Council appeals to public about taxation concerns

by Laurie Day
Leader staff

WILLIAMSBURG—Council is appealing to the public to get out the pen and paper.

"If you think your tax bills are bad now, wait till next year," said Councillor Rowdy Gillard at last week's South Dundas council meeting.

"We've done all we can do as a council (to oppose tax hikes), and now we have to try something else," said Coun. Audrey Rooney, as she tabled the idea to write the provincial government to voice displeasure with the increase in taxes.

Due to provincial downloading of such services as social assistance, ambulances, social housing, and policing, South Dundas is "behind $4.2 million," said Mayor Johnny Whitteker. "Your taxes will be reflected by this (shortfall). It is not a revenue neutral plan."

Rooney went so far as to suggest that ratepayers withhold their payment of taxes.

"We've got to do something so that (the provincial government) will take notice."

Mike Waddell stated that letters probably wouldn't do much good, although getting individuals to write to the government might be a better plan than signing a petition.

"You have to go en masse...face to face. You have to go up the ladder as high as you can to get the answers," Waddell said.

Whitteker stated that area reeves were planning a trip to Toronto to do just that.

"We've bantered this around quite a bit," he said. "But if you're not satisfied with your taxes, your assessment or whatever, individual letters, each worded a little bit differently, would have more of an effect than one letter with 2000 signatures."

"We have to get the point across that these programs are not revenue neutral," stated Coun. Cam Martel, "and we need to be compensated for the dollars we're not getting. We don't want our municipalities to experience shortfalls during this transition period."

As for withholding taxes, Martel stated that that's not smart to "fly in the face of legality."

"We'd be slapped with interest charges. Every municipality has this problem."

Whitteker stated, "In my opinion, January 13, we should have marched up to Queen's Park, and told them we weren't going to take this anymore."

Council passed a motion supporting the town of Richmond Hill which believes that all taxpayers of Ontario should enjoy the benefits of fair taxation, and fair distribution of taxation.

South Dundas Hydro to pull the plug at Iroquois plaza

by Laurie Day
Leader staff

WILLIAMSBURG—South Dundas Hydro is pulling the plug on the festive season in Iroquois due to unsafe electrical conditions on the roof of the plaza.

South Dundas Council received a report from the Recreation Department during last Thursday's council meeting, regarding the safety hazards at the Iroquois Shopping Plaza.

"I refused to put up Christmas lights in the Iroquois plaza because of the dangerous power supply available," noted Keith Robinson, recreation director, in his report to council.

"Craig Harriman, (electrician) Dan Rice (South Dundas Hydro commissioner) and I checked the system out. We agreed it is unsafe because there were bare wires laying in water, and a tripod sitting on top of the roof. Old dusk to dawn switches had bare wires hooked onto it, and various other areas (are) unsafe."

According to Rice, there is "quite a mess up there."

"We inherited that (Iroquois Plaza) at amalgamation this year," Rice said, when contacted by The Leader. "Not only is it dangerous (for us) but for anyone working up there, too."

Rice indicated that it isn't up to the Hydro commission to fix the wiring. "It's up to an electrician. We just supply the meter, and the power."

The Recreation Department decided that they need to upgrade the wiring to standards of the Morrisburg plaza, but to do that they need approximately $15,000 (plus the cost to have a layout of the wiring done).

"Here's the catch 22 situation," said Coun. Audrey Rooney. "The merchants own their awnings. Unfortunately, if we bring this to the merchants' attention, they won't fix them. And who's liable? I can't even get them to all paint their poles in front of their stores the same colour, or put the same kind of tin on their awnings."

Mike Waddell, administrator, stated that the majority of business owners had to be in agreement in order to bring the wiring up to safety standards.

"For now, South Dundas Hydro will be cutting the power," said Waddell. "This could be life threatening."

"We're (Council) not cutting the power off," said Coun. Cam Martel. "Technically, this is not our problem. We as a municipality have investigated this and because it's not our property, we are not making any repairs."

Rooney stated that there are 21 businesses in the Iroquois plaza. It would cost each business less than $1,000 apiece to upgrade the wiring. There is no Business Improvement Association (BIA) in Iroquois.

"This council will soon realize just how well you will get along with the merchants of Iroquois."

Mayor Johnny Whitteker suggested that they someone on staff contact the business owners there and set up a meeting to see if there is a general consensus for repairs.

Street lighting on county roads

Bill Ewing has been travelling the township to check on street lights which intersect county roads. There are approximately 32 lights in the township that will be billed (replacement bulbs and hydro to run them) to the county.

Water meters

Starting this week, (Mon. Nov. 30), investigation has begun on the water meter situation in Morrisburg. Garlough said, "He's just looking at the commercial businesses."

Santa Parade Saturday

by Catherine Thompson
Leader Staff

MORRISBURG—Santa is set to ride into town this weekend, accompanied by his usual cohorts of reindeer and elves.

According to one of his right hand men George Davies, a line-up of local businesses and service organizations are also ready to join the Merry Elf.

Santa is also expected to make an appearance earlier at the Pancake Breakfast at the Civic Center.

And the Santa Parade should be bigger and better than last year, at least that's what Davies is hoping.

"We don't know how many there will be, since entries are still coming in," Davies said.

Davies added the parade will include some new participants from the Parks of the St. Lawrence, Tim Hortons from Highway 401, the Air Cadets of Cornwall, and entries from usual participants like Beavers Dental, and the service clubs.

Seaway District High School band is to appear , as are the Pipes and Drums from Lancaster, adding their music to the festive atmosphere. The local volunteer fire departments are to join the parade as well, and there will be some heavy draft horses.

The Parade will take off this Saturday at 10 a.m. from the Morrisburg Civic Center.

The route is similar to previous years, winding west on Fifth St. to Augusta, south to First St., east to Ottawa then north to Maude St.

The parade will turn east onto Sir James Morris Drive, north to Fifth St., and east again to Dairy Rd., back again through the plaza and to the Civic Center.

"All we need to cooperate is the weather," Davies said. "It would be nice if there was just a touch of snow in the air. But that's one thing Santa won't have control over."

Happy trails

Stewart Wheeler (seated) of Winchester was the winner of the $7,000 Formula 500 Z Ski-Doo which was raffled off by the Nation Valley Snowmobile Club last Saturday during the Bring On The Snow dance at Matilda Hall. Also pictured are Debbie Strader, secretary of the NVSC and fund-raising chair, Jeff Whitteker, president of the NVSC, and Jim Primrose, owner of Jim's Performance Plus, sponsor of the sled. The money raised from this major fund-raiser will be used to help clear the 600km of trails used by the seven clubs that make up the Nation Valley Snowmobile Club. Strader would like to pass on her thanks to all members for selling the raffle tickets. —Day photo

Food Safety begins at home

The Canadian Food Inspection Agency wants consumers to know that the battleground for foodborne illness is closer to home than they may think.

"The kitchen is the front line in the battle against foodborne illness and that's where we want to reach consumers," said Canadian Food inspection Agency President Ron Doering.

The CFIA is among an alliance of 48 food sector organizations who launched Fight Bac!, a national campaign to inform Canadians about the risk of foodborne illness and how to prevent it.

"Fight Bac! drives home the fact that foodborne illness is easily preventable through common sense food handling and preparation practices," said Mr. Doering.

Foodborne illness occurs when a person gets sick by eating food that has been contaminated with an unwanted micro-organism. This condition is often called "food poisoning". Bacteria, parasites and viruses are microorganisms that can cause foodborne illness. Microbes and pathogens also describe the micro-organisms that cause foodborne illness.

Many cases of foodborne illness go unreported because their symptoms often resemble the stomach flu. The most common symptoms of foodborne illness include stomach cramps, nausea, vomiting, diarrhea and fever.

One of the most frequent forms is caused by the bacteria salmonella, which is often present in raw and undercooked meats, especially poultry, raw milk and eggs. Salmonellosis symptoms may include diarrhea, abdominal cramps, vomiting and fever, dehydration in serious cases, or it may infect the entire body.

Another is listeriosis caused by "listeria monocytogenes". The bacteria is found in the environment, especially in soil, vegetation, fodder, human and animal wastes. It may be carried in dairy products, vegetables, fish and meat products. Symptoms include flu-like symptoms, and the illness is especially dangerous for the very young, elderly and during pregnancy.

The campaign against foodborne illness or food poisoning focuses on the following four key principles:

* Clean—wash hands and surfaces often.
* Separate—don't cross-contaminate.
* Cook-cook to proper temperatures.
* Chill-refrigerate promptly.

