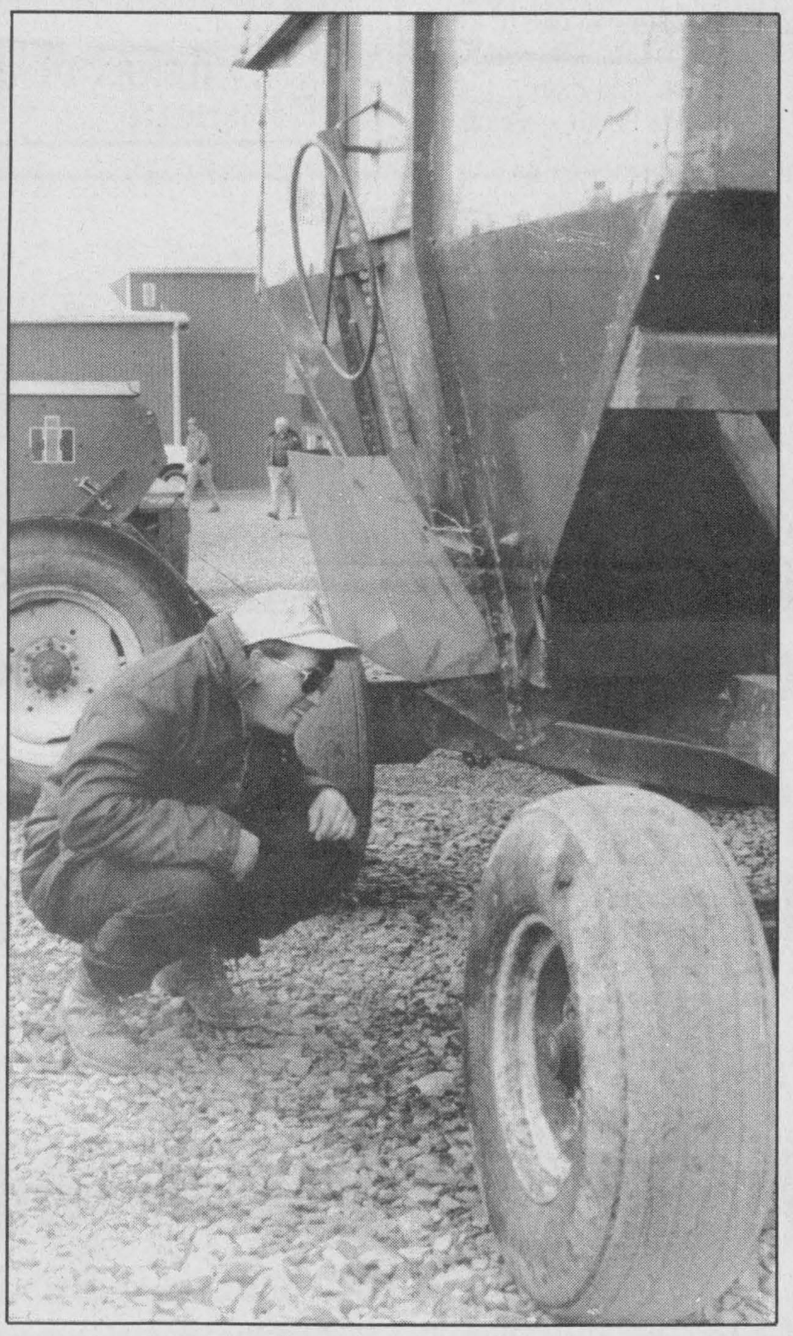
Under the hammer



Dianne Fetterly
Agricultural editor

WINCHESTER — A huge machinery and equipment auction attracted many buyers and browsers alike to Beaudry Farm Supplies Ltd. at the south end of Winchester last Friday.

It was the biggest auction held in Ontario for a while, says Beaudry Farm Supplies sales rep, Steve Brown.

Sunny weather and lots of equipment to view, attracted large crowds with approximately 600 buyers — some from as far away as the east coast of Canada and throughout the United States, he added.

