150 years ... and still going strong

Metcalfe fair wraps up, organizers pleased with century-and-a-half celebrations

METCALFE — There was fun in the sun and in the rain at the Metcalfe Fair last weekend (Thurs., Sept. 28 to Sun., Oct. 1). Despite a mixed bag of weather, thousands turned out to help the fair celebrate its 150th anniversary.

"We had a fantastic fair this year," said Metcalfe Agricultural Society president John Lackey. "Overall, attendance was down slightly from last year, probably due to the weather, but Saturday's attendance was up. It was one of the best Saturdays the fair has ever had."

The agricultural society went all out to make sure the 150th anniversary milestone was celebrated in style. From birthday cake served at 1:50 pm every day during the fair to the lasting memento of a new fairgrounds gate, everything was geared toward celebrating the past and looking ahead to the future.

"I'm so happy with all the special events that we had," said Betty Eastman, chair of the 150th Anniversary Committee. "My little committee worked so hard."

The new gates were officially unveiled on Friday afternoon and the ribbon was cut by life-long area resident Elizabeth Stuart, who arrived at the gates with Lackey and family division president Betty McGee in a horse-drawn buggy.

"Our front gates are just gorgeous," said Eastman.

The fair also hosted a Memory Lane exhibit in Ray Wilson Hall upstairs at the Metcalfe Community Centre to mark the 150th anniversary. The exhibit featured photos and memorabilia from fairs gone by.

"It was so well done," said Eastman.

Lackey agreed, noting that it would have taken many hours to go over the entire display thoroughly.

"Nelda Isaac deserves a lot of credit for (the display)," he added.

The fair got off to a soggy start, but hundreds of people packed the stands to sit in the rain and watch the annual demolition derby on Thursday night (Sept. 28). Lackey noted that the grounds crew had to work hard on Friday to stem the tide of mud and get everything back in shape. Donations of wood shavings and gravel were offered by local businesses to help soak things up.

There were over 1,000 people in attendance for the Friday night (Sept. 29) Jason McCoy show.

"It was a sell-out," said Lackey. "He was really good." Lackey also explained that the new set-up for the bar on Friday night was well received, noting that it created an area where the music wasn't quite so loud.

"That went over very well," he said. "The dynamics of it were great." Saturday night's show, featuring Sticks 'n' Stones was also a sell-out.

This year's fair had a record number of entries in the dairy shows and the horse pull. The family division classes also hosted some strong competitions, with more than 2,000 combined entries.

The agricultural society was still finishing up the grounds clean-up on Tues., Oct. 4, but everyone seemed satisfied with the 150th fair.

"I think things went really well," said Eastman. "The weather is the one thing that we couldn't control, and that was the only problem."

Family division president Betty Magee (top, right), clad in period attire from Upper Canada Village in honor of the fair's 150th anniversary celebrations, stands beside some of the many homecraft quilt exhibit entries.
Sarah Neuman, 16, of the Metcalfe 4-H Beef Club (top), placed first in the intermediate division of the Carleton 4-H Championship Show on Fri., Sept. 29.

Let the campaign begin

Candidates ready for Nov. 13 municipal election

DUNDAS COUNTY — The nomination deadline for this year's municipal elections closed on Fri., Sept. 29 at 5 pm. Constituents across the province will head to the polls to elect councils on Nov. 13. In Dundas County, voting will only take place by telephone and Internet.

In North Dundas Township, there are 11 candidates for the five positions available at the council table — all members of the current council are up for re-election. Current Mayor Alvin Runnalls and Deputy-Mayor Bill Smirle are battling for the mayor's chair, while current councillor Estella Rose and Martin Schoones are vying for the role of deputy-mayor.

The North Dundas Chamber of Commerce will host three all-candidates debates leading up to the election.

The debates will take place at the Chesterville Legion on Oct. 19, the South Mountain Agricultural Hall on Oct. 24, and Winchester's Old Town Hall on Oct. 26.

Mountain resident Nick Zyrmiak will be the moderator for the debates.

In South Dundas, a total of 19 candidates names will be on the ballot, many of whom were last-minute entries.

All current council members are up for re-election, some hoping to step up to higher positions, including current councillor Charles Barkley who is running for mayor against incumbent Mayor Lyle Van Allen, Cam Martel, and Ed Merkley. Current councillor Bill Ewing is running for deputy-mayor against current councillor Johnny Whitteker (who was appointed deputy-mayor for the last term), Roger Coligan, and Robert Gillard.

Emergency staff get haz-mat training

by Bonnie James
Press staff

WINCHESTER — Members of the Winchester District Memorial Hospital emergency department staff received Chemical-Biological-Radiation (CBR) training last week. This will help the hospital to deal with patients who have suffered some sort of contamination in an industrial accident or even a terrorist attack.

WDMH part of $13.5 M training project

"It's part and parcel of a larger provincial plan," said Dave Levesque, occupational safety officer with the Ottawa Hospital, who was leading the training at WDMH on Fri., Sept. 29.

He explained that the province has invested $13.5 million in a three-year project to train and equip every hospital emergency department. The funding provided a standardized equipment package, including protective suits for hospital emergency staff and a portable tent for cleaning contaminated patients. He noted that previously, each hospital did its own ad-hoc training.

"It strengthens the health-care system's ability to respond," he said about the provincial initiative. "It standardizes every hospital's ability to deal with patients that have been contaminated with a (hazardous substance)."

Levesque explained that WDMH is classified as a level four hospital.

"They're equipped to receive up to 20 or 25 contaminated patients," he said.

The Ottawa Hospital General Campus is the level one hospital for this Local Health Integrated Network (the Champlain LHIN), which stretches from Deep River to the St. Lawrence River and from Carleton Place to Cornwall.

"It's our responsibility to train everyone," said Levesque, noting that in the Champlain LHIN, the Ottawa Hospital is conducting 28 sessions to train 550 staff members.

Last week's local training took place at two hospitals in Cornwall, as well as hospitals in Hawkesbury, Alexandria, and Winchester.

FCC driving hunger away

WINCHESTER — A barbecue at Mike Dean's Super Food Store on Oct. 11 is just one stop along Farm Credit Canada's third annual Drive Away Hunger Tour. The tour, which begins in Ottawa on Oct. 10 and continues all the way to Guelph on Oct. 16, is in co-operation with the Ontario Association of Food Banks.

Two 100-horse power tractors with 16-foot trailers will stop in several communities across Ontario collecting food for rural food banks. This year's goal is to collect 100,000 pounds of food.

"We're very grateful to FCC," said Dundas County Food Bank administrator Lorne Doolan, who explained that the Winchester location will be one of several "hubs" across the province, which will help distribute the food once it's collected.

"Winchester is one of the first major drop off points," Doolan explained, noting that they will then send the food on to seven other centres in Eastern Ontario, including the House of Lazarus in Mountain, as well as food banks in Smiths Falls, Perth, Gananoque, Lanark, Carleton Place, and Prescott.

