Area Couple Marked 50th Anniversary Sun.

A well known Morrisburg area couple were honoured last Sunday by their family and friends on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burns of Riverside Heights were married half a century ago at ceremonies in the Paptist parsonage in Toronto.

The former Evangeline Salmon, daughter of the late Agnes and Austin Salmon, Mrs. Burns was born in Newington. Her husband, the son of the late Robert Burns and Jenny Beattie is a native of Brockville.

Following their marriage, December 12, 1927, they lived in Toronto for a number of years where Mr. Burns was employed as a motorman with the Toronto Transit Commission.

In 1946, they moved back to the Morrisburg area and began farming along the St. Lawrence River. The Seaway development some ten years later, brought them to their present farm on the Church Road. Mr. Burns retired from farming in 1962 and worked for six years with the St. Lawrence Parks Commission.

The best man and maid of honour of fifty years ago are still living in Toronto, but were unable to attend Sunday's "At Home" celebrations.

Mrs. Burns has several brothers and sisters: Bruce Salmon, Mrs. Daphne Casselman, Mrs. Lillian Casselman, Mrs. Dorothy Torhdal, Mrs. Helen Thorning and Grant Salmon. Mr. Burns has two brothers and two sisters: Muriel, Fred, Hattie and Gordon Burns.

Many friends and relatives from across Ontario and Quebec came on Sunday to extend good wishes to the couple, who also received many cards and messages of congratulations on the happy occasion.

Local Resident to Mark 80th Birthday Dec. 25th

Throughout the country there arepersons whose birthday falls on Christmas Day; Mrs. Lyda Hummel is one such person and this year December 25, 1972, will be a special birthday for she will then be eighty years old.

Since 1916, Mrs. Hummel has lived in her comfortable home at 64 Meikle Street and witnessed the many, many changes that have taken place in Morrisburg over the years. It is like a whiff of old times to have a chat with Mrs. Hummel for her memories include the time when her house and the one next door stood alone on what was then a dead end street; when cattle grazed in open fields where there are now lines of houses forming Fifth, Duncan and Augusta Streets. Then too, she had first hand experience of life in Morrisburg when the Seaway went through, when building after building was toppled and the debris lay thickly underfoot.

Though of an age when it is more or less normal to be content with only activities of the gentler kind, Mrs. Hummel is not so. The passerby finds her shovelling her walk on snowy mornings, later in the year being a 'woman of all seasons' she will be seen spading her garden, mowing the lawn or raking leaves.

Unlike persons living alone who all too often resort to 'tea and toast' as basic fare, Mrs. Hummel prepares herself hearty meals of meat and vegetables topped off with flaky-crusted apple pies and doughnuts, the deliciousness of which her neighbours can testify to.

Mrs. Hummel is a regular worshipper in the Presbyterian Church, and also takes a lively interest in current events, local and elsewhere — her comments are full of wit and wisdom, she walks to the Shopping centre where she enjoys mingling with people.

A good citizen, neighbour and a lovable friend.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

SEAWAY SERVICES PLAN PROGRAM FOR 1973

The Seaway Community Services met on November 27, 1972 at Christian Reform Church, Williamsburg. Thirteen members were in attendance, and welcomed by Mrs. Mary Steele, after being introduced to the new Secretary, Mrs. Geraldine MacKinnon.

The co-ordinator, Mrs. Marie Barkley, gave a report on her activities during September and October, 1972. Her many activities included visits to twenty people, two township offices, registry, and two court sessions. She prepared and displayed posters at the District Meeting of Lutheran Church Women, in Arnprior; at the "Dug-out" in Morrisburg; and they were also used when she was a guest speaker to a group of ladies from the Presbyterian Church in Morrisburg. She also wrote the Camp report for 1972, plus many letters and communications via meetings. A heartfelt thank-you was accorded Mrs. Barkley by the members present, for the work she has accomplished, as these are just a few of the many duties she is performing.

Mrs. Cornut gave a detailed report on her attendance at a meeting of the Anti-Poverty Organization, Development Branch, as a representative for the planning committee. A delegation of three will be attending the Conference to be held on January 12, 13 and 14, 1973, in Toronto.

Mr. Guy Voisin, Secretariate of State Citizenship Branch, Ottawa, announced that a grant of $5,000. has been made available from the federal government, for the Self-Help Program, through Seaway Community Seaway Services.