These basic safety measures will be widely promoted through displays in supermarkets, public health units, food fairs, trade shows, community centres, seniors residences and schools and in public service announcements.

"Food safety is as basic as safety on the farm or on the highway," said Mr. Doering. "It's a shared responsibility and this partnership reflects that."

This Week In Morrisburg's History

Compiled from The Leader's fyles by Laurie Day

Elected municipal officials in both Morrisburg and Williamsburg were sworn in during separate ceremonies in each municipality.

The Winchester Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion made another donation to the Winchester District Memorial Hospital. The cheque was to pay for a bronchoscope, which was to be used in diagnosing lung and respiratory ailments. Attending the cheque presentation were Barb Stillman, the hospital's in-service education co-ordinator, administrator Bert Stel, board vice-president Wayne Burns, branch president Duncan Levere, executive member Alfred Baker, second vice-president Roy Shepherd and past president Dwight Hutt. They were pictured on the front page of The Leader.

Seaway District High School students were experiencing an extremely good year academically, said their guidance councillor Marlene Hamilton, and she had figures to prove it. The student population at Seaway totaled 550 and what was notable was that just under half of them had made the honour roll at the end of the first term in November.

The December 6 issue of The Leader reported the Morrisburg Outlet of Dominion Stores had received approval by head office for its proposed expansion. The expansion was immediately west of the building but final details were not yet available.

Morrisburg village council was sworn into office, each of the members having previously sat on council for at least one term. Taking their oaths were Reeve Bill Dillabough, deputy-reeve Mike McInnis and councillors Harland Veinotte, Gerry Rosenquist and Al Belanger.

The Bell Telephone Company was building an extension at its Morrisburg switching centre to meet the growing demand of the community and the area.

Morrisburg artist, Alan Bain, was gaining a widespread reputation, his working showing in two galleries in Ottawa and Cobourg. Bain, who was relatively new to the area, was principal at Morrisburg Public School.

At Heinz Food Market, a one-pound package of Pride of Canada bacon was $1.55 and a 48-ounce tin of Allen apple juice was 79 cents.

A spectacular fire brought the peaceful little community of South Mountain to full alert, and after it was all over the Nationview Public School had been extensively damaged. Estimates had reached well over $1 million and the loss of teachers' and students' personal belongings was undeterminable. The cause of the fire had not yet been established. The fire broke out in the south end of the school and before it had spread, firemen were able to enter the office to save records. Over half the building was lost and extensive water and smoke damage was done to the remainder of it. The school, which was eight years old, and had cost $1 million in 1971, and was built under the open concept design in which classes were open throughout the school. It was expected that in the discussions to repair and rebuild, the question of the open concept idea would again be tabled.

Winners of the Morrisburg Curling Club's Founder's trophy were Blair MacDonald, Pete Brunt and Jack Barkley.

Headlines in the December 6 issue of The Leader read: C.F. McInnis winner in close contest for reeveship. Voters in Morrisburg turned out in record numbers to elect incumbent deputy reeve Carlton F. McInnis reeve, over former reeve Gordon W. Thom by a scant 47 cotes. In an even closer race, Ed Jones was elected deputy reeve by just 18 votes over Paul Barkley. Elected councillors were Earl Baker, Bob Bright and Bruce Tuttle.

A contest to name Seaway District High School's mascot was underway. The mascot was a two-foot high dog similar to Snoopy, who wore the sweater of the school colours, orange and black.

At Brinston's Allied Food Market, tangerines were three dozen for 89 cents and prime rib roasts were 79 cents a pound.

It was reported in the December 5 issue of the Leader that Gordon Thom had disposed of incumbent reeve George Beavers in Monday's election by 481 votes to 244 votes in the Morrisburg mayoralty race. Mr. Beavers had been in office for seven years. Elected to council were Dain Connor, Art Edgerton, Willard Steinburg and Lawrence Coligan.

June McMillan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McMillan of Elma, was the bride of Rudolph Boulerice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boulerice of Morrisburg.

The likelihood of an addition being built to Morrisburg District High School was discussed at the November meeting of the South Dundas District High School Board. The need for more classrooms was indicated by figures supplied by G.W. Francis, principal of Morrisburg High School, pointing to a 50 per cent student

Our apologies to the Dundas Veterinary Services for that little typo in last week's "Around Town". It was inadvertently written that the price of a photo of your pet with Santa would be that price, when in fact, it's only $8 (EIGHT dollars!) Whew. Had you going there for a minute, didn't we?

Santa will be visiting the Dundas Veterinary Services on Saturday, Dec. 5, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. This is an opportunity to have your pet's photo taken with Santa. The cost is just $8 per photo, and the proceeds will be given to the OSPCA. All pets and welcome. For more information, please call 774-2159.

Again, we apologize for the error. (Oops)

Christmas is a special time for people to gather together in celebration and thanksgiving. To this end, friends of the Apple Tree Ministry are sponsoring a turkey dinner on Christmas Day for anyone who wants to share a community meal. The dinner will be served at 12:30 p.m. at the Morrisburg Legion. Following a dessert of home baked pies, there will be music, treats and a chance to chat over coffee. While there is no charge for the meal, a freewill offering will be accepted. All are welcome. If you plan to come, please call 543-3904 and confirm your plans by Dec. 22.

Hats off to Wayne and Sheila McHaffie for an excellent supper provided to the merchants in appreciation for their business in 1998. On Sunday, Harts' Special Occasions Catering served a fine turkey dinner with all the trimmings, to the vendors at the flea market and the comments were all positive.

The Upper Canada Playhouse Auction raised $11,000 during this fundraising event on November 14. A note of thanks from the playhouse was passed along to us, also wishing us a happy holiday season. "It is only through the generosity of individuals and businesses who support our fundraising ventures and through volunteer efforts of community members that we are able to sustain a professional theatre in the Seaway Valley."

Children's Aid Society workers have mandate to strike

CORNWALL—Children's Aid Social Workers, members of Local 458 of the Ontario Public Service Employees Union (OPSEU) are proceeding to conciliation on December 16, 17 and 18, 1998 with a strong strike mandate from its membership.

OPSEU Local 458 represents 48 front line child workers and support staff in the City of Cornwall and the three United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry. These workers are mandated to ensure the safety and protection of children in our communities and to provide services to families and foster parents.

Negotiations have broken down on two separate occasions since June 1998, and most recently on November 23. The members are asking for a wage increase. The employer has not given the members a raise in the last seven years and the employer has not presented any wage increase in the recent round of bargaining (which is for another two year contract).

Children's Aid Society workers now face more pressures and liabilities as a result of the Ministry's new child welfare guidelines. Frances Axten, president of Local 458 states, "Despite concessions the members have made in the previous contract negotiations, the employer continues to claim they have a very large deficit and cannot give any wage increases."

The membership has not yet received an offer with respect to a wage increase as they enter the conciliation process.

The membership continues to prepare for on-going discussions with the employer to review wage increases, and are waiting for an offer to reach an acceptable collective agreement. They hope management will make an offer that would prevent any disruption in the services provided for the safety and well-being for community children.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor—The community is rallying around the South Dundas Christmas Exchange again this year as we provide food and toys for the 200 families who require assistance at this time of year.

The South Dundas Chamber of Commerce officially launched our project this year by donating proceeds from the Gala Banquet last week. This week organizers have heard from all corners of our community and reports are encouraging as interest, enthusiasm and support for this project grows.

There are presently a dozen members of the committee working very hard to ensure that everything will be in place for delivery and sorting of food which will be on December 16, 10 a.m. at the Legion in Morrisburg. Angel Trees are in place, book trees and mitten trees are organized and cheques received. Food bins are conveniently placed in the grocery stores and money jars in the banks.

Please contribute generously again this year as we work together to make Christmas a little bit merrier for families in need. Cheques are to be made payable to South Dundas Christmas Exchange and deposited at the local Bank of Montreal, mailed to Treasurer Sharon Jones, Morrisburg, or dropped off at the Pharmacy in Morrisburg.

Howith by 76 votes. Mr. Broder had been a member of the town council for five years while Mr. Howith was making his first appearance in Morrisburg politics. The 1938 councillors and hydro commissions had all been returned by acclamation.