Doolan said that about third of the food banks across the province will benefit from the tour — about 55 rural locations.

"We're excited and surprised [to be involved]," he said.

The tour will kick off at the Sir John Carling Building at Agriculture Canada (the Central Experimental Farm) on Oct. 10 at 9 am, then head to Metcalfe, Russell, Embrun, and Casselman. The following day (Wed., Oct. 11), the tour will leave Casselman for St-Albert before heading to the Mike Dean's barbecue in Winchester and then on to Kemptville.

Day three of the tour will see a truck head through Belleville, Stirling, Campellford, and end up in Lindsay after passing through Peterborough. The tour will finish with a wrap up event at the Agri Centre in Guelph on Oct. 16.

Besides donating food to the truck at its different stops enroute, members of the public can drop off food or cash at the FCC offices at 309 Legget Drive in Kanata or 735 Notre Dame in Embrun.

There are several sponsors for the tour, including Dairy Farmers of Ontario and 4-H Ontario. Visit www.DriveAwayHunger.ca for more information.

Plant a tree

Planting a tree is a gesture of hope and one that we can all make to better our community.

The new trees planted at the 100 Club Park at the Winchester Community Centre look great. Many thanks to those who worked on the project. The 26 trees include oak, ash, hickory, spruce, and tree lilac. As they grow, they will clean the air and produce oxygen. They will provide shade, and climbing opportunities. They will serve well to replace some of the old trees at the park that are nearing the end of their lives.

What changes some of those old trees must have seen. From the land's use as the Winchester fairgrounds and its days as a racetrack, to the construction of the current community centre and swimming pool, the property has long been a hub of community activity. A lot of public gatherings have taken place under the watch of those trees. They've witnessed the excitement of Dairyfest, the splashing and cheering of swim meets, the crack of many bats hitting home runs, and the screams and spills of the toboggan hill.

What might the new trees see over their lifetimes? One can hope it's more of the same. One can hope the community spirit that has drawn us together in the past will continue to bind us and that neighbours will always gather to celebrate each other and the land that they share.

Beautifying our community space is a commitment to that spirit. While some of the trees recently planted at the park are not yet large or impressive, they will be one day. Try to imagine two generations into the future where grand oak and hickory trees provide shade for children playing and families gathering. These trees are a connection to the future, and a way that we can reach out and impact the lives of future citizens.

It's the same at home. If you plant a tree, you're investing in the future. Whether you are hoping for shade, a wind break, or a tree swing, you'll have to wait to see the benefits.

It's a little bit ironic that fall is the perfect time to plant trees. Just as nature is winding down its summer show and preparing for winter, we're encouraged to plunk a little seedling in the ground. They're hardy little things. Before the deep frost sets in, the seedling will take advantage of the wet conditions and send its roots out into the surrounding earth.

Planting a tree can have the same effect on a person. By investing in the future, one begins to put down roots.

We should be open to this.

It's far too easy to tell yourself that you don't know how long you'll be staying before family or employment takes you somewhere else, so it's not worth becoming involved in the community. But you're cheating yourself if you think this way.

It's true that if you plant a seedling and then move away you won't be able to enjoy the benefits of the mature tree. But someone else will enjoy it in the future.

And while it may seem easier not to become involved in community life, your contributions as a friend, a neighbour, a committee member, or a volunteer will keep the community going and growing, so that it will still be vibrant when life brings the next family to town.

Go ahead, plant a tree and put down some roots.

B.J.

The 100 Club Park at the Winchester Community Centre received 26 new trees last week in honour of Maple Leaf Day (Wed., Sept., 27). The trees, including oak, ash, hickory, and spruce, were donated by Dr. Bart Steele, and relocated by Ganden Landscaping. The project was a co-operative effort between the Township of North Dundas and Winchester Home Hardware. Students from the North Dundas District High School GROW program (Gaining Rural Opportunities in the Workplace) were on hand to assist with the planting. Pictured are: NDDHS student Kevin Helmer (back, left), Home Hardware's Loretta Honders, North Dundas director of recreation and culture Mark Guy, Mayor Alvin Runnalls, Nancy Trumper of the 100 Club Park Committee, Deputy-Mayor Bill Smirle, NDDHS GROW teacher Leon MacIntyre, Home Hardware owner Ken Boje, NDDHS students Kyle Baldwin (front, left), Jake Paul, Dr. Steele's sons Marshall and Mason, and NDDHS students Chelsea Hunter and Ashley Benson-Saumure.

It's funny what you remember about movies

From the Other Side
by Jeffrey Morris

"What did you think of The Green Mile?" I remember asking a co-worker once about six years ago.

"I hated it," she said.

"What do you mean?" I asked. "It was a great movie."

"Oh, it was, but my husband was acting like a jerk and the person behind us kept kicking the seat and there was a couple with a baby that kept crying and then someone's cell phone rang."

It was one of those conversations that always stuck with me, and since then I have been making little mental notes about my surroundings at the theatre when forming my opinion on a flick.

I was reminded of one of those memories this week as CBC aired the film Signs.

My wife and I still talk about going to this film. As much as we both liked the movie, the unforgettable encounter with the surreal happened in the line up. It was while we were living in the Seattle suburb of Puyallup. If you're reading out loud, Puyallup, an Indian word for the land of the daffodil, is pronounced just like it is spelled.

"You won't believe these two guys in front of me," she said. "They started talking about the NRA. I thought 'Oh here we go, typical Seattle types,' but it was like the opposite. The guy started calling them wimps and saying that he had a 50 calibre in his basement, then he started about what a lefty Charlton Heston was."

She thought this was incredible, but I just looked at her and smiled.

"Oh yeah?" I said with a cat-ate-the-mouse look on my face. "Did you hear the conversation that was going on behind us?"

She hadn't.

It was good. Really good.

There was a couple out on their first date. They were students, home for the summer, and listening to their conversation I knew that they were Brigham Young University students. We had a huge Mormon community in Puyallup, and BYU, located in Provo, Utah, was to the LDS (Latter Day Saints) community what Queen's would be to students here.

By looking at them, it was pretty obvious they weren't part of the mainstream crowd. Not that I'm Fabio or anything, or not that I ever fit in with anyone either, but these two were geeks. They were steeped in geekiness. Royal geekdom. Geekadellic.

The guy might have been about five feet tall on a good day, and he was wider than he was tall. Again, it's not like I'm Kate Moss's brother or anything. He liked to talk and he couldn't wait to impress his date with the story of how he had his costume for the upcoming Star Trek convention custom made.

His date was, well, a geek. Not that I'm not. She was about my height, six-one or so, and she had braces and a ponytail that screamed "my mom did my hair and she wore a ponytail like this when she would go to the sock hop, too."

She was impressed, thoroughly, with Mr. Never McKissedagirl and was hanging off his every word.

