High School Will Open Sept. 3rd

At a special meeting of the local High School Board, held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to open the High School for the Autumn term on Tuesday, September 3rd.

Members of the Board had carefully considered the Department of Education's request to keep the school closed until October 1st, in order to allow the students to assist with farm work. A survey, made in this district, revealed that very few students were engaged in farm work at the present time, or would be during the next month. With this information at their disposal, the Board passed the following resolution:

"That the High School be opened on Tuesday, September 3rd, but that parents requiring pupils to work on farms till September 16th will have assurance that these pupils will be given extra instruction to make up for loss of time."

A copy of the above resolution was sent to the Department of Education for its approval.

While it has not yet been announced by the Public School Board, whether or not, the Public School will be opened on September 3rd, in all probability it will open on the same date as the High School. At least, the farm-labour situation in this district does not warrant it remaining closed for an extra two weeks, in the opinion of most parents, as well as the teachers.

2nd BATTALION OF HIGHLANDERS TO WEAR DENIM

Uniforms for members of the second battalion, Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders, N.P.A.M., are expected to arrive this week, according to authorities at Cornwall.

The men will wear denim battle dress designed for summer wear, khaki service caps, and will also be issued with boots.

A field tactical exercise at Cornwall on Sunday brought the training course for 13 officers of the regiment close to its completion. The next week or so will be spent in recapitulation of the work already covered, and it is expected examinations wil be held at Kingston in the near future, possibly during the first week the regiment is in military camp at Petawawa. The officers' course was in charge of Major T. A. K. Langstaff, officer commanding Headquarters Company of the Second Battalion of the Highlanders, at Cornwall.

Ontario Decides To Stop Relief To Employables

Provincial relief contributions to fully employable relief recipients, both male and female, will cease today under an order passed by the Ontario cabinet and announced on Monday by Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn.

Application of the order will be deferred only upon submission of evidence that the recipient cannot obtain work. In that case relief will be provided on a temporary basis.

The order is designed chiefly to relieve the present farm labor shortage. It provides that if a relief recipient goes to a farm he may retain half his earnings for his own and family necessities. In addition, the province will continue assistance to his wife and all children not fully employable.

"The order gives us an opportunity of re-examining every case," Premier Hepburn said. "Therefore it tends to eliminate the chance of fraud."

PROGRESS IS REPORTED ON CORNWALL GROUNDS

With a steady increasing number of men at work, considerable progress has been made on the site of the permanent camp being established at Cornwall for trainees under the compulsory military training plan. It is understood approximately $300,000 is being expended. Several buildings have been erected and will be completed early in the week, and large gangs are engaged in levelling the parade grounds. Sergeant Major Howard Stanton, of the Royal Canadian Engineers, Kingston, has general supervision of the contract, which is being done by Cornwall labor. General foreman is A. H. Miller, Kingston. While only 100 men were engaged at first, it is possible as many as 500 will be needed to complete the job by the September 21 deadline.

FINED FOR SPEEDING

On Wednesday evening last, Constable Biccum, of Morrisburg, halted a motorist who was driving through town at too rapid a rate for public safety. The offender was a Lachine man, who parted with $5 and costs. The same officer has summoned eight other offenders against the Motor Vehicles Act to appear before Magistrate McCormick here on August 26. Nearly all lacked a driver's license.

OBITUARY

FINAL TRIBUTE OF RESPECT PAID AT FUNERAL OF THE LATE ALBERT E. HOLMES

The funeral service of the late Albert E. Holmes, a prominent and widely respected citizen of Winchester Springs, whose death occurred on Sunday, Aug. 11th, 1940, was held from his late residence to the United Church, Winchester Springs, on Thursday afternoon, Aug. 15th, at 1.30 o'clock.

Service was conducted by the Rev. R. S. Smith, pastor. Mr. Smith spoke comforting words, taking the text Colossians, 3rd chapter, verses 1 to 4, and the Scripture reading, the 23rd Psalm.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs Clarence Thompson, sang favourite hymns of the deceased: "What A Friend We Have In Jesus," "Yes, There's One, Only One," and "Abide With Me." A trio, composed of Mrs. Orren Casselman, Mrs. Wm. Barkley and Mr. Basil Adams, rendered very feelingly: "Going Down The Valley."

Following the service, interment took place at Maple Ridge Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. Frank Nesbitt, Ernest Morrow, Clarence Thompson, Roy McIntosh, Fraser Bolton and Thomas Cunningham.

The late Mr. Holmes was born in Gloucester Township, a son of the late Thos. Holmes and his wife, Adelia Howes. When eleven months of age, he came to this district with his parents, and for the past thirty-six years resided at Winchester Springs, where he was widely known as a farmer and drover.

In his business dealings, the deceased was recognized as a splendid type of citizen. His sense of integrity and honour won for him a wide circle of friends who mourn his death. As a farmer, he built up a fine home and a splendid herd of Holstein cattle, in which he took great pride.

Left to mourn his passing besides his devoted wife, the former Miss Louisa Turner, are four daughters, Mrs. Alvin Steele (Della), Winchester Springs; Mrs. Almon McIntosh (Mina), Inkerman; Mrs. Blake Ball (Dora), Chesterville, and Mrs. Leonard Worster (Lou), at home; eight sons, Thos. and Harry Holmes, Winchester Springs; Oliver, of Brockville; Leslie, of Williamsburg; Nathaniel, of Hinton, Alta.; Edwin, of Spruce Lake, Sask.; Robert and Irwin, at home; also three brothers, Clarence and Hobart Holmes, Winchester, and Oscar Holmes, of Inkerman; three sisters, Mrs. John Francis, Mountain; Mrs. Wm Smith, Chesterville, and Mrs. Charles Summers, Massena, N. Y.

Testifying to the high esteem in which the late Mr. Holmes was held, were floral tributes from the following:

Gates A-Jar—Wife and family.

Annable and family; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Turner; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McIntosh and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McIntosh, Williamsburg; Mrs. Nathaniel Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holmes and Miss Sadie Holmes; M. Local Registration Completed Yesterday

Nearly 900 people registered here on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, in complying with the National Registration Act. Of this number, over 600 had their forms completed on the first day. The local deputy-registrars were given valuable assistance by over twenty volunteer workers and, as a result, their tasks were made easy. The work was completed without a hitch. There was no great rush at any time during the three days. According to the registrars, local citizens had studied the forms carefully before coming to the registration booths and, in most cases, the questions were answered promptly, resulting in a minimum loss of time. There was no last minute rush to register—yesterday and last evening only the odd person called to complete their forms.

Registration booths were open from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. during the three days.

Locey, who was credited with saving three persons from drowning by rescuing them in a boat, suffered severe head cuts and spent the night in hospital, but was released the following evening. Several other Cornwall people were also injured in the same accident, but none serious.

Carleton County Remains Conservative

G. Russell Boucher, of Ottawa, was elected member of the Dominion Parliament, in the bye-election, held in Carleton County on Monday. Mr. Boucher contested the seat under the Conservative banner and won easily over his opponent, Nelson McCracken, New Democracy candidate, of Westboro. Mr. Boucher's majority is unofficially announced at nearly 5,000. Mr. McCracken failed to poll a sufficient number of votes and will lose his deposit of $200.00.

The seat was made vacant through the death of Dr. A. B. Hyndman.

DECENNIAL CENSUS IN 1941

Despite the national registration, Aug. 19, 20 and 21, the decennial Canadian census will be taken next year, starting on June 2nd. It will be the eighth decennial tabulation of Canadians, the last one having been in 1931, and will take several weeks to complete. It is required by the British North America Act that the census be taken every 10 years and thus the national registration this year would not meet constitutional requirements.

