Inkerman Rockets perfect in Dundas County tourney

SOUTH MOUNTAIN — It was a perfect day for the Inkerman Public School Rockets as they soared to the 1998 Dundas County junior elementary volleyball championship here at Nationview last Thursday.

Inkerman, using a six-person rotation instead of a nine-player team, earned the championship by rolling up 10 consecutive victories.

Tournament convenor Peter McIntosh explained the competition was played as a double knockout playdown, which results in the strongest team emerging with the gold medal.

McIntosh noted Inkerman had finished first in the preliminary round, posting seven wins and collecting all 14 points. The Rockets along with second-place Dixons Corners (6-1), third ranked Chesterville (5-2) and the number-four rated Winchester squad (3-4) then moved onto the double knockout championship pool.

"Inkerman was undefeated but just managed to beat Winchester 15-13. Had they (WPS) won that game, Inkerman would have still had the opportunity to win the championship because they would play until they suffered a second loss. I think this system is a good one. Everyone gets to play plenty of games and the best team (usually) comes through," McIntosh said.

Inkerman played 10 games of volleyball while the silver-medal winners from Chesterville Public appeared in 11, four in the championship round. The bronze medal went to Dixons Corners while WPS finished fourth.

CONSOLATION ROUND

Morrisburg, Iroquois and Elma Public each finished with preliminary round records of 2-5. Nationview was 1-6 and all four advanced to the consolation (playoff) division.

Morrisburg defeated Elma 15-3, Nationview 15-4 and Iroquois 16-14 and claimed the consolation division championship with a 3-0 record.

Elma wound up sixth with a 2-1 record. They lost 15-3 to Morrisburg but defeated Nationview 16-14 and Iroquois 17-15 in the final round.

Iroquois defeated Nationview 15-9 but lost to Elma (17-15) and Morrisburg (16-14). Nationview finished with three losses.

During the opening round Morrisburg defeated Elma (15-5) and Nationview (15-9). Iroquois registered wins over Morrisburg (15-9) and Winchester (15-6). Elma's two victories were against Nationview (15-12) and Iroquois (15-9) while Nationview knocked off Iroquois 15-13.

CHAMPIONSHIP ROUND

The Inkerman Rockets rang up seven victories in the preliminary round to finish with 14 points. Dixons Corners was one win behind in second with a 6-1 record and 12 points. Chesterville at 5-2 picked up 10 points and Winchester with a record of three wins and four losses earned a fourth-place total of six points.

Inkerman opened the final round with a 15-13 decision against fourth-place Winchester. They then knocked off Dixons Corners 15-9 and Chesterville 15-6 in the title match.

Chesterville lost game one 15-6 to Dixons Corners but qualified for the championship match by eliminating Winchester 15-10 and Dixons Corners 15-13.

Dixons knocked Chesterville off 15-6 but suffered back-to-back losses to Inkerman (15-9) and Chesterville (15-13) before finally settling into third place.

Winchester wound up fourth absorbing losses to Inkerman (15-13) and Chesterville (15-10).

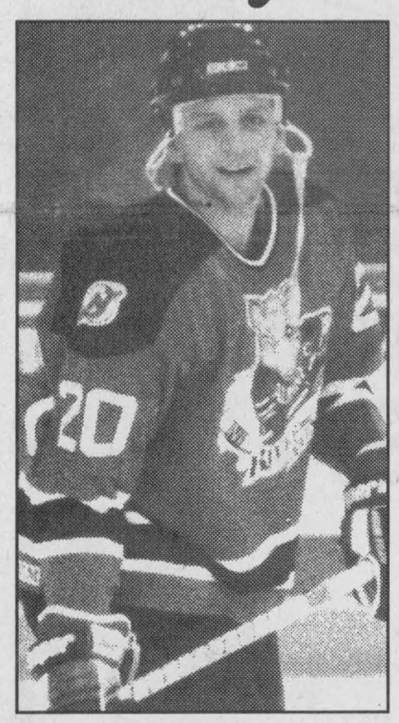
Starry season for Winchester native Bryan Helmer



Bryan Helmer

ALBANY, NEW YORK — It's been five years since Winchester's Bryan Helmer first pulled on a River Rats jersey.

This, his fifth season with Albany, has been a good one and could be his best yet.

The New Jersey Devils top farm team (River Rats) is into the first round of the playoffs after finishing second overall in the American Hockey League's regular season standings.

Albany collected 103 points on a 43-20-11 record and finished first in the Western Conference's Empire Division, nine points ahead of the Hamilton Bulldogs. The Philadelphia Phantoms (47-21-10) were tops in the AHL with 106 points.

Two games into their quarter-final series (best of five) with the Adirondack Red Wings, the top farm team of the NHL's Detroit Red Wings, the River Rats have registered 6-3 and 2-0 wins.

Over the regular season the Rats and Wings met 12 times and sawed their series off at six and six but Helmer was looking for a three-game sweep when his team took to the ice in Glens Falls, New York on Tuesday night (April 21).

"We split the 12 games (six wins and six losses) but over the last five games we (Albany) beat them four of five times. So if things go well we should beat them in three," he told the Press hours before boarding the bus for the 45 minute trip to Glens Falls.

