Karen MacMillan, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith MacMillan, RR2 Newington, presented Brian Smith, guest speaker at Friday night's awards banquet of the Avonmore Community Athletic Association with a gift on behalf of the association. Mr. Smith, CJOH-TV newscastor and former NHL and WHA hockey player, was presented with a carving by Mauno Veltheim, Avonmore's award-winning wildlife artist, who each year donates one of his creations to the ACAA. - staff photo -

Ingleside's $250

Levy overcharged $190 says Ottawa accountant

INGLESIDE (Staff) - An investigation into this community's controversial water levy by an Ottawa accounting firm has determined that property owners are being charged $190 too much.

In a letter to Ingleside Ratepayer Committee Chairman Gary Crites, D.L. Muir of the firm of Frazer and Otton, says the bill should have been $60, instead of the $250 council has imposed.

Homeowners would get a 76 per cent cut in their bill if the province's waterworks surplus, and Ontario government grants were used to cover the costs and if the village's major water user, Kraft Foods, paid its fair share.

When the billing charged to pay for the $158,300 expansion of the water treatment plant was sent out in March, Kraft was charged $35,750, a Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation grant provided $8,715 and ratepayers were left with the balance of $113,835.

This aroused a storm of protest from Ingleside ratepayers who set up a committee which has appealed to the Ontario Municipal Board for a review of the billing.

At a public meeting in April Reeve Edwin Waldroff explained the low charge to Kraft, saying "that was the best we could get".

Other council members defended Kraft, saying the corporation payed 89 per cent of the regular water bill, while consuming 70 per cent of the water.

Muir, however, questions the 89 per cent figure.

"From the facts available to us, they are contributing only very slightly in excess of 70 per cent. We suggest that Kraft should be dealt with in the same manner as any ratepayer - that is, fairly and equitably."

Kraft's portion should be $63,900, he says.

When added to the $30,000 waterworks surplus and provincial resource grant of $28,299 available under the Ontario Unconditional Grants Act, the total cost to ratepayers would only be $27,386. This would amount to around $60 per household.

Ratepayers have been extended to Osnabruck Township Council and Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry MLA Osie Villeneuve.

Jim Sullivan after deputy-reeveship

(Staff) - Ten-year municipal veteran Jim Sullivan of Chesterville will be seeking the deputy reeveship of Winchester Township in the November election.

Mr. Sullivan said Tuesday he would base his campaign on continued financial responsibility in the municipality's administration; completion of the Boyne development road, and construction of a new bridge near Ormond.

With Gerry Holmes stepping up to contest the reeveship this year, Mr. Sullivan says he wants to see an experienced person in the deputy reeve's chair.

"I feel we should have a business man on council. A businessman spends tax money the way he spends his own - wisely."

"Last year our mill rate for township purposes was 22 mills. This year we bought a new fire truck and a dump truck for the township and didn't have to raise the mill rate.

"I want to see more done in Winchester Township but I don't want the tax rate to go crazy like it has in some other municipalities".

"This doesn't mean that I want to see the township lag behind just to keep taxes low," he said.

He feels the township can afford to reconstruct the Ormond bridge - one of the bridges recommended for repair in last year's Ministry of Transportation and Communications bridge needs study - rather than wait for it to collapse as happened in Finch Township last winter.

Two other bridges - both in Nation Valley - were recommended for repair in the study

History sold out

(Staff) - Less than two weeks after they went on sale, the 1,000 copies of the Women's Institute history of Chesterville, "The Time That Was", had been snapped up, leaving the local branch overwhelmed at the public response to the 460-page work.

"We only have a few left and they're either prepaid or pre-ordered," co-editor Marion Casselman said Monday afternoon.

Miss Casselman said the Institute had already compiled a list of 60 persons wishing copies of a second printing of the book.

The Institute met last night (Tuesday) to explore avenues for a second printing but Miss Casselman discounted the possibility the Institute would undertake the project itself.

The printer, Eastern Ontario Graphics Ltd., Chesterville, was to have presented an estimate for a second press run of 500 copies.

Miss Casselman said the Institute may be approaching other local organizations to undertake a re-issue of "The Time That Was". The branch's Heritage Committee - formed to allow the branch to qualify for federal New Horizons grants - will not undertake the second printing.

"We feel we've already made our contribution to the village,"

Four of five seeking re-election in Russell

EMBRUN (Staff) - Four of Russell Township Council's five members have announced they are seeking re-election in November to see through current and planned projects.

"I don't intend to quit now," said Reeve Gaston Patenaude. "There is much work to be done. The township has been neglected for many years."

Ten years prior to 1974 when he became reeve, Mr. Patenaude said the township did not receive sufficient funds for road maintenance from the United Counties of Prescott-Russell.

"We didn't get what we should have got," he stated.

Priorities for this year, Reeve Patenaude said, include installation of water and sewage systems in Russell and Embrun, improving roads and bridges, and the joint Russell, Winchester, Osgoode and Cumberland Townships brief to the Ministry of Transportation and Communications calling for extension of the Russell-Osgoode Boundary Road to highway 417.

Estimates for the 11-mile stretch from Marionville to the Highway exit south of Carlsbad Springs run at $2-million. Work on the water system is scheduled for completion in 1981.

Mr. Patenaude, who intends to run for warden of Prescott-Russell United Counties next year, says last year the township lowered the mill rate and he hopes to keep this stable.

Reeve since 1974, Mr. Patenaude has been a member of council for 15 years, serving since 1962 except for a brief interlude from 1973 to 1974.

Confident of his record, he foresees "no opposition as yet."

"Everyone seems to be satisfied with all of council."

Development of the water system could attract new development. Mr. Bourdeau is especially hopeful for the industrial park at the west end of Embrun.

Because of the water problem industrial development has been at a virtual standstill, he said.

"We had companies come, but they knew what the big problem was."

No bed cuts at WDMH

WINCHESTER (Staff) - The board of governors of Winchester District Memorial Hospital has rejected for the time being the idea of voluntary bed cuts as a cost saving measure after word was received last week that the hospital's budget performance had improved considerably between the end of July and the end of August.

At the end of July, the hospital's deficit stood at $30,000 but by Aug. 31, the budget had improved to the point where the deficit stood at $18,000.

This amount had been budgeted for the start of the 1978-79 fiscal year and administrator Bert Stel says if this trend continues the hospital will be operating within its budgetary limits by the end of the year.

The board's decision not to go ahead with the cuts was made on the recommendation of the Joint Conference Committee (a combined meeting of the management and finance committees) and the Medical Staff Advisory Committee, both of which recommended other cost-saving measures be put into effect. The number of beds at WDMH will stay at 120-85 active and 35 chronic.

These include a 20 per cent increase in cafeteria prices, which went into effect Oct. 1, and "judicious use of part-time nursing staff".

The improved budgetary performance also allowed the four per cent salary increase for the hospital's Registered Nurses to go into effect Oct. 1.

Chief of medical staff Dr. Graham Houze said the bed cuts would have been effected by moving the day care unit to another section of the hospital.

Dr. Houze said the board did not discuss the number of beds that would have to have done away with had the hospital's finances not improved. He described moving the day care surgery - instituted last year - as a logistical move.

"If we had been really desperate we would have had that option open to us, but we're in better financial shape so we can leave the number of beds as they are," Dr. Houze said.

The board also tuned down the Ontario

Because of the extra cost, the board has informed the Ontario Hospital Association it is not in favor of the OHA pension committee recommendation that hospital pensions be indexed.

The board said, it is "not in favor of any form of indexing at this time. It would also seem that the additional costs to the hospital (estimated to be $9,000 for the first year) would be prohibitive under the present financial limits placed on the hospital by the Ministry of Health.

Dump meets specifications

BERWICK (Staff) - Recommendations to reduce burning and control rodents at the local dump prompted Finch Township Council to set up a temporary vigil at the site.

Although Ministry of Environment inspector was satisfied Sept. 11, with the condition of the waste disposal site northeast of Berwick, he advised council against burning at the site and requested improved rat control.

To combat the problem of illegal dumping and burning, council decided to hire a person temporarily to superintend the dump from 6pm to 8pm on weeknights and possibly during the weekends, when fires are more frequent.

It would be almost impossible to completely prevent misuse of the site, Arnott Empey, clerk-treasurer, said, without having someone there 24 hours a day.

Reggie Burd, township road superintendent, suggested requesting the OPP to patrol the dump. In addition, council instructed him to hang a 'no trespassing' sign across the gate.

Last spring rat poison was placed throughout the site with little effect. Apart from dispensing more, council discussed no alternative solutions to rat control.

Anticipating winter, council has hired Ford Carruthers and David Williams to plow snow in part of the township.

Other business included questions and complaints from Clarence and Elwood Ouderkirk to John Stidwell, engineer, Stidwill and Associates, Cornwall.

Because a corner of their land will be inaccessible after the Johnstone Drain is dug they are demanding construction of a crossing, but Stidwill refused to agree to such an uneconomical solution and offered them land severance pay. Not accepting $300 per acre, they were advised to petition council for the crossing.

Council will meet again at 1pm, Tues., Oct. 10 at 1pm to discuss drains.

Development road extended

(Staff) - The Ministry of Transportation and Communication has given Winchester Township Council the go-ahead to tender for crushed rock to complete the development road from east of the dump to Kittles corner, a distance of 2.25 miles. The ministry told the township Tuesday morning it could call the tenders for 11,000 tons of grandular B and 14,500 tons of granular A, although it didn't mention the amount completion of the project would cost.