CANADA'S POSTAL SERVICE

Canada's first postal service dates back to the French regime, when letters of the governor and the intendant were carried by an appointed messenger, who was also permitted to carry mail intrusted to him by private persons

The fee allowed the messenger was 10 sous for a letter between Quebec and Montreal, and 5 sous to Three Rivers, with proportionate charges for greater or shorter distances.

The first of these couriers was Pierre de Silva, known as "the Portuguese," who received his commission from Raudot, the intendant, in 1705.

When Canada came under British rule the first regular postal service was established in 1763 by Benjamin Franklin, then deputy postmaster general for the American colonies, who opened a post office at Quebec with subordinate offices at Three Rivers and Montreal.

Second War Loan To Be Issued Next Month

Canada will issue a second war loan early next month, seeking a total of from $250,000,000 to $300,000,000 in new money.

The first war loan was issued in January when a total of $200,000,000 was sought. The loan was heavily oversubscribed and the Government accepted subscriptions for more than $300,000,000.

Terms of the loan, it is expected, will be announced September 6, probably being followed by the opening of the books for the loan September 9. If this schedule is followed it is likely that the new loan will be delivered to purchasers about October 1.

While holders of Dominion of Canada 4 1-2 per cent. bonds maturing on September 1 may, of course, obtain repayment of their bonds on that date, Mr. Ilsley said it was expected a large number of such holders will wish to renew their investment in Dominion of Canada securities and will therefore not present their maturing bonds for payment until the terms of the second war loan have been announced.

The amount of the loan will be increased to provide new bonds issued as a renewal of the maturing obligations. Provision will be made to compensate holders of the maturing bonds who decide to convert into the new loan for any loss of interest which they may sustain as a result of the dating of the new bonds.

Fashionable Wedding Took Place Tuesday

SCOTT—ROBINSON

Of quiet charm and interest was the wedding ceremony which was solemnized on Tuesday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Robinson, of Winchester, when their sister, Freeda (Bobbie) Robinson, Reg. N., of Ottawa, was united in marriage to Mr. Ross Melvin Scott, only son of Mrs. R. M. Scott and the late Mr. Scott, of Winchester. The Rev. Harrison L. Lamond, of Morrisburg, officiated.

The ceremony took place in the living room archway, which was banked with gladiola in pastel shades. The wedding music was played by Miss Clara Irving, and during the signing of the register Mr. Fred Johnston sang "Because."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was unattended. She wore a floor length model of Turquoise Blue silk sheer, fashioned on Grecian lines, with matching bolero and circular shoulder veil, which was held in place with pink rosebuds. She carried Butterfly roses and Bouvardia in shower.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Scott left on a motor trip to Timmins, by way of Toronto and the Muskoka Lakes District. For travelling, the bride chose a smart La Rue model of Imperial Blue Crepe Romain and a small fur felt hat of the same shade. Matching accessories and tailored beige coat completed her costume. On their return they will reside at Winchester, Ontario.

The out-of-town guests included Mrs. G. T. Gilroy, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kenney and Miss Margaret Kenney, of South Mountain; Mrs. M. H. VanAllen, of Morrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, of Moncton, N. B.; Miss Jean Scott, of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Henry, Misses Phyliss Henderson, Catherine McLeod and Grace Hay, of Ottawa

LATE WM. JAMES ELLIS

The death of the late William James Ellis took place at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Willaim Sayyeau, Ventnor, on August 19th, following an illness of fifteen months' duration.

The late Mr Ellis was in his 75th year. He was born and lived his entire life in Pleasant Valley, up until his sickness in August of 1939, at which time he was removed to his son-in-law's home where every possible care was given to help relieve his suffering, by his devoted wife and daughter.

He was a devoted and loving husband and father. He was active up until recent years in serving his community in different activities, being a member of the school board of that section, an Elder and valued member of the Presbyterian Church, and a member of the Cemetery Board of South Mountain.

SHOW RESPECT

As the National Anthem sounds the final to most public meetings, we cannot help but notice how some citizens—good Canadians and Britishers, everyone—fail to respect the notes of the National Anthem as they float away on the air. Some continue to gaze into space and stand slouchily in place of coming to attention with feet together, eyes straight ahead, and hands by the side. Why some men fail to take off their hats when the Anthem is being played is another question. This is an untorgiveable omission. Why men fail to remove their top pieces when the National Anthem is being played, not only in war time but also in peace time, is something we fail to understand.

Too many people think they would be making themselves conspicuous by doing the ethical thing during the playing or singing of the National Anthem.

It is not hard to stand erect, head bared, with feet and hands in proper position; not nearly as hard as to stand slouchily with hands in pockets and feet pointing at any old angle.

And remember, this is far more noticeable now that Canada is at war, and the Canadian people are war conscious.

Let everyone stand at attention next time you hear the National Anthem.

BLITZKRIEG OVER ENGLAND

Blitzkrieg Over England—that is what has been going on for the past week or so. "Blitzkrieg" is Hitler's name for a lightning war—and if the Royal Air Force can keep up the good work it has accomplished to date, this so-called Blitzkrieg is doomed to failure for the first time since Hitler introduced it. By that, we don't mean to say that these air raids by thousands of German planes are not doing considerable damage in England—they are. On the other hand, the Nazis are suffering severe losses in both machines and pilots and this cannot go on indefinitely without gradually weakening their air force. They may be able to replace the planes at the rate of 1800 per month, but they cannot replace the pilots at the same rate.

The Royal Air Force has better and faster machines and more efficient pilots and gunners to man them. Where it doesn't compare with the German Air Force, is in the number of aeroplanes, but at the rate the Nazi machines are being destroyed during their attacks on the British Isles, it is just a matter of time until the R. A. F. will be numerical superior to them and then—watch out Mr. Hitler. Let's all hope and pray that this day is not too far distant.

COLD TYPE IS RELIABLE

Illustrative of the difference between fact and rumor, the Windsor Star relates the story of the man who remarked to a friend: "I hear you've just made $50,000.00 in the insurance business."

"That's right," replied the friend, "except for one or two particulars. It was real estate, not insurance; it was $75,000.00, not $50,000.00, and I didn't make it, I lost it."

We can probably all recall things we have said to someone which have come back to us so distorted that we hardly recognized them. Stories passed by word of mouth from one person to another change so materially that after going the rounds, often nothing more than a skeleton of truth remains.

Almost any claim may be made verbally in behalf of a product, but the manufacturer and merchant who advertise their wares in the newspaper must be scrupulously accurate in everything they say.

You can depend upon it, the product advertised in your local paper, is just what it is represented to be. The quality is as thoroughly standardized as the calendar. It can't be anything less !

FARMERS WILL NOT COMPLAIN

In times like these farmers will not complain very much if the Government and administrative boards exercise a rigid control which is fair to all affected parties and interests, says the Farmers Advocate. We have a Bacon Board with all the needed power and everyone connected with the bacon industry will do their best work if the Board can declare, and the people are assured, that even if prices are not satisfactory no one has enjoyed an advantage and that equity and justice have been fearlessly measured out to all. The assured price for the amount of bacon necessary to supply the British quota and the surplus of hogs have combined to create a price problem that is annoying producers, and, acording to a statement filed by the small domestic packers, is ruining them. The domestic packers, who do not and cannot export, can only pay a price for hogs justified by the domestic market, but they must buy on the open market in competition with packers who for a part of their product have an assured outlet at the price paid by the Bacon Board. If the rulings of the Board are fair to all concerned, then we shall have to endure the outcome, and it will help to maintain confidence throughout this highly organized and complex industry, including producers and processors, if the Bacon Board will, on frequent occasions, interpret its rulings to all branches of this huge enterprise.