Helmer says this edition of the River Rats reminds him a lot of the team he was on with Albany in 1994-95, a team which won the Calder Cup, signifying the AHL championship.

"I think this team is as good as the one that won the (Calder) Cup. And right now the Red Wings are terrified of us (River Rats). They won't even go in the corners after the puck."

Helmer says this year the club has a terrific first line, as they did in 94-95.

"This year Sasha (Lakovic), Dody (Wood) and Richard (Rochefort) are our top line and they can really do a job."

The 25-year-old, 211-pound blueliner says if the Rats eliminate the Red Wings. they would meet the winner of the Hamilton Bulldogs/Syracuse Crunch series and then, hopefully, the Philadelphia Phantoms in the Western Conference final.

ALL-STAR STATUS

It has been a productive season for the River Rats but has also been a solid season for Helmer.

He finished as the second-highest scoring defenceman in the AHL with 14 goals, 49 assists and 63 points. His 49 assists was the highest total among defencemen. Helmer also drew 101 minutes in penalties, thanks to a minor called in the final period of the last regular season game.

"Scoring 63 points playing with guys like Peter Zezel and Brendan Morrison sure made it a lot easier," Helmer noted. "Zezel (an NHL veteran, since traded to the NHL's Vancouver Canucks) came down here to the "A" (AHL) and was a class act. He is a great guy and a good player. It sure helped me and the rest of the team being around a guy like Peter."

The Albany assistant captain was also voted (by the players) to the league's first all-star team. Helmer also picked up booster club awards as Albany's "Favorite Player" and "Highest Scoring Defenceman".

"Being picked by the opposing players as an all-star was a surprise but it felt good and really made me happy. It was a real honor. And, it couldn't have come at a better time."

Helmer is in the final year of his contract with the New Jersey Devils organization and isn't looking for just a better deal, but the opportunity to play in the NHL... something New Jersey hasn't given him.

"I'm an unrestricted free agent. And Lou Lamoriello (New Jersey general manager) has asked me if I wanted to re-sign. I can't talk to any other teams until July 1. But I won't close any doors. I will listen to their (New Jersey) offer."

"I played all 80 games this year and put up some pretty good numbers. I want to play with some organization that will give me the chance to play up there (NHL). I think I can play. If I get the chance and can't stick, at least I tried. Surely with expansion coming, somebody will be interested."

Not only has the 1997-98 hockey season been a good one for Helmer, his personal life has also been eventful.

He and his longtime girlfriend, Pam Baker of Morewood got engaged.

"We got engaged at Christmas, at home so we would be with our families. But we haven't set a date yet... maybe next summer."

Maybe by the time the next training camp opens, the Helmers will be residing in an NHL city.

Glider pilot Downey helps Kars airport celebrate 25th

By Jeff Brownlee

OSGOODE -- Strike a conversation with any of the organization's 25 members and they'll tell you the same thing: take off.

After all, that's what members of Rideau Valley Soaring love to do for a hobby.

This year, the non-profit organization whose mission is to glide amongst the clouds, is celebrating its silver anniversary.

Surprised?

You're not alone. Even after 25 years, RVS and its operations remain one of the area's best kept secrets.

Rideau Township residents may be familiar with the grass airfield just south of Kars, but many aren't aware of the jewel that lies in their backyard.

I must confess, until last weekend, I wasn't.

Living directly across from the airport most of my life, watching gliders complete their landing circuit over my home was as much a weekend summer ritual as cutting the grass.

But that's all the thought I had ever given it.

Enter RVS members John Mitchell and John Downey. In just two hours last Sunday, they changed my perception of the sport - forever.

It didn't take long chatting with the four die-hard members on the earliest startup date in club history to discover that the soaring school is a close-knit group, whose members share one common characteristic -- a passion for soaring.

Many of the current members are power pilot converts, who enjoy the fact that gliding is much cheaper than flying a power plane. Others relish the serenity, the freedom and the rush of soaring in the clouds.

"For me, learning to fly (a glider) is a big thrill," says Mitchell, last Sunday's designated tow plane pilot and second-year glider student.

How could a licensed power pilot find it thrilling? What's the difference?

Simple.

Gliding is a challenge. With no motor, it's a test of the pilot's skill to basically keep the plane in the air. gliding lingo, that's called thermalling.

And a glider pilot is constantly on the hunt for one of these invisible cones of hot air rising from the ground. While experience is the key to finding thermals, there are also signs to look for, said Mitchell.

Circling sea gulls often lead a glider pilot to a thermal. But not always.

I didn't realize the importance or the thrill of thermalling until Downey, took me for an introductory flight in one of the soaring school's four gliders.

John Downey sits in the cockpit of a Puchacz glider at the Kars airport. Downey took reporter Jeff Brownlee soaring 5,300 feet above Rideau Township to give a perspective he has come to love. Downey is a member of the Rideau Valley Soaring Club based in Kars. Press Photo – Brownlee

RVS has planes to meet the skill level of every different pilot. There's a Schweitzer, a rugged two-seater trainer used for instruction and beginner solo flights, labeled by club members as the boat.