A program for the Day Camp, 1973, is underway by a Planning Committee. Mrs. Zandbergen reported on the Saturday morning program, 1972. There are thirty-three pupils in attendance, ranging in ages from six to fifteen. This program takes place every Saturday morning at the Dixon's Corners School.

The next meeting of Seaway Community Services will be held on January 29, 1973.

OPP REPORT

This is Snowmobile Safety Week in Ontario. The objective of a "Safety Week" is to make the public more aware of hazards which may help to prevent accidents and fatalities.

During Snowmobile Safety Week,, December 10-16, two ideas should be taken seriously by the snowmobiling public:

(1) Over three quarters of all fatal snowmobile accidents in Ontario occurred on public thoroughfares. A snowmobile is designed to travel on snow, where the track that propels and breaks it and the skiis which steer it can get sufficient grip to perform efficiently. On the hard-packed and often icy surface of a public thoroughfare frequented by motor vehicle traffic, the Snowmobile becomes difficult to steer or stop. This lack of control combined with the close proximity of fast moving cars & trucks produces an extremely haz ardous situation.

(2) Impaired snowmobile operators were involved in a high percentage of snowmobile accidents in Ontario during the 1971-72 season. Too many snowmobilers are under the impression that the wineskin or flask is an integral part of snowmobiling. They jokingly call the flask their survival kit. Statistics have proven quite frequently that this so called survival kit is, in reality, an invitation for pain, suffering and even death.

If snowmobilers want to eliminate over 75 percent of all snowmobiling accidents, stay off public thoroughfares and quit drinking and driving.

The 2nd FORTY

Camera Bug

Dear Margaret Brookfield:

My husband who is retired, keeps himself quite occupied but has developed a hobby that won't stop growing. He collects camera equipment and is all involved now with developers, enlargers, light meters and darkrooms, not to mention the cameras themselves which cost a parcel. His photographic expenses seem to be getting out of hand and I just don't know what to do about it. K.L.

Dear K.L.:

If your husband's hobby is impinging seriously on your retirement budget, he may have to cease and desist. Or else he'll have to find a way to make his photography pay off before it deprives you of house and home. Why don't you try to have him keep track of those expenses each month. This might help him see the light even in his darkroom.

Old Wives' Tales

Dear Margaret Brookfield:

When should you go see a doctor about the menopause and how bad should your symptoms be before you go? I'm 44 and have some symptoms, but they're not too bad. I do believe they'll get worse however, because of what my mother has told me and because of other terrible stories I've heard. For example, I have a friend in her 50's whose periods have stopped completely. As the months and years go by, she seems to be getting worse. She has the idea that people around her are all working against her and are out to get her. Because of this attitude, she has lost quite a few jobs. Her friends think she should see a doctor. But she refuses. In fact, she gets very upset if anyone mentions it.

¼ N.R.

Dear N.R.:

Your friend's problem sounds serious indeed and seeking a doctor would seem the sensible thing to do. However, one can't help others unless they seek help themselves. You might do something to straighten out your own thinking though. For example, you should know that the menopause does not cause mental illness as people once believed. If a woman has been solid and steady all her life, she won't go off the deep-end just because her ovaries are winding down. It's true some women do get seriously depressed at this time, but the majority function as they always have. Some will also experience various menopausal symptoms such as hot flushes, insomnia, etc., but available to them now is estrogen replacement therapy, which many doctors prescribe to alleviate such symptoms in women who are deficient in this hormone. And to answer your first question: a woman over 40 should see her doctor at least once a year for regular health checkups, whether she has symptoms of the menopause or not.

HUSBAND CAN DETER HIS WIFE'S CAREER

Many factors may prevent a married woman from working. Sometimes her husband is one of them.

His attitudes toward his job and his family often determine whether his wife — no matter how well qualified — will work outside the home. And if she doesn't, this tends to limit her vacational possibilities later in life.

This was discovered accidentally by researchers, while studying the career patterns of some 1351 men, now in their late 30's and early 40's, who had graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Since 90 percent of them were married, researchers were also able to gather vocational information on their wives. Only 27 percent of their 1219 wives were working; a third of them full-time.

Obstacles to Work

In presenting this byproduct finding of the survey, Lotte Bailyn Ph.D., of MIT'S Sloan School of Management, pointed out that "there are various constraints, both inner and outer, on a woman's work." Among these are the number of children she has and their ages, as well as the education she has acquired. (The younger the children and the lower the level of education, Dr. Bailyn says, the less likely it is that the wife is working.) Other constraints include, "the difficulties women have in reconciling career achievement with being feminine, plus the fact that it's still a man's world — and that job discrimination against women continues to exist."