On December 7, members of the Morrisburg Curling Club formally opened their new and luxurious quarters with an "At Home" to the public of Morrisburg and vicinity. Guests were received by Mrs. A.K. For maintenance work on several highways

Cruickshank awarded $7 million in contracts

by Catherine Thompson
Leader staff

MORRISBURG – Cruickshank Construction Ltd. has been awarded area maintenance contracts worth $7 million by the Ministry of Transportation to do maintenance work on several area highways.

"We put in a proposal on how to do it and were informed on August 4 we were the preferred proponent of four or five proposals. Then there were a pile of details afterward to tidy up," said owner of the company, Les Cruickshank.

The second highest bidder was Integrated Maintenance and Operations Services Inc.

The contracts are for 3.5 years but are extendable to five years. Cruickshank Construction is paid a total of $7 million annually, on a lump sum per kilometer, no matter how much or little work is involved. But the $7 million also has to cover all expenses, including materials such as salt, sand, patching materials, guide rails, equipment such as grasscutters and labor costs.

Cruickshank is to look after Highway 401 from the Quebec border to Camden East, west of Kingston, and Highway 416 from Highway 401 to Highway 417. The company will also do maintenance on Highway 15 from Kingston to Seeley's Bay; Highway 33 from Kingston to Glenora Ferry; and the Thousand Islands Parkway.

The work will include snowploughing, and salting in the winter, patching potholes, cutting grass and vegetation control during the growing season and picking up debris year round. The maintenance contract also covers guide rails and illumination at intersections, and emergency response, involving lane or highway closures.

Cruickshank also hired 25 from among over 30 MTO employees in the area they were serving. "We took them from the list of MTO employees where there was contracting out," he said. "They are good men who have a lot of experiences, some have 20 plus years. They're trained and have had all kinds of courses, and ours will take courses too. We're very fortunate to have them since they know the local conditions, where the ice builds up, and how to salt in winter," said Cruickshank.

"We made an offer at the beginning to the existing MTO employee. MTO took some good employees, and we promoted others to fill their jobs," he continued.

Since there are ongoing competitions in MTO, some applied for these and were accepted. Some key senior employees decided to finish their jobs with MTO until eligible to collect pensions. Others retired or quit to accept other jobs.

Cruickshank said the employees will be earning "more or less the same wages, some the same, some slightly less, depending on the job," he continued. "We recognized their seniority. They went over to our benefits and pension package."

One big difference is the employees who were formerly unionized are now without a union.

"There's more uncertainty than working for the highways, but in another five years, we can bid on the contracts again," Cruickshank said.

The company started work on November 1, after negotiating to purchase a considerable amount of MTO equipment including grass cutting, pick up trucks and tools, and computers.

Several people will be at patrol yards at Morrisburg, Summerstown, Johnstown, Kemptville, Brockville, Lansdowne and Camden East.

"At the MTO patrol yards, we have a yard man and a patrol supervisor. When a storm hits, we call men in on beepers," Cruickshank said.

"In summer, the only big thing is if there's an accident. Winter is our real challenge," Cruickshank continued.

Cruickshank commented their company has "more bench strength than MTO. It's as if we have a spare goalie, or backup. The first little storm, the mechanics were at every spot where the trucks were. We have a couple of spare trucks and can round up people quicker."

Utilization of people and equipment is better when privatized, he continued. "With the price of a truck worth $125,000, you'd better use it year round."

MTO gears up for wintertime with a lot of men but in summer, the big work is done. "We'll employ people on winter road maintenance and in summer on construction," Cruickshank said.

The company has about 90 men available, including their own employees on the job and on call; newly hired MTO employees; and brokers with their own trucks, with one quarter owned by Tackaberry Construction based near Athens.

As well as the maintenance contracts with MTO, Cruickshank Construction rebuilds roads, including 12 kilometers north of Madoc on Highway 62, and 33 west of Kingston. Another project is a water retention project on the Rideau river for the City of Nepean.

The company also has 13 men and equipment for winter maintenance in Toronto, and has employees working in Barry's Bay, and Denby near Renfrew.

Cruickshank Construction owns approximately 12 open quarries from west of Kingston to Lancaster, where drilling and blasting is performed through contract work, and a number of gravel and sand pits.

Odonto matches Big Bike pledge

Doug McNairn, planning manager at Odonto (left) was one of eleven Odonto employees on the Big Bike for Stroke in September. The employees raised $900, and the pledge was matched by Odonto for a total of $1,807. McNairn and President of Odonto, Nick Lee, at right, received a plaque of appreciation from Heart and Stroke.

Beavers match pledge

Beavers Dental Ltd. represented by General Manager Bob Leroux, center, matched the $234 pledge of mother (Sandra Barnhart, at right) and daughter Leslie Claxton who joined in the Bay Heart and Stroke Walk for our Mothers and Daughters in September. The total pledge was $468. The Beavers representatives were awarded a plaque of recognition by Dundas chapter of Heart and Stroke.

Moonlight Walk on December 5

There will be a guided moonlight walk on December 5 from 7 to 9 p.m. leaving the Upper Canada Migratory Bird Sanctuary's Interpretive Center. Dress warmly and bring your flashlight if you wish. Cost is $2 per adult: children aged 12 and under are free. Free hot chocolate is provided.

Police File

During the past week, police officers in Dundas County responded to 97 calls for service, including 13 in Matilda Twp, 16 in Williamsburg Twp, 13 in Iroquois, and 12 in Morrisburg.

Suspended drivers

During the past week, routine traffic stops made by police officers in Dundas County resulted in the appreension of three suspended drivers. There are two classification of orders, which will result in the loss of driving privileges: one being a prohibition made under the authority of the Criminal Code (as in impaired driving case), which lead to Criminal Code charges if the driver is apprehended. This will require the driver to attend Criminal Court and if convicted will receive a disposition consistent with those proceedings. The second is a suspension made under the authority of the Highway Traffic Act (which may result due to accumulation of demerit points, medical reasons, or a court order). The Highway Traffic Act suspension will also result in charges, not criminal charges, but charges dealt with under the Provincial Offenses Act. In both of these cases, a conviction will also result in a further suspension of driving privleges.

Driving while suspended or prohibited is a serious offense. Please drive responsibly.

Weekend RIDE stats

Between Nov. 28-30, Upper Canada Detachment officers conducted RIDE (Reduce Impaired Driving Everywhere) spot checks throughout Stormont and Dundas Counties. On some occasions, a joint forces effort was conducted with the Cornwall Police services. The following are stats of enforcement: Vehicles checked, 519; Impaired charges, 1 (including 90 days administrative drivers licence suspension); 12 hour suspensions, 5; Liquor Licence Act charges, 3. The festive RIDE program continues throughout the holiday season. Please be responsible, don't drink and drive.

Portable outhouse stolen

Sometime overnight, Nov. 28-29, a portable outhouse built on a trailer was taken from a club on Concession 8 of South Stormont. The item is described as beigh with red aluminum siding, eight feet in height, and four feet wide by eight feet long. It was built on a homemade trailer with a vehicle axle, with a value of approximately $1,000.

Snow removal expensive for Roads Department

Slippery sidewalks an issue for Council

by Laurie Day
Leader staff

WILLIAMSBURG—There may be more slippery sidewalks in South Dundas Township this winter.

Hugh Garlough, Public Works superintendent, gave his report to council concerning such areas as plowing, composting, salting and stone dusting, and even street lighting and the high cost of maintaining these services.

His suggestion to council was that sidewalk plowing only be done on an emergency basis.

"It's not the actually plowing of the streets that is the cost factor, but the removal of the snow," he said

Last year, the township plowed sidewalks in Matilda, from the County Road to the clerk's office; in Williamsburg, County Roads 18 and 31; Iroquois, Elizabeth Drive and Church Street; and Morrisburg Fifth Street, Ottawa Street, Sir James Morris Drive.

Coun. Cam Martel was concerned about the pedestrian traffic on Morrisburg's streets, and felt that Garlough couldn't just quit plowing those streets.

"Those are main feeder lines into the mall and there are a lot of people who travel those sidewalks," Martel said.

Coun. Audrey Rooney stated that Iroquois streets had many children walking back and forth to school, and by not plowing those streets, they'd be walking on the roads.

In Matilda, Coun. Bev Sabourin stated that many seniors travelled the sidewalk that had been plowed by the township, while in Williamsburg, much of the sidewalk space was taken up by parked cars.

After much discussion, Garlough agreed to look at other ways of cutting costs in lieu of stopping the service.

The councillors had many concerns with Garlough stopping the plowing of streets stating that the liability of an accident could far outweigh the cost of removing the snow.

