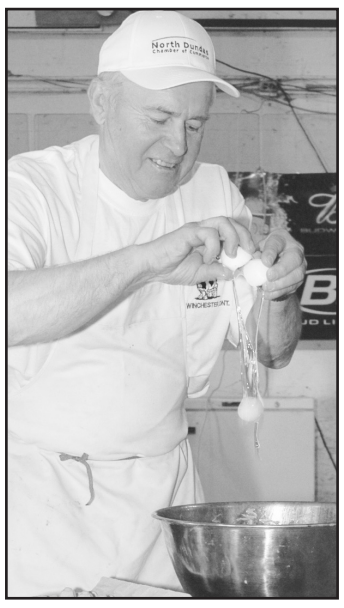
WANTED

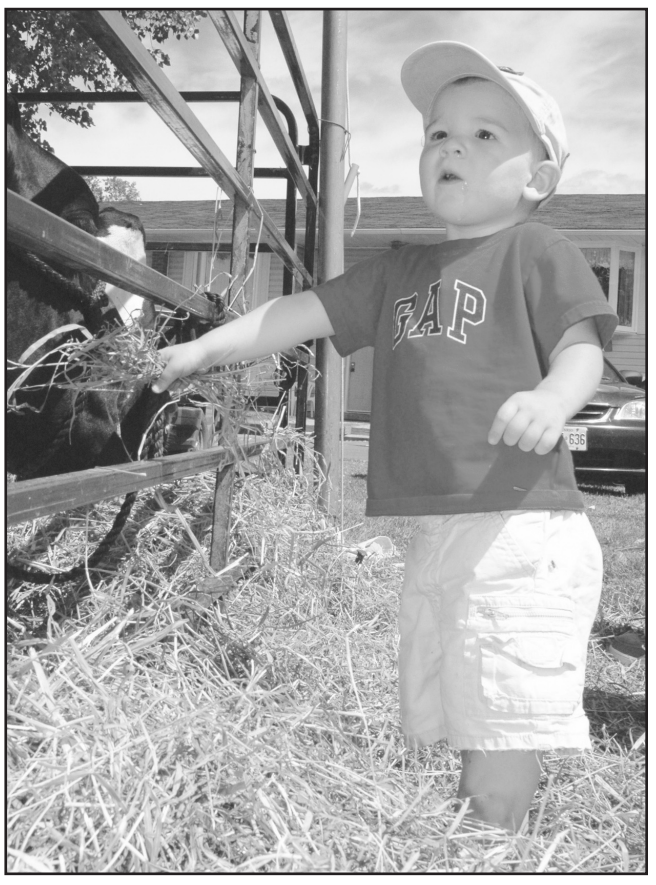
We Are Currently Looking Ahead To Buy Year 2007 First Cut Timothy and Timothy Alfalfa Hay in Small Square Bales

Quick List of Guidelines for Small Square Bales

1) Bales need to be 36"-38" in length.
2) Bales need to weigh 48-52 lbs. when going into the barn.
3) Bale must moisture test no more than 15% moisture in bale in order to store properly.
4) Bales must be a consistent size and be piled on edge in mow to keep a good square form.
5) An option is to put a hay pin on baler plunger to put a hole in the bales.
6) To minimize handling, store hay in a building that has good easy access for loading the trailer.
7) Extra wedges in bale chamber of baler to ensure well-formed bales while baling.
8) Get hay inside building as soon as possible to prevent discoloration of hay.

Our markets are changing and we are now looking for hay that is 90% or more timothy with balance 10% orchard grass. So if you are growing hay for resale market and planting new seeding this year, we suggest the 90% timothy and 10% orchard mixture.





There's fun for the whole family at the annual Winchester Dairyfest celebrations, set to take place this year Aug. 11, 12, and 13. Dairyfest not only helps promote the heritage of the Dairy Capital of Ontario, but is a chance local residents to come together and have some summer fun. For a full schedule of events during the 19th annual event, see page 16. Photos — Duncan, Barbour

Dairyfest supports food bank

WINCHESTER — Dairyfest is just around the corner. As organizers iron out all the final details, residents are gearing up for a weekend of fun on Aug. 10, 11, and 12. There's still time to get involved in activities ranging from the strongman contest and RBC Ribfest to the Amazing Race.