Just as I was smiling to myself and thinking that there really is someone for everybody in the world, he dropped the bombshell that has stuck with me ever since.

"So aside from your Dungeons and Dragons club, what are you doing for the summer?" she asked him.

He smiled, slyly, and pointed his eyes into her soul and gave her a look that would shake Donald Trump.

"I'm working on a special project," he said.

"Really?" she said, melting.

"Well, I've been given a special task. I'm translating the Book of Mormon."

I thought, "Gee, he must be a linguistics major or something."

He continued.

"I know that the Old Testament and New Testament have already been done, but I am going to the first person to translate the Book of Mormon into Klingon."

Yes, Klingon. Did I mention he was a geek?

She melted into his arms. Her hero. And he actually pulled it off. About a month later it was available online. I was too curious. I had to keep checking.

So which conversation was more frightening.

"That's easy," said my wife. "The Klingons are far more dangerous and have a lot more firepower than some nut with a 50-calibre."

We watched Signs Monday night, but it wasn't the same. I missed my favourite part. The wackos in the line-up.

2003 BLUE RIBBON

This week in...
by Meghan Duncan

Douglas and David Anderson's Maple Ridge home was completely destroyed by fire, as were an adjoining shed and double garage. Damages were estimated at approximately $10,000, half of which was covered by insurance. The cause of the fire was not determined.

Nestlé employee Tommy Moran stumbled upon the body of a 21-year-old man behind the Chesterville Community Hall. The man had died as a result of a gunshot wound to the stomach, thought to be self-inflicted following a quarrel with his fiancée.

For the second year in a row, Winchester High School was named Osgoode-North Dundas Champion, when the school's track and field team members ran and jumped their way to gold at the annual athletic association competition. Winchester High School's 179 points were enough to allow the school to hang on to the Boyd Memorial Trophy, which they had won the previous year. Meanwhile, younger athletes in the area had their chance to show off at the annual Public School Field Day, where winners of each event were given cash prizes, provided by the Winchester Public School Board. Events included the 40, 50, and 100-yard dash, the potato race, the ball throw, the three-legged race, and the slow bicycle race.

Construction of the over $1 million addition and renovation project at Winchester District Memorial Hospital was proceeding on schedule. Hospital officials said the project was one-eighth complete, and Dodge Construction Company Ltd. workers were instructed to ensure the project stayed on schedule.

The community improvement committee for the Winchester Township Centennial program requested that all township residents have their mailboxes painted and lettered by the following spring.

1976

Police charged a young man with dangerous use of a firearm and pointing a firearm at a police officer following an all-night drama in Chesterville. Constables Howard Smith and Gary Ritkowski tried to subdue the man, who was wielding a .30 calibre rifle. No shots were fired, but the accused was held in custody for a hearing at Morrisburg provincial court.

1986

Three Nepean residents escaped without injury when the car in which they were travelling was hit by a Canadian Pacific Railway train near Inkerman. The train was heading north in Mountain Township when it struck the rear end of the Honda Civic, flipping the vehicle into the ditch. The family was taken to Winchester District Memorial Hospital by ambulance, and were all released a short time later.

Glenn sisters Jayne, of Vernon, and Jennifer, of Russell, were hosting their own 13-part television series all about canning and preserving. "Put a lid on it" was airing nationally on the Life Network. It walked viewers through recipes and procedures — some more common, such as dill pickles, others a little less known, such as papaya mango salsa, which the sisters jokingly referred to as PMS. Neither sister had worked in television before, but got the job after responding to a newspaper advertisement seeking "seasoned picklers."

The Winchester Men's Ball Hockey League honoured its players at an annual award ceremony and wrap-up banquet this week in 1986. Pictured are: top defenceman James Milne (front, left), best goalie Steve Watkins, playoff MVP Mark Guy, Flyers team MVP Doug Crowder, Red Wings team MVP Dwayne Fawcett (back, left), and Rowdies team MVP Larry Simms. Top scorer Bourk Boyd and CountryBoy team MVP Pat Kelly missed the photo op.

150 years of tradition

In & around Osgoode Ward 20
by Doug Thompson

METCALFE — The Metcalfe Fair "officially" opened Friday (Sept. 29) night in front of the 116-year-old grandstand packed with fair visitors of all ages. With pomp and ceremony, sprinkled with traditional games, 150 years of the Metcalfe Fair historical roots were uncovered. The 78th Fraser Highlanders firing their muskets, the sack races, and the tug-of-war competitions gave us all a look back to the earlier times of the Metcalfe Fair. Perhaps the most touching event of the entire fair, was the unveiling of the refurbished front gates. Over 400 visitors and guests watched as the historic front entrance, with its new wall of honour, was unveiled by the organizing committee highlighted by Elizabeth Stuart, who will turn 100 next year.

The demolition derby (Thursday night) entertained a huge crowd despite the light rain that persisted all evening. Saturday was a perfect weather day for the fall fair. The midway rides, the food concessions, the cattle show, the heavy horses, the light horses, the 4-H auctions, the school exhibits, the petting zoo, and the Entertainment Centre all were a critical part of an outstanding Saturday at the Metcalfe Fair.

On Sunday, rain again greeted the morning Metcalfe Fair faithful, but the great tradition continued. AJ's Catering attracted huge crowds to the Lions Den. The fashion show (old and new), the hymn sing, the cattle and horse shows, the rides, the food concessions, and the exciting draws held by Metcalfe Lions and the snowmobile club made us all so very proud of the 150 years of Metcalfe Fair. The 2006 edition was a truly memorable four days of a traditional showcase of our rural roots.

Congratulations to president John Lackey, first vice-president Chris Reaney, second vice-president Ron Stanley, the board of directors, all the committee members, the volunteers, and all the visitors to the 150th Metcalfe Fair. It was a blast from the past.

Perfect playground

The playground at Winchester Public School has been an even bigger hit with local children since the addition of a new play structure last month. The school council raised the majority of funds for the addition and North Dundas Township also made a sizeable donation because the playground serves a big part of Winchester. Contributors and expert playground equipment testers met on Fri., Sept. 29 to examine the structure. Pictured are: WPS students Quinn Angel (front, left) and Emma Pintal, who presented thank-you cards to the township and the school council, North Dundas director of recreation and culture Mark Guy (middle, left), Mayor Alvin Runnalls, principal Dave Corney, school council representative Kathy Cooper, WPS students Hunter Barnett, Garrett Trumper, Heather Demers, Carter Horton (back, left), William Wopat, Alyssa Cooper, Brittany Cooper, and Daniel Trumper. Press Photo — James

Letters To The Editor

Watch out for misinformation

The Editor:

Travel down Cameron Road and McIntyre Road and you will see some homes, but this area is mostly farms, fields, and bush — definitely not residential. This setting is perfect for wild nuisance animals to do their thing, and that they do. Raccoons, skunks, and many other rodents get into outbuildings, garages, and sometimes houses. When this happens, a homeowner may look for help. If he or she has a registered gun and a permit, they might shoot the animal. If they don't, they call the Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources, which will then refer them to a licensed trapper — that's right, licensed.

