MORRISBURG COLLEGIATE CAPTURES COVETED TROPHY

Gib Coons Sets Pace for Locals

MEIKLE CUP RETURNS HOME FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 1923.

In sensational fashion, Morrisburg Collegiate came from behind to win the Gerald Meikle Memorial Trophy for the first time since 1923, at the Meet held at Cornwall Athletic Grounds on Friday last.

There were over five hundred spectators on hand, comprising mostly fans from the different schools competing. Morrisburg had a large number of supporters present, who, after the scintilating performances of their stars, paraded up Second and Pitt streets with Coons and Utman, the men of the moment, perched high on their shoulders.

Three Firsts for Coons

Gilbert Coons was the star of the meet. Notwithstanding that he was handicapped by a severe cold, he set the pace for the local athletes, taking first in the 100 yds., the 440 yds., the Broad Jump, and Second in the hurdles, for a total of 18 points. Keith Utman got third in the 440, Florence Weir was high scorer for the girls, taking first in the 75 yd. dash and Pam Garland added two points with a third in the same event. Pam also won second in the Girl's High Jump, an open event.

440 Decides Issue

Trailing Cornwall Collegiate by a few points throughout the meet, Morrisburg had two entries, Coons and Utman, in the final event, the Sr. Boy's 440 yd. dash. David Melvin, Winchester's star, set the pace, taking an early lead. Staying behind until the half way mark, Gib began to bear down, and putting on a final sprint in the last 100 yards, won an easy first, tying Morrisburg and Cornwall for points. Young Keith Utman, who has a very promising future in athletics, followed Gib's lead, and sprinted down the final stretch, coming from near last place to third, to win the final two points which spelled victory for the M.C.I., with an aggregate of 27 points.

Girls Win 7 points.

Although Gib Coons was highest individual scorer, and Keith Utman won the final two points which brought the cup to it's 'native' town and showered glory upon the local athletes, the staff and the institution, a great deal of credit is also due to Florence Weir who won first, and to Pam Garland who won third, in the Girl's 75 yd. Dash. This is the only girl's event which counts in Meikle competition, and, although the competition was very keen, the local girls made an excellent showing, gathering seven out of a possible ten points.

Cornwall Collegiate came second, winning the Smith Trophy, with a total of 25 points. Winchester was third with 16 points, Iroquois next, with two points, and Maxville failed to score a point. A total of 58 athletes took part in the meet.

In the evening, a banquet was tendered the athletes by Knox church, and the Meikle Cup was presented to Gilbert Coons on behalf of the Morrisburg Collegiate. The Smith Trophy was presented to Seymour on behalf of the Cornwall school. The McGuire Trophy was presented to the winner of the Jr. 100 yds. dash, Robt. Kilgour. Medals were presented to G. Campbell, Ken Boyd, D. Lowe, Pam Garland, H. Kennedy.

Speakers during the evening were A. Caldwell, Principal of the C.C.V.S., who acted as master of ceremonies; M.A. Epplett, Principal of the Morrisburg Collegiate; Miss Stewart, of the Staff of the Winchester High school; F. Hardy, of the Maxville High school; and Rev. Jas. Faulds, Cornwall.

Mr. Caldwell lauded the Morrisburg team for winning the meet, and pointed out that it was fitting that the cup should return to the home of the donor, Mr. Geo. H. Meikle, of Morrisburg. He congratulated the staff and pupils of the Morrisburg school in their victory.

There were seven events in Meikle competition, and two open events. Following is a list of the results:

Meikle Events (Boys).

LOCAL RIFLE CLUB ENTERED IN COMPETITION

One team, representing the Morrisburg Rifle and Pistol Club carries the Morrisburg colours in the 1938 Dominion Marksmen .22 Sporting Rifle Championship Competition, the largest rifle match of its kind ever to be held in Canada. On the entry of this club hangs Morrisburg's hopes for attaining the coveted Dominion Marksmen Challenge Shield, emblematic of the .22 calibre sporting rifle championship of Canada.

From the total entry list of well over a thousand marksmen representing points as far distant as Yellowknife, N.W.T., nine five-man teams will be declared as provincial champions in the first round of the match which closes on November 1, and these teams will be eligible to compete in the final round.

Designed to appeal to the many sporting rifle enthusiasts in the Dominion, who, prior to the advent of the competition, indulged in the haphazard potting of impromptu targets over the countryside, this supervised shooting event unveiled some remarkable talent when innovated last year. Defending the Dominion title which they captured in 1937 will be the Sunny Brae Rifle Club of Moncton, N.B., who catapulted from obscurity to fame under the direction of Rev. G.S. Beckett, when they turned in a perfect score in the final round of last year's competition to defeat such service units as the "K" Division of the R.C.M.P., at Edmonton and the 4 Towers Miniature Rifle and Revolver Association of St. Vincent de Paul, Quebec.

Three matches over a twenty-yard range will be shot by each team competing in the opening round, and a trophy will be awarded to the team from each province making the highest aggregate score. From these provincial champions will be decided the winner of the Dominion Marksmen Challenge Trophy by a further series of matches to be shot after November 1st.

The personnel of the Morrisburg team is as follows: Messrs. H. Meikle, M. Ball, G. Baker, L. Deeks, C. Weegar, A. Agulnik and Dr. Currie.

INSTITUTE FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS

Next Thursday, October 13th, at Dundela United Church, an Institute for all teachers and officers of United Church Sunday Schools throughout the Dundas-Grenville Presbytery will be held. The Institute will commence at 2.30 o'clock and will continue through the afternoon and evening. The Book Steward of the United Church of Canada will be present. Also the National Boys' Work Secretary Rev. D. T. I. Forsyth and the Girls' Work Secretary, Miss Ross. Rev. Kenneth Beaton will also lead in Missionary Education.

The programme will be given over to the presentation of ways in which Sunday School work can be deepened. We are in the midst of an advance movement in Sunday School work and this Institute should give practical help to many teachers and officers.

Supper will be seved by the Ladies of Dundela United Church.

EZRA CASSELMAN DRUGGIST FOR 54 YEARS

Mr. Casselman, referred to in the following article, is a former Morrisburg boy, who started his successful career with the late Levi Selleck, of Morrisburg. The article is taken from "The Winnipeg Tribune."

"Fifty four years of continuous drug store service at Emerson stand to the credit of E. Casselman, constituting in this way a record for probably the whole of Canada, and this veteran pharmacist is still on the job operating one of Manitoba's finest drug stores and giving unexcelled service in all branches of the business. Special emphasis is laid on the prompt and accurate compounding of prescriptions. The complete stock includes sick room and hospital supplies, patents, toiletries and perfumes candies, kodaks, souvenirs, fancy English china, imported pipes and other sundries. During his long residence, Mr. Casselman's good citizenship has been evidenced by much public service among other things as mayor of Emerson for twelve years."

THANKSGIVING DINNER

Some Recipes for Which to be Thankful

Besides being generally thankful at Thanksgiving time, it's a personal opportunity to be thankful for our blessings. Even cynics who think they have nothing for which to be thankful, can be glad that their lot is no worse and those whose lot is so bad that it couldn't be worse, can be thankful for that too. If those are not enough good reasons for thankfulness, we are giving you one by planning your menu for Thanksgiving dinner which will remove that problem from your mind.

COCONUT STUFFING

2 bouillon cubes (chicken flavor)
1 cup milk, scalded
1 cup soft bread crumbs
2 cups coconut, premium shred
4 tablespoons celery, finely cut (or ¼ teaspoon celery salt)
1½ tablespoons parsley, finely cut
¼ teaspoon sage
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon scraped onion
1 egg, slightly beaten
2 tablespoons melted butter

Dissolve bouillon cubes in hot milk. Combine with remaining ingredients, mixing lightly. Use for stuffing turkey, duck, goose, pork, veal or chicken.

DOWN-SOUTH BISCUITS

4 cups sifted cake flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
¾ cup lard
¾ cup buttermilk or sour milk.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, soda and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Add milk gradually until soft dough is formed. Turn on floured board and knead lightly 2 minutes. Roll ¼ inch thick; cut with small floured cutter. Bake in shallow pan in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 12 minutes. Makes 2½ dozen biscuits.

CRANBERRY MOLD

1 pkg. lemon jelly powder
1½ cups warm water
½ cup celery, finely cut
½ cup canned crushed pineapple
1 cup thick cranberry sauce, sweetened.

Dissolve jelly powder in warm water. Chill. When slightly thickened, add celery, pineapple and cranberry sauce. Turn into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Garnish with mayonnaise. Or serve plain as relish. Serves 6.

PUMPKIN PIE

Pastry for 9-inch pie
1½ cups coconut, premium shred
2 cups cooked mashed pumpkin
1 cup sugar
½ teaspoon mace
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon allspice
3 tablespoons melted butter
3 eggs, slightly beaten
2 cups milk, scalded

Line a 9-inch pie plate with pastry, rolled to ⅛-inch thickness. Combine ingredients in order given and mix thoroughly. Pour into pie shell. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 20 minutes, then decrease heat to moderate (350 degrees F.) and bake 30 minutes longer.