PROOF THAT SPEED KILLS !

A recent survey covering injuries and deaths in which motor cars figured last year is reported currently in a statement issued by the Industrial Accident Prevention Associations. The survey showed that over 36 per cent. of those killed were in accidents attributed to "exceeding the speed limit." Under the same heading came more than 22 per cent. of the injured.

The same record, which covers only actions of drivers resulting in deaths and injuries, deals with such other questions as: operating on wrong side of road, did not have right-of-way, cutting in, passing standing street car, passing on curve or hill, passing on wrong side, failed to signal and improper signalling, car ran away in absence of driver, drove off roadway, and reckless driving. Any motorist with an ounce of common-sense can exercise control on every one of these points.

Speaking of pedestrian deaths, the report pointed out that while a pedestrian takes a single step and advances one yard, an automobile being operated at 30 miles per hour advances nine yards.

EDITORIAL NOTES

It is reported that the leaflets, which were showered over south-western England by Nazi airmen, are being sold for a sixpense. There was more profit for the author in "Mein Kampf."

The Press joins with their many friends in extending its sincere sympathy to Editor Arthur Laurin and his mother, Mrs. Leo. Laurin, publishers of The Morrisburg Leader, in the tragic death of three members of their family, by drowning, last week.

It might be a good idea for the local school boards to decide on what date the Winchester schools will open this year. In some sections, schools are opening on the 3rd of September, regardless of Mr. Hepburn's request to keep them closed until the 16th. Others are respecting the Premier's wish. What is Winchester going to do?

The possibility of getting fewer circulars when you call at the Post Office for your mail, is quite probable in view of a new postal ruling which raises the half-cent privilege of distributing circulars through the mails to one cent. Alert advertisers will not be seriously affected, as for a general rule they have long and successfully contacted the buying public in their home communities by the use of the weekly newspapers.

One of the easiest things to do is to find fault. You can find fault over anything at all. The opposite thing is a thankful heart. You ask, "What have I to be thankful for?" Well, for more things than we have space to put in the Calendar. There is no use making a long list of things. A thankful heart is a way of looking at life. If you want to feel mean and act mean, just be ungrateful. If you want to be happy, useful, and do good work, think of the things you have for which you are grateful. Then go out with a thankful heart.

Did you register this week? If you didn't, you are liable to a heavy fine. There is no logical excuse you can offer for your delinquency—you were warned of the consequences for failure to register and if you are punished for not observing the National Registration Law, you deserve it. To those who did register, it is well for them to remember that they must carry their registration cards with them at all times. If you should happen to lose your identification card, you should apply for a duplicate immediately.

Each one of us is the daily beneficiary of a fund of blessing coming to us from other men, and other days, and to which we have in no measure contributed. We are thus laid under a heavy obligation of debt which is growing day by day, and which demands some measure of discharge on our part. We cannot repay those of other days who have sacrificed for us; we can seldom repay even the living to whom we are in debt. There is only one way in which we can discharge the obligation, and that is to render unto others even as it has been rendered unto us.

August 15th has come and gone—that was the date on which Hitler predicted he would be in London. Evidently he misjudged the fighting qualities and defensive tactics of the British Nation. At any rate, the German maniac wasn't in London on the date he was scheduled to be, and never will be as a "victor over England." The day may come, however, when he will be present in the Empire's Capital—he will not come of his own accord, but will be brought there to stand trial and answer for all the misery and hardships he has inflicted on the millions of people who have been victims of his mad-crazed mind. There'll Always Be An England, and Hitler is probably commencing to realize that. At least, he knows he is dealing with a nation that will never surrender, no matter how tough the going is.

When President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Mackenzie King held a Conference at Ogdensburg over the week-end, to discuss a joint plan for the defence of this continent, the ground work was laid for a co-operative scheme to protect Canada and the United States from possible invasion by Hitler or any other European Dictator. In unity there is strength—and who knows what either country must face in the future? For over 100 years, Canadians and Americans have enjoyed peace, and it is to be hoped that from what was discussed at the conference between Messrs. Roosevelt and King, will emerge a defence plan which will enable the two countries, by co-operation, to keep our enemies from waging war on this continent. Canada, in particular, should welcome this opportunity to become a partner to such a scheme, and should co-operate to the fullest.

"The Voice of the Press"

YOU CAN'T WIN

(London Daily Sketch)

If a man runs after money, he's money-mad; if he keeps it he's a capitalist; if he spends it, he's a playboy; if he doesn't get it, he's a ne'er-do-well; if he doesn't try to get it, he lacks ambition. If he gets it without working for it, he's a parasite; and if he accumulates it after a lifetime of hard work, people call him a fool who never got anything out of life.

THE DELAY OF JUSTICE

(Trenton Courier-Advocate)

In Canada we boast about the speed of our courts. But here's a case to point. Mr. and Mrs. Wellman, Rawdon Township, were murdered in February and a man accused of the crime has been held in Belleville jail ever since. This is one time justice in this country has been asleep at the switch. The accused man should have been tried long ago and if innocent, liberated. Presumably he will not appear until the Fall Assizes usually held in September.

FREE RIDES FOR SOLDIERS

(Carleton Place Canadian)

A suggestion was made by a member before Parliament took its annual recess that the railways should provide free transportation for soldiers on leave. This does not seem unreasonable when it is remembered that every freight train carries a number of transients free. True, transients ride on freights usually and apparently no effort is made to stop them, but surely the railways, with their greatly increased business, could provide transportation for soldiers in uniform when not engaged on official business.

THE WORLD OF ILLUSION

(Midland Free Press)

In a brilliant article chiding the American politicians of both major parties for still living in a world of illusion in which party politics can be played as usual, Walter Lippman, American newspaperman, who knows whereof he talks, declares that "The Battle of Britain involves our whole position in the Far East, the whole structure of the Monroe Doctrine, the whole question of whether we are to live in a democratic or a totalitarian world. This battle is the most decisive battle of modern history." Some of our politicians at Ottawa are still living in that world of illusion.

CAMP BEVERAGE ROOM

(Barrie Examiner)

A beverage room has been opened at Camp Borden to cater to the thirsty ones among the civilians working there. As far as we know, this is the first authority granted in a military camp in Canada to supply beer to civilians. We fail to see any valid reason for setting up this beverage room at Camp Borden. It looks very much like another illustration of the Liquor Control Board's policy to extend the selling of beer as widely as possible for the financial benefit of the provincial treasury—and the brewers. News of the big payroll at the camp evidently had not escaped the attention of the board.

JUST A SILLY OLD MAN

(Almonte Gazette)

The fallacy of allowing doddering old men to hold down positions of great national responsibility is clearly outlined by the senile acts of the Petain ghost government of France at Vichy. No great battle ever was won by a very old man. Napoleon, Marlborough, Wellington, Grant, Lee and nearly all the outstanding military leaders of history were middle-aged men. General Wolfe was in his thirties. The pungent French proverb: "If youth knew: if age could," is most applicable to the silly old gray beard, who is now trying to conduct a puppet administration under the thumb of Hitler and demon colleagues.

PRICE-FIXING OF NECESSITIES OF LIFE

(Perth Courier)

We think, somebody in some department at Ottawa, slipped a cog a few days ago.

A press release from the office of the Director of Public Information, sent out a few days ago said: "Exercising for the first time its power to fix prices for the necessities of life, the Wartime Prices and Trade Board pegged bread and flour prices at quotations obtaining on July 23. This was before the 15-cents a bushel processing tax on wheat came into force."