In order to be a licensed trapper, first you must pass a Hunter Safety and Education Course, offered by the province for around $200. Then you must take a 50-hour, provincially-issued trapping course that costs around $275. When both a practical and written test are passed, a Trapper's License is issued. Each year a trapper must pay an annual fee to maintain the license and all harvest reports must be submitted to the ministry by a deadline. Failure to complete both requirements would result in a license being revoked.

This license allows a trapper to trap fur-bearing animals on private property only with written permission from the landowner. Nuisance animals can be trapped when a landowner requests (i.e. beavers, raccoons, skunks, coyotes, muskrats, bats, etcetera). The Ministry of Natural Resources has a list of licensed trappers (for record and referral) and has the right to inspect harvested animals in-season and landowner permission forms, as well as verify the use of traps and procedures.

The Fur Institute of Canada federally tests traps, to ensure humane trapping and professionalism through continued education, licensing and research. There are very strict laws governing which traps can and cannot be used and for what species of animal. For example, Conibear traps (named after the man who invented them — these are not bear traps) used for beavers underwater cannot be used to trap animals such as raccoons on land. A very stiff fine can be placed on a trapper breaking such restrictions. Only licensed trappers and farmers belonging to the Ontario Federation of Agriculture are able to legally purchase and use traps. On the other hand, it is a criminal offence to tamper with or steal a legally set trap on private property. It is also unlawful to trespass and have domestic animals uncontrolled.

In the Fowler case (referred to in the editorial on page 6 of the Sept. 27 edition of the Press), the dog was on a neighbour's property and had the misfortune of getting caught in a trap set for nuisance raccoons. It is very rare for this to happen. This trap was placed in plain view, surrounded by a plastic box, with an eight by eight-inch opening. This trap was set by a licensed trapper and did not endanger hydro employees, emergency workers, or unsupervised children. This same dog, being off her owner's property, could have ingested rat poison, and it is highly unlikely that anyone would suggest having a bylaw against rat poison or mouse and rat traps. Hopefully councillor Al Armstrong now understands the importance of trapping and how a trapper becomes licensed. Also, the public does not need to be "protected," just informed.

The Conibear traps, along with other ministry initiatives, can help control and prevent the spread of such diseases as rabies, which can be very dangerous to the animal population and humans. It is not the municipality's jurisdiction to monitor or license trappers. The ministry does this.

Nuisance animals are part of living in the country. So is safely and humanely removing them. Trapping is the oldest land-based industry in North America with a history of more than 400 years (according to the Ministry of Natural Resources). It is a part of rural life in Canada and should be respected, understood, and maintained.

Harvest Fest set for next week

KEMPTVILLE — The third edition of the Kemptville College Foundation's Harvest Fest is set for Sat., Oct. 14. Organizer Kathy Hardy said the foundation hopes to substantially add to the proceeds from the first two events, which together raised $20,000.

"The first two were held in September," said Hardy. "We moved into October this year to get away from conflicting events and to allow more time for ticket sales after the summer break."

Once again, this year's event will be held at the W.B. George Centre on the Kemptville Campus of the University of Guelph. The evening will consist of a high-end buffet dinner, silent and live auctions, and a dance featuring the band Revival. Social hour is at 6 pm, followed by dinner at 7 pm, the live auction, and the dance at 9 pm.

"Those wanting to attend should get their tickets as soon as possible, because our limit is about 300 guests," said Hardy, noting that there is limited capacity dictated by the formal table configuration.

As with previous fests, tickets are $35 each. In previous years, the event has been a gathering place for some of Eastern Ontario's most prominent farm leaders.

Formed in 2000, the Kemptville College Foundation is the principal fundraising arm of the Kemptville Campus. Its efforts support program development, research, partnerships, student scholarships, and related activities. To date the foundation has raised more than $150,000 in cash and equipment.

Hawks hammered 8-1 by Alexandria Glens

Rebound for win against Akwesasne

WINCHESTER — Ben Collins enjoyed a productive weekend netting four goals in two games. Unfortunately his Winchester Hawks managed to win just one of their two Rideau - St. Lawrence Junior "B" Hockey League matches.

Collins was credited with Winchester's only goal in a one-sided 8-1 loss to the Glens in Alexandria on Friday (Sept. 29). He then cracked in three more on Sunday afternoon leading the Hawks to a 6-3 victory over the prowling Akwesasne Wolves.

"That game in Alexandria was the worst hockey I have seen from the boys," offered Winchester head coach Todd Marcellus. "They weren't themselves. It was one of those cases when everything they did went wrong."

"Collectively we didn't show up to play hockey," added assistant coach Dale Murdoch. "We got behind 4-0 in the first period and everything went down hill after that."

Murdoch and Marcellus agreed that their team is better than the 8-1 score would indicate. "We played poorly but we have to give the Glens credit, they are a good, quick transition team," said Murdoch.

First-period goals by Eric Morter (2), Jamie Jean Louis (SHG) and Pat Brunet chased Winchester's starting netminder Kyle Neville after 20 minutes.

Collins then scored the lone Hawks goal at 4:52. Steve Cameron picked up the assist. Marc Andre Fournier (PPG) then scored to make it 5-1 after two periods.

Lance Stewart, Scott Cameron (PPG) and J J Louis (PPG) slapped in the Glens final three, third-period goals to make it an 8-1 final.

HAWKS 6 - WOLVES 3

Paced by Collins, the Hawks doubled the visiting Wolves 6-3 and moved one game above the 500 mark.

"We rebounded and played much better. We moved the puck well and scored four times on the powerplay," noted Marcellus. "Their (Wolves) goalie played really well. He made a couple of back-door saves early in the game that got him in a good groove. Had we scored on those chances, it might have been a bigger score."

Both Marcellus and Murdoch were pleased to see the team's penalty minute total on the decrease. The Hawks took 13 penalties in each game, a number both coaches feel is more manageable.

"We would still like to lower that number. But hopefully our preaching is paying off. The boys have to keep their feet moving and stay out of the box," said Marcellus.

Collins sandwiched his first two goals around one by Akwesasne's Corey Hamblett as the Hawks carried a 2-1 lead into period two.

NDDHS places second in golf tourney

MAPLE RIDGE — Kate Williams carded the low gross score of the event as the North Dundas District High School Devils claimed second place in the 2006 SD&G golf tournament.

Williams posted a 54 playing the back nine of the challenging Upper Canada Golf Course on Sept. 25.

Kaitlin Carruthers and Hannah McClenaghan joined Williams on the girls team which finished the day with a 239 total score. The Char-Lan DHS Crusaders won the division with a 215.

