OVER 5000 ATTENDED WINCHESTER TRADE FAIR

Five thousand people who attended Winchester's second annual Trade Fair last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings in the Community Arena unanimously supported the youngster who quipped: "Gee, it was nice."

For the second straight year business men and women who had 30 exhibits on display, who arranged a program of fine musical talent, and who gave away hundreds of dollars in prizes, were equally impressed with the huge crowd and the enthusiasm shown by everyone toward the Trade Fair.

This year's three-night show drew over 1500 people each night with over 2000 Winchester and district Fair goers jamming into the arena on the final evening, Friday. F. Erle Helmer was chairman of the three-night stand and was heard over the P.A. system frequently announcing prize winners and reminding the large crowds to check their lucky numbers at the blackboards on each booth.

Heading this year's committee in charge was Arnold Dukelow, chairman of the business men, Sam Ault and Reg. Workman, who directed prize distribution and advertising; Roy Fawcett, entertainment; Robert Vice, floor space and secretary-treasurer, and Gerald Helmer, who assisted in several capacities.

The Exhibitors

With over thirty different exhibitors this year, Fair goers were given quite a variation to choose from, ranging from chesterfield suites to wrist watches, from groceries to bathroom fixtures. All of the booths were the result of hard work and creative styling, and provided a bright and colourful setting for the Fair. The stage, located at the extreme south end of the arena, and the Fashion Show runway, were colourfully lighted and were made more attractive with the effective placing of baskets of beautiful flowers. Exhibitors included: Henderson's Dairy, milk, cream and butter; Howard Biccum, insurance; Doughty Motors, Ford-Monarch dealer; J. M. Fader and Son, plumbing and heating; The Revlon Booth from the J. F. Smith Drug Company Ltd.; MacIntosh's Groceteria; Davidson's, with live television all through the Fair; Fennell Feed Company; Dairy Farmers of Canada; Heidi's Restaurant; Vice & Craig, furniture; IGA, Thomas of Winchester and Porteous & Sons, of Vernon; Geggie and Elliott, plumbing, heating and building; H. S. Lannin, lumber; Woods' Hardware; Flora's, since 1896; Fawcett Jewellery; Ault Creamery Limited, milk products; Ernest R. Summers, insurance; Vice's Red and White Store; Jo-Anne Shoppe, ladies' wear; Basil Dawley, Purina; Kingston Dun-Brick, Don Redmond, representative; Melvin Motors, GMC products; MacDonald Motors, Dodge-DeSoto; W. J. L. Boyd & Sons, Chrysler-Plymouth; Winchester Motors, Case Tractors and Studebaker Cars; and the Hospital Auxiliary, who had a nice display. During the Fair, members of the Auxiliary sold tickets on three prizes, and the winners were announced on the final night. The booths featured just about everything possible. There were electric pumps in operation, milk running from a tap, wall ovens in the wall, television from at least five different sets; guessing contests too numerous to mention, a ferris wheel loaded with jewellery, china, watches worth thousands of dollars, free chocolate milk, five-cent coffee, and five-cent orange, free cigars and many other features that made the Fair more attractive than ever.

On The Air

Frank Ryan, of CFRA, Ottawa, officially opened the Fair on Wednesday evening, but not before he and Vaughn Bzerre had conducted a half-hour program of interviews direct from the arena. The broadcast was taped, rushed into the CFRA studios and highlighted on Lime Light at ten o'clock the same evening. Lime Light is a nightly feature of CFRA. In his remarks Mr. Ryan lauded the businessmen of the town for improving their Fair over last year's successful show. He said the 1955 Fair was bigger, better and brighter. Others who took part in the opening ceremonies were Reeve John Fader; Arnold Duklow, president of the Business Men; Gerald Helmer, president of the Rink Company; Sam Ault, Reg. Workman and several of the models from the Fashion Show, who were interviewed by Vaughn Bzerre.

Entertainment

Entertainment at the Fair was all musical and included a new electric organ from Hall's of Cornwall, which was made available through the efforts of Roy Fawcett. Angus Greenstreet and his daughter, Jean, were featured at the organ and piano each evening, and thrilled the crowds with their lively duets. Others who either accompanied or played the organ and piano were Mrs. Robert Woods, Mrs. Arthur Summers, and Mrs. Howard Fetterly who was the accompanist for the Fashion Show.

Vocal numbers came from the voices of Louise Summers, Ron. Workman, Mrs. Arthur Summers, and the quintette made up of the Misses Joan Clarke, Carolyn Alford, Norma Bailey, Kay Fennell and Louise Summers. Louise and Ron later teamed up in several duets, as did Louise and her mother, Mrs. Arthur Summers.

Fashion Show

One of the highlights of the Fair again this year was the Fashion Show, presented by the Jo-Anne Shoppe. It proved a popular event with the large crowd each evening, featuring the latest in women's clothing for the fall and winter months. Models, who again did a tremendous job, included Mrs. Hugh Balkwill, Mrs. Percy Roberts, Mrs. E. Rushton, Mrs. Walter Johnston, Miss Shirley Barkley, all of Winchester, and Mrs. Earl Munroe, of Winchester Springs. Mrs. Gerald Helmer was the hair stylist; the beauty consultant was from Revlon, June Davidson, Ottawa; Mrs. Howard Willard described the various gowns with her commentary behind the mike, and others who helped behind scenes were Mrs. Lloyd Kenney, Mrs. H. Potter and Miss Yvette Marleau. At the Trade Fair luncheon, which was held after the show on Friday evening at Heidi's Restaurant, Mrs. Dukelow, who with her husband present the Fashion Show each year, was presented with a dozen American Beauty roses by the ladies who so ably assisted her.