Rotary auction Oct. 14

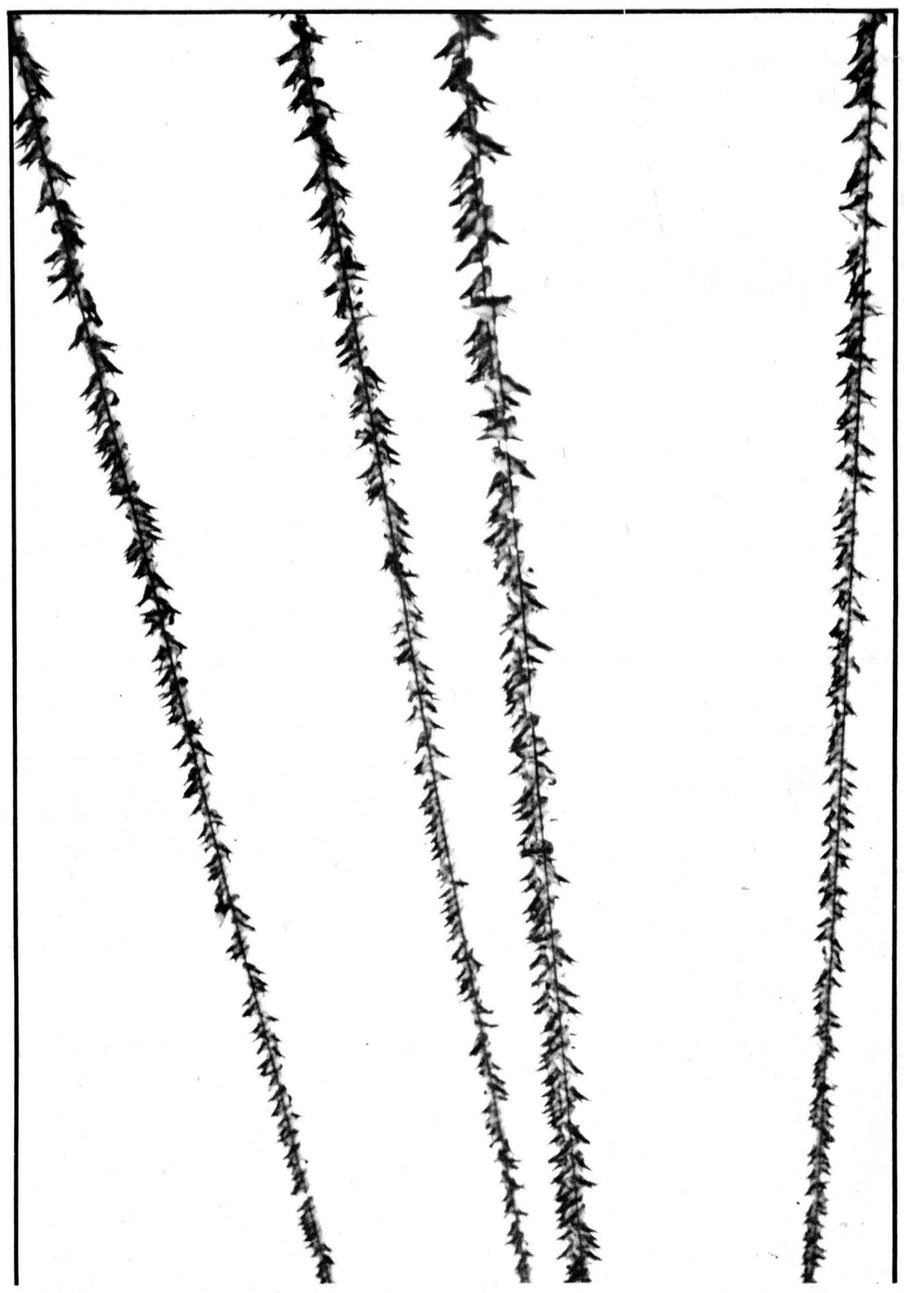
(Staff) - The Chesterville Rotary Club will be canvassing the village for articles for its auction, to be held at the fairgrounds Exhibition Hall, Sat., Oct. 14. Anyone with articles to donate to this annual fund-raising event is asked to call club president Brian Doherty at the Chesterville Co-op or Dale McNaughton at Seaway Valley Pharmacy, Chesterville.

Tile drain applications

(Staff) - Winchester Township Council accepted six tile drainage loan applications Monday night and will put the applicants on the waiting list for 1979's allocation. The six applications totalled $31,500. This year's dry weather has allowed most of the projects in the township to be carried out, using up all of the municipality's $138,400 1978 allocation.

ODHS commencement

(Staff) - The annual commencement exercises of Osnabruck District High School will be held this Friday beginning at 8pm. Bonnie Bosch, one of three Ontario scholars will be class valedictorian. The other Ontario Scholars among the 10-member level five graduating class are Dallas Buchan and Kevin Chaisson. Gold rings will be presented to five students who have achieved honor standings for four years and two graduates will receive five-year honor awards.



It's a long way to Capistrano

Thousands of long-tailed swallows used Chesterville as their jump-off point Monday morning for their long migration to Central and South America. The birds begin their long flight after the first heavy frost, which kills off the insects they feed on. New library facilities opened at Finch Finch branch of the SD&G County Library Board had its new premises officially opened to the public Saturday afternoon. Finch village reeve Lynden Hough had the honors of proclaiming the former Orange Lodge hall open as one of the United Counties system's 17 branches. It is estimated the library system will circulate 230,000 books this year. Above, branch supervisor Mary Jane Campbell is flanked by past-chairman of the SD&G County Library Board, Keith Graham, left, chairman of the Eastern Ontario Regional Library System, Morris Price, director of Public Library Services for Ontario, William Roede, Finch village reeve, Mr. Hough and SD&G Warden Ewart Simms who is also a member of the tri-county board.

but Mr. Sullivan says he wants priority given to Ormond. Reconstruction of the northern bridges may affect taxes by about two mills, he said.

Completion of the development road - from Kittles corner to county road seven - is also high on his list of priorities.

In 18 years as an elected representative - 10 on council and eight on schoolboard - Mr. Sullivan says he has never missed a meeting, something he wants to continue as one of the township's two representatives on counties' council.

He says he would rather be elected than acclaimed to the deputy reeveship.

"If you're elected you can say what you want to say. You've already told people where you stand. But if I get trimmed, I get trimmed, and that's all there is to it."

Mr. Sullivan praised the two year reeveship of Delbert Link, who has declined to seek re-election. "Bert did a good job for the township, even with the cutbacks in grants from the province."

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McMillan and Mrs. Lyle Elliott spent last weekend in Oshawa, and attended the wedding of Robbie Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Elliott, and Jeannie Sheepers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Sheepers, Sept. 30.

Russell township candidates

An easy winner over Claire Desormeaux in 1976, 39-year-old Mr. Bourdeau sees a bright future for the township with a little work from its political leaders and support from residents.

He also urged a facelift for both police villages, Embrun and Russell, to make them more attractive as an aid to local merchants.

Simple things like better sidewalks would add to the scenery, he said.

Freshman councillor Baird McNeil is concerned with management and accounting in the municipal office. He says there is too much work for the staff at present.

The reeve, he says, should be given a half-salary of $8,000 to spend 20 hours a week in the municipal office dealing specifically with township issues.

'Now, the reeve earns $4,200 for upwards of 35 hours a week and is not always accessible in the municipal office.

"To do an efficient job, the reeve must be dealing with issues half time," Mr. McNeil said.

A major concern for Mr. McNeil is conflict of interest. He wants the township to adopt strict regulations regarding this.

"No member of council should do business with the township or be granted approval for new land development. A member should vacate the chamber whenever he is in conflict of interest."

Leo Provost, councillor in 1973-74 and 77-78 is interested in building a senior citizen home in Russell. Tenders will be called this fall.

Councillor Leo Marion, could not be reached for a statement.

History book

Miss Casselman said.

Grants - from the federal government and from Wintario - allowed the Institute to sell copies of the book at less than cost price. These grants would not be available for the second printing, she said.

If another group sponsors the reprinting, Miss Casselman said, it would have to charge in the neighborhood of $20 a copy to break even. "Even at $20, we're sure 500 copies would go quickly," she said.

Four members of the Heritage Committee - Institute president Helen Wells, treasurer Hazel Jarvis and co-editors Miss Casselman and Elsie Graham - were interviewed by CBO-Ottawa Thursday afternoon and were heard discussing the book on the radio's station's Friday morning program. "As soon as the interview was over we got two more orders," said Miss Casselman.

The Institute room will be open Friday from 7-9pm for distribution of the remaining pre-ordered and prepaid books.

McMurtry blasts feds in Morrisburg speech

MORRISBURG (Staff) - Attorney General Roy McMurtry paid tribute to the late John Rhodes, former Minister of Industry, Trade and Tourism, and blasted the federal government before close to 100 people here Thursday evening at a meeting of the Morrisburg and District Canadian Club.

Despite a pledge to "go out of my way" to honor the non-partisan position of the Morrisburg and District Canadian Club, Mr. McMurtry announced his intentions to address himself to the state of the nation.

"I trust you'll understand that we cannot discuss this broad issue without recognizing who has been in office in Ottawa for the last decade and where his government wants to take us" he adds.

Specifically, he attacked the redefinition of the role of the monarch in Ottawa's proposed constitutional changes. He said Ottawa's proposal will effectively replace the queen as head of the state with the governor-general.

"We all know the value of the monarchy as an institution at the top of our government structure...but obviously, all of us who believe in the monarchy have some convincing to do of those in charge in Ottawa."

"Let me make it abundantly clear that the government of Ontario will not sit still for any such change. We value the monarchy. We don't think the way to build a revitalized confederation is to trash our traditions."

Further rapping the federal government for "unjustifed overlapping in programs between the federal and provincial governments" resulting in "a diffusion of accountability" and "horrendous duplication", he demanded the provinces "act now to end this waste and duplication."

He said the federal government's answer to this situation is to study it. "Study it no more," Mr. McMurtry insisted.

Defending Ontario motives, he said "we don't fight successive federal power grabs just for the political fun of it." The division of responsibilities, he said, "is not a question of lawyers and politicians and bureaucrats bickering over technicalities," but "it is a real question of whether decisions for the people of Ontario about matters of concern to us all are to be made by the people of Ontario or by someone else."

The attorney general went on to describe Ontario's role as the "lynch-pin" of confederation."

Ontarians have a "special responsiblity," he said, "in demonstrating understanding and tolerance of the aspirations of every region of our country".

Referring especially to the province's proximity to Quebec and to Ontario's size, he explained "We in Ontario have always known of the strains and stresses that have faced confederation and we have always been prepared to carry more than our share of the responsibility in resolving these challenges."

He encouraged individuals to have faith in Canada.

"Thus far, we may be the only nation on earth that has developed and prospered in the innocence of not knowing what we've had going for us."

He opened his remarks with an off-the-cuff tribute to the late John Rhodes, Minister of Industry Trade and Tourism, who died last Monday of a heart attack while on a government trip to Iran.

"When people think of John Rhodes they will remember him as someone who was very dedicated - and when they think of politics I hope they will think of people like John Rhodes."

Township well within budget

MAPLE RIDGE (Staff) - Winchester Township Counci got good news Monday night when clerk-treasurer Glenn MacGregor and roads superintendent Ralph Steinburg informed members that it still has $40,000 left in its 1978 roads budget.

The township's 1978 roads budget had been estimated at $246,025 and at the end of September, $203,121 had been spent and an extra few thousand committed for a new truck engine, leaving council with $40,000 for the final three months of the year.

Council petitioned the Ministry of Transportation and Communications for an interim subsidy payment on its 1978 expenditures.

The township's biggest roads saving this year has been on winter control, which cost $16,000 less than had been estimated. Council had budgeted $29,000 for snow plowing but last winter's light snowfall caused only $13,000 to be spent.

Money from the winter control budget will be transferred to other categories, mainly to loose top maintenance.

On the construction side of the budget, resurfacing, widening and paving are the largest expenditures accounting for almost two-thirds of $94,365 council has spent to date. It had estimated these programs to cost the township $69,150 and at the end of September, $61,031 had been spent.

Included in the construction budget is $35,000 for a new dump truck and box. The township purchased the new truck, to replace its aging White truck, which has been put up for tender, for $33,334.