There's also a high-performance two-seater used for cross-country treks called a Grog and a single-seat high performance glider called a Pilatus.

Our plane, one of the most popular at the airfield, was a Polish-made two seater called a Puchacz, which I was told has an English translation of an owl.

As soon as we took off, I knew why it earned that name. Flying it was a hoot.

But before we were airborne, I underwent an initiation ritual. I had to walk, well actually jog the glider from one end of the runway to the other.

This hands-on approach is the backbone of the soaring school. As a non-profit organization, its members must pitch in every aspect of flying including the not-so-glamorous ground work.

After all the pre-flight safety checks were complete, Mitchell fired up the bright orange tow plane and Downey took his post in the rear seat of the glider.

We were on our way.

As we took flight, Downey was constantly working the foot-operated rudder controls and the control stick, keeping the glider level with the tow plane.

"Lots of thermals."

He was right.

A few circuits around the Kars airfield and the glider suddenly started to soar in height. Downey released the tow cord at 2,500 feet. We found our first thermal.

Downey started flying a tight circle, trying to take advantage of the hot air. The altimeter soared to 3,200 feet, then 3,800 feet before he lost it, with just the sound of the wind rushing by the cockpit.

As he pushed the stick forward and pushed the air speed up to 70 knots, the nose rose again. Another thermal.

This time Downey called Uplands Airport to gain clearance for 4,000 feet.

The altimeter started spinning as we started flying the circling formation once again. We reached 4,800 feet before we lost the second pocket of hot air.

When there's rising air, there's also sinking air," he said.

This time though, we started dropping fast and Downey increased the air speed to sail through the pocket of sink as quickly as possible.

We hit another thermal just seconds later. A big one.

Another call to Uplands to get clearance to 6,000 feet and we were on the rise.

We topped 5,300 feet, over one mile above the airport, before we started our descent.

Patriotes take lion's share of SD&G badminton trophies

La Citadelle not only captured the overall title but also laid claim to the boys doubles (A. Bellemare and P. Labelle); ladies doubles (T. Boisvenue and C. Lalonde) and mixed doubles (Jeff Wells and Rachel Tessier) hardware.

North Dundas District High School had the mixed doubles team of Mike Flowers and Jada McNaughton make the semi-final round. Ray Besharah and Shannon Tomlinson (award winners last year) made it into the quarter-final round.

Meghan Shane and Jen Saxby were quarter-finalists in the girls doubles event. Jaime Cass and Chrissy Linton also competed. North Dundas also had a pair of boys teams in action: Matt Annable and Jeremy Geurts along with Craig Holmes and Sven Wauters.

Natalie Stewart played in the girls' singles while Adam Shane and Mike Hodge played in the boys' singles bracket. Hodge advanced to the quarter-finals.

The North Dundas Midget Devils placed the doubles team of Amy Simpson and Crystal Glassford in the quarter-final round of their tournament but no one from the team was able to climb any higher.

Brendan Flowers and Ryan Campbell competed in the boys' singles. Sarah Barkley and Jess Thomas were the NDDHS representatives in the girls' singles.

Jake Graham and Heather Velthuis along with Cory Kerkhof and Amy Bernard made up the Devils two mixed doubles teams.

Daniel Meier and Yann Bossel made up one unit in the boys doubles. Kevin DeJong and Aaron Kelly comprised the other North Dundas combination.

Ashley James and Lauren Klimpke also competed in girls doubles.

Glider

It was time to run the plane through some maneuvers. And Downey wasn't afraid to show me his piloting skill.

"Gliding is a safe sport," he said. "The glide ratio for all gliders is very high, making it easy to return to the field quickly if weather changes."

A tight 70-degree turn to the right and then one to the left. It was better than any roller coaster ride.

We made our final approach over the Rideau and landed at the airport. Total time in the air was almost 50 minutes. Pretty impressive. It was a good day for gliding.

It was a rush. It was a side to gliding that I've never experienced before, but I will again, definitely.

You can too.

The soaring school is embarking on a membership drive and is looking for people, despite their aeronautical skills, to join.

There are only three requirements: An eagerness to learn, a love of flying and a training pilot must be at least 16 years of age.

If you work hard, you could become a glider pilot in less than a year, which begins with a 20-hour session of ground school offered in the winter, followed by an intensive summer of flying. For a more relaxed pace, start with a summer of flying and finish the ground school over the winter.

Cost of this hobby is fairly reasonable. A pilot learning to fly can expect to pay $1,500 in his/her first year. After that, the sky's the limit. In subsequent years, a pilot can expect to spend at least $550 per year, which includes membership in the Soaring Association of Canada.

Membership fees cover the costs of insurance and maintenance and fuel for the tow plane.

"Spread that out over seven months and it's not that much more expensive than golf," said Downey. "It's definitely the cheapest way to fly."

If you would like to take a test flight, RVS will accommodate you as well. Introductory flights, guaranteed to last at least 20 minutes, start at $50.

The soaring club runs every weekend between April and October. This year, the club is enjoying its earliest start to the season ever.

RVS is also planning a Fly Week during the beginning of July, which will see gliders soaring for seven days straight.

Again, everyone is welcome.