Prize Winners

Again this year prizes were both plentiful and valuable in-

90 Years Old And Still Going Strong

Prior to officially opening the Winchester Trade Fair last Wednesday evening, Mr. Frank Ryan, of CFRA, Ottawa, interviewed one of Winchester's oldest and most esteemed citizens in the person of Mr. N. W. Beach, 90 years young. Mr. Beach, for many years general manager of the M. F. Beach Co. Ltd., Winchester, first municipal clerk, and later reeve of the municipality for several terms, has a remarkable memory, and answered many interesting questions during the interview with Mr. Ryan. Also caught by the camera was Reeve John Fader, left, and Dave Melvin, right.—Photo by Amy Daykin, Osgoode.

SOUP-LIKE FOG CAUSES 14 CARS TO PILE UP ON HIGHWAY NO. 31

Soup-like fog combined with dense smoke from burning muck caused a series of chain reaction crashes on Highway 31, two miles north of Winchester early Sunday morning. All the accidents were reported between 12.15 and 12.45 a.m. Sunday morning before police warned motorists of the conditions by cutting traffic at Vernon.

When the count was taken, five accidents had occurred all on the same part of the highway, a low-lying area north of the town, involving 14 cars, causing damage estimated at over $4000.00, and injuring several people. Some of the injured were hospitalized, but were later released after treatment.

The most spectacular crash occurred when Fred Finley, of Dickinson's Landing, stopped his car just inside the fog barrier, and was rammed from behind by a car driven by Mac Saunders of Inkerman. Saunders' 1954 Chevrolet immediately burst into flames and within a short while had been completely destroyed. Occupants of the car, Gordon Kerr and M. Cassidy, escaped serious injury but were treated at the local hospital along with the driver, Mac Saunders, who sustained broken ribs, a bruised chest, and facial cuts. Damage to the Finley car, a 1947 Plymouth, was estimated at $100.00. A passenger in the Finley car, Mrs. Robert Procter, was also treated for injuries at the hospital.

In the first pile-up, John Miron, of Ottawa, stopped his car and was immediately hit from behind by a car driven by Lothar Dannenberg, also of Ottawa. Dannenberg's car was smashed behind seconds later by another fog-racked vehicle driven by Wesley Woods, of Winchester. Damage in this instance was estimated at roughly $600 to all cars. Minutes later another crash saw a car owned by Hubert Casselman, of Oxford Mills, rammed from behind by Harold Dalery, of Rivers, Man. Damage here was $800.00 to both cars.

A fourth accident saw four cars pile up in accordian fashion with total damage of $500.00. Involved were Albert Brunet, of Ottawa; William G. MacGregor, of Winchester; Bert Woods and Harry McAuley, also of Winchester. None were seriously injured.

Another chain reaction crash, involving three vehicles, was reported near Durant's Hill, also in the fog covered area, just north of the portion of highway where the other accidents occurred.

Constables Ray Dow and Earl McDougal, of Morrisburg detachment, OPP, were the busy officers in charge of investigations at all accidents.

Thanksgiving Race Meet Will Be Held At South Mountain

Come Monday, Thanksgiving Day, all lovers of the sport of kings will be headed South Mountain way for the annual Harness Race meet at the Fair grounds track. Sponsored by the I.O.O.F. of that village, in aid of their committee for polio, tuberculosis and cancer, the meet this year will feature three races including a 2.24, a 2.20 and a Free-For-All, with purses of $200.00 for each race.

In addition there will be special prizes for winning drivers and horses in the various races. Refreshment booths, games and pari-mutuel betting wickets will be in operation on the grounds.

At night a Bingo and dance will be held. Music will be provided by a popular orchestra, and prizes will be both many and valuable for the Bingo. Games and refreshment booths will also be operated throughout the evening.

From the number of entries already received the Thanksgiving Day meet at South Mountain this year promises to be one of the best ever held on an Eastern Ontario track. The committee in charge consists of Ogle Workman, Lorne Armstrong and the secretary, Victor Barton.

FIREMEN PRESENT HAROLD KEYES WITH RONSON LIGHTER

After 37 years with the Winchester Volunteer Fire Fighting Department J. H. "Pa" Keyes resigned recently. Tuesday night at the Fire Hall he was honoured by members of the Department for his loyal service when Harold Helmer presented him with an engraved Ronson Lighter on behalf of all members of the Fire Department. The Lighter also had, on its side, the emblem of the Eastern Ontario Fire Fighters' Association.

An ex-chief of the Department, Harold Keyes replied briefly, thanking his friends, and outlining some of his experiences with the brigade since first joining it in 1918. Harold was one of the first men to operate the old Model T chemical engine when it was purchased in 1922.

At Tuesday night's meeting the draw for three turkeys, from an advance sale of tickets, was also made, with Mrs. Bert Hodgson, John Cinnamon of Kenmore and George Lazelle of Winchester the lucky winners. The draw was made by Harold Keyes.

In conjunction with Fire Prevention Week, which runs from October 9 to October 15, a fire drill was held at the Winchester Theatre. Chief Raistrick said the drill was quite successful, and that all patrons left the theatre in orderly fashion in a very short time.

Lengthy Discussion At Council Meeting

Aside from lengthy discussions concerning some of the current municipal problems, there was little done in the way of actual achievement at the most recent midnight session of council members, held Monday evening.