Close to 300 tractors of many makes and models as well as 50 pieces of industrial equipment, and numerous other pieces of farm machinery and parts were auctioned off. Equipment was taken on consignment from across Ontario and Quebec.

Four auctioneers from Ontario, Quebec, New York and Kentucky along with a host of helpers handled the day-long sale.

According to Brown, the success of Friday's sale has prompted Beaudry to consider holding similar sales in the future.

Cooler nights salvage sap run

FINCH — While many were disappointed to see the record high temperatures of early March cool down as the month progressed, maple syrup producers have welcomed the reversal.

A quick thaw means a short season, so the change to cooler weather, stalling the budding of trees, has extended the season longer than many local producers had expected.

Albert Sanders said sap was still running in his sugar bush near Finch on Monday. Earlier in the month he was skeptical about whether he would be able to match last year's collection of 20,000 gallons of sap, but with the change in weather he has managed to tap close to 17,000 gallons so far.

"I thought it would be a disaster but it's really turned around. We're closing in on last year's production. We should get close to that and last year was a good year," predicted Sanders.

"I'm amazed that it's still running," he added. "And it might hang in a little longer yet."

The cool nights, with temperatures dropping below zero, and the slightly warmer days we have been having lately are what makes sap run best.

"They do need those cold nights," said Ruth Stanley, whose sons were busy at Stanley's Olde Maple Lane Farm near Edwards last Tuesday.

"Last Saturday was a really good day. It will probably be a short season, but at least they got in one good run."

Stanley thought the season was nearing an end last week, but she noted it is a rather unpredictable business.

At the nearby Pattersons Maple Products Ford Patterson, who remembers another early warm spell in the spring of 1946, stays philosophical about the process.

"I can live with the changes from one year to the next. That's the challenge of working in a natural environment. We enjoy whatever nature throws at us."

Ethanol shares reach $1M mark

CORNWALL — The one million dollars invested in Seaway Valley Farmers Energy Co-operative's ethanol plant went into the bank last week.

"The first million dollars is great news for Eastern and Central Ontario agricultural producers, suppliers and investors," Co-op president Bud Atkins said today. "It confirms the confidence we knew investors would show in this high-quality ethanol plant. And if the acceleration in investment continues moving towards half-a-million dollars a week, the second million dollars is just around the corner."

The investment campaign is raising equity for a new $40-million-plus ethanol plant the Co-op is planning for Cornwall.

To date, the Co-op has more than doubled its membership with common share investors opting for voting power and plant value appreciation. Preferred A investors continue to subscribe for the strong rate of return on investment.

Workshop answers forestry questions

KEMPTVILLE — Want to branch out, but not sure how? Get all your forestry questions answered at the Trees for All Seasons Workshop.

On Sat., April 8 at Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology, a workshop will be held for landowners interested in a variety of forestry topics, including: spring plantings, windbreaks, trees for wildlife, field crops, shoreline plantings and more. The day will be filled with field trips, seminars, videos, and displays. There will be something for everyone.

This workshop is an excellent opportunity for landowners to network with other landowners and technical staff from agencies including the Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs, Ministry of Natural Resources, and local Conservation Authorities.

Space is limited! To register for this one-day event, call the Landowner Resource Centre at 1- 800-387-5304 (free in the 613 area code) or 613- 692-2390. There is a registration fee of $15 per person or $25 per couple. This fee includes lunch and transportation to field trip sites. Participants should be prepared for indoor and outdoor instruction.

SPENCERVILLE — Winners of Spencerville Fair's mammoth pumpkin contest over the past two years set two new world records. Enter the contest that started it all!

In order to enter you must buy a pack of seeds from the Spencerville Agriculture Society before the end of April. This year the "Queen of the Pumpkin Patch" will be crowned during the fair.

Seeds are available from the following sources: Walter Froom in Shanly, Cleary's Home Hardware, Dixie & Egan Feeds, and Baker Fuels in Spencerville, Beach Home Hardware in Prescott, Co- op in Brockville, Country Road Nursery on North Augusta Road, Jim Sayeur at Cardinal Starch and Shanly Road Building Supplies in Cardinal, the Heckston Store, Bill Horner - Matilda Township Office, and Rooney's Feeds, Co-op and Harvex in Kemptville. Seed proceeds make up the prize money.

