-in manuals, Linux based OS, and integration with the OverDrive® control system makes Vision the most advanced switcher on the market. Leveraging over 1 Million lines of Synergy Series software, the Vision Series has a head start with a well developed feature set and a full complement of device control options. The 5 new models, ranging from 1 to 4 M/Es, include: the Vision 1 MD, Vision 2 MD, Vision 2 MD-X, Vision 3 MD-X and Vision 4 MD-X.

Ross Video designs, manufactures and supports a wide range of innovative products for use in broadcast, distribution, live event, and production applications. Ross products are used to produce and distribute video and audio signals in over 100 countries daily. Ross' award winning product line includes the Vision, Synergy SD, and Synergy MD/X Video Production Switchers, openGear, RossGear and GearLite Terminal Equipment, SoftMetal Video Servers, and the OverDrive Production Control System.

R-O receives healthy banner

INGLESIDE — On Friday, May 4 Rothwell-Osnabruck School was presented with a healthy schools banner by the Minister of Health Promotion and local MPP Jim Brownell.

This was in recognition of the Fitness Fair organized and held at the school, Thursday. The Fair was an initiative created in response to the McGuinty government's Healthy Schools Challenge.

"Rothwell-Osnabruck presents an excellent example of schools from across Stormont, Dundas and Charlottenburgh that have embraced the healthy schools initiative," said Brownell. "The government issued a challenge designed to help promote healthy lifestyles for students, and this school has met that challenge. This banner is well deserved."

To receive recognition, schools were required to sign a pledge and commit to adding at least one more healthy activity or program this school year. The principal, school council chair and often a student representative have signed the pledge.

The McGuinty government is proud of all schools in Stormont, Dundas and Charlottenburgh that have taken up this challenge as part of the Healthy Schools Recognition Program. These students, parents and community members partnered together to implement programs to make their schools healthier places to learn.

"Through the Ontario government's Healthy Schools Recognition Program, schools in our community have once again demonstrated their commitment to creating a healthy environment for their students," said Brownell. "Today I join with Minister Watson to recognize the achievement of Rothwell-Osnabruck. I hope to visit several other schools that have accepted in the healthy schools challenge, in the near future, and I am proud to recognize the efforts of all the schools in the region that have participated.

"We know that schools play an important role in promoting the health of students," added Watson. "Our government recognizes the importance of supporting programs that improve health in each school community and we applaud every school that took up the challenge to promote better health for its students through this program."

"I'd like to congratulate all schools that have accepted our government's Healthy Schools Challenge," said Education Minister Kathleen Wynne. "Many of our schools are already leading the way. By working with students, parents and community members, I'm confident that Ontario's schools can improve student health and student achievement even more."

To support schools in their efforts, the Ministry of Education developed a broad framework for healthy schools in consultation with experts from the education and health sectors. The framework outlines components of a healthy school and is posted on the ministry's website, www.edu.gov.on.ca. Tools, tips and best practices are also posted to help schools plan their activities.

Iroquois Rec. starts $83,000 beach project

WILLIAMSBURG – Swimmers and lifeguards at the Iroquois Beach will likely have a brand new beach facility building when lesson start this summer.

The Iroquois recreation committee already has at least $83,000 worth of funding in place to build the new facility, so when Iroquois Recreation Committee president Bill Ewing attended the May 1, regular council meeting all he needed was council permission to go ahead with the project.

Ewing told council that the group has been working on getting the project underway for at least a year.

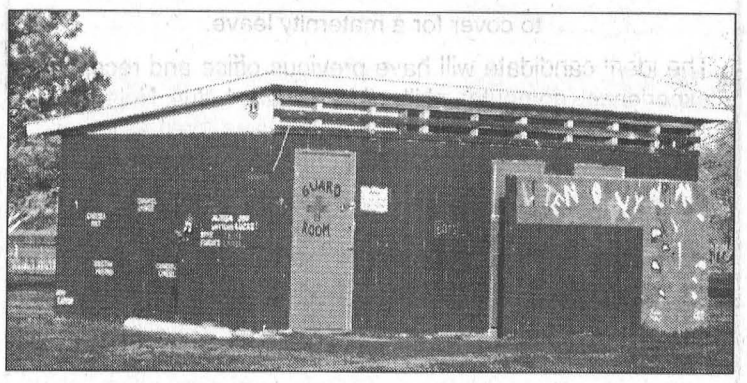
In that year the group secured the funding, had plans drafted and asked three companies to provide prices for the work to complete the project.

Only one of the companies submitted a quote.

According to Ewing, the construction of the building will cost $55,000, hydro service to the building will cost $15,000 and the buildings furnishings will cost $13,000.

The construction project is expected to be completed by June 21, to ensure that the building is ready for use, this swimming season, which starts July 1.

South Dundas councillor Delbert Jones asked about the possibility of running sewer lines to the new building.



Pictured above is the current Iroquois Beach facility building. A new building will be constructed adjacent to this one, which will be demolished. The plan is to have the new building ready for this swimming season which starts July 1.

Ewing said that the plan for now is to continue to use the existing holding tank, and then look at the installation of sewer service to the building as a future project.

Jones suggested that since the township is only contributing $20,000 to the project, they should consider installing the sewer service this year.

"I think Del is right, but I wouldn't want to jeopardize the project, by getting into that right now," said South Dundas mayor Charles Barkley.

"I'm impressed with the construction schedule," said South Dundas councillor Steven Byvelds. "I think we should stick with the holding tank for now."

"I agree," said Jones. "We wouldn't want to hold up the project."

Council passed the resolution necessary to allow the Iroquois Recreation Committee to hire the contractor and start on the project.