On the maintenance side of the ledger, council has spent $19,644 on patching and washouts, slightly more than the $16,500 it had budgeted; just over half the $8,000 it had estimated for grading and scarifying; slightly under the $10,000 it had set aside for dust layering, and $149 more than the $22,000 it had estimated for gravel resurfacing.

In other roads business, deputy-reeve Gerry Holmes made good one of his campaign promises to have the Boyne development road completed by moving a resolution to petition the Ministry of Transportation and Communciation to extend the road from Kittle corner to county road seven.

As well as the old White dump truck, council decided to offer for sale by tender the volunteer fire department's old pumper.

Earl W. Bilow, Berwick, dies Sept. 30th at age 75

Earl Wellington Bilow, a native of Winchester and resident of Berwick for the past 15 years, died Sat., Sept. 30 in Winchester District Memorial Hospital following a 10-day illness. Mr. Bilow was 75.

He was born in Winchester Feb. 6, 1903 the son of Ward and Phylena (Coons) Bilow. A member of the United Church, Mr. Bilow was educated in Winchester and was a resident of Mountain Station before moving to Berwick.

He is survived by two sisters, Maisie (Mrs. Walter Smirle), Berwick, and Mrs. Verla Jackson, Rochester, NY.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Davidson of the Avonmore-Finch United Church pastoral charge from the Brownlee Funeral Home, Finch, at 2pm Mon., Oct. 2 with interment at Morewood United Church Cemetery. Pallbearers were Leo Hunt, Reginald Burd, Donn Smirle, Leonard Moran, Garnet Rutley and Floyd Dingwall.

Enersave reduces fuel costs

NEWINGTON (Staff) - Energy saving programs are being initiated at area post offices as Public Works Canada's five-member Enersave crew uprades insulation and installs cost saving devices at smaller federally-owned buildings across Eastern Ontario and Western Quebec.

Last week the crew, with its self-contained mobile workshop, was working on the Newington post office and this week it is in Avonmore.

Last on the list for this area are the post offices in Finch, Berwick and Chesterville before the crew moves on to the Hawkesbury district.

Hubert White, Enersave crew lead hand, told The Record the five men have been on the road in the National Capital Region since October of last year and by the time the project has been completed, they will have worked on about 180 post offices and other small federal buildings.

Work at each building consists of upgrading insulation, weather stripping doors and windows, shutting off outside vents and installing such energy saving devices as photo-electrically controlled outside lights and time-controlled thermostats.

Taken individually, savings are minor but when the number of buildings that have been upgraded is considered, the federal government has sliced a major portion from its total energy costs, Mr. White said.

Photo-electrically-controlled outside lights won't switch on until daylight fails and will switch off automatically when the sun rises, Mr. White explained. This saves a few hours of electricity and the automatic operation means that in smaller post offices, someone doesn't have to run back at dusk to switch on the lights and be there early in the morning to turn them off again, he said.

The same is true for the "Chronotherm" timed thermostats. About an hour after the post office closes, the thermostat automatically lowers the temperature in the building to 16 degrees Celsius (about 63 degrees fahrenheit) and an hour before opening, raises the temperature to its maximum of 20 degrees (68 fahrenheit).

The crew consists of Mr. White, a carpenter, electrician, truck driver and general laborer. They all work out of the brightly painted Enersave trailer workshop, which contains a drill press, bench saw, band saw, grinder, planer, electric hammer, skill saws and jig saws.

NOMINATIONS
Notice to Municipal Electors
VILLAGE OF CHESTERVILLE

TAKE NOTICE that persons may be nominated as candidates in an election between 9 o'clock in the forenoon and 6 o'clock in the afternoon of nomination day, Monday, October 23, 1978, but nothing in section 35 of The Municipal Elections Act, 1977 prevents a person filing a nomination paper with the clerk during his normal office hours in the week immediately prior to nomination day.

OFFICES FOR WHICH PERSONS MAY BE NOMINATED
ONE REEVE
FOUR COUNCILLORS

Electors are hereby required to take notice and govern themselves accordingly, and further take notice that the manner in which said nominations shall be filed is set forth in section 36 of The Municipal Elections Act. Nomination forms and full particulars of procedures to be followed, may be obtained from the undersigned.

If a greater number of candidates than required to fill the said offices are nominated and make the required declarations, notice of the time for the holding of the poll, including the advance poll and notice of the last day for making applications for a certificate to vote by proxy will be given forthwith.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that where the number of candidates for an office who are nominated at the end of nomination day is not sufficient to fill the number of vacancies to which the candidates may be elected, on the Wednesday, following nomination day, October 25, 1978, the clerk may, between the hours of 9 o'clock in the forenoon and 6 o'clock in the afternoon, receive and certify additional nominations for the office in respect of which there was an insufficient number of candidates.

Given under my hand this 2nd day of October, 1978

In Memoriams

IN MEMORIAM

MacELHERAN — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Martin MacElheran, who departed this life Oct. 7, 1977.
There is a gift in life, we cannot buy.
That is very rare and true.
It is the gift of a wonderful husband and father like the one we had in you
The many things you did for us
In your kind and loving way.
You gave us years of happiness
No one can take away
To us you were someone special
God must have thought so too
Nothing could be more beautiful
Than the memories we have of you
What we would give to clasp your hand,
Your loving face to see
To hear your voice and see your smile
That meant so much to us
We think of you in silence
We often speak your name
But all we have is memories
And your picture in a frame.

McLEAN — In loving memory of a dear brother, brother-in-law and uncle, Harold B. McLean, who passed away Oct. 2, 1977.
One year has passed since that sad day
When one we loved was called away.
He left us quickly, his thoughts unknown
But he left us a memory we are proud to own.
So treasure him Lord in your garden of rest
For when on earth, he was one of the best.

Sadly missed and always remembered, Sister Jean and family.

Winter Fair features number of new events

OTTAWA (Staff) - The 76th annual Ottawa Winter Fair got underway at 1pm today (Wednesday) and continues at Landowne Park until Sunday.

The fair offers several new attractions this year, including the Super Jumping Stake with $3,000 in prize money Friday beginning at 9pm. The Super Stake, with a $1,000 first prize, is one of the many innovations in this year's horse show, the main feature of which will be the Parade of Champions Saturday night.

The fair leads off with the judging of Ayrshire cattle at 1pm Wednesday and continues at 6pm with a horse drawing contest in the Civic Centre.

Thursday's events begin at 9am with a horse show in the Civic Centre; poultry, waterfowl and exotic bird judging in the Coliseum; Holstein judging at 10 in the Cattle Castle; ladies projects at 10:30 in the Civic Centre; horse shows at 1 and 7pm in the Civic Centre; fashion show in the exhibition hall, Civic Centre, at 5pm and calf scramble for children 16 and under in the Civic Centre at 9pm.

On Friday the horse show again starts things off at 9am in the Civic Centre while at the same time in the Cattle Castle, 4-H beef club members will show their steers; at 11am 4-H dairy club members will show their calves in the Civic Centre; also at 11am there will be a junior barrow (swine show) and at noon there will be market lamb judging in the Cattle Castle, where the sheep judging will take place.

The horse show gets underway again at 7pm in the Civic Centre while the steer and lamb auction is held in the Cattle Castle. The Super Jumping Stake starts at 9.

Cattle dominate Saturday's events, beginning with the Jersey and Guernsey shows at 9am in the Cattle Castle; the junior Hereford show at 3pm in the Castle, and the auction sale of beef breeding cattle in the Castle beginning at 7pm.

Horses have centre stage at the Civic Centre all day long, with the show beginning at 9am and continuing at 1 and 6:30pm.

Western Riders have Sunday pretty much to themselves, with their show and Parade of Queens beginning at 12:30pm and another show at 7pm. Goat judging will take place in the Cattle Castle at 1:30pm and there will be a talent show in the Civic Centre's exhibition hall at the same time.

Thursday night's calf scramble is another innovation this year and will feature a number of calves at one end of the arena and double the number of Eastern Ontario and Western Quebec 4-H club members at the other. At the sound of the bell, the young people will run toward the calves, which will be set loose at the same time.

The first persons to catch and halter their calves and haul them across the finish line are the winners.

In addition to the barrel races, pole-bending and pick up races, Sunday afternoon's Western Show will feature a rodeo-styled calf roping contest. Competitors on horseback will have to chase and lasso a calf then dismount and rope it.

Arrangements have been made by fair organizers for buyers of beef and lamb at Friday night's auction to have their purchases cut and wrapped for the freezer.

Market steers and lambs will first be judged then put on the auction block at 7pm in the Cattle Castle.

MOTC official denies ditch charges

MAPLE RIDGE (Staff) - Winchester Township Council has been told by the Ministry of Transportation and Communications that ditches alongside the reconstructed portions of highway 31 are well-enough engineered to handle all roadside run-off.

In a letter from MOTC senior project engineer Reg Molaro of Kingston, dated Sept. 25, council was told the ditches conform to present ministry policies and standards.

Winchester Township had supported the claims of Williamsburg Township that the ditches were too close to the roadside to provide adequate drainage and their proximity to the travelled portion of the road presented a hazard.

The ministry has already responded to Williamsburg's charges and in his letter to Winchester Township, Mr. Molaro says, "Ditches must be large enough to handle the flow of water without flooding; be situated adjacent to the shoulder to drain the subgrade, and have a sufficient longitudinal grade to maintain the flow of the outlet and avoid sedimentation.

The ditches on this contract incorporated these features and were designed to current ministry standards and policies."

Of the charges that the ditches are too close to the travelled portion of the orad, Mr. Molaro said, "In some circumstances the location of the ditches had to be altered to avoid utility poles and underground cables or were restricted by property limitations.

"As you are aware, adequate reconstruction was requested by both Williamsburg and Winchester Townships to generate good road performance".

"We feel that once final trimming, top soiling and seeding operations have been completed, the highway will serve an excellent function for the motorists of the area."

Cousineau again tries for council

MOREWOOD (Staff) - Morewood resident Claude Cousineau has announced his intention to seek a seat on Winchester Township Council, saying it's time council had an injection of young blood in its deliberations.

This is Mr. Cousineau's second attempt to gain a council seat. The 35-year-old proprietor of Claude's Manufacturing and Upholstery Reg'd. was unsuccessful in the 1976 election, missing out by 40 votes.

Mr. Cousineau was critical of council, saying, "There are some members there who aren't very competent. They need a little bit of young blood to help them get some new ideas." He said he would announce his campaign platform in the coming weeks.

A native of Russell, Mr. Cousineau has lived in Winchester Township for the past 15 years and has been Deputy Chief of the Winchester Township Volunteer Fire Department since its inception. He is married and has one child.

Pastoral Pope's memory - an 'engaging' smile

CHESTERVILLE (Staff) - The death of Pope John Paul I last Thursday night shocked and disappointed Roman Catholic priests here.

