The Christmas Holidays

Christmas is here,
Snow is going to fall,
It's time to go shopping,
Let's head to the mall.

What a beautiful day,
Let's hang the wreath,
It's time to have some holiday fun,
We will put up the tree and some presents beneath.

City lights are everywhere,
Wow they're starting to glow,
Christmas time is so much fun,
Let's play in the deep, deep snow.

Santa will be coming soon,
Riding in the night,
Bringing toys of all sorts,
What a magical flight.

Christmas Day is now,
We have lots of toys,
We've got so much to celebrate,
Our hearts are full of joy!

River Westover, Grade 2, St. Mary Catholic School, Chesterville

Christmas Joy

Santa Santa Santa he's almost here,
Santa Santa Santa brought us joy and cheer.
Pretty lights on every home,
Covering the houses like a dome.
Children playing with out a fight,
So Santa will visit Christmas night.
Christmas carolers sing a song,
To tell you Santa won't be long.
Waking up on Christmas morning,
Delighted, surprised this day will be nothing like boring.

Saoirse McNamara,
St. Mary Catholic School, Chesterville

Winter Holiday

It is snowing,
And the wind is blowing.
On Christmas night all kids play,
And all families sit and pray.
Let the toys be great for boys,
May they have lots of joy.
Up in the sky,
Santa flies.
On Christmas night,
All lights shine bright.

Christmas Day

Bells are ringing
Over my head,
It must be time
To go to bed.

Christmas day is Finally here,
Now all the people
Get to cheer.

Presents under
The tree,
Is the best
Sight to see.

Turkey, gravy, potatoes
And pie,
Smells so good
I can almost cry.

Waiting for Christmas

On Christmas day we play with our new toys,
That Santa brought for all the girls and boys.
When I come down stairs I see my gifts wrapped in bows,
I look outside and I see the blowing snow.

Santa flies very high,
He gets his energy from the pies.
Santa goes down the chimney he hears my dad snoring,
He goes back up and it's already morning.

How I love this time of year,
Filled with laughter and so much cheer.
You must be good through out the year,
So sleep tight because Santa is near.

Merry Christmas,
Patrick Guy,
Grade 5,
St. Mary Catholic School, Chesterville

A Christmas Disaster

It was Christmas night,
Windy air and stars that glair,
What a beautiful sight.

Santa stopped at my house,
It was peaceful and quiet,
Nobody could even hear a mouse.

Until Santa tripped over the rug,
Down he came crashing,
And broke my moms favourite mug.

I heard a noise,
What was that,
Just Santa with his jolly red hat.

I proudly said "hey",
He saw me and ran,
Rudolph get the sleigh.

I rembered that majical night,
For the rest of my life,
When I gave Santa a surprising fright.

Ava Bradley,
Grade 5,
St. Mary Catholic School, Chesterville

My Christmas Poem

The night of Christmas,
We had a tree dressed bright,
And every bulb set just right.

Every child with toys in there minds,
For every good girl and boy to find.

When we go to bed,
Visions of sugar plums dance in our heads,
Girls and boys all dressed in red.

Santa comes in a sleigh,
When he comes you can hear him say,
Ho Ho Ho I can't stay.

In the night see the tree glisten,
So sit there and listen,
So if you hear your cat hissen...

Shhhhhhhhh! Just listen!

Lauren Myers,
St. Mary Catholic School, Chesterville

Angry Santa

Angry Santa glides through the sky,
Elf assistant flying by,
Angry Santa goes through the trees,
Crushing everything he sees.

Angry Santa gives coal to everyone,
People say it's not fun,
Kids screaming give me a red button,
But Angry Santa just steals their roast mutton.

Angry Santa's all alone,
Angry Santa goes back home,
Mrs. Claus cheers him up,
While elves passing by saying sup.

Angry Santa wants to redo all,
Angry Santa is about to ball,
Angry Santa's really sad,
Angry Santa doesn't like to be bad.

Angry Santa as quick as a mouse,
Jumps in his sleigh and glides out the house,
Angry Santa wants to redo all,
Angry Santa is not as bad after all.

Christmas in Bluesville

Once there was this place called Bluesville where no one was happy. They weren't happy until one day an elf named Uevie came and tried to cheer them up. It didn't work, but he didn't give up. He had a fabulous idea. When the people of Bluesville woke up the next day, they were all happy because there was a Christmas tree!

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Christmas Time

Bells are ringing.
People are singing.
People are trying.
To keep buying.
Presents for sweet little children.
Who are ready for Christmas again.

It's Christmas Time

It is Christmas time!
Do you hear the bells chime?
Girls and boys are filled with joys,
Because they are getting lots of toys.
Mom says "Climb in bed to go to sleep,
And when you wake don't make a peep."

Brawley

My Crazy Gifts

My aunt Tanees is getting me geese.
My uncle Doose is getting me a goose.
My aunt Siggy is getting me a piggy.
My uncle Mog is getting me a dog.
Yay! Hurray!
It's Christmas day!

Santa is Here

I heard Santa walking
Towards the stocking.
Then, I did not hear a peep,
So I went back to sleep.
Soon it was morning,
But it was not boring.
Like every other morning,
Because it was Christmas.

Brynn,
Metcalfe Public School

Christmas Day

The snow is falling,
The bells are calling.
It's Christmas hurray!!
We get to open presents today!
The cookies are done,
The carrots there are none.
We're going to sleep,
Counting Christmas sheep.
The end of Christmas is here.

Joys of Christmas

Santa is near,
Bells are ringing,
And I am singing,
Christmas time is here!
At Christmas time the weather's cold,
Gathering round the Christmas tree,
I can see presents just for me,
Christmas is for young and old!