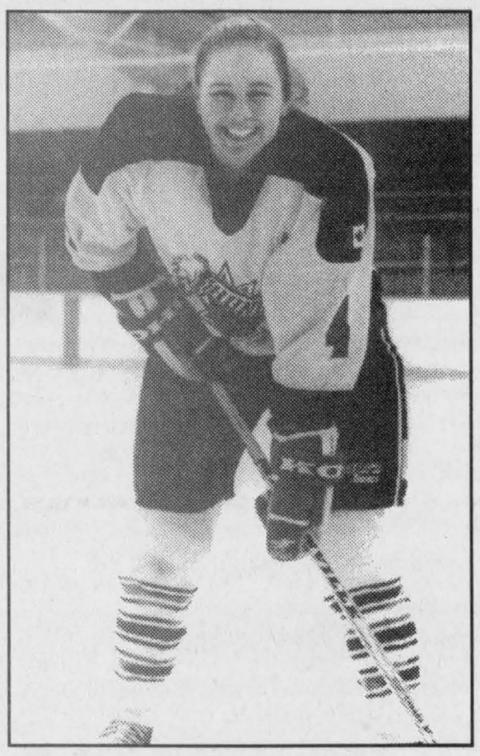
Holmes, Gilmer wrap up exceptional season

TORONTO — Winchester's Tiffany Holmes and Joanna Gilmer of South Mountain completed their bantam "BB" hockey season over the weekend skating in the Provincial Women's Hockey championships in Mississauga.

Holmes, 16, and Gilmer, 13, both play defence for the Rideau St. Lawrence Thunder and took part in the Brampton International Tournament the previous weekend (Easter). The Thunder finished as semi-finalists in both events.



Tiffany Holmes

At the Provincial Women's Hockey Championship Tournament this past weekend the Thunder opened suffering a tough 2-1 loss to the Mississauga team they had blanked 3-0 the week before in Brampton. Tiffany Holmes notched the Thunder's lone goal on an unassisted play.

Rideau St. Lawrence needed a victory in a Saturday afternoon match against Etobicoke. They gave up the first goal of the game but bounced back and posted a 2-1 victory, which moved them into the third round against Brampton.

Brittany Forgues (assisted by Robin Sheedy) tied the score against Etobicoke and Margaret Larmour netted the game winner on a breakaway set up by Sheedy in the third period.

Brampton also took a 1-0 lead on the Thunder in game three and once again the Rideau St. Lawrence squad rallied for the victory (3-2). Forgues scored twice to put the Thunder into a 2-1 lead. Wany Mowatt, Sheedy and Laura Bayliss engineered the scoring plays for Forgues.

Brampton tied the score forcing the Thunder to pull their goaltender for an extra attacker. Sheedy eventually came through with the winning goal, scoring from Mowatt and Forgues with 28 seconds left on the clock.

The victory put the Thunder into Sunday's semi-final game which had to be forfeited to Kanata due to poor communication with tournament organizers.

Team officials pointed to the solid effort of goalies Elissa Molino and Sarah Dulmage and the stellar work of defenders Erica Mallamo, Gilmer, Bayliss and Holmes throughout the tournament.

BRAMPTON TOURNEY

At the Brampton International Tournament the Thunder put together a strong offensive effort and outscored every other team in the event.

They opened the event romping to a 6-0 win over Flamborough. Holmes (2), Mowatt (2), Forgues and Sheedy fired in the goals while Sheedy (3), Forgues (2), Mowatt, Bayliss and Larmour all earned assists.

The goaltending duo of Molino and Dulmage was sharp again in game two as the Thunder whitewashed Mississauga 3-0. Sheedy had a pair of goals and Sam Honey the other marker. Assists went to Forgues (2), Mowatt (2), Jodi Clark and Larmour.

Rideau St. Lawrence faced Guelph in their final round robin game and battled them to a 2-2 draw. That result was good enough to give the Thunder a trip to the semi-final round.

Hamilton was the Thunder's opposition in the semi-final encounter and opened the scoring. The Thunder responded with the next two markers only to have Hamilton convert a pair of powerplays into two goals and a 3-2 victory.

Mowatt and Sheedy were the goal scorers. Forgues (2), Holmes and Sheedy engineered the scoring plays.

Nationview Golf Course survives ice storm

SOUTH MOUNTAIN — The Durant family owns and operates two golf facilities. One survived Ice Storm '98 quite nicely. The other is still at least three weeks away from welcoming its first players.

Doug and son Scott Durant opened their 18-hole, par-72 Nationview Golf Course early this year on April 17. The par-3 course at Sandy Mountain Campsite on Hwy. 43, east of Kemptville is another story.

"We were very lucky here at Nationview (west of South Mountain on the Hyndman Road). We has snow mold on seven greens and the tree damage was just along the fairways. We were lucky, no doubt about it," explained Doug Durant.

The nine-hole, par-3 course at Sandy Mountain is another story.

"Sandy Mountain looks like it was bombed, trees down everywhere. We've six men clearing limbs, brush and trees there for two weeks. It looks like we might open in three weeks," Durant told the Press last Thursday (April 16).