"But the all pervassive — although not always obvious — influences on everything a married woman does, "Dr. Bailyn maintains, "are the subtle forces stemming from the husband's occupational role." If he's too involved with his career and is too success driven, she states, he won't take the needs of his family into consideration when making job-related decisions. "So chances are the wife won't be working and developing herself professionally during those early years of her marriage."

Family-Centered Man

The same thing can happen at the other extreme, Dr. Bailyn points out. "If the husband's major satisfaction in life comes from his family and not his career," she says, "his professionally-qualified wife again is lively to stay at home, rather than work in her own field."

One key to the woman's fulfilling herself vocationally, Dr. Bailyn, asserts, is the husband's ability to balance the commitments to his work and to his family. "If his job satisfaction is high, but not too much, then his wife is more likely to be working when her children are young," she says. And women who work either part or full-time during those years, Dr. Bailyn adds, are more likely to continue working professionally into their mature years, than those who withdraw from employment at that time.

"We characteristically find the greatest waste of talent among women who marry educated men," Dr. Bailyn declares. Calling this "a tremendous neglect" of our natural resources, she concludes, "We should be working to make it possible for people with different needs and abilities to pursue those lifestyles which can maximize their personal satisfactions and their contributions to society —independent of whether they are men or women."

YOURS SINCERELY

BY MRS. WELLWOOD ADAM

Whenever I see, occassionally, a beautiful and yellow delicious apple, I find myself thinking of the words of the great and wise writer of the Book of Proverbs, so many, many, years ago: he said, "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver." and it has been one of my favourite sayings since my father pointed it out to me as a child. We don't seem to get anything quite as artistic or beautiful in writings in these present days, as was written in the older setting of life.

Today, it seems to be that one can be threatened with some kind of retaliation from time to time, if one takes any part of the Book of Wisdom to heart, openly, as well as privately. Have you noticed that?

Words can be such funny things and I do not mean comical, in this sense. They can be made of many ingredients, too numerous for this article to show, but some of them can make all the difference between life or death, can be of truth, for instance, or for lying, they can be whispered today around the world of peace, then shouted in war and propaganda.

Like the song . . . "I shot an arrow in the air, it came to earth I know not where" . . . a word can find its way somewhere, and we don't always know where it ends. Sometimes into the heart of a loved one, especially if it is a loving word, but more so if it causes a wound carelessly, or even by intent. Like a kite let loose in the wind, by a broken string, a word goes and never comes back. Marcus Aurelius put it something like this, but in a far better way, of course. Some of us, including myself, have said sometimes, "I take it back", but we never can. Not really, for the damage has been done!

Can a crocked egg-shell, for instance, be made un-cracked as it was before? What about all the snow-flakes we are seeing at present . . . each one has its own perfect and beautiful design, not one the same, we are told . . . but once it melts on the ground, can we bring it back again?

It is a solemn thought that we, all of us, are judged by our words good or bad. There have been some great people in the past who have been masters of the spoken word. Lincoln and Churchill come to mind, as I write, for they spoke words in their time, which are so rare in strength and courage today. Another great man, I recollect, a Japanese by name of Kagawa, attended a student meeting. It was in England I think, and some years ago.

During time out for questions, one of the delegates cried out impatiently, that there was no longer any need to talk about spiritual matters, that the belief in God had failed.

Dr. Kagawa very quietly answered, "Mine hasn't!" Just two little words in a sea of unrest, yet they were two words "fitly spoken", bravely spoken, "like apples of gold in pictures of silver". I think we can all try, harder than ever, to add our own good words to the "pictures of silver", for we have so many to give.

Shown from left to right following the ceremony are: Mr. L.D. Barkley, Vice-President, St. Paul's Church, Morrisburg; Mr. John Whitteker, Reeve, Williamsburg Township; Prof. J. K. Johnson, who represented Ontario's Histiric Sites Board; the Reverend F. L. (Grenville-Dundas); the Reverend J. Boemer, St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Williamsburg; the Hon. Lucien Lamoureux, Q.C., Speaker of the House of Commons; and the Rev. A. CHRISTMAS MEETING HELD BY RIVERSIDE HEIGHTS W.I.