See you at the 1995 Spencerville Fair.

South Dundas Dairy Club organizes

by Lindsay Smith

SOUTH DUNDAS — On March 25, South Dundas Dairy Club held its first meeting. We elected as our president Stephanie Devries, vice-president Jeffrey Adamson, secretary Meghan Gilmer, press reporter Lindsay Smith and youth leaders Kylie Adams and Meghan Gilmer.

Other members are Kathrine Adams, Lindsay Mellan, Jennifer Mellan, Christopher Mellan, Joanna Gilmer, Amber Devries, Jessica Edwards, Todd Edwards, Richard Groniger, Bryan Groniger and Cindy Glauser.

Korinne Hutt and Tammy Henderson had some games for us to play.

Our leaders are Robert Byvelds, John Mellan, Mike Farlinger and Tia Edwards. Our theme this year is Management and Marketing.

West Dundas Dairy begins

by Kelly Fawcett

WINCHESTER — The first meeting of the West Dundas Dairy Club was held on Wed., March 29, at the OMAFRA office in Winchester. With 11 keen and extremely active members plus one of the two leaders, our club started off with a bang, followed by the 4-H pledge. After the pledge was recited, everyone introduced themselves and said their age.

Leader Keith Rooke then opened the floor for nominations of executives. Robert Velthuis was named president, followed by Steve Bossel as vice- president. Jody Gannon was given the secretary privileges and Kelly Fawcett became press reporter.

This year our leaders will be Neil Kittle and Keith Rooke along with three youth leaders being Steve Bossel, Jodi Gannon and Kelly Fawcett. Keith Rooke then read and explained the meeting information. The topic was Back to the Future. With lots of questions and extremely full answers, it was no doubt in many minds that this year will be very active, exciting, and interesting.

Everyone then took part in a discussion on how our club could possibly help 4-H with some fundraising this year. Many great ideas were brought up and one of them should be put to work in the later part of spring. We will hopefully be holding a car wash.

At 8:57 our new president, Robert Velthuis, adjourned the meeting.

The next meeting will be hosted by the Velthuis family on April 18 at 7:30 pm. New members still welcome.

Pony club recycles equine equipment

KEMPTVILLE — The Oxford Downs Pony Club's first used tack and clothing sale on Sat., April 1 at Rooney Feeds in South Gower was very well received.

The Oxford Downs Pony Club gives area children and young adults the opportunity to develop their skills in riding and horsemanship as well as horse care and management. Not only that — they have a lot of fun as they learn. The pony club offers them educational, recreational and social activities such as shows, clinics, rallies, quizzes, competitions and a series of tests to gauge their progress through the pony club levels.

Kids love pony club because it gives them a real handle on riding.

The parents go a step further in their appreciation because the pony club also promotes responsibility, sportsmanship and citizenship — qualities that all parents want their children to acquire.

The Elchris Horse Trials is the club's other fundraiser which will be held on July 9 in Kemptville.

The pony club sincerely thanks everyone who has supported Oxford Downs and especially to Rooney Feeds for their assistance.

For more information about Oxford Downs Pony Club activities and membership contact Ellen Sylvester, district commissioner at 774-2193 or Wendy Catherwood, treasurer, at 258-3080.

Biotin important for healthy hooves

by Andrew Droppo

Over the last while, a number of horse owners have asked for biotin for a problem with cracking hoofs.

Biotin is synthesized by microorganisms in the intestinal tract of the adult horse. No verified studies have been published establishing a dietary biotin requirement above that supplied through digestion. Researchers do know there is a connection between dietary biotin and hoof strength. The use of biotin supplements for hoof conformation throughout the livestock industry is widespread.

Although the availability of biotin in barley, sorghum grain and wheat appears to be lower than that in corn, biotin availability in these grains has not been established for the horse.

Published reports claim an improvement in hoof quality from feeding 10 to 30 mg of biotin each day for six to nine months.