The new Pope, 65, died suddenly in his sleep only 34 days after he had been elected Aug. 25 to the papal office.

Local clergy was generally impressed by his open manner, his humble nature and especially his smile.

Rev. J.R. Bougie, Finch, said Pope John Paul had the "most engaging smile you've ever seen in a man". Likewise, Rev. R. Huneault, Embrun, commented "within a month Pope John Paul had conquered the whole world with his smile."

Even in the brief time he was Pope, he "affected so many people," observed Rev. Tom Villeneuve, Ingleside. Although he was "unknown he captivated not only ours but all faiths."

Rev. John Appelman, Chesterville, expressed a general impression that Pope John Paul "was kindly, open-hearted and pleasant. He had a smile that encouraged me personally."

To these four local priests, the pastoral Pope was a promising figure.

As a man with a "radiant and attractive personality", who was "simple, wise and holy," Rev. Huneault said, he "created great expectations."

Hoping he would "eventually make a statement" on controversies such as abortion, contraception and ordination of women, Rev. Villeneuve believed the pope "had conviction and wisdom." "Both church and laity," he said, were "hoping for a lot from this man."

When the conclave of cardinals assembles again in Rome Oct. 13 to choose a new pope, Rev. Appelman and Rev. Huneault anticipate the election of a man who has qualities similar to those of Pope John Paul I.

Rev. Villeneuve even goes as far as to predict that he "will have to be a pastor - head of a diocese - with the same style." He believes that the "cardinals will look for someone along the same lines."

RC school board promises improved communications

CORNWALL (Staff) - All signs indicate the SD&G Roman Catholic Separate School Board will adopt a new grassroots approach to improve communications between itself and parents at its Oct. 17 scheduled meeting.

Francophone and anglophone parents alike propose creation of a mechanism for two-way communications through which the board would meet their representatives at least twice a year - more if requested.

"Everything they say makes sense and personally I don't see any problem," Lindy Latour, Chairman of the Board's Education Committee, said last Wednesday.

"The more information we can get from parents, the better trustees can make decisions. I am in favor of having this committee set up and personally I think it will go through," he told The Record.

The SD&G board has been the scene of a bitter row initially caused by proposals to reorganize the Francophone Section along language lines.

Parents protested a number of proposals and the board came under fire from many quarters over its inability to communicate effectively with them.

An informal meeting of the education committee with representatives from both and associations last Tuesday night was described as successful by all parties.

"It was a very good two-way information meeting," said Mr. Latour. His sentiments were echoed by Marcela Laforge, chairman of the Interim Committee for the Catholic-Teacher Association, and Ron Richer, her French counterpart.

Mrs. Laforge, a fluently bilingual francophone and resident of Riverside Heights, sends her children to an English school because it's the nearest one.

Enlgish-speaking Catholics want a committee composed to two representatives from each school. Francophones haven't decided on the specific mechanism yet.

"We would like to see this as a link between the school board and parents at the local level," said Mrs. Laforge.

"If there are some changes we would like to have some input instead of reacting after the fact like we did last year. We can also be of service to the board if they want to provide output."

Mr. Richer said all parents are optimistic "vehicles of communication" will be set up.

"Both groups are looking forward to it," he said.

Mariners enter harbor at Goldfield

(Special) - Forty members and friends of Chesterville Harbor, Mariners With Christ, gathered at the Duart MacLean home at Goldfield for their monthly "sailing".

Chief Mate Garnet Johnston "piloted the Good Ship Faith". Mrs. Milton Shay, purser, "logged the voyage". The Mariners' Chart and report were given by the captain, Rev. E. Earle Eaton. A gospel sing was led by Mr. Johnston, accompanied by accordionist James Bray. A devotional message was brought by Rev. Charles Burtch.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by a hospitality committee. Members and friends were present from Metcalfe, Greeley, Kemptville, Ingleside and Avonmore, as well as from Finch, Winchester, Cornwall and Chesterville. An offering was received for the work of the Mariners.

District News

Miss Jane Allison of Peterborough spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. David Simpson of Winchester spent Saturday with the latters' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Holmes.

Mrs. Hazel Munro and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Munro visited Mrs. Mary Smith of Winchester recently.

Mr. and Mrs. David Mockett and family of Ottawa spent Saturday with the latter's parents, Mr.and Mrs. Cecil Pollock.

30 - year dream realized Saturday

CORNWALL (Staff) - The autumn sky smiled as broadly as the merchants and politicians here Saturday morning as Mayor Gerry Parisien raised the flag to officially open the new $1.1-million two-block Pitt St. Mall.

The mall, ten years in the planning and a year in the making, is the first stage of the program to revitalize Cornwall's sagging downtown and in front of a crowd of about 400, Mayor Parisien said the 100 merchants along Pitt from First to Third Streets were making the city's core "a people place".

The mall had been a dream as far back as the 1940s, but the problem had always been the means of transforming the downtown, the mayor said.

In 1976 the province's Ministry of Housing announced the creation of its Downtown Revitilization Program and Cornwall wasted no time in taking advantage of it. The city's "forward looking planning board and it staff had all the information at its fingertips" and Cornwall became the first city in the province to participate in the program, the mayor said.

The Pitt St. Mall Commission secured a $750,000 long-term, low-interest loan to get the project off the ground and raised the rest of the money on its own to complete the initial financing.

Mall Commission chairman George Assaly reported Saturday that work had been carried out under budget.

The mall has created no financial obligations for the city's taxpayers. "The city is just a willing administrator and the catalyst for the project. The merchants made it possible and they are the ones with the equity in the mall," the mayor said.

MLA George Samis said the creation of the mall "puts Cornwall on a par with any city east of Toronto. We can now compete downtown for downtown with Belleville, Kingston and Brockville," he said.

Mr. Samis also paid a posthumous tribute to John Rhodes, who was minister of housing when the Cornwall project was initiated. Mr. Rhodes died suddenly the week before the mall was opened.

In a brief address, MP Ed Lumley congratulated the city and commission in seeing the idea to its completion and praised Mr. Assaly "who outlasted five councils in seeing the project through."

The commission has planned two weeks of activities to mark the opening of the mall. These include new and antique car displays, arts and crafts demonstration and sale, musical performance and entertainment by local groups and individuals.

Each day until Sat., Oct. 14 has been designated a special day of the communities surrounding Cornwall and buses will travel to these communities on their designated days to pick up area residents and return them home again. Invitations, including movie passes and discount vouchers, have been mailed to homes across SD&G and northern New York.

Mayor Gerry Parisien, left, assisted by Pitt St. Mall Commission chairman George Assaly, raises the flag to officially open the new pedestrian mall in the heart of downtown Cornwall. The mall, patterned along the lines of Sparks St., stretches from First to Third and incorporates reflecting pools, a water fall, park benches, trees and shrubbery planters along its two blocks.

Rev. and Mrs. E. Earle Eaton spent last week at Rosseau, Ont., attending Glen Rocks Bible Conference. Mr. Eaton the week before motored to Dayton, Ohio, and particpated in a Faith-at-Work Leadership Training Institute.

Rev. and Mrs. E. Earle Eaton were recent callers at the Enos Brubacher home at Eganville.

Allan counted out of poll race

(Staff) - Veteran village councillor Stu Allan has announced he will not seek re-election in November.

Citing health reasons, the 58-year-old postmaster told The Record Monday he has decided to sit out at least a few years "until we see how things go".

Health problems have forced Mr. Allan to give up many of his recreational activities but he left the door open for a return to the municipal arena.

"I've given it a lot of thought over the last year and decided that after eight years on council it's time to take a rest".

Mr. Allan has been the poll horse in the last few council elections, topping the nine-way race in 1976 with 451 votes, 90 ahead of second-place finisher Mac LaSalle. His municipal career stretched beyond his four terms on council - he was a member of the village public school board for a number of years before the formation of the tri-county board.

He told The Record Monday he wasn't waiting until the deadline to announce he wouldn't be running. "It's not fair to other people who are thinking of running to have to wait until the last minute to see who the other candidates are."

After only 34 days of the pastoral papacy, the world was rocked by the death of Pope John Paul I, whose open, friendly manner prompted several local priests to comment to The Record this week that within a month, the pontiff had conquered the world with his smile. After the severe and remote Paul VI, Alino Luciani altered the style of the papacy with his humility and sense of humor. Theologians agree that when the princes of the church lock themselves into the Sistine Chapel to choose his successor, a man similar to John Paul I will emerge as the new pope. For the next few years at least, the church will need a man like John Paul to guide and shape its affairs. - robin morris -

With the announcement that two of Chesterville's most veteran councillors, Stuart Allan and Garnet Droppo, will not seek re-election, experience in office could well become an issue in November. With neither Mr. Allan nor Mr. Droppo in the running, only one experienced councillor, Bert VanKessel will be up for re-election. The issue of experience could be even more important when it is remembered that clerk-treasurer Lloyd Graham will finish his job with the municipality at the end of the year, leaving a relatively inexperienced council with a new clerk-treasurer. When the race for the reeveship is considered, voters will have to weigh the experience of Jim Brannen against the youth and vigor of contender Mac LaSalle. Voters will have to decide whether Mr. Brannen, with three terms as reeve under his belt, can do the job better than Mr. LaSalle, who has one term term's experience as a councillor. On the other hand, they will have to decide whether Mr. Brannen's age will allow him the vitality needed of a reeve who must provide the leadership for inexperienced council and clerk-treasurer.

With less than two weeks to go before the 15 federal byelections across the country, the government of Prime Minister Trudeau seems still to be at sea on the focal point of what will amount to a mini-referendum on the government's past four years. After the recent debacle in Nova Scotia, Mr. Trudeau must be glad he has postponed the full election until the spring or summer of 1979 and this month's byelections will in effect give him the chance of running two elections with the possibility of losing only one. However, the lack of sharply defined issues on the government's side will not give the prime minister an idea of what will sell in Peoria once the general campaign unfolds.

Given the mood of the country and Conservative leader Joe Clark's attacks on government fiscal policy, which Mr. Clark says are responsible for the 45-year low drop in the dollar, to just over 83 cents American at a time when the U.S. dollar is also under pressure from other currencies, a setback would put the Liberals in the unfamiliar (and Tory-like) position of playing swallow the leader. John Turner is still sharpening his teeth at his Toronto law practice and if the prime minister fails to deliver Oct. 16, the wolves could be at the door and the Liberals could go into the next general election with a new leader.

If, on the other hand, the Liberals do well, the prime minister's hand would be strengthened in his favorite field - that of constitutional reform - and with noises coming from Quebec City that 1979 will be the year of the referendum, Mr. Trudeau's strategy for the general election would already be mapped out for him and would cover very familiar ground.