We distinctly remember, some price-fixing of sugar, to prevent undue upward fluctuations or profiteering, about the time of the declaration of war, and understood that it was the same board in action.

However, the main thing is that the board is active and is functioning in the interests of the people as a whole whenever any need for action develops.

HITLER'S BRAIN-STORM

(Pickering News)

Canadians have a great stroke of luck in store for them. When Hitler conquers Britain and all her colonies, including Canada, he will give a solemn pledge (we all know what Hitler's solemn pledges are like) that he will hand Canada over to the United States, and will promise faithfully that he will not interfere with the Americans. This is great news for Canada. Instead of being forced into slavery and poverty by being ruled by Germany, we will enjoy freedom and justice under the United States rule. But there is one thing that will hinder the realization of this bright prospect—Hitler has not yet conquered Briain or Canada, and we firmly believe that he never will. Besides, we do not believe that the United States would thank him for the gift. They are on the friendliest terms with Canada, and unlike Hitler, have too much honour in them to stoop to such a dishonourable action.

SEEK HAVEN HERE

(Leamington Post & News)

Canada has a wonderful opportunity in offering permanent residence to many Europeans who can bring to us something of that continent's wealth and culture. Wealthy and influential persons are seeking havens on this continent and many of them are representatives of the great names in European history. They have inherited wealth and talents that made the Old World famous through the centuries. Scores of these wish to make their homes in Canada and they could make an important contribution here.

Speaking along this line, The Financial Post upholds the idea of welcoming them to Canada. The Post says: "Against any who might prove traitorous we must be doubly cautious. But, assuming precautions are taken, should not Canada continue to offer a haven for men of wealth and business experience who can bring to this country not only substantial wealth in the form of cash and investments but also art and other treasures? If Europe is bent on self-destruction, Canada's opportunity would be in offering permanent residence to those who can bring to us at first hand something of its wealth and culture."

BRITAIN IS NOT RESPONSIBLE

(Brockville Recorder & Times)

It is authoritatively stated that Britain will not allow any food into German-occupied Europe. This statement was prompted by the assertion of John Cudahy, United States Ambassador to Belgium, that conditions "close to famine" will prevail in that country unless American shipments get through. The envoy said that the nearness of famine conditions was turning Europe into "a howling hell," and asked, "what do you think it will be this winter?"

This gloomy picture was discounted, however, by the following British comment: "It is not at all certain that Europe will be in such a bad way over food as Mr. Cudahy thinks. Belgium and the other occupied countries will have to make up their shortages from Germany. If the Germans are prepared to share fully, there probably won't be any famine in Europe this winter."

Of course, Nazi Germany, having no concern whatsoever about the peoples whose countries it has overthrown, and whose means of livelihood it has destroyed, will not share its larder with the starving victims of its policy of devastating aggression, lest it might eventually be handicapped in its prosecution of the war. It will look to other countries says the St. Thomas Times Journal, notably the United States, to feed those it has brought to the brink of starvation, and will violently declaim against Britain if it should refuse to permit food to reach territories occupied by the enemy.

"Well, the dean says 'Finally,' and finishes; but the bishop says, 'Lastly,' and he lasts."

N.P.A.M. Will Operate On Expanding Scale

As the gateway to Canada's three full-time fighting services, the Canadian Active Service Force, the Royal Canadian Navy and the Royal Canadian Air Force, the Non-Permanent Active Militia of Canada will function on an expanding scale for the balance of the war.

The militia is now in a state of transition from the system of voluntary enlistment to one of recruitment by compulsory calls.

The signing of the last volunteers on August 15th put most of the units comprising the militia at the full war strength authorized for them. In October the first of the men called up by age groups will start their 30-day training stint in the 39 training centres scattered across the country. On completing it they will be attached to militia units, either as they are now constituted, or in second or third battalions of established units.

As more and more men of the preferred ages for service pass through the basic training provided by for militiamen, the permanent services will look more and more to militia units as a source of volunteers.

Every militiaman will know something about military organization and discipline and so will be easier to start on the way towards proficiency in any branch of the service than a man who has never faced a drill sergeant on the parade ground.

Enlistment in the C.A.S.F., which involves a declaration of willingness to serve anywhere in Canada or abroad, as well as in the air force and the navy, is voluntary. So far there has been no shortage of volunteers.

CANADA'S WAR EFFORT

A Weekly Review of Developments on the Home Front: Aug. 16 to 23.

1. Col. J. L. Ralston announced that 30,000 single men of around 21 will be called early in October for thirty days military training.

2. Thirty-nine military training centres are being prepared across the Dominion.

3 A total of 300,000 men will be trained during the ensuing year as part of the non-permanent active militia units.

4. Construction cost of the camps will be about $9,000,000.

5. Orders in Council passed amplifying the powers of David C. Dick, wool administrator.

6. J. S. Duncan, deputy minister of National Defence for Air, announced that by the end of the present year, the British Commonwealth Air Training plan, so far as construction of buildings airdromes is concerned, will have reached the objective originally set for the end of 1941.

7. The Canadian Government is to spend close to $1,000,000 to strengthen Newfoundland's land and sea airplane bases at Gander Lake and Botwood, announced Hon. C. G. Power, Minister of National Defence for Air. These bases have been guarded by Canadian troops since the beginning of the war.

8. Contracts awarded by the Department of Munitions and Supply during the past week number 1753 and total $8,067,620.

FARMERS URGED TO PRODUCE

At a dominion provincial conference held in Ottawa recently, the agricultural supplies board announced that Britain wants all the cheese that Canada can produce. As this is the only farm commodity for which Britain has given Canada a blanket order, steps should be taken to increase cheese production.

With a surplus of hay and a prospect of relatively low prices for grain, farmers are urged to turn their cows into their alfalfa fields, or to feed them green oats, and keep up the milk supply.

A leaflet carrying definite recommendations for feeding will be distributed to all cheese factory patrons this week. In the meantime, farmers are advised to help solve the labor problem by letting the cows help harvest the second crop of alfalfa and those fields of poor grain.

WHEN THE BOYS COME HOME AGAIN

There'll be banners waving proudly;
All the world shall echo cheers—
There'll be mothers, wives and sweethearts,
Smiling greetings through glad tears,
There'll be bandsmen playing loudly,
With their souls in ev'ry beat—
"There'll always be an England;
A million marching feet."

There'll be gaiety and laughter
And folk dancing in mid streets
Airman, soldier and jolly tar
Shall narrate Adolph's defeat.
There'll be thanks to God our Father,
Wherever loyal hearts roam,
For victory and freedom—
When the boys come home.

TO A REFUGEE

Canada, the land of the Maple,
With its homes so safe and free
Will hold its arms wide open
To the children across the sea.

This land of plenty is waiting
To welcome each daughter and son
Who come to our land for safety
From a ruthless Nazi gun.

Think of our own wee children
Safe in their beds at night!
We tuck in a fair-haired stranger
Far away from the land of fright.

So, welcome, dear refugee children,
We take each one to our heart
We give you homes and loving care
Till time for us to part.

—Helen Burns.

A FRIEND

Sometimes when life has gone wrong with you,
And the world seems a dreary place,
Has your dog ever silently crept to your feet,
His yearning eyes turned to your face.

Has he made you feel that he understands,
And all that he asks of you
Is to share your lot, be it good or ill,
With a chance to be loyal and true?

Your birth and your station are nothing to him;
A palace and a hut are the same—
And his love is yours, in honor and peace,
And it's yours through disaster or shame.

Though others forget you, and pass you by,
He is ever your faithful friend,
Who is ready to give you the best that is his,
Unstintedly to the end.