"Sportsman Flies High"

by Lawrence Keating

CHAPTER I

Dan Colwell sat in his cubby-hole office with chair tilted back, feet on the cigarette-marred oak desk, perusing the morning News. A second time he read the item in th Around Town column which stated that Otto Graber, president of the Graber-Vael Detective Agency, was leaving today for Ewing, Pennsylvania, on a two-week hunting trip. "Sportsman," the columnist described him, "and aviation enthusiast. Mr. Graber pilots his own monoplane."

Dan squinted thoughtfully at the north wall as if to peer through it into the office of his superior. So Otto was going away . . . hunting? Very convenient, he reflected, and very wise of Otto.

The president's secretary paused in the doorway. "Mr. Graber wants you. There's a Mrs. McDonald with him. Probably expects you to frame her husband with some chorus cutie for a divorce. Poor papa!"

He twisted around with a grin but the girl was gone into the quarters of the other partner, taciturn Horace Vael. Colwell squinted a last time at the newspaper piece about Graber, lifted his feet from the desk, and rose. He hesitated a moment, conscious of a sense of expectancy that speeded his pulse. A good deal depended on the next few minutes. Dan had waited for this day through months of sordid divorce build-ups and jewel guarding assignments at the lavish balls of the Four Hundred. But this was not to be another dreary evidence hunt for the Court of Domestic Relations—nor any other court in the County Building.

Door Marked "Private"

Colwell went down the brief corridor and knocked on the door that bore Otto Graber's name and the warning Private. He twisted the knob and entered. "You want me, Chief?"

Graber's stocky, Teutonic form was hunched well back in his chair, his powerful, pudgy hands laced over his stomach. He unclasped his fingers to scratch in his blond stubble of hair as he swung to Dan. "Right." With sudden remembrance of courtesy Otto hoisted himself out of the chair. He gestured to his visitor, and following the movement Colwell saw a young woman in a trim dark suit with a flaring white bow at her throat, a fox scarf draped carelessly over narrow shoulders, a saucy little monkey hat.

"Mrs. McDonald, Mr. Colwell. Wife of Arthur McDonald, the lawyer, Dan."

He bowed and smiled. She was a stunning woman of twenty-five or so, a woman he would turn to watch if he passed her on the street. Her complexion was creamy, her mouth small and red and luscious as those Bing cherries that come in spring from California. Under a fringe of dark hair Colwell found wide brown eyes that were steady and warm, interesting eyes that held his until with a slight sensation of giddiness, he broke the spell.

She turned to Graber who had quickly sat down again. "You're sure this man is the very best obtainable?"

"Sit down, Dan. Ain't you the best private operative in town?"

"Certainly." He drew up a chair and lowered his solid five foot eleven frame noiselessly as a cat.

Graber laughed: it sounded a little forced. He flung a hand in the direction of two suitcases strapped and ready on the floor, with a stiff leather gun case lying across them. "See that item about me in the paper? I'm off to Pennsylvania, huntin'. So you're to report to Mrs. McDonald here direct—phone. I know the case and it's real special. She'll tell you as much as she wants. Now go ahead, Mrs. McDonald. Colwell's your man."

Story About Her Husband

Dan reached to the open humidor on his employer's desk and ignoring Graber's quick scowl, selected a perfecto. He pulled the wrapper off and passed the cigar back and forth under his nostrils inhaling its pungent odor. Fifty cent cigars were beyond the modest pay of a private agency sleuth.

Mrs. McDonald sat on the edge of the chair, small hands clutching her gloves, her face very serious and worried. "I—just can't bring myself to repeat all the story, Mr. Colwell," she said in a rich contralto. "It's about my husband, you see. He's—Arthur has a certain prominence, as you doubtless know. He practices criminal law."

Colwell reflected as he inhaled cigar smoke that she might, without being inaccurate, have termed Arthur McDonald a shyster. "Oh, your husband is well known," he nodded.

"Well, many of his cases — There are such rough, greedy men in the world, aren't there?" the stunning young woman went on embarrassedly. "I—this is no divorce case, you know. My husband and I are very happy. But he's in danger. Someone wants to kill him. He doesn't know it—at least I don't think so." She sank back with an appealing look at Graber. "I just can't talk about it. Must I?" she begged.

Dan knew the woman was acting, though she accomplished it with charm that would make a man ashamed to push her for more details. She was that steady type of personality who could speak straight out easily enough, if she cared to. But Graber came to the rescue as she desired. "Don't bother, Mrs. McDonald. Don't excite yourself. Colwell here asks no questions, just does what he's told."

"You wish me to shadow your husband, is that it?"

"Yes Would you? And—protect him? Learn who is after him and, of course, keep the rascal from doing harm? And maybe turn him over to the police?"

"Pardon me," Otto Graber interposed quickly, "you don't want that, I'm sure. I mean, not right off. This is darned unusual, see?" he explained to Dan, and twisted the black cigar from one corner of his wide mouth to the other. Graber leaned. "She's stirred up," he said in a low voice. "Just do what she wants and forget it, see?"

Tips On Carving A Roast Turkey

Now you needn't feel awkward in carving the Thanksgiving turkey. Here are the four most important steps in this precarious undertaking:

1.—Always turn the fowl on its side before carving.

2.—Begin by cutting into the drum of the leg with a few clean strokes of the knife and then pull it back from the body.

3.—In slicing the meat from the leg, carve toward the body of the bird.

4.—In carving the breast, cut toward the plate with clean, slow strokes of the knife.

Household Hints

Lest you forget . . . salt and water make a good teeth cleaner!

Tomatoes soft? Soak in cold water with a little sale for short time. They'll harden.

Cracked the breakfast egg? Add salt to the water. This will seal it up.

Earache may be sured by filling a calico bag with hot salt and applying it to the ear.

Did you accidentally use too much seasoning in your stew or soup? To make the dish palatable, all you have to do is add a few slices of raw potato. These absorb the surplus salt.

If your boiled custard begins to curdle remove from the fire and beat with a rotary beater. Quite a smooth texture will result.

When mirrors become stained, make a paste of fine whiting and methylated spirit. Rub it over the mirror and leave to dry. Then clean the mirror in the ordinary way.

A discoloured aluminum saucepan can be improved by boiling up some water with a piece of lemon in it.

Can you stand the strong odor caused by the boiling of cabbage? If you can't, you can counter the odor to some extent by placing a small muslin bag filled with white bread in the pot.

Dirty tennis balls will come up beautifully clean if you rub them hard with a circular motion on the rough doormat. This is a grand method of making them clean and far better than wetting them, as it doesn't harm the rubber or impair their bounce.

Autumn Ushers In Three New Modes

Up-Brushed Hair, Daring Use of Color and Unusual Shoes

NEW YORK.—Three new developments stand out conspicuously in city shops after two weeks of kaleidoscopic fashion shows. They are the up-brushed coiffure, the daring use of color, and the new shoes. These three factors contribute heavily to the general new and different look of anyone dressed up in a 1938 fall outfit. The coiffure and the dazzling color combinations strike a highly dramatic note, and shoes, in following suit, are more attention-catching than ever. Shorter skirts have a lot to do with the concentration on shoes, too. The longer the expanse of stockinged leg put on view, the more noticeable the shoes are.

On New Lines

The spool heel, the quarter-inch platform sole on street and evening shoes, the two-inch clog sole on evening shoes, were seen in the retail shoes departments of the stores. The spool heel and the platform sole, particularly, are bound to be worn by so many women this fall that before long the eye will accept them easily.

These two innovations make for refinement in shoe design. The days when heavy looking street shoes were in vogue seem to be over. Shoes made on svelte, clinging lines, their gracefulness heightened by cutouts in the vamp and by high heels, are favored. Sometimes the focal point of the shoe's design is at the back, above the heel.

Smeller-Outer

An elderly Negro of Knoxville, Tennessee, walks about the streets and sniffs the air to detect leaking gas. Gas company pays him for each leak he discovers.

Cottage Cheese

You Make It With Sour Milk

To make cottage cheese from sour milk: Put the milk into a basin, cover it, and leave until the curd is solid. Put a large piece of cheesecloth in another basin, so that it forms a sort of lining, leaving plenty to hang over at the rim. Pour the curds and whey into this; gather up the edges of the cheesecloth, so as to enclose the curds and whey; tie with string as close as possible to the solid mass, and hang on a tap in the sink and leave to drip for twenty-four hours. Then turn out of the cloth into a basin, add a very little salt, and beat well. After this, put the curd in a piece of clean cheesecloth or fine linen, roll it up in sausage shape, turn in the ends of the cloth, and place between two plates, with a weight on top. These easily-made little cheeses are really good food, and are delicious with crackers, brown bread and butter, and green salad, or raw grated carrots.

Sunday School Lesson

LESSON II
SPIRITUAL WORSHIP
Exodus 20:4-6; 32:1-8; John 4:19-24
Golden Text — "God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship in spirit and truth." John 4:24.

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING

Time — The Ten Commandments were given 1498 B.C. The conversation with the woman at the well took place in December, A.D. 27.

Place — The Ten Commandments, of course, were given on Mount Sinai. The city of Sychar is the modern village of El-Askar, five eighths of a mile north of Jacob's well.

4. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image. The First Commandment forbids us to worship false gods, the Second forbids us to worship the true God under false forms.

The Hebrews had come out of Egypt; and Egypt was a land that was crowded with the images of a twofold mythology — of the old African deities and of the new foreign gods of the Shepherd Dynasty. The tribes had brought with them small, portable images of the Egyptian deities into the wilderness. Nor any likeness of anything that is in heaven above. This might refer to God who dwelt in heaven, or the angels, but also to the sun, moon, and stars, which were worshiped by heathen nations everywhere in the ancient world. Or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

Bowing Down to Images

5. Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them , nor serve them. What the second commandment forbids is the making of images to be used in worship. It has always happened again and again, in every country, in every age, that ultimately the deity represented by the image is forgotten, and the image itself becames the object of worship.

For I Jehovah thy God am a jealous God, who will not tolerate that the reverence due to him should not be given to him — whether to another God, or, as here, to an image worshipped Visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children. and upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that do hate me. The iniquity here spoken of is that of polytheism, or idolatry, of having or making any other God. The history of the world also shows that the ungodliness of the fathers, is, as a rule of fallen nature, followed by the sons.

6. And showing lovingkindness of them that love me and keep my commandments. While God is absolutely just and absolutely holy, yet God loves men and longs to have them love him. That is almost the only place in the first six books of the Bible where love to God is mentioned.

The Golden Calf

1. And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become of him. When the people said that they did not know what had happened to Moses, they were telling what was not true, and they knew it was not true. They knew that Moses was up there in the mount with Jehovah. Instead of asking Aaron or some other person to take the place of Moses as a man needing God's presence and power, they made the awful request of Aaron, who was the high priest, actually to make for them gods who could lead them in the days to come. ....

2. And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden rings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me. 3. And all the people brake off the golden rings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron. 4. And he received it at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, and made it a molten calf. The idea of representing God by so awful a thing as this is revolting, and yet when men substitute a false religion for the true worship of God, they have always been known to sink to unbelievable depths.

And they said, These are thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

5. And when Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, Tomorrow shall be a feast to Jehovah. 6. And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt-offerings and brought peace-offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play. See 1, Cor. 10:7. The Israelites should have been praying. They should have been singing praises to God for their deliverance. Instead of that they turned this sacred occasion into a carnival.

7. And Jehovah spake unto Moses and said, Go, get thee down; for thy people, that thou broughtest up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. 8. they have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them; they have worshipped it, and have sacrificed unto it, and said, These are thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. How terrible it would be if God allowed us to go on in our sinful willfulness, and did not upbraid or punish us, correct and chasten us! Where would any of us be if God never put a restraining hand upon us?

19. The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet. 20. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. It is clear from this verse that much of the conversation with this woman is not reported, for we do not have any record here of Jesus, speaking about Jerusalem, though he must have done so.

21. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father. 22. Ye worship that which ye know not: we worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews. The hour to which the Lord refers is, of course, the hour, when, through Christ, God is fully known and truly worshiped.

23. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth; for such doth the Father seek to be his worshippers. 24. God is a Spirit, and they that worship him must worship in spirti and in truth. That the Father seeks men to be his worshippers is but one of the many evidences, from God's call to Adam in the Garden of Eden down to the last "Come" in the book of Revelation, that God longs that men should be with him, worshipping him, knowing him, loving him, and filled with his fullness. The worship which God asks for is spiritual woship, worship that is in spirt and in truth.

Thanksgiving

Lord, for the erring thought
Not into evil wrought:
Lord, for the wicked will
Betrayed and baffled still:
For the heart from itself kept,
Our thanksgiving accept.

Thanksgiving Celebrated By Indians First

Festival Existed Centuries Before Puritans Began Annual Celebration.

The American custom of celebrating Thanksgiving with feasting and family reunions did not begin with the coming of the white man to these shores. Centuries before the arrival of the Puritans the Indians celebrated the yearly harvest-time with turkey, pumpkins and ball games, according to Te Ata, a member of the Chickasaw tribe and wife of Dr. Clyde Fisher, writing in the magazine published by the American Museum of Natural History.

Thanks for Fruits of Soil

"Many people believe that Thanksgiving on this Continnent originated with the Plymouth colonists in 1621," she writes. "Admitting that these white settlers may have brought in with them a Thanksgiving spirit, it should not be forgotten that the distinctive features of the American Thanksgiving are native to the country rather than to the settlers, and that the Indians had been offering up heir thanks for hundreds of years. Late in the Summer season that follows close upon the trail of the harvest, the native American has, since ancient times, given thanks for fruits of the soil and of the chase to the Great Spirit and to the Earth-Mother.

"Thanksgiving still exists among the native Indians today. Out toward the place where the sun goes down, the Indians of the Southwest still dance their thanks for the bountiful harvests."

The Oldest Horse In North America

Dolly Was Driven Daily By Her Crippled Owner, Walter Carruthers, of Wingham

Dolly, popularly supposed to be the oldest horse in North America, died last week. She was in her 42nd year and for the past 31 years had been driven nearly every day by her crippled owner, Walter Carruthers, of Turnberry Township, Huron County. His home is three miles from Wingham.

Every day, except some of the extreme winter ones, Walter Carruthers and Dolly have made the three-mile trip to Wingham. They became almost a landmark, and older residents returning to Wingham always made sure to look up "Walt and Dolly."

Ate Rolled Oats and Hay

With reins hanging limply from her master's hands it was a familiar sight in Wingham to see the horse come up to the "stop" sign at the intersection and halt, then continue on around the corner and stop whenever some friend of the owner's hailed him from the sidewalk.

In all the 30 years the horse had never been on grass, her meals consisting of rolled oats and timothy hay. This was attributed as one of the reasons for her longevity.

His Car Stolen? No, Just Washed

Blenheim Owner Forgets He Told Garage To Take Machine

Don't tell R. S. Carvolth, of Blenheim, about your embarrassing moments, he knows all about it.

Mr. Carvolth reported to police that his car had been stolen from his garage and a search for the missing auto was started. The car was soon found and was Mr. Carvolth's face red!

James Robertson, local service station employee, had taken the car and was calmly washing it, as instructed by the owner, while search was going on.

SLANTS

Comedian Lew Lehr returned from Europe on the Queen Mary with Mrs. Lehr and daughter. Lew has several comedy ideas up his sleeve for his new series with Ben Bernie. Andre Kostelanetz is holding open house in his office on the 16th floor of the CBS building for all his friends who wander in for the lowdown on his recent South American jaunt. Kenny Baker, the male vocalist for "Star Treatre" which makes its debut over CBS on October 5, had only six hours in New York after he arrived from England recently, because of Hollywood commitments. While in England Kenny played the role of "Nanky Poo" in an English picture version of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Mikado".

VOICE-CHILD

Betty Lou, co-starred with Tommy Riggs in their new variety show over an NBC-Red Network which began October 1, is the first "voice" to reach full star status. True, Charlie McCarthy is a voice, but he exists for the eye in the physical shape of a ventriloquist's dummy. Betty Lou is nothing more than the figment of Tommy Riggs' vocal chords and the picture of a little girl that his voice creates.

Betty Lou was created one day in 1932 when Riggs' vaudeville and radio partner was stricken and had to be rushed to the hospital. Having to carry on alone, Tommy created Betty Lou. She was so popular that Rudy Vallee asked him to appear on his program. The one appearance ran into 39 weeks—a new record—and resulted in the new star roles in the variety show which Riggs and his voice-child will head this fall.

NEW WORD GAME

Mary Margaret McBride, CBS columnist of the air, has a new version of the "Word Game." She calls it "pet peeves," and applies it to "sissy" words which annoy her. For example, she dislikes "dainty", and won't use "cinema" or "motor" when she means the movies or an automobile.

FINGER-TIP TUNING

Among the many new engineering achievements and improvements to radio sets announced this season, the new "Electromatic" Majestic Radio presents some outstanding features—principal of which is the "Finger-Tip" Tuning. Just the simple press of a button, and the station responds instantly and accurately.

FERRY BOAT CAPTAIN ON BAIL OVER MAN'S DEATH

George Robert Long, 45-year-old resident of Andrewsville, near Merrickville, died in the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital in Brockville, Sunday afternoon, from a fractured skull, said to have been sustained in a scuffle at the ferry wharf at Prescott about midnight on Thursday.

It is understood that Long, a former resident of Ottawa, had paid a visit to Ogdensburg, N.Y., and on the return ferry trip with another man who has not yet been located, is said to have become troublesome. As he left the boat, it is alleged that Long used abusive language to the crew and that Captain Hugh J. Willard of the ferry boat, who was on his way home, slapped long with his open hand. Long, who is said to have been standing at the edge of the sidewalk at the time, fell back against the wall of the building at the ferry terminal, striking his head.

Manslaughter Charge

Captain Willard appeared before Magistrate George A. Wright at Prescott on Friday night charged with manslaughter on information laid by County Crown Attorney Harworth Atkinson. He was represented by Lt.-Col. A.C. Casselman, K.C., M.P., as counsel and was remanded until Friday next. Bail of $5000 was accepted for his liberty, two sureties of 2,500 each being furnished by William L. Leacy and by Ralph Wallace, both of Prescott.