"We can't take these services away from the residents of South Dundas," stated Mayor Whitteker. "They are paying high taxes and getting less. That's not right."

On the same note, Garlough stated that plowing out church yards and parking lots would discontinue by the Township roads department.

"We'll download that cost onto the contractors," quipped the mayor. "There are private contractors in the township who would love to get that job. We'll let the churches look after their own parking lots."

Garlough stated in order to continue the level of service as in the past, that Council would have to spend some money (ie, on a salt spreader) to maintain it.

Speaking of salt

The sale of salt or stone dust is to cease in the township, as Garlough stated that he was having trouble with private contractors in the past.

"We were expected to load the salt or stone dust (which wasn't incorporated in the price), he said.

Garlough suggested that they shouldn't sell to any contractor for private use, "Only if they're working for the township," he said.

"A moment in time"

The compost sites in Morrisburg and Iroquois will be closed for the winter months, at the request of council.

Garlough showed pictures on the trashed compost sites, which Martel stated, "These pictures are just moments in time," much to everyone's amusement.

The photos showed garbage bags and lumber in the compost piles, which are two things that can't be tossed into these places.

"The police caught a person dumping lath and plaster and nails into the compost heap but she couldn't charge (the offender) because the offender said she thought it was compostable," Garlough said.

"People are stupid," stated Rooney.

Garlough noted that a consultant looked at the two sites in South Dundas and advised closure.

For the time being, both sites will be locked for the winter months, and will be opened for a short time after the holidays for disposal of Christmas trees.

The signs which are posted at the sites will be updated to state what can and can't be dumped there. Burnables will be delivered to the Matilda dump site.

Winter Carnival 99

A city of ice in February

by Catherine Thompson
Leader staff

CORNWALL—If you're anticipating the winter blahs, mark February 5 to 14 as a bright spot on your calendar.

Over this ten day period, Winter Carnival 99 is set to unfold in the City of Cornwall. Set against a backdrop of ice sculptures, and highlighted by a fireworks show, this spectacular event promises exciting activities and programs designed for all ages.

Chair of Winter Carnival 99 Andre Parisien was again amazed with the community support for the festivities to come. "The response has been overwhelming and the willingness of community groups to assist and participate has even surpassed that of last year."

February 5 marks the kick-off with Grand Opening Ceremonies set from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. in Lamoureux Park.

The Junk Yard Symphony Show, or the Reduce, Reuse, Recycle and Rock Symphony will get the ball rolling as they use objects like hubcaps, pots, and the kitchen sink to create a comedy act. The Symphony's feature song is called "Reycle Rock" and the band combines crazy antics, synchronized rhythms with tricks, gags and audience participation.

At 7.30 p.m. there is an opportunity to meet nine Carnival Queen contestants and "Bonhomme" in the Ice Palace. Laurent Godon, the Quebec ice sculptor who transformed the downtown into frozen sculptures at last year's Carnival, will again demonstrate ice sculpting with a chain saw.

From 8.30 p.m. to 10 p.m., the Bobby Lalonde Show will entertain with foot stompin songs and fiddle music. Bobby and his band recently returned from Europe where they performed to accolades in Holland, Belgium, Switzerland and Germany.

Pitt Street will be closed to traffic from 6 p.m. to 2 a.m. to allow viewing of the ice sculptures and a street dance with music for all ages. A fireworks display is set for 9.30 p.m.

Other activities include barbecues, ice and snow sculptures, ski days, pancake breakfasts, murder mysteries, fun days and hay rides and much more.

A highlight of the Carnival is the Queen's Gala Saturday, February 13th at 8 p.m. at the Civic Complex. One of Ottawa's best entertainers James Kirkham will perform at Bobby Lalonde's Opening Act. He is set to impersonate famous rock 'n roll artists like Elvis Presley and Roy Orbison, other celebrities such as George Burns and politicians like PM Jean Chretien. The crowning of the Queen from among nine locally sponsored contestants will follow.

The Closing Ceremonies at the Cornwall Civic Complex Sunday, February 14 will include traditional French Canadian cuisine, and a party dance with Benoit Brisson.

Council Clips

Stop sign for Brinston

Counc. Bev Sabourin stated that the Brinston area residents who petitioned for a stop sign in through the summer will get their wish. The stop sign will be erected soon at the corner of County Road 8 and Henderson-Gilmer Roads.

"Unfortunately, County Council recommended that Carman Road stays as is. But we should look at getting a 'Children at Play' sign erected in that area."

Objection to firefighters comp.

Council agreed with the Township of South-West Oxford to encourage the provincial government to re-instate compensation for volunteer firefighters on the same basis as it was under the former Workers Compensation Act, and not as provided for under the new Workplace Safety and Insurance Act.

Council is concerned that there won't be any new volunteer firefighters if compensation is paid through their place of employment, and not through the municipality's insurance plan. "If you have no employer you can claim the maximum through the municipality," said Administrator Mike Waddell. "But if a firefighter is employed, then compensation will be paid by the company." As it stands now, fire- fighters hurt on the job can only claim compensation through their employer.

Nature Conservancy letter

Mayor Johnny Whitteker is objecting to the last 1,000 acres of industrial land being donated to the Nature Conservancy and is hoping people in the municipality feeling the same way voice their opinion with a letter of disapproval. "I'm not against the 500 acres of land for the herons, just the last 1,000."

Community Safety Zones

The Ontario Government has passed amendments to the Highway Traffic Act to allow for the establishment of Community Safety Zones. The responsibility of identifying and designating these zones rests with the municipalities who now have the authority to pass the relevant by-laws. The Ontario Government has the authority to designate parts of the King's Highways as Community Safety Zones. In order to assist the municipality in setting up these zones, the Ontario Government has set up guidelines.

South Dundas Council has opted to get their questions answered by Sgt. Brent Mattice of the Upper Canada OPP, and see what kind of recommendations they can get from him.

$40,000 for charities

Council has a charity pot of $40,000, thanks to Ontario Lottery Corporation, and they are asking for applications from local charities. Coun. Cam Martel stated that of the dozen of so applications already received, that Council be concerned with those who are in South Dundas only. "Let's take into consideration when we allocate the money that it should stay in South Dundas," he said.

New zamboni?

The Morrisburg arena's 21-year-old zamboni is going through some growing pains. "That thing is old," said Mike Waddell. "A lot of the parts have to be fabricated. We can't expect much more out of this unit, and are looking at a new one with natural gas. It's not something we're looking at now, it's something for the future." The zamboni's springs were recently replaced to compensate for the unlevel finish to the ice, and they also replaced the bearings in the lift auger—the section that lifts the snow from the conditioner to the bucket. The bushings in the conditioner are also very badly worn, which makes the conditioner move more than it should.

Municipal Alcohol Policy

A resolution to adopt the Municipal Alcohol Policy for the Township of South Dundas was passed with one vote of objection, by Coun. Bev Sabourin. "I would have liked to have been able to discuss this with the recreation committee of Matilda," she said. Mayor Whitteker would still like to be able to buy more than four drinks at any one time, too.

Matilda Hall report

A detailed report concerning Matilda Hall will be available soon for perusal by council. In the recreation report by Keith Robinson, it was noted that the furnace has been repaired and is running well. The temperature in the hall doesn't fluctuate as drastically as it has in the past. Also, new rental fees were discussed, which according to clerk Bill Horner, are similar to the fees charged in the past.

Council also wanted to squash any ideas that the Matilda Hall would be torn down, or shut down. "No, it is still up and running and will remain so."

Rental fees for S.D. buildings

The rental fees in South Dundas for municipal buildings have gone up slightly in some cases for 1999. The South Dundas Hydro (Old Parks Building) in Morrisburg has gone from $400 to $600 a month, while spring skating (figure skating) at the arena has risen to $80 from $60. Summer months, the arena (licensed events) price will be $350 plus GST (and $15 an hour for an on site manager to a maximum charge of $100); the shuffleboard season price is $1,000, up from $900 last year. The arena charge per hour for sporting events in the summer is $25 an hour, and for bingo, it's $100 an event—same as last year. The Morrisburg Civic Centre bingos sponsored by the Jr. B Lions will be $1000 for the year, and to rent small municipal buildings, that will be maintained by the local recreation committees.

For all three main halls: there is a refundable deposit of $100 required to cover damages, and will be refunded if everything is left in order; there is a refundable deposit of $50 required when the hall key is picked up and will be refunded when the key is returned; and it is recommended that there be a charge of $25 plus GST for use of the kitchen facilities for all groups using Matilda and Morrisburg halls.