TO A DICTATOR

In the recesses of your twisted brain,
Hidden and stifled lest the crowd should hear—
And hearing, rise to end your monstrous reign—
Listen! The voice of fear!

In vain your turbid shunderings of hate,
The mask of fury on your features laid.
These nothing serve to turn aside the fate
Of which you stand afraid.

Oh! man who strode through blood to reckless power.
Who climbs on corpses to ignoble height,
Swiftly, inevitably comes that fateful hour
Plunging you into night.

Shivering, crying, stripped of all your show,
Alone, unguarded, haunted by the tears
Of anguished mothers, you will learn to know
The meaning of your fears.

Through suffering you will learn that as you sow
So shall you reap, until the bitter grain
Is harvested in misery; and slow
The mills grind on again.

Tyrants have crossed the planet ere this day;
Dead and forgotten, a few feet of the sod
Shrouds their poor bodies; but their souls still pay
The penalty of God.

—Ray Brown, Ottawa

HITLER—THE LOUSE

To Hitler

Hitler, you louse of all the human race.
Such salutation even does thee grace,
You measure with the bloody deeds you've done
And boasted such as glorious vict'ries won.

For all the innocents whose blood you've shed,
For all that by your filthy hand lay dead
Your dirty Nazi scoundrels with yourself
Will squirm tormented in the throes of Hell.

Good luck to you old boy when that day comes
When you and all your filthy crew of Huns
Will have to stand and give an honest reason
For all this lust of power, and crime, and treason.

Those of us then who give our worldly all
For King and country fighting, when we fall
Pass on the torch of truth, held high, aflame,
To sons who'll carry on and staunch remain.

Hitler, your height you've reached, you dirty louse,
For British hands and hearts are truly roused,
We stand, the stricken nations to defend,
On none save God alone do we depend.

He is our sure refuge and our strength
Throughout the British Empire breadth and length.
A noble task, alone we stand to do
For all that's just and all that's good and true.

The Union Jack no Hun shall e'er disgrace
While there is blood that marks the British race.
Upon the land, in air, and on the sea,
Britannia rules and Britons shall be free.

Danny Hunter, London, 1940.

Britain Needs Cheese

Supplementary Feeding to Maintain Cheese Production

Cheese is the one farm product of which Great Britain will take all supplies that Canada can produce.

Approximately 72 per cent. of the total cheese produced in Canada is manufactured in Ontario.

Greatly increased quantities of Canadian cheese for Britain can be provided if patrons of cheese factories and combined butter and cheese factories plan to produce more milk. This can be done by supplementary feeding when pastures are short and by extending the factory season.

With the low grain prices anticipated, farmers should not be afraid to turn some of this year's harvest over to milch cows when pastures get short. Many successful dairymen rely on home-grown grains for supplementing pastures. Unfortunately many dairymen do not commence grain feeding until milk production has dropped and then it is difficult to get the flow of milk back to its previous level. This condition should be carefully watched and guarded against. While generally considered more expensive than silage, grain feeding has the advantage of being easy to feed and requires a small amount of labour.

Failure to supplement pastures causes tremendous annual losses to dairymen.

Grain Feeding on Pasture.

The average pasture provides only limited amounts of high quality feed after the middle of June. When pasture grass approaches maturity, its fibre content increases and its nutritive value decreases. In general, the feed supplied by mature pasture has very little more value than hay, and the amount of milk cows can produce is no greater than would be expected where hay forms the entire ration.

As pastures approach maturity, supplementary feeding should commence by the addition of a meal mixture containing about 16 per cent. protein.

A suitable grain ration may be prepared from the following:

300 lbs ground or rolled oats or barley, 200 lbs. ground or rolled wheat, 200 lbs. bran or shorts or corn glutin feed, 100 lbs. linseed oil meal or soybean or cottonseed meal.

The quantity of grain fed will depend on the amount of pasture available. Feed enough grain to maintain production and to prevent the cow from losing flesh. Approximately one pound of grain mixture for every four pounds of milk produced is recommended. If necessary, feed silage, which is one of the cheapest forms of succulent fall feeds

Provide water, salt, mineral mixture, shade and protection again flies.

DILLABOUGH—BOYD

(Intended For Last Week)

St. James United Church, Ottawa, was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon when at four o'clock the marriage of Miss Freida Mildred Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Boyd, to Mr. John Alexander Ralph Dillabough, son of Mr. Orrin Dillabough of Morewood, and the late Mrs. Dillabough, was solemnized by Rev. J. Richmond Craig.

Mr. Bramwell Bailey played the wedding music and during the signing of the register Miss Margaret Wilson played a violin solo, "On Wings of Song."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lois, as bridesmaid. Mr. Howard Wright was groomsman and the ushers were Mr. Lloyd Boyd and Mr. Stanley Craig, the latter of North Bay.

A lovely gown in champagne pink silk marquisette was worn by the bride. Chantilly lace was used effectively in the bodice and her fingertip veil was in the same shade. A bouquet of Rapture roses and bouvardia was carried.

The bridesmaid had chosen a forget-me-not blue gown in mousseline de soie, fashioned on graceful lines. Her bouquet was of Briarcliffe roses and she wore roses in her hair.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Dillabough left for Muskoka, where they will spend their honeymoon. For travelling the bride wore a slate blue ensemble with matching accessories. They will reside in Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gibb, London; Mr. and Mrs. R. Dillabough, Chesterville; Mr .and Mrs. Dwight Dillabough, Schenectady; Mr .and Mrs. V. Fetterly, Morewood; Mr. and Mrs. J. Morrow, Stittsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Craig, Metcalfe, were among the guests attending the wedding.

OUTSTANDING GIFT FROM MR. HITLER GIVEN TO ENGLAND

Hitler is providing a generous dietary to one considerable section of Holland's living things.

Dutch cattle are growing fat on tulip bulbs.

The Nazis have wiped out Holland's fields of daffodils, hyacinths and tulips. There is a ban on all bulb growing, so Dutch stocks are now being destroyed or used up for cattle feed. The cattle like tulip bulbs best.

The result is that England has just offered U. S. A. 40,000,000 English-grown daffodil, tulip and hyacinth bulbs for £250,000.

Little Holland, in Lincolnshire, has already got 6,000 acres of bulbs; for some years now the Dutch growers themselves have come to England for the costier specimens.

The British minister of agriculture had ruled that not more than three-quarters of last year's bulb acreage should be sown, but the order will probably be cancelled as flower bulbs today are more valuable to England than cabbages.

Roosevelt, a great flower lover, has a magnificent display of bulb flowers at Hyde Park, his New York home.

His favorite is the tulip, with daffodils second.

DAIRY FARMERS NOW GIVEN AN OPPORTUNITY TO HELP WIN THE WAR

Great Britain needs Canadian Cheese—all of it that can be produced. The Agricultural Supplies Board has definitely requested an increased make of cheese. The British Ministry of Food, it is understood, will take much greater amounts of our Cheese.

Carleton County last year produced milk for 40 Cheese Factories—sufficient to turn out over 61,000 boxes of cheese. This represents a make of over 5 1-2 million pounds—a million dollar industry, in the country. The make this year is running ahead of last year's figures not only in quantity but in quality.

There is room for a considerably increased make in the remaining months of the year by:

(1) Extra feeding of Dairy cows.

(2) By extending the Cheese Factory season.

Suggestions on supplementary feeding to maintain Cheese production are being distributed in leaflet form to all Cheese Factory patrons. The facts are that when pasture grass approaches maturity its nutritive value decreases.

A mixed grain ration containing some high protein meal, such as soybean meal, and fed at rate of 3 to 10 lbs. per cow daily depnding on her production, will assist greatly in keeping up milk production. A little silage as well will help in maintaining the milk flow.