But with the lack of a well-defined campaign, perhaps the prime minister is giving us another demonstration of just how astute a politician he has shown himself to be since 1968: by coming out forcefully and losing, he risks the leadership of the party. By playing it close to the vest and ending up a winner, the next election would be fought in the PM's own backyard and against a provincial premier, rather than a leader of the opposition. Some would consider this a gamble, but Keith Davey has shown himself to be about as reckless a gambler as a croupier in a Los Vegas casino. - robin morris -

In ye United Church, Friday, Oct. 12th, at 8 of ye olde Town Clock, will be assembled a Singing School of ye Olden Time instructed in ye most approved manner by Mistress Plunkett (Mrs. P.G. Hewitt) assisted by ye Squire Bellingham (O.L. King), who directs ye singing for ye Grand Concerte, and by his man, Julius Caesar (Eric Casselman), with his fiddle, and Cynthia Bigelow (Miss Lillian Tate) who plays ye symphony on ye harpsichord, assisted by 25 singers in costume. Admission is 25c.

While the smaller users of Hydro light and power will receive no bill for the period just ended, the larger users were handed a cheque for the same proportion of their 1927 bills. Chesterville was due for another decrease in rates at the present time but owing to expected changes in the use of current by the largest use in town, it was thought inadviseable to reduce the rate at present, fearing that the change would so affect the revenue that the price would have to again be restored to a higher figure.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross F. Beckstead celebrated their 17th wedding anniversary Thursday, Sept. 13th at their home, West Main St., Aultsville, when about 75 friends and neighbors gathered to extend their congratulations and best wishes.

On Monday, Sept. 24th, a pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Nativity, Cornwall, when Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meilleur, Berwick, became the bride of Leoneil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dupuis, Cornwall.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. A.D. McMillan, Berwick, when the neighbors in the vicinity of lot 23, 3rd concession of Finch gathered there to show their esteem for Mrs. Ferguson McKercher (nee Marjory McMillan) who spent some time in that neighbourhood with her brother. Mrs. McKercher is the daughter of A.D. McMillan and the late Mrs. McMillan. Mr. McKercher is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John McKercher, St. Elmo.

The new era in Central Canada transportation is opened by the inauguration of an air mail service between Toronto and Montreal this week. Letters posted in the early forenoon in either city will arrive in early afternoon in the other and be delivered before the close of business. Trade and finance should be accelerated by this means, and the two leading Canadian cities put on terms of greater intimacy.

Nina Steinburg won the trophy for the second straight year at the Rural School Fair at Maple Ridge Sept. 21. Luella Darling took the second prize and Lloyd Steinburg was awarded third prize.

The anuual Field Day of the Chesterville High School was held Friday last at the Fair grounds. Interest was keen in all the events and nearly 85 per cent of the pupils took part in one event or another. Top honors for the day went to Shirley Munro who tallied 50 hard won points of a possible 56 in the junior girls' events. Keeping the juniors in the top bracket, Glendon Froats for the boys piled up a nice 39. Tommy Moran took the laurel for the senior boys with a 36 and the senior girls champ was Ronona Boyle, who chalked up 31 points.

Major James R. Popham, owner of Venture Croft Farms south of Chesterville, has announced the purchase of a new champion Jersey bull to add to his fine herd, Major Popham has been informed by the Chamber of Commerce, Austin, Texas, that this bull is the first dairy animal ever to be shipped from the state of Texas to Canada. Texas has heretofore specialized in beef cattle and the raising of herds of dairy cattle is a relatively new venture for them.

In line with the rest of the municipalities that have been unable to stay within the quota set by the Hyrdro-Electric Power Corporation, Chesterville has been suffering power shut-offs every hour on the hour for fifteen minutes starting at ten in the morning and ending at six in the evening. The Nestle plant does not shut down in the daytime but goes off from four till seven every evening.

A large number of friends and neighbors gathered at Toyes Hill Orange Hall on Wednesday evening, September 29th, to honor one of October's brides, Miss Doris Kirkwood.

At the regular meeting of the village council meeting last Monday evening it was decided to ask for the resignation of police chief Baker. A motion to that effect was moved by Councillor Hamilton and seconded by Councillor Carl McMillan. Mr. Phillips voted in favor of the motion and Mr. Turner went on the record as contrary.

Miss Doris McMillan of the Nestle's Milk Products office staff was honored Thursday afternoon when she was presented with a pressure cooker and silver combination hors d'oeuvers and chop dish from members of the National Dairy Workers Union, local 488, and the office staff, who combined to wish her a happy married life.

The rapidly increasing interest throughout Eastern Ontario in the growing of hybrid corn for husking purposes was fully evident Friday when upwards of 750 persons gathered at the farm of Allison Graham, Chesterville, for Eastern Ontario's first Corn Field Day.

Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker was one of the many notables present Tuesday at the official opening of this year's International Plowing Match. It is being held this week southeast of Crysler on the Cloutier farm. Nearly 20,000 persons were present on opening day to get the mammoth affair off to a good start. The tented city is a sight to see, row after row of gleaming machines, appliances of all kinds, engines, demonstrations and gadgets keep the visitor busy. The whole shebang just about covers the 38 acres laid as the central area of the match. The prime minister arrived at the match at 4:30 the opening day, accompanied by the new MP for Grenville-Dundas, Mrs. Jean Casselman of Prescott. Following a tour through the tented city on a wagon train, the prime minister addressed the large crowd from the dedication platform, he was preceded by Stormont MLA Peter Manley.

Chesterville village and Hydro systems will have a new face in the clerk's position after the first of the year. Clerk Harry C. Hummel tendered his resignation Monday night to take effect December 31, 1958. It was reluctantly accepted by council. Council also passed a resolution to declare a holiday for the village schools Thursday so that local children could attend the plowing match in Crysler.

About 40 friends and neighbors surprised Mr. and Mrs. Graham Johnston and Sheryl on Friday evening prior to their departure for their new home. An appropiate address was read by Mrs. Mac Otto and the presentation of a lamp, step-end table and hassock was made by Mr. Otto, Stewart Hart and Boyd Brownell on behalf of those present.

Two weeks ago, Art Julyan and son, Jack, dropped a line in the Rideau in front of Little Chesterville and bucked the wind all the way up to Beckett's Landing. the farmer's wife

by wyn thompson

Nobody asked me, but . . . today I had the difficult (for me at least) task of deciding where to transfer my medical records.

Not, mind you, because I felt that I was any prize patient for any doctor. I am not! I am an impatient, opinionated person when I am ailing. I resemble a bear with a sore head!

And for twenty-eight years I had been administered to by the same doctor. In a little more than a half-century of living, I have only been a patient of three doctors all of whom practised in Eastern Ontario . . . Doctors Ferrier, Gross and Barton.

These three doctors were family doctors in the best sense of the word. The last name, Dr. Gerry Barton, was doctor and friend at some point in time, to five generations of my family. What he didn't know about our medical history was probably not on record anywhere! Now, he too, was gone! And I must decide!

All these men possessed that special intangible quality a fine doctor has which is above and beyond his brains, or his training. It was something in the air when they walked up to a patient. A breath of hope and a renewal of faith arrived with them.

I find it difficult to understand how any one can stand to be a doctor, I admire the temperament that can endure it. Physically the life must be unadulterated misery, for sleep and meals and leisure play a small part in it.

But, aside from the physical discomfort, there is the thing of always being with people who are in trouble one way or another, with people who suffer. The quick sympathy of these men never seemed exhausted; they managed to convey a real sense of personal feeling for every person with a headache. Surely nothing could be a greater gift to humanity than a man who gives his life in service to a rural community.

The family doctor is the nearest heaven-sent aid one can get. For it isn't the pills, the injections, or the surgery one half so much as the feeling of security - - - a faith because he is your doctor. It is a highly personal kind of security we all need.

The family doctor was all there was when I was growing up. Now we have seen specialists take over so much. One man does your bones, another your heart, another your sinus, a gaggle check on X rays. But I feel we are swinging back to the idea of one man as a family man, and this I believe in heartily.

Not simply because I have never been in the office of a specialist, but because one man, and only one, views the total picture, knows all about the ills you are subject to, knows what your parents as well as you children have had. He has the over-all-picture, and this is good, for a person is an over-all proposition.

As the wheel of the seasons turn, so does the wheel of life! I am terribly thankful for the doctors I have known, indeed, for all doctors, for everyone needs a "Doc" in his or her life.

I have made my choice. It was a difficult one . . . the first time in more than one-quarter of a century.

It is October and the pastures are blue with autumn haze now. The maples burn bright with color. The whole world glows. Now I wish I could paint with brushes and paint and not depend on words for there are simply no words to describe some of the colors. For even on a grey day, the world is brilliant.

Days are still warm enough for lunches on the gallery or a woods-picnic in a sheltered spot. There are still a few wild asters and goldenrod which have escaped the frost. Every warm day is an extra divident from summer for soon the time of woolen parkas, slacks, mittens, and fur-lined boots will be with us.

I don't mind winter boots so much, but I hate rubber galoshes, so I go through life simply drying my shoes out. I feel I wore rubbers often enough when I was a kid to last my lifetime. For I was a croopy kid!

"Have you got your rubbers on?" constantly echoed in my ears.

I wear gloves only when it is below zero. And I carry gloves on dress-up occasions and never put them on. I like my hands to be free and gloves hinder me. Recently I gave in to a wheel cover for my car. It's nice!

I own an umbrella but I never have it when I need it. Which is just as well for I always poke people with the tip, and if I close the umbrella and still must carry it, I usually manage to trip at least one person, or myself. I have a rubberized cape with parka --- terribly unglamorous, but terribly functional --- and I am happy.

Eastern Ontario weather is a bit erratic. You can be out in the yard sunning yourself and before you reach the house it is pouring. You may go off in the heat, for an autumn pick and turn blue with cold before you get back. This keeps us alert and energetic, we say. It has also been known to contribute to pneumonia.

Then there may come a year when the weather in October is simply flawless. It may have a crisp, stimulating air but not raw or damp. Nights are brisk but not freezing. In the grocery store, we argue as to whether this is the best time of year.

Country folk are busy in October, but the fresh air makes work easier. The vegetables that have survived the frost must be taken care of, weeds and rubbish dealt with, woodsheds filled to the roofs. Lawn furniture must be put away and bulbs planted.

Actually it is possible to have snow in October, but the snow melts like dew in the first rays of the sun. And the weather turns warm again afterward.

Now the wild geese go over, flying south high and fast, and they are a symbol of autumn. Soon the songbirds will go and the yard will seem empty. The sundial of the seasons turn.

Dear Ann Landers:

Dear Ann Landers: You've told several readers in the past, "My column is not a national billboard for people who want to convey a message to friends or relatives but can't get up the courage."

I hope you won't put this letter in that category. Please print it, not only for my adopted daughter but for the thousands of mixed-up kids who are ruining their parents' lives because they refuse to take responsibility for themselves.

I am nearly 60 and my health is failing. Susan's mother died a few months ago and I am no longer able to "be there" for this 21-year-old girl who broke her mother's heart and had given us nothing but grief. Here is my message:

Dear Susan: Please don't call me again to say —

I had an abortion and I'm living with a nice man.