One of the chief issues at Monday's meeting turned out to be the questions put forth by a delegation of Winchester Township Council, headed by Reeve Basil Dawley, over the suggested outlet of the proposed water and sewerage system for Winchester village. Following much comment, the delegation was told that as soon as the Water and Sewerage committee received further information concerning the outlet from the engineer in Toronto, the findings would be passed along to Township Council. At the moment the proposed outlet for the sewerage system is located or empties out on Township land, and the Township delegation wanted to know what arrangements were going to be made, if the water and sewerage project is started.

As a more effective means of conducting a parade in the village, and also as a means of taking measures to control traffic in the village at such a time, Council suggested that all persons and organizations report their intentions of forming a parade on local streets, to the police department. By doing this suitable arrangements may be carried out with little inconvenience to anyone.

Two applications for junk yards were temporarily shelved, to be further studied at a later meeting. Chief Raistrick was given authority to continue the Fire Department's Fire Prevention Week program. Hydro accounts were $3,628.08, and municipal bills totalled $13,320.24, including the yearly school levy of $9,955.16.

Building permits were issued to S. G. K. Ault, Hugh McMaster, Miss Emma Gardner, G. Raistrick Sr., and Donald Christie.

The police report submitted by Gilbert Raistrick included two infractions of the Highway Traffic Act, one public disturbance and one theft.

All members, the clerk-treasurer and chief constable were present at the session, which was presided over by Reeve John Fader.

STORES WILL CLOSE ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Monday, Thanksgiving Day, October 10th, is a statutory holiday and all places of business in Winchester will be closed for the day. As a result, housewives and others should bear this in mind, making certain that they have sufficient supplies of food, etc. to last over the long weekend. Stores will re-open again on Tuesday morning.

District Hockey Star Weds Scottish Bride

A romance which had its beginning in Scotland four years ago was culminated on Friday afternoon in Inkerman United Church at the wedding of Constance Elizabeth Dingwall, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dingwall, of Edinburgh, Scotland, and Denzil Earl Crowder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Crowder, of Inkerman. The Rev. William Reid officiated, and the wedding music was played by Miss Norma Bailey, of Winchester, who also accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Dwight Baldwin, who sang "The Wedding Prayer" as the bride reached the altar, and "O Promise Me" during the signing of the register.

Denzil first met his bride in 1951 while playing for the Murrayfield Royals of Edinburgh in the Scottish League. Denzil, one of the most liked and most aggressive hockey players ever produced from the Inkerman Rockets of Lloyd LaPorte, carried his popularity and hockey skill with him across the waves, and in his first year with the Scottish team he was appointed captain, and was awarded the trophy for the most valuable player according to a poll of hockey fans of Edinburgh. He continued courting his Scottish lass in 1954 when he returned to play hockey. Denzil and the Crowder family met the bride-to-be who arrived on the S.S. Captain Cook at Montreal. The date of the wedding was on the 23rd anniversary of the marriage of the bride's father and mother who were unable to be present at the wedding.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Howard Baldwin, of Cardinal, sister of the groom, as matron of honour. The best man was Gordon Crowder, brother of the groom, and the lone usher was Howard Baldwin.

Given in marriage by Earl Bailey, uncle of the groom, the charming bride chose a wedding gown, which she brought with her from Scotland, of brocaded satin. The fitted bodice had long tight sleeves, and there was a bolero buttoned up the front with tiny self-covered buttons. The full skirt fell in soft folds to the floor. Her circular veil of silk net, with a border of appliqued flowers, was held in place by a coronet of artificial orange blossoms and pearls. She carried a white Bible adorned with Scotch heather, white streamers and tiny pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Heidi's Restaurant. The bride's table was centred with a beautiful wedding cake brought from Scotland. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Mr. Reid, and responded to by the groom.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Crowder left on a motor trip to Niagara Falls and points in the United States. For travelling, the bride wore a wool suit, in oatmeal shade, with accessories of burnt ginger. On their return they will reside at Inkerman.

County L. O. L. Church Parade Held Here

Members of Dundas County Loyal Orange Lodges, ladies from the L.O.B.A. and visiting members of the Orange from other districts paraded smartly to church here on Sunday evening. The event marked the annual church parade of Dundas County Orangemen, which this year was headed by the crack Prescott Pipe Band and a half dozen drum majorettes.

The colourful parade was one of the most impressive seen here in some time. Members of the lodges were formed up at the local Orange Hall by Clifford Wylie and Herb Wallace. From there, they marched to the United Church where the service was conducted by the Rev. T. N. Mitchell. Guest soloist was Ronald Freeland, and the choir was under the direction of the organist, Mrs. Howard Fetterly.

Following the service the parade once again formed up and marched to the hospital grounds, before returning to the Orange Hall for dismissal.

Assisting brethren of the Dundas County Orange Lodges in the parade were members of the Juvenile Lodge from Osgoode and Bro. Hunt of Carleton District No. 8.

Master of Dundas County Orange Lodge is W. J. L. Boyd of Winchester.

Hospital Donation Will Pay Tribute To Rescue . . . .

It was a hot August night in 1905 and the sun had been beating down for several days, just like the past summer. It was like a bake-oven in the village of Morrisburg and the residents were striving to find means of keeping cool.

"Let's go for a swim in the river," said Fred.

"Okay," said Joe. "I can't swim, but you can and you can look after me."

Fred and Joe went up the river bank, doffed clothes, and Joe, slightly the faster of the two, jumped in.

"Here I go," he said, "so get ready to pull me out."

The water was deep and the current swift and it wasn't long before Joe was in trouble. Under he went, struggled to the surface, puffing and sputtering for help, down again, up again, down again and up again to the surface after an eternity of effort.