Non profit organization charges

Township staff recommended that the following fees be charged to non-profit organizations within the township. Free—to all non-profit organizations that are committee groups of the township, eg. rec or fire departments; Infrequent Users: $25 an event (max. four times annually); Monthly Users, $200 yearly to all non-profit organizations using the building year round; Seasonal Users: $175 annually, for eight months or less use during the year.

Garlough hot for Lions scoring five in two wins

MORRISBURG—The Morrisburg Junior B Lions played a strong weekend in EOJBHL action, and as a result they came up with a four-point showing.

"They came to play three periods of hockey," said Coach Jeremy Morrow of Friday's 8-5 win over Alexandria, the fourth-placed team in the St. Lawrence Division.

"They got a few good bounces, and built up some confidence, and as a result they played three solid periods of hockey."

The coach couldn't say enough good things about his team over the weekend, especially the scoring prowess of Wayne Garlough who had five goals in two games—four of which he scored Friday.

"Wayne's centering Jody Longton and Carson Runions, and they had an excellent weekend," said Morrow. "They were scoring goals and getting in the corners, penalty killing. They did it all."

Terry Gilmer earned both wins in the Lions' crease.

Back in Kemptville Saturday, Morrisburg was off to a quick 2-1 lead after the first period, and added to itby the end of two.

Jamie Barkley and Brad Boivin scored the Lions first two markers in the opening period, and Garlough, Corey McAllister, and Jody Longton scored in the second. Morrisburg held a 5-3 advantage before Kemptville turned the tables to tie the match at five early in the third.

"For about two minutes starting the final period, the boys had a mental lapse, and you can't turn your back on Kemptville or they'll score," said Morrow.

With the score tied, Morrisburg called a timeout, "to get them calmed down."

They played the rest of the game well, keeping Kemptville off the scoreboard to force the overtime period.

About two minutes into the overtime period, Steph Champagne scored for the win.

"Saturday, Brad Boivin played a great game with Corey McAllister and Steph Champagne," added Morrow.

Boivin took over the spot of Wayne Disotell who missed the Kemptville game.

The coach also praised the play of newcomer, defenseman Jody Longton, who "played a really good game Saturday."

"We won because we played three periods of hockey, and and they got a few good bounces," reiterated the coach. "We still have some work to do, but we're going in the right direction."

Friday, the Lions host Akwesasne, and Saturday, they're heading back to Winchester for a 7:15 p.m. start.

Atom Lions tame Brockville

MORRISBURG—On November 28, the Atom House League Lions welcomed a team from Brockville into town for an exhibition game. The Braves didn't know what hit them as the Lions pounced on them quickly in the first period with four goals and then added two more early in the second to give them a 6-0 lead.

Brockville countered with two goals of their own later in the second period making the score 6-2 heading into the third.

Morrisburg would add another goal early in the period to widen the gap to 7-2. The Lions then tried scrambling the lines around for the remainder of the game which only resulted in a minor Brockville comeback with three goals before the buzzer sounded for a 7-5 Lions victory.

Morrisburg's offense was supplied by Michael Dowson with two, and Mitch Julien, Jary Hess, Grant McMillan, Matt Thompson and Kevin Phifer each with singles. The assists were supplied by Anthony Lemaire and Scott Berseth with tow each, and Adrian Bongers and Mitch Julien each with one.

It was back to league play on November 29, as South Grenville #2 hosted the Lions.

Mitch Julien put the Lions on the board first with a nice short handed goal mid way through the first period for the only goal of the period.

In the second frame Morrisburg continued with some nice passing which contributed to three more goals, scored by Anthony Lemaire, Matt Thompson, and Mitch Julien.

The Lions laid low in the third period allowing a ferocious comeback by the Rangers scoring two goals in a minute.

Michael Dowson would get the Lions back in the game with a goal spreading the gap back to three, but for only a short period of time when the Rangers replied with a goal making it 5-3.

The Lions put the final nail in the coffin when Anthony Lemaire, with great speed, created a break and went in and nailed one past the Rangers netminder for the final goal of the game. Morrisburg would leave Prescott with a 6-3 win and two points.

Jeff Eamon and Andrew Tupper have been supplying great goaltending for the Lions all year and continue to show improvement each game.Picking up the assists in the game were Adrian Bongers and Grant McMillan with two, and Kevin Phifer, Mitch Julien, Anthony Lemaire, T.J. McManus and Liam Remillard each with one.

In earlier action the Atom House Lions were off to Cornwall to watch a Cornwall Colts game and to compete in a skills competition tournament which is held between periods.

The Lions representatives were Anthony Lemaire, Mitchell Julien, and Michael Dowson for the skaters and Andrew Tupper was between the pipes.

As the rest of the team cheered their team mates on, the more than nervous Lions hit the ice to compete against a Char-Lan team. From the word go it was all Morrisburg, taking 11 of a possible 13 points from Char-Lan for an 11-2 victory.

The coaching staff was very proud of their representatives as they gave 100% and battled through the butterflies. The Lions will move on to the next round sometime in January.

Atom House Lions playing great
The Morrisburg Atom House Lions hosted Kemptville in Morrisburg on Saturday and cruised to a 7-5 victory. Here the Kemptville players are trying to gain control of the puck in the Lions zone and some Lion defenders are attempting to dump it out of the zone.

Midgets down Kemptville

MORRISBURG—The Morrisburg Midget B Lions hosted Kemptville here last Tuesday in UCMHL action, and dumped them with a 4-1 score.

Morrisburg scored two goals in the first period and then two more in the second to give them the win.

Kemptville managed to slide one by Todd Beckstead late in the third period to break his shut-out bid.

The Lions goals were scored by Bobby Bird with two, and Scott Barkley, and Jason Denio with one each. The assists were credited to Joel Adams, Joey Dufresne, Calvin McIntosh, Brad Casselman, and Bobby Bird.

Peewee House

MORRISBURG—The Morrisburg Peewee House League Lions hosted South Grenville on November 28, in UCMHL action.

The Rangers started the scoring in the first period taking the early 1-0 lead. The Lions would tie it up when Chris Sachs put one in the top left corner off a pass from David Adlington.

In the second period Kyle Scott scored to make it 2-1, with help from Eric Vachon and Mark Byvelds. Vachon let the next two fly past the Rangers netminder with help from Brad McLinton and Chris Sachs making the score 4-1. The Rangers would slip one by Andrew Chung to make the game 4-2 heading into the final frame.

Morrisburg spent most of the game in the penalty box and it finally caught up with them in the third period when South Grenville scored three unanswered goals while the Lions self destructed.

Morrisburg tried for the tie but couldn't get the puck out of their own zone to pull the goalie. Finally with six seconds left in the game the Rangers got whistled for a penalty and the face off was in the visitors end. The Lions pulled Andrew Chung and sent out the extra attacker for the crucial face off.

Jamie Hess won the draw the puck came back to him and with the goalie down and out Hess couldn't get the puck up and over the netminder, he passed the puck to Mark Byvelds who took a shot but the game ended just as the puck crossed the line for the 5-4 victory for the Rangers.

Laurie Day

It looks like Mom and I are heading out of the country next spring.

We're taking a Trafalgar bus tour—courtesy of Thom Travel—of England, Scotland and Wales, and the ship leaves the dock in Chesterville on May 22. Estimated time of arrival back in the land of nod won't be until June 5.

Whoopee, I just can't wait!

It wasn't too long ago that Mother and I went overseas. About 1992 if I recall. Only, it wasn't by way of a bus tour. We vowed we'd definitely take the tour route the next time over.

I also recall Mom telling me that she'd never tour with me again, because... if you can believe this... I whined too much to go home.

Yeah, right. OK, so I did miss my sweet baby a little bit.

So, last Wednesday night, Thom Travel owners, Shelley, Myrna and Cheryl hosted 'get to know Britain' travel night at North Dundas.

It was an evening to help promote the bus tour with Trafalgar, a tour company in Britain.

Malcolm Hughes, a 30-year travel director from Britain, made a four-hour trip from Toronto that morning just to give us a few details about the trip.

"It will be an intensive tour of England, Scotland, and Wales, and you will see a lot of Scotland," Malcolm tells the crowd who packed into a room a the high school.

The trip includes the flight, transfers, and most meals. The two weeks are packed with guided sightseeing tours, and there will also be ample opportunity for us to sight see on our own.