Mrs. Clare Nugent was hostess for the Riverside Height's W.I. Christmas meeting held December 11th, with the President, Mrs. Lyle Schwerdtfeger in charge of the meeting assisted by the Secretary, Mrs. Graham Wells.

The roll call was answered with a wrapped gift for Senior citizens and Shut-ins in the Community. Mrs. Duval presented a Bell to the W.I. to be used by the President. Mrs. Erratt presented her Mother's W.I. pin to the newest member, Mrs. Denzel Hart, and a beautiful electric wall clock for the W.I. Hall in memory of her mother.

The 4-H Club sewing course, coming up in the New Year, was discussed with Mrs. Nugent responsible for the possible forming of a club. Plans were made to have a pot luck supper and card party in February with the husbands as guests. The president reported the "sewing for knits' course was a success with 15 ladies participating.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Nugent and Mrs. Fisher. A reading entitled "The day after Christmas" was read by Mrs. Fisher. An auction conducted by Mrs. Schwertfeger proved to be entertaining and profitable. With Mrs. Burns at the piano a number of Christmas Carols were sung and unknown to the members were taped and later in the evening played back with Mrs. Faulkner winning a prize for recognizing the "Singing Group". Mrs. Cole won the lucky cup prize.

An attractively decorated birthday cake honoring those having birthdays in December, January and February formed part of a tasty lunch enjoyed by all.

Earl Reddick VanAllen Died At Ingleside Nursing Home

Mr. Earl Reddick VanAllen of Iroquois, Ont., a well known area resident, passed away on December 5th at the Treasure Island Nursing Home, Ingleside, after a short illness.

Born in 1896 at Mountain, Ont., he was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George H. VanAllen. He attended the area schools and later farmed in the Williamsburg area. During the seaway construction period he moved to Iroquois and retired.

Mr. VanAllen first married Lottie Weaver of Williamsburg, who predeceased him in June 1962. To this union were born two daughters: Mrs. Charles (Eileen) Tuttle of Riverside Heights and Mrs. Harold (Lillian) Wylie of Prescott; also two sons, Claire A. VanAllen of Morrisburg and Dwight, who was killed while on active service in World War II; and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Dwight (Ethel) VanAllen, also of Morrisburg. He also leaves numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren, as well as one sister, Mrs. Sam Finlay of Kemptville.

In September 1963, Mr. VanAllen married Mrs. Idena Burnie, who predeceased him in 1970.

Funeral services were conducted from the Fitzsimmons Funeral Home with Rev. Brian Gee officiating. Interment was in Spruce Haven Cemetery, Brinston.

Pall bearers were: Donald Hare Stanley VanAllen, Arnold VanAllen, Claude Finlay, Myron VanAllen and George Whitteker.

AREA NATIVE DIED IN AUTO CRASH

Friends here learned with regret of the sudden death of Susan Helen Robertson, 259 Cambridge St., Ottawa, a native of this area, which occurred on December 6th as a result of an auto accident.

Employed as a secretary in Ottawa for the past 13 years, she was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Norman Robertson of R. R. 1, Iroquois, and was born at Cornwall, October 8th, 1942. She had also resided for a time at Summerstown, and was a member of the United Church of Canada.

Besides her sorrowing parents, she is survived by five brothers: Richard of Ottawa; Neil of Saskatoon; Gerald, William and Hugh all of Iroquois; and four sisters: Carol of Toronto; Beatrice and June of Vancouver and Katherine of Iroquois.

Funeral service was held on December 9th at Iroquois with Rev. Brian Gee officiating.

Pall bearers were her five brothers and Mr. Neville Smart of Ottawa.

ONE TEACHER'S VIEW

Having recently read two articles in a local publication, I would like to take this opportunity to comment upon them.

These articles were entitled Pupil-Teacher Ratio Declines and Propose Teacher Aides. Under normal conditions, this would certainly be cause for joy and secret elation for the unassuming parent who consequently concludes that the quality of education of his child is improving, or at best, has reached its pinnacle.

I strongly question this, and I do so on the basis of the following facts:

1) As a teacher of a subject (French) which demands a small (20-25 would do) pupil - teacher ratio, (calculated by the number of student heads I can count in the classroom, and not by some nebulous, misleading stratagem which erroneously encluded one-eighth of a teaching staff which doesn't teach, in addition to two para-professionals) I find it, needless to say, rather demoralizing to have Board of Education officials tell the public that the PTR (Pupil-Teacher Ratio) is declining.