"I thought for sure I was gone," said Joe. "It was so dark, the current was so strong and I was so tired of fighting.

"Then I hear Fred calling to me and it wasn't anytime before he had hold of me and swam with me to shore. I had been so close to death, but I only realized just how close as the years went by."

That was 50 years ago.

But the memory of that rescue was fresher than ever yesterday in the mind of Joseph W. Webb, retired Winchester Springs resident.

Mr. Webb had just deposited a cheque for $1,000 towards the new Hotel Dieu Hospital building fund in memory of the gallant rescue made by his friend, Fred H. Broder, of Morrisburg, that warm night so long ago.

And for Fred Broder, veteran ex-reeve of Morrisburg and a member of the Hotel Dieu Hospital's first advisory council, a plaque in the new hospital will testify to a deed that will never be forgotten.—Cornwall Standard-Freeholder.

HOSPITAL BENEFACTOR AND FRIEND—Lifetime tie binds Joseph W. Webb, left, to Fred H. Broder after the latter saved his life in the St. Lawrence 50 years ago. We Give Thanks!

For golden days, and silver nights,
For trees of beauty, gypsy clad
In glorious hues of red and gold,
For these rich gifts, we should be glad.
Nature assumes her splendid task
Of scattering blessings, great and rare,
From every burning bush, there shines
The promise of Eternal care.
The glad earth yields her grain and fruits;
We dwell in peace,—our people one,
The Kingdom promised long, has come,
The Gift of Heaven, is now,—is won.

Fire Prevention Week

By proclamation the Governor General of Canada will decree that the week of October 9-15, 1955, be observed as Fire Prevention Week across the nation.

This week is always the calendar week including October 9, the anniversary of the great Chicago fire of 1871. Such a disaster serves to underline the necessity of bringing before the public a much needed awareness of Fire Prevention.

Fire Prevention Week should not be regarded just as a seven-day period for projecting fire prevention programs, displaying posters all over the community, school drills and civic group meetings. Rather, it should be regarded as the week of initiation of a year-round activity promoted to make our country a safer place in which to live.

Fire Prevention Week is not a new institution. It has, over a period of years, developed increasing significance and earned a respected place in the regular affairs of every progressive community in Canada and the United States. It signifies the commencement of a campaign which should be carefully planned so as to enlist the cooperation of every citizen and of every organization in the community for a concerted effort to prevent, as far as possible, loss of life and property as a result of fires.

Response to Fire Prevention Week should be spontaneous and enthusiastic. All citizens sincere in their desire to see the country's economy make progress have a stake in Fire Prevention Week. They realize full well that property destroyed by fire is irrevocably lost and the community and the nation suffer as the consequence of such loss. Economic disaster to a community often follows on the heels of a large fire.

Let us look at the latest available annual fire loss record in our country. The total property loss by fire was $84,270,896.00 representing a loss per person of $5.70. These losses represent an increase of about $4,000,000.00 over the previous year when the total loss was $80,902,205.00, with a loss per person of $5.61. The record shows 67,519 fires, an increase of 3,416 over the previous year. The loss of life by fire was 477, as compared to 562 in the previous year.

It is indeed tragic to note the record shows that more than half of all the fires in Canada occur in homes. This fact alone should emphasize beyond any doubt the need for fire prevention.

This heavy toll of destruction of life and property by fire must not continue. A strong and vigorous campaign should be launched during Fire Prevention Week and followed up without restraint throughout the year.

Community Service

Service to their community is the foundation on which the weekly newspapers of Canada were built originally, as it is the strength which lies behind their operation today. Depending on their advertising revenue for their financial backing they are still receptive to the many requests for write ups, and advance publicity for the great variety of events which make up the life of their community.

From notices of birth, marriage, and death, through the list of cards of thanks, coming events and classified advertising, the weekly newspaper gives a picture of the life of the town. It reports the meetings of council, school boards, Chambers of Commerce, churches and service clubs. The weeklies never fail to lend their support to any project for the good of the community and many a waterworks system, hospital, school, swimming pool or other service would not have been carried to a successful conclusion without their active support.

Unless it renders this service the newspaper is without life and without purpose. It was instituted to carry the news and to serve its community and, in doing so, it becomes your finest and most effective advertising medium. For along with its accounts of individual events in its village or town it offers the "tailored to measure" service of a paper which will be read and re-read and kept in a safe place against the home coming of those more sophisticated members of the family who have gone farther afield. Whatever its circulation, it stands high in readership and so long as its consideration is service this will continue to be the case.

Ten Commandments For Hunters

In a short while the peak of the hunting season will be here. Already the duck shoot has attracted thousands of hunters, and just around the corner lies the deer hunting season. With so many people hunting at the same time and in close proximity the chances of having an "accident" are greatly increased. The ten commandments for hunters are as old as the hills, but if they are followed, fewer tragedies will occur this year during the hunting season.

1. Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun. This is the cardinal rule of gun safety.
2. Guns carried into camp or home must always be unloaded and taken down or have actions open; guns always should be encased until reaching shooting area.
3. Always be sure that the barrel and action are clear of obstructions.
4. Always carry your gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle, even if you stumble. Keep the safety on until you are ready to shoot.
5. Be sure of your target before you pull the trigger.
6. Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot.
7. Unattended guns should be unloaded; guns and ammunition should be stored safely beyond reach of children and careless adults.
8. Never climb a tree or fence with a loaded gun.
9. Never shoot at a flat, hard surface, or the surface of water.
10. Do not mix gunpowder and alcohol.