"I've been touring with Trafalgar for 16 years," Malcolm says. "And it's the only way to go these days."

With the money at approximately two and a half times Canadian, and hotel rooms running from as 'low' as $240 a night (each), a trip to Britain can be quite costly for tourists who travel on their own.

"There is no time wasted, and we see and do so much more," he says.

A Trafalgar tour runs approximately $120 a day which includes the touring for the day.

"Full English breakfasts are offered most days, and when I say a full English breakfast, I mean it's a cholesterol catastrophe... fried bacon, fried eggs, fried tomatoes, fried tea..."

Trafalgar tours allow the tourist to enjoy the trip, and not worry about the details.

"We do all the thinking for you. The essentials are taken care of."

There is an extra day of sightseeing in London at the beginning of the tour where we'll be free to experience the city on our own. We'll also see Stonehenge, Salisbury Cathedral, the Roman Baths, Wedgwood Pottery Centre, the Lake District in Scotland, Loch Ness (monster?), Edinburgh (two nights will be spent here), Stratford and many many more places.

I may have to sell my soul to the devil to swing it (ooops, could be too late already), but I think this is the only way to go.

If you would like to join us on our little tour of Britain, just call the girls at Thom Travel and they'll set you up. For more information, contact Cheryl at 448-3714. Shelley and Myrna can be reached in Morrisburg at 543-2133.

Just tell them I sent ya.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

About Assistance for Hepatitis C Sufferers

PLEASE CALL US

Hepatitis C is a blood-borne virus that can have devastating effects on some of its victims; leaving them unable to work, to pay their mortgages or to provide food for their families. This is the tragic human toll of hepatitis C.

That's why, in the spring of 1998, Ontario Premier Mike Harris declared his government's intention to provide financial assistance for all individuals who contracted hepatitis C as a result of receiving blood or blood products in Ontario. It is the government's position that these victims, through no fault of their own, have suffered and are continuing to suffer. The time for action is now.

To that end, the Ontario government is beginning the process of delivering fair and equitable treatment for these people. The first step in this confidential process is to identify all potential victims who may have contracted hepatitis C as a result of receiving blood products in Ontario before 1986 and after June 30, 1990.

This would include:

• All Ontario residents who know or suspect that they have hepatitis C as a result of receiving blood products in Ontario.

• All former Ontario residents who know or suspect that they have hepatitis C as a result of receiving blood products in Ontario.

• All people who know or suspect that they have hepatitis C due to contact with a spouse, partner or parent whose hepatitis C was the result of receiving blood products in Ontario.

This would not include:

• Those who contracted hepatitis C between January 1, 1986 and June 30, 1990 as they fall within the umbrella of federal-provincial assistance being negotiated within class actions.

If you belong to any of the included groups, call one of the numbers listed below to receive an information package containing more details.

The Ontario government is beginning this process because we believe that, for victims of hepatitis C, waiting simply prolongs the suffering. Please call so that together we can help you get on with your life.

Hoops for the South Dundas Christmas Exchange

Seaway District High School students raised $560 during a charity basketball game last Friday afternoon for the South Dundas Christmas Exchange. An admission fee of $1 was charged at the door.

Coupled with money from the Students' Council, and food donations from the Video Dance on Thursday night (students are encouraged to bring food items for $1 off the price of admission) Seaway will present the Christmas Exchange with $1,000 worth of toys and food products later this week.

Darts Ontario a success

MORRISBURG—The first Darts Ontario qualifying round here Sunday was a great success.

Bobby Jack Hart, zone director, was pleased with the number of entrants in the men's and ladies' singles, as well as in the mixed doubles.

"I was hoping to have at least four mixed teams and eight for the singles shoots," said Hart. "But today was above my expectations, and there will be at least three more teams for the next mixed doubles shoot in January."

The top four from fom the men's division, in which there were 14 competitors and two divisions, were Phil Jamieson, Jim Scott, Mike Osborne and Fred Devaul on the A side, and Tom Shearer, Wayne Hunter, David Wells and Shawn Baker on the B side.

Jamieson and Shearer had a shootout to decide the top points winner for the men, and it was Jamieson who claimed first place.

For the ladies, there were eight competitors, and the top four finishers were Linda Birch, Angela Reid, Carol Ann Donnelly and Laurie Day. Birch won the shootout for the first place points.

The top four mixed doubles teams included Linda Birch and Jeff Donnelly in first place; Fred Devaul and Laurie Day in second place, Liz and Wayne Hunter in third place, and Edna Barkley and David Wells in fourth. A three-way shootout decided the top three teams' points.

If you missed the shoot, the second qualifying round will be held January 10, 1999, at the Morrisburg Legion. The mixed doubles event takes place first at 10 a.m. followed by the singles at 1 p.m.

Colts thump Lumber Kings

Cornwall—The Cornwall Colts hosted the Pembroke Lumber Kings on Thursday November 26, and handed them a 6-2 thumping. The Colts jumped out to a 3-1 lead in the first period with two power play goals and an even strength counter and they never looked back. Cornwall went on to score one more in the second and then two in the third to end the game at 6-2.

The Cornwall Colts appreciate their Fantastic Fans and we want you to know how much. Therefore the Colts and Cornwall Square have designated the month of December as Fan Appreciation Month and we have some great news for our fans as the Christmas season approaches.

Everytime you attend a Colts game in the month of December you'll have an opportunity to fill out a ballot for a chance to win some fantastic prizes. The top prize for adults will be $500 in Cornwall Square shopping dollars. Anyone under 18 years of age will fill out a seperate ballot for a chance to win a great Colts merchandise package and a Birthday package. Both draws will be made on December 20 at a home game against Kanata. You must be in attendance to win!.

Also the Colts have joined forces with Molson Breweries, Cornwall City Police, the O.P.P. and Akwesasne Mohawk Police in the 1998 local R.I.D.E. program in December.

Randomly selected vehicles who successfully pass through a R.I.D.E. checkpoint will be offered two Adult tickets to an upcoming Colts game. This is an excellent way to turn what could be construed as a negative experience into a positive one.

The tickets are provided courtesy of Molson Breweries' local representative Cyril Pineault. "The Cornwall Colts are very pleased to once again be a part of this program and our local police forces have advised us of the positive feedback received from individuals who have received the tickets in the past.

The Colts tickets will be available at R.I.D.E. checks throughout the month of December. For further information please contact Joyce Gravelle, Cornwall Colts, 930-9300.

Morrisburg
Curling Cues

by Steve Thompson

Our zone playdowns for the senior men's provincial championship were held over the weekend at the Winchester Curling Club. Joe Potter's Navy rink defeated Morrisburg's Sid Morrell, Don O'Brien, John Lyon and Wally McDonald in an extra end. Potter went on to win in the A division, while Sid crossed over to the B side. Unfortunately, Sid lost his second game to Keith Ritskes of Smiths Falls and was eliminated. Eldon Coombe of the Ottawa Hunt Club, also beaten by Potter, moved over to B also. Playing on a bad ankle, he re-injured it in the third end of the B final and had to watch his team as they took Ray Pollock of R.A. to an extra end and stole the winning point. It was one of many thrilling games in the high-calibre competition. Coombs and Potter now advance to the regional finals, and hope to be in the final eight in the Provincial championships next spring.

At the Morrisburg Curling Club, the men's Founders Bonspiel was on, making it a very busy weekend for Ian McGillis. Eighteen teams competed, with our local rink of Robert Houze, Craig Harriman, Mahlon Locke and Brad LeClair winning all their games. Two other teams duplicated the feat, and the Beddingford rink from Ingleside was declared the overall winner on total points. Our local team ended up tied for second at two points back with Ken Gillespie's rink from Prescott. It was an entertaining competition with fine curling, good fellowship and great meals, made a success by a number of hard-working local volunteers.