The adult horse will produce biotin on its own and all feed companies add biotin to the horse feeds. Judging one feed to another on the basis of biotin levels is a deceiving comparison since to date, no one knows how much they should have. There are other nutritional factors that are simply more important.

If you are having a problem with your horse's hooves and you are feeding a good quality hay/pasture, grain ration, you might try a biotin supplement to aid solid connective hoof tissue regrowth.

...even a little regular physical activity makes a healthy difference.

Obedient canines

Obedience school grads master course

Dianne Fetterly
Agricultural editor

WINCHESTER — Who says you can't teach an old dog new tricks?

Any dog can be obedient and well-trained provided his/her owner learns how to properly train a dog, says Rose Hennin, the co-ordinator of local dog obedience classes.

While the program is looking primarily at dogs over six months of age, four-month-olds are accepted provided they have all their vaccinations.

A dog's age is not a major factor in how well or quickly they learn. Dogs of any age can learn, provided their owners themselves learn the proper methods of training them, says Hennin. The oldest dog trained so far is a five- year-old, explained Hennin, who works at the Dundas Veterinary Services.

The weekly obedience classes are instructed by Carol and Peter Brecbill, who operate a dog kennel in the Ormond area.

Training sessions are an hour per week for 10 weeks, with some extra practice at home. There are classes for beginners as well as the more experienced students. Intermediate classes brush up on skills learned in beginner classes as well as off-leash work.

Graduates of the obedience school learn to sit, come, stay, lie down, heel on leash, perform one-minute sit/stay and three minute down/stay intervals on command. Besides voice commands, dog owners also learn how to use hand signals, says Hennin.

A series of dog obedience classes just wrapped up last month. However, another class is set to begin tonight (April 5) and another later this fall. Up to 15 dogs are accepted per class.

For information on dog obedience classes contact the Dundas Veterinary Services at 774-2159.

Friends organize first wildlife day

Liz Edwards
Press Staff Reporter

MORRISBURG — A new volunteer group wants more members to flock together at the Upper Canada Bird Sanctuary near Morrisburg.

So the Friends of the Sanctuary is holding a wildlife day April 9, which will include events such as nature walks, a video presentation, displays and other activities from 12 noon to 4 pm at the sanctuary's interpretative centre. The day will correspond with National Wildlife Week April 9 to 15.

Gail Aylward, a member of the group which formed last fall, says the park is under utilized and the Friends group wants to change that.

"We're hoping to promote it more. It's a beautiful place to go. I live across from the sanctuary. I can walk, ski or bike through it," she says.

About 22,000 visitors came to the 9,000 hectare park in 1994 but Parks of the St. Lawrence spokesperson Gabriel Thomas says it could be used more frequently on a year-round basis.

Originally established in 1961 for hunters and fishers, the park offers more than 8 km of self- guided nature trails, from wetlands to upland areas. Waterfowl banding is one of its major programs as the sanctuary is a resting station for migrating geese and other birds.

The Friends group has between 10 to 15 members but is holding a general information meeting for anyone interested in joining at the sanctuary interpretative centre on April 27, starting at 7 pm. Membership is free.

The Sanctuary is offering outdoor learning programs to groups starting May 1 to June 30. Programs such as bat presentations, decoy carving workshops and canoe tours are scheduled throughout the summer. The season ends Oct. 15 with the sanctuary's 5th Annual Waterfowl Day.

Rural child safety focus of FSA drive

GUELPH — The launch of the 1995 theme project on Rural Child Safety was one of the highlights at the Farm Safety Association's 22nd annual conference held in Toronto on March 13.

Dr. Richard Clark of Ohio State University spoke on developmental characteristics of children and age — appropriate tasks in the agricultural workplace.

Marilyn Adams of Farm Safety 4 Just Kids, Earlham, Iowa and Diane Mauthe of the Waldersee, Manitoba, Chapter of Farm Safety 4 Just Kids talked about how they became involved with promoting safety with children in the rural environment.

Bryan Jones of Paisley, Ont., and Mike Irwin of Aylmer, Ont., covered the new Ontario Farmers with Disabilities Program and the progress which the organization is making.