"Last year was a pivotal changing year for bringing Dairyfest back to its roots," said organizer John Orton. He said that again in 2007, "the concentration will be on kids, community, and stuff to do."

This year, the Dairyfest committee has partnered with the Dundas County Food Bank to collect funds and food. Collection bins will be set up at all three entrance gates to Sunday's activities at the Winchester Community Centre, and anyone who donates food or cash will be entered into a draw. Though the prize has yet to be determined, organizers say "it will be a good one."

While any non-perishable food item will be greatly appreciated, the food bank shelves are in dire need of baby items (diapers, wipes, etcetera) as well.

Friday night's Dairyfest activities will kick off with an age-of-majority dance, running from 9 pm to 1 am featuring Ransom. As well, Chesterville resident Miranda Glen will be directing The Ugly Duckling (with no relation to the Hans Christian Andersen story), written by Winnie the Pooh author A. A. Milne. The play, which will feature local young thespians, will run twice at the Old Town Hall: Fri., Aug 10 at 8 pm and Sat., Aug 11 at 2 pm.

"This play is equally suitable for adults and children," said Glen. "It's like a spoof on a fairytale. It kind of reminds me of Shrek — half the joke the adults get, half the jokes the kids get."

Saturday's celebrations will kick off bright and early at the fire hall (on Clarence Street at St. Lawrence Street) with the Firefighters' Breakfast at 6:30 am — and thankfully, for Dairyfest celebrants who pale at the prospect of getting up that early, firefighters will continue to cook until 11 am. The merchants' and crafters' sidewalk sale will start at 8 am at the intersections of Main and St. Lawrence Streets. An hour later at 9 am, the opening ceremonies of Winchester Dairyfest will occur at the main stage downtown. After that, the stage will feature live entertainment until 4:30 pm.

Returning to Dairyfest this year is the Amazing Race, based on the reality television show of the same name. Starting on Sat., July 11 at 9:30 am, the event will see 16 teams of two compete for the grand prize: a trip provided by Winchester Travel, worth over $3,000.

Don't forget to check out the cultural display at the Old Town Hall, the RBC Ribfest, and the Canadian Club barbecue dinner at the Curling Club running from 4:30 to 7:30 pm. Saturday's events will conclude with Dairyfest's second dance, featuring BlackBoard Nails, running from 9 pm to 1 am.

Sunday will open with municipal politicians serving their constituents breakfast from 9 to 11 am at the arena. There will be a fresh line-up of entertainment at the mainstage of the Winchester 100 Club Community Park.

While many old favourite attractions — including the Parmalat dairy and cheese-tasting display upstairs at the community centre — will be returning to the park on Sunday, some new activities have been added to the Dairyfest activity list. New options include a pool for paddleboats (open to children aged two to 12), a slingshot "reverse bungee" ride, and a laser quest maze. Familiar activities will include a rock-climbing wall (also open on Saturday), mini-golf, and the ever-popular mechanical bull.

The annual beach volleyball tournament will start at 10 am. Don't forget to check out the Life of Reilley Petting Zoo, Little Ray's Reptile Zoo, the old-fashioned picnic, and a performance by the OPP Pipes and Drum Band.

The antique tractor display will culminate with a tractor parade at 3 pm.

"It's a display, not a show," emphasized organizer "Farmer John" Cinnamon, encouraging tractor owners to bring out their old workhorses as well as their restored machines. "We take them in by Dundas Manor during the parade. The residents love to see them. It's very rewarding."

If you're getting peckish around dinner, the United Church will serve a "cold-plate supper" at the Curling Club. And finally, of course, the fireworks display will sum up the festivities at 9:30 pm behind the arena.