There is a strong feeling of patriotism among farmers. They want to do something to help in the war. The maintenance of milk production for cheese making is an important way of doing their bit.

HINTS FOR THE HOME

Fever Blister.

Spirits of camphor is usually effective in helping to clear away that nasty fever blister,

Casement Windows.

If your home is equipped with casement windows, oil the hinger occasionally to prevent any possibility of their rusting.

Glossy Finish.

Add a little borax to the water in which sateen or cotton material with a glossy finish is rinsed, and it will help retain the shiny surface.

Kitchen Apparel.

The best material to wear when cooking odorous vegetables in the kitchen is cotton. Woollen dresses tend to retain the odors of the vegetables.

Bed of Stones.

Placing a bed of small stones directly in front of the basement windows will prevent mud from splashing up on the windows in rainy weather.

Improved Clothes Line.

Soak the new clothes line in hot water hang out to dry, and then rub a cake of wax over it. This will keep it pliable and waterproof.

Saves Trips.

The wise housewife will pin a needle case on her dress while sweeping to collect all the pins and needles she finds on the floor. This saves her many trips to the pin cushion.

Mending Lace.

When mending a hole in lace, place a piece of paper under the hole and stitch on the machine until the hole is filled. Then pick out the paper. Fine thread should be used for the stitching.

Celery.

Celery is excellent for those who suffer from nervous diseases and rheumatism. It can be cooked with a cream sauce, or just stewed with a butter sauce. Use it with salads, stewed tomatoes, or stuffings.

Less Breakage.

Put the new glassware into a pan of cold water and heat gradually until the water has reached the boiling point. Then remove from the stove and allow the glass to cool in the water. This treatment will decrease greatly the chances of breakage.

Ecrue Curtains.

When ecrue curtains become faded after repeated washings, they may be re-tinted by adding a clear solution of tea to the last rinse water, suiting the quantity of tea used to the shade of scrue desired. Usually a wet fabric is twice as deep in color as the dry one will be.

Roof Paint

A very satisfactory roof paint can be made by heating six to seven parts of coal tar pitch until thoroughly melted. After removing from the fire, add slowly and with constant stirring three parts of solvent naphtha. If it is desired that this coal tar paint contain asbestos, mix in one part of asbestos fibre to nine parts of the above paint.

WOLTHAUSEN—STONE

Gladioli and cosmos formed an attractive setting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Stone, Iroquois, on Saturday, when their only daughter, Edna Marjorie, became the bride of Gerald Murray, son of Mrs. Wolthausen and the late Frederic K. Wolthausen, of Brockville.

Rev M. I. Robinson, Morewood, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Edith Render played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white silk marquisette with velva ray embroidery. Her head dress was a coronet of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of Rapture roses and stephanotis. Her only ornament was a wedgewood broach.

Miss Elizabeth Wolthausen, Brockville, was the bride's only attendant. Mr. W. Laverty, Brockville, was groomsman.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Wolthausen left by motor for Quebec City. For travelling the bride wore an English tailored navy suite with white accessories. On their return they will reside at 74 Church street, Brockville.

UNIFORMS MADE FOR COMFORT

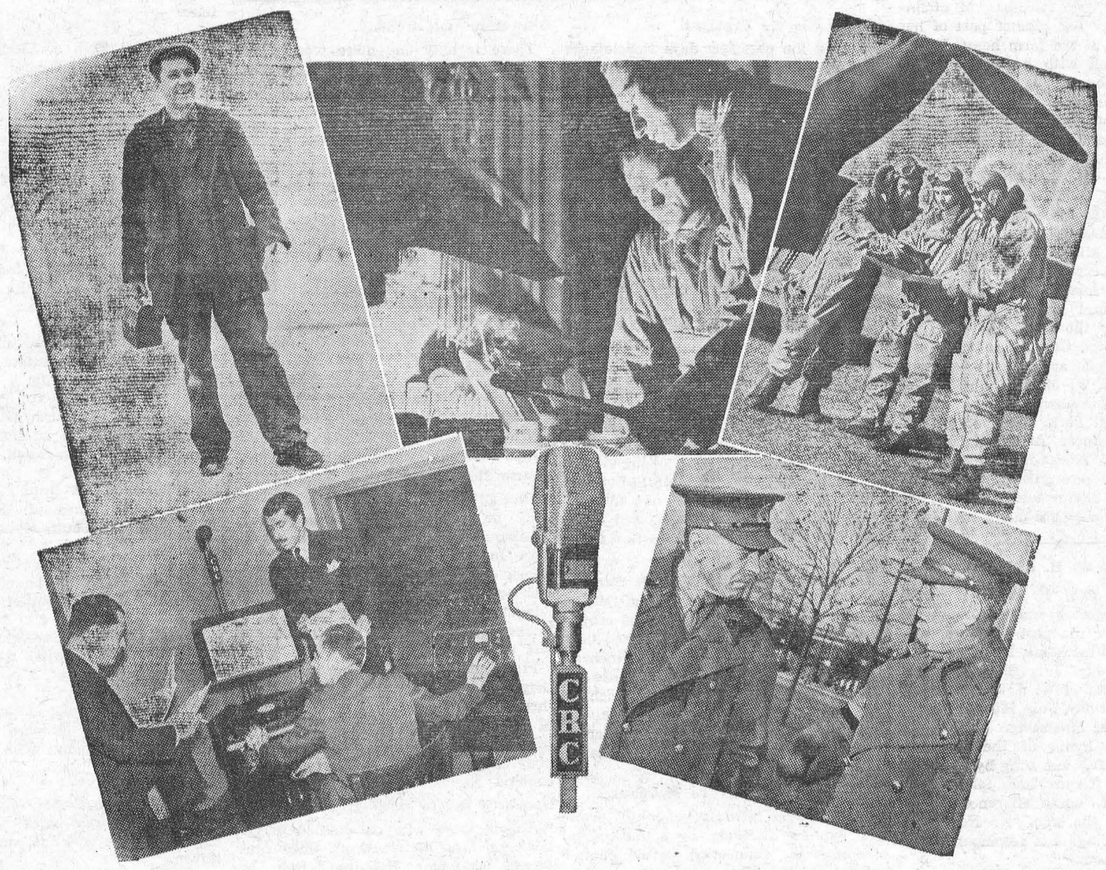
Summer uniforms issued to men in the N.P.A.M. appear to be built with a view to comfort and men who are wearing them have kind things to say about the garments. Certain, it is, there is no lack of pockets; in fact if a man filled all the pockets he would probably be asked by the provincial authorities to adorn himself with a set of license plates commonly issued for trucks.

THE UNITED CHURCH

Rev. John McCaskill, of Morewood gave a fine message on Sunday from Hebrews 8: part of Verse 10, the subject being: "Invisigle Writing." He referred especially to the impressions of our lives upon our fellow-men. We should give them the right idea about God. He spoke of the great throngs who go pleasure-seeking on the Sabbath instead of going to worship in God's House.

Mrs. Howard Fetterly was the pianist for the Church service and Miss Luella Allison for Sunday School. Mr. O. W. Wallace had charge of the latter. Next Sunday Rev. P. L. Jull, B.A., of Brooklin, is expected to preach.

"CARRY-ON" CANADA



Guns and grain, metal, meat and machinery, agriculture and aircraft—Canada is "carrying on" at home with a gigantic up-swing in production of all kinds.

War effort is readily recognized as three young airmen study a reconnaissance map (upper right) and as Major-General McNaughton discusses operations with Lieut.-Col. Lee, at Toronto. But behind the scenes, the blast furnace and forge call the expert metal workers to the colours (centre) and armed only with a dinner pail, Canada's army of workers march to win this war through their power to produce (upper left).