It's YOUR HOSPITAL

by

G. HARVEY AGNEW, M.D.
PRESIDENT, ONTARIO HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION

Thousands of women throughout Ontario play a major role in helping to keep the doors of their respective community hospitals open 24 hours a day—7 days each week. And without monetary reward, too.

The great interest of these public-spirited women and the importance of their work has prompted this particular article which will deal with Women's Hospital Auxiliaries.

No doubt, at this point, some one will remark: "Why write an eulogy about women? They can speak for themselves." Well, that may be true in general. But the fact remains that in Ontario we have about 135 different Women's Hospital Auxiliaries with a membership of approximately 36,000, yet it is amazing how little the general public knows of their existence, or of their work.

Women's Hospital Auxiliaries are considered so vital to hospital welfare that it has happened that an auxiliary has been formed even before its hospital was built and even before the first sod was turned.

Members of Women's Hospital Auxiliaries take part in many activities on behalf of their community hospitals. Money raising projects are high on their program of activities. But, in addition, they also devote many hours of time and energy, often at great personal sacrifice, to help with voluntary work and services in their hospitals. These services are varied but include sewing, operating a canteen, working in clinics, reading to patients, operating a travelling library for patients, acting as escorts to patients being admitted, supervising children while parents are visiting patients, managing gift shops and so on.

Their efforts are of tremendous help to a hospital, whether in times of war or peace. During World War II the value of free service given to hospitals by both men and women, and particularly the latter, was inestimable. In fact some hospitals might not have been able to serve meals to patients had it not been for such generous voluntary help.

When it comes to fund-raising to help finance the operation of their community hospitals, the auxiliaries have done a magnificent job. In 1954 in this province alone they raised in excess of $286,000. This is no small accomplishment when one considers that almost all of it was obtained often in small amounts, through social activities, bazaars, garden parties, afternoon teas, rummage sales and so on.

The largest sum of money raised by any one auxiliary over the year was $21,964.00. The smallest auxiliary in the Province, with only 23 members, raised the impressive sum of $2,573.00.

Over the years a Women's Hospital Auxiliary in one smaller city in this province has been responsible for raising over $250,000 for the use of its hospital. Little wonder they say, "Never underestimate the power of a woman."

The Women's Hospital Auxiliaries' movement is gradually growing in stature and in importance. It received its great impetus in this Province, especially during the formative years, from the late Mrs. Margaret Rhynas of Brantford and Burlington. She was later to become the key person in establishing the National Council of Hospital Auxiliaries of Canada.

Most auxiliaries try to get a good representative cross-section of women in their community interested in this worthwhile work. Most have a modest membership fee although one successful auxiliary is unique in this respect . . . it has no membership fee and membership is determined solely by service rendered in one or more of a variety of projects.

In many hospitals the president of the Women's Auxiliary is ex-officio a member of the Board of Trustees. This is as it should be and is a well-deserved recognition of the place the Women's Auxiliary can take in the direction of a hospital.

It is interesting to note that the largest auxiliary in Ontario is that of the Civic Hospital in Peterborough with a membership of 5371. This just goes to prove that, even though a hospital is municipally owned, the general public does give it their wholehearted voluntary support. This is as it should be.

Today there are auxiliaries in general hospitals all across Ontario as well as in tuberculosis sanatoria, convalescent hospitals, hospitals for the chronically ill and even in mental hospitals.

In this province the auxiliaries are affiliated in a provincal organization. The annual meeting is held in conjunction with the annual convention of the Ontario Hospital Association. The presence and enthusiasm of the ladies, I might say from personal observation, add greatly to the success of each year's get-together of hospital personnel.

It is not uncommon on such occasions to see groups of auxiliary members in the exhibit halls inspecting or selecting pieces of modern equipment which they plan to donate to their hospitals.

Yes, the hand that rocks the cradle does more than is realized to keep hospital wheels turning.

"WHAT'S GOING ON IN WINCHESTER"?

You'd have nothing to keep you up to date on happenings right in your own neighbourhood.
If you had something to sell, you'd have to go out and look for a buyer. If you needed to buy something, you'd have to look all over town for it.
Your neighbours could marry, have children, or even die, without you hearing about it until much later.
Council could pass a by-law affecting you and you might never hear of it.
Plans for worthwhile community projects might never get started for lack of news and support.
And how would you keep up with the fortunes of the hockey team or the baseball club?
Fortunately, your town has a weekly newspaper, a source of local information that no other kind of publication can replace.
Over the years, Canadian weekly editors have lent their support unstintingly to many a good community cause. This year, for the first time, they are celebrating National Weekly Newspaper Week, and Imperial Oil is glad to participate in paying tribute to your weekly newspaper.

Yes, it's quite true.
You and you and you . . . . each and everyone of you makes the real news. What you do, what you say, what you think from day to day, is back of all decisions in this world. That's the way public opinion is formed.

And this is your newspaper too, because in its columns are reported these activities and sayings of yours and of your friends and neighbors, from birth to death.

Your newspaper, and only your newspaper can and does bring them to you. And because of this mass of knowledge, power comes to you, for an informed press means an informed people.

Boyhood of Jesus — ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Scripture—Luke 2:41-52. By Alfred J. Buescher

Every year Jesus' parents made the pilgrimage from Nazareth to Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of the Passover. When He was 12 years old, he was taken with them.

After the Passover, Jesus stayed in Jerusalem, unknown to His parents. Thinking He must be with others in the company, they sought Him among kinfolk and acquaintances.

Going back to Jerusalem searching for Jesus, they found Him in the temple. He was surprised when Mary questioned Him, saying He was about His Father's business.