An inquest into the circumstances surrounding the death of Long was opened at Prescott last Friday night. The inquest was under the direction of Dr. C.F. McPherson of Prescott, chief coroner for the County of Grenville. Following identification of the body, the inquest was adiourned until Friday afternoon next.

Provincial Constable Alex MacLeod of Prescott and Constable John Hall are conducting the investigation.

Body Brought to Ottawa

Following the inquest. the body was brought to the parlors of McEvoy Brothers, 471 MacLaren street.

George Long resided with relatives at Merrickville. He was born in Ottawa, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Long, and was a veteran of the Great War. He enlisted with the "Little Black Devils" at Port Arthur in 1914 and served overseas with that battalion. He was wounded in 1915 and invalided back to Canada, but re-enlisted in the C.E.F. and returned to France.

He was taken prisoner and remained in a German concentration camp for a period of 18 months. He had been living in Merrickville for the past year.

Surviving him are five brothers, Sergeant-Major A.G. Long, Fred J., Jack and Richard Long, all of Ottawa and Edward Long o fDetroit.

Mr. Long resided in Ottawa both before and after his services overseas He rose to the rank of captain before being taken prisoner. Mr. Long was a member of St. Joseph's church while resident at Ottawa.

CELEBRATE 34th ANNIVERSARY OF WEDDING AND BAPTISM OF GRANDSON

A very happy event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garlough of Williamsburg on Wednesday evening, October 5th.

The occassion was the 34th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garlough while at the same time the baptism of their little grandson, Donald Aden Garlough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Garlough, of Nation Valley, took place. The sacrament of baptism was administered by Rev. C.R. Cronmiller.

It was on October 5th, 1904, that Miss Ruby Garlough daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alvine Merkley was united in marriage to Henry Garlough son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Garlough, all of Williamsburg, the ceremony being performed at the Methodist parsonage, Elma, by Rev. A.E. Rennells pastor of the Elma Methodist church.

At six o'clock a sumptuous chicken dinner with all the trimmings including wedding cake, etc., was served by the hostess with the following guests present, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garlough, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac McIntosh, Rev. C.R. Cronmiller and Mrs. Cronmiller, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Garlough, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Johnston, and Mrs. Hubert Trickey.

Many friends here join in congratulations and good wishes to the bride ad groom of 34 years ago, accompanied by the wish that they may be spared for years yet to enjoy health and happiness.

111th ANNIVERSARY OF WMSBG. UNITED CHURCH

On Sunday, October 2nd, 1938, the Williamsburg United church congregation held special services in celebration of the 111th anniversary of the foundation of the congregation and at the same time the 72nd anniversary of the dedication of the former St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. The guest preacher for both morning and evening services was Rev. J.A. Macaskill, B.D. of Morewood who delivered an inspiring address at each service. The church choir under the direction of the organist rendered special anthems. At the Morning Service Mrs. D.K.M. Stewart rendered a solo "Nearer My God to Thee." The church was beautifully decorated with gladioli and other autumn blooms for the occasion.

On Monday evening the Anniversary services closed with a supper served in the Sunday school hall by the ladies of the congregation after which an enjoyable program was presented. Rev. C.A. Adey, minister of the church, acted as chairman. After the opening hymn, Rev. Mr. Adey gave a brief outline of the history of the church, and introduced the entertainer, Rev. T.W. Jones of Montreal who gave an illustrated lecture entitled "A Cavalcade of History" which was both interesting and educational.

The singing of the National Anthem brought a very enjoyable evening to a close.

HARPER—HEAGLE

The Wesleyan Methodist parsonage at Winchester, was the scene of an interesting wedding ceremony Monday, when Freeda Viola, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heagle, Elma, was united in marriage to Donald Dwight Harper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Myles Harper, of Winchester, Rev. D.W. Summers officiated.

The couple was attended by Miss Iris Summers and Harold Harper, a brother of the groom.

The bride was gowned in a flowered sheer crepe dress with rust tunic. Her hat coat and accessories were in blending tones of rust.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Harper left on a brief wedding trip through the 1,000 Islands. On their return they will reside in Winchester.

DAREDEVIL FIREDIVER PERFORMED LAST SATURDAY

Capt. Eddie Mabey, termed 'Canada's Daredevil' put on his firedive act on Saturday evening last at the Government Wharf here before a good sized crowd of spectators.

Capt. Mabey, who was ill, running a temperature of 102 degrees, ignored a doctor's orders, not to enter the water at the time he put on his performance. Although he had advertised that he would do two dives, Capt. Mabey refused to risk the danger of setting himself afire and diving from the top of an electric light pole into the water, when the large crowd contributed only Four dollars and thirty-eight cents to his collection. He did however, dive into a circle of burning gasoline on the surface of the water, clad only in a pair of trunks and a tight fitting cap.

Captain Mabey has asked us to convey his appreciation to all those who contributed to his cause.

WHITTEKER—CASSELMAN

A very pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized at the United church parsonage at Elma, at 1.30 o'clock, on Saturday afternoon, October 1st, when Miss Bertha Olive Casselman, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Casselman of Winchester Springs was united in marriage to Floyd Casselman Whitteker, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Whitteker of Williamsburg. Rev. R.S. Smith, minister of the church, officiated.

The bride was attired in a Royal Blue Chiffon velvet dress made on simple lines, with matching felt hat shoes, purse and gloves. Her coat was of navy trimmed with gray lamb fur.

The bride's maid, Miss Leila Casselman, sister of the bride, was wearing a fall rust crepe dress with bright trimmings and matching accessories.

Walter Whitteker, brother of the groom acted as best man. Immediately following the ceremony, several intimate friends including, Misses Iva Whitteker, Bertha Sargeant, Grace Myers, Georgina Casselman, Verna and Linda Whitteker, Clova Thelma and Hazel Barkley, Mrs. H. Barkley, Kelly Coleman, Aden McIntosh and others showered the bride and groom with rice and confetti and took pictures as they preceeded to the bride's home where a wedding dinner was served to the immediate family.

Later the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip to Lake Placid, Glenn's Falls and other points in N.Y. State, the bride wearing a Burgundy knitted suit, a model felt hat shoes, gloves and purse to correspond. A brown fur-scarf completed her travelling costume.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Whitteker will reside near Williamsburg.

WINCHESTER TWP. COUNCIL

Tenders for the crushing and placing of 2,000 cubic yards of stone on roads in the southeast section of the Township of Winchester were opened at the regular meeting of Township council held in the Winchester Town Hall on Monday afternoon. After considering several applications, the board awarded the contract to John Dillabough of Morewood, with instructions to proceed with the work at once.

Dr. A.B. Clayton, of Chesterville was appointed to act as medical officer of health in the absence of Dr. Peter McLaughlin of Winchester who is at present a patient in the Ottawa Civic Hospital. In this connection, Reeve W.J. McConnell, of Morewood, expressed the appreciation of the council to Dr. McLaughlin for the efficient manner in which he had performed the duties of medical officer of health in the township of Winchester during the past 25 years and hoped that he would have a speedy recovery from his present illness. He also extended the council's sympathy to Haldane Cummings, the township road superintendant, whose wife passed away recently. Among the amounts passed by Council was the sum of $1,500 as the initial payment on one of the new bridges built to replace a structure destroyed in the spring floods.

The new tax collector, William Carkner reported that the first instalment of the 1938 taxes was being paid as promptly as other years, and that several taxpayers had cleaned up their arrears. According to the treasurer's report, presented by Jacob Steen, the clerk, the township's finances were in a sound condition. It was not necessary to borrow any money from the banks, so far, he stated.

The meeting was presided over by Reeve W.J. McConnell, of Morewood with the following members present: Deputy Reeve Thomas J. Ralph, of Winchester; Councillors James C. McGregor, of Ormond, and Ernest B. McMillan and William McCloskey, of Chesterville. The next meeting will be held in Morewood on the first Monday in November.

LOCKE—ARMSTRONG

Wall Street United church Brockville was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding ceremony at 11 o'clock Thursday morning Sept. 29th, when Ena Mabel, only daughter of Mr. Wm. Armstrong, of Inkerman, became the bride of Herbert Keith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Locke of Brinston. Rev. A.E. Malott officated.

The bride was attended by Miss Lois Giffin of Brockville. Dr. Clair Locke of Winchester was best man.

The bride wore a pretty model of wine transparent velvet with accessories to match.

News And Intormation For The Busy Farmer

Furnished by the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Sugar Beet Crop

Present indications are that the sugar beet crop will yield well above average this year, and have a high sugar content. Preliminary tests showed an average sugar content of nearly 15 per cent on September 1st, which is higher than at this date for several years. Root development was particularly good during August and estimates now place production in excess of 10 tons per acre. With the high temperatures and humidity which prevailed during the first week of August in Southwestern Ontario, Leaf Spot began to appear on early planted fields. Fortunately, for the beet crop, the weather became cooler and less humid so that Leaf Blight did not progress rapidly. In general the crop has been free from disease and the beets show healthy green tops.