Well, that may be the case elsewhere, but such is not the situation for me, nor my Level One students, nor for their parents. The sad part is that some administrators openly state that "things will get worse before they get better."

One might think we were discussing something so insignificant as the weather.

2) My second point deals with the proposed teacher aides whose purpose it will be "to free teachers to provide more individual assistance to students".

Sound good!

I would be erroneous on my part to condemn such innovative practices, as these people probably could be of aid in certain subject areas. As far as can be foreseen in my subject area, what is needed is not a "teacher-aide" but an additional qualified French teacher. On the other hand, perhaps a teacher aide could be of use to me. Suppose I were to split my class straight down the middle and send the one-half to the nursery accompanied by the aide, in all likelihood, I would have the prescribed number of students with which I would work effectively.

In all fairness to the system, it must be stated that the PTR in the higher levels is acceptable, but for all practical purposes, it must be at the Level 1 level that the help and opportunity be given.

Williamsburg Student Wins $300 Award at Guelph College

Awards amounting to over $20,000 were presented during the '72 Ontario Agricultural College Awards night at the University of Guelph. "Our purpose here is scholarship with first class scholars and first class teachers," Dr. W.C. Winegard, President of the University, told the students and donors.

Mrs. G.E. Reaman, presents the G. Elmore Reaman Family Award in the amount of $300 to Peter Leyenaar of Williamsburg. The award is offered to a student on the basis of his academic standing over his first four semesters with equal weight given to participation in extracurricular, campus activities.

JUST OF INTEREST

Re: Cash Donations made in Morrisburg and surrounding Districts towards procuring a wheelchair and possibly an artificial leg of aluminum for African clergyman in Malawi, Central Africa.

The Rev. B.E. Malekebu, of the "Central Churches of Africa-Presbyterian", was appointed Moderator this year, to crown his great work among his people in the new Republic of Malawi, once known as British Nyasaland. He also met with real tragedy during the almost past year as well, for his left leg had to be amputated at the knee, after suffering agonising pain in his left foot for some time.

As his stipend is very poor, in this rather backward little country, the costs of the operation etc., were beyond his ability to pay, and he was forced to borrow. He is endeavouring to pay back the costs by very slow degrees, and so his need for (quote from his letter) "a little cart with two or three wheels" is extremely great. The Rev. Malekebu is a great believer in the power of prayer, and so his prayers together with those of his faithful elders and congregations and young and old alike, have been constant and patient.

When news of his predicament came to Mrs. Wellwood Adam in early September, she, too, was not afraid to ask for God's guidance and help, then she wrote and asked Mr. Malekebu to give her until Christmas, and for him to wait still patiently on the Lord. The Answer came, surely and

First, came willing and sympathetic cash donations from the Evening U.C.W. of Lakeshore Drive, then came along others from the Morrisburg community generally, and then came a wonderful $100 from Colquhoun U.C.W —altogether $350.00 have been raised. As Rev. Malekebu would and will say — "To God be all the glory!

A Bank draft was sent in sterling on December 7th to the African minister by registered air mail; one can imagine the relief, the gratitude, the heartfelt thanks giving to Almighty God when Mr. Malekebu receives it. This will include his little wife and family, not forgetting the Churches under his care.

Below is a short statement of cash donations:

September 1972	$102.00
October 1972	$118.00
November 1972	$117.00
November 1972 further donations	$ 13.00
Grand Total	$350.00

A statement in fuller detail can be supplied from Mrs. Wellwood Adam any time on request, including the Bank draft duplicate and P.O. receipt of registered air mail.

Who says that modern miracles are not equally as wonderful as those which happened in ancient days?

REPORT FROM QUEEN'S PARK

BY DON IRVINE
M.P.P. for Grenville - Dundas

Education and Colleges and Universities

Both the Minister of Education and the Minister of Colleges and Universities made announcements recently which will have a profound effect on the future of policy planning in the field of education. In a policy aimed at avoiding waste and duplication in school facilities, the Ministry of Education will not henceforth approve new school construction unless and until it can be showin that the need for new accommodation exists and is not available from another school board in the same geographic area. Mr. Wells hopes that public and separate school boards will consult each other as to any available accommodations. This doesn't in any way suggest that teachers and pupils share the same classrooms and would only apply to otherwise vacant space.