Dignitaries join in the celebration

Before a crowd of over 300 guests and dignitaries, the Iroquois-Matilda Lions Club royally celebrated its 60th year in existence. Formed April 21, 1947, as the Iroquois Lions Club, with 39 charter members, the current club fully continues the Lions tradition of "We serve." During the last ten years, members have raised well over $250,000 for local charities and organizations. Guest speakers at the dinner had high praise for the Lions and the wonderful work they do. Pictured above, in the front row from left to right, are Glenn Schwerdfeger, co-organizer of the celebration, club president Bill MacDonald and Jim Brownell, MPP. In the second row, from left to right, are Jerome André, District Vice Governor, A4 District Governor, James Johnston, entertainer and media personality, Wayne Ronstadt and South Dundas mayor, Charles Barkley. Missing from the photo was Carol White, representing MP Guy Lauzon, who sent his best wishes to the Lions.

Hospital reopened

WINCHESTER – The visitor restrictions imposed at Winchester Hospital last week, due to an outbreak of gastro-intestinal symptoms, was lifted Thursday, May 3.

"The good news is that the restriction of visitors has lifted," said Dawn Cooper, Managing Director, Foundation and Chief Communications Officer in a press release. "It's always a tough call, to know when to let the public know because you never know how long the outbreak will last."

"With diligence on the part of the staff, the symptoms have been controlled, no new cases identified, and we have the "all clear" for full visitation now."

IN MEMORIAM

CASSEL–In loving memory of a dear husband and brother, Keith, who passed away May 2, 2006.
We hold you close in our hearts,
And there you shall remain,
To walk with us throughout our lives,
Until we meet again.
–Love always, wife Dorothy and sisters Ruth, Dorothy and Audrey 19p

BILMER–In loving memory of Les. Those dearest to us never really leave, they live on in the way they cared and made us happy. Not a day goes by that I don't think about you Dad. You are dearly missed.
–Love, Debbi 19p

IN MEMORIAM

IRVEN–In loving memory of a dear mother, Sue, who passed away May 10, 2002.
No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered, since we lost you
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly tender, fond and true,
There is not a day dear mother,
That we do not think of you.
–Forever in our hearts Michael, Karen, Steven and families 19p

A MEMORIAL VERSE FOR MOTHER'S DAY AND BIRTHDAY FOR JENNIE MAY EMMERSON
BORN MAY 27, 1917
DIED SEPTEMBER 24, 2004
It's lonely here without you,
I miss you more each day,
For life is not the same to me,
Since you were called away.
To your resting place I visit,
Place flowers there with care,
But no one knows my heartache,
When I turn and leave you there.
–Always loved and remembered, your daughter, Beverley 19p

CARD OF THANKS

MacINTOSH–The family of the late John W. MacIntosh would like to thank everyone for their acts of kindness. Reverend Isabel Black officiated at the service, including the 23rd Psalm and Bill Kurchinski represented the Legion. Thanks to Dr. O'Connor, the nurses and Home Care Workers and to the Masons for their memorial service. The music was well chosen and attended to by Lynn Gilmour, Sandra Barkley Probst, Don Morrell and Betty Barkley. Kylie and Katherine Adams, Bruce and Kevin MacIntosh, David Lapier and Jeff Casselman expressed their own memories. A special thanks to David Lapier from the Marsden and McLaughlin Funeral Home who guided and supported us during this time of need with his caring and respectful ways. Thanks also to the grandchildren as pallbearers and the honourary pallbearers. Thank you to the U.C.W. who served the delicious lunch and friends for their donations of food and friendship.
–The MacIntosh family 19p

MacNEIL–We would like to thank our family and friends for the barbecue and patio furniture and our sons for the veranda around the house on our 30th anniversary. Once again thank you from the bottom of our hearts.
–John and Jackouline MacNeil 19p

CASSELMAN–A big thank you with hugs and kisses to our daughters, Gaetan, Mom and Dad Casselman for all their hard work. Also to our family and friends for the food and their presence for making our 25th anniversary a memorable occasion.
–Mary and Rob Casselman 19p

Singing Idols, Cute Babies

MORRISBURG – Planning for a big 50th anniversary celebration, the Morrisburg BIA is pleased to announce two new contests that will be featured as part of the event - Singing Idol and Cutest Baby.

The Singing Idol Contest will be held after the opening ceremonies Friday, June 29, 2007, at the Morrisburg Village Plaza. Prizes will be awarded, and anyone interested in participating must register between now and June 15 to be eligible to compete.

To participate in the Cutest Baby Contest, all you have to do is submit a photo of your little one to the BIA coordinator before June 1, 2007. Pictures will be displayed and the prize winner will be chosen Saturday, June 30.

Ed Shaver Wins $1,500 Fishing Derby Prize

Strong north-easterly winds and big waves did not keep 140 area fishermen from participating in the first annual Froatburn Lodge, Bert Tippins Memorial Pike Derby. More than 20 pike were weighed in but it was Ed Shaver of Morrisburg took home the $1,500 first place prize with an 8.9 pound pike. Second place, with prize money of $700, went to Jon Benoit with an 8.78 pound fish, and the $300 third place fish of 8.47 pounds was caught by Wayne Keeler. The tournament was hosted by Lloyd Wells and Brent Tippins who appreciate the help of MC Barry Elliott and volunteers Brianna Tippins, Trevor Beckstead, Greg Deboeker, Rev. Duncan Perry, Tristan Brunt, Michael Wells, Brandon Elliott, Derrick Tippins, Felicia Tippins and Lillian Tippins. The event was sponsored by Allison Feeds, Huntingdale Outfitters and Upper Canada Campgrounds. Pictured above, left to right are Lloyd Wells, Lillian Tippins and Ed Shaver.