The Vegetable Crop

In Western Ontario weather and moisture conditions during the past month have been generally favourable for good growth, with the exception of some frost damage to vine crops in the Bradford and South Simcoe districts. Heavy rains and humid weather earlier in the season in Essex, Kent, and Lambton Counties caused considerable damage to the onion crop, resulting in heavy loss by skin and heart rot which may materially affect the storing quality. The late potato crop is comparatively free from the blight and quality very good. However, the tuber set is below normal and production will be below average. Tomatoes have improved considerably in quality.

In Eastern Ontario tomatoes have yielded an average crop but quality has been slightly below normal due chiefly to destruction of foliage by tomato worms, and too much wet weather causing cracks. Yellow ends have been very generally also. Potatoes are expected to yield above average with quality good, but late cauliflower are below average.

Plowing atch Next

Every farmer has an eye for a nice plow team and a good piece of plowing. He will have all this to his heart's content at the great International Plowing Match to be held at Minesing, near Barrie, October 11 12, 13 and 14. Here he will see the champion plowmen of Canada with their sleek and steady plow teams. He will see the greatest collection of up-to-date farm machinery ever housed under canvas—almost a mile of "tented city." He will see demonstrations that will prove invaluable to him in his every day life on the farm. These are just a few of the reasons why every farmer in Ontario should make a special affort to attend the one and only International Plowing Match, the greatest event of its kind not only in the British Empire, but the entire world. Every farmer should bring his wife and family too. There will be educational and practical exhibits that every farm woman will appreciate.

A popular feature of former plowing matches will be maintained in the plowing by oxen, a link with the historic past of Ontario. At 11.00 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. each day, experienced drivers will demonstrate how plowing was done in earlier years with oxen hitched by yokes.

Farm drainage talks and demonstrations by machinery and hand will be given each day at 10.00 a.m., and 2.15 p.m. by representatives of the Agricultural engineering Department, O.A.C., Guelph. Cultural implements of various sizes and modern design will be demonstrated every day by manufacturing companies on land near the parkig area.

Plow setting will be discussed by experts who show how different types of plows should be prepared for the work. There will be also demonstrations to show the power required to haul different implements at various depths by the Field Husbandry Division, C.E.F., Ottawa.

Another interesting feature each day will be an address by Dr. C.D. McGilvray, Principal of the Ontario Vetinary College, Guelph, on "Anatomy and Care of Horses' Legs and Feet."

Horseshoeing competitions will be a new and popular feature. Demonstrations will be held at 2 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday and young farmers may learn how to do "cold shoeing", welding and other simple iron working practises. Competitive competitions for blacksmiths will be held on Thursday and Friday. An eye-filling spectacle that will bring joy to every farmer's heart will be the multiple hitch, with three to five horses working in one team and driven by representatives of the O.A.C. Guelph.

Seed cleaning and soil testing demonstrations will draw large crowds as will the display of hydro-electric equipment of farm and home conveniences. Other educational exhibits and demonstrations will be put on by the Ontario Department of health Ontario Forestry Department, and the Animal Pest Control by the Provincial Zoologist.

Plow Weedy Pastures This Fall

"There are many old unprofitable pastures to be seen in the countryside heavily infested with weeds—goldenrod, Canadian thistle, wild carrott, etc." says Dr. O. McConkey of the Ontario Agricultural College, and he continues:—"These can be improved 200 to 300 per cent by (1) fall plowing, (2) cropping for one or two years to clean off weeds, (3) raising the soil fertility level, (4) seeding to a well balanced pasture mixture of legumes and grasses.

If you have a weedy pasture of this kind, plan to plow it this fall, and start the improvement plan as outlined above, and it will return you many dollars of profit over the present low producing pasture.

Old pastures infested with weeds like Canadian thistles, Wild carrott, etc., are a weed menace to the community. Plowing and clean cropping and in some cases summer fallowing, are the best methods of getting rid of the weeds and preparing suitable soil conditions for seeding down to profitable pasture mixture.

Mowing pastures should be more widely practised in Ontario. When the new pasture is established and weeds begin to show, mow early every season when the weeds are in the first stages of bloom. Most weeds are readily killed at this period of growth. The mower bar should be fitted with adjustable skids which raise the mower bar about 6 inches, depending on the roughness of the pasture. These skids can be easily made by local blacksmiths and are inexpensive.

When seeding down be sure that the fertility level of the soil is high, especially in the materials such as lime, phosphorus, and potash. The best plan is to send a composite sample of the soil, taken at ten different places across the field, to the Soils Department, Ontario Agricultural College, for analysis. The report and suggestions from that department will enable you to fertilize wisely and economically according to the fertility requirements of your soil type. Minerals increase the chances of securing a good catch of seeds, lower the percentage of winter killing legumes, and, what is most important, increases the protein and material content of the feed.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY OF BRINSTON CHURCH

Over the week-end, the congregation of Brinston United church celebrated the 33rd anniversary of the erection of the present brick church in 1905. The "old Brown Church", which preceded this church, was erected in the early '70's, during the ministry of the late Rev. J.E. Mavety, the site having been donated by the late William Locke. Previous to that, the congregation worshipped in the Locke, Dixon and Branch school houses. On June 28th, 1905, during the pastorate of Rev. F. Tripp, now of Montreal, the corner stone of the present church was laid, the building committee being Charles Gilson, and the late J.J. Payne, Guy Shaver and Carmi Locke, with T.W. Ault, now of Cornwall, as secretary, and Jno. Adams, Brinston, as treasurer.

At the Sunday morning service the Rev. W.S. Atchison of Winchester was the special speaker, his subject being, "Seeing Ourselves." The augmented choir, under the leadership of Mrs. C.E. Collison, rendered two anthems, featuring Mr. Doug Hanson as soloist and Mrs. W.J. Hanes and Mrs. Andy Cooper in a duet. Rev. J.A. Koffend of Knox Peesbyterian church, Iroquois, was guest speaker for the evening service, and besides the anthem by the choir, Mrs. Chas. Strader, Mrs. C. E. Collison and Messrs. E. Strader and D. Hanson rendered a quartet. Mrs. Roy Hamilton presided at the organ at both services.

Monday evening the activities were continued, when the ladies of the congegation served a chicken supper in the church dininghall to about 400 guests. The supper was followed by a program with Rev. E.C. Lacey, pastor, as chairman. Rev. Koffend assisted by a lecture on the European situation, stressing on Russia. The ladies sextet of Chesterville, Mrs. Allison Graham, Mrs. Miles Merkley, Mrs. MacElheran and the Misses King, Boyd and Forward, with Mr. P.G. Hewitt as director and pianist furnished the music, with Mrs. Graham as soloist and Mrs. Merkley as elecutionist. Rev. Lacey expressed the appreciation of the congregation of his church for the co-operation of the surrounding communities, in commemoration of the founding of the church at Brinston.

EDWARDSBURG TOWNSHIP STAYS IN "WET" COLUMN

The local option vote in Edwardsburg township on Wednesday resulted as follows: Wets, 826, Drys, 139. The drys lacked approximately 200 votes of getting the three-fifths or 60 per cent of the total vote needed. For the past three years Edwardsburg has been under local option, the township having changed a former dry allegiance of many years standing in 1935 by 38 majority over the three-fifths of the total vote required to give license to the two hotels in Spencerville and Cardinal villages respectively.

Vote by polls was as follows: Cardinal, wet, 141, dry, 93; McLennan's wet 80, dry 53; Wexford, wet 145, dry 38; Spencerville, wet, 152, dry, 150; Ventnor, wet 63, dry 34; Shanley, wet 60, dry 130; Groveton, wet 44, dry 68; Hindman, wet, 29, dry 60.

HIGHWAY ENGINEERS STRIVE FOR TRAFFIC SAFETY

Ontario has had 38 percent fewer highway traffic fatalities so far this year because of its extensive accident prevention program, it is stated in a survey just released by R.M. Smith deputy minister of highways.

Mr. Smith said his department conducts its safety work on what is called the "three E" plan--engineering, education, and enforcement. In discussing engineering aspect of the plan, he maintained that in every mile of highway being built in Ontario today, the safety of motor and pedestrian traffic is invariably the first and prime consideration.

He spoke of how department engineers, when preparing blueprints for new roads, were chiefly concerned with eliminating dangerous curves, and cutting the top off dangerous hills. Formerly, many curves were built to carry traffic safely at 30 miles an hour and many hills permitted drivers to see each other in oncoming traffic at a distance of only 200 feet. Today, curves are built so that motorists may travel up to 50 miles an hour, and by cutting hills and filling valleys the visibility on grades has been increased in most cases to 1,500 feet.

"The many dual highways under construction," Mr. Smith said, "are constructed essentially for safe driving, but at the same time, they have allowed a ten-fold increase in traffic volume since on the new, spacious roads the pace of traffic is not established by the slowest driver on the highway."

Mr. Smith referred to the improvement in highway traffic safety records resulting from the construction of "cloverleafs" which eliminate the necessity of cars cutting across the flow of traffic on main highways when making a left turn.