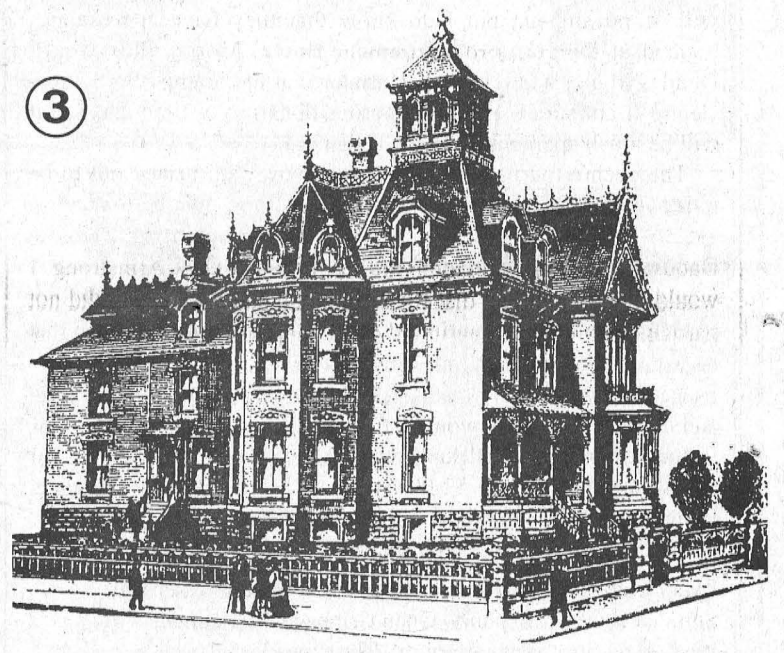
HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS HOUSE TOUR
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5th, from 1-5 P.M.

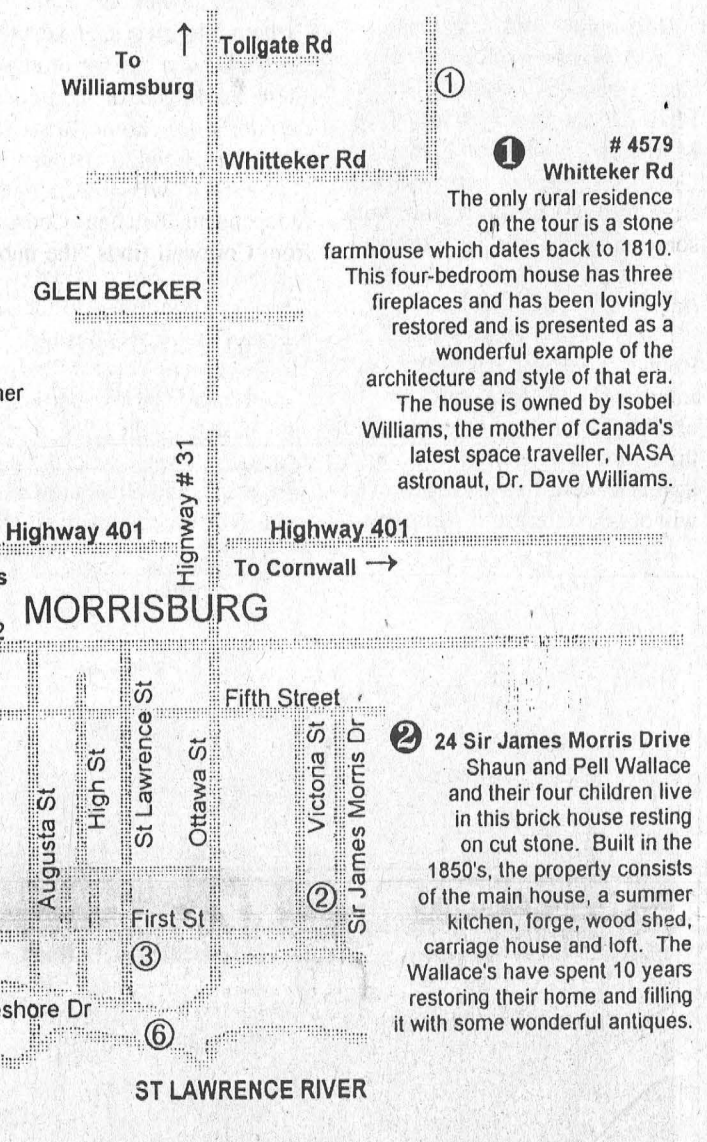
❸ 19 St Lawrence St
For many, the highlight of the tour will be a visit to this house currently owned by Mr. Ken Strader. Built in 1876 by Dr. Sherman, it still has the original trompe l'oeil on the living and dining roomwalls. It also boasts a cantilevered staircase and 12" crown mouldings.

❹ 76 Lakeshore Dr
This beautifully decorated home belongs to Rick and Peggy Leroy and their two children and is a joy to see. It is the newest home on our tour and it will delight and inspire you. Look for no less than four Christmas trees downstairs.

❺ 12094 Julia St. Mariatown
Located on the river in Mariatown, this charming home is owned by David and Karen Marshall and their two sons , and is full of surprises. Karen's work as a designer is everywhere and will be of great interest to artists and decorators.

❻ Lakeshore Drive United Church, 19 Lakeshore Drive
Decorated for Christmas, the basement of the church has been transformed into a Victorian tea room. The hostess and serving maids will be in costume and Queen Victoria will be pouring tea. Also have a peek inside the sanctuary of the church. Someone will be there to answer any questions you may have.





❶ # 4579 Whitteker Rd
The only rural residence on the tour is a stone farmhouse which dates back to 1810. This four-bedroom house has three fireplaces and has been lovingly restored and is presented as a wonderful example of the architecture and style of that era. The house is owned by Isobel Williams, the mother of Canada's latest space traveller, NASA astronaut, Dr. Dave Williams.

❷ 24 Sir James Morris Drive
Shaun and Pell Wallace and their four children live in this brick house resting on cut stone. Built in the 1850's, the property consists of the main house, a summer kitchen, forge, wood shed, carriage house and loft. The Wallace's have spent 10 years restoring their home and filling it with some wonderful antiques.

Ministry outlines annual deadline on school closures

BROCKVILLE—The Upper Canada District School Board received an update on the school facilities portfolio outlining the local impact of recent government announcements.

The government has made operating funds available for schools which are under capacity. There is a one year freeze on funding reduction to ensure that no Board will receive less money in 1999 than it did in 1998.

While this addresses many operational needs it still does not solve the board's dilemma of obtaining money for new pupil places when there is an excess of student places.

However, the government has further announced that the absolute deadline for identifying excess student places and for identifying schools to close has been changed. These identifications can now be made by December 31 of any year for effect in the following year's round of funding.

Therefore, the board has placed on hold all actions relating to school closures and has referred the matter to the Finance and Operations Committee. The committee has been asked to draft and present to the board a more realistic timeline for consultation with communities. It is expected that the board will be able to set a consultation process which will run through the spring and which will allow for discussions of suggestions and alternatives with all those affected.

No school closures will occur before June 30, 2000. However, boards will still have to reduce capacity if they wish to qualify for grants to build schools.

The Board has learned it will receive a $3,007,847 for top up on operations and maintenance in 1999-2000, and $574,325 for school renewal.

The $3,600,000 that the Board will receive is intended as new money, but may be reduced if enrollment declines or is affected by other government decisions.

The Ministry is aware of problems associated with the calculations of school capacity and continues to review the matter. However, at the present time, there are no changes planned. Approaches need to be made to politicians to secure the necessary changes.

The government is also aware of the problems faced by large rural boards which have vacant pupil places that are long distances from other schools and especially long distances from schools or areas of the district which need new schools. They have not committed to any changes in this area.

EIC on School Councils

The Education Improvement Commission has issued The Road Ahead, 111 which sets out recommendations on the role of school councils. Copies have been sent to all schools and all school council chairs.

The Report on the Role of School Councils proposes a meaningful role for school councils, one that encourages the involvement of parents in their children's education. The Commission makes recommendations about:

* parents rights;
* school councils influence on matters such as schools discretionary budgets and selection of principals;
* membership
* issues on which school boards and principals must consult school councils;
* information the Ministry of Education and Training and school boards must provide;
* councils' responsibilities to foster community involvement in schools;
* principals' obligations to involve their school councils when they write annual 'school improvement plans';
* a restructured, more representative Ontario Parents' Council;
* codes of conduct, training, and conflict resolution; and
* school boards', directors', superintendents' and principals' roles concerning councils.

The current policy on school councils is contained in Policy/Program Memorandum (PPM) No. 122, of the Ministry of Education and Training. This memorandum is in force until it is amended.

Poor local turnout for Home Business Show

by Catherine Thompson
Leader staff

MORRISBURG—Home and Business Show organizer Barry Reddie was disappointed in local support for the show here Sunday.

"I've done shows for 10 years, and I've never seen anything like it," he said.

Sponsored by Variety Promotions, the show attracted only 25 participants. Among these only a few were from Morrisburg, Williamsburg, Iroquois and the surrounding area.