Durant said he had an estimate done on a tree cleanup at Sandy Mountain the bid came in at between $50,000 and $75,000.

Scott Durant, Nationview superintendent, explained they were able to scrape the ice off of their greens and that allowed them to thaw slowly and naturally, with little damage.

"There is some snow mold but overall the tees and greens are in good shape. We are mowing them and the rain will green up the fairways."

Commenting on the early start, 1998 marks the course's third year of operation, Scott noted that the weather has been great but everyone shouldn't be fooled. "We've had snow in the middle of May. Last year it was cold and I had to wear my insulated coveralls when was mowing tees in May... so anything can still happen."

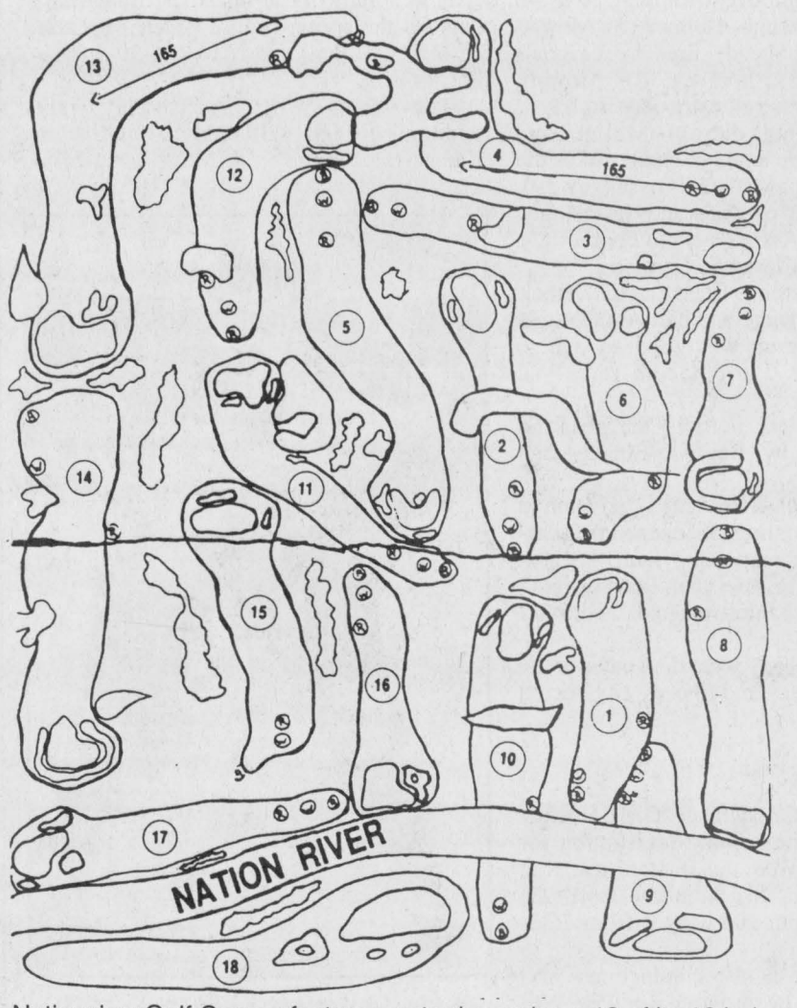
The Durants renumbered 13 of 18 holes in last spring, which cut down on the length of walks between holes. Since then, according to the owners, most golfers have enjoyed playing Nationview.



Nationview Golf Course features water hazards on 13 of its 18 holes. No. 17 and 18 lay along the banks of the Nation River while holes No. 9 and 10 have pins and tees on opposite sides of the waterway.

"One guy complained about the walk back to the 18th tee. Other than that we had a favorable year. Someone else told me that ladies wouldn't like to golf here but I would say one-third of our clients are ladies and several have told me they like the course because it is a challenge."

The Durants will open their pro shop in the club house's basement this summer and continue to serve home-made food to their customers. They have also obtained their liquor license.

"We increased the fee for nine holes by $1. Other than that the prices are the same as last year. We figure we are as reasonably priced as anyone else," offered Doug Durant.

Cedar Glen men tee off tomorrow

WILLIAMSBURG — With clean-up of Ice Storm '98 being completed this week, Cedar Glen Golf Course is ready to host its first Men's Night of the season.

The men will open play tonight, Thurs., April 23 and the women (Ladies Night) will launch their new year next Wednesday (April 29). The juniors will kick off their slate on Mon., May 25.

Cedar Glen's Opening Day Tournament is also on the calendar and is pencilled in for Sat., May 2.

Course owner Dennis Casselman reported Tuesday (April 21) that golfers were on the links this year on Good Friday (April 10) and play has been steady ever since.

"Ground conditions have been unbelievable. It has been dry and the rain we have received has been a good soaker which has greened everything up nicely."

"Apparently there wasn't any snow on that green (No. 7) when the storm hit and it was damaged. The other (greens) had good coverage and overall it was just a normal year for damage," he explained.

As for tree damage, Casselman says the ice storm claimed a few trees but a couple of volunteer days being held this week should clear the branches and brush.

"The storm just made our trees a little shorter and a little thinner... easier to shoot around."