He beat me up.

I'm getting married to him. Will you give me away?

He can't find a job.

We're having a baby.

He hit me in the stomach.

I had a little girl.

I got beat up again.

I'm coming home. Help me get a divorce.

I've decided to go back to him. He promised he'd never do it again.

I had a miscarriage.

We've separated. This time I mean it.

I'm living with a nice man.

You'd like him a lot.

He beat me up.

My baby and I need your help.

You don't care about me.

— Your Daughter Susan

My answer is —

Dear Susan: I love you but you've got to grow up. You need psychiatric help and again I am begging you to get it. — Dad

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a woman, 26 years of age, and work for a large investment firm. There are several men around, but they are either married or Boresville. So I eat lunch with the girls.

I'm writing about a woman who is 10 years my senior and has a responsible position here. She had been very friendly of late - in fact, too friendly. This woman has no masculine traits whatever, but she behaves toward me as if she were a guy. Last week she bought me an expensive gift for no reason. She puts her arm around me a lot.

I hate to do her an injustice, but she makes me uncomfortable. If she should make a pass I'd die. What do you advise?

— XYZ

Dear X: Why spend time with anyone who makes you uncomfortable - for any reason: If you are uneasy in this woman's presence - cool it. She'll get the message.

How to - and how much? Find out with Ann Landers' new booklet, "How, What and When to Tell Your Child About Sex." For your copy send 50 cents in coin along with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11995, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

Inside Ingleside

by jean jeacle

Outdoor sunshine and indoor plumbing are high on my list of life's blessings. Family and friends come first, of course, but I can think of many, many more which should be considered as well when the time comes to tally them up.

A closet full of clothes, a tank full of oil and a heart full of memories all must surely be included. So too should foods which nourish the body, books which satisfy the soul and machines which wash the dishes.

No blessing count of mine could be complete without take-out pizzas, feather pillows or perma-press shirts, and I could never forget songs or sunsets or butterscotch sundaes. Spanish onions, English muffins and African violets would have to be mentioned and still the list would be far from finished.

As I sit here counting my blessings I see that I am fortunate indeed. I smile more than I cry, I like more than I dislike and I eat more than I need. On this Thanksgiving weekend, I can be truly thankful that I have so much to be thankful about.

BITS & PIECES

- Frances Bedingfield's new bed is going to be topped-off in fine fashion. She won the quilt which was raffled off by the Stormont Unit of the Cancer Society.

- The Ingleside Cub Pack has enough boys but not enough leaders to carry on a successful program. Any adult who is willing to lend a hand should contact Eric Dafoe (537-2221).

Commencement exercises will be held at O.D.H.S. this Friday evening. All interested community residents are welcome to come and congratulate our local scholars.

Because this coming Monday is a holiday, the regular meeting of the Lost Villages Historical Society has been put-off until Oct. 16.

- Plans for Ingleside's Trade Fair are well under way. Twenty exhibitors, have already booked space at Pollock's Place Nov. 3 and 4 and organizers Carson Elliott and Wayne Pollock are busy lining up entertainment and prizes. Exhibitors are asked to meet at Rothwell Public School at 7pm Friday to finalize plans.

- Ingleside Brownies' good deed for the week is the clean up the litter in the ball park. Let's let our good deed be to keep it clean.

- Friends of the Prince of Wales Theatre Company will be glad to know that Sheila Shields, Bob Lackey and Bob Duncan are alive and well and having fun in "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum". Joe Shaver, who directed "A Day To Remember" is also at the helm for this Ottawa Little Theatre Production.

- Ingleside will be represented in The Glen production of the musical "Oliver" by Sally Graham, Donna Ward, Steve Ward and the Jeacle girls.

Once again, October has come as a surprise to me. It always seems to sneak up and catch me unprepared here, "Inside Ingleside".

Retired barber dies Thurs., Sept. 28 at age 90

Neil A. Hutt, 482 Alexander, Winchester, died suddenly Thurs., Sept. 28 at age 90.

Mr. Hutt, a barber, was born in Winchester Township to the late Charles Albert Hutt and Mina Weager.

He is survived by his wife, Grace P. Hanes, brother John, Morewood, and sister Edna (Mrs. Grenville Day), Osgoode. Mr. Hutt is predeceased by brothers Harold, Roy, Orn and Wilfred and by sisters Emma, Kate and Evelyn.

Legion Branch 108 held a service for the late member last Friday evening.

Rev. Myron Maxted conducted the funeral Sat., Sept. 30 from the Vice and Craig Funeral Home, Winchester.

Interment was at Maple Ridge Cemetery. Pallbearers were Hugh Eadie, Greg Robertson, Harry Hutchison, Howard Summers, Gordon Baldwin and Jack Smith.

Munro - Smith wed

Baskets of white and orange gladiolae decorated the sanctuary of Knox Presbyterian Church, Morrisburg, Sat., Sept. 9 for the marriage of Janet Lori Smith and Ronald Calvin Munro.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith, Morrisburg, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Munro, Chesterville.

Rev. W.L. MacLellan performed the 2:30pm double-ring ceremony. Guest soloist was Bill Cook of Kemptville who very beautifully sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "You Light Up My Life", and was assisted at the organ by Mrs. Marion DeGray.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a traditional gown fashioned with a full flowing skirt in crisp white nylon, layered and ruffled with Chantilly lace. Her gown featured a sweetheart neckline and full-length tapered sleeves. A layered fingertip veil fell from a coronet of lace and pearls. Her only jewellery was an opal pendant and ear rings - gifts of the groom. She carried a bouquet of talisman roses.

The Matron of honor, Debbie Black, and bridesmaids, Rose Marie Casselman and Denise Lafortune, were dressed identically in empire styled gowns of rust polyester. The bodice featured V-necklines with attached self capes. The necklines were highlighted by soft pleating that flowed into front panels of the full skirts. Rosettes of rust added detail to the empire lines. Each carried a bouquet of white daisies and orange carnations.

Supporting the groom was John Brugmans and ushers were Carl Munro, brother of the groom, and Steven Guy. Ring bearers were Jason Smith and David Casselman, nephews of the bride. All wore sand shantung tuxedos.

Following the ceremony a garden reception was held at the bride's home where the bride's and groom's parents received the guests. Dancing followed at Caravan Camp.

For travelling on a honeymoon trip to Western Ontario, the bride chose a cognac-colored suit with matching accessories. On their return they will reside in Morrisburg.

Births at WDMH

WINCHESTER (Staff) - It was a blue ribbon week at Winchester District Memorial Hospital as all the births recorded between Sept. 20 and 25 were boys:

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Montroy, RR1 Morrisburg, Fri., Sept. 22.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wittiveen, RR2 Moose Creek, Sun., Sept. 24.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacGregor, Williamsburg, Mon., Sept. 25.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Randy Shaver, Newington, Mon., Sept. 25.

First aid demo for Morewood WI members

MOREWOOD (Special) - The September meeting of the Morewood WI was held at the home of Mrs. K. Carruthers.

Mrs. H. Crump, the president, opened the meeting with the Ode and Mary Stewart Collect.

The WI Convention will be held in the Talisman Motel, Ottawa Oct. 26 and 27. A donation of $30 was sent to the family whose barn burned down last month.

Lorraine Carr, a member of St. John ambulance, gave a paper on car accidents and first aid treatment at the scene.

Successful programs for seniors

MOREWOOD (Staff) - Morewood Senior Citizens Club report a successful conclusion to their June-September programs with a successful fund-raising auction in addition to their regular meetings.

Harry Hutchison, auctioneer, kept the bidding lively at the auction.

Last Friday the club held a fun night with Jack James showing slides. Games were enjoyed and the evening ended with refreshments and the serving of the September birthday cake.

There will be a regular club meeting this Friday afternoon at 2.

Golddusters stingy in CTFL championship effort

(Staff) - A stingy defensive effort combined with enough solid run-producing hits was the demand to produce a Chesterville Town Fastball League playoff championship.

Shawn Chambers' Golddusters delivered the order in sparkling fashion Sunday night as they doubled the Bill Willies 8-4 in the seventh and deciding game of the CTFL final. It was a gallant effort by both teams with the Bill Willies simply being unable to get the big hits with runners in scoring position.

The finger-chilling temperature at game time prevented the pitchers from turning in standout efforts but it did enable the remainder of the team to stay loose.

Golddusters starter Charles "Louie" Bailey had the most problems with keeping warm, walking four batters in the first inning, but getting out of the jam with only a scratch.

Bailey hurled his limit of three innings before giving way to Andy Windsor for three and John Elliott to finish. Bobby Harper started for the Bill Willies and was relieved by Tom Kirkwood in the fourth. Ricky Barkley came on in the sixth to finish. Under league rules, a pitcher can hurl a maximum of three innings per game.

The game was barely underway when the Golddusters signalled they were in attendance to claim the playoff championship to go with the regular season pennant.

With two out in the top of the first, Elliott walked and Andy Windsor sent Harper's second pitch over the right field fence.

In the bottom half of the inning, Bailey walked four batters including a run.

Golddusters went up 3-1 in the second with Jamie Doane singling to centre to score Bailey from third base. He had been installed as a pinch-runner for Dave Arnold, playing injured, after he received a walk.

Bill Willies pulled even in their half of the second with Darren Kirkwood stroking a two out double to drive in Pete Monast. Ricky Barkley followed with a single, Bobby Harper was hit by a pitch and Tom Kirkwood walked to produce the run.

Golddusters exploded for three runs in the third to run the score to 6-3.

Elliott led off with a single and he moved to second before Windsor got on base on an error. Bailey grounded out to third and Arnold followed with an infield single to score one run. Chambers singled to score a second run and Wayne Edgerton doubled to left to drive in a third run.

They went up 7-3 in the fourth when Ernie Fawcett walked, advanced to second on a passed ball, stole third and came home on Elliott's sacrifice fly out to right field.

Bill Willies got one run back in the fifth with Larry Steele scoring on a bases loaded fielder's choice.

Elliott crossed the plate for the third time in the game for the Golddusters in the sixth when he got on base on a fielder's choice and scored on Windsor's single to right field.

Golddusters left seven men on base in the game as the Bill Willies had 11 runners stranded. They left the sacks loaded in the first, second and fifth frames.

Windsor was the big gunner at the plate for the Golddusters with three of his team's nine safeties. Edgerton had two as singletons went to Elliott, Arnold, Chambers and Doane.

Bill Willies could squander only four safeties with Darren Kirkwood, Ricky Barkley, Greg Casselman and Larry Gallinger collecting them.

Golddusters pitchers gave up nine walks and fanned two batters as the Bill Willie hurlers yielded seven free passes to first and had two strikeouts.