The Honourable Jack McNie, whose portfolio encompasses all post-secondary educational facilities in the province, made a similar announcement freezing capital expansion at the university and community college level. Between 1964 and the present the province has invested over one billion dollars in university and college building. The government will be studying changing enrolment trends and space inventories to match one to the other without further capital cost. This is not inconsistent with our continuing commitment to provide opportunities to all qualified students but the rationale is supported by the Report of the Committee on Costs of Education released on December 4. While it applies to elementary and secondary school levels the trends are essentially the same. Enrolment at the elementary level is now on the decrease after many years of dramatic growth. It is expected to decline by over 18,000 or 12.3 percent by 1980. Secondary school enrolment will peak in 1977 and decline thereafter to the 1973 level in 1981.

The point that both Mr. Wells and Mr. McNie are making is that our priorities in the years ahead have shifted from new building to better utilization of existing facilities.

Health Service

As many of my readers, no dobt, have already noted, the whole question of delivery of health services has recently come in for some critical airing in the legislature. The Minister of Health has repeatedly pointed out that one of the most pressing problems facing all provincial governments in Canada is the spiralling costs of health care. The Government this year will spend two billion dollars on our health plan. This is an increase of $200,000 over last year, which was in turn $200,000 more than the year before. We simply can't afford annual increases of 10 per cent in this or any other field. We have all heard examples of misuse and abuse of the system by both the public and the profession. The Ministry is, of course, taking steps to curb these abuses as they occur but this is not the major part of the problem. The most expensive aspect of health care is the capital cost and operating cost of active treatment hospitals. To operate these hospitals presently costs $80 per day per bed, a figure that is constantly rising. The fact is that except for a few areas, we have more than caught up with the demand for active treatment beds. Our priorities must shift to those areas of auviliary care such as chronic treatment and convalescent care where we still face shortages. We can't use active-treatment beds for this purpose. In some areas we have a duplication of facilities such as exist in the obstetrical units at Brockville General and St. Vincent Hospital. The maintenance of both where only one is necessary is wasteful and one was therefore shut down. If those beds in the obstetrical unit at St. Vincent's were converted to active treatment in other specialties we would be no further ahead.

The point we can't lose sight of is that there is no shortage of hospital beds in Brockville for this purpose. If they were converted to chronic care use which is far less expensive to maintain and operate then they will continue to be useful to the community.

Winter Works

The Hon. Charles MacNaughTreasurer of Ontario last week announced a $50 million Ontario Winter Works programme to operate through the municipalities in the next few months In my riding of Grenville-Dundas, a total of $49,659 has been allocated which will be distributed as follows:

Towns	Amount
Prescott	$7500
Kemptville	$2925
Cardinal	$2000
Merrickville	$2000
Chesterville	$2000
Iroquois	$2000
Morrisburg	$2105
Winchester	$2000
Townships
Augusta	$5625
Edwardsburgh	$3375
South Gower	$2000
Oxford	$2025
Wolford	$2000
Matilda	$3333
Mountain	$2637
Williamsburg	$3159
Winchester	$2975

The allotments have been arrived at on the basis $300 per welfare case load. This, by no means, represents the whole programme. The United Counties of Leeds and Grenville and the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry will receive $13,200 and $17,175 respectively. Additional allocation under the same programme for school boards will provide $33000 and $63,075 respectively for the United Counties.

SHARE YOUR BLESSINGS AT CHRISTMASTIME

Christmas can be a joyous time of year.

It can cause happy wonder to shine in the eyes of a little boy or girl. It can bring great joy into a child's life. It can awaken faith.

But unfortunately for some children, Christmas this year may be a disappointment. It may be looking in store windows at toys their parents can't afford to buy —or suffering for lack of adequate clothing — or simply experiencing a feeling of utter aloneness. ¼

This need not be; for The Salvation Army, on your behalf reaches out to such children and makes possible for them the thrill of opening gifts, the treat of enjoying a special holiday dinner, the warm feeling of wearing new clothes.

Yes, The Salvation Army knows many, many troubled people, both young and old. It tries to make Christmas happy and meaningful by providing friendship and material assistance for the less fortunate in communities — all across Canada—fathers who will spend this Christmas behind prison bars —for mothers whose children lie ill and cold in a substandard dwelling — for painridden hospitalized veterans — for needy youngsters who know little of comfort and joy.