Jesus returned with His parents to Nazareth. He grew in stature and in wisdom, and was "in favor with God and man."

MEMORY VERSE—Luke 2:52.

Boyhood of Jesus

AS HE GREW IN STATURE, CHRIST BECAME "FILLED WITH WISDOM"

Scripture—Luke 2:41-52.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

WE KNOW nothing about the childhood of our Lord from the time He was taken to the temple in Jerusalem to be circumcized and recognized as the Christ by Simeon and Anna, until He was 12 years old. Luke tells us only that "the Child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him."

What did Joseph and Mary think of their Child? They must have pondered upon the wonders of His birth and the occurrences in the temple. Mary "pondered these things in her heart," Luke tells us, but did she and Joseph discuss them and look wonderingly at their son as He learned to talk, to walk, to play and to read?

He was an obedient child, submitting Himself to His parents, giving them no trouble, we surmise. He must have been a lovable one, and, judging from His knowledge of the Scriptures with His quotations therefrom which, in His later years, He often amazed and humiliated His enemies, He was a studious one, determined to learn all he could. There were no comic books in those days to distract the attention of youngsters from more worthwhile reading, but we can be quite sure He would not have read them if there had been. His was a serious nature.

His parents went to Jerusalem every year to celebrate the feast of the Passover, and when Jesus was 12 years old, they took Him with them. When the celebration was over, Joseph and Mary started for home with the rest of the group from Nazareth. After going a day's journey, they discovered that their Son was not with the company, and they returned to Jerusalem to seek Him further

Three days of anxious searching were finally ended when they visited the temple. There they found the Boy, sitting in the midst of the learned doctors, "both hearing them, and asking them questions."

The parents were amazed when they saw Him, and His mother said, possibly a trifle chidingly, "Son; why hast Thou thus dealt with us? behold, Thy father and I have sought Thee sorrowing."

It was Jesus' turn to look surprised, as He answered, "How is it that ye sought Me? wist ye not that I must be about My Father's business?"

They still did not understand what this firstborn child of theirs meant by His answer, but He went with them to Nazareth and was "subject unto them." "But His mother kept all these sayings in her heart."—just as modern mothers do and will do to the end of time. How often, as Jesus grew older and went on His mission into the world, must she have pondered over the meaning of these things.

The perfect Boy; the perfect Man. Our children will not be without sins, as they are human beings with faults and temptations that must be recognized in childhood and corrected so that they grow up to be fine men and women, good citizens and a credit to their upbringing. It is sad that there are so many whose homes are broken by divorce; sometimes made tragic with cruelty, abuse and neglect. These things lead to what we call "juvenile delinquency."

We must pray and work to understand the young; to give them love and understanding, sympathy and wise counsel that they may grow up, as Jesus did, to increase in physical stature, and "in favor with God and man."

MEMORY VERSE

"Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man."—Luke 2:52.

NATIONAL PHARMACY WEEK

This is National Pharmacy Week in Canada. It would pay us all to pause momentarily on this reminder to consider the important part the Pharmacist plays in the maintenance of good health in the community.

Not only does the pharmacist make available medicinal products compounded by himself or by the large and small pharmaceutical manfuacturers but he also supplies information relative to good health based on his studies in the drug store and at university.

The pharmacist today brings to the general public the fruits of four years university work which includes the study of the human body and its functions as well as drugs affecting the correction and prevention of unhealthy conditions. The chemical structure and action of drugs and chemicals however is the basis of modern pharmaceutical education.

The pharmacist to-day with his vast array of medicinal products must exercise considerable care in the distribution of drugs and medicines. Many drugs today are so powerful as well as effective that they require judicial handling by physician and pharmacist alike, thus the responsibility for the distribution of these drugs, under proper medical supervision only rests with the pharmacist.

With the advent of the modern day drugs—the antibiotics, the many sulfas, the alkaloids, the hormones and the synthetic chemicals, more than ever before in history is it necessary for the pharmacist of today to be active and interested in his profession—one of the main bulwarks in the community health service.—*Published in the public's interest by The J. At Trinity Hall, Second Street West, Cornwall, there is a clinic on the second Tuesday of every month, beginning October 11th between 2 and 4 p.m. These clinics are operated by the Stormont, Dundas and Glengary Health Unit and immunization will be given free of charge.

Immunization against Diphtheria, Whooping Cough and Tetanus should be given in the first year of life, starting at about four months of age. Full protection requires four injections—three at one-month intervals, and one six months later. This protection needs boosting at about two-year intervals through childhood, and especially on starting school. Any child requiring a booster dose can be brought to clinics.

Vaccination against Small Pox should be done in infancy and can be repeated on going to school.

The signature of the parent or guardian is required before any child is immunized or vaccinated, so parents should attend the clinic with the child to sign consent.

W. H. S. NEWS

(By Mac Steinburg)

The W. H. S. rugby team began their regular schedule this week and racked up their first win. The victory was scored over a hapless South Mountain crew to the tune of 42 to 10. High scorers for the local team were J. Chissamore, E. Crowder, R. Clarke, B. Mitchell and Al. Wylie.

On Friday, the W. H. S. squad visited Metcalfe and were the victims of some bad breaks, consequently they came out on the short end of a 23-16 count. The next game is scheduled for the High School campus on Friday (tomorrow). I believe, with the cheers of the student body behind them, the team is capable of trimming any opposition in this league. Good luck, team!

Recent meetings of the Student Council have been occupied with talk of a school party. Such parties have been very successful in the past, not only as a source of entertainment but also as a means of students becoming better acquainted. The date is not definite yet, but if the present plans materialize, it promises to be one of the biggest and most enjoyable yet. These school parties are designed for the entertainment of all students, so plan now to attend and participate in this social evening.