Construction on the new nine holes continues at Cedar Glen and will not interfere with play on the existing nine, according to the owner.

"We are a little behind schedule but we did get working on the ground in April, which is a bonus. If the weather holds it will certainly help."

CHIPS AND PUTTS

Cedar Glen will host an open event celebrating Bert & Norma McIntosh's 50th wedding anniversary on Sun., May 3. The day will consist of a Two-Ball Golf Tournament starting at 2 pm and a supper at 6:30. Everyone is welcome, no gifts please. There is a registration form for golf and a sign-up sheet for supper. You don't have to golf to sign up for the meal.

The green fees are: $18 for 18 holes on weekdays and $20 for 18 on weekends and holidays. A nine-hole rate is available.

For more information call Cedar Glen at 535-2323 or 1-888-861-0660.

Upper Canada golfers capitalize on early spring

MORRISBURG — Area golfers will be glad to see an early start to the season at the Upper Canada Golf Course.

Opening day is set for today, Thurs., April 23.

It's been a very busy season for the grounds crew, spending the last 12 weeks cleaning up after Ice Storm '98.

Although damage was extensive, the heavy layer of ice actually made it easier for heavy equipment to move over the course without damaging the turf.

Superintendent Randy LeClair is pleased with the condition of tees and greens this spring, noting that the majority of areas wintered well. The greens in particular are 50 per cent better this spring as compared to the spring of 1997.

In order to keep the greens in the best shape possible, Upper Canada, along with the majority of golf courses in the Ottawa Valley, are encouraging the use of soft spikes by all golfers. Joe Doyle, the pro at the Upper Canada Golf Course, will have his staff available to help golfers make the switch to soft spikes, which are available at the UCGC Pro Shop.

Local golfers are ready to take advantage of this early season and are anxious to hit the links. The pros at Upper Canada are ready to help, whether it's lessons to help tune-up the swing, or new golf wear. The Pro Shop is well stocked with golf accessories, equipment and apparel.

Jessup Foods and Heritage will be managing the food and beverage operation this season. They have a new menu and concept developed to satisfy golfers' hunger after a tough day on the links. Golfers and visitors alike are encouraged to consider Upper Canada for meeting their breakfast, lunch, dinner and reserved banquet needs.

Golfers may want to watch for the many specials and theme nights at the course. Other highlights this season will include the third annual Ladies Invitational Open on Aug. 25 and the second annual Mixed Two-Ball on Aug. 18.

The Upper Canada Golf Course is located 11 km east of Morrisburg off County Road 2, across from Upper Canada Village. It can also be reached via Hwy. 401, exit 758.

For information on green fees and tee-off times call 1-800-437-2233.

Volley for Cancer plans take shape for fundraiser

WILLIAMSBURG — Volleyball and horseshoe players will take to the nets and the pits on August 15 to see who will prevail for the prized trophies in the Fourth Annual Volley for Cancer. The event will be once again at the Van Allen's residence on Lightning Street in South Dundas.

In the first three years of the day-long event $39,000 has been raised for the Canadian Cancer Society. The goal for this year is $20,000 and with anticipated increase in contestants this year, the goal should be attainable.

The volleyball section of the tournament, which is strictly recreational, will be divided into three divisions this year, thus ensuring each team three games.

As with last year, a quilt in the "queen lovers knot" pattern in navy and pink will be raffled off. The quilters are Sue Keeler, Verla Perrin and Inez Gurnhill.

At the time of writing, eight bands had assured their presence. The dunking tank will be available, although it is still not certain who will have the honor of aiding the cause in this way. The tank will be operated by the Riverside Heights Snowmobile Club.

To ensure that adequate food will be available, a new approach for provisions is being prepared. The beer tent will be set up again and will be operated by the South Dundas Snowmobile Club.

Once again Olin Smith is organizing an antique car display and everyone is encouraged to look over these beauties and talk to the owners.

Due to the size of the event, volunteers are much-needed. If you could offer several hours, it would be greatly appreciated and helpful to the cause. For information or to volunteer, call Carl or Ruby at 613-535-2772.

Winchester curling season sweeps to a finish

January's natural disaster forced club members to make extensive repairs to their facility, including installing a new steel roof.

During Ice Storm '98 the club was converted into a soup kitchen/meeting place used to feed hundreds of volunteer workers and storm victims.

In total two weeks of play as well as rentals and bonspiels were erased from the 1997-98 schedule.