Much work is done each year, he stated, in eliminating railway and highway level crossings by the building of grade separations in the form o fsubways and "passovers." At less dangerous railroad intersections, "wig-ways" have been installed and the right-of-way has been cleared in cases where the view was obstructed.

He spoke of the work that is being done in highway illumination, installation of traffic-operated signal lights guide rails, the widening of road shoulders and elimination of dangerous side ditches. More than 100,000 signs of every type have been erected throughout the province, he said, and each of these signs is designed to make highway travel safer.

"The psychological factor," Mr. Smith pointed out, "has been taken into consideration in the construction of new highway bridges. They are being made drivers have when they come to a bridge. Superstructure is being eliminated on bridges in order to make them seem less hazardous in the minds of drivers."

WHITHER "SOCIABLES"?

The Brockville Recorder and Times thinks church socials are going out of fashion. Fact is, they've never been the same since they ceased to be know as sociables.—Toronto Star.

THOSE GLARING HEADLIGHTS

A Sunday drive is the enjoyment of thousands of motorists until it is time to go home. As darkness approaches and headlights on cars are turned on then it is a nightmare for the driver. Of all the vast improvements made in cars in recent years, glaring headlights still exist and relief is not in sight.—Elmira Signet.

OFF THE SENTIMENTAL SIDE

Apart from sentimental and strategic reasons, there is another factor why both Great Britain and the United States are interested in Canada.

There is $6,800,000,000 of outside capital invested in the Dominion. Of this amount, Great Britain has supplied 40 per cent. ond the United States has put up 58 per cent., leaving only two per cent. supplied by other countries. — Windsor Daily Star.

WHAT IT TAKES

A good editor is one who has never made a mistake; who is always right; who can ride two horses at the same time he is straddling a fence with both ears to the ground; who always says the right thing at the right time; who always picks the right horse as well as the right politician to win; who never has to apologize, who has no enemies, and who has worlds of prestige with all classes, creeds and races. That is all an editor has to do to be rated a good editor. There has never been a good editor.—North Hastings Review.

The EMPIRE

CANADA AND WHEAT PRICES

Under the 1932 treaty Canada and Australia are bound to sell wheat to the Motherland at the world price, which is the price on the Liverpool Exchange. This price is fixed by competition between the buyers of the world, not the buyers of the United Kingdom alone. The British market is not large enough to absorb all the Canadian export surplus of wheat. The balance of this surplus is sold in competition with the exports from the United States, Argentina, Russia, the Danubian countries, and every other wheat-exporting country. It is this competition with foreign wheat which fixes the Liverpool price and therefore the price which British importers pay for Canadian wheat. For this reason the prefernce is not thought to be of much value. If the preference is repealed, Canada may sell less wheat to Britain, but, in that event, other countries will sell more and there will be less competition in selling to foreign countries. It is, in the Canadian view, a case of six of one and half a dozen of the other.—Manchester Guardian.

Then they used a company chisel to cut off some rivets and gain access to the cash compartment.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN FIRST: In the Great War of 1914-18, it was the uniformed men in the front line trenches who bore the brunt of enemy punishment. Today, things are different, as we know from watching dress rehearsals (for another war) in Abyssinia, in Spain and China. It is the civilian population, the women and children, who are the first victims of war, meeting swift death from the air, or a horrible mangling, or slow starvation. They call it "totalitarian war".

* * * *

WHAT PRICE DISTRACTION? They tell us that whenever war appears on the world's horizon, women's fashions automatically become more elaborate, more ornery than ever—as a distraction, don't you know, from the grimness of reality.

This present season, judging from the specimens one has glimpsed on the streets of Ontario towns and cities, women's hats and hair-dos are providing a No. 1 diversion. European embroglios are forgotten when the latest "doll hat" sails by atop a nest of high-piled curls. Women become interested only in going their fellowwoman's hats one better; men are interested in watching the women.

LINE-UP: Britain plus France plus Russia have a combined strength of 15,400 planes. Compare that with Germany plus Italy, 11,500. Britain plus France plus Russia have a combined naval strength of 2½ million tons. Compare that with Germany plus Italy, 1 million tons. Measured in men, Britain plus France plus Russia have a total army strength of 26,000,000. Compare that with Germany plus Italy, 10,600,000. Consider then, that the United States is morally behind Britain, France and Russia.

Aren't Germany and Italy brave to stand up against such an alignment?

We complained loudly in this column at Easter-time when the first spring millinery atrocities appeared. But since then, as the European situation has grown worse, things have been getting more and more impossible in the hat world. And now, words fail us. We cannot bring ourselves to describe the latest creations in feather and felt. Those terrible chin-strap models we howled about in the spring were infinitely preferable, don't you think?

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION: How many hours distant by airplane is Moscow from Berlin? Answer: 4¾ hours.

When buying brooms, soak them well before using. Never let the bristles stand on the floor. A new floor-mop for wet use lasts longer if tightly tied round with cord as near the swivel part as possible. All brooms and brushes need recular washing in warm suds. Hang in the air to dry.

Tourist Total Remains High

Extensive Revenue—Slight Decline Seen From 1937 For Canada

Tourist traffic will bring between $265,000,000 and $275,000,000 to Canada this year, Leo Dolan, chief of the Canadian Travel Bureau, Department of Transport, estimates. Last year's estimated tourist traffic revenue was $295,000,000.

"The tourist industry has shown less decline than any other normal business activity in Canada this year," said Mr. Dolan.

Millions of Visitors

Canada up to July 31 received 9,012,177 visitors, a drop of 6.8 per cent. from the 9,676,734 who came in the seven months ending July 31, 1937, but a general upswing was reported in August with improved business conditions in the United States, the great source of Canada's tourist trade.

The tourist business drop has been most pronounced in Ontario and Quebec because they are contiguous to the United States industrial areas that felt most keenly the recession. But in these two provinces there was an improvement in August over July.

B.C. Does Better

British Columbia has done well with her tourist trade this year. Vancouver Island reports a record number of visitors. Through the customs at Victoria in the eight months ending August 31 there were cleared 26,000 United States motor cars, bringing 72,000 people to the island, a record high.

New Brunswick reports tourist trade as good as ever. Nova Scotia reported a slight decrease with Prince Edward Island about unchanged.

The Prairie Provinces report a better tourist trade than in 1936 but slightly below that of 1937.

Value Of Contests For Farm Children

Ontario's Minister of Agriculture Favors Special Grants To Agricultural Societies Featuring Such Competitions

Hon. P. M. Dewan is so convinced of the value of competitions for farm boys and girls that he favors a system of special grants from the Department of Agriculture to those agricultural societies which feature such programs.

Commending Wilmot Agricultural Society upon its activities along this line, the minister in opening the society's fall fair at New Hamburg said: "I am rather of the opinion that we ought to go so far in the department—though we have not yet considered it definitely—as to give probably a special grant to those fairs which feature junior programs."

Train For Future

"After all," said Mr. Dewan, "I do not know of any place where the boys and girls can get an education which can be a greater inspiration to them for their future work on the farm than by learning to exhibit their products at the fall fairs. If there is one thing which it is our duty to do more than another at the present time, it is to train the young men and women who are going to be the future farm men and women of the province.

"They are going to have the privilege and advantage of living in rural communities, with the privileges increasing as the years pass, and it will not be very long until rural life will be probably superior, even in respect of general convenience, to that of town or city life."

"MY SISTER EILEEN"

By Ruth McKenney

It's a natural! It's a howl! this story of the adventures of a roguish Irish lass and her sister Eileen, now 25 and 24 years old respectively. It will have you rolling in the aisles, because you have experienced things just like that, yourself, perhaps. . . .

The book starts off in the days of peanuts and the silent movies, debating teams and bird hunts, girls' camps and Easter eggs. By easy stages it progresses through first lessons in being a waitress, the care and feeding of a Georgian Prince, the blushful experiences of a girl reporter (Ruth McKenney writes for the "New Yorker") interviewing Randolph Churchill. Later Ruth and her sister Eileen migrate to New York, where they hire an apartment from Mr. Spitzer, a sad fellow who couldn't tell a fungus from an elm tree. The final staggering climax is reached the night Eileen and Ruth entertain the Brazilian Navy.

Cattle Rustlers Harrass Ontario

Thieves Are Being Sought By Night Riders in Four Counties

Reminiscent of the old-time West when cattle rustling was the bane of respectable ranchers, an epidemic of this crime has broken out in four Ontario counties and night riders are roaming the land in search of the thieves, just as was done in the days of long ago.

The Guelph, Dundalk and Puslinch districts have been the centre of the rustlers' attention.

The farm of John Hoohenadel in Puslinch district was raided twice recently and cattle were removed from pasture fields under cover of darkness. The fine beef cattle were believed to have been removed from the scene in a truck.

Removed By Truck

Farmers in the Dundalk area were taking precautions against the raiders following the disappearance of five head of cattle from the farm of Clayton Sprott, of Badjeros. Marshall Armour, of the same place, lost six head of cattle and William Corbett, Shelburne drover, is looking for four head which disappeared from a pasture in the Melancthon district.