Interest is mounting over the approaching track and field meet at South Mountain on Friday, October 14th. This promises to be one of the most keenly contested meets in many years and is highly deserving of everyone's support. The local representatives were selected at the annual W. H. S. track meet yesterday. They will now continue training for the big one at South Mountain. Will you get behind the local team and encourage them?

FEED NEWS

CONCENTRATES AND SUPPLEMENTS

The use of Conentrates and Supplements permits a wide variation in quality, texture and cost of a meal ration.

You may have a high protein mixture if you want it or you can have a low cost feed.

Home grown grain may be used or Western grain.

The grain may be ground fine or coarse or rolled, to make a fine or coarse texture mix.

You may have a mix of one or two hundred pounds or a larger quantity, running into tons if you want it.

In any case, you will find a "made-to-order" mix entirely satisfactory for any kind of Poultry or Livestock.

"X-L-O" POULTRY CONCENTRATE (35%)

Adding Poultry Concentrate at the rate of 100 lbs. Concentrate to 300 or 400 lbs. Wheat, Oats, Barley or Corn (ground or rolled) will make a real good Laying Mash, with all the protein, minerals and vitamins needed for heavy egg production.

You can have a very low cost feed this way too.

"SWIFTS" or "SHUR-GAIN" HOG CONCENTRATE

For maximum growth and profit, add Hog Concentrate to Ground Barley, Oats, Wheat or Middlings.

100 lbs. Concentrate to 500 lbs. grain will make a 16% mixture. Lower protein will do for finishing.

"X-L-O or "FUL-O-PEP" 24% DAIRY SUPPLEMENT

Add 100 lbs. of 24% Dairy Supplement to 200 lbs. grain, ground or rolled, for a 16% Dairy Ration.

We will help figure protein, etc. and cost of any mixture you have in mind.

Have your grinding, rolling and mixing done while you wait or arrange to have it delivered next trip.

HOME HINTS

Mirrors

Do not clean mirrors with soap and water. To obtain the best results rub them with a paste of whiting and water. When dry polish with a dry chamois.

Candles

If candles are varnished with a good clear shellac it will add to their appearance and still more important it will prevent the candles from dripping on the table cover or wherever the candles may be placed.

Ironing

If dampened clothes are wrapped in a large Turkish towel until ready for ironing, it will keep an even dampness throughout the clothes and makes ironing much easier.

OBITUARY

LATE REV. JOHN N. STEELE

The Rev. John N. Steele, of Syracuse, N. Y., passed away recently in Syracuse General Hospital after a lengthy illness, at the age of 90 years. Mr. Steele was born in Ottawa, and received part of his education there. Later, going to Potsdam, N. Y., he laboured as an evangelist through the mid-West, south-West and Pacific Coast States.

In 1917 he married Mrs. H. Olivin, of Aberdeen, N. D. They spent 9 months on an Asiatic tour, and later, some months in Nassau, The Bahamas and later as pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church there. After Mrs. Steele's death in 1919 the Rev. Mr. Steele returned to Syracuse, preaching in Fourth Presbyterian Church there for a number of years.

The Rev. Steele was a brother-in-law of the late Mrs. Wm. Wood of Kenmore, Ontario, and leaves to mourn his loss, two nieces, Miss Katherine Steele, now residing in South Mountain, and Mrs. W. J. Splane, of Carleton Place.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. James Lowell Harris, of First Presbyterian Church, Syracuse, assisted by Rev. David MacInnis, of New York.

HEALTH NOTE

GOBBLE AND GULP LUNCH

Gobbling a sandwich and gulping down a cup of coffee, then getting back on the job, is no program for the busy person. Such procedure means that the lack of a good balanced meal may lead to a form of malnutrition, and a breakdown of resistance to fatigue, colds and any other ills going around. The sensible meal is one that supplies the necessary proteins, minerals and vitamins, topped off with a walk in the fresh air, even if it means only a block-long walk, to aid digestion and to ward off that tired feeling in the afternoon.

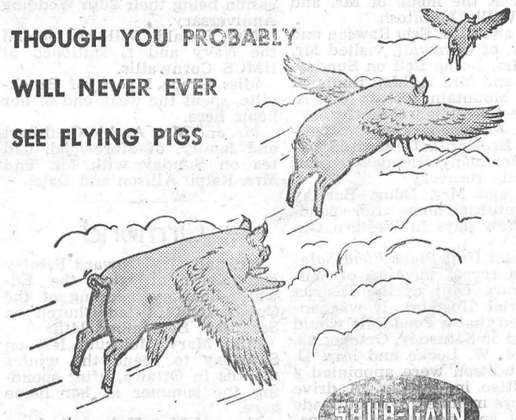
THOUGH YOU PROBABLY WILL NEVER EVER SEE FLYING PIGS



Your Feeding Returns Will SOAR When You BALANCE YOUR GRAIN With SHUR-GAIN HOG CONCENTRATE

Well, maybe the thought of flying pigs is a little far-fetched, but it does serve to illustrate two things about pig feeding

First, anything that flies is usually well balanced. And your home grown grain needs to be balanced with SHUD-GAIN Hog Concentrate, because grain alone can't supply protein, vitamins and minerals in levels required by swine for fast, economical growth.

Second, things with the power of flight are able to soar. And that's just what your hog feeding returns will do when you add SHUR-GAIN Hog Concentrate. Instead of using 1,100 pounds of grain to put a hog to market, you'll find that about 550 pounds of grain, plus 100 pounds of SHUR-GAIN Hog Concentrate will do it. And do it quicker. So you're money ahead two ways—you save grain and you save labour.