The CBC Feature Production staff, three of whom are shown lower left, including Samuel Hersenhoren, musical director, Harold Symes, sound effects operator, and J. Frank Willis, producer, gives Canadian listeners, each week, a glimpse behind the scenes, of Canada's great war effort on the home front. CBC Mobile Units will visit munition plants and granaries, machine gun factories, abattoirs and shipping depots.

The CBC Feature Department is working in close co-operation with the office of the Director of the Department of Public Information to bring to National Network audiences each Sunday evening an up-to-the-minute survey of Canada's war effort in all its aspects. The broadcasts of "Carry On" are presented from Toronto each Sunday evening from 9.00 to 9.30 EST.

DR. L. J. SIMPSON DIES AT PICTON

Dr. Leonard J. Simpson, 58, Minister of Education for Ontario since 1934, died suddenly on Sunday of a heart attack while visiting at Picton. He was walking across a lawn with his wife when he suffered the seizure and died almost instantly.

Dr. Simpson was given attention by Dr. H. R. McAllister, of Hamilton, another visitor, but life was extinct. The seizure occurred shortly after noon.

Born at Thornton, Ont.

Native of Thornton, in the Barrie district, 55 miles north of Toronto, Dr. Simpson first was elected to the Ontario Legislature as Liberal representative for Simcoe Centre and was re-elected in 1934. He was appointed Minister of Education in July, 1934.

Dr. Simpson was educated in Barrie and at University of Toronto. A member of the Ontario Medical Association, he first practised in Stroud and Elmvale, also in Barrie district, and later in Barrie. He had been medical health officer for Vespra township and a member of the Barrie Board of Education.

Dr. Simpson married Eleanor Dutcher in 1911. Also surviving besides his widow and son, Lieut. Douglas Simpson, of the Prince Edwards and Hastings Regiment, are four daughters.

LETTER "B" ON OATS HAS NO SPECIAL SIGNIFICANCE

When the letter "B" was observed on the leaves of oats and reports came from different parts of the province where it was noticed, The Farmer's Advocate wrote to Dr. G. P. McRostie, head of the field husbandry department at the O. A. C., and inquired about this queer phenomenon. This is what Dr. McRostie says about it:

"This kind of thing occurs every year. However, it is a bit more pronounced in seasons of rapid growth such as the current year.

"You will notice that the letter "B" always occurs on the section of the leaf blade where it bends over. The marking is simply the result of the displacement of some chlorophyl in the leaf, largely because of the bending. The disturbance does not always take the form of a "B." Frequently it is in the form of an "8," either rounded or squared, or in many combinations of angular or rounded shapes. I fully expect that in Germany they are seeing occasional swastikas on the leaves.

"It does not have any significance other than indicating that the season has been somewhat out of the ordinary in the matter of growth. However, it does not do any harm at all for people to read into such occurrences a symbol of encouragement."

NAVY LEAGUE OF CANADA

The Canadian National Exhibition this year is offering a new attraction, featuring daily grandstand demonstrations of the work of Canada's famous Sea Cadets. These are the boys trained under the auspices of the Navy League of Canada, which maintains active units in various parts of the Dominion.

The Cadets who will take part in the review are those comprising H.M.S. "Temeraire" and "Courageous" of Toronto.

Visitors to the Exhibition, therefore, will be given an opportunity to see what Sea Cadet training does for boys. One of the unusual features of the demonstration will be a series of interesting drill movements, all executed without commands from the officers.

The war has already proved the value of the training given by the Navy League, hundreds of the boys who have gone through the cadet corps now being in various branches of the active service, on land and in the air as well as on the sea. The League is continuing its work of keeping all units recruited to strength.

Financial assistance for this work, and also for the war work of the Navy Leagues of Great Britain and Canada in looking after sailors and their families, is being greatly promoted by the success of Miss Gracie Fields' tour of Canada. So large have been the audiences in Western Canada, that skating arenas have had to be resorted to, to accommodate the crowds, thousands still being turned away. From the magnificent reception given this outstanding English stage favorite in the West, Navy League officials in the East are looking for splendid results for Miss Fields' tour of Eastern Canada.

LATE CATHERINE PORTEOUS

The death occurred at Grace Hospital, Winnipeg, on August 13th, 1940, of Catherine A. Porteous, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Porteous, of Mountain Township. The greater part of her life was spent at the farm home, but in 1924 she moved with her brother and his family to St. James, Manitoba, where she has since resided. Her life was one of unselfish devotion to her aged mother and her brother and his motherless children. She leaves to mourn, three brothers, Alex of Harmony, John Q. of Toronto, D. D. of St. James, and two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Stainton, Winnipeg, and Mrs. Andrew Jamieson, of Minnedosa, Man., and a number of nieces and nephews.

The funeral service was conducted at Moodie's Funeral Home, Winnipeg, on Aug. 15th, by the Rev. Mr. Grey, of St. James United Church, of which deceased was an active member and worker in the W. M. S. and Women's Association. Interment was in Assiniboine Memorial Park. The pall bearers were J. W. Stainton, Arthur Harris, Mr. Fairhaven, W. T. Stainton, Frank and Dan Porteous. A profusion of beautiful flowers bore silent testimony of the love and esteem of her many friends.

LATE W. H. ERRATT

The funeral of W. H. Erratt, a former homestead inspector and a resident of Moose Jaw for the past 36 years, who passed away at his home, 147 High Street East, on Tuesday, July 23rd, was held from the parlors of W. J. Jones & Son, at 2 p.m. on Friday, July 26th, with Rev. Geoffrey Glover officiating.

A favourite hymn of the deceased, "Abide With Me," was sung by the large gathering of friends and fellow old-timers present, while Clarence Stansfield rendered the solo, "No Not One," with much feeling. His accompanist was Francis Stevenson.

The unusually large number of floral tributes bore eloquent testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Out-of-town friends present included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bell and son, Carl, of Winnipeg, and Mr. T. Linton, of Lillestrom.

Pall bearers were Messrs. James Craig, J. A. Thompson, W. H. Heasman, E. F. Cassidy, S. A. Hamilton and J. E. Phillips, K. C. Interment was in the family plot at the Moose Jaw Cemetery.

The late Mr. Erratt was born in Winchester Township, 84 years ago. He spent the earlier part of his life in the Melvin Settlement and took up homesteading near Moose Jaw over half a century ago. He will be remembered by many of the older citizens, who will recall his visit to Winchester during Old Home Week.

Besides his wife, who was the former Minnie Melvin, he leaves one son, Reginald, also one brother, I. N. Erratt, of Ottawa, and one sister, Mrs. Henry Frith, of Carduff, Sask.

LOCAL AND DISTRICT NEWS

Church Steeple Repaired.

During the past few days steeplejacks have been at work, repairing the steeple at the United Church The work is now completed and the lofty spire looks as good as ever. It was riddled by a bolt of lightning a few weeks ago.

Crops Ripening Fast.

Grain crops are ripening fast in this district and in most sections of Ontario, according to reports, and in many places cutting and harvesting of grain is general. Farmers report that in spite of the wet season earlier in the summer, the crop will be of high quality and the yield better than average in some sections.

Was She "Weighty"?

One wonders concerning the avoirdupious of the individual bearing the peculiar Christian name of "Weighty," who lies buried in the Lansdowne cemetery on No 2 highway west of the village of the same name, the inscription on whose tombstone reads as follows: "Weighty, wife of John Kyes, died April 25, 1872, aged 59 yrs., 9 mos. and 5 dys."

Auction Sale Well Attended.