North Dundas was represented in the boys bracket by Alex Campbell, Chad McKenzie, Phil Klein-Swormink and Travis Froats. The boys'. final total was 361. The CCVS Golden Raiders took top spot with a 327.

Overall, North Dundas claimed runner-up status with a score of 700. Char-Lan grabbed the gold registering a final tally of 551 strokes.

"The students represented the school very well and were well behaved," reported coach Brenda Ramsay. "Some of the boys were disappointed with their scores which I thought were very good, considering how challenging Upper Canada is."

"And Kate (Williams) had a great day," Ramsay added.

North Dundas won the boys competition and the overall team title last September.

Jones, Van Gurp unbeatable in net, juniors sweep Falcons and Patriots

CORNWALL — Jimmy Jones and Mike Van Gurp took turns guarding the string and both netminders emerged with shutout victories on their records.

Jones was the keeper when the North Dundas District High School Junior Devils blanked the Holy Trinity Falcons 1-nil and Van Gurp the victorious backstop in the Devils' 3-nil decision over the La Citadelle Patriots.

The double dip in the win column improved the juniors SD&G boys "AA" high school soccer record to 2-2-0. Mike Deighton's squad has collected six points and outscored the opposition by a 6-5 margin.

"The boys started strong against Holy Trinity and had a handful of scoring chances, but we were tied 0-0 at the half," explained coach Deighton. "Eric Carriere scored late in the second half to give us the win."

The coach reported his team dominated La Citadelle both offensively and defensively and rolled to a 3-nil victory to finish the day with a perfect 2-0-0 record.

Jeff Armstrong booted in the winning goal in the first half and set the stage for Richard Boal to ice the win with a pair of second-half markers.

Today (Wed., Oct. 4) in Iroquois, the Seaway Spartans will supply to opposition for both the junior and senior squads from NDDHS.

First action on Maple Ridge turf for the Devils is slated for next week (Wed., Oct. 11) when Russell High School, GVIS, CCVS and St. Lawrence will see action starting at 1 pm.

SENIOR DEVILS

North Dundas managed to earn one point in their senior twin bill in Cornwall battling the Holy Trinity Falcons to a 4-4 draw and losing 3-nil to La Citadelle.

Those results moved the Devils' record to 1-1-2, good enough for five points. Kevin Bell's team has outscored their opponents 7-6.

"We got away from our tight defensive game and needed a corner kick goal in the dying seconds to get the tie," noted Bell.

Bell even sent his keeper Trevor Ashby into the Falcon goal area on that late corner kick but it was Brody Moriarty finally smashing the ball home to tie the match.

The Falcons led 1-0 and Scott Smith tied it up only to have Holy Trinity gain a 2-1 lead just before the half. Jason Catellier gave his team some momentum bagging a pair of goals to make it 3-2 but the Falcons answered right back and counted two for a 4-3 lead, which forced the Devils to press for the last-minute marker and the tie.

"La Citadelle has a highly skilled and very fast club," noted Bell. "The guys played very well, but corner and indirect kicks were the difference. We also had a few good scoring opportunities but failed to capitalize on them."

North Dundas wins 10 of 12

Devils serve up successful start

MAPLE RIDGE — Posting 10 wins in 12 sets, the North Dundas Devils have established a solid footing for the 2006 SD&G boys high school volleyball season.

Both the Junior Devils and the senior squad finished the day with five wins and one loss. The home-opener was played last Tuesday (Sept. 26).

Cheryl Williams, with six veterans back in her lineup, coached the Senior Devils to victories over the SJSS Panthers and CCVS Golden Raiders.

"The guys looked a little rusty in the first set against St. Joe's, but really improved as the games went on," she said.

The St. Joe's Panthers knocked off the Devils 25-22 in the opening set, but fell by back-to-back 25-14 counts. North Dundas made a clean sweep in their second match serving up three losses (28-26, 25-14, 25-15) to the Golden Raiders.

Williams reported she is fortunate to have some experience on the floor this season with veterans Trevor Ashby, Stephen Laneville, Phil Klein-Swormink, Tyler Fawcett, Tristen Glen and Braydon McNiel suiting up for another campaign.

Rodney Monteith, Geoff Spruit, Marc Melenhorst, Nic Lewis, Nolan Winter and Jordan Barkley have graduated from last year's Junior Devils, 2005 SD&G "AA" junior champions, and stepped up to play with the senior squad.

Last fall, the Senior Devils finished with a 16-17 record and were eliminated in a five-set semi-final battle by the St. Joe's Panthers.

Penalties costly, Jets drop pair of games

STITTSVILLE — Penalties led to the downfall of the Metcalfe Jets who surrendered four powerplay goals, three in the third period, and were crowned 9-5 by the Stittsville Royals.

Sunday's (Oct. 1) setback in Stittsville was the second in two games for the Jets (1-2-0-0), who now hold down fifth-place in the five-team Metro - Valley Junior "B" Hockey League standings.

Ottawa West nipped the Jets in Ottawa (Sept. 28) on a PPG by Yann St. Jacques. St. Jacques broke up a 5-5 tie and handed the host Knights a 6-5 lead at 7:05 of the third period.

Metcalfe will try and put the brakes on their losing skid this weekend when they play a pair of road games. Friday (Oct. 6) they are in Gatineau to take on the first-place Mustangs (3-1-0-0) and Saturday (Oct. 7) they will visit the number-two ranked South Ottawa Canadians (2-1-0-0).

First home game for the Jets at the Larry Robinson Arena is set for Fri., Oct. 13 at 8:15 pm. The Carleton Place Kings will provide the opposition.

The early Metro Division standings show Gatineau (3-1-0-0) in first place with six points. South Ottawa (2-1-0-0), Clarence Creek Beavers (2-2-0-0) and Ottawa West (2-2-0-0) all have four points. The Jets (1-2-0-0) have two, thanks to an 8-1 win over Carleton Place in week one.

KNIGHTS 6 - JETS 5

Marek Green cashed in a powerplay feed from Jamar Dixon and Matt Crerar 4:35 into the first period, but a pair of tallies by Matt and Paul Tremblay gave the Ottawa West Golden Knights a 2-1 lead after 20 minutes.

The Knights expanded their lead to 5-3 in the second session using two more Matt Tremblay markers and a single by Craig Montgomery. Metcalfe answered with tallies from Bryson Goodman and Jeff Kipping, who recorded their first goals on the season. Crerar, Douvris and James Martin drew the Metcalfe assists.

Phillip Patry connected from Ryan Carisse and Douvris 2:35 into the final frame and Goodman (from Dave Walters) dented twine at 5:13 to pull the Jets into a 5-5 tie, only to have the Knights take a 6-5 lead on the S. Jacques power-play goal at 7:55.

Ottawa West recorded three powerplay markers. Metcalfe converted one opportunity.