Golddusters collected their second title of the campaign by doubling the Bill Willies 8-4 in the deciding game of their Chesterville Town Fastball League final series Sunday night. After winning the regular season pennant by one point over the Bill Willies, Golddusters ousted the Rockets in four games in the semi-finals and were pressed to the limit in the best-of-seven championship set. Bill Willies also required four games in the semi-finals to eliminate the Farmers. Members of the winning team are: kneeling, left, Ernie Fawcett, John Elliott, Charles Bailey and Jamie Doane; standing, left, Shawn Chambers (capt.), Dave Arnold, Andy Windsor, Wayne Edgerton, Steve Ball, Greg Beckstead and Gerald Desormeaux. - staff photo -

Girls' puck league possible

EMBRUN (Staff) - Four and possibly six municipalities are interested in forming a girls' hockey league to compete this coming winter.

Representatives from Chesterville, Embrun, Kemptville and Metcalfe met here last Thursday to discuss the strong possibility. It was hinted Osnabruck and Osgoode-Manotick are also interested but representatives were not in attendance.

Representatives from those two areas are to be contacted and asked to attend the next organizational meeting at 8pm Wed., Oct. 25 at the Embrun Arena.

It is expected the teams will play a double round-robin regular season, starting in early December, before playoffs in March.

Girls must not be 18 years old before Jan. 1, 1979.

Embrun has ice time available on Sunday and the other three teams have home ice on Saturdays.

CDMHA sec-treas. resigns

(Staff) - The "Help Wanted" list for the executive of the Chesterville and District Minor Hockey Association has been increased to two.

The local association was lacking a referee-in-chief until president Harry Craig announced last Thursday night secretary-treasurer Noreen Larose had resigned her post.

Mr. Craig said he had not yet received a written resignation from Mrs. Larose. Mrs. Larose confirmed her resignation from the CDMHA saying her reason was "personal".

Mr. Craig assumed a duel role at the meeting and commented with the light turnout it would not be fair to fill the two vacancies.

A special meeting will be held at 8pm tomorrow (Thursday) at the Community Hall to deal with that matter.

President Craig urges all persons to attend the special session.

Minor hockey registration down

(Staff) - Chesterville and District Minor Hockey Association president Harry Craig reports 120 youngsters have registered over the past two Saturdays for the coming hockey season.

Mr. Craig says that figure is down slightly over last year.

That figure, he says, also includes four juvenile age players. The local association hopes to ice a juvenile team this season if enough interest is expressed.

As it stands right now, it is very doubtful a juvenile team will be iced, says Mr. Craig, "but hope still is there".

He says a team can be iced if there are 14 players and he hopes enough interest is there because ice time is reserved for a juvenile team.

Mr. Craig also reported Janice McCadden and Brian O'Connor have consented to stand as secretary and treasurer, respectively. Their appointments will be finalized at an association organizational meeting at 8pm tomorrow (Thursday).

Mr. Craig also told The Record the turnout for the annual skate and equipment exchange was low and additional days will be held the first two days of the pre-season hockey school.

Tie Char-Lan 4-4

Lecuyer pleased with rookie crop

WILLIAMSTOWN (Staff) - Mike Lecuyer hasn't had too much opportunity to look at the hopefuls for this year's edition of the Chesterville Jets but he likes what he has seen so far.

The Jets had held only three practices before last Thursday night when they played to a 4-4 draw against the Char-Lan Rebels who have been skating for the past month.

Lecuyer was most impressed with the young players coming up from the midget ranks who bring with them "a winning attitude".

Commenting on the exhibition game, Lecuyer said "I had no lines made up, not even when I went into the dressing room." And, he went on to say the Jets could have easily pulled off a win, missing several scoring chances.

Lost to over age from last year are goaltender Steve Droppo, defencemen Greg Casselman and Doug Shay and forwards Dave Cross and Jim Fawcett.

Dan McMartin from Winchester drew the starting assignment in the net from Lecuyer and the coach was pleased with his two period performance considering he did not play last year.

Steve Guy, back for his second season with the Jets, guarded the net in the final frame and was victim of a deflection which resulted in the tie. Mitchel MacDonald got credit for notching the equalizer with just over six minutes left in the game when the puck glanced off two Chesterville defenders, struck Guy on the arm and rolled up and over his shoulder into the net.

MacDonald's goal came just 62 seconds after Larry Erwin had sent Chesterville into the lead with his second goal 23 seconds apart.

Neil Kittle had lifted the Jets into a 1-0 lead on a powerplay in the opening frame only to have Marc Seguin tie it.

Kevin Blair gave Chesterville a 2-1 margin early in the middle stanza and Mike Tessier tied it up again. Dale Lefave got Char-Lan's third goal.

Lecuyer said the overage midgets displayed a lot of spunk in standing up for themselves against the Rebels who came out hitting.

The game produced 14 minors, three fighting majors and a 10-minute misconduct to Chesterville and eight minors, three fighting majors and a game misconduct to Char-Lan.

Lecuyer hopes to be making initial cuts this week.

Area girls' b-ball teams win one of eight games

CORNWALL (Staff) - Osnabruck girls' basketball teams did not enjoy a most memorable week as the school's junior and senior teams both dropped a pair of SD&G league encounters.

Onabruck teams bowed to Cornwall Collegiate Tuesday and St. Lawrence Thursday. North Dundas teams suffered the same consequence when they hosted La Citadelle last Tuesday and Tagwi drew a split in games against Glengarry at Alexandria last Tuesday.

Osnabruck seniors, who opened the campaign a week earlier with a win over North Dundas, were rocked by CCVS and St. Lawrence.

CCVS dealt a 51-35 victory as the Lancers trailed 16-6, 34-16 and 45-29 at the period breaks. Faye McAllister was the top scorer for Osnabruck with 19 points.

CCVS juniors, blasted Osnabruck Juniors 44-19 holding 12-0, 17-2 and 33-14 margins at period breaks. Nancy Shaver had seven points in a losing effort.

Thursday, Osnabruck juniors got off to a shaky start but played consistently through the final half to bow 36-26 to St. Lawrence. Donna Gail MacGregor was top scorer for the losers with seven points.

Faye McAllister hooped 11 points for Osnabruck seniors as they lost 52-19 to St. Lawrence.

North Dundas seniors played catch-up ball Tuesday afternoon but never could even score against La Citadelle, finally losing 31-28.

They were down 18-12 at the half and put on a final quarter surge to pull even closer. Karen Blom had nine points as Wilma Klein-Swormink and Maureen Steele each had eight.

North Dundas juniors lost a 45-38 squeaker after battling to a 36-36 tie at the end of four regulation quarters. The Trojans trailed by four, 16-12, at the half. Pat Henry had 14 points and Peggy Theos 12 for North Dundas.

In Alexandria, Tagwi teams were involved in a pair of lop-sided contests with one going each way.

Tawgwi juniors were led by Jennifer Freeland's 19 point performance in a 43-25 win but the seniors lost 52-27 to the Gaels.

Trojans kicking way to success

(Staff) - Soccer is making a big comeback at North Dundas.

Coached by Carl Ward, the North Dundas Junior Trojans are making loud noises as they threaten to take control or be seriously considered when the finals roll around in the SD&G junior boys' soccer league.

North Dundas last Monday opened the season by blanking Cornwall Collegiate 2-0 on goals by Daryl Last and Darrell Shelp and a shutout performance by Gord Milne.

La Citadelle got a pair of first half markers two days later and held on to blank North Dundas.

Monday, North Dundas pulled its record to 1-1-1 salvaging a 2-2 draw against Tagwi.

Darcy Last kicked the Trojans into the lead off a corner kick and Darrell Shelp upped the margin to 2-0 just before the half ended.

Tagwi took control in the second half with Jim Ransbottom heading the ball past Milne in the North Dundas net and Mike Wheeler tying the score on a close-in drive just minutes later.

North Dundas rattled a shot off the goal post later in the half but almost had the game go out the window in the dying minutes when Tagwi was awarded a free kick.

Bruce Barker was sent to the line and Milne tipped the shot high and over the net.

Tagwi senior Warriors were involved in a pair of shutouts last week.

Monday, Andy DeWitt fired two goals and singles went to Kelvin Reaney, Doug Hough and Don MacDonell as they blanked Osnabruck 5-0. Chris Degan posted the shutout as his mates scored four times in the first half.

Last Wednesday, high ranked Glengarry invaded Tagwi and went home victorious, 2-0.

The same Glengarry crew visited Osnabruck Monday and went away 4-0 winners. Between the two shutout losses, Osnabruck last Wednesday beat Seaway 3-1. Brian Armstrong got the first two goals and Doug Johnson the third for the winners.

Osnabruck juniors were dropped 3-0 by Seaway also.

Students win round one

By Ron Porteous
And Steve Grubb

It's amazing! This is our third week and we're still thinking of things to write. Activities are really coming upon us quickly.

Interschool sports started well but faltered slightly towards the end of the week for North Dundas. At a senior girls' basketball tournament at Seaway District High School Saturday, our team defeated Seaway at 8:00am in overtime; the score was 25-21. Later, at 1:00pm, the team lost 49-11 to St. Lawrence.

Last Tuesday, both the senior and junior girls' basketball teams lost: 31-28 and 45-39, respectively, to La Citadelle of Cornwall. Our junior boys' soccer team lost a hard-fought game to La Citadelle 2-0.

The first game of student-teacher competition was played on Sept. 28; it was a smash success. The Stardusters, made up of Wilma "Wonder Woman" Klein-Swormink, Arlene "The Menace" Ennis, Elaine "Backboard" Beaudette, Steve "Grabber" Grubb, Pete "Meadowlark" MacLeod, Al "Dribbling" Donaldson, and Marty "Miracle" Little beat the Faculty Fumblers, consisting of "Sparkling" Sharkey, "Bobby-Joe" Bowen, "Blaze" McBain, "Kinky" King, "Powder-puff" Perry, "Dunkette" Paquette, "Daisy" MacKay, "Steerhorn" Greenhorn, "Pistol" Palmer, and "Rusty" Raffan by a score of 16-6. The next teacher-student clash is to be Co-ed Flag Football near the end of October. Sock-it-to-em students!

This year, our Athletic Assoication executive consists of: president, Tim Billings, vice-president, Connie Vanderlaan, secretary, Nancy Vandenbosch, and treasurer, Dean Williams. Currently, the A.A. plans to raise funds by selling magazine subscriptions. Watch for this to start in December. The A.A. are also planning many ways to boost school and house spirit.

Other school fund-raising activities have started. On Monday, school jackets and hooded sweat-jackets went of sale for $33.95 and $15.50 respectively. A $10 deposit is needed for the jackets and one of $5 for the sweat-jackets.

Chocolate bars are expected to be sold near the start of November. The photography club had a successful raffle. They held a number of draws and wish to thank the following for their contributions: Nelson LaPrade, Ault Foods, Nestles, Fawcett's Jewellers, Winchester Sprots Shop, and Louis' Pizza. Speaking of clubs, a new and unique one has started at our school: the Investment club, which teachers ways to invest, how to play the stock market, etc., is headed by Mr. Shane.