The Auction Sale, held at the farm of Mrs. S. A. Greer, in the Melvin Settlement, yesterday, attracted a large crowd of potential buyers. It is estimated that over 200 cars passed through Winchester during the noon hour, enroute to the sale. Both live-stock and machinery brought good prices, we were informed by men who attended. Terms of one year were given on all purchases over $10.00.

Misunderstanding As To Passports.

Immigration officials wish to draw the public's attention to a misunderstanding in connection with photographs for Canadian passports to enter the United States. For a family passport or a passport used jointly by husband and wife, it is necessary that there be only one photograph attached to the passport. The picture must include all members of the family for a family passport and the husband and wife must be shown together if the passport is used jointly by them.

Sold Cattle To U. S. Buyers.

Among others who recently provided cattle for export to the United States were: H. F. Carscadden, Russell; S. B. Slater, Inkerman, G. A. McNaughton, Finch, W. J. Fawcett and H. Biccum, Winchester; Stanley Nugent, Finch; S. Robinson, Russell; Hugh McKee, Inkerman; Roy E. Baker, G. Howes and John A. Erratt, Winchester; John W. Guy, Inkerman; Chas. L. Acres, Vernon; Alex and Hume McConnell, Chesterville; L. A. Merkley, Iroquois, Gordon W. Fraser, Morewood; Ivan Bowman, Inkerman.

Has Narrow Escape.

The Morrisburg Leader reports that a man narowly escaped death in the waters of the St. Lawrence near there last week. A yacht was proceeding up the river, with a man lying on the deck taking a sun bath. The yacht was just above Morrisburg, when it was rocked in the swell from a large eastbound freighter. The sun-bather rolled off the deck into the swift water, but his friends aboard the yacht threw him a life-preserver and he floated down the river to Little Tim's Island, where he was rescued.

The Weather Is Cool.

There has been quite a change in the weather in this district during the past few days. Sunday last was the hottest day of the year. It was followed by a heavy shower on Monday morning and since then the atmosphere has been on the chilly side—so much so that a light coat is needed to be comfortable. Here's hoping that we have a few more warm days before Autumnn arrives. Up until Monday, August was a delightful month compared with June and July, which were comparatively cool with an unusual amount of rain.

ST. PAUL'S GUILD

St. Paul's Young People's Guild was held on August 19th in the S. S. Rooms. The meeting opened with a hymn, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. After the business and roll call, which was conducted by the President, Miss Lillian Bruce, the missionary program was taken by Miss Evelyn Erratt. The Scripture reading was given by Mr. Rodney, followed by a prayer by Betty Anderson.

A playette was then given by seven members of the Mission Band, entitled "Bag of Wishes." which was enjoyed by all. The story of Nelson House, Manitoba, was given by Evelyn Walker, Donald Walker, Mrs. H. Wilson and Evelyn Erratt. The meeting closed by all singing the National Anthem.

MRS. PARNHAM ALLISON

A very highly respected resident of Chesterville district, in the person of Mrs. Parnham Allison, passd away suddenly on Thursday last.

Mrs. Allison was, before her marriage, Margaret Johnson, only daughter of the late Mr .and Mrs. J. Wesley Johnson. She was born at Oxford and came with her parents when they settled on the homestead now occupied by her brother, Hudson Johnson, who with his brothers, Ward and George, of Chesterville, mourn the loss of a sister. There also survives one daughter, Grace, nurse-in-training at the Kingston General Hospital; her husband, and an adopted son, Harry.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon in Trinity United church, and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. C. Tait. The choir was in attendance under the direction of P. G. Hewitt, and a vocal duet was contributed by Mrs. Allison Graham and Mr. O. L. King.

One More Half Holiday.

There is only one more weekly half holiday for local business concerns. After August 28th, the Wednesday closing will be dispersed with and business will be resumed as usual. All of which reminds us that the summer is being well spent and that we'll soon have to take stock of our fuel supply.

Male Stenographers Wanted.

The Civil Service Commission is inviting applications for Civilian Male Stenographers, Grades 1 and 2 for Out-Stations of the R. C. A. F. in Ontario, at $75.00 and $103.00 a month, respectively. Most assignments will be made at the lower grade. At some stations, board and lodging will be provided at moderate rates. Any young man interested should apply immediately to the Civil Service Commission, Ottawa, giving details of experience, on forms obtainable at the Post Office.

Fourth Body Recovered.

Found floating near the surface, the body of Leonard Laurin, one of the victims of the quadruple drowning accident in the St. Lawrence River, off Sheek Island, on Sunday, August 11th, was recovered by Elburn Pitts, Sheek Island, and Johnston Buchner, Mille Roches, late Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Pitts and Buchner saw the body while they were fishing in the river about three-quarters of a mile below the edge of the Longue Sault Rapids where the tragic drownings occurred. Laurin's body was the last of the four to be recovered.

Honoured Before Marriage.

Among those who entertained in Ottawa for Mrs. Melvin Scott, the former Freeda (Bobbie) Robinson, Reg. N., prior to her marriage, were Mrs. W. A. Samworth, luncheon at the Orange Lantern Tea Room; Mrs. E. L. Henry, bridge and tea at the home of the hostess, where the bride was presented with a Sheffield silver muffin dish; Mrs. S. W. Gray and Mrs. Peter Stobbe, who were joint hostesses at a nicely arranged kitchen shower at the home of Mrs. Gray; Miss Grace Hay, who entertained at the Chateau Laurier, where covers were laid for eighteen. The bride was the recipient of a lace banquet cloth and ecru dinner napkins to match; and Mrs. Tom Brown, who entertained at the tea hour at her home.

An Intelligent Dog.

Mr. G. W. Reynolds has a Great Dane dog, which possesses a great deal of intelligence for a canine. Each morning when Mr. Reynolds goes to open up his Meat Market, the dog accompanies him to the shop. After wrapping up the meat for the noon-day meal, in a stout paper, the parcel is placed in the dog's mouth by its master, with a command to take it home to Mrs. Reynolds. The dog carries the parcel, without delay, to the home and drops it on the front verandah. Then, with a bark or two, it guards the parcel until the lady of the house comes and gets it. Mr. Reynolds says his dog can be depended on to carry anything, including an ice cream cone, from a store to his home on Gladstone Street. Most dogs, we fear, would be tempted to sample the meat before they delivered it, but not so with this Great Dane—she obeys order implicitly. "Peg," as she is called, is a fine large pet and is only one year old. She was raised from a pup by her present owner.

Marsh, president, awarded the degrees to students completing academic requirements during the 26th annual period of summer study.

Mr. Ouderkirk received his degree of bachelor of science in religious education at the School of Religious and Social Work. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ouderkirk, of Rome, N. Y., former residents of Mountain Township.

RECEPTION HELD

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Docksteader, Cloverdale, in honor of their son, Nelson, and his bride, formerly Miss Helen Dillabough, who were recently married.

The evening was psent in games and music. At an appropriate time, the guests of honor were called to the floor when a nicely-worded address was read by Miss Alice Lamoureux, and Miss Melba Barrett presented a bride's book, in which 150 friends registered during the evening. The groom made a fitting reply. The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. The address was as follows:

Dear Nelson and Helen:

This evening, at the commencement of what we hope will prove to be a long and happy married life, we, your friends and relatives, have gathered to give a slight expression of our regard for you.

Many of us have grown up with you through the years of school life. We are glad that your home will still be in our community, where you have both been such a help in all our social activities.

We therefore ask you to accept these, our gifts, as a small token of our love for you, and may you accept our congratulations and best wishes for a long and prosperous married life.

Signed on behalf of your friends, Lila Hughes, Olive Hughes. Alice Lamoureux.