ROYALS 9 - JETS 5

Metcalfe drew six third-period penalties and the Royals cashed in three times as they outscored their visitors 4-0 in the final frame on the way to their third win in four starts.

Steve Lewis handed the Jets a 1-0 lead, scoring from Carisse and Green at 11:03 of the first frame, but once again the home team hit for a pair of goals and carried a 2-1 lead into the second stanza.

Metcalfe fell behind 4-1, but rebounded and took a 5-4 lead on goals by Holmes (from Green at 6:36), Kipping (from Lee and Carisse at 10:05), Carisse (Kipping and Lee at 12:40) and Holmes, who rang up his second of the period after finishing a power play set up by Dixon and Lewis at 15:39).

Unfortunately for the Jets, Mike Moreau tied it up scoring on a Royal powerplay at 18:33. Period three was all Stittsville as they stormed back to register a 9-5 decision.

FLIGHT PLAN

Three games into the sked, veteran Ryan Carisse leads the Jets in scoring with two goals, five assists and seven points. He stands 20th behind Stittsville's Brent Boschman (6-7-13) who leads the scoring race with 13 points in four games.

Hawks

Colin Bowie and Cameron set up the first at 12:07 and then engineered a powerplay which Collins finished off at 15:49.

Period one also featured a spirited dust up between Bowie and Angus Goldleaf.

Mike Rourke tied it up 2-2 at 7:20 of the second stanza but Winchester responded with a pair of powerplay goals to take a two-goal lead. Rookie Brodie Boulanger cashed in his first Junior "B" goal on a PP established by Nick Enright and Brent McFaul at 8:50. Enright then cracked in a PPG finishing off a play started by Matt Walsh and McFaul at 10:47 as the Hawks jumped into a 4-2 lead.

Trevor Gilmer and Cameron set up Collins for his third goal at 10:48 of the final frame. Enright then went solo and fired home his second PPG of the game and fourth goal on the season at 18:21 and opened up a 6-2 lead for the home team.

Nathan Mondoux was able to squeeze Akwesasne's third goal in under rookie Joel Grills 36 seconds before the final buzzer to drive the final total to 6-3.

SATURDAY GAME

This week's Hawks home game is set for Sat., Oct. 7 when the undefeated Kemptville 73's pay a 7:45 pm visit.

Tonight (Wed., Oct. 4) the Hawks travel to Cornwall Island to take on the Akwesasne Wolves. Friday (Oct. 6) they are in Morrisburg to face the Lions at 8:30 pm.

HAWKS HAPPENINGS

Ben Collins leads the Hawks in scoring with five goals, three assists and eight points in three games, which converts to eighth place in the St. Lawrence Division scoring race. Kemptville's Mike Moher leads the loop with seven goals, five assists and 12 points in four games.

Nick Enright (4-1-5) is 13th, Colin Bowie (3-2-5) is 15th and Steve Cameron (0-5-5) is in 16th place in the top 20.

Travis "Toast" Armstrong didn't play Friday in Alexandria and was replaced by Derek Casselman. Armstrong was in and Casselman out of Sunday's line-up.

Kyle Neville gave up the first four goals in Alexandria and was replaced by rookie Joel Grills. Grills got the start on Sunday and posted his first Junior "B" win against Akwesasne.

Rookie defenceman Brad Smith is out of action for a week due to a lower-body injury.

JUNIOR DEVILS

Coach Ian Wilson is back on the junior bench and was able to report his new team put together a nice package of five wins and one loss in their first action of the 2006 campaign.

The afternoon got off to a solid start with the Junior Devils whitewashing the St. Joe's Panthers 3-0 (25-18, 25-14, 25-10) and defeating the General Vanier Vikings 2-1 (16-25, 25-15, 25-19).

"We played a couple of strong teams today. But we have to remember it's early and they will improve," said Wilson. "It was good to win today because Seaway and Tagwi are now "AA" schools which mean there are six in our division and only four teams make the playoffs. So we will need all the wins we can get."

Wilson guided the Devils to the SD&G "AA" championship last November and has four players from that squad in his new line up. The rest of the roster is composed of Grade 9s.

"Our Grade 9s are great — a very talented group," offered the coach. "We have a big (tall) team, which is a little unusual at this level."

Sean Bufton, James Libirion, Justin Comeau and Reid Greenough are the second-year Devils. The rookies are: Trevor Havekes, Matt Havekes, Jordan Havekes, Ryan Hay, Taylor Johnston, Matt Jose, Richard Overholt and Dylan Casselman.

Last fall, the Junior Devils finished the season with a 23-13 record. They eliminated the St. Joe's (in five sets) in the semi-final round and struck gold knocking off the La Citadelle Patriots in another five-set marathon in the championship match.

NEXT ACTION

NDDHS will send their Devils to Glengarry District High in Alexandria this week and then to La Citadelle on Oct. 10. Next home-court appearance is set for Oct. 26.

DePaiva, Jose lead Senior Devils to first victory of 2006 season

MAPLE RIDGE — Clara dePaiva and Andrea Jose combined for 24 points and led the North Dundas District High School Senior Devils to a 44-29 victory over the visiting Glengarry Gaels.

With the victory the Devils squared their SD&G girls high school basketball record at 1-1. The same afternoon (Sept. 28) the North Dundas juniors also improved to the 500 level (1-1) by smothering the Gaels 58-22.

North Dundas led the Senior Gaels by a slim five points (20-15) at the half but pulled away in the second session, thanks to a five-bucket production by dePaiva who finished the game with a game-high 14 points.

Jose was second in production straining 10 points through the string. Christine Stewart and Andrea Wouters each hit for a six-pack while Lauren Casselman, Laura Melenhorst, Rebecca Bowie and Sarah Eastman dunked deuces.

Both NDDHS squads suffered losses to the SJSS Panthers on opening day (Sept. 21). Today (Wed., Oct. 4) the Russell High School Ravens will provided the opposition at NDDHS.

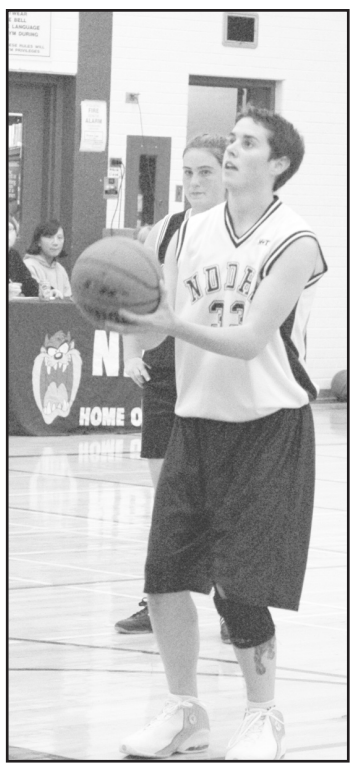
JUNIOR DEVILS

Jessica Matthies and Brittany Beckstead were the North Dundas juniors who hit double digits in an impressive 58-22 decision over the little Gaels.