Murray Hastings of Wingham, Ont., recounted a farm accident in which he became trapped in a baler for over six hours and how it dramatically changed his life. Duncan Conquergood of Sarnia, Ont. spoke of an accident which left 85 per cent of his body severely burned.

The Honorable Elmer Buchanan, Minister of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs addressed the delegates at the Conference.

This year's conference was held in conjunction with the Ontario Agricultural Human Resource Committee's Forum.

Township seniors hold March meeting

by Jean Casselman

WILLIAMSBURG — On Tues., March 20, the Williamsburg Township seniors group enjoyed a tasty noon dinner, with 30 members attending.

Vice-president Ed Thompson opened the meeting with O Canada.

All reports were heard. The correspondence included a letter from the Dundas County Hospice. The secretary reported that the Morrisburg Legion seniors accept our invitation to a lunch on April 15 at 12:30 pm, and an afternoon of cards. Plans were arranged for the occasion. "Happy Birthday" was sung to all celebrating March birthdays.

The guest speaker for the program was unable to attend, so Jean Casselman gave a reading entitled The Goose Story and the remainder of the video of "Old Aultsville" was shown.

Cards and visiting were enjoyed during the remainder of the afternoon. We invite new members to come and join our group.

Carleton County Fires of 1870

In August of 1870, forest fires swept through Carleton County destroying homesteads, barns and livestock. Some people died and thousands were left homeless. The townships of Huntley, Torbolton, Fitzroy, March, Goulbourn, Nepean and Gloucester were described in news dispatches as being engulfed in one huge blaze. At one point, the City of Ottawa was threatened with destruction. Most wildfires were caused by settlers burning brush.

Things have changed over the past 125 years, but wildfires are still a threat to our forests, rural areas and homes.

Remember, only you can prevent wildfires!

Card of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS — We wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to all our friends, neighbors and family for their visits, cards, flowers and memorial contributions to charity in memory of our husband/father Charles D. McLaughlin. Special thanks to Rev. de Bruijn, the church soloist, choir and organist. We would also like to thank the Morewood Presbyterian Ladies Aid for the lovely luncheon. We wish to extend our thank you to the staff at the WDMH, Civic Hospital, Red Cross and Paramed Nurses. Your thoughtfulness will be appreciated in the days to come.
— The McLaughlin Family

CARD OF THANKS — A very big thank you to Dr. Burke, nurses and staff on second floor at Winchester Hospital for the good care and attention given me while I was in hospital, also my appreciation to Dr. Hradecky, nurses and staff at Queensway Carleton Hospital. I cannot thank Maureen Wayne and family enough for all they have done for me and Bill, we will never forget their kindness, also thank you to my many friends for visits and cards. Thank you all very much.
— Edith Riches

Card of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS — The family of the late Ada Thompson, who passed away March 21, 1995, would like to thank relatives, neighbors and friends, for their visits, cards, floral tributes and donations made in Ada's name, also for food sent in and especially for those who looked after and served lunch following the service. It was greatly appreciated. Special thank you goes out to Dr. Don Merrett, the whole staff of the Township of Osgoode Care Centre, who were so very kind and caring and helped mother in many ways. To Pastor Archie Robertson of Trinity Bible Church, for his kind words of comfort which will be cherished always, and to Chris Duncan and his staff for the kind and efficient manner in which they carried out their duties. You have our gratitude for all your efforts in consoling our hearts. Please accept this as a personal thanks to everyone.
— Freda and Rocky Lombardo and family; Daisy and Norman Robinson and family

CARD OF THANKS — A sincere thanks to my family, friends and neighbors for their good wishes, flowers, cards, visits and phone calls while I was a patient in WDMH and in Brockville General Hospital and since returning home. Thank you to Dr. Justus and Dr. Steele and the nurses on the surgical floor and to Dr. Thompson and staff in Brockville for the care I received there. Thank you all.
— Robert C. Holmes

CARD OF THANKS — We would like to thank friends and neighbors for the thoughts of kindness, cards, food and donations given in the memory of Bill. A special thanks to Rev. George Bruce, Dr. Trahan, the WDMH staff, and those who helped with transportation. Your kindness will long be remembered.