Businesses and organizations from Morrisburg included Thom Real Estate, Stradwick's Custom Flooring, the Canadian Red Cross Morrisburg branch, and Investors Group. The remainder were drawn from throughout the region, with some from as far as Cornwall, Prescott, Kemptville, Merrickville, Nepean and Kars.

Louis Rooney, owner of Rooney's Feeds in Iroquois wasn't impressed by the number of exhibitors or the turnout. "I'd think long and hard before doing it again. If we'd had a crowd, even without the interest, it would have been worth it, but they never came."

Although acknowledging it was a slow morning, other merchants still found the exercise worthwhile. A few were pleased with interest shown in their product by visitors, including Nikken distributors Terry and Ellen Moore of Kars, Ontario. Nikken is a Japanese company manufacturing wellness products such as pads, seats, vests and braces. The products use "earth" energy to prevent health problems and promote wellness.

Jim Stradwick of Stradwick's Custom Flooring said he wished there had been more visitors at the show. But in general, he finds participating in home and trade shows beneficial to his business.

Shari Rowland-Gaucher, an Independent Kitchen Consultant from Cornwall finds "the publicity is worth it. Since I don't have a shop, and don't do a lot of advertising, I get good business from the one on one contact."

One factor in low participation may have been the price of renting space. Fees were on a per square foot basis, and Rowland-Gaucher paid $150 for an average booth-space.

The show was promoted mainly through highway signage. According to Reddie, the fact it was held on Sunday should not have been a factor. "Historically, both Saturday and Sunday are equal in attendance," he said.

However, the fine weather Sunday may have drawn potential visitors elsewhere.

Variety Promotions still has the arena booked for a date in May. "But if by January 1, we don't see an awful lot of support from business, we'll step back. We need at least 25 calls in December to give an indication. We need motivation to proceed, as we have other projects on the go now," said Reddie.

"If businesses are interested in a spring show, we'll bring full size professional show booths to the arena. Shows can bring a lot of people to an area. With people staying at hotels and motels, it's good for the local economy," he added.

Those who are interested in participating in the spring show, may call 1-613-258-1953.

Checking displays
An interested visitor inspects the Warlick's Wood 'N Crafts exhibit by Stephen and Lisa Warlick. The couple make outside ornaments and furniture from a full time shop and store in Kemptville. Stephen also does mill work for customers.

ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION
Branch #48
MORRISBURG, ONTARIO

NEWSLETTER

One of the biggest events of the decade was held on Saturday, Nov. 28th at our Branch. The event started out in the Legion Hall and ended in the James Fraser Hall as the Branch dedicated the hall to honour Comrade Jim's 100th Birthday. It was a grand occasion and everything fell into place to make this a memorable night, not only for Jim, but for all those who were fortunate enough to attend. The only regret of the Branch is that we had to cut off at tickets at the 225 mark.

Note: If anyone knows Gladys Stover please have her call the Branch at 543-3091 to retrieve her coat which is at the Legion. She apparently wore the wrong coat home after the party.

Our Membership Chairman wishes to announce that due to the Branch being closed on Monday he is extending the early bird membership renewal to the close of business on Thursday, dec. 3rd. If you have not yet renewed your membership you have till tomorrow night to renew your membership and save $4.00 as on Friday, Dec. 4th your membership will cost you $31.00. Your membership can be paid at the bar.

The Senior's Christmas will be held at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 9th. If you have not obtained your ticket yet, contact Doris Ward immediately so the numbers attending can be given to the caterers. Instead of exchanging gifts, members are asked to bring a donation to the South Dundas Christmas Exchange campaign basket which can be left in the box in the lobby.

I do not have a list of all the performances that the Legion Choir will be putting on, but I do know that they have appearances booked at the Hartford Retirement Home, Morris Glen Court, Dundas Manor and a noon performance at the Stampville Seniors Centre. I am sure that their generous donation of time and talent will be much appreciated by the audiences.

The euchre tournament on Sunday, Nov. 29th turned out to be more of a ladies day as the top four prizes were won by the ladies. 1st - Carol Birch, tied for 2nd - Audrey Henophy and Goldie Daoust, 4th - Elsie Guindon and in 5th place Dick Armstrong. I would like to point out that Ross Hummell and Rick Baker did not participate, but Terry Laurin did and I am pleased to announce that he was not skunked this time, close though.

Meat Draw winners – Nov. 22 Mel Fowler won the Roast Beef and Nov. 29 Lee Kelly won the Chicken Breasts. This week's draw is for a Turkey and a Ham (winner gets both) just in time for Christmas. Tickets are $2.00 each and are available to anyone. Remember, you can't win if you don't have a ticket.

Coming Events

Every Thursday, 7:30 p.m. – Bingo in the James Fraser Hall
Sun., Dec. 6th, 1:30 p.m. – Open Cribbage Tournament
Wed., Dec. 9th, 6 p.m. – Seniors Christmas Party

NOTICE

ONE DAY!
"One day they led Him up Calvary's mountain,
One day they nailed Him to die on the tree;
Suffering anguish, despised and rejected,
Bearing our sins, my Redeemer is He!
"One day the grave could conceal Him no longer,
One day the stone rolled away from the door;
Then He arose, over death He had conquered,
Now is ascended, my Lord evermore!
"Living–He loved me, dying–He saved me,
Buried–He carried my sins far away;
Rising–He justified freely, forever:
One day He's coming–O glorious day!"

The pain in the heart
At not saying farewell.

SADDLEMIRE–In loving memory of our dad, Stuart, who left us December 2, 1995.
This month comes with sad regret,
It brings back a day we will never forget.
A heart of gold stopped beating
Two shining eyes at rest.
God broke our heart to prove to us
He only takes the best.
A million times we needed you,
A million times we cried.
If love could have saved you
You never would have died.
–Love always Judy and Gail 48p

SADDLEMIRE–In loving memory of my beloved husband and father, Stuart, who left us December 2, 1995.
I do not need a special day
To bring you to my mind
For the days I do not think of you

If all the world were mine to give I'd give it, yes, and more
To see the face of my dear Stu
Come smiling through the door.
–Loved forever, your wife Ethel 48p

Just the fact on heart disease and stroke

MORRISBURG—These are just the facts. Heart disease and stroke kill more Canadians than any other disease.

The research grant programme of the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Ontario funds approximately $24 million of research annually-over two-thirds of all non-commercial heart and stroke research conducted in Ontario.

As the Foundation does not receive government funding, these funds are generated through the generosity of Ontarians who support the Foundation by offering their time and dollars.

Plaques were presented this week to supporters in our community. Beavers Dental matched pledges raised by Sandra and Leslie Barnhart for the The Bay Heart and Stroke Walk for our Mothers and Daughters. Altogether, Dundas County walkers raised $4,016 for the cause.

Odonto Corporation Limited matched $900 in pledges raised by the members of their Big Bike for Stroke in September for a total of $1,807.

Through the generosity of the Don Morrell Band and other volunteers, a dance was held recently in Morrisburg. At this successful fundraiser the draws for the Christmas Raffle resulted in the quilt being won by Carolanne Barkley of Chesterville, the ceramic figurine by Len Godard of Williamsburg, the afghan by Geoffrey Gray of South Mountain, and the doilies by Sharon Cossette of Chesterville.

The Foundation wishes to thank all who donated for their large giving and caring hearts.

Candidates selected for interviews

MORRISBURG—Several candidates have been selected for interviews/presentations and clarifications regarding proposals for Riverside-Cedar Campground, Upper Canada Golf Course, the Guest House food services at Upper Canada Village and potential new development in Crysler Park, and Ivy Lea Campground.

"We're conducting interviews with short listed candidates, and anticipate an announcement at the December Commission meeting," said SLPC General Manager Mike Paradis.

The short list was selected as a result of detailed review of proposals by KPMG, Ministry of Economic Development, Trade and Tourism and the St. Lawrence Parks Commission.

Timothy Christian School news

By: Melissa J. Menkhorst gr. 8

In the month of November our school has experienced many events.

First we had a hot dog lunch that was run by the grade eight class. We had a soup lunch that the parents ran. Our school is also holding a chocolate bar sale, which is going very well.

On Remembrance Day the grade six and seven class went to the civic building in Williamsburg for a service. Mr. Fraser a veteran from "World War I", came to our school and he told us about how terrible war was.

We have also been working really hard on Canadian test of basic skills. They are going really well. And that's it for our November update.

Correction

The editorial on "Lands for Life" stated an incorrect figure for the total amount of crown land in Ontario. The correct figure according to the report is 38,956,790 hectares.