Charles Robb, Penetanguishene farmer, is the poorer by twenty head of cattle, including three heifers and a calf. Eight head of cattle disappeared from the estate of Percy Semple near Beeton.

As Mediator Returned

Completing his first flight in an airplane, Lord Runciman, British mediator on the Czech-German crisis, is shown as he arrived at Croydon airport after a flight from Czechoslovakia to confer with the British cabinet which, at that time was considering the question of a plebiscite in the Sudeten area. Runciman told the cabinet that a plebiscite would mean certain war.

Single Men More Prone To Crime

Report On Ontario Penal Institutions Shows

Single men are apparently more prone to crime than married men, according to figures of Ontario Reformatory population contained in the annual report of Ontario penal institutions.

Of the total number of men confined, 709 were single men, and 186 were married. Seven hundred and eighty-one of the total had only elementary school education, 74 were illiterate, and there were 40 who had college or university training.

With Little Education

More than half the total were abstainers from intoxicants; 238 were described as temperate, and 100 as intemperate. None were admittedly drug addicts.

The great majority were first offenders, the report shows. Out of the total, 555 were serving their first term; 147 their second; 70 their third, and 123 were serving more than their third term.

Commercial and laboring occupations were the most heavily represented. Over 300 of the total came from commercial jobs and 251 were laborers. There were onl, eight professional men, and 15 engaged in domestic service. One hundred and forty-nine came from agricultural work, and 105 were described as mechanics.

Emergency dress hangers may be made by rolling a newspaper tightly, wrapping in tissue paper, and tying round the middle with a piece of string, leaving a large loop by which to hang it.

THE WONDERLAND OF OZ

"We want your help in this conquest," said Guph, "for we need the aid of the Growleywogs in order to make sure that we shall not be defeated. You hate good creatures as much as we gnome do. I asm ure it will be a real pleasure to you to tear down the Emerald City, and in return for your assistance we will allow you to bring back to your country ten thousand people of Oz to be yur slaves."

"Twenty thousand!" growled the Grand Gallipoot. "All right, twenty thousand slaves it shall be!" agreed the General, who by this time was very frightened. The Grand Gallipoot made a signal and at once his attendants picked up General Guph and carried him away to a deep, dark prison, where the jailer amused himself by sticking pins in the round, fat body of the old gnome to see him jump and hear him yell.

And while this was going on the Grand Gallipoot was talking with his counselors, who were the most important officials of the Growleywogs. When he had told them of the proposition of the Gnome King, he said: "My advice is t help them, then when we have conquered the Land of Oz w will take not only our twenty thousand prisoners, but everything else we want." "Let us take the magic belt, too," suggested one counselor.

"And rob the Gnome King and make him our slave." "That's a good idea," declared the Grand Gallipoot. "I'd like King Ruggedo for my own slave. He could black my boots and bring me my porridge every morning while I am in bed." "There is a famous Scarecrow in Oz. I'll take him for my slave," said a counselor. "I'll take Tik-Tok, the machine man," said another. "Give me the Tin Woodman," sai da third.

Blue Coal Appointments

HENRY S. GAGE

HAROLD VERMILYEA

It is with considerable interest that the coal industry received recent news of the appointment of Henry S. Gage, Sales Agent of the D. L. & W. Coal Company in Western New York and Ontario, to an executive position in the head office of that company in New York City.

Harold Vermilyea, who was formerly a representative in Ontario, has been appointed Sales Manager for Western New York and Ontario in his place. Mr. Vermilyea is widely known throughout Ontario and although regretting the departure of Mr. Gage, his return will be welcomed by coal trade throughout this territory.

HAVE YOU HEARD

THE LITTLE THINGS

It takes a little muscle, and it takes a little grit,
A little true ambition, with a little bit of wit;
It's not the biggest things that count, and make the biggest show;
It's the little things that people do, that make this old world go.
A little bit of smiling, and a little sunny chat,
A little bit of courage, to a comrade slipping back;
It's not the biggest things that people do, that makes this old world go.
It takes a kindly action, and it takes a word of cheer,
To fill a life with sunshine, and to drive away a tear,
Great things are not the biggest things, that make the biggest show;
It's the little things that people do, that makes this old world go!

Scottish Farmers' Canadian Visit

Interested in Breeding of Cattle And Draught Horse Stock

A group of Scottish farmers and their wives and families will visit Canada in November.

It is not known at present how many will be in the party but they will arrive in Montreal November 12 in the Canadian Pacific liner Duchess of Atholl, and will spend a fortnight in Canada. Ten days of this period will be spent in Toronto, from November 13 to 23. They will spend Saturday, November 12, in Montreal.

The tour has been organized by the Ayrshire Cattle Herd Book Society and the Clydesdale Horse Society, two notable Scottish organizations devoted to breeding of cattle and draught horse stock.

Town Clerk Finds Owner of Teeth

Walter Hawkins, Port Stanley (Ont.) municipal clerk, is called on for many unusual requests, and to give assistance on problems, but none has been more curious than the recent successful case of the missing false teeth.

During the summer a Port Stanley resident found the teeth at the water's edge on the main bathing beach, and turned them over to Mr. Hawkins. In turn, he watched the lost and found newspaper advertisements appearing in the daily papers, and posted a notice on the municipal bulletin board.

Now he has learned that a summer visitor had lost his plate and accordingly sent the missing item to the owner, a resident of Detroit, who discovered that the welfare of the tourists is considered highly important here.

Today's Changes In Hospitality

Modern Hostess Sets Fresh Rules—More Casual Treatment of Guests Is Seen

Hospitality—like most things—has undergone some changes in the last few years. Once to be hospitable meant to urge a guest to come, urge him to eat (or drink) too much, urge him to stay longer than he should, and keep him at the door while he was urged to come back.

Today, modern hostesses realize all that is a strain—even more of a strain on the guest than on the hostess. So women have started treating guests more casually. Not, mind you, in the affected "Why in the world did you turn up, but now that you are here we'll make the best of it" manner of the people who mistake rudeness for sophistication. But in the manner of real friendliness that means "If you can come we want you. If you can't we'll understand." And then, once the guest arrives, lets him do about as he pleases. And lets him go without argument when he says he must go.

Real Friendliness Shown

Today's hostess doesn't let talk turn to gossip—or monopolize the conversation herself. Neither she nor the host outshines the guests—no matter how easy that might be.

You go to her house feeling that she wants you because you are YOU. You never feel while you are there that she has gone to too much trouble (though she has, of course) and you leave without feeling apologetic for not staying longer.

World's Finest Ski Instructor

Second Only to Hans Schneider Is coming to Gray Rocks Inn, St. Jovite, Quebec—Will Establish Famous Hans Falkner Ski School There.

One of the greatest forward steps in the promotion of ski-ing in Canada and the United States, both for beginners and for those who already consider themselves experts, is the transfer of the famous Hans Falkner Ski School from Ober-Gurgl, Austria, to Gray Rocks Inn, St. Jovite, Province of Quebec. Falkner is probably the most outstanding ski instructor in the world today, with the possible exception of Hans Schneider, and he brings with him to Canada several of the teachers who have been associated with him in his work at Ober-Gurgl.

The establishing of the Hans Falkner Ski School in the Province of Quebec should be of great interest to skiers in Eastern Canada and the Eastern section of the United States. Falkner, himself, is an international figure, who will be remembered by many as the man who rescued Prof. A. Picard and his stratosphere balloon from a crevasse in the Ober-Gurgl glacier in May, 1931.

The Londonderry Cup

Among the prominent people attending the ski school at Ober-Gurgl were Ishbel MacDonald, daughter of the former Prime Minister of Great Britain, and the Marquess and Marchioness of Londonderry. The two latter guests were so pleased with the spirit and attractions of the school that the Marquess donated a large silver cup to be yearly given to the winner of an international ski race organized and directed by Hans Falkner. These races were to be open to ski experts, amateur and professional, from any portion of the world. This race was to be designated as the Londonderry Race.

Before Falkner's arrival in Canada he was promised by Lord and Lady Londonderry every co-operation possible and was also given the right to establish in Canada an international race with the Londonderry Trophy as a prize.

Canada and Jamaica

Flour, cornmeal, oats, wheat, ham, pickled pork, condensed milk leaf tobacco and potatoes were the principal agricultural exports from Canada to Jamaica in 1937, when the total of all Canadian exports amounted to considerably more than four and a half million dollars. As in former years, Canada was the largest individual supplier to Jamaica of goods classed as food, drink, and tobacco.

Wolves Attack Browsing Herd

Situation Becoming Serious in Bruce County As Pack of Nine Wolves Seen Together

LUCKNOW. — David Carruthers had a 1,200 lb. steer killed last week by wolves in Kinloss Township. The animal was pastured on the McGillivray farm, near the Carruthers' farm. Hearing a commotion, Mr. Carruthers investigated but found nothing except the herd running fast, but the next morning he made the discovery. It was evident that the animal had been attacked on the throat and countless places on the body.

The situation is regarded as serious as one report states that nine wolves were seen chasing a deer recently. Those in the Holyrood area who have had animals destroyed are Richard Elliott, three sheep, also William Statters and William Thompson's have been attacked.