In Memoriam

MERKLEY — In loving memory of a dear mother, grandmother, and great grandmother, Nina, who passed away March 17, 1975, and our dear father, grandfather and great grandfather, Harold E. who passed away April 11, 1990.
Today, tomorrow, our whole life through
We will always love and remember you.
— Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by: Muriel, Jean, Elmer and Marjorie, Verna, Dwayne and Sheryl, Helen and Garry, Carol and Gary, and families

PATENAUDE — In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, Armand, who passed away April 5, 1993.
Your end was very sudden,
You made us weep and cry,
But the saddest part, dear Dad,
You never said goodbye.
To be together in the same old way,
Would be our greatest wish today,
No one knows the grief we share
When we are all together and you're not there.
But if tears could build a stairway,
And memories build a lane,
We would walk all the way to heaven
And bring you back again.
But since this precious dream of ours
Can never more come true
We cherish now the memory of yesterday and you.
— Irene, Hector, Fernand, Richard, Rita and families

IN MEMORIAM

PORTEOUS

In loving memory of our dear parents and grandparents, Bertha, who passed away April 9, 1978, and Ralph, who passed away April 25, 1989.

Memories can bring happiness
When together we recall
Special mementos shared as family
So treasured by us all.
Memories can bring sadness
With pain and sorrow too,
As we long for things to be the same
As when they were shared with you.
But the joys we shared together,
Are the memories we hold dear,
And the love and happiness you gave us,
Keep you forever near.

—Remembered, missed and loved always, Your Family

Thank you

I would like to thank my friends and neighbors and all who visited me while I was in the hospital. Special thanks to Dr. Slowey and the nurses on third floor. Also when I got home the Canadian Legion Branch 108 gave me a card signed by everyone and a beautiful fruit basket.

Authorities take over septic inspections

By Chris Bridgen

OSGOODE – Despite questions about a huge jump in fees, Osgoode Township backed a decision for the local conservation authorities to take over septic system inspections in the area.

The move by the province to download the service on local authorities means the cost will jump from its current $36 to $250 beginning April 1.

Concerned about the sudden jump in costs and what he considered a too-quick implementation of the plan, Coun. Doug Thompson dissented as council voted 3-1 in favor.

Councillors in Rideau Township also objected to the increase, and the lack of publicity about the change.

Representatives of the South Nation River Conservation Authority (SNRCA) and Rideau Valley Conservation Authority (RVCA) told councillors that the sudden succession from the province to local authorities caught them off guard as well. They learned of the news recently.

"We submitted a proposal to the Ministry of Environment and Energy in the fall of 1994, and ours was the only one to go forward," said Del Hallet of the RVCA. At one time, the region's environmental services department expressed interest in taking over the septic system service, but declined to submit a bid.

Under RVCA control, septic permit applications and inspections will be administered from the offices in Manotick, and to a lesser extent from the SNRCA office in Berwick. Fees for installation rise by 700 per cent, and new fees to review septic system capability are being charged to development lands. Those fees are $75 per lot per subdivision, $100 per lot per severance, $40 for a minor variance clearance and $100 to ask advice after a lot inspection.

For the new prices, consumers will receive local control of septic inspection, week-long service from the current one-day-a-week inspections, and three inspections of your system before, during and after installation.

Hallet said the fee hikes are just a way of making the system user pay, and of equalling prices across the province.

"The regional municipality is one of the last areas to have these costs subsidized. The rest of the province operates on a user-pay system," he said.

Thompson says he has deep reservations because the news was given in such short notice. The new fee structure goes into place April 1. By not warning people earlier about the price hike, Thompson said new homeowners are being hit with another service charge without time to prepare.

"I think that the RVCA screwed up on this one. I was asking him (Hallet) questions that he couldn't answer about the fees and when the charges would go into effect, yet he was asking us to vote on the issue," he said.

Thompson said the new fees should have been delayed a month so more information about the changes could be circulated. In the motion to accept, Coun. Dale Harley suggested the fee structure could be reviewed in one year. That suggestion was accepted by council.