The Devils found the range early and often and were able to carry a 20-point (31-11) lead into the second half.

Matthies nailed 10 of her 12 points in the first half while her sister, Laurena swished eight in the second session.

Beckstead produced 10 points, eight from the field and two from the foul line. Teal Gove scored eight while Dara Bowie hit for six. Jenna Wouters (4), Kaitlyn Hay (3) and Alicia Summers (1) supplied the rest of the offence.



Clara dePaiva (left) and Andrea Jose spearheaded the North Dundas attack combining for 24 points in the Senior Devils 44-29 victory over the Glengarry Gaels on Sept. 28. The win evened the Devils' SD&G girls "AA" high school record at 1-1. Five second-half buckets helped dePaiva collected 14 points. Jose drained 10 for the Devils.

Reds ramble to 7-2 win on WDLHL's opening day

WINCHESTER — Seven different shooters hit the target as the Reds opened their 2006-07 Winchester District Ladies Hockey League campaign with a solid 7-2 win over the Double Beauty Stylists.

The other two results from Sunday (Oct. 1) morning's slate were much closer. The first game of the new season saw the CountryGirl Gold Diggers and Classics battled to a 2-2 draw. The middle match finished as a 2-1 win for the Annable's Jewellery Blues over Andy's Foodland Maroons.

Sherry Beckstead finished off a play started by Amy Darling and Nathalie Levasseur at 16:34 of the first half as the Reds took a 1-0 lead on the Stylists. Francine Brisson used a feed from Courtney Barkley to tie it up 1-1 at 14:04 of the same frame, but the Reds cracked in two more shots before the intermission and led 3-1 at the break.

Darling figured in on the next two scoring plays, assisting Sarah Grady at 11:25 and then scoring unassisted at the 7:01 mark to make it 3-1.

An unassisted effort by Shannon Thompson put the Reds ahead 4-1 at 17:11 of the second session. Brisson netted her second goal of the game at 10:27 but 4-2 was as close as the Stylists would get because they weren't able to jam another shot behind goalie Roxanne Backes.

Sonia Clement (unassisted at 7:40), Kelly Zeran (from Jen Manley and Sherry Beckstead at 7:04) and Sandy Whitworth (from Manley and Thompson at 2:55) booked the final three Red goals.

DIGGERS 2 - CLASSICS 2

Barb Kuhn converted a feed from Annette Downey and Diane Downey into the tying goal as the Classics battled the Gold Diggers to a 2-2 draw. The Kuhn marker was recorded with 5:01 left on the clock.

Tara Verney connected from Barb Canham at 16:38 of the first half to put the Classics up 1-0. Edith Dagenais answered for the Diggers and tied it 1-1 at 15:55 of the same frame. Dagenais scored again at 10:20 of the second stanza and made it 2-1 for the Diggers on an unassisted play. That set the stage for the Classics' rally for the tie.

Bard Wigney (Diggers) and Kristi Wade (Classics) were the opposing goalies.

BLUES 2 - MAROONS 3

Nathalie Caron broke up a 1-1 stalemate when she finished off a play created by Cheryl Cooper and Amy Fraser with 8:02 left on the clock.

Her marker handed the Annable's Jewellery Blues a 2-1 win over the Andy's Maroons.

Fraser broke the scoreless contest up when she took a pass from Cooper and made it 1-0 at 15:32 of the first half. The Maroons evened it up with 10:04 to play in the game. Jane Hendrikx and Tanya Katsoulis were in on that goal.

Carrie McCadden posted the win and Sharon McDonald suffered the one-goal setback.

Let's Go Girls tourney raises over $7,000

WILLIAMSBURG — The seventh annual Let's Go Girls Golf Tournament was another outstanding success, as women from the community enjoyed a game of golf on Aug. 12 at Cedar Glen Golf Course to support breast cancer awareness.

Cindy Wolfe, representing the tournament, and Vicki Lefebvre, representing Scotiabank, presented a cheque in the amount of $7,031.94 to Winchester District Memorial Hospital Foundation chair Terry MacLellan on Sept. 20. This money represented a $5,000 donation from Scotiabank, as well as $2,031.94 raised during the tournament.

The Let's Go Girls Golf Tournament raises money for the Ontario Breast Screening Program at WDMH and raises breast cancer awareness in the community. To date, this tournament – organized by Linda Bowers, formerly of Morrisburg – has raised over $27,000.

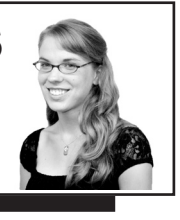
The influence of Terry Fox

Students brave rain to raise over $8,000

MAPLE RIDGE — There are some people who have a perpetual effect on our lives. They touch us in little ways that affect us for the rest of our lives.

Terry Fox has had that kind of influence on many people. He ran across our country to raise awareness and found a place in the hearts of people around the world.

NDDHS Notes
by Jennifer Honders



He said, "When I started this run, I said that if we all gave one dollar, we'd have $22 million for cancer research, and I don't care man, there's no reason that isn't possible. No reason!" In his mission, Terry Fox raised more awareness for his marathon than he could have hoped. The impact of his efforts can be witnessed all over Canada, and North Dundas is no exception.

On Sept. 29, 209 North Dundas students braved the wind, cold, and rain to run for a man they never knew. Friday morning was not pleasant, but that did little to dampen their spirits as $8,084.10 was raised to be donated to the Terry Fox Foundation. It was a well-organized event. Great job to students and faculty alike for all of their hard work.

In other news, this past week we held the Junior Achievements Assembly on Mon., Oct. 2. This assembly has been introduced to honour the efforts put forth by last year's Grade 9, 10, and 11 students who either attained an 80 per cent average and higher or participated in extra-curricular activities. It can sometimes be a tedious experience, but it is important to recognize the tremendous accomplishments of many students. Many township members participated, as well as student body representatives and staff members.

Dingwall, Marcellus team up for Rufus two-person scramble win at Cedar Glen WILLIAMSBURG — Berneice Dingwall and Todd Marcellus combined for the low gross score and claimed top prize in the 2006 Rufus 2-Person Scramble at Cedar Glen Golf Course.

Dingwall and Marcellus carded a 70 and finished three strokes up on Elaine and Dean McIntosh who shot a 73 in Saturday's (Sept. 30) event. Denise and Gary Lafave finished third in the Mixed Division with a 74.

The top net numbers were posted by Christine and Terry Barkley who had a 49, and Marie and Darrell Shelp who registered a 52.5. Two teams — Muriel and Dale Whitteker as well as Barry Casselman and Brenda Ramsay — tied at 57.

The winning score in the Men's Division was a low gross 68 shared by J.P. St. Pierre and Shaler Hill, Dave Bird and Ron Ferguson and Paul and Rob Casselman.