During a storm at Brusa, Anatolia, millions of dead frogs rained from the sky, their bodies being found over an area .of several square miles.

What Science [redacted]

International Congress for Applied Mechanics at Cambridge, Mass.

The roof is made of huge streaks of air, shaped like fish-hooks. One hook may be a third the breadth of the United States. Twenty or thirty of them may be detected on one day, roofing the United States from the Rockies to the Atlantic.

On special maps they resemble a mass of snakes, partly coiled. They appear to be the controls for the mixing bowl beneath them, the whirls of air which are "lows" or storms, when revolving in one direction, and "highs" or fair, in the other.

Their detection and their part in making the weather was reported by Dr. C. G. A. Rossby, of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. They were found by airplanes and weather sounding balloons.

"DEATH IS PEACEFUL"

We speak of the shadow of death, because we fear it as a darkness stabbed with pain. Yet there is one thing that no one ever seems to bother to point out for our comfort; and it is this:

That all the medical evidence points to death, not as an agony, but as a painless passing from consciousness to the last equivalent of sleep.

Did you ever read Dr. Alexis Carrel's "Man, the Unknown?" Dr. Carrel explains that death is not instantaneous. It consists of two stages: general death, or the death of the individual, and local death, or the death of the organs. General death takes place with the last beat of the heart. At this point, personality ceases and the man is biologically dead. But each organ dies at its own rate. The kidneys, for instance, can live on for more than an hour.

MEASURES VITAMIN "A"

Invention of a device which determines the Vitamin A content in the human system in 30 seconds is claimed by Dr. Lionel Bradley Pett, 28-year-old University of Alberta lecturer-scientist.

Lack of the vitamin is related closely to "night blindness," colds and other diseases of the nose and throat.

The device, simple in appearance but actually mathematically involved in its construction, outwardly resembles a circus midway "penny peep" machine. Staring into the peep-tubes, a patient's eyes are dazzled by a strong light shining on white paper.

The length of time taken for the eyes to return to normal shows any deficiency in Vitamin A content.

ARMS USELESS ON A WET DAY

Rheumatic Pains Relieved by Kruschen

Here is a noteworthy instance of the manner in which damp weather can affect the joints of one who is subject to rheumatic pains.

"I had been suffering from rheumatism very badly," a man writes, "and had such pains in my joints that I could hardly bear it, on a wet day especially. It pained me terribly to use my arms, and I was hardly able to work. I tried two different remedies, but I was still as bad after the treatment.

"Then I was told to try Kruschen Salts, which quickly brought relief. So of course I have kept on with it, and I am now much better and have never felt so fit for years. I used to feel so miserable and sluggish, but now it is a pleasure to be able to work."—S.B.

The pains and stiffness of rheumatism are often caused by uric acid crystals in the muscles and joints. The numerous salts in Kruschen assist in stimulating the internal organs to healthy, regular activity, and help them to eliminate excess uric acid.

Sergt. Gerald H. Meikle
15th Can 48th Highlanders.
Killed in action, 9th Aug. 1918.

After the signing of the Armistice which ended the World War in 1918, it was felt that there should be some memorial, or memorials, commemorating the heroic deeds of the boys from the M.C.I. in the Great War. It was then suggested by athletic students, that as Gerald Meikle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Meikle, of Morrisburg, had been the outstanding athlete, a memorial trophy, known as the Gerald Meikle Memorial, to be competed for in the track and field events each year by schools from the three United Counties, would be a fitting memorial. It was therefore unanimously agreed, in 1920, that such a trophy would be competed for each year. It has since then been won by Morrisburg, Winchester, Avonmore, Finch, Cornwall, and back to Morrisburg.

The competition has become a bit keener each year, and it is with great pride and renewed honor to the parents of the boys who made the supreme sacrifice, that our citizens acclaim the M.C.I. heroes of today.

SMITHS FALLS PAYS TRIBUTE TO J. J. MARSH

Smiths Falls yesterday paid striking tribute to the memory of Jay John Marsh, uncle of Messrs Chas. W. and Herbert Marsh, of Morrisburg, long prominent in municipal politics and seven times elected to the office of mayor, when the funeral was held from the J. J. Marsh and Sons Funeral Home to the United church, thence to Hillcrest cemetery, where the body was laid to rest.

Leaders in the political, business, social and fraternal life of that community and of the Ottawa valley rubbed shoulders with men and women of more humble walks of life as the lengthy cortege proceeded through streets closed to traffic, and all business was at a standstill, stores being closed to permit all citizens to pay their tribute to the man who had never tasted defeat at the polls during his career in public office.

Flags on the town hall and other municipal buildings as well as business blocks were at half mast throughout the afternoon.

Professional colleagues of the deceased, members and ex-members of town council, mayors of other Ottawa Valley towns, reeves and councillors of adjoining townships, members of Parliament and representatives of the numerous fraternal and other organizations and clubs of which the late Mr. Marsh had been a prominent and valued member mingled in the last throng of several hundred assembled to pay their last respects.

A private service for members of the family and immediate friends was held at the funeral home, Rev. A. D. Cornett, O.B.E., pastor of the United church, officiating. Rev. Mr. Cornett also officiated at the public service held in the United church, the huge auditorium being crowded to capacity while scores stood in the corridors and on the lawns outside.

High tribute to the honor, ability and generosity of the deceased was paid by Rev. Mr. Cornett in an eloquent eulogy. Rev. Mr. Cornett referred to the success which had attended Mr. Marsh's business efforts and spoke of the keen interest he had taken in his church. "It would be well for all of us if we could leave behind a record of faithful and efficient service as he has done," he said in conclusion.

Chief mourners were his widow, the former Annie M. Lawrence; two sons, Gordon and Lawrence, and one daughter, Florence; one sister, Miss Clara Marsh, Auburn, N.Y., and one brother, George of Carlisle, Sask.

Among the many noted in the lengthy cortege were T. A. Thompson, M.P., Lanark; Judge J. F. Wilson, Mayor G. C. Townsend and E. R. Stedman, Lanark county, treasurer, all of Perth; Dr. A. B. Parlow, high chief ranger for Eastern Ontario, .O.F., and Oliver Ellison, representative of the supreme chief ranger, both of Ottawa; Hon. H. A. Stewart, K.C.; Harry Sheridan, Brockville; Mayor R. G. Freeman, Prescott; Chas. W. Marsh, Morrisburg; Harry Armstrong, Thos. Hogan, George Gilmour, Spencerville William Edwards, Gananoque; Lyman Judson, Athens; J. Patterson, W. H. Matthews, Carleton Place; Reg Hanna and F. W. Clow, Kingston; R. Dickinson, Kemptville; J. Veach, Ottawa and many others.

Floral tributes were almost without number. Four cars were required to transport only a small part of the many beautiful floral emblems and designs.

BARKLEY—BRODBECK

A wedding of interest to residents of Morrisburg and Williamsburg, took place in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, on Tuesday at 1.30 p.m., when Miss Jeanne Lily Brodbeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brodbeck, formerly of Morrisburg, now of Ottawa, was joined in marriage to Stewart Gerald Barkley, of Little Long Lac, Ont., son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther C. Barkley of Williamsburg. Rev. Mr. Buehlow, pastor of St. Paul's conducted the ceremony. The church was very appropriately decorated, white asters and Gladioli being used. The wedding music was provided by the organist, Mr. J.M. Whitteker.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was a charming picture in her wedding dress of white brocade with bolero jacket, three-quarter length veil, white kid gloves, and shoes, carrying an arm bouquet of pink sweetheart roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Yvonne Brodbeck of Westmount, who was lovely in a gown of azure blue taffeta with bolero, satin slippers and cap with shoulder length veil.

Keith Casselman of Ottawa acted as best man.

Mrs. Brodbeck, mother of the bride wore a dress of aquamarine blue crepe with accessories. Mrs. Barkley, mother of the groom, wore a nicely designed dress of Royal blue velvet with matching hat, shoes and accessories, all wore shoulder bouquets of roses.

Following the marriage a delightful reception was held at the "Sign of the Ship" to the immediate friends and relatives, after which the bridal party left by motor for New York, Detroit and Niagara Falls. The bride wore her travelling costume of wine colored crepe with wine satin sash black coat with silver fox collar, black hat and shoes.

On their return they will take up residence in Little Long Lac, Ont.

The bride and groom are popular members of the community and have many friends who join in extending best wishes.

UNITED CHURCH NOTES

The theme of the Services next Sunday will be Thanksgiving. Probably no thanksgiving season for many years have we as a people more for which to be profoundly thankful than this year. One of the ways we can show our thanksgiving is to engage in the worship of God.

At the morning service the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered.

All the boys and girls who took the little books for recording the text of the sermon and their attendance at the Morning Service will be anxious to start this Sunday.

Last Tuesday evening the two groups of boys, Tuxis and Trail Rangers met and made plans for the coming year. The two groups will organize next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

The opening meeting of the Young Peoples' Union will be held next Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Officers will be elected and the years program discussed. All Young People are asked to be present.

There will be a service at No. 10 Schoolhouse this Sunday at 2.30 p.m.