The Salvation Army in Canada has been spreading joy and happiness at Christmastime for 90 years and it plans to keep on doing it.

Share YOUR blessings this Christmas.

Weekly Report

Wildlife and Forest Along Highway 401 66 6

The little oil burner in the gatehouse has been acting up lately, two minutes ago the post hole digger — a local farmer with a giant cockscrew affair on the back of his tractor — roared through the gate — Wilson just left after expanding at length about the new addition to his barn and three deer he just saw. Outside, a teenager is trying to control his hunting dog and the Hydro linemen are running a cable into the interpretive centre. And Roy Thompkins just stuck his head in the back door to say the "beaver have built another dam, higher up this time!"

For John Miller, the Conservation Officer in charge of the Gananoque Wildlife Area, it's a quiet day.

"You should be here Saturday. The office is full is full and there are two hundred outside with their dogs and all of them are swapping stories. They're worse than fishermen," he says with a slow grin.

"In the spring the school buses start pouring in, and this winter we should get the centre finished and the displays set up."

It's obvious he doesn't mind the work. But then the Gananoque Wildlife Area is a unique place — 1,000 acres of forest, swamp and rock outcrop right beside busy Highway 401 and in the middle of the Thousand Islands tourist region. But in the hills and valleys of the wildlife area, it's still quite possible to get lost for a while. It's not tame.

The area was established in 1963 and for the past couple of years has drawn hunters from as far away as Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa and up the valley from Pembroke.

The reason is simple. Here, small game hunters during the fall are provided with adequare hunting opportunities. Pheasants are released every evening for 43 days each year. The next day the first hundred hunters on a "first-ome-first served" basis are allowed in after registering, paying a $3 fee and leaving their regular hunting licence at the office. Hunting lasts from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Saturday and regulation bag limits are in effect.

But, that's not all. Each year more than 500 hunting dog enthusiasts and spectators gather for retriever trials at the area. Last year 200 Labradors, Golden Retrievers, Chesapeakes and other dogs were put through their paces. Besides this there's an ardent band of local dog owners who use the tract regularly for training in evenings and on weekends. The area, with 8 miles of road, is also open to hikers, horseback riders, snowshoers, and cross - country skiers in the off-season.

John Miller's real object of affection for the past year or so has been the new cedar shingled 24'x 48' interpretive centre built back in the trees near the area entrance. The glassed-in front opens into a huge main room where displays of stuffed birds, snakes, deer skeletons and scale models of proper habitat will be on view for the several thousand school children who annually visit from Kingston, Gananoque and other surrounding points. John, with a handful of local men hired on a winter works program put up the building last winter. Interior work including offices, walls and the decorative wooden beam work & panelling was completed this spring and summer. It still needs finishing touches before an opening day.

During hunting season the centre will be used for hunter education with displays about topics like wildlife management techniques, relation of flora and fauna in the area and species identification. It also provides a place for hunters to swap those stories and get to know one another.

It wopld be easy to say that the area is providing a somewhat "artificial" hunting environment if you didn't take the trouble to go back into the tract, climb one of the huge rock knolls and look out over the incredibly rough country stretching along and back from Highway 401. Or see some hunters going home empty-handed, but happy after a good day's work out with their dogs near their hometown. The area is also a boon to many of the region's plant workers whose shift work allows them hunting tim during some weekdays.

Eric Meadows, a hunter from Ottawa who frequently drives down with friends for a day, has been coming to Gananoque for two years.

"I don't go any other place. Here, I know the hunting is controlled, it's safe and I've at least got an outside chance of flushing a bird," he said.

Places like Ganaoque may be the answer for these sportsmen and their dogs. And for teachers any anyone else who would like a place to study wildlife outsire four walls.

Foods Can Weaken as Well as Build Teeth

Nutrition surveys have shown that many children are given too much sweet, sticky food.

The excessive use of such sweet foods — especially the sticky kind —helps promote tooth decay. They also dull the appetite for wholesome, protective foods.

Besides lacking in essential food value, sweet foods are generally expensive.

For between-meal snacks, children should be encouraged to eat nuts, popcorn, cheese, milk, vegetables, whole grain cereals, meat, eggs or unsweetened fruits instead of foods of higher sugar content.

At mealtime they should eat nourishing foods, such as suggested in Canada's Food Guide.

Teeth should be brushed immediately after eating or if unable to do so, rinsed with water.

See your dentist regularly.