Our first dance, held September 22, was a huge success. There was a profit of $276. and the first car wash for the Senior band netted over $320. They wish to thank all those who made both the one in Chesterville and the one in Winchester such successes.

Gold is still leading in house league standings with victories in rugger, Reach For The Top, and a tie in soccer. Their only loss was to Black house in football.

Note of change: the Senior Tresurer for our Student Council is not Maureen Steele as previously stated in this column. Our Senior Treasurer is Darlene Declare, to whome we offer our humblest apologies.

Cedar Glen closes golf season

WILLIAMSBURG (Special) - The last Member's Tournament for the 1978 golfing season was held Saturday and it proved that some golfers just never let up.

Al Stewart led the field with a fine round of 75 to capture low gross in A Class. Jeff Derue, a junior golfer, gave Al some competition as he shot an excellent round of 78 and won the low net prize with a net of 62.

In B class, the junior golfers dominated the field with Curtis McMillan taking low gross with a 79, Dean McIntosh, low net with a net of 66, and Ed Witteveen, second low net with a net of 69. Bill Casselman fired an 88 to prevent a clean sweep by the juniors and won the second low gross prize.

In C class, Francis Barkley won the low gross with an 89 and Graham Garlough's net of 63 was low net. Keith Henry took the second low gross with a 93 and Don Smith won second low net with a 68.

In the Ladies Division, based on nine holes, Eunice Munro captured low gross with a 58 and Bev Schulthorpe won the low net prize with a net of 40.

Gary Munro won a special award for his efforts on number 11, and that's one score we won't print. Right Gary!

Incidentally, after the Juniors fine showing it was rumoured that perhaps it would be better if they competed in their own division!

The Junior Club Championship was also held Saturday with Jeff Derue winning A class, Curtis McMillan B class champion and Todd Casselman, C class champion.

There are some fine golf days left in the season with the probable closing date sometime early in November.

As this will be the last Cedar Glen report of the 1978 season, we would like to take the opportunity to thank all members, and indeed, all the golfers in the area for your co-operation and vour patronage this past season.

EOJCHL schedule extended

Stevens' successor unknown

ST. ANDREWS WEST (Staff) - When the Eastern Ontario Junior C Hockey League's 144-game schedule opens in Williamstown, Thurs., Oct. 19, league officials will still not have chosen a successor to Larry Stevens as president.

League representatives met here again Monday night and filled all the vacant positions on the league slate but the top spot. Dalton Gadbois again accepted the treasurer position and Ray Goulet of Cornwall was reappointed referee-in-chief while Al Levere was nominated statistician.

At the league's annual meeting when the remainder of the executive committee was named, president Stevens said he would be stepping down after a two year term. No successor was named at that time and team representatives were again quick to put the matter over until its next meeting November 20. Representatives have a candidate but must first approach him.

With the new entry from Crysler giving the league nine teams, the regular season has been lenghthened to 32 games per team from 28.

Also, the top eight teams at the completion of the schedule will qualify for the playoffs. The quarter-finals will be a four-point series with first playing eight in series A, second meeting seven in series B, third going against six in series C and four meeting five in series D.

The winners of A and D will play in one six-point semi-final while the winners of B and C will meet in the other. The victors of those two series will play an eight-point championship series.

Also approved was a pay increase for the referees. This year they will receive $22.50 each for a single game and $35 each for a double-header. One of the two men will also be paid 20 cents per mile two ways.

Crylser team president Jim Mahoney informed the league its nickname would be "Raiders" and their uniforms would be silver and black in color.

Chesterville was the only team not represented at the meeting.

Osnabruck Township, Avonmore and Finch Township will once again play out of the Finch Community Arena with home dates on Wednesday. Finch Township will also play home games on Saturday nights.

Alexandria has Saturday night home games while Chesterville has Tuesday, Char-Lan Thursday, Maxville Sunday afternoon and Embrun Friday night, Sunday afternoon and Sunday night.

Pioneer performers honored

Williamsburg Pioneers didn't win any Dundas Fastball League titles this year but they did grab top honors and prize money at the Russell and Kemptville ball tournaments. Almost 100 persons were at the Pioneers' annual award banquet and dance at the Williamsburg IOOF Hall Friday night. The Pioneers finished the regular season in third place and eliminated the Cardinal Pats in the semi-finals to advance and lose to the pennant-winning Brockville Commercial Stars for the F.M. Cass Trophy as playoff champs. Owen Shortt was named the most improved player and winner of the Ken Barber Trophy while Jim Shaw claimed a .365 batting average and the top batter award in the Mr. and Mrs. George Strader Trophy. The Phil Casselman Memorial Trophy, to the team's most gentleman player, went to Larry Cooper and Bill Hogaboam was the winner of the Arden Trickey Memorial Trophy as the team's most valuable player. Recipients are Larry Cooper, left, Owen Shortt, Arnold Hogaboam (accepting award for son Bill in his absence) and Jim Shaw.

ST. LAWRENCE COLLEGE SAINT-LAURENT

MacDonell a bright light

First downs and exciting offensive marches have been few as the Tagwi Warriors look to their third game of the SD&G Secondary School Football League regular season Friday. Warrior punter Gordie MacDonell has relieved the pressure of the opposition numerous times with his spiralling kicks from near the endzone. Losers of their first two games, Tagwi will be looking for their initial win Friday when they host the St. Lawrence Saints at 2pm. - staff photo -

Unbeaten, winless teams lock horns this Friday

(Staff) - Tagwi Warriors and St. Lawrence Saints will have one common characteristic when they meet at Avonmore Firday afternoon - they are both winless after two starts in the SD&G Secondary School Football League.

St. Lawrence, finalists a year ago, joined Tagwi at the bottom of the league standings with an indentical 0-2 mark by losing 17-12 to General Vanier Friday.

Defending champion CCVS Golden Raiders joined the Vikings atop the standings with a narrow 7-4 win over Glengarry Gaels.

League standings following this Friday's action should be spread out. Tagwi hosts St. Lawrence in the battle for last place while CCVS visits General Vanier in the tussle for the top spot.

Penalties played a major role in Glengarry's opening season win over St. Lawrence two weeks ago and it took an about-face Friday as they fell to CCVS.

Greg Fyfe scored the Golden Raiders lone touchdown in the second quarter and Rob Robson kicked the convert.

Glengarry's Andre Chenier accounted for all his team's points. He booted a field goal in the first quarter and collected a single point on a missed field goal in the final quarter.

Shortly after that Glengarry scored what would have been the winning major but it was called back because of a penalty. They maintained possession of the ball at the CCVS eight.

On the next play, Glengarry was called for another infraction and the ball marched back to the 15. An unsportsmanlike conduct penalty pushed the ball back even farther to the CCVS 38 with time ticking away.

Across town at General Vanier, the Vikings got their offence rolling on the first play of the game with Larry King going 60 yards for the major score. Mike Piche kicked the convert.

General Vanier quarterback Greg Venn got the other Viking touchdown as Piche kicked the convert and added three singles for a five-point day.

Marc Proulx, a star with Char-Lan last year, scored all the St. Lawrence points catching two touchdown passes.

Participation more important than winning — Smith

AVONMORE (Staff) - Participation, and not competition, is the key to enjoying sports, CJOH-TV sportscaster Brian Smith told an audience of about 150 at the Avonmore Community Athletic Association awards banquet Friday night.

Smith, a former member of the NHL's Los Angeles Kings and Minnesota North Stars and the WHA's Houston Oilers, said when he looks back on his sports career it's not the wins and losses he remembers but the "friends I've made, and the places I've been" that stick out in his mind.

Participation comes not only from being on the field or the ice but also in community activity, something which the guest speaker said he saw in abundance in Avonmore. "I just want to say how great it is to see such super community spirit and I hope children of Avonmore appreciate the efforts that are being made on their behalf."

Continuing on his theme of the importance of particpation, Smith paraphrased Vince Lombardi's famous comment on winning, saying, "Winning isn't everything and it isn't the only thing."

Not everyone is born a Guy Lafleur or Darryl Sittler, but there are still avenues open to those who wish to continue in sports, especially with the burgeoning interest in hockey in Europe, he said.

"It's unbelievable how big hockey is over there. When we were in Austria for the Innsbruck Winter Olympics, we visited cities of 50,000 and 60,000 where they'd get crowds of 14,000 and 15,000 for hockey games.

The Europeans are also honing their skills at the game, he said.

In 1968 he was a member of a pick-up squad that played against the Russian national team on the eve of the Oympics and although they held the Russians to a 2-2 tie at the end of two periods, the Soviets pumped in 12 unanswered goals in the final period to win 14-2.

"That was the team that had already beaten the Canadian national team 19 straight times. That's when we realized how good the Russians really were, something the rest of Canada didn't realize until September, 1972 in the Montreal Forum when they hammered Team Canada 7-3."

The non-competitive aspect of sport was continued in a brief question and answer period following Smith's speech when he was asked if too much pressure was being put on children in today's organized sports programs.

He replied that children under 14 shouldn't be subjected to the win or nothing syndrome and that too much pressure could lessen a child's willingness to take part in athletic programs and ruin their enjoyment of sports in later years.

"Parents going to games and yelling at their kids and at the refs puts additional pressure on children. If kids want to play they'll play. But don't expect too much of them or you'll ruin it for them later on."

In answer to a question on the effect of expansion on professional hockey, Smith said the creation of the World Hockey Association was the greatest thing that ever happened for the players, raising their salaries over 200 per cent, but has watered down the sport.

Still, hockey is stronger today than it was in the NHL's pre-expansion days.

"You can take the six best teams from the NHL and WHA today and they're unbelievably better than the pre-1967 league. In the old six-team league you always had four strong teams and two weak ones but now the players are bigger and stronger and are better equipped. Everybody can shoot, now that the sticks have been improved so much," Smith said.

Following the presentation of awards to Avonmore's athletes, ACAA president Terry Brown outlined the highlights of the past year's programs, stating that next month will mark the first anniversary of the expanded ACAA Community Centre.

The $127,000 building is all paid for, thanks to a community-wide effort he said.

The ACAA's next objective is a community swimming pool for Avonmore.

The project has been in limbo for sometime, but on Oct. 21, the association will hold its first fund-raising event, a walk-bikeathon, for the pool and there will be a public meeting in the spring to discuss its feasability.

The president also announced the community's hockey and broomball registrations will be held in the hall this Saturday.

Autograph hounds

CJOH-TV sportscaster Brian Smith was mobbed by young autograph seekers following his speech at Friday night's Avonmore Community Athletic association banquet. Smith, a sportscaster for the past six years, played junior hockey with the Montreal Junior Canadiens and was in the pro ranks on the NHL's Los Angeles Kings and Minnesota North Stars and the WHA's Houston Oilers. His brother, Gary, is a goaltender with the WHA's Indianapolis Racers.