Goaler Whitteker and Phil Douglas combined for the best low net score of 52. The Birds — Brett and Matt were the runners up carding a 52.5.

Eric Don and Ron Geurkink grab the low net prize and won the Tuesday Night Scramble on Sept. 26. The total was 26.5.

Don McMillan and Francis Barkley, Rick Barkley and Blair Henderson, Jeff and Kevin Whitteker and Dave Bird and Ron Ferguson were the other winners.

A field of 17 played on Men's Night (Sept. 28). The low gross winners were: "A" Class - Jeff Whitteker 40; "B" class - Bert McIntosh - 48, "C" class - Glen Vasey 37; "D" class - Ray Michaud 45. Other winners included Dean McIntosh, Kevin Whitteker, Barry Casselman and Bruce Froats.

In Memoriam

MILNE – In loving memory of my husband, Art, who passed away October 3, 2003.

I miss you more than anyone knows.
– Love, Jean
29

MILNE – Thinking of our Dad, Art, who passed away October 3, 2003.
Wonderful memories woven in gold,
This is the picture we tenderly hold.
Deep in our hearts, your memory is kept
To love and to cherish and never forget.
We miss you, Dad, in so many ways
We miss the things you used to say
Memories are treasures no one can steal
Death is a heartache no one can heal.
– Missing you, Dad
– Love your family (9 children, 23 grandchildren, 4 great-grandchildren)
29

BECKINSALE – In loving memory of a dear dad, husband, and granddad, David, who passed away on October 2, 2004.
We will always remember the way you looked,
The way you spoke and smiled,
The many things you gave to us,
Are with us all the while.
You meant so very much to us,
But nothing we can say,
Can tell the sadness in our heart,
As we think of you today.
Of all that life has given us,
And all that's left to do,
We never had a greater gift,
Then the years we shared with you.
– Deeply loved and forever missed by your family, Louise, Paul, Sally, Sandra, Shane, Ashley, Shannen and Chelsea

Still we have so many memories,
Of the one we loved so much.

She was the special aunt of Aileen (Lyal) Kehoe of Williamsburg and the sister-in-law of Eric Hogg of Peterborough. She will be fondly remembered by nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Edna was a homemaker and a lifetime resident of the Winchester area. She was an excellent cook and baker, and she enjoyed reading and listening to gospel music.

Friends called at the Marsden and McLaughlin Funeral Home in Williamsburg on Mon., Sept. 25. The funeral was held at the funeral home on Tues., Sept. 26 with Rev. Blair Patterson and Rev. Noreen Gullons officiating, followed by interment at Maple Ridge Cemetery in Chesterville. The pallbearers were Steve Hopkins, Paul Hopkins, Jeff Hopkins, and Burke Cleland.

Keeping Health In Mind

"Keeping Health in Mind" is a monthly newspaper column made possible with the help of the Lannin Business Centre, The Winchester Press and the clinical staff of Tri-County Mental Health Services, a community program of the Cornwall Community Hospital/Hôpital Communautaire de Cornwall.

Talk it out...

Talk it out, don't keep your feelings in, it is not healthy.

Feelings/emotions are what give you energy. They involve a total reaction, for example: They can involve physical reactions such as changes in heart rate, respiration, trembling etc…. When you feel embarrassed, you may be aware of your cheeks flushing as your blood pressure increases. A tightness in your stomach may be a somatic expression of fear.

Suppressing or 'stuffing' your emotions tends to require a lot of energy. The more you suppress or 'stuff" your feelings, the more difficult it becomes to express or even identify them. Many people have a strong need to feel in control and/or have a fear of loosing control. If emotions have been suppressed for a long time, they can be overwhelmed when they first begin to surface and this may be experienced as the irrational fear of 'going crazy' or 'falling apart'. People do not 'go crazy' from expressing emotions but because we fear this, instead of dealing with the feelings as they arise, we panic and stuff our feelings back down again. These fears, however, do subside as soon as we allow ourselves to accept and feel the emotion.

No matter how hard we attempt to suppress our feelings, we can never do this totally for long periods of time because withheld feelings can make themselves known through several types of bodily and psychological symptoms. For example, if you feel anxious and not seem to relate to any specific situation, if it is vague, this may be because it stems from unexpressed feelings. Feelings carry energy and when feelings are withheld, it may create a state of tension or anxiety. Therefore, feelings of anxiety may be your body's way of letting you know that there are other feelings present that you are not paying attention to. Depression is often the result of withheld feelings of grief, sadness or anger. Headaches, ulcers, high blood pressure, etc., are often the result of chronically withheld emotions in that withholding your emotions in over a long period of time is in itself a form of stress. We tend to tighten our muscles when we suppress our emotions causing muscle tension. When you are under high levels of stress, your body is already in a state of physiological arousal. As such, it will not take much to set off an emotional experience.

Emotions play a very important role in relationships. The ability to express oneself is at the heart of a relationship. You have to be sure not to assume that other people already know what you feel: You have to make your emotions known. Other people aren't mind readers.

Feelings are what give you energy. You will feel more energetic if you are in touch with your feelings and able to express them effectively.

Metcalfe celebrates: Fair 150 and counting

Metcalfe Agricultural Society President John Lackey (left), past-president Bill Buckland, and family division president Betty Magee look on as Elizabeth Stuart cuts the ceremonial ribbon to the brand new gates at the Metcalfe fairgrounds on Fri., Sept. 29. Stuart, 99 years young, has been involved with the Metcalfe Fair for most of her life. The gate project was one of many 150th anniversary endeavours.

Three-and-a-half-year-old Alex Cross of Dalmeny tried his luck at the duck pond.

He calls himself Bandaloni. He's a walkin', singin', strummin', and stompin' one-man-band, and he wowed visitors to the Metcalfe Fair this year.

At left:
Catherine Douglas drove this rig in the Hackney Pony Ladies class on Sat., Sept. 30. The pony is owned by Don and Devon Morrow of Edwards.

In Saturday night's Battle of the Bands, the lead singer of the Eternal Paradox joked with the audience during their set.

Below:
Metcalfe Agricultural Society past-president Betty Eastman, who is also chair of the 150th anniversary committee, and director Heather Bellinger served up birthday cake to visitors on Sat., Sept. 30 to mark this year's 150th running of the Metcalfe Fair. The fair's birthday was celebrated each day at 1:50 pm.

Jonathan Rylaarsdam of the Vernon Dairy 4-H Club competes in the senior dairy showmanship championship class of the Carleton 4-H Championship Show on Fri., Sept. 29.

At right:
Jessica Trager, 14, of Osgoode seems unfazed on the Polar Express ride Fri., Sept. 29, while Peter Killen,14, of Metcalfe looks like he might have preferred a different ride.

Nelda Isaac of the Osgoode Museum and Historical Society organized a special display to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the Metcalfe Fair. It was presented in the Ray Wilson Hall of the Metcalfe Community Centre.