Call in and talk over your hog feeding plans with us.

A General Motors Value

After all, it really isn't considered good form to toot one's horn too loudly . . . HOWEVER . . . since the early months of this year, an unparalleled situation has existed and we can't contain ourselves any longer.

Pontiac—we've got to say it—is now up in the TOP 2 in automotive sales in Canada . . . second only to another General Motors product!

This isn't just a claim . . . it's a fact. Against the toughest competition, Pontiac has plain outsold every other manufacturer's cars.

It's a hats-off tribute to Canadian motorists, too, for their instant recognition of Pontiac's sterling worth. No doubt about it, they buy shrewdly and well where value counts.

Well, there it is! Pity, we had to be the ones to tell the story but that's the automotive industry for you.

Anyway . . . now everybody knows what more Canadians than ever before have found out this year . . . dollar for dollar you just can't beat Pontiac!

WEDDINGS

JENNINGS—JOHNSTON

Parkdale United Church in Ottawa was the scene of the wedding of Beryl Margaret Johnston and Melville Warren Jennings on Saturday afternoon, September 24th, at four o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Johnston, of Ottawa, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Jennings, of Winchester.

Rev. Dr. Norman Coll officiated, and the wedding music was played by Mr. Albert Smith. Mrs. Robt. J. Pierce, of Slatington, Pa., sister of the bride, was soloist. The church was decorated with white and yellow gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Donald G. Curry, as matron of honour; Miss Elsie Randall as bridesmaid, and Miss Myrna Jenning as junior bridesmaid.

The groomsman was Mr. Robt. Fleming, of Ottawa, and the ushers were Mr. Alton Thomas, of Prescott. and Mr. Murray Johnston, of Winchester.

For her wedding the bride chose a strapless floor-length gown of embroidered nylon lace and net. Her matching jacket of lace had lily-point sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a headdress of irridescent sequins and net . She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and white chrysanthemums.

The reception was held in Parkdale United Church Memorial Hall, after which Mr. and Mrs. Jennings left by motor for Otter Lake, Ont. Upon their return they will take up residence at 366 Bronson Ave., Ottawa.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robt. J. Pierce, of Slatington, Pa.; Mrs. Donald G. Curry and son, David, of Woodlawn, N. S.; Mrs. A. E. Lumsden, of Ashton, Ont.; Mrs. S. B. Wilson, Brockville; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Lackey, of Carp; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lackey, Richmond; F.O. and Mrs. H. Gilbert, of Kars; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Jennings, Miss Myrna Jennings, Miss Valerie Joan Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. D. Johnston, Mrs. L. D. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. A. Windsor, Mr. and Mrs. S. Helmer, Mr. J. DUNDAS TEACHERS' FEDERATION MEETS AT BRINSTONS

The September meeting of the Dundas Teachers' Federation was held in the Memorial Hall at Brinston on Tuesday evening, September 27th.

Owing to the illness of the president, Mrs. Audrey Foster, the meeting was in charge of the past president, Miss Edith Render. A pot-luck supper was enjoyed by all, followed by a brief business meeting. Miss Maude Edgerton was chosen as the new president.

A report of the delegates to the annual meeting in Toronto was presented by Mrs. Eileen Becksted. This was followed by a programme of musical numbers and recitations.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Arthritis Target

Women appear to be prime targets for the great crippler, arthritis. Statistics show that for every man, three women fall prey to this disease.

Rheumatoid arthritis is the malady's formal name. Along with allied conditions, in one way or another, the disease has afflicted more than 10 million people in the U.S. and completely crippled some 200,000 others.

The secretary, housewife and young mother are most susceptible. Arthritis is insidious. Its symptoms at first are usually mild. Gradually they worsen, until one day you wake with an arm or leg that is completely useless.

What causes arthritis? Scientists have not yet found an answer. Nor have they yet found a complete cure.

They do have available a number of chemicals to control the symptoms of rheumatoid arthritis in many patients. These drugs, administered by the physician, can lift the hopelessly crippled arthritic victim out of the wheelchair and back into normal life.

Among the medicines which have proven effective in some patients are aspirin, gold compounds, and the much-heralded hormones, cortisone and hydrocortisone.

However, these drugs are not fully effective and the hormones, in particular, sometimes create unpleasant side effects in some patients and thus force their abandonment.

Recently, a new synthetic hormone called Deltacortril has been placed in the hands of physicians. Deltacortril appears to be far more potent than cortisone or hydrocortisone and offers promise of reducing the side effects noted with the other hormones.

With advancing research and rehabilitation, many arthritic patients will be given a new lease on life.

HEALTH NOTE

ONE MAN'S OPINION

The man who, having turned forty years of age, considers he is in perfect health, would be well advised to make sure that his opinion is shared by his doctor. After that age, it may be necessary to slow down any very strenuous exercise or athletics, not because of any present impairment in health but to ensure that he isn't overdoing things that might lessen his good physical condition.

EYES RIGHT?

Anyone who does much close work such as reading, writing or sewing, should ensure that the light in which they work is adequate for the job. It should be not too glaring nor dim—if there is any eyestrain, the light should be adjusted. Any indication that the sight is impaired or if there are persistent headaches, it is advisable to have the eyes examined by a medical eye doctor or ophthalmologist so that if any disease threatens or if the trouble is caused by some physical condition in other parts of the body, the trouble may be treated and the sight helped. If glasses are required, they should be obtained through the doctor's prescription, never bought over the counter at a store.