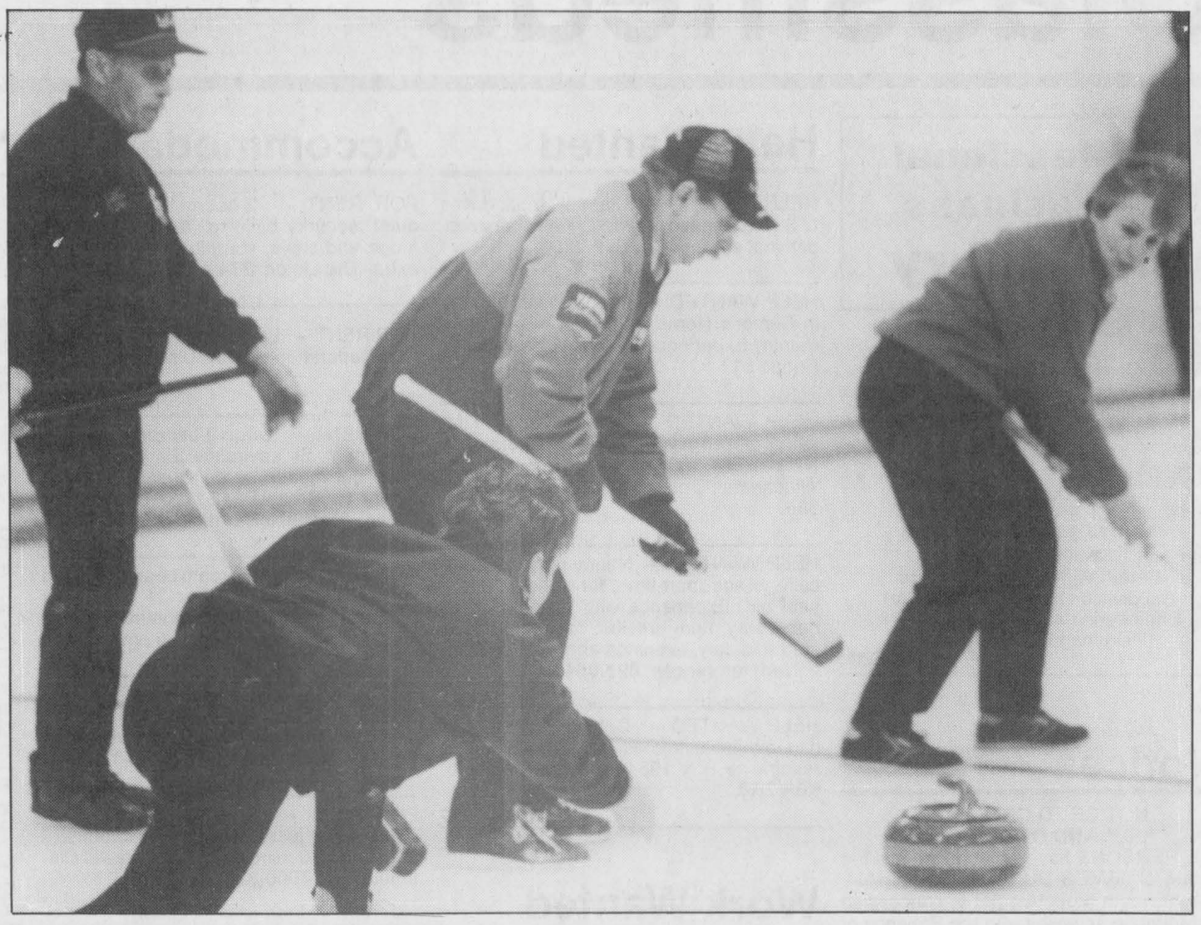
But president Malcolm MacGregor reported at the annual spring meeting (April 15) the club, which enjoyed a slight increase in membership over the previous year, was able to remain in a viable financial position.

Members also learned at the meeting that the header on the brine pump on the artificial ice plant will have to be replaced at a cost of close to $5,000. To offset this capital expenditure, MacGregor reported the executive agreed a $10 increase in the price of memberships ($5 per junior) was necessary.

The club will retain its introductory special of $99 to entice new curlers into the sport. And an Early Bird Special will allow curlers to join for last year's rates, if paid by June 30, 1998.

Two more events will complete the WCC's 1997-98 agenda. This Saturday (April 25) the club will hold its annual Giant Rummage Sale. The Winchester Merchants' Arena Sale will also take place on the same day.

On Sat., May 9 all club members, including juniors, will gather for the closing awards night and banquet. Malcolm MacGregor will then hand over the presidency to Nick Zrymiak who will hold office during the 1998-99 season.



The Winchester Curling Club hosts a number of in-house as well as invitational bonspiels each winter. Lorne Pemberton (left), Jo-Anne McCaslin, Brent Copeland and Bonnie Dingwall took part in the Warden's Bonspiel in March. The awards night and banquet to be held on Sat., May 9, will conclude the club's 1997-98 season.

JUNIOR REPORT

Junior coordinator, Janet LaPierre reported the program had 32 registered and 20 regular curlers taking part each Monday evening. Of the 32, 14 were new and/or little rock graduates.

The Little Rocks program attracted 24 curlers in 1997-98.

Most participated in funspiels, bonspiels and competitive play.. Several teams competed at zone and regional levels in girls, boys and mixed categories.

Winchester curling club was represented at the provincial level in Junior Mixed and Bantam Mixed in Elmira, Gore Mutual School Boys and Gore Mutual School Girls in Gananoque, OFSSA (boys) in Midland and Bantam Girls in Brantford.

Ryan Casselman will receive this year's Junior Curler of the Year and Leslie Levere will receive the Novice Curler Award.

According to LaPierre members of the junior program willing volunteered time and food to the kitchen. She also thanked Kim and Lester McInnis who were successful fundraising for a VCR as well as Merv Patterson and Bob Gibson for their on-ice support.

MONDAY NIGHT

Marion Carkner and Helen Brownell reported there were only seven registered for the 8 pm Monday night draw in the first schedule so four ladies went to the Wednesday night mixed league and the others spared.

Bev MacMartin organized a friendly bonspiel in Morrisburg.

The second schedule carried on with eight ladies forming two teams which competed for three weeks (three weeks were cancelled).

A mixed schedule of four teams was organized by Glen Vasey in February. Skip Robert St. Pierre, Ann Lapier, Stacey Weagant and Kim Williams finished first with 56 points. Phyllis MacMaster, Helen Brownell, Larry Vingerhoeds and Chris Clapp tied with Janet Levere's team of Ed Kent, Bonnie Ralko and Doreen Lamarsh as runners-up with 40 points.

Donna Williams, Don VanHoof and James McLean joined skip Marion Carkner on team four.

SENIORS REPORT

The Senior Men's Draw had 45 curlers take part in four schedules. The WCC hosted nine friendly bonspiel and attended nine more. The WCC also hosted a 12-team Senior Men's Bonspiel.

There were two Senior Mixed schedules played, four teams for the first and one made up as you came. A 12-team Mixed Senior Bonspiel was hosted and four mixed friendly bonspiels attended, two in Metcalfe, one in Russell and one in Manotick.

Rec rambles

by Matt Krisjanis, Director of Recreation and Culture for the Township of North Dundas

Hi sports fans! I must apologize to you all for not having my column ready last week. Time was a factor, and I ran out of it. But on the up side, it would have given you more time to enjoy that beautiful long weekend.

I would like to thank Mark Levere of MDL Lawn Care and Repair for donating his aerator for use on the ball diamonds. This was greatly appreciated and will also improve the shape of the ball diamonds. Thanks Mark.

The men's three-pitch league will be in full swing again this year and they are looking for interested players. If you're up for a little ball and lots of fun, contact Brian at 774-3130.

The Dundas County Players are once again bringing good, quality entertainment for us to enjoy. This time they will be performing a hilarious comedy by Jack Sharkey called "Honestly Now". You can catch this performance on April 24 and 25 at the Upper Canada Playhouse in Morrisburg. Show time is 8 pm. In the next few weeks the Dundas County Players will be performing in Winchester, and I will be keeping you posted on time and dates.

I am saddened to inform you that the grandstand at the Winchester ball diamond is now closed to the public and considered unsafe for use. Due to old age, the ice storm and lack of funds the grandstand will most likely be torn down. We are, however, looking at other options and ways to refurbish the grandstand. If you feel that you can help or if you have some ideas on restoration, please call me at 774-2006.

That's all I have for now, so here's my thought for the week: "Teaching kids to count is fine but teaching them what counts is best."

Thank You

A sincere thank you to all who helped at and following my recent car accident. To the Osgoode Township Fire Department, Chief Gerry Bennet, his crew on site, Mike Lepage, E.T., Pat McGoff, Randy Guy, Dave Carriere, Bernie Visser and Rajes Pagalam, to the paramedics for the preparation care to the hospital, to the Ottawa General Hospital, doctors, surgeons, nurses, to family and friends for their visits, food, flowers, cards and prayers. Your professionalism and your support will never be forgotten.

Sincerely, Brad Fisher

Thank you

Having sold our business to Craig Carruthers, Arden and Loralee Carruthers of Arden's Water Transport, Morewood, Ontario, would like to thank all our customers who have had us fill their pools and wells, etc. over the last 22 years. A heartfelt thank-you to all who called us for water and recommended us to others.

We extend our best wishes to Craig and his family, and trust you will enjoy the good service they are anxious to provide. Please call Craig at 448-1244.

Sincerely,
Arden and Loralee Carruthers

Thank You!

Dave and Sue Hogan and family wish to extend heartfelt thanks to all those who helped us after we lost our home to fire, during the January Ice Storm. Special thanks to Nancy and John Mellan and family, Debbie and Richard Gilmer and family – for taking us into their homes and making us feel so welcome! Also to our good friend and neighbor Catherine Parker, for being on the spot and helping us handle everything.

Special thanks also to Lorne Mellan, for opening his home to everybody offering us assistance the day of the fire, and to Archie and Denise Mellan for taking care of us that day! To Marilyn and Jim Adams for coming up with such a handy place for us to live! To Reverend Georgia Copeland, for your help and strength. To friends, staff and students at Kemptville College for donating dishes and linens, etc. for our "in-between" home, and for holding a benefit Pub Night for us _ also to J&S Disco of Winchester, who provided music at no charge, and to the Horticulture Club at the College, and to Bill Curnoe – thank you all again!

To the children at Dixons Corners Public School for donating their milk money and for other fundraisers in Matilda Township; to Bruce Daley and family and Moira Lundy for organizing, and everyone who attended the benefit dance for us at the R.A. Centre in Ottawa – it was great! To Gary Simser, Jiggers Bar, Iroquois, and the euchre gang – thanks guys! We can't begin to name everyone who has helped us – family, relatives, friends, neighbors and even people we didn't know. But we will remember you always. How nice it is to live in a community with such a big heart!
